Do We Take The Giant Step?

by Mary Ann Sarchet

The time is drawing near when Briscoe County taxpayers will be asked to take the giant step in the direction of organizing a hospital district and building a hospital. Will you be willing to take the giant step or will you be one of those who sits on his hands and hurts the movement with indifference as much as some will hurt the issue with their criticism?

I think it is time for the people of Briscoe County to realize that each one of us who lives outside a hospital district is a "free loader." Even though we pay our bills when we use the hospital of our choice, we are still "free loaders" in a sense. I'm surprised that long before now the hospitals haven't begun adding a flat 10% or more to the bills of patients who live outside the hospital district. Why should we expect hospitals to be maintained by taxpayers in the hospital districts for us to use at the same rates as those who "own" the facilities?

This is like expecting your neighbor to provide room in his storage shed for your lawnmower, or space in his garage for your car when it rains, or room for you in his storm cellar. While your neighbor may not complain because you use the facilities which his money has bought, he may someday tire of your "friendship."

The hospital which I hope can be built won't be large or luxurious. I'm sure the size would be based on the needs of the population. It is hoped that an attractive, modern, durable structure can be built to serve the people adequately for many years at the minimum cost. Experts in the field can point out where corners can be cut without sacrificing efficiency or durability. Hospital facilities should be planned, however, so that it could be fully licensed and accredited, so that hospitalization insurance companies would recognize it, in addition to other reasons.

Some of the local civic groups are beginning to set aside money for the purchase of furnishings for a hospital, further signifying their desire to support the movement with their resources.

No figures are available on the cost yet, but a group of interested citizens from Silvertown and Quitaque is presently seeking answers to the questions we all have. Two meetings have been held. Bill Long, Dr. Neville Muckleroy, Jim Mercer, Judge M. G. Moreland, Charles Sarchet, Hugh Nance, Gene Morris and Jack Strange, Silvertown; and O. R. Stark, Jr., Pete Rice and James Brunson, Quitaque, were among those who attended the first meeting, and in addition Leon Grosdidier, George Miller, Wayne McMurtry, Superintendent John Hinds, J. E. (Doc) Minyard, and Charles Whitfill attended the most recent meeting. Jim Mercer was selected as chairman of the fact-finding group. It is expected that information will be received from the State Department of Health regarding the feasibility of a hospital later this week.

We are fortunate that our county financial picture is good. Our county tax rate is one of the lowest in the state. The hospital will cost each taxpayer according to the local property he owns. While the taxes I pay are less than those of many of the people living in the county, I do think everyone should realize that my annual income also is less, and the share that you will be asked to pay will be just as easy for you to pay as mine will be for me—regardless of your financial situation. (I don't believe there is anyone who owns much property who doesn't have an annual income several times that of a struggling country newspaper!)

One thing I consider important is that the local taxes we pay are deductible from our federal income taxes. In my opinion, everyone should prefer keeping some of the tax money at home for a worthwhile purpose to sending it in foreign aid to another country, for example.

Whether or not I plan to use the facilities of a local hospital is of little importance to me when it comes to supporting it with my dollars. I believe that it is the responsibility of the present generations to provide a better tomorrow for our children and children yet unborn. We should all hope to be able to leave behind good and worthwhile things as well as our "footprints in the sands of time." We are contributing to the growth and progress of the area by planning a hospital, because most newcomers hesitate to move into an area with no medical facilities.

Think of the saving of time and money by the ministers of the community who like to visit church members in the hospital. If several were confined to a local hospital the ministers could visit them everyday, and perhaps have a little extra time to devote to other church business. The way it is now, a minister may have members to visit in Lubbock, Amarillo, Memphis and Dallas the same week. It isn't hard to figure that he will spend most of the week on the road if he visits them all.

Consider the situation of a mother-to-be who has little warning before the birth of her baby. Twenty-six miles is a long way to drive with a little one trying to make his first appearance in the world.

Consider the case of the patient who must be confined to the hospital for two or three weeks or longer. His wife probably will rent a rollaway bed (if the hospital allows it) or a motel or hotel room so that she can be with him, or she will do like the children and drive to the hospital everyday. Imagine the time, energy and money that could be saved if she had only to drive from the hospital to her home at night, could visit him in the morning, have lunch at home and return in the evening if she wanted to without driving but a mile or two (more if she lives in the country.)

This applies to the convalescent patient, perhaps an elderly person, who is confined to the hospital until she is able to care for herself again. The lonely days in a hospital could be reduced to a minimum if she were here and her friends and neighbors could drop by for a visit often.

Consider people like me who are employed outside the home. If my child were hospitalized it would mean a great hardship on us to stay with him at an out-of-town hospital and attend to the business of newspaper publishing at the same time. Things would be disrupted if he were in a local hospital, but not nearly to the same extent.

In the event of a natural disaster or serious emergency the money invested in a hospital would bring a return in lives saved. We owe it to our children, to our grandchildren—to OURSELVES to be prepared for what we hope never comes.

Dr. Muckleroy may not remain here always, but a hospital will assure us that "in sickness and in health" we'll have doctors here. Without hospital facilities our area will always be faced with the possibility of being without local doctors.

DO WE TAKE THE GIANT STEP?

THURSDAY, APRIL 2, 1964

Silvertown, (Briscoe County) Texas

VOLUME 55 NUMBER 14

All Around the Town
by Mary Ann Sarchet

When you go to the polls on Saturday, April 4 and on Tuesday, April 7 to vote in the School Trustee and City of Silvertown elections (and I surely hope that you will vote in each of these important elections) look over the list of candidates carefully and cast your vote for the progress of our school and community.

There are many important issues which will face our school and city during the terms of office which are about to be filled. One of the most important decisions the City Council will face in the months ahead concerns the Mackenzie Reservoir project, which could be the turning point in the life of our city. Our school will face many of the same problems that have arisen in the past and in addition, with the growth of the community population, will face continual "growing pains" which can be met only by expanding the facilities of the school plant.

Our school trustees have done a good job of arranging the expansion program on the most economical basis possible. Most of the taxpayers probably don't realize how much figuring was done before the last two building projects were undertaken.

The upcoming primary is of great importance, also. Voters should keep in mind on May 2 that it is of extreme importance to elect capable persons as County Commissioners. Due to Mort Hawkins' untimely death, the Quitaque voters will also have a commissioners race this year, and printing of the ballots has been delayed until candidates have an opportunity to file.

So often you hear someone remark, "Well, let's elect so-and-so and give him or her this job because he/she needs it," or "What does so-and-so want with this job—he has enough to do without another job." What a misconception of ideas! The County Commissioners Court runs the county; they spend every cent of county money that is spent; they hold the authority for undertaking new county projects or rejecting ideas that are presented. The County Commissioners also are charged with keeping the county's roads—and while this is an important task, it may well be one of their lesser responsibilities.

Contrary to public opinion, not "just anyone" can be a County Commissioner. We must see that capable men or women are elected to these responsible positions. To be considered a good prospective candidate, I think a man should have proved himself capable of handling his own affairs and finances before the public business (yours and mine) is entrusted to him. He will be spending your money and my money, and we certainly want to be sure that we vote for a candidate in whom we have that much confidence.

We need elected County Commissioners with foresight who are able to predict the county's future needs and make plans now for meeting the situations which will arise. We are fortunate that our county's business has been handled well and that the county financial picture is good. We are blessed with a county tax rate that is one of the lowest in the state—and of this we can be proud. Without good management this would not be possible.

Cast your vote for the candidate who will run the public business as carefully as he would his own.

JOE H. SMITHS ARE HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Smith have returned home from Lubbock, Mrs. Gladie Lankston is staying with them.

City, School Elections Set

On Saturday, April 4 voters in the Silvertown Independent School District will go to the polls to elect two school trustees. Candidates as they will appear on the ballot are Robert Ledbetter, Floyd Williams, Roy Mack Walker, Frank Hunt, Edwin Dickerson (re-election), and Norman Strange. W. E. Schott did not seek re-election.

Tuesday, April 7 three city councilmen and a mayor will be elected by Silvertown voters. Charles Whitfill is not seeking re-election as mayor, and Jimmie House is unopposed on the ballot.

Listed on the ballot as candidates for councilmen are Charles Sarchet, H. B. Simpson, J. B. Stafford (re-election), and Ray Thompson (re-election). The third vacancy in the city council will be the seat which has been held by Jimmie House.

Three Announce For Commissioner Of Precinct Two

Three Quitaque men announced their candidacy for the office of Commissioner, Briscoe County Precinct 2 last week, after the death of Mort Hawkins created a vacancy which will have to be filled in next November's general election.

They are Orval Cobb, B. K. Hamilton and Charles Gowin. In accordance with Article 2341, Mrs. Edna Hawkins has been appointed to fill the vacancy created by the death of her husband, according to Judge M. G. Moreland. Mrs. Hawkins will serve until the general election, and has stated that she will not be a candidate for election to the office.

Judge Moreland said that candidates for the office of Commissioner of Precinct No. 2 will have until Tuesday, April 7, to get their names on the ballot.

Area Counties Produced Over A Million Bales

The nine-county High Plains cotton area which includes Briscoe County produced more than a million bales last year.

To be exact, the Census Bureau reports that there were 1,196,690 running bales of cotton ginned. The official count of bales ginned in Briscoe County is 25,242, as compared with 20,032 ginned locally in 1962.

Six area counties were among the top ten cotton producers in Texas. Lubbock County was first, Hockley second, Hale third, Lamb fourth, Crosby ninth and Floyd County was tenth.

Spann Services Held Here Last Friday

Funeral services for Everett Franklin Spann, 73, were conducted at the First Baptist Church in Silvertown at 3:00 p.m. Friday. The Rev. Jerry Terry of Plainview, officiated at the services.

Mr. Spann, a resident of Briscoe County since 1942, died Tuesday, March 24, after apparently suffering a heart attack at the home of a son near Tulsa. He was a retired farmer.

Mr. Spann was born January 20, 1891, in Nashville, Tennessee, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nix Spann. He was a veteran of World War I, having served with the U. S. Army.

Survivors include three sons, James Spann of California, Everett Spann, jr., of Tulsa, and Charles Spann of Silvertown; four daughters, Mary Ella Walker of Odessa, Flora May Parvin of Floydada, Dollie Jo Goodson of Houston and Martha Jean Dunn of Columbus, Mississippi.

Palbearers were Frank Hunt, Sammy Smith, Pat Northcutt, J. D. Spann, D. Orville and O. C. Maples. Burial was in the Silvertown Cemetery under the direction of Roberts Funeral Home.

State President To Speak At FU Meeting

Jay Naman of Waco will be the guest speaker for the Briscoe County Farmers Union on Wednesday, April 8, in the PCA community room in Silvertown. Mr. Naman is the State Farmers Union President.

Meeting time is 7:30 p.m., and the public is invited to attend.

POST OFFICE LOBBY TO BE LOCKED AT NIGHT IF LITTERING CONTINUES

Postmaster Martin issued another warning this week to the effect that if Post Office littering does not stop during the evening hours, it will be necessary to lock the doors.

"We have been hoping that the postal patrons would cooperate in this matter," the Postmaster said. "If the depositing of trash and waste matter on the floor and in receptacles doesn't stop, we will have no choice but to lock the front door."

the third year.

In a statement for the Briscoe County News, Coach Hines said: "My wife and I feel very fortunate to be moving to Silvertown and becoming a part of this fine school system. We are looking forward to making many new friends in the community.

"It is my desire to give the people and students of this community the best program possible. In order to have a successful program in any school, one must have support of the parents as well as the students. I feel there is great potential here in the Silvertown school system. In order to develop this potential we must have a burning desire to compete against all foes. My feelings toward athletics is that no one person is better than the next until he or she has proven themselves. Every athlete must set his goal and strive for that goal with all the effort that he can muster. It is said by many of the great coaches that a good athlete is made up of 10 percent ability and 90 percent desire. Unfortunately, there is not a great deal that anyone can do to improve his natural ability, but everyone can increase his desire. It is my desire to have a well coordinated athletic program.

"We hope to make our stay in Silvertown an enjoyable one for you as well as for ourselves. We are looking forward to meeting you."

Noted World Traveler To Speak In Silvertown

The Silvertown Church of Christ is pleased to announce the engagement of M. F. (Mid) McKnight, noted Bible lecturer and world traveler, to present an Illustrated Trip Through The Bible April 13-19. Because of his heavy schedule, the church in Silvertown has been four years in securing this noted speaker.

Mid McKnight, minister of the Highland Church of Christ in Abilene, has compiled a unique record in his eight years as a full-time preacher: he has served three congregations in this span and all three of them doubled their membership within two years.

These congregations are Edmondson, Texas, Plainview, Texas, and 5th and Highland in Abilene. McKnight's preaching career, however, goes back further than the previous eight years. It was actually 12 years ago that he first started his pulpit work.

At the time, he was a farmer near Hale Center on the South Plains of Texas and was serving as a deacon for the Hale Center church. His first preaching appointments came as he filled in for preachers around Hale Center.

Four years later, he decided to go full time into preaching, so he preached at Edmondson and started a dual existence that he was to continue for the next five years—he was at the same time a full-time minister and a full-time farmer.

He moved to Plainview where he continued the same regimen. Then, in 1960, he went to the 5th and Highland Church to replace James Willeford who had resigned to preach in Fort Worth. When McKnight moved to Abilene, he gave up the farming business.

M. F. (Mid) McKNIGHT

In his three years at Highland there have been 2,897 responses. The budget has stayed right with this growth, expanding from $2,507 a week in 1961 to $4,900 a week in this year.

McKnight has, in addition to his pulpit work, been very active in personal evangelism. In 67 months he has conducted 67 personal work training schools throughout the nation.

In 1958 he published a book titled, "Organized Personal Work" and it has sold over 20,000 copies.

In 1955 he made a trip to the Bible lands, took 906 color slides, and compiled an "Illustrated Trip Through The Bible" with them. He has given over 600 public lectures on that trip in the past eight years.

McKnight now has 500 speaking engagements a year and has about 1,000 people a year into his home for cottage meetings.

This past summer, McKnight took another trip to the Holy Lands. He traveled with two French-speaking missionaries — Hal Frazier and Bob McAuley — in a Volkswagen Camper he purchased in Frankfurt, Germany.

During his travels he took 2,600 color slides that he plans to use in making a supplement for the filmstrip resulting from the 1955 venture.

His tour this year took his over the route of Paul's three missionary journeys and his journey to Rome. He followed the routes of Jesus during his ministry and traveled the route of the Children of Israel in their flight from Egypt to Canaan.

He visited all the known places mentioned in the Bible and made pictures of all the known places in both the Old and New Testaments.

McKnight travels carried him through England, France, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, Greece, Turkey, Syria, Lebanon, Iraq, Jordan, Egypt, Israel and Cyprus and preached for many local churches during the trip.

"All in all," says McKnight, "it was a long, interesting, difficult, profitable, tiring and worthwhile trip."

McKnight is married to the former LaVorie Lee of Spur, Texas. They have four children of their own and a foster son. The children are Kay, 13; Sue, 11; M. F. III, 9; Dan, 6; and James, 6.

McKnight will be speaking here beginning Monday at 8:00 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday, meetings will be at 7:00 a.m.

Range Seeding Popular In Cap Rock S.C.D.

by Von Kleibrink

The Cap Rock Soil Conservation District has assisted cooperators each year in the establishment of native grasses. Grasses have been seeded on fields that are low producing cropland. Conservation Reserve land that is not seeded to native grass, or fields that have a high erosion hazard.

Now is the time to plant native grasses. The grasses seeded now will have time to make a good growth this growing season. Grasses have been seeded on the L. B. Garvin, Carroll Garrison, Gordon Alexander, Clifton Stodghill and John L. Garner farms. Wayne White, J. P. White, Bud Bailey, Alga Turner and others around Quitaque plan to seed native grasses in waterways.

The best and safest way to establish native grasses on cropland is to first establish a dead litter cover. This can be done by drilling grain sorghum about the normal planting time, but not later than July 1. The drilled sorghum should be mowed or shredded before seed is produced. This leaves a stubble and the litter from the crop on the ground to seed grasses into the next spring. When the grasses are planted the seedbed will be firm which is necessary for best results. The stubble and litter on the ground will furnish protection against wind and drying out.

Soil Bank fields that have a cover of sorghum alnum can be seeded without planting a dead litter crop. It is necessary in this case to thin out and weaken the sorghum alnum by mowing or shredding as many times as necessary to prevent the plants from producing seed. This may be done in one year, or it may take two or more years to reduce the vigor of the sorghum alnum to the extent that it will not crowd out the young grasses.

Weed control is essential in the establishment of native grasses. If weeds become a problem, mowing or shredding may be necessary to keep down competition. Weeds can be sprayed if there is no cotton or other field crops near that the spray would damage.

Native grasses should not be grazed the first year after seeding. This allows the grass to get well established and to produce some seed. In some cases it is recommended that the grasses not be grazed very heavily the second year.

Assistance from your local Soil Conservation District is available through the Great Plains Program for the establishment of native grasses or other needed practices.

Kitchen cabinet chaos? Make believe you are a supermarket manager and code your supplies to make a place for everything. But first follow these three steps.

1. Clean the cabinets one by one. Take everything out and organize contents on a large table: soups, juices, fruits, vegetables, baby foods, bottled and canned beverages, spices and herbs and whatever other staples you like to keep on hand.

2. Meantime, while the cabinets are still empty, dust them thoroughly, then wash shelves with a cellulose sponge dampened with a pine oil cleaner and warm water. This treatment will clean, disinfect and deodorize all at once. Dry shelves with paper towels.

3. Line shelves with washable plastic shelf paper.

The next step is the big one — Coding your own galley for the shipshape look.

4. Code your shelves in either of two ways: Color-code by taping maric tape at the front of each shelf as you open the cabinet door. For example, a swatch of red tape means soups on that section of the shelf, blue tape signals baby food. Another way of labelling shelves is to write the contents on transparent tape. Obviously, moist-used foods should be on the easy-to-get-at shelves, inventory and unexpected-company supplies can be stored in less accessible spaces if you're short of room. Be an optimist and encourage the family to put everything in its place.

Efficient arrangement of food supplies helps make writing the family shopping list an easier job. storage after shopping is organized for you and — if you train the family well — the "where-is-it?" questions will be kept at a minimum. Don't forget a pine oil cleaner-disinfectant when you make out that shopping list. From closet shelves to kitchen corners you can keep the shipshape look with a triple-duty pine oil product.

USE YOUR HEAD ABOUT HEADACHES!

Headaches are probably the most common of all complaints. They can be caused by dozens of different conditions—anything from tension to eyestrain to migraine to brain disease.

Most of the time they pass quickly and have no special importance beyond the discomfort they cause. No one would suggest that you go to a doctor for a mild headache that comes once a year. But when headaches are frequent it makes good sense to see a doctor.

Chances are he'll find it's nothing of consequence—and that alone can be a relief! If necessary, the doctor will prescribe appropriate treatment and medication. You'll be glad you saw him!

L.O.A. Club Entertains Teachers, A.F.S. Student

On March 24 the L. O. A. Junior Study Club met in the home of Mrs. Leo Fleming for a Friendship Tea. Women teachers in the Silvertown school system and Miss Masako Nakabe were guests.

Miss Nakabe gave a most interesting program on "My Life and My Country," and showed color slides of scenes in Japan, her home and family in Tokyo, Japan.

The American Field Service student also showed some of the slides which she will show for her countrymen when she returns home including one of Hereford cattle grazing a wheat field; harvest time in the cotton fields; herself at the Alamo; and pictures of her American sister, Sandi Rhode, fixing her hair, reading letters from home, and eating corn flakes and drinking Dr. Pepper for breakfast.

The voices of the Nakabe family were heard on tape, and the radio tape of Cotton John Smith's interview with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mercer in Tokyo before and after their visit in the Nakabe home recently.

A variety of Japanese canned foods and packaged delicacies were shown and discussed. Guests were invited to sample several of the foods.

Masako also demonstrated her skill with chopsticks.

Mrs. Ben Lesley, club chairman, presented Masako with a token of friendship, a steer head charm for her bracelet on which was engraved the date.

Cake squares decorated with the Japanese character for friendship, punch and nuts were served from the refreshment table which was laid with a crocheted white cloth over pink. A doll, dressed in oriental costume, decorated the table. An arrangement of pink carnations and white pom-pom mums decorated the speaker's table, and a single pink carnation was at the guest book.

Hostesses were Mrs. John Fowler, Mrs. James Hawkins, Mrs. Charles Sarchet, Mrs. Bill Baird, Mrs. Joe Granato, Mrs. Leo Fleming and Mrs. Randall Eddleman.

Those attending were the guest speaker, Masako Nakabe, Mrs. Ben Lesley, Mrs. Richard Whitfill, Mrs. Doug Forbes, Mrs. Ronald Dale Kitchens, Mrs. James Ross Alexander, Mrs. Don Cornett, Mrs. Robert Haley Hill, Miss Elaine Simmacher, Mrs. J. E. Claude Crossing Club Hears Miss Nakabe

Eastern Star Chapter Entertains Gathering

Silvertown Chapter No. 900, Order of the Eastern Star, hosted a Friendship Night on Tuesday evening of last week following their regular meeting. Visitors were registered from Olton, Tullia, Dimmitt, Happy, Lockney, Hereford, Quitaque, Plainview and Floydada.

Distinguished guests present were Nell Culpepper of Hereford, Deputy Grand Matron, District 2, Section 3, and Raymond Wilson of Dimmitt, member of the Texas Star Trail committee. Past and present Worthy Matrons and Worthy Patrons were also introduced.

The program was under the direction of LaVerne Long. Annell Davis gave a definition of friendship after which a spring hat show was presented.

Narrator for the hat show was Dorothy Bomar, Worthy Matron of the Silvertown Chapter. Ann McMurry was pianist, and models were Bess McWilliams, Rena Schott, Jackie Stafford, Connie Stephens and Norma Birdwell. The hats were designed and made by members of the Silvertown Chapter, and a verse about each creation was read as the bonnet was being modeled to the tune of the song it brought to mind.

A closing thought was offered by Lola Mae Stephens.

Following the program a banquet was served in the dining hall, with the refreshment committee, Peggy Strange, LaVerne Long and Annell Davis, in charge of ar-arrangements. Members of the decoration committee were Merlene Stephens, Lola Mae Stephens and Frances Crass.

A total of 75 were in attendance.

ty members from eleven communities attended.

Smocks, Pajamas Sent To Hospital Ship

As one of their current projects, the L. O. A. Junior Study Club recently sent 22 smocks and pajamas to be used by the floating hospital ship, HOPE.

Project HOPE is one which was adopted by the junior club two years ago. The members were 100 percent in their participation in the project.

C. L. McWilliams.

Mrs. Bern May is leader of the 20 Wa Ne Ki girls, and Mrs. Rieley Yates is leader of the 16 Helpful Blue Birds.

The public is invited to attend the charter presentation.

The principal busness of the day was discussion of the production of the out-door spectacular "FANDANGLE" which will be given in the amphitheater in the Palo Duro Canyon as a benefit for the Heritage Foundation June 11, 12 and 13 this year. Robert Nail, author and producer of Fandangle, spoke to the board members about the problems involved in getting the theater ready for use. He advocated as little more permanent building as possible until the theater had been used for several productions and patterns of usage had been established.

In order that each community might have the same opportunity to attend the limited engagement of Fandangle, board members are inviting organizations in their vicinities to take the responsibility for 25 tickets each. Those groups reserving and paying for 25 tickets will receive the first seat assignments when the box office opens May 1. In addition to seat space on the concrete risers which will be $2.50, it was voted to have eight rows of chairs on the low front risers priced at $4.00.

Any person, organization or business wishing to insure tickets for its group may write FAN-DANGLE, Box 1268, Canyon, Texas, for 25 tickets. Small orders and individual sales cannot be handled until after May 1.

Postal Officials Urge Zip Code on Mailings

"It is the desire of the postal department to obtain public acceptance of the recently installed ZIP code system," Postmaster Brady Martin stated today.

The use of the ZIP Code number 79237 for Silvertown after the return address is providing more efficient service. Also, the ZIP coding system will benefit the mailers in providing faster service with much less cost to the government for all addressing of mail. Even the town or state can be left off the letter (which sometimes happens) or it may be illegible to the dispatcher, but the letter can be sent directly to its destination if it has the proper ZIP Code number.

"This system is a definite saving in government expense if the public will make use of it, and it will be required on all first class by in another year," Postmaster Martin said. An example of such savings is illustrated by many national magazines in that they are sent directly to sectional centers as Lubbock without a single postal employee looking at them. "You, as a taxpayer, can help our government save money by using this new system, and you will also have more efficiency in the delivery of your mail," Martin said.

CLASS VISITS BUSINESSES

Mrs. O. C. Rampley's bookkeeping class visited various local businesses on Tuesday and Thursday, March 24 and 26.

The class was divided into two groups, so that each student could get as much out of the visit as possible. The Tuesday tour visited Fogerson Lumber & Supply, Briscoe County News, and First State Bank. The Thursday group visited the latter two.

Students were allowed to inspect actual bookkeeping systems, and had each system explained for them. In this way the students could associate their class experience with actual practice in the business world.

FILM ON ALCOHOL SHOWN

Students of Silverton High School saw a film, "Verdict at 1:32," in assembly Monday, March 23. The purpose of the film was to demonstrate and hammer home to viewers the effects and dangers of alcohol.

The story centered around an automobile accident. One of the drivers was a chronic alcoholic. The other had had two drinks shortly before the accident. The lawyer for the latter attempted to prove that the alcoholic was entirely responsible for the accident.

The surgeon who examined the brains of the victims (both were killed in the accident) demonstrated that both could have been responsible—that the two drinks the girl had could have slowed her reactions enough that she was unable to act quickly in the emergency.

The surgeon showed the two brains to the lawyer. The brain of the chronic alcoholic showed internal and external hemorrhage and great deterioration. The girl's did not show such damage.

The doctor also demonstrated the effect that two drinks had on a volunteer. He showed a film taken of expert drivers and their reactions after one, two and three drinks. This convinced the lawyer that his client was also responsible for her death and that of the other driver.

DO YOU GIVE THE SAME CONSIDERATION TO ALL CLASSES

Do you give equal time to assignments in all your classes? If you do, you are a truly remarkable person. Most students tend to get their homework in the classes they enjoy first and put off their other work until later or don't get it at all.

This is only natural for you to work on the subjects you like, but is it fair? First of all, it isn't fair to the teacher because you are showing that you believe his subject isn't important enough to merit the energy it takes to work up the assignment. Each subject is important whether you chose to take this particular one or were required to take it. If it is a required subject it must be important or you wouldn't be taking it. If you chose to take it, it must be important to you or you wouldn't have chosen it. If you use this reasoning, all your subjects will be considered important.

Second, it isn't fair to you as a student. You may think that is a stupid remark but just stop for a minute and think about it. If you constantly work only on the subjects you like you don't give yourself a chance to enjoy the others. After all, who enjoys going to a class for which he hasn't prepared his lesson? You will learn a lot more if you try to take part in the class.

You may think your teachers all act as if theirs was the only class from the assignments they give, but don't act as if your favorite class were the only one. If you continually ignore your outside work in a particular class, aren't you acting as if it didn't exist?

This would seem to prove that your usual criticism of the teachers also applies to you. When you start to criticize others stop to see if you couldn't apply the same criticism to yourself.

Student Council Attends Conference

by Mrs. A. L. Redin

Martha Mills, Ruth Ann Minyard, Sandi Rhode, Max Garrison, Student Council officers for next year, and Mrs. A. L. Redin, sponsor, attended the State Convention in Houston March 19-21.

They left Lubbock by chartered bus with students and sponsors from Olton, Seminole, Lorenzo, Ralls, Floydada and Lockney at 5:30 a.m. Thursday. They arrived in Houston about 3:30 p.m.

The opening session was at 7:30. Breakfasts, luncheons, banquets and programs occupied the remainder of the time. There was a mixer after the first night's program and a semi-formal dance and talent show Friday night.

The keynote address, "Our Place in Space," was given by Bill Wood, president of TASC at Midland High School. The message was so good that everyone wondered how a high school student could show such excellence.

Friday morning the speaker was Rev. J. W. Jablonowski of Fort Worth. His subject was "What Do I Seek to Do With My Life?" The talk inspired both young and old to live a more abundant life, to be thankful that they can think, grow, seek, act. He insisted that everyone should find a life's work that he likes and will help others—not just something that will give security.

Friday afternoon was given to discussion groups and problem clinics.

The third speaker was Dr. Charles Jarvis from San Marcos. He said the greatest attribute a person can have is common sense, which includes a sense of humor, of friendship, of fairness, of kindness, of tolerance, of humility, of congeniality. He brought out each point in a forceful manner. His serious thoughts were liberally interspersed with humor, which gained each person's undivided attention.

The conference ended in the customary manner Saturday at noon with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

The entire group on the chartered bus went to the San Jacinto Monument and to the battleship "Texas" before starting home at 3:00 p.m. Saturday. A party for the bus driver, a hilarious affair, was given about 12:00 Saturday night. The bus arrived in Lubbock at 2:00 a.m.

It was a busy, interesting, instructive, happy occasion. The Student Council and sponsor wish to thank the student body, teachers and administration for making the trip possible.

Unhappily, Masako Nakabe was unable to make the trip because she became ill Thursday night in Lubbock and had to return home. She was greatly missed. Mrs. Redin probably didn't enjoy standing in line three hours to secure room assignments, and she also thought getting stalled between floors in a packed elevator was an unusual experience, to say the least.

by Mary Monroe

Most people have probably known someone who doesn't always tell the truth, someone who stretches the truth, and/or someone who, it seems, just doesn't know how to tell anything that is true. These people, which is a shame, are usually the people who gossip the most.

To tell something that is true about another person who did something to hurt his own reputation is bad enough; but, to tell something about another person that is not true can do a lot of harm to that person and to his or her family. It can ruin that person's reputation. And for what? A lie!

Most people who are like this don't really mean any harm, but they feel left out when in a group and that is where the untruth starts. The majority of the group will let it go in one ear and out the other, but there are always a few who want to believe everything and anything good or bad. They go out and tell a few other people and before you know it, the victim of all this is in real trouble. The person being talked about is usually the last person to know about it.

A person like this is really to be pitied. Like George Bernard Shaw said, "The liar's punishment is not in the least that he is not believed, but that he cannot believe anyone else." And Cicero once stated, "A liar is not believed even though he tell the truth."

You Know WHY IS IT

—when you have dark hair you want light hair and vice-versa? —some people want to be in the papers while others get in it and want out! —only some people get to miss school for a vacation and be excused?

—that the students of SHS never study till the last minute for a test? —some people have to make a bet that they can be quite in class before they can?

—the sixth period Chemistry class always gets a harder test than the third period Chemistry class? —that everyone is counting the weeks until school is out?

—that all the Juniors have been called to the office? —that they are afraid to go? Guilty conscience?

—that some of the play cast for the one-act play never get home right after play practice? —that some people take what is written in these columns to heart?

THE OWL'S ROOST

by Mary Monroe

The little owl wishes to thank the people who contributed to his nest this week. It is the first time in weeks that he has had a nice soft nest.

It seems that Rocky shocked everyone with his date to the Baptist banquet. Next time, Rocky, give us a little warning first.

Johnny M., is it true that you have a taffy on Randy's cousin from Lubbock?

The little owl wonders if his eyes are failing him or if he really did see Greg and Jan riding around together.

Gary and Randy, what was it you were doing at the park that would make someone want to know if you had fun or not?

Last week's Tulia paper was almost as much in demand as the one two weeks earlier. Students found that they could also write letters to the editor.

Last week almost everyone had spring fever. Maybe that's why they changed the bell to a "fog horn."

Not only is a senior girl wearing a ring that doesn't belong to her, but a certain junior girl is, too. Don't get alarmed; the owners of the rings don't mind, do they Linda and Pam?

Walter Lynn, the owl is curious as to how you got the nickname, "Alabama."

What's your G. L. fashion rating?

If you wear socks that match your personality or your date status, and clean canvas sneakers, your G. L. (ground level) fashion rating is top! If you don't qualify, here are a few tricks to put you back in step. First step — pull up your socks. Second step — add your own special flair.

If you are the campus leader type, and you go for sharp, tailored clothes, wear your socks pulled straight up. To keep them high and handsome the latest trick is to spray white cotton socks with Faultless Spray-On starch while still damp. When socks are dry, pull them on, and use another whiff of Spray-On to keep them high and handsome.

For the style-setters on campus, the "twist" is the latest. Pull socks straight up, then twist them around the leg so that the ribbing has a spiral effect. A puff of Spray-On holds them in place.

To proclaim your date status, embroider the initials of your steady about an inch from the top of the sock cuff. Use colorful yarn or thread, of course (or just give him a hard time, fold over a one-inch cuff and you're single again).

Now for those clean sneakers. Soap and water gets them clean; Spray-On Starch keeps them clean. Just spray clean, dry sneakers with starch. After each wearing, brush off the starch (the dirt comes with it) and re-spray. Simple, but it works!

One more fashion cue on sneakers — white is basic and great with everything. But try pastel and bright colors that match your sweaters. It's very coordinated.

For more style pointers, send for a free Fashion Tips booklet. Write to Faultless Starch Company, Dept. Teens Talk, 457 Merchandise Mart, Chicago 64, Illinois.

*What do you do

WHEN A CRISIS COMES

- ... and you need a prescription filled at midnight
- ... or your plumbing starts leaking
- ... or your car won't start
- ... or you run out of clean shirts
- ... or when the cupboard or the baby is bare

DO YOU saddle up and take a day off to get the matter taken care of in the City, or do you write to a catalog house for help?

OF COURSE NOT. Likely you hardly recognize these and similar predicaments as crises.

Because YOU'VE GOT NEIGHBORS, right here at home . . . with their skill and their money invested in establishments able to take most of your troubles on their own shoulders so quickly that you scarcely notice they are difficulties at all.

But HOW MANY skilled craftsmen, and good business men, and good neighbors, and good workers in civic and church affairs, and good taxpayers . . . how many of these have cut down their stocks, laid off employees, or left the country . . . because all you were buying from them was the things you couldn't wait to get somewhere else . . . and how many will leave in the future to go where your money is going?
