

All Around the Town

by Mary Ann Sarchet

Continuing through the files of the Briscoe County News at random, we've run across a number of clever writings regarding elections. In 1936, the "Bobbing Bout" column by Editor R. B. Boyle contained one of the best.

"It happened last year while Carl Crow and G. W. Sweatt were electioneering. Carl had just finished visiting a certain home soliciting the lady's vote, and while there he had cut up a goodly sized pile of wood. When he started to leave he asked the lady, 'I guess you will vote for me, after that job?' 'Oh! I don't know,' the lady replied, 'Mr. Sweatt is back on the porch churning.'"

Boyle was followed by Editor Roy Hahn later that year, and the following items from his column through the remainder of '36 indicate that times haven't changed too much.

"J. C. Estlack of the Donley County Leader says that these dust storms are just a late whim of Mother Nature—that he's in favor of the old regime—and then wonders if he's getting old-fashioned."

"Finley White is claiming the credit for the rain. He has a straw hat that does the trick. He says the minute he puts it on the clouds begin to gather. I had a pair of white shoes that had the same power over the elements."

"A new sign posted at the Gulf Service Station reads 'Clean Rest Rooms.' Manager Ted says he's going to give the court house a little competition!"

"Joe Alexander is driving a new 1936 Chevlie. Saw him go by a bit ago and he looked real nice in it. Chin held a trifle high perhaps—sun was in his eyes I guess."

"The fire boys headed by Chief Theron Cross attended a fire meeting. They heard a rumor that sandwiches and beer were going to be served and lo, and behold! the attendance from Silvertown was almost 100 per cent—with the exception of the fire marshal."

"Every farmer is holding his breath at every cloud. Silvertown has had several wheat crops knocked out by hail and just now the theme song is 'Hail storm, stay 'way from my door.'"

"Doc Minyard, city secretary, acting city treasurer, and a bachelor of some 26 lonely summers, almost gave me a printing order the other day. He said, 'We've got to get together with you and figure out some way to get this printing done so that we can profit, and so you won't lose money.' Well I guess that's right. Us country newspaper ginks are supposed to be in the business because we like the work."

"Whiteside is somewhat disgruntled because Sally Rand did not recognize him and call him by name (in Fort Worth). He says, 'Boy, I'm a'telling ya—those were the dimmest lights I ever saw.'"

"Did you ever notice how that chopping block is scratched up down at the Burson Food Store? Well, according to Troy and Porter a salesman came in with his wares, among which was some fine old limburger cheese. He sat a chunk of the cheese down on the block and they all went into the drug store for a coke. And when they got back, there was someone's family cat up on the block doing his best to cover up that cheese. And that's the truth, so help me."

"Lem Weaver, the High School Aggie Chief, has our thanks for a subscription. The remarkable thing about it is that he didn't wait for the special offer of 75¢ for this Friday and Saturday—just plunked down his $1.50. Several other folks bought the paper last week, too."

"A merchant addressing a debtor remarked in the course of his rebtor, 'That he chose to suppose, a man know what he owe, and the sooner he pays it the better.'"

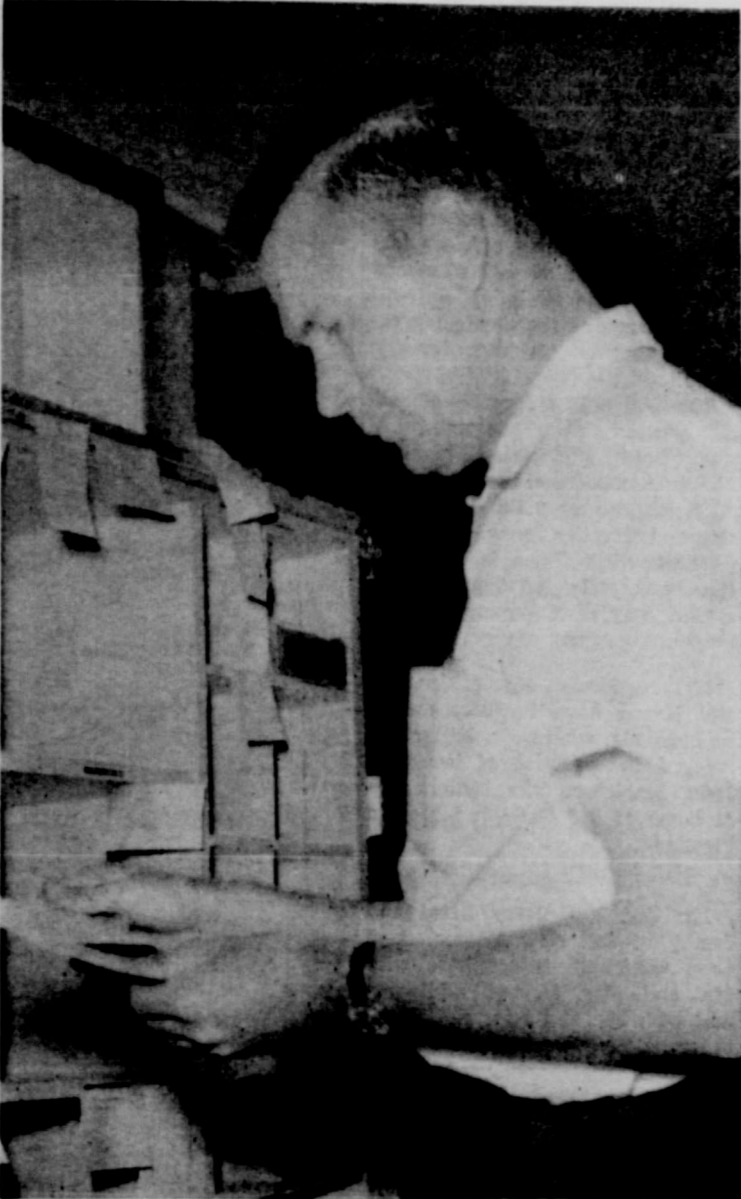

"Fifty years ago, the fifteenth of November, M. C. Potter came to Briscoe County. That's quite a while ago. His nearest neighbor was 18 miles away. Silvertown nor Quitaque were in existence at all. He says that the first few years he spent in digging the canyons through the country. I think Bob Stevenson helped him a little with the project. All the buffaloes were still little calves and the Indians were all papooses at that time. Anyway, it was a long time ago and anyone who will stick with a

Grabbe-McWaters Vows Exchanged Here Friday

Miss Patricia Lee Grabbe became the bride of Mr. Lawrence Dale McWaters in a pretty candle-light ceremony in the Rock Creek Church of Christ at 6:00 p.m. on Friday, June 26. Earl Cantwell, minister of the church, read the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Grabbe and Mr. and Mrs. Joe McWaters, all of Silverton.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin cage with lace overlay, complete with lace chapel-length train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was secured by peau de soie roses.

The bridal bouquet was a cascade of daisy mums surrounding a detachable corsage of white feathered carnations. The bouquet was carried atop a Bible, the lace cover for which was made by the bride's maternal grandmother.

She carried out tradition by wearing her great-grandmother's bracelet, a blue garter, a pearl necklace borrowed from her matron of honor, and had a penny in her shoe for luck.

Vows were solemnized before a wedding basket of white snowballs sprinkled with blue cornflowers and flanked by twin lighted candles.

Attendants were Mrs. Ruby Pitchford and Miss Ninette Martin. They were attired in floor-length blue peau de soie sheath-style gowns and carried matching colonial bouquets of blue Majestic daisies.

Best man was Glen McWaters, brother of the bridegroom. Alton Riddell was groomsman.

Ushers were Harrell Minyard and Clifford Rowell, who also lighted the tapers.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the home of the bride's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Olos Chitty.

The serving table was laid with a cloth appliqued with satin wedding bells. The couple cut the first slice of their tiered wedding

Historical Committee Hears Guest Speaker

The Briscoe County Historical Survey Committee met last Thursday night in the PCA community room for the regular business meeting conducted by Mrs. C. O. Allard, chairman. Mrs. Allard reported that there were 282 museums in Texas, and that Briscoe County was proud to be one of those having a museum.

This interesting and rewarding experience gave Gale an opportunity to observe a variety of culture. Jane Dyer, also of Wayland College, assisted her in showing the slides.

Mrs. Allard closed the meeting with a quotation from Wilfred A. Peterson: "The art of success is discovering your best talents, skills and abilities and applying them where they will make the most effective contribution to your fellowmen. In the words of Longfellow, it is 'doing what you do well, and doing well whatever you do.'"

Coffee, cookies and cold drinks were served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Stark, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Pete Rice, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Allard, Judge and Mrs. M. G. CARDS OF THANKS
We want to express our heartfelt thanks and gratitude to all the many kind friends and neighbors who assisted us in any way
at the passing of our loved one.
We want to express appreciation
for all the food that was brought,
for the use of the Methodist fellowship hall for our family dinner, for the beautiful floral offering, cards and memorials.
May God bless and keep each
of you in your hour of need.
Mrs. John Bean and family

THINGS TO REMEMBER
IN WATERING GREGG 25V
25V holds up longer than any other cotton after the last water
—on most soils from 2 to 3 weeks longer.

The important thing to watch is
the take-off date, which we recommend generally between July 15
and August 1.

Start watering as early as you wish, but the first irrigation
should be finished before the first bloom.

43% of our cotton this year is
May cotton, the remainder was replanted June 5, of which we lost 13 acres, and this was again replanted June 15. We will start watering our 25V about July 5. Considering the year with its setbacks and replants we will irrigate only once, and will finish our 25V by July 25.

It is a known fact that with all
crops, whether grain sorghum,
soybeans, small grains, or others,
that the early maturing varieties
need irrigation in the growing season sooner than the long-season varieties. Gregg 25V is a very early maturing variety, hence the need for irrigation before the first bloom. Gregg Seed Farms, Plainview, Texas. (Adv.)
