SIGHTS TO SEE IN TEXAS

There's plenty to see in Texas, wherever you may roam on a holiday jaunt or on a vacation trip. Clockwise from the lower left hand corner, some of the impressive sights to see in Texas are: The Big Bend, some of the most striking scenery in the state; Guadalupe Peak, highest point in Texas at 8,751 feet; the Palo Duro Canyon, camping grounds for Indian tribes in frontier days; East Texas oil fields, biggest of them all; the 570-foot San Jacinto Monument, commemorating decisive battle of Texas history; Gulf Coast Beaches, some of the finest in the world; the Alamo, "Cradle of Texas Liberty," and in the center of the state, Texas' most spectacular natural wonders. Sightseeing is fun in Texas.

Will Attend 4-H Club Roundup at Texas A & M College

Eleven 4-H Club Boys, Girls, adult leaders and County Extension Agent will attend the 4-H Roundup at Texas A & M College June 10, 11, and 12. These club members and their leaders will participate in the state 4-H contest: Sandra Mercer, Carolyn Garrison, Ann Wingo, and Joyce Thomas will enter the Shrub Identification contest. These club girls, by winning second in the district contest, are eligible for state competition. There will be teams from 24 Texas counties there. Their coaches and adult leaders, Mrs. Pascal Garrison and Mrs. Fred Mercer, will attend with the girls. These girls have worked two years for this event and are eager to attend the state's top 4-H club program. The Land Judging team of Lynn and Lee McDonald, Bobby Saul, and Robert Phelps will also do battle with the states top 24 land judging teams. These boys and their county agent, Robert Ledbetter won second in the county contest and also won second in the district contest. Out of these, Lynn McDonald is attending the roundup for the second time. At Roundup, there will be two thousand boys and girls. These boys and girls must be the best in their county program and win as high as second in district competition. They will participate in their demonstrations and contest, have parties, and hear inspirational speakers, and will be entertained by the best talent available in the state. This is the thing that 105 boys and girls in Briscoe County work for. They must have reached the age of 13 or 14 and become proficient in some demonstration or skill that will win county competition and do equally as well in district competition. 4-H Club work is the youth program carried on by the Texas A & M College Extension Service with its County Extension Agents and the work of local adult leaders.

All Possible Speed Should be Made to Eradicate Hoppers

Last week in the County Agents "Cotton Gram" to all Briscoe County Farmers, it was stated that insects were the worst that they have been in several years. This is being manifested in the grasshopper population that is showing up in all parts of the county. As of late this past week many farmers were spraying turn rows, barrow ditches, and pastures that were adjacent to fields. The late season grasshopper hatch has been great. All possible speed and means should be undertaken to control them before they get big and really start doing the damage. County Agent Ledbetter reported that he was alarmed over the potential damage that can be done. He reported that some folks had ask about baits for small hoppers, remembering the late thirties and early forties. Baits are all right he reported, but a much better job can be done with the good insecticides that we have available that we didn't have then. Deildrin, Aldrin, Chlordane and Toxaphene are the good poisons. The first two are excellent for large scale control and should be used with power spray rigs or airplane. One half pint per acre of the above two will do a good job now. They may be mixed with water or diesel oil. Chlordane is probably the one home gardeners will want to use. Chlordane should not be sprayed on vegetables that are going to be eaten, but should be put on the weeds and grass next to gardens. Toxaphene will do a good job in home gardens as well as under large scale control. One pint per acre should be used. Gardeners that have grasshoppers on their plants can use malathion safely, but this material must be applied quite often.

The couple will be married on June 29, 1958 in the home of the bride elect's parents.

Persons Severely Disabled May be in Line For Protection

Persons who are severely disabled and have worked under social security for a certain length of time now have protection under the social security law. John R. Sanderson, manager of the Amarillo office stated that disabled workers under 50 years of age may have their social records frozen to protect their future benefits. A disabled worker who is age 50 or over may be paid monthly disability insurance benefits. Disability benefits, however, will be reduced by the amount of any workmen's compensation payments or any other Federal disability benefit except payments made to veterans for service connected disabilities. For example, Sanderson explained if a disabled person became entitled to a disability benefit of $80 under the social security law and he was receiving $60 a month from workmen's compensation it would reduce the amount of his social security disability benefit so that he would receive only $20 from social security. Sanderson at the same time pointed out that disability payments from private agencies do not reduce or affect the amount of the disability benefit. The reduction is made only for workmen's compensation payments and for a Federal disability benefit other than compensation paid by the Veterans Administration for service connected disabilities. If any eligible person has failed to file an application to establish a period of disability, he should do so at once. All applications filed before July 1, 1958, will be effective to freeze a workers social security record as of the beginning of his disability period. Applications filed after June 30, 1958, may not be retroactive more than a year. Workers who have been

Farmers Home Administration Loan Program

Tulia, Texas, June 3.—More farm construction, with better homes for farm families, better shelter for livestock, and improved storage facilities for machinery and grain. That's the prospect in coming years said Ralph E. Griffiths, county supervisor for the Farmers Home Administration. Recently, as an anti-recession measure, his agency expanded its farm housing loan program to the fullest extent possible under existing laws set up by Congress. To be eligible now, an applicant must own a farm that is in agricultural production and must plan to produce at least $400 worth of commodities for sale and home use, based on 1944 prices. Many part-time farmers who previously were ineligible can qualify for loans under the expanded program. In addition to financing major construction, the loan funds can help a farm owner repair and update buildings. For example, he may wish to add a bathroom including a waste disposal system, modernize the kitchen, add an extra bedroom, improve the heating, insulation and electric wiring, put a basement under the house, and cement floors in service buildings, or paint the house and service buildings. Mr. Griffiths reports that the agency has $400 million available nationally which can be used over the next three years for farm housing loans. He said there is no specified limitation on the amount which can be loaned in any one state or community. Mr. Griffiths said that Walter T. McKay, state director for Texas estimated that if present farm housing loan activity continues as it has in the past two months, that more than $2,000,000 will be channeled into this state by the end of the calendar year, 1958. Practically all of the money will be spent locally to purchase supplies at lumber yards and business places and to hire skilled labor.

Hale Center, Tex., Man Reports—
"A $5.60 Investment Netted Me $54.85 In Cotton."

Jack Shelley, Hale Center, Tex., says: "I put down Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia on my irrigated cotton and got an average of 847 pounds of lint per acre. This compared to a yield of 633 pounds on a check plot. My increase netted me $54.85 an acre. I got more well matured, five-lock cotton bolls, too."

Other Southwestern farmers have discovered that the 82% nitrogen in top quality Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia helps them to get more profit per acre through higher yields and lower production costs.

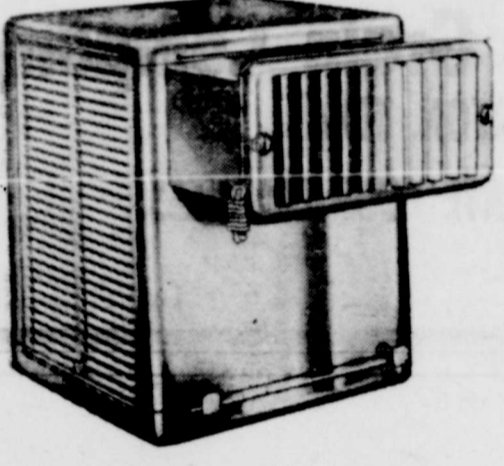

They have found that, by using Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia, they get more cotton that grades out higher at the gin; yields of sorghum grain and ensilage are increased; more marketable vegetables are harvested, and profits on wheat are increased through better forage, and higher yields of grain.

"With the automatic timer and perfect heat control, I can always count on taking eighteen perfect cakes from my double oven every time."

"I have baked over 4,000 pounds of cake in my electric range and not a single failure."

"Even after baking over 4000 pounds of cake, I still get a thrill when I take eighteen 'just right' cakes from my ELECTRIC double oven!"
says Mrs. John Ward, 1907 W. 6th St., Plainview, Texas

"My double oven electric range turned my hobby into a business — thanks to the controlled heat in the ovens. The ovens are a big help in my baking business, but I use them for family meals, too. I can bake one dish at a low temperature while I'm baking bread at a higher temperature in the other oven. Incidentally, I used the first profits from my cakes to pay for my new electric range. Now they're put aside for a college educational fund for our children."

"For years I had the false impression that cooking electrically was a slower process, but my electric range proved to me just how wrong I was. One wonderful feature of cooking electrically is that it cooks clean. Pots and pans don't get that 'burned-on' look and the range itself is so very easily cleaned. I like my electric range because it is fast, clean, thrifty and dependable. In fact, I like everything about it. The deep well has so many uses from baking potatoes to making pots of soup."

Have you had your free demonstration of the electric range of your choice? If not, see your Reddy Kilowatt dealer and get your certificate for two free bug lamps. Yellow bug lamps, which fix ordinary sockets, eliminate most of the light that insects see, yet provide a soft, comfortable light for outdoor living.
