OCEAN TO OCEAN ACROSS SOUTH AMERICA—AND BACK—IN 41 HOURS! CHEVY'S NEW V8 LEVELS THE HIGHEST, HARDEST HIGHWAY OVER THE ANDES!

To prove the durability of Chevrolet's radical new Turbo-Thrust V8,* the tremendous flexibility of the new Turboglide transmission,* the incredible smoothness of Full Coil suspension, we tackled the most challenging transcontinental road in the world -- the 1,000-mile General San Martin Highway. To make it harder, the Automobile Club of Argentina sealed the hood shut at Buenos Aires -- no chance to add oil or water or adjust carburetors for high altitude.

So the run began -- across the blazing Argentine pampas, into the ramparts of the forbidding Andes. Up and up the road climbed, almost 2 1/2 miles in the sky! Drivers gasped for oxygen at 12,572 feet -- but the Turbo-Thrust V8 never slackened its torrent of power, the Full Coil springs smothered every bump, the Turboglide transmission made play of grades up to 30 percent. Then a plunge to the Pacific at Valparaiso, Chile, a quick turn-around and back again. Time for the round trip: 41 hours 14 minutes -- and the engine was never turned off!

Plainview This Week Will Help Launch A New Bottle That May Well Go Round The World Eventually.

The 10-oz. king-size Coca-Cola bottle, now going on sale here, is "big brother" to the familiar 6½ bottle, which is known from Boston to Bangkok and back again. Its fame is such that, during World War II, a German prisoner leaping off the gangplank at an American post spotted a familiar sign, and, turning to an MP, said: "I see you have Coca-Cola here, too."

The soft drink is sold in over 100 countries, according to Howard Billingsley, manager of the Plainview Coca-Cola Bottling Company. "It is about everywhere," he added, "except behind the Iron Curtain."

But in at least one instance the bottle was pierced. Mr. Billingsley pointed out. That was when Eisenhow sent Marshal Malinovsky a case of Coca-Cola after the Soviet military leader enjoyed a bottle during the Potsdam Conference.

Mr. Billingsley said definitely that the "big brother" would not be the regular-size bottle, designed in 1915 at the recommendation of a bottling official who said: "We need a Coca-Cola bottle which a person will recognize if he feels it in the dark. (It should be so shaped that, even if blind, a person could tell at a glance what it was.")

Although about 80 percent of the Coca-Cola sold is in bottles, the man who invented the drink never intended it to be more than a soda fountain beverage. In 1886 John S. Pemberton, a pharmacist, prepared a soft drink in his back yard in Atlanta, Georgia, in a three-legged iron pot heated by a wood fire.

He took a jug of the syrup to the Eckstein Pharmacy at the historic Old South Points, where soda water was sold and the new drink put on the market.

In the first year only 25 gallons were sold, bringing in $50.00. Of this Pemberton spent $47.00 on advertising. Most of it consisted of cloth signs pinned to drugstore windows.

When Pemberton died two years later, his rights to Coca-Cola were bought by a 27 year old wholesaler, Asa Candler. In Candler's day The Coca-Cola Company changed offices many times," Mr. Billingsley said. "The time when it moved, a one-wagon carried all he firm's equipment and furniture."

Candler was a keen merchant. He originated the Coca-Cola poster and calendar, using Russell's picture on one of them. He was the first to use the slogan "Delicious and Refreshing," which appeared in 1889. And to get the public acquainted with the new drink, he gave away millions of tickets for free Cokes.

"They tell me in Atlanta," Mr. Billingsley said, "that even today someone comes across one of these tickets in an attic. If they send it in, they get a free case of Coca-Cola."

It was 13 years after Pemberton invented Coca-Cola before the drink was bottled. A young Chattanooga lawyer, Ben Thompson, who had come across a locally bottled soft drink in Cuba during the Spanish-American War, hit upon the idea. He and another lawyer, Joseph Whitehead, went to Atlanta and asked Candler if they could bottle Coca-Cola.

Candler, busy with his soda fountain sales, gave them the bottling rights to practically the entire country. This was one of the most amazing contracts in history—Thomas and Whitehead didn't pay a cent. And the man who had given them a letter of introduction to Candler didn't think enough of the product to ask for even a single share for himself.

Mr. Billingsley pointed out the early bottling equipment was far different from today's. "Bottles were washed by dropping bucket-shot in them and whirling it in water. They also used those old-fashioned sewing machines, equipped with a brush to scour the bottles."

Coca-Cola was the first soft drink company to use coolers. "The early ones were actually wooden tubs, sawed in half," said Mr. Billingsley. "The first electric coolers came out in 1933."

Mr. Billingsley thinks the secret of Coca-Cola's success is best summed up in the way the trademark is phonetically translated from Chinese. In China, where Coca-Cola is a popular drink, it means: "Make man mouth happy!"

SENATOR ANDY ROGERS TO BE HONORED AT TULIA MARCH 31, 1958

Floydada—Plans are near completion for an appreciation dinner honoring State Senator Andy Rogers at Tulia March 31, it was announced by Jimmy Willson, Jr., of Floydada who is in charge of arrangements.

The dinner will be held at 7.30 p. m., at the Tulia High School cafeteria, with a program following at the High School auditorium. Tickets to the dinner are limited but no limit has been placed for those who plan to attend the program.

"Senator Rogers has not announced for re-election.

"He has served the past one and a half years in an honest and sincere manner," Willson said.

Rogers was co-author of the bill which I. B. Holt of Olton introduced to establish the private ownership rights of underground water in the State of Texas.

He introduced the Lewd Literature bill, designed to curb the distribution and sale of vulgar magazines and other literature on our newsstands.

Rogers came into the limelight again during the past session of the Legislature when he voluntarily appeared before the Travis County grand jury during the insurance hearings.

His most important help to the taxpayers of his district was the Equalization of Economic Index which determines the amount that each county pays of the overall school cost of the state.

The bill for the protection of elevators, banks and others in connection with warehouse protection was introduced by Rogers.

Rogers co-authored the bill which reduced state property tax for state of Texas property owners.

"Above are just a few of the reasons why we appreciate Andy Rogers and want to do something for him", Willson said.

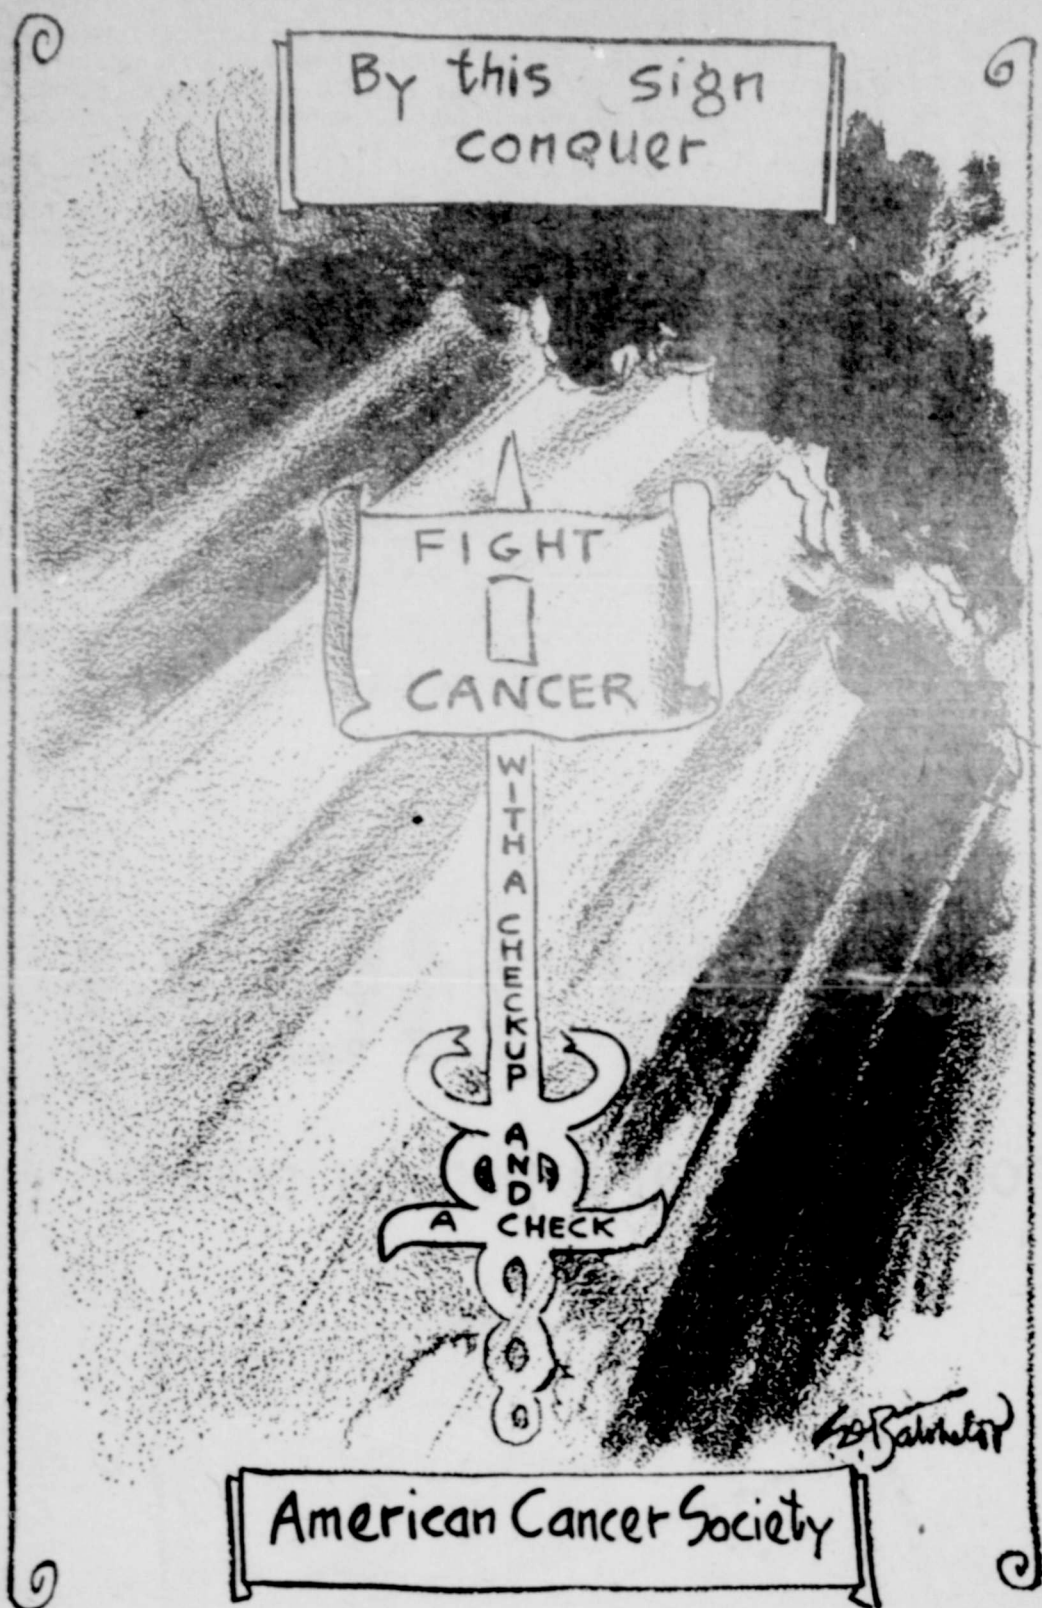

Andy Rogers was reared in Childress county on a farm. He attended school in Childress, going to the University of Texas and Texas A & M. receiving his degree from the latter. In 1948, after three years of service in the US Army Air Force, he returned to Childress where he was elected to the State Legislature the same year. He is a member of the First Baptist Church in Childress where he has served in many capacities, including Sunday School teacher and superintendent of his department.

Rogers has been active in community affairs also. He is a member of the Rotary Club, Jaycees, Farm Bureau and American Legion.

He married Georgia Anne Scott in 1950, a Lubbock girl. They have three children, Paula Ann 6, Andrea Jeanee 4, and Andy Jr., just one month old.

Reprinted by request of a non-subscriber to the Briscoe County News.

Mr. and Mrs. Windle Thomas are the parents of a baby girl, Mary Jo, weight 8 pounds and 3 ounces, born at the Lockney hospital on Tuesday, March 18. Mr. and Mrs. Otha Weaver, of Amarillo, and Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Thomas are the grandparents. Mrs. M. F. Weaver, of Dodson, is the great grandmother.

DALE McWATTERS HOME FROM METHODIST HOSPITAL
Dale McWatters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe McWatters, a sophomore in the local high school, has had his share of hospital life the past several months. Since school started he has stayed several days twice in the Lockney hospital and twice in the Methodist hospital in Lubbock. He came home Saturday afternoon after a 12 day stay in Lubbock. It was thought at first that he had arthritis; now it has been determined that he has a trouble caused as an after effect of a boil on or near his spine. He is in a cast from his upper body to his toes on one leg and to his knee on the other leg. He has to have help to turn over; his mother, Mrs. Joe McWatters, has been with him at the hospital each time and is caring for him now. Dale has recently had a telephone installed beside his bed and will enjoy having his friends call him at 7-4505.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Burson took his mother, Mrs. Una Burson, to Dallas on March 14 for a visit with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. D. Swann and children. The Tony Bursons were over night guests in the Swann home and then went to Fort Worth for an overnight visit with friends before coming home Sunday afternoon.

Mesdames James P. Patterson, Joe L. Fowler and Robert Ledbetter attended the annual WTSC conference in Hereford on Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. Shafe Weaver was brought home from the Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo on Wednesday of last week; she had been a patient there for several days and is much improved.

Mrs. G. C. Thomas suffered a heart attack early Sunday afternoon and was carried to the Lockney hospital. Mr. Thomas and Mrs. Odell Thomas, of Quitaque, went to stay with her for a day or two. Relatives reported on Monday that she spent a restful night and hoped to be home in a day or two.

Like a Housewife Hates Dust on the Furniture

Phillips 66 Dealers take a lot of pride in being good housekeepers. They have a housewife's hatred of untidiness. They keep their stations clean, including those all-important rest rooms.

They'll go all out to keep your car clean, too. "Whiskbrooming" the interior of your car is one of those extra little services your Phillips 66 Dealer is glad to perform. And he'll clean the windows for you . . . all the way around.

This obsession with cleanliness is part and parcel of our policy of "Hospitality on the Highway." You benefit from it at any station which displays the famous orange and black Phillips 66 Shield.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wesley and Mrs. Richard Weeks and daughters were in Canyon on Saturday to visit Mrs. Lonnie Wesley and new baby, Lonnie Dale, of Amarillo, in Neblett Hospital.

TRY THAT NEW ROAD TODAY!

From the Amarillo Sunday News-Globe
The first spring Sunday drive might well be along the new highway opened through the Palo Duro canyon, now designated as FM 284 and running south from Claude to Silverton. (Actually you'll pick up FM 146 between Claude and Silverton and go through another canyon—one of the prettiest in the whole Panhandle.)

Newcomers to the High Plains will note only the beauty of the drive, a stretch that would be called mountainous in the east, and which is so marvelously graded that the driver will not recognize the abrupt changes in altitude—except when he enters the massive cut on the south side of the canyon where the highway was pushed between the cliffs.

But oldtimers—ah, that is something else again! For FM 284 replaces the Wayside Crossing—a crossing that could be made by a sturdy vehicle some three years out of each decade. During the remaining seven years the effects of the gully-washers made the road impossible to travel. (Not that we had gully-washers in each of the seven years)—but it took a couple of years rest before anyone would tackle the job of making the road passable, and then at least three more years to get it in shape again.

As you cross the new bridge across the Prairie Dog Fork of the Red River, which cut that awesome canyon called the Palo Duro, look exactly left and far off on the other side of the river you will see the old Wayside Crossing road winding along.

For our money, the new canyon crossing is even more spectacular than the Palo Duro State Park road. And we've always believed that the Briscoe County canyon, with its towers of stone, resembling nothing so much as great red castles, is the most scenic spot in the Eastern Panhandle.

Inaugurate the spring season of 1958 by taking the drive—and somewhere down on the level floor of the canyon, looking up at the great rockwalls that lie behind and before you, doff your hat to the Texas Highway Department boys that master-minded the road—and for a moment pay tribute, too, to the Plainsmen who have trailed through that chasm for three-fourths of a century. Because, you see, if you lived in Wayside and didn't wish to drive more than 100 miles around the western edge of the canyon to reach your county seat (Claude), you had to tackle the Wayside Crossing.

There were a few other inconveniences to pioneering the Panhandle than just Indians, and rattlesnakes big as your thigh, and the long stretches between water-holes!
Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Long went to Sweetwater last Friday for a visit with her brother and family. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Tait; on Saturday they went to Blackwell to attend the funeral of a friend, Carl Whittaker. They visited relatives and friends while there; Mrs. Long says she saw folks she had not seen since before she and Gene were married. They returned via Lubbock and spent Sunday night there with friends.

Mrs. Lyn Welch, Walter and William visited her mother, Mrs. W. E. McAlister, in Lubbock from Friday until Sunday.

Renner No. 1 Semi-Shatter Sesame Led All Released

Renner No. 1 Semi-shattering Sesame, led all released varieties with a yield of 1335.5 pounds per acre in the 1957 Variety Test at the High Plains Station of the Texas Research Foundation at Half way. Renner No. 1 is still considered the best for commercial planting in the High Plains area, in Texas 95% of the commercial planting is Renner No. 1. The sesame test included fifty varieties of which nine were released and forty-one experimented strains. In the semi-shattering released varieties, K9 had a yield of 1218.88, Early Russian 1155 and K10 totaled 1127.21 pounds per acre. Six unreleased varieties ranked high in yields among the tests conducted.

Renner No. 15 was the highest yielding combine or non-shattering type sesame. The yield of 924 pounds per acre is not considered high enough to recommend for any but trial planting in this area. More research is necessary before a non-shattering type will be available for commercial planting.

The planting rate was 1½ pounds of seed per acre. Thirty pounds of nitrogen and 88 pounds of P205 per acre were applied at planting time with 50 pounds of nitrogen sidedressed July 18. Each variety was planted in single row plots 20 ft. long and each plot was replicated four times.

The experiment area consisted of Pullman clay loam. A preplant irrigation of six inches and three subsequent irrigation of three inches each was applied. A total of 17.4 inches of rainfall occurred between April 1 and October 1, so a total of 32.4 inches of water could be considered available during the growing season.

Renner No. 1 had 53.56% oil, 24.44% protein, rated good in seed quality and the seed were of tan color. Some of the experimental varieties give indications of even better sesame becoming available in the future.

A complete report on the variety test is being mailed to all investors in the station this week.

SP/2 and Mrs. Don Smith, of Ft. Sam Houston, San Antonio, spent the weekend here with his mother and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Lindsey. Mrs. Smith remained here for an indefinite visit. Don expects to get his discharge in about three months.

TAX-MAN SAM SAYS:

There are a lot of ex-school teachers who work for the Internal Revenue Service who are experts in reading hen scratching that is supposed to be writing. This time of the year these folks are always straining their bifocals trying to figure out the bad writing on the tax forms.

A lot of folks don't stop to think that their tax return is only one of millions that these people have to read and that bad writing can give some other taxpayer credit for the tax you have paid or the refund that you are due. The tax folks sure would appreciate your taking time to print your name and address and writing all your figures plain like.

7,000-lb. Grain Sorghum Using Phillips 66 Ammonia

Morgan Sturgess, who farms 1,100 acres near Tulia, Tex., says: "By side dressing 150 pounds of Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia, I harvested 7,000-pound maize. I also side dressed 60 to 150 pounds of Phillips 66 Ammonia on cotton and averaged 2 bales per acre."

Other Southwestern farmers have discovered that nitrogen from top quality Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia helps them get more profit per acre through higher yields. They get more cotton that classes higher at the gin... more marketable sorghum grain and ensilage are increased... more marketable vegetables are harvested... and profits on wheat increased through higher yields of grain and extended growing periods.

Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia contains 82% nitrogen and gives you more nitrogen per dollar than any other form of commercial fertilizer available.
