MANY ARE TAKING ADVANTAGE OF SPECIAL OFFER

Our special offer, which was made the first of the month is attracting many subscribers. Perhaps a score or more have already taken advantage of the very special price we are making for the next thirty days.

Not only are new subscriptions coming in on the special offer but many of those that are in arrears or old subscribers are paying their $1.50 and having their subscription moved up for 13 and one half months.

The Briscoe County News is your own county paper and it is here to stay. The heavy investment made here is a guarantee of the later fact. You should not try to get along with-out your county paper and you should see that your subscription is paid for in advance.

You will never have a better time than now to pay up your subscription for as soon as the special offer is up, the regular price of $2.00 per year will be charged. A special drive is being made at this time to get everybody to read the News. Tell your neighbor about it.

COTTON MARKET IN LINE NOW IT IS THOUGHT

During the past three weeks the cotton market has been very unsettled, especially on the cotton classing below middling, and parties in some of the neighboring towns have been paying a high price regardless of the circumstances, which is all right if the market will hold its own even ten days at a time, otherwise it seems that the buyers report losses. In some instances farmers have reported getting two cents more per pound than they were offered here, however, this seems to be a thing of the past as more buyers are on the local grounds and the neighboring towns have weakened considerably. A News reporter was informed that a gin owner had ginned a nice quantity of cotton and had not only lost his profit in ginning but had lost more than that in a "bucking" deal by buying the staple.

In Plainview yesterday the street buyers were only offering about fifteen cents per pound and many farmers were taking their cotton home with them.

The business people of Silvertown are anxious that top prices be paid the farmers for their cotton and it is said that they expect to see that it brings top market price. The local gins are also interested in seeing the cotton bring all the market will afford.

DR. ROBINSON IS NOW PRESIDING ELDER OF DISTRICT

Dr. Ernest E. Robinson, "wheelhorse of Northwestern Methodism," is going back to Plainview as presiding elder. The bishop so shaped his destiny for another year at the Canyon conference Sunday night.

Efficient, magnetic, circumspect the veteran warrior of the Cross, known to almost all districts of the conference for his long tenure as a presiding elder, has just closed a three-year residence on the Lubbock district during which magical progress has been made. In this day of slow progress for ecclesiastical machinery, the wheels of the church at Lubbock and environs have rotated with a whirr. During those three years the Lubbock district built thirty-one new churches and eleven preachers' domiciles, and the membership has practically doubled. Now a new church for Lubbock city, to be officially known as Seventeenth Street, is being reared, and still another at Leveland. Twenty-five hundred persons have been added and 1,300 conversions recorded. Around $200,000 has been raised for all

UNCLE JOHNNIE HEALD APPOINTED SPECIAL DOG KILLER BY CITY MARSHAL

Uncle Johnnie Heald has been appointed special dog killer by City Marshal, M. C. Potter. Stray dogs became a nuisance around Mr. Heald's place and he appealed to the city for relief. Mr. Potter authorized Mr. Heald to kill the offending canines and friends prepared a huge silver star as Mr. Heald's badge of authority. How well Mr. Heald is filling the position is proved by the fact that four worthless curs have already met death at the point of Mr. Heald's trusty shot gun.

MR. AND MRS. G. W. POSTEN CELEBRATE 50th ANNIVERSARY

When G. W. Posten and Miss C. P. Davis selected Nov. 11 as their wedding date they did not realize that this was to be one of the most significant dates in history for they selected it 50 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Posten celebrated their golden wedding anniversary here on that date by inviting in a number of friends and relatives. Mr. Posten was born Oct. 15, 1850 in Fayette county, Ga. and Mrs. Posten was born Oct. 24, 1858 in Randolph, Alabama. They were married Nov. 11, 1875, moving to Forney, Texas in 1903. They moved to Sweetwater in 1908, to Blackwell in 1916 and to Silvertown in 1918. Thirteen children were born to them, three boys and three girls still living.

Those present at the celebration were: A. P. Donnell and wife, T. L. Strange and wife, C. C. Moore and wife, J. E. Rodgers and wife, Rev. W. M. Draper and wife, R. Sedgwick and wife, Mesdames Witherspoon, Money, Fogerson, Smithee, Pearl Simpson, Cox and Buchanan, and Raymond Posten.

The News joins with their host of friends in wishing them many more years of happy married life.

MRS. J. H. McCLENDON RETURNS FROM 3 MONTHS VISIT IN MONTANA

Mrs. J. H. McCleendon returned last week from a three and one half months visit in Montana. She visited her two daughters, Mrs. John Foley and Mrs. Andrew Payne there, spending considerable time in Hindsdale, Mont. Mrs. McCleendon is a pioneer of Briscoe County and says that she didn't see any land that she wanted to trade her Briscoe County holdings for. There were eight snow storms during October where she was and when she left the mercury stood at eight below zero.

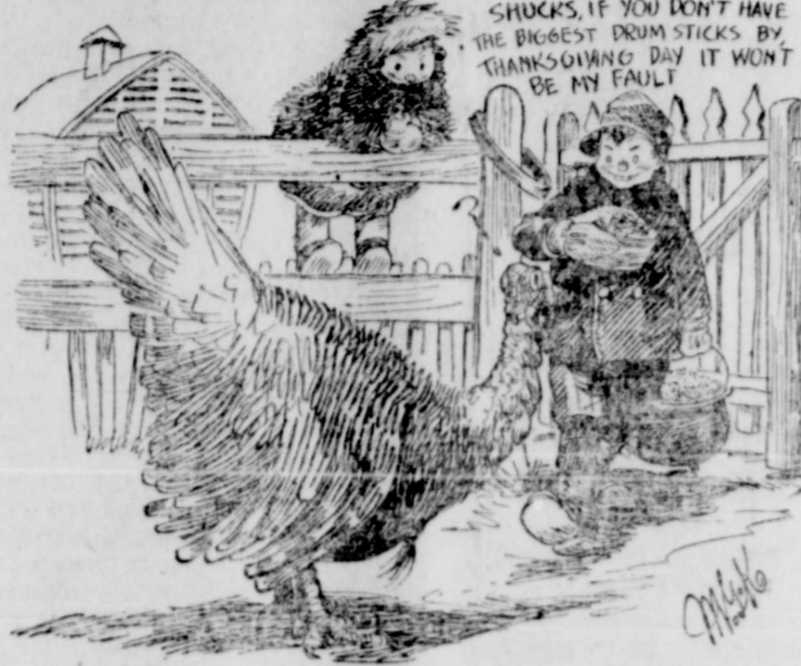

Mrs. McCleendon returned via St. Paul, Minn. and Kansas City, Mo., and said that she was terribly disappointed that she did not get to return all the way on a railroad, as she had been assured by the editor, and others that if she would go away and stay three months that the railroad would be completed upon her return.

CHESTER SKEEN ENTERS CONTRACTING BUSINESS IN WESTERN FLORIDA

Chester W. Skeen, son of Mrs. Ples Skeen and prominent in the young peoples affairs in Silvertown left today for Punta Gorda, Florida, where he will enter the contracting business with his brother-in-law, C. W. Byers. Mr. Byers is a civil engineer of note and has had much and varied experience in the contracting business, which together with Chester's energies and talent should make a winning combination. Mr. Byers had been in Silvertown a few days visiting with home folks.

Dr. Robinson previously served the Plainview district, where he has hundreds of friends who welcomed the news of his return. For some time he served Polk Street, Amarillo, and the district as presiding elder.

LOVE FEAST AND APPOINTMENTS CLOSE METHODIST EVENT

(By Hamilton Wright)

From Amarillo Daily News. Canyon, Texas, Nov. 16—An old-fashioned Methodist love-feast, a stirring sermon by Bishop Dickey, an impressive memorial service over fallen heroes of the Cross, an inspirational sermon by Dr. J. H. Hicks of Southern Methodist University, and the reading of the appointments of the ministers for the ensuing year—these were the outstanding features of an all-day program which concluded the final sessions of the Northwest Texas Conference here Sunday.

Amorous throngs composed of Canyon, Amarillo and rural Methodists jammed the new $65,000 church throughout the day, reaching its crescendo at the night hour when the conference members sat with fevered pulse and attentive mien listening to the bishop's reading of their assignments for another year. At the evening hour the congregation came so unwieldy and cumbersome that it packed all the foyers, halls and Sunday School rooms making it necessary to read the list of appointments in both the auditorium and in a large assembly hall in the rear. While Bishop Dickey rapidly read from the list in the auditorium a newspaper man impressed into the "bishopric service" spoke off the same list to an eager assembly of ministers and laymen.

The Methodist Love Feast at the 9 o'clock hour packed the auditorium. From time immemorial these services have featured annual conferences being the dynamo of inspiration.

An hour before the night service began even standing room in the big auditorium had been taken. The doors were festooned with faces, the choir stand was packed, balcony burdened with humanity, and hundreds stood in halls, sat in Sunday School rooms and congregated elsewhere out of range of the voices of Bishop Dickey and Rev. J. H. Hicks—all bent upon hearing the reading of the assignments of preachers for the ensuing year.

Dr. Hicks, who delivered the sermon, seemed at his best. His sermon scintillated with aspirational utterances, and the audience leaned forward to catch every word.

Following the sermon, Bishop Dickey called to the bar of the conference ministers who had been elected to elders orders. The beautiful Methodist ritual was read and the ministers ordained with the imposition of the hands of the bishop. At the morning session Bishop Dickey ordained many ministers to deacon's orders.

Those ordained elders were: H. W. Barnett, John R. Bright, William U. Coughran, Elmer D. Landreth, C. B. Thompson and David H. Munson.

Those ordained to deacon's order were: John B. Hibbert,

Hawley; Joseph Bennntonn Ma-Hawley; Joseph Bennntonn Ma-ee, Southland; John Pickens Cole, Dumant; Charles J. Marts, Truscott; James M. Moody, Abilene; Finis R. Pickens, Seminole; J. E. Walker, Bovina; H. G. Walton, Clarendon; and Grady W. Anderson, Tell.

A final session of the cabinet composed of Bishop Dickey and the eight presiding elders, was held at 5 o'clock in the afternoon at which twelfth-hour changes were made in the 1925-26 ministerial placement list.

After the sermon by Dr. Hicks Bishop Dickey read out the appointments in the auditorium while a newspaperman was honored with the responsibility of communicating the information to a large overflow audience that had been assembled in a Sunday School room in the rear.

Important Changes Made

Many important changes were made in the line-up this year. In the Panhandle there were some important changes. Dr. D. B. Doak, who has served St. John's Church at Stamford two years, was given an eldership by the Bishop. He was assigned to the presiding eldership of the Lubbock district, succeeding Dr. Ernest E. Robinson, who was sent to Plainview to serve that district in a similar capacity. Dr. Robinson succeeds Rev. G. S. Hardy, who was transferred to the Sweetwater district as presiding elder to succeed Rev. R. A. Stewart who becomes pastor of St. John's Methodist Church at Stamford.

Noteworthy is the change in the geographical boundaries. Hereford, formerly in the Plainview district, has been attached to the Amarillo district; while McAdoo, formerly in the Lubbock district went to the Stamford district.

Mass Meeting Endorses Denver but Committee does Nothing

LITTLE DORIS GOURLEY PAINFULLY HURT IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

Little Doris Gourley, two and one half year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Gourley was painfully hurt Monday evening when she was thrown into the windshield of the Gourley car. Mrs. Gourley was driving and in crossing the school ground the axle of the car struck the stump of the old flag pole. The impact threw the car backward several feet and Doris who was standing in the seat was hurled into the windshield breaking it and receiving severe cuts about the left eye. At first it was thought that her eye would be lost as it bled profusely and there were deep gashes on three sides of it but after the bleeding was stopped it was found that the eye ball had not been injured. She is reported to be getting along nicely.

L. G. STARK IS KILLED WHEN TEAM RUNS AWAY

L. G. Stark, 64 years old, who lived and owned considerable land 14 miles southwest of Silvertown, was killed last Saturday afternoon about 2 o'clock when the team which he was driving to a tandem disc harrow, ran away. His son, Barney, who was in a neighboring field, saw the runaway but Mr. Stark was dead when he reached him. One leg was completely severed and he received bruises about his head that proved fatal.

Mr. Stark came to this country about 20 years ago from Sherman and had been considered one of the most successful small ranchmen of high grade cattle. He was more experienced at handling cattle than he was at plowing, it being said that this was the first year that he had actively engaged in tilling the soil. He was putting in 400 acres of wheat at the time of the accident.

Mr. Stark is survived by a wife and eight children all of whom were at the funeral which was held in Silvertown Monday afternoon at the Christian church. Entombment was in the Silvertown cemetery. He was a cousin of J. L. Francis and related to Orin Stark, Quitague banker.

F. A. WILSON GOES TO TEXLINE; W. L. JENKINS RETURNS HERE

F. A. Wilson, who had been pastor of the Methodist Church here for the past year left early Thursday morning for Texline where he has been sent as pastor. The annual conference at Canyon last week, W. L. Jenkins was selected to return to Silvertown, he having been pastor here two years ago.

Although the majority of the church members seem to regret the fact that Rev. Wilson is not returning, they are well pleased that Bro. Jenkins is being sent as he is well and favorably known here. He, with his family, is expected to arrive in Silvertown Friday and will conduct the services Sunday.

CONTRACT LET ON NEW HAYLAKE SCHOOL

A contract was let Saturday to J. R. Guest for the building of the new Haylake school. This will replace the structure which was burned last spring. The material contract was let to Willson & Son Lumber Company. The building of the school house was delayed several months on account of the bonds which were voted originally being declared illegal by the Attorney General. New bonds were voted and it is thought that the Attorney General will give his final O.K. in a very few days.

At the harmonious, if not overly enthusiastic mass meeting held last Thursday night in the district court room, the large crowd which was there voted unanimously to endorse the signing of a contract with the Ft. Worth & Denver and that active steps be taken toward meeting the conditions of the contract.

J. A. Bain, who is chairman of the general railroad committee presided and Miner Crawford acted as secretary of the meeting. D. M. Morgan pointed out the necessity for quick action on the proposition and W. E. Schott spoke favoring the Denver above the other proposed roads.

John Burson was in attendance and was one of the chief speakers. He said he was in favor of going into a contract with the Denver and said that it should have been done sometime ago. He said there was no worry about Silvertown getting two roads but the signing of two contracts would strengthen the chances of getting one of them. While there had been some talk of insisting that the Denver bring their through line into Silvertown, Mr. Burson said that he favored taking what we could get and that he believed that if the Denver was given a permit by the I. C. C. it would be for the line from Estelline to Plainview only and that they would not be given the permit to build the Lubbock-Silvertown branch. Then would be the time he said, to try to get them to bring the main line through here, and he thought the effort would be successful.

The chair was instructed to appoint a committee of three which should in turn appoint a large committee which should formulate a plan to get the contract with the Denver signed. John Burson, D. M. Morgan and W. E. Schott were appointed and after retiring a few minutes announced the other members of the committee which included Fred Lemmons, John Fort, W. M. Wood, Dan Montague, John Burson, W. E. Schott and D. M. Morgan. A meeting of the committee was announced for Friday afternoon at three o'clock and another mass meeting was announced for Saturday afternoon at which time the committee was to make their recommendations. However for some reason or other the committee has failed to make a report.

SCHOOL FUND GETS BIG BOOST FROM ENTERTAINMENT

The school fund which is being raised to defray the expenses of the judging teams of the vocational agricultural and home economics classes to Austin and College Station in the early Spring received a big boost last Friday night by the program which was held at the school house under the direction of Prof. W. M. Gourley.

Preceding the musical program by the Silvertown orchestra, Prof. Gourley gave a lantern slide lecture on "Making Farm Poultry Pay." This lecture was made interesting and profitable by the many clear cut illustrations and Mr. Gourley's graphic discourse.

C. J. Witherspoon acted as auctioneer during the "Sock Social" part of the program and $34.60 was realized from sale of same.

The beauty contest proved the most profitable of the various features as the competition between the class favorites was keen.

Marion Breaker, senior class beauty was finally awarded the prize box of candy with a vote of 3,269 with Jeane Jackson, a junior crowding her for a close second with 3,209 votes. Amy Burson sophomore, received 797 votes. The total realized from the beauty contest was $72.75.

If the Texas Utilities Company keeps their promise with us on the electrical service it will not be any too soon. The "service" we have not been getting lately is most discouraging.

Who ever started the street grading program in Silverton made a good start but they quit before they finished the job. Something ought to be done at the crossings. They are practically impassable the way they are now.

A man needs all the religion he has to get out a newspaper using a contrary gas engine for motive power for his linotype and presses. The News is a little late this week due to engine trouble and a few other things.

The cotton buyers have "perked up" a bit this week when they found that farmers were taking their cotton to neighboring towns for a better market. Silverton should buy all the cotton that is produced in the trade territory and see that the farmer gets all it is worth.

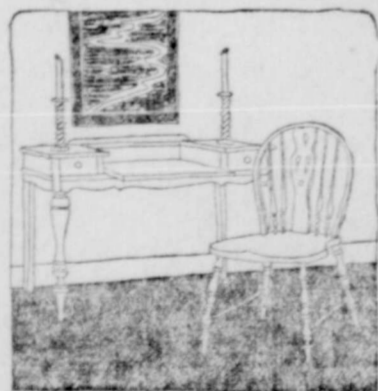

Singing a contract with the Denver is good business. Competition is what it take to give Silverton a railroad. If the Santa Fe and the Denver should both get permits to build we would not only get quicker action but we will get better service.

Silverton has a winning foot ball team. The determination and will power the boys display is an inspiration. They have played some of the strongest teams in this district and every team they have played has out weighed them. They have only lost one game and that right at the first of the season. In a recent game they won despite the fact that the opposing team used tactics that are not permissible in the rule book. Let's not only brag on the foot ball boys but let's support them in every way possible.

Teaching Them Rules of Traffic

In Chicago the number of children killed or injured by motor vehicles in the course of a year is shocking. The little ones in one kindergarten are being taught the rules of traffic through a "stop and go" game devised by their teacher and thus are better equipped to protect themselves.

Sleeves are the plaything of fashion his season. The couturier, likewise the home seamstress gifted with an excess of ideas, finds in the sleeve opportunity to express to the world their creative genius.

Most of the pleasing eccentricities which take place on the new sleeves are, no doubt, a result of the endeavor to carry out the command issued from fashion headquarters that there must be fullness in the long sleeve between the elbow and the wrist.

One of the most popular types is the jarrel sleeve, its name is self-descriptive. A clever way to remodel a tight-fitting sleeve is to insert godets below the elbow and then full in to the wristband.

The picture tells us that a tier of three hemstitched boudinches placed on the top of the bodice gives a stylish appearance.

MUST HAVE LIGHT CERTIFICATE BEFORE SECURING NEW CAR LICENSE

The attention of all owners of motor vehicles and motorcycles is called to the following provision of the Texas Automobile Headlight Law.

"Section 16. Before any county tax collector shall issue a certificate of registration to the owner of a motor vehicle or motorcycle as now provided by law, he shall require the presentation of a certificate showing that the headlights of such motor vehicle have been tested and adjusted at some one of the county test stations referred to, and that said test and adjustment have been made within the 30 day period just preceding the date of application for registration."

Since headlamps must be adjusted within thirty days of the date of registration of the cars, approximately two months will be available for the pre-registration tests. Considering extreme cases, for example, if a car is registered on January 1st, the owner will have had thirty days in which to have the headlights adjusted, and if a registration is made on January 31, practically the whole month of January will have been available. In other words, the certificate of adjustment must be over thirty days old at the time the car is registered. Of course most motorists will have their headlights adjusted about the time of registration.

Motorists are requested to begin registration at the earliest possible moment and not wait until the later part of January. Early registration will help the tax collector tremendously, and will save time for the motorist. The regular registration period will begin in this county about December 15, 1925 and will extend through January 1926.

A Single Ride Explains Its Popularity

A single ride proves why the Chrysler Four justly merits the tremendous popularity it has built up in a few short months. In sustained high speeds—inliability of power—in economy—in durability and in freedom from mechanical attention which result from high quality of design, materials and workmanship—in ease of handling—and most emphatically in riding steadiness and comfort—the Chrysler Four gives results not found combined in cars of any type even beyond it in price.

As distinctive as its performance is a beauty so advanced that popular desire sweeps towards it inevitably.

Let us prove by a demonstration why the Chrysler is the Favored Four among tens of thousands of owners.

CULLING YOUR FARM FLOCK

All experienced poultrymen agree that culling out the poor producers in your flock is sound business, if you expect any profit from egg production. This can be done in many different ways. The most effective method of culling is by the trap-nest method. In this case you know exactly the production of your hens during a given period of the time. This method however can only be used by the poultry breeder who is running a commercial poultry farm. It is not recommended for the average farm because of the time involved in keeping these records. Then the next best method is the Hogan test which is fairly accurate and enough so to justify its use. During the past 6 years I have culled between 12,000 and 15,000 hens and believe the practice was profitable in most all cases. I have checked with Produce Houses who bought the culls, fattened and shipped them out after holding several days in many cases and they report few if any eggs at all from the culls. I do not make this statement to show that my method of culling was successful, but to show that the public can by this method eliminate many poor hens from their home flocks. Some people will argue that one hen is just as good as another and if you will just feed them all the corn they will eat they will lay an egg every day. Some folks actually believe this. However there has never been a single case where an official record was kept in the egg laying contests where a hen laid every day during an entire year. The highest official record for a year is 345 eggs. If you say that all hens have the same amount of laying qualities then you might as well say that all cows give the same amount of milk when fed alike. Of course all these are not based on facts but on personal opinions.
So if culling eliminates the poor hens, it would be a good practice to do this work at this season of the year.

A Bit of a Wag.

A doctor who posed as a bit of a wag stopped outside the yard of a stonemason one morning for a chat. "Good morning. How's business?" said the doctor. "I suppose when you hear that some one is ill, you get ready for eventualities, though, of course, you never go beyond the words 'In Memory of.'" "Well, that all depends," replied the old chap. "You see, if you be a-doctoring of the patient, I goes straight on."—Toronto Globe.

A lady recently telephones to a well known water works superintendent in a Western City, where, due to the drought, warnings had been issued against waste of water. This lady desired to sprinkle her lawn, but before doing so she thought best to get permission from the water works department.

That is the proper time to put on my hose?" she asked the superintendent in a very sweet voice. Before he realized what he was saying, the superintendent replied: "Immediately after your B. V. D's."

A contest recently was conducted by a soap and perfume manufacturer for an advertising slogan and among the slogans submitted was the following:

"If you don't use soap, for Heaven's sake use our perfume."

Prue—Her lawyer tells her she hasn't grounds for divorce.

Sue—What nonsense! She has a husband, hasn't she?

Kind Lady—What causes the little girl's tears, me lad?

Jackie—Aw, she's got her heart set on a church wedding, and I won't stand for it.—Punch Bowl.

Rather.

"The average flapper has to look at herself every ten minutes."

"At least she receives no startling jars. Usually she looks rather well."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

In Lieu of Napkin.

Mother—Oh, Bessie, why do you wipe your mouth with the back of your hand?

Bessie—Cos it's much cleaner than the front.—Boston Transcript.

In That Sense.

Mother—Is that apple Willie is eating ripe?

Father—Ripe for mischief—it's green.—Boston Transcript.

Bill—Does Peggy lip?

Milly—No. Why?

Bill—I heard her say that they were going to have booths at the party.—Colgate Banter.

"Darling," he cried, falling on his knees and covering her little white hands with kisses, "can't you see that I love you?"

She drew herself up to her full height. "Well," she said, "I should hate to think this was just your natural way of behaving in company."—Harvard Lampoon.

The Floorwalker.

I do not wear a cutaway, Nor do I bow and scrape To ladies anxious to exchange A yard of wool or crepe.

I do not jump when sales girls call "Please come here, Mr. Snore." In fact, I do not even work. At a department store.

But I'm a floorwalker just the same Since our darling little baby came. —Geo. Bancroft in Judge.

"I think Salome's dance before Herod lacked originality."

"Why?"

"It was just a take off from start to finish."—Wampus.

Applesauce.

"Yours is a case of mistaken identity," she said coldly.

"What do you mean?" he demanded.

"Why you poor prune, you think you are a peach when you're nothing but a lemon."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Strange Props.

Carrying his luggage and his golf clubs, he climbed into an ancient hack and told the driver an old dinky, to take him to the local hotel. The colored man eyed the queer-looking bag with its queer sticks. Finally his curiosity got the better of him.

"Boss," he began, "please, uh, excuse me, but mout I ax you a question?"

"Go a head and ask," said the passenger.

"What kind of a lodge is you instituting?"—American Golfer.

Quick Choice.

It was a tank town at which the stranger descended.

"What hotel, sir," asked the charloter or cabby.

"What hotels have you?"

"The Grand Kazique, the Hotel Gorgeous and Skeet's Tavern."

"Haul me to Skeet's Tavern, I prithee," directed the traveler, who knew tank towns.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Deleted.

"I never hear any more wild stories about Maizie."

"No, she married her press agent."—Texas Ranger.

More Fire.

Waiter—Yes, sir, we're very up to date. Everything here is cooked by electricity.

Diner—I wonder if you would mind giving this steak another shock.—Acton Leader.

Equivocal.

"How is this? You have had three positions and have no testimonials!"

"Well, you see, I stayed in each place until my employers died."—Pete Mele, Paris.

Making Sure.

Him—Haven't we met before?
Her—Kiss me and I'll see.—Life.

Preferred Subtraction.

From Kasper, Stockholm.

"I demand a year's imprisonment for the accused."

"Have you anything to add, accused?"

"No. I would rather subtract."

There's Little Difference.

At a chateau where he was recently a guest a certain Parisian who does not approve of the boyish appearance of the modern young girl was approached by a lady guest.

"You have two children, I believe, monsieur," said she. "Are they boys or girls?"

"Madame," said he earnestly, "I do not know. In 1920 I had a boy of 12 and a girl of 14. But now I am not sure. I believe they are both boys."

At all events, I assure you that it is quite impossible for me to tell which is the boy and which is the girl."—Le Figaro, Paris.

Freeing the Insects.

From the North China Herald.

The beautiful and picturesque festival of the "freeing of the insects" was held recently in Japan in various places where old-time customs linger.

Singing insects are dear to the hearts of the Japanese and their songs are clearest and most beautiful in the early autumn. The people believe that their songs are enriched by the gift of liberty, and so in cool glens and grassy spots gather old and young, who have brought from their homes and shops where they can be specially bought for this ceremony different singing insects. They open the cages and let them go free, then listen for their ensuing burst of song.

A college freshman, who some day no doubt will be known as one of the wise men of the ages, recently in an examination paper gave the following definition:

"A man is a being that can see a pretty ankle three blocks away while driving a motor car in crowded city streets, but cannot see, while crossing a railroad track in wide open country, the approach of a locomotive the size of a school house and accompanied by a flock of forty box cars."

The traffic cop he did not heed, He raced ahead pell-mell, So the doctor told the sexton And the sexton tolled the bell.

In deep dismay, the woodpecker wept,

As the shades of evening stole, He had pecked and pecked and pecked all day, At a concrete telegraph pole.

Following Instructions.

From Nagels Lustige Welt, Berlin.

Lady—Did your mother send any message with this birthday bouquet?

Boy—No. She only said that I was not to ask for a piece of cake but wait until you asked me to have one.

Had His Doubts.

Willie. Hello! Why are you standin' here in front of the office you got fired from last week? Waitin' to get taken back?

Jimmie. Not much! I just wanted to see if they was still in business.—Kansas City Star.

The meaning of the word "collision" was being explained by the teacher to a class of small boys and girls.

"A collision," she said, "is when two things come together unexpectedly. Now some one give me an example."

Immediately a little boy jumped to his feet and answered:

"Twins."

The Eye-Witnesses.

"I note," said the elderly gentleman, on his semi-annual visit to the city, "that the women are wearing two sets of garments, one of which evidently holds up their stockings while the other pair hold up traffic."—Life.

A couple of farmers had been leisurely bargaining for a cow for over an hour. Finally the prospective buyer came to the point.

"How much milk does she give?" he asked.

"Wal, I don't rightly know," replied the owner, "but she is a darn good natured critter and she'll give all she can."

Reassured.

From the Argonaut.

A Brooklyn, N. Y., man recently advertised the loss of a purse. Two days later there came the following kindly response in the columns of the same newspaper: "Party that lost purse containing $900 need worry no longer; it has been found."

Numbers to Forget.

A married couple were knocked down by a motor car. The car dashed away. The police arrived and found the couple bursting with indignation.

"Do you know the number of the car?" asked the policeman.

"Yes," replied the husband; "by a strange coincidence the first two numbers formed my age and the second two the age of my wife."

"John," said the wife, "we will let the matter drop at once."—San Francisco Chronicle.

Too Wise.

From Lustige Blaetter, Berlin.

Fritz comes weeping home from school.

"What's the matter?" asked his mamma.

"Teacher gave me a beating."

"What for?"

"Because I was the only one in the class who could answer his question."

"What was the question?"

"It was 'Who put this frog in my ink well?'"

Thanksgiving

It is only a week until Thanksgiving, and many, and diversified are the ways the happy day will be spent. Many are going to the old homes. Many have their children coming home and many will be entertaining their friends. The task of preparing the Thanksgiving dinner at the present time is very different to the old days, there are so many things that can be bought ready prepared. Where it took weeks years ago it now only takes hours. Many things on the present day menu can be prepared the day before, allowing the hostess to enjoy the day and not have to spend all her time in the kitchen.

Menu
Oysters on the Half-shell, Ripe Olives.
Roast Turkey.
Giblet sauce-Cranberry jelly.
Mashed potatoes, Hot slaw.
Sweet corn, creamed onions.
Spiced Peaches.
Apple, Almond and Celery Salad.
Plum Pudding, or Pumpkin Pie whipped cream.
Chocolate Ice Cream with Marshmallow Sauce and Macaroons.
Cheese - Coffee.

For those who give gifts on Thanksgiving.

A lovely box of candy is always appropriate.

Hose are a very acceptable gift.

For the sweetheart, sister or friend, stationary is a dainty gift to offer.

Perfume powder or lip-stick is something most every female uses.

S. H. S. Wins Double Header

Monday afternoon the Tulia Boys and girls came and played us basket ball and also foot ball. Our girls out played the visitors the first half, but Tulia made a better showing in the last half, the game ended in our favor seventeen to sixteen.

Our boys out played the Tulia Boys all through the game and it was ended in our favor, thirteen to six. Our boys have lost only one game so far and we hope we can say that at the close of the season.

MISS CHERRY BLOSSOM

Parent - Teachers Ass'n.

The P. T. A. met at the high school building last Thursday afternoon at four o'clock.

As there was quite a bit of business to come up before the meeting the program was postponed until the next meeting.

At this meeting it was decided to get to work at once and see what can be done about building sidewalks and some crossings so that it will be possible to reach the school building without wading in mud.

Another thing the P. T. A. is planning to do is to repair the light plant. It is impossible to use the lights in the condition they are now in. This is a very important step to be taken by the P. T. A.

Still another project the P. T. A. is undertaking this year is the beautifying of the school grounds. Mr. Gourley, Judge Wright and others gave very enthusiastic talks pertaining to this work. It was finally decided to make Arbor Day, Feb. 27 a holiday, and every one meet at the school building and set out trees around the campus. Let every one remember this date and be ready to bring some trees and help set them out. Mr. Gourley is planning for his classes in agriculture to help in the work both in making side walks and setting out the trees.

A vote was cast to federate our local organization with the national association.

This will enable us to do more effective work.

Let every one come and take a hand in putting over these projects.

Senior Class Notes

91 big-car features come to you with this superlative light car

for only $595

Here are a few of them—

A Handsome Car Indeed

—rakash, low—plenty of room in it—unequaled in comfort for driver and passengers—body finished in polished lacquer, a rich deep blue with glistening jet-black trimmings.

Wider Seats

—widest of any light car built—new, single-piece, undivided front seat, 39 inches wide, 19 inches deep, wider back seat, 45 inches wide, 18 inches deep—You know what that means to your driving comfort and freedom.

And Big Wide Windows

—more than 20 square feet of window space—all the air and all the broad, uninterrupted vision of a touring car with closed-car protection.

Extra Wide Doors Too

—easy entrance and exit to both front and rear seats. No discomfort to anybody getting in or out. Each door has four extra-heavy hinges. Use them as roughly as you like.

Very Latest One-Piece Windshield

—especially valuable in night driving. Gives clear, unobstructed vision. No neck craning. Sit serenely back of the wheel and you can always see where you are going.

And New Cowl Ventilator

—a comfort any late model big car gives, new in the light car.

Rythmical Riding

—a light-car comfort unknown until introduced by Overland. TRIPLEX SPRINGS, a patented and exclusive Overland feature, gives you 130 inches of spring-supported area on a 100 inch wheelbase. No jolts. No jars. No shock even on the roughest roads. That extra 30 inches of spring-support carries you and your passengers buoyantly, in cradle-comfort. On Triplex Springs you ride rythmically—you enjoy a doubly and trebly smoother riding-ease than is possible with any other light car. Exclusive with Overland, because patented. No other car, big or little, has or ever can have them.

Then add to all these things a 27 horsepower engine, fast, sturdy, reliable—with plenty of power —You take a stiff up-grade in this car like you were coasting down the other side. Big-car construction, too, from stem to stern. Three speed, selective sliding gear transmission—Borg and Beck Disc Type Clutch. Auto-Lite starting, lighting and ignition—a wonderful rear axle system—Axle shafts of Molybdenum steel—Springs of Chrome Vanadium Steel—A chassis of remarkable strength, a sturdy, rigid frame with lots of bracing—only 27 points to lubricate on the entire chassis against 35 to 60 in other cars—in what other car can you hope to get a set-up as fine as this for $595 or even two or three hundred dollars higher?

Baptists Adopt Budget System

The Baptist Church of Silverton under the direction of pastor W. M. Draper, has adopted the budget and envelop system of church financing. The system went into effect the first Sunday in this month and has been pronounced a decided success.

With no solicitation 50% of the membership have already signed cards and are using the envelopes which is said to be a record for this short time. All the finances of the church including pastor's salary, missions and all local and denominational expenses are taken care of by the envelop system and special collections and pledges will be done away with as soon as the system is in full operation. Rev. Draper says that there are about a dozen members of the church in the "Tithing Band" and they expect to add a number more during the next few weeks.

Turkey! Turkey!
Who's got the Turkey?
Meanest Man in Town-Maybe.
Is there a "Meanest Man in Town" in Silverton? Pastor W. M. Draper thinks perhaps there may be.

One of the Baptist brethren presented the preacher with a turkey so that Thanksgiving might be suitably celebrated at the parsonage. Mr. Gobble seemed to make himself at home and was waxing fat for the feast when one day last week he came up missing. Now preachers have pretty good eyes for turkeys and this preacher thinks he knows where his turkey is and he hopes that someone's conscience will hurt them and that the turkey will be returned.

Perfume

One of the best methods for extracting the perfume of flowers is to place the flowers upon pure cold lard held upon glass plates mounted in wooden frames. New flowers are added daily until the lard is saturated. Dissolving the lard with alcohol, an evaporation process follows and the flower perfume remains. Violet perfume so produced is worth about $1,400 an ounce.

HEROES FOR A DAY

By THOMAS ARKLE CLARK
Dean of Men, University of Illinois.

"FOR three years," writes a newspaper friend of mine, "the football star is important; after that he is spoken of as a man who was a football star once. And the fact that he was a football star once helps him not in the least to get along in any business that he takes up."

"After the hero days are passed which they do quickly, there is nothing left but 'sorrow's crown of sorrow.'"

I have found it so, and I have seen a good many heroes in my time of one sort or another. Heroism is seldom attained except through struggle, through sacrifice, through contest with something or somebody, and the results of these things are not negligible or useless no matter what sort of work mental or physical into which the hero, even though he be a youthful amateur, may go later.

The physical hero does not climb to his pedestal by physical effort only. He must fight in the face of defeat, he must develop poise and self-control and alertness of mind and quickness of judgment, and these are qualities of mind which will serve him not only in sports but in the game of life which he must take up after he leaves college.

As I have followed these youthful heroes after they have left the scenes of their physical triumphs, I have not been surprised to find that in a large majority of cases the qualities which helped them in college to become physical heroes were pretty largely responsible in later years in helping them to business and professional success. That they do in a majority of cases attain this success I believe statistics will easily demonstrate.

I knew Morton, though this isn't his real name, before he entered high school, and I knew him intimately throughout his high school and college course. He did not have a quick mind, but he had a good body and a determined will. He wanted to have a trained mind and a trained body, and in the training of his body he wanted to be a good runner.

He went at it systematically, willing to give up everything necessary to attain his ends. He was mediocre at first, but he kept on. He practiced regularly and intelligently. Defeat never discouraged him, and ultimately he became the best amateur runner in the Middle West.

He was a great hero and he has carried this hero business into the work which he took up when he left college. He did not get on rapidly at first, but he stuck to it. The same spirit, the same courage, the same persistency which had made him an outstanding athlete, has made him a power in the organization of which for a good many years he has been a part. The fact that he was a hero in college is helping him every day in his life to be a hero in business.

If a man has been a hero once he will always have in him something of the qualities which make for heroism, no matter where he goes or what he does.
