

BRISCOE COUNTY NEWS

Thursday, March 5, 1936

PUBLISHED WEEKLY AT SILVERTON, TEXAS

Volume XXVII--Number 48

Announcing... TO THE VOTERS

Grady Wimberly will have his announcement in this column next week.

LIBRARY MEMBERSHIP GROWS

Membership to the Silvertown Library is growing. The Library has a fine collection of books and should have the support of all Silvertown people. If you have any books you'd like to donate to this worthy project, they will be gladly received.

Following is a list of the names of those who have already paid their yearly dues, which are $1.00 per year: A. P. Dickerson, Mrs. Q. E. Brown, Mrs. Finley White, Mrs. Clyde Matzell, Miss Anna Lee Anderson, Mrs. E. H. Stephens, Mr. C. D. Wright, Mrs. Bert Douglas, Mrs. Ernest Tibbets, Mrs. A. R. Castleberry, Mrs. Fred Lemons, Mrs. Overton McInynolds, Miss Wilma Dickenson, Mrs. T. R. Whiteside, Mr. Jim Danna, and Mrs. J. H. Williamson. Leave your dollar with Miss Lizzie Legg at her office in the court house. She is acting as Treasurer for the library. The library is open every Saturday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock.

Briscoe County To Help Furnish "American Guide" Material

Material is being gathered in district No. 17 of the Works Progress Administration for the American Guide, under the supervision of the Federal Writers' Project, according to Miss Jess Key, local supervisor.

This project is sponsored by the professional and service projects division of the W.P.A. Material will be gathered by eight paid field workers with the assistance of persons in each county who are interested in collecting and preserving interesting facts about their locale.

Constructive work has already been done in Lubbock, Cochran, Hockley, Crosby and Dickens counties. Bailey, Botley, Floyd, Hale, Lamb, Farmer, Castro, Swisher, Briscoe and Hall counties will be organized within a short time. Miss Key said.

GULF SERVICE STATION INTO NEW HANDS

T. E. Roussin, of Denver, Colorado, has taken over the management of the Gulf Service Station, north of the Silvertown Hotel, formerly operated by N. Cline. Mr. Cline will devote his spare time to work at the gin. Mr. Roussin, the new operator, has been in the service station business in Denver for several years. New greasing equipment is being installed soon and a new line of accessories. Gulf gasoline, Gulfbuft motor oil, and National Tires are handled. Mr. Roussin promises to give real service and invites your patronage.

FARM LOAN MEETING

The Board of Directors of the Silvertown National Farm Loan Association will meet Saturday, March 7 to elect a successor to Cooper Wimberly, who passed away last week. Mr. Wimberly served as director there for many years.

GIN TO CLOSE MARCH 14

The Silvertown Gin will close its ginning season Saturday, March 14, according to Carl Crow, manager. Any cotton should bring it before that date.

METHODIST CHURCH A. A. Peacock, pastor.

Monday "Service" is Best Preparation Monday "Serving."

The church is truly a "service station." Offering new glimpses of truth, offering new lines of thought, offering quiet relaxation, quickening the Jaded human spirit. COME—"FIND REST" was the intention of the founder. by the Methodist Church Sunday School—10:00 a. m. Teaching—11:00 a. m. P.—7:00 p. m. Teaching—7:45 p. m.

Indeed, unless a man can link his own thoughts with the everlasting thoughts of men, so that they shall draw them as from wells, there is no immortality to the thoughts and the soul than to the muscles and the bones.—Henry Ward Beecher.

Just received a shipment of card board in all the wanted colors, black, red, blue, buff and yellow. Bright colored construction paper also, News office.

WHEAT GROWERS MEETING

The Wheat Growers Co-operative Association will hold a meeting at the District Court Room Saturday, March 7 at 1:00 p. m. Every interested farmer is asked to attend. J. Frank Triplet of Amarillo will be at the meeting.

Pioneer Resident Passes Away

Another of the Briscoe County pioneers is gone.

Cooper Wimberly, 75 years old, and a resident of this county since 1890, passed away Thursday, February 27, at his home in Tullia, Texas.

Mr. Wimberly came to Briscoe county in 1890 from Stevens County, and homesteaded in the southwest corner of the county, and where he has made his home ever since—a fine type of pioneer, and one who did more than his share in the building of Briscoe County. He was an excellent business man, always at work, and a member of the Silvertown Farm Loan Association for twelve years.

Cooper Wimberly, a member of the Baptist church, was a man who lived his religion in his every day life. During the past few hard years, donation after donation of flour, meat, and clothing, were made by Mr. Wimberly, to those less fortunate than himself, and always in a quiet unobtrusive way.

His death was typical of the life he lived. Catching cold on a bus a few days before, he refused to let it interfere with his business and contracted pneumonia fever.

The funeral was held at the Baptist church in Tullia, conducted by the pastor of that church, and assisted by Rev. Boles of the Presbyterian church. The high esteem in which he was held is shown by the fact that 1,000 persons, from every county around, gathered there to pay their last respects.

He leaves behind to mourn, besides a host of friends, his wife, Mrs. Wimberly, three sons, Clifford, of Vega, Texas; Carl and Abner of Briscoe county; two daughters, Mrs. Townsend Douglas, Tullia, and Mrs. L. G. Conner of Tullia; and many other relatives.

MANY TEXAS RELICS FOUND

The desk used by Anson Jones, president of the Republic of Texas; an imprint in clay, now turned to rock, of a man's right hand with the scrawled inscription "S. F. A., 1831" (believed to be a personal record of Stephen F. Austin); a watch worn by a Texas soldier who guarded Gen. Santa Anna after his capture at San Jacinto; a bit of gold braid from the uniform worn by Gen. Tom Green who fell before enemy grape shot when the Northern Army sacked Blair's Landing on Red River. These are just a few of the interesting relics which have come to light through the "relic hunt" sponsored by the historical exhibits department of the Texas Centennial Exposition.

"The heavy demand for entry blanks, with no indication of what information they may return, convinces us that we were correct when we surmised that hundreds of historically valuable items are hidden away in the homes of Texans," declared Miss Emma Kyle Burleson, Austin, chairman of the contest committee.

ABOUT YOUR HEALTH

In speaking about epidemics, Dr. John W. Brown, State Health officer, stated that if doctors, nurses, householders, and others report the occurrence of any communicable disease immediately to the local health officer, that many epidemics could be prevented or greatly curtailed.

The control of preventable diseases depends upon the perfect reporting of all cases. It is necessary to secure information as to when and where cases occur before the proper steps for the control of these cases can be taken. Every epidemic starts with one case and the doctors engaged in protecting the public health are interested in locating this first case or prevent its spread to others.

Some of the contagious diseases are quarantinable. This is not done to punish the persons involved for having the disease, but to protect the well. The quarantine sign is not a disgrace but a badge of good citizenship, as it shows that household is trying to protect others from contracting a contagious disease.

Just received a shipment of card board in all the wanted colors, black, red, blue, buff and yellow. Bright colored construction paper also, News office.

Sam Houston's "Man" Gets a Job

"Uncle Ro" Adams, once body servant to Gen. Sam Houston, will be 108 years old, March 7, 1936, the day Texas, where Gen. Houston ever will be a historic figure, celebrates its one hundredth year of independence from Mexico.

"Uncle Ro" Adams, shown above as William A. Webb, manager of the Texas Centennial Exposition, which opens at Dallas June 6, assures him he will have an Exposition job.

Silvertown Ladies At Quitaque

The Quitaque citizens are interested in the Floral Club's plan to organize county-wide Home Demonstration work. A good crowd of Quitaque women turned out last Friday afternoon in the auditorium of their school building to organize the Quitaque Club. Several women of the Silvertown branch went to Quitaque to help the club get started.

Mrs. Clyde Wright opened the meeting and introduced Mrs. Finley White, wife of the county agent, who addressed the ladies on the benefits to be derived from exchanging information and instruction on gardening, home economics, and all phases of home problems and work, until the county can have a Home Demonstrator to give the work to Briscoe County. Mrs. T. L. Anderson, Mrs. R. M. Hill, and Mrs. Miner Crawford offered suggestions and further explained the work to those who were present.

The women of Quitaque and Gasoline who were at the meeting expressed strong desires for a county demonstrator. They are hopeful that the Commissioners will soon be able to arrange for all communities in Briscoe County to have the services of a Home Demonstrator agent, in order that the women of our county may have the new ideas and up-to-date scientific methods in home-making which our neighboring counties are privileged to have.

There will be a meeting for all the women of this county in the District Court room at Silvertown, Saturday, March 7, at 2:30 p. m., for the purpose of perfecting the County Home Demonstration Club. Every community is invited to be as well represented as possible, at this meeting.

1935 SETS NEW HIGH MARK FOR INTERNATIONAL TRUCK SALES

The year 1935 proved the most notable in the history of International motor trucks, recording new high marks in both sales and expansion of the line, according to Marvin Tull, local agent.

Exceeding the combined industry every month last year in percentage gains over the corresponding months in 1934, International established a 69.5 per cent gain for the year in new truck registrations, compared with a 26.4 per cent gain for the industry. 53,471 trucks were sold in 1935.

The new International models were: six six-wheel units in both trailing-axle and dual-drive types with maximum carrying capacities ranging from 11,400 to 23,000 pounds; five two-speed rear axle models with speed and power combined in a single chassis for two-purpose performance; and the Model C-5, a half-ton unit specially designed for multi-stop service.

Fossil Bed Found Near Silvertown

Mrs. Stuart Johnston, supervisor of the W.P.A. Archaeology project at Clarendon has moved her men to ten miles south of Silvertown where they have found an unusually rich fossil bed.

After only two days work Stuart Johnston, head of the archaeology department of the West Texas State Teachers College, and his assistant, Don Savage, were able to bring in two car loads of material to be prepared for display in the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society museum at Canyon.

A giant ground sloth, an unusually large wolf, a camel, the remains of horses as large as the modern horse are among the uncovered fossils.

Mr. Johnston says that these fossils are of the Pleistocene age and are at least a million years old. He expects to find a complete horse's skeleton very similar to the modern horse.

The men are very enthusiastic about their work at Silvertown and arrangements are being made to bring them in soon to see the museum and see how the material which they discover and dig up is prepared for display.

These fossil beds are located on land belonging to Mr. Mayfield and Mr. McDaniels of Silvertown.

EDUCATIONAL CONFERENCE MARCH 6 and 7th

The Northwest Texas Conference for Education will hold its third annual convention at the West Texas State Teachers College on March 6 and 7. This conference was organized as a layman's meeting as well as an inspirational and informational meeting for teachers and school trustees.

Supt. W. B. Irvin, president of the conference, has arranged a very practical, worth-while, and interesting program. Mr. Willard W. Beatty, who is superintendent of schools at Bronckville, New York, and Frank W. Hart, Professor of Education in the University of California, will appear on the program.

Every county superintendent and county school board of the twenty-five counties of District One are invited to be present at this conference.

SOUTH PLAINS PRODUCE CHANGES MANAGEMENT

The South Plains Produce, south of the Magnolia Service Station, formerly operated by E. L. Darrough, has been acquired by Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Jarry, from Petersburg, Texas. Mr. Jarry, an experienced produce man, took charge Tuesday morning.

Get your typewriter ribbons at the News office.

PUBLIC NOTICE

The City of Silvertown will have a truck available for hauling trash and junk to the junk ground, on March 16th.

Please clean up your premises and have rubbish on alley so as to be available to truck.

T. C. BOMAR, Mayor

Clean Up Trash This Next Week

The coming week has been set aside as 'city clean-up week'. It is hoped that everyone will take advantage of the truck provided by the city for hauling the trash away and at some time during the week, will pile their old rubbish, tin cans, etc., on the back alley where the truck can easily pick it up.

The whole State of Texas is co-operating in this clean-up movement, in an effort to have the State as attractive as possible when tourists arrive this summer. Silvertown is cleaning up two or three weeks earlier this year than last, on that account.

Trash, with the coming of warm weather, will be unhealthful, as well as unsightly. The city is doing the hauling free of charge March 16, so have your stuff ready. Later in the summer any rubbish accumulations in the city limits will be hauled, but at the expense of the individual. Let's clean up our town.

SUBSCRIPTION LIST GROWING

Subscribers to the Briscoe County News have been very prompt in paying their subscriptions and very few names are on the mailing list that are not paid up in advance.

Among those who have renewed their subscriptions the past month are: J. F. Davis, Frank Havron, John Vaughn, H. L. O. Riddle, T. T. Crass, Ernest Tibbets, Marvin Tull, A. H. Dudley.

New subscribers are: Jim Busby, Pampa, Texas; Lubbock Chamber of Commerce; Carroll Garrison, Channing, Texas; W. Coffee, Jr.; R. N. Sheid, Sagerton, Texas; Earl Malone, Vigo Park, Texas; W. M. Malone, Vigo Park, Texas; O. F. Kolb.

If your name label on your paper shows that the time has expired, please come in and renew. It's not a large amount for you to pay, but at the end of a year it amounts to "red" or "black" for the News office. Drop in at the office or hand your money to Miss Faye Allard.

SMALL TOWN ACCIDENTS

Two out of three automobile fatalities last year happened in small towns and rural communities, according to the National Safety Council. Many had supposed that most of these tragedies occur in cities of some size, where it is often hard to get across a street safely.

What are the perils of these smaller communities. One hazard is that there are apt to be too few policemen, also a lack of traffic signals. The average small town is not probably able to send around officers to the schoolhouses at opening and closing time. The pupils have to take their own chances of getting across the street. Many motorists run at full speed past a school where a lot of buoyant and heedless youngsters are rushing out. If some kid sees his baseball going out in the street, he just has to get it, cars or no cars. Then when the limp form of a mortally injured boy is picked up, who is to blame?

The habit of dodging around corners at high speed probably prevails more in the smaller places than the large ones. In the larger city even the reckless driver is a little afraid of the cops. In the small city with an inadequate number of officers, that kind of driver may be more likely to slip around a corner without slowing down, failing to notice someone about to cross.

Even out in the country some child or grown person may slip out from behind some tree or bush, and step in the way of a 60-mile-an-hour car.

Fast driving at night also must produce a good many accidents. When a motorist's eyes are dazzled by headlights, the chance that he will see the pedestrian in the roadway are not so good. The traffic peril is always with us, whether we live in a big city or a little rural village.—Childress Index.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Wallace of Canyon, was in Silvertown, Tuesday visiting relatives and friends, the Wallaces formerly lived in Silvertown and have many friends here who are always glad to see them.

Agricultural Briefs

By County Agent

Our protracted cold spell has finally cleared up enough to let the ground thaw out. Since the ground has thawed our wheat has begun growing in a hurry. These old plains are beginning to put on their Sunday clothes again. Old timers allow as to how wheat prospects are good now. There is sufficient moisture in the ground to hold wheat in good shape for another 30 days. By that time we hope we will have some rain—but if we don't our wheat should be able to hold up a long time because we planted seed from wheat that never saw any rain at all last year.

New Farm Program

The new farm program finally cleared its last hurdle. It is now a law. Our big problem now is finding out what the law is and what they expect us to do about it. Of course we are also interested in knowing what pay we are to receive for the part we play in the deal. At present none of us know just what we are supposed to do nor do we know just how we're going to do what we are supposed to do.

The new program is strictly a voluntary arrangement made "kinda" on the "gentleman agreement" plan between the farmer and Uncle Sam. There is to be no written contract nor will there be any rented acres. I'm sure the paper mills and pencil factories hated to hear the news that there wasn't to be any contracts to sign. They will lose lots of business on that account and will no doubt attack the constitutionality of the law from that angle—just as the ginners and cotton factories jumped on the AAA when they lost business by the reduction program. Maybe the "Mighty Nine" will let this new bill stand the even if the paper sellers and pencil makers do suffer a little.

Terracing and Contouring

With this pretty weather staying on we are getting lots of terrace and contour lines run. These days are ideal for the job and we're pushing things as fast as possible. Terracing and contouring has long been a proven method of conserving moisture and soil. Many farmers in Briscoe county are trying for their first time to do something about the loss of soil and water from their fields. Fortunately for the present and future generations our farmers are awakening to this great move before our soils are ruined. A field properly terraced or contoured has three distinct advantages over one that is not terraced or contoured viz: (1) Moisture can be conserved, (2) Erosion from wind will be held to a minimum and (3) Erosion from water (when it does rain) will be held to a minimum. Either of these three advantages alone would be sufficient reason for doing the job, but when you get them all three in one deal you get tripple pay for the job.

Subsidy Payment

A great many questions are being asked about the proposed payments on cotton to bring the price to 12c.

There will be a payment made to producers up to their Bankhead allotment of the difference between the average price of the 10 spot markets and 12c on the date cotton was sold. The difference is never to exceed 2c per pound. Example: If you sold a bale of cotton on Nov. 25 for 10.85 and the average of the 10 spot markets that day was 10.60 you would get the difference in 10.60 and 12c. If you sold a bale of cotton on Dec. 1st for 11c and the average of the 10 spot markets that day was 11.50 you would get the difference in 11.50 and 12c.

The state office has called for the forms applying for this subsidy payment and we feel like we will be getting some pay on them sometime during 1936.

NOTICE

The Palace Theatre Matinee will begin Saturdays at 1:00 p. m. in order that you may attend the Trade Day Meeting at 4:00 p. m.

FOR SALE—3½ miles due east of Lockney, Tuesday, March 10. Going to highest bidder—9 head good mules and horses, harness, farming implements. Terms, cash; W. J. King, Lockney, Texas.

FOR SALE—Slightly used portable Phonograph with ten records. Call at Cowart Variety Store.

FOR SALE—McCormick-Douglas Farm and Equipment. Also 1 from Heavy work Hopper. JOE H. SMITH

CURRENT EVENTS IN REVIEW

By Edward W. Pickard

Townsend Plan Inquiry Attracts Attention

WHILE waiting for instructions as to what to do in the matter of taxation, the members of the house—and many others—directed their attention to the investigation of the activities of the Townsend pension plan promoters.

It was expected that one of the first questions to be considered by the committee would be the salaries received by Dr. Francis E. Townsend, author of the scheme, and R. E. Clements, former California real estate operator, co-founder and general manager.

Congressman John Steven McGroarty, California's "poet laureate," says the Townsends will control the house of representatives at the next session, and adds: "They have built up the largest political organization in the history of America, with 10 million enrolled members."

Gen. Hagood Punished for New Deal Criticism

MAJ. GEN. JOHNSON HAGOOD recently suggested to the house appropriations subcommittee that congress take advantage of what he termed "WPA stage money" and use it to improve housing at army posts.

"By order of the President, Maj. Gen. Johnson Hagood, United States army is relieved from assignment to the command of the Eighth Corps area and further duty at Fort Sam Houston, Texas."

Two Prominent Men Are Claimed by Death

DEATH took from the scene two men prominent in national life—Albert Cabell Ritchie, governor of Maryland for four terms, and Henry Latrobe Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy and distant cousin of the President.

Henry L. Roosevelt was the fifth member of his family to serve as assistant secretary of the navy, and in recent months he had played an increasingly important part in the affairs of the department, acting as secretary during the illness of Secretary Swanson.

Week-End Activities of President Roosevelt

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT had a busy week-end. First he went to Philadelphia and received from Temple University the honorary degree of doctor of jurisprudence.

"It is this belief in the freedom of the mind, written into our fundamental law and observed in our every day dealings with the problems of life, that distinguishes us as a nation."

Ship Subsidy Measure Seems to Be Discarded

DEVELOPMENTS in Washington lead to the belief that the Copeland ship subsidy bill has been abandoned. Word came from the White House that the President, although he initiated the principles of the measure, would not press for its passage.

Shipping interests have given warning that new construction for foreign trade will continue to be paralyzed by uncertainty and lead to additional insistence by the Navy department of the building of its own auxiliaries.

New Farm Relief Bill Sent to Conference

DIFFERENCES between the house and senate versions of the new farm relief measure were utterly irreconcilable. If you could take the work of the conferees of both bodies to whom the bill was sent. Nevertheless, it was expected the disputes would all be adjusted within a few days and the measure sent to the White House.

Senator Smith, chairman of the senate agriculture committee, voiced indignant opposition to a house amendment providing that tenant farmers and sharecroppers shall be included in cash benefits paid landowners for conserving soil and thus controlling production.

Eden Warns That Another World War Impends

CAPT. ANTHONY EDEN, British foreign minister, stood up in the house of commons and warned the world that recurrence of the World war was imminent and in his opinion could not be averted except by a system of collective security "embracing all nations in an authority which is unchallenged and unchallengeable."

Eden impressed upon members of the parliament the difference between a policy of collective security and one of encirclement, such as the "ring of steel" which Germany complains is being forged about her by France.

Earlier in his speech the minister announced that the sanctions already imposed upon Italy by members of the League of Nations are achieving their purpose of hastening the cessation of war between Italy and Ethiopia.

Puerto Rico Slayings May Start Reforms

POLITICAL conditions in Puerto Rico, notoriously unsatisfactory, may be rectified as a result of the assassination in San Juan of E. Francis Riggs, chief of the insular police, and a district police chief, Riggs, a former United States army colonel, was shot by two Nationalists; two hours later District Police Chief Francisco Velez N. Ortiz attempted to put down a Nationalist riot at a cafe in the central town of Utuado and was killed.

The assassins of Riggs were caught and admitted the killing, saying it was in revenge for the Rio Pedras "massacre" in which police killed four Nationalists last November. While being questioned, the murderers, the police said, reached for guns and were shot to death.

Neutrality Act Extended for Another Year

BOTH house and senate passed the resolution extending for one year the existing embargo on arms, ammunition, and implements of war, and prohibiting loans and credits to belligerents.

Senator Nye was out of the city when the senate assembled, an hour earlier than usual, to act on the measure. Hearing what was going on, he flew from Minneapolis through a storm and arrived five minutes before the final vote but too late to put through any of his proposed amendments.

SEC Head Is Worried by Stock Speculation

JAMES M. LANDIS, chairman of the securities and exchange commission, speaking at an alumni meeting at Princeton university, expressed great concern over increased stock market speculation, and set forth three methods, whereby the government might curb it.

"One sees with concern," Landis said, "the efforts of traders to outguess events, like court decisions, and the increasing tendency subtly generated to induce people to pour their savings into the market with heedlessness as before."

"Still too prevalent, as our monthly reports show, is the tendency of officers and directors to toy with the stock of their corporations at the expense of their true responsibility of functioning as executives."

Gen. "Billy" Mitchell Is Dead of Heart Attack

ONE of the most spectacular and dynamic figures in American life of today passed with the death of Brig. Gen. William Mitchell in a New York hospital. He succumbed to a heart attack and influenza at the age of fifty-seven years. "Billy," as he was known to airmen, was commander in chief of the American air forces in France during the World war and was decorated by six governments. Afterward, while yet in the regular service, he severely criticized the government's air preparedness policy and was court-martialed and suspended.

Couzens Is Investigating W. J. Cummings' Salaries

POSITIONS and salaries of Walter J. Cummings, treasurer of the Democratic national committee, are to be investigated by Senator Couzens, Republican, Michigan, in connection with his inquiry into appointments made under operations of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation in financing banks and railroads.

The senator declared that Mr. Cummings is receiving more than $90,000 annually as a result of appointments obtained at the behest of the RFC. Mr. Cummings is receiving $75,000 annually as chairman of the Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust company of Chicago, according to Senator Couzens, who said that Cummings' recent appointment as trustee of the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Pacific railroad to represent RFC interests meant an addition of $15,000 to his income annually.

Mr. Cummings does not deny that he is receiving these salaries but contends they are justified.

Philadelphia Paper Wins Criminal Libel Suit

THE Philadelphia Inquirer, accused of criminal libel by Attorney General Charles J. Margiotti of Pennsylvania, was acquitted of the charge by a jury of five housewives and seven men. The costs of the trial, however, were placed on the defendant. The basis of the attorney general's charge was an article printed by the Inquirer on September 29, 1935, during a majority campaign in Philadelphia, which said Mr. Margiotti's law partners and associates were planning a "big tax fee grab." Acquitted with the Inquirer were its editor, John Trevor Custis, and general manager, Charles A. Tyler, co-defendants.

Interesting Selections of Convention Delegates

SELECTIONS of delegates to the national conventions, already being made in some states, are interesting, especially in the case of New York. Representative Hamilton Fish, supporting Borah for the Republican Presidential nomination, led a hot fight to displace some of the "old guard" and lost, the state committee naming these delegates at large:

Charles D. Hilles and Mrs. Ruth Pratt, members of the national committee; Mrs. Robert Low Bacon, vice chairman of the state committee; Representative Bertrand H. Snell, minority leader of the house; Representative James W. Wadsworth, former United States senator; Edward H. Butler, publisher of the Buffalo Evening News; John R. Crews, Brooklyn leader; Charles H. Griffiths, Westchester county chairman.

Tammany made public the list of its delegates to the Democratic convention, and it is headed by Alfred E. Smith who will represent the tip of Manhattan and Staten Island.

BRISBANE THIS WEEK

If Five Dictators Unite England Is Feverish

Arthur Brisbane

Rome hints that Mussolini and Hitler have arranged a protective treaty with Austria, Poland and Hungary. Five countries under dictators, united against England and France, still experimenting with the old "democracy," would be interesting.

One dictator, Stalin, supposed to have an understanding with France, might offset the other combination.

Also, Hitler will remember that in 1914 Germany recalled she had Italy in a "triple alliance"—Italy-Austria-Germany, but Italy did not stay. Had she stayed, the war might have ended otherwise.

Mr. Eden, young foreign secretary, tells England modern conditions are "dreadfully" like conditions before 1914. England must arm herself to the teeth and have, for final objective, "a world-wide system of collective security which embraces all nations in an authority which is unchallenged and unchallengeable."

That might be done by two or three countries closely united, although the airplane makes everything in war uncertain. It might destroy a capital city and an alliance in one morning, as a pistol destroys the strongest man.

Countess Barbara Hutton Hangwitz-Reventlow has a new baby boy weighing seven and a half pounds, and twenty million dollars; that in gold at the present price would weigh more than thirty thousand pounds. Ask Barbara Hutton Hangwitz-Reventlow, as she holds that small baby, its eyes not focused, one small hand holding her finger, whether she would rather have the baby or the $20,000,000, and she will think your question silly. She would not take a million millions for the baby.

This proves that any good young woman who marries a kind young man may be richer than any "five and ten" heiress.

Gen. William E. Mitchell was buried in the family burial plot in Milwaukee, not in Arlington cemetery.

Having fought all his life against the enemies of his country and the stupidity of his superiors, he wanted peace at the last.

He lies beside his father, a United States senator from Wisconsin.

General Mitchell has gone wherever patriotic, brave men go; some that opposed him will not follow him there.

At Greenwood Lake, N. Y., a mail-carrying rocket went 2,000 feet from New York to New Jersey over Greenwood lake, while spectators smiled in derision.

Other spectators smiled when Fulton tried his first steamboat.

In Madison, Wis., death masks of Indians, more than 3,000 years old, found in burial grounds, lead back to savages of the Eskimo type that hunted mammoths near the beautiful Wisconsin lakes 15,000 years ago. Those ancient savages, instead of burying the dead, cleaned the skeletons neatly, covered the skulls with lifelike masks of clay, kept their relatives with them for years.

The human race has done queer things always. Russia has Lenin, embalmed, exhibited in the great Red square of Moscow.

The world becomes gradually democratic. In King George's funeral procession everybody walked. At his father's funeral, the great all went on horseback, including King George's cousin, the former kaiser, on a prancing white horse.

Now King Edward VIII orders simpler uniforms, less fancy dressing in Buckingham palace.

President Lewis, fifty, head of the miners' union, plenty of cash on hand, offers William Green, American Federation of Labor head, $500,000 for a campaign to organize 500,000 men in the steel industry. Mr. Green, a long-time union man, has not accepted the offer. He knows how easy it is for one man to become a tail for the other man's kite.

Dr. Alfred Adler, competent psychologist, says the Dionne quintuplets "should be separated, for their own good."

Mrs. Watson Davis, for Science Service, says the world needs just now: A remedy for the two greatest "killers of men," cancer and organic heart disease; a substitute for power, developed in primitive fashion from oil, coal, etc. That means harnessing the sun to one end of the scale, the atom at the other.

Claim Victory for Roosevelt

Observers Believe President Growing in Strength; See Big Fight Ahead

By EARL GODWIN

WASHINGTON.—Roosevelt has been President for three years now, and if an election were to be held today he would be elected again with about 294 electoral votes out of the 531 in the electoral college. That means he would have 33 states as the line-up develops now, whereas he had 472 votes in 1932, to Hoover's 59. Roosevelt had the majority in 42 states, and the only large state Hoover carried was Pennsylvania, which both parties now are claiming.

Popularly, Roosevelt now rates about 55, contrasted to 70 when he was inaugurated; but he has been through a grueling battle with the opposition propagandists, who have had the advantage of a surly and unfair city press. This combination had Roosevelt down to the 50 mark about two months ago, when the Power Trust filled the air, mails, press and whispering galleries with the sort of mid-term rot that every President has to stand for. But by dint of letting the truth come to light, Roosevelt is again on his way upward. By the time he gets into his stride and the country is applauding him for the fighting candidate he is, there is not a Republican now mentioned for the candidacy who can lick him, although two or three of them could give him a stiff battle.

Washington observers believe Roosevelt will grow in strength from now on, and that he will be re-elected by a majority sufficient to mark a genuine victory—but only after a terrific campaign in which every ounce of strength will be used. The poll attracting the most attention here gives to the Republican party the six stalwart states: Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Pennsylvania and Delaware as definitely G. O. P., and Connecticut, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Colorado, Ohio and Illinois as veering Republican. These states have 157 electoral votes out of 531. But Democrats here are confident that Pennsylvania, with its 36 votes, will be carried for Roosevelt. Three great states, with a total of 80 votes—New York, Michigan and Indiana—are listed as 50-50. On the borderline, but veering Democratic with a total of 55 votes, are West Virginia, Maryland, Kansas, Wyoming, Minnesota, South Dakota and Wisconsin.

The 26 remaining states, with 229 votes, are listed definitely Democratic. These are the indications that Roosevelt would be elected today with 294 electoral votes out of 531. My opinion is that he will do better in November, but the situation presages a fierce battle for border states.

GOES NEUTRAL BY LAW

I think the best way to tell the intricate story of the government's sincere effort to be neutral in wars in years to come is to recall the three mistakes made in the case of the Lusitania, British ship torpedoed by Germans. These three mistakes helped drag us into the World war. First, she carried a cargo of ammunition to England; second, she carried that ammunition sold in America by American munitions makers on credit; third, she carried 159 American citizens joy-riding a belligerent ship toward the war zone—and 124 of them went to the bottom of the sea.

Had we then been as neutral as we now want to be, we would not allow warring countries to borrow our money to buy munitions from our gun and powder makers; we would not permit American citizens to stick their necks out and have them shot off by foreign countries.

But tremendous commercial interests, pulling great strings at Washington, make it difficult for this government to be as neutral as the people would like. I think most Americans would want the President to insulate and isolate the United States from all touch of war; to prohibit the shipment of anything to anybody connected with a war; not only an embargo on arms and ammunition, but on those necessities which warring countries need in the way of goods, clothing and raw materials—particularly oil and gasoline.

But we are not going quite that far because there is danger of being completely unfair—and so the government now goes neutral by law, extending its temporary neutrality again for about fourteen months. We will not ship ammunition to a warring country, unless it be an American country warring against a foe somewhere else (as have to father the South Americans). We will not permit a warring country to come here to raise money for slaughter and thus have a pocketbook hold on our sympathy.

PROCESSING TAXES

When Henry Wallace, secretary of agriculture, said that returning the processing taxes to the packers and millers was "The greatest legalized steal in history" Representative Treadway of Massachusetts declared that Wallace should be impeached. But Wallace knows, and after Treadway again insisted on impeachment, Senator George Norris of Nebraska called for the facts.

They show that returning three hundred million dollars to packers and millers will be an outright gift of public money several times as large as the net incomes of the industries involved for a period of several years.

The largest refunds go to a group of cotton millers, who will get $97,000,000; meat-packers who will get $98,000,000; and wheat millers $80,000,000. These huge sums have already been collected by these manufacturers from the public, who, in many instances have been charged retail prices several times as large as the processing taxes, until the cost of living has pyramided and has become a political issue. The packers and millers particularly have objected publicly to the payment of the processing taxes, and have declared in most instances that they were not able to pass on the cost to the public. However, an examination of the business of most of these concerns shows that some of them used the processing tax as a reason for unjustified increases in prices to the public.

Claim Victory for Roosevelt

its tributaries drain; and it is so situated economically, socially, politically and geographically, that it lent itself ideally to the Roosevelt experiment.

For a full century the government has eyed the possibilities of the Tennessee river. In the World war the government developed Muscle Shoals as a power plant, and when Roosevelt became President the government started to make the rivers navigable—to make the country more livable—the soil more productive; to stop the erosion of the hills and mountains which were sliding millions of tons of soil into the rivers every year. In addition, the government started several large dams, miles long, hundreds of feet high. Water dammed up behind these walls and then, swishing through huge turbines, will make electricity enough to furnish cheap power to every home and factory in the entire seven-state area.

The opposition attacked the TVA, stating it was socialistic, communistic, crazy, brain-trusty and flighty. But the real objective of these attacks was to keep the government from showing up the high rates of the electric power business.

A suit was entered against TVA by stockholders in the Alabama Power company, was upheld in a federal court by a judge named Grubb; reversed in the Federal Court of Appeals, and became the case which the Supreme Court of the United States upheld for the New Deal. It means that the government can sell its excess power from these tremendous dams; and that, in turn, means that from now on the people of America are going to have the benefits of more and cheaper electric power. It means that now the same vast TVA scheme will be worked out for cheap and plentiful electricity in the whole Mississippi valley, and possibly the Columbia river valley in the Northwest.

Private power companies can do better than they have been doing. The Alabama Power company, which brought the TVA suit, woke up under government competition and, in the year just past, did its best business and recorded its greatest increase—a achievement for which the Edison institute warded this concern its annual prize.

GAVE WORKERS A BREAK

Roosevelt should not have lost the decisions on NRA and AAA, but he did; and not only that, he lost a lot of prestige with the collapse of NRA. He should not have given the Supreme court a lecture—and I think he realizes that now. The NRA was a tremendous and bold experiment, and it gave the employed classes the first good break they had experienced in years. And Roosevelt got a bad break when they knocked it out. Organized labor will not forget what NRA did for its people.

I think the loss of AAA strengthened Roosevelt's position, because he sat still, said nothing, and let the agricultural sections do the yelling. Both parties thus began to see that something constructive had to be done, and they saw the futility of arguing with a court that took agriculture as a local matter.

Of course, prior to that the New Deal shivered with fright until the Supreme court upheld the President's bold stroke in burying all the government's gold in vaults and refusing to pay bonds in the yellow metal. To my way of thinking Roosevelt took a chance on that act which was much more of a dare at the Founding Fathers than in either the NRA or AAA—but you can't guess this Supreme court of ours.

However, the court which smashed the New Deal flat as a pancake in these two great devices for restoring normal times, went completely pro-New Deal in the Tennessee Valley Authority case, and thereby upheld Roosevelt in one of the most New Dealish of all the reforms instituted by him. The opposition to Roosevelt would have let him have NRA, AAA, and a dozen more like 'em, ten times over, if they could have induced the Supreme court to render TVA's power program unconstitutional.

THE TVA PROJECT

The Power Trust was counting on ruining TVA because in the dams and waterwheels of the Tennessee river there lives the power that will some day render the Power Trust powerless, and return the resources of this country to the people as a whole.

In the vast creative scheme of things the country known as the "Tennessee Valley" was left as it has been, so that some "Gabriel Over the White House" could point the way to the experiment which will lift America into the higher order destined for its people. It is an empire of seven states, through which the Tennessee river and

FLAME IN THE FOREST

By HAROLD TITUS
Illustrations by Irwin Myers
Copyright by Harold Titus.
WNU Service.

SYNOPSIS

Kerry Young, a lad of seven, is prepared to flee the burning lumber camp of his benefactor, Jack Snow, who took the youngster to live with him at the death of Kerry's mother. Tod West has instructed Kerry to come with a file containing the camp's funds should it be endangered. Flames attack the office, and Kerry, hugging the precious file, and Tod race to town. Tod acts queerly. At the bank the file is found empty and Kerry is blamed with taking the wrong one. Snow, his headquarters and money gone, is ruined, and soon thereafter dies, leaving Kerry to the Poor Commissioner. Kerry suspects Tod and swears to even the score. In a St. Paul office Kerry, now in manhood, and an expert woodsman, learns of the whereabouts of West. Kerry rescues a lovely girl from a scoundrel, who proves to be West. Tod threatens to perjure the girl, Nan Downer. She thanks Kerry and tells him of the robbery, and murder of her father and of Tod's advances. She is operating a lumber tract which her father had purchased from West. Kerry makes camp. At the general store in West's Landing, he finds Tod engaged in a poker game.

CHAPTER IV—Continued

"Damn Mel's cigars!" said West beneath his breath, tossing his smoke away and making a wry face. "Rope!" He gazed over his shoulder toward the storekeeper, occupied behind his counter, as if he would speak. Then he looked back. "Count me out a hand," he said. "I'll run over to the house and get a real smoke."

He rose and went intently out. Young wondered. Did West so much dislike confronting him even across a poker table after what had happened that afternoon that he had fled? Or was it something else which moved him to leave?

The game went on, four-handed, and under relieved tension. West's place was vacant through one round and part of another.

On his return to the table, the good-natured atmosphere which had prevailed for those last few hands disappeared. Again, it was a gambling contest, although Tod's talk was, outwardly, all that it had been before he knew that Kerry Young was in the room. . . . Still, that feeling of apprehension, of something afoot, grew stronger in Young's heart.

It was West's deal. He rifled the cards twice adeptly and cut them for a third time. His fingers bent them, bent them fluttering against one another, and then two or three of the pack leaped from his clasp, slid across the table and spilled into his lap.

"Need a basket?" he growled and, moving back his chair, stooping over, groped for cards on the floor.

He found them, all right! He found and gathered them in the hand which he held aloft.

He found them, all right! He found and gathered them in the hand which he held aloft.

"And a dollar!" said Jim Hinkle promptly and Tod nodded wisely. "That queen must be proud of herself again. Queens ruined Sawyer, James. Well, I'll trail along."

The rest, also, saw the raise. Tod set the deck on the table before him, ostentatiously, Kerry believed. He hitched his chair closer to the table and dealt, taking cards one at a time from the pack.

The showing king drew a ten spot; the four caught a nine, Young was given a deuce and beside Hinkle's queen dropped another. . . . "Oh-oh!" muttered Tod. "You must've felt her coming," — turning himself a king.

Excitement showed in Jim Hinkle's sallow face. Why shouldn't it? With queens back-to-back, and now a third? And two kings showing in two hands? "Ten dollars," he said and his voice was too eager.

"Well, now, James. . . . I'm just a little bit proud of what I've got. I've beaten those damn queens once or twice tonight. I'll just tilt it a mite this time to try my luck. Let's bet twenty-five and keep the retailers out!"

The man at his left folded; the second hesitated and again Kerry caught that little flash of misgiving in West's eye. He wanted them all out now; all except Jim Hinkle who was already fingering his money, ready to call or raise.

The second tourist folded and Kerry silently shoved his cards away. "Raisin' fifteen, Tod?" Jim asked and this time his voice was husky. "That's the way I feel. I'll back at you!"

West rubbed his chin and grinned. "By gosh," he said, as if in chagrin. "By gosh, Jimmy, you tryin' to beat me?" An onlooker laughed. "I think you're downright tryin' to take my money and that ain't quite right. . . . Back at you with twenty!"

His voice snapped on this last and the watchers crowded closer to the chair backs. "Well, seein' as you've got so much confidence and seein' as how we've got cards comin' . . . Call!"

Three cards were dealt, now, with two showing; a pair of queens, with a lone king against them. From the top of the deck, lying so openly before him, West picked an ace and flipped it toward his adversary. For himself he turned a nine-spot.

ing. But I've an interest in it beside that. I've been sitting in the game and when I see a man stripped of his last dollar on a crooked deal—"

Tod was on his feet, a rush of crimson rage flooding his face, and his right hand was whipping at his breast, jerking open the shirt. Buttons gave, exposing the sweat-stained strap across his chest and the segment of shoulder holster.

It happened quickly; with such desperate quickness that Young could not hope for escape by flight. Before him was the table. To right and left were seated card players, too amazed and shocked and fuddled to be aware of what impended, let alone to be able to move quickly.

And so he did all that there remained to do. He rose, with a swift, flowing movement. As he rose, his hand dropped into his coat pocket.

"Stop it!" he snapped and his voice was a rasp and as West's baleful eyes caught the lift of that coat, saw the rigid projection within the pocket, he added in a half whisper: "Put 'em up. Quick, or I'll . . ."

The great hand, clutching at the pistol grip in that shoulder holster, hesitated. Young's voice was imperious, his manner commanding. "Up, now! Smartly, Tod West! . . . High. . . . Higher than that!"

Slowly, West obeyed, panting as he stood there, swaying just a little; and then the rest stamped for safety. The two stood there, facing one another across the table, West's eyes glassy, a stringer of spittle at the corner of his mouth; and Kerry Young, the stranger, hand steady in his jacket pocket, was smiling oddly.

"Next," he said, "you will turn around so I can take your toy away. You won't be harmed, but neither will I. Now!" — as West hesitated. "Face to the wall, or I may have to . . ."

Once more, he left a threat unfinished. For an instant longer West held his ground and then the hand in that pocket twitched. He turned at the ominous gesture and slowly faced the wall.

Quickly, with a light tread, Young stepped close behind him. A prodding projection pressed the small of the larger man's back. Young's free hand went over the other's shoulder, inside his shirt and dragged out the flat, ugly automatic.

From the doorway a man swore in surprise. Tod West carrying a gun? It was incredible!

decks? . . . Course there are! You can find a half dozen on the stein shelf!"

But his bluster was not convincing. He had not regained his self-possession.

"Perhaps," said Kerry with a shrug "Perhaps, West. You may be able to alibi yourself neatly, but you know and I know!"

He went slowly forward a few steps. "Know me, West?" he asked. "Know me? Never saw me, eh? . . . Maybe, then, it'll refresh your memory to recall things."

"After I saw you steal from Jim, here; after I saw you cheat a poor man for a few dollars, Tod West. . . . after I saw your smallness now, I say then I knew that I didn't take the wrong letter-file the day old Jack Snow went broke!"

Color drained from Tod's face but into his eyes came a glitter, a craft, covering and subduing the gush of insane temper such as had swept them when he reached for his gun, yonder at the card table. He did not speak at once. He may have known that this brazen youth had not convinced all who had watched of his duplicity; that a withering gesture had not wholly wrecked the place he had built for himself in this country.

"Don't you know me?" Kerry taunted when he did not speak. "Don't you remember me at all? . . . I'm Young; Kerry Young. . . . And I took out the file you told me to take, that day old Jack had his death blow!"

West spoke, then, thickly. "Young?" He shook his head. "I know no Young. . . . Wrong file! Jack Snow?" A contortion crossed his countenance. "It all means nothing to me. Who you are, what you are. . . . I don't know. Except this: you're a rat!"

A man growled: "We're with you, Tod! You're no crook!" Kerry shrugged. "Fair enough," he said and smiled in triumph. "It answers the one question that's . . . bothered me. You've come a long ways, Tod West, from a thieving, burning bookkeeper. It's hard for men to think their king can do wrong, I see. But . . . step carefully, Tod West. I've sowed seed tonight; some seed always sprouts!"

He hitched at his belt with a frankly swaggering gesture. "After all these years, the job was done quickly; in mere hours. And now I . . . I can be on my way."

He turned on his heel and made slowly for the door. A buzzing murmur filled the room. Eyes were on Kerry, on Tod West, standing there with much seething in him. He had a role to play, this West. He had a reputation at stake, loyalties to consider . . . perhaps things to fear. His place in the country was in the balance, he knew. But the chance of cheating at cards was too fantastic, too incredible in the minds of these other men to be of more than passing consequence if he played his role properly, as a respected leader should.

HOW ARE YOU TODAY

DR. JAMES W. BARTON
Talks About

Underweight Children

IN THESE days when parents are trying to reduce weight, the fact that their youngster is a little underweight may not disturb them very much.

However just as overweight is a liability in adults past forty, so is underweight a liability or menace to health in children.

Sometimes parents who were quite thin as youngsters and are now much overweight think nothing of their youngster being underweight as they think it is a natural or inherited condition. Now there is no question but that children usually resemble their parents—it couldn't be otherwise—but that children must be thin or underweight and remain underweight because the parent they resemble was very thin, is not necessarily true.

Dr. James S. McLester, Birmingham, Ala., the noted nutrition expert and this year president of the American Medical Association, says, "Improvement of the stock as a result of the betterment of the diet has been observed repeatedly in the lower animals and in men. Chinese living under improved nutritive conditions in Hawaii grow taller than people of the same type or strain in China and their growth continues to a greater age than does the growth of those remaining in China. Thus the average height at twenty years of age was one full inch more than that of similar groups in the province of Kwantung from which they had come to Hawaii."

Physique Varies With Habitat. Similarly children born of Japanese living in California show definite superiority in height, weight and other characteristics over their parents who had come to California from Japan.

Also children born in the large cities of America are taller and have a better physique than their parents who came from Europe.

It is common observation in medical schools that the Jewish students of European parentage who apply for admission are strikingly superior in physical make-up to their parents.

Better food and better living habits can improve the children of natives in any country anywhere. However, being taller—an inch or more in height—does not always mean being stronger or more able to withstand hardships or ailments, nevertheless it is only too true that there is abundant evidence that greater strength and a better physique accompany this increase in height.

This was shown recently when of 100 English school children, selected to compete in athletic events, 87 per cent of the winners were above the normal for height and weight and only 6 per cent below normal, and the winners showed a proportion of overweight three times that of the seconds, thirds, and also-rans.

Milk Increases Stature. From Japan a public health bulletin stated that when groups of Tokio school children were given milk in addition to their regular diet, not only was there a greater increase in weight and height, but these children were more cheerful and happy and showed greater powers in athletics than did those who were not given this extra supply of milk.

Now the best building foods for children are meat, eggs, and milk, but meat and eggs are expensive and not available to some families. However good energy giving and fattening foods can be used generously such as butter, bacon, cereals, bread, sugar with meat or eggs once a day at least and twice if possible.

In addition to this, foods rich in minerals should be eaten daily—cheese, leafy vegetables, fruits, nuts. Also foods rich in vitamins—green vegetables—spinach, lettuce, string beans, beet tops; yellow vegetables—carrots, squash, sweet potato; root vegetables, tomatoes, oranges, bananas, grapefruit, cabbage, liver.

Besides good food, rest is of vital importance in building up undernourished children. Rest or sleep means that all the body processes are working a little more slowly than when the youngster is up and playing, thus not using up the tissues so quickly.

In the future those races who will take advantage of newer knowledge of foods and their values, will attain a larger stature, greater vigor, increased length of life, and a higher level of living.

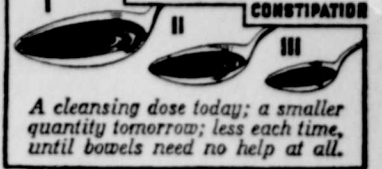

Coronary Thrombosis. DR. WARREN B. COOKSEY of Detroit has a treatment for coronary thrombosis which consists of having the patient remain absolutely at rest in bed for at least six weeks after the attack. After this another six weeks elapse before any activity is permitted, and careful supervision of the patient's activities is continued for a whole year.

Doctor Cooksey makes a sensible explanation to the patient of what has happened to his heart, showing the length of time needed to re-establish the circulation and for healing, and thus the great necessity for the patient to rest and so give the heart the least amount of work possible.

©—WNU Service.

DOCTORS KNOW

Mothers read this:

A cleansing dose today; a smaller quantity tomorrow; less each time, until bowels need no help at all.

Why do people come home from a hospital with bowels working like a well-regulated watch? The answer is simple, and it's the answer to all your bowel worries if you will only realize it: many doctors and hospitals use liquid laxatives.

If you knew what a doctor knows, you would use only the liquid form. A liquid can always be taken in gradually reduced doses. Reduced dosage is the secret of any real relief from constipation.

Ask a doctor about this. Ask your druggist how very popular liquid laxatives have become. They give the right kind of help, and right amount of help. The liquid laxative generally used is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It contains senna and cascara — both natural laxatives that can form no habit, even in children. So, try Syrup Pepsin. You just take regulated doses till Nature restores regularity.

Failings of Others. If we had no failings ourselves we should not take so much pleasure in finding out those of others.—Roche-foucauld.

Soother and Refreshes TIRED EYES. MURINE FOR YOUR EYES. No Time to Fail. In the opinion of the rulers of states, marriage is never a failure if there are plenty of children.

Head COLDS. Put Mentholatum in the nostrils to relieve irritation and promote clear breathing. MENTHOLATUM Gives COMFORT Daily. If you prefer nose drops, or throat spray, call for the NEW MENTHOLATUM LIQUID in handy bottle with dropper.

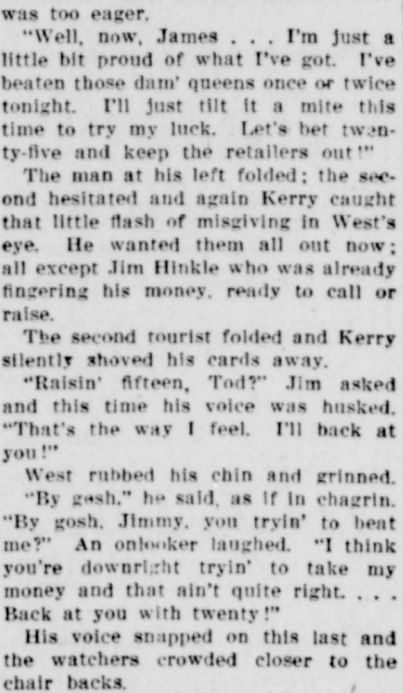

True Friends. Only a few will share your sorrow; but if they care for you, they are enough.

FOUND! My Ideal Remedy for HEADACHE. CAPUDINE. WNU—L. 10—36

No Need to Suffer "Morning Sickness". "Morning sickness"—is caused by an acid condition. To avoid it, acid must be offset by alkalis—such as magnesia. Why Physicians Recommend Milnesia Wafers. These mint-flavored, candy-like wafers are pure milk of magnesia in solid form—the most pleasant way to take it. Each wafer is approximately equal to a full adult dose of liquid milk of magnesia. Chewed thoroughly, then swallowed, they correct acidity in the mouth and throughout the digestive system and insure quick, complete elimination of the waste matters that cause gas, headaches, bloated feelings and a dozen other discomforts.

Milnesia Wafers come in bottles of 20 and 48, at 35c and 60c respectively, and in convenient tins for your handbag containing 12 at 20c. Each wafer is approximately one adult dose of milk of magnesia. All good drug stores sell and recommend them. Start using these delicious, effective anti-acid, gently laxative wafers today. Professional samples sent free to registered physicians or dentists if request is made on professional letterhead. Select Products, Inc., 4402 23rd St., Long Island City, N. Y.

35c & 60c Bottles • 20c tins. The Original Milk of Magnesia Wafers.

"Now!"—as West Hesitated— "Face to the Wall."

"Count Me Out a Hand," He Said.

old the deck. But his other hand held a second deck from beneath his belt and when he came up the one deck was thrust into the little stein held beneath the table top while it was the new one he thrust toward Jim Hinkle for the cut. . . . Kerry Young did not know this. But a heart rapped smartly with suspicion. "Cut 'em, James!" the man said, and cut 'em deep because I've got other feeling about this hand!" He looked about and grinned, more than he had been since Kerry entered the game. Hinkle cut; West named and . . . "slipped" the cut!

Young saw that clearly. Back to the top of the deck went the section at Hinkle had cut away and West was dealing, talking, chuckling over one joke he had made but to which Kerry gave no heed. To find Tod West playing the role of ruthless aggressor as afternoon; to find him cheating at cards tonight . . . and after all these years of suspicion and resentment!

"That's what I figured, along at the last. So I just called, you bein' out of cash. My kings, James, caught 'emself a triplet, too!" Hinkle slumped back in his chair weakly. In the depths of his eyes was acute distress.

"Caught the case!" Tod West was saying as he reached forward with both hands for the pot. "Caught the case and—"

"Just a minute!" It was Kerry Young's voice, with snap and iron in it; and Kerry Young's hand lay in an arresting grasp on West's wrist. Tod broke short his speech. He plunged a look hard into this stranger's face.

"Jim, how much did you lose in this pot?" Kerry asked. "You were even, you said, a while ago."

"Well, seein' as you've got so much confidence and seein' as how we've got cards comin' . . . Call!"

Three cards were dealt, now, with two showing; a pair of queens, with a lone king against them. From the top of the deck, lying so openly before him, West picked an ace and flipped it toward his adversary. For himself he turned a nine-spot.

"Now for the last heat, Jimmy. To you, m' lad, a trey, and to me," — hesitating as he looked at the card he turned from the deck and let a smile cross his face—"to me, the king of diamonds!"

So that was it! Kerry thought to himself. Obviously, Hinkle had three. Tod, from a cold deck, had dealt himself the case king.

West was sitting back in his chair, smiling coolly. The place had grown very still. Well over two hundred dollars had been bet so far and West was smiling at the distraught Jim Hinkle as a man will who is most sure of himself.

"Beat the kings," West said. "If you can and care to!" Jim cleared his throat. He counted his money slowly and said, "I'm betting fifty dollars," and as he shoved in the last of his money Young heard the breath catch in his throat.

Tod West began to laugh. "Them queens!" he said. "You boys have to learn about women from me! I beat 'em with aces once tonight. Now, it's kings. . . . Kings beat queens, Jimmy? Three? You got three of the gals?" — and Hinkle strained forward as West began turning his hole card.

"Three queens," the man said huskily.

"That's what I figured, along at the last. So I just called, you bein' out of cash. My kings, James, caught 'emself a triplet, too!" Hinkle slumped back in his chair weakly. In the depths of his eyes was acute distress.

"Caught the case!" Tod West was saying as he reached forward with both hands for the pot. "Caught the case and—"

"Just a minute!" It was Kerry Young's voice, with snap and iron in it; and Kerry Young's hand lay in an arresting grasp on West's wrist. Tod broke short his speech. He plunged a look hard into this stranger's face.

"Jim, how much did you lose in this pot?" Kerry asked. "You were even, you said, a while ago."

"Well, seein' as you've got so much confidence and seein' as how we've got cards comin' . . . Call!"

Three cards were dealt, now, with two showing; a pair of queens, with a lone king against them. From the top of the deck, lying so openly before him, West picked an ace and flipped it toward his adversary. For himself he turned a nine-spot.

(TO BE CONTINUED)

Briscoe County News

"Official Paper for Briscoe County"

ROY W. HAHN
Editor and Publisher

Subscriptions in Briscoe and adjoining counties—Per year $1.50
Out of above district, $2.00

Entered as second-class mail matter at the post office at Silverton, Texas in accordance with an act of Congress March 3, 1879.

P. D. Jasper was telling a yarn about a relative of his. P. D. was visiting in a community where this relative had lived. A native told him, "Why he was the meanest man I ever knew." Mr. Jasper, very much surprised asked for details. "Well, he broke up our school." "And how?" "He moved his family away."

"A Dollar Goes How Far?" asks a headline in The Kansas City Times. Frankly, says R. B. Reed in the Garden City Telegram, we don't know exactly, but the distance is so short that it isn't really worth arguing about.

When they kiss and make up, she gets the kiss and he gets the make up, quips the Fortis Independent.

We have seen many flags flying on many seas. But never in all the time we have been gone have we seen a people so happy, so sturdy, so prosperous even in the depression, so well fed, so well clothed, so well educated, so hopeful as the American people. And no other flag is floating so fine and gay over so much justice even amid a depression and want, as our flag flying bravely over the civilization.—William Allen White.

Wednesday morning—and from the looks of the sky in the north, I'll bet it's a grand old day in Kansas and Oklahoma. Sky leaden and gray, could be snow, in fact the wind feels like snow—but it smells like dust.

Faye Allard, city reporter, was just in and reported. No news—just like that—no news.

Maxie Baer is planning a come back. And he won't have far to come if he gets in the same ring with the darkey again. He better stay out with his white faces.

The banker was questioning the Negro applicant for a chauffeur's job.

"Are you married?" the banker asked.

"Nawsah, boss," replied the applicant, "nawsah; Ah makes mah own livin'." —Wall Street Journal.

The 'Rites' of the Pedestrians
I walked along the slushy street. The cars went whizzing by. They sprayed my Sunday pants with mud. "A dirty deed," says I. —E. C. Baird, St. Joseph.

"You should be glad, my man" says I. "The cars did go whizzing by. If they had hit instead of missed, You'd have had need enough to cry."

Five of the Supreme Court Justices are 70 years of age and are eligible to retire. Shortly after the AAA decision there were plenty of other folks ready for them to retire too.

The first of the summer's crop of hitch hikers was trying his luck on the highway in front of the News office Tuesday morning—reminds me of the last one picked last summer. He was born in Switzerland in 1846. Fought in the Civil War under General Lee and his memory was keen. Was still sore because the niggers were freed. He said he froze his feet in the war and hadn't been able to walk good since. But he had traveled from Seattle to Dodge City in something like six days and lugged about 100 pounds. Not bad for a kid with frozen feet.

WHAT MUST CRIMINALS EXPECT?

A convict comes out of Alcatraz, the federal government's so-called "Devil's Island" in San Francisco Bay, weeping about the monotonous prison routine but particularly about "the bad hole," the dungeon where the incorrigibles are held in the dark on a diet of bread and water.

One almost could weep with the former convict as he tells his story. The country's "bad boys" are sent to Alcatraz. It is said to be the last word in prisons. Aside from the bars, the locks, the walls and the armed guards, the prison is on an island and the chance for escape virtually is nullified. That is sad. Then there seems to be a rule against canaries, private baths, radios, soda fountains and other comforts which lighten the hours in some prisons.

Poor Al Capone! He is there. Then one might recall several bad boys we know better in this area; such citizens as "Machine Gun" Kelly and Harvey aBiley. Having had close geographical contact with them and their lives, having been over the same high ways they traveled in their palmy days, having met and talked with persons who knew them personally one is pained to realize that they are penned up in Alcatraz, with water all about them, and that, if they become playful and break the rules, there is the "hole" awaiting them, with nothing more than bread and water as sustenance.

If sorrow runs too deep, there is the sustaining sentiment of that line from "The Merchant of Venice." Wasn't it the duke who said: "How shalt thou hope for mercy, rendering none?"

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Heard and daughter Annette and Johnie Freeman of Ft. Worth were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Brown and family.

YEARS OF SERVICE EQUIP GODWIN TO COVER WASHINGTON

EARL GODWIN

Noted Washington Correspondent Who Writes for This Paper.

Few Washington correspondents have the advantage of the many years of intimacy with Capitol Hill, of close acquaintances with government officials, of actual reporting of Washington affairs, that enable Earl Godwin to "cover" the National Capital for this newspaper with the intelligence and efficiency he commands.

Godwin, now fifty-one, began his newspaper career at sixteen, as a reporter for the Passaic (N. J.) Herald, where in his own words, he "covered everything from soup to nuts, especially the nuts." Seriously he has reported some phases of Washington from Theodore Roosevelt's time to that of Franklin D. He covered congress during the World war, except for a brief period of service in the army.

He was associate editor of the Washington Times when Arthur Brisbane was editor, accompanied General Pershing on his expedition to locate Villa in Mexico, and covered the White House under every President since "T. R." He has reported so many nominating conventions that he can't remember when he didn't; he thinks he began in 1908. He has enjoyed close personal acquaintance with all the Presidents of his time, and has traveled with all except Taft. He was on the Alaskan trip with Harding and was close at hand when the President died. For a time he was unofficial liaison between the prince of Wales and the press when the prince was traveling here.

Earl Godwin was a charter member and president of the National Press club, and is a member of the committee which passes on the standing of newspaper men for membership in the house and senate press galleries. Keep in touch with Washington with him every week in this newspaper.

BEN O. KING

Barber Shop
Your Patronage Solicited and Appreciated

SILVERTON UNDERTAKING COMPANY
T. C. and D. O. Bomar
Day and Night Ambulance Service

Why be NERVOUS

There's a time-tested, harmless, preparation, compounded by a specialist in nervous disorders, for the relief of Sleeplessness, Irritability, Nervous Indigestion, Nervous Headache, Restlessness, the Blues and Hysterical Conditions.

During the more than fifty years since this preparation was first used, numberless other nerve sedatives have come—and gone. But the old reliable has always been in constantly increasing demand.

Only one medicine fits this description.

DR. MILES NERVINE

If you are nervous, don't wait to get better. You may get worse. Take Dr. Miles Nervine. You can get Dr. Miles Nervine—Liquid and Effervescent Tablets—at your drug store.

HELPED 98 PERCENT
Interviews with 800 people who had used or were using Dr. Miles Nervine showed that 784 had been definitely benefited. Isn't anything that offers a 49 to 1 chance of helping you worth trying?

Get a package of Dr. Miles Nervine today. If it fails to help you—take the empty bottle or carton back to your druggist, and he will refund your money.

ROCK CREEK NEWSLETTES

Mrs. R. N. McDaniel, Jr.

Mr. Paul Reid was in Tullia Tuesday.

Mrs. W. W. Reid and Mrs. R. N. McDaniel were callers in the Cross McDaniel home Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Alvie Mayfield was brought home Wednesday from Plainview where she has been receiving medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Malone spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Alvie Mayfield.

Several from here attended the funeral of Mr. A. C. Wimberly at Tullia Thursday.

Mr. Tom Scarborough and Paul Reid were in Lockney Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Guffee attended church in Tullia Sunday.

Mrs. Raymond Chisum is spending a few days with her mother in the Lakeview community.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Biggs were supper guests in the Hill home Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Aulton Durham were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Biggs Wednesday night.

Mrs. Eunice Letcher is visiting her sister, Mrs. John Saunders.

Mr. D. R. Blackaby made a trip to Ft. Worth this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Biggs were callers in the Steele home Friday night.

Rock Creek and Frances played basketball at the school house Sunday afternoon. Better luck next time Rock Creek.

Mr. Sanford Graves of Brice Flat has been here this week.

THE STATE OF TEXAS ) COUNTY OF BRISCOE )

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Briscoe County: Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Arch Wynn by making publication of this citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there is a news paper published therein, but if not then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Briscoe County, Texas, to be holden at the courthouse thereof in Silverton, on the 4th Monday in April, 1936, the same being the 27th day of April 1936, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 6th day of February, 1936, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court No. 860, wherein Della Wynn is plaintiff and Arch Wynn is defendant, said petition alleging in substance; Plaintiff seeks judgement of Court dissolving the marriage relations existing between plaintiff and defendant, and alleging cruel treatment as grounds therefor; plaintiff alleges they were married on the 17th day of May, 1933, and separated on the 9th day of Oct. 1933.

Herein fail not but have you before said court on the said first day of the next term thereof, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness R. E. Douglas, Clerk, District Court Briscoe Co. Texas.

Given Under My Hand and official seal of office, in the city of Silverton, Briscoe, Texas, this 6th day of February AD. 1936.

R. E. Douglas, Clerk of the District Court, Briscoe County, Texas
SEAL
Issued February 6th, 1936.
R. E. Douglas, Clerk of the District Court, Briscoe County, Texas
SEAL

TY'S COFFEE SHOP

South Side of the Square
Have you tried Silverton's new and popular place to eat?
Good food, right prices, and service.
A trial will convince you.
G. F. KOLB, Prop.

Palace Theatre

R. C. A. SOUND EQUIPMENT

Friday-Saturday, Mar. 6-7

John Wayne in
"Westward Ho"
Comedy and Serial

Sunday-Monday, Mar. 8-9

Jane Withers in
"Patty O'Day"
Comedy Comedy

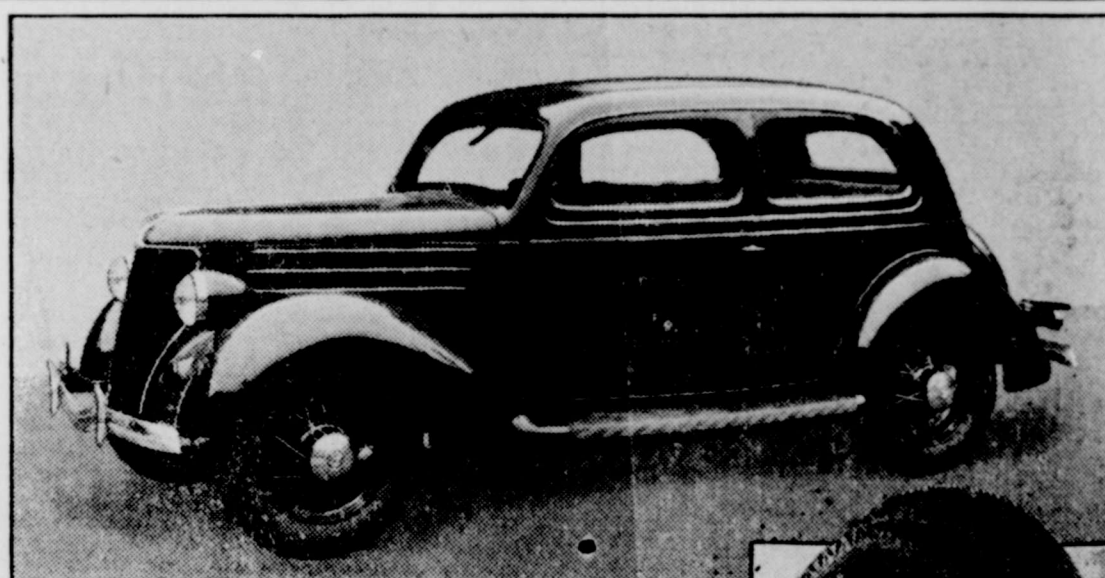

Tuesday-Wednesday, 10-11

Joe Penner in . . . "Collegiate"
With Jack Oakie, Ned Sparks, Frances Langford

Thursday, Mar. 12

"Woman Trap"
With Gertrude Michael and Geo. Murphy

Ford Builds 'High Wheeler' for Difficult Roads

A FORD V-8 "HIGH WHEELER" for use in rural districts where exceptional road clearance is needed is now being produced by the Ford Motor Company. The car is equipped with 18-inch steel spoke wheels and 6.00 by 18 4-ply tires, instead of the 16-inch drawn steel wheels and 6.00 by 16 tires which are standard on the 1936 model. The additional road clearance enables the "high wheeler" to negotiate roads with deep ruts and trails with high spots such as stones and stumps. The view at right shows the standard wheel in front, with the new "high wheel" behind.

Fowler Motor Co.

Baby Chicks

Raise your own without the hazards of hatching. Select your stock NOW from our sturdy chicks. See them at your home hatchery.

Hatching Days - Tuesdays and Fridays

Merit Feeds Cream Poultry Supplies

... Silverton Hatchery

Located on the South Side of the Square

100 Per Cent Interest

Taken In Your Clothes

Ask our Customers about the service we are giving. Satisfaction is our goal.

Don't send your laundry out of town. Let us show you.

Work Finished To Suit YOU

Helpy Self Laundry

Mr. and Mrs. 'Red' Diviney
On the South Side of Square

Better Prepared Than Ever to Serve You
Insurance Abstracts Loans

H. C. 'Curtis' King
Office West Side of Square

THE F
COUNTY
Editor and Reporter
second class
office at
March 3, 18
in territory
ounty
Bo
'E
Bo
WHAM
MEMBER
ASSO to press the ge of another
in looking t
if we have the good e Briscoe C
nea hope th
happy an because th
y, which ha
1935, was privilege o
close this yours a pr
bring nev
s way to sv
trict fight
once candl
nd of char
ods have
d to give t
st—in other
Why
RYO
time-teste
on, compo
in nervo relief of S y, Nervous
Headache,
s and Hys
ie more th
i preparat
mberless
have com
old reliabl
constantl
medicine
DR. MII
ERV
re nervou etter. Y
ake Dr. N get Dr. I and Effe
your drug
D 98
s with 80
C or wet
vine sin
definit
hing the ice of help
package
today. I te the ef
back to will refun

SOCIETY

FAYE ALLARD, Reporter

Harmony Club Has Meeting

Harmony Club met in the home of Mrs. Theron Crass Friday.

W. Coffee Jr. presided in the place of the chairman Mrs. O. T.

Very interesting lesson was led by Mrs. Coffee. Members answered roll call with a musical event.

The following program was presented: Vocal solo, Mrs. Crass; Schubert's "Serenade"; Mrs. Castleberry; Mendelssohn's "Wedding March"; Mrs. Burson.

Choral practice was enjoyed by the club with Mrs. Nora McMurry at the piano. Those present were delighted to have Mrs. McMurry, a former member who lives at Happy, as their guest of the afternoon.

A lovely refreshment course was served to the following members: James Gordon Alexander, Billie Burson, W. Coffee, Bland Burson, O. King, Durward Brown, Archie Castleberry, Nora McMurry, and Fern Murphy.

At the annual meeting of the harmony club the following officers were elected: Chairman, Mrs. Gordon Alexander; vice chairman, Mrs. Ned Baird; Secretary, Mrs. Theron Crass; Treasurer, Mrs. Durward Brown; Custodian and Choral Director, Mrs. Ben O. Coffee; Reporter, Mrs. W. Coffee; Parliamentarian, Mrs. O. T. Bundy and Hostess, Mrs. Bland Burson.

Geraldine Wynn Entertains Fo' Fun Bridge Club

Mrs. Geraldine Wynn entertained the Fo' Fun Bridge Club at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Patton last Friday afternoon.

After lively games of bridge were played, dainty refreshments were served to the following members: James Francis Crass, Lallie Patton, Anna Tidwell, Bonnie Dickenson, Garrison, and guests Mrs. W. W. Wilson, and Mrs. Gladys Alexander.

Silverton Attendants At Burberly Funeral

Those from Silverton and vicinity who attended the funeral of Cooper Burberly at Tulia were: Mr. and Mrs. Daniel, Josephine Daniel, Jake Daniel, A. M. Alfred, W. E. Burleson, and Mrs. Jim Burleson, C. W. Burd, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Douglas, and Mrs. Finney White, Homer Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Fowler, and Mrs. Orion Bomar, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Bomar, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. J. E. Wheelock, Mr. and Mrs. Simpson Douglas, Jim Whiteley and other friends and neighbors.

Miss Elva Wright Entertains Teachers

On last Tuesday evening, Miss Elva Wright invited the young ladies of the faculty to her home to meet Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, wife of the assistant coach of Silverton high school.

Miss Wright entertained with a beautifully appointed buffet supper. Three tables were centered with tall candles and laid with lovely linens, silver and crystal. The guests helped themselves in the dining room. Games were enjoyed after the three-course supper. At the tables were Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, Mrs. H. Poole, Mrs. Jim Busby, Mrs. Redin, Misses Murphy, Durham, Anderson, Summers, Montgomery, Coolie, Lee and Wright.

Sunset Services in Outdoor Meeting Next Sunday

The Christian Endeavor Society had a quiet hour of prayer and talks and readings at the consecration meeting on Sunday evening at the home of Mrs. Clyde Wright.

The leader, John White, made those present feel the deeply spiritual atmosphere in his program.

The members plan to have their vesper services out-of-doors, next Sunday if the day is pleasant, or to sit around an indoor fire for their program, if weather is bad. Everyone is requested to contribute at least one sentence to the worship hour, either testifying, praying or giving a Bible verse. Following, there will be election of officers, a short missionary story, and picnic supper. Everyone bring his own sandwiches or "hand out."

Meet at the Presbyterian church promptly at 6 p. m., Sunday to start on the short trip planned for the sunset meeting out-of-doors. All young people not active in other church work, are urged to meet with us for a happy hour of worship.

Ladies Aid With Mrs. Thomas

Mrs. Perry Thomas was hostess on Monday afternoon to the members of the Presbyterian Aid Society. Mrs. Hubert Simmons, chairman, presided during a short business session. The ladies felt hopeful that the church would soon be in condition to call a new pastor, as the local situation seems much better than it has been since the loss of their pastor last fall.

Sewing and visiting filled out the hour, also everyone enjoyed the display of articles that are to go into the chest-of-hopes-realized which belongs to Mrs. Thomas' newly wed daughter, Ruth, Mrs. Parker. Delicious refreshments of cocoa, cake, fruit and whipped cream were served to Mesdames: Hubert Simmons, Jim Daniel, C. L. Dickerson, Gordon Alexander, Miner Crawford, Bert Northcutt, Mrs. Sid Richards and Mrs. Clyde Wright.

Mrs. Clay Fowler and Mrs. Will Dunn Entertain Garden Club

The Silverton Club met Friday, Feb. 28, with Mrs. Clay Fowler.

The house was opened by the vice-president, Mrs. Hubert Simmons. Various topics of club business were discussed and approved by the members. The club is still busy on their project, "the Cemetery." The arch will be finished as soon as the Finance Committee has received more donations. The slabs have been finished for the marking of unmarked graves.

The club will hold their next meeting with Mrs. J. H. Williamson and Mrs. Milton Dudley, in the Williamson home at 2:30. Those on the program for the hour are Mesdames Clay Fowler and Rayd Patton.

A delicious plate of ice cream and cake was enjoyed by the following members: Mesdames Rayd Patton, Will Neuman, Milton Dudley, Clifford Allard, O. Je Blocker, J. C. Patten, Hubert Simmons, and the hostesses, Mrs. Clay Fowler and Mrs. Will Dunn.

Mrs. R. M. King and daughter Wilma and Mr. and Mrs. Deolis Nix were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Poole at Tulia Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Folley, Mrs. Bill McGann and son Jack, and Mrs. Carroll all of Folley were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Stevenson Tuesday.

Dennis Zimmerman of Tulia was transacting business in Silverton Tuesday.

Madge Huggins and Ethel Gamble from Plainview were guests in the home of Iwana Simpson the latter part of last week.

Mrs. C. S. Cline returned Friday from Wichita Falls where she has been transacting business for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Allard of Brice were in town last Wednesday on business.

Mrs. C. S. Dudley, Case Worker of Briscoe and Swisher Counties, was over Wednesday on business.

Jerry Burson of Plainview was in town visiting friends Saturday.

R. Denmon, N. R. S. Representative of Briscoe County, is working in the District office at Amarillo. He will be back in his office at the Court House sometime this week.

W. A. Kirk of Floydada was in Silverton on business the first of the week.

Blackie Bickford and Jack Farmer of Quitaque were in town Tuesday.

Mrs. Shields Decker, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Anderson, who has been visiting here for the past month returned to her home in Waco Saturday.

Roberta McMurry and Vivin Burleson visited Norma Lee Burleson who is attending school in Plainview over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Bland Burson were in Amarillo Friday. While there they visited Pat Northcutt who is in the St. Anthony Hospital. Pat is improving nicely they report.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben O. King visited Pat Northcutt at Amarillo Sunday.

Mr. J. S. Fisher was in Brownfield the first of the week on business.

Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Anderson and daughter Mrs. Shields Decker were dinner guests of Mrs. V. R. Bomar Wednesday.

Mrs. Della Keller of Plainview spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Della Griffith.

The Haylake School which was closed last week because of several cases of diphtheria in the community started classes again Tuesday morning.

Datis Martin returned Tuesday from the Standifer Sanitarium, Turkey, Texas, where he underwent a tonsil operation Tuesday.

Rev. and Mrs. A. A. Peacock were transacting business in Floydada and Plainview Tuesday.

Mrs. C. Murphrey of Lubbock visited her daughter and son Christine and Philip Sunday.

HEIFERS FOR SALE

5 HEAD, Fresh this Spring
Also, 2,500 Bundles Good Feed; headed kafir and striped corn

Buster Graves
5 miles east on Clarendun Road

ATTENTION - - - FARMERS

The Plains Co-Operative Produce Company, formerly managed by E. L. Darrough, is now being managed by H. J. Jarry. Highest Prices for Cream and all produce. Your business appreciated.

On corner south of Magnolia Service Station.

H. J. JARRY, Manager.

Mr. Farmer: Did You Know that

- We have 6 grades of fuel in stock?
- Two grades of Lube Oil?
- We have 7 weights of each grade?
- Our oil is in bulk or sealed cans?
- Our kerosene will not clog the burners in your stove?
- Our Lucid Pressure gun grease will stay PUT?
- We never sacrifice QUALITY for PRICE?

Panhandle Refining Co.

O. W. CHAPMAN, Agent

Dr. Grover C. Hall

Practice limited to diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat
GLASSES FITTED
Office at Plainview Clinic
PLAINVIEW, TEXAS

When You Take The Family Out . . .
Try The Family Style MEALS at the Silverton Hotel

Last Day For Ginning

Saturday, March 14
Will be the last day for ginning cotton this season
Bring it on or before that date.

Silverton Gin Company

Drivers Licenses And Car Licenses NOW READY

Drivers licenses are being distributed at this office. Car drivers are urged to come in now and get these licenses. We expect to issue about 5,000 drivers licenses in Briscoe county and to delay this matter may require you to be subjected to a long wait in the closing days. We can sell 1936 car licenses now. They may be placed on your car beginning March 1. Remember, you must have the new 1936 plates on your car by April 1st.

All children under the age of 18 must have signature of parents to obtain drivers licenses.

N. R. Honea, Sheriff and Tax Collector

AUTO LOANS ROY W. NEAL Skaggs Building Plainview, Texas

BETTER MEALS BEGINS WITH ELECTRIC COOKERY

A clean, evenly distributed heat, automatically controlled, brings out every ounce of goodness and gives foods a new high standard of quality.

A liberal trade-in on your old stove and terms as low as $1.82 a month.

See the new Electromaster models on display at our office.

TEXAS UTILITIES COMPANY

PRINTING... NO JOB TOO SMALL

Briscoe County News

LUBBOCK

SANITARIUM & CLINIC

Dr. J. T. Krueger

Surgery and Consultation

Dr. J. T. Hutchinson

Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat

Dr. M. C. Overton

Infants and Children

Dr. J. P. Lattimore

General Medicine

Dr. F. B. Malone

Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat

Dr. J. H. Stiles

Surgery

Dr. H. C. Maxwell

General Medicine

Dr. Arthur Jenkins

Infants and Children

Dr. O. R. Hand

Obstetrics

Dr. J. P. Medelman

X-Ray and Laboratory

Hunt J. H. Felton

Intendant Business Mgr.

Chartered school of nursing is conducted in connection with the sanitarium.

Stomach Gas

ADLERIKA quickly relieves bloating, cleans out bowels, lowers temperature, allows you to eat and sleep good. Quick, thorough, yet entirely gentle and safe.

ADLERIKA

BOMAR DRUG CO.

THE FEATHERHEADS

Fixed for Life

SMATTER POP—Pop Has All the Answers

By C. M. PAYNE

MESCAL IKE

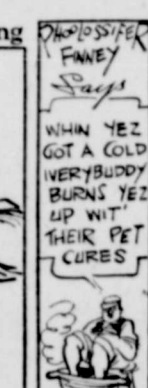

Otherwise He'd Move Out

FINNEY OF THE FORCE

No Use Talking

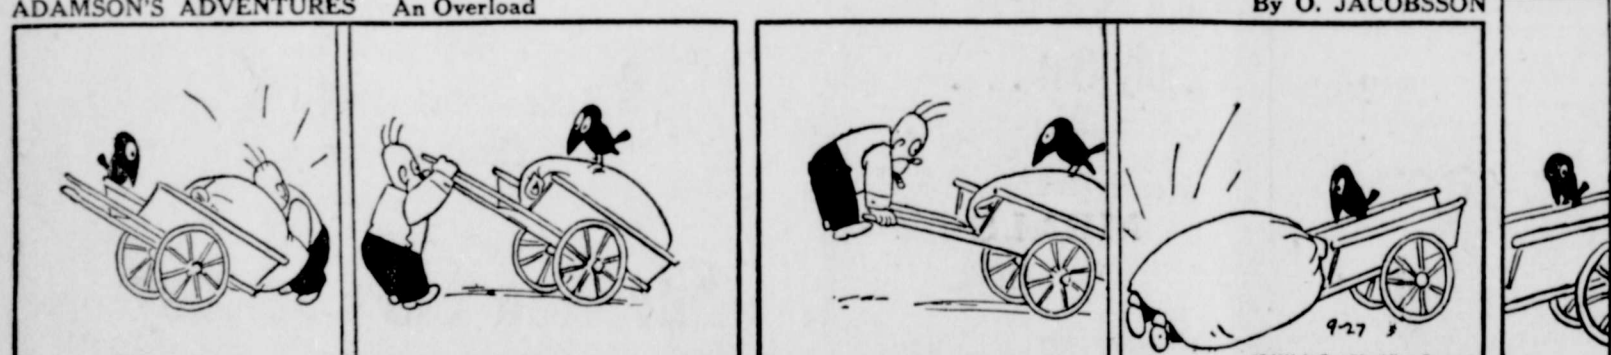

"REG'LAR FELLERS"

Perfect Team Work

ADAMSON'S ADVENTURES

By O. JACOBSSON

BRONC PEELER Introducing B. Oliver Withers

By FRED HARMAN

Advertisement for Wrigley's Spearmint Gum, featuring a cartoon character and the slogan 'THE STANDARD OF QUALITY'.

Advertisement for Iodine, showing a cartoon of two eggs and the text 'First Egg—Why do you call me a coward? Second Egg—Ha, ha, because you have a streak of yellow in you.'

Advertisement for 'THE BIB' by Gluyas Williams, featuring a cartoon of a man and a baby and the text 'RECAPTURES BIB STRINGS AND BEINGS OVER AGAIN'.

Advertisement for 'IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON' by Rev. P. H. Fitzwater, D. D., with the title 'Lesson for March 8 JESUS AND THE LAWYER'.

LESSON TEXT—Luke 10:25-37. GOLDEN TEXT—Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself.—Luke 10:27.

1. How to Inherit Eternal Life (vv. 25-28). The lawyer's question (v. 25). The term "lawyer" here means "one versed in religious law, the Scriptures," not "lawyer" in our modern sense of that term.

2. Jesus' question (v. 26). "What is written in the law?" He sent him to the law, the field which was familiar to him. Jesus thus robbed him of his own weapon.

3. The lawyer's reply (v. 27). He made an intelligent answer, declaring that the entire content of the law was embraced in love to God and man.

4. Jesus' reply (v. 28). The straightforward answer went to the heart of the lawyer. Perfect love to God and man is truly the way of life.

5. To be on the lookout for those in need of help (v. 33). Love is always on a journey. It is keen to discern the needs of those with whom it is brought into contact.

6. To bring to the inn and take care of the unfortunate (v. 34). Genuine love does not leave its service incomplete. Much Christian service is partial, leaving the man to take care of himself.

Barrels Hid Noted Papers; Queen's Tears Damp Stains

When Grant Duff visited the Register house at Edinburgh in 1862 he was shown a number of valuable and important state documents, including the list made by Mary Queen of Scots of her jewels, and was told that this, with many other valuable papers, had been taken to London in the time of Cromwell.

Joseph Robertson, the greatest of Scottish antiquaries of the period, had a good story about Mary's list of jewels which was one of the documents that suffered from the damp. He declared that Miss Strickland mistook the damp stains for the queen's tears and wrote a pathetic little passage accordingly.—Manchester Guardian.

U. S. Fingerprints The largest collection of fingerprint data in the world now reposes in the federal bureau of identification of the Department of Justice in Washington.

Week's Supply of Postum Free Read the offer made by the Postum Company in another part of this paper. They will send a full week's supply of health giving Postum free to anyone who writes for it.—Adv.

Advertisement for Cuticura, showing a bottle and the text 'CUTICURA For ITCHING and BURNING OF ECZEMA'.

Leave it to Him A youth with brains doesn't need to be taught much more than how to read. He'll learn whatever else he wants to know.

CONSTIPATED 30 YEARS

"For thirty years I had chronic constipation. Sometimes I did not go for four or five days. I also had awful gas bloating, headaches and pain in the back. Adlerika helped right away. Now I eat sausage, bananas, pie, anything I want and never feel better. I sleep soundly all night and enjoy life."—Mrs. Mabel Schott.

If you are suffering from constipation, sleeplessness, sour stomach, and gas bloating, there is quick relief for you in Adlerika. Many report action in 30 minutes after taking just one dose.

Advertisement for Moroline, showing a bottle and the text '5¢ Why Pay More? MOROLINE SNOW WHITE PETROLEUM JELLY'.

But That's Something It takes mutual admiration to make conversation interesting; and that doesn't prove it is any account.

CARDUI

Cardui is a purely vegetable medicine for the relief of functional periodic pain, nervousness and weakness due to poor nourishment.

"I have used Cardui and had good results from its use," writes Mrs. W. E. Barnett, of Taylors, S. C. "I suffered with cramping and headaches and would have a chilly feeling. Sometimes I would feel miserable and have pain more than a day, and I would be nervous. After taking six bottles of Cardui, I had less pain and was regulated. I feel much better."

Advertisement for Parker's Hair Balsam, showing a bottle and the text 'PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM'.

Advertisement for Multi, showing a bottle and the text 'CLEANS TUBS, GLOVES, CLOTHES, WALL DRUGGISTS'.

Adorable Pantie Frock That Is Easy to Make

PATTERN 2556

2556

Here's an adorable frock for a two-ten-year-old, and one very easy for mother to make, too. It wears a young round-collared neckline, puffed sleeves for irresistible little girl charm, and roomy pleats for agile youngsters who want "free action." Printed percale would be ever so appealing and practical.

Pattern 2556 is available in sizes 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10. Size 6 takes 2 3/4 yards 36 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. Be sure to state size.

Send your order to The Sewing Circle Pattern Dept., 367 W. Adams St., Chicago, Ill.

© Bell Syndicate.—WNU Service.

Human Life Precious Thing; Recklessness Not Courage

There is deep truth in the lines: We never can begin to live Unless we dare to die.

We never have measured life up to its highest and fullest, never learned its deepest meaning until we have learned that there are causes in which it should be risked, sacrificed if need be, unhesitatingly. No one has really learned to live until he has learned that life here is but a beginning, and is for a purpose. When he really believes that, he is ready for high enterprise even though it bring him face to face with death.

Find Out

From Your Doctor If the "Pain" Remedy You Take Is Safe.

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unknown Preparations

BEFORE you take any preparation you don't know all about, for the relief of headaches; or the pains of rheumatism, neuritis or neuralgia, ask your doctor what he thinks about it—in comparison with Genuine Bayer Aspirin.

We say this because, before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin, most so-called "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as being bad for the stomach; or, often, for the heart. And the discovery of Bayer Aspirin largely changed medical practice.

Countless thousands of people who have taken Bayer Aspirin year after year and out without ill effect, have proved that the medical findings about its safety were correct.

Remember this: Genuine Bayer Aspirin is rated among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and all common pains, and safe for the average person to take regularly.

You can get real Bayer Aspirin at any drug store—simply by never asking for the name "aspirin" alone, but always saying BAYER ASPIRIN as you buy.

Bayer Aspirin

FLOYD GIBBONS Adventurers' Club Hello, Everybody!

"The Ghost of the Piano"

By FLOYD GIBBONS Famous Headline Hunter.

YOU know, boys and girls, every time I make up my mind that there are no such things as ghosts, somebody comes along with a story that makes me just a bit doubtful.

Now it's Richard Bouker who throws the monkey wrench into my supernatural musings. Let's go along with Dick and see what happened to him that wet December night in 1932.

Dick was a member of the CCC—Civilian Conservation corps, camp 267, located at Speedwell, Tenn., when he had the greatest thrill of his life. He had been in town, 15 miles from camp, and had missed the camp truck and was faced with the necessity of walking the long, weary miles back to camp.

Now Dick says that taking a long hike with the stiff shoes the government issues to the workers is not so hot. But he had limped along about five miles of his way before things began to get serious. It was long after sundown and he was hungry, tired and sleepy and the dreary prospect of ten long, weary miles over the sloping hills of northeastern Tennessee was pretty discouraging.

Then it began to rain. Big drops fell at first, but before Dick had gone another half mile it came down in sheets. He looked around him for shelter. No friendly lights glimmered through the rain in this desolate stretch of country, but a little off the road Dick stumbled onto a deserted cabin and, pushing upon the sagging door, he went inside.

The Storm Almost Came In With Dick.

Dick says he just made the cabin in time because as he stepped inside, the storm broke in all its fury. A crash of thunder startled him with its ear-splitting suddenness and the flash of lightning that followed seemed to come right into the dust-ridden cabin after him.

But, at least, he had shelter and he started to look around him as well as he could. The cabin, though obviously deserted for years, still held some signs of human habitation. As he groped through the darkness, he bumped into a large piece of furniture that seemed to take up most of the room. He explored it with his hands and to his surprise found it to be—of all things—a grand piano!

In the flashes of lightning, Dick could see that the instrument was in a sorry condition. The ivory tops of the keys had long since disappeared, but otherwise it stood there like a silent sentinel guarding the spirit of that departed artistic soul who had brought such a fine instrument into this desolate country.

A New Kind of Canopy for the Weary Traveler.

But Dick was not in a mood to conjecture about what happened to the owner of the piano. His ideas were more practical. The roof was leaking steadily and the wide spread of the grand piano made an excellent cover for his tired body. He climbed under it and, exhausted as he was, was soon fast asleep.

Strange, Eerie Music Came From the Old Piano.

Sleep! What a panacea for all our ills! Outside the storm howled, the rain beat a ceaseless tattoo against the grimy window panes, the wind shrieked through the trees and the thunder and lightning roared and flashed, as though furious at the loss of their human victim.

How long Dick slept he does not know, but he does know that the thing that awakened him was not a part of the storm. He opened his eyes slowly to the sound of strange, eerie music coming from the old piano!

Maybe It Was Pretty—but He Wasn't in the Mood.

Well, there's nothing that should frighten anyone in the sound of a piano and yet, as he lay there trying to pierce the darkness with his eyes, Dick says he could feel the hair on the back of his neck actually rise in horror. At first he thought he was dreaming, but the music—if you could call it that—was real.

For the life of him, Dick can't explain why he knew no living person was before that keyboard. But he says he did know it. He wanted to reach out and feel the feet that should be near the pedals. But he was afraid of what he might not find!

He lay there breathlessly instead—waiting for a lightning flash to prove what he already knew. The lightning flash came and Dick's worst fears were realized.

He was alone in the room.

Curiosity Conquers Over Ghostly Fear.

And yet the music went on. It sounded, Dick says, as though a little child were practicing. Curiosity overcame his fear. He drew a lone match out of his pocket and struck it. As the tiny flame lit up the dim shadows the music suddenly ceased. The match flickered so in his shaking hands that it was hard to see but, even in that poor light, he saw something that made him drop the match in sudden terror.

A pair of eyes—a few feet from his face—stared fixedly at him! Wham! Dick went out that rickety door like a bat out of Hades! He forgot all about his sore feet and the rain and the storm and everything. All he wanted was camp and the company of something human. Came the morning and a group of CCC workers to investigate the ghost of the Piano. They were hard boiled in the bright sunshine and, by golly, they brought the ghost right back with them!

Yes, sir, that ghost meowed when they found her so they brought her back to camp and made her the mascot and you just ought to see that ghost punish a dish of cream.

And that, boys and girls, is the story of how the "Ghost of the Piano" became another version of the "Kitten on the Keys."

©—WNU Service.

Soothing Pipe's History

Dates to Indian in 1526

It is often assumed that briar pipes are made from the wood or root of the briar rose. This is not so; they are made from the root of the Mediterranean heath bryere, where St. Raphael is the center. The word "briar" is really a corruption of "bryere," according to a writer in London Tit-Bits.

Pipes have a long history. The first mention of inhaling smoke by the Indian was in 1526; the method was a forked cane, the double end being inserted in the nostrils while the other end was held over the burning herb.

From that they changed to the clay pipe, not unlike the ones used in modern times, only very much smaller, and the smoke was expelled through the nostrils to obtain the full narcotic benefit of the expensive herb. Other pipes that were used were the "Pipes of Peace." These were passed round the warriors in order of their rank and age. Also the Indian "War Pipe," which had the bowl protruding from one end of the stem. These were the earliest types smoked by the North American Indians.

Here are some examples of pipes enjoyed by other nations. The Laplanders used thin iron and walrus teeth. The West coast tribes of Africa used soapstone, which is a soft substance, easily carved and molded, and unaffected by heat. In India and Persia, hookahs, which look somewhat like a coffee percolator at first sight, are popular. Turkey uses much the same thing, but they have another type with a very long stem, the bottom of which is shaped like a foot to allow it to rest on the ground while smoking.

Peanut, Burrowing Bean

The peanut is often called the burrowing bean, because after the flower fades the plant stems bend over from a height of about 18 inches and, like an ostrich hiding his head, bury the pods in the ground to mature. In the late summer and autumn the nuts are thrown out of the ground with a digger, and then dried in piles of stacks for four to six weeks. Thrashing machines remove the pods from the vines

Monograms Make Your Linens Doubly Precious

PATTERN 1126

Variety's the Spice of Life—and monograms, too, for the smartest ones today combine letters in varying sizes. That's why we included four different alphabets—a large, a medium and two small ones—so that you may "scramble" your own. They work up easily and quickly, using a combination of satin, seed and buttonhole stitches with a bit of cutwork. Anyone with "Hope Chest" linens will find these alphabets invaluable. They fit beautifully into a diamond or triangular shape.

Pattern 1126 comes to you with a transfer pattern of an alphabet 3 inches high; one 2 inches high; and two alphabets 1 1/4 inches high; information for placing initials and monograms; illustrations of all stitches needed.

Send 15 cents in stamps or coins (coins preferred) to The Sewing Circle, Needlecraft Dept., 82 Eighth Ave., New York, N. Y.

Boy Is Over Eight Feet Tall and Still Growing

Physicians say that Robert Wadlow of Alton, Ill., is still growing at the age of seventeen. That would not be unusual except for the fact that he is 8 feet 4 inches tall and weighs 300 pounds now. Wadlow is regarded as the nation's tallest man and the second tallest in history. A famous Irish giant of the Nineteenth century is said to have exceeded him.

Wadlow recently graduated from Alton high school. He wore a size 8 1/2 cap and a 92-inch gown which was 50 inches around the chest and had 55-inch sleeves. His shoes are size 39. The youth expects to enter Shurtleff college next fall to study law and wants to finish at Washington university in St. Louis.

Household Questions

Oil the boys' shoes and they will last longer and become water resistant. Use castor oil sparingly on the uppers, but give the soles all the oil they will absorb.

Do not rub or wring organdie when washing. Put through three or four soapsuds waters, roll in a turkish towel and let stand for an hour before ironing. They require no starch.

When cutting a frosted lemon pie use a knife that has been dipped into cold water. The meringue then retains its shape.

© Bell Syndicate.—WNU Service.

WHO DOES NOT? A philosopher always functions best on a full stomach.

A Three Days' Cough Is Your Danger Signal

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with anything less than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble to aid nature to soothe and heal the inflamed membranes as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled.

Even if other remedies have failed, don't be discouraged, your druggist is authorized to guarantee Creomulsion and to refund your money if you are not satisfied with results from the very first bottle. Get Creomulsion right now. (Adv.)

If You Have "Acid Indigestion" ALKALIZE YOUR STOMACH THIS WAY

Alkalinizes Disturbed Stomach Almost Instantly

YOU can relieve even the most annoying symptoms of acid stomach in almost as little time now as it takes to tell.

The answer is simple. You alkalize your stomach almost instantly this way:

Take—2 teaspoonfuls of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia 30 minutes after meals. OR—take 2 Phillips' Milk of Magnesia Tablets, the exact equivalent. That's all you do! Relief comes in a few minutes. Your stomach is alkalinized—soothed. Nausea, and upset distress quickly disappear... It's amazing.

Results come so fast because Phillips' Milk of Magnesia is a potent natural alkaliizer. Everywhere people—urged to keep their stomach alkalinized—are finding this out.

Try it. Get a bottle of the liquid Phillips' for home use. Only 25¢ for a big box of Phillips' Tablets to carry with you. Watch out that any bottle or box you accept is clearly marked "Phillips' Milk of Magnesia."

SIGNS WHICH OFTEN INDICATE "ACID STOMACH"

- PAIN AFTER EATING
- SLEEPLESSNESS
- FEELING OF WEAKNESS
- INDIGESTION
- NAUSEA
- MOUTH ACIDITY
- LOSS OF APPETITE
- SOUR STOMACH
- FREQUENT HEADACHES

PHILLIPS' MILK OF MAGNESIA

DAD GIVES A GOOD TIP

OF COURSE, you know that children should never drink coffee. But do you realize that the caffeine in coffee disagrees with many grown-ups, too?

If you are bothered by headaches or indigestion, or find it difficult to sleep soundly... caffeine may be to blame.

Isn't it worth while to try Postum for 30 days? Postum contains no caffeine. It is simply whole wheat and bran, roasted and slightly sweetened. It is easy to make, and costs less than one-half cent a cup. It's a delicious drink, too... and may prove a real help. A product of General Foods.

FREE—let us send you your first week's supply of Postum free! Simply mail the coupon.

© 1936 G. F. CORP.

GENERAL FOODS, Battle Creek, Mich. U. S. PAT. 2,373,856 Send me, without obligation, a week's supply of Postum.

Name _____
Street _____
City _____ State _____

Fill in completely, print name and address. If you live in Canada, address: General Foods, Ltd., Cobourg, Ont. (Offer expires Dec. 31, 1936.)

Papers; mp Stains
ed the Reg-
In 1892 he valuable and is, including
een of Scots
ld that this papers, had
the time of
back to Ed-
nes. These ked in hogs-
h from the greatest of the period,
Mary's list
of the den the damp
Strickland
ns for the a pathetic
—Manches
nts
of finger-ow reposes
f identifica-
f Justice in rprint rec-is were on —Scientific
—
tium Free
the Postum
of this pa-
week's sup-um free to
—Adv.
the waters
lives never d fish from their daily
RA
ARNING of
MA
A world-
Best of the Cuticura,
FREE sample
m doesn't need than how whatever else
TED
RS years I had inspiration.
I did not get five days. I ful gas bloats
and pain
K. Adhering
I away. Now
de bananas,
I want and
tidy all night
label Schott.
constipation,
th, and gas
sief for you
t action in
at one dose.
ction, clear-ordinary
rk, reports:
Iclearning
with of in-
on bacilli."
owels a real nd see how ful relieves
ion. Sold by lepartments.
LINE
MUM JELLY
hing niration to esting; and
ny account
I
stable medi-functional
s and weak-
ment.
id had good
tes Mrs. W.
C. "I sub-
l headaches
lly feeling
l miserable
a day, and r taking six ess pain and
uch better."
not seem to
a physician.
ER'S LSAM ago Hair Pulling and
d Faded Hair
Drugging
Established in N.Y.
mail for use in
sum. Make sure
and use at drugstores, N. Y.
Be. Battle
io

LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. Will Smith and son spent several days last week with their daughter Mrs. Clyde Handcock at Quay, New Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Green and daughter of Turkey visited the ladies parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Smith Sunday.

Mrs. Della Griffith and Mrs. Mary McClendon were in Amarillo Saturday. They also visited Miss Johnnie Askey who is attending school in Canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Foust and family were Sunday dinner and afternoon guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Long. Other guests were: Rev. and Mrs. A. A. Peacock, Rev. H. L. Burnam and wife, Robert Peacock and wife, of Brownsville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Coffee and daughter Evelyn spent the week-end in Amarillo visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Sanders carried Mother Sanders to Shamrock Sunday where she will make an extended visit with friends.

Roy Bomar is nursing a rather badly injured V-8 coupe, after being forced into another car Sunday. After the wreck the other car sped on its way and was unable to be located.

Mrs. Joe Smith of south of town, has been confined to her bed for several days with the flu. Her condition has been very unsatisfactory and improvement slow.

Mrs. Ada Donnell, children and Mrs. R. D. Lowe, of Canyon, visited relatives here Tuesday. Mrs. Donnell is known here as Miss Ada Douglas, sister of Bert and Watson Douglas.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Alexander of hereford visited relatives and friend here Sunday.

Sybil Blair and Buster Dickerson visited friends in Canyon Sunday.

Mrs. Dick Cowart was with her father, Raymond Sanders, at the West Texas Sanitarium the first of the week. Mr. Sanders who has been there for some time, is slowly improving.

ANTELOPE FLAT

W. R. Durham of Canyon spent Wednesday and Thursday with his sons here.

W. N. Bullock visited in the eGorge Heckman home at Clarendon and John Rhea home at Paloduro this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Dean of Clarendon spent Thursday with his son, Dan and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Evans.

Mrs. R. Sanderson and son Lewis Ray, Mrs. Loyd Bullock and son Agil and Mrs. Wilsey Barclay and daughter, Nancy visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Gibson of Brice Friday.

C. S. Graves and C. W. Graves and little daughter Nadine were in Memphis Saturday.

Antelope school gave the play Aunt Hetty last Friday night in the school auditorium.

Milton and Virgil Sanders were in Memphis Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Sanderson and son Lewis Ray, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bullock and son, Clint and daughter, Mary Jo, Misses Emma and Gussie Marie Bullock were in Silverton Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rhea and children of Paloduro spent Saturday and Sunday with her father, W. N. Bullock. Mr. Rhea is recuperating from a broken shoulder sustained when a horse fell with him last week.

Rev. Applewhite filled his appointment here Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Graves entertained the young people with a dinner in honor of their daughter Alma's fourteenth birthday Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Gibson and children of Brice visited relatives here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Edens and little daughters of Plaka spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Edens.

W. D. Barclay who has been in Bowie for medicinal treatment returned home Sunday for a short stay.

C. S. and C. W. Graves attended business at Silverton Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Brown purchased a new Maytag Monday.

Mrs. Dan Dean has returned home after a short stay in Memphis.

Buster Graves of Silverton is visiting his brothers C. S. and C. W. here this week.

WALLACE LOCALS

Oscar McGavock called at the M. M. Edwards home Wednesday morning.

Corine Deavenport and June West were here over the week end visiting their parents and relatives.

Mr. M. M. Edwards and son Edward made a business trip to Quitaque Saturday morning.

Mr. Ralph Edwards was in Silverton Monday.

Bro. Hickey of Lockney will preach at Lakeview next Sunday everyone is invited to come.

Troy Cox called at the W. R. Watley home Friday morning.

Vida Mae Thomas spent Saturday and Saturday night with Wanda West.

Miss Jacqueline Bomar spent Sunday night with Wanda West.

Those who attended the birthday dinner at the G. F. West home Sunday honoring June West were: Mr. and Mrs. Jim Davis, Mr. and Mrs. John Montague and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Deavenport and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. West and family, Mr. and Mrs. Durwood Davis and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Bomar and family, and Miss Vida Mae Thomas.

Mr. I. L. Edwards and son Lloyd and Raymond Twitty of Edgin visited in the home of M. M. Edwards Thursday.

Edward and Nettie Edwards and J. D. Taylor called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wade Deavenport Sunday evening.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Briscoe County News is authorized to announce the following named as candidates for the office respectively shown, subject to the Democratic Primary, July 25th, 1936:

REPRESENTATIVE 120 DIST.
SYL BIRKENFELD
Nazareth, Texas

SHERIFF AND TAX COLLECTOR AND ASSESSOR

N. R. (Jake) HONEA
Re-election

G. W. LEE

COUNTY TREASURER

MISS LIZZIE GREGG
Re-election

COUNTY AND DIST. CLERK

R. E. (Bert) DOUGLAS
Re-election

COUNTY JUDGE

J. W. LYON JR.
Quitaque

W. W. MARTIN
Re-election

Co. Commissioner, Prec. No. 4.

J. R. FOUST

ROY F. BARBER

Co. Commissioner, Prec. No. 1

H. L. O. RIDDELL

R. M. HILL

COMMISSIONER Prec. No. 3

P. D. JASPER

GRADY WINBERLY

Announcing NEW DEALER for INTERNATIONAL TRUCKS

NEW HALF-TON with pick-up body. Also provided with panel, canopy-top, express, and station-wagon bodies.

NATIONALLY there is ONE outstanding fact about International Trucks of special interest to the public just now — the International Harvester Company is announcing a brand-new series of improved and beautiful trucks.

LOCALLY there are TWO International news items — the above, and the fact that we have been appointed distributor for Internationals in this community.

We are proud of the opportunity to handle the great line of trucks which for thirty years has been building a reputation for quality, performance, and economy. With the new streamlined Internationals we can equip you with units of any size, for any type of hauling, backed by after-sales service on which you can always depend. Come in and see the new Half-Ton International.

Tull Implement Co.
Silverton Telephone 36

NEW MANAGEMENT

I have taken over active management of the Gulf Service Station

North of the Silverton Hotel. Have had several years experience in this work and promise you A-1 service. Your business will surely be appreciated.

T. E. ROUSSIN, Manager

UNFILLED POSITIONS

Almost every week our Employment Department has good positions that it is unable to fill—especially for young men and young women with a thorough knowledge of both bookkeeping and shorthand. These positions pay good salaries to begin with, the work and surroundings are pleasant, the opportunities for promotions attractive. Details of Courses and Rates, and a proven method of assisting graduates into good starting positions, is fully explained in a Special Bulletin. Mail the Coupon for your copy today.

Name _____ P. O. _____
DRAUGHON'S COLLEGE
Lubbock, Texas

Oldest European Discovery Against Stomach Troubles and Rheumatism Acclaimed Best by Latest Test

Since 1793 thousands of people have regained their normal health after years of suffering from stomach troubles of all types, such as constipation, indigestion, gas, and sour stomach which are the basic factors of such maladies as high blood pressure, rheumatism, periodic headaches, pimples on face and body, pains in the back, liver, kidney and bladder disorder, exhaustion, loss of sleep and appetite. Those sufferers have not used any man-made injurious chemicals or drugs of any kind; they have only used a remedy made by Nature. This marvelous product grows on the highest mountain peaks, where it absorbs all the healing elements and vitamins from the sun to aid HUMANITY in distress.

It is composed of 19 kinds of natural leaves, seeds, berries and flowers scientifically and proportionately mixed and is known as LION CROSS HERB TEA. LION CROSS HERB TEA tastes delicious, acts wonderfully upon your system, and is safe even for children. Prepare it fresh like any ordinary tea and drink a glassful once a day, hot or cold.

A one dollar treatment accomplishes WONDERS; makes you look and feel like new born. If you are not as yet familiar with the beneficial effects of this natural remedy LION CROSS HERB TEA try it at once and convince yourself. If not satisfactory money refunded to you. Also in tablet form. Try it and convince yourself with our money-back guarantee. One week treatment $1.00 Six weeks treatment $5.00

In order to avoid mistakes in getting the genuine LION CROSS HERB TEA, please fill out the attached coupon.

Lio-Pharmacy, Dept. 12939
1180 Second Ave.,
N. Y. City, N. Y.

Gentlemen:
Enclosed find $_____ for which please send me treatments of the famous LION CROSS HERB TEA.
NAME _____
ADDRESS _____
CITY _____ STATE _____

"Howdy, Lady..."

I just want to tell you that if you're not already enjoying a HOT WATER HEATER you're missing a WHOLE of a lot of comfort. And they're SO economical on the new low gas rate!

SEE YOUR DEALER OR YOUR GAS COMPANY
West Texas Gas Co
Good Gas With Dependable Service

Put your best foot forward

Oxfords for Young Men are $2.95

$3.95 $4.95

And have More Style, Fit & Quality

Blacks, Browns & Whites

It's EASY to put your best foot forward in one of these handsomely tailored and smartly styled CURLEE Suits. Not only is gentility built into every line --- but wearing quality as well. If you want a suit that will keep you looking your best thru months of hard wear---come in and see this beautiful display of moderately priced suits. Priced at

$20.00 - $25.00

Extra Pants $4.50

Spring Frocks

With charming New Accents

● We present clever new styles... many with crisp lingerie touches, intriguing notes of color contrast, or sophisticated jeweled or metallic trims. Prints galore, and many plain silk crepe styles in appealing new shades. Remarkable values!

$5.95 - 7.95 - 9.95

Whiteside & Company

The Store That Strives To Please