

Texans Vote August 5 On Water Bonds

Texans will vote August 5 on a proposed constitutional amendment to authorize the state to issue $3.5 billion in bonds to pay its share of the plan to provide water for Texas to the year 2020. A big part of the money would be earmarked for 67 new dams and reservoirs and other new construction projects.

There will also be eight other proposed constitutional amendments on which voters will make a decision, but the water bonds are taking the spotlight in this area.

It is said that Texas won't have enough water by the time today's teenagers are middle-aged. It is hard to realize what this means to Texans. Many haven't even imagined such a serious situation, because when the tap is turned, the water now flows. What if it were rationed the year around and the people were allotted a certain small amount for drinking and washing?

What if there was no water for recreation?

Texas' water planners have suggested ways to insure fresh water for the state to the year 2020. By then, they estimate, Texas will need 32 million acre-feet of surface and ground water a year. One acre-foot is 325,851 gallons.

"In just 31 years, Texas will pass from water sufficiency to water deficiency unless we take positive and affirmative action now," Governor Preston Smith told 500 Texans who have pledged to work for approval of amendment number two on the August 5 special election ballot.

The amendment would authorize $3.5 billion in bonds to help finance the Texas Water Plan, to match about $5.5 billion in federal funds.

"Our concern is not limited to this generation alone," Smith said. "It extends to generations yet unborn."

A large share of the money—some $2.4 billion—would be spent on 67 new dams and reservoirs, to be built as the need arises, and two salt barriers to go along with Texas' 157 "major" reservoirs—those with a conservation storage capacity of at least 5,000 acre-feet. They will be financed by a combination of federal, state and local funds.

The proposed reservoirs, by river basins, and costs are:

- Red, $90.5 million, Lelia Lake Creek, Sweetwater Creek, Ringgold, Bonham (Bois d'Arc), Big Pine, Pecan Bayou, Liberty Hill and Barkman Creek.
- Sulphur, $242.3 million
- Cypress, $91.2 million
- Sabine, $242.9 million
- Neches, $210.3 million
- Trinity, $331.8 million
- San Jacinto, $77.8 million
- Brazos, $257.8 million
- Colorado, $298.4 million
- Lavaca, $56.8 million
- Guadalupe, $240.5 million
- San Antonio, $93.6 million
- Nueces, $153 million
- Costa, $24.2 million.

Salt water barriers are proposed for the Sabine and Neches river basins, but no locations have been proposed.

All the cost estimates are based on December 1967 prices.

"Dam and reservoir sites in Texas are becoming scarce and costly to develop, and must be preserved and developed to maximum advantage," the water development board noted.

A canal beginning on the Sabine River north of Orange would supply water for municipal, industrial and irrigation use and "for preservation or enhancement of the bays, estuaries and wildlife refuges in the coastal area of the state between Sabine River and the Lower Rio Grande Valley," terminating near Raymondville.

The coastal system also would include reservoirs and conveyance works to supply future supplemental water needs of Houston and San Antonio metropolitan areas.

A Trans-Texas Canal beginning at the Upper Sulphur River and ending near Lubbock on the High Plains would supply water for the Dallas-Fort Worth area, North Central Texas, the High Plains, the Trans-Pecos area, El Paso and into New Mexico.

Other projects would be needed to move water imported from out-of-state to the Trans-Texas and Coastal Divisions.

Plans call for the first delivery of surplus water through the coastal canal to the Lower Valley in 1980; delivery of surplus water from the Northeast Texas basins to the High Plains in 1985; and the first delivery of imported water through the Coastal and Trans-Texas facilities in 1988.

The water development board act specifies that needs within a basin will have an absolute priority for 50 years before the water may be exported. Demands of intra-basin requirements will be met on a "100 per cent firm basis" before any exportation.

Also envisioned as part of the overall plan are large-scale regional systems to collect, treat and dispose of municipal and industrial wastes, structures to obtain better circulation of tides, improve channels and levees, provide drainage and protect coastal areas from hurricanes.

All Around the Town
by Mary Ann Sarchet

A request has been made of the Briscoe County News that we publish a list of school supplies to be needed by students in the various grades about two or three weeks before school opens. Included in this request was the approximate cost of workbooks to be paid on the first day of school.

We agree that this would be a good idea if it doesn't bring a hardship on teachers during their summer vacation (when most are themselves attending school). If at least one of the teachers in each grade would mail or hand me a list of the supplies her class will need and the estimated cost of workbooks, I will pass this information along to parents in this space later in the summer.

This would be of assistance to parents who have several children in school and who would like to buy school supplies a little at a time out of their weekly paychecks. It would also be of help to those who sell school supplies because they would be able to stock the specific items that the teachers will ask the students to get. In the past this latter has been a problem—small, but nonetheless a problem—because students aren't always able to buy all the things on their lists in Silvertown, and shopping out of town can be a problem when both parents are employed.

Yes, there was a mistake in the amount of the prize to be awarded in the "slogan contest" in last week's paper. Our proofreader overlooked the fact that a tiny, little decimal had been left out—I threatened that she would have to pay the $495 difference herself and she hasn't been back to work since! (Just a joke, of course—she has been sick and we recruited Terry Jones to help us out this week.) Even though the prize money is really just $5.00, this "little" error has really stimulated interest in the contest.

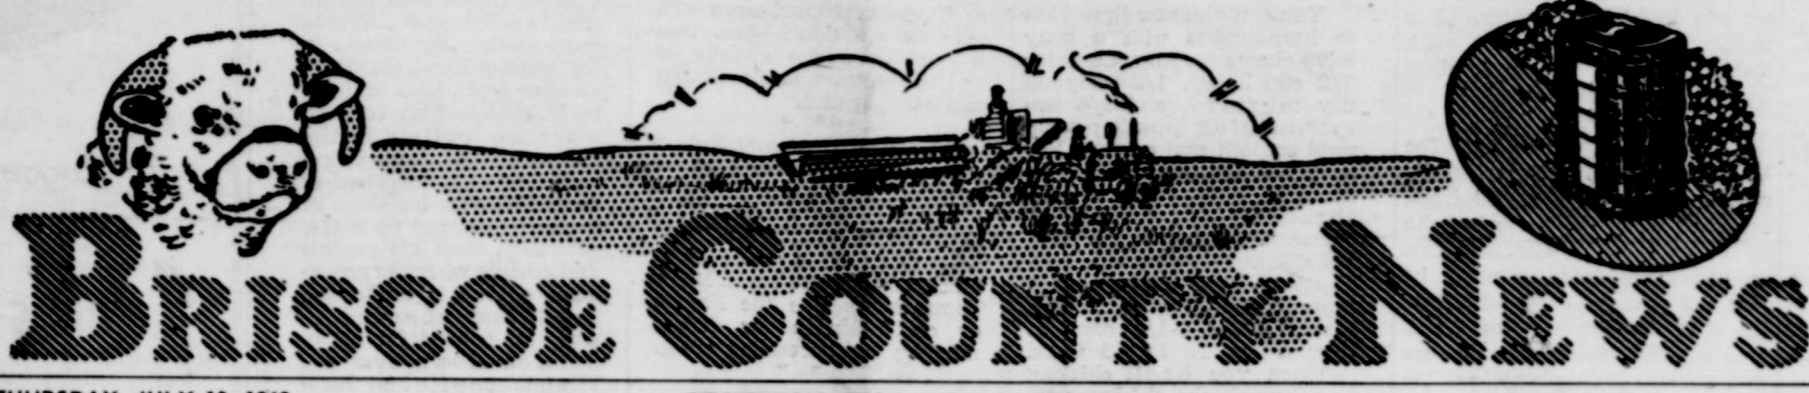

Since the Merchants Association is going to pick the winner, and since they will not meet again until Thursday, August 7, we are extending the contest deadline to August 5. We plan to list each suggested slogan on posters, and let the businessmen vote on them without knowing who submitted them. That way, votes would not be cast for or against a slogan because of the person who suggested it—the slogan would be chosen on its own merits alone, as it should be.

So keep those cards and letters coming in, folks. Enter as many times as you like—the more the better. One of you will soon be the winner of a $5.00 bill!

Driving Students Finish In Classroom

Twenty-eight Silvertown High School students are studying driver education this summer under the direction of Wayne Johnson of Turkey, and have finished their classroom work in preparation for their written examinations administered by a Department of Public Safety license officer at the county courthouse.

Part of the students took their written exams last week, and have entered the driving portion of the course. The rest of the students will take written exams Friday.

Required in the driver education course, for which regular credit toward graduation is given, are thirty hours of classroom study, six hours of actual driving, and six hours of observing another driver.

Six of the six hours behind the wheel and six hours observing another driver are time consuming, Mr. Johnson has been working with classes in Turkey and Silvertown at the same time. His Turkey students get hours of driving time to and from Silvertown, and the Silvertown students are credited with the hours they spend driving to Turkey and back.

"I believe that in conducting the classes together like this we are also promoting friendship and good will between the two schools," Mr. Johnson said.

The restricted licenses that the students receive after passing their written examinations entitle them to drive only when a licensed driver at least twenty-one years old rides with them in the front seat. Mr. Johnson accompanies the students on all of their driving in the especially-equipped dual control Oldsmobile furnished by Crass Motor Company of Silvertown, which enables him to apply the brakes from his passenger seat if he finds it necessary. A driver education car is also furnished in Turkey for the Turkey students, and the students of both schools are getting experience driving both of the cars.

Statistics indicate that those who receive driver licenses after completing driver education courses are safer drivers than those who have not had the driver education training.

The driving experience is now being logged seven days a week, in order to prepare all of the students for their driving examinations by August 15. All of those taking driver education must be 16 years of age before they take the driving examination; some of the students were only 15 when the course began, but have birthdays before the completion date.

Mrs. Emmett Baisden of Turkey was a business visitor in Silvertown Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Yeager and children of Amarillo spent Thursday with Mrs. Yeager's aunt, Mrs. Ray C. Bomar.

Open House Planned Sunday at Girlstown

July 13, 1969, will be a most important date to the residents of Girlstown U. S. A. On that date, they will officially celebrate the 20th anniversary with an open house. The program will begin at 2:00 p.m. and a barbecue dinner will be served at 4:30 p.m.

A new Miss Girlstown U. S. A. for 1969-70 will be crowned. Tours of the facilities will be conducted by the girls.

The Board of Directors, staff and girls will be looking forward to having you join them on this occasion.

GIRLSTOWN NEEDS YOUR ASSISTANCE

During the past year, 780 girls from all over the country as well as various parts of Texas, have had to be turned away at Girlstown U. S. A. with the old familiar story, "We don't have room for you." According to information received this week from Girlstown U.S.A., contributions are badly needed for another dorm to make room for girls who have been abandoned by their parents or abused or misused in so many ways.

Opportunities are many for the girls at Girlstown U. S. A., and those who are on the staff welcome challenges which have been made easier by the friends of Girlstown U. S. A.

Both the Borger and Whiteface units are growing and your support is needed desperately.

Eric Patton, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Patton, Jr. has been a patient in Methodist Hospital in Lubbock this week after swallowing a corsage pin over the weekend. The head came off the long pin inside him, but did not puncture any internal organs. Eric was able to return home Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Martin, Derral and Karen attended the Fourth of July activities in Clarendon.

White Sox Continue On Winning Skein

Double plays executed by the Firstbaseman Scott Hutsell, who scooped up the ball, tagged the runner going to second and got back to first base in time to put the batter out, and another made by Ken Wood at Shortstop when he caught a fly-ball and quickly moved to second base, helped the White Sox to a 5-4 victory over the Gold Sox on Tuesday night.

Behind the pitching of Wood and Kelly Bomar, the White Sox made several better-than-usual plays, once cheating Dee Arnold out of what could have been a home run by quickly fielding a well-hit ball and getting it home in time to hold him to an earned triple. The White Sox were then able to hold Arnold on third, preventing a score.

The Gold Sox scored first, going ahead 1-0. The White Sox tied it up at 1-1 and later moved into a 2-1 lead. A hitting rally by several overthrown balls by the Gold Sox, and the Whites moved into a 5-1 lead. Gold Sox batting power narrowed the score to 5-4, but was unable to punch across a tying run.

Mike Griffin and Brent Brannon shared the mound for the Gold Sox.

Scoring was by Griffin, two; Arnold and Brett Gill for the Gold Sox. Danny Perkins, John Sharp, Bomar, Wood and Hutsell crossed the plate for the White Sox.

Next games will be between the White Sox and Blue Sox at 8:30 p.m. Friday, and between the Gold Sox and Blue Sox Tuesday.

PEE WEE LEAGUE

The Dwarfs beat the Midgits 1-0 in Tuesday night's Pee Wee League game. Perkins scored the only run of the game.

ROASTING EARS

Give roasting ears a new twist. Next time you plan a cookout, broil the corn over the open fire, utilizing this method for California Corn:

Husk corn and remove silk. Place in double thickness of heavy-duty aluminum foil and spread with mixture of half melted butter and half peanut butter. Wrap tightly and place over hot coals. Turn frequently and cook until done, 20 to 25 minutes.

Now is the perfect time to try this mouth-watering treat. The U. S. Department of Agriculture reports abundant supply of fresh, succulent corn. Select husks with good green color, silk ends that are free from decay or worm injury and stem ends (opposite from the silk) that are not too discolored or dried. Select ears that are well covered with plump, not too mature kernels.

Avoid ears with under-developed kernels which lack yellow color, old ears with very large kernels, and ears with dark yellow kernels with depressed areas on the outer surface.

Also avoid ears of corn with yellowed, wilted or dried husks, or discolored and dried-out stems.

When freezing corn-on-the-cob, remove the husk and silk, wash and sort the ears according to size. Heat them in boiling water.

Small ears (1 1/4 inches or less in diameter) 7 minutes
 Medium ears (1 1/4 to 1 1/2 inches in diameter) 9 minutes
 Large ears (over 1 1/2 inches in diameter) 11 minutes

Cool promptly in cold water and drain. Pack ears into containers or wrap in moisture-vapor-resistant material. Seal and pack and freeze.

If you are stocking your freezer

FAMILY POT LUCK

You can give new dimension to hamburgers with a tasty olive cheese topping. Combine 1/2 cup butter, 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard, and 1/4 teaspoon onion powder; whip until smooth and creamy. Stir in 2 tablespoons chopped stuffed olives and 1 cup shredded sharp Cheddar cheese. Spread cut surfaces of hot split burger buns with mixture and fill with hamburgers topped with favorite fixings. Makes about 1-1/4 cups or enough for 12 to 15 buns.

When you broil chicken, first brush the chicken with lemon juice then with butter. Add a sprinkle of fresh or dry herbs.

Chocolate milk and chocolate drink are not the same. Chocolate milk is whole milk with chocolate syrup added, chocolate drink usually is partly skimmed milk with cocoa powder added.

If you are having an outdoor get-together, tint glasses of lemonade (fresh or frozen) with a drop or two of food coloring in each. They taste the same, but the variety of colors is appealing.

Sardine-Cheese Dip
 1 (3-3/4 oz.) can Norway sardines
 1 (8 oz.) container of cottage cheese
 6 ripe olives, chopped
 6 sweet gherkins, chopped
 2 tablespoons mayonnaise
 potato chips
 radish roses (garnish)
 Combine the cottage cheese, chopped olives, gherkins and mayonnaise. Shape paste in form of a mound in the center of a serving tray, arrange whole Norway sardines on the side of the mound and surround with crisp potato chips. Garnish with radish roses and a whole ripe olive.
 May also be served on individual plates as an appetizer or dinner first course.

from the garden, you may want a copy of Frozen Foods—How to Freeze and How to Cook. Copies are available in my office. Here are some tips on how to boil corn-on-the-cob:

1. Bring salted water to a boil (use 1/2 to 1 teaspoon salt for three ears of corn).
2. Add corn. Cover, and quickly bring water back to boil.
3. Reduce heat and cook gently until corn is just tender. (5 to 15 minutes)

 4. Serve immediately; flavor and nutritive value may be lost if vegetables are allowed to stand. The less time from field to fire the better for sweet corn.

Warm temperatures and time cause it to lose flavor and tenderness. Natural corn sugar begins to change to starch within 20 minutes after picking.

Sweet corn should be cooled as quickly as possible. Sugar conversion to starch increases rapidly as the temperature increases. While as much as 50 percent of the sugar may be lost in a day's time at a stored temperature of 86° F., only about 8 percent is lost in a day's time if the corn is stored at 32° F.

When shopping for fresh corn, look for corn in ice or refrigerated displays; even rows of fresh, tender, plump, milky kernels—just firm enough to offer slight resistance to pressure.

Fresh corn can be stored for a day or so if wrapped in plastic or put into an air tight container. For good quality, corn must be kept cold and fairly moist. Use as soon as possible.

FOR THE FAMILY

ITEM: Non-woven carpets are made by a felting process using for the most part polypropylene olefin fibers. Both the fiber and the method of production are relatively inexpensive, resulting in a less expensive type of carpeting that is widely advertised for both indoor and outdoor use. Color ranges are limited, but improvements are on the way.

ITEM: When working with any floor finish that contains solvents, use caution. Rags that have been soaked with solvents or varnish should be disposed of immediately after you have finished with them. Burn them or put them in a bucket of water. Always work in a well-ventilated area with windows and doors open. This will reduce the chance of solvent fumes accumulating and being ignited.

ITEM: How many knives do you need in your kitchen? A good paring knife with a straight cutting edge and a sharp point, a utility knife, and a larger knife, such as a butcher knife, are basic. Many homemakers like the French or chef's knife for dicing, mincing and shredding foods.

FOR THE FLAG...

Thirteen-year-old Paul R. Jordan II, Woodbridge, Va., conducts morning and evening colors each day on the family lawn, invites participation by friends in the neighborhood. Commendations from area soldiers in Vietnam were received after an article in the Potomac News. Young Paul was somewhat surprised at the reaction to his show of Patriotism, but no more, probably, than his parents and friends when the governor's office, in an "exceptional" case, honored his written request for a flag that had flown over the Virginia capitol at Richmond.

Acknowledge God

"In all thy ways acknowledge Him and He shall direct thy paths."
 — Proverbs 3:6

Attending church each Sunday is highly recommended. If the heart is sincere, attendance is a mark of recognition, is evidence of faith and belief in God.

True belief, however, must be constant. We cannot leave our religious principles on the doorstep of the church from Sunday to Sunday. We must carry them with us. We must apply them to each facet of everyday living, use them as guidelines for successful relations with family, with friends, and with our fellow man.

We must acknowledge God in everything that we do, every day that we live. If we do this, our life will indeed be well directed.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

WRONG AND RIGHT

Teenagers have an age-old "argument" ready each time they come face to face with a parental "no." If you are a parent, you have heard it. Here it is, in the simplest form: "All the other kids do it, Why can't I?"

The average parent is quick to point out that all of the things other kids do may not necessarily be the "right" things. It is an established fact of life that kids never really accept this parental observation. One reason, perhaps, is that many parents are long on talk and short on example. Youngsters, particularly teenagers, are impressionable. They are inclined to take things as they see them, matter-of-factly, with rationalization. Youngsters seldom accept pretense for what it is meant to convey.

If parents set the proper example for their children, and then meet situations in a straight-forward manner, children find it easier to recognize that which is wrong and accept that which is right. Honesty in action and in words is a fair way to put it.

PORCELAIN TREASURE... This porcelain figure of a horse—30 inches in height—was sold at New York's Parke-Bernet Galleries for a record price of $32,000. The Tang Dynasty figure was bought by its previous owner for only $1,700 in 1958. The sale illustrates the formidable appreciation rise of such Oriental porcelains.

SATISFACTION

Today's modern merchandising methods are such that the consumer has the choice of several stores from which he may purchase a specific item of merchandise. This situation lends greater importance to other considerations, principally service and satisfaction.

Price and other things being equal, consumers will choose to buy from the merchant who sells with a smile, who services what he sells, and who makes customer satisfaction a regular part of this operation.

We've said it before, but it bears repeating. We believe the consumer gets more for the money when it is spent with the established local merchant. The guarantee of satisfaction offered by the successful local merchant is not a mere gesture; it is generally made in good faith and upon a sound belief in the value that is offered.

Today's satisfied customers represent tomorrow's business. It makes sense to us. How about you?

MR. AND MRS. L. R. SCULLEY

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Scully
Making Home In Georgia

Miss Jerry Lynn Garrison and Mr. Larry Ronald Scully were married June 9 at the First Baptist Church in Port Lavaca, Texas, with the Rev. R. D. Fillpot officiating the double-ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Garrison of delabra. The bride wore a semi-fitted, A-line gown of white delustered satin fashioned with a shaped back hemline. The yoke front and back and bell-shaped sleeves were of scalloped ribbon lace. Her matching headpiece of motifs from the ribbon lace held her English silk illusion veil. The bride carried a cascade of white daisies atop a white lace-covered Bible. Tucked inside the Bible was a linen and crocheted handkerchief made by her maternal grandmother, Lydia Mae Arnold, which was given to the bride by Mrs. G. A. Elrod. For something borrowed and blue, the bride wore the fire blue-set college ring of the bridegroom, and she placed a new penny in her shoe.

Miss Diana Little of Port Lavaca was maid of honor. She was attired in a long semi-fitted gown of yellow daeron jersey. Her yellow headpiece entwined her hair and fell in long streamers from a low bow in back. She carried a cascade of white daisies with yellow ribbon.

James Campbell of Powder Springs, Georgia, served as best man. Ushers were Mabry Cain, Jr., of Port Lavaca and Sam Kochersperger of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Daughy Dunlap, organist, accompanied Mrs. R. D. Fillpot, as she sang "The Day of Golden Promise" and "O Thou Whose Gracious Presence Blest."

The wedding reception was held in the church fellowship hall. Miss Reba Butler of Port Lavaca registered the guests. Also in the houseparty were Mrs. Buck Hardin of Silvertown, Mrs. James Campbell of Powder Springs, Georgia, and Miss Ann Dawson of Victoria, Texas.

Other out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Sculley of Thomasville, Georgia; Miss Lou Cole of Victoria; Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Saul of Kress; Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Saul and Tonya of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Kolb of Houston; Mr. and Mrs. Buck Hardin, Linda, Ann and Mary of Silvertown.

A graduate of Silvertown High School, the bride received her B.S. degree in art from Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, where she was a member of Beta Gamma Epsilon and Kappa Pi. The bridegroom was graduated from Thomasville High School. He was a member of Syrreb Literary Society at Berry College in Georgia, where he received his B.S. degree in business administration.

After a wedding trip to Galveston and other points along the Gulf coast, the couple is at home at 4233 Jonesboro Road, Apartment Y-2, Forest Park, Georgia. The bridegroom is affiliated with a national accounting firm in Atlanta, Georgia. The bride plans to teach in the Atlanta school system.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Olive of Petersburg visited Mrs. Belle Olive and Betty Sunday.

MR. AND MRS. DICK BOMAR

Mr. and Mrs. Bomar To Be Honored
At Reception On Sunday, July 20

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Bomar will be honored at a reception in observance of their golden wedding anniversary on Sunday, July 20, from three until five in the afternoon, in the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Tate and Jackie Carol, at 907 Main Street in Silvertown.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Long, Mike and Kit of McLean will assist with the hospitalities of the reception. Dick Bomar and the former Miss Ruth Murry were united in marriage July 20, 1919, at the Baptist parsonage in Lockney, following his discharge from the Army after serving overseas in World War I.

To the union were born two daughters, Mrs. Jackie Tate and Mrs. Gaylia Long, and the couple now have three grandchildren.

Friends of the couple are invited to take part in the celebration by attending the reception. No invitations are being mailed locally.

By GERALD ANDREWS - Retirement Adviser

Starting a Small Business
As retirement age approaches, many a man begins to contemplate a small business of his own. That means he has money on his mind. First, the money he would like to make. And second, the money he needs to make money—the financing that any such operation demands before it can get off the ground.

No one can generalize about the sum involved. After all, small business covers a multitude of, if not sins, at least problems. The government says that the staff of a retail concern may run anywhere up to 250. The annual sales figure can be anything up to $1,000,000.

It's obvious that the question of starting a small business doesn't make sense until the nature and size of the business has been stated. And even then there are variables depending on the location, the clientele, and the local laws.

A mailing service in Nashville, a pet shop in Denver, a bakery in Tucson—what can they possibly have in common? Nothing, perhaps—except money. Each has to be financed before it can open its doors to the public.

Nine times out of ten, that requires a trip to the bank. It's a good idea to consider taking out a loan even if you have enough capital yourself. Your banker's advice may be of real help. Besides, paying interest may be worthwhile if it gives you elbow room to play with the money at your disposal.

A session at the bank should leave you with sufficient expertise to decide on a short term, intermediate, or long term loan. Or you can get in touch with the Small Business Administration. The SBA, based in Washington, D.C., makes continuing studies of the whole field. It both publishes guides and considers loans to feasible enterprises where other financing is unavailable.

Probably you'll need the judgment of a local lawyer who knows the ins-and-outs of the district where you want to set up in business for yourself. If so, he'll undoubtedly point out that starting a small business means money. So, step number one is to get the financing straight.

A book review on "The National Malnutrition," by Dr. Quigley, was given for the Caprock TOPS Club by Mrs. Bobbie McMurtry of Amarillo recently in the P.C.A. community room.

The review was enlightening, and illustrated that even though homemakers try to give their families proper nutrition, many foods have been robbed of minerals and vitamins in processing and preparation.

The club voted to ask Penny Arnold to be their candidate in the Rodeo Queen contest during August.

Two guests were present at the meeting.

A large number of members of Caprock TOPS and their guests enjoyed a swim party at the Silvertown Pool Tuesday evening, July 1. Two other Ladies Nights are being planned at the pool.

A number of new members are being welcomed into Caprock TOPS each month Tuesday night. Mrs. Ware Fogerson was declared the winner of a contest which had been going on for the past 12 weeks.

Mrs. Fogerson went into KIW last week and should be eligible for KOPS (Keeping Off Weight Sensibly) in three months.

Women who are interested in group incentive for losing weight are invited to contact Mrs. Ted Strange, leader.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Olof McElmurry and Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Ballard. The baby's great-grandmother is Mrs. M. L. Welch.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Ray Ford are parents of a daughter, Kay Lynn, born at 10:00 a.m. Sunday in Swisher Memorial Hospital. She weighed seven pounds and two ounces.

The Fords have another daughter, Dene', who is almost four years old.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ford of Claude and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Reynolds.

Mr. and Mrs. Bern May flew to Houston to spend a long weekend with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bothe, jr. Two sisters and their families from Denison joined them there. All enjoyed a family reunion on the beach and visiting points of interest in the Houston area. Mr. and Mrs. May returned home Monday.

Next meeting of Caprock TOPS, beginning at 6:00 p.m. Tuesday, July 15, in the P. C. A. community room.

ITEM: Painting the junctions at walls and ceilings, or that difficult strip where wall meets wood trim, can be tedious. Hold a small piece of cardboard tightly against the rim of the woodwork, using a small flat brush. Place the edge of the brush at the edge of the cardboard, and make short strokes toward the center of the wall.

ITEM: When pre-painting, removal of hardware on doors, windows and walls is bothersome, even hazardous to do, as in electrical sockets. Instead, cover them with masking tape or scraps of paper or cloth.

ITEM: You can now buy yard goods made of machine washable wool treated to resist shrinking, felting and fading.

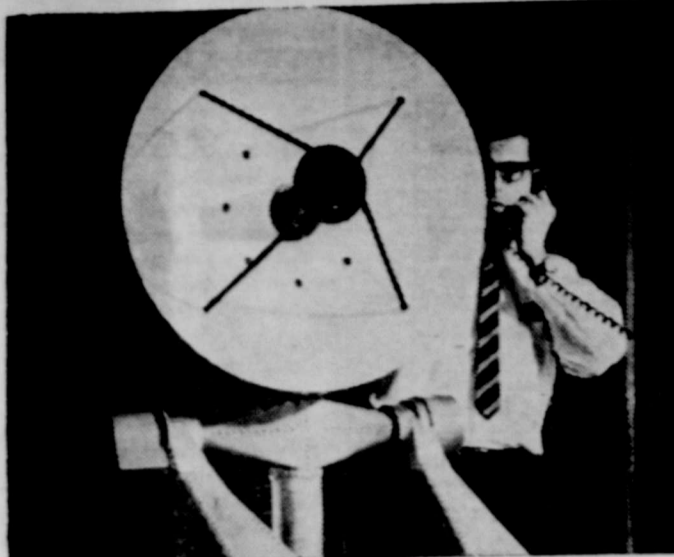

ITEM: Every porch, patio or terrace is made more attractive by a color corner rich with flowering plants in their natural red clay pots. Your florist or garden center can tell you which flowering plants are best for sun, and which prefer shadier spots.

ITEM: It's easy to change your curtains with the seasons if you can use cafe curtains and make them reversible. Use a cool looking cotton print for summer, and on the other side a deep, solid color to give your rooms warmth in winter.

ITEM: Regardless of the type of paint you have used, rinse and comb the bristles of your paint brush, let dry and wrap in heavy paper. Store the brush in either a suspended or a flat position to keep the bristles straight.

ITEM: If you keep pesticides or chemicals around the house for any reason, store them carefully, out of the reach of children. Whenever you use them, read the directions carefully, follow them exactly.

Miss Judy Rucker, bride-elect of Randy Hughes, is to be honored with a miscellaneous shower here on Saturday, July 26.

Oneidacraft deluxe stainless in the Lasting Rose pattern has been chosen by Miss Rucker. She will be able to create her own schemes, whether mix or match, with her delicately carved Lasting Rose stainless.

Mrs. Jerry Perkins, the former Barbara Lynne Davis, will be honored with a bridal shower soon.

The Franciscan Earthenware Mrs. Perkins has chosen is Tulip Time. This design is fresh, right from the potter's wheel, a pattern wearing rich colors of olive and turquoise on a marvelous matte finish. Colors with the warmth of California on shapes which are rugged and versatile include color-sealed banding and decoration. The colors are fadeproof and crazeproof. Tulip Time is safe in the oven or dishwasher. The bride will receive a lifetime of pleasure from her Tulip Time Earthenware by Franciscan.

May we help you select gifts for these showers?

FLOWERS - GIFTS

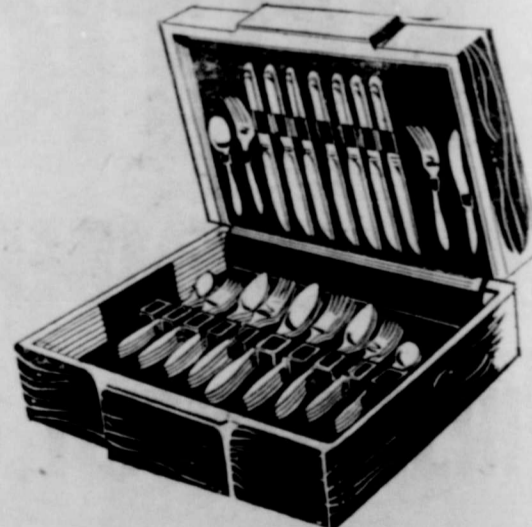

Miss Judy Stephens, bride-elect of Greg Towe, will be the honoree at a miscellaneous shower Friday.

The bride-elect has chosen Blue Danube China and Venetia stainless by Oneida. Originally called the "Zwiebelmuster" pattern, Blue Danube's timeless design has graced the tables of royalty and families of distinction for centuries. It first appeared about 1739 when the German artist Kandier began making extensive studies of the old Chinese art and designed from his findings what we know today as the Blue Danube. Reproduced in true Meissen Blue, the finely detailed decoration does not depict onion flowers as is commonly believed. Instead, the leaves are Far Eastern Indian flowers which were copied by early Chinese craftsmen to symbolize good fortune and happiness.

Mrs. David Holman Jones, the former Miss Judy Gayle Yancey, will be honoree at a bridal shower soon.

Mrs. Jones has chosen Community stainless in the new florentine finished Venetia pattern. Her table settings will fit the decorating scheme of her home beautifully with the delicate Venetia stainless.

Your Home Business Firms are THE HIGHEST BIDDERS for Your Shopping Dollar

Here are the facts to prove it.

Actually . . . no matter where you live . . . nobody . . . and that means NOBODY . . . can give you more for your dollar than your own home business firms. Let's look at the reason for this advantageous . . . to you . . . situation:

ANY MERCHANT . . . anywhere . . . is ordinarily going to sell goods for some more than he pays for them.

ON AN AVERAGE . . . when you spend a dollar in any retail store . . . here or anywhere else . . . about 70 cents of it pays for GOODS, and about 30 cents goes for rent, taxes, donations, hired help, etc., and a few cents (the national average is about 5 cents) pays the proprietor for his work, and for his investment in goods and equipment, credit losses, etc.

NOW . . . when you spend your dollar at home, you get the same 70 cents worth of merchandise that you would get for it anywhere else.

AND THE OTHER 30 CENTS stays here too, to help you pay for schools, churches, roads and streets; to vitalize the community so your property . . . or your job . . . is worth more; to keep more people here to share civic work and expense, and to serve YOU when you sometimes direly need their knowledge and their skills.

ONLY when you buy in YOUR OWN HOME community do you get back most of this 30-cent retail handling charge . . . and often a great deal more, as your job or your business prospers and your social life broadens with the growth of the entire community.
