SUNDAY IS MOTHER'S DAY!

MY MOTHER IS away now, so have no need to write to her personally. I say she is away (not dead) because I mean and believe that there is seldom a week nor a day goes by but some thought comes to me to make me know that I'm right in that knowledge.

THERE'S NO NEED to write to her personally because she'd know beforehand what I was going to say. Mom was just about the world's greatest little worrier. She worried about her kids, and their kids, and most everything except herself. It might not sound just right to some folks but I'm kinda glad that Mom doesn't have to worry about this war. She worried thru one and that is enough. Now she can see this thing as it really is and without being so troubled about it. So much for my personal thoughts tonight.

TO YOU BOYS who have your mothers with you—don't forget to remember her Sunday. Doesn't have to be an expensive gift or any gift at all for the matter. Just take time enough to tell her that she is the best person in the world and that you are glad she is your mother. Some of you younger but-tons think that sounds just a little "sissy" perhaps. Let me tell you that when a boy decides that he is just a little too smart to show his love for his mother, that boy (or man) is making her lifetime of work go for nothing. And you fathers, if you aren't teaching that youngster of yours to love and revere his mother, then you are slipping a lot. You are depriving her and the kid too of one of the greatest pleasures in life.

JOHN HAMILTON TAKES me to task about the story last week about the horse throwing him. The boss hasn't been foaled, says John, that can toss this frame of mine to the ground.

I HAD THE headline "Hoss Throws Hamilton" and so with due respect I submit instead "Hamilton Throws Bull". . . But you say "He was riding a hoss." Be that as it may he still throws the bull.

I'M HAVING MY trousers de-cuffed, Frank has a special on it now for four-bits I can have a 19-42 Model suit. Besides that he sends the old cuffs to the wool reclaimers and I read the other day that a new suit can be made from about fifty pair of two inch cuffs. Darned if I don't believe that beats saving postage stamps for the dye.

LEWIS GILKEYSON IS having trouble with his honey bees this cold weather. He says that he thinks they sent them out with summer weight oil in them. Then too, it could be that the ground crews are not keeping them properly serviced for flight. They sent out 10,000 and all of them fighter models—not a Flying Fortress in the bunch.

AREN'T TELEPHONES wonder-ful? The wife and kid are over 600 miles away yet for about 85 cents and in five minutes I can talk to them. Barb just called me tonight to say that Mr. Whitney is improving pretty fast now and that she was about ready to come home. Collin had to get on the phone too. He had a wonderful May Day party and asked me if I was still putting stamps in his bond book.

AND SO, BARRING all accidents I will go after her next week end. I'd like to get the paper out a little early if possible and so I'll appreciate early copy next week. I believe that I will live till they get back. What I mean I have eaten enough eggs in the past month till I am growing a shell. There is a lot of white about me (bragging) and maybe a little yellow (wondering).

THE FEATURE STORY of the week comes through Shorty Shaffer, who vows he will shoot me dead if I tell where I heard this: I guess you know Huber Tillery. He has been working for Shorty and Sunday he ups and gets marriage alliances with Betty Hill. To go on with the story, Shaffer had him in the field listing sudan. He thought to himself "I believe I'll go out to the field and see how Huber is getting along—he might be planting with an empty hopper or something". So he goes out and SURE ENOUGH, old Huber was going round and round and with an empty grain hopper. Just how that could come to pass I don't know. I don't believe in circumstantial evidence, yet on the other hand I never heard of Huber being forgetful nor careless. Also—I got married myself once. But I didn't have to go out and list sudan—so I don't just know.

THIRDLY, IF that hot headed Tillery comes bounding in here looking for me I have went, I have gone, I have left I all alone.

A COUPLE OF weeks ago I got a card and asked me to see the Mayor about making a lower rate on water where it is being used for Victory gardens. Well I went and saw Tom and he explained it and told me to explain it. The fact is that our water supply is inadequate for heavy consumption in summer months. Right now it barely gets us by with the State Fire Insurance Department. If there was any more water being used we'd jeopardize everyone in town with a fire hazard from lack of water. The City has drilled several times for more water but so far all they have gotten is a big expense bill. And so, regardless of what they would like to do, the water rate will not be lowered very much more, because the City is selling every drop of water they can afford to.

TOM DID HAVE one suggestion that might help. He said to tear up a bunch of these old petered-out lawns and put them into garden. That way he said, for the same amount of water they are using now a garden could be grown. I doubt however if the Mayor ever tried to spade up a thick Bermuda grass lawn.

JUST HOW IMPORTANT is gold or silver? In the WPB's latest restriction order, the use of all metals was banned for use in making civilian products except gold and silver. Sounds screwy doesn't it?

TIME'S AWASTING! I must up and away. There's work to do and Blessed is the Man who Getteth Out his Newspaper on time.

Sure, every acre's raising more . . . Now what's upping the mileage from this oil?

How does prize wheat or corn at the county fair get that way? Sure, man-made soil improvers — modern synthetics — were added to improve on nature.

AND MODERN SYNTHETICS in Conoco Nth motor oil make it yield mileage that outscored all other brands tested in the sensational Death Valley Certified Competition. Five big-name quality brands got every fair chance against Conoco Nth oil. All were run till engines failed and none came closer than 58% of the mileage totaled by Conoco Nth! . . . the oil you can have for your needed Spring oil change that's now overdue . . . the oil whose best known man-made extra substance—at no extra premium—gives your engine OIL-PLATING.

OIL-PLATING backs up the familiar fluid type of oil film with a surfacing of lubricant close-bonded to inner engine parts. Every cylinder wall, for instance, becomes a wall of OIL-PLATING that doesn't all drain dry during all the time you use Conoco Nth. Even after all-day parking, the OIL-PLATING is still up to the topmost piston rings, ready to lubricate before any oil can circulate. That's one plain way of foiling excess wear, and keeping up mileage with your engine OIL-PLATED.

But Conoco Nth oil also includes Thialkene inhibitor . . . another synthetic . . . invented to inhibit or restrain the dangerous "jelling" of oil under excess strain. Engine heat and pressure can even gum up oil into something like fly-paper coating—only dirtier, and not much better for mileage. Against this threat, Thialkene inhibitor was created for Conoco Nth (U. S. Pat. 2,218,132). And Conoco Nth out-mileaged the others in the Death Valley Test—from 74% all the way up to 161%. You can get real optimistic about your own mileage. Conoco Nth will come through for you. Change at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station. Continental Oil Company

Household Hints

Never let eggs stand in a warm place. The lower shelf of the refrigerator where the temperature is about 40 degrees F., is the best place to place them.

If the liquid from canned vegetables is drained before serving, it should be placed in the refrigerator in a tightly covered container. The vitamins will be better preserved if the liquid is not exposed to air.

Try light brown sugar on any breakfast cereal. It takes less and adds greatly to the taste.

If cooking utensils are soaked immediately after the food has been removed, they may be easily cleaned. Cold water is best for eggs, milk or doughy substances. Hot water acts more quickly on greasy foods.

A dibber is a good tool for bulb planting. Learn the knack of giving it a swinging twist to make the bottom of the hole round so the bulbs will not be "hung" with air space under them.

Wooden salad bowls are likely to warp unless they are washed and stored carefully. Wash them quickly in warm water—never let them soak—and store them in a cool, dry place.

Do You Bake at Home?
If you do, send for a grand cook book—crammed with recipes for all kinds of yeast-raised breads and cakes. It's absolutely free. Just drop a postcard with your name and address to Standard Brands Inc., 691 Washington St., New York City.—Adv.

Oranges for vitamins—'Sunkist' for quality
Oranges stamped 'Sunkist' are the finest from 14,500 cooperating growers.
And oranges are the best way to be sure of vitamin C. Few foods supply much of it easily lost in cooking. Yet you need an abundance daily, since you do not store it.
Oranges also have vitamins A, B1 and C; calcium, and other minerals.
Buy Sunkist Oranges in quantity for juice and sugar-saving sweets. They keep.

Sunkist California Orange

RED BALL ORANGES
