F. W. Rodeo Will Draw Many Visitors to Silvertown

Are Causing Cotton Insect and Soil Bank Meetings Are Scheduled for Briscoe

Cotton insect and soil bank meetings will be held in the communities over Briscoe County next week. Meetings will be held at San Jacinto the 25th, Courthouse in Silvertown the 26th, at Antelope Flat the 27th, and Quitaque V.F.W. Hall the 28th.

These meetings will go into the technicalities of the Soil Bank and the Cotton Insect situation for this coming year. Mr. Jack Uley of the ASC Office will talk on the Soil Bank and County Agent Robert Ledbetter will bring the latest in cotton insect control. A set of slides will be shown that will assist in the identification of cotton insects. Some new insecticides have been added to the guide and they will be discussed at the meeting. Some seven step cotton information will be given on cultivation, mechanical harvesting and ginning of cotton that will be of interest to many farmers.

The Soil Bank program will be of interest to many concerned farmers. This program will be introduced at a meeting in Lubbock Tuesday, June 19th to the ASC Committee and the Briscoe County Agent. Members of the Committee are Roy Mayfield, chairman, Bray Cook and James Bailey.

CONCENTRATED FURY of a tornado is unmatched among all natural disasters. Here civil defense rescue workers search among the debris of Udall, Kan., for some of the 74 dead and hundreds injured by the twister on the night of May 25, 1955. Special cutting and lifting equipment of the civil defense "Calamity Jane" rescue truck at left enabled them to reach many victims trapped by rubble who might otherwise have died in the first hours. Co-Op Grain Elevator Contract for New Storage Space

The Co-Op Grain Elevator of Silvertown has recently contracted with the Panhandle Steel Building, Inc., of Amarillo, for the erection of a flat storage elevator. The structure is to be 160x50x14 feet in size with a storage capacity of 110,000 bushels of grain, and it will be erected just east of the present elevator, with grain exchange facilities with the old elevator.

Work on the new structure should begin within a few days and be completed in time to handle the row grain crop this coming fall season. Mr. R. L. Hill, manager, reported Wednesday morning.

The new grain storage will assist very much in handling grain during the rush of the harvest seasons as well as furnishing time storage for the Co-Op Elevator.

Mrs. Otus Reeves, 79, Sister of Mrs. John E. Arnold, Dies

Funeral services for Mrs. Otus Reeves, 79, of Plainview, were held at 2 p. m. Friday, June 15 in the First Methodist Church there. Interment was in Plainview Memorial Park. City Council Approve Plan for Extended Area Service (Eas)

The Silvertown City Council has approved a plan for Extended Area Service (EAS) between Silvertown and Bean if the majority of the Silvertown subscribers indicate a desire for such service at the rates required for this service.

E. I. Jenkins, district manager for General Telephone Company of the Southwest, defined Extended Area Service as a "process or method whereby the Silvertown subscribers may call Bean subscribers at a flat monthly rate rather than having to pay a separate message or toll charge for each call placed." Calls to Bean would be dialed direct by Silvertown subscribers rather than going through a long distance operator.

General will send letters with self-addressed, postage-free post cards to each Silvertown subscriber this week, Jenkins added. Subscribers will be asked to check whether or not they desire EAS and are willing to pay the slightly higher monthly rates required. Upon completion of the canvass, the city council will be advised of the results.

The present rates and the rates which would go into effect upon the establishment of EAS are as follows:

Business	Present Rates	Proposed EAS Rates
One Party	$9.50	$10.50
Two Party	8.00	9.00
Extension	1.50	1.50

Residence:

One Party	5.00	5.25
Two Party	4.25	4.50
Four Party	3.50	3.75
Extension	75c	75c

Each Telephone subscriber in Silvertown will receive a letter and a post card from General Telephone Company explaining extended area service in Silvertown.

The City Council feels that the raise isn't too high (about the equivalent of one toll charge per month) for the type of service they will receive. The City Council urges each subscriber to read the letter carefully and answer their post card one way or the other as soon as possible and return to General Telephone Company in Ralls.

Social Security Representative to Be Here July 5

A representative from the Social Security Administration office will be in Silvertown July 5, at 10:00 a. m. at the Commissioners Court Room.

John R. Sanderson, Manager of the Amarillo Social Security Office, states that a surprisingly low number of applications have been filed in this area for the purpose of establishing a period of disability.

Sanderson feels that the low number of applications is because there are no cash payments paid upon a worker's proving that he is disabled. In many cases, however, Sanderson says that the establishment of a period of disability will make eventual social security payments much higher, on the death of the worker or upon his reaching age 65, than they would have been otherwise. In some cases no payments will ever be possible unless the period of disability is established.

Any worker who can answer "Yes" to the following questions should contact the Amarillo Social Security Office about establishing his period of disability: Are you now under a serious disability which prevents you from engaging in gainful employment? Have you been disabled for at least 6 months? Did the Disability begin before you became 65 years of age? Did you work in employment or self-employment covered by the Social Security Act for at least one-half of the 10 years before the disability began and for one-half of the 3 years just before it began? Sanderson urges any one who can answer "Yes" to each of these five questions to contact the Amarillo Office and get full particulars about this phase of the Social Security Law.

Eyes Tell Tale Of Safety While Hunting Outdoors

ROCHESTER, N. Y. — One mistake by a hunter in the woods can make a man a killer or a victim. Will you be among the estimated 500 hunters who will be killed or 3,000 who will be injured before the hunting season is over?

The answer may be in your eyes—or someone else's according to Fred W. Jobe, director of ophthalmic research for Bausch & Lomb. He points that ability to see clearly is the hunter's greatest asset and the greatest safety protection for fellow Nimrods.

In the latest survey of hunting accidents completed by the National Rifle Association, mistaking man-for-animal ranked third among all causes of non-self-inflicted wounds.

This was confirmed in a study recently released by the Minnesota Conservation Federation based on tests and interviews with all hunters involved in hunting accidents in Minnesota in 1953. Visual tests revealed that less than one-fourth of the hunters had normal vision—yet few of them realized that their eyes were under par.

If you are near-sighted, proper glasses will correct it. If you're far-sighted, if you're over 40 and have begun to push things away from you to get them into focus, bifocal and trifocal lenses tailored to your special needs will solve the problem. A telescopic sight may also help you.

Baby Births Fewer In West Europe

NEW YORK—Birth rates in most of Western Europe are receding from the peaks reached during the early post-war years, according to a study of international birth trends.

In marked contrast is the unabated baby boom in the United States and other English-speaking countries outside Europe—Canada, Australia, and New Zealand—where birth rates have remained one third or more above their pre-war levels. The rate in the United States during 1954—25.3 per 1,000 of population—was higher for any prewar year since the early 1920's.

Exceptions to the general trend in Western Europe were noted in France and Norway, where the birth rate in 1954 was still appreciably above that recorded just before World War II.

In England and Wales the rate rose from 15.9 per 1,000 population in 1945 to 20.6 in 1947, but fell to 15.2 by 1954—not much above the 1935-39 average of 14.9. Austria, Denmark, Scotland and Sweden had similar trends.

Mad or Sad—Shed Some Tears for Dear Science

LOS ANGELES—Feel a crying jag coming on? If so, get in touch with Dr. Robert Brunish of the University of California. He needs your tears for research.

Dr. Brunish is studying the chemical structure of tears as a possible clue to the elusive eye irritant in smog and to learn something of the other factors involved in shedding tears.

The scientist reports he has had little difficulty in getting children's tears. They flow profusely for science from his own children and from the children's ward in the U.C.L.A. hospital. But adults don't cry readily for science, so he's short on adult tears.

Tears are not just drops of salt water, he says. They're a complex solution with a surprisingly high protein content. Apparently tears shed in pain, sorrow, or anger, differ from those prompted by peeling an onion or those caused by smog and other irritants.

It is hoped that these differences can be detected and furnish some clue as to the nature of the irritant in smog, he says.

Surprise—Policeman Drives Beer Truck

PITTSBURGH—The assistant police superintendent drove a beer truck—in the line of duty.

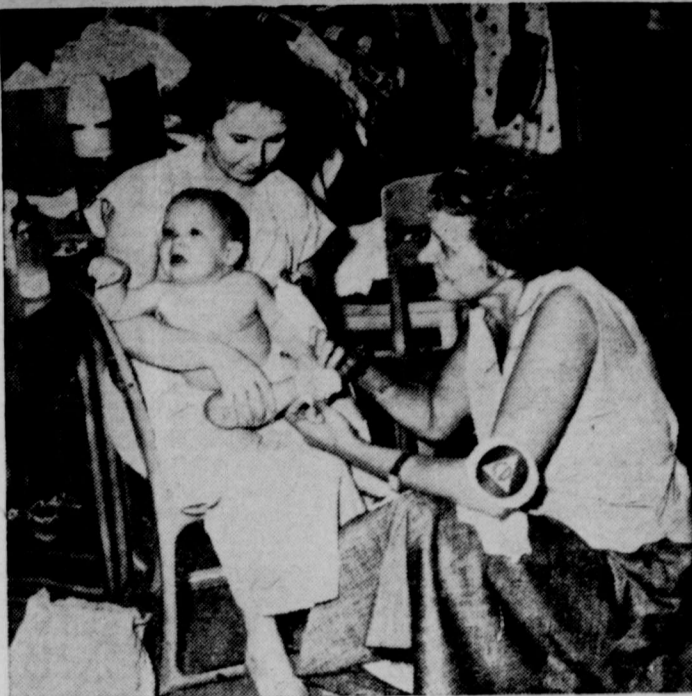

Lawrence J. Maloney borrowed the truck to drive up to two suspected numbers-racket headquarters. Two plain clothesmen, hiding in the back of the truck, hopped out to help Maloney make raids. Seven persons were arrested on lottery charges.

After the second stop, Maloney said: "We've been trying to knock off this place for some time, but they always had a lookout. When we pulled up in that beer truck, they didn't know what was going on until we ran inside."

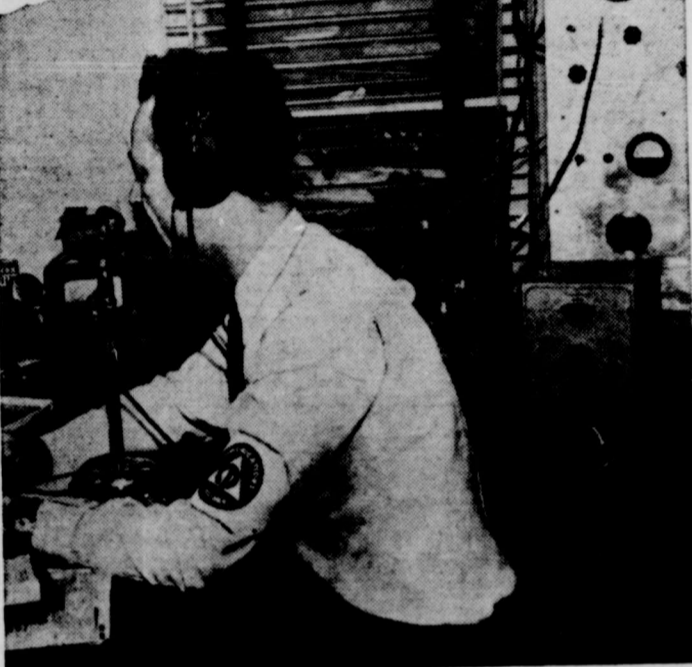

Old-Fashioned

WEST HAVEN, Conn.—Desk Sgt. Leslie Howard received a call from a woman who couldn't get her son out of bed to go to school. She wanted a policeman to "come over and scare him."

The cruisers were all busy, so Howard told her, "Try the old-fashioned method of paddling, and I think you'll get the same results."

AMATEUR RADIO "hams" play a key role in alerting civil defense units to natural disasters, and maintaining vital communications when telephone lines are down. This Marion, Ind., operator flashed the first word of that city's tornado to Indiana civil defense headquarters, which immediately rushed aid. Most "ham" operators are linked to civil defense through the Radio Amateur Civil Emergency Service, sponsored by the Federal Civil Defense Administration to supplement regular channels. (FCDA Photo)

STATE OFFICER ASKS WATER PROGRAM

Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey has said that if the next Legislature fails to enact a comprehensive water program he will urge the Governor to call a special session to deal with the problem.

Ramsey told South Plains farmers that legislation for conservation of underground waters should be recommended by irrigation farmers and others with knowledge of the problem.

EXPLORATORY BLOCK ASSEMBLED IN HALE

O. L. Johnson and W. C. Murphy, independent operators from Midland, have reportedly assembled a spread of some 10,000 acres for oil explorations in southwest Hale County, near the Mayfield Community.

The operators plan to drill a 10,000 foot wildcat on the block-up acreage, after titles for all the leases have been cleared and approved. Actual location of drill-inig site is reported to be awaiting completion of a geological survey now in progress.

Civil Defense Has Key Role in Peace

Natural disasters can strike anytime, anywhere.

From pioneer days to the present, neighbors have always helped each other in times of distress. But often, the power of a great hurricane, flood or tornado completely outmatched the valiant but disorganized efforts of untrained volunteers.

TODAY THE UNITED STATES has a form of disaster insurance—civil defense. Like any other insurance, it doesn't guarantee that disaster won't occur.

But by executive order, the Federal Civil Defense Administration does have the responsibility for coordinating all disaster relief efforts of the Federal Government under Public Law 875. This guarantees that the resources of the entire nation can be marshalled against nature on the rampage as required.

It's a job which requires the skills of many specialists, such as the Army Corps of Engineers, the National Guard and the American Red Cross. Trained civil defense workers in the general disaster area put their rescue, traffic control, first aid and other skills to practical use.

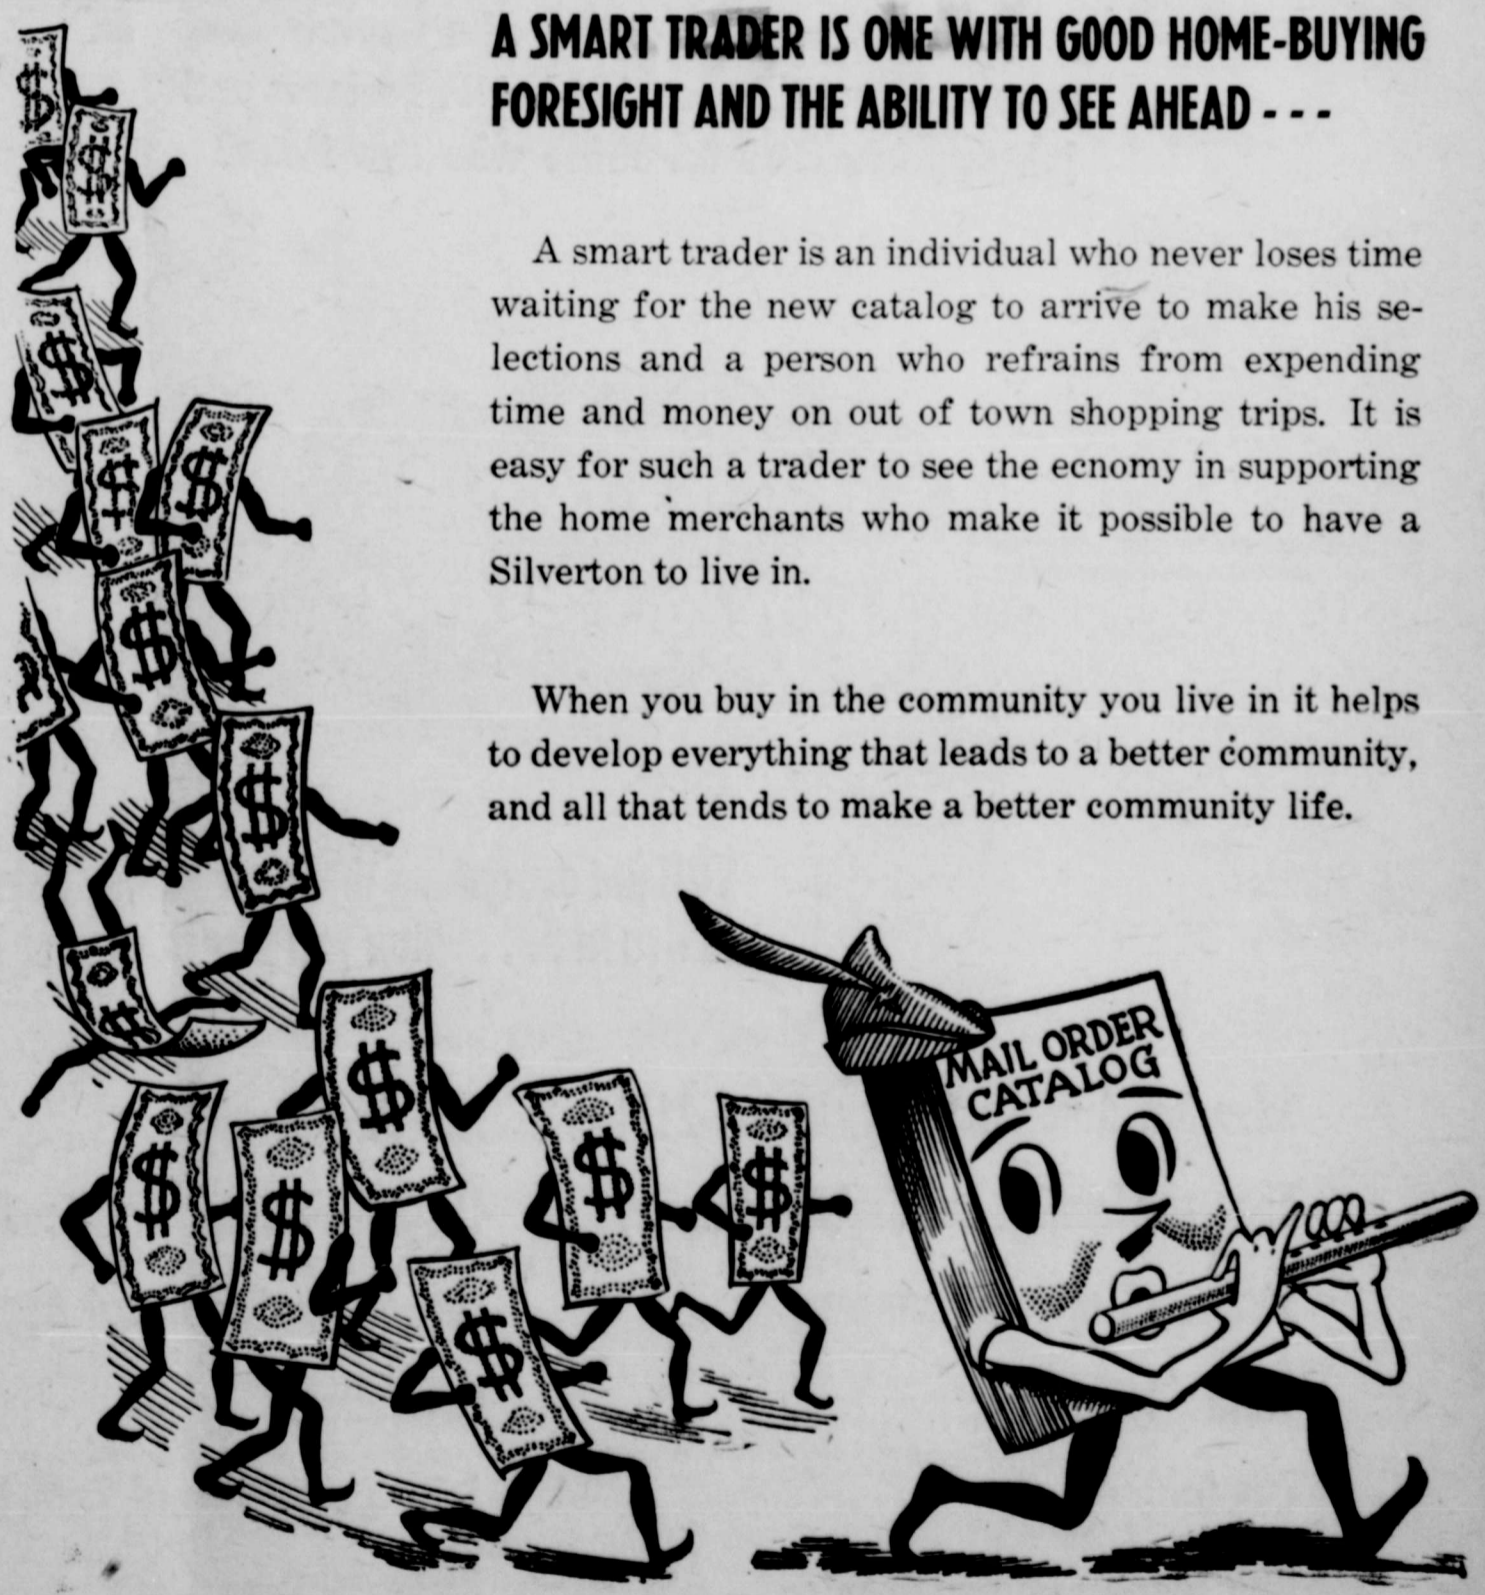

SIX-YEAR-OLD boy is carried to safety by George A. Spooner, New Britain, Conn., civil defense director, during great Northeast flood in the wake of Hurricane Diane. Chaotic flood conditions provide valuable experience for local CD workers in any attack emergency. (Hartford, Conn. Times)

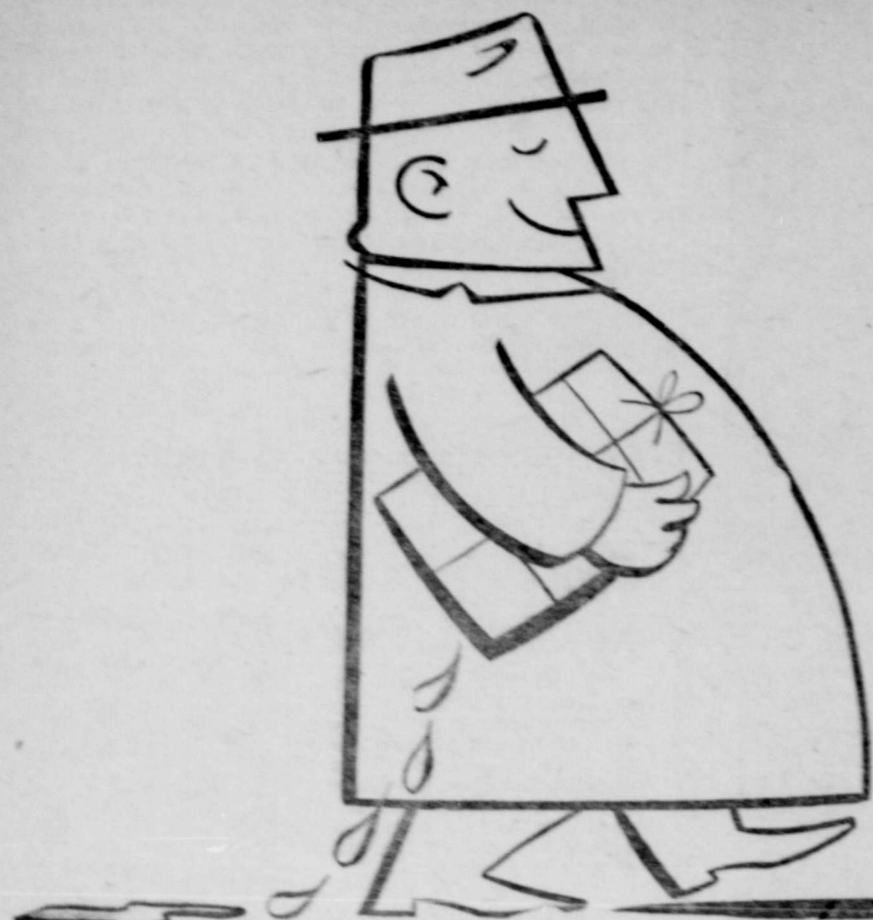

A SMART TRADER IS ONE WITH GOOD HOME-BUYING FORESIGHT AND THE ABILITY TO SEE AHEAD - - -

A smart trader is an individual who never loses time waiting for the new catalog to arrive to make his selections and a person who refrains from expending time and money on out of town shopping trips. It is easy for such a trader to see the economy in supporting the home merchants who make it possible to have a Silverton to live in.

When you buy in the community you live in it helps to develop everything that leads to a better community, and all that tends to make a better community life.

First State Bank

COPYRIGHT 1956 D. E. SCOTT

Do you bring home everything you've paid for?

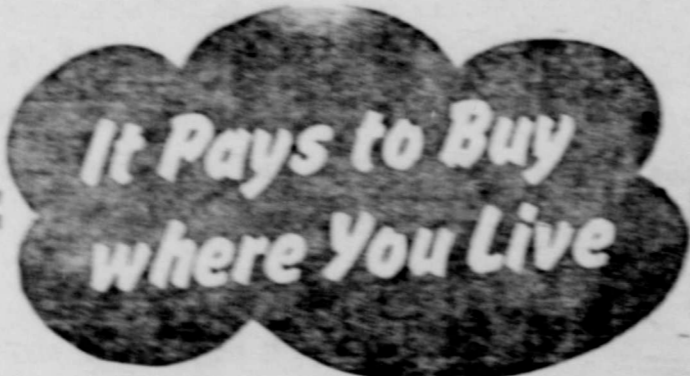

It's a good question.

Which you can answer "yes" — if you always buy from the business people right here at home. Where you live.

Wherever you buy, part of your money goes to build and to keep up the community in which you spend. To support schools, churches, civic projects, to pay the people who work in that community, and to provide better business and job opportunities for those who live there.

When you buy in YOUR OWN town, you get about the same merchandise you'd get anywhere else — PLUS the enjoyment of these other things that your money pays for.

When you buy anywhere else, you get merchandise ONLY. And your home community is a little poorer because you carried off part of its resources. And the many things other than goods that your money pays for are left for somebody else to enjoy, while they wait for you to return and give them some more.

YOU get everything that your money pays for . . . merchandise AND a trade- invigorated community to live in . . . when you buy from your home town merchants . . .

FORD sets 500-mile record at Indianapolis Speedway

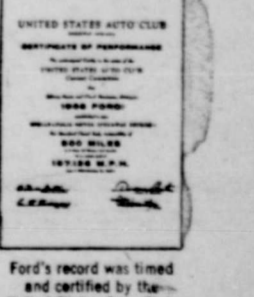

Again proves nobody outperforms Ford

... dramatic demonstration of the kind of performance and roadability that makes all your driving more fun in a Ford!

A Ford V-8 hurtled across the brick and asphalt surface of tough and testing Indianapolis Speedway ... whirling through the tight turns and flashing over the straight stretches ... to set a mark that no stock car ever reached before!

Ford fully realizes that the welter of claims and counter claims about "racing victories" (many of them completely contradictory) must be confusing and disillusioning to the public.

the first driver to win the "500" Classic with a better than 100 m.p.h. average. And now he comes back with a group of drivers to establish a stock car record with the great '56 Ford!

Ford's record was timed and certified by the United States Auto Club

Methodist Church is Scene for Steele- McWilliams Wedding

The First Methodist Church was the scene for the marriage of Kay Steele to Charles Dean McWilliams at 5 p. m. Thursday, June 14, 1956. Earl I. Cantwell, minister of the Church of Christ, read the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Steele and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McWilliams.

Mrs. H. R. Fulton, Jr., of Canyon, sang "Because," "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer." She was accompanied by Mr. Fulton, organist, who also played "Indian Love Call," "Always" and the traditional marches used for the professional and recessional.

Baskets of white gladioli and candelabra with white satin draped communion rail formed the background for the ceremony.

The bride's only attendant, Miss Doris Wampler, of Lubbock, maid of honor, wore an embroidered silk organda dress with full skirt. She carried a colonial boquet of white asters adorned with a miniature green satin butterfly.

Darrell McWilliams, twin brother of the groom, was best man. Carol Davis, of Lubbock, George Rampley and F. E. Hutsell were ushers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a waltz length gown of white embroidered organdy with satin trim, fashioned with a bolero, puff sleeves and a bouffant skirt. Her shoulder length veil was attached to a half hat of lace medallions. She carried a nosegay of stephanotis centered with a white orchid and streamers.

Mesdames Steele and McWilliams, mothers of the bride and the bridegroom, wore gardenia corsages.

At the reception given in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Steele the bride's table was centered with an arrangement of white peonies and carnations with rhinestone wedding rings as a focal point. Mesdames H. R. Fulton, Jr., F. E. Hutsell and Darrell McWilliams, Miss Pat Redin and the honor attendant, Miss Doris Wampler, were in the house party.

For the wedding trip to points in Colorado the bride chose a black linen sheath dress with white satin trim. Her accessories were of black and her corsage was a white orchid.

After June 18th the couple will be at home in Lubbock where both are students at Texas Technological College. She is a member of Kappa Gamma. Both are graduates of the local high school; he served in the navy for four years.

RALPH GLOVER BRINGS HOME HIS BIG FISH STORY

While on vacation in the Red River country of New Mexico last week Ralph made contact with a 20 inch, 4 pound trout and in order to make his story impressive, and to save a lot of explaining, he quick froze his catch and saved it for proof. It is now at home in cold storage.

The natives in Mexico told Ralph the "big ones" move up stream in August and September, so Ralph is now dreaming of the time when he can have off from his duties at the Southwestern Public Service Company long enough to finish his vacation on Red River.
