AMARILLO — Aggressive at the plate from the first pitch, the Muleshoe Mules won the bi-district baseball title here Tuesday, beating Perryton 11-6 at the Caprock High School Field.

The Mules gathered just seven official hits, but ripped the ball at the Perryton defense all day. The Rangers committed eight errors and Muleshoe made them pay. Of the Mules' seven hits, three were for extra bases. "We needed to stay aggressive on offense, big time," said MHS head coach Ted Leps. "At times we were a little over aggressive and went after some bad pitches.

But the kids were up there to put the ball in play and that's what you want." The Mules aggressive play staked them to a 4-0 lead after two innings. A squeeze play in the first inning resulted in two runs. With courtesy runner Mike Woodard on third and John Embry on second, Alfredo Gonzales layed down the squeeze bunt per-

Treated to banana splits

Ann Favor (right) serves well - deserved banana splits to two of her third grade math students, Moraina Romero and Eberado Salamanca. The treats were a reward for learning multiplication facts.

DeShazo students multiply learning into banana splits

By Martha Toles Frost

Teachers get lots of ideas from other teachers. It's a profession of sharing what works.

For Ann Favor, third grade teacher at Mary DeShazo Elementary School, what works (to challenge students to learn multiplication facts) is banana splits.

The banana splits began on construction paper — built from the bowls up — and materialized on Monday with 95 third and fourth grade math students eating real banana splits with one parent each.

Favor said students earned bowls, scoops of vanilla ice cream, cherries and toppings like chocolate, strawberry, crushed Oreo cookies, pecans and whipping cream by proving in timed tests that they knew their multiplication tables.

At first there were just pictures of banana splits, but when 29 half gallons of vanilla ice cream and two boxes of bananas plus 20 were delivered to DeShazo, the banana splits became deliciously real.

Third grade homeroom teachers who participated in the challenge with Favor were Holly Henderson, Nora Burris, June Parish and Debbie Kemp.

The third-grade math classes of Beth Skipworth and Wilma Robinson also joined the sticky, gooey challenge.

The fourth-grade math classes of Malia Whalin, Cindy

MHS' Flores third, Faver fifth at 3A state track meet

AUSTIN — Muleshoe High School's contingent made their presence known at the Texas State Track and Field meet here last weekend.

Muleshoe's Jesus Flores finished third in the 3A 800 meters, while Cari Faver finished fifth in the 1600 meters and Daniel Garbarino was eighth in the 300-meter hurdles.

"When it comes to competing at the state track meet in Austin, it is the ultimate for any track athlete," said MHS head boys coach Ted Johnson.

Flores, the District 2-3A ad Region 1-3A champion at 800 meters, needed to run the best race of his career in a highly-talented field. At the gun, things looked good for Flores, who had beaten the defending state champion, Joey Flores of Dimmitt, in the regional meet.

"Everyone waited on Jesus to go out and take the lead," Johnson said. "When he didn't, everyone locked into a slow pace."

The first lap was relatively slow. The pace picked up on the second 400 meters, but not the way Flores would have liked.

"At the 500-meter mark, Jesus needed to be in the middle of the pack," Johnson said.

"Since no one had really taken the lead, Jesus did. He probably should have waited and someone would have. It would have helped Jesus."

Flores took the lead with the other runners drafting off of him. He had to fight off the kicking runners down the stretch, managing to hold on for third and won a medal.

Flores ran a 1:59.86, while Anthony Weathered of San Augustine got by him at the tape to win in 1:59.18. Alejandro Acosta of Palacios snuck in for second in the photo finish in 1:59.57. Due to the slow first lap, the times were two seconds slower than Flores' winning time of 1:56.08 at the Region 1-3A meet.

Rounding out the top six were Ramon Garcia of Hidalgo, fourth in 1:59.88;

Shipman inks links letter with Western TX

By Martha Toles Frost

Todd Allen Shipman has been playing golf since he was four years old, and now he's going to Western Texas College in Snyder to play some more golf.

"Earning my way to college was always a goal," Todd said. "I thought I could do it."

Todd's golf coach, Ralph Mason, was at the Shipman home last week when Todd signed with WTC's Milton Hamm.

His mother, who went with Todd to try out in Snyder, said she was impressed with the junior college.

She said Todd started playing at the Muleshoe Country Club Golf Course with a junior set of three clubs they cut down for him from her light weight clubs. Since then, he has been using a set he got for Christmas as a sophomore.

Shipman signs letter of intent

Sherri Shipman said the whole family plays golf, "but not as good as Todd." She said with three of their five children in college this fall, she was glad to hear about the scholarship.

"We're real proud for him. He would have gone to college anyway, but now he can play golf, too."

Todd said he has watched a lot of golf on TV but has never had a lesson, other than the coaching he has received at school and from his dad, Gary, and other family members.

He says he likes the game of golf because it is a challenge.

Jack Schuster family to be honored

On December 20, 1957, the late H.E. Schuster and his son, Jack, were the first landowners in Texas to sign up for a new program called the Great Plains Conservation Program.

The Jack Schuster family, of Muleshoe, will be honored on May 25 for participating in and maintaining the first GPCP contract in Texas.

The Schusters are being honored by the Blackwater Valley Soil and Water Conservon District and the USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service, formerly the Soil Conservation Service.

Registration for the 9:30 a.m. ceremony will begin at 9 a.m. at the Schuster home seven and a half miles south of Muleshoe on State Highway 214.

A short tour of the farm will follow the ceremony. Refreshments also will be served.

However, in case of inclement weather, the tour will be cancelled but the ceremony will be held at the Bailey County Coliseum on West Highway 84 on the west edge of Muleshoe.

Part of the ceremony will commemorate 60 years of soil and water conservation in Texas. This "Celebration of Land" is a tribute to the SCS, which reached its 60th birthday on April 27.

The ceremony also will pay tribute to all the men and

McWhorter leaving Extension office for new job in Dumas

DUMAS — Kandy K. McWhorter of Muleshoe was appointed as the new Texas Agricultural Extension Service family and consumer science agent for Moore County effective June 1, 1995, according to an announcement made jointly today by Judge Billie Faye Schumacher of Dumas, and district Extension director, Martha E. Couch of Amarillo.

McWhorter will be moving to Dumas from Bailey County where she's served since 1987. She will replace Rosa Lee Kalka, who is retiring after 30 years of service as a county agent. McWhorter has been with the Extension Service since 1979, with prior service in Gaines and Borden Counties.

She holds bachelors' and masters' degrees from Texas Tech University in home economics and is accredited by women who have worked to conserve natural resources through six decades.

GPCP was created by Congress in 1956 to help farmers and ranchers in the Great Plains protect their light and fragile soils from erosion and to stabilize production in the drought-prone area.

The program offered both technical assistance from the SCS and cost-share funds.

"We farm sandy loam soil and had been trying to water it with row water equipment," Jack Schuster said. "We were wasting a lot of water and decided we were going to have to quit irrigating."

About that time, he said, the Great Plains program came along. He and his dad were able to continue what they had already started.

"GP got us into sprinkler irrigation and saved us a lot of water," Schuster said. "It changed the way we farmed."

In Texas, the Great Plains region includes 156 counties, or 93.6 million acres, in the western portion of the state. This region is well worth protecting. In Texas, it produces cotton, grain sorghum, wheat and grazing lands for cattle, sheep and goats.

The Schusters believed their

"It was a great way for Jesus to finish a high school career, being down at the state track meet," Johnson said.

Garbarino had a little trouble in his 300-meter hurdle finals. He came out of the blocks well and was in the thick of things until he started hitting hurdles.

"Anytime you hit a hurdle, it messes up your rhythm and it's hard to recover when you're in a race with seven other thoroughbreds," said Johnson. "Daniel is a junior and is a talented young man with the capability of making it back to Great Plains farm was worth the investment. Their contract totaled $12,728.35 and included irrigation pipe, pasture planting, range seedling, terraces and diversions.

Of the original work, the irrigation pipeline, terraces and range seedling have been maintained for nearly 40 years.

"Maintaining this contract and the conservation practices in it shows a sincere dedication to the land," said James Lutz, district conservationist in Muleshoe.

"Through GP we have applied conservation to millions of acres in Texas, but the Schusters exemplify the long-term commitment necessary to protect our natural resources for all times."

Currently, Texas has 1,637 active GP contracts in Texas covering 3,591,554 acres.

"GPCP has been one of the most popular and successful programs in Texas," Lutz said, with 92 percent of all contracts going to completion.

"Not only does the program save and improve soil and water resources, it also increases income tax base on completed contracts," Lutz said.

"In one to seven years, this increase pays back the amount of cost-share funds received from the government."

Austin again."

Labronze Garrett of Tatum won the event with a blistering 37.42.

"It's a great accomplishment just to make it to state and a great feeling to do well. Overall, I'm very proud of Jesus and Daniel. They not only did a good job at Austin, they did a good job for us all year long," Johnson said.

In her first trip to the state meet, Faver ran a respectable 5:32.07 to place fifth in the 1,600 meters. Kacey Warrick of Cameron Yoe won the event in 5:20.58, while Kayci Waters of Devine was second in 5:23.09. Smyth Bitter of Edna was third in 5:27.81, while Jes-McWhorter's most recent award was the Distinguished Achievement Award in 4-H and Youth Development in 1994 by the state Extension Service Specialist's Association.

She was recipient of Distinguished Service Award presented by the National Association of 4-H Agents in 1990. At Texas Tech, McWhorter was a distinguished student on the Dean's list.

Under her direction as agent in Bailey and Borden Counties, McWhorter provided leadership for all family and consumer science programs and coordinated 4-H programs. She was the county Extension Office Coordinator in Bailey County.

A native of Olney who grew up in Archer City, McWhorter graduated valedictorian of her school class and was a 4-H member in Archer County for many years.

McWhorter said the move to Moore County will be "exciting and a definite challenge."

"It will be the biggest place I've ever worked," said McWhorter, who has been working in Bailey County for eight years.

Also competing at the state meet for the Lady Mules was LaTonya Payne in the shot put. Payne finished out of the top six in the event, won by Brandi Bode of Ingram Moore at 42-5 1/4.

Todd plans to pursue a degree in accounting, then try to go pro. "If not, I would like to teach business and be a golf coach," he says.

Todd was the District 2-3A medalist this year and was a regional qualifier all four years of high school.

He placed fourth in the first flight of the championship division of the Texas-Oklahoma junior tournament as a 16-year-old.

As a 17-year-old, he placed in the top 20 of the championship division of the same tournament.

During the summer of 1994, he shot the course record at the Flying L Golf Ranch in San Antonio with a score of 64 and placed eighth at the Jr. Max-flt Championship in Denton.

In October, 1994, he was Muleshoe Country Club Champion with a two day total of 141 (70-71).

Todd, who has been a student in Muleshoe Independent School District since kindergarten, has participated in the Student Community Action Club, the annual staff and Future Teachers of America.

Green Thumb guide studies area history

By Martha Toles Frost

Lurine Dudley of Muleshoe has been involved in Green Thumb Inc. almost ever since she heard about it.

Green Thumb, in this case, has nothing to do with plants but something to do with growing and prospering.

It is a non-profit organization providing part-time employment for economically disadvantaged seniors age 55 and older.

Dudley's job is to give guided tours at the Muleshoe Heritage Center. She provides a touch of history with a sense of humor as she takes people through the partially furnished buildings.

The complex includes a cookhouse from the Muleshoe Ranch; the Janes Ranch House from the Janes Ranch; a "carpeted, draped, kitchened depot" (made into a reception room for weddings or anniversaries and a club house for area organizations); and an Indian-built log cabin from Oklahoma, Dudley explains.

She says local organizations have been very supportive of the heritage center, with the Student Community Action Club (SCAC) made up of juniors and seniors from Muleshoe High School donating $1,000 and the Thrift Store providing about $1,000 a month.

Dudley hopes more people will donate authentic furnishings to the complex and that others will become interested in volunteering as tour guides.

Dudley was involved in Green Thumb in Plainview in the Retired Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP). She also was in RSVP and Canyon Cares when she lived in Canyon.

Dudley says she would welcome an RSVP program in Muleshoe to provide a way of organizing seniors into a work force--especially as volunteers at the complex where she works 24 hours a week giving guided tours.

Dudley has lived in Muleshoe for about a year. She says she enjoys living in small, sparsely settled towns in Texas and New Mexico.

"I keep trying to retire," she says. "But my Social Security doesn't provide enough for me to live on (comfortably)."

Dudley says she always has preferred smart work to hard work and considers herself to be above average in ability. She enjoys studying local history between tours so that her presentation will be accurate and colorful.

According to information provided by Green Thumb Program Aide Faye Martin, who works with the Texas/New Mexico programs, "Employers find that older workers bring maturity, stability, low absenteeism and a wealth of experience to the workplace."

Green Thumb participants may be assigned to local non-profit agencies such as senior service centers, municipalities, libraries, schools, day care centers, environmental projects and public works.

There are four additional Green Thumb workers in Muleshoe: Lena Ruthardt, who works in the Muleshoe Public Library; Thursie Reid at People interested in becoming Green Thumb workers may call State Director Diane Cowan at (817) 776-8690. Additional information is available from Martin at (505) 763-6603.

Green Thumb Inc. operates the Senior Community Service Employment Program under a grant with the Employment and Training Administration of the United States Department of Labor with federal funds appropriated under Title V of the Older Americans Act.

The employment program for seniors age 55 and older has been sponsored by the National Farmers Union since 1965.

It currently operates in 132 Texas counties and two counties in New Mexico, providing almost 1,000 senior trainees with the opportunity to earn wages while contributing to the growth of local areas.

Green Thumb's priority is to encourage and assist program participants in developing and obtaining outside employment.

May is Older Americans Month--an appropriate time to focus on the contribution of the senior work force to business and industry.

fectly. Woodard scored and while the Rangers were throwing out Gonzales at first, Embry never broke stride, sprinting home from second. He scored standing up.

The Mules played well in the field as well. Andy Perez gave up nine hits, struck out seven and walked just two to improve to 11-4 on the season. Outside of one rough inning, the Mules kept Perryton right where they wanted them.

"Our outfield really played well," said Muleshoe head coach Ted Leps. "We robbed 'em on a couple of shots."

One shot the Mules didn't catch came in the third with MHS leading 4-0. A two-out error allowed the Rangers to score their first run off Perez, who had retired the first eight batters in succession. PHS pitcher Feli Landeros followed with a three-run blast over the 366-foot mark in center field to tie the game at 4-4.

But the Mules responded immediately with two runs in their half of the fourth. Robert Toscano's hit-and-run double scored Layne Kemp from first base.

The Mules added four more in the fifth to go up 10-4. The Rangers scored one each in the fifth and sixth to cut the margin to 10-6, but Perez hung in and shut down the Rangers the rest of the way.

Muleshoe added an insurance run in the seventh.

It was the second bi-district appearance for the Mules in the past two years. But the result was significantly different than a loss to Sanford Fritch in last year's bi-district round.

"You could tell the difference in them," said Leps. "The playoff experience helped. They did the things they needed to do to win. boy I'm proud of them."

Robert Jaime led the Mules at the plate, going two for three with two RBI and three runs scored. Toscano, Jimmy Gauna and Gonzales all had doubles for MHS.

The Mules (20-6) advance to the area round and will face the winner of the Boyd-Graham bi-district playoff, scheduled for Friday, 7:30 p.m., in Wichita Falls.

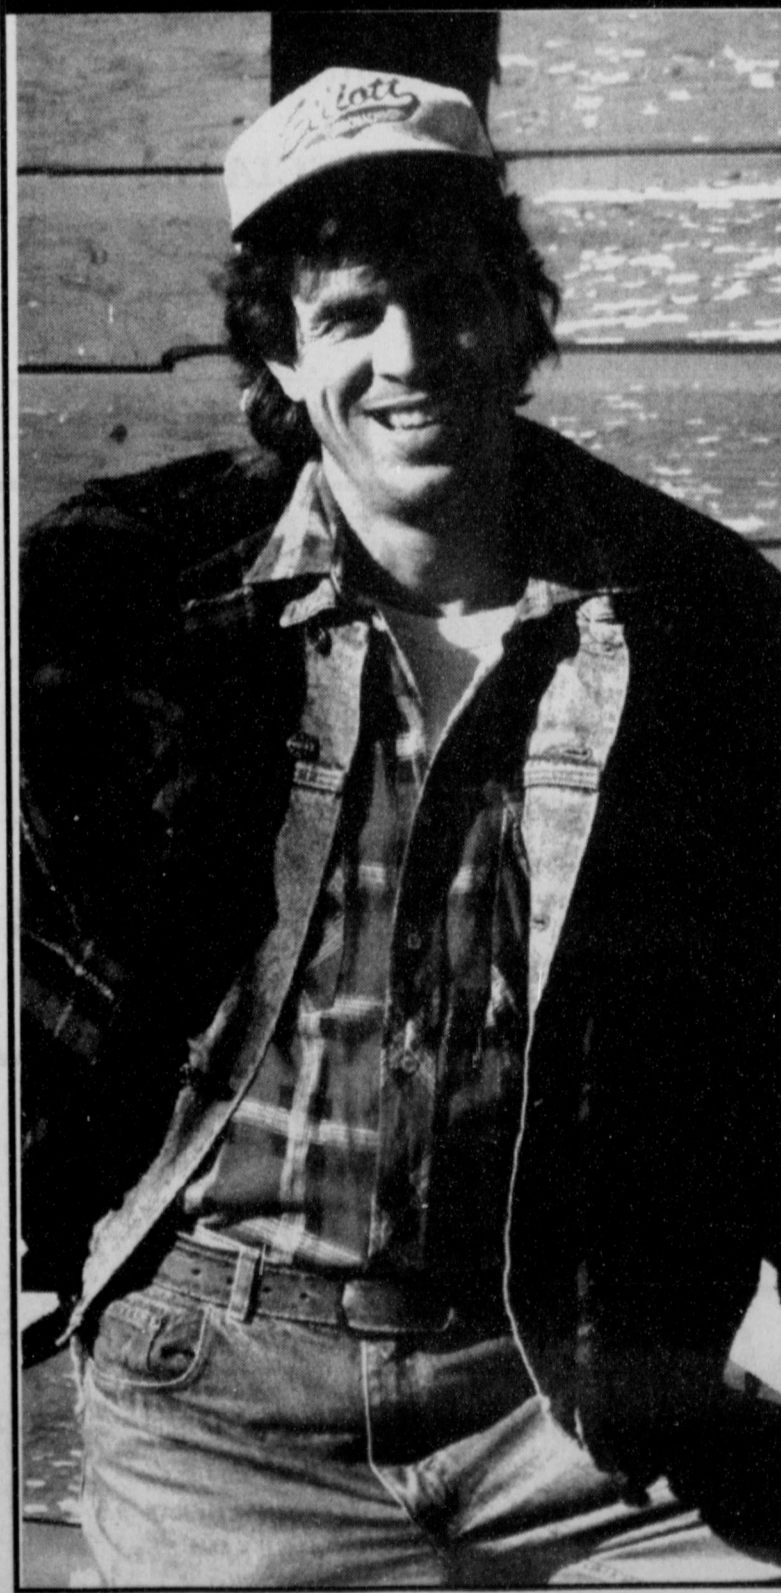

"We're going to try to play the game at Snyder, but we just don't know when we'll play yet," Leps said.

Perryton, the District 1-3A co-champion, ended the year 14-9.

Mighty 'M' Band holds banquet

The Muleshoe Band Banquet was held Friday, May 12, as outstanding students were recognized for their accomplishments, including the presentation of the coveted John Phillip Sousa Award which was presented to Jared Clarkson.

The banquet finished off a very successful year for all three bands in Muleshoe. Receiving top U.I.L honors this year were the sixth grade band, the Watson Junior High Band and the Mighty M Band, each taking the sweepstakes titles for the 1995 school year - first time accomplishment for Muleshoe.

The banquet began with a concert performed by all three sweepstakes winning bands. The concert ended in an impressive salute to the sixteen 1995 graduating seniors.

Activities then moved to the First United Methodist Church, where students and their families were served a pot luck meal and enjoyed a slide show of the year's activities.

The highlight of the banquet was the presentation of the award winners.

Each year the directors select a senior who exhibits not only exceptional musical skill, but also leadership skills, and other qualities that contribute to the overall success of the band.

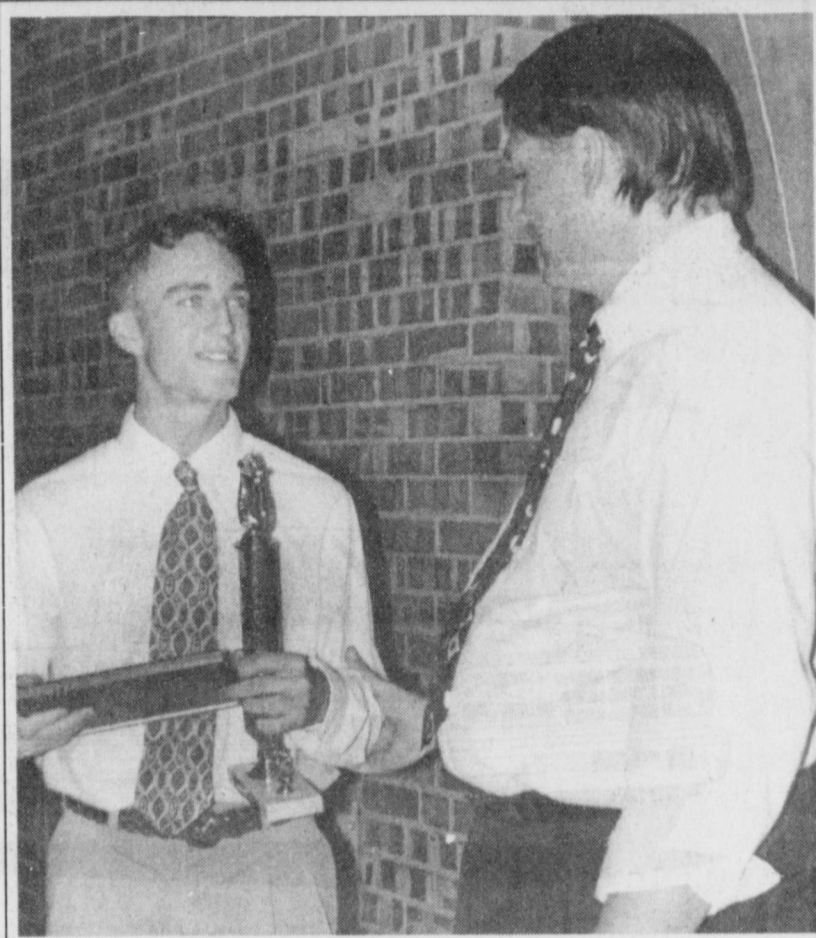

Clarkson, an outstanding student and leader who plays baritone for the Mighty M band, recently earned the honor of being accepted into the United States Marine Corps band.

"The music level for entry into the Marine band is extremely difficult, and we are very proud of Jared," said Rob Lovett, band director for the Muleshoe band.

Jared plans to join the marines after graduation and will be guaranteed a position in one of the Marine bands after completion of basic training.

Others receiving awards were Jason Barrett, Outstanding Senior Boy and Misti Richardson, Outstanding Senior Girl.

The Outstanding Junior Award went to Samuel Villarreal, and the runner-up was John Rodriguez.

Montgomery honored with bridal shower

Amy Montgomery

Miss Amy Montgomery of Arlington, bride-elect of Paul Reuter of Lubbock, was honored with a bridal shower Saturday, April 29, in the home of Lynne Box. Guests called between 10:30 a.m. and 12:00 p.m. Guests were greeted by Miss Montgomery, Sharon Montgomery, mother of the bride-elect, and Vicki Reuter, mother of the Prospective bridegroom.

Special guests included Laverne Bernethy, the bride-elect's grandmother, Pam Wiseman, Carolyn Wiseman and Rosa Nell Wood.

An antique ecru crocheted cloth, enhanced with appliques of spring flowers, covered the serving table. The table featured a large basket of multi-hued spring flowers, lilac napkins, blue candles, and brass and crystal appointments. A fruit tray of fresh fruits and amaretto cream cheese dressing highlighted the table. Sonya Liggett and Kristin Weatherbie served coffee, fruit punch, banana and strawberry bread, cream cheese rollups, and crab corners to the guests.

The hostess gift was four complete place settings of the couple's chosen China. Hostesses included Sherry Barrett, Jan Crawford, Drucilla Hutton, Diane Brown, Barbara Finney, Pat Watson, Becky Conklin, Carelean Hamilton, Treena Matthews, Donna Green, Danette Underwood, Mary Moore, Kay Mardis, Pat Prater, Lynne Box and the late Lisa McElroy.

Amy and Paul plan a June 17th wedding in Little Chapel of Brookhollow in Ransom Canyon.

Terry Hutto gives Scout program to Kiwanis

The Muleshoe Kiwanis Club held its weekly meeting Friday May 12 at the dinner Bell restaurant. The meeting was called to order by the Vice President Bryan Morris. The pledge was led by Jim Lutz and the prayer was given by Tom Bowen. The friendship coin was given by Jim Lutz to David Marricle.

Guests recognized this morning by Bryan Morris were Terry Hutto, Ricky Railsback and Ryan Marricle.

Sonny Bennett introduced the newest member Ricky Railsback. Congratulations Ricky for becoming a Muleshoe Kiwanis club member.

The program this morning was introduced by Bryan Morris. Terry Hutto talked about the Boy Scouts and their programs. He announced that the Scouts are doing what Scouts are supposed to be doing — learning and becoming young men.

Terry is proud of the Scouts and the Kiwanis club is too. They have chartered 15 boys and six adults. They have four scouts who have received Eagle Scout awards just recently: Aaron Purdy — health fair; James Cox — emergency preparedness; Kermit Price — largest mule shoe; Cory Williams — time capsule.

Terry assured the Kiwanis Club that its financial investment in the scouting program is being put to good use.

There will be a summer camp to Tres Rios. Five scouts will be participating in the trail of the eagle program this year.

Thanks Terry for a great program and we wish all of you success in the scouting programs for the coming year.

Bryan Morris presented Terry Hutto a check to help the Scouts in their future projects.

Members attending Friday mornings meeting included Flavio Garza, Joe Flores, Tom Bowen, Jim Lutz, Eddy Morris, R.G. Bennett, Sonny Bennett, Chuck Smith, Hugh Young, Bryan Morris, Jerry Hutton and the club's sweetheart, Mikki Bowen.
