Do You Remember?

Do you remember when, after promising big-heartedly to hold the score to four touchdowns, the Silverton Senior football squad, composed mostly of last year's first string players, was lucky to eke out an 8-0 win over the younger boys? The Briscoe County News continued, "led by the charging Hank Brown, the underdogs held the heavier Seniors to two points for a safety in the first half. The Seniors, with the aid of a questionable pass and a fifteen yard penalty, pushed over a touchdown late in the third quarter."

Court was in session in Briscoe County, "with the gypsy lady being tried for theft of $70 from Mr. Jones, caretaker of the gravel pit at the cap rock." In a follow-up report, Editor Roy Hahn wrote, "And the gypsy lady went free. It was a costly bit of experience for the county. It doesn't take much figuring to get the amount up in the many dollars. What they would have gained by convicting her is more than I can see. But, the law must take its course regardless. My notion is that if a fellow lets a lady (?) get his billfold, he should just chalk it up to purely personal experience."

The Seniors of 1938 included the following in their class prophecy: "... A man dressed in an aviator's suit climbed into the cockpit of a monoplane that he had just bought. When the man turned, we recognized him as Jim Cline... as we watched, he started the plane to rolling and took off into the sky... there was a farmer working in a pumpkin patch... we saw it was Odell Gregg and he had become very successful in his work. He had been able to make two pumpkins grow on the same vine, and in the future we look for him to produce peas that won't need shelling and cherries without pits... Picture of the week was 'Ride 'em Cowboy' featuring Jack Haynes and his singing guitar... Being treated at the drug store were Billie Joe Womack, owner of the town's best machine shop, Arthur McJimsey, a prosperous farmer, and Arlis White, a famous lawyer. These were razing another of the group, Albert White, because he had grown so fat... On the book shelf were several copies of the best book of fiction of the year, 'Romance in the Dark,' by Riddell Hutsell... The barbers in the barber shop were Odell Gregg and Alton Strickland... The manicurists were Othell Bomar and Maxine Watters."

In a succeeding issue came this bit of news: "Mr. and Mrs. and the dictator ate Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Ware Fogerson and their young plutocrat. I think that I scared Ware last week by calling him a windbag but anyway wiggled him out of a good fried chicken dinner. Sylvia thinks that Ware married her for love, but her ability as a culinary artist may have had something to do with it."

And also that same year: "Gordon Alexander was a victim of amnesia from Friday until Sunday of last week. He attended a convention of tax collectors and assessors at San Antonio and was supposed to have arrived there on Friday. But you know these conventions—Gordon was three days late and although he knows a thousand reasons why he was delayed, he can't think of a single one when you ask him about it. It sounds bad to me."

The hazards of a small town newspaper shop were brought to the fore in this report: "Pete Amason, linotype operator at the News Office, had a narrow escape from death when he monkeyed with a light bulb while his hands were wet. In falling, Pete tore the wires loose from the ceiling, which probably saved his life."

The City of Silverton was in the midst of a big spring house-cleaning. "The city truck will be around the last of this week to gather trash and so forth," said Editor Hahn in his Yours Truly column. "Have it ready and in the alley. Perhaps should have said 'it is rumored that the truck will be around—but let's have faith just one more time.'"

"If you need a boy to help call the News and we'll have one shipped out to you. They are all crated and ready to go."

"And there shall be candidates and rumors of candidates. From now on," said the editor, "I'm charging one buck for each and every rumor of candidate."

"Haylake Happenings, as imagined by Bill Bingham, was a regular feature of the Briscoe County News."

"This editing a country paper is a combination job of being a mind reader, a handwriting expert, and a nimble liar. And I'm not a mind reader nor a handwriting expert, but I get the paper out," wrote Editor Hahn.

Aulton Durham accepted a coaching position here, replacing Woodrow Wilson who had resigned to coach at Crosbyton. "The new coach is inheriting a football team that will have only two lettermen. He is not discouraged with prospects however, and says that he has a lot of mighty good material, although nearly all inexperienced. Here are the boys that have been coming out for spring football: Hank Brown, A. J. Rowell, O. C. Rampley, Bruce Burleson, Bob Brooks, Johnny Quillen, Thomas Olive, Minyard Long, W. L. Perry, Grady Martin, Carlton Gardner, Charles Francis, Jack O'Neal, Louis Johnson, John Crow, James Davis, Gene Arnold, Alvie Boyce, Fred Brannon, Alton Walker, Bob Garvin, Huber Tillery, Conrad Henderson, Jack Burleson, John Ed Bain, Billy Gregg, Billy Morris, Guinn Williamson and Edwin Dickerson."

Paul Reid had brought an old copy of "The Stayer," a newspaper published in Silverton in 1898 for Editor Hahn to look over. The paper, edited by R. W. Morgan, was said to have been small but very neatly printed. An account of the defeat of the Spanish Fleet at Manila was given on the front page. Items of interest in Silverton in 1898 included: "W. B. Hill (R. M.'s dad) announcing for County Judge... announcement of Minor Crawford for Sheriff... announcement of election on the open saloon... and a little ribbing from the editor about Billie Reid which says, 'Girls, why don't some of you make a more determined effort to catch Billie Reid? A man who owns and drives the sleekest stock in the country should make a model husband.'"

One hundred and fifty persons assisted in an all-night search for four children who became lost in the Tule Canyon. The children, Billy Gene and William Lee Toller, Charles Parker and Ernest (Jack) Watley, were found safe the following morning by Jake Honea and Bailey Childress on the north side of Claude crossing.

"If you want to get the low down on California, talk to Jack Brown or Horace Lightsey, who came back from that state about the first of the month. Jack says that in any one block, in one hour, there is more meanness going on than has happened in Silverton since the town was laid out," the BCN editor wrote.

Over 1,500 votes were cast in Briscoe County in the first Democratic primary in 1938. "The largest upset of the whole election," reported the Briscoe County News, "was the victory of W. Lee O'Daniel over a field of twelve candidates for Governor. O'Daniel is the first man in history who won his first term as Governor without a runoff." O'Daniel polled 959 votes in Briscoe County. "I asked Chick Northcutt Saturday if he was a little nervous watching that board. Chick said, 'No,' that he'd been to Kansas City with a carload of cattle too many times, and looked at a board just like that, and saw them go down $2.00 a hundred."

"Good news for Silverton motorists! Another road hazard is gone! Jimmy Cline's gone to college." So reported the BCN in September of 1938.

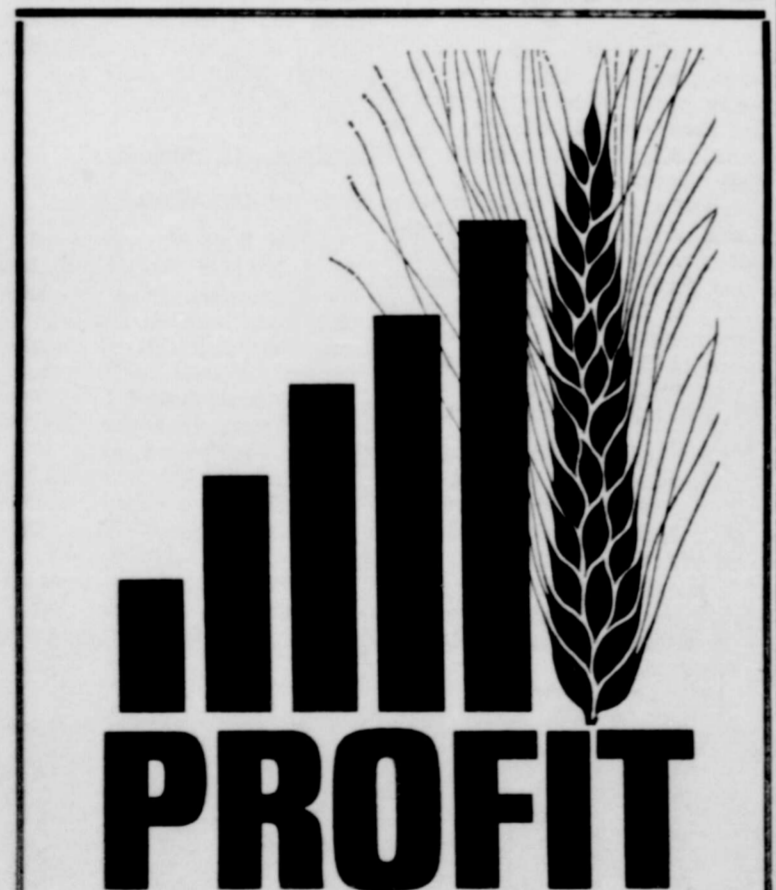

In a copy of "The Stayer" that was brought to the News Office by Nig Reid, dated June 25, 1898, Editor Hahn said "we find Casey McClendon heading the Honor Roll of the first grade. Clay Fowler says 'There must be some mistake.'"

"T. L. Anderson wants me to run a card of thanks this week thanking folks for the nice assortment of cats and kittens that have been dropped off in front of his house during the past few weeks. He is in the wholesale cat business, so as to speak," Hahn wrote.

And in October of 1938, "Thomas Waggoner, editor of the Claude News, noticed my little squib about the Silverton Stayer. He says, 'Editor Roy Hahn should ask us about events at Silverton that happened just 40 years ago. See DO YOU REMEMBER?' CONTINUED ON PAGE THREE

DO YOU REMEMBER?

At that time this editor was printer on the Silverton Stayer while Mrs. R. W. Morgan was editor. The mail hack was assisted by her lawyer-husband, the husband remaining in the background. Leaving Silverton, we took the buckboard mail hack, crossed the Tule Canyon and established the Tule News, at Tule, Texas 40 years ago. Tule had daily mail 40 years ago. The mail hack would leave Amarillo early in the morning, changing teams every 20 miles—another team of mules were hitched up and trotted another 20 miles. This was done each day and the hackman leaving Amarillo early in the morning, landed at Plainview at nightfall. Another hack left Plainview in the morning and landed with the mail in Amarillo, evening of the same day, seventy-five miles away. Those were the good old days of 'fast' transportation."

And he was right. One-day mail service from Amarillo to Plainview in 1896 was certainly nothing to sneeze at!

Do you remember when the stingers Hornets met the hootless Owls? The Tule and Silverton teams battled to a scoreless tie before a record Armistice Day crowd in November 1929.

In the fall of 1938, local interest turned to the cotton harvest: "Boots Bryant has been bragging all over town that his gin is the best in the country and I guess that he is right," wrote the BCN editor. "At least I heard that Rollin Wilborn loaded up a straight load of cackle burrs and had them ginned. The turnout was good and the staple, I hear, was good enough that he got a government loan on it. Which I think, is the first loan that Rollin has had. Gin like that should be labeled 100 proof!"

Do you remember when Lucile West was the Senior candidate for Football Queen, with Thomas Olive as her business manager? The Junior candidate was Noveline Byrd, with Hank Brown as her manager. The Freshmen selected Evelyn Coffee as their candidate and Jimmy Neatherlin as her manager. The Sophomore candidate was Pauline Steele, and her business manager was Rex Douglas.

And do you remember when the local chapter of Future Homemakers of America called themselves the "Jolly Eckers"? Their motto was "Success comes in cans, I can, you can and we all can." Officers were Anita Hill, president; Marie Nance, vice president; Evelyn Coffee, secretary; Frances Simmons, treasurer; Eunice McCain, parliamentarian; Nettie Faye Burd, reporter; Mrs. Doherty, sponsor. Members of the yearbook committee were Durene Strickland, Pauline Steele and Anita Hill. Coleen Bomar, Donaleta Seaney and Faye Jean Davis were selected to represent the chapter at the Regional Meeting in Canyon. Colors chosen by the club were purple and gold, and their flower was the tulip.

That same fall, "Joe Oneal left a stalk of his irrigated cotton at the gin. Of course, Joe isn't a fellow to brag, so I'll have to do it for him," Hahn wrote. "The stalk had 44 bolls, all of which were 5-lock. . . That's some cotton, for they tell me that it takes about 100 bolls to make a pound."

And after a football game that was less than successful, Editor Hahn mused, "I held off this batch of stuff till after the football game, just so I could brag about beating the boys from under the hill. Well, in my notion, I still have room to brag. I'll bet that our boys can dance better, sing better, and play marbles better—I just won't mention football. We were beat by the giant of over confidence, with Quitaque as his side-partner.

"They outgained us, out-passed us, and outscored us, but we beat them at the game of 'clap hands, here comes Charley.'"

Do you remember when Gordon Alexander, "who was sick, nigh unto distraction" received a bouquet of loco weed and prickly pear from his friends?

And in the final 1938 edition of the Briscoe County News, which was edited by Aulton Durham in the absence of Editor Hahn, who was on vacation: "From Mexico City to Canada, the highway through Silverton would be the only dirt road. . . Ned Baird got a new broom for Christmas. . . To sit on the Mourner's Bench, you must know at least one good yarn about each worker in the courthouse.

"As far as this office is concerned, 1938 is over—1939 is here. Then in the words of Longfellow: 'Let us, then, be up and doing, With a heart for any fate; Still achieving, still pursuing, Learn to labor and to wait.'"

McMINN SERVICES —

Mrs. McMinn was born Endia Anne Southerland on May 25, 1883, in Smith County, Texas. The following record of her life was taken from the history prepared by her grandson, Travis McMinn, for the memorial service:

Life was varied in those early years but the most outstanding event in her life came at the age of 13, when Endia Southerland was born the second time. Written on a piece of paper and underlined in her Bible is the scripture she believed and accepted—"Marvel not that I say unto you, Ye must be born again." But she didn't believe that you were only to become a Christian; she also believed that a Christian should be baptized and become a church member, and so she followed that belief and became a member of the Baptist Church.

The second great event in her life came at the age of 17 at Noon Day, Texas, when Endia Southerland became the bride of W. L. McMinn. Life wasn't easy in those days. But happiness was theirs as they made way for a new life together. They came to the Plains of Texas in 1922 and reared their family in Briscoe and Floyd counties. During these years in the various vocations, the uppermost importance in their lives was God's will. Endia McMinn believed the scripture: "Train up a child. . ." This she did as she set the Christian example before each of the children. Her personality sent out a beam of love and happiness to all that knew her.

She loved her church and remained faithful to it as long as she lived. Church services were of great importance and even in the last months of her life, when it came time for church services all of us were expected by her to attend with her.

Wednesday we were in much grief because of her suffering. We were in great sorrow because she was still living. But Wednesday afternoon, July 24, at 6:00 p.m. a great reunion took place. I don't know all that happened, but I believe that she and grandfather, whom she had missed so very much in these last 13 years, were reunited, and today she is enjoying all the glories of Heaven, such as hearing the angels sing, good health and being in the presence of Jesus.

Today these four generations who are left behind do not grieve but rejoice because Endia McMinn lived these 85 years and because of her living we have a proud inheritance, and if we have prepared our lives and souls as she prepared hers, we, too, can be united with her one day. We who are left behind will miss her—but in this, her memorial service, if she were able to speak, I think she would say to all of us: "Be not dismayed, what e'r betide—God will take care. Be not in sorrow, but rejoice and prepare to meet me in Heaven. Follow my example before you; remember what I have taught you and live the Christian life, so when you come to this place of death you, too, can hear Jesus say, 'Well done thou good and faithful servant.'"

PUBLIC NOTICE
Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT
NUMBER THIRTEEN ON THE BALLOT (HJR16)

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article VIII, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended by adding a Section 1-f, to read as follows:

"Section 1.f. All merchandise, products, goods or wares in the temporary custody of a public warehouseman, who has no financial connection other than as bailee for hire with the owner, shipper, or consignee of the merchandise, products, goods, or wares, are exempt from ad valorem taxation if they are shipped to or from the warehouse by regulated or bona fide private carrier, are held by the warehouseman not longer than six (6) months, and have a predetermined out-of-state destination at point of origin. The books and records relating to out-of-state shipments covered hereby of such public warehouseman shall be available for reasonable inspection by the proper taxing authorities. This amendment shall not act as a validation of any present statute or law, but only those passed specifically pursuant hereto; provided, however, that enabling legislation passed in anticipation of the adoption of this amendment shall not be invalid solely because of its anticipatory nature."

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November 1968, at which election all ballots shall have printed on them the following:

"FOR the constitutional amendment to exempt certain property temporarily stored in a public warehouse from ad valorem taxation."
"AGAINST the constitutional amendment to exempt certain property temporarily stored in a public warehouse from ad valorem taxation."

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT
NUMBER FOURTEEN ON THE BALLOT (HJR22)

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That the Constitution of Texas, Article III, be and the same is hereby amended by deleting therefrom Section 18, and substituting in lieu thereof the following:

"Section 18. No Senator or Representative shall, during the term for which he was elected, be eligible to (1) any civil office of profit under this State which shall have been created, or the emoluments of which may have been increased, during such term, or (2) any office or place, the appointment to which may be made, in whole or in part, by either branch of the Legislature; provided, however, the fact that the term of office of Senators and Representatives does not end precisely on the last day of December but extends a few days into January of the succeeding year shall be considered as de minimis, and the ineligibility herein created shall terminate on the last day in December of the last full calendar year of the term for which he was elected. No member of either House shall vote for any other member for any office whatever, which may be filled by a vote of the Legislature, except in such cases as are in this Constitution provided, nor shall any member of the Legislature be interested, either directly or indirectly, in any contract with the State, or any county thereof, authorized by any law passed during the term for which he was elected."

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held throughout the state on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1968, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the constitutional amendment fixing the time during which members of the Legislature shall be ineligible to hold other offices."

"AGAINST the constitutional amendment fixing the time during which members of the Legislature shall be ineligible to hold other offices."

High Plains Field Day Will be September 12

A display of oil seed crops including plants, care, and products will be an interesting feature of the 12th Annual Field Day of the High Plains Research Foundation on September 12, 1968. Hosts for the afternoon will be members of the Oil Seed Commodity Committee of the Board of Trustees of the Foundation. The display will be located in the Seed Processing Laboratory.

Soybeans, Sunflower and Rape-seed are included in the research program at the Foundation. The display will include all these crops, with emphasis on soybeans. Short, medium, and long-season soybean varieties will be compared. Differences in yield and quality as affected by cultural practices will be shown. A soybean production guide, published by the Foundation, will be available. Producers have found this information valuable in selecting planting dates, irrigation procedures, and harvesting methods.

Sunflowers will be on display to show plants of acceptable combine height and desirable head size. Products of both soybeans and sunflower will be on display.

The Oil Seed committee reviews the research presently underway and makes recommendations for future research to the Board of Trustees and the staff.

Fred Mercer is a member of the committee.

Members of some of the Young Homemaker chapters in Area One will be hostesses at the Annual Field Day. They will welcome visitors, help them register for prizes, and distribute copies of the program outlining the tours, dis-

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER EIGHT ON THE BALLOT (HJR49)

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. Section 21 of Article 16 of the Constitution of the State of Texas is amended to read as follows:

"Section 21. All stationery and printing, except proclamations and such printing as may be done at the Texas School for the Deaf, and paper, except that for the Judicial Department, shall be furnished under contract, to be given to the lowest and best bidder under such regulations as shall be prescribed by law. No member or officer of any department of the government shall be in any way interested in such contract."

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November 1968, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the constitutional amendment removing certain provisions relating to purchase of fuel and furnishing the rooms and halls of the Legislature and the requirement that the Governor, the Secretary of State, and the Comptroller must approve certain contracts of purchase."

MRS. RONALD LYNN MULLIN

Martin - Mullin Vows Exchanged
In Church Ceremony Here Saturday

Double ring wedding vows were solemnized at 9:00 p.m. Saturday at the home of Mrs. Farris Martin and Ronald Lynn Mullin, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Mullin, jr., of Turkey.

The candlelight ceremony was performed at the First Methodist Church with a former pastor, the Rev. Carl Nunn, pastor of First Methodist Church in Clarendon, officiating.

Providing a selection of nuptial music were Mrs. Marvin Montague, organist, and Miss Cynthia Sutton, soloist.

The marriage was solemnized before a white wrought-iron prie-dieu flanked by cathedral candles holding white tapers and accented with white satin bows and matching wedding baskets of white gladiolas. The circular altar setting was banked with emerald palms and cathedral arrangements of white gladiolas, white gypsophelia and tapers complimented the church windows. White tapers, gypsophelia and white satin streamers marked the bridal aisle.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional floor-length white peau de soie gown of empire styling, designed with sabrina neckline and petal point sleeves. A band of peau de soie encircled her empire bodice and ended in a small bow at the center front. Rose point lace motifs sprinkled with seed pearls adorned the edge of the gown and the cathedral train that was attached at her shoulders.

Peau de soie rosebuds accented with seed pearls held her veil of tiered imported English illusion. She carried a white lace-covered Bible topped with a cascade of pink Happiness roses and stephanotis surrounding double white pink-throated orchids.

For something old, the bride carried her maternal great-grandmother's Bible, that each great-granddaughter in the family has traditionally carried in her wedding. The bride's sister also carried it in her wedding.

To further carry out bridal tradition, the bride wore her new veil, wore a blue garter, and placed a penny bearing the date of her birth in one shoe and a penny bearing the date of her bridegroom's birth in her other shoe. The bride presented her mother a Happiness rose when she entered to be married, and following the ceremony, presented another rose to her mother-in-law.

Mrs. Jerry Bob Smith of McCamey, Texas, served her sister as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Diana Strange and Juannah Nance.

They were attired in formal sheath gowns of Happiness pink peau de soie, designed with empire bodices and tiny puffed sleeves. Large self bows in back fell to the hemlines of their dresses. The attendants wore matching shoes and brief veils of illusion caught with pink peau de soie roses. They carried white lace fans accented with pink gladiolas and ribbon showers.

Miss Elaine Adams of Turkey, cousin of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore a pink gladiolia bud wristlet and scattered rose petals from a white basket.

Master John Dannecker of Tulsa, cousin of the bride, carried the rings of the bridal couple on a white satin and lace pillow.

Best man was Rodney Mullin of Turkey, cousin of the bridegroom. Groomsmen were Mike House of Turkey and Larry Eudy of Van Horn.

Misses Carol Ann and Carron Montague lighted the tapers. They were attired in dresses styled like the bridesmaids and also wore peau de soie roses attached to brief veils and matching wristlets of pink gladiolia buds.

Seating the guests were Johnny Mullin, cousin of the bridegroom, and Harvey Case, both of Turkey.

Mrs. Wayne Nance of Lubbock registered the guests at the reception held in Fellowship Hall immediately following the ceremony. Centerpiece on the registry was an arrangement of pink gladiolas.

Presiding at the refreshment table were Misses Nancy Kay Long, Debbie Dickerson, Cathy Jones, all of Silverton, and Miss Jamie Washington of Springlake, cousin of the bride. Circulating hostesses were Misses Barbara Davis of Silverton and Jayne Martin of Clarendon, cousin of the bride. Each wore a corsage of pink gladiolas.

Background music was played by Mrs. Bill Edwards.

The tiered wedding cake, topped with wedding bells, was served from a round table covered with a white lace-edged net cloth over white. The rectangular serving table was covered with a matching floor-length cloth and held the couple's memory candle surrounded by a dozen Happiness roses. After the couple cut their wedding cake, they lighted the memory candle as they will do on each anniversary until they celebrate their 50th anniversary.

For traveling to Red River, New Mexico, the bride changed to a two-piece yellow linen suit with bodice of white lace and ruffled neckline and sleeves. Her accessories were white and she added the orchid corsage lifted from her bridal bouquet. The bride tossed her bouquet from the church steps to the single girls at the wedding. The bridal garter was tossed to the single male wedding guests.

After their wedding trip, the couple will be at home in Lubbock, at 2408 Auburn.

The bride attended Silverton High School and will receive her diploma with her class in 1969. The bridegroom graduated from Estelline High School in 1965 and is a student at Texas Technological College.

REHEARSAL DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Mullin, jr. entertained the bridal party at a rehearsal dinner at 8:00 p.m. Friday at the City Cafe.

An arrangement of pink gladiolas decorated the bridal couple's table.

MRS. MAX SMITH STEVENSON

Thornton - Stevenson Vows Exchanged In First Baptist Church At Happy

Miss Lana Beth Thornton and Max Smith Stevenson were united in marriage in a candlelight ceremony in the First Baptist Church in Happy on Friday, July 12, at 8:00 p.m. The double ring ceremony was read by Hollis C. Payne, minister of the Calvary Baptist Church in Floydada.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dozier Thornton of Happy. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Stevenson of Silverton.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street-length white satin gown with A-line skirt, long pointed sleeves and an empire waistline. The waist and sleeves were overlaid with lace. The detachable train was attached at the shoulders with satin buttons. Her headpiece of satin and simulated pearls secured her shoulder-length veil of silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of daisies atop a white Bible.

Leonida Thornton, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Brenda McKinney was bridesmaid. They wore dresses of emerald green satin brocade designed with A-line skirts and empire waistlines accented with bows of self fabric at the waist. They also carried bouquets of daisies.

Jim Myers was best man and Jim Burson was groomsmen. Tommy Turner of Vigo Park and Calvin Shelton were ushers.

Megayla Thornton, sister of the bride, was ring bearer. Linda and Glenda Mayes registered the guests.

Vocalist and pianist was Mrs. Hollis C. Payne. She sang "More." At the close of the ceremony, Bro. Payne sang "The Wedding Prayer."

Reception was held in Fellowship Hall of the church. The table was covered with a white drawn-work cloth over light green. The centerpiece was daisies and white candles. Cindy Toles served the cake and Cheryl Henry poured the punch.

Following a wedding trip, the couple will be at home in Silverton. The bridegroom is a 1967 graduate of Silverton High School and attended West Texas State University. He is presently employed by a Silverton grain elevator.

Vicky Vaughan has spent the past two weeks visiting relatives in Clovis, New Mexico.

Miss Collier Is Bridal Shower
Honoree Here

Miss Connie Collier, bride-elect of Tony Allison, was honored at a miscellaneous shower in the home of Mrs. D. H. Davis from 4:00 until 6:00 p.m. on Friday, July 26.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. O. C. Rampley, and presented to Mrs. Davis, Miss Collier and to Mrs. Claude Allison, mother of the prospective bridegroom.

Assisting Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Rampley as hostesses were Mrs. L. B. Garvin, sr., Mrs. W. H. Fitzgerald, Mrs. J. K. Bean, Mrs. Obra Watson, Mrs. Arthur McJimsey, Mrs. W. D. Peugh, Mrs. J. L. West, Mrs. Milton Frizzell, Mrs. C. L. Stevenson, Mrs. Jack Sutton, Mrs. J. L. Self, Mrs. Kenneth Sharp, Mrs. Don Burson, Mrs. Marlin Jarnagin, Mrs. Charles Grantham, Misses Anne and Nelle Bryant, Mrs. J. D. McGavock, Mrs. L. A. Matheus and Mrs. Frank Breedlove.

Miss Nelle Bryant registered the guests, including Mrs. James Allison of Lubbock.

Mrs. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Frizzell and Mrs. McGavock presided at the refreshment table which was covered with a white handmade lace cloth over yellow. Crystal and silver appointments were used. A centerpiece of white gladiolas, shasta daisies and fern was used.

Gifts were shown by Mrs. Bean, Miss Anne Bryant and Mrs. Stevenson.

Miss Collier's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Collier, who have been American missionaries in Essen, Germany, have returned to the United States, but will not arrive in Silverton until next week.

Susie and Jim Seaney of Hart spent last week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Seaney. They also visited other relatives while here.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shelton of Seagraves called on his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Shelton, last Thursday evening.

Your Home Business Firms are THE HIGHEST BIDDERS
for Your Shopping Dollar

Here are the facts to prove it...

Actually . . . no matter where you live . . . nobody . . . and that means NOBODY . . . can give you more for your dollar than your own home business firms. Let's look at the reason for this advantageous . . . to you . . . situation:

ANY MERCHANT . . . anywhere . . . is ordinarily going to sell goods for some more than he pays for them.

ON AN AVERAGE . . . when you spend a dollar in any retail store . . . here or anywhere else . . . about 70 cents of it pays for GOODS, and about 30 cents goes for rent, taxes, donations, hired help, etc., and a few cents (the national average is about 5 cents) pays the proprietor for his work, and for his investment in goods and equipment, credit losses, etc.

NOW . . . when you spend your dollar at home, you get the same 70 cents worth of merchandise that you would get for it anywhere else.

AND THE OTHER 30 CENTS stays here too, to help you pay for schools, churches, roads and streets; to vitalize the community so your property . . . or your job . . . is worth more; to keep more people here to share civic work and expense, and to serve YOU when you sometimes direly need their knowledge and their skills.

ONLY when you buy in YOUR OWN HOME community do you get back most of this 30-cent retail handling charge . . . and often a great deal more, as your job or your business prospers and your social life broadens with the growth of the entire community.
