RURAL HOUSING LOAN ASSISTS QUITAQUE FAMILY IN BUILDING NEW HOME

The Farmers Home Administration closed a Rural Housing loan recently for Mr. and Mrs. Wayne White. Their new home is located on their farm one mile north of Quitaque. The Whites, who have four children, have been in need of a larger house for several years. The Rural Housing Loan enabled them to build a house which meets their needs.

The Housing Act was revised in 1961, enlarging the eligibility requirements for Rural Housing loans, making it possible for owners of non-farm tracts in small rural communities such as Quitaque and Silverton, to obtain loans through the Farmers Home Administration. These loans may be used for new homes, home improvements, or construction or improvements of farm buildings. Loans may be made only if the applicant cannot obtain credit through any other lending agency. The house should be adequate to meet the family's needs, but must be modest in design and size.

For further information, contact Don Cruce, FHA County Supervisor on Tuesday mornings at his office located in the basement of the courthouse in Silverton.

Bank Charter Is Granted For Tulia

The state banking board last Thursday granted a disputed application for charter of a new state bank at Tulia.

Approval was made by a majority of the board. State Treasurer Jesse James and deputy banking commissioner H. L. Bengston acting for commissioner J. M. Falkner, voted for it. Atty. Gen. Will Wilson, third member of the board abstained.

The application drew widespread opposition. The First National Bank of Tulia, the First National Bank of Lubbock and the First State Bank in Dimmitt made appearances protesting the charter.

Applicants present including proposed officers and directors: Perry Whittemore of Silverton, president; John E. Simpson, jr. of Silverton, vice president; Sam Lusk of Amarillo, cashier; C. W. Reeves, Robert E. Goodwin and Merle D. McMurtry of Tulia, directors; D. T. Northcutt of Silverton and Murray May and Emery Mills of Tulia, stockholders.

Silverton attorney George Miller was spokesman for the group. He based his plea on prosperity and economic growth in the area. Deposits in the First National Bank of Tulia increased from $11 million in 1959 to $14.6 million last year, he noted.

First National president Marvin Carille called deposits in his bank as well as others in irrigation areas "pumped up." He said dry weather might let them down fast.

Atty. Gen. Wilson questioned applicants on whether there was any deficiency in service now being rendered. They replied there was not.

The applicants pointed out that some of the directors in the first National Bank are also seeking charter of a state savings and loan association for Tulia.

MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, one of the best-known and well-regarded qualities of the State of Texas is its soundly built and carefully maintained highway system; and

WHEREAS, a consistent program of highway construction and modernization has in recent years brought about a reduction of more than 25 percent in the fatality rate on all Federal and State highways in Texas; but

WHEREAS, heavy increases in traffic endanger these advances in highway safety, since the state's population has increased by one-fourth since 1950, the state now has increased by one-fourth since 1950, the state now has more than five million registered motor vehicles, and the miles traveled by these vehicles now totals 43 billion miles a year; and

WHEREAS, due to this flood of traffic some 22,000 miles of the state's 25,000-mile system of U.S. and State-numbered highways are already obsolete for the loads of traffic they carry;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, as the Nation at large observes National Highway Week during the period May 20-26, 1962, that the Texas Highway Department be commended for its achievement in building today's fine highway system in the face of mounting traffic problems; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the citizens of Texas be urged to view with concern the adverse economic effects and the cost in human lives that will result if highway traffic overwhelms the capacity of our roads, and to support a sustained program of highway improvement and modernization to keep Texas growing.

THEREFORE, I, Charles Whitfill, do hereby designate the period May 20-26, 1962, as HIGHWAY WEEK and urge that special attention be directed to the needs of our highway system.

When you build a quality truck, the inclination is to run around asking users what they think of it. We do quite a bit of this.

It's a funny thing. You'd think people would talk mostly about the mechanical features of the vehicle—the good ride, its power, the double-wall construction, cab comfort, or tough tailgate.

These things get comment, of course, but they're consistently outnumbered by expressions of satisfaction with the dependability of a Chevrolet truck. Its greatest single asset seems to be the fact that it does its job well day after day without a lot of fuss or attention—and that's what impresses people the most.

Quality is the key to reliability. The next time you have to buy a truck, call your Chevrolet dealer and make your money go farther.

HISTORY OF THE ROCK CREEK CHURCH OF CHRIST
by Earl Cantwell
PART II

During the first years of the congregation we find other families moving into the community and among these were a few families of devout church members whose coming greatly strengthened the cause.

To name a few whose faith, teamed with the great faith of the first or charter members, who wrought a great influence in the cause at Rock Creek Brother and Sister Kay Brooks, Brother and Sister J. R. Steele, Brother and Sister S. L. Cantwell. These all had large families, and when all the members of the church and visitors came together, it made a relatively large assembly.

Of great interest would be the names of the gospel preachers who aided the church in its infancy. The fact cannot be overlooked that collaborating with the ministers were men and women strong in the faith. They were not weaklings who, when there was no preacher said, "No need to go to church today." These people attended church to worship God. They could not have a preacher all the time so they were called upon to prepare themselves always. There were some great sermons delivered by non preachers. Brother Steele had served as an Elder of the church before coming to Rock Creek, as had Brother Cantwell and perhaps others. Though they were never ordained as Elders, Brethren Redin, Steele, Brooks and Cantwell worked together caring for the church. The church had as its preachers such able men as Brother Ledlow, Alva Johnson, Charlie Graves, Frank Copeland, Charlie Watkins, Tollie Corder, A. F. Thurman. It was during a meeting by Thurman that this writer was baptized in the little old dirt tank on the Gid Mayfield place just off the highway east of the store.

It was at about this time that there was a minor exodus from Rock Creek but fortunately for the cause others placed their membership in the congregation, and it did not suffer from the ones who moved away.

Among those who left was the writer, who with his parents moved to Gunter, Texas, where he finished his schooling at Gunter College. For a few years he was out of touch with the church at Rock Creek, but in 1925 moved back into the area as a young minister of the gospel who periodically preached for the congregation. Since that time it has been both a privilege and a blessing for him to be associated with the brethren, serving as member, minister and one of the Elders.

curricular activities. Some of them are sports, Interscholastic League, FFA, FHA, FBLA, publication of the school newspaper, publication of the annual, "S" Club, choral, and student council. Also this year was added the Zenith Chapter of the National Honor Society.

Yet, though this sounds like a long list, this does not near exhaust the list possible to have. Some students are not interested in these. Therefore, I think we should add to this list.

For example, many schools have foreign language clubs. We offer a foreign language, Spanish. Why not form a foreign language club? At one time there was a drama club here. Why not organize, then, a drama club or a branch of the Thespians (a national drama club.)

To create more interest in the literary part of the Interscholastic League, we could follow the example of the Athletic Department by giving jackets or some other form of recognition. Don't they deserve it fully as much as the athletes?

As for sports we have a quite limited program. For the girls, there is basketball and volleyball. For the boys, football, basketball, and track. While I have nothing against these (in fact I like them), I still think this is too limited. Some people don't especially care for these sports. We could add volleyball for the boys and track for the girls. Many people like baseball. And can you think of a better body builder than gymnastics? How about swimming in the spring and fall? We have a swimming pool in Silverton, don't we?

All these things could be added to the school without much cost or trouble. Then why don't we add them!

THIRD GRADE NEWS

Mrs. Amerson

In geography we have completed a transportation unit. We wrote stories of "Travel on Land," "Travel on Sea," and "Travel by Air."

We are making booklets about birds. First, we read all we can find in books about the bird; then we color the bird. We then write four paragraphs about how it looks, what kind of nest it builds, what food it eats, and what kind of habits it has. Some of us can draw pictures of birds on the chalk board. We have a bird's nest and three eggs. We are writing about the cardinal because Jim Davis saw one not far away. We learned that the beak is short, thick, and strong. It has red color, too. The cardinal cracks weed seeds with his beak. The red color and black mask makes him a pretty sight above the white snow.

We are learning the multiplication tables of the fours in arithmetic. We also learn to divide by four.

In phonics, we have learned that "jumped" is a one syllable word. Our phonics exercises teach prefixes and suffixes. We also learn what the root word was, before it was changed to make a new meaning.

Our reading lessons have been most interesting this year. Everyone in the room has read the two basic readers and completed the workbooks that go with them. We have studied the following other books: After the Sun Sets, Here and There with Henry, Whatnot Tales, All Around America, Plants-Animals and Machines, and Fun and Fancy.

We have had four horned toads in a terrarium. Karen Miller and Roger Cowan have taken their pets home. Thresa Tate gave hers away and one got away. We still have a jar of red ants which have made tunnels in the soil. We wrote stories about our insects, tadpoles, and frogs. Richard Stephens has a frog that can jump out of a jar.

Wouldn't this old world be better, If the folks we met would say, "I know something good about you!" And then treat us just that way? Wouldn't it be fine and dandy, If each handclasp, warm and true, Carried with it this assurance, "I know something good about you!" Wouldn't life be lots more happy, If the good that's in us all Were the only thing about us That folks bothered to recall? Wouldn't life be lots more happy, If we praised the good we see? For there's such a lot of goodness In the worst of you and me. Wouldn't it be nice to practice That fine way of thinking, too? You know something good about me? I know something good about you!

Senior Class Prophecy

Most of you have seen or heard the Huntley-Brinkley Report. This year's Senior Class Prophecy is herein presented in the form of that newscast, with the prophet assuming the roles of both news casters and the on-the-spot reporters.

Good evening. This is Chet Bruntley in New York and in Washington — David Hinkley, bringing you the news with Texaco.

Here is a news flash on the current elections. The up and coming young firey politician, Larry Elms, has just reached his life's goal and has been elected National Chairman of the Republican Party. Mr. Elms's opponents insist that his victory was due to the fact that he recently married into a prominent political family. Mr. Elms is now the son-in-law of Barry Goldwater. Now to Chet in New York—

Thank you David. The Supreme Solvent Chemical Co. has just hired a new employee in their lab. Mr. Jimmy Perkins was hired because of a great irreplaceable talent that he has. Mr. Perkins discovered this talent in the chemistry lab during his high school junior year. He works in the identification department as a chemical smell tester. As the products the company produces pass by in front of Mr. Perkins, he sniffs each one. If he passes out, the chemists know that one is sulfur dioxide. Take it away David—

O. K. Chet. Another important election return—the District Attorney race has been taken by a landslide by Mr. B. J. Durham. Mr. Durham's success is credited to his constant, relentless campaign against pool halls. Mr. Durham states that pool halls contribute to the delinquency of our youth. Mr. Durham was actually an unusual candidate because before his campaign he had no political experience. Mr. Durham once worked for General Motors Corp. He worked in the windshield Resistance Department which eliminates faulty windshields. Having acquired his skill from a high school experience, Mr. Durham in his job at General Motors, stood on the hoods of cars and kicked in the windshield.

The Secretary of Agriculture, Billie Sol Estes, has recently conferred upon Carolyn Garrison the distinguished service award for her great strides in the development of new strains of garden vegetables. Her citation specifically noted her work in the field of improvement in the germination standards of macaroni seed. Now back to New York—

O. K. David. A new volume of poetry has just gone to press. This new poetic work is by LaQuetta Chitty who was so dissatisfied at the scarcity of contest poems when she was in high school that she made a pledge to future poetry readers to replenish their supply. Two from her collections are:

Catsup
You shake and shake and shake the bottle,
First none will come out and then a little.

There once was a cow named Molly,
Who said to her vet, "Golly."
How can I be contented
When a rumor's invented
That my milk is too cholesterolly.

At the recent convention of the Certified Public Accountants, the delegates were shocked at the announcement that their past president, Barbara Fisch, had been admitted to the state hospital for troubled minds. The doctors think her disturbance may be related to some time of her life when she was in a state of immense confusion because some teacher, probably in high school, insisted that the whole mind be given over to one idea, and one idea only. And the patient seems to have only one thought as she babbles repeatedly: A equals L plus P, A equals L plus P, A equals L plus P.

Edith Miller, home economist for the Wood Pulp Cereal Company has announced a new, revolutionary cereal—HUSH. Your children don't beg for it—you just cram it in their mouths. It doesn't irritate you at breakfast time by a pop, snap, or crackle. It just lies here in a soggy mess. Miss Miller guarantee that HUSH is not touched by human hands—her workers kick HUSH in the boxes with their bare feet. Your turn again, David—

Thank you, Chet. Dale McWaters has made himself indispensable to the Washington scene. The training that McWaters received earlier in the office of O. C. Rampley has made him the favorite office boy of President Ted Kennedy and of Attorney General Peter Lawford. His main duties are keeping the rocking chairs from creaking and walking Asta.

Here is an interesting note: Patent No. 694227891 has just been awarded to Mr. Kenneih Peugh. Mr. Peugh has with his invention revolutionized the beauty aid industry. He has developed a new bobby pin with a twist and a half. Mr. Peugh has devoted years to his study in this field, and after twisting bobby pins during most of this time, he has finally achieved the making of Kenneth's Curlers guaranteed to kink. To New York—

O. K. David. Becky Mallow, fashion designer, has been named by the high school students of America as the Woman of the Year since she opened her factory which turns out Paris creations which English teachers can afford. Due to knowledge gained as a Senior in high school, Miss Mallow has ruled that her gorgeous gowns can be made only in shades of blue.

Due to a replacement in the east, the ratings of The Andy Griffith Show have suddenly soared. The show's Barney Fife, once played by the now retired actor, Don Knox, is now the personage of a fine young actor who perfectly fits the part. Joe Kellum. David—

Thanks, Chet. Lieutenant Commander Richard A. Whitfill, long missing from his command, may have been accounted for. A seaman, Larry May, aboard the American ship, Caroline John, told newsmen on his arrival in port this morning that as the Caroline John sailed away into the sunset from the island of Tahiti, that he saw Commander Whitfill fade away into the palm trees on the island paradise with two dark-haired beauties singing Polynesian love songs. Seaman May argued forcefully that after thinking about the circumstances under which he last saw Whitfill, that he believes that his commanding officer is in danger and he requests permission to volunteer to undertake the dangerous assignment of going back to Tahiti to rescue Commander Whitfill. Back to Chet—

The beat generation of the city welcomes the opening of another haven. The Hungry Eye, featuring Ann Wingo and her bongo drums. Miss Wingo expressed in her own words the feelings of her beatnik friend towards the world from which they have withdrawn, when she said, "Like cruddy, Man." David—

The National Farmerette Award has been won by a Briscoe County, Texas, farm wife, representing the country estate called Eddleman Acres. Not only did this woman sweep all the first places in the jellies, jams, and fruit butters division, but also showed the grand champion hampshire pig for which she received, not the customary blue ribbon, but a blue handkerchief, because the judges realized that Mrs. Eddleman would burst into tears upon being reminded that this was the last contest for which this pig would be eligible.

Now on to another contest. This contest was won by a group known as the Lathernecks. It seems that these men, Robert Hughes, Larry Elms, Kenny Thornton, and Robert Rhode had a singing quartet in high school, but after they realized that they couldn't sing, they started calling hogs in harmony. Yes, they have won this hog calling contest today. An opponent of theirs in this event demands that they be disqualified because he claims that they are using the same material that they sang in high school. Now to sports with Chet in New York—

All right, David. Tonight in Madison Square Garden the World's Heavy Weight Championship Match is taking place. This event has attracted much attention not only because of its importance but also because there seems to be a very unique wrestler in contention for the title. This man seems to have a sort of dual personality. In the ring he is known as Wicked Williamson and out of the ring he is Joyful Jerry. For a report on this fight we take you to Vander Sanocher on the floor of Madison Square Garden.

This is Van San on the floor of Madison Square Garden. This first round was over so quickly we only caught a little of it. Wicked Williamson threw his opponent, Mauler Muggins, in 17 seconds flat. This may be some sort of a record. Now Wicked Williamson seems to have taken on this second personality you were talking about. He has come out of the ring as he does between every round and is playing his organ for the audience. There seems to be a record turn-out here tonight, David. Many say the credit goes to our monstrous musician because he sent invitations to both the wrestling fans and the music lovers. However, the promoters for this fight believe this crowd would even be larger if Williamson hadn't forgotten to send his name cards with his invitations. Now take it away, Chet, in New York—

O. K., Vander. Now to Curb Haplow at Churchill Downs and the Kentucky Derby. Are you there, Curb?

Yes, Chet, this is Curb Haplow at the race track. The race has already begun. Now they're coming down the back stretch. White a race! It's Snowcrocus, White Emperor, Stardrift, Eros, Cameo, Blue Ice, Firespray, and Maid. Here comes Maid making her move on the outside. Now it's Snowcrocus, White Emperor, Stardrift, Eros, Cameo, Blue Ice, Maid and Firespray. Maid is coming on as if she's possessed of speed demons! Maid is passing the field and challenging Snowcrocus and White Emperor. It's Snowcrocus and Maid! Now it's Maid and Snowcrocus as Maid gets on the inside and hugs that rail! It's Maid and Snowcrocus, Snowcrocus and Maid, Maid and Snowcrocus, and the winner by a nose is Maid. Bob Kitchens, owner and rider of his own horse, put up a breathtaking ride here as he almost brushed that rail. Not a whip was laid on Maid by her jockey owner. Instead he leaned forward and talked into her ear. Each word sent her on a new spurt of speed. What did he say to Maid? As Maid is being led into the winner's circle, Bob Kitchens seems to be more than proud of his horse and his ride. He seems to be almost gloating. The question is being asked the owner what he said to his horse to make her run like she did. Hold it, Chet! I've received word. Yes! Kitchens has just announced that he kept reminding Maid of all the insulting remarks that certain boys in the Senior Class of '62 had made repeatedly about horses owned by Kitchens such as "nag" and "plug" and especially harsh statements about Kitchens' Maid. Take it from here, Chet—

Fine job there, Curb. Back to the floor of Madison Square Garden. Vander?

Yes, Chet. Slobey Kosovsky of the Soviets was soundly defeated tonight in the weight-lifting contest by the pride of the U.S.A. team, Sandra Mercer. Upon being interviewed after the match, the witty Miss Mercer tossed off her fame lightly by replying, "It was just a case of matter over mind."

Back to New York—

Toots Shor's Night Club of New York City has been given new life recently with a new M. C. for the late floor show. A fellow named Rampley whose state name is Oliver Coleman has been drawing large crowds. They are fascinated by the fact that he starts his other-wise mill-of-the-run performance in exactly the same way every night with the question, "Have you heard the story of the two parrots?" Say, have you heard that joke, David? There was these two parrots and one was owned by this preacher. . . .

Hold it, Chet. Yes, I've heard it.

Last Will and Testament of the Senior Class of 1962

We, the Senior Class of 1962, of the high school of Silverton, city of Silverton, County of Briscoe, and state of Texas, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking any will or wills heretofore made by us.

First. We direct that all our just debts and funeral expenses be full paid and satisfied, as soon as conveniently may be, after our decease during finals next week.

Second. We give, devise, and bequeath our earthly goods as follows:

We, the Senior girls of 1962, will to the Junior girls the valentine we gave Mrs. Lacy in hopes that you get more good out of it than we did.

We, the Senior boys of 1962, will to the Junior boys our harmony in class meetings with hopes that you have a peaceful senior year.

I, Larry Elms, will to Bill Schott my over abundance of leisure time and hope that he doesn't become as bored with never having any lessons as I did.

I, LaQuetta Chitty, will my ability to talk in government without Mr. Rampley getting mad at me to Robbie Sue McJinsey because she will really need it.

I, Bobby Durham, will my ability to get along with the English teacher to Peggy Mercer, who really doesn't need it because she already gets along with her teachers so well anyway.

I, Dale McWaters, will to Jim Edd Steele all my troubles with the candy machine and hope that he finds the extra spending money helpful.

I, Carolyn Garrison, will to David House the key to the annual room and hope that he doesn't have as much trouble finding it as I did several times.

I, Jerry Williamson, will to John Turner six evaluation sheets from English, two bookkeeping practice sets, my superior grades in solid geometry, and a peptic ulcer from physics, along with my best wishes for an enjoyable senior year.

I, Sandra Mercer, will my two American flags used only to wave in government class when Mr. Rampley makes a patriotic speech to Klela Oneal, and hope that it helps her grade more than it did mine.

I, Joe Kellum, will to Joe Kitchens my cue stick and hope that he doesn't lose as much money as I did.

I, Kenneth Peugh, will to Van Breedlove, Jim Reid, and Butch Norris the sophomore girls, since they have already taken three members of that class.

I, Ann Wingo, will to Marcalyn Lee my trig grades because the extra ten points will come in handy.

I, Kenny Thornton, will nothing to no one because it will take everything I have got to get through finals.

I, Edith Miller, will to Virginia Shelton my great speed in book-keeping practice sets and hope that you learn how to sue the adding machine even if I never did.

I, Robert Hughes, will to Truman Loyd my razor because he needs it worse than I do.

I, Barbara Fisch, will Mrs. Rampley's gripes to Sheila Jarnagin and hope that she is as successful in ignoring her as I was.

I, Larry May, will to Louie Strange my ability to do in only two hours a physics test that it takes everyone else only an hour to do, and hope that he develops the great speed in all subjects that I have.

I, LaJuan Curby, will to Jimmie Nell Reynolds my great ability to play basketball on my knees 3/4 of the time and hope that she keeps the gym floor as clean as I did.

I, Richard Whitfill, will my high standings and position in the National Honor Society to Fred Edwards.

CJC Students Entertain Assembly

Some twenty students from the Music Department of Clarendon Junior College presented a program of choir and specially arranged group music to an assembly of Silverton High School students on Friday, May 4.

The choir was conducted by Mrs. Weaver, Director of the Music Department at CJC. The choir started its program with the songs "Ja Da," "Somewhere Over the Rainbow," and "Make America Proud of You."

A mixed quartet sang "I'm Always Chasing Rainbows" and "Yellow Bird." Joe Linnen, the tenor soloist of the group, sang "I'll See You in My Dreams."

The choir also sang "Moonlight Bay" and "Do Re Mi," and then they concluded their program with "The Wanderer," and "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God."

Dean Abel, who also accompanied the group to Silverton High, said a few words about Clarendon Junior College and admonished everyone to consider it as a possible institution for their higher learning.

After the meal, Miss Lanham welcomed the guests and Sharon Weaver sang "M-O-T-H-E-R," accompanied by Jerry Garrison.

The girls who attended the State FHA Meeting—Becky Mallow, Rita Brown, Carolyn Garrison, and LaQuetta Chitty—gave a report of the wonderful time they had had and the exciting experiences they encountered.

At the close of the banquet, Jealeta Eddleman, Historian; Ann Wingo, Secretary; and LaQuetta Chitty, president, conferred Junior and Chapter Degrees to all girls who had completed their requirements. Son of Local Pastor Speaks to Students

Last Wednesday during assembly, Reverend Delton Fisher, son of Reverend Marvin Fisher who is pastor of the First Methodist Church here in Silverton, presented an interesting and educational talk entitled "Steps."

Brother Fisher stressed the many kinds of steps that we go through in life, but mainly he discussed forward steps and backward steps. An interesting point brought out during his talk was, "One may have to step back in order to step forward again." This was illustrated by the fact that a person must step back in order to avoid being run over by a car in order that he may continue forward living. Brother Fisher concluded his talk with these words: "The steps you take are the steps to the future."

Brother Delton Fisher was here to hold a revival in his father's church last week. The student body would like to express their appreciation to him for an inspirational talk.

Not A Stone Unturned

By Jerry Williamson
NOTICE—I Goofed!

Twelve years of public school have taught me many things. But somewhere down the line I failed to learn something. Namely — you're supposed to put the little name cards in your graduation invitations.

Last week when people in town first reported receiving graduation announcements without names in them, I thought, "How foolish of someone not to put their cards in their announcements."

Then the awful truth crashed down upon me. I was the foolish person!

In a desperate attempt to save face, I accused my mother of committing the blunder. (She was in charge of putting the name cards in the announcements.) She flatly denied it, so the mystery will go unsolved as far as I'm concerned.

At least I'm not going to admit doing it. After all—I have the Senior Class name to keep clean and free from such unbecoming things.

Nevertheless, all you long-suffering people who received invitations without name cards in them know now which intelligent Senior sent them. I still don't know exactly how many were sent minus the name card, but it couldn't have been very many—I hope!

My apologies!

I Refuse to Say Goodby

It seems to have become the fad for people to come up with drippy little farewells when they are leaving forever the high school that they have known for four years.

Of course graduation brings many memories to mind. The girls cry and the boys are usually wild with happiness. But, nevertheless, graduation is a time to remember.

But how nice it would be for a change not to say "goodby," but to say hello to a far larger, more wonderful thing — adulthood.

Graduation from high school is one of the last steps out of the childhood of the past into the adulthood of the future. Soon many of us will be almost completely out on our own. Several will go to college where they will be expected to do everything with no prompting whatsoever. There'll be no parents to make decisions for us. We will have taken one giant step toward full-fledged adulthood.

If anyone has a hard time saying "thank you," it is this editor. I am thankful for my parents most of all. Then after them come the many teachers, friends, and other adults, and of course, my pastor. All of these people make life worth living.

Let my last word be merely "hello."

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Miller of Brownwood and Mr. and Mrs. J. Paul Ledbetter returned home recently after spending two weeks in Mill Valley and Diamond Springs, California, visiting their children, Rev. and Mrs. Don H. Ledbetter and girls. They went especially to attend Don's graduation from the Golden Gate Baptist Seminary, where he received a Bachelor of Divinity Degree. Don is a 1955 graduate of Silverton High School and a 1959 graduate of Howard Payne College. He is married to the former Lois Elaine Miller of Brownwood, also a graduate of Howard Payne College. They have two daughters, Donna Lynn, 2½, and Deborah Jane, age 1. Don has been pastor of the Diamond Springs Baptist Church for 2½ years, and after graduation they moved there to make their home to continue his pastorage.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sarchet and Ken accompanied her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hill of Tulia, to College Station over the weekend to attend a Mothers Day ceremony and review at Texas A & M College. James M. Hill, jr., brother of Mrs. Sarchet, is a candidate for a degree in agronomy this spring. He is commander of his Air Force ROTC company and a member of the Ross Volunteers, an honor drill team. His mother represented the mothers of the 80 cadets in the company by pinning a red or white flower on each. The company commanders were presented with wrist watches bearing the Texas A & M College seal on the face and appropriate inscriptions on the back of the cases. Hill will be commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in ceremonies on May 26, and will enter the Air Force in October.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Riney of Lubbock spent a recent weekend here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luke Thompson. Other visitors in the Thompson home over the weekend were Mrs. Ed D. Miller and daughter of Brownwood, Mr. and Mrs. Gail Pyburn and son of Abilene and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thompson, who returned home with the group after having visited here for two weeks. The J. C. Thompsons are parents of Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Pyburn and Luke Thompson.

Harry Carroll, father of Mrs. A. T. Bingham, is recuperating from recent surgery. He is spending a few days with another daughter, Mrs. Buck Daniel in Tulia, before returning to his home at Gasoline.

Mrs. Pat L. Northcutt, Mrs. Fred Mercer, Mrs. Don Garrison, Ann Wingo and Carolyn Garrison attended a Pan Hellenic tea at the Woman's Club House in Plainview Saturday afternoon, complimenting the high school girl graduates and their mothers. Mrs. Northcutt is a member of one of the Greek letter sororities.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne McCutchen, Richard and Mrs. Bob Weatherly and Kevin, spent the Mothers Day weekend in Robert Lee, guests of Mr. McCutchen's mother, Mrs. W. M. McCutchen.

Mrs. Stanley Couch of Amarillo, Mrs. Bob Weatherly and Kevin attended high school graduation exercises at Texhoma, Oklahoma, Monday evening. Glenna Couch, sister of Stanley Couch, was a member of the graduating class.
