Owls Take Kress Into Camp, 12-0

Carr and McClendon Put the Game On Ice Early with Two Touchdowns; Kress Held Scoreless.

Carr and McClendon ran up a couple of touchdowns early in the game last Friday with Kress to add another football victory to Silverton high school's record, which bids fair to make good reading down the line to Thanksgiving. Kress was unable to score, and the last quarter ended with score of 12 to 0.

Kress had a passing game that was hard for the Owls to stop, and had it been resorted to consistently the final score might have been different. Time and again the visitors rushed the ball into scoring position but lacked the punch to count the marker. The Owls would stiffen, and in the excitement Kress would either fumble or make a weak attempt for yardage.

Some bad misplays were made by the Owls, resulting in heavy penalties, but the errors were due mainly to inexperience which will be rubbed off as the season progresses.

The next clash will be with Turkey here Friday, October 11. This is in the nature of a return engagement, the Owls having lost to Turkey Sept. 27 by the close margin of 14 to 13. Silverton expects to even the count in the approaching game.

OWLETS WIN OVER KITTENS

The Owlets of Silverton High drubbed the Quitaque Kittens 6-0 in a fast, hard-fought game here Saturday afternoon. The only score of the game was made in the first two minutes of play and was made by the air route, Albert Dickenson on the receiving end.

From this point on the two teams battled upon equal terms. The Owlets carried the ball in Quitaque territory time and again but did not have the shove to put it over.

The game was featured by hard low tackling on the part of the Owlets in stopping Graham, big half back of the Kittens who last year starred for the Panthers, but thru scholastic difficulties is ineligible this season. These two teams will meet again at Quitaque at a later date.

Floyd County Sends Exhibit to Dallas

FLOYDADA, Oct. 7.—Space for an exhibit at the State Fair at Dallas has been reserved for Floyd county. The material for display will be arranged this week for the opening Saturday. Ed Bishop, the live-wire chamber of commerce secretary, will have charge of the booth.

Ladies Had Big Success With Dinner

The chicken dinner served at a cafeteria last Friday for fair visitors was a big success, much beyond expectations, according to those in charge. As result of this enterprising act on the part of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church the building fund has been increased appreciably.

OCTOBER 6-12 IS FIRE PREVENTION WEEK WHEN INSPECTION FOR FIRE HAZARDS SHOULD BE MADE IN HOMES

OCT 6-12..... An appeal has been made by J. W. De Weese, fire insurance commissioner, for every man, woman, and child to observe, at least partly, Fire Prevention Week, October 6-12, inclusive. Little interest has been shown this year in observance of the week that calls to mind the many fire hazards. "Fire Prevention is by the people, of the people, and for the people," says Mr. DeWeese. Texas lost last year in fires $20,000,000, and all the people have to pay for the loss in what they eat, drink, and use.

John Beavers, 87, Buried In Elida

The remains of John Beavers, a former resident of Silverton, were buried in Elida, N. Mex., last Friday, according to information received here by relatives. He was a brother of Sam Beavers, who died about a year ago.

Mr. Beavers was 87 years old at the time of his death. He was a native of Tennessee, was a pioneer resident of Silverton for a number of years, leaving here in 1907. He was stricken with paralysis about ten years ago, and had been practically an invalid since the stroke.

His surviving children live in one of the eastern states.

County Teachers to Meet at Francis

An all-day meeting of the Briscoe County Teachers Association, which was organized in September at Canyon, will be held at the Francis school Oct. 19, according to Prof. W. W. Martin, principal of the Francis school. The teachers are expected to bring their dinner which will be spread together, he said.

Francis and Holt Co. School Winners

Francis School, Headed by W. W. Martin, Brought Its Full Enrollment for the County School Parade.

Educational Day, Friday, was the big day of the fair with many thousand visitors on hand, and the school children commemorated the event with a happy, joyful parade.

Francis took first place with 675 points, in the class of two or more teachers. It had in the parade 100 per cent enrollment. Prof. W. W. Martin had charge of this division. Holt, with 550 points, won first in the smaller schools. L. O. Hollar was conductor for the one-teacher schools. Other winners were: One-teacher: Wallace, second. More than one teacher school: Rock Creek, 2nd; Lakeview, 3rd.

The parade of children and students through the crowded streets of the city, with their banners and pennants of color, occupied the center of the stage until disbandment.

The order of the march was: Holt, Wallace, Rock Creek, Francis, dolled in green and accompanied by a realistic boat carrying the sign, "We pull together." Lakeview, Silverton grammar school and Ward, topped with dancing balloons; the pep squad, seniors, dramatic club, juniors, sophomores, freshmen, and the seventh grade.

Communion Service At Methodist Church

Special communion services are announced for the Methodist church by the pastor for next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The evening service has been moved back to 7:30 for the fall and winter nights.

A meeting of the building committee has been called for Friday night at 7:30 o'clock, and every member is urgently requested to be present.

Briscoe County's Third Annual Fair Was Surprise Exposition In High Quality and Variety

The third annual Briscoe County Fair has passed into history; another achievement of magnitude has been recorded; and the best exhibition of agricultural products shown this year in county fairs of the Panhandle was reserved for Briscoe county. This is the opinion of visiting heads of commercial bodies of other towns who have made it a point to attend a number of fairs in the Panhandle-South Plains section this year.

Eight communities had booths, neatly decorated and arranged, displaying farm products of astonishing quality. It was the "Show Window" of Briscoe County's most important and permanent resource, the farm, and it represented the handiwork, skill, and experience of the county's outstanding citizens, the backbone of its prosperity, the mainstay of its progress, the foundation stones of a great county of the future—the progressive farmer and the intelligent housewife of the rural home.

The community directors of the fair association and its officials, President A. P. Dickenson and Secretary W. M. Gourley, with much cooperative effort, got into the harness, in spite of an adverse year for an exhibit showing, and carried the fair through with flying colors to a successful conclusion, to the surprise of many local citizens and the admiration of the hundreds of visitors from other counties.

Rock Creek took first place, with not many points to spare. Haylake was second, crowded closely by Lakeview for third. As Rock Creek stood at the head of the class, special attention was given to this booth. A rapid notation of the display showed canned peaches, plums, grapes, tomatoes, cherries, peaches, beets, peas, beans, cucumbers, spinach, rhubarb, sweet potatoes, beet relish, fresh

Jonnie Bundy Named President Freshmen

Freshmen Now Expect to Be Heard From With Corps of Officers and Selection of a Sponsor.

Stop, look, listen. The freshmen have the floor, as they are duly organized with intelligent officers and a careful guardian.

Wednesday morning, Oct. 2, a class meeting was held from 11:15 to 12 o'clock. Jonnie Bundy was elected president, Bailey Hill, vice-president; and Bonnie Mae Walling, secretary-treasurer. Einell Smith is assistant secretary; Fern Blocker, news reporter; and Mildred Summers and Ona Dell Guest have been named yell leaders. The class selected Elmer Cleavinger as sponsor, and the pick must have been unanimous and spontaneous, as judged from the outburst of the reporter in the following contribution:

"We found a teacher for our sponsor that has brains, the man of all men. The freshmen knew they knew whom to find for a sponsor: a good-looking and a handsome man. In school, sports, fun and studies, Cleavinger has the lead.

"The class took thought when electing a president. Jonnie has got-up and pep. And all like Bailey Hill, who is also good-looking. Bonnie Mae is popular with both girls and boys. Einell is cute and popular; and the news reporter, Fern, is not important but is pretty good.

"Look out for us; we are Fish."

Maury Hopkins, the enterprising secretary of chamber of commerce of Plainview, was in Silverton Saturday to see the fair. He was accompanied by Mr. Perry, business manager of the Plainview Herald-News. Mr. Perry gathered data while here for a news story on the exhibits to appear in his Sunday issue.

onions, peppers, cantaloupes, watermelon, peanuts, peas, pumpkins, kershaw, and among the grains: wheat, corn, maize, kafir, hegar, oats, and barley.

One of the finest watermelons seen on the plains was shown by Haylake, which also had a cotton entry of excellent quality. The plains section of the county will have a good cotton crop this year, some individuals making as much as half-bale to the acre.

The fine dairy show was another feature, and during the judging by Frank R. Phillips of Canyon large crowds were present to hear the good and bad points of the stock cited. W. L. Jewett, prominent citizen of the county for many years, was the outstanding prize winner in this division.

In the individual groups there were 145 entries of agricultural products, one side of the exhibit hall being reserved for the extensive showings of worthwhile efforts.

The ladies of the county, and the chairman of the department, Mrs. Chas. Dickerson, are to be congratulated on the display of domestic and culinary art in the ladies department, which all visitors into the hall had to see before leaving. Some attractive antiques were in the booths. The quilt made by Mrs. R. Sedgwick, mother of Mrs. Chas. Dickerson, was 71 years old. And there was a bedspread 85 years old made by Mrs. M. A. Russell while a resident of Birmingham, Ala. in 1844.

Other special booths that helped materially in making a successful fair were the Floral Club, Home Economics, American Legion, Silverton Drug Company, Bomar Drug Company, and Vocational Agriculture Class of Silverton High School. The Floral club occupied the two show

Business Conditions Good In County

Commercial News Shows Briscoe County Doing Above-Average Business for Past Year.

Business here is above-average according to the Map of Texas Business appearing in the October number of the Texas Commercial News, the map covering as of September 1st, 1929.

Above-average areas shown on the current map include the Panhandle and a large portion of West Texas. Only two small areas are indicated as sub-normal, the balance of the state being either fair or above-average.

For comparative purposes the map of a year ago and the map of the preceding month this year is also reproduced.

Shoe Shop Opened On South Side

The opening of a new shoe repairing shop is made this week by S. Mullins in the Gunter building on the south side, next door to the City Drug Store.

The shop is electrically equipped and prepared to do all kinds of first class shoe repairs, according to Mr. Mullins.

M. and Mrs. Mullins come to Silverton from Temple, Okla., where he operated a similar business.

Funeral services of Kathleen Brazee at Plainview Tuesday were attended by Mesdames Walter Lee Bain, Elmer Allard, and Fred Lemons. Miss Brazee is known to many Silverton people, and her tragic death of heart failure while alone in her apartment has brought sorrow to their hearts.

Mrs. O. R. Tipps had a distressing message Wednesday that her mother, who has long been frail, was much worse and had had a stroke of paralysis. Mrs. Tipps left at once for Chickasha, Okla., where her parents live.

Recent Storm at Francis Damaging

The storm and lightning of last Saturday week did considerable damage at Francis, according to the correspondent of the News. Two of the Rowell boys were struck by lightning and knocked down in the yard of W. N. Dunn; and a pig was also struck. A horse was killed in G. G. Joiner's pasture. The wind tore down a carshed and chicken house for John Sanders.

M. W. Norris Shows Variety of Apples

M. W. Norris, a pioneer resident of Briscoe county in the Vigo Park community, brought some fine apples to the fair, but he arrived too late for them to be entered officially. He had eight varieties, some from trees 38 years old. He came to this county 39 years ago. Two of his old apple trees said Mr. Norris, which were set out in 1891, will make 50 bushels this year. "I do not want any prize money," said Mr. Norris. "All I want is to show what Briscoe county can do in the apple line."

Bomar Drug Company Announce Big Sale

Fall Season Is Opened by Practical Illustration of Firm's Slogan of "Pay Cash and Pay Less."

Saturday is an anniversary of a big event which occurred 437 years ago, the discovery of America by Columbus in 1492, but for Silverton and adjacent territory Saturday is marked for another event, a big special sale prepared by Bomar Drug Company.

Drug store sales do not come often but when one is announced it is usually one of importance. According to the management of the company, there was no particular attention to commemorate Columbus Day, only to open up the fall season by making some specially low prices.

"We have a large stock of clean, reasonable merchandise, all desirable articles, and we have prepared the sale in order to reduce our investment and acquaint the public with advantages of supplying their needs here," said D. O. Bomar. "Reference to our advertisement in which the prices are listed will show what can be saved on the standard and staple merchandise, for one day only, however, next Saturday."

Important Phases of Fair Next Week

In the evolution process the best is always last revealed, and likewise in dramatics the most interesting is unfolded at the close. In parallel a review of the fair last week in Silverton is reported. Detailed information of the ladies department and the Floral club showings in the exposition are reserved for next week's issue of the News, in which winning numbers will be listed together with other items furnished this paper by interesting descriptive writers. Due to lateness of receipts of these articles, the postponement was made necessary.

Briscoe County at Dallas State Fair

Fair Association Sponsors State Exhibit and Raises Finances to Defray Expenses Incurred.

Briscoe county's agricultural exhibit for the State Fair was shipped out Wednesday for setting up in Dallas by J. L. Francis and W. M. Gourley.

Saturday, following so much interest manifested in the county fair, the directors of the association quickly decided to raise sufficient money to take a booth at Dallas. J. L. Francis, Wade Steele, and J. M. Lemons, prominent citizens of their communities, formed a committee to finance the entry.

The exhibit will be shown under the sponsorship of the Briscoe County Fair Association, and it is planned to have several thousand pieces of printed matter relative to the resources of the county in the booth for distribution to visitors interested.

Spanish Class to Give Program Friday

The Spanish pupils met sometime ago and organized a club. Mildred Jackson was elected president, Sudie Lee Foust, secretary and treasurer.

Under the guidance of Miss Clinkscapes, the club is preparing a program, which will be presented at the High School auditorium on Friday night, October 12. Everyone is urged to be present. Admission will be 15c and 25c.

The program will consist of a Spanish play, given by the second year class; a Mexican pantomime by the first year class; and several songs and readings.

Special Sermons at Church of Christ

Special services for the Church of Christ are announced by Rev. Early Arsenaux of Lockney, who will preach here next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 13, 14 and 15. The evening meetings will be held at 7:30, and the public is cordially invited to hear the sermons.

The subjects are: "The Truth", Sunday.

"Man or Monkey, Which? Divine Revelation vs. Evolution," Monday, John 3:16, Tuesday.

Rosetta Carter Is Buried Here Monday

Funeral services for Miss Rosetta Carter, who died Sunday in Lockney, were held here at the First Baptist church Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with Rev. R. P. Davis in charge. Interment was made at the local cemetery, with a host of friends present to pay their last respects, a token of the high esteem in which deceased was held.

Miss Carter was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Carter, who live west of Silverton. She had been in ill health for a long time, and extended efforts of the family to bring back the glow of health proved unavailing.

A beautiful tribute, In Memoriam, written by one of her friends of Silverton, will appear in the News of next date.

International Sunday School Lesson BY DR. J. E. NUNN

General Topic: Keeping fit for the sake of others (Temperance Lesson). Scripture Lesson: Dan. 1:8-20.

8. But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's dainties, nor with the wine which he drank; therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself.

9. Now God made Daniel to find kindness and compassion in the sight of the prince of the eunuchs.

10. And the prince of the eunuchs said unto Daniel, I fear my lord the king who hath appointed your food and your drink: for why should he see your faces worse looking than the youths that are of your own age? so would ye endanger my head with the king.

11. Then said Daniel to the steward whom the prince of the eunuchs had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, and Azariah:

12. Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us pulse to eat and water to drink.

13. Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the youths that eat of the king's dainties; and as thou seest, deal with thy servants.

14. So he hearkened unto them in this matter, and proved them ten days.

15. And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer, and they were fatter in flesh, than all the youths that did eat of the king's dainties.

16. So the steward took away their dainties, and the wine that they should drink, and gave them pulse.

17. Now as for these four youths, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams.

18. And at the end of the days which the king had appointed for bringing them in, the prince of eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar.

19. And the king consumed with them; and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Michael, and Azariah; therefore stood they before the king.

20. And in every matter of wisdom and understanding, concerning which the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters that were in all his realm.

Golden Text: Know ye not that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit which is in you, which ye have from God? and ye are not your own, for ye were bought with a price: glorify God therefore in your body. —1 Cor. 6:19, 20.

Time: Daniel's three years of training at the court of Nebuchadnezzar, B. C. 605-603.

Place: Babylon.

In our modern, complex, practical age, the question of efficiency has come to the foreground, with rapid and irresistible strides. New ventures are being made in mechanics and discoveries which offer their rewards to those only who are efficient to the highest degree. To achieve success in any line now, men and women must keep themselves fit in every respect. Bodily fitness is one requisite. To live the simple life is tremendously necessary just now. No one can be ready for the difficult and strenuous tasks for our day who dissipates his time or energies even slightly, who impairs his nervous force by late hours and blunts his sensibilities by even the moderate use of intoxicants.

But moral fitness is even more needful. This will provide what is necessary to physical efficiency. Nothing can take the place of moral character in the world of business or achievement. Dependability, self-reliance and courage are all conditioned on it. He who is untrue to God will certainly fail both himself and others in a crisis. Keep fit, not primarily for one's own sake, but for the sake of others.

The Four Hebrew Youths. Dan. 1:8-20. Our first extract from Holy Writ is the story of the temperance triumph of Daniel and his three friends. These four youths, probably from fourteen to sixteen years old, were taken captive in Judah by Nebuchadnezzar in the third year of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and were carried off to Babylon to serve as hostages for that monarch. They were young noblemen, handsome in appearance, with no physical blemishes, sprightly in bearing, and they were at once selected to be trained for service in the palace of Nebuchadnezzar, and for attendance on his royal person. But first they must spend three years under tutors, learning the Chaldean language, and being instructed in their prospective duties at the court.

For these three years the four Hebrew youths were placed in charge of Ashpenaz, the chief of the palace attendants, and Nebuchadnezzar gave orders, as a special favor, that they should receive daily from the royal table a supply of the choice food and wine which he himself consumed. "Daniel Purposed in His Heart." v. 8. But Daniel purposed in his heart, "This young hero built his success on his steady purpose, which showed itself at the very outset of his career. Indecision is fatal to any substantial progress. Especially is decision necessary if one is to gain the sturdy strength which flows from temperance, for that is built on will power, on firm resistance to temptation. "Men must be decided on what they will not do," said Mencius, the Chinese sage, "and then they are able to act with vigor in what they ought to do." "There is nothing more to be esteemed than a manly firmness and decision of character."—William Hazlitt.

"Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah." v. 11. "Then said Daniel to the steward whom the prince of the eunuchs had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah." These were Daniel's three friends. All four of these names are compounded with the Hebrew names for God.—"El" "Jah," and, as one step in weaning them from their homeland, they had received Chaldean names of heathen character. The steward was some subordinate officer whom Ashpenaz had appointed to be directly in charge of the four youths.

Prohibition Progress, Step by Step. "Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us pulse to eat, and water to drink." Daniel's "purpose" which had carried him thus far was of much too stout a fibre to weaken before a single mild refusal. It has been thus from the beginning with the temperance reform. If the temperance workers could not get prohibition, they took what they could get. First they sought Sunday closing, the forbidding of liquor to minors, the doing away with screens, the shutting of saloons on election days, and especially temperance education in the public schools. Then they sought local option, then county option, then state prohibition, then prevention of liquor importation into prohibition territory, and finally the grand climax of national prohibition. "Try it out," has been the temperance reformers' motto. The people have tried it out, on an ever-extended scale; and the trial has always, when fairly made, proved successful.

Temperance Strengthens Body and Mind. "Among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah." These four Hebrew youths were not alone in the examination. They had many competitors, young fellows who had been reared with them in the royal palace and by the king's officers; but they had not the moral stamina of the Hebrew lads, they had not lived abstemious lives, and when the testing time came they fell behind. So it is always with the tipplers in the race of life.

Edwin F. Bowers, M. D., closes a vigorous chapter on the relation between alcohol and "efficiency and deficiency" with these words: "It requires fifteen men, indulging in one glass of beer daily, to do the work which properly should be done by fourteen abstainers. Employers are realizing that a drinking man cannot stand extremes of temperature as well, that he cannot hear or see or smell as well, that he cannot lift as much or lift it as often, that he cannot dig as far, dig as much, or carry as enduringly, as though he were abstinent. And with what Herbert Spencer would call 'altruistic egoism,' business is determined that for the mutual interests of workman and employer drinking shall cease."

The Christian Life, A Race. "Now the Christian life, Paul says, is a race, and a hard race too. If discipline and constant self-restraint are necessary to enable the athlete to win his race, discipline and rigorous self-restraint are necessary to enable a man to run successfully the Christian race." "It is only by continually putting down temptation,—keeping it under, and bringing it into subjection," like St. Paul,—that we can make sure it shall not prove our ruin."

"If we start on the Christian race we need have no fear that we shall not succeed, that we shall never reach the goal, that we shall be balked of our prize. Obey the rules, keep the course, do not take your eyes off the

THE TOWN DOCTOR (THE DOCTOR OF TOWNS) SAYS

Business Goes Where It Is Invited

Merchants who bewail the fact that "business isn't what it used to be," yet fail or REFUSE to profit by the example of those with whom business is BETTER than it used to be, have no "business" to complain if their business goes elsewhere.

Merchants who spend time crying about new or outside firms taking their business away from them, but shut their eyes to the very evident cause and reason for it, can't blame anyone but themselves if their business goes "floey."

If business isn't good with you, "beefing" about it all the time won't improve it. Who wants to do business with a constant calamity howler anyhow? Business IS good—there is more business today than there ever was—the only difference is there are more and keener concerns after it.

Everybody knows that—your customers included.

If you are not getting the business, it's not your customers' fault.

You CAN get the business if you will rid yourself of old superstitions and prejudices; if you will take away the nickel you are holding so close to your eyes that you can't see the ten dollar bills on the other side of it; if you will recognize that modern buyers DON'T and WON'T do business with old-fashioned sellers, unless they have to—and then DO something about it, instead of standing around, wringing your hands and crying about it. If you DON'T INVITE the people to do business with you, don't give them, consistently and persistently, every REASON WHY they should do business with you, you surely WON'T GET their business, but the fellow that DOES, WILL.

Now, you don't HAVE to do this—it's your business and you can run it to suit yourself, but if you don't do it, don't blame anything or anybody but yourself if your business goes on the rocks and your customers forget you. Don't get sore at your newspaper, either, if it accepts outside advertising copy. If you don't want the business bad enough to ASK for it, don't kick if others, who know how to sell, ASK for it, and GET it.

Large Delegation of Floydada Men Here Friday; Assert Briscoe's Products Stand High.

Led by a twenty piece band, under the direction of A. L. Lundgren, a delegation of approximately fifty Floydada business men were visitors at the Briscoe County Fair last Friday. The caravan arrived about eleven o'clock and the band led the group down the main streets where the visitors at once scattered over the fair grounds for an inspection of the various exhibits.

An invitation from W. M. Gourley, fair manager, to the Floydada Chamber of Commerce was accepted by that organization and the trip last Friday was the result. At a recent gathering here of a number of Floydada and Silverton business men the Floydada men expressed a desire to visit the Briscoe County Fair and above, giving the names of the owners, stockholders, and security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in cases where the stockholders or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiant's full knowledge and belief as to the circumstances and conditions under which stockholders and security holders who do not appear upon the books of the company as trustees, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than that of a bona fide owner; and this affiant has no reason to believe that any other person, association, or corporation has any interest direct or indirect in the said stock, bonds, or other securities than as so stated by him.

EXPRESSIONS FROM VISITORS COMPLIMENTARY

What some of the Floydada visitors thought of the Fair:

C. R. Houston, manager of the Houston Dry Goods Co., "One of the best small county fairs I have ever seen."

A. J. Folley, district attorney, "Briscoe County is to be congratulated on its spirit in preparing this fair. I hope it is a yearly event."

F. C. Harmon, manager of Harmon Furniture Co., "This is far superior to any agricultural exhibits I have seen on display this year."

R. E. Fry, Fry-Bishop Insurance Agency, "To use a common expression: This is a darn good fair and I am glad I got an opportunity to see it."

Robert Stone, county attorney, "The fair, taken as a whole, is one of the best I have ever seen. You may expect me back next year."

Ed Bishop, Chamber of Commerce secretary, "You have a real fair manager in W. M. Gourley, and you are to be commended on the manner in which you have backed your fair association. We hope to come back next year."

T. S. Stevenson, president Floyd County National Bank, "This is a surprise to me and it makes me feel better after having seen your exhibits."

J. V. Daniel, vice-president First National Bank, "We are learning more about our neighbors and hope to have the pleasure of entertaining you some day. The fair is extra good this year I think."

Flomot Class Starts Good English Campaign

FLOMOT, Oct. 7.—A good English Campaign has been organized here in the school by the seventh grade class, according to Miss Lois Anderson. Their first work has been among the lower grades, and at present activity is directed toward getting the girls' clubs, boy scouts, canning clubs, Sunday-Schools and women's clubs to join in the campaign.

"Good English can never die. Don't try to murder it," is the significant slogan of the campaign, according to Miss Anderson.

Seniors Name Social Calendar Committee

The seniors of 1930 selected their class rings and invitations Wednesday of last week, and they are all looking forward toward receiving them at the end of the school term.

On the following Thursday a class meeting was held to decide on the way the school parade march should be formed. A large purple and gold banner with the senior name on it, with each student carrying a small purple and gold pennant, identified the class in the parade of last Friday.

During the meeting J. D. Strickland, Studie Lee Foust, and Jack Wright were selected as a committee to plan the social calendar for the year. The class intends to have at least one entertainment each month.

John Ed Bain's Sixth Birthday

Another birthday event of the past week was John Ed Bain's party last Friday. John Ed had six candles on his huge white cake; and his guests had great fun trying to blow out all six with one puff. They played "drop-the-handkerchief" and other outdoor games while then several fine indoor sports.

John Ed was the recipient of some splendid gifts and rejoiced in passing so happily his sixth milestone. ments of life, the average moderate user of alcohol can expect only thirty-one years more of life."

"Habitual use of alcoholic beverages by workmen increases the occurrence of accidents and injuries in shops, factories, and public highways, increases the danger of infection of accidental wounds, delays recovery, and increases the likelihood of complications."

"The use of alcoholic beverages by the parents in a family reduces the likelihood of survival of babies in that family. This is due partly to physiological and partly to economic causes."

"The use of alcoholic beverages among people of the wage-earning class tends to reduce their standard of living with respect to housing, clothing, and food, and tuberculosis is more likely to develop, and when it does occur it is more likely to be fatal."

And for these reasons, as well as many others, we can be perfectly certain that Daniel and Paul, if they were living today, would be ardent advocates of the Eighteenth Amendment to the Constitution.

IN MEMORY OF LITTLE ELWOOD HILL

Little Elwood Hill, born Sept. 4, 1929, died Oct. 4, 1929. He was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Buel Hill of this city.

Nature's children are loved at all ages Loved from infancy down to the grave.

But the one we've loved most, through the ages, Is a tiny, bright-eyed babe.

But we are not alone in this motive,

For unearthly people love too, They long for a sweet, chubby baby As much as we earthly folks do.

And likewise they loved little Elwood. Needed one more to brighten their throne.

So they sent one called Death Angel. Now, Elwood has gone to their home.

He is now in the arms of our Master. Little Elwood is free from our cares.

He shall never meet worldly disasters. He is free from our sins' awful snares.

Mother Hill has a son with the Angels;

He is happy, will ever be thus; So we must not be sad and heart broken.

But simply in God must we trust.

Dr. and Mrs. Ed Crawford of Tullahoma spent Thursday here. Dr. Crawford came on business concerning a court case. Mrs. Crawford spent the day with her daughter, Mrs. John B. Jr., and family.
