All Around the Town

by Mary Ann Sarchet

Why travel to the mountains to enjoy cool, rainy nights? We have it right here, it seems, with all these cooling nighttime rains. We received almost an inch and a half of rain last week in two night showers, and this week we received about half an inch on Monday night and another Tuesday night.

Luckily, it has warmed up in the daytime to give us some pretty fair non-growing and maize-ripening weather. The agricultural producers are surprisingly divided on the subject of rainfall. It was our thought that most were hoping for dry weather, but we keep finding those who still hope for more rain. As far as I am concerned, we can do without the high winds and electrical storms we have been having.

Haven't noticed any crop damage from the wind in our county, but we did see a little near Tullia recently. The DeKalb, which we see quite a lot these days, seems to be standing the weather very well. About the only safe thing to say about the weather is: "It surely is something, isn't it!"

Everyone loves a circus. Or so it seems judging from the large crowd which turned out for the performances of the Sterling Bros. Circus and for the showing of "The Greatest Show on Earth" in Silvertown.

The little circus which performed locally was just about what we had expected. A real circus would never think of playing all the small towns in the country. We thought they did have a pretty fair elephant act, and I am sure that the children enjoyed it very much. Parents don't have to worry about the children getting ideas about running away to join the circus after such a performance. Strictly without glamour, it was.

Ringling Brothers, Barnum and Bailey, the most famous circus in the world, has not been touring as once was their custom. However, this week I noticed that they will play Dallas soon. This will be the chance of a lifetime for many youngsters to see a circus.

The Ringling circus will be traveling by train again, having found highway travel too expensive. We are hoping that they will play in our immediate area again someday. I saw their show about fifteen years ago, and hope that sometime my husband and son will have the same opportunity.

George Seaney was in the office this week. He is now selling the new Texas hunting and fishing licenses. He reminds everyone that if you fish or hunt without a new license you are violating the law. The hunting license is $3.15 and the fishing license is $2.15. This is a small price to pay for a lot of enjoyment, and without one you fishermen and hunters are taking a great risk.

Superintendent Clarifies Admission Charges

School Superintendent J. S. Hinds has stated this week that there has been some controversy concerning the prices charged for admission to the local football games. The prices charged in this district are 50c for school children and $1.25 for adults.

This admission charge was set by the District Executive Committee of the Interscholastic League, not by the local school.

Mr. Hinds also states that a second teacher has been employed to teach in the Eighth Grade. He is Mr. Wesley Ballard, who holds his Bachelor's Degree from East Texas State Teachers College at Commerce.

Highway Patrol Investigated One Accident In August In Briscoe County

The Highway Patrol investigated one rural accident in Briscoe County during the month of August, according to Sergeant D. R. Dowdy, Patrol Supervisor of this area.

In this accident no one was reported killed or seriously injured, and a property damage of $675.00 resulted.

This brings the total for the year in this county to one person killed, ten injured, and a property damage of $8,580.00.

Prior to the first of this month there had been a total of 1,088 fatal accidents in Texas. These tragedies resulted in 1,342 persons losing their lives.

The back to school bell has already sounded for Texas school children. They will be using our highways and streets to and from school. Motorists should drive with more caution and care than ever before.

Sergeant Dowdy pointed out that at the present rate of traffic fatalities, half of the elementary school children in Texas will be involved in a motor vehicle accident before they reach the age of 21.

Fifteen persons were killed and 240 injured in rural traffic accidents involving school buses in Texas in 1959.

The Sergeant stated, "The driver of a vehicle passing a school bus is responsible for taking due caution. He is responsible for knowing that his proceeding past the bus will not result in endangering any lives."

Remember, no one has a child to spare!

FIVE HUNDRED ATTEND SILVERTON'S HOMECOMING

A crowd of approximately 500 people representing several states attended the Silvertown school Homecoming Saturday. The gathering was one of the largest ever assembled for the homecoming celebration.

Pete Cowart, of Canyon, the manager of Palo Duro State Park, delivered the featured address of the meeting. He brought a film on the various Texas state parks. Cowart was raised in Silvertown and is a graduate of the high school class of 1932.

Highlighting the day's activities was the coronation of the homecoming queen, Mrs. D. H. Alexander, of Hereford. Mrs. Alexander attended the first school in Silvertown in 1893 and is a former teacher in Silvertown schools.

Mrs. P. E. C. Cowart of Amarillo and Chicago, Illinois, mother of Pete Cowart, was honored as the visitor traveling the furthest distance to attend the reunion. Former students representing California, New Mexico, Colorado, Oklahoma and Texas also registered for the homecoming.

Conrad Alexander, Chairman, presided, and Mrs. Dean Allard, Secretary, registered the guests. W. E. Schott, Jr., was named as Chairman and Miss Anna Lee Anderson was elected Secretary for the next homecoming to be held in September, 1962. A barbeque at 5:30 p.m. in the City Park, catered out of Plainview, wound up the day's activities.

Among those who attended the first school in Silvertown in 1893 were Mrs. Alexander, Lem Dannel of Canyon, Mrs. Maggie Watson of Gravette, Arkansas, Dr. W. A. Sedgwick, Mrs. Una Burson, Mrs. and Gertrude Braidfoot Arnold. Mrs. Alexander and Dr. Sedgwick were the only members of the group who were able to attend.

NIGHT SCHOOL TO BE CONTINUED AT JR. COLLEGE

Oliver J. Abel, Dean of Clarendon Junior College and Director of the Adult Education Program announces another bold and courageous effort to serve the people of this area by enlarging and continuing the Night School Program which was very successfully initiated two years ago as a branch of the college.

The Night School Program is designed to offer courses required of those who are seeking a college degree, teacher certification or vocational competency. Courses will be offered that will aid the adult in achieving the cultural, social, artistic, and religious desires and ambitions they have hoped many times they could pursue. In addition, courses in business will be offered which would improve the individual's ability on the job he or she now holds which will aid the individual in choosing a field of employment that will be satisfying; and prepare the adult (who has been denied vocational educational opportunities) for an employable future in a chosen field.

The following courses have been scheduled and staffed, and other courses will be offered when it is evident that there is sufficient demand to materialize a class.

- Monday nights:
Shorthand 113

Business Math 233
Music 113

Any other college course in which the demand will materialize a class, will be offered and staffed, according to Dean Oliver J. Abel.

Enrollment for the Night School classes will be held at the College Administration building at 7:00 p.m. September 12. No enrollment in these classes can be accepted later than the third meeting of the class which will end on October 3.

Classes will meet from 7:00 p.m. to 9:40 p.m. one night weekly with an intermission on the hour, except science and accounting.

Any adult, regardless of their past educational achievements may enroll in this program if they are not seeking COLLEGE CREDIT. Those who enroll for college credit must have fulfilled the regular college entrance requirements.

The Adult Education Program last year served well, many of the people of this area, and it is hoped by the Administration that it will serve many more during the current year.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Middleton of Amarillo, Mrs. T. W. Bell, Sr. of Turkey, Mrs. C. R. Badgett and Miss Virginia May were among those who attended a surprise birthday coffee in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Johnson in Quitaque Sunday afternoon. The occasion was to honor Mrs. B. Tunnell, mother of Mrs. Johnson, on her 75th birthday. Many other guests attended and the honoree was a happy woman to be remembered thus. She said it was the first birthday party she had ever had.

The cotton classing office located in Memphis is one of the most modern and up to date plants in the entire United States, with the very latest equipment being used to improve classing service, the directors said.

Initial construction costs, maintenance and improvements of the office is being financed by voluntary contributions of 25 cents per bale by cotton producers in the 12-county area with the gins in the district serving as collecting agencies. The building and equipment will be owned by the contributing producers.

The government pays all operating costs of the plant, including the salaries of the personnel employed there, the directors explained.

Original plans called for a one year program to finance the construction of the office, but in order to meet additional expenses of constructing a first class plant and establish a reserve fund to meet future obligations of maintaining the building and equipment it will be necessary to continue the

USDA Lists Sept. Plentiful Foods

Grocery shoppers will find a lot of broiler-fryers available in Texas food markets this September. They are featured among the six items listed as plentiful for the month, reports the Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A & M College. Turkeys are another poultry plentiful. Lamb, melons, peanut butter, and a wide array of late-summer vegetables complete the list. These foods were selected by the U. S. Department of Agriculture for special emphasis because the supply of each is expected to exceed normal demand. Homemakers can take advantage of the abundance by serving these foods often. September broiler-fryer marketings are expected to run about 5 percent more than a year ago. Look for meaty, tender, flavorful, young chickens from 2 to 3 1/2 lbs. The number of turkeys expected to be marketed in September is about the same as a year ago, but total weight may be higher because there will be more of the heavy breeds. Both chicken and turkey provide ideal fall-weather entrees for family fare. There'll be lots of lamb for National Lamb Week, September 15-20. Slaughter has been averaging about 6 percent more than a year ago.

Plentiful melons include water-cranshaws and Casabas. The late-melons, cantaloupes, honeydews, summer watermelon crop is expected to be especially huge. Choice of the late-summer vegetables will vary in different localities but good supplies of onions, carrots, squash, cabbage, eggplant, potatoes, sweet corn and many others will be available.

The Upper Room Used By 145,629 Texas Families

More than 145,629 Texas families are daily users of The Upper Room, the devotional guide that has achieved world-wide distribution, according to Dr. J. Manning Potts, editor.

Begun in 1935, the daily devotional guide now has a circulation of more than 3,250,000 copies every two months to Christians of many denominations in 100 countries around the world.

Contributors to the pages are men and women from all walks of life, many varying denominations, from all 50 of the United States and from 52 foreign countries. Texas residents who have been contributors to recent issues include those from Austin, Clute, Dallas, Fort Worth, Charlotte, Houston, Lubbock, and San Antonio.

The Unanswered Prayer of the Lord

Of all prayers recorded in the Bible the most wonderful is that uttered by our Savior, in the Upper Room, just before he led his disciples out into the moonlit night, on the way to Gethsemane. He prayed for three things that night; for himself and his glorification with the Heavenly Glory he had before his incarnation; for the faithfulness and providential care of his apostles; then he prayed for all those who should believe in him through future ages. His one petition on their behalf was that they might all be one, that the world might believe that he was the Messiah. This has been called the unanswered prayer of the Lord as divisions and denominations among believers is beheld everywhere. We know the early church was "of one heart and of one soul" (Acts 4:32), and that with a united front the gospel was preached throughout the known world in the first century. Within a few generations, however, as warned by Christ and the apostles, leaders began teaching new theories and doctrines of men instead of the inspired word of God. Error and divisions corrupted the pure religion and this culminated in the complete apostasy of the church in about the fifth century which lasted more than a thousand years.

Surely every sincere believer in Christ must deplore the divisions of Christendom. It is a gross violation of the Master's prayer; the one barrier against the successful evangelization of the world. Would to God we could come together with no creed or doctrine but God's holy Bible, in which we all claim to believe and restore the primitive Church in faith, doctrine and practice, just as it was in the beginning; so that unity might prevail and that his prayer and his death be not in vain.

The Silverton Church of Christ welcomes you to all services of the church.

Gin Yard Grouping Of Cotton is Advised

The practice of ginning cotton in the order of arrival at the gin needs revision. The reason, says B. G. Reeves, extension cotton ginning and merchandizing specialist, is the ever-increasing number of machines used to harvest the fleecy staple.

Machine harvested cotton, he says, usually has a higher moisture and trash content than hand-picked cotton and different settings of gin machinery and drying equipment are required for each type. A modern gin can turn out a bale of cotton every 6 to 10 minutes and there isn't time to make the needed adjustments on an individual bale basis. The result, points out Reeves, somebody loses and it is usually both the grower and the ginner.

The answer to the problem is the yard according to the methods of grouping of seed cotton on the gin harvesting or moisture content. Reeves says that a number of gins in Texas have been using this plan and both the ginner and grower have profited. The grower has received a better selling price for his cotton and the ginner has been able to do a better ginning job.

Reeves suggests that farmers and ginners get together and agree on a procedure for solving the problem locally. In some instances, hand-picked cotton has been ginned during the day and machine harvested cotton during the night. If machine harvested bales are in the majority, then ginning hours can be adjusted to take care of the local situation.

Experience has shown, says the specialist, that trucks and trailers are usually back in the field, under the grouping plan, as soon as they were under the old system of ginning.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Long have recently visited Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Foust, John and Jay in Farmington, New Mexico, from Thursday until Monday. They spent one day in Mesa Verda Park, Colorado. They stopped in Cortez, Colorado, for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Havarar. Mr. and Mrs. Foust and Mr. and Mrs. Havarar formerly lived here.

Mrs. Homer Sanders of Earth, a former resident of both Silverton and Quitaque, spent last weekend here with Mrs. T. C. Bomar. She attended the homecoming Saturday afternoon and the birthday coffee for Mrs. B. Tunnell in Quitaque Sunday afternoon.

Mmes. T. C. Bomar and Grady Wimberly spent Sunday with relatives in Canyon. Mrs. Bomar visited her sister Mrs. Kitty Lawler and Mrs. Wimberly visited in the home of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Aut Hodges. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hodges of Elkhart; Mrs. Ethel Hodges of Jacksonville, and Mr. and Mrs. Dock Brown of Tulla, were also guests in the Aut Hodges home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe B. Mercer, Mrs. T. C. Bomar, Mrs. Grady Wimberly, Mrs. Dean Allard and Virginia May, Silverton, and Mrs. T. W. Bell, Sr., of Turkey, and many other local folks visited Mrs. Ben O. King in the Tulla hospital recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bralley of Pampa, are the parents of a baby boy, Mitchell Wheatley, born August 14, 1960, in St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo. He weighed 7 1/2 pounds. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Munhall of Amarillo, and Mr. and Mrs. Beth Joiner.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Lowrey of Middlewater, attended the homecoming Saturday and spent the weekend with his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Northcutt.

ning on a first come basis. The best ginning job is done when the lint moisture is 5 to 7 percent. Drying to this level, says Reeves, gives a smooth sample and allows proper cleaning. He advises the farmers and ginners to get together on the problem before the harvesting season begins.

Social Security May Be Lost By Not Inquiring

A relatively large number of people in the Panhandle, even now, are not completely aware of their rights under the social security law, stated Hal Geldon, Manager of the Amarillo Social Security Office.

In a number of instances, retired individuals and their wives have lost months of monthly benefits, simply because they have failed to inquire from their social security office about their rights under the program. Geldon called attention to the liberalization of the eligibility requirements under past amendments, which have made it easier for older persons to qualify for insurance benefits.

Two other phases of the program which should not be overlooked are the survivor insurance protection and the disability provisions under the law. Geldon emphasized that many persons are inclined to underestimate the value of their social security protection.

CLASS NEWS

SENIOR NEWS
by Dale Francis

The Seniors of 1961 held their first class meeting for the year on September 8, 1960. Mrs. O. C. Rampley was re-elected as sponsor. Class officers elected were President, Dave Schott; Vice-President, Joe Anderson; Secretary, Doris Estes; Treasurer, John Burson; Parliamentarian, Dewey Estes; Reporter, Dale Francis.

It is customary that the Seniors leave a gift for the school. We are undertaking a year's project as our gift. All of us would like for our football field to have an electric scoreboard. Since the cost of a good score clock is too much for a class gift, we are going to sponsor a campaign to encourage everyone in the community to help us buy one. We would like to get it erected soon so that it may be used for the remaining home games this season. Dave Schott and Joe Anderson met with the Lion's Club last Thursday and proposed the matter to them. The Lions were very willing to help, and a committee was appointed to find out the approximate price and other details. Since this is to be a community project, we will be contacting all the civic organizations in the near future. We hope that you will be willing to help us; for we know you will enjoy the clock as much as the school will.

The Senior mothers are asked to meet in Room 15 this afternoon, September 22, at 3:30 p.m. The purpose of this meeting is to discuss a proposed chicken supper at our next home game.

JUNIOR CLASS NEWS
by Carolyn Garrison

The Junior Class met Tuesday, September 13, in room 15. The first business covered was the election of a new sponsor and new class officers. Bill Verden was elected as the class sponsor and other officers included: Larry May, President; Robert Rhode, Vice President; Bobby Kitchens, Secretary; Bobby Kitchens, Treasurer; and Carolyn Garrison, Reporter. The class dues were set at $4.50 a semester. The class felt that this would eliminate some fund-raising activities next year.

The class also met Tuesday, September 13, 1960. The main business was to pass out tickets to be sold for the Lion's Club Circus to be held on Thursday. The selling of these tickets had been voted on the day before in a called meeting. As further business, the class voted on what kind of play they wanted for their Junior Play. Becky Mallow, Carolyn Garrison, Robert Hughes, and Robert Rhode were appointed to a committee to select some plays to be considered.

There was quite a discussion about having a Parliamentarian. The motion finally carried, and Gary was elected to the position.

The Freshman girls have surely been complaining about such a short noon hour. They have 30 minutes for lunch and at least 28 of them are spent waiting in line to get the lunch to eat.

THE OWL'S HOOT

STUDENTS WILL ENTER NATIONAL SCHOLARSHIP COMPETITION THIS YEAR

All 1962 graduates of Silverton High School will enter the 1961-1962 National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Competition. O. C. Rampley, Silverton high school principal, announced today. The National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test will be given at 9 a.m., Tuesday, March 7, 1961.

To be eligible for the test, Silverton students must be second-semester juniors or first-semester seniors at the time for the examination.

The tests are given each year by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation as part of the nation's largest independent scholarship program.

Awards are granted on the basis of intellectual merit, but student financial needs determine the size of individual stipends, which are renewable each year without further testing.

The NMS exam, administered by Science Research Associates of Chicago, is also valuable to students for selecting their careers or planning their courses in high school and college.

After the test, each participating student will receive an informative folder that reports individual test results for comparison with scores of high school students across the country. Thus, students may learn their educational strengths and weaknesses — whether or not they plan to attend college.

Ninth grade students will get an objective insight into their scholastic development by participating in the National Educational Development Tests. The tests will be given at 9 a.m., Tuesday, March 7, 1961, at the same time the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test will be written by Juniors.

Last year over 300,000 students in 4,461 schools throughout the nation took the tests.

Prepared and administered by Science Research Associates in Chicago, the annual three hour NEDT examination provides scores in English, social studies, mathematics, natural sciences, and word usage.

Each participating student may plot his scores on a Student Profile Leaflet, to learn how he compares with other students at his grade level in the country.

This evaluation of educational strengths and weaknesses helps students plan their high school and college courses and make career decisions. The tests also enable teachers to spot talented students so that they may receive realistic guidance and motivation early in their educational careers, he said.

In recognition of their ability, the top-ranking 25 per cent of test participants in the state will receive "Certificates of Educational Development."

Business Teacher To Attend Workshop

The Texas State Business Teachers Association is sponsoring a workshop at West Texas State College on Saturday, September 24, beginning at 8:45 a.m.

The program will be centered around the curriculum study that is going on in Texas, particularly as it affects business education. A discussion will be carried on concerning what the minimum achievement standards and equipment standards should be in the teaching of specific business education courses.

The afternoon session will be devoted to a question and answer period where a panel of outstanding teachers will answer questions that are submitted by mail, questions that are handled in during the morning session, and questions that are asked from the floor.

THE CIRCUS COMES TO TOWN

(Robert Hughes)

Up goes the big tent,
Here comes a clown;
Say hello to the circus,
It's visiting your town!

Those words echoed through Silverton last Thursday due to the fact that the Lion's Club, headed by President Alvin Redin, succeeded in obtaining the Sterling Brothers' Circus for two performances on Thursday, September 15.

The Sterling Brothers' Circus was a three-ring circus of thrills and fun. There were over one-hundred performers and animals. The Lion's Club is to be commended for its efforts to provide the citizens of Silverton with entertainment.

The Sterling Brothers' Circus generously consented to let the Lion's Club have a large percentage of all tickets sold before the performance. The Lion's Club passed on its good fortune to help the Juniors earn money by letting them sell tickets for a percentage of the price.

The Lion's Club and the Junior Class take this opportunity to thank the thoughtful people who bought tickets ahead of time for supporting your community and school by doing so.

F. B. L. A. HOLDS FIRST MEETING OF YEAR

A WORD FROM OUR SPONSOR

During the rush of the first few days of school, the students and teachers have all been diligently going about their tasks as systematically as possible. Routines have not yet been firmly established in our minds and as the last bell rings in the afternoon we sometimes ask ourselves just where the day went!

Several students in the FBLA Club have contributed time and articles toward getting the first edition of the paper out. Selection of THE OWL'S HOOT staff had not been completed in time to have a student editorial or to print the names of the members this week.

I am indeed grateful that Miss Faye Bonifield has consented to work with me as co-sponsor of the paper. She has joined our teaching staff with the attitude that she will do all that she can to promote the interests of the school. We believe that much can be accomplished through the cooperation of the English and Business Departments.

It is our goal to give the students of Silverton High School some practical training in Journalism. Any student in school may submit articles for the paper; teachers are also asked to contribute items of interest. Those who do so sacrifice their own time, for they are not excused from their regular class duties to complete the work. The only remuneration they receive is the praise that they may earn by doing their work well.

My First Appearance Before An Audience

by Robert Rhode

The following theme was written for Miss Faye Bonifield's English III class by Robert Rhode. The writing of themes was assigned as part of the regular classwork; originality was to be a key factor in determining the grade of the theme. This theme was chosen as an example of the work done.

It was a warm, spring day only a week before I was to make my first public appearance before an audience; however, fate had not revealed that juicy bit of news to me yet. I was walking home from school whistling back at a Blue Jay in a tree when suddenly Mrs. Blossom Bottom came running (maybe I should say waddling) out of her yard toward me. She said she heard me whistling at the bird and then she began jabbering something to me. She talked for fifteen minutes before I realized that she wanted me to do something. I quickly said yes and hurriedly got away without finding out what I was going to do. That was where I made the worst mistake in my life.

The next day I found out what I had said I would do. Another woman — about the same caliber as Mrs. Bottom — called me the next day on the telephone and told me how glad she was that I accepted an invitation to appear before the Women's Blue Tailed (or maybe it was the Blue-Tailed Women's) Bird Watchers Club and to give them the mating call of all the male Blue-Tailed birds in that area. I was so shocked I dropped the

Peter, Peter, pumpkin eater,
Had a wife and couldn't keep her.
Peter sadly shook his head;
"Darn inflation!" Peter said.

Monday afternoon there I stood in front of all those women. Behind the stage I could hear Tom getting ready to play the record. I got my mouth ready to give a mating call of a bird when tragedy struck. I don't know if Tom did it on purpose or by accident, but he still did it. Instead of the bird calling record, he played a rock-and-roll record. When I heard the music I broke out in a cold sweat and closed my eyes.

"I'll never live this down." When I opened my eyes nearly fell over. All the dignified women were snapping their fingers in time to the music. They began jumping around and dancing to the fast music. I saw you, Mrs. Blossom Bottom, and you, Mrs. Blossom Bottom, and Tom and I left the record with the women and left before they could see to their senses; they never did.

We later learned that the high dignified Women's Blue-Tailed Bird Watchers Club had changed its name to the Cool Cat Club of the Rock-and-Roll Hop. I believe they finally realized that birds and male bird mating are strictly for the birds.

The Future Business Leaders of America met with their sponsor Mrs. Faye Rampley, on Thursday September 8, to elect their officers for the current school year.

The new officers elected are:
President—Celene Lanham
Vice-President—Joyce Field
Secretary—Becky Mallow
Treasurer—Jane Brooks
Reporter—Jerry Williams

The group decided to continue their project of editing the school paper. Miss Bonifield, the High School English teacher, was chosen to assist Mrs. Rampley in sponsoring "THE OWL'S HOOT". Only those who have worked directly with the school paper in the past realize the amount of responsibility and time that are involved in this project. It is the goal of FBLA to give you an informative and interesting account of the events taking place in our school.

phone and just stood there. After I could think again, I said to myself, "Now I've really done it!" The rest of the week went very slowly for me. I had no idea what I would do on Monday at the club meeting. I couldn't imitate my bird calls especially Blue-Tailed birds. I didn't even know of any Blue-Tailed birds. I was really in a fix.

I didn't tell anyone about my problem until Sunday afternoon when I really began to worry. I then told Tom, my good friend. (A fine friend he turned out to be. Tom thought he had a solution to my problem. He knew where I could get a record of bird calls and he would play it for me behind the stage while I stood before the women and pantomimed the sounds.

It sounded like a good idea to me so I agreed to do it. Monday afternoon there I stood in front of all those women. Behind the stage I could hear Tom getting ready to play the record. Good Housekeeping Around Grain Bins Cuts Insect Losses

In many areas of the state, grain has been stored or is in the process of being stored. Insects will damage much of this stored grain if preventative measures are not taken before storage. C. F. Garner and R. L. Ridgeway, extension entomologists, offer helpful hints on ways to prevent insect damage of stored grain.

One of the first requirements for proper grain storage is the use of adequate storage facilities, the specialists say. Grain storage structures should exclude all outside moisture, and they should also be easily accessible for inspection and fumigation of the grain. Bins in which grain can be aerated are helpful in cooling or drying grain.

No matter how well the storage facilities are constructed, they cannot protect the grain unless they are clean. Before they are used, bins should be thoroughly cleaned of all waste material and sprayed with a residual spray. Old grain, trash or other debris furnishes excellent living quarters for insects, the entomologists continue. The specialists point out that good housekeeping practices in and around grain storage bins will aid in eliminating insect infestations.

Malathion has been approved for use in stored grain as a protectant against insects. The specialists report that a tolerance of eight parts per million has been established. If this chemical is applied before the grain is placed in final storage, it will greatly reduce the possibility of insect damage.

Garner and Ridgeway suggest a conference with the county agent before grain harvest begins. The agent can supply valuable information and suggestions that may prevent sizeable losses due to insect damage.

Annual Texas Prison Rodeo To Be Held In October

A full-scale variety of entertainment with eight television, movie and recording stars in personal appearances has been scheduled as headliners for the 29th Annual Texas Prison Rodeo in Huntsville five Sundays in October in the prison's million-dollar stadium.

For the opening performance on October 2, Ricky Nelson, famous recording star will take the spotlight, followed by Allen Case (The Deputy) and Neil Sedaka, balladier, on October 9.

Molly Bee, who rose to fame on the Tennessee Ernie Ford Show, will appear October 16, along with Bo Diddley, with an unusual singing and playing style which has won him countless admirers.

Movie Star John Wayne, whose recent film, "The Alamo" has rocked the world, comes to Huntsville on October 23. Sharing honors with Wayne will be that teen-age sensational singer, Frankie Avalon.

Closing the 29th Annual Prison Rodeo on October 30 will be none other than Singer-Musician Jimmie Rodgers, an entertainer who is popular with all age groups.

In addition to entertainment celebrities, there will be a host of inmate riders contesting for prizes in what is already known as the "World's Wildest Rodeo."

Outside attractions include the popular girls' barrel race, trick riders and other topflight specialty acts.

There also will be a number of inmate groups on tap to help round out the fast two-hour show, including the Goriee Girls, with Candy Barr, a former Dallas entertainer.

Net proceeds from ticket sales are earmarked for the prisoners' welfare fund which pays for special rehabilitative services not furnished by legislative funds.

Reserved seat tickets are now on sale at $2.40, $3.75 and $4.40 each, tax included. They may be had by writing Rodeo Ticket Office, Huntsville, Texas, enclosing a check or money order. There are 30,000 seats in the modern stadium.
