AGGIE BRIEFS

By Ray S. McEntire
Secretary Briscoe Co. Committee

With the recent determination of 1941 parity payment rates, Briscoe county farmers can now estimate the amount they earn through full participation in the 1941 AAA farm program.

Parity payments, based on the normal yields on allotted acreages, will be made at the rate 1.38 cents per pound on cotton, 10 cents per bushel on wheat. Farmers who participate in the 1941 AAA program and plant within their farm acreage allotments of these crops are eligible to receive payments at these rates.

In addition to parity payments, cooperating farmers will receive conservation payments based on the normal yield of the farm acreage allotments. As previously announced, conservation rates for 1941 are 1.37 cents per pound on cotton, 8 cents per bushel on wheat and an average of 82 cents in Area II and 89 cents in Area I per acre for general soil-depleting crops. All payments are subject to deductions if acreage allotments are over planted.

Farmers, also, may earn payments under the Agricultural Conservation Program for carrying out approved soil-building practices up to the maximum allowance available to the farm. In most cases, this information has been made available to the farmer on his 1941 farm plan sheet.

Parity payments in Texas are made to producers of wheat and cotton to give them more nearly a fair share of the national income, and to bring farm income and purchasing power near the 1910-14 level.

At that time prices of agricultural and industrial products were in comparative balance. Both payments help farmers to adjust production to meet all market needs and to farm in such a way as to maintain and build up the fertility of the soil.

A simple explanation of the situation which may lead to wheat marketing quotas is this: A record crop is on the way. We will enter the new marketing year with a wheat supply of more than a billion bushels--nearly enough to last two years without growing another stalk of wheat.

The AAA provides that whenever the supply of wheat reaches a specified above-normal point, the Secretary of Agriculture must declare marketing quotas in effect. This must be done by May 15 for wheat. Wheat quotas could become operative only if approved by two-thirds of the farmers voting in a referendum which would be held May 31.

If quotas are approved farmers may feed or sell all they raise on their AAA acreage allotments. Lotments will not be affected. But those who seed within their allotments will have to store or pay a penalty on all wheat produced in excess of their marketing quotas.

If quotas are voted down, price supporting loans will not be in effect. There might be a return to 25 or 30 cent wheat.

If a marketing quota referendum is held for wheat, it will have a bearing on the entire national farm program. It will represent the first Nation-wide test of a provision so basic to the functioning of the economic part of the program that the results will be of greatest significance.

Volunteer Wheat
Volunteer wheat must be destroyed by May 1, 1941.

The above statement is made in conformity with the definition of wheat contained in the Texas Handbook. "... any acreage of volunteer wheat which ... remains on the land after May 1, 1941" is considered acreage planted to wheat.

However, the crop may be disposed of by pasturing if the crop can be completely pastured out on the first of May. No criticism would be likely if the stock remained in the field after May 1, but in all cases there must not be any possibility of the crop maturing for harvest.

DEFENSE SAVINGS BONDS IN DETAIL

The Defense Savings Bond will be offered for 75 per cent of its maturity value, with maturity of 10 years. Thus, a Defense Savings Bond bought in May, 1941, for $18.75 will be redeemable in May 1951, for $25.00. This is an increase of 33 & 1-3 per cent, equal to an interest return of 2.9 per cent per annum, compounded semi-annually. This bond is not transferable, will not fluctuate in value and may be redeemed at any time before maturity at values printed on its face. Intended chiefly for people of small income, ownership is restricted to individuals in their own right, with a limit upon holdings of $5,000 maturity value of bonds issued in any one calendar year. Denominations are $25, $50, $100, $500, and $1,000. The Defense Savings Bond will replace the present "baby bond" series and will be available to all subscribers under the Regular Purchase Plan familiar to many thousands of small investors.

The new Series F Savings Bond, intended for larger investors, for trustees, and for reserve funds, is offered for 74 per cent of its maturity value, with maturity of 12 years. It can be held not only by individuals, but by trustees, associations, pension funds, and corporations, with a limit of $50,000 cost price issued in any one calendar year, alone or in combination with Series G. If held to maturity, the yield approximates 2.53 per cent a year. The Series F Bond is not transferable and may be redeemed on thirty days' notice after six months from date of issue in accordance with a table of redemption values printed on its face. Denominations are $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, and $10,000.

To meet demand for a current income bond, the new Series G Savings Bond, to be issued at par, bears interest during its 12-year term at 2-1/2 per cent, paid semi-annually by Treasury check. Intended for both small and large investors, the Series G Bond is not transferable and can be registered like Series F in the name of individuals, associations, and corporations, up to a total of $50,000 cost price issued in any one year, alone or in combination with Series F. Denominations are $100, $500, $1,000.

Series G Bonds will be redeemable before maturity on thirty days' notice after six months from date of issue at fixed redemption values printed on their face. In fixing these values, inducement is given to holders to retain their bonds until final maturity.

Defense Savings Bonds will be on sale May 1, 1941, at 16,000 Post Offices, at Federal Reserve Banks and at the United States Treasury. Series F and G Savings Bonds may be obtained on application to Federal Reserve Banks or the Treasury. Arrangements are now being made through which it is expected that orders for bonds of all three series will be accepted at commercial and savings banks generally.

Great emphasis is laid by Secretary Morgenthau upon the importance of Postal Savings Stamps as a means of encouraging steady savings among the youth of America and all others to whom payment of $18.75 at one time for the smallest Defense Savings Bond is not convenient.

The Postmaster General has approved a new series of stamps, of special design, priced at 10c, 25c, 50c, $1, and $5. Purchasers will be given attractive pocket albums in which to mount them. An album containing seventy-five of the 25c stamps has a cash value of $18.75 and can be exchanged for a Defense Savings Bond which in ten years will be worth $25. There are similar albums for mounting the 50c, $1, and $5 stamps, exchangeable for $50 and $100 bonds.

STREETS WILL BE READY FOR TRAFFIC BY LAST OF WEEK

Silverton merchants dried their tears today (Thursday) with the clearing of the weather, and the return of the asphalt crew to finish the paving work here.

Unless the weather is bad again, the streets will be open for use, probably Friday afternoon.

While both merchants and their customers have been greatly inconvenienced here for the past ten days with the streets blocked off, the advantages of the new paving will more than make up for it.

TOOK the New York Express from Chicago to Canton, Ohio. Train filled with young California Coast defense gunners being transferred from Camp Ord, California, to forts along the New Jersey coast. Canton, a city of 120,000, lies in the heart of the prosperous Ohio valley. It is the headquarters for Republic Steel, Hercules Motors, Timken Bearings, and is where the U. S. navy is constructing a huge arsenal and ordnance department. The cafeteria of the immense plant will have 2,000 employees. Hercules builds Diesels among other motors and is now constructing Suicide boats for the U. S. navy. Timken employs more than 8,000; Republic Steel nearby, double that number. In fact, a serious labor shortage is now facing the town—which six months ago had thousands on its WPA rolls. Canton is also the last resting place of President McKinley. His tomb is built like Grant's tomb in New York and sprawls atop a high hill in the city park. It looked forlorn and lonely in the bitterly cold spring day I visited it. McKinley was assassinated, according to the guide, by a "fanatic who thought McKinley, like Lincoln, had sold out to the financial powers of the new era."

Picked up the Golden Arrow for an eight-hour juggle back to Chicago. Passing through the Windy City, dined in the Anchorage at the Windemere with jolly Frank Luther and J. G. MacDonell. One of the most attractive hotel dining rooms in the Middle West, its lighting and dark green decorations made one think of candle-light. Albert U. Bori, the catering manager, has had an interesting career. Born in the Rio Grande, Do Sol in Brazil, he was educated with Dr. Ostraldo Aranh, former Brazilian ambassador to the U. S. and the present minister of the exterior; with President Vargas; and with Jose Antonio Floras de Acumbia, the present governor of the provinces. Bori has done some interesting things himself, for he is now the president and guiding genius of the Chicago Caterers association.

On later to the apartment of the brother of the editor of the American Weekly, J. B. Meigs, for the engagement announcement of Bonita Kay, prominent young radio star, and Dr. Leo J. Kosinski, former Northwestern football star. With their friends gathered around them, they turned on one of the new home record cutters, over which came the announcement of their engagement, clear and firm. Then the guests gathered around the machine, sang in harmony, and cut more records for their memory file. It was like taking home-movies. Dr. Irving B. Spiegel, who imitated Hitler's radio voice, Mussolini's news reels and Charles Laughton's movies, was exceptional.

Then took the Dixieland Flier of the Chicago and Eastern railroad. It is certainly well named—makes only three stops in 300 miles, which it covers in five hours—that's better than 60 per, which is going some for a daily steam train, without extra fare, on the Boulevard of Steel! Passing through Kentucky, this train was obliged to burn wood as well as coal because of the low content of Kentucky coal! Talked next afternoon on "Latin America—Nazi or Neighbor?" at the Evansville, Ind., Public Forum in the Central high school auditorium before several thousand persons. Had been preceded by Vincent Shean, Commodore Ellsberg of the U. S. navy (retired), and Congressman V. T. Smith. Evansville, a city of more than 100,000 persons, is over 80 per cent populated by persons of German descent, 95 per cent of whom are anti-Nazi.

Drove on after the lecture to Louisville, Ky. Dined en route at the Swiss Inn at Tell City, named many years ago because it was settled by several hundred Swiss families. It is today the principal city in this section of the nation for factories producing high grade wooden furniture, radio cabinets, etc.

Noticed all along the Ohio and Missouri rivers the great work the federal government is doing in flood and sewer control. The entire countryside hereabouts for hundreds of miles has been revamped by a belt of steel and concrete.

Traffic lights in Cincinnati certainly cut the speed of traffic. It's the best method I've seen in the entire United States this year. Alternate lights blink in unison, therefore it is impossible to beat them.

SEEING THINGS: Sign above a bootery in Canton, Ohio—"Sure Shu-Store." Sign on a drinking glass in a Canton restaurant—"Romans they just live to eat, they'd stuff themselves from head to feet—Great Caesar's ghost, where are you now? How you would love the Purple Cow!" Sign in a Warsaw, Ky., drug store: "Be a wise duck—take care of that bill"; and in a roadside diner: "No Spiking, Please" (This because youngsters insist on crushing up aspirin tablets in bottles of Coca Cola, creating a mild intoxicant).

WANTED: a bank in Silverton by harvest time. (signed) —SILVERTON COMMUNITY

WHOOPS! Comes some more super-fast results on Briscoe County News want ads. Earl Bell gave me an ad on some pigs. I got talking about it in the cafe and Wylie Bomar heard about it and went and bought the pigs. That is one case where I know that an ad got results before it was printed. If he hadn't given me the ad I wouldn't have been talking, and if I hadn't been talking Wylie wouldn't have heard about the pigs. Anyway I don't have to run the ad, and I have already been paid.

THE WORST PART of that big deal was the fact that I got caught right on the spot for enough coffee that took the whole ad—twas a fifteen center too.

WHILE I'M TALKING about him three cents. The caddy was ads . . . I was setting Dick's grocery ad a few weeks ago and a line didn't come out right. When they don't do that, very often I add a little descriptive term of my own. Anyway, I find out this week that one of them didn't exactly meet with Dick's specifications. It read, "Pork and Beans, all flavors" — can you beat it? Nearly as bad as the week I had Bogy selling 55 bars of soap for 19c.

RAMBLING ON ABOUT mistakes made by the printer, not long ago I caught one in the Star Telegram (not in Vignettes either) that was a scream. It was a 36 pt. headline and was supposed to be, "New Bridge Is Opened at Olney". The printer had made the slight mistake of leaving the "g" out of bridge.

PAT PAVLICEK's Cleaning establishment on the South Side is a bright spot with its paint. And speaking of paint jobs, here's an absolute scoop. The Telephone Office is going to be painted. If that isn't news I don't know what is. I got that information from an ad boy that ought to know what he is talking about too. I would like to suggest that they paint it red or some other LOUD color. Sometimes as it is, I can hardly hear over my phone. On the 21st of every month though, Nordica really speaks, "It's my last day to make my report." I hope that the new paint will change things up over there.

WE HAVE ONE member of the family who really takes the "blessing for the food" seriously. He has got it down now though, so that it sounds about as much like a news broadcast as it does a blessing, because he tells of all the things that have happened to him throughout the day. I can't tell sometimes whether he is making his report to me or to God.

I NEVER LEARNED the knack of being "subtle" in my statements. I sometimes wish that I had. Here's an example of what I mean. . . . A boy had caddied for a man all afternoon, and at the end of the day, the golfer handed him three cents. The caddy was surprised and also rather ill at the man being so tight. He took the three pennies and said, "Let me tell your fortune with these pennies Mister". "OK," said the tightwad, "Go ahead". The lad gazed at the first penny and said "You are a wealthy man". "Well, yes," was the answer, "I'm fairly well-to-do". The boy looked at the second penny and said, "I see you are a bachelor." "That's correct," said the golfer. "What does the third penny say?" The boy gazed a long time at the penny and then said, "Well, it says that your father was a bachelor too."

COME TO SILVERTON this week end. We'll have some new paving to show you.

INSURED WHEAT GROWERS MAY DIFFER SETTLEMENT OF CLAIMS

Texas wheat growers with Federal crop insurance may, upon unavoidable crop loss, have their indemnity paid immediately in the cash equivalent or request that settlement be deferred until later. Wilmer T. Swink, state AAA committeeman and wheat farmer from Olney, pointed out this week.

If a grower asks for deferred settlement, he will receive from the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation a certificate of indemnity. The grower may use this certificate to establish the cash equivalent of his indemnity by properly executing it and mailing it direct to the Corporation's Kansas City branch office, or he may use it to obtain a wheat loan from the Commodity Credit Corporation the committeeman said.

Final settlement can be deferred until the closing date for getting wheat loans from the Commodity Credit Corporation, or 90 days from the time the certificate of indemnity is issued, whichever is later.

Swink reports that approximately 75 claims have been submitted by insured Texas growers so far. Most of the losses reported have been caused by wind erosion in several counties bordering on New Mexico.

The Palace calanders for May are right now long over due. . . . Suppose to arrive last Friday, but still no calanders . . . I sincerely hope that by the time you read this they will have arrived and Free pass to Mart Self that you will have your copy hanging on the wall.
The most important is that our May Calander is a very outstanding one . . . Outstanding in the fact that no theatre ever had a month better booked than are coming to the Palace in May.

Not one single penny was spared in arranging to bring you the very best entertainment possible. There is not a "bad" program on the schedule and you will thoroughly enjoy each picture.

Just look that calender over . . . Free pass to Mrs. J. W. Lyons, Sr. Starting right off this Friday and Saturday there comes "Santa Fe Trail" and "Misbehaving Husbands" . . . "Santa Fe Trail" is truly a great picture . . . If you should be one who does not like "westerns" then you still can't afford to miss this great picture . . . Based upon the history of the famous John Brown this picture carries you through a series of high adventure which you will long remember . . . Heading the cast in this great picture are Errol Flynn and Olivia DeHavilland.

Men did you ever go home from a party with a woman's "pretties" hanging out of one pocket and her shoe in your back pocket? . . . Free pass to Mrs. M. E. Smith. Perhaps you can about imagine what would happen to you - but, wait and see the comedy mix-up that comes from this situation in "Misbehaving Husbands" . . . It's a scream.

Now comes an important announcement . . . Due to the shorter nights and added work for this time of year there will be no more "Free-vues" until this fall . . . Several people have told us that it was impossible for them to stay up as late on Saturday night as a month or so back . . . Please re-Free pass to Murray May member this when planning your theatre party.

Sunday and Monday we have one of the grandest comedies to come from out Hollywood way . . . "The Philadelphia Story" . . . This is the picture which has shattered all theatre records wherever it has shown . . . In the cast are James Stewart and Cary Grant . . . Definitely a "must" picture.

Our program for next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday speaks for itself . . . "Andy Hardy's Private Secretary" with Mickey Rooney and the whole Hardy family. Free pass to Mrs. Guy Young and Lew Gordon were of the vast King-Gordon when building up this string they continually had to fight against Ben Thorpe. Thorpe ri-valed King-Gordon in power and wealth, but he had gained his position through wholesale cattle rustling and gunplay. Their opposing interests came to a showdown when the Government announced the auctioning of the valuable Crying

INSTALLMENT 3 THE STORY SO FAR:

Wolf land in Montana. King bid high to beat out Thorpe. Bill Roper, King's adopted son, raced home to tell pretty Jody Gordon the good news. A rider soon brought the news that Dusty King had been killed.

CHAPTER IV

ried Dusty King five miles gallops, beside the Great which he himself had plied. They thought he would get out there in the open enough to the cattle trail the rumble of hoofs would come to him through the

"Then, by God, King-Gordon has come to its split-up!" Silence again before Dry Camp said, "And I suppose I'm expected to just kind of stand aside and stay out of it and see how you work it out, huh? Well, I won't do it, Bill!"

"You're in this, Dry Camp." "How am I in it?" "I've got to have me an outfit. It's got to be made up of boys that aren't afraid of Ben Thorpe or all hell; boys that haven't got anything more to lose. I'll need near fifty men. But to start off with I want Lee Harnish, and Tex Daniels and Tex Long; Nate Liggett—Dave Shannon—"

"Wow!" said Dry Camp. "You get those four or five in the same bunch, they'll eat each other alive." "That's the kind I want," Bill Roper said. "I want a wild bunch such as the West has never seen before."

"And me—what am I supposed to do?" "You—you're heading south. You're going back to Texas and

"Oh, hello, Dry Camp," said, "Pierce came and sat down with me at the foot of the 'Find out anything, in the no."

Dry Camp repeated after No, and they won't." talk mighty sure, Dry Camp might be sure because I am sure. Nobody saw Dusty except the three men that and one other man."

Dry Camp's lean arm in a bit like a trap. "Who was a silence, sharp and before Bill said, "is it you haven't told any-

Dry Camp said, "I'm telling you, ain't I?" "Was it?" "Tanner; and Walk Lash-

Camp took a match out of his pocket, lit it, and held it up. "You're going to start rounding 'em in."

"What you offering these boys?" "Horses and grub, and what other stuff we'll need. Not another thing." They sat silent for a long time.

"All right," Dry Camp said. "I'll go." In the starlight Bill Roper swung down in front of the little shack which served King-Gordon as a loading-foreman's office at their Ogallala pens. Within, Bill Roper found Lew Gordon sitting alone. "I just talked to a man," Roper said, "that saw the killing."

Gordon was instantly alert. "Who was it?" "He's a man that can't come forward, because he's already an outlaw in his own right. But Dusty was killed by Ben Thorpe, and Walk Lasham, and Cleve Tanner, the three working together. Walk Lasham bore down Dusty's gun."

They looked at each other for a long moment. "This man that told you this—we've got to get hold of him; his story has to go to the authorities, Bill."

Roper shook his head. "He'll hang if they lay hands on him. Anyway, nobody would believe him against these three."

Lew Gordon made a gesture at once impatient and weary. "Wherever we turn we hit some snag of lawlessness," he said. "There's too many men afraid to stand forward and face out the law. Seems like nothing is done open and above-board any more."

"You've been a long time." "I know." He stopped beside her, half raised her in his arms, and kissed her lingeringly. Her arms and her lips clung, making it difficult for him to think of the road he had chosen. But presently he sat beside her on the buffalo robe, and turned his eyes to the coals.

"There's some stuff we have to talk about, Jody." "I can think of better things to do with freight than just talk." "Jody—King-Gordon is spitting up." Jody brought herself up on one elbow. "Why, Bill—what do you mean?"

"Dusty's share comes to me, as you know. I—I'm taking it out." "You're—Bill, you must be loco!" "Maybe. I'm going against Ben Thorpe." "But—but—" Jody was at a loss for words. "Since the trail began, he's stood for everything we're against. Four of the biggest rustling gangs in the country are directly hooked up with him, if it could be proved. He's stopped at nothing, and where he couldn't force his way he's bought his way. But now—he's gone too far."

Mechanized Fishing

The fishing industry, oldest of American industries, and one of the largest, has finally accepted a place in the machine column. Where snowy-sailed schooners put out from New England fishing ports almost since the coming of the Pilgrims, trim Diesel-engined trawlers now go forth. Operating from Massachusetts ports is the Forty Fathom Fleet. Come aboard one of the trawlers and let's go.

Here is a big trout—a net shaped like a big bag. As much as 5,000 pounds of fish can be hauled in at one lick in this bag.

Above: After sword-play. Sharks are not the worst offenders. The repair crew had to mend a big hole in the net after a swordfish had been rough with it.

Occasionally a trawler brings in something the fishermen hadn't bargained for. The shark at right, for instance. This is a 7 ft. blue shark. The liver is valuable.

In the fishing grounds they still heave the lead, as shown at the left above, to bring up a sample of the sea bottom. Right: One of the "ships that pass."

A cleaning crew in action. They sort the fish, slit and clean them, and stow them below in layers of ice.

A NEW STORY ON CAL COOLIDGE

FROM CHILDHOOD Gen. Newton E. Turgeon of Buffalo had been a close personal friend of Calvin Coolidge. They were born in adjoining homes in Vermont, had played together as children, attended school and college together and remained close friends while they lived.

When the Peace bridge across the Niagara river, between Buffalo and Black Rock, Ont., was to be opened, people of Buffalo wanted the President to attend the opening ceremonies. General Turgeon was sent to Washington to get him.

"Cal, you simply must come. The people of Buffalo will be terribly disappointed if you do not," said the general.

"Who is going to be there?" asked the President.

"The lieutenant-governor of Ontario," replied Newt.

"Who else?" asked Cal.

"The governor-general of all Canada," said Newt.

"Anyone else?" queried Cal.

"The prime minister of England," said Newt.

"Will the king be there?" asked Cal.

"No, but the prince of Wales will," answered Newt.

"Then I will send John," said Cal—and he did.

General Turgeon told me the story just after the Peace bridge was opened as illustrative of the Coolidge tactfulness, and insisted that was the full extent of their conversation on the subject.

It is a Coolidge story which has never before been printed.

COLONEL HOUSE'S STORY OF BREAK WITH WILSON

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT sent Harry Hopkins to Europe, presumably in the same capacity—that of personal representative—as President Wilson sent Col. Edward M. House during the first World war.

I knew Colonel House and frequently called on him at his home, a small six-room apartment on East Fifty-second street in New York city. My last call there was shortly after his return from the peace conference, and I learned from Colonel House the reason for his break with President Wilson.

On the way to Europe, the President announced to other members of the American delegation that he would do the talking when anything was to be said to heads of any of the other four delegations. When the peace treaty had been completed, the day for Germany to sign designated, and the delegations arranging to leave France, Lloyd George asked Colonel and Mrs. House to pay him a visit before returning to America. The Colonel and Mrs. House accepted that invitation.

The day before the treaty was signed, Colonel House dropped into Lloyd George's apartment to ascertain what train they were to take and to make final arrangements for the visit. While he was there, President Wilson called at Lloyd George's apartments and found Colonel House present, at once turned and walked out. He did not speak to the Colonel after that incident.

Colonel House believed Mr. Wilson imagined he was talking to Lloyd George on some forbidden subject, but he was never given an opportunity to explain.

"On my return to the United States," said the Colonel, "I advised the President of my arrival and told him I would be glad to serve him in any way he might wish, but I did not receive any acknowledgment of that note."

U. S. Civil Service Jobs Offer Chances for Many

HAVE you been thinking about the United States Civil Service, wondering if there's a spot you can fill, an opportunity for you? There may be, for Uncle Sam needs clerks, typists, nurses, doctors, border patrolmen, machinists, guards and many others to carry on his work all over the country.

How to apply for a job, what rules you must follow are explained in our new 32-page booklet. Lists many U. S. Civil Service positions, stating requirements and salaries. Explains different types of examinations and how to apply. Send order for booklet to:

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action
Modern life with its busy and weary, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—is its risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling—feet constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

Facts of ADVERTISING

ADVERTISING represents the leadership of a nation. It points the way. We merely follow—follow to new heights of comfort of convenience, of happiness.

As time goes on advertising is used more and more, and as it is used more we all profit more. It's the way advertising has—of bringing a profit to everybody concerned, the consumer included.

A bit of cheerful (?) news for the citrus growers: Brazil asks the United States to take 800,000 cases of Brazilian oranges in exchange for American apples.

AGGIE BRIEFS

plementary Cotton Program? Under the program, designed to reduce cotton production and provide more food and clothing for farm families, you can qualify for stamps which can be used to buy cotton goods. You can also earn an additional payment of $3 for carrying out a food production practice. To be eligible for the food payment, one must participate in the cotton stamp program.

In past issues of "Aggie Briefs" were given the qualifications for the food program. Information may be secured at the AAA office in Silverton.

Credit will be given for a home garden grown on the farm for each tenant, landlord, or sharecropper family on the farm. A home garden shall consist of vegetables grown for home use, either for consumption fresh during the growing season, or for canning, drying, or storing.

Garden vegetables (with the exception of watermelons and sweetpotatoes for home use) shall not be in more than two plots. Watermelons and sweetpotatoes may be planted whenever advisable.

The acreage in the home garden must not be used for any other soil-depleting purpose during the year. Each home garden (including sweetpotatoes and watermelons) must contain not less than 1/2 acre.

At least 10 different kinds of vegetable must be planted in sufficient quantity to supply the farm family with a well-balanced diet. The garden must be planted on a well-prepared seedbed and cultivated in accordance with good garden culture.

BOOK REVIEW

Mrs. J. S. Watson was hostess to the Auxiliary for their all day mission-study on last Monday. It was one of the most enjoyable occasions of the year, with Mrs. Watson and her daughter, Mrs. Sid Richards, dispensing hospitality to about a dozen members.

Mrs. D. F. Wulfman, missionary leader had arranged for a delightful book-review. Mrs. R. G. Alexander gave the review in a most interesting way. During the morning, about half of the book, "Dangerous Opportunity", was given, and the other half in the afternoon. It dealt with the crisis in China, and dangers surrounding our Christian missionaries carrying on stupendous work in spite of hazards.

Mrs. J. E. Daniel led the devotional and Mrs. Sid Richards conducted the business session. The Secretary, Mrs. D. T. Northcutt, gave various reports and displayed new mother's day cards, sympathy and "get well" cards, etc.

The covered dish dinner was delicious, with many varieties of food, among them was chop suey for the Chinese theme. But nothing was more popular than the hostess's contribution of hot rolls, country ham and hot coffee. It was a day of feasting not only of material food, but mentally and spiritually, too. The next meeting will be at the Wrights' home, May 5th.
