Great Interest In Celebration Events

42 PARTY AND CARDS AT SAN JACINTO FRIDAY

San Jacinto Community will have a 42 and card party at the San Jacinto school house, Friday night, Jan. 28th, as that community's part in raising money for the Infantile Paralysis Fund. Mrs. W. M. Malone is in charge of the affair and invites folks from Silverton and other communities to take part in the entertainment.

Refreshments will be served and a nice time is assured. Spend a pleasant evening with your friends and-at the same time raise money for a worthy cause.

J. B. ROGERS

J. B. (Uncle Johnnie) Rogers died suddenly January 20, 1944, at the age of 84 years and one month. He came to Briscoe County from Austin, Texas in 1913. He was born in Blanco County Texas on December 22, 1859.

He leaves to mourn his passing his wife Mrs. Emma Rogers, two daughters Mrs. Ray Walker and Miss Mary Rogers of Austin; two sons Joe B. Rogers of Silverton and George H. Rogers of Dallas, three granddaughters and one grandson and four great grand children, and the Burleson family here, his brother-in-law W. E. (Uncle Edd) Burleson, two nieces Mrs. Kate Price, Plainview, Mrs. Dora McMurtry Silverton, Dock Burleson, Matador, Jim Burleson in California, Bruce Burleson of Borger, Edwin Crass and the family of the late Joe Edd Burleson.

Uncle Johnnie was he was known by auu was a real friend to every one in hte west. He was a ranchman and farmer and once worked on the JA ranch over a year.

Pall bearers were Carl Wimberly Bill Jrice, P. D. Jasper, John Lee Francis, U. D. Brown and Edwin Crass. Funeral services were held Friday afternoon January 21st at the Methodist Church in Silverton.

TO FIGHT GAS BLACK MARKET

A plan whereby gasoline ration coupons are mailed to individual motorists from carefully guarded central issuing stations is now being established by OPA. The plan is expected to eliminate thefts of ration coupons, give OPA a check of issuance, and eliminate a great load from local boards. To further fight black markets, about Feb. 1st OPA will issue a notice urging endorsement of coupons to be inserted in newly issued gasoline ration books.

STEEL SPRINGS FOR FURNITURE

In about 60 days steel springs for upholstered wood furniture will be on the market, according to the War Production Board. Manufacturers may use a limited quantity of steel springs under a new WPB ruling.

"An emergency is only the result of lack of intelligent preparation."

Folks in this area are taking a great interest in the plans for the Celebration of the President's birthday, and the outlook now is that it will be a huge success. All net proceeds from the various events goes for the prevention and cure of Infantile Paralysis. Half of what is raised is kept here, and half goes to the National Foundation for research work.

Bill Middleton of Quitaque, is treasurer of the local chapter, and he reports that during the summer months several children received direct aid from the fund. His report of disbursements from the local fund is as follows:

Hospitalization for children	$157.00
Tax on revenue	26.46
Chapter expense	17.00

Even with the expenses from the polio cases last year, there is a nice balance in the bank. Research workers say that the chances are good that there will be another epidemic this summer, and it is hoped that the drive in progress will add enough money to the fund, until, as the National Foundation recommends "no child shall be forced to wait one moment from proper care because of financial worries."

Dr. Chando and Dr. Zeero are staging their magician show at the high school this evening, with proceeds to go to the fund: A pie supper is being held at Antelope and a "42" party at San Jacinto.

Tickets are on sale now for the President's Ball which will be held at the high school auditorium on Saturday night. "The Music Makers", a nine-piece orchestra will play for the dance. They are widely known in the Amarillo area and have made several radio broadcasts. Silverton folks are sure to enjoy the music and the dancing. The dance starts at nine and will last until midnight.

Briscoe County has always been one of the strongest counties in the state in the raising of funds for the work against Infantile Paralysis. Last year, on a per capita basis this county ranked second in Texas. Mr. Crass, celebration chairman, says that he feels sure that the drive will go down as another success.

Do your part. Whether you attend the entertainments, or make a flat contribution. Do your part.

INCOME TAX RETURNS ARE COMPLEX THIS YEAR

If you haven't finished your income tax return you are urged to do it early, because of the complex nature of the returns according to W. A. Thomas, collector of Internal Revenue.

In order to assist citizens in making out these Washington masterpieces, Deputies Fred Merriek and Frederick Nelson will be at the Court House February 16, from 8:30 A. M. to 5:00 P. M. to render assistance to all who desire it. This will be the only visit that can be made before the deadline of March 15.

There is no charge for the service.

Strange Out For Commish

Bryan Strange of Precinct No. 3, has authorized the Briscoe County News to announce that he is a candidate for Commissioner from that precinct. Mr. Strange was a candidate for the office in the last election, and says that he believes he will try it another whirl.

In his personal announcement he says:

To the Voters of Precinct No. 3—

This announcement will be short and to the point. I'd like your consideration for the office of County Commissioner in our district. I lacked a few the last time, but was close enough that I want to try it again. If you choose me, I shall do my very best to represent you, and I shall remember that county money should be handled as economically as possible, and in a business-like way.

Let's talk it over.

Sincerely,
BRYAN STRANGE

ROY BUNN DIES IN PLANE CRASH IN ALABAMA

M-Sergeant Roy M. Bunn, son of M. L. Bunn of this city, was killed in a plane crash at Birmingham, Alabama January 20. He was 28 years old, and had been in the army for ten years.

Roy had completed more than ten months of active front line flying as aerial gunner on a bomber over Europe and North Africa. He was back in the states and had been ordered to duty here as an instructor in aerial warfare. His plane crashed and burned after failing to clear the trees at the end of the runway, presumably from too heavy a load.

His wife, Mrs. Opal Bunn, has received word that her husband had been awarded the Distinguished Service Cross for gallantry in action.

Sergeant Bunn was buried at his birthplace, Kirkland, Texas, Monday, January 24, with full military honors.

He leaves to mourn besides his wife; his father, M. L. Bunn of Silverton; five brothers and two sisters. One brother, Troy, is now serving in the United States Army.

Silverton people extend their deepest sympathy to Mr. Bunn and his family.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our Silverton friends for their word's and expressions of sympathy in the loss of our son and brother M-Sgt. Roy M. Bunn.

He died for his country and we are proud of him. It is hard to take but your sympathy has helped a lot to make our grief easier.

M. L. Bunn and family

THANK YOU

We take this method to say "Thanks" to our friends for all the nice cards and letters. We wish each of you, you the best of everything.

Mrs. B. F. Smith and Bonnie

THANK YOU

We wish to take this opportunity to thank our many friends and neighbors for their kindness in helping us with our work in hauling and stacking feed etc. We also wish to thank all the people who have been so kind and considerate to us since George had an accident, which has kept him in bed ever since the accident. We want you to know that we appreciate it more than we will ever be able to tell you.

ANNUAL MEETING OF PLAINVIEW PRODUCTION CREDIT ASSOCIATION

Farmers and ranchmen, their wives and neighbors, from eight counties attended the 10th anniversary annual meeting of the Plainview Production Credit Association in Plainview Friday at the City Auditorium.

Vice President, D. T. Northcutt said that the association has "loaned its members more than $7,000, 000 in the past 10 years. We think credit fitted to individual needs helped many improve their position through the years and that in these war times financing that helps an operator produce more efficiently is contributing to the war effort."

Sec. Treas. M. R. Snyder's report to the stockholders showed that the Plainview association now has 692 members; that capital stock owned by farmer-ranchmen members amounts to $81,075; and reserves built up out of earnings to protect their stock total $44,390. Loans for 1943 totaled $1,648,300.

The stockholders reelected Mr. R. A. Axtell of Castro County to serve as a director of the association for a term of three years.

At the organization board meeting following the annual meeting the following officers were elected to serve in 1944. C. W. Smiley of Littlefield, President; D. T. Northcutt, Silverton, Vice President, and M. R. Snyder of Plainview, Sec-Treas.

The Fourth War Loan, in which Briscoe County has a quota of $149,000,000, is going slowly according to H. S. Sanders, County War Loan Chairman. Friday night a total of $37,000 had been reported to W. Coffee, Jr. who makes the official report on sales in this county.

In spite of the fact that the war is in a critical stage, and that support of the war effort is needed now more than ever before, very little enthusiasm has been shown to date. Salesmen believe that the citizen of moderate means is buying his full share and more too. The men who are able and should buy the larger denominations, are so far doing little. M. C. Tull, Silverton District Chairman, says that the time of selling easy bonds is past — that the time has come for each person to be a salesman. "There are many who will buy bonds now, if solicited personally", says Tull, and he calls on each volunteer worker to increase their efforts to raise the quota.

A special effort will be made this week end to increase the bond sales, and if possible to meet the quota. If you are asked to buy a bond do it. The volunteer workers get absolutely nothing for their work, and it will be a double favor to them if each person will take just as little of their time as possible.

Heckman probably comes as near to meeting their district quota as any in the country at this writing. Don Grady brought in $3,300.00 Wednesday morning. The district's share of the railroad bond will be $275, which will leave them less than $500 to raise, as their quota is $4,097.

No accurate check has been gotten on the amounts sold in other districts, but the whole amount is too low. Let's raise the quota by February 1. It will take work and persuasion, but a concentrated effort by everyone, will get the job done.

Private Ted Burns, an Army Ordnance soldier attached to Gen. Mark Clark's Fifth Army in Italy wrote a girl named Mamie in the Army Ordnance depot at New Boston, Texas, that the oil retainer for a tank, packed by her, had been received in excellent condition, Mamie had written her name on the packing tag. Burns returned it with his compliments "for doing a swell job."

Monday is gasless day at the Army Ordnance depot at New Haven, Ind. Everyone take a public conveyance, walks or bicycles Army Ordnance battle equipment was packed and checked by Mrs. Hazel Fraser, an employee of the Ordnance depot at Stockton, California. It was opened by her son, Pfc. Clifford Fraser at an Army Ordnance depot in Australia — a one in a million chance.

Neal Crawford is spending several days here with friends and relatives. Neal is from Mineral Wells.

SEVENTEEN MEN leave for the Induction station and their final physical examination prior to entering the armed services. The names of the men are not available for publication until after they have made this trip. Selective Service regulations explain that some of these men will be turned down on their physical, and that if it has been announced that they have gone to the induction station, it will be embarrassing to explain why they aren't in the army. I'm sorry. I'd like to publish the names for you, BUT . . .

ALL OVER THE nation there are meetings being held by planning boards—men who are honestly attempting to foresee the future, and to make plans that will help their community to get back to normal—to help their men in service to get jobs and to start living again.

MANY OF THESE boards are planning on right along the same old line of "getting something" from the federal government. The present administration has intimated that there will be many such federal hand-outs in order that we may get back to normal.
The thing, as it looks to me, is that the New Deal has forgotten just what normalcy is. We have had federal grants, and hand-outs, and doles (under an alphabetical name) for so long, that they have forgotten that the American people were originally a resourceful, and thrifty folk when it came to the handling of their business affairs. I said 'originally'. Up to two years ago, any community that was "anybody" figured out everything from out-door toilets to athletic stadiums and recreation halls—to be paid for by Uncle Sam. Up to the time we entered the war, our national debt had rolled up to 53 billion dollars. Of that amount about 50 billion was from such spending—spending foolishly and extravagantly, and for unnecessary things—anything just to be spending, because of the New Deal's idea that the way to have a prosperous country was to spend money, whether we had it or not.

THAT WASN'T THE way my Dad taught me, and it wasn't the way your Dad taught you. What they had, they had because they spent a little less than they earned.
Because they made it themselves and they expected nothing except what they had coming.

THIS COUNTRY WAS built upon that principle—earn a little, save a little. Yet now, with a debt of nearly 200 billion dollars our "national planners" are talking of needed social reforms, which to me means more federal jobs, more ASSISTANCE!

RIGHT NOW THERE are wartime restrictions that are needed.
But all the assistance we need after his war, is for the federal government to let us alone. A district OPA official told me last week that the set-up was intended to go ahead right after the war. That is OK for some people, but mark my word, if we let it happen this country will never survive as the nation of free enterprise it has always been.

THESE THINGS ARE being handed us now as war time measures. We are just a little dubious about complaining because someone will say that we are hurting the effort to win the war. . . . We have over ten million men who are now in service. If this country continues to shackle itself with red tape from Washington, those boys will bear the brunt of it.
They will want jobs, and they will want to start little businesses of their own. And they will be hampered at every turn by rules and regulations set up while they were fighting. They will know then, that we here at home slept on our rights—that we allowed those things to happen—that in the true sense of the word, we did not keep the faith.

HOW LONG WILL it be before we see that we must get back to governing ourselves after this war is over? That we must make our own debts, and pay our own bills?
That the federal government must give back to the people and to the states the rights that are theirs.

AND AS FOR a "planned" existence—ask those boys who are fighting. They have learned to be resourceful under all conditions.
They will not want to come back to a nation whose thinking is done at Washington—because that type of thinking leads to a "job" in our working years, a $30 a month old age, and a burial that is taken care of by somebody else.

BOND BUYING is one of the few things left that I have complete confidence in. There are two things right now representing money—paper dollars and war bonds. They are both paper and they are both issued by our government. When bonds are of no value, then neither is that paper currency. They are both, in effect, promissary notes.

THEN JUST WHY it is that our bond drive is going so slow, I do not know. With the money we have on deposit at the First National Bank (over $1,300,000) we should have already over-subscribed our quota. I have my own personal theory on that and in it I think that I am joined by our county War Finance Chairman Sanders, and Silverton Chairman Tull. That theory is simply this:
There are a bunch of you birds with more than a little money in the bank—with land and cattle—in my own language "guys with plenty of bucks". And right plainly speaking it is you guys that seem to be too — self-centered to do your part in financing this war. I can show you dozens of fellows who are putting small amounts into bonds—but amounts that mean 50% or more of their earnings. And I can also tell you of a lot more who haven't put as much as 5% into financing a fight for survival as a nation and as individuals. I'm not kidding myself—I know that this isn't going to sell a penny's worth of bonds—I'm simply getting it off my chest.
Forget it my friend. You go over your bank statement—I'll go over my bonds. I'll feel better than you will for I'm doing a little bit according to my finances, to pay for the guy who's doing the fighting for me. I'm not kidding myself either, that the above statement is going to make me any more popular. It won't. I just feel like saying it, that's all.

I HAVE A problem too that you can help me with. I want to run the pictures of every man in service from this area. The reason I haven't published more of them is simply this. It costs me $1.25 to have the engraving made from the picture. That isn't much but for me alone it would soon run several hundred dollars. What I want you folks with kids in the service to do is this—pay for the engraving. That is asking a lot, but I just can't do it all. What I want to do is to run a big Victory Edition after the war that will have the pictures of every man who has served in the armed forces.
What about it—will you do it? The pictures will not be damaged in any way. If your kid's picture is in the window, just drop in and pay for the cut, and we'll have his picture and story in the next week or so, and then in the big Victory Edition.

I AM TOO SERIOUS tonight for my own good but just to show you that I'm in my right mind I want to take enough space to hand Jimmy Gillentine of the Hereford Brand my nomination for the title of "Coiner of Journalistic Phrases DeLuxe". In a story in the last issue of the Panhandle Publisher, he was explaining just how to get along with the help. He said, "It is all very simple, if you just assume the proper attitude of posterior osculation". . . . It's that last part that wins him the title. If you don't agree, after consulting both Webster and the Whiz Bang, then the osculation act is on me.

I DON'T KNOW what is the matter with J. Lowell Ponder this year. I have looked forward for the past several years to his resume of the activities and thoughts of the Silverton Editor. His article was due this week, and I am unhappy that I do not have the 1944 version of "One Man's Opinion".
At any rate I am happy that it is just one man's opinion—or at least that there is just one man that makes it public.

THERE WILL BE a quilting at next week, according to Louie. I think all the women are invited and Louie said that he wanted all the husbands to feel welcome too.

Louie said that he was running

An old Scot was smoking in the

"Don't you see that notice on the wall—'No Smoking Allowed?'"
"Yes I do," said the Scot. "But how can I keep all your rules?
There's another one on the wall that says: 'Wear Spirella Corsets.'"

Daughter—I don't know; unless

Let us look at the dollars and

Lifetime Earnings
Ages 15 to 60 $65,000
HIGH SCHOOL

Average Maximum
Salary $2400 to $2600
Lifetime Earnings
Ages 18 to 60 $95,000
COLLEGE GRADUATES

Lifetime Earnings
Ages 25 to 65 $150,000
COLLEGE GRADUATES —
PROFESSIONAL TRAINING
Average Maximum
Income $5000 to $7500
Lifetime Earnings
Ages 26 to 65 $200,000
The high school graduate's lifetime earnings of $30,000 more than the grammar school graduate represents the value of four years of high school.
The college graduate's lifetime earnings of $55,000 more than the high school graduate represents the value of four years of college.
The professionally trained college graduate's lifetime earnings of $50,000 more than the average college graduate represents the value of the additional preparation.
Education, therefore, represents the greatest of all opportunities in life.

WHAT WOULD a wounded soldier think of you if he could hear you say: "I can't afford to buy an extra War Bond?"

He might remind you that he couldn't "afford" to go to war! But he went, and now he's making more sacrifices . . . for you. No wonder he expects you to do something that will help him!

Especially when all you're asked to do is to buy an extra $100 War Bond this month. So check over your budget . . . see if you can't swing at least an extra $100 . . . or $200 . . . or $300
. . . or even $500 for extra War Bonds.
You'll find that you can . . . and it's no sacrifice, either, for War Bonds are the best investment in the world today!

COX STRESSES CARE OF TEETH

The fact that dental decay is likely to occur in the mouth of the average person, despite proper home care given the teeth, doesn't lessen the importance of brushing the teeth and massaging the gums daily, nor does it minimize the need for a cleaning and inspection of the teeth twice a year by the family dentist. Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, says that the lack of these measures gives added power to germs that attack the enamel of the teeth and gum tissues.

"If, despite the proper application of such procedures, decay is suspected or teeth injured in any way, the thoughtful person will seek the dentist's office promptly for the necessary corrective work."

"It is surprising, though, even in these days of comparatively painless dentistry, that so many persons neglect to make good their dental defects, inevitable or otherwise, because they foolishly fear the discomfort they might experience in the dentist's chair," said the State Health Officer. "There are others who having lost a tooth or several teeth, make no effort to obtain replacements. Apparently they believe they can get along without them. Reduced masticating power, the annoyance and sometimes actual discomfort of chewing hard substances on the exposed gums and crooked teeth are some of the possible consequences of gaps in the teeth."

Dr. Cox advised those who are interested in experiencing the best dental and bodily health possible to give daily attention to their mouth and visit the dentist twice each year, and promptly seek the dentist's services should decay or other suspicious conditions arise between the periodic visits.

"In short," Dr. Cox explained, "successful mouth hygiene means not only intelligent personal dialy application of prophylaxis but complete and timely cooperation with the family dentist as well."

UNCLE SAM SPEAKS IN VERSE "BUY BONDS"

The home front is a peaceful place; No guns, no tanks, no planes to face. But give a thought to the boys at the front, They are the ones bearing the brunt.

BUY BONDS! From Alaska to Australia, From England to Samoe, We supply the boys with what they need And they in turn will keep us freed.

BUY BONDS! They need planes and ships and food galore, Every day takes more and more. Our boys are lost if we fall down, And we'd all face the Axis frown.

BUY BONDS! Their days are long, their nights are dreary, They hit a fox hole, sore and weary. All they ask is a chance to fight, And show the Axis their hopeless plight.

BUY BONDS! Benito is down but there's two to go, To knock them out it takes the dough. The call is for you to send your help, And do your part to make them yelp.

BUY BONDS! Our part is small and goes unsung, But we can cheer when the mad men are hung, If we do our bit, day by day, And send our dollars into the fray.

What's that, you say, the front door squeaks? The faucet in the bathroom leaks Tomorrow night, as sure sa fate, (That is if I don't get home late) I'll mend the fence, take just one board. And then I'll fix your iron cord. A couple nails, a little glue Will make that kitchen stool like new.

I'll get all those odd jobs done yet. Now where'd you put the sport page, Pet?"

YOUR GAS WATER HEATER Can help win the War!

By using your gas water heater (as well as your other gas appliances) wisely you can help in the war effort. Natural gas is a vital fuel needed to keep war plants operating. We, as patriotic Americans, should use as little natural gas as possible in order to save it for these war-time needs.

5 ways to make your gas water heater save gas

- 1 Repair dripping hot water faucets.
- 2 Avoid letting hot water run while washing hands, dishes, or shaving.
- 3 Insulate hot water tanks and pipes to avoid waste.
- 4 Turn off non-automatic water heater when enough water is heated.
- 5 Check thermostat setting on automatic water heater. (120 to 140 degrees should be sufficient for normal use.)

A VITAL MESSAGE TO EVERY NATURAL GAS USER: With the increased use of natural gas by the many war production centers and military camps that have been an outgrowth of the war, there is now a need for everybody to cut down as much as possible on their use of this vital fuel. Because of the shortage of equipment, material, and manpower, the facilities for providing the natural gas cannot be enlarged. For this reason the Office of War Utilities has asked every gas user, whether in the home, office, or plant, to "Use what you must, but save all you can!"

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

When Mark Twain was a reporter in San Francisco, a friend saw him with a cigar box under his arm and remonstrated. "Mark, you are going to smoke yourself to death," Twain replied. "These aren't cigars: I'm moving again."

Probably the best of the many stories concerning the famous writer is the one about the time that Twain was visiting a neighbor and became interested in a book, so he asked permission to take it home in order to finish reading it. But the owner said, "You are welcome to read my books here as much as you like but I've lost so many books that I've made it a rule never to loan them out."

Two weeks later, the neighbor came over to borrow Mark's lawn mower. Twain said, "I've made it a rule never to allow my lawn-mower to leave my yard but you are welcome to use it here as much as you like." He got the book.

The Lieutenant Governor all at once has gotten interested in allowing Texas soldiers and sailors to vote and he is clamoring for a special session and is seeking to engage in public controversy with Attorney General Sellers and Governor Stevenson. Of course, the Lieutenant Governor couldn't possibly be thinking of running for Attorney General or Governor himself?

He ought to answer a few questions. Why didn't he do or say anything about the soldier vote question during the regular session of the legislature?

Didn't he know about it or didn't he care? If action had been taken at the regular session, then there would be no occasion to urge a special session on the subject at a cost of $250,000 to the taxpayers, would there?

For more than two years, Boyce House has insisted that, when a
