VOLUME 57 NUMBER 42

Silverton Moves To New U.I.L. District Next Year

Numerous changes in district arrangements have been announced by the University Interscholastic League for Texas high school football and basketball teams next fall.

District 2-A

Claude, Clarendon, McLean, Silverton and Wheeler will make up District 2-A next year. Claude has been in District 1-A, and Silverton has been in District 3-A. Wheeler was a Class B club.

District 3-A

Bovina moves out of Class B ranks into District 3-A, to play Springlake, Farwell, Kress and Sudan.

District 3-AA

Hale Center will join Abernathy, Dimmitt, Floydada, Friona, Lockney and Olton in District 3-AA.

District 2-AA

Memphis and Wellington move up from Class A into 2-AA, joining Electra, Iowa Park, Olney, Quanah and Seymour.

District 1-B

District 1-B will be made up of Happy, Hart, Lazbuddie, Nazareth, Texline and Vega.

District 6-B

District 6-B will have Chillicothe, Valley View of Kamay, Matador, Newcastle, Rochester, Rule, Turkey and Vernon Lockett.

Silverton lost to Hale Center Friday night by a 44-0 margin. The mostly-injured locals were outclassed by the visitors who are moving into AA play next year, but in spite of the odds the red team put up a great fight during the game.

Some of the area sportswriters tended to overlook the fact that Hale Center High School is something like twice the size of Silverton High School when commenting on the game.

The S.H.S. Owls had a lot of chatter and desire even though it just wasn't their night. Lannie Arnold, substituting for John Montague who has been on the injured list, quarterbacked the club most of the evening until injured and was taken to the hospital by ambulance. Montague came into the game and did his best on an injured leg. The entire backfield appeared to be limping when the game was over, but the boys didn't give up.

Silverton held the score to 15-0 in the first half, which fans agreed was commendable. Hale Center star back, J. D. Davis, was held in check all evening.

Kay Strange will be among the 56 girls who compete for the title of "Miss Cotton" tonight during the opening activities of the Hi-Plains Cotton Festival in Plainview. The "Miss Cotton" pageant will be held at 7:30 p.m. at the new Agricultural Exhibition Center, located on the southern outskirts of Plainview.

A rehearsal for the contest was held Wednesday afternoon preceded by a punch party at 4:30 p.m. at the Agricultural Center. Miss Gena Brazeale, Hale County Home Demonstration Agent, is the contest chairman.

The Silverton entry is being sponsored by the Young Homemakers chapter. Kay is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Strange, and is a junior in Silverton High School. All the contestants will be wearing cotton party dresses.

HISTORICAL COMMITTEE

TO MEET NOVEMBER 18

The next meeting of the Briscoe County Historical Society will be on Thursday, November 18, at 7:30 p.m. in the county courtroom. All members are urged to be present at this meeting.

Vice President, emphasized that the vitality and strength of the Society are directly attributable to the informed volunteer.

The delegates of the local unit returned home with a new determination to fulfill the goals of the American Cancer Society in Briscoe County. The women work through the L. O. A. Junior Study Club to organize and carry out the April Crusade in Silverton, and will be working hand-in-hand with Quikcare volunteers to make sure that life-saving information is available to all.

Annual Cancer Meet Held In Dallas

Dr. A. B. Goldston of Amarillo was elected President of the Texas Division of the American Cancer Society at the organization's twentieth annual meeting in Dallas October 13-14. William D. Sanders of Dallas is Chairman of the Board of Directors.

Mrs. Don Cornett and Mrs. Bill Durham, both of Silverton, delegates of the Briscoe County Unit, were among the more than 350 delegates, members and guests representing 185 Texas counties who reviewed progress of the Cancer Control Program in Texas during the two-day meeting.

As a highlight of the meeting, L. E. (Lefty) Ross of Quanah, Vice Crusade Chairman, announced that television's famous "Hoss Cartwright" will serve as the 1966 State Cancer Crusade Chairman. "Hoss," whose name is Dan Blocker, was born in Bowie County, and received his formal education in Texas schools.

World-renowned cancer surgeon, George Pack, M. D., of New York, addressed the delegates on "Aspects of Cancer Control." B. L. Aronoff, M. D., of Dallas, outgoing President of the Division, spoke to the delegates on the history of the Texas Society. The delegates also heard Oliver Field of the American Medical Association speak on "Quackery and Disease." Scotty Graham, popular vocalist in the Dallas area, spoke to the group on his experiences as a person cured of cancer, and he later entertained the group.

Farm Bureau Plans Annual Convention

The Briscoe County Farm Bureau Convention has been set for Saturday, October 23, in the school cafeteria. Supper will be served beginning at 7:30, and Farm Bureau members and their families are invited.

Reports will be heard and four directors are to be elected. Guest speaker will be Joe Edd Sullivan, Hale County Service Agent. Ruth Ann Minyard will tell about her trip to a Citizenship Seminar last summer.

Homecoming Set At WTSU Saturday

The old grads will be on hand Saturday afternoon to watch a West Texas State team that is looking for its sixth consecutive victory after staging a fourth-quarter rally to trip Colorado State University, 15-12.

Only five other teams in Buffalo history won their first five games. The 1936, 1941, 1950, 1956 and 1962 squads came into their sixth game with unblemished records. Only the 1956 aggregation failed to win its sixth contest, but the 1965 Buffs could fall into that category and it wouldn't be termed an upset.

New Mexico State will bring a veteran Aggie team to Canyon to try to spoil the Buff's Homecoming celebration. The Buffaloes will be seeking revenge for the 40-0 licking the Aggies administered at Las Cruces in 1964 at the NMSU Homecoming. Only three of the Aggie lettermen are gone from that squad, and there are still plenty of Buffaloes who also remember.

A capacity crowd is expected for Saturday's clash in 20,500-seat Buffalo Bowl.

Mrs. Charles Travis Holt and Mike of Columbus, Georgia, arrived here Wednesday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. C. A. Holt, and other area relatives. Capt. and Mrs. Holt and Mike have recently returned from Germany. Capt. Holt, a helicopter pilot, has since been transferred to Vietnam, to serve with the Airmobile Division which has been active during the fighting there.

Proclamation Of Eye Bank Week

Eye banks contribute immeasurably to the cause of better sight among all Americans by furthering research in eye diseases and helping to restore sight through services they perform in corneal transplant operations.

The eye banks of our State, as exemplified by the Hi-Plains Eye Bank Incorporated, which serves the Panhandle and the Panhandle area of Texas, have done much to help combat the problems of sight in our State by research and assistance in eye surgery.

The Eye Bank Association has designated the week of April 25-May 1 as National Eye-Bank Week in the United States.

Therefore I, as Governor of Texas, do hereby designate the week of October 25-November 1, 1965, and direct the attention of all citizens to the progress of eye bank programs in our State and the outstanding services they are performing.

EYE BANK WEEK

In official recognition whereof, I hereby affix my signature this 21st day of October, 1965.

The cost will be the factory price plus a very nominal distribution charge which will make them available to members "at a very substantial saving," the county FB president declared.

THE OPEN DOOR

"Behold, I have set before thee an open door . . ." Rev. 3:8
 by Rev. Clyde Cain

"I searched the world over for God and found Him in my heart," said Augustine. In the heart of the believer a still small voice speaks in clearest accents, bearing "witness with our spirits that we are the children of God." Nothing on earth is so heavenly as that—so like "the voice of angels singing in the silence." It is as clear as bells at eventime. It is assuring like the familiar voice of a friend beloved. The Holy Spirit speaking in the secret chambers of the heart is the climax of God's revelation to us!

Joe Doaks Disregards Advice Of Others

Here's Joe Doaks again. He complains, "I get sick and tired of having someone constantly preaching to me." He resents advice from parents, teachers, other adults, or even from fellow students and friends his own age.

Joe should give a little thought to these words, whose author's name has slipped our memory: "Learn from the mistakes of others. You can't possibly expect to live long enough to make all of them yourself."

But he refuses to profit from the mistakes made by adults during THEIR earlier years. When told what certain forms of conduct may hurt him as well as other people, he heedlessly disregards the warnings and goes right ahead with such actions anyway.

Joe Doaks should be able to grasp the fact that adults, because they have made a number of mistakes over the years and know the unhappy consequences, are in a good position to give advice. He should, at the very least, give their suggestions and warnings serious consideration. Such consideration could prevent a lot of grief and trouble for him later on.

If Joe were sensible, he would look ahead to the future when he becomes a parent and wants to advise his own children so as to prevent them from doing things which experience has shown to be wrong and harmful either to themselves or to others.

In the years ahead, if Joe Doaks' children ignore advice on proper conduct, he will spend hours of worry and anxiety. That is what many parents are doing today, because their sons and daughters are making foolish, needless mistakes which often lead to serious trouble and unhappiness for all the persons involved.

Unfortunately, there are a lot of Joe and Jane Doaks in this world, who resent advice that could be highly beneficial. Are you one of them?

At the Junior class meeting on October 12, Margaret Minyard discussed the Leadership Seminar to be held in Floydada October 23. She said that anyone interested could attend.

How long is Leland going to be able to keep so many girls on the string? Too bad his charm doesn't "take" as well on the teachers. Maybe they have already heard a similar line of gab from kids trying to get out of work so long that they have become immune to it.

The Spanish I class has proved quite embarrassing to Mike. It really pays to know what you are saying—even if it is in Spanish.

If Venita and Johnny stand any closer in the hall they are going to have to find another door to hide behind—I think they have been discovered!

Doug, will you please learn to follow directions so the whole Typing I class won't be late to lunch any more?

Where did Howard ever get the idea that some of the announcements from the office were dedicated to him? Could it be a guilty conscience?

Diana S. has been accused of being a "Peeping Tom" over at Coach Nutt's house. However, no details were given.

After seeing the Powder Puff Football Game work-outs, some think the coaches should recruit some players from their ranks—they really play rough!

"Coaches Long and Smith" have really worked above and beyond the call of duty in coaching the girls' teams.

The failure list and the honor roll have been posted side by side in the hall. Several of the kids who made the first one have been going around with long faces since report card day. Don't see so many cars dragging the streets after school either. Oh well, kids, it will soon pass and Mom and Dad will forget all of the terrible threats and things will get back to normal again.

The Man Of Steel

by Mike Long

My hero is the mighty Superman. He can leap doll houses with a single bound. He's faster than a speeding snail. He can bend taffy in his bare hands. The secret identity of this man of steel is Max Stevenson.

One day, not long ago, I was walking along the Silverton railroad tracks. Then suddenly, I heard the cry of Gary Crow. I looked around and found that his foot was caught in the tracks, and that there was a handcar about one-half mile down the tracks coming at him at full speed. I looked and saw that Randy Hughes was the driver. At first, I decided to let Gary Crow get run over, but I didn't want the tracks to get messy. I tried to wave Randy down but he was too busy combing his hair and didn't see me. I went over to Gary and pulled his foot out, but in the process I got my foot caught. I called to Gary for help. He said he didn't have time to save me. He said he had to go home and learn how to do the JERK.

Now I was all alone. The handcar was only a couple of hundred yards away now. I pulled at my foot and couldn't get it loose. I knew that this was a job for Superman. I knew that the only way I could get Superman was to make a sound like a goat. I called two times and then I saw Superman flying toward me. The handcar was only about twenty feet from me now. Randy was still combing

The pep rally was closed with the singing of the fight song.

EDITORIAL

by Paula Turner

The first six weeks has gone by. Many people were probably not satisfied with their grades.

Although in some ways the first six weeks is the easiest, it is also the most difficult in other ways. Each year we have some teachers that we have never had before. Each teacher is different. They each have different ideas and methods of doing things. In the first six weeks we must learn just what each teacher expects of us.

Even though adjustments must be made at the beginning of each year, probably most of us did not try as hard as we could or put out the quality of work that we are capable of doing. We should always try to do our best because what we do now and in the next few years will determine the habits we have and the things we do in the future.

If we are to do well in school we must really want to. It is not something our teacher or parents can do for us. We must be determined to do better.

There is still plenty of time left to do better. Only eight people in high school made the honor roll and the failure list was long. All of us can improve our grades if we resolve to do it.

Verden Is Spelling

Bee Director

Bill Verden, principal of the Silverton Elementary School, is the 1966 Spelling Bee Director for Briscoe County.

Some time before April 9, the Briscoe County Bee will be held, and the Champion will go to Amarillo on April 23 for the annual regional elimination for the National Spelling Bee.

Last year, Barry Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Johnson of Quitaque, an eighth grader in the Quitaque school, was the Briscoe County Champion and placed ninth in the regional Bee.

The Amarillo Globe-News, which has sponsored the High Plains area bee since 1949, also has a unique secondary contest—the Junior Spelling Bee, open only to contestants from the 6th and lower grades. The National Bee is open to all students, 16-years of age and under, through the eighth grade.

The Briscoe County Junior Champion for 1965 was Ann Rucker, daughter of W. A. Rucker of Quitaque, a fifth grade student in Quitaque school.

First place winner in the regional bee will go to Washington during the first week in June, 1966, to participate in the National Spelling Bee. The winner will also receive several other attractive prizes, and his (or her) school will have a full year of use of the Britannica film service. A traveling plaque, carrying the names of all Regional winners since 1949, will hang at the school of the winner.

Each county champion receives an engraved plaque and gold pen. Each county junior champion is given a trophy and a silver pin during the intermission at the Regional Bee (but there is no regional contest for the juniors; they are merely guests for the annual Spelling Bee luncheon at the Amarillo Club).

In the school contests, each winner receives a Paper-Mate pen, encribed "School Champion" and a blue and gold ribbon likewise imprinted. Each school junior winner receives a red and gold ribbon trophy. Each student who entered the Bee receives a ribbon trophy also.

Freshmen Vote To Have Second Booth

by Mark Branam

At a meeting on October 12, the Freshman class decided to have a second booth, ring throw, at the Halloween Carnival.

Those appointed on the committee to work on the booth are Caron Montague, Lexie Younger, Barbara Davis, Jimmy Walker and Danny Vaughan.

his hair and didn't see me. I tried to yell at him, but I couldn't be heard over Gary's record player playing the JERK. When the handcar was only five feet away, Superman landed in front of it and stopped it with one hand. Superman freed me and flew home. Since that breath-taking time, he has been my hero.

Report On Trip

Mrs. Ray C. Bomar, Mrs. L. K. Gilkeyson, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Steele and Mr. and Mrs. John Lee Francis were among the 71 area residents who have recently returned from a twenty-five-day trip to points of interest in the United States and Canada.

The tour took them to Lincoln's Tomb and home in Springfield, Missouri, and in Milwaukee they visited the Horticultural Conservatory which Lady Bird Johnson was present to dedicate. Members of the Texas delegation sang "The Eyes of Texas Are Upon You," and most of the group were able to shake hands with Mrs. Johnson. Mrs. Francis reported getting one very good picture of her.

They snapped cheese at a Wisconsin cheese factory and visited a dairy farm before continuing on into Canada. The Canadian scenery was beautiful, they report. The tour visited the Soo Locks, and the group took a boat ride on the St. Mary's River through the locks. They visited a smelter,

Pretty Clothes and Pretty 4-H Girls Go Together

PRETTY clothes on pretty girls are a common sight in 4-H circles, particularly among the more than three-quarter million girls from 9 to 19 enrolled in the national 4-H Clothing program, observes Miss Mamie Hardy, head of educational field activities for Coats & Clark Inc., sponsor for 25 years of the clothing program.

Sketched here are some of the fashions that 4-H girls are putting into their fall and winter wardrobes. In their clothing projects they learn how to sew on and care for new fabrics, and to choose color, line and design. The "learning-by-doing" is guided by local volunteer clothing leaders and extension home economists.

Miss Hardy conducts numerous workshops for extension personnel. Her newest is called "The Shape of Things" which teaches how to get different shapes in garments by use of various interfacings, backings and linings.

"Several generations ago," said Miss Hardy, "stiffeners used in garment construction gave exaggerated shaping and made the garment uncomfortable. Today's inner fabrics have changed to keep pace with the many new types of outer fabrics designed for contemporary living.

"The secret of good lines is knowing which type to use to achieve a softer and more comfortable effect," Miss Hardy added.

Workshop techniques will in turn reach local 4-H leaders who will pass them on to the girls. Patience, persistence and pride in workmanship are three essential requisites for getting ahead in the clothing project, according to the 4-H'ers.

The tour was guided through Ottawa and Quebec and visited a cyclorama depicting Jerusalem on the day of the crucifixion, done by a German painter some 80 years ago. The painter and his four helpers studied the Bible for a year before beginning, and it took them four years to finish.

Quebec washes its streets with a day in an effort to keep them clean. Some 80 thousand tons of salt are required to keep the streets there open to travel in the winter.

The group traveled from Quebec to Boston and toured the New England states. They visited Cape Cod and had lunch on the cape. They saw the Ocean Spray cranberry factory on the cape and observed the cranberry crop.

They were in New York three days visiting places of interest. They went out to the Statue of Liberty, saw the Rockettes, "Hello Dolly" and "Half Sixpence."

The tour also took them to Philadelphia, Washington, D. C. and Jamestown. They toured the White House and had lunch in the cafeteria at the capitol, meeting Mr. and Mrs. George Mahon and Walter Rogers.

They returned home through the Smokey Mountains in Tennessee, which were beautiful at this time of the year.

Mrs. Francis, who reported some of the trip for the local paper, recalled that she had a wonderful twenty-five days of sightseeing, but was very glad to get home.

Go forth, young man

... we can't use you here

Is this the word to our young people - able and beloved - when they've finished school and are ready to start making their own living?

COPYRIGHT 1964 D. B. SCOTT

Too often it is, in the smaller communities like ours.

Why don't we have more job opportunities and more business opportunities right here, so that more of our sons and daughters can establish their homes and be happy and prosperous here at home?

It's partly circumstance. Partly the natural limitations of the economy of our area. Partly because we haven't been quite aggressive or enterprising enough to build and grow more.

But it's also partly because many of us have let ourselves get into the habit of spending too much of our money somewhere else.

Every dollar that we spend away from home is a dollar less to circulate among us and to account for 2 or 3 or more dollars of added trade volume as it moves from hand to hand.

Keeping more of this easily available trade volume at home is one way by which we could create and sustain more local opportunities for our young people. And for ourselves.
