Monroe Donates Calf to Benefit Local VFW Post

The Silverton Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars has received a donation in the form of an Aberdeen Angus bull calf from J. Monroe. Mr. Monroe expects to call for the Post until December, at which time it is expected to be worth at least $100.

The local post, which was only recently organized, is getting started with a lot of enthusiasm being shown, and it is hoped that much can be accomplished for the benefit of the returning servicemen. All money raised by the post will be spent toward the aim that the members will get the greatest amount of benefit therefrom.

Mr. Monroe's donation is greatly appreciated by the membership, and it means that additional funds will be realized in months to come.

Post-War Bond Sales for July Very High

Americans bought $139,057,000 of U. S. Savings Bonds during the first half of July than in any other month of the year. The national savings bonds director Vernon L. K. reported today. Sales surpassed 45.7 per cent above the June figure to reach $14,000, the best half-month's sales since January, he said. This marked increase resulted from the Treasury's "Back Your Own" June-July savings bonds promotion which stressed investment in bonds as security for the future and their purchase as a hedge against inflation," Mr. K. said.

While sales were increasing, redemptions were holding steady. The new 1946 low achieved in 1945, according to Mr. Clark's report.

It does not take an economist to figure out from these facts that Americans are convinced savings bonds are both profitable and safe. "Not to be sacrificed except in an emergency," said Mr. Clark. The director took the occasion of the Treasury department's report to thank newspapers, radio and other publicity and advertising media and their advertisers for their tremendous support in space time devoted to urging Americans to buy and hold savings bonds.

Mr. Clark expressed his appreciation to Texans for their report through Mr. Nathan Adams, chairman of the treasury's advisory committee for Texas. The half-month report for the month showed E Bond sales up 10 per cent, from $175,334,000 in the first half of June to $237,000 in the comparable period. At the same time E Bond redemptions dropped from $771,000 to $258,325,000 in the first half of July, a decrease of 1.3 per cent. The series, sales were at the highest rate since January, 1946. E Bond redemptions, at the lowest rate since July, 1945.

Reddish Wood Pulp Offered For Sale

Nearly three thousand tons of reddish sulphite wood pulp, which cost the government $100 a ton, are being offered for sale by the War Assets administration. Fully bleached and of bond or standard grade, this material is used in the production of paper and is in short supply. It is stored at the ASF depot, Bell, Va., and is being offered July 26 at fixed price OPA basis, at $94 per air dry ton. Bidding to priority and non-priority groups is made concurrently. The sale is being conducted by the WAA, Richmond, Va., regional office.

Church of Christ to Begin Revival Friday

A revival meeting to begin on Friday night of this week, and last through Sunday, August 4, has been announced by the local Church of Christ.

Evangelist W. D. Black of Austin, who comes well recommended as a fine speaker, will do the preaching during the revival. A special invitation is extended to everyone to come out and hear this wonderful gospel speaker.

Hill and Seaney To Open Conoco Corner

Troy Hill and Cecil Seaney have this week taken over and are re-opening Conoco Corner, as the filling station just off the southwest corner is familiarly known.

This station, which has been closed for several days, will carry a complete line of Conoco products, according to Hill and Seaney. Both of the new proprietors are ex-service men. Hill served three years in the Navy and Seaney served two years in the same branch of the service. They have just recently received their discharges.

Safety Ass'n. Accepts Governor's Charge For "Safer Texas"

In the face of an already 45 per cent increase in traffic fatalities over last year, the Texas Safety association today accepted a charge by Governor Coke Stevenson to mobilize public support for a safer Texas. Announcement of its designation by the governor was made by A. F. Allen, president of the association, upon receipt of a letter from Stevenson. "Since my inaugural address as Governor, I have stressed the importance of highway safety as essential to modern progressive government," Stevenson said. "There is no more tragic waste of human lives, no more unnecessary background to human suffering, no more needless source of economic loss than traffic accidents.

"The current critical traffic accident situation is a positive challenge for public action to every Texas citizen. Unless vigorous and concerted application of proven methods of traffic control is made, Texas faces the greatest accident toll in its history.

"To that end, I call upon the Texas Safety association to coordinate the practical recommendations of the President's Highway Safety conference and to mobilize public support for a safer Texas.

"Your worthy organization has rendered invaluable service to the people of Texas through its programs of traffic, industrial, school and home safety. I know that its leadership in the present emergency will be no less effective."

President Truman's highway safety conference held in Washington this May was attended by twenty members and officials of the Texas Safety association. Recommendations of the national conference parallel in large measure those of the Texas Emergency Traffic conference and the Texas Safety conference according to Allen.

"The principal elements of this uniform traffic control program embrace positive and practical measures that experience has shown are necessary to curtail street and highway accidents," said Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Summers returned Monday from a vacation trip to California.

Vets Files Formerly At Muskogee, Now In Lubbock Office

There are 8921 veterans and veterans' dependants living within the 26 Panhandle counties formerly served by the Muskogee, Okla., Veterans Administration regional office who should be reminded that their files have been transferred to the VA regional office at Lubbock, announced Robert W. Sisson, regional manager, this past week.

These Panhandle veterans and dependents have applied for, or are receiving, pensions, compensation, hospitalization, education or on-the-job training, these cases now being under the jurisdiction of the Lubbock regional office.

Prompt payment of VA checks to veterans who have been receiving them from the Muskogee office will be continued in the majority according to Cecil Pickens, Lubbock VA regional finance officer. He pointed out that in most cases failure of veterans' receiving checks results from lack of notification to the VA regional office of a change of address or omission of necessary supplementary information sent to the VA.

Panhandle veterans who are in receipt of benefits from the VA should notify the Veterans Administration regional office, Lubbock, Texas, of any change of address, always including their claim number.

Boyd Buys Merriman's Interest in the Briscoe News

David A. Boyd, of Lubbock, who has been active in helping to publish the News the past three weeks, has this week officially become a half-owner in the establishment upon purchasing the interest of John N. Merriman.

Merriman, who recently sold a half-interest to Joseph B. Powell of Crosbyton, relinquished the other half to Boyd after a partnership between he and Powell had been agreed upon. Powell and Boyd are friends of long standing, having attended high school in Crosbyton together.

"Dave" as Boyd is better known to his friends, is an ex-service man, having spent some 41 months in the army, 31 of which were spent overseas in Africa, Italy, France and Germany. He received his discharge last November.

Merriman will continue in an advisory capacity for a short time, in order that all matter pertaining to business may become well known to both new owners. Mrs. Merriman and Maxine have already returned to Amarillo where they have a home.

With the formation of the new partnership, Powell and Boyd express a hope that they can offer the people one of the best weekly newspapers in this section and according to them, "our every effort will be toward this end." A few changes in the shop are being contemplated and another 8-page section is to be added to the News soon, the new owners said. "We believe this will not only give the readers a much better paper, but also give the advertisers a paper in which they are proud to see their ad appear," Powell said.

ANNUALS HAVE ARRIVED

According to an announcement made this week by F. M. McCarty superintendent of the local school, the high school annuals that were recently sent off to be corrected, have returned and are erady for delivery to those who paid for them.

Mr. McCarty has the annuals at his home and those who own one can get it at his house, it was stated by the Superintendent.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Brookshier were in Lubbock Tuesday.

Lee H. McMurtry and Roy Brown returned Monday night from Kansas where they have been in wheat harvest.

MONTAGUE DISCHARGED

Lt. (jg) Merle J. Montague, son of Dan N. Montague, has been discharged from the Navy at San Francisco, according to word reaching the News this week.

Methodist Revival to Begin on August 4th

Rev. W. S. Sherill, pastor of the Methodist church at Dimmitt, is scheduled to do the preaching at the local Methodist church when their revival services begin on Sunday, August 4. This meeting, which has been announced and planned for well over a year is expected to attract a large audience. Rev. Oscar Bruce, pastor of the Lockney Methodist church, who is a well-known song leader, will be in charge of the singing, and will also work with the young people during the meeting.

Rev. H. W. Barnett, pastor of the local church says, "a cordial invitation is extended to the public to take part in these services."

HOLDING MUSIC SCHOOL

According to Rev. G. A. Elrod a music school is being started at the First Baptist church this week. Mrs. Ida Lou Glaze is to be the teacher. Everyone is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Coffee were attending business in Amarillo Tuesday.

State Health Officer Appeals to Women To Become Nurses

Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer, is appealing to young women high school graduates to seriously consider the public health nursing profession as a career, when re-entering school this fall.

"Public health nursing offers young women opportunities for lifetime careers which are highly useful and satisfactory. Demands for professional nurses now exceed the supply in public health and other fields of work," Dr. Cox said. "Possibilities of travel, varied experience, income, and other features of the profession compare very favorably with those open to women in other careers."

Education for nursing is available in 37 schools in Texas and enrollment is now under way for fall classes, which open about September 1. All schools still have vacancies. Applicants should be graduates of high school or have some college credit, with a record of good scholastic standing, be in good physical condition, and of high moral character. An interest in people and their problems, also ability to work well with one's hands is necessary.

Prerequisite training in public health nursing includes a 36 month course including vacations. Medical, surgical, obstetric, pediatric, psychiatric and communicable disease nursing are studied. Completion of courses entitles the individual to the diploma of the School and to take state board examinations leading to the R. N. certificate.

Details regarding nursing education can be secured from hospitals, physicians, nurses' organizations and local health departments, as well as the Texas state department of health.

Mrs. McCain Again In the Cafe Business

Mrs. N. C. McCain is again in the cafe business in Silverton. Former owner of the Corner Cafe, before it was moved to its present location and re-named the City Cafe, she took over management again this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Toler, who have been managers of the business, moved it to its present location a short time back, and then sold out to Mrs. McCain because, Mr. Toler said, "we feel that she is better qualified to serve the people of this section with good meals." Mrs. McCain is an excellent cook, and invites the people of this section to drop in and try her meals anytime.

Rev. and Mrs. G. A. Elrod spent from Tuesday until Thursday in Terrell, Oklahoma. Rev. Elrod was called to conduct a funeral.

World Awaits Second Test of the Atomic Bomb

ABOARD USS APPALACHIAN OPERATIONS CROSSROADS.—Second or Baker test of the atomic bomb in Bikini lagoon, now tentatively set for July 25, will be like dynamiting fish in a pond.

Lacking will be the glamour of the army air force and precision bombing as the whole thing will be a navy show. The bomb will be submerged some 75 feet beneath the surface in about 30 fathoms of water, 180 feet, and detonated in the midst of the target fleet, which is being regrouped to meet new conditions of the test.

This second test will also lack the drama of the bomb burst and the atomic cloud, which is characteristic of atomic bombs exploded in air. What is likely to happen is that the intense heat will generate steam in the water and the terrific force will expend a part of its energy in a waterspout with a cloud of steam and vapor shoot-

"BEAN HUNT" ISN'T ENJOYED BY MRS. KATE FOWLER

Monday of this week, Mrs. Kate Fowler, owner of the Silverton hotel, spent rather a hectic day touring and walking over West Texas looking for green beans. After much time was wasted in the vicinity of Silverton the hunt came to a close when Mrs. Fowler found 'em — at Muleshoe.

After purchasing 200 pounds of the fresh crop which was gathered that afternoon in the field, Mrs. Fowler returned home, thus ending a very successful "bean hunt." "Now it's all over but the canning, thank goodness," Mrs. Fowler said.

Surplus Hospital Equipment To Sell

Approximately $20,000 worth of miscellaneous hospital equipment will be sold by war assets administration at fixed prices from July 19 to August 9. Hamilton Morton, Fort Worth WAA regional director announced Wednesday.

The equipment is being offered to reconstruction finance corporation buying for small business, states, political subdivisions and instrumentalities and non-profit institutions. Orders will be filed in that sequence of priority. The items have already been offered to the higher priority groups.

Orders will be received until midnight, July 19, after which they will be filed according to date of order within the priority groups. No order will be accepted for less than $25, it was announced.

Grocery Ownership Changes This Week

Announcement of the ownership of the Bomar and Gilkeyson grocery is made this week. True Burson and Wayne Crawford are the new owners, according to announcement by Jim Bomar and Luther Gilkeyson. The business, which was established by Bomar and Gilkeyson a number of years ago has been operated under the name of B & G Grocery, and will now be known as the B & C Grocery.

A word of thanks from the former owners, as well as an invitation from the new owners is carried in another part of this week's News. Mr. and Mrs. Dillard Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Tiffin, H. T. Copeland, Mrs. J. S. Fisher, and Mrs. Peyton Legg attended an Eastern Star chapter meeting in Quitaque Monday night.

Victor and Dianne Fogerson are visiting their grandparents in Matador this week.

Miss Opal Cross and Miss Lella Graham are Amarillo residents now. They moved Sunday.

Saturday night at 7:00 p. m., when the polls close, the 1946 Democratic Primary will be over, and many candidates who have been making a concerted effort to garner votes, will be awaiting the count from the election judges that will determine the winners.

In Briscoe county a number of the officials will be determined since there are only two candidates. The only exception is in Commissioners' Precinct 3, where Alton Steele, P. D. Jasper, and W. A. Holt are making the race. If no one of the three receives a majority there will be a run-off. The state representative race also has three candidates, they are Joe W. Jennings, Tom W. Deen, and I. B. Holt.

Voting Places Named

Eight voting precincts in Briscoe county will be open from 8:00 in the morning until 7:00 in the evening. The voting places and the presiding officers are as follows:

- Precinct 1—County Judge's office, Lee Deavenport, presiding judge.
- Precinct 2—Quitaque school house, E. W. Scheid, presiding judge.
- Precinct 3—Rock Creek school house, U. D. Brown, presiding judge.
- Precinct 4—San Jacinto school house, Ed McMurtry, presiding judge.
- Precinct 5—Antelope school house, Henry Eden, presiding judge.
- Precinct 6—Gasoline school house, Boone McCracken, presiding judge.
- Precinct 7—County Attorney's office, D. T. Northcutt, presiding judge.
- Precinct 8—Sheriff's office, W. R. Hardin, presiding judge.

State Ticket Long

One of the longest ballots ever to face the voters at a Primary election will be seen Saturday as a result of the many names on the state ballot. Fourteen persons are making the race for Governor. Five names are on the ballot for United States Senator, and the same number for Lieutenant Governor. There are possibilities of run-offs for Commissioner of Agriculture, Railroad Commissioner, and Judge, Court of Criminal Appeals, because there are more than two candidates for these offices.

Two candidates are running for both District Judge and District Attorney, but no run off will be required in these races.

The voter of the county have been urged by every candidate, as well as by many friends, to be sure and cast their ballot on Saturday, and it is expected that an exceptionally large vote will be tabulated.

Stores Again Close Early During Week

A number of the establishments in Silverton that began staying open later each afternoon during the harvest, have again announced their intention of closing at 5:30 each week-day afternoon. It has been the custom of these stores to close at this hour, but the later hour was set during harvest to allow people more time in the evening for making their necessary purchases.

The new closing hours will become effective next Monday evening.

Early days in Texas are described by Mike Campbell of Stamford, well-known newspaperman:

"My maternal grandparents settled at Dresden, Navarro County, in 1844, on land granted them by the Republic of Texas. Our family still has that old document with Anson Jones' signature. The settlers made annual trips to Houston, in wagons drawn by oxen, for supplies, usually taking two months to make the round trip. There was not a fence between Dresden and Houston, except rail and brush fences around small fields and corrals.

"In those days wild horses, cattle and wolves roved over the prairies. Prairie chickens were plentiful.

"My grandfather owned a slave who made all the shoes and boots. Cowhides were of the utmost use in the early days. They furnished shoes, harness, bull whips, chair bottoms and hinges for doors, and sometimes vessels for carrying water were made of leather.

"The Meltons were also early settlers in that section. Ethan Melton married my grandmother's sister. My great uncle, John Welch, told me of the Battle of Santa Anna. He related:

"Deaf Smith and I had been looking after some pack miles, and as we walked up to where General Houston lay, some of the boys led up a Mexican, dressed in the uniform of a private, facing the general. The Mexican made a sign with his hand and General Houston answered with his hand. About that time, some other Mexican prisoners exclaimed, 'El Presidente! El Presidente!' Then we knew we had Santa Anna."

"Nestling in a little valley north of old Dresden lies the Melton cemetery, fringed with wild plum and persimmon thickets. There sleep pioneers, including my maternal grandparents. The song of the mockingbird may be heard in the stately elms but no more do the mournful howl of the timber wolf and the haunting notes of the horned owl boom out in the dark hours of the night. Yes, in North America, frontiers have vanished forever."

Mrs. Shafe Weaver went to Lubbock to meet her husband, who came by plane from San Antonio to attend his brothers' funeral at Brownfield.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Smith spent last week end in Dallas visiting Mrs. Smith's brother, Zack Garwin and Mr. Smith's mother, Mrs. J. O. Smith, also of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Moten Vaughap of Weatherford, Texas have been visiting Mr. Ed Vaughap and other relatives for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Comer returned to Amarillo Tuesday after visiting with relatives here.

Mrs. J. E. Hall of Lubbock was a visitor of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bingham week before last.

Mr. and Mrs. Doc Brown visited relatives here Sunday.

ATOMIC BOMB—

create waves of sufficient height, possibly 10 or more feet which will sweep over low-lying Bikini island, although this was also forecast in the first blast and did not materialize.

Meantime, endless arguments proceed as to the degree of damage to the ships, the location of the bomb burst, whether the drop from the plane was a "near miss," probable loss of life had the ships been manned with full complement, and comparative efficiency of this first Bikini bomb as compared to the bombs at Alamogordo, Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

Precision Bombing

When it is considered that this bomb was dropped from a height of something like six miles and hit within a 1,000-yard circle, this reporter would consider that pretty good precision bombing.

Adm. T. A. Solberg of the bureau of ships, however, declared that insofar as he could judge, every ship damaged by the bomb, with the exception of the Independence, could be put into fighting shape within two or three months.

For the Independence, battered and ripped apart by explosions of her own torpedoes, her ammunition and aviation gasoline and burning for almost two days, it would take about nine months to put her in shape.

Also all ships damaged, with the single exception of the Independence, towed away and anchored far out in the lagoon, likely could have pulled away under their own steam, had they been manned with crews.

Study Effects

In the meantime, Bikini lagoon has been turned into a vast laboratory of science, chief interest being the effect of the bomb and its subsequent radiological rays upon the live animals placed aboard the ships at various locations likely to be occupied by the men aboard. Amazingly, only about 10 per cent of the animals were killed by the force of the blast. Some are burned and sick and others may become ill from effects of radioactivity. As a matter of fact, a few already have been destroyed by medical doctors, who are studying this phase of atomic energy in an effort to determine how this radioactivity can be used in medicine in treatment of disease.

Persons or animals which receive these powerful rays into their systems are variously affected and the boarding teams upon these ships are preceded by a trained man carrying a "Geiger counter," a small box-like apparatus which registers radioactivity by a ticking noise.

Estimate Losses

A fleet such as those which composed the target fleet would normally carry approximately 30,000 men. It is reasonable to assume then that approximately 10 per cent, or 3,000 men, would have been killed by the atomic bomb blast and that more would have been injured by radioactivity. Whether much of the damage to ships caused by subsequent fires aboard could have been averted had crews been aboard is a moot question. Some ship captains declare that damage would

Stovall is Elected President of Bar

Richard F. Stovall, District Attorney of the 110th Judicial District, of Floydada, was elected President of the District and County Attorneys' Association of Texas at the 7th annual convention of the State Bar of Texas held in San Antonio, July 1, 2, and 3. Other officers elected were Esco Walter, District Attorney at Abilene, Vice President; Bill Allen, District Attorney of Hamilton, Secretary; and Robert Long, County Attorney of Comanche County, Treasurer.

Mr. Stovall is the first District Attorney in West Texas ever to be elected President of the Association. He was appointed District Attorney in 1943 by Governor Coke R. Stevenson and elected to the office in 1944.

Richard F. Stovall has been a citizen of Floyd County for 26 years. He is a graduate of the Floydada Public Schools, and after graduation from Floydada High School, he attended Texas Tech and The University of Texas.

Mr. Stovall taught in the Floydada Public Schools from 1929 to 1934. In 1935 he was appointed Official Court Reporter of the 110th Judicial District by Judge A. J. Folley. He has participated in every criminal case that has been tried in the four counties of the 110th Judicial District since 1935 either as Official Court Reporter or prosecuting attorney. He has been much less than the ship fire-fighting equipment been brought into play, and this seems reasonable in that most of the loss on the Independence was due to fire and explosion and not the bomb blast.

There is no attempt however on the part of naval authorities to minimize the terrible power of this atomic bomb. No other single bomb ever did the damage to a fleet that this one did. . . . five ships sunk, one completely out of commission and approximately 10 others out of action for two months or longer, and small to negligible damage done to 10 others.

It must be remembered that whatever is said about this second bomb test before the actual test is in the realm of conjecture, and much of the conjecture made prior to the first test did not materialize.

has been active in the practice of law since 1938, being licensed in all State and Federal Courts and enrolled to practice before United States District Court.

Mr. Stovall married Helen, former teacher of Home Economics in Floydada High School in 1930. They have three children, Robert and Van. He has been active in civic, fraternal, religious circles for many years, being a past president of the Floydada Rotary Club, a Shriner.

Careful preparation of hard work, thorough investigation of facts and vigorous prosecution of criminal cases by District Attorney Stovall has resulted in a record of conviction in 98 per cent of all criminal cases tried in the district since he has been District Attorney.

It's A Privilege and A Duty

Saturday the people of Texas go to the polls to vote for their governmental officials. Ballots will be cast for office seekers from the precincts on up to the highest office in the state. But there will be no one at the polls that will demand that the voter cast a certain type of ballot. There will be no coercion, everyone will be given a ballot that they can mark as they please and when it goes into the ballot box no one else will know for whom they voted. How different this is from many nations of the world.

This is the American way—the only way—by which the people of the world can ever become free, and remain free. The open ballot, on which any person may place his name, if he desires, and be elevated to office by receiving the majority of the votes cast, is truly American, and we want to ever keep it that way.

We would not be human if we did not say that we DO care how you vote. We naturally would like to see our favored candidates win and want you to vote like we do. But above that, we are American, and want you to vote regardless of who you vote for, because we feel certain that America will ever remain free so long as the people are allowed to go to the polls and cast their ballot according to their own dictates.

So we say it is not only a privilege that you have of voting, but it is a duty that you owe to your children and our children's children. Let's keep America the country that our forefathers dreamed of—Let's cast a ballot Saturday.

The People Pay All The Cost

Despite many theories to the contrary, the Seattle Times observes, "The government of a nation is wholly dependent upon the people for financial support. . . . Government produces nothing. People pay the costs of their government—all the costs."

The Times describes the enormous inroads made by government into the pocketbooks of the people. In the early days, the government found sufficient support in indirect taxation—the duties, imports and excises" specified by the Constitution. Then came direct taxation in the form of the income tax, with its steadily ascending rates. After that came the withholding tax idea—under which a certain proportion of each worker's weekly or monthly pay check is paid into the Federal Treasury to support some service or other. The Social Security law which, as the Times says, is based on the premise that "all the people were too unthrifty to provide for their own welfare and old age," is the prize example of this.

Now the country is threatened with one more bite in the form of the proposed, compulsory National Health Bill, generally known as the Wagner-Murray-Dingell Bill. To quote the Times again, "The President, some members of Congress and some government agencies have decided that the people, as a whole, are unable to take care of their health, and government must do it for them. . . ."

"After the health bill, the logical succession of laws must be for more pay roll withholding to provide the balanced diet, the proper apparel, and the right kind of homes for all the people—all to be prescribed by government.

"What the government may try to do from there on is anybody's guess; but the safest guess is that by that time there will be nothing more of earned income to withhold."

If the American people are at least ready to admit that they are completely incapable of caring for themselves, and for making their own decisions as free agents, government will of course step in and order our lives. And, if the American people accept that premise, everything the country stood for, everything that made the country great—private opportunity and personal liberty—is irretrievably gone.

What Is Your Goal?

Policies definitely destructive to free enterprise are destructive to our liberties. Size has nothing to do with this question. The man who runs his own shoe-shine stand is a capitalist, no less than the man who runs an automobile factory. Great industries which serve America today developed from small beginnings. The young man with an idea, working in the back room of his home, may be the head of a great corporation tomorrow.

"Now, really, Private Smith, would you come to me with a trivial complaint like this in civilian life?"
"No, Captain, I'd send for you!"

All truly wise thoughts have been thought already thousands of times; but to make them truly ours we must think them over again honestly, till they take root in our personal experience.—Goethe.

And then there was the engineering freshman who thought steel wool was the fleece from a hydraulic ram.

Shivers Says There Will Be No Run-off

There will be no run-off in the nomination of the lieutenant governor, says Allan Shivers, candidate for that office.

Shivers said that during the past week he became convinced that he would receive a majority vote on primary day because "the people are insisting that political offices be filled by qualified and competent men." Shivers has been a member of the Texas senate for 12 years, and says he is qualified by experience to become its presiding officer.

During the past week Shivers, dean of the Texas senate, urged a program of state economy and refused to enter into a controversy being conducted by two opponents over which has and can do the most for the veterans of Texas. Shivers is the only war veteran in the race. This was in addition to his platform of long public service, experience and his past record, which is open to public inspections at all times.

Many Texans Will Die From Walking Says Safety Ass'n.

This year approximately 360 Texans will "walk themselves to death," predicts the Texas safety association. For the most part, they will walk with the traffic and will come from behind parked cars to be struck down. Others will meet death while crossing at intersections against the signal and while crossing diagonally across the street. These predictions are based on totals for the first six months of the current year in consideration of newly developing tendencies in the pedestrian accident field.

Pedestrian fatalities increase around the hour of sunset in all seasons of the year. The greatest number during the summer months is between 7 p. m. and 8 p. m. The Saturday and Sunday toll constitutes approximately 50 per cent of the total pedestrian accidents.

Mrs. Warner Reid entertained with bridge Saturday afternoon in honor of Mr. Reid's sister, Mrs. W. W. Tucker of San Angelo. Iced refreshments were served to Mesdames O. T. Bundy, Troy Burson, John Bain, James Patton, Ted Reid, G. W. Lee and the honoree.

NOTICE — Silvertown, Masonic Lodge No. 754 will have its regular meeting Tuesday, Aug. 13, at 8:00 p. m. All masters urged to attend. 11-tfc

Globe-News Says Jester is Best Man

Beauford Jester is in our opinion, the most outstanding man in the governor's race.

The Globe-News does not presume to tell the people of the Panhandle how to vote in the Democratic primary of July 27. In our democratic country we have the secret ballot so that any man or woman can vote exactly as he or she pleases and without any other person knowing how the ballot is marked. But we do feel that it is the inherent duty of newspapers to present unbiased facts on political personalities and campaigns. The election of public officials is an important privilege with which everyone should be concerned.

Since the beginning of the current campaigns we have carefully studied the background, the character, the personality and the public service record of each leading candidate in the race for governor. We have talked personally with all the major candidates. We have watched the campaigns and checked carefully the campaign promises.

With the exception of Grover Sellers, Beauford Jester is the only man who is not singing a hymn of hate. But Mr. Sellers has lowered the dignity of his present office and the one he seeks by stooping to worn-out campaign methods. He came to high state office mainly by accident. He and Gerald Mann grew up in the same town, Sulphur Springs. Mr. Mann was elected to the office of attorney general. He thereupon named his hometown friend as one of his assistants. When Mr. Mann decided to resign the office, he specifically designated Mr. Sellers as his successor; he would not resign until he was assured of the appointment by the governor of Mr. Sellers.

Then, in 1944, Mr. Sellers, in winning his first election to the state office, made none too impressive a campaign against a weak opponent.

We find no fault with Mr. Sellers, his sincerity or honesty; but we find no distinction whatsoever. In his campaign he has been promising everything that seems likely to get votes from individuals and groups.

On the other hand, Beauford Jester has a distinguished record of unselfish public service. He is clean, upright, friendly, with a native, jovial dignity that marks him of high caliber. Moreover, he is not singing a hymn of hate. He represents no extreme group; he is against no group. He is not attempting to stir up hatred and distrust and confusion by yelling to high heaven for or against any group, or groups.

Of course, there are persons who have disagreed with decisions Mr. Jester has made as a public official; this happens to every man in public office and to every individual in his work. But no man has even intimated a thought against Mr. Jester's fairness, honesty and righteousness. His character is without blemish.

Hate and confusion can do Texas no good. But some of the candidates for governor are going about the state singing the bitterest of hymns of hate. Such a thing makes for a dramatic campaign; it attracts attention. It may bring crowds to political rallies. But what can it do, constructively, for the almost 10 million Texans? We don't want group clashing with group. We don't want hate; all it can do is breed more hate. We are one people.

Mr. Jester wants to represent all of us. He hasn't promised the world with a fence around it. All of us know from experience that campaign promises are designed only to snare votes; all of us know that seldom does even a small percentage of campaign promises develop into reality.

All of us know that we, as taxpayers, must foot the bill for everything the state does, even to the using of a 1-cent stamp.

Mr. Jester offers a sensible and constructive program of progress which he, with the help of the legislature, could develop without hate and confusion.

There is no doubt that Mr. Jester could work more effectively with the legislature and other departments of the state than any other man in the race. He has the experience, the character and the desire for public service.

The Beldon Poll shows that Mr. Jester's popularity is rising rapidly and that some of the other candidates are losing strength. On the basis of this accurate testing of the opinion of voters, it is obvious that Mr. Jester is rapidly gaining strength with his constructive campaigning.

All voters have the full right to disagree with The Globe-News. We do not seek to influence voters, but simply to present the facts just as fairly and honestly as possible. It is our duty to our readers to do this. It is the honest thing to come out without reservation on issues like this. Winning on a band-wagon never makes the heart feel just right.—The Amarillo Globe-News.

Many Organizations Are Eligible To Buy Surplus Properties

Veteran organizations, churches, religious institutions and certain other non-profit civic organizations will be permitted where feasible to buy government surplus property at the same price as small retailers, the War Assets administration has announced.

Because these organizations function generally in the public interest assisting with veteran's problems and community welfare, they will be afforded a reasonable opportunity to fulfill their needs from surplus at the commercial level, provided that their orders can be handled without interference with normal disposal practices, WAA said.

Heretofore, such organizations were not permitted to buy surplus property because they do not operate in "normal channels of trade" and are not included in the group of scientific educational, public health, public welfare, charitable or eleemosynary institutions defined in SPA regulation 14. Under the new ruling, these buyers are held to be ultimate consumers as defined in special order 24.

John Lee Smith Has Progressive Platform

The people of Texas are entitled to a frank statement of program and principles from those who would serve in public office. The candidate who refuses to make such a statement, or who, by subterfuge, avoids an honest commitment of his position is either incompetent or dishonest, and in either instance is unworthy of public support.

I submit the following as the program upon which I shall base my candidacy for Governor:

1. No nation can be free that does not have free jobs—jobs unfettered by the whim of a job-seller, be he a capitalist or a labor boss. I therefore advocate the "open shop"—open to all in search of employment and closed to no man who seeks to win his bread by the sweat of his brow.

2. The ex-service man must be given preference on all jobs, both public and private. If we could make him 1-A in order to fight, we should be decent enough to make him 1-A in order to work. His honorable discharge should be the only requirement for employment. It should not be made secondary to a union card.

3. Some seven hundred thousand Texans served in this war. A Veterans State Employment Commission should be created to aid these men and women in seeking and finding employment. If we could help them find a job to fight (and we did!) we should help the find a job to be self-supporting citizens.

4. Every state school should be authorized by proper appropriation to make provision for the absolutely free education of every ex-service man and woman. This will perhaps mean a supplement to the Federal grant for this purpose but the state can better afford a grant for a soldier's education than it can to support him in unemployment! It is a shame that Washington (the U. S. Government) has offered to pay him $65.00 per month to secure an education but provides $80.00 per month to pay him a dole during his idleness!

5. High taxes take money from business that should go into jobs, therefore taxes must be kept as low as possible in order to provide for more jobs. I have usually opposed high taxes both as a member of the Senate and as Lieutenant Governor. However, I have never hesitated to vote for additional taxes when I considered it to be necessary for the state's welfare. My record must speak for itself.

6. When people need money the government should not take that money to give to office holders and public employees, therefore economy should be the watchword of the state government. Every possible step should be taken to save public funds.

7. Old Age pensions should be paid in full to all those in need, but it is a crime to rob the needy old ones by paying millions of their money to those who are not in need. If we are to be fair to the needy aged this evil must be corrected. I shall strive to put an end to this outrage if I am elected Governor. If this is done there is now sufficient revenue available to pay every old age pensioner the full amount due him without increasing taxes.

Ample aid to the blind and dependent children should be made possible. This is a duty the state must not evade.

8. Our gas resources must be conserved. Legislation requiring the removal of valuable hydrocarbon from wet gas before use would save hundreds of millions of dollars in wealth to the state. All gas now being lost in burning flares should be used for re-pressuring purposes or should be recycled for the removal of hydrocarbons.

9. Productive land is our greatest natural resources. Due to soil erosion millions of acres of our finest land has been lost. This great resource can be recovered (unlike oil and gas) by the proper care and treatment of the soil. The state should aid and encourage farmers and ranchers in every possible way in the conservation of the soil which God has given us to feed a hungry world.

10. Once Texas possessed more than thirty million acres of the finest forests on the earth. Today we have less than twelve million acres of productive pinelands but by proper care and by the pursuit of scientific plans of re-forestation this great domain of timber wealth may be recovered. It is my purpose to see that this is done.

11. Every educational advantage should be given to the children of Texas—education in the sense of decency, propriety and efficiency—and upon the basis of a Christian democracy. But it is also the prerogative and the duty of the state to protect its childhood from the base propaganda of those irresponsible persons who would make of our children but poor chattels of a socialist state—victims of the intellectual frauds of un-godly and un-holy advocates of communism and fascism. God is the first and last law. Any theory of government that discounts His power or His influence becomes an enemy of all things decent. In these troubled times we must not forget the motto that in the beginning we stamped upon our coins—"In God We Trust." Let us not hesitate to invoke that same protection for our public school system.

12. Labor strife is a form of war. As civilized men we should strive to abolish every form of war and strife. Strikes are costly to both labor and capital as well as to the general public. Industrial disputes should be settled by law and not by violence. I therefore advocate the creation of a Labor Claims Court with full authority to settle the claims of labor for higher wages, better working conditions, shorter hours, etc. Such a court would make the strike unnecessary. It is a fairer and better way for both capital and labor, and it is a protection to the general public. Progress dares by faith to try the things that ought to be.

13. I propose that a Legislative redistricting bill be made the first order of business of the next Legislature.

—JOHN LEE SMITH.

ALTON STEELE

Candidate for COUNTY COMMISSIONER
Precinct No. 3

To The People of Precinct 4 and Briscoe County

As you know, since the beginning of our Democracy and the United States, the people have enjoyed freedom of religion, speech and press, and the right to vote for the people of their choice, to serve and represent them in maintaining and carrying on our government, and, even though our Democracy may not be perfect, none of us would trade it for any other government that exists.

The vote of the people is what makes our Democracy work. Without the vote of the people it would cease to exist, therefore, I believe, it is especially true, in our present day world, that each of us is obligated to our community, precinct, county, state, nation and the world, to exercise and promote our freedom by voting.

If you, the people, see fit to re-elect me to serve you as County Commissioner, Precinct Four, I wish to assure you your influence and your vote will be appreciated.

Yours truly,

Had to prop herself up on pillows. Recently this lady got INNER-AID and now says gas is gone, stomach feels fine, bowels are regular and she can go to bed and sleep soundly.

ALLAN SHIVERS IS FULLY QUALIFIED

Senator Allan Shivers is the only candidate for lieutenant governor who has the experience and qualifications that are so badly needed to properly preside over the Texas Senate, the lieutenant governor's chief function. Allan Shivers gained this experience through 12 years of service as a senator, interrupted only by two years overseas duty with the Army. He is also the only war veteran seeking the lieutenant governor's office.

VOTE FOR ALTON B. CHAPMAN FOR District Judge BECAUSE:

1. His record is not surpassed by any District Judge in Texas. This fact was recognized in his election as President of the State Judiciary for 1943-44, the only time in the history of Texas a West Texas Judge has been accorded this honor.
2. He has saved jurors hundreds of man hours and the counties thousands of dollars by not calling juries except when absolutely necessary.
3. He has had the Legislature pass a continuous terms bill that keeps court in session all the time in all four counties, thus speeding litigation and making it unnecessary to wait from one term to another to file and try a law suit.
4. In addition to doing all the work in this district he has, without any pay, held court in 10 other counties outside of this district. In Lubbock County alone he held court for six months consecutively, with a saving to the State of $2,500.00 in salary.
5. His consideration for jurors, their comforts, welfare and excuses from service has made him respected and appreciated by all men who have been called for jury service.
6. He has run a clean race, strictly on his own merits and qualifications.

Arranged and paid for by Briscoe County friends who want to keep experience and proven efficiency in the district judge's office.

This ballot is printed for you with the compliments of N. R. "Jake" Honea, who is asking for your influence and vote as a proven servant as Sheriff, Assessor, and Collector. It will be appreciated very much if you will

We have no idea that profits were eliminated from the productive processes that enabled the nation to win the war but there is no reason why heavy taxation should not keep some of it rolling into the Treasury for the purpose of paying the national debt.

LIFE IS A constant 3-ring circus to George A. Hamid, who is this year celebrating his 40th anniversary in show business in this country. Hamid made his American theatrical debut as a member of Buffalo Bill's Wild Show in 1906. Since then he has amassed more amusement enterprises than Buffalo Bill ever dreamed of. As president of Atlantic City Steel Pier; owner of Hamid's Million Dollar Pier, also in Atlantic City; president of the New Jersey State Fair; operator of White City Park, Worcester, Mass., and co-owner of the Hamid-Morton circus besides being the operator of the world's largest booking office for outdoor thrill acts, Hamid is truly "Mr. Show Business."

Our own advise is to save those war bonds. You never know when they will be just what you need in an emergency.

Applications Can Be Made for WAACredit

While the War Assets administration will grant credit for purchase of surplus property, it is charged with the responsibility of protecting the public purse and a strict collection policy has been adopted, according to word received from Washington last week by Hamilton Morton, Fort Worth regional director of WAA.

A reasonable credit policy in keeping with the objectives of the surplus property act of 1944 has been prescribed. All applicants must file formal applications for credit. The fact that a firm is nationally known does not warrant automatic approval of credit without the filing of an application which shows its financial standing.

Installment credit may be extended in selling certain types of durable items which are to be used in the buyer's business and are not intended for resale. Ability to pay is the principal criterion in considering installment credit applications in preference to relying on the resale value of property disposed of by WAA.

Terms for sales on open account credit usually require payment in 30 days, with 60 days allowed for federal agencies and other public bodies.

Under the surplus property act, in the case of raw materials, consumer goods and certain other property, no extension of credit shall be for a longer period than three years. On other types of property, maximum terms for installment credit are administratively fixed at five years. The three and five year periods are outside limitations. In many instances, the terms will be shortened to conform with standard commercial practice.

Allan Shivers Is Only Ex-Serviceman In Lt. Gov. Race

Senator Allan Shivers, only ex-serviceman in the race for Lieutenant Governor, focused attention on war veterans when he opened his campaign in his hometown, Port Arthur.

"I exchanged ideas with fighting men many times in the hard days overseas in Africa, Italy, France and Germany. I know the anxiety and disappointment so many veterans feel today, and I understand and appreciate their problems that are also my own problems," the Jefferson County senator stated.

Although only 38 years old, Senator Shivers is dean of his 12 years service there. The Gulf Coast counties of Jefferson, Hardin, Liberty and Orange made him the youngest senator ever to take the oath of office when he was first sent to the state capitol to represent them in 1934.

"My past 12 years experience in the state senate enables me to preside over the legislative body, which is one of the main duties of Lieutenant-Governor," Senator Shivers pointed out.

Listed as his aims when elected Lieutenant-Governor, Senator Shivers named consideration of war veterans problems, higher salaries for teachers, better farm-to-market roads, reorganization of the pardon and parole system of the state.

He pointed out that he proposed and sponsored a farm-to-market road program for every county in Texas during the last session of

Chapman Has An Enviably Record As District Judge

One of the outstanding records in the illustrious history of the judiciary of Texas has been made by our own district judge, Alton B. Chapman. The efficiency and dispatch with which he has operated the court has been recognized by his fellow judges in their selection of him as President of the State Judiciary for 1943-44. This organization is composed of all District and Appellate Judges, including the members of the State Supreme Court. The selection of Judge Chapman as President was the first time the honor has ever been accorded a judge in West Texas.

The most criticism that has been leveled at the courts through the years has been the slowness with which they have operated. Our present district judge has been wholly responsible for remedying this situation. In a trip to Austin at his own expense he helped prepare and pass through the legislature a Continuous Terms Bill by which court is in session in all four counties all the time. Instead of having to wait from one term to another a case may be tried in any part of the district now just as soon as service is complete.

Chapman is a tireless worker, as evidenced by the fact that he has held court in ten other counties outside of our own district. This work was not obligatory and he received no extra pay. In Lubbock County alone he held the 99th Court for six months consecutively with a saving to the state of $2,500.00 in salary and without a single appeal from that busy court.

Without regard to the above matters the thing that makes Judge Chapman popular with the people of his district is that he is a regular fellow in every respect. He has spent his 42 years in West Texas and speaks the language of the people of this county and district.

Those visiting in the John Bain home Thursday were Mrs. D. O. Bomar and John Ed Bain of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Colston, and Mrs. Avis Cowart.

the legislature. "The first old-age assistance law placed upon the Texas Statutes was sponsored by Allan Shivers," he reminded.

"I have been a proponent of legislative redistricting since 1937. This must be done and real soon," the senator said, continuing his platform. "I favor a 60-day session of the legislature each year rather than 120 days every other year. I also favor a reduction in the number of legislators and adequate pay for them," he stated.

The senator stated he is asking for promotion upon the basis that he is the only candidate for Lieutenant-Governor who has the experience and qualifications that are so badly needed in order to properly preside over the Texas Senate, the Lieutenant-Governor's chief function.

Sadler Says "Honey-Money Runners" Sent

Jerry Sadler, candidate for governor, charged last week that the honey-money boys had sent runners into every political section of Texas with orders to "Stop Sadler!" Sadler speaking to one of the largest political meetings ever held in Wharton, said that "the princes of privilege were spending the greatest slush fund ever raised in Texas to beat Jerry Sadler."

Sadler charged that the vested interests were opposed to his GI memorial act, which would enable returning veterans and other worthy Texans to purchase a home, a farm, or a ranch with no down payment. He said they were fighting his stand on old age pensions of "Forty dollars or nothing." Other planks in his platform which the minions of monopoly are opposed to, Sadler said, "are the increased pay for teachers, the building of 170,000 miles of farm-to-market roads, and increased health facilities for all Texas."

"They're against me," Sadler said, "because they know that I will do what I say I'll do, and that I will not be controlled from the plush offices of the honey-money boys, or from air-conditioned hotel rooms."

"The honey-money boys perpetrated the fraud on the old folks when they got the Constitution

Dairy Cow Feed Bargains Continue To Be Available

"Feed bargains for dairy cows still are available and most of them can and should be home grown," comes this statement from G. G. Gibson, dairyman for the A. and M. college extension service, who advises that now is the time to lay in ample roughage supplies to fall back on when pastures play out.

Digestible nutrients are the part of the feeds that the cow uses to maintain her body and to make milk. The common ones can be grouped as proteins, fats, and nitrogen free extract (mainly sugar and starch). Minerals and vitamins are important but are not included under digestible nutrients.

Every feed contains digestible nutrients. The job of feeding dairy cows is to supply the right kind and amount as well as low cost nutrients.

Analysis of the pounds of digestible nutrients that can be furnished for one dollar at average prices from dairy feed, hay, silage and pasture shows that pasture is by far the cheapest with 150 pounds total digestible nutrients for one dollar. Silage is the second less expensive with 60 pounds digestible nutrients per dollar and hay follows closely with 50. Dairy feed brings only 21 pounds total digestible nutrients per dollar.

"The feeds that the cow was built to handle furnish the nutrients at low cost. The successful dairyman does just as much as possible of the job of feeding with cheap nutrients keeping in mind that each of the above mentioned feeds has an important place in any feeding program," Mr. Gibson said.

Stapleton Cites His Record For Voters

John B. Stapleton of Floydada, candidate for District Attorney, served Floyd County as County Attorney for three and one-half years before entering the Army in May, 1942. He was re-elected to a third term after he was in the Armed Forces but resigned the office so someone else could be appointed since he could not be there to fill the office.

As County Attorney John Stapleton made an outstanding record. He lost only one case out of more than 500 prosecuted, and not one complaint, information or indictment which he drew was ever quashed. But John says he is much prouder of the commonsense manner in which he conducted the County Attorney's office than he is of any record of cases won or lost.

On Juvenile Delinquency

As County Attorney John Stapleton worked and co-operated with all the officials. He took care of all juvenile delinquency problems, and it was necessary to send only one boy to the reform school during his administration. That boy was from out of the state and had a long record of automobile thefts and armed robberies. "I hated to see that boy go", Stapleton said, "but there was nothing else that could be done in his case. I am happy to say that we were able to help and straighten out all the other boys who got into trouble. I always try to make a good citizen out of a boy rather than send him to reform school."

While he was County Attorney of Floyd County, John Stapleton worked with every grand jury. He assisted the District Attorney in preparing and prosecuting every felony case. He knows the duties of the District Attorney's office and he has prepared himself to handle these duties.

Native West Texan

Stapleton is a native West Texan, having been born at Dimmitt, in 1908. He is one of a family of seven children. His father, Dr. G. J. Stapleton, was a country doctor who died at Lockney, in 1918. His mother still lives in Lockney. In 1941, John married Bernice Patton of Floydada. Estes Woodburn, an early day Briscoe County resident, whose family ran the old Woodburn Hotel in Silverton many years ago, is John's brother-in-law.

John Stapleton is a graduate lawyer. He was educated at the West Texas State College, Canyon the University of Texas, and the South Texas School of Law at Houston. He won his law degree the hard way by working and paying his own way through law school. He has been a practicing lawyer since 1938.

War Veteran

John Stapleton entered the Army in May, 1942, and served for three years and eight months, first in the infantry and later in the anti-aircraft artillery. He spent more than twenty-eight months with combat units under McArthur's command in the Southwest Pacific. He returned to the States last Christmas and is again practicing law in Floydada and seeking promotion to the District Attorney's office.

"It has been my ambition for a long time to serve the folks of this district as their District Attorney", John Stapleton says, "and now I am hoping they will help me climb this next rung up the ladder. In return I will serve them faithfully and devotedly in the District Attorney's office."

Mesdames Florence Fogerson and Ware Fogerson and children, Victor, Dianne, and Stanley, spent Saturday in Canyon with Mrs. J. D. McElroy. Mrs. Long accompanied them and remained to visit her sister, Mrs. McElroy of that city.

Mrs. A. C. Arnold of Melrose, New Mexico visited her sons, A. D. Arnold, Arthur Arnold here and Porter Arnold of Spur recently.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Steele are the parents of a baby boy born Saturday at the Tullia Hospital. The baby weighed 7 1/2 lbs. and was named Raymond Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. Porter Arnold of Spur visited their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mack Walker, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Comer and Mrs. Wylie Bomar returned Sunday from a trip to Colorado and New Mexico.

Mrs. Pearl Simpson and Lee Bomar spent Wednesday in Tullia with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Shives and Billy.

VOTE FOR

Edwin H. Boedeker

FOR

DISTRICT JUDGE

We, citizens of Dickens County, are proud of the record Edwin H. Boedeker has made as our county judge and we want him elected District Judge. He is worthy and merits a promotion. We know him

AS A STUDENT:

He has an honorable record in college and graduated with a B.A. Degree.

He received an LL.B. degree in law from Baylor University and while a senior student made the highest grade in Constitutional Law and was given an award for this accomplishment.

He is licensed to practice law in Federal and all the State Courts.

AS COUNTY JUDGE:

He cut the general expenditures of Dickens County $3,000.00 the first year he was in office; during his administration $110,500.00 bonded indebtedness was paid off; the county kept on a cash basis, reserves built up in various funds all without raising tax valuations.

He had passed for the county court of Dickens county a continuous term law in 1941; a similar law was passed by the Legislature for the District Court of Briscoe county two years later, in 1943.

He tried approximately 300 legal cases as County Judge and has had only one appeal from all these decisions.

AS A CITIZEN:

He is cooperative, agreeable and active in civic, church and fraternal organizations.

He is courteous, has a cool even temper and a pleasant disposition.

He is clean in his habits, deep in his convictions, reliable in his dealings, and trustworthy on all issues.

(By Dickens County friends who believe a worthy record deserves a promotion.)

FARM FACTS WORTH KNOWING

Q. How often should eggs be gathered?

A. During warm weather they should be gathered 4 or 5 times daily and less often during cool weather. As soon as the eggs are gathered they should be cooled to remove all animal heat.

Q. Do dairy calves show a greater rate of gain when fed on a dry feeding program or when fed on whole milk?

A. When fed on a dry feeding program. Records at the Ralston Purina Company's Research Farm show that calves raised on a dry feeding program consistently averaged from 25 to 50 lbs. heavier at four months of age than calves raised on a whole milk program at good college and private dairy farms, according to weights reported in Missouri Bulletin 336. Furthermore, this Purina dry feeding program actually costs only about half as much as whole milk feeding.

Q. Do rabbits require salt?

A. Yes. Rabbits require more salt than the quantity normally present in the grain and roughage part of their ration. Salt spoils should be available to them at all times.

Q. In a dressed broiler, is a light or dark yellow skin preferable?

A. The only preference is a consumer preference. Most purchasers prefer the darker color, but there is probably no nutritional difference in the meat.

Q. Will college and university students be permitted to participate in meat judging contests in the near future?

A. Yes. The National Livestock and Meat Board announces that it will again sponsor the intercollegiate meat judging contests at the livestock exhibitions this fall. Teams of animal husbandry and home economics students from colleges and universities will again have the opportunity to put to a practical test the knowledge they have gained in their meat courses.

Large Enrollment At Texas Tech Will Keep Classes Busy

Utilization of every classroom on the Texas Tech campus every hour of the day, with some night classes possible, will be necessary to meet an enrollment next fall expected to be increased 50 per cent over the spring semester. Tech officials have announced.

Laboratory periods will be set for the morning, as well as the afternoon daily, and lecture classes will be scheduled for each period from 8 a. m. until 5 p. m. Prof. W. M. Slagle, chairman of the schedule committee, has announced. In previous terms little laboratory work was done before noon by students mornings generally being assigned to lectures and afternoon to "labs" in all divisions of the college.

"Records show each classroom was used 90 per cent of every day during the morning and 1 p. m. class periods Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays last spring," Slagle said. "The registrar estimates an enrollment of 5,000, Tech's capacity, next fall, as compared with less than 3,300 in the spring," he said and added:

"Assuming enrollment will be up 40 per cent that will mean every classroom must be used every period and laboratory work must be in progress all day. We are seeking to avert night sessions, but these may be necessary if all needed classes are held."

Requests for courses next fall already filled out by prospective students indicate greater demand, also, for scientific and other courses requiring use of laboratories, officials said.

Trading in Silverton is smart provided prices are reasonable. Buyers should give local merchants a chance and efficient merchants ask for nothing more.

Veterans' News

Q. Can a member of the women's armed services obtain medical aid from the Veterans Administration in pregnancy cases?

A. Veterans Administration has ruled that pregnancy is not a disease or a disability but a natural phenomenon or process and therefore is not a responsibility of the government. However, if there are pathological complications, the x-service-woman can receive medical aid.

Q. Can a merchant seaman who is disabled in World War II receive vocational rehabilitation?

A. Not from the Veterans Administration, for the reason that he is not a veteran. He may secure it from the Federal-State rehabilitation program under the Federal Security Administration.

Q. For what purposes may a veteran get a guaranteed loan?

A. To buy, build, repair, alter or improve a home; buy a farm, livestock, equipment or supplies or to acquire working capital; construct a farmhouse or other buildings on a farm; repair, alter or improve a farmhouse or out-buildings; improve farm land or equipment; conduct farming operations; purchase stock in a cooperative association where the purchase of such stock is required by Federal Law in connection with obtaining a farm loan; buy a business; buy a building or land for business purposes; buy business supplies and inventory; buy machinery, tools and equipment for operating a business; construct, repair or improve a business building or personal property; obtain working capital for a business or profession.

A. Yes, under certain conditions. Full information may be secured from the lender or from the local VA loan guarantee officer.

Q. What interest rate is charged?

anteed loan cannot exceed 4 per cent. The interest rate on a non-real estate loan which is to be insured for the lender instead of guaranteed may be as much as 5.70 per cent.

Q. What loans can be insured by VA?

Boedeker Asks For a Promotion to Judge

Edwin H. Boedeker, 39, who is married and has one son, made the following statement when asked to furnish an article for publication in the election edition of the Briscoe County News:

"This is to ask you for your vote in my race for the office of District Judge of the 110th Judicial District consisting of Dickens, Motley, Floyd and Briscoe Counties.

I have seen only a small portion of the people of this District to personally solicit their support, because the duties of the office of county judge have been very demanding and I have tried to discharge them first before traveling over the district promoting my own interests, consequently I have not seen as many people as I would like to, and though I may not have been able to see you personally to ask you for your vote, I want your help and take this means of asking you for it.

"I was born on the plains of Texas and reared on a Floyd county farm. My parents are pioneers in this section of the country and still live in Floyd county. I graduated from Floyd county public schools, received a B. A. degree from the West Texas State College at Canyon, was licensed to practice law by the Supreme Court of Texas in 1938 and graduated with a L.L.B. degree in law from Baylor University in 1939. I have had seven years experience in the practice of law, and by the end of this year will have had six years experience as a trial judge.

"As County Judge I have had brought before me and disposed of approximately 300 legal cases. Out of his number I have had only one appeal. With the training I have had in school, the experience gained in actual practice, and as trial judge of the county court, I have well qualified myself for the promotion to District Judge.

"If elected your district judge, I shall in that office as in the office of county judge, study all controversial cases carefully and deal with them fairly, impartially, honestly and justly. The law in each case will be applied, without favoritism or prejudice, as it is found to be.

"I declined to run again for county judge because I felt that someone else should have a chance, and, too, I am ambitious and want to go higher. The office of District Judge is the next step for me. I believe that the laws of our land should be upheld, the people in their rights protected and their privileges respected. Your right to vote in this race is your privilege and I respect it, and if you do not vote for me, remember that I want your friendship and good will.

"If you vote for Edwin H. Boedeker for District Judge you are voting for a man that has duly and truly prepared himself, is ambitious and seeks a promotion. Your help will be greatly appreciated."

Young people have a hard time understanding the power and influence of money in life; so do most of the older folks.

Texas Magazine Will Make Appearance On Newsstands Soon

For the first time in its journalistic history, Texas will have its own weekly newsmagazine when "Texas Week," published at Austin, makes its initial appearance on newsstands throughout the state, August 9.

Editor and publisher of the new publication is Raymond Holbrook, Plainview, a University of Texas alumnus, class of 1936, who, prior to his enlistment in the Marine Corps in 1942, was State Editor of the Amarillo Globe News. Bruce Collier, also of Plainview, and a college classmate of Holbrook's is the magazine's advertising manager. Business manager is Harry Seeligion of Dallas, where he will be in charge of one of the magazine's branch business offices.

Early this year, Holbrook, Collier and Seeligion banded together a group of veteran Texas newspapermen who, like themselves, were all veterans of World War II, and formed a close corporation. They then leased an old residence at 2005 Guadalupe Street in Austin, equipped it with the best available furniture and typewriters and set up shop. Holbrook tells the story: "It seems we had all been nursing the same newspaperman's dream for a long, long time — a weekly newsmagazine for Texas. We agreed that what Texas needed was a newsmagazine of its own to record its own activities in its own way and each of us felt that Texas was probably the only State in the Union that required and, could and would support such a publication. So, we pitched in the savings we couldn't spend on South Pacific atolls, on beachheads and in fox holes — and the result is "Texas Week."

In size and format, Holbrook said, the new magazine "will resemble 'Time' but will be more profusely illustrated with the week's outstanding news photographs, and like everything else Texxas produces, it will have a unique character all its own.

"In 'Texas Week' we plan to cover every phase of the economic governmental and cultural life of Texas and evaluate the affects of Texan's activities upon the rest of the nation," Holbrook said. "Our editorial staff in Austin, supported by correspondents and photographers strategically situated in key cities throughout the state and in Washington, will enable us to present graphic analyses of the week's vital news of state and local government, labor, industry, business, ranching, books, art and the theatre, plus news from surrounding states and Washington that affects Texas."

Holbrook emphasized "Texas Week" is an "economically and politically independent publication, owned by the men who publish and edit it, and that its news presentation will be objective and impartial — a magazine written and edited by Texans, for Texans and dedicated to the welfare of every inch of Texas expanse."

Other members of the magazine's staff include: John College Station, associate photographer; James A. Amarillo, staff photographer; Robert "Windy" Winn, staff correspondent; Clifford Sage, Dallas, book editor; corps of field correspondents.

The Tom Bomar, Johnson and Wayne Crawford, the Tulla picnic Thursday.

Mrs. Ben Garvin is the daughter, Mrs. C. E. Lufkin, this week.

"Dave" Boyd of the New Ed his parents, Mr. and C. Boyd of Lubbock week end.

A Good Citizen Always Votes

We are giving the major portion of this ad to the promotion of good citizenship.

One of the first attributes of good citizenship after attaining your majority is to go to the polls and vote. Many people fail to take much interest in an election unless it is a Presidential election year. We hope a large number will get out this year and exercise their privilege and vote for the man that they think will make the best officer.

Remember that we have no axe to grind, we are not promoting the interest of any candidate—we are simply urging you to take enough interest in your Government, your County and your neighbor to go to the polls and vote.

While you are in town Saturday for the election don't forget that we have a large stock of Hardware for you to look over.
