Estelline-Silverton Game Ends In Tie

REPAIRS ALMOST COMPLETE ON JEWETT HOUSE HERE

The Jewett house on Highway 1, which was badly damaged a few weeks ago in the fire which claimed the lives of the entire Herbert Street family, is being remodeled and repaired by the owner, Mrs. W. L. Jewett. The work did almost a thousand dollars damage to the house. No insurance was carried on the house by the owner, and repairs are being made through a Federal lending agency for repairs and alterations. Details of the plan for repairing can be obtained from Mr. Sanders at the Wilson & Lumber Company, and Mrs. Jewett says that she will be glad for anyone to inspect her house. There are many houses in Silverton which could be vastly improved by a little alteration and repair, and with this method of financing, could be paid for very easily.

Kyle and Son of Floydada are doing the work on the Jewett house.

Mrs. Nettie Ruth Forbes of Borger visited here Monday with Mrs. Ed McMin. They were in school together sixteen years ago.

Tim Moore has been gone since Friday and is visiting his mother, Mrs. Ida Moore at Astoria, Illinois. He is driving back a new 1940 Packard.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

By Boyce House

More Memories of a newspaperman: The time when, as a small town editor, it was my good fortune to scoop the star journalist of Texas in his own newspaper. He sent to Eastland by a metropolitan newspaper to "cover" the trial of the Santa Claus bank bandit, figuring the story would be out good while, the staff correspondent wandered over to Breckenridge. The jury came in unexpectedly, and seeing that he wasn't there, I called his paper by long distance telephone and gave the verdict. The first he knew of it was when he saw the big headline in his paper.

But I know how he felt. As the one-man news department of the Ranger Times, I okayed the first copy of the paper off to press one afternoon, then wandered up town to a friend's place. A few minutes later, I heard a newsboy yelling, "Ranger commits suicide!" Knowing he handled no such story, I ran and bought a paper and—sure enough—there it was.

There's the way it had happened! Right after I left the office, George Manning, the advertising manager and publisher at Overton) came with the news as he had been sitting right after the man had shot himself; then Ernest Glazner, type operator, wrote the story; Thompson set it up; Whitey Jones, the foreman, wrote the headline, pulled out a feature yarn Page 1 to make room for the side story, and there it was—editor scooped in his own paper. The only consolation was that had taken four men to do it!

Which calls to mind the story of a negro accused of beating up a white woman. The defendant explained to the judge:

"Yeah honah, she promised me I would git her a set o' false teeth that she'd marry me and I had a set of teeth whet cost $40 and then she thowed me out. Yistiddy I seen her wid another nigrah and she grinned at me and I grinned at me wid my own teeth, and I knocked h--- out o' her."

Most vivid recollection of the campaign: Ralph Yarborough's closing speech in Austin's Lyndon B. Johnson Park the night before the primary. In the midst of the address, a heavy rain struck the candidate, bare-headed and unsheltered, kept on speaking. The program was going out over radio. Most of the audience

KEEP YOUR RED CROSS READY

THIS striking painting of a Red Cross nurse keeping the symbol of mercy flying is the keynote of the 1939 appeal for membership in the American Red Cross. Faced with the need for strengthening daily Red Cross services in 3,700 Chapters, and with its chartered obligation to aid in some measure in meeting the distress of the men, women and children refugees in war-torn countries across the sea, the Red Cross asks every man and woman in the nation, able to do so, to join as a member this year and support America's official voluntary relief agency.

Ruskin Williams, a distinguished artist, is creator of this ideal conception of the nurse heroine. The roll call for members will be held November 11 to 30—join through your local Chapter. Help your Red Cross help others by becoming one of the millions who will add their names to the roll of mercy.

A doctor was discussing religion with a minister. "I cannot understand that a man like you still believes such fables," said he. The minister replied: "Supposing you had learned of a remedy that consistently cures a certain sickness. Supposing this remedy had not only cured hundreds of your patients, but you as well. Would you not have confidence in this remedy?" The doctor said: "Certainly." Then the minister continued: "It is just so with my faith; it rests upon experience. Others may speak of fables, but I know what faith has done for me and thousands of others. Formerly my heart was full of unrest. I did not know why I was in the world. I had no answer for the most important of questions. Then Christ came into my life and since then I have a new creature. Now I have peace, comfort and all else that I need." Such an experience is the most conclusive answer to all the doubts of infidelity. This real value of life will be the thought at the Presbyterian Church this coming Sunday. Join with us in our worship and meditation.

SURPRISE DINNER

A surprise birthday dinner was given for Mrs. O. B. Fore and Mr. Edwin Crass by Mrs. J. L. West, Mrs. B. M. Hodges, and Mr. Roland Bell who also have birthdays in October, were present at the dinner. The dinner was given at the home of Mrs. O. B. Fore on Sunday, October 22. A nice time was reported by all. Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Francis, Mrs. B. M. Hodges, Mr. and Mrs. Bob McDaniel and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Crass and family, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Jasper and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Roberson, Mrs. Jimmie Cantwell and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Simmons and family, Mrs. J. L. West, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bell and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Francis and family, Mr. W. E. Burleson, Mr. T. J. Crass, Miss A. Cloyd, Miss Frances Davis, Miss Rubye Davis, Mr. J. W. Rowell, Mr. Gordon Fore, Mr. Purlyn Hodges, and Mr. John Fore.

Those attending from Lockney were Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Comer. Visitors in the afternoon were Mrs. Abner Wimberly and daughter Peggy.

SUNDAY SINGING

Sunday night singing was held at the Francis School House. It was conducted by Earl Cantwell. There was a nice crowd from Lone Star, Rock Creek and other places. The next meeting will be the second Sunday in November.

AGGIE BRIEFS

By LOOE MILLER
Secretary Briscoe Co. Committee

Cotton Farmers
We have a marketing card made up for each producer in the county who has cotton in 1939. It is absolutely necessary that you have your marketing card when ginning your cotton. This enables the ginner to properly make up his report and also shows the ginner that you are entitled to market cotton without paying a penalty. If you have not called for your marketing card, please do this at an early date.

Wheat Farmers
Those wheat producers in the county who are contemplating changing the size of his farm in 1940 from 1939 will please call at the office as soon as practicable and let us have this information in order that we may get your allotments set up for your farm as it will be in 1940. This is very important so please do this at once.

Last week we mailed cards to all wheat farmers in the county who we did not have the 1939 production for. To date we have only had a report on about 75 of these cards out of 181 which we mailed out. We must have this report in our office by Saturday, October 28 as we must have this report in the State office by November 1, so if you are one of those who has received this card asking for your production, you will please let us have a report on this by Saturday.

We are now typing Applications for the 1939 Soil Conservation Payment on all farms which have earned the maximum soil building allowance which can be earned on the farm. We are mailing out cards notifying the producers to come in and sign as we make up the forms.

If you have not earned your soil building allowance, we cannot submit your application for payment before December 1. We find that a good many producers are building terraces and contouring their pastures in order to earn soil building payment. When you have completed this work, please report to the office in order that we may make up your application.

Complimentary Shower

Mrs. Joe Mercer and Miss Zell Stevenson entertained at the Mercer home last Thursday evening with a surprise handkerchief shower in honor of Mrs. Morgan Garvin who left Friday for California. The evening was spent in playing bridge, "42", and Chinese Checkers. Lovely refreshments were served to fifteen ladies.

Luncheon for Mrs. Burson

Complimenting Mrs. Bland Burson who has recently moved to Borger, Mesdames D. W. Cowart and W. T. Graham entertained the members of the 1925 Study Club with a beautiful four-course luncheon at the home of Mrs. Cowart, Thursday, October 19th. The small tables from which luncheon was served were centered with blue vases which held yellow cosmos. Beautiful fall flowers decorated the rooms.

A lovely Schaeffer desk set was presented to Mrs. Burson by the members of the club. She was a charter member of the club and had been an active member since its organization in 1925.

Mrs. Graham, president of the club introduced the honor guest, and Mrs. Burson expressed her appreciation of the gift and of the contacts made in the club.

Mrs. Fred Lemons gave a clever talk on "Woman and her Sphere". A chorus by the club and a piano solo by Martinez Cowart concluded the program.

Those in attendance were Mesdames Grady Wimberly, Paul S. Rogers, A. P. Dickenson, T. R. Whiteside, Ernest Davis, W. T. Graham, R. E. Douglas, O. T. Bundy, W. Coffee, Jr., D. O. Bomar, Warner Reid, W. E. Sherman, Ben O. King, Fred Lemons, R. G. Alexander, and the honoree, Mrs. Bland Burson.

Home Builders Meet

The Home Builders Class of the Methodist Church, met with Mrs. Allday Wednesday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in playing games after which refreshments of pumpkin pie and whipped cream and coffee were served to eleven guests.

NEWS BITS

From Neighboring Newspapers

Child Is Injured

Tommie Braselton, 5, of Matador, was perhaps fatally injured last week when he was struck by a car driven by a negro cotton picker. The extent of the little one's injuries is not known. The negro claimed that the child darted across the road before he could stop. According to the Matador Tribune, the cotton picker was released after paying a fine for driving with faulty brakes.

Donley Boys Win $500

Donley County boys placed high at the state fair says the Clarendon News, and brought home over $500 in prize money. Floyd Lewis of Lelia Lake, took his calf to the American Royal at Kansas City, where it placed first.

County Jail Fuss

The County of Lamb is still indulging in what might be called a county seat fight, with Olton and Littlefield the main contenders. The latest thing to arouse the people there is a proposed county jail, at Olton. Prisoners have been lodged in the Littlefield jail, according to the Olton Enterprise.

J. V. PEELER NEW MANAGER OF TEXAS UTILITIES

J. V. Peeler arrived here last week from Littlefield to take charge of the local Texas-New Mexico Utilities office. He takes the place of Cecil Lomax, who resigned the first week in October. Mr. Peeler, has been employed as assistant manager at the Littlefield office for the past seven years, and is well experienced in both the service and the company.

The Peeler family, which consists of Mrs. Peeler and little daughter arrived here Friday to make their home. They have moved into the Guest house formerly occupied by the Lomax family.

The Briscoe County News wishes to join the rest of the community in welcoming the Peeler to their new home.

JACK HULSEY TO HOSPITAL FOR MENTAL TROUBLE

Jack Hulsey of Quitaque, was tried in court here the first of the week on a mental illness charge, and was committed to the hospital at Wichita Falls to receive a 90-day treatment and to be under the observance of specialists. His condition is not violent nor serious and it is thought that the hospital will send him home well again.

WMS MEETS

The Women's Missionary Society met Monday, October 23rd in the home of Mrs. Homer Sanders with 24 members present.

Mrs. Paul Rogers was in charge of the program which was taken from Tragedy through Triumph. Others having parts on the program were Mrs. Homer Williamson and Mrs. R. E. Douglas.

The Society will entertain the ladies of the other churches Monday, October 30th with a social at the church at 2:30 p. m.

Club Meets

The Helping Hand Club of Francis met with Mrs. W. A. Rowell on Thursday, October 19th. After the business program, the club helped quilt for Mrs. Rowell. All club members are urged to be present at the next meeting November 2 at the home of Mrs. C. A. Simmons. Visitors are welcome.

Mrs. Joe Rodgers, who has been quite ill, is some better.

We are glad to report that Mrs. U. D. Brown, who has been ill for some time is able to be up.

Misses Fern Murphy, Jessie Davis and Mrs. Alvin Redin were Plainview visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Judd Donnell and daughter of Canyon are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Allred and family.

Silverton and vicinity is scheduled to receive a good ground soaking rain sometime this week end, or Monday night at the latest. According to plans now under way, the amount of rainfall will be somewhere in the neighborhood of two or two and a half inches.

Farmers, business men and the Panhandle country as a whole, will be glad to learn of the life giving moisture. Wheat that has been planted is greening up, and with the rain this week end, will get off to a very good start to go through the winter. Most wheat farmers are through planting. Others, who had planned to cut their acreage, have decided to go ahead, after learning of the moisture that is on the way.

With near five hundred bales of cotton ginned here to date, it is thought that the cotton crop is a little over half gathered. Cotton farmers are rushing their picking operation in order to have as much of the crop gathered as possible when the wet spell begins.

The Silverton rain gauge, which has been standing idle for some time, is being groomed and put into tip-top shape in order to get an accurate measurement of the week's rainfall. The Associated Press has leased the wire into Silverton and operators all along the line are doing twenty-four hour duty in order that the general public can be informed as soon as possible of the amount.

At first it was thought that arrangements could be made for a good soaking rain followed by a couple of weeks of nice warm weather. Since signing the rain contract, however, local authorities have found that the contract also calls for a quick drop in temperature, around the freezing point or below. Authorities feel that the public should be warned in order that radiators and water pipes might be protected.

The information contained in this authentic news story is furnished the Briscoe County News by the Rumor Rain Contracting Company, with offices on Main Street, Silverton, Texas.

NO ONE INJURED AS CAR OVERTURNS

Luckily, no one was injured, Monday night when the Frank Havran car overturned south of Silverton on the Floydada Highway. A rear tire blew out and caused the accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Havran had been to Lubbock, and on the way home were complimenting themselves on getting home early, when out went the tire, and after sliding several yards down the road, over went the car. The tire was a new one, and was cut, evidently from glass or tin on the highway.

Mrs. Mary Daniel, of Floydada spent Sunday afternoon in the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Anderson. She returned to her work at the Floydada Hospital Sunday night.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS BY JOSEPH W. LaBINE

Intensified Warfare Started As Germany at Last Realizes Futility of Peace Overtures

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

EUROPE: War of Diplomacy

Biggest news on the diplomatic front was wishful thinking in London and Paris to the effect that Italy was swinging away from Berlin to form a strong Balkan peace bloc...

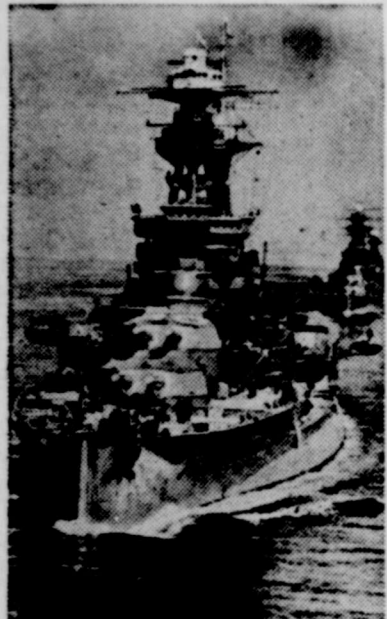

Backing the rumor, Italian newspapers continued heaping insults on Communism. Partially spiking it however, was authoritative Editor Virginia Gayda...

Meanwhile Germany continued last-minute efforts to avert war, having waited until the final heart-breaking moment in the hope that Prime Minister Chamberlain would capitulate...

(Proclaiming Armistice day, President Roosevelt revived Europe's intervention hopes by asking Americans to look forward to a time when a just and enduring peace shall be established.)

War on Land & in Air

On the western front 65 German divisions were massed from the sea to the Rhine. Significantly, 30 of them stood opposite Holland and Belgium...

ROYAL OAK Sunk: 875 men and an omen.

tactics. Intensified German pressure was not long in coming. In a single day it drove the French back to their own soil on a four-mile front in the Moselle valley...

But bigger news came from the air. Berlin's first bombing scare arrived one evening as Nazi housewives were meditating on lard sandwiches for next morning's breakfast...

Britain had a genuine scare next day. Fourteen German bombers invaded English soil for the first time. Their objective: The huge naval base and bridge at Firth of Forth...

War at Sea

In 1651 Britain's fugitive King Charles II hid in an oak tree at Boscobel, Shropshire, after the battle of Worcester. A few years later proud Britons named a warship after their revered "royal oak"...

This was only one part of a week-end's terrific warfare at sea. Berlin claimed the same submarine which sank the Royal Oak also damaged Britain's battle cruiser Repulse...

NAMES

that made news

FORD STERLING—At Hollywood, the 55-year-old, early-day film comedian died.

DR. KURT VON SCHUSCHNIGG—At Vienna, said "absolutely authentic sources," the former Austrian chancellor is being pounded into unconsciousness daily for refusing to issue a proclamation urging Austrians to defend Hitler Germany.

O. J. ARNOLD—At Chicago, the president of the Northwestern National Life Insurance company told business men to reject government subsidies and donations.

CULBERT OLSON—In California, the governor made news: (1) by winning a drive to pardon Tom Mooney's alleged accomplice in the Preparedness day disaster, Warren K. Billings, and (2) by ordering hearings on alleged beatings at San Quentin prison.

CONGRESS: Peace?

Neutrality was making a bum this month out of many an otherwise efficient statesman. Each day the lower house of congress assembled half-heartedly, listened to a few pointless speeches and went its way to Washington's cocktail rooms and bars...

Senators passed the 300,000-word mark in their debate on isolationism vs. cash-and-carry. Though they were still going strong, compromise was in the air to replace the premature victory song of embargo repealists...

Thus far, isolationist propaganda has tried to convince the nation that cash-and-carry neutrality will get America into war. But the campaign failed to jell, so isolationists found a more potent weapon by dramatizing the post-war depression that will inevitably follow if U. S. industry expands to serve warring Europe...

A few minutes later, when Senator Nye returned to the old song that administration neutrality proposals are a "step" toward war, he found himself confronted for the first time with Nebraska's 78-year-old Sen. George W. Norris who had a few things to get off his mind: "This charge (that the President's recommendation would lead to participation in the war) is without foundation whatever..."

This, it was reliably stated, held a top place among demands Russia tried to force down the throat of Turkey's Foreign Minister Sukro Saracoglu. Acting as mediator for all Balkan states, Saracoglu had reportedly refused not only to sell Rumania short, but also to recognize Russia's Polish grab...

Russian troops were massed on her borders, but the Turks stood so firm that many a diplomat felt she held the balance of European power. Her position: Turkey would stay neutral if the allies fought Russia, but she would join the allies if Italy took sides with Germany...

Within a few days action seemed imminent. The arms embargo was a cinch for repeal, but on other issues there was compromise. Chairman Key Pittman of the foreign relations committee abandoned the 90-day credit clause, which critics charged was a circumvention of the Johnson act (forbidding loans to war debt defaulting nations)...

LABOR: Building Probe At Washington, indictment of a labor union charged with delaying work on government buildings opened the coast-to-coast U. S. attack on reputed trade restraints in the building industry. Among cities to be probed: Chicago, New York, Seattle and Cleveland...

HEADLINES FROM THE LIVES OF PEOPLE LIKE YOURSELF!

"The Tale of the Galloping Tooth"

HELLO EVERYBODY: You may have been in France during the unpleasantness that went on there in 1914-1918. You may have seen towns shelled to a crumbling ruin. You may have seen regiments decimated by poison gas...

Don was somewhere in the Villers Cottet area on special duty with the Second division. A deafening barrage had been rolling back and forth across the lines for more than two hours. The Germans were tossing every form of pyrotechnic display in their bag of tricks...

It was undoubtedly the outstanding disaster of the whole war. It had been going on for 24 hours and Don was convinced that if it went on two hours longer nothing could keep the Germans from taking Paris...

"He had no anesthetic, but glancing behind me I knew the worst. A stolid-faced six-foot Yorkshire orderly had sneaked in."

Attempts at Suicide Came Back Labeled "No, Dice." But no German officer would have been sucker enough to halt such an effective blow to the Allied cause. All Don's attempts at suicide came back to him labeled, "No Dice..."

Don didn't have any time to think about it at all. The minute he turned his head he felt something hit it that felt like a nudge from a howitz. There was a blinding flash and a million stars, pin-wheels, constellations and blue lights danced before his eyes.

And then the doctor spoke. Don couldn't hear what he was saying very well, but the picture of what happened was beginning to take shape in his brain. That Yorkshire orderly had been the anesthetic. He had socked Don on the cocc with the butt of that revolver...

Improved Uniform SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D. Dean of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

Lesson for October 29

BEVERAGE ALCOHOL AND SOCIAL PROGRESS

LESSON TEXT—Micah 2:9-11; Luke 21:29-31, 34-36; I Corinthians 6:9-11. GOLDEN TEXT—Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God?—I Corinthians 6:9.

"International Temperance Sunday—October 29, 1939." Let us join with people the world over in making our protest against the sale and use of intoxicating liquors. If every Christian would declare himself on this matter now, there would be a tremendous impact made on this universal problem...

The lesson portions may seem a little unrelated, but study of them yields three important truths regarding the use of wine and strong drink.

I. Lovers of Wine and Strong Drink Destroy Their Nation (Mic. 2:9-11).

That statement may surprise some of our self-styled patriots who like to wave the flag and speak swelling words of devotion to our country and who at the same time love their intoxicating drinks. Micah rightly points out that his people had come to the place where they chose men to be prophets because they encouraged the people in the use of wine and strong drinks (v. 11). They must therefore expect the result which follows, namely, the destruction of the home and of the nation (vv. 9, 10).

We are all familiar with the claim that prohibition retarded the advancement of our nation and that its repeal would bring a return to higher moral standards, reduce crime, bring in prosperity, etc. The facts reveal that none of these have come true. Crime has increased by leaps and bounds under repeal, a situation so well known as to call for no proof. Moral standards have gone rapidly downward with the free use of liquor. If you don't believe that, ask a policeman what goes on in our taverns, or just keep your eyes half open and you can see for yourself.

Just now much is being made of the many jobs which are supposed to have been created by the liquor industry. What are the facts? The Christian Herald tells us, "A million dollars spent for furniture would employ 339 persons, spent for boots and shoes 336 persons, for home furnishings 191 persons, for booze just 95 persons." And remember that jobs making the stuff that destroys other jobs, are not worth having. The man who drinks is helping to destroy his nation.

II. Christians Do Not Drink, Because They Look for Christ's Return (Luke 21:29-31, 34-36).

If we are not "looking for that blessed hope and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ" (Titus 2:13), we should consider whether any of the things mentioned in these verses have gained control in our lives: the cares of this life, surfeiting, or drunkenness. But why speak to Christians about that? Surely they do not use intoxicants. Sadly enough, some do. Taking advantage of the fact that the Bible speaks of temperance rather than of abstinence, they seek to justify an indulgence in these things, which they (and their neighbors) know is dishonoring to God and destructive of their testimony and usefulness in the community.

Christian, Jesus is coming again! He may come today! In fact, the fig tree (vs. 29, 30), which is the nation Israel, has long been shooting forth new branches and bearing green leaves. The indications are that Christ is coming soon. Are you ready to meet Him?

III. Drunkards and Other Sinners Need to be Saved (I Cor. 6:9-11).

Being drunk is not a joke, even though thoughtless people laugh and cartoonists and writers of jokes use such unfortunates as their stock in trade. Drunkenness is a foul and sinful thing, classed by the apostle Paul with the lowest of human vices. Review the list as it is given in verses 9 and 10 (and by the way, notice that covetousness is mentioned in its proper classification. Call it what it really is—sin, and then call on the One who can save from sin and then you will be washed from your sin, sanctified, and justified in the name of the Lord Jesus (v. 11). In Christ there is hope for the drunkard. A spiritual revival is the real answer to the liquor problem. Let us seek to promote it even as we at the same time give ourselves to an intelligent and constructive battle against this destructive force in the life of our nation.

Watch Your Kidneys

Help Them Cleanse the Body of Harmful Body Waste Your kidneys are constantly working matter from the blood stream. Kidneys sometimes lag in their work and act as Nature intended—do not move impurities that, if retained, poison the system and upset the body machinery. Symptoms may be nagging headache, persistent dizziness, attacks of drowsiness, or night, swelling, or pain under the eyes—a feeling of heat and safety around the back of the head. Other signs of kidney or bladder trouble are sometimes burning, itching, or treatment is what's needed. Doan's Pills. Doan's have been used by new friends for more than forty years. In spite of the lack of effort in the past you will see the Pep Squad in action again. At the meeting Wednesday it was decided that the pep squad would meet on Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays.

The pep squad is composed of the following: Vivian Burleson and Bobbye Allred, leaders; Phyllis Allred, Secretary and Reporter; Jozelle Hodges; Reporter; Bobbye Allred; and the following members: Margaret Sue Bomer, Bud Dean Hill, Gloria Vinsen, Nona Lee Deavenport, Irene Strickland, Ruby Lee Roberts, Roberta McMurtry, Margaret Bess Webb, Dell D. McKinley, Lucille Kirk, Diamond Howland, Evelyn Coffee, Faye Gene Marie Nance, Edna Mae Garrison, Clio Garrison, Wynona Wimblerly, Anita Hill, Bomer, Ima Jo Martin, Mae Mills, Mozelle Shelton, Thomas, Christine Carthal, Garrison, Neta Faye Margaret Thomas, Jonnie Lorraine Austin, Novalene

F. F. A. BOYS PRESENT CHAPEL PROGRAM

By Alva Jasper

The Silverton FFA chapter presented the chapel program last Friday morning in observance of National FFA Week. The center of interest was the Kansas City Royal Purple Fat Stock Show.

The program was opened with string music played by Alva Jasper, J. W. Rowell, Jim Neatherlin, and James Davis. Carl Dean Bomer acted as Master of Ceremonies.

Mr. Spencer and Billy Rampley gave us a Negro comedy which was very amusing and entertaining.

Mr. Harmon and Mr. Spencer then gave an act which was also very entertaining. Yes, we got Mr. Harmon on the stage.

Several jokes were told, then we had a dancing contest. This was very comical as the floor bouncer couldn't keep Rastus, Mr. Spencer, off the floor until his turn, but he won the contest by giving a combination jig. He won over two other contestants, Jonie Allard and Jo Webb, who did some excellent tap dancing.

For our last number we had the magician Hokie Pokie, Jr. to do several of his tricks. Merle J. Montague was assisted in this act by Guinn Williamson.

GIGANTIC SCHOOL CARNIVAL AT SCHOOL FRIDAY NIGHT

There will be a school carnival in the gymnasium Friday night. Many interesting booths will be sponsored by the different classes and each group will use the proceeds for the benefit of their class. Most of them are planning to buy library books, bulletins and other school supplies that will benefit all of the students.

There is no general admission charge and after the carnival a free spooky show will be screened. Everyone is invited to come.

HOW ABOUT COURTESY?

By Bruce Burleson, Jr.

Students are sometimes very forgetful of themselves. Not really realizing what they do or say that may not be at all courteous to our teachers. Teachers are in school to teach us and for our profit, the good they do is for the students, not themselves.

By just giving this subject a little thought we can readily see that school days might be happier for both students and teachers if we were more courteous to our teachers.

Just what all do you consider when you say courteous? Good manners and friendliness will help a lot. If a student should go to class poorly prepared this would not be very courteous to the teacher, or to the student that had studied.

Courtesy is only one of the many things we owe our teachers, but it is something many of us are lacking in.

Let's check up and see if some of us aren't just a little bit lenient along this line. A smile and a little bit of courtesy might go a long way.

COMMITTEES APPOINTED

The Freshman Class had a meeting Monday morning and appointed a committee to prepare their part of the program for Friday morning. Those who were appointed were: Winona Francis, chairman, Lou Ann Williamson, Joe Earl Deavenport, Clyde Mercer, and Margaret Thomas.

They also discussed plans for the carnival to be held Friday night.

BEAR CUBS

Mr. W. E. Sherman attended an Educational Conference in Canyon Saturday morning.

Bobby Dean Nance was in Plainview Sunday.

FREDA WIMBERLY ATTENDED HOME COMING SERVICE AT STERLEY SUNDAY

Evelyn Coffee visited in Quitaque Saturday night.

The new band setup has reduced the tuition to parents forty per cent. The original plan taxed the band parents $2.50 per month which was quite excessive and very difficult to raise. For the remaining eight months of school the total tuition is $12.50 as compared with $20.00 that would be necessary under the original plan.

Band parents are nearly 100% behind the new arrangement and most of them have already put up the $12.50 per student required for a full year's work in band. The monthly tuition plan has been discontinued in favor of the semester plan. The tuition for the remainder of the first semester is $5.00 and for the second semester is $7.50. This eliminates much unnecessary bookkeeping and simplifies the financial part of the project. The tuition is to be paid in advance at the beginning of each semester and the due dates for payment is November 15th for the first semester and February 15th for the second semester.

Many new students are planning to take advantage of the opportunities made possible by this very popular course which is now a part of the school curriculum and it is expected that more than forty students will be enrolled by mid-term.

All students who are interested in this kind of work and can secure an instrument will find their time and efforts spent on a course that will prove very practical and beneficial and will equip them with musical training that will be an enjoyment and pleasure to them throughout their life.

Mr. Terry, our new Speech and Band teacher, will report for duty Monday, October 30th. Band classes are now being organized for daily work and all students are requested to bring all of their band equipment and be ready for their first class in band, as we want to get started off in high Monday.

Dean Griffith of Quitaque spent the week end with friends.

STUDENTS WHO WISH TO JOIN PEP SQUAD SEE ROBERTA MCGURRY AT ONCE

At the meeting Wednesday the pep squad girls decided to give football boys a Weenie Roast Saturday night, October 30, 1939. Football boys and pep squad will meet at Bobby Allred's home at 8 p. m. We will go to the vaudeville at the court house.

OWLS TO MEET CALVES IN FIRST HOME GAME

The Silverton Owls will meet Canyon Calves Friday on the Silverton Athletic Field in the home game of the season. The Owls will come back after defeating 7-7 last week with Estelline Bears.

The Calves are to be one of the improved teams in this part of the country. But, the Owls are going to be scrapping the Calves the way through.

WHERE? HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM.
WHEN? THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 7:30 p. m.
WHY? TO RAISE MONEY TO BUY PEP SQUAD UNIFORMS.

SENIORS SPONSOR SHOW

The Seniors sponsored a show Wednesday and Thursday nights at the Palace Theatre, entitled "Naughty But Nice." Our class wishes to thank Joe Mercer for giving us an opportunity to earn money for our senior trip.

After all the expenses were paid, the net proceeds were $31.55.

The Seniors and their sponsors wish to express their sincere thanks to each of you who made this undertaking a success.

JOLLY ECKER NEWS

The Jolly Ecker club met last Friday night in the Homemaking cottage for a regular business meeting. The problems of whether, or not to become affiliated with the State and National Clubs was discussed and we decided hundred per cent attendance should be attended. The president appointed several committees for various duties. We also talked about the booth which our club will sponsor at the annual school carnival Friday night.

Mr. Nance: "While you stood at the gate bidding my daughter goodnight, did it ever dawn upon you ----?"

O. C. "Certainly not, sir, I never stayed as late as that."

grain sorghums are fed in self-feeder, pigs usually chew the grain thoroughly, but at hand-fed, there is usually a great saving in the grinding the grain.

The above experiment was taken from "Feeds and Feeding" by Morrison.

NOMINEES CHOSEN FOR CARNIVAL QUEEN CONTEST

Another big contest is on in Silverton High School. This time it's a Carnival Queen contest. The contest will end Friday night, and at this time the winner will be announced.

The following girls were chosen from each class: Marie Nance, Senior; Nona Lee Deavenport, Junior; Freda Wimblerly, Sophomore; and Dorothy Roy McMurtry Freshman; Carlyn Wimblerly, 7th grade; Ruby Jo Neatherland, 6th grade; Wandaleigh Moore, 5th grade; Thelma Jean Mercer, 4th grade; Osha Lynn Graham, 3rd grade; Joy Bell Deavenport, 2nd grade; and Lanette Sherman, 1st grade.

The proceeds of this contest will go to the general school fund; so everybody save your pennies and vote for your favorite nominee. One vote only costs a penny.

PERSONALITY PARADE

The Sophomores are runners up in our column today. We hold Carl Dean Bomer as the model boy of this class. Carl Dean, better known to his classmates as "Hoss", has a very promising future and an almost excellent past.

He is a medium blond, medium light complexioned; weighs around 125 pounds, and is 5 feet, 8 inches tall. Hoss is always in a good humor and has a smile for both acquaintances and strangers. It has been said of him, "Carl Dean is one of the neatest, and most courteous boys I've ever known." This being said of him, the Sophomore Class of '39 and '40 should be proud to know he takes his stand with them. Carl Dean plays a clarinet in the High School Band and has a hidden talent, that of guitar playing. He belongs to the FFA Chapter and to a club outside the school. Not only does this boy have friends in his school-mates and teachers, but in outsiders as well.

TWO NEW STUDENTS

The students of Silverton High wish to extend their welcome to the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Vinsen. Their names are Gloria Zoe and Nina Rhea and are classified as a Senior and Freshman respectively. They moved here from Childress, and will make their home in the northwest part of town.

Probably the most interesting games the Silverton fans have witnessed so far this season ended in a 7-7 tie between the Silverton Owls and the Estelline Cubs. The Owls played an unusually fine game of football, and the Cubs certainly lived up to their reputation of being a swell ball club.

Silverton's touchdown came as the result of a pass from Hank Brown to Grady Martin in the second quarter. A beautiful spiral kick coming from the toe of W. L. Perry accounted for the extra point. We might say at this point that Silverton's passing game worked very effectively.

Estelline's tally came in third quarter. Stillwell passed to Lee who scampered 35 yards for the 6 points. The plunge for extra point was good.

No more scoring was done by either team, and the game ended in a tie.

There were several stars on the Owls' team, that is if you want to call them that, but maybe a better phrase would be "grand football players." Hank Brown certainly deserves a big pat on the back for the all around fine playing which he did Friday in spite of his injuries. The same goes for O. C. Rampley who certainly did a good deal of swell playing regardless of that bad knee.

Others who played very brilliant ball were Grady Martin, Huber Tillery, and Fred Brannon. The one word which can best be applied to Fred and Grady is "reliable." If Huber had a bit more speed, he would certainly go places on the gridiron.

90-HOUR WINTER GRIND spared your OIL-PLATED engine

You need your engine OIL-PLATED now by patented Conoco Germ Processed oil to wipe out doubts of decent oiling during starting — when unplated engines wear worst. (6 or 8 minutes of such wear, repeated 6 or 8 times a day through these cold months, mounts up beyond 90 hours!)... 90 life-sapping hours for engines abandoned to oils that can only "flow fast"... but no oil-starvation in 90 hours or 900 hours, when your engine's OIL-PLATED.

The "magnetic" action of Germ Processed oil gives every square inch in your engine a slippery overlay of OIL-PLATING — attached as firmly as chromium-plating. And could any plating drain down when you park in any cold, for any length of time? Then you know why OIL-PLATING — drain-proof — is ready to lubricate before you're even ready to get out of bed, or away from work. Before any oil-pump could squirt a drop, your drain-proof OIL-PLATING has readied your engine for safe, easy starting. That's how you get the drop on the worst of Winter by OIL-PLATING now with Conoco Germ Processed oil. Keeps up your engine — your battery — your oil-level, too. Change now to Your Mileage Merchant. Intensified Warfare Started As Germany at Last Realizes Futility of Peace Overtures

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

EUROPE: War of Diplomacy

Biggest news on the diplomatic front was wishful thinking in London and Paris to the effect that Italy was swinging away from Berlin to form a strong Balkan peace bloc...

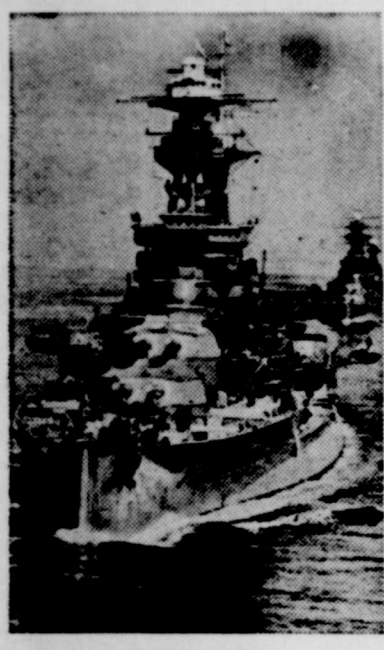

Backing the rumor, Italian newspapers continued heaping insults on Communism. Partially spiking it, however, was authoritative Editor Virginia Gayda...

Meanwhile Germany continued last-minute efforts to avert war, having waited until the final heart-breaking moment in the hope that Prime Minister Chamberlain would capitulate...

(Proclaiming Armistice day, President Roosevelt revised Europe's intervention hopes by asking Americans to look forward to "a time when a just and enduring peace shall be established.")

War on Land & in Air

On the western front 65 German divisions were massed from the sea to the Rhine. Significantly, 30 of them stood opposite Holland and Belgium...

But bigger news came from the air. Berlin's first bombing scare arrived one evening as Nazi seaplanes were meditating on lard sandwiches for next morning's breakfast...

Britain had a genuine scare next day. Fourteen German bombers invaded English soil for the first time. Their objective: The huge naval base and bridge at Firth of Forth, near Edinburgh, Scotland...

War at Sea

In 1651 Britain's fugitive King Charles II hid in an oak tree at Boscomb, Shropshire, after the battle of Worcester. A few years later proud Britons named a warship after their revered "royal oak"...

The ship was promptly sunk by the Dutch in 1667. Ten more "Royal Oaks" carried the ill omen, the last going into action at Jutland less than a month after being commissioned...

This was only one part of a weekend's terrific warfare at sea. Berlin claimed the same submarine which sank the Royal Oak also damaged Britain's battle cruiser Repulse...

CONGRESS:

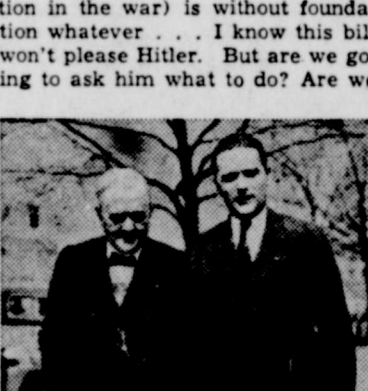

Neutrality?

Neutrality was making a bum this month out of many an otherwise efficient statesman. Each day the lower house of congress assembled half-heartedly, listened to a few pointless speeches and went its way to Washington's cocktail rooms and bars...

Senators passed the 300,000-word mark in their debate on isolationism vs. cash-and-carry. Though they were still going strong, compromise was in the air to replace the premature victory song of embargo realists.

Thus far, isolationist propaganda has tried to convince the nation that cash-and-carry neutrality will get America into war. But the campaign failed to sell, so isolationists found a more potent weapon by dramatizing the post-war depression that will inevitably follow if U. S. industry expands to serve warring Europe...

But no German officer would have been sucker enough to halt such an effective blow to the Allied cause. All Don's attempts at suicide came back to him labeled, "No Dice." He had to wait until he was relieved from duty and then, in a semi-delirium he lit out for the nearest British medical unit two miles away...

NORRIS (LEFT) AND NYE Are we going to ask Hitler?

And then the doctor spoke. Don couldn't hear what he was saying very well, but the picture of what happened was beginning to take shape in his brain. That Yorkshire orderly had been the anesthetic. He had socked Don on the cocc with the butt of that revolver...

And What a Climax.

Don stopped him. "Don't worry, doc," he said. "It's all right with me. It was a swell job, even if your anesthetic was a bit rough." The attendant shook his head and began to repeat his words. "Then," says Don, "my confused brain began to function as I heard that Englishman say, 'Oh, I'm sorry, Yank, but I haven't done anything yet, you know. You see my orderly worked too fast and I had to wait until you come out of it SO YOU COULD TELL ME WHICH TOOTH IT WAS!'"

Don was somewhere in the Villers Cotteret area on special duty with the Second division. A deafening barrage had been rolling back and forth across the lines for more than two hours. The Germans were tossing every form of pyrotechnic display in their bag of tricks...

It was undoubtedly the outstanding disaster of the whole war. It had been going on for 24 hours and Don was convinced that if it went on two hours longer nothing could keep the Germans from taking Paris. And Don was miles away from any possible agency of relief...

"At last, I thought, the Germans had planted a nice, juicy shell under the dental chair, and I was all ready to put forth my hand and receive my harp and halo. Then I began to be aware of a disconcerting fact. I could still feel a dull throb where my toothache had been, and now there was another dull throb in the back of my head."

Don didn't have any time to think about it at all. The minute he turned his head he felt something hit it that felt like a nudge from a howitzer. There was a blinding flash and a million stars, pin-wheels, constellations and blue lights danced before his eyes.

And then the doctor spoke. Don couldn't hear what he was saying very well, but the picture of what happened was beginning to take shape in his brain. That Yorkshire orderly had been the anesthetic. Improved SUNDAY SCHOOL International LESSON

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D. Dean of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

Lesson for October 29

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission.

BEVERAGE ALCOHOL AND SOCIAL PROGRESS

LESSON TEXT—Micah 2:9-11; Luke 21:29-31, 34-36; I Corinthians 6:9-11. GOLDEN TEXT—Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God?—I Corinthians 6:9.

"International Temperance Sunday—October 29, 1939." Let us join with people the world over in making our protest against the sale and use of intoxicating liquors. If every Christian would declare himself on this matter now, there would be a tremendous impact made on this universal problem and notice would be served on the liquor industry...

Don Had a Toothache.

L. Lovers of Wine and Strong Drink Destroy Their Nation (Mic. 2:9-11).

That statement may surprise some of our self-styled patriots who like to wave the flag and speak swelling words of devotion to our country and who at the same time love their intoxicating drinks. Micah rightly points out that his people had come to the place where they chose men to be prophets because they encouraged the people in the use of wine and strong drinks...

We are all familiar with the claim that prohibition retarded the advancement of our nation and that its repeal would bring a return to higher moral standards, reduce crime, bring in prosperity, etc. The facts reveal that none of these have come true. Crime has increased by leaps and bounds under repeal, a situation so well known as to call for no proof. Moral standards have gone rapidly downward with the free use of liquor.

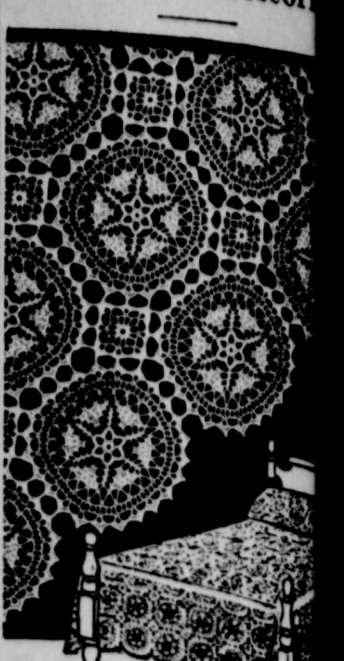

II. Christians Do Not Drink, Because They Look for Christ's Return (Luke 21:29-31, 34-36). If we are not "looking for that blessed hope and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ" (Titus 2:13), we should consider whether any of the things mentioned in these verses have gained control in our lives: the cares of this life, surfeiting, or drunkenness.

Christian, Jesus is coming again! He may come today! In fact, the fig tree (vv. 29, 30), which is the nation Israel, has long been shooting forth new branches and bearing green leaves. The indications are that Christ is coming soon. Are you ready to meet Him?

III. Drunkards and Other Sinners Need to be Saved (I Cor. 6:9-11). Being drunk is not a joke, even though thoughtful people laugh and cartoonists and writers of jokes use such unfortunates as their stock in trade. Drunkenness is a foul and sinful thing, classed by the apostle Paul with the lowest of human vices.

OWLS TO MEET CALVES IN FIRST HOME GAME

The Silverton Owls will meet Canyon Calves Friday on the Silverton Athletic Field in the home game of the season. The game will come back after dead-end 7-7 last week with Estelline Cubs.

The Calves are to be one of the improved teams in this part of the country. But, the Owls are going to be scrapping the Calves the way through.

F. F. A. BOYS PRESENT CHAPEL PROGRAM

By Alva Jasper
The Silverton FFA chapter presented the chapel program last Friday morning in observance of National FFA Week. The center of interest was the Kansas City Royal Purple Fat Stock Show.

The program was opened with string music played by Alva Jasper, J. W. Rowell, Jim Neatherlin, and James Davis. Carl Dean Bomer acted as Master of Ceremonies.

Mr. Spencer and Billy Rampley gave us a Negro comedy which was very amusing and entertaining.

Mr. Harmon and Mr. Spencer then gave an act which was also very entertaining. Yes, we got Mr. Harmon on the stage.

Several jokes were told, then we had a dancing contest. This was very comical as the floor bouncer couldn't keep Rastus, Mr. Spencer, off the floor until his turn, but he won the contest by giving a combination jig. He won over two other contestants, Jonie Allard and Jo Webb, who did some excellent tap dancing.

For our last number we had the magical Hokie Pokie, Jr. to do several of his tricks. Merle J. Montague was assisted in this act by Guinn Williamson.

COMMITTEES APPOINTED

The Freshman Class had a meeting Monday morning and appointed a committee to prepare their part of the program for Friday morning. Those who were appointed were: Winona Francis, chairman, Lou Ann Williamson, Joe Earl Deavenport, Clyde Mercer, and Margaret Thomas.

They also discussed plans for the carnival to be held Friday night.

Mr. W. E. Sherman attended an Educational Conference in Canyon Saturday morning.

Bobby Dean Nance was in Plainview Sunday.

GIGANTIC SCHOOL CARNIVAL AT SCHOOL FRIDAY NIGHT

There will be a school carnival in the gymnasium Friday night. Many interesting booths will be sponsored by the different classes and each group will use the proceeds for the benefit of their class. Most of them are planning to buy library books, bulletins and other school supplies that will benefit all of the students.

There is no general admission charge and after the carnival a free spooky show will be screened. Everyone is invited to come.

HOW ABOUT COURTESY?

By Bruce Burleson, Jr.

Students are sometimes very forgetful of themselves. Not really realizing what they do or say that may not be at all courteous to our teachers. Teachers are in school to teach us and for our profit, the good they do is for the students, not themselves.

By just giving this subject a little thought we can readily see that school days might be happier for both students and teachers if we were more courteous to our teachers.

Just what all do you consider when you say courteous? Good manners and friendliness will help a lot. If a student should go to class poorly prepared this would not be very courteous to the teacher, or to the student that had studied.

Courtesy is only one of the many things we owe our teachers, but it is something many of us are lacking in.

Let's check up and see if some of us aren't just a little bit lenient along this line. A smile and a little bit of courtesy might go a long way.

Freda Wimberly attended a home coming service at Sterley Sunday.

Evelyn Coffee visited in Quitaque Sunday night.

The new band setup has reduced the tuition to parents forty per cent. The original plan taxed the band parents $2.50 per month which was quite excessive and very difficult to raise. For the remaining eight months of school the total tuition is $12.50 as compared with $20.00 that would be necessary under the original plan.

Band parents are nearly 100% behind the new arrangement and most of them have already put up the $12.50 per student required for a full year's work in band. The monthly tuition plan has been discontinued in favor of the semester plan. The tuition for the remainder of the first semester is $5.00 and for the second semester is $7.50. This eliminates much unnecessary bookkeeping and simplifies the financial part of the project. The tuition is to be paid in advance at the beginning of each semester and the dead line dates for payment is November 15th for the first semester and February 15th for the second semester.

Many new students are planning to take advantage of the opportunities made possible by this very popular course which is now a part of the school curriculum and it is expected that more than forty students will be enrolled by mid-term.

All students who are interested in this kind of work can secure an instrument will find their time and efforts spent on a course that will prove very practical and beneficial and will equip them with musical training that will be an enjoyment and pleasure to them throughout their life.

Mr. Terry, our new Speech and Band teacher, will report for duty Monday, October 30th. Band classes are now being organized for daily work and all students are requested to bring all of their band equipment and be ready for their first class in band, as we want to get started off in high Monday.

Dean Griffith of Quitaque spent the week end with friends.

Your Cold Cough Is Tough On Your Friends, Too!

You can't blame your friends for wishing you would go somewhere else with your cold and cough; colds are highly contagious and cause more loss of time from illness than all other diseases combined. Get Mentho-Mulsion. Mentho-Mulsion is guaranteed to stop your cold cough immediately and rid you of that cough entirely, quicker than any medicine you ever tried, or every cent of the cost will be refunded without question. Mentho-Mulsion is the formula of the dean of pharmacy of a large mid-western university. It contains vitamins A and D to build up your cold resistance, and seven soothing, healing oils and unguents, with highest quality beechwood creosote for penetration. Genuine California fig syrup gives Mentho-Mulsion a taste you will like and makes it cling to your irritated membranes so its healing ingredients act more quickly and effectively. Feverish, irritated air passages are fine nesting places for stray germs, including even such dangerous ones as flu, pneumonia and tuberculosis. It is dangerous to take a chance with a cough due to a cold. Mentho-Mulsion is endorsed by your neighbors and guaranteed by leading druggists everywhere.—adv.

Feeding vs. Fiance-Feeding In Fattening Pigs
Agriculture II, we have been having problems in feeding livestock. One of the problems discussed was self-feeding vs. hand-feeding in fattening pigs. There have been many experiments carried on in different parts of the country in relation to fattening pigs. We have selected this experiment, which we think is very good one, to give to the members of Briscoe County. This experiment was made up of two lots of pigs averaging 95 pounds in weight at the start of the feeding period. Lot 1 was self-fed, choice corn and tankage, wheat, or alfalfa; each feed supplied in a separate compartment of the self-feeder. Lot 2 fed by hand a well balanced ration of the same feeds, being all they would eat twice a day. Here are the results which were brought out in this experiment. Lot 1, self-fed, ate an average of 5.8 pounds of corn and .94 pounds of protein supplement; this gave a daily gain of 1.59 lbs. Total pounds of feed per hundred pounds of gain were 335 pounds of corn and 59 pounds of protein supplement. Lot 2, hand-fed, ate an average of 5.1 pounds of corn and .93 pounds of protein supplement; this brought a daily gain of 1.42 lbs. The total pounds of feed per hundred pounds of gain were 355 pounds of corn and 60 pounds of protein supplement. Feeding grain for swine in not the case but if bar-ley, or millet is fed, the grain will be ground. If wheat or

SENIORS SPONSOR SHOW

The Seniors sponsored a show Wednesday and Thursday nights at the Palace Theatre, entitled "Naughty But Nice." Our class wishes to thank Joe Mercer for giving us an opportunity to earn money for our senior trip. After all the expenses were paid, the net proceeds were $31.55. The Seniors and their sponsors wish to express their sincere thanks to each of you who made this undertaking a success.

JOLLY ECKER NEWS

The Jolly Ecker club met last Friday night in the Homemaking cottage for a regular business meeting. The problems of whether or not to become affiliated with the State and National Clubs was discussed and we decided hundred per cent attendance the day and night meetings could be attended. The president appointed several committees for various duties. We also talked about the booth which our club will sponsor at the annual school carnival Friday night.

grain sorghums are fed in self-feeder, pigs usually chew the grain thoroughly, but at hand-fed, there is usually a great saving in the grinding the grain. The above experiment was taken from "Feeds and Feeding" by Morrison.

NOMINEES CHOSEN FOR CARNIVAL QUEEN CONTEST

Another big contest is on in Silverton High School. This time it's a Carnival Queen contest. The contest will end Friday night, and at this time the winner will be announced.

The following girls were chosen from each class: Marie Nance, Senior; Nona Lee Deavenport, Junior; Freda Wimberly, Sophomore; and Dorothy Roy McMurry, Freshman; Carlyn Wimberly, 7th grade; Ruby Jo Neatherland, 6th grade; Wandaleigh Moore, 5th grade; Thelma Jean Mercer, 4th grade; Osha Lynn Graham, 3rd grade; Joy Bell Deavenport, 2nd grade; and Lanette Sherman, 1st grade.

The proceeds of this contest will go to the general school fund; so everybody save your pennies and vote for your favorite nominee. One vote only costs a penny.

PERSONALITY PARADE

The Sophomores are runners up in our column today. We hold Carl Dean Bomer as the model boy of this class. Carl Dean, better known to his classmates as "Boss", has a very promising future and an almost excellent past.

He is a medium blond, medium light complexioned; weighs around 125 pounds, and is 5 feet, 8 inches tall. Boss is always in a good humor and has a smile for both acquaintances and strangers. It has been said of him, "Carl Dean is one of the neatest, and most courteous boys I've ever known." This being said of him, the Sophomore Class of '39 and '40 should be proud to know he takes his stand with them. Carl Dean plays a clarinet in the High School Band and has a hidden talent, that of guitar playing. He belongs to the FFA Chapter and to a club outside the school. Not only does this boy have friends in his school-mates and teachers, but in outsiders as well.

By Jozelle Hodges

Probably the most interesting games the Silverton fans have witnessed so far this season ended in a 7-7 tie between the Silverton Owls and the Estelline Cubs. The Owls played an unusually fine game of football, and the Cubs certainly lived up to their reputation of being a swell ball club.

Silverton's touchdown came as the result of a pass from Hank Brown to Grady Martin in the second quarter. A beautiful spiral kick coming from the toe of W. L. Perry accounted for the extra point. We might say at this point that Silverton's passing game worked very effectively.

Estelline's tally came in third quarter. Stillwell passed to Lee who scampered 35 yards for the 6 points. The plunge for extra point was good.

No more scoring was done by either team, and the game ended in a tie.

There were several stars on the Owls' team, that is if you want to call them that, but maybe a better phrase would be "grand football players." Hank Brown certainly deserves a big pat on the back for the all around fine playing which he did Friday in spite of his injuries. The same goes for O. C. Rampley who certainly did a good deal of swell playing regardless of that bad knee.

Others who played very brilliant ball were Grady Martin, Huber Tillery, and Fred Brannon. The one word which can best be applied to Fred and Grady is "reliable." If Huber had a bit more speed, he would certainly go places on the gridiron.

TWO NEW STUDENTS

The students of Silverton High wish to extend their welcome to the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Vinson. Their names are Gloria Zoe and Nina Rhea and are classified as a Senior and Freshman respectively. They moved here from Childress, and will make their home in the northwest part of town.

90-HOUR WINTER GRIND

spared your OIL-PLATED engine

You need your engine OIL-PLATED now by patented Conoco Germ Processed oil to wipe out doubts of ~~decept~~ oiling during starting — when unplated engines wear worst. (6 or 8 minutes of such wear, repeated 6 or 8 times a day through these cold months, mounts up beyond 90 hours!)... 90 life-sapping hours for engines abandoned to oils that can only "flow fast"... but no oil-starvation in 90 hours or 900 hours, when your engine's OIL-PLATED. The "magnetic" action of Germ Processed oil gives every square inch in your engine a slippery ~~overlay~~ of OIL-PLATING — attached as firmly as chromium-plating. And could any plating drain down when you park in any cold, for any length of time? Then you know why OIL-PLATING — drain-proof — is ready to lubricate before you're even ready to get out of bed, or away from work. Before any oil-pump could squirt a drop, your drain-proof OIL-PLATING has readied your engine for safe, easy starting. That's how you get the drop on the worst of Winter by OIL-PLATING now with Conoco Germ Processed oil. Keeps up your engine — your battery — your oil-level, too. Change now to Your Mileage Merchant. MALICIOUS AND unfounded gossip is a boomerang that reacts upon the thrower with tenfold power, sometimes reacting to the extent of complete extermination...

I MET MRS. Gene Long in the bakery the other day. I happened to be behind the counter and asked her if she didn't think that I made a fine looking baker. She said yes, that she thought I looked more like a baker than a newspaper man.

that I had plenty to eat all the time.

A. L. PATTERSON (Quitauque Whiteside) is no doubt the strongest booster of sports that can be found in the Queen City. And last week when Quitauque played Crowell, they both had the same kind of jerseys, and Quitauque played in their white sweat shirts.

I JUST GOT a card from Carl Crow who is the Veteran's Hospital at Albuquerque. He said that he liked it very well and that he really enjoyed the home paper when it came.

TO CONTINUE about Carl. He said that they all had a rest period from 9 till 11, and again from 1 till 3. I don't see why Carl had to go to Albuquerque to get a rest period.

MRS. WHITESIDE was telling on T. R. yesterday. He was telling about a red sweater that he has that he has worn for about sixteen years. Well, she said she'd tell the straight of it. She said that he USED to have a red sweater.

work to be done or the fire whistle blows. T. R. hollers, "Have you seen my red sweater? Where is that red sweater? I wish you would help me keep track of it."

AND W. COFFEE asks me why don't I start a column about "the human side of life?"... well as a starter, how's this: "The other evening we sat down to lunch and Barbara said, 'Well I see Woodson is wearing his long handled undies.' I jumped up and supposed that she had seen him prowling in our back yard in his underwear."

WELL COFFEE now denies that he ever wears long handles. Which brings my detective blood to the front and now I've got to find out how in the heck that men's underwear got on the Coffee line.

P. S. No they were not red, and as far as I could tell from a distance, were not even baggy at the knees.

MR. AND MRS. Robert Hill are the proud parents of a bouncing baby boy born at the Tulia Hospital Tuesday, October 24. He has been named Robert Haley Hill.

SILVERTON SEEMS assured at this time of getting a locker box cold storage system. Bert Northcutt is planning a plant now to be built soon here at a cost of around eight thousand dollars.

Little Edwin Bice sprained his wrist Monday.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS... (Continued from front page) ran to their cars and listened there, honking their horns when the candidate for Attorney General made a telling point.

Interesting facts about Texans: N. H. Pierce, Menard publisher, used to be a wrestler; look at his Gibraltar-like figure, 240 pounds, and you won't doubt that he went two hours to a draw with a grappler who had held Champion Strangler Lewis to a tie.

Captain Aldrich of the Texas Rangers has one of the finest collections of Texas books in existence.

Amon Carter used to sell crayon enlargements of photographs.

And I should like to be recognized long enough to express my bitter resentment at being charged 15 cents for a hamburger in Austin—at a sandwich stand, at that!

One of the most interesting hotels in Texas is the Excelsior at Jefferson. Part of the structure was erected before the Civil War. Between the hotel and the lonesome old federal building (Jefferson once had a population of 30,000 but now has only a few thousand inhabitants).

Buckram and Tacks To Stiffen Valance

By RUTH WYETH SPEARS
"DEAR MRS. SPEARS: A friend gave me a copy of your Book 3 and I can't tell you what a transformation is taking place in my home because of it. For a long time I have wanted living room curtains with smoothly fitted valances stiffened with buckram. Could you give me step-by-step directions for making them?"

A four-inch valance shelf; buckram and thumbtacks are the only "extras" needed. 1: Cut the buckram the exact size of the finished valance—no seam allowances. The chintz for the valance and the facing material are cut larger as indicated. 2: Outline the scallops by drawing around the buckram. 3: Stitch the chintz and facing with right sides together. Steps 4, 5, and 6: Trim the scallops; clip between them; then turn and press. 7: Insert the buckram; fitting it smoothly into the scallops. Turn in and stitch the top; allowing 1/2 inch to extend above the buckram. 8: Tack this soft edge to the shelf.

NOTE: If you have had Mrs. Spears' books 1 and 2, you will want No. 3. It is full of new ideas for homemakers, and step by step directions for making important pieces of furniture. Also newest styles and methods of making slip covers and curtains. Original designs for rag rugs; gifts and bazaar items. Send 10 cents in coin with name and address to Mrs. Spears, 210 S. Desplains St., Chicago, Ill.

Norwood drew rein beneath the baobab tendril. He didn't even have to stand in the saddle to reach it. The reins ran forward and took the reins. Norwood climbed the tendril, hand over hand, swung himself on to the wall, and walked forward. As he emerged out of the shadow of the overhanging trees, he saw O'Leary looking backward toward him. Norwood extended both arms and moved them slightly up and down. That was an order to O'Leary to patrol the road. Norwood wanted no witnesses. He walked forward along the wall, toward the kiosk, where Rundhia stood talking to Lynn.

Lynn saw him first. She looked startled and Rundhia faced about for a moment speechless.

"You, is it!" he said. "What the devil do you mean, climbing walls at this hour of the night?"

"I came looking for you. No, it isn't my ghost. They missed me. Did you hear the shooting? Aren't you rather a duffer at choosing marksmen?"

"I don't know and I don't care what you mean by that remark," said Rundhia. "Get off the wall."

"When I'm ready. Rundhia, what have you been saying about me?"

"You flatter yourself. I don't care to talk about you."

"What did you say to the Resident? He mentioned that you had called to see him."

"Did he? Well, my conversation with the Resident was confidential."

"So was mine, Rundhia. Say to me what you said to him."

"You may go to the devil." Rundhia glanced backward at Lynn, then sneered at Norwood: "People who pocket bribes are not entitled to—"

It wasn't exactly a haymaker. It was a right-handed wallop without any ringside pedigree, but with all the strength, contempt and anger of a clean-living man behind it, that landed on Rundhia's chin like a gun going off. It brought a laugh from O'Leary, who couldn't possibly have seen it. Rundhia reeled backward toward the garden as if pole-axed, out for the count. He did a forward knife-bend on the edge of the wall, and toppled backward into the darkness. The crash of shrubbery announced that he had fallen soft. Norwood glanced at Lynn then:

"Just a minute, please."

He ran down the steps to take a look at Rundhia and dragged him out of the shrubbery on to the path. He made a rough estimate that no bones were broken and let him lie there. He returned up the steps and confronted Lynn.

"I suppose you've killed him."

"Oh, no."

They could see each other almost as distinctly as in full daylight. Lynn's hair was a mass of spun gold. Her emotions, revealed on her face, her parted lips, her startled, questioning, proud eyes drove out of Norwood's mind the few terse phrases that he had prepared. He said suddenly, because he couldn't think of anything else to say:

"What are you doing in that make-up?"

"You should have hit me," Lynn answered. "That was a cowardly blow. You gave him no warning. Are you sure you haven't killed him?"

"I'm afraid he'll live. Is it true, Miss Harding, that you told Rundhia about a packet of diamonds that you saw drop from my pocket this morning?"

"Yes."

Norwood stared at her. She didn't flinch. She continued speaking after a moment:

"That is why I wrote inviting you to come and see me. I wanted to tell you what I had done, and to explain how I came to do it, and to apologize."

"I didn't believe you had said it," Norwood answered. "I came to—"

Lynn interrupted: "I did say it. It was my fault. I wish you had hit me, instead of Rundhia. I would have preferred that to the humiliation of being despised and of being—"

Rundhia moaned on the path in the darkness below.

"Captain Norwood, I must go and help Rundhia. Will you please let me pass?"

"No," said Norwood. "I will shout for servants presently, to carry him to bed."

"His nose may be bleeding!"

herself and looked straight in his eyes:

"Captain Norwood. If you please. I must go and look after Rundhia. Will you let me get by?"

Norwood didn't move: "What did you say in your letter?" he asked.

"If you despised me too much to read it, why ask that now? I know you got the letter. It was sent by one of the Maharajah's messengers, who came back and said he had given it to you. He said you tore it up; he saw you do it."

"Did the messenger tell you that?"

"He told Rundhia."

"Oh," said Norwood. O'Leary whistled, in the distance, somewhere between the kiosk and the palace front gate. Rundhia groaned again. By the noise, he appeared to be helping himself to his feet by holding on to the shrubbery. Norwood called to him:

"Are you all right, Rundhia?"

"None of your business!" said Rundhia's voice from the darkness. "I'm going to have you arrested."

Rundhia's footsteps went staggering away in the direction of the palace.

Norwood faced Lynn again: "Sorry. I'm in a hurry. Would you like me to see you as far as the palace steps?"

"Oh, no. Thank you."

"Well, look here: I wrote you a letter, just in case I didn't find you."

Lynn interrupted: "I did say it."

I brought it with me. Will you take it now and read it later? It's quite important. Perhaps you'll give me an answer next time we meet."

"If we do meet," Lynn answered. "Why should we? Good-by."

"So long. Don't forget my letter, will you? I didn't expect to find you alone, so I wrote what I thought you wouldn't care to have me say in other people's presence. I said exactly what I think."

Lynn paused on her way to the head of the steps. O'Leary whistled again, twice this time.

"So long," Norwood repeated. "See you as soon as I can."

Lynn spoke abruptly: "One moment, Captain Norwood. You say you gave me what you think of me in this letter? I said what I thought of myself and of you, in my letter to you. You tore mine up."

She tore up Norwood's letter. She scattered its fragments into the darkness.

"Good-by!"

"Careful down those steps," said Norwood. "See you later."

"Why?" Lynn answered.

Norwood swung himself down from the wall, by the baobab tendril. He swung himself on to his horse and was off at a gallop. O'Leary had whistled three times. That meant "urgent."

CHAPTER XIX

The horses and their riders were invisible in the shadow where the high wall curved away from the moonlight. O'Leary spoke hoarsely:

"That must ha' been a snorter! You could ha' heard that punch half-way to Delhi. Who did you hit?"

"Mind your own business. Why did you whistle?"

"Stoddart sent a man from camp to overtake you. He gave the message to me. He said there'd come a sweeper, running like hell, from Mrs. Harding in the guesthouse. She says she has to see you in a hurry, it's important, and won't you come quick?"

"What's become of the sweeper?"

and expect a call from me at any minute."

"Do I know anything, if he asks?"

"No. Look here, O'Leary: I know what I'm going to do, but I don't know what will happen. You follow the Resident to the palace. Slip in through the gate after him and watch for that Bengali doctor. Hold him, if you catch him coming out or going in. When you see me coming of the palace, if I hold up my right hand, let him go. If I hold up both hands, turn him over to the gate guard. You've no police power, remember. So be careful."

Norwood was off at full gallop, with the reins hard after him, before O'Leary could answer. He drew rein at the palace gate and was delayed there for a moment or two by an argument between the commander of the gate guard and an Indian contractor, who had turned up with a motor truck for Mrs. Harding's luggage and a car for Mrs. Harding. Because Norwood was in uniform, the contractor appealed to him:

"Sir, I am refused admission. Sir, I have an order from the American lady, Mrs. Harding, to collect her luggage and to convey her to the station. It is a long way and a bad road. She has already paid me. I fear we shall not catch the midnight train unless—"

The commander of the gate guard drew Norwood aside: "It is his honor and the Resident's wish," he said quietly.

"No business of mine," said Norwood. "May I leave my horses inside the gate?"

The great gate clanged behind him. He walked to the guesthouse. Mrs. Harding was no longer recumbent on pillows on the chaise longue. She seemed even to have partially recovered from her lameness. She was seated bolt upright on one of her trunks, on the garden path, in front of the veranda door.

"There's no understanding you English," she remarked. "Why don't you use your title?"

"I haven't one."

"But your brother is an Earl, isn't he? So you're an Honorable, aren't you?"

"That is not what you inferred at our last interview."

"Well, I didn't know who you are. How could I? I have a letter for you, from Lynn. But the envelope was addressed to me. I have thought it over, and I suppose she must have put it into the wrong envelope by mistake, because I have received no answer to my letter to her. Here it is."

Norwood stepped on to the veranda to read it by the light from the window.

"Dear Captain Norwood,

"I am feeling ashamed and so sorry that I hardly know what to write. Won't you please call as soon as you can and let me explain. I mentioned, without thinking, something that occurred this morning. To my horror, I have now learned that what I said has been repeated, and that the result may be—I can't write it! Please, Captain Norwood, please believe that what I said was merely thoughtless and that what I have heard about you I refuse to believe. I know you are an honorable man. Please help me to undo my very bad mistake. I will be waiting for you at the palace. Won't you call as soon as possible?"

Lynn Harding."

Norwood returned to Mrs. Harding. "How long have you had this?"

"Don't try any of that hoity-toity arrogance on me!" she retorted. "I'm a Harding, I'll have you understand! I sent a messenger for you because—"

Government Scientists Record Speed of Bird Flight

The swiftest birdflight ever recorded accurately is in the neighborhood of 175 miles an hour. Ordinary, unburied flight averages from 20 to 40 miles an hour, according to the species.

The United States Department of Agriculture has compiled a complete record of the measured flight speeds of North American and European birds. The swiftest denizen of the skies, according to this compendium, is the California duck hawk whose speed, measured with a stop watch from an airplane, was found to be between 175 and 180 miles an hour. The eagle is relatively slow. The Department of Agriculture compiler, found one rather questionable recorded speed of 120 miles for a golden eagle. Only two entirely trustworthy records of eagle speeds were found—one of 30 and the other of 60 miles.

Bird speed records more than 20 years old are worthless, the report explains, because any possible means of measurement was quite inaccurate and some fantastic estimates were made, managing up to 5 or 6 miles a minute. Most such guesses, and by far the most trustworthy, were made by hunters. A hunter, aiming at a bird in flight,

Norwood was gone before she could answer. He dashed into the house, seized the phone and gave the Residency number. Then he lowered his voice:

"That you, sir? Norwood speaking from the guesthouse. Can you come to the palace? . . . Yes, I know you told me to keep away. But I'm a ghost. I'm supposed to be dead . . . You say you'd heard it already? My God, they were quick! . . . No, no, I wasn't hurt. The point is this, sir: they are betting even money in the bazaar that the Maharajah won't outlive the night. I suspect poison . . . What's that?"

"Well, for one thing, I know for a fact that Mrs. Harding has been given poisoned toast to make her vomit . . . Well, sir, obviously to keep her away from the niece . . . Yes, yes, I have that letter. I've just read it . . . If I'm not too late, and I don't think I am, I'm going in to upset someone's applecart."

He hung up, thought for a couple of seconds and then returned to Auntie Harding.

"Thanks," he said. "Good night. I'm in a hurry."

"Stop! Come back. Captain Norwood, I didn't send for you to use my telephone! Here are my trunks, and I can't get anyone to wait on me. I can't get away and I can't go back in! I paid a contractor in advance, and he hasn't turned up. Please do something."

"Were you running out on Lynn?" Norwood asked her.

"Captain Norwood, how dare you say that!"

"Were you?"

"No, I was not! I was bluffing."

"Uh-huh. Shall I tell her you were bluffing?"

"Don't you dare! If you know where she is, you bring her here."

Rundhia was punch drunk. All the physical fight had been knocked out of him. He knew his nose was bleeding. He knew Lynn was in Norwood's grasp. That Norwood had escaped death was a staggerer almost worse than the punch on the jaw. For the moment, he could think of nothing but Norwood. Like a man in the ring, who is almost out on his feet, he obeyed the instinct to deliver a foul blow.

He reeled and staggered, gradually recovering, along a short cut toward his own palace. As his nerves and muscles recovered, so did his brain. He began to think a little clearly. By the time he reached his palace and had sent for the Bengali doctor, his nose had ceased bleeding and he needed nothing more than a bath and a change of clothing. There were plenty of servants to lay out clean clothes.

He talked to the Bengali doctor in the bathroom, where the shower drowned the sound of their voices. Even so, he spoke English, lest one of the valets should overhear.

"Now listen. Don't answer me, or I'll have you hanged. Damn you, I mean that. I'm desperate. Thanks to your letting me down in a pinch and refusing to have anything to do with it, the attack on Norwood was bungled."

"He is alive? I heard they killed him."

"Do I look as if they'd killed him! He's on the rampage. I'm going to get him."

"Careful!"

"Watch your own step. If you fail to kill your man tonight, up goes your number! Is the old fool mulling over his stamp albums?"

"Yes. His Highness is studying stamps. He has with him that stamp salesman from Lahore, who can speak nothing but Punjabi, but can swindle without speaking at all."

IF YOU take a large size, then 1835 is a pattern you'll thoroughly enjoy, and make up time and again. Excellent for housework, with darted, unconfined waistline and deep armholes, it is so neatly tailored and smart looking that you can receive your supper guests in it, too, and wear it for shopping and runabout. For home wear, make it of gingham or percale. For street wear, choose thin wool or flat crepe, and omit the pockets.

Pleats Are Smart.

If you spend most of your hours in an office or at college, then a dress like 1814 is a joyful necessity. It's blithe, tailored, becoming and youthful, with box-pleated skirt and button-front bodice, finished with a crisp little collar to keep it always fresh and new-looking. Make it up in plaid wool or in bright-colored jersey—or in Mending Pillow Slips.—Hemstitched pillow slips that are too badly torn to mend neatly can have the hem cut away and a picot edge crocheted on.

Browned Potatoes.—Before frying cold potatoes slice them and well dredge with flour. This not only causes the potatoes to brown more quickly but improves flavor.

Biscuit Pans.—A shallow pan about one inch deep is the best to use in baking biscuits; otherwise the biscuits will not brown evenly on all sides.

Gravy Hint.—If stock or gravy is required in a hurry, melt a teaspoonful of some meat extract in half a pint of hot water, bring to the boil, season and use. If time permits, a piece of onion, a spray of parsley, or a tomato added to the water gives flavor.

American courts have held that a house is not compelled to be sold at the highest bid. In a Minnesota case, a house was sold to the highest bidder for $875 after the second bidder had only other bidder had bid $680. The auctioneer refused to consider such a trifling bid. So the second bidder lost his case on the ground that no contract exists unless the offer to purchase is accepted by the auctioneer.

Constipated?

"For years I had occasional constipation, awful gas bloating, headaches and back pains. Adlerika always helped right away. Now, I eat sausage, bananas, pie, anything I want. Never felt better." Mrs. Mabel Schott.
