Free Show Here Saturday P. M.

GIGGIE BRIEFS

By Ray S. McEntire
Briscoe Co. Committee

The show will be held Saturday, April 19, 1941, 2:00 p.m., at the Court Room in Silverton, for the purpose of discussing changes to be incorporated in the 1942 Agricultural Conservation and Range Program. It is felt that the changes in the program should originate with the farmers themselves.

The county committeemen, county committeemen, representatives of State and Federal agencies, with Agriculture, key men, ranchers, businessmen, and persons who are directly or indirectly interested in agriculture have been invited to attend.

You find it convenient to do so, please be present.

Did You Know? — FARMERS represent 25% of the total United States population and have 30% of their number and receive 12% of the national income.

AGRICULTURE represents 10% of the U. S. population; 85% of the number are organized and 21% of the National income.

AGRICULTURE represents 65% of the U. S. population; 75% of the number are organized and 67% of the National income.

SEVENTY percent of the people in the U. S. control 85% of the land and occupy less than 14% of the area of the nation.

Agriculture has obtained, during the past seven years, from the Government three billion dollars for all agricultural activities. This was responsible for the national income 130 billion dollars.

Government appropriations for agriculture in 1940 were only 8% of the Government appropriations. Farmers are given parity for their commodities, they are given parity for their prices. Farmers want parity for their commodities, not subsistence.

Production of American cotton, in 1941, estimated at 23 million bales. This 23 million bales is equivalent to two years' production. Add to this the 11.5 million bales of cotton produced in the last eight years, and you have the tremendous supply in the world of 34.5 million bales. This is more than combined production of American and foreign countries in the 1920's.

April 1, 1941 is the final date for signing up for 1941 Range Act.

QUAQUE FFA SHOW TO BE HELD SATURDAY
The Quaque FFA project show will be held Saturday April 19, 1941, at 10:00 o'clock at the FFA building in the North part of town. This year's show will be larger than ever, with the showing of beef calves, hogs, chickens, and twenty dollars given as prizes by the Quaque business men. Judging will begin at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon with an auction about 4:30. All people in the Silverton community are invited to attend.

LEWIS EDWARD SMITH

Lewis Edward Smith 84 years old died at the home of his son in Silverton, April 11, 1941. He was in Decker cemetery by the side of his wife who passed in 1908.

Mr. Smith was born in Jersey City, New Jersey in 1857. His home was in Jersey and New York until the age of fourteen, when he came to Bryell and Boseque County, North Carolina. He married in 1879 and moved to Noland County in 1888. He made his home with his wife in Silverton for the past ten years.

He is survived by one son, one daughter, eleven grandchildren, seven great grandchildren. Funeral services were conducted at the Decker Cemetery under the direction of the Bomar Undertaking Company. The Pall Bearers were his grandsons.

Mrs. William McIntyre and Mrs. Doug Northcutt spent Friday night and Saturday in Lubbock in the home of Mrs. Northcutt brother, Mr. Ed Mosley.

COUNTY DESIGNATED AS FOOD STAMP COUNTY

Telegrams Tuesday, from authorities in Washington, confirmed the statement two weeks ago by the Briscoe County News, that this county would soon be made eligible for participation in the food stamp plan of distribution of surplus commodities. The telegrams follow, and are self-explanatory:

Briscoe County News, Silverton, Texas

COUNTY AGENT NOTES

By Lem Weaver

Now is the time that dairy cattle are in the best production. Protein is the element that stimulates milk production, and green grass and wheat are high in protein. When a cow gets this type of pasture her milk production is limited to the carbohydrates that she gets. A cow needs only 1 lb. of milo head chops for each 3 lbs. of milk that she gives to have a balanced ration when on wheat pasture. Young sudan contains as much protein as wheat, but as the grass matures the per cent of protein decreases. A lot of money could be saved by changing the concentrate as the pasture changes. If a cow is getting alfalfa, she does not need any mineral except salt, but cows that do not have alfalfa should be fed ground oysters when cotton seed meal is fed. A proper mineral mixture for cows that do not get meal is 3 parts of bone meal to 1 part salt. From the new method of balancing a ration, it takes only a few minutes to learn this procedure.

Tuesday night April 22, at 8:00 o'clock in the District Court room, at Silverton this program will be discussed. All dairymen are asked to be present.

NEW MACHINE DEALERS MOVING TO SILVERTON

D. A. Woolsey was here today making the preliminary steps toward establishing a Minneapolis-Moline farm machinery agency in Silverton. He is representing Roberson Motor Company, who have an agency at Sudan.

Mr. Woolsey, who will be the local manager, has set up an office in the Texaco Building. They are planning on moving a large business building here soon for their permanent headquarters.

Mrs. William McIntyre and Mrs. Doug Northcutt spent Friday night and Saturday in Lubbock in the home of Mrs. Northcutt brother, Mr. Ed Mosley.

NEW PAVING WEST OF SILVERTON OPENED TO PUBLIC TODAY

Four miles of new paving west of Silverton was opened to the public today and the gap between Silverton and Tulia, was shortened by several minutes. In miles the unpaved distance has been shortened to 16 miles.

The construction of the four mile strip has taken approximately 100 days and 15 to 18 WPA men have been given employment. A full grade has been built, and a deep caliche base laid, and topped with two coats of asphalt and gravel. It is recognized as one of the best pieces of road work in this section.

Silverton, incidentally, is receiving more paving before the construction company gets away, and will put Silverton in a better position to serve customers than ever before.

FIRST NEW COMBINE

H. Roy Brown is the first local dealer to display a new combine for this year. It has just been set up and is one of John Deere's newest types. It is designed primarily for small and medium sized farms, cuts a six foot swath and operates at a speed of from five to six miles per hour. See the Brown advertisement in this issue for further specifications.

Bill Hardin purchased a Farmall and equipment last week from the Tull Implement Company.

The regional extemporaneous speaking contest at Canyon, in which Silverton will be represented by Norland Havran, was postponed until Saturday of this week. Havran, although a freshman in high school, won first last week at the District contest over competitors of all ages.

Those having Easter dinner in the J. E. Daniel home Sunday were: Emmitt Daniel and family, of Tulia; Malcolm Daniel and family, of Floydada; Tom Daniel and family, of Tulia; and Mrs. Mrs. Clarence Anderson and Susan, of Silverton; Kathern Daniel, of Alpine, Texas; and Ralph Daniel, of Denton, Texas.

Mrs. John Baker of Plainview was a Silverton visitor Saturday.

GRAND JURORS NOTIFIED TO APPEAR FOR SERVICE

SHOWERS ADD .28 INCHES TO MOISTURE

A shower early Tuesday morning, brought .21 inches of moisture to this vicinity, according to Raymond Bomar, U. S. Observer. It brought the total for the week, up to .28 inches.

Cyrus Puckett and family came in Friday and visited until Monday with his mother, Mrs. Emma Frieze and friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Thompson and daughters Alma Ruth and Blanche returned home Saturday from Sherman, where they attended the funeral of Mr. Thompson's father Friday.

Mrs. F. M. Autry and Mrs. J. M. Thompson were in Canyon on Monday evening, and took Alma Ruth and Blanche back to school. They spent the Easter holidays with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Williamson attended a Rural Mail Carriers banquet at Lubbock last Saturday night. About 130 mail employees and their wives attended.

Guinn Williamson is in the Lubbock Sanitarium for observation and treatment. He has been suffering from rheumatism. He will be there for about 10 days.

Mrs. Sig Pace of Littlefield came Saturday for a short visit with her father, Mr. J. W. Tolbert, and Mrs. Gene Long.

KNOW A GOOD COW YARN

Residents of Silverton and Briscoe County who know a good cow yarn have been invited to write it down and send it to the Madisonville Sidewalk Cattlemen's Association at Madisonville, Texas, where a nation-wide contest to select the biggest cow yarn is being conducted.

A pair of $40 cowboy boots will go to the winner. There aren't any entrance fees, and anybody in the Western Hemisphere is welcome to compete, it was announced.

J. Frank Dobie, noted Texas author of Cowboy and western lore books and articles, will judge the entries. In addition to the high-heeled boots as first prize, a 10-gallon hat will be given as a second prize and a pair of spurs as a third prize. Winning stories will be published throughout the nation.

Minyard Long, who has been in Canyon hospital, is at home now and is improving rapidly.

CONTRACTOR SMITH HAS SERIOUS TRUCK WRECK

Ted Smith, head contractor on the paving job here, and his brother Bill were injured in a truck accident near Turkey Monday at midnight. Ted received three broken ribs and a broken arm, and Bill was bruised and dazed when their truck struck a concrete abutment. The had the truck heavily loaded with a large maintainer which they were moving to Archer County. Their lights went out as they were going down hill, and before they could get stopped they had collided with the concrete bridge. The maintainer and truck are said to have been almost completely wrecked.

Bill, in spite of his dazed condition, succeeded in carrying his brother out of the wreckage and stopping a car. Ted was thought to be very seriously injured, but examination at the Plainview Sanitarium disclosed the injury to ribs and arm.

WALLS FAMILY AT HALE CENTER HAS HARD LUCK

Odell Walls, manager of the Palace Theatre, received word Tuesday noon that his father's blacksmith shop in Hale Center had burned to the ground. Odell drove over to see if he could be of any help to his family.

Odell's father, an old timer at Hale Center goes by the name of "Peggy" Walls, the name coming from his peg leg. He lost a foot in a street car accident when he was 14 years old. He lives up to his boast that he can do as much good work as any two-footed man.

Later Tuesday night the foundation was already laid for a new shop. Odell is in Hale Center the rest of the week helping with the construction. Walter Smock will be here in his place at the Theatre.

HOW NEW TRUCK LOAD LIMIT IN TEXAS WILL WORK

The overall gross weight allowed by the new Texas truck load law is 38,000 pounds, which includes the weight of the vehicle and the load, according to Lynn B. Shaw general manager of the Texas Motor Transportation association. However, Shaw said that this does not mean that all trucks may be operated with a gross weight of 38,000 pounds.

In order to determine the authorized gross weight on any vehicle or combination of vehicles, the first thing to do is to measure the distance in feet between the front axle and the rear axle, and then add 40 and multiply this sum by 700, Shaw explained.

For instance, using an ordinary four wheeler vehicle, if the distance between the front axle and the rear axle is 12 feet you add 40, which makes 52. Multiply this by 700 gives you 36,400, the total gross weight for which this particular vehicle may be registered.

If it is a truck-tractor and semi-trailer combination, it will be necessary to measure the distance in feet between the front axle of the truck-tractor and the rear axle of the semi-trailer, add 40 and multiply by 700. As an example, Shaw pointed out that if the distance between the first and last axles of the combination is 24 feet, you add 40, which makes 64. Then multiply by 700, which gives you 44,800, the total gross weight. However, the act provides that the gross weight shall not exceed 38,000 pounds, so in this instance you could not register the vehicle for more than 38,000 pounds.

Shaw cited these as examples, but the explanation applies to any vehicle or combination of vehicles. In each instance you add the number 40 to the distance between the first and last axles, and multiply by 700.

The law provides also that the gross weight shall not exceed 18,000 pounds per axle where low pressure tires are used, or 16,000 pounds per axle where high pressure tires are used; and such gross weight shall not exceed 9,000 lbs. per wheel if low pressure tires are used, or 8,000 pounds where high pressure tires are used.

You are cordially invited To Be The Guest Of Silverton Merchants at a special Free Matinee at the Palace Theatre SATURDAY, APRIL 19 starting promptly at one o'clock

Yes, the above special invitation is issued to one and all. Silverton merchants, co-operating with the Palace Theatre, are starting a series of free matinees on Saturday to show their appreciation to their customers, and perhaps acquaint new customers with shopping advantages in Silverton.

This show isn't the usual type "free show". Mr. Smock has obtained one of the best comedy pictures released this year. When you see JOE E. BROWN, in "So You Won't Talk" you will be seeing a picture that would cost you 30 cents at any theatre in the Panhandle.

Joe E. Brown, you know, is the guy with the biggest mouth in the world (with the exception of Your Truly) and the very idea of "so you won't talk" should arouse your interest.

Plans for operating the free show have been obtained from a survey taken among the merchants and their customers during the past week. The first show will open promptly at one o'clock and the doors will be closed about 1:30 until the end of the show. Then the doors will be opened again for the second show. That way, folks will know exactly how long they have to shop, and just when they should be at the theatre.

Due to Manager Walls being called back to Hale Center by a fire, several merchants have not been contacted as to sponsoring the show. A complete list of the merchants cooperating, will be given in next week's paper.

COME TO THE SHOW!!!

SOVERIGN SERVICE MEN START SPRING ADVERTISING

In this issue you will find the first of a series of advertisement to be run by your Sovereign Service men, Johnny Lanham, and Dave Zeigler. In keeping with the trend of thought of this day, the ads are built around the thought of "preparedness." The ads bring to your attention the type of service that these men are doing at their Silverton Stations.

The ads themselves are featuring absurd military situations for care of your car.

FFA NEWS

The Junior FFA Chapter went to Plainview on Wednesday afternoon to enter the District Leadership Contests and participate in the Chapter Conducting. The boys taking part in the contest were: Troy Hill ----- President
A. Y. Doherty ----- Vice President
Billie Ellis ----- Secretary
Wiley D. Nance ----- Treasurer
Martin Bean ----- Reporter
Junior Fanning ----- Parliamentarian
Carl Davis ----- Farm Watch Dog
The boys have been working rather consistently on the learning of parliamentary procedure and are becoming very efficient at carrying on a meeting properly.

J. H. BURSON BETTER

Visitors at the Lubbock Sanitarium report that J. H. Burson is much better. Last week he was under an oxygen tent and in a very dangerous condition.

His many friends here are very glad to hear of his improvement.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends of Silverton and Hay Lake for their kind deeds and expressions of sympathy, during the illness and death of our beloved father and grandfather, also the beautiful floral offerings. May God bless each of you.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS By Edward C. Wayne

Terrific Fighting Marks Nazi Thrust Into Yugoslavia and Greek Territory; British Lose Bengasi to Axis Forces But Capture Addis Ababa in Ethiopia

EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper. (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

BALKAN DRIVE: Under Way

With Adolf Hitler's charge to "carry the war to Britain wherever she may be" ringing in their ears, the Nazi soldiers that make up his armies smashed across the frontiers of Yugoslavia and Greece.

Early reports of the fighting in the Balkans were vague, scattered, incomplete. Nazi claims indicated that their movements were on schedule. Greek sources at first claimed the Nazi heavily armored machine was bogging down.

One of the first objectives by the German forces was reached when armored troops and paratroopers reported they had broken through to the Aegean sea in eastern Greece. This movement was said by military experts to cut off Greece from her potential ally, Turkey.

Even as the German troops moved toward the Yugoslavian and Greek borders announcement was made that Russia and Yugoslavia had signed a new "non-aggression" pact. British were hopeful that this was further indication of what appeared to be a trend of Soviet movement away from the Hitler sphere of influence.

In Yugoslavia before the fighting began there were last minute moves to "placate Berlin" and a last-minute notice from Berlin that these peace overtures "came too late." But Yugoslavia apparently was standing for something far bigger and wider than her own narrow physical confines. Yugoslavia was becoming a byword for courage and daring throughout a jittery world.

Particularly was this noticeable in shaky spots like certain South American countries which saw in the sudden reversal of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes against the government which had signed up with the Axis a sign that Nazi Germany might not have a sinecure in conquering Europe.

They saw that even in the midst of the Nazi-dominated Balkans a certain country, surrounded on four sides by enemies, could have the bravery to stand up to these enemies and to defy them, with all their superior power, to cross their rocky borders.

Not that anyone figured the Yugoslavs would be a "pushover" for the Nazis, in fact, the Nazi position was none too good, for most of the terrain held by them was hostile, and Britain, with 10 to 15 divisions of men, well provided with armored equipment and airplanes, were dug in just south of the Bulgarian border.

C. Fotich, Yugoslav minister, leaves the White House after calling upon President Roosevelt to thank him for his message to the boy monarch of Yugoslavia, King Peter.

ready to give Yugoslavia and Greece more than lip-service if, as, and when the attack should come.

What part the United States was playing could not be said, although President Roosevelt said that lease-lend aid was being sent to "more than one country," which might include Britain and Greece, or Britain and Yugoslavia, or all three.

Just before the statement from the White House was made, however, the President had conferred with the Yugoslavian minister.

How well prepared Yugoslavia was seemed to be a moot point. Food was short, but so it was in all the Balkans—in all Europe, for that matter. The numbers of the army were large, estimated at from 1,200,000 to 1,500,000, but these figures the Battle of France showed might mean much or little.

There were many who believed that the Yugoslavs, who have the advantage of having the crucial Danube river run through a portion of their country, the part of the river which is so rapid and hemmed in by mountains that a canal bears shipping at that point, might explode huge charges of TNT in the mountainsides and render river and canal unfit for shipping for many months.

Already they had blown up many important bridges in the valley of the Vardar, and had shown a grim determination to make a fight out of the Nazi invasion at all points.

BRITISH: Lose Bengasi

The evacuation of Bengasi, capital and port of Libya, was admitted by the British, who reported that the withdrawal was "according to plan" and that Gen. Sir Archibald Wavell was merely "picking his battle-ground" on which to meet the Nazi-reinforced Fascist troops.

Later dispatches seemed to indicate that the Australia-New Zealand army in Africa had halted the Nazi-Italian drive, for it was said that "the situation was well in hand," and the shooting down of six German planes and the damaging of two others was reported officially.

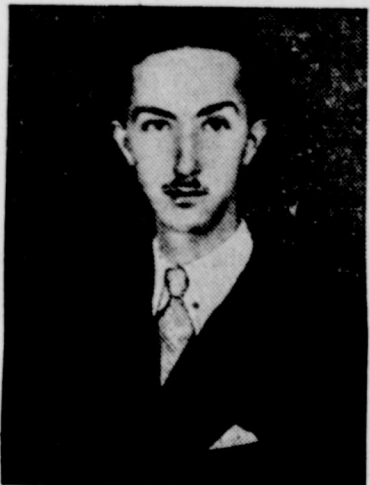

However, on the same day came war office warnings to the British public not to be surprised if there were further withdrawals, saying that it was officially doubted if the "halting" of the German-Italian advance was permanent.

Better news for the British however was the announcement that the Ethiopian capital of Addis Ababa had been taken from the Italians without a struggle. This capture came as a climax to eleven weeks of hard fighting to smash Italian African empire to bits.

IRAQ: Stages Coup

There was a military coup d'etat in Iraq, historic Bagdad being the scene of a governmental overturn staged by army forces led by Rashid Ali Gailani.

The coup was viewed differently in various quarters, Bagdad itself, two days later, announcing that one of the main features of the new government would be fulfillment of all international obligations, particularly with Britain.

This is Emir Abdul Ilah, regent of Iraq, who ruled for five-year-old King Feisal II and is reported deposed and fleeing for his life after the military coup d'etat.

Previously it had been hinted in dispatches from London, passed by the censor, quoting Soviet circles in London as saying that it was believed the coup d'etat was inspired by the Axis, and that the objective was going to be the establishment of Nazi air bases in Iraq.

This naturally was disquieting to London, as if carried out it would place Nazi airplanes in a position of dangerous proximity to the Red Sea and the Suez canal, the defense of which had been going well for Britain.

STRIKES: Mostly CIO

The calling of a strike against the plants of "Big Steel," the United States Steel corporation, by C.I.O. unions proved that the labor situation was still acute, although the soft coal strike was settled, and the men went back to work digging the important fuel out of the ground.

Just 48 hours before the settlement was reached, four men were shot to death in Harlan, Ky., a bloody center of previous strike rioting. Just before the settlement of the bituminous coal strike, it was estimated that 530,000 men were out of work in the United States as the result of strikes, adding considerably to the number of man-days lost in the national defense.

Philip Murray, head of the C.I.O., called the strike against U. S. Steel, declaring that the companies had refused to heed a demand for a 10-cent an hour wage increase. The company has 261,000 wage earners. The C.I.O. also wants a closed shop. The Ford strike had closed the biggest single industrial plant in the nation, employing 86,000 workers.

Its gates were marked by many scenes of violence as pickets battled with workers.

Back of these front-line scenes were back-stage battles. The Ford counsel obtained an injunction against the strikers, and the strikers promptly subpoenaed Henry Ford, Edsel Ford and Manager Bennett to appear in court.

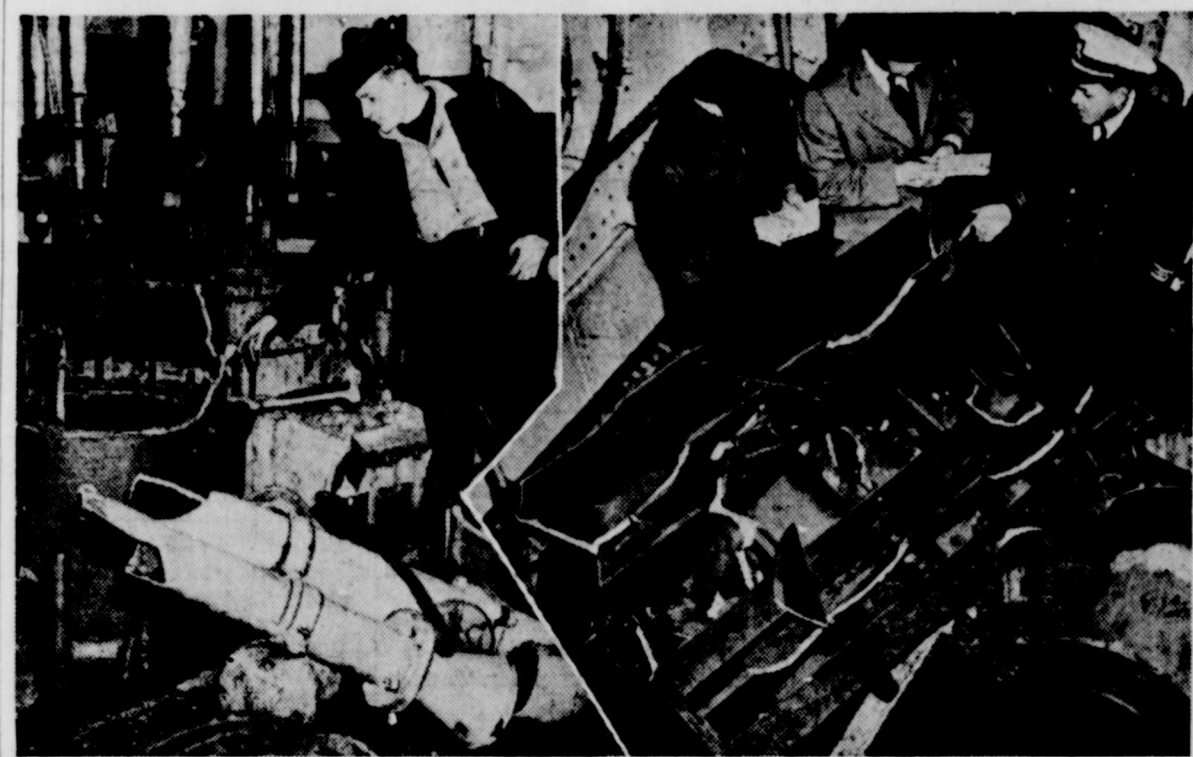

The next move saw Ford Attorney Capizzi making a court motion that all labor board citations against the company be thrown out as the C.I.O. union was dominated by Communists.

As Strike Closed Ford Plant

Sabotage—and Then Uncle Sam Takes Over

And Now Frenchmen Give Nazi Salute!

A year ago Frenchmen used to mock the upraised arm salute of the Fascists and Nazis, but things have changed in France. Above is shown a gathering of French war veterans saluting Marshal Petain, French chief of state, in a rally at Le Puy. The aged marshal is on the left in the background.

Washington Digest

Capital Housing Problem Vexes District Officials

School and Water Supply Facilities Are Also Seriously Taxed by Influx Of Defense Workers.

By BAUKHAGE

National Farm and Home Hour Commentator.

WNU Service, 1343 H Street N. W. Washington, D. C.

WASHINGTON.—Millions for defense but not enough sense to contribute sufficient funds to the District of Columbia budget. That is the Washington city government's present charge against congress.

The other day I sat in the office of one of the district commissioners and an army officer who had been drafted to help work out the city's housing problems, and they seemed pretty helpless.

"We haven't got the money to meet the emergency situation that is growing in the district as a result of the defense program," was the burden of their song.

Washington is run by a commission—three men—our three "mayors," if you will, appointed by the President. Our board of aldermen are the district committees of the house of representatives and the senate. The federal government bears a share of the expense of running the city—but not enough, say the citizens of the district. All they can do is "sue" for they have no vote, either locally or nationally.

The emergency is bringing thousands of new workers here. From June, 1930, to January of this year nearly 25,000 new government employees moved in. The figures for February, due to be released in a few days, are expected to show a big increase.

The Washington Board of Trade estimates that 55,000 new residents have moved into the District of Columbia in the last year.

Question of Schools.

In addition to these extra beds and baths that must be provided, there is the question of schools. The commissioner with whom I was discussing the situation, cited one example.

"Down there between Bolling field which will soon be the center of American aviation and the naval research laboratory," he said, "the federal government has built 600 family units. It will probably be increased to 1,000. These are just for the navy yard workers. Right there will probably be enough children to fill one schoolhouse alone."

A million and a quarter dollars, it is estimated, should be spent on schools alone in Washington as a result of the influx of residents. This is to say nothing of the next most pressing need—facilities to increase the water supply. The Canal Zone is not much hotter than Washington in the summer. People take a lot of showers. We have a Potomacful of water but we need more pipes and pumps.

The greatest portion of the city's expense, however, goes to taking care of the homes and the offices and people which make up the federal government.

Anyone who thinks the life of a government worker is all roses, frankincense and myrrh in these days needs only to listen to the local director of the Housing association who says:

'Doubling Up' Complaints.

"Frequent complaints of doubling up in apartments and rooming houses come to us. One bath for 15 to 20 persons is a common grievance. Three to six unrelated roomers in the parlor of a once fine private residence is not uncommon."

Very bad, say the health authorities, for sanitation. Very bad for morale, too.

And then Washington has on its periphery a number of army camps, cantonments and forts. By July the boys on leave will be flocking in from an army of nearly a hundred thousand men. Their welfare and amusement have to be taken care of, too.

The district government, therefore, is struggling with the congressional committees, attempting to convince them of Washington's needs. A bill is now being considered which would increase the proportion which the federal government contributes to the federal city, but the officials cannot bank on the money until it is in hand.

American Housewives And Vitamins

An efficient secretary laid a newspaper clipping on my desk. The same day's mail brought a letter enclosing a magazine article farm-woman listener.

"The newspaper clipping of the States are soon to receive thorough education in how their families ever provided nation in the world... can housewife is going to get a great deal about vitamins about all the other vitamins I ran through the magazine. It was written by Yehon 12 years ago and is marked on what a misspelled most city people have the modern farm woman. Thor told how a companion man made some pitying about a woman they passed was hoeing in a garden. son said:

"I explained that quite pathetic creature we passed would be in a child by afternoon, powdered same brand Lady What's has indorsed, marcelled waves, and driving her meeting where a professor state university would gossip on vitamins—a subject relating to farm women they have discovered hidden in the old familiar 'green' progressive, earnest, lady said to me once after demonstration agent's lecture. I always fed my family on we had on the farm—milk, eggs, cheese, and vegetable such. It sure was a piece these things all had vitamins."

Von Ribbentrop has been able to fool most of the small nations of Europe. But after the revolt in Yugoslavia he can no longer be called Hitler's ace "diplomat."

Leopold Stokowski has been commissioned by the war department to modernize army bands. That seems to call for hand organs and music boxes in a mechanized army.

Washington has the highest number of mental patients of any nation in the country. This is not based on the ravings of politicians. Nuts from all over the country come here to tell the how to end the war or balance budget, or make two rabbits in his hat where one grew. They are tenderly turned over to Elizabeth's hospital.

The deputy commissioner was beginning to look like a man who wished he were some place else...

"Sixty-five," said King. "A dollar," said Dusty King. "Just in confidence between you and me," Dusty King said...

"Seventy cents," said Dusty King again in the silence. "Whoop'er up, boys—I've only begun!"

"You—" the deputy commissioner wavered, "you—you can back this bid in gold!"

They waited for what Ben Thorpe would say. His face was expressionless still, as he got up from his chair...

"Seventy cents," King answered him.

WANTED: a bank in Silvertown by harvest time. (signed) if
—SILVERTOWN COMMUNITY

COMES COMPLAINTS -- Number one complainer is Rays Riddell, who says, "I want my 15c back on that want-ad. I sold the pigs the first thing and they are still coming to see them. Now they are beginning to call me a liar, and say that I didn't have any pigs to start with." Number Two complainer is Grady Wimberly who complains along the same line about his want ad on some rams. He sold them right off, but now says that he is fresh out of bucks....so am I.

KELTON NEWMAN did some yard work this week for me. He is a very good worker too and says he wants that kind of work to do. I was sure surprised at the way he took hold. I've known Bill for five years and never saw nor heard of him doing a lick. I guess he must have been spending all his time showing his boy how.

OH, YEAS. I knew that I had another complainer....It's Lem Weaver. He complains that because I mentioned his dandelion killer last week, that almost every woman in town had been to see him. Don't let Lem kid you. There isn't a bigger ladies man in town. I can't believe that he was really complaining because he was getting a little more attention than usual from the women. That dandelion killer hasn't arrived yet and for all I know it may have been just one of his schemes. Anyway it got him some results I think.

JOE H. SMITH remains the only hero in this vicinity as far as "scrap iron" for Britain is concerned. Where is the scrap iron? Good Lord, did we send it all over to Japan (before we got mad at them)? Be that as it may, there are surely some folks who would like to help keep Joe from feeling so all alone. SPECIAL! If you have some iron at your place drop me a card or something, and the committee will have it hauled in for you. If that don't get the scrap iron, why England is just sunk.

UNCLE SAM IS dickering for a site near here for bombing purposes. They sent a representative out to see Mr. Ritchie of the J. A. Ranch. Surprise of surprises! He wasn't interested! Wouldn't make an offer. Said that if the government wanted it, they'd take it, and that was the way they'd get it. . . . which is a very surprising answer seems to me.

WITH ALL OF our defense efforts to aid England and all, I'd think that a full-blooded Briton would at least be "interested" in doing his part. Well, maybe Mr. Ritchie just isn't used to a government that comes around and tries to make a "man-to-man" deal for the things it needs.

I KNOW ONE full blooded Englishman who would be "interested", namely John Thorns. I believe that if a chance like that came his way, he'd be willing to get out there and hold a sheet up for the boys to bomb at.

MERCHANTS ARE STARTING a free show here on Saturday—everyone invited in. Some of the boys want to try it once, and if it draws a big crowd to town, to continue it for several weeks. So come in yourself, tell your neighbor. Help us to get a bunch together to show the Doubting Thomases.

I JUST RECEIVED a "traffic death map" from the State Highway Department, showing traffic deaths by counties in 1940. Briscoe County, Floyd, and Armstrong are three of thirty counties that are shown in white, meaning "no deaths". That is pretty good, but I don't know whether it was Good drivers or LUCKY drivers, that did it. On the same map it shows that there were 422 people killed in 34 counties, an unusually high rate.

ONE WRECK ALONE, in Hidalgo County, killed 29 persons, when a truck and train collided March 14, 1940. The highway book shows pictures taken at the scene of the wreck. It is awful to look at. Dead people laying all round....arms, legs and hands strewn all over the ground. It's sickening to see the pictures. It is sent out by the Highway Department in the hopes that it may make us take more precautions in our driving.

MUST GO COFFEE myself (if I can't catch anyone) and then I believe I'll write a "silly symphony"—which, in case you have forgotten, is the product of a hair-brain, written about nothing in particular by a guy who couldn't write about anything if he had it to write about, particularly if it were a particularly particular and especially practical, something. . . . WELL, I coffee(ed) myself, in spite of catching old Bob London in there and telling him if he'd ask me I'd accept, I still coffee(ed) myself. . . . BOB reminds me of the thing we used to call the "old goose" when I was a kid. It sat in the northeast corner of my bedroom. . . . THE fellows out at Haylake are planning to run a spur railroad out there to haul the wheat in to town this harvest. . . . HEARD Roy Teeter get quiet for the first time this year when he got his what yield up to 65. Bill Hardin told him that out south of town they were plowing up that kind of trashy stuff. . . . AND speaking of trash did you get yours all gathered for the city truck? . . . SPEAKING along the same line, even Bill Dunn thinks that W. Lee isn't big enough to fill the Senator's shoes. . . . JACK just walked in. I don't know what he did but he looks like the cat that swallowed the canary. I spoz he pulled another fast one on Murphy. Jack cutes so much in class that she and him are just like this X. . . . Willis Woods moved in with Walls at our house. Kate Fowler thinks I am running a hotel. Maybe I am. Does anyone want to buy the concession rights? . . . TICKLES me to have a bird up there that isn't always in my razor blades. . . . maybe that goes the other way around too. . . . I remember the first time that I shaved. I just shaved the parts in sight and all the fuzz was back behind my jaw bone. My brother teased me so much that I didn't shave again for about six months.

SAXEY Crow was home over the week end. He's sporting a whisker now. Got whiskers on his face and no hair on his head. . . . REMINDS me of "Catfish" Castleberry. All mouth and no brains. I didn't say that, Lem Weaver did. . . . RAY McEntire brought in his Aggie Briefs and in it he had a bunch of percentage. Altogether he had it totalling 146%. . . . That is the way most of the New Dealers' arithmetic runs. . . . THAT wasn't a crack. It was a surmise. It might go down in history like "I regret that I have but one life, etc. etc." . . . AFTER all, old Nathan had it pretty easy. They couldn't do anything but hang him. From the "Hitler,—Beast of Berlin" picture they have better methods now. . . . FOR a real gate, how'd you like to see them match Hitler and Joe Louis? . . . JUST realized that I have wasted a half column with this tripe. Oh, well, most of you folks only paid a buck a year for this paper anyway. . . . and on second thought I think it's just the dumb bunnies among my subscribers that have read this far anyway. . . . FOR an appropriate ending to this silliness, I'll quote Smoky Alexander. . . . BY the way, I think he gets that name "Smoky" from the way he rides broncs, not from the stories he tells. . . . THE story—Customer says to waitress, "I want some eggs." She sez, "How do you like them?" He sez, "Oh I like them pretty good." "Well, how do you like them cooked?" "Oh, I like them cooked pretty good."

(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

WHEN you see "Men of Boys Town" (Spencer Tracy and Mickey Rooney), watch three very young men who have important roles; it's more than likely that, when they grow up, they'll be tops among leading men. Metro thinks so.

They are Darryl Hickman, aged eight; Bobs Watson, who's nine, and Larry Nunn, just thirteen. You probably saw Darryl as "Winfield Joad" in "Grapes of Wrath." Norman Taurag thinks he's one of the finest child actors he ever directed. Bobs has seven brothers and sisters who have film careers. Says Taurag, "Whenever I have needed a regular kid, I have found that I could depend on the Watsons." Bobs got his break because none of the other Watsons fitted the role.

As for Larry, he'd made a name for himself in radio before he tackled Hollywood, two years ago; "Strike Up the Band" was his first picture.

For more than a year there's been discussion at Warner Bros. about filming the life of George M. Cohan, and at last a deal has been arranged with the famous song and dance man. James Cagney will play the lead, probably getting to work on it some time this summer, after he returns from vacationing at his place at Martha's Vineyard, Mass. Mr. Cohan will supervise the production.

Scenario trouble has delayed work on "Babes on Broadway," in which Shirley Temple was to star her come-back, so her first picture will be "Lazybones." It's a story of the San Pedro fishing fleet, and Shirley will be seen as Wallace Beery's motherless daughter.

American people have more than a generous sense of humor; they have generous hearts as well. It's proved every Sunday on the "Double or Nothing" radio program. Walter Compton, master of ceremonies, asks each guest the name of his favorite charity; if the contestant can't answer his questions, the prize money is given to some charitable institution.

Leading figures of grand opera, the theater, the sports world and big business have tried their luck on the program, and many have given their winnings to less fortunate persons. Martha Raye and Frank Forrest, the program's popular tenor, gave theirs to the Red Cross. Lyle Talbot had a question from a woman who wanted to buy her blind son a Seeing Eye dog; he gave her his winnings, and the listening audience subscribed the remainder. Frederick Jagel of the Metropolitan Opera sent his to the Hundred Neediest Cases.

Penny Singleton was selected America's Number One Blonde by beauty shop owners and operators at the International Beauty Show held in New York recently. The pretty screen and radio star won out over Madeline Carroll and Alice Faye, who were runners-up; it was said that during the past year she'd done more than anyone else to make American men blonde-conscious. As "Blondie" on the screen and the air she's inspired many another young wife and mother, who've appreciated her quite as much as the men did.

Rita Hayworth returns to her home lot, Columbia, to play opposite Fred Astaire, and dance with him in a musical, "He's My Uncle"—she's just finishing a dancing role in "Blood and Sand," with Tyrone Power. The talented Rita may be just the dancing partner needed for Astaire since he and Ginger Rogers parted company on the screen.

For almost four years Bess Johnson has been managing the mythical orphanage around which the story of "Hilltop House" gravitated. Now the serial has come to an end, and she's to be starred in a new one, titled "The Story of Bess Johnson." Same time, same stations.

ODDS AND ENDS—While making "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" Spencer Tracy's been looking ahead to vacationing in New York with his son, Johnny... After waiting about a year, Paramount will film "Miss Susie Siegle," the popular novel... Greta Garbo is slated to go back to work... About 3,000 enthusiastic fans greeted Ed Miller, CBS band leader, when he arrived in Los Angeles; they practically mobbed him... Conrad Nagel, master of ceremonies for the CBS "Silver Theater," swore off on cigarette smoking from New Year's to St. Patrick's day—but didn't quite make it.

SENIORS TO PRESENT PLAY

The Senior Class is presenting a three Act play entitled "Comin Thru The Rys" Thursday April 24, at the high school auditorium. The money raised will be used for the class to go on a trip sometime near the end of school.

The play takes place in a little town named Rye, on the mid-western plains. Silas Stonebraker

(Rex Douglas) and his lovely daughter, Libby (Marinez Cowart) run the local hotel, or what is left of the place, for they are surely facing poverty. But several days before Christmas, the Westbound bus is stalled in a snowdrift at the edge of town and the roads ahead are blocked by the storm. So into the hotel come all the passengers. And what an odd assortment they are! They range from the very comic to the tragic. Among them is one of the most likeable characters ever written into a play: a breezy, bright ex-sailor, James Kearney, (Guinn Williamson) who is on his way West after having served four years for Uncle Sam. He has been "everywhere," but has never taken any girl seriously until he meets Libby. His feelings in the matter are returned, but a local swain, Harvey Keyser (John Ed Bain) feels that he holds prior claim upon Libby's affections, having helped her father financially upon several occasions. How Jim outwits the rural Romeo, buying a half interest in the hotel with a view to making it a bus stop-over with lunch counter, forms the basis of not only an interesting play but an extremely colorful one. It is packed with sure fire comedy and in the last act there is a bit of tense drama involving one of the bus passengers that will grip the audience. Some of the more amusing characters are two college girls on their way home for the Christmas holidays; Trixie Angle, (Coleene Bomar) a girl with a pet dog that is the bane of all the passengers' existence; Jessie Weatherby, (Anita Hill) a village lady of uncertain age, who hopes eventually to become Mrs. Silas Stonebraker; Mrs. Humphrey

Mearson, (Lola Fern Foust) a woman with a huge appetite, and her romantic daughter, who is quite enamored of Jim, causing Libby some anxious moments. The play is a delightful study of how one small incident can affect and change the lives of others completely.

The Cast is as follows:
 Silas Stonebraker — Rex Douglas
 Libby Stonebraker — Marinez Cowart
 Harvey Keyser — John Ed Bain
 Lily Turner — Clynell Hutsell
 Jessie Weatherby — Anita Hill
 Sheriff Haskins — Robert McJimsey
 James Kearney — Guinn Williamson
 Mrs. Mearson — Lola Fern Foust
 Rosemond Mearson — Pauline Steele
 Trixie Angle — Coleene Bomar
 Ronald Tanner — Grady Martin
 Roslie Reed — Durene Strickland
 Monica Morrison — Etta Mae Mills

The Senior class promise you this program will be well worth your time and money, and will also help them have a more enjoyable trip. So until Thursday the 24th so long.
