Ruby Jewell Chappell Passes Away Jan. 10

The community was shocked last Wednesday to hear of the death of Ruby Jewell Chappell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Chappell. She passed away at the Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo, where she was convalescing from a severe case of pneumonia followed by a major operation.

Ruby Jewell was born May 24, 1930 in Briscoe County and departed this life January 10, 1945 at the age of 14 years, 7 months, and 17 days. She was the youngest daughter in a family of four sons and three daughters. She was a Sophomore in Silverton High.

Ruby Jewell was converted at the age of nine years and united membership with the Baptist Church of which she remained a member until her death.

She was a most kind and affectionate daughter and sister. She met life's problems with cheerfulness and a smile. She was always found faithful in serving the Lord and was loved by her classmates and all that knew her. Her smiling face and her cheerful presence will be missed by her numerous friends and relatives.

Silverton Takes Two Games From Kress

Kress senior boys and girls teams came to Silverton Tuesday evening, January 16, for games. The girls' game was a very close one. The outcome was in doubt throughout the entire playing time but Silverton gained a narrow lead which they were able to maintain to win.

The Kress boys got off to an early lead, but the Owls were able to overcome it and forged ahead. The game was close throughout, part of the time there was only one or two points difference, but during the fourth quarter the Owls got hot and the game ended with the score Silverton 36 Kress 24.

Dickerson was high point man, as usual, with 21 points. West played his usual fine game. Self's defensive work was outstanding. The Owls played without the services of McWilliams at center, but his place was ably filled by Bradford. Hill played a fine defensive game. This keeps the record of the Owls unmarred by defeat. They have won two tournaments, Flo- not and Quitaque.

The Owls play host this Friday to Tulia Hornets. This should be one of the hardest games of the season, for the Swisher County boys have a strong team and they are anxious to get revenge for the drubbing they received last year at the hands of the Silverton team. There will also be a "B" team game. The games start at 7:30.

WORK STARTED FOR GETTING G. I.'S BACK TO FARMS

Machinery for translating the agricultural phases of the GI Bill of Rights from promises into actual operation will be set up in Briscoe County and throughout Texas within the next few weeks, according to Earl Wise, Farm Security Administration Supervisor.

Horace D. Gilmore, District Supervisor at Lubbock, has called a meeting of supervisors in the 16 counties comprising his district, at Plainview, for January 24, 1945, where he will outline how the government farm loan guaranty will work. Mr. Gilmore has just returned from Oklahoma City where regional, state and district officials from Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma heard R. W. Hudgens, Washington, FSA Associate Administrator, of the part FSA will play in the GI program.

The law provides that the government through the Veterans Administration will guarantee the a maximum of $2000, but in no case more than 50 per cent, of any loan to a Veteran by a private or other lending source The Veterans Administration will guarantee the loan upon recommendation of the Certifying Committee in the respective county that (1) the proceeds of such loan will be used in payment for real or personal property purchased or to be purchased by the veteran, or for repairing, altering, or improving any buildings or equipment, to be used in bona fide farming operations conducted by him; (2) that such property will be useful and reasonably necessary to such operations; (3) that the ability and experience of the veteran and nature of operation contemplated are such that there is reasonable likelihood of success; and (4) that the purchase price for the property does not exceed the reasonable normal value as determined by proper appraisal.

In applying for a loan to buy a farm, the Veteran should obtain a Veterans Administration form No 1800 which is to be signed by the Veteran and the lender and forwarded to the Veteran's Administration Veterans wishing to receive a loan for the purchase of a farm under the GI Bill may contact the Advisory Committee at the County Agent's Office for advice concerning Agricultural information in the area in which he wishes to locate The Certifying Committee is presently composed of three men in each county who also serve as the FSA County Loan Committee The Certifying Committee may be conducted in each county at the local office of the Farm Security Administration

Federal Land Bank purchasers will appraise all farms purchased by veterans under the GI guaranty. Surveys by the U S Department of Agriculture indicate that more than one million five hundred thousand men with farm background are now in the armed forces and that one-third of these will probably wish to return to farming at the end of the war. Approximately 250 to 300 of these are Briscoe County boys

USS Briscoe Is Now In Service

A total of 310 transports and cargo vessels of the Navy now bear the names of counties of the United States, including 34 counties in Texas, according to a Navy Department announcement in Washington. The majority of these vessels have been launched, and many of them already are in service with the fleet.

Texas counties represented are Briscoe, Collingsworth, Hansford, Randall, Bandera, Bosque, Bowie, Burleson, Clay, Cottle, Crockett, Dawson, Dickens, Eastland, Fayette, Freestone, Grimes, Haskell, Hidalgo, Karnes, Knox, Lamar, Lavaca, Lubbock, Menard, Midland, Montague, Navarro, Presidio, Rockwell, San Saba, Shelby, Starr, Tarrant, and Uvalde.

The names of the counties were selected for assignment to transports (AP's); transports, attack (APA's); cargo vessels (AK's); and cargo vessels, attack (AKA's), in keeping with the Navy custom of assigning names of places in the United States to many categories of Naval vessels.

Vessels in these classifications are constructed and launched by the U. S. Maritime Commission and become Naval vessels, on a loan basis, upon completion and upon acceptance by the Navy.

Since each vessel is named for all counties of the same name in the various states where the name may occur, the names of 629 United States counties are thus represented on the list. Briscoe, Collingsworth, Hansford, and Randall counties in the Texas Panhandle are the only counties in the nation with those names, thus the USS BRISCOE, USS Collingsworth, USS Hansford, and USS Randall are named exclusively in honor of these Texas counties.

The selection of the name of a county for assignment to a vessel is primarily upon the basis of the suitability of the name. Many county names are ineligible for consideration as a result of similarity or duplication with names already on the Navy list. Possible confusion in identity of Naval vessels makes necessary the avoidance of similar names.

Pvt. James A. Stout has received Good Conduct Medal.

THE CHIEF INDOOR sport this week was the making out of Form 1040 and its various cousins. I am very proud of myself so far, for I got mine made out without the help of an expert. I had always got the income and outgo together and heaped it into someone's lap to explain and fill out in the proper spaces. This year if I so much as looked into an office at the courthouse, they went into a tail-spin for fear I wanted something done. And so I just walked up and down the corridors and watched them work. I think J. W. Lyon Jr., had the best system of any. He tacked the man's blank up on the wall and then examined his client's return. Then he would take one of these little darts and throw at the form. Where it struck was the gross income. The second throw was the expense. The third throw gave the surtax and the fourth the normal tax. He took these two figures and added them very carefully on the adding machine for the total amount . . . it was rather a complicated system, but it set me thinking. I went back to the shop and made a few practice throws but I could not hit anything but the jackpot numbers. I was about to give up and went over to the courthouse again. This time M. K. Summers was sitting there with an six inch eraser in his hand and "expert" written all over him. He had two blanks—the sheet of paper and the look on his face. Two looks at him and I made up my mind. The rest was easy. All I had to do was do just exactly what the form said and go line by line and presto-change, the whole thing made a lot of sense. In fact I believe it was made out right to the letter. In previous years I had always wondered. Of course when it gets to Dallas, they might send it back and tell me to use the dart method, but I am sure that it will get as far as Dallas anyway.

WENT TO AN OPA meeting on Tuesday evening and heard the program discussed by Ellis Dawkins, chief executive over the local boards of this district. He told chiefly of the reason for the cancellation of the stamps in December. He said "It is regretted very much but there was nothing else to do. There were more stamps out than there were foodstuffs to go around. Price control leaders got too optimistic, just as did the military leaders in Europe, and everyone seemed to think that the war was won. However, on the fighting front it cost us lives—here on the home front it has inconvenienced a few of us and that is all." He said that very little actual complaining was heard and he complimented our people for doing their best to co-operate in keeping prices down. He said that 90 or 95 percent of the American people would have carried out the rationing program without any threat of penalties, but that the other 5 or 10 percent were responsible for it being necessary to have rigid enforcement.

THE GREATEST STORY of the evening came not from Mr. Dawkins, but from a man who is no gentleman, and whose name is being withheld for fear international repercussions might occur. The story . . . A fellow applied at the employment office of a war plant for a job as truck driver. He was told that there were no jobs open, but was asked what else he could do. He named other things he was willing to do and all of the jobs were filled. After running the entire list and finding nothing for him to do, he scratched his head thoughtfully and said, "Well I'm a son-of-a-biscuit eater" (or similar words). "Oh", said the employment clerk, "In that case apply just across the hall. There is a job open on the OPA board."

Lost Horse Found

Last week Mrs. John Montague dropped in at the News Office to place an ad that a horse had strayed. She found the horse while placing the ad for Jim Whiteley had already advertised "horse taken up." Due to Jim's thoughtfulness in advertising the horse, the Montagues were saved miles of driving and expense—the ad cost them 40 cents.

Why don't you try the want ads, if you have something you want to buy or sell?

Preparation of meat for the table is one of the oldest of the household arts. Methods of meat cookery have been handed down from one generation to another. Within the past quarter century, however, intensive studies carried on at colleges and the U. S. Department of Agriculture have revealed new information showing how to prepare meat so as to bring out its full goodness and flavor. This information has taken the guesswork out of meat cookery and put it on a scientific basis. Fundamentally, there are only two principles involved in cooking meat: (1) Dry heat and (2) moist heat. Tender cuts are cooked by dry heat methods—roasting, broiling and pan-broiling. The less-tender cuts are cooked by moist heat methods—braising and simmering (cooking in water). A few cuts also may be cooked by frying. Meat cookery studies have revealed that no matter what method is used, best results are obtained with a low temperature. Among the advantages of low temperature cookery are a decrease in cooking losses, more servings, and a more tender, juicier and more palatable meat dish. The cuts of beef, veal, pork and lamb and the variety meats suitable for each method of cooking are listed in the table above.

We, here at the City Grocery, hope that you find the above chart useful... we want to add an invitation to visit our Meat Department. For economical and satisfactory food buying, try City Grocery and Market.

NEWS from the BOYS IN SERVICE

PVT. JAMES A. STOUT is a busy man behind the scenes of the supply war in Europe. Serving with a station complement squadron at an Air Service Command depot in England, he is working long hours wrestling with the thousands of complex problems that arise in keeping equipment moving to the men of the combat air forces. A soldier since May 20, 1942 he has been overseas for 11 months. He attended Silverton H. S. and in civilian life was employed by various farmers. He is the son of Ester E. McLeland of Silverton.

PVT. JAKE T. PENN of the Marines and is in the Pacific writes to his uncle Jim Whiteley. "Dear Uncle Jim: Received your Christmas card today. I must say it was really welcome. You are a world war veteran, so you probably know just how much mail really means to anyone when they are several thousand miles away from home. And you probably know again how little there is or rather you can write home about. But I will do my best so just over look all mistakes. I never was a very good letter writer.

Mother wrote me that you were fixing the old home place up, for the boys to come live and rest up a while after the war is over. That is really nice of you Uncle Jim. I just can't hardly wait to get back, and spend a few weeks with you and to visit the rest of the folks around Silverton. I didn't realize what home really did mean to me until I joined the Marine Corps. But now I know. Maybe it won't be too long tho before we will all be going back. There is one damn cinch, it can't last forever. It has to end sometime and I believe and hope that it will be in the near future. But you can never tell. You know Uncle Jim, I came into the service too young. But I had still rather be in than on the outside with a farm deferment or shall we say as a "draft dodger" I think they are just about the same thing, when you come down to it. When the war first broke out tho I said they would never draft me and I am still proud I joined. But I would be a liar to say I liked this kind of life; because I don't and there is a million more just like me. All we look forward too is just to get this thing over with and to get back home to the life we used to live. Where you walk down the street of your little home town and where everyone is nice and friendly.

I sure did hate to hear that Joe got killed. But those things will happen and no matter how much it hurts us, there is nothing we can do about it. Do you ever hear from Jack? Is he still in the states? If you have his address be sure to give him mine as I think it is about time for him to come over again. I would sure like to run into him. If we did happen to be at the same island. So be sure and send his address to me also and maybe we can get in touch with each other.

I really had a nice Christmas dinner and also a nice Christmas. This is New Years and we are going to have another swell dinner. One of the things we are going to have is fresh turkey. So you see if we have the things that go with one it will be a plenty good dinner.

Well Uncle Jim, that it about all there is to write so guess I had better close for now. Love Toby'

HERE'S THE FACTS ON THE CLOTHING SITUATION

From M. BORN & COMPANY we have the following letter: In order to meet Military requirements, the W.P.B. has issued a "freeze" order to the mills prohibiting them from making any more civilian worsteds for the next five months. In our Spring and Summer sample line, there will be no additional yardages available beyond our original purchases. On this basis, we feel certain that we will be able up to the first of July to supply you with approximately 75% of the number of suits you purchased last fall.

- Here are some other restrictions to further extend woolen supplies: 1. No Zoot Suits requiring excessive coat lengths or knee sizes out of proportion to other measurements. 2. No french facings or inside bellow pockets on sack coats. 3. No fancy backs on sack coats other than those shown in our Spring and Summer style portfolio. 4. No single vests. 5. No trouser waistbands over 2 inches and no trousers reinforced with same goods.

AND THAT'S WHAT M. BORN, OUR LEADING CLOTHING MANUFACTURER, TELLS US. WE ARE ANXIOUS TO PLEASE YOU, BUT WE ARE ALSO ANXIOUS TO HELP THE BOYS IN SERVICE OUT, IN ANY WAY WE CAN — WE KNOW YOU ARE TOO!
