HOME NOTES

by Becky Hall
Home Demonstration Agent
Congratulations to Mrs. Darrell (Gloria) McWilliams. She is presenting her very first program this week on "Safety in the Home". It is such an encouragement to work with young women (whatever their chronological age) willing to learn something new, do something for the first time, and share the benefits with others. These are some of the wonderful rewards of being a Home Demonstration Agent.

The Southwestern Briscoe Home Demonstration Club is sponsoring a tea commemorating National Home Demonstration Month. All Home Demonstration Club members, all 4-H Club adult leaders, 4-H parents and 4-H Club members are invited.
The tea will be in the school cafeteria on Thursday, May 19, at 2:00 p.m.

Rogers To Offer Bill Amendment

Congressman Walter Rogers, chairman of the House Subcommittee on Irrigation and Reclamation, said today he will offer an amendment to Lower Colorado River Basin Project legislation to include West Texas in studies to be made of future water requirements in the West and Southwest.
Congressman Rogers, who is presiding as Lower Colorado Project hearings continue, said, "Water short areas must think now about their future and consider all possible means to alleviate problems including importation of water from water surplus areas elsewhere in the United States or in adjoining foreign countries. There is simply not enough room for all of us to live on the banks of the creek, but all of us must have water."

Congressman Rogers said state responsibility "cannot be avoided simply because the federal government is willing to help." He added, "The Texas Panhandle and High Plains should be included in the Texas State Water Program."

The only local race was for County Commissioner in Precinct No. 4. Incumbent Roy S. Brown defeated his two challengers by polling 122 votes. O. M. Dudley received 52 votes, and Mrs. Mary Beasley received 27 votes.

May 15-22 Is Soil Stewardship Week

The Cap Rock Soil Conservation District takes this opportunity to inform the public that May 15-22 has been designated as Soil Stewardship Week.

Soil Stewardship is the moral responsibility of all, including both the land owner and the city dweller.

Is the land to become the "undeveloped space?" With more and more rural people moving to the towns and cities, increasingly greater responsibility is being placed on those who remain on the land. The land is God's gift to all of us and it is here to be used, but without care and protection those who follow will have but little left to do with.

America is at this time a land of plenty but this condition can reverse and this land of plenty could become a land of want if the land we now have is not protected from improper use.

With each passing year more of our young people are leaving the land for life in the city and for each one who leaves the land, the responsibilities of soil stewardship becomes increasingly greater.

Land improperly used and cared for loses its natural beauty and productive usefulness. Orderly planning of resource use is the responsibility to our children and to society.

Conservation is no longer a problem of the farmer alone but is a problem to be faced by all Americans. Without proper use of the land, all can suffer from the lack of clean water, lack of adequate food, and the natural beauty that this land provides.

Now is the time for all of us to exercise our freedom of speech and support those who have the courage to speak against the careless and deliberate misuse of the land and its resources.

Official Hails Faster Area Mail Service

A representative of the Dallas Post Office told 142 postmasters and postal supervisors from the 18th Congressional District recently that overnight movement of all first-class mail between all area offices is a boon to West Texas.

G. W. Morrow, speaker at the meeting, said: "We must promote cooperation and understanding of transportation patterns and schedules among all post offices and postal personnel to improve efficient service and speed the delivery of mail."

He said greater use of ZIP Code is resulting in 24 hours' faster delivery of mail.
Postal Inspector H. W. Ritchey of Amarillo discussed methods of safeguarding mail from the time it is received at the post office until it is delivered.

Ernest Davis of Dimmitt, local congressional chairman, presided. Among others present were Grady Martin of Silverton, president of the Texas Branch, National League of Postmasters, and 18th Congressional District directors, Nolan Grady of Hereford and C. T. Davis, jr., of Amarillo.

STANLEY FOGERSON

GARNER GARRISON

Silverton Students Receive Awards

Garner Garrison and Stanley Fogerson were recipients of Non-Athletic Awards presented annually by Tarleton State College. Award winners are recommended by the heads of the various mail during the period May 16 through May 25. Ballots may also be delivered by hand to the ASCS county office.

The only question to be decided by the balloting is whether upland cotton allotments may be transferred during the next three years to other farms outside the county which are owned or controlled by someone else. Such transfers may be made by sale or by lease. In no case may transfers be made outside the State. An affirmative vote by at least two-thirds of the county's cotton farmers who vote will permit such transfers for the next three upland cotton crops, 1967-69.

A referendum on the same question was conducted last fall throughout the Cotton Belt, and growers in 349 counties at the time approved the allotment transfers. The vote this May will be held only in counties which disapproved such transfers in last fall's vote.

The upcoming vote by mail marks a first in program administration, according to Mr. Kitchens. Farmers previously have been able to vote by mail in annual ASC committeeman elections, but the method has never before been used in a commodity program referendum.

Mr. Kitchens said, "It's easy to vote by mail, and we hope all producers will vote. The vote should be fully representative of the wishes of cotton farmers in our county."

The chairman said that ballots are being sent to all cotton producers of record in the county, together with information describing the program's purpose and operation. Any cotton producer who has a question about the referendum or about who is eligible to vote, is urged to get in touch with the ASCS county office.

Fred Edwards was honored on his 22nd birthday anniversary Sunday, May 1, with a family dinner in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Edwards and Tommy. Others attending were Mrs. Fred Edwards and Mrs. E. Posey.

Mrs. E. Posey has recently returned home after spending a week in Amarillo with her nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Huntsman and sons, while their youngest child, Bruce Wayne, was ill and a patient in Northwest Texas Hospital.

To serve during the coming year are Mrs. Gene Morris, vice president; Mrs. G. Mayfield, recording secretary; Mrs. Bob Hill, treasurer; Mrs. Jimmie Wofford, Membership Cultivation; Mrs. Hugh Nance, Christian Social Relations; Mrs. Arnold Turner, Missionary Education and Service; Mrs. John Hinds, Program Materials; Mrs. Lem Weaver, Spiritual Life Cultivation; Mrs. George Seaney, Supply; Mrs. Robert Ledbet-

THE OPEN DOOR

"Behold, I have set before thee an open door . . ." Rev. 3:8
 by Rev. Clyde Cain

In Exodus 20:12 these words are found: "Honor thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long upon the land, which the Lord thy God giveth thee."

I would like to call your attention to the word, "honor."

As this word is used in this passage it is a synonym for the word "glorify," and carries the meaning of being heavy; for glory is a gem of heavy karat in the characteristics about our God. Like fountains abounding with water would we have the opulence of earth exhibit the name of our Lord. It would take something strong, and much of it, to begin to describe the glory of God, yet it is very interesting that this word was chosen to describe the respect, honor and attitude of the child for his parent. I ask you, is this being continued in our modern society?

Mrs. H. P. Howard and Mrs. Floyd Williams were in Lubbock Friday. Mrs. Howard had an appointment with a neye specialist, and they also visited Mrs. R. L. Sigham.

Attend American Heritage Banquet

Tuesday, May 3, Miss Zobia Self, Mrs. Louie Luhman, Paula Birdwell, Marsha Teeple, Vicki Vaughan, Marilyn Minyard, Janie Hooten, Cleo Ivory, Richard McCutchen and Clifford Rowell attended a banquet at Wayland Baptist College in honor of their having won the American Heritage Essay and Poster Contest sponsored by the Baptist college in Plainview. Tina Weaver and Jimmy Burson were unable to attend.

A meal was served before Dr. Jerry Dawson made a short talk on "How American Heritage Affects You and How You Affect American Heritage." He emphasized the fact that anyone can change the course of history. He gave examples of how three common men did just that.

Eleven years after the end of the Revolutionary War, the newly formed nation almost fell to pieces because some had forgotten the ideals their leaders had set before they only a short time before. One man, however, stood up and reminded his fellow Americans of the ideas they had pledged to live under, and the people rallied to his cry and saved the country.

Following the Civil War, there was almost a recurrence when once again the states almost rebelled but were saved by the words one man spoke at a prayer meeting.

After World War II the world was almost thrown into a turmoil over the Communist invasion of Greece, Albania and Bulgaria, but for the works of an American soldier who stayed there and helped the oppressed people get back on their feet. When he died they erected a monument in his honor for all the things he had done for them.

Dr. Dawson went on to say that anyone in the world can serve as useful a purpose as these three common men did.

Each of the winners from the schools participating was presented. Miss Self was presented before the assembly for winning second place in the Teacher's Essay Contest, and received a copy of "Remington's Real West" and a subscription to the "American Heritage" magazine.

Mother's Day

by Karen Holt
The honor of the origination of Mother's Day belongs to Miss Anna Jarvis of Philadelphia. Her mother died in 1906. On Sunday, May 9, 1907, she told a friend whom she had invited to remember with her the anniversary of the death of her mother of her desire to dedicate a day to all mothers. Before the next anniversary came, she had interested many individuals and organizations in the observance of the second Sunday in May as Mother's Day. As a result of her efforts, Philadelphia observed the day May 10, 1908. Miss Jarvis then became the missionary of the idea.

She wrote thousands of letters to influential men in all walks of life. She interviewed many public men and pleaded for the observance of the day. Since 1912 the governor of Texas has observed the day by pardoning a number of prisoners on that day. State after state has adopted its observance.

In May, 1913, Pennsylvania made it a state holiday. On May 10, 1913, a resolution passed the Senate and House of Representatives to make the second Sunday in May a national holiday. "dedicated to the memory of the best mother in the world, your mother." Miss Jarvis has been the means of organizing a national and an international organization to further the promotion of the observance of the day. It began to be observed in England as early as 1913. The second Sunday in May is observed in all churches irrespective of creed, and the previous Friday is observed in all the public schools. The previous day is observed in business establishments. It is observed "through some distinct act of kindness, visit, letter, gift, or tribute to show remembrance of the mother to whom general affection is due."

For a time it was observed as Father's Day, "designed to perpetuate all family ties." Its slogan is in honor of "the best mother who ever lived." The badge of the day is a white carnation.

Guest Editorial

by Vicky Vaughan

A survey was conducted recently in our high school on what was considered appropriate for both the boy and girl to wear on dates. There were different ideas, of course, but overall the types of clothes considered depended entirely on the kind of date.

In my opinion you should always consider where you are going, and who is going to see you, for people always judge you by the clothes you wear and the way you act. No one, boys or girls, would wear shorts and tennis shoes to a nice restaurant for dinner, nor would you wear a floor-length formal to church. These are extreme examples, but you understand their meaning.

As important as what you wear, is how you conduct yourself. If you act the same way at church as you do at the drive-in, people will consider you rude and immature. You should conduct yourself with self-respect and always do what you consider the polite and correct thing—not what your friends do.

People always remember what you wear and the first impression you make, far longer than the things they "hear about you," and if you make a good impression more than likely will not believe anything they heard. Everyone wants to make a good impression.

A Day With The Sophomores

by Roy Ann, Mary Lane and Nancy N.

As I was going to school in MY LITTLE G.T.O. MONDAY MORNING I passed Clifford LEANING ON THE LAMPPOST. He said GO AWAY LITTLE GIRL, as Gene and Roland passed by on their LITTLE HONDAS going NORTH TO ALASKA. I saw Lynn STANDING ON THE CORNER watching all the girls go by and Joe WALKING WITH HIS CAT NAMED "DOG." George, WALKING WITH HIS ANGEL (Karen), was screaming HELP, I CAN'T STOP LOVING YOU, as he stepped off the bus.

Upon entering the premises of old S.H.S. I saw Mr. Hinds LOOKING ROUND EVERY CORNER, for the Biology rabbit, running like a ROADRUNNER.

Next, I heard Harvey say BE MY WOMAN to Jane. She started crying and I knew it must be I LOVE YOU DROPS.

Walking down the darkened halls I came upon (GLORIA C.) RAINY DAY WOMAN with CAT-MAN (L.H.).

As I journeyed on to my first class Mr. Neal (LEADER OF THE PACK) came running out saying, "IT'S AMAZING how THESE BOOTS cannot catch THE CHEATER."

LIGHTENING STRIKES AGAIN as we hear a BANG BANG sound coming from the office. Then we knew, IT WAS JUDY'S TURN TO CRY.

O. C. said, "DON'T BE AFRAID LITTLE DARLING, IT'S ALL OVER NOW."

SIGN OF THE TIMES shows it's noon, and we hear the voice of Dale S. saying SLOW DOWN, as the SAINTS GO MARCHING IN.

Having our SLOPPY JOE for lunch we knew it didn't matter WHAT SHAPE OUR STOMACH WAS IN because we knew we were going "to eat it" anyway.

Now we hear the YAKETY YAK and LAUGH LAUGH OF (R.B., M.W., N.N., N.L.) "I'VE BEEN TOLD WHEN A BOY (R.C.) KISS A GIRL (L.B.) LIKING TURNS TO LOVING, but WHY IS EVERYBODY PICKING ON ME, I LIVE IN A WORLD WITHOUT LOVE."

We saw the Ag II boys (V.M., L.F., B.C., H.B., B.W., R.M.) RIDE AWAY in the truck GIDDY UP, GO when we heard (B.B., R.N., L.Y., J.W., N.M., P.G.) yelling PLEASE DON'T GO, I WANT TO HOLD YOUR HAND.

MAYBE I KNOW, TIME WON'T LET ME STAY IN THIS OLD HOUSE (S.H.S.) with MY GUY any longer.

"YESTERDAY, I GOT ALONG WITHOUT YOU BEFORE I MET YOU," said Venita and Debbie, "but now that I'VE GOT YOU BABE, I CAN'T STOP LOVING YOU."

BOING, BOING the bell rings and HAPPY DAYS ARE HERE AGAIN.

The Sophomores, the one big happy family

To Jimmy Burson

From All The Sophomore Girls (Who Are Not Going Steady)
Composed by Nancy N. and Mary Lane

I've got to go in,
It's getting late
But I just can't
Leave my date.
I've just got to go in,
They'll lock the door,
But, first,
Just one kiss more.

I was on my way
In from the car,
But I didn't get Very far.

It's dark outside,
He left just now.
Oh! my goodness!
He hit a cow!

He got out,
And then reversed.
I declare!
I believe he cursed!

I went in
And told the gang,
You should have heard
The laughter rang.

All night long,
We did not sleep,
Wondering if he had
Hit a sheep.

The next night
He was coming again.
I called and told him,
"Be careful! Don't hit a hen!"

As night drew near,
There came a fog.
When he got to my house,
You're right; he hit my dog!

That settled the dispute,
Of going with him.
Goodbye, forever—
Young Lover—Jim!

Dear friends,
We take this method to thank all of our dear friends for the beautiful chairs you gave us.

May God's blessing be yours.
Gordon and Oriole Alexander

We want to thank all the people who attended the dedication and blessing of the new Our Lady of Loreto church and express appreciation to those who sent flowers and other things. What good we do for man on earth is more power and love for God in Heaven.
Thanks to all.
