All Around the Town

What is the value of the trading stamps you save?
Are you one of those persons who reportedly would drive several extra miles to an out-of-the-way business establishment to buy because that merchant gives the added bonus of trading stamps with every purchase?
Have you ever calculated the value in dollars and cents of your stamps?
They are handy at Christmas or on other occasions when non-essentials are required for our pleasure, and often books of stamps are traded for things we badly need, which we cannot do without and for which we would be forced to pay cash if we did not have the stamps. When you make your selection at the redemption store you feel like you have truly received a free bonus.

Have you ever considered the cost of the stamps to your household budget?

Are the stamps more valuable or would a cash saving be more welcome? Are the stamps worth more than money?

The Value of 0
A zero is a little numeral which signifies nothing. Nothing, that is, until it is used in connection with another numeral or letter.

When placed to the right of a numeral, little rows of 0's are a most comforting sight—unless they appear on a statement of account or happen to be printed in red.

A single red 0 can be a very unappealing sight to the scholar. Our faces were pink on discovering that our slip was showing in last week's paper. The fire department really isn't asking $100.00, but $10.00 for their regular $15.95 fire extinguishers. It is a good extinguisher, and even though Dr. Muckleroy (tongue-in-cheek) offered to buy the whole shipment at the "regular" price, we hope our readers will discard one of the 0's and buy them at the bargain price of $10.00.

The second-place goof in last week's paper came when we indicated that one 4-H winner should be sweepstakes winner of the clothing demonstration. Actually, all four of the girls who were pictured shared the honors equally, each being the top winner in her division of the show.

Guess we celebrated "April Fool's Day" instead of Hallowe'en.

IN PRETTY pre-game ceremonies held last Friday evening, Miss Rita Brown was crowned Football Queen of Silverton High School for 1961-62. She is shown with Co-Captains, Robert Rhode and Larry May. Other candidates for Football Queen were Susie Hill, Marcalyn Lee and LaJuan Curby. The Owls are idle this week after losing to Crosbyton last week. The season will close next week as the Owls meet the Petersburg Buffaloes at 8:00 p.m. at Petersburg. (Briscoe County News Photo)

Several Calls Answered By Local Fireman

Firemen last week answered a number of calls to various parts of the city and county to help fight grass fires. The rainy weather has temporarily eased the problem of grass fires, but when it becomes dry again, the problem will also still be around.

Everyone can help to combat the problem of grass fires by being especially careful with cigarettes when driving through the country and by avoiding burning trash on windy days. The grasses have grown very tall in some places and burn rapidly on dry, windy days.

Let's give the firemen, ranchers and other property owners the best cooperation in this matter. Grasses and weeds around homes should either be cut and raked into a pile or burned standing on a very calm day when you are there to watch and keep it under control. Keep a garden hose handy and connected in case it is needed while burning.

Thanks a million to everyone who helped us put out our grass fire last week. Special thanks to the members of the fire department for their assistance. Mrs. J. H. Burson Johnnie Burson

County Receives Measurable Showers

Briscoe County has received several measurable showers in the past week. Several damaging hails were reported, also, north and south of town.

In Silverton, light hail fell with a rainstorm Sunday evening. Some leaves were knocked from the trees, but the hail was very short-lived. South of town some cotton was damaged by the hail, which fell in larger amounts. North of town it was reported that quite a bit of hail and rain fell but that apparently no crop damage was received. Up to two inches of moisture was measured in the area north of Silverton.

Grady Martin, new official weather recorder in Silverton, measured .78 of an inch in town. Grady has been testing the weather instruments and preparing to record the spring gales and changes in barometric pressure, as well as the rains and snows which come our way.

Quitaque also received a much-needed shower this week.

Flying Queens To Play Here Next Tuesday

Coach Harley J. Redin's 1961-62 edition of the Hutcherson Flying Queens from Wayland Baptist College, Plainview, will give their first exhibition of the season Tuesday, November 7, at 7:00 p.m. in Silverton High School gym.

The Queen Bees, Wayland's freshman squad, will play Silverton High School in the first game. The Bees are then slated to take on the Flying Queens in the second game starting about 8:30 p.m.

Three years ago the Queens played the Bees at Silverton in a game that went five overtimes before was halted, and with the closeness of the two teams, there is a good chance that this could happen again.

Coach Redin's squad, six-times National A.A.U. champions, have one of the finest teams returning for this year's campaign in the history of the school. With four seniors coming back to lend assistance to his fine crop of juniors and sophomores, the veteran squad could easily repeat in National A.A.U. competition.

Seven of the Flying Queens were on the 1959 Pan-American Woman's Basketball team, coached by Redin, who toured Russia playing against a Soviet All-Star team.

Returning seniors are: Gay Ivey,

Texico, N.M.; Marsha Scoggin, Collinsville; Nelda Smith, Emerson, Arkansas; and Evelyn Searles, Spiro, Oklahoma.

Juniors members include: Margie Guinn, Abernathy; Rose Mary Jones, Trent; Glynna Masten, Sudan; Betty Scott, Tonkawa, Oklahoma and Laura Switzer, McLean.

Sophomore players are: Carol Cooke, Bula; Margie Hunt, Camargo, Oklahoma; and Opal Bogard, Bula.

Two freshman from Mississippi, Linda Puckett, Morton; and Carolyn James, Forest, have also added to the team this year and will be used in the roster slots.

John Burson, winner of the 6-year-olds; Kenny Snow, winner of the 10-year-olds; Thurman May, winner of the 9-year-olds; Marvin Self, winner of the 7-year-olds, are shown with Homer Stephens of Stephens Ford, local sponsor of the Punt, Pass and Kick contest. The boys received their awards at the halftime of the football game last Friday night. —Briscoe County News Photo

Thompson - Riney Vows Exchanged In Pretty Candelight Ceremony

In a beautiful candelight ceremony at 4:30 p.m. on Thursday, October 19, in the First Baptist Church in Silvertown, Miss LaGuan Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Thompson of Silvertown, became the bride of Mr. Joe Riney, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Riney of Olton, Texas. The exchange of vows was directed by the Rev. Carlos McLeod, pastor of the First Baptist Church, before the altar which was decorated with a heart-shaped arch of white mums and greenery flanked with candelabra holding white tapers.

The bride, escorted and given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina-length gown of white chantilly lace over taffeta, styled with high neckline and long sleeves which ended in petal points over her hands. Her fingertip veil of French illusion fell from a crown of seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of white Frenched carnations centered with sweetheart roses carried atop a white Bible.

Miss Darla Peugh, a student at West Texas State College, attended the bride as maid of honor. She wore a dress of peacock blue velvet with bouffant skirt, designed with fitted bodice, bateau neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. She wore a brief matching hat with a short bluish veil and carried a cascade bouquet of Frenched carnations.

Flower girl was Miss Judy Stephens. She wore a similarly-styled dress of peacock blue fashioned with bouffant skirt, fitted bodice, cap sleeves and bateau neckline. She wore a brief headpiece and a wrist corsage of Frenched carnations and carried a basket of rose petals.

Nena Kay McDaniel and Kay Strange lighted the candles. They wore dresses fashioned identically to that of the flower girl. All the girls wore pearl drop necklaces, gifts of the bride.

Derron Thompson, brother of the bride, Fred and Gene Riney, brothers of the groom, and Kenny Thornton were ushers. Best man was David Hamm of Olton.

Mrs. L. B. Garvin, Jr., organist, played the traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Shafe Weaver as she sang, "Whither Thou Goest," "O Perfect Love," and "The Wedding Prayer."

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in fellowship hall of the church. The serving table was laid with a white lace cloth over blue and silver and crystal appointments were used.

The three-tiered white wedding cake was trimmed with blue and was topped with a miniature bride and groom. Miss Maggie Schofield, a student at Texas Tech College, registered the guests, and Mrs. Jimmy Ray Baird, Mrs. David Tipton, Miss Elaine McDaniel and Miss Sheryl May, presided at the serving table. All wore corsages of Frenched carnations.

The bride chose for traveling a two-piece blue suit with white and black accessories. She wore a corsage of sweetheart roses taken from her bridal bouquet.

The couple is now at home in Midland, Texas, where the bride is continuing her schooling at Jessie Lee's School of Hair Design. The groom is employed by Simplex Time Company, having been transferred there by Simplex from Lubbock. The bride had been a student of Jessie Lee's in Lubbock before her marriage.

Several bridal courtesies were given for the couple before their marriage. A rehearsal was held Saturday, October 14, at 6:00 p.m. at the First Baptist Church and was followed by a wedding party social in the community room of the Production Credit Association building.

When hog raisers figure their profits at the end of the year, looming large on the debit side of the account books are the initials VPP and a loss figure of $100 million.

These initials stand for virus pig pneumonia, one of the most widespread and costly swine diseases in this country today. VPP may infect up to 50 per cent of the animals in a herd and cause lowered feed efficiency ranging from 10 to 30 per cent. But, because it doesn't cause spectacular deaths, far too many hog owners go on living with the problem, and taking continuing losses which could be prevented.

Virus-pig pneumonia can affect half the pigs in a herd.

What are the virus pig pneumonia symptoms for which a farmer should watch? Coughing is one common symptom... also diarrhea, listlessness and sneezing. The cough is of the dry, hacking type often mistaken for a "dust" cough.

The sick pigs generally maintain their appetite, but do not gain properly and sometimes there is severe stunting.

Unfortunately, as with so many other diseases, virus pig pneumonia can be confusing to the farmer because it can resemble several other disease conditions. The symptoms may look like those of swine flu, or they may be mistaken for lungworm infection, to mention just two. Because of this, diagnosis by a veterinarian is the first important step. The diagnosis will determine the measures to be taken.

If VPP is the problem, it may be advisable to farrow sows in isolation, perhaps using individual houses in pasture, keeping sow and litter as an isolated unit until weaning time. Replacement stock is now available which has been raised free of this disease.

It is also well to remember that virus pig pneumonia can be spread through exchange of breeding stock by neighbors, or through purchase of infected pigs, or even through infected trucks and barnyard equipment.

Pasture Planting For Supplemental Planting

There are several good grasses planted for supplemental grazing and forage production. One of the best that farmers and ranchers are having good results with is the bermuda grass. There are several varieties of this grass. The coastal and midland are the best adapted varieties that have to be set out from sprigs. The new N-K 37 is a variety that can be planted from seed. This variety has a tendency to winter kill if it isn't given the proper management.

Several farmers and ranchers have tried this variety this past summer with good results. O. C. Rampley and Joe Fowler had good results from their trial plantings. Joe Fowler had 10 acres, which he grazed 10 mother cows and calves all summer and harvested approximately 7½ tons of hay. O. C. Rampley had 48 acres. One 17 acre block furnished enough grazing for 70 head of cattle from August 10 to October 10. He also harvested some for hay which yielded approximately 2 tons per acre.

Management is the big factor in obtaining maximum growth and production. It needs to be irrigated or receive supplemental irrigation. It also responds quickly to a complete fertilizer on low fertility soils, but nitrogen is usually the limiting plant food for maximum growth and production.

Several farmers and ranchers plan on planting some supplemental pasture for additional grazing. If there is others interested, they may contact S.C.S. office for further information.

Thank you, Texas Newspapers!

For 20 years, Texas newspapers have been giving the government free space in which to advertise U. S. Savings Bonds.

You've seen the ads: you save more than money with U. S. Savings Bonds. Those ads have sold an impressive number of bonds in Texas, bonds that have helped, and are helping, your government defend freedom at a precarious moment in history, when freedom is in desperate need of defending.

When you buy these bonds you serve well the cause of liberty. You enable your country to build up her own defenses without doing damage to her economy. You insure the future for this and succeeding generations.

The space occupied by the ads that sold those bonds was donated to your government — and that means to you — by the newspapers of Texas.

We thought you'd like to know.

"The public-spirited newspapers of Texas have made an important contribution to the well-being of this country," says Ed Gossett, Co-Chairman of the Texas State Savings Bond Committee.

"We are happy to salute the generous newspapers of this State. They have done their part, and more, in giving the public an understanding of the importance of Savings Bonds — to individual buyers, and to the cause of freedom. And they have certainly made this Committee's job easier."

Open house was a big success we think. It's fun to show all of our pretty new things off to visitors.

Our nurse, Mrs. Klemm, brought us a lovely bouquet last Thursday from her yard. We think it added to our room and we thank her very much.

We also want to thank all of those room mothers who have contributed their dollar and helped with books, candy, popcorn balls, etc. to get votes for our queen candidate.

In science and language we have been making reports on seeds. We have learned to make good reports to the class. We have also learned more about seeds, even some new kinds.

Darrell Muckleroy and Mary Jimenez have been on the sick list.

We are learning to write book reports now in English.

We elected officers for the next six weeks. We elected Tobi Rowell for secretary, Jimmy Walker for president, Gary Whitfill for vice-president, Jacky Davis for librarian, Walter Hill for reporter, and Cletus Grady for sergeant-at-arms. We have been bringing plants. We have brought sweet potatoes,

We have finished reading Tom Sawyer. Now we are reading Huckleberry Finn.

We are working very hard to make money for our king and queen. We have just started dividing in arithmetic.

This year we are also offering the pages of our local newspaper to private citizen (Living in Silverton, or anywhere in the world). We will be happy if you will consider placing your Christmas Greeting to your friends in the Briscoe County News.

Consider these advantages of a Christmas greeting in your home paper:

- (2) You save the cost of postage, the time required for preparing the Christmas mail, as well as time spent preparing lists and buying cards.
- (3) Former residents may use a personal Briscoe County News Christmas Greeting to convey their sentiments to old friends living here as well as others who have moved away through the years.

The cost of greetings in the Briscoe County News is very reasonable when compared to today's rising prices. In most cases you can purchase a very nice Greeting for the price of Postage alone.

WHY CHANGE RELIGION ? ?

We see some people "change" from one belief to another. This action is usually met with mixed emotions by others. Some argue that one should NOT change, while others argue it is alright. It might be well to consider this mind-gripping questions.

As an act of religion in yesteryear, in India, women threw their "first born" to the Ganges "river god". It is easy to see why these ought to change their religion. Years ago in Mexico, the Aztec Indians literally cut the heart out of a human sacrifice, throwing that heart to their gods, made of stone. It is easy to see why these people should change their religion.

We begin to understand that it is good to "change" religion, when such is for a BETTER religion. However, admittedly, unless another religion offers something BETTER then there is no POINT in changing.

Jesus asked the Jews, worshippers of God, to "change" their religion. He wasn't trying to be "big-shotty", or anger them; He was offering them a BETTER religion—Christianity. It may be their cry was, "Why CHANGE religion; why CHANGE belief?" It WAS a change. Christ took the "old law" out the way, "nailing it to the cross", Col. 2:14, and gave them (us) a NEW religion—a BETTER RELIGION; one that would take away SIN. Heb. 8:7-12. However, the only way the Jew, or any other, could receive the PROMISES of this BETTER RELIGION was to "change" and accept it.

One religion is NOT as good as another, regardless of what some may say. The ancient Aztec religion, nor the Hindu religion, nor even the Jewish is NOT as good as Christianity. Christianity is BETTER because it OFFERS MORE.

* Even in the Christian religion, it is possible for one religion to be better than another—since in Christianity, as the world understands the term, there is quite a disparity in both teaching and practice. A belief and practice in the WHOLE of God's teaching is BETTER than a "partial" belief and practice. One of the great principles of God is, "Ye shall not ADD TO the word that I have commanded you; neither shall ye DIMINISH THERE-FROM." Duet 4:2. In Revelation 22:18, 19, God again thunders His principle, "If any man shall ADD TO the words of this prophecy, God shall add unto principle, "If any man shall ADD TO the words of this prophecy, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book: and if any shall TAKE AWAY from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things (promises) which are written in this book."

It is BETTER to do EXACTLY what God has told us. If you are religious, but aren't worshipping God as HE COMMANDS, you need to "change" religion - there is a BETTER way. It isn't enough to WORSHIP CHRIST! One must worship Him as HE HAS DIRECTED !! He has said, "But IN VAIN do they worship Me, teaching for doctrine the COMMANDMENTS OF MEN." (Mt. 15:9). Anything ADDED TO or DELETED FROM God's Commandments is not from God, and thus is a "commandment of men."

High School, Grade School Hallowe'en Queens Crowned

In a beautiful display of regal pomp and circumstance, Miss Raye Garrison and Miss Roy Ann Bomar were crowned the 1961-62 Queens of the annual Hallowe'en Carnival.

Miss Roy Ann Bomar, Mr. Cole's Sixth Grade representative in the Coronation exercises, was proclaimed Hallowe'en Queen of Grade School Student Council President Darrell Long. Miss Bomar's escort was Steve Harvell.

Miss Raye Garrison, Sophomore representative, was escorted to her throne by Garry Hunt and crowned Hallowe'en Queen of High School by High School Student Council President Robert Rhode.

The scene of the impressive coronation was the gym, which the members of the HS Student Council and their sponsor, Mr. Redin, had worked so diligently on to prepare for the occasion.

The theme of the pageant and the decoration was "Jewels For Royalty." The two thrones faced each other and were situated in front of the goals. A long grass walk connected the thrones and was flanked on either side at the center with candelabra in the shape of a diamond. Beautiful, flaring cones of multi-colored crepe paper adorned the sides of the gym and larger cones spread out from the goals to the floor. Silver and red shields bearing the insignia "SHS" and "SGS" were placed high on the back boards of the goals above the respective thrones.

Mrs. Redin and the Student Council members are to be commended for their fine job of decorating.

Robert Hughes was Master of Ceremonies and introduced each candidate and her escort. Jerry Lynn Garrison played traditional music for the processional and the recessional.

PEEPIN' TOM

Robert Rhode, I think all that practicing you did beforehand really helped you, judging from the way you kissed Rita Friday night. You looked like an "old pro."

Mac, someone is wondering why you don't carry your own Kleenex.

I hear that the second year Home Ec. girls are griping about having to wash dishes. You had better get used to it, girls, if you ever expect to please a husband.

Is it really true that old bashful Van is singing a song that is associated with an event that very often takes place in June? What does that mean, Sue?

I hear that Riley Harris has a secret love who really isn't a secret at all. Everyone knows who she is, except perhaps, the girl herself.

It seems that Mr. McAlpin has a hard time keeping Gary Edwards awake in his class. What's wrong, Gary? Too much night life?

Deanna, did you have to crawl last Saturday night? It's a long way to the Drive In, isn't it?

Tom feels badly when he thinks about the methods used by the Seniors in their attempt to crown their candidate Queen of the Hallowe'en Carnival. Really, Seniors, can you truthfully say that it was fair to count the money for your senior pictures as part of your earnings?

Future Business Leaders Meet

On October 26, the FBLA Club met. There were two absent, Butch Norris and Sandra Kitchens. We will all receive our membership cards soon. They will be received according to the member's degree.

LaQuetta Chitty was accepted as getting her Leader's Degree. We are proud of those who have cared enough to get this highest degree of Leader.

The Typing Service has been busy typing book lists for the grade school teachers. The proceeds of this and other such jobs will continue to go toward our sweaters.

JUNIOR HIGH STUDENT COUNCIL MEETS

The Junior High Student Council had another meeting Tuesday, Oct. 17, to discuss the fifth assembly. During the meeting we chose four people who would say the prayer, the pledge, read a scripture, and someone to lead a song.

Last Home Game Climaxed With "Country Cousin's Convention"

Immediately following the Silverton-Crosbyton game last Friday night, the high school students and faculty were treated to a bar-b-que and entertainment at the local Baptist church.

Bar-b-queed beef, beans, potato salad, pickles, and onions were enjoyed by a large crowd of hungry students and teachers. The beef was donated by Mr. Johnnie Burson.

National Honor Society Organized

The following 16 members of the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes met last week and, under the supervision of Principle O. C. Rampley, decided to form a chapter of the National Honor Society in our high school: Robert Rhode, Robert Hughes, Jerry Williamson, Larry Elms, Barbara Fisch, Carolyn Garrison, Becky Mallow, Edith Miller, LaQuetta Chitty, Ann Wingo, Sue Lanham, Bill Schott, David House, Lester Grabbe, Jerry Lynn Garrison, and Sharon Weaver.

Oieta Bottorff, Youth Director at the First Baptist Church in Plainview, and a troupe of girls from Plainview High School presented a hilarious program of skits and singing.

Later in the program, a new singing group, The Lathernecks, made their debut. The quartet is composed of Lary Elms, Robert Rhode, Kenny Thornton, and Robert Hughes. The group is accompanied by Jerry Williamson at the piano. The Lathernecks sang a wild version of "Old MacDonald Had A Farm," and we rewarded with loud applause.

At the close of the program, Miss Bottorff led the guests in group singing. Brother McLeod ended by assuring the students that there would be more parties next year during the football season.

Third Grade Mrs. Amerson

This has been a good eight weeks of school for the third grade. We have planned and shared together. In our room we share responsibilities each day such as dusting the erasers, watering the plants, picking up paper and getting the milk.

We have made some Hallowe'en decorations, written words for some songs, and made some experiments in science. In science we collected seeds that fly, seeds that float, seeds that ride, seeds that pop, and other seeds that just drop and scatter. We found that the milk weed seed can fly in the wind. Ticklegrass can float on the water. Burdock seeds can catch a ride. Pea and bean seeds pop from their shells. Many small seeds drop from the flower pod and just scatter about. We have many seeds on our chart.

October 20th we had open house and some of the mothers came to see our new building. We are happy with the new room and try to do our work with good work habits.

We wish to thank Mrs. Crow for the beautiful roses and dahlias that make our rooms seem more attractive. Mrs. Klemm, our health nurse, also brought chrysanthemums just the right color in the right vase to make each of the rooms artistic.

Fourth Grade Mrs. Lee

One of our pupils, Danny Love, is moving to Tulia. Good bye and

ATTENDS WTBT A CONFERENCE

Mrs. O. C. Rampley attended the annual conference of the West Texas Business Teachers Association held on October 27 and 28.

The theme was "Effective Leadership," and the conference opened with a banquet in the college cafeteria on Friday night. Dr. Donald J. Tate, of Arizona State University, was the speaker.

The Saturday morning program and business meeting were held in the Fine Arts Building at WTSC. There was a panel discussion conducted by men from local business and industry.

The conference was closed with a luncheon meeting where the group was addressed by Dr. Jack Latham, of North Texas State University. Dr. Latham is an outstanding speaker in the field of Business Psychology.

The WTBT A will hold a workshop at Texas Tech College on November 18. Mrs. Rampley has been asked to serve on a Professional Standards and Advancement Committee that will conduct a panel discussion at the meeting. Her particular area will pertain to the teaching of Typewriting in the high school.

good luck Danny!

We have been selling good things to eat, to raise money for our candidates for king and queen.

We have a new pupil in our room, Mautie Pitts. Mautie has been living and going to school in Germany where his father was in the armed forces.

Cynthia Sutton gave an interesting report on her recent trip to Dallas and other East Texas points.

We appreciate the work some of our mothers and our teacher have been doing to make it possible for us to have a fish pond at the carnival.

Roy Saucedo went to Crystal City to visit his grandmother who has been ill.

Connie and Fred have been to Austin and Corpus Christi recently.

Our school work is moving along very well. Our teacher, Mrs. Lee, has taught first grade for several years. She says she likes fourth grade work and children. She is having fun remembering fourth grade facts again.

Freshmen News Mrs. Redin

The Freshmen Class brought 38 books to donate to the school library. They were trying to get 52 but did not reach their goal. The Variety Show was a great success. Many, many thanks to everyone who helped with it.

The Bake Sale Saturday was also quite successful.

Fifty-eight of the 260 grades received by the Freshmen the first six weeks were F's. This is too many failing grades. Both students and teachers are working to reduce the number of failing grades. The students must do some study other than in class. It might be helpful if parents would encourage and help plan a regular period each afternoon or night for study. The average student should not need more than two hours out-of-class study. Some might not require that much, some more.

I rather like the doctrine of not saying anything at all if you can't say something good about a person. (This does not necessarily include Krushchev or Castro.) It's difficult to do this when you look at some of the things that a person does, but try it anyway—it might prove rewarding.

—Jerry Williamson

No heart is so black nor is any one person so far gone that he can't make a return to all that which is good and fair. For still there is that basic good that keeps wanting to do the right thing. But too often this basic good is covered or even lost forever.

It depresses me to hear someone naming all the terrible things that someone has done. I wish fervently that I could hear some good things once in a while, even if they are minor and don't seem to amount to much.

I rather like the doctrine of not saying anything at all if you can't say something good about a person. (This does not necessarily include Krushchev or Castro.) It's difficult to do this when you look at some of the things that a person does, but try it anyway—it might prove rewarding.

Not A Stone Unturned

A person who sees nothing but the bad things in life is called a pessimist. The dictionary defines a pessimist as a person who looks only on the gloomy side of things. Pessimism is the belief that the existing world is the worst of all possible worlds.

An optimist is defined as a person who thinks that this world is the best of all possible worlds.

We hear people who say "I'm an optimist" and those who say "I'm a pessimist." Personally, I don't want to be called either one. I don't think that this is the worst of all possible worlds, nor do I feel that this is the best of all possible worlds.

We should all try to look on the brighter side of things but still be able to see the bad things and understand just why they are present.

A person who shuts his eyes to evil in the world is not facing reality. Before we can do anything to change bad conditions we must recognize and understand them.

It is also a terrible thing to see men and women who have made up their minds that nothing is good, that nothing is worth striving for, that everything is doomed to miserable failure.

No matter who the person or what the thing—there is nearly always some basic good present. I don't believe that children are born with a desire to hunt out the bad and do the evil.

A child will do good automatically. It has to be trained to do bad.

I have found that it does no good whatsoever to dislike a person because of what he does. I dislike the deed that has been done but I try not to dislike the doer of the deed.

Some people don't like to accept it, but we have a responsibility toward those who are continually getting into some sort of trouble. We are supposed to help them — not shun them. For if we shun them, what sort of brotherly love are we showing?

I'm afraid that too many people answer hate with hate, when love should be used to combat hate and evil. If you react to a person with hate because of something he has done, you are basically creating a crime just as he did, for he probably acted with hate also.

No heart is so black nor is any one person so far gone that he can't make a return to all that which is good and fair. For still there is that basic good that keeps wanting to do the right thing. But too often this basic good is covered or even lost forever.

It depresses me to hear someone naming all the terrible things that someone has done. I wish fervently that I could hear some good things once in a while, even if they are minor and don't seem to amount to much.

I rather like the doctrine of not saying anything at all if you can't say something good about a person. (This does not necessarily include Krushchev or Castro.) It's difficult to do this when you look at some of the things that a person does, but try it anyway—it might prove rewarding.

the harmful aspects of some Hallowe'en pranks. The class sang "America The Beautiful" accompanied by Rick Martin with his accordion. The high school student body wishes to thank Mrs. Baker and her class very much for presenting the play.
