FARM FORUM—

Silverton

Some good street grading was done this week, and there is greater ease in the joints and increased mental repose to the motorists. Some one wanted to know what "jarred" the city into cutting down the Mimalayas and filling up the Caspians. The streets themselves, my dear Gaston.

The gas company strung a score or so of horizontals through the city with a ditcher for their lines, and was followed by the sewer contractor who laid an equal amount of transversals with his Panama excavator. The ditches and dirt were strategically placed for what was coming. Old Plutus opened up and poured in the water, and everybody wondered if we were going to get out of the trenches by Christmas.

"Making Silverton Safe for the Motorist" became a live issue, something that is better understood by some folks than was Woodrow Wilson's "Making the World Safe for Democracy." The city streets would have jarred the band from the tight-knit pocket book, and that requires a terrific bump. We had some of those half-grown bumps down our way, and they packed a paralyzing wallop in either mit, going down or coming up. Just pay your money and take your choice.

But things are better now, and it's Thanksgiving. Mayor Nichols has given us all something very concrete to be thankful for by hustling up a trader and tackling a hard problem. One of those problems which like Banquo's ghost, won't be downed. It will come to plague every city administration to the end of time. Street and road problems are hydra-headed monsters; when one obstacle is chopped down, several others spring out to meet it with the speed of Jonah's gourd.

It takes a patient sort of fellow to make a mayor or councilman. They spend too much money to suit some of the citizens and not enough to please the others. If they put in some shivers on the west side of town, the east or north had some crossings that should have come first. The council makes a good football, and the season for kicking and punting it across the townsite lasts the year round. There isn't anything in it but a lot of experience, and what an experience.

Wouldn't it be fine if, after the city had smoothed and rolled out the streets into a velvety cushion finish, the States Telephone company would decide to lay an underground cable system and come like a third mole to open up the earth, push out the soil and get the crossings fallow again for the winter's snows?

The maintenance crew on Highway 1 is to be complimented on the effective work in bringing the road back to normal condition. Again it is a pleasure to drive over it, and that something else to be thankful for on Thursday as we sit at the festive board of our own homes or at the hotels or cafes. We want to be free to go even if we have no idea of going anywhere.

The burning question of the hour is "Who will get up and start the party?"

When a woman plans a party, the list consists in making a list of those who won't invite.

Municipal pride is at its best when the town first begins to worry about its traffic problem.

Leafing is an art with many patterns.

People smoke so much now it is hard to tell when to call the firemen.

It is all right to follow your natural inclination unless it makes you crooked.

Postal Department Ready for Holidays

Santa Claus Begins Trek From North Pole Next Month; Postoffices Will Be Overworked.

Within less than a month Santa Claus begins his long trek from the North Pole around the world, and in America only a few children and grown-ups will be missed. The back of the postoffice department will sway under the burden of delivering the heavy package mail that floods in during December.

Instructions have been received by Postmaster A. E. Frieze to look to advance expansion and perfection of his organization to meet this annual emergency, and he requests the public to do its mailing early for outside points, especially the larger cities where congestion causes many Christmas gifts to reach their recipients after the appointed day.

Postal employees are to have their usual treat of spending Christmas day with their families, as there will be no deliveries or window service on Dec. 25.

Motor Car Licenses Come Much Cheaper

Colors of Plates Changed to Blue and Yellow for 1930; Plenty at Cut Prices.

The new auto license plates for Texas will be blue and yellow, and they will be on sale soon shortly at the tax collector's office, which will have a monopoly upon this sort of merchandise.

A big reduction on these plates has been put on, according to the office of Sheriff and Tax Collector N. R. Honea, but it is not in the nature of a Holiday sale. The cut will average around fifty per cent over the past few years, and all-comers will be accommodated at these low prices as plenty of tags have been ordered.

The news is not so good for truck and commercial car owners. In fact, it is not good at all. License fees for them have mostly been increased.

The following table shows substantially what the new charges will be for typical cars and cars not listed will fall in the same weight or horsepower class:

Ford, Model T	$5.04
Ford, Model A, sedan	$9.36
Ford, Model A, coupe	$8.64
Chevrolet Coach	$9.00
Buick, light	$18.24
Buick, heavy	$21.13

TURKEY DAY

THANKSGIVING

By presidential decree, a day of national observance is annually set aside to the end that the American people may offer their devotions to the Creator of the Universe in special recognition of the many blessings that have been manifested to them during the year.

Our people are not unmindful of the graciousness that Providence has extended to this nation. They deeply appreciate the significance of this annual day of meditation and thanksgiving, and attest this sentiment by gathering in their respective homes to show their gratitude for the many good things that they share alike.

We as a nation, may with entire appropriateness make every day of the year an occasion of rejoicing for the many and varied beneficences which we commonly enjoy.

Silverton Boys Are Preparing for Meet

A poultry judging contest will be held during the Tri-State Poultry show in Amarillo Dec. 13, in which high school vocational classes represented in the agricultural association will have a judging team, is the announcement by W. M. Gourley, president, following the association's Saturday meeting in Amarillo.

The dining room of the Capitol hotel was turned over to the vocational teachers, which included a large per cent from the Panhandle-Plains region, for a banquet, a courtesy of the board of city development to these guests of the city.

Silverton will be represented in the contest which is indicated to be a lively one. Nationally known judges will be present to pick the winners. The local class has won more distinction in contests for its school than any other in the state, and the boys will strive to keep up the record this year, although the time is short for preparing to enter the December meet.

Listen to Harry Lauder Next Sun.

Sir Harry Lauder, the noted Scotch singer, will be on the N. B. C. Network broadcast Sunday, Dec. 1, at 7 p. m. through the courtesy of the maker of Enna Jettick shoes, handled locally by Sprolows-Cronin company. This is a rare treat and should not be missed.

MRS. MILLER IMPROVED

The friends of Mrs. Miller, Sr., feel that one of the things they should be most thankful for is the improvement in the health of this bravely patient, cheerful woman. This week she has been able to be dressed for the first time since last March and everyone is hoping she may soon be fully recovered.

Owls in Final Whirl Against Matador Thurs

COUNTY CHAMPIONS WORKING HARD FOR SEASON'S FAIR RECORD; WERE WINNERS OVER LOCKNEY, CHAMPION MATERIAL.

The last game of the football season for the Silverton high school Owls is played at Matador Thursday morning, the opening whistle being blown at 10:30. The battle was set for the morning in order for the boys to return home in a rested condition to participate in a banquet Thanksgiving night.

The Owls have been put through some stiff work-outs by Coach A. L. Kelsay in preparation for the Turkey Day tilt. Matador downed the Quitaque Panthers by the same score the Owls won over them. With a hard go expected, the Owls have been taking no chances of overconfidence and have been bearing down this week in their daily grind on the field.

Should the Owls come out winner they will have hung up a fair record this season. They have already won four games, tied two, and lost three. Two of the losses have been to the strong Terrible Turks of Turkey, a non-interscholastic team, and a victory was chalked up against the fast Longhorns of Lockney, a strong contender for honors in District 2, Class B.

The Owls have won the Briscoe County championship, and feel somewhat at ease with the 7 to 0 win over Quitaque, in which the sting of last year's defeat was removed.

SHIPPED THREE CARS BUTTER

Board of Stewards Organize and Plan

Election of officers and assessment of members for benevolences for the new year were important matters taken up at the first meeting of the new official board of the Methodist church Monday night.

Officers elected were W. M. Gourley, chairman of the board of stewards; T. J. Hodges, vice-chairman; and R. E. Douglas, secretary-treasurer. Attending stewards were W. M. Gourley, T. J. Hodges, R. E. Douglas, J. H. Williamson, Thurman Graham, W. N. Dunn, and the pastor, M. G. Brotherton. C. M. Strickland was unable to be present.

Owing to the fact that the former financial policy of meeting obligations quarterly, semi-annually, or annually has resulted in falling short of the goal set up for the year, the board decided to have all assessments ratified by each member and that monthly or weekly collections be made. More frequent installments are deemed best as the pastorate salaries are the more easily maintained if the church member forms the habit of paying at least monthly, according to the board.

J. E. Dillard Is Buried in Quitaque

Funeral services for J. E. Dillard, age 28, who died suddenly from a hemorrhage at his home two miles east of Silverton, were held in Quitaque Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the cemetery where the remains were laid beside his mother who had preceded him. Rev. R. P. Davis spoke the sad rites and words of farewell, and the Silverton Undertaking company was funeral director.

Deceased was the youngest son of W. T. Dillard, a native of Nevada county, Ark., who came to Sulphur Springs in 1901 where J. E. was born. Mr. Dillard leaves a widow and three young children.

Physical training was introduced into the Grammar school this week with the intention of developing the physical side of the child as well as the mental capacities, according to Chester Strickland, principal.

Two periods a week will be devoted to this new feature, with Miss Martha Brown in charge of all the girls from the third grade up, and the first and second grade teachers in charge of the primary girls. Mr. Strickland will conduct the work for all the boys.

The period will be given at nine o'clock, and all parents are urged to get their children to school on time in order that the full benefit of the training may be received by the pupils.

"We feel that this training is very essential to the boys and girls in their school work," said Prof. Strickland.

King's Coffee Shop Changes Management

Mr. and Mrs. A. Morris of Memphis Took Charge of Cafe Tuesday Morning.

A change in the management of King's Coffee Shop is announced by Mr. and Mrs. A. Morris, who took over the operation of the cafe Tuesday morning from Mrs. Ruth King who has been in the restaurant business in Silverton for about three years.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris were formerly of Memphis and are thoroughly experienced in the art of feeding and pleasing the public. An improved service in many ways is also announced by the new operators. W. A. Hodges of Memphis, who has had many years in the kitchen in preparing tasty and wholesome foods, has been employed as cook. Every effort will be put forward by the management to render the best service possible and conduct an eating house of modern and desired accommodations.

P. T. A. in Need Of Parents' Aid

Mrs. A. P. Dickenson, who was a delegate at the child welfare conference at Canyon four years ago, made a talk on why the Parent-Teachers Association should federate, at the regular meeting Thursday of last week.

Supt. C. R. E. Weaver outlined a schedule of work which the Silverton P. T. A. might undertake for the year, referring to the material needs of the school, such as equipment for physical training which will be compulsory next year. Basket ball is the only thing the school is equipped to play. A start has been made in the sixth and seventh grades in physical exercises twice a week.

It was noted that the P. T. A. is about to become a teachers' organization only as only three parents were present. A fuller report of Mrs. Dickenson's inspiring talk will be given next week. The P. T. A. will meet next in the grade school building on the first Thursday in December.

Football Sponsor Race Is Boiling

Jonnie Bundy was nominated for football sponsor by the senior-freshman team and Gladys Murphy by the junior-sophomore division in meetings last Monday. Votes are a penny each, and a hot contest is in progress. Miss Bundy is the popular president of the freshman class, and Miss Murphy, though in school here for the first year, has made a host of friends.

Graham Chandler is campaign manager for Miss Bundy, with Jack Wright in charge of publicity. Miss Murphy's campaign will be waged by Orville (Pete) Cowart, with Geraldine Biffle as right hand bower to enlist votes through poster creations. Some smart work is expected to be uncovered as the managers push the campaign into both urban and rural sections.

Teachers Are 95 Per Cent Enrolled

Teachers of Silverton, with 95 per cent enrolled in the state teachers' association, give the school a rating far above the average in Texas, according to Supt. Weaver, who is a life member. Seventeen other local teachers are in the organization. Texas, however, as a whole is low in comparison to many other states.

SENIORS ENJOY PARTY

The outstanding event of the month for the seniors was the party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Dickenson Friday night. Mrs. A. L. Kelsay furnished the entertainment, making the broom talk, mimic exercises, and retrieving forfeits. Mrs. Dickenson served delicious cake and jello with whipped-cream to Herbert Davis, Klee Dickenson, Maurice Foust, Haynes McClendon, Eural Vaughan, Graham Chandler, J. D. Strickland, Hoyt Hill, Powell Miller, Jack Wright, Pete Cowart, Sudie Lee Foust, Fadeon Lee, Orlene Gunter, Geraldine Patton, Wanda King, Louise Brown, Gladys Murphy, Christine Bundy, Geraldine Biffle, and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Kelsay.

The seniors wish to thank W. W. Flournoy, manager of the Palace for the football benefit shows last week.

Report cards are coming out this week. The seniors, with the rest of the classes, have been imbedded in examinations.

WINTER LAYING OF HENS GIVES BEST OPPORTUNITY TO SELECT STOCK FOR THE BREEDING PENS

(BY W. M. GOURLEY)

The way to improve the flock averages of annual egg production is to carefully select your best layers for your breeding pens. High egg production is inherited and transmitted from one generation to another. In most every farm flock there are a few individual hens that do most of the winter laying. No doubt there are many farm flocks at present in which the owner has only two or three hens out of one hundred laying. These few hens in production are worth more to the owner than all the rest of the flock. They are the ones he will need to use in his breeding pens.

Now, to know which hens are laying will require some effort. The following methods may be used: First he may use the trap nest, which is a simple method. The nest can be made by any farmer with very little expense.

The second method is by a process of culling. At this season of the year a person may be almost one hundred per cent accurate in picking out the layers by the so-called Hogan test.

The next method is to notice the hens on the nest. Some member of the family can visit the poultry house two or three times during the day, and can ordinarily find the hen on the nest. As soon as the layers are located, they should be banded. Use a good band, aluminum or celluloid, that won't lose off.

In the late winter or early spring these hens may be caught and placed in breeding pens to be mated with the best males. In next week's article a discussion of the selection of male birds for the breeding pens will appear.

Eliminating Light Weight Turkeys

DUBLIN, Nov. 26.—A war on light weight turkeys for next year's market has been started here by 17 Erath county farmers who have secured the aid of Mark Buckingham, county agent, in carefully selecting pullets for next year's breeding purposes. All the birds in entire flocks were weighed and measured, and hens and pullets compared to see if last year's toms had improved the offspring. Where such improvement was not noted to marked degree owners are planning to secure outstanding toms. The number of pullets retained for breeding varied from eight to ten per farm, every one of which went well over the standard and weighed at least ten pounds before fattening.

GINNINGS PASS 4,000 BALE MARK FOR SEASON

QUITAQUE, Tex., November 26.—Cotton ginnings at Quitaque last Thursday afternoon totaled 4,103 bales, according to figures furnished by the four local gins, an increase of approximately 400 bales over the figures of last week. It is estimated that between 70 and 80 per cent of the local crop has been ginned. Weather unfavorable to ginning continues, and the season well drawn out, local ginner state.

GOOD WORK BY HOME DEMONSTRATORS ELSEWHERE

Vernon.—By selling $568.06 worth of produce from her garden and chickens thus far this year, Mrs. J. S. Boland of Fargo has made the best marketing report of any home demonstration club woman in Willbarger County, according to Miss Doris Leggett home agent. More than half this amount was profit. In addition she has sold $616 worth of cream up to September 1st.

Pearsall.—Frio County home demonstration club women are turning rapidly to the canning and marketing of garden stuff in local stores, seven of these members having disposed of $103 worth in September and having 836 more cans to sell. Three Pearsall stores are regularly selling their products, finding ready sale for them even in the months when fresh vegetables are available. The products most commonly marketed are black-eyed peas, cream peas, okra and tomato gumbo, corn, tomatoes, beans and spinach.

Texarkana.—An average profit of $1.12 per hen in five month's time is reported by Alma Martindale in her 4-H Club demonstration at Hooks. Her 27 White Wyandotte hens produced an average of more than 17 eggs monthly during this period just ended.

Another club girl whose poultry flock report to Miss Beulah Blackwell, home demonstration agent, is outstanding, is Lillian Hargis, of Liberty Hill. Starting in April with 21 Rhode Island Red hens she has made a profit above feed cost of $33.28 and has $104.30 worth of stock on hand.

Spur.—Every home demonstration club member in Dickens County is keeping household accounts according to a system suggested by Miss Jennie Osborne, home agent, and plans are being made for each family to confer together before January 1st to make out a budget for next year's expenditures.

Brenham.—From a start of 50 baby chicks bought last April, Lucille Lehman, Washington County 4-H Club girl, now has a fine flock of White Plymouth Rocks and a net profit of $18.66.

World's Largest Watermelon

This is believed to be the world's largest watermelon, grown this summer by Edgar Laseter at Hope, Ark. It weighed 152 1/2 pounds.

Harvest Banquet Is Planned by Fair Directors

Letters are being sent out by the secretary to all members of the Briscoe County Fair Association requesting their sentiment for a Harvest Banquet to be held during the month of January at Silverton.

Among the speakers who have been invited to attend in case the banquet is held, will be J. A. Moore, supt. of the department of agriculture of the state fair of Texas, T. C. Bennett, manager of Tri-State fair of Amarillo, and A. B. Davis, manager of the South Plains-Panhandle Fair association, Lubbock, and representatives of the Farm and Ranch and the Progressive Farmer. In addition, it is hoped to have at least one Master Farmer from this section of the state present.

The secretary, W. M. Gourley, has conferred with a number of the fair directors, and they seemed to be highly in favor of holding this banquet and making it an annual affair.

Sweet Cream Profitable.

Stamford.—Two sweet cream routes established early last summer by County Agent C. C. Jobson with the aid of Jones County business men proved their worth during September by collecting $1080.50 worth of cream from 46 farmers. This represents a premium of 11 cents per pound over sour cream prices.

High Corn Yield.

College Station.—The highest per acre corn production thus far reported to the Extension Service this year comes from G. M. Morris, county agent in Harrison County, where Milton Milford, Woodlawn 4-H Club boy, made 110 bushels and 70 pounds on one demonstration acre.

Girls Can Their Way to Health

LUBBOCK, Nov. 26.—That eating too much of the wrong things and not enough of the right things causes most human ailments is a health philosophy gaining many converts among farm families in Lubbock county. Last winter brought much unnecessary illness to many rural districts, but now many of these households are awaiting winter with grim batteries of canned fruits and vegetables on pantry shelves. It's a part of Lubbock county's rural health drive planned by Miss Louise Baird and carried out by women and girls in the home demonstration clubs. Since June they've been studying requirements and canning home grown stuff against winter's onslaughts. It consists of 48 cans of leafy vegetables, 140 cans of other vegetables, 130 cans of fruits, and 40 cans of meats for a family of five for six months.

LIONS FEAST ON VENISON, FURNISHED BY B. D. WITCHER

QUITAQUE, Tex., November 26.—Venison steaks and roast venison in abundance graced the table at the weekly luncheon of the Lions Club this week, the gift of B. D. Witcher, a member of the club, who returned the first of last week from a most successful hunt in New Mexico near Magdalena.

KITCHEN DRUDGERY UNNECESSARY AS MODERN WOMAN MAKES USE OF HER HEAD INSTEAD OF HER FEET

How needless drudgery drives many a farm wife to an early grave has been graphically pictured in a number of exhibits at county fairs this season where cemeteries were shown in which the tombstones tell the stories of the sad demise of the overworked mother. In the fair in Harrison County Miss Maggie Peach, home demonstration agent, arranged a most striking exhibit in co-operation with the women she works, depicting in the foreground the "Burying ground of J. Jones' first four wives."

JONES' FIRST FOUR WIVES

Wife No. 1, the epitaph reads, "broke her backs over an old wash board." Wife No. 2 "had no screens and died of typhoid." "Died while wielding the broom," explained the demise of Wife No. 3, and Mr. Jones' fourth helpmeet met her fate "carrying water from the well to the kitchen." In the background of the booth was young and winsome Wife No. 5, smiling happily in a spik and span kitchen equipped with a good oil stove, sink and running water, kitchen cabinet with table of the correct working height, steam pressure cooker, kitchen stool, electric washing machine, and linoleum floor. "She uses her head through modern devices instead of using her feet," the caption read.

NEEDED IMPROVEMENTS DO NOT COST MUCH

There is much truth in this picture, home demonstration authorities here declare, for an extensive survey of farm kitchens a few years ago disclosed conditions that mark the average farm kitchen as a center of drudgery little improved over those of our grandmothers. Farm depression may account for some of this, it is said, but not all, for the survey, which was national in scope, showed that it just hasn't occurred to a majority of men and women on farms that there is anything wrong with the old fashioned kitchen. Most of the changes that are needed to make kitchens efficient and cheerful work-shops cost so little that almost every farm family in Texas can afford to make improvement in this line, these authorities claim. Less than $25 in cash expenditures transformed hundreds of farm kitchens in Texas in the improvement contests conducted by the Extension Service a few years ago, the effects of which are still noted all over the state in a steady addition of labor saving devices to kitchen equipment each year.

Piping water to a sink, letting in more light, putting tables and working surfaces at the correct height, adding a high stool, and getting an efficient stove are listed as the more important first considerations in a kitchen.

NEW MANAGER IS IN CHARGE W.T.U.

Roy D. Kutch Succeeds Jack Seale With West Texas Utilities Company.

QUITAQUE, Tex., November 26.—Roy D. Kutch, formerly with the district office of the West Texas Utilities Company at Childress, took charge of the Quitaque properties of the company the first of the week, succeeding C. R. Seale, who has been transferred to the sales department at Childress.

No changes in the office personnel or outside crews are expected to be made.

Work on the office and warehouse of the utilities company is proceeding rapidly, although some doubt is expressed over the possibility of the company being able to occupy its new quarters by December first, as anticipated.

Quitaque Plans On Union Service

Thanksgiving Services Next Thursday Night at 7:30 in Baptist Church.

QUITAQUE, Tex., November 26.—Union Thanksgiving services will be held next Thursday night at 7:30 at the Baptist Church, according to a joint announcement made this week by Rev. W. M. Draper of the Baptist Church and Rev. E. L. Yeats of the Methodist Church.

Members of both congregations and all others in the community are cordially invited to attend the service, which will be of one hour's duration. A thirty-five minute song service will be followed by a Thanksgiving sermon by Mr. Yeats.

Chevrolet Leads With Largest Annual Volume

Tribute to its leadership as an automobile producer is again paid the Chevrolet Motor Company in the announcement by the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, that Chevrolet has again been awarded first place at the national automobile shows.

The award is given annually to the member company doing the largest annual volume of business, and is one of the most coveted honors that the automobile industry can bestow on an individual automobile manufacturer.

In addition to the distinction that goes with the award, Chevrolet is given first choice of exhibition space at the national automobile shows in New York and Chicago.

Relief Funds for Less Fortunate

With the approach of the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays, thoughts turn toward the remembrances of loved ones and toward the distribution of relief funds to the underprivileged and less fortunate in life.

The holiday season for the year has been chosen by the Texas Public Health Association for the annual Christmas seal sale for the relief of those suffering with tuberculosis in Texas during the coming year.

Through an agreement with the American Red Cross and the National Tuberculosis Association, the Christmas seal sale will not conflict with the annual Red Cross roll call. No official connection exists between these two welfare organizations.

QUITAQUE, Tex., November 26.—Twenty-five members of the Odd Fellows lodge went to Lockney on Thursday night week ago, the degree team of the lodge administering the first and second degrees to several Lockney candidates. At the conclusion of the lodge meeting, a delicious supper was served the visitors by the Lockney lodge.

On Tuesday night of last week the local lodge, represented by 35 members, administered the initiatory degree at Matador, where they were given a most enthusiastic welcome. A mutton barbecue was served by the Matador lodge.

Election of officers of the Quitaque Lodge, I. O. O. F., will be held in the near future, lodge officials state.

BETTER PHONE SYSTEM URGED BY LIONS CLUB

COMMITTEE NAMED TO ENTER VIGOROUS PROTEST OVER TELEPHONE SERVICE BEING GIVEN QUITAQUE—RURAL EXTENSION WANTED.

QUITAQUE, Tex., November 26.—Decision to ask the State Telephone Company to take immediate steps to improve its Quitaque facilities was reached at the Wednesday meeting of the local Lions Club. At the same time, the committee appointed by the club will take up with the phone officials the possibility of a rural line from the Quitaque exchange to Antelope Flats.

Widespread dissatisfaction with the facilities afforded by the State Telephone Company has been expressed for a long time in both Quitaque and Silvertown, where the company also operates.

For a period of nearly two years the company has been promising the county seat new equipment, and the local chamber of commerce has been in communication with phone officials for about the same period of time in an endeavor to secure better service here.

Not only has long distance phone service been an almost impossibility at times from Quitaque, but lately the local service has been such that communication between points in Quitaque has been extremely poor.

From reports it is understood that the exchange operating here is composed of antiquated equipment; from which excellent service is an impossibility.

Many men act as if asking them to pay a bill they owe were an insult.

Hose and Lead Pipe Risky Gas Connections---
FLEXIBLE CONNECTIONS for gas stoves are dangerous. They are likely at any time to become leaky or disconnected, with the danger of resultant injury to health and property.
THIS IS TRUE not only of rubber hose, but also of lead or copper-coated pipe, which, bent a time or two, may crack and leak. There is this additional objection to lead or copper-coated pipe; the aperture in the usual lead pipe connection is only one-eighth inch in diameter. A bend reduces even this small diameter. The result is that an insufficient amount of gas reaches the burners. A three-eighths-inch iron pipe connection is the safest and most efficient for the ordinary room heater.
NATURAL GAS, when properly used, not only is the cleanest, most convenient and efficient of fuels, but it is also one of the safest and most economical.
IF YOU ARE IN DOUBT regarding the safety or efficiency of your gas equipment, call our Service Department. It is maintained for the free use of our customers.

Miss Evelyn Kolb Wedded To Roy Seay

A great surprise to all Silverton was the news that Miss Evelyn Kolb and Mr. Roy Seay were married Saturday afternoon in Hollis, Okla. The Methodist pastor at Hollis performed the ceremony in the parsonage.

The bride wore a becoming silk crepe gown of white and black with a gray hat. She is the lovely and talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Kolb. She was a high school student and has a thorough musical education with a marked natural talent.

Mr. Seay is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Seay of the Haylake community, who were former residents of Childress. He is one of the county's progressive young wheat farmers. He received most of his education in Childress.

These two are among the most popular of our young people and have the community's good wishes for a life of happiness, prosperity, and usefulness.

Odd Fellows Are Invited To Lockney

The Lockney Odd Fellows and Rebecas have invited all the members of these lodges in Silverton to their Thanksgiving dinner to be given in their town this week. Several expect to be present for "the big feed."

Pretty Shower For Mrs. Wade Welch at Haylake

Quite the prettiest social affair at Haylake this season was the shower given last Thursday by Mrs. Welter Watters to the recent bride, Mrs. Wade Welch.

The house was beautifully decorated in yellow and white, and the color scheme was carried out with yellow and white chrysanthemums.

The bride was greatly surprised when she came by, as she thought for Mrs. Watters, for a trip to Quitaque with her, and found quite a number of ladies gathered there. But as the weather was bad, she thought they had come to listen to the new radio. The atmosphere changed when she was asked to the bride's chair, which was dressed in yellow and white with apple boughs arched above it and joined in the center with a large white wedding bell. As the bride sat down, a shower of rice fell from the bell upon her head.

The guests wrote their names in the bride's book together with a list of the gifts they brought and their favorite recipe. Then each pieced a block of yellow and white material for the bride's quilt. The yellow and white basket heaped with many useful presents was brought in by little Joe Nell Shaver and little Junior Davenport. The bride was overcome with joy and made a pretty speech expressing thanks to her many friends.

Refreshments of pumpkin pie, whipped cream and cocoa were served to Mesdames Wade Welch, J. C. Welch, Stanton Crowe, Freeland Bingham, Tom McCutchen, Omar Cornett, H. B. McClendon, T. W. Devenport, Bell Watters, Lena Stanifer, J. E. Wheelock, Jack Brooks, Neva Shavers, W. H. Newman and the hostess, Mrs. Walter Watters.

Lodge Honors Mrs. E. H. Perry's Birthday Monday

The members of the Rebecas and Odd Fellows' Lodges gave Mrs. E. H. Perry a complete surprise Monday night when they celebrated her birthday with a turkey dinner in the Odd Fellows' Hall. Mrs. P. E. C. Cowart roasted a twenty-seven pound turkey, with three gallons of dressing. The other ladies brought pies, cakes, cocoa and just every thing to make an elegant feast. There were about fifty present to partake of the delicious food and to do honor to this estimable friend, Mrs. Perry. Among those who made speeches to pay her their tributes of high regard and affection were Rev. R. P. Davis, Dr. and Mrs. McCasland, Miss Brown, J. R. Foust, and perhaps twenty others. All expressed good wishes for her future as well as appreciation for her past life. Mrs. Perry responded in her usual pleasing way.

Music was furnished by the Rock Creek string band under Red Diveney's leadership.

Prayer Week Program for Baptist W. M. S.

The W. M. S. of the First Baptist church met Monday in the mission study, "Doctrines of Our Faith." Mrs. R. L. Buchanan, as teacher, brought an interesting lesson to the members.

The week of prayer program will be given Dec. 2, beginning promptly at 10 o'clock in the morning. The theme for the week of prayer is "Speed the Message." Numbers are:

Speeding the Message through the Missionary—Mrs. Clifford Allard.

Speeding the Message through the Natives—Mrs. R. P. Davis.

Speeding the Message through Agency—Mrs. R. L. Buchanan.

Speeding the Message through Prayer and Stewardship—Mrs. Jim Bomar.

The society insists that all members be present and for those who do not have a part to come and listen to the program of speeding the message around the world.

Several old members were present at the last meeting. All are reminded of the bazaar which will be held Dec. 22.

Members present were Mesdames J. B. Garrison, E. H. Perry, G. C. Patton, S. Haynes, A. Dunnigan, O. C. Allard, R. P. Davis, D. O. Graham, J. R. Foust, Jim Bomar, D. M. Morgan, R. Cox, R. L. Buchanan, and Rev. R. P. Davis.

AN EVENING FAVORITE IS THE GOWN OF WHITE SATIN A LA PRINCESS

If there is anything in the way of an evening gown more lovely than the statuesque white or eggshell, if not flesh-tint princess gown in which fashion arrays woman beautiful for formal functions, the stylists that be have yet to produce it. No doubt mere man in describing what "she wore" at opera or dance would declare it to be "just a simple" white dress, but those who are in on the secret know that this so-called simplicity is all a camouflage. In reality the subtle form-fitting lines, the gently flowing flare, the absence of jewels, save a dainty pearl necklace (worth probably a "king's ransom") with earrings to match represents the very quintessence of sophisticated styling. With what consummate art, with what feeling for the classic in lines, with what rare touch of genius has this sophisticated simplicity been achieved, only the initiated can answer.

At any rate exquisite white, eggshell, or otherwise tinted satin cut a la princess, is very effective, as the lovely model in the picture bears witness. It is one of the enchanting new form-fitting styles which accents feminine charm with a fine subtlety. The finesse of the frock is attained in such style as bespeaks adroit seaming somewhere about the hipline, likewise the lengthened uneven hemline which drops at the sides. A fan she carries, and why? Because all the reports which have to do with evening modes have considerable to say in regard to the revival of fans.

It is not at all unlikely should this satin-clad queen of the evening hour, call for her wrap, her maid will be forthcoming with a luxurious black velvet mantle which is wondrously colored with white ermine or fox, for black and white is the call of the mode, and Paris acclaims the vogue of the black wrap with the white frock. Also the white ermine wrap tops the black velvet frock with chic.

Sets Birthday Dinner for Wood Harcastle

Mrs. Wood Harcastle was never more pleasing in the role of hostess than she was when presiding at the birthday dinner in compliment to her young husband last Monday night at 8:30 o'clock.

The affair was a huge surprise to "Wood" when he came from business, all the guests were present, also several nice gifts. He had brought home a small steak which he gladly shelved, for the birthday feast was ready to serve.

The cake was a beautiful creation, all ablaze with candles, and it was as delicious as it was pretty.

The guests were Mr. Harcastle's sister, Mrs. A. C. Jones, her husband and baby daughter from Plainview, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Stevenson, Zell Stevenson, Eurnice Gregg, A. G. Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Allard and Joe Lynn.

Hi-League Is Organized for Young Folks

Thirteen boys and girls from the ages of 13 to 17 met Sunday at six o'clock and organized a Hi-League with Kemp Thompson as president. This is an organization in which the young folks of the adolescent age will feel perfectly at home and can do a great work, states Chester Strickland, instrumental in organization of the league.

The district Hi-League rally comes within a few weeks at Floydada, and the local members are working hard to have twenty or more young people enlisted, a good record made and a large attendance from Silverton at the rally.

Officers elected were: Kemp Thompson, president; Mayvis Strickland, vice-president; Bonnie Mae Walling, secretary; Hoyt Hill, treasurer; Fern Blocker, reporter; Wanda King, Era agent; Powell Miller, 1st department supt.; Mildred Summers, 2nd department supt.; Einell Smithee, 3rd department supt.; Christine Bundy, 4th department supt.

Those present at the first meeting were: Kemp Thompson, Christine Bundy, Powell Miller, Mayvis Strickland, Einell Smithee, Wanda King, Rosie Cloyd, Fern Blocker, Mildred Summers, Ruth Thomson, Bonnie Mae Walling, Hoyt Hill and Donnell Alexander.

An invitation is extended to all young folks to join and have at least 20 members next Sunday night.

Miss Teresa Bomar Entertained in Brother's Home

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bomar entertained for their sister, Miss Teresa Bomar, with a bridge party last Friday night. There were wall vases of gay flowers and bowls and pots of flowers and ferns. The tallies were suggestive of autumn in their color and design. A delicious repast of chicken salad, pickles, sandwiches, fruit cake and coffee was served. The invitation list included Misses Clinkscals, Brown, Bomar, King, Sadie Summers, Anna Summers, and Laurina Summers; Messrs Strickland, Jack Coffee, Troy Burson, Neale Crawford, Clarence Anderson, Ned Baird and Mr. and Mrs. Wood Harcastle.

Elva Wright Is Active In T. W. C. Club Work

Miss Elva Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Wright of Silverton, a student in Texas Womans' College, will spend the Thanksgiving holidays in the home of Mrs. Eva Ponder, a relative in Dallas, Texas.

Miss Wright is a freshman in T. W. C. and is active in the Hughes West Texas Club, in the Art club, and in the Young Woman's Christian Association.

She sends home enthusiastic reports of the enlargement program that is being sponsored by the college. The campaign is being waged for the purpose of endowing two chairs, one honoring Carl Venth, Dean of the Fine Arts Department and the other honoring Mrs. Mary L. Hargrove, former professor of Bible, and of providing funds to acquire additional equipment to meet the growing needs of the college.

Noah and Nellie Cherry Pies for Lumbermen

T. M. Nichols was acclaimed a most successful host, when, on last Saturday, he entertained visiting managers and employees from the Willson & Son Lumber company's yards in neighboring towns, with an enjoyable program at the company's handsome new local office. And there at the Silver Moon Cafe he had a delicious fried chicken dinner with the famous "Noah & Nellie" cherry pies a-la-more served to his fifteen guests. It was a memorable affair for the out-of-town visitors and local friends.
