

Muleshoe school board lowers tax rates

The Muleshoe Independent School District Board of Trustees voted to lower tax rates by 1/3 cent for the 1994-95 school year during a meeting Monday night. The new tax rate will be $1.2567, compared to $1.26 last year.

MISD Superintendent Bill Moore said, "This doesn't happen very often."

"We were able to make the cut in property taxes because property values are up this year. Since they are up, it won't be necessary for us to raise taxes to generate money into our fund budget."

Moore said that the slight decrease in taxes probably won't make a big difference on the amount of taxes individuals pay.

"The big deal here is that while a lot of school districts are having to raise their taxes, we are glad we do not have to raise them and that we are able to actually cut them a bit."

Moore said the school receives taxes from property owners for all real property and automobiles.

According to Jo Mayhugh, business manager for MISD, the last time MISD lowered taxes was in the early 1980s. The last time MISD raised tax rates was last year, when taxes were raised by 10.85 cents.

In other business Monday night, the board approved to adopt the 1994-95 budget and heard a report on Update 46 from the Texas Association of School Boards.

While no action was taken on this Monday night, the board discussed possible changes to this policy manual concerning medical examinations and communicable diseases, drug/alcohol screenings and employee standards of conduct, sexual harassment/sex abuse.

Moore also reported to the board that MISD has been ac-

Mule Days kicks off on Friday

Hundreds of people, and at least 15 mules, are expected to participate in the annual Mule Days celebration in Muleshoe this weekend. A full weekend of events for the whole family have been scheduled for Friday, and Saturday, Aug. 12-13.

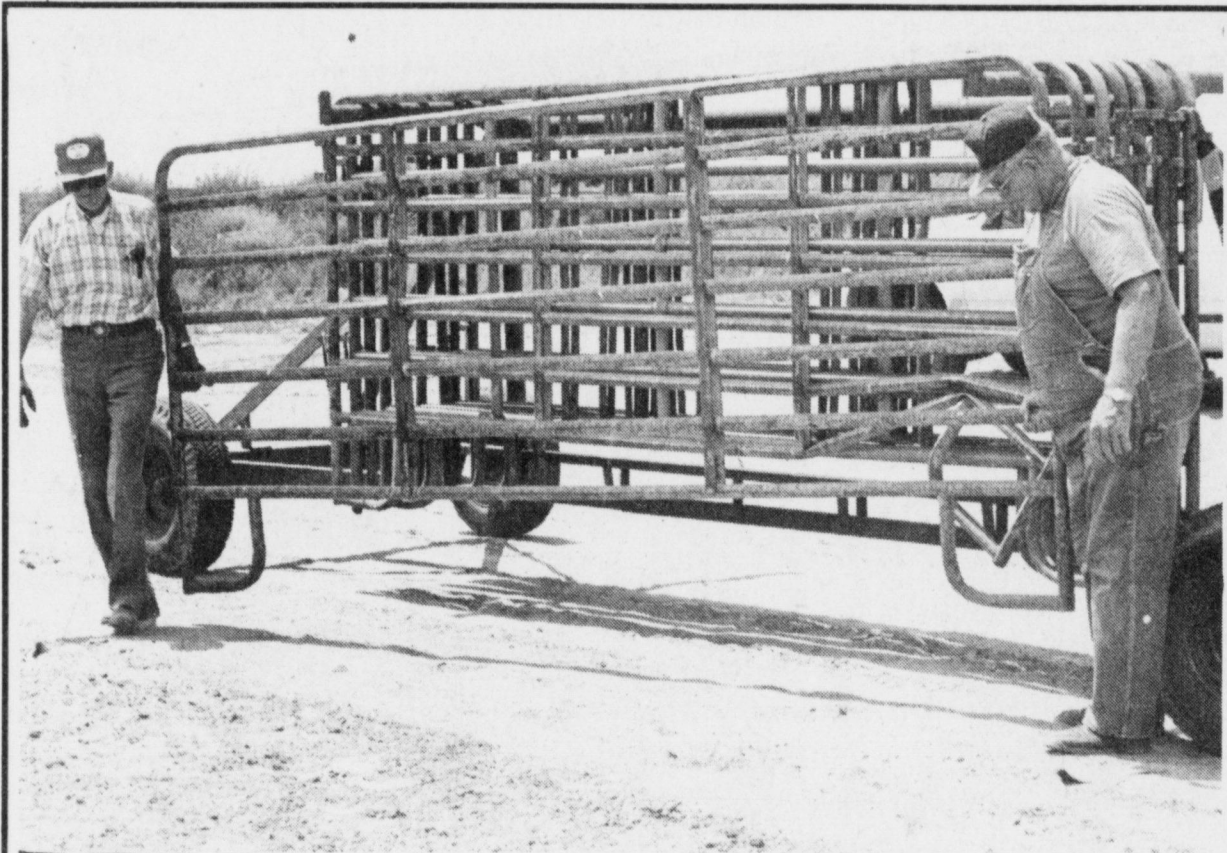

A yearly highlight of the event is the coon mule jump. The object of this game is to see how high a mule can jump. The record is 61 inches.

Events begin on Friday with a Mule Rodeo and judging class events at the Dusty Rhodes Arena.

On Saturday, the day will start with a Burro-ito Breakfast at the Heritage Center, sponsored by the Lion's Club.

Entertainment will be provided by Jimmie "The Wrangler" Espinoza, Clay Corn and others.

At 10 a.m., the Mule Days Parade will begin at the Boy Scout Grounds.

Getting ready for the big event

(Left) Jack Wilson, manager of the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce & Agriculture, and Jack Templar set up fences for Mule Days events which will be held at Dusty Rhodes Arena. The men were also busy on Tuesday laying out a track, where a number of Mule races will be held. Hundreds of people are expected to attend the annual event.

Live music and entertainment throughout the day will include a clog-dancing exhibition by Dawn Mouser of Lazbuddie. Dan Templer will stage a shoot-out as a Texas Ranger with a big iron on his hip and Jan Templer will be featured as the meanest female outlaw on the Western Plains.

The Mule Pattie Bingo will be held at the Mule Memorial. Fee for chances will be $5 per square. Pay off will be $250 for each game. Two games are planned.

Mule Races will be held at 2 p.m. at Dusty Rhodes Roping Arena, followed by Mule Days events at 4 p.m.

The children's Stick Mule Race will be held at approximately 7 p.m. The Best Decorated Stick Mule will be given to a boy or girl.

The Mule Days 1994 celebration will conclude with a street dance on Main Street and American Blvd. The dance will begin at 10 a.m.

In addition, there will be plenty of food booths throughout the weekend.

Muleshoe Livestock to celebrate 40 years

Muleshoe Livestock Auction, Inc. will celebrate 40 years of service to livestock producers in Bailey County and the surrounding counties in West Texas and Eastern New Mexico with a customer appreciation day Saturday, Aug. 13.

Muleshoe Livestock began August 15, 1954, when Clayton Myers leased the former livestock auction east of Muleshoe on the south side of U.S. 84 from Mr. Shirley Kizer. A 15-month stretch at that location ended in the midst of a midnight fire that destroyed the old sale barn.

But during that short time, Clayton had decided the livestock industry would be his career choice and was determined to rebuild.

Clayton responded with the purchase of five acres a little further east of the former location on the north side of U.S. 84. The Muleshoe Livestock Auction reopened June 31, 1956, with just six or eight pens and a cattle count of less than 200 head.

Although the sales started small, they gradually grew. Just 10 years later, the auction had outgrown its space and a larger, more modern facility was needed to accommodate its customers.

The first sale in the new and current sale ring was held Dec. 10, 1966, with a grand opening the following Saturday. By 1984, cattle sales reached a record high of 4,000 head.

Though the sales are somewhat smaller today, Muleshoe Livestock's motto "Sale Every Saturday" remains true.

One of Muleshoe Livestock's unique qualities is the pride and dedication of the family members involved in the operation. The children

County clerk denied request for salary increase

A Bailey County Salary Grievance Committee on Monday denied a request by County Clerk Barbara McCamish to grant salary increases for her office. The committee, composed of nine people, voted 8-1 against the request.

McCamish filed the grievance last week after learning that the County Clerk's office had not been included in proposed raises for county offices for the 1994-95 year. The proposed raises come out to $600 a year for county employees and have yet to be approved by the Bailey County Commissioners Court.

Bailey County Judge Marilyn Cox said that the County Clerk's Office was not included in proposed raises because new people with no experience would be coming into office.

The Bailey County Journal reported in the Sunday edition that the County Clerk's Office was the only office that had been denied the proposed raise. However, Cox said that another elected official not given a raise was the county attorney. She said there are also new county employees who will not be given raises either.

During earlier meetings of the Commissioner's Court, the commissioners discussed raises and most felt at that time that new employees should not be given the same raises as employees who have been there longer.

The Commissioner's Court has budgeted $20,067.12 in the proposed budget for 1994-95 for a pay increase for officials who in the fiscal year 1994 were paid $19,467.12.

Although McCamish is not eligible to run in the November election because she lost the primary under the Democratic party ticket, she said she filed the grievance because she said no one has been elected to that office yet. Billie Downing won the election primary in March and is, so far, running unopposed for the November election.

McCamish also said that Downing had experience working in the County Clerk's office many years ago. However, some members of the committee on Monday said Downing would still be considered a new employee.

Cox said that as far as she knows, this was the first time a county employee has filed a

Three Way ISD to discuss accountability/accreditation

The Three Way Independent School District Board of Trustees will meet on Thursday, Aug. 11 at 7:30 p.m. at the Administrative Office, located at Maple.

The board will discuss an accountability/accreditation ratings report for which the district has been accepted/recognized and will discuss a WADA agreement with Whiteface and Sudan.

The board will also conduct a preliminary budget proposal and workshop with personnel salary and other considerations to be discussed. They will also consider A.D.A.R.E. (Anti-drug program) and certify appraisal roll for property.

Also on Thursday, the board will open bids for milk, fuel, teaching supplies, janitorial and maintenance supplies and cafeteria, hear a report from the superintendent and principals on remodeling, class schedules and personnel assignments. They will also discuss employee health and insurance considerations.

The board will discuss school lunch and breakfast prices for students, employees and others and under personnel considerations, the board will receive resignations and contract employment.

Watson Junior High came close to also achieving this Recognized level.

Superintendent of Operations Buck Johnson reported to the board that for the first time in five years, the school food services department is in the black.

"We are looking forward to an even better year next year," Johnson said.

salary grievance.

In order for McCamish to have been granted the request, the committee would have had to vote at least six in favor of it for it to be recommended to the Commissioner's Court to decide on. If at least 6-8 would have voted in favor of the increase, it would have had to be decided by the commissioners at their next meeting and if nine members voted to recommend the increase, it would have to be included in the budget.

Cox is the presiding official of the committee but does not have voting privileges.

Other committee members include County Treasurer Dorothy Turner, County Tax Assessor Kathleen Hays, District

Clerk Nelda Merriott, County Sheriff Jack Hicks, District Attorney Johnny Actkinson, and County Clerk Barbara McCamish. Citizens on the committee, who were selected at random by a grand jury, are Patricia Morgan Watson, Jack Duane Lloyd and Connie Gregory Haight.

Correction

Wrong dates

In the Sunday, Aug. 7 edition of the Bailey County Journal, the wrong dates for school classes in Lazbuddie were given in the Back to School Supplement. Classes will not begin on Monday, Aug. 15 as stated in this issue.

Registration for Lazbuddie students will be held from Aug. 15-17. Classes will begin on that following Monday, Aug. 22.

The Journal apologizes for this error and hopes that it has not caused anyone an inconvenience.

Poff to campaign in Muleshoe this weekend

Judge Bryan Poff, Jr. from the 7th Appeals Court, Texas' second highest court, will make a stop in Muleshoe during his campaign. Accompanying the judge will be several of the West Texas A&M Young Democrats including Dustin Elliott, a former Muleshoe High School graduate now actively involved in the campaigns for two of the area judges.

Bryan Poff has held the bench of 7th Appeals Court for the past five years. Before his current bench, Poff spent three years as Criminal Prosecutor. He then became a State Representative for another four years and eight years practicing private law. As 47th District Judge for twelve years, Judge Poff managed to dispose of over 10,000 cases.

Judge Poff will attribute his years of experience to his conservative judicial philosophy and his practice of judicial restraint.

Law enforcement officials support Poff's no-nonsense approach to the hundreds of criminal trials he has judged. Also because he is fair but firm and has imposed the death penalty.

Judge Bryan Poff and his wife Janis make their home in Canyon. Their family includes seven children and four grandchildren. Poff is also actively involved in Boy Scouts and Kids Inc., the First Baptist Church of Canyon, and civic organizations.

SPS enters agreement with Lea Electric

Southwestern Public Service Company has entered into a long-term power supply agreement with Lea County Electric Cooperative in New Mexico, in which SPS will provide the cooperative's full requirements power into the next century.

The agreement will be for 20 years and continues a relationship between the utilities which has existed since Lea County Electric was founded in 1949.

Lea County Electric purchased a portion of its power needs from SPS until 1983, when the cooperative discontinued its own generation and began purchasing all its power needs from SPS.

Lea County Electric Executive Vice-President K.C. Martin noted that Lea County Electric has some of the lowest rates in the state of New Mexico.

"The members of Lea County Electric have benefitted from the purchase of all our power from SPS," Martin said. "This new contract will assure us of the ability to continue to receive reliable, low-cost power from SPS for the next two decades," He said.

Billy Royce Medlin, Lea County Electric's Board President said he is pleased that SPS is providing the cooperative with a dependable, long-term power supply.

"It's certainly a win-win situation and one which pleases both parties," He said.

SPS Vice-President of Marketing Gary Gibson said SPS is gratified by the contract extension.

"This extension by Lea County Electric exhibits faith in SPS's ability to be the best power supplier in the region, and we intend to meet that expectation," Gibson said.

"More than 20 percent of SPS's business is from wholesale power sales," said SPS President Coyt Webb.

"We're pleased that we can provide reliable service at low prices to Lea County Electric and our other wholesome customers," He said.

Lea County Electric is a member-owned cooperative which provides electrical service to more than 6,000 members in southeastern New Mexico and West Texas.

Southwestern Public Service Company is a regional electric utility that primarily provides electric service to a population of about one million people in a 52,000 square mile area comprising eastern and southeastern New Mexico, the South Plains and Panhandle of Texas, the Oklahoma Panhandle and southwestern Kansas. Corporate headquarters is in Amarillo.

MHS cheerleaders receive superior, excellence ribbons

The Muleshoe High School varsity cheerleaders recently attended cheerleading camp at Angelo State University in San Angelo. They had a week-full of cheers, chants, dances and fun.

The camp was conducted by the University Cheerleading Association (UCA) and was held July 19-22.

The camp focused on teaching new cheers, sidelines and dances, as well as improving the techniques and overall look of the squad.

There were workshops for proper stretching, improving jumps, partner stunts and pyramids. The mascots had separate workshops, where they learned about crowd involvement and increasing spirit.

The last day of camp was a weekly evaluation. The girls had to perform everything they had learned throughout the week in front of the UCA staff.

Muleshoe received two Superior ribbons and two Excellent ribbons for their evaluation. They also received two other Excellent ribbons and another Superior ribbon, as well as four spirit sticks and a trophy for Most Improved.

Maggie the Mule also received four spirit sticks and a trophy for Most Improved. They had one member of the squad make the All-Star Squad, Crystal Howe. She will represent Muleshoe in England in December.

The girls had a very successful camp and hope to have a great season.

Best loser for the month was Aurora. First runner-up was Ritha Knowles and second runner-up was Evelyne Harris.

The meeting was adjourned with the singing of the good night song.

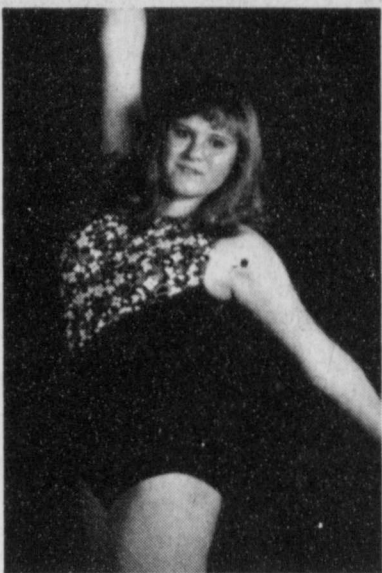

Messenger places in national competition

Amanda Messenger has just returned from the American Tumbling and Trampoline Nationals that were held in Nashville, Tenn. on the Tennessee University campus. She qualified for the national championships at three different regional meets held the past season in Texas.

There were over one thousand competitors from all over the United States and Canada. The event lasted seven days with preliminary and final competition.

Amanda placed 10th in the Power Tumbling event and 30th in the Double Mini Trampoline. There were 77 competitors in 13 - 14 divisions.

This was Amanda's first national competition so her coaches were very pleased with her performance. Amanda competes for the South Plains Acrosprits Team of Levelland. This team is coached by Darkus Brown and Sherry Mulkey.

Amanda Messenger

The Acrosprits took 18 competitors and brought home 26 individual awards of which six were gold medals. Two members of the team Otis Kellan and Ashli Farmer were named to the U. S. World Team that will compete in Portugal in October.

Amanda is the daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Jay Messenger.

Panhandle Fair exhibitors wanted

LUBBOCK - Ribbons and special award trophies for prize winning flower entries in the Flower Festival and ribbons in the Creative Arts Department will be awarded during the 77th annual Panhandle-South Plains Fair, Sept 24 - Oct. 1, according to Steve L Lewis, fair manager.

Exhibitors winning special award trophies and sweepstakes ribbons in the flower show will have their trophies and ribbons displayed in the Lubbock Garden and Arts Center during October.

Open to all amateurs wishing to exhibit in horticulture and design, entrants need not be garden club members, and men and children are encouraged to enter.

Entries from 4-H or FHA club members are welcome and club members who have prize winning entries will accumulate points which count towards winning youth Individual and Club High points awards.

All types of flower entries will be taken Saturday, Sept.

24, from 8:30 - 11:30 a.m. at the Flower Festival Building. Container grown plants, arboreal specimens, miscellaneous ornamentals and dried design entries will be taken 3:30 - 6:30 p.m. Friday, Sept 23.

Art work from and regional junior high and elementary students is encouraged in Creative Arts Department I and II. Students may enter exhibits in six categories: water based paints; pastels, oil pastels or charcoal; drawings in pencil, crayon, ink or colored markers; weaving, stichery or fiber; or electronic.

The art show is judged and ribbons are awarded for outstanding work. Monetary prizes are not given. The 1993 Creative Arts show included art entries from students in 19 elementary schools, 11 junior highs and a variety of private lesson, home taught and private schools

Catalogs are available at the fair office, 105 E. Broadway; Lubbock County Extension Office, 1418 Ave. G; Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, 14th St. and Ave. K; or the City of Lubbock Public Information Office, 1625 13th St. Area residents may obtain one from their local county extension office.

Folks in Montana take care of own

Parts of Montana are as close to the Outback as we "Yanks" will ever get.

They had given me directions in the Hell's Creek Bar. Next mornin' I was tryin' to decipher my scribbling from the back of a napkin. I turned off the paved road at Cohagen. My new friends had specifically told me to go six miles (one said seven), then turn south.

"Can't miss it," they assured me, "Straight shot to Forsyth."

At six miles on the Odometer, there it was, just like they said. The only problem was, 100 yards south of the turn the road forked...Big Time! Both forks were well-travelled, pointed south and disappeared over the horizon.

I backed up to the six mile corner to regroup and spied a contrail of dustin comin' my way. I flagged the driver down. It was the Garfield County Agent. He directed me to bear

We drove off in opposite directions. I didn't pass another car for 53 miles.

It's been a long time since I've done that. In the middle of a workin' day I drove 50 miles and never passed another car.

The layered horizons were festooned with buttes and rock formations that looked like giant teepees. The vast expanse was virtually treeless. You could spot the occasional creek by the cottonwoods that followed its meandering course.

The clover was in bloom. I surfed through big lakes of yellow blossoms. Baby antelope twins bounced through the sagebrush like jack rabbits trailing their sleek moms.

Now and then I'd pass a bunch of cows. I slowed for a pair of skittery gray geldings. Disinterested sheep ignored by intrusion. Hawks, Canadian geese and killdeer circled and scattered in my path.

Jordan, Montana was celebrating the grand opening of the Garfield County (population 1,500) Health Center. The festivities had been a typical community effort. Hundreds of people showed up. After all, it was their health center.

Even though the county has no medical doctor, the center maintains a medical staff, including nurses and a physicians assistant. They are in contact by phone with doctors.

It is a ranching community of people who know their ancestors and each other's kids.

They can spot a pilgrim, a tourist or a government man with ease, mostly because they know everybody else who lives there.

Even in a state that prides itself on its hardiness and independence, they consider themselves the keeper of the flame. Saddle bronc riders come from Jordan. Bareback riding is for pansies.

Sometimes it is easy to be overwhelmed by the continuing barrage of news stories about the homeless and helpless, the irresponsible and ignorant, the lazy and the parasitizing.

I get frustrated by the well meaning, condescending social engineers prescribing Band Aids for compound fractures of the human condition. If people are told often enough that they can't take care of themselves, they give up.

But in Jordan at the grand opening of their Health Center, my faith in humans was renewed. It occurred to me as I watched these self-reliant citizens take care of their own. It's too bad Hillary couldn't be there.

Lions Club to conduct annual broom sale

The Muleshoe Lions club will conduct an all-out drive on Aug. 24 from 8 a.m until 5 p.m. to sell quality Blind Made Merchandise to residents and local businesses.

All of these items are manufactured by blind and visually impaired workers in the Lighthouses for the Blind. In addition, the Lions Club's earnings will be used to continue scholarships for local seniors, the local eyeglasses program, and other projects to serve the community.

The entire membership of the Lions Club has been organized to supply friends and neighbors with these quality items.

The Mop and Broom Sale will be located at the Muleshoe State Bank parking lot where citizens may purchase directly from the Caravan truck, or contact Bill Moore at 272-3389 to have orders delivered. Pre-orders can be made through any member of the Lions Club.

Sales of Blind Made Merchandise in previous years have been very successful and Lion President Mark Morton expressed his confidence in reaching a new all-time goal this year.

"Every home and business can use some of these cleaning aids, and every item purchased helps provide dignity and the security of regular employment for our blind citizens."

High Adventure Trek

Local Boy Scouts go to ranch

Five Muleshoe Boy Scouts recently took part in High Adventure Trek at the Philmont Scout Ranch. The expedition covered 70 miles in the back country of the High Adventure base, located in north central New Mexico, near Cimarron.

The trek was coordinated with the El Llano Gizanda District Conquistador Council, Boy Scouts of America, and Explorer Post 226 in Clovis, N.M.

It was an opportunity for the boys to make new friends. Three of the scouts were from Albuquerque, N.M.; one was from Lovington, N.M.; an advisor was from Clovis, N.M. and the lead advisor was from Ft. Sumner, N.M.

Dimmitt to host quilt show

DIMMITT - Dimmitt's Friendship Quilters Quild will sponsor the Quilt Show during Castro County's Harvest Days, August 11, 12, and 13. The Quilt Show that has been held since 1987 will again feature the special quilting skills of Castro County residents.

Last year approximately 55 quilts were featured by county residents and quilt members. Quilts will be on display at the Castro Co. Expo Building. A knowledgeable quilter from the Panhandle/South-Plains area will judge this year's quilt.

Awards will be given for various categories with special awards going to the "Best of Show", "Judge's Award", and "People's Choice Award". The winner of this year's donation quilt, "Star in Heaven", will be drawn during Harvest Days.

of Clayton and Gladys Myers, Pasty, C.L. and Thurman, all worked at the auction throughout their childhood. As they grew older, their responsibilities and commitment to the operation increased.

Clayton, C.L. and Thurman all attended the same auctioneer's school of Fort Smith, Ark. At age 14, C.L. was the youngest student in the school's history.

As C.L. and Thurman married, wives Jamie and Rhonda joined the family and the business, devoting themselves to both.

Myers grandchildren got their first jobs carrying tickets at an early age.

While the continued growth and success of Muleshoe Livestock has been rewarding for Clayton, Gladys and the rest of the family, the accomplishment they are perhaps most proud of is their 40 years of business under the same ownership.

As a means of showing their appreciation to the many customers and employees

Muleshoe Livestock's success, the Myers family is hosting the customer appreciation day Saturday, Aug. 13. A free barbecue lunch will be served

Insects attacking red oak trees

A small insect, obscure Oak Scale, can pose a big threat to red oaks and now is the time to apply a pesticide to infested trees, says Bailey County Extension Agent Curtis Preston.

These scales are about 1/16 inch in diameter and covered by a hard shell and they are difficult to detect by casual observation. They are about the same color as the bark and look like cigarette ashes.

Heavily infested branches and even the main trunk, will be smooth where scales occur as opposed to the rougher texture of normal bark. These scales can kill large branches and occasionally, the entire tree by removing the plant sap with their piercing/sucking mouthparts.

Eggs hatch once a year in late summer and baby scales or crawlers, are six-legged and mobile. The newly hatched scales settle in under old scales and elsewhere on the tree, insert their mouth parts, begin feeding and soon form their own protective scale shell.

Monitoring in Lubbock indicates hatching began about Aug. 1. This is a little ahead of schedule because of the warmer weather earlier this year on the South Plains.

Scale insects are most susceptible to control during the crawler stage, Preston said.

Insecticide treatments will be most effective if applied now.

Recommended control is two applications of Dursban two weeks apart beginning at hatch. Horticultural oils have not worked very well on these insects.

Malathion and diazinon can be used, but the residual is short and requires several applications to cover the 4-5 week hatch window. Always read and follow insecticide label instructions carefully, Preston cautions.

RESERVE CHAMPION GELDING - Seth Black of Lazbuddie won first place in the Grade Gelding Class at the Texas Stat' 4-H Horse Show.

Black captures Reserve honors

Seth Black, age 13, of Lazbuddie, showed the Reserve Champion Gelding at the Texas State 4-H Horse Show on July 24-30 at the Taylor County Expo Center in Abilene.

He is the son of Ricky and Sarah Black.

Black and his horse Outlaw won first in the Grade Gelding Class to enable them to be eligible for Reserve honors. Outlaw is also used for barrels, poles, stakes and roping.

Black has been a member of 4-H for six years and feels that young people should become involved in 4-H because of the family involvement. He hopes that people will see him as a winner in 4-H.

He attends Lazbuddie Junior High School, where he is in the 8th grade. He shows in FFA and plays basketball and football.

The 32nd annual Texas State 4-H Horse Show is managed and produced by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, a part of the Texas A & M University system.

The focus of the show is to showcase youth from 3rd grade to age 19 in their area of expertise with their 4-H project. Recognition of a young person for their accomplishments and reaching their personal goal is the underlying purpose for such events through the 4-H program in Texas.

Along with parents and Extension faculty members, the show is conducted with the assistance from many volunteer adult leaders from the 12 Extension districts in the state. Without these valuable volunteers, the opportunities youth have in the 4-H program would be far fewer.

ROAD CLOSED— (Left) Danny Navajar and Jose Sanchez, employees for the Muleshoe Independent School District, stand beside a new road block which was installed between Watson Junior High and Muleshoe High School this past week. The area will only be used for school bus loading and unloading and for parking.

MISD reminds public of new traffic changes

The Muleshoe Independent School District would remind members of the community of that West Ave G. has been closed to through traffic between 3rd and 5th streets

Speed limit in the parking lot is 5 mph. This new arrangement will provide high school and junior high bus students with safety equal to that provided at Dillman and DeShazo.

Parents picking up and leaving students at Watson Middle School should let their children off an Ave. F (east-bound) or 3rd street (south-bound) or 5th street (north-bound). Student and faculty parking will be in the parking lot between Muleshoe High School and Watson Middle School.

Safety of all students will be enhanced if the following precautions are taken:

1. At Dillman, students should be let off or picked up on Ave. E east-bound (where buses used to load/unload) or on 19th street north-bound. Letting students off at the curb eliminates their crossing a Handicapped parking will also be in the parking lot adjacent to both schools. Visitor parking will be in spaces provided on 3rd street. There will be a restricted-use bus lane on the north side of the parking lot which will be utilized for loading/unloading school buses only.

street and the limited visibility and congestion of using a parking lot.

2. At DeShazo, students are let-off/picked-up at the curb on Ave. C east-bound, 3rd street south-bound, or 5th street north-bound.

3. 5 mph speed limit should be maintained in all student loading/unloading areas.

4. Never pass a school bus that is flashing red lights!

The bus lane will be one-way-running from east to west.

MISD announces policy for free/reduced lunches

Muleshoe Independent School District announces its policy for providing free and reduced price meals for children served under the National School Lunch Program and School Breakfast Program.

The household size and income criteria enclosed will be used to determine eligibility for free and reduced price benefits. Children from households whose income is at or below the levels shown are eligible for free and reduced price benefits.

Application forms will be distributed to each student during the first day of school. Avoid the rush! Pick up an application and turn it in for early approval at the high school cafeteria during the week of August 8th-12th (1:00 PM - 4:00 PM). Applications are also available at the principals office in each of the schools.

The Dillman & DeShazo school serves meals each school day. Children may buy lunch for $1.20 and breakfast for $.50. Children may also get meals free or at a reduced price.

If you now get food stamps or AFDC for your children, your children can get free meals. If your total household income is the same or less than the amounts on the the Income Chart below, your children can get free meals or reduced-price meals. A foster child may get free or reduced-price meals regardless of your income. The reduced price is $.40 for lunch and $.30 for breakfast.

To get free or reduced-price meals for your children, you must complete an application and return it to the school. We cannot approve an application that is not complete.

Verification: Your eligibility may be checked at any time during the school year. School officials may ask you to send papers showing that your children should get free or reduced-price meals.

Fair Hearing: You may talk to school officials if you do not agree with the school's decision on your application or the results of verification. You may also ask for a fair hearing. You may do this by calling or writing: Buck Johnson at (806) 272-3911, 514 West Avenue G, Muleshoe, TX 79347.

Reporting Changes: If your children get free or reduced-price meals because of your income, you must tell the school if your household size decreases or your income increases by more than $50 per month or $600 per year. If your children get meals because you get food stamps or AFDC, you must tell the school when you are not getting AFDC or food stamps for them. You may then fill out another application giving income information.

Confidentiality: School officials use the information on the application only to decide if your children should get free or reduced-price meals.

Reapplication: You may apply for meals anytime during the school year. If your not eligible now but have a change in status, like a decrease in household income, an increase in household size, become unemployed or get food stamps or AFDC for your children, you may then complete an application.

Handicapped: Meal substitutions at no additional cost for children who meet the definition of "handicapped" will be served, provided a physician has submitted a statement attesting to this fact and prescribing a substitute.

Four-legged friends take Texas stage

Each year visitors to the internationally acclaimed musical drama "TEXAS" find new excitement in the show. This year's additions hop, cluck and trot their way into spectators' hearts. The new livestock, and the already popular horses, enhance the realism that makes "TEXAS" a spectacular success.

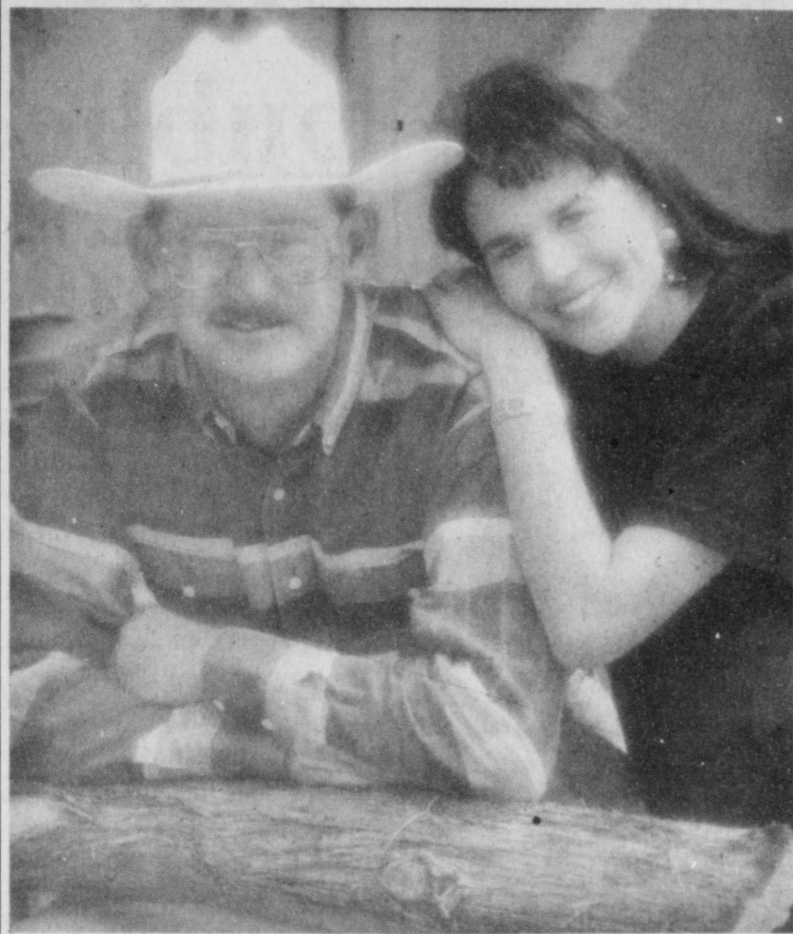

These silent additions join the talented cast of 80 performers who tell the tale of early Texas Panhandle settlement.

The show, set in the majestic Palo Duro Canyon State Park near Amarillo, combines song and dance, cowboys and Indians, and startling technical effects including thunder and lightning.

"TEXAS" runs nightly except Sundays through August 20th. For ticket information and reservations call (806) 655-2181.

Minding Your Own Business

By Don Taylor

Saddling a nightmare

Government growth and the ever-increasing avalanche of regulations and regulatory agencies biggest threat to the health of our economy. Last week, we cited some government regulations that would not pass a stupidity test. We also provided examples of how industries are overrun with bureaucratic rules written and enforced by unnecessary agencies.

We pointed out how the additional rules and regulations provided job security for government employees. Nearly every new government job is nonproductive. Though many government workers are diligent, and work long hours, we should never confuse activity with productivity.

Let me illustrate this concept with a true story from my farm days. Once we had a cow that was barren. The cow worked as hard as the other cows wating grass, digesting it and producing a proper amount of waste. (I hope you're following the analogy here.) The cost of care and feeding continued, but no calf was born. Without hope of profit or added value, the farm could not support the cow. So, we ate it.

Over Regulation

Good examples of pervasive government regulations are found in the areas of protecting our environment and increasing the safety of workers. Both are worthy objectives. No small business owner I know wants to foul the air or see his or her employees injured. However, the rules written to ensure employees' safety contain some pretty stupid aspects.

For example, companies are required to provide "Material Safety Data Sheets (MSDS)" on all hazardous materials used in the business. These lists include harmful substances such as acids and poisonous material. However, they also include some pretty silly things.

I have a copy of a four-page form one company uses to meet federal requirements for hazardous material. The form I have is for sand - crystalline silica. You probably never suspected that when you're walking barefoot on the beach enjoying the cool ocean breeze that you're exposing your feet to a "hazardous material" covered by government regulation.

Sand is pretty safe. It has no boiling point, does not evaporate, is not soluble in water and is not toxic. It is stable and compatible with all other material, is not flammable and won't explod. So what is the hazard? From what I can tell, you shouldn't eat large quantities or suck it up your nose.

What else does government protect us from? Dishwashing soap. Yes, it's on the list. You should not put Joy liquid detergent in your eyes according to the Proter and Gamble's MSDS. It may cause stinging, tearing, itchin and redness. The company also recommends against ingestion. That's right, drinking Joy may cause "transient gastrointestinal irritation." (The upside is you'll have really clean bowels.)

Reining in the nightmare

How do we slow the growth of bureaucracy and stop the nightmare? Four easy steps.

First, become informed. Learn about specific laws that have a negative impact on your business and future

Second, join organizations like your local Chamber of Commerce or the national Federation of Independent Business and get active in the process. Many silly rules and regulations are swept through Congress because no one cares enough to stop them.

Third, write to your elected officials. Be specific about the laws that need revision. Most want to help, but they need our direction. Let them know you've had enough. It won't hurt to let them know you're registered to vote.

Fourth, be an informed voter and vote. Get the voting records of you elected officials. If they have a hisory of "going along to get along," help them get along. Get a long vacation, that is.

We can still run the government. But to do so we must move from pssive to active mode.

SPC ranked among top schools

LEVELLAND - South Plains College has again been ranked nationally among the top 100 institutions which confer associate degrees, according to a recent report in Community College week, a national publication reporting community college news.

SPC was among colleges conferring the highest number of associate degrees to Hispanic Americans and minorities, in communications technology and computer and information sciences.

The analysis covers college level associate degrees awarded for the 1990-91 academic year according to a report generated by the U.S Department of Education.

"SPC is proud to be meeting the needs of our minority students," said Dr. Gary Mc Daniel, SPC President. The ranking, he feels "is a real indication that we are one of the top colleges in the nation. And it's also a credit to our faculty and support staff who encourage the students to complete their programs."

SPC was ranked 33rd nationally in conferring 120 degrees to Hispanic Americans for the 1990-91 academic year and was 94th in conferring 163 degrees to total minorities in all disciplines. There are more than 1,400 public and private community colleges in the U.S., according to the American Association of Community Colleges.

Under communications technology, SPC was ranked 10th nationally in awarding 25 degrees to graduates of SPC's two-year telecommunications program. The college was 51st in granting 27 degrees to graduates of the college's computer science and computer information systems programs.

SPC's success among Hispanic American students is reflected in the 40% increases in the Hispanic American student population at the college over the past five years, from about 800 in 1988 to more than 1,300 in 1992. Hispanic American students now comprise 23 percent of SPC's total systemwide student enrollment of 6,000 students.

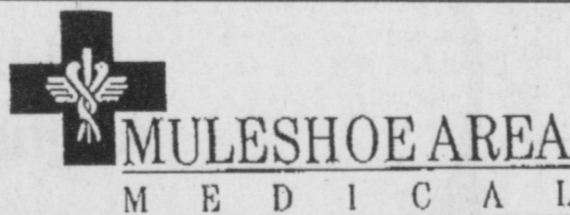

The numbers reflect the national trend that more and more

Hispanic Americans are attending the nation's two-year colleges, according to Christina Berry, Director of Instinutal Research and Grants.

"The national picture is that Hispanic enrollment in higher education is increasing through the country, and that the majority of that increase is coming from community colleges," she explains.

James Stewart: A Wonderful Life

James Stewart: A Wonderful Life is a special tribute to one of America's most respected and beloved actors, hosted by long-time admirer Johnny Carson. One of the legendary actors of the American cinema, James Stewart has starred in such well-known films as "Mr. Smith Goes to Washington", "The Philadelphia Story" (earning him an Oscar as Best Actor), "It's a Wonderful Life," "Harvey," "Winchester '73," "Destry Rides Again," "The Man Who Knew Too Much," "Vertigo," "Rear Window," "Anatomy of a Murder," "The Spirit of St. Louis," and many others.

James Stewart: A Wonderful Life documents Stewart's long career with vintage film clips and rare photographs, as well as interviews and anecdotes from co-stars, collaborators, directors, and friends, including Katharine Hepburn, Walter Matthau, Richard Dreyfuss, Clint Eastwood, Carol Burnett, Lee Remick, Sally Field, Gene Kelly, Peter Bogdanovich, and others.

The program also offers an interview with Stewart's wife of 42 years at the time, Gloria (who just passed away), and features never-before-seen home movies and photographs from the Stewarts' private collection.

James Stewart: A Wonderful Life will be broadcast Wednesday, August 10th at 8:00 p.m.

GEORGE JONES:

Live in Tennessee & Same Ole Me

After nearly four decades in the music business, George Jones' sold-out concerts attract not only his legions of older fans but thousands of young people as well. He had a hugely successful year in 1993. He sold 1,665,000 concert tickets, was inducted into the Country Music Hall of Fame, and kept busy turning out new hits, including "I Don't Need Your Rockin' Chair," a number one hit in 1993.

George Jones: Live in Tennessee, the most recently taped George Jones concert, treated the capacity crowd to 15 of Jones' bigger hits, including the number one country song of all time, "He Stopped Loving Her Today."

George Jones: Live in Tennessee is followed by George Jones: Same

Ole Me. This is his story in his own words, with help from Johnny Cash, Loretta Lynn, Roy Acuff, Tom T. Hall, Buck Owens, Ricky Skaggs, Waylon Jennings, Randy Travis, Ricky Van Shelton, and Conway Twitty.

Same Ole Me features vintage performances of Jones' classic hits including: "She Thinks I Still Care," "White Lightning," "Why Baby Why," "Some Day My Day Will Come," and "I Always Get Lucky With You."

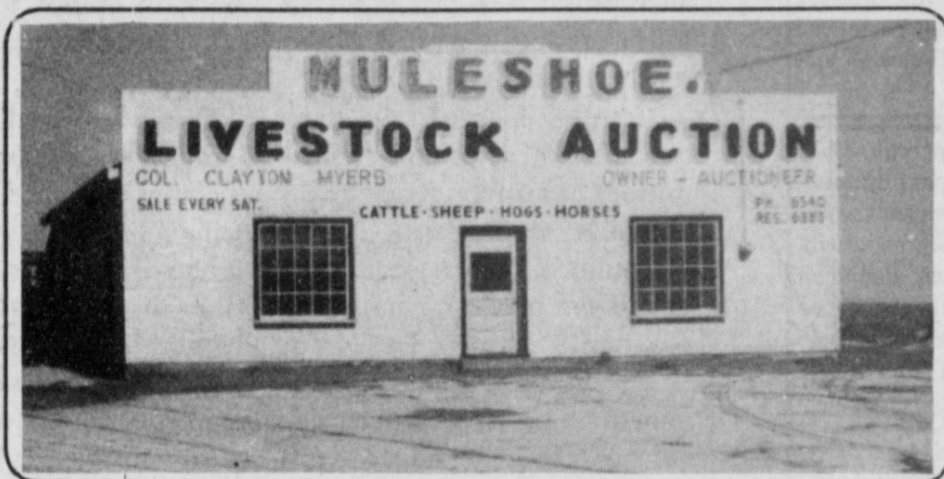

George Jones: Live in Tennessee will be broadcast Saturday, August 13th at 8:15 p.m. It will be followed by George Jones: Same Ole Me at 9:30 p.m. on KENW-TV.

40th Anniversary

In Celebration Of 40 Years Of Service To Livestock Producers In Bailey County And Surrounding Counties In West Texas And Eastern New Mexico,

Muleshoe Livestock Auction Is Having A Customer Appreciation Day
Saturday, Aug. 13

On August 15, 1954, Clayton Myers leased the former auction located on the south side of highway 84 from Mr. Shirley Kizer. A midnight fire ended a 15 month stretch. Clayton responded by purchasing 5 acres a little further east of town on the north side of highway 84. The Muleshoe Livestock Auction reopened on June 31, 1956 with only 6 to 8 pens and a cattle count of less than 200 head.

The Myers family:
Jill, Brent, Brandon & Patsy (Myers) Luna; Clay, Mandy, Jamie & C.L. Myers; Clayton & Gladys Myers; Thurman, Rhonda, Madison & Jackson Myers.

Though the sales started small, they gradually grew. Within 10 years, the auction had outgrown its space and a new, more modern facility was needed. On Dec. 10, 1966, the first sale was held in the current sale ring. By 1984, the sales reached a record high of 4,000 head.

Please Join Us....

On Saturday, August 13th, we will be celebrating our 40 Year Anniversary as the Muleshoe Livestock Auction. Clayton and Gladys held their first sale in August of 1954. They have decided to have a "Customer Appreciation Day" to thank the many customers and employees who have supported them in this business for 40 years. There will be a free barbeque lunch from 11:00 a.m. til 2:00 p.m. and also 2 drawings for 1/2 beef to be given away. Please accept this as a special invitation to come and let us say "Thanks" to you and many others who will always be special to us. See you Saturday!!!

Clayton & Gladys Myers

We hope all our customers and friends will join us for a free barbeque lunch from 11 a.m. - 2 p.m. We'll also give away 2 half beef's. Let us say "Thanks" for 40 great years!
