Tried chilled applesauce for breakfast?

You'll find it perks the appetite and offers a pleasing contrast to hot breakfast foods. Applesauce is also delicious when used as a spread for buttered toast.

Applesauce fits into your desert schedule, too. You can chill it and serve with gingerbread or fresh, crisp cookies. Vary the flavor with additions of lemon juice or spices such as cinnamon, nutmeg or cloves.

Cheer up plain applesauce by warming it with a few red hot candies, until the candies melt. This is a delicious side dish with meat.

If you have fresh apples, now is a good time to can some applesauce for later use. Wash and quarter apples, remove core and any bad spots. Cook with small amount of water until apples are tender. Run through a sieve, or use your blender to make the sauce. Sweeten if desired.

Heat applesauce to simmering, pack into sterile jars leaving 1/4-inch head space. Seal, process in boiling water bath 10 minutes for pints or quarts.

APPLESAUCE DROP COOKIES come in handy for snacks or light desserts.

4-H Members May Reap Double Harvest

In a generous mood, Mother Nature is showering her bounty on 187,000 4-H'ers enrolled in the national 4-H horticultural program again this year.

The young people grow fruits and vegetables, plan and plant their home grounds and care for ornamental plants for the house, yard and garden. And they learn from practical experience and educational materials provided by the Cooperative Extension Service.

Of all seasons, late and early fall is the most colorful and fruitful time of the year. It also is the time when 4-H horticulturists can reap a double harvest. Not only do they use and enjoy what they have grown, but many earn recognition for their good work.

Teaming up with Mother Nature in the bountiful harvest is Allis-Chalmers, sponsor of the 4-H horticultural program for 25 years. The company provides top 4-H achievers with awards at county, state and national levels.

Topping the list are eight $600 national scholarships. The state winner receives an expense-paid trip to National 4-H Congress to be held in Chicago, Nov. 29-Dec. 3. County awards are medals of honor. This year more than 6,500 young horticulturists are expected to receive such recognition.

In announcing the awards given by Allis-Chalmers, the National 4-H Service Committee notes that all young people from 9-19 years of age are eligible to participate in the 4-H horticultural program.

Enrollments are being accepted now at county extension offices across the country.

PETTING ZOO ZEBU—This rare miniature zebu is quickly discovering that being a "sacred cow" at SIX FLAGS Over Texas has its advantages. The two-week-old calf gets special attention from Becky Gaston, a hostess at the popular theme park. The tiny animal is a new addition to the SIX FLAGS petting zoo. When grown, the miniature sacred cow of India will be less than 35 inches tall.

...bundle Up for winter

CONVERT YOUR HOME TO COMFORT ELECTRIC HEATING NOW... AND WE'LL INSTALL STORM WINDOWS... Free!

Now is the time to bundle up your home for winter. Now is the time to install whole-house, comfort electric heating because, right now, with every qualifying electric home heating installation, we'll install free a complete set of storm windows for the heated portion of your home. All you need do is call Southwestern Public Service Company. Our electric heating specialist will gladly and professionally determine the exact heating requirements for your home.

Modern electric comfort heating is already being enjoyed by over 4 million American families! . . . almost 5,000 in our area alone. The reasons are many, but what most people like about clean electric heating is the comfort it gives. An even warmth from floor to ceiling creates a comfort unlike any other heating method. You owe it to yourself and your family to get the facts about electric heating! . . . and now is the time to do it.

Storm windows have proven their value in keeping out cold, wintry winds, holding down inner heat loss and contributing to lower heating costs. The storm windows now offered free with qualifying home electric heating installations, are 2-track, aluminum windows with screen, and custom made to fit your own windows. Storm windows do an excellent job of combating dust storms, too.

IS YOUR HOME ELIGIBLE?

This offer is available to residential customers of Southwestern Public Service Company, living in existing single family homes and qualifying for the special residential electric heating rate. Should you already have storm windows or windows of such design or shape that they do not lend themselves to normal installation, do not despair—we have a special, most attractive plan for you, too.

Girlstown Dedication Ceremony Attended

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Rampley and Mrs. Dwight Rampley attended a special dedication ceremony at Girlstown USA last Saturday.

"Lighting the Avenue of Opportunity" at Girlstown is a project of the Caprock District of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs. Through the efforts of clubwomen of the district, 64 gaslights have been installed on the Girlstown campus.

Mrs. Rampley, Caprock District first vice-president, and her family had donated a gaslight and had received a special invitation to attend the symbolic lighting ceremony.

One highlight of the day's activities was the presentation of a "birthday tree," bearing the names and birthdates of each of the girls at Girlstown. Guests were encouraged to take a name from the tree and to remember the girl with letters and gifts at Christmas and birthday time. The Rampleys visited with the girls whose names they had chosen and were promised a speedy reply to any letters that the girls might receive from them.

REFRESH WITH PEAR SUNDAES

Mild and mellow fresh California Bartlett pears combine well with ice cream and sherbet. With imaginative sauces, you can make fabulous fresh pear sundaes. Serve them as dinner desserts or afternoon or evening refreshments.

PEAR CHOCOLATE SUNDAE SUPREME

Combine 1 package (5 oz.) semi-sweet chocolate pieces, 1/4 cup water, 3 tablespoons cream and 1 tablespoon light corn syrup in saucepan. Cook over low heat, stirring frequently, until chocolate is melted and mixture is smooth. Remove from heat; cool. Pare, quarter and core 6 pears. For each serving, arrange 4 quarters upright in deep dessert dish. Add ice cream and chocolate sauce. Makes 6 servings.

RASPBERRY PEARS WITH MARSHMALLOW SAUCE

Pare, halve and core 6 Bartletts. Add 1 or 2 tablespoons water to marshmallow topping and mix to desired sauce consistency. Place 2 pear halves in each dessert dish. Add scoops of raspberry sherbet. Top with marshmallow sauce. Makes 6 servings.

MAPLE-MOCHA PEAR SUNDAE

Combine 1 1/2 cups brown sugar (packed) and 1/4 cup water in saucepan. Bring to boil, stirring until sugar is dissolved; continue boiling 6 to 8 minutes, or until syrup is reduced to 1 cup. Remove from heat. Stir in pinch salt, 2 tablespoons butter, 1/4 teaspoon maple flavor and 1/4 cup roasted diced almonds. Cool. Pare, halve and core 6 pears. Arrange in dessert dishes. Add scoops of coffee ice cream and maple-mocha sauce. Makes 6 servings.

1971. You've changed. We've changed.

Worth seeing. Worth owning. Worth waiting for.

Vega. Not just another little car, but one little car that does everything well. You get more room, more weight and more power than most little cars give you, yet the gas mileage is right in the same neighborhood with the best of them. Vegas come dressed up, too, not stripped to the bone so you have to add a lot to make them liveable. Drive one. You'll see.

Caprice. There's a double layer of steel in the roof, a steel guard beam in each door, power disc brakes up front, a new power ventilation system inside, a wheelbase two and one-half inches longer. You get the looks and comfort of a six- or seven-thousand-dollar car, but at Chevrolet prices. And that's the kind of change during these tight-money times that all of us can appreciate.

A vanishing tailgate. A big change in our big wagon. The window goes up into the roof, the Glide-Away tailgate vanishes beneath the floor. Out of sight. Out of your way for easy loading even in a closed garage or when you have a trailer hooked on.

See what we mean by putting you first? September 29 at your Chevrolet dealer's.

WHAT PRICE FREEDOM!

For some, the price has been their lives. And day in and day out others give their lives to maintain our freedoms.

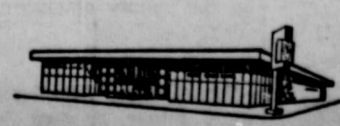

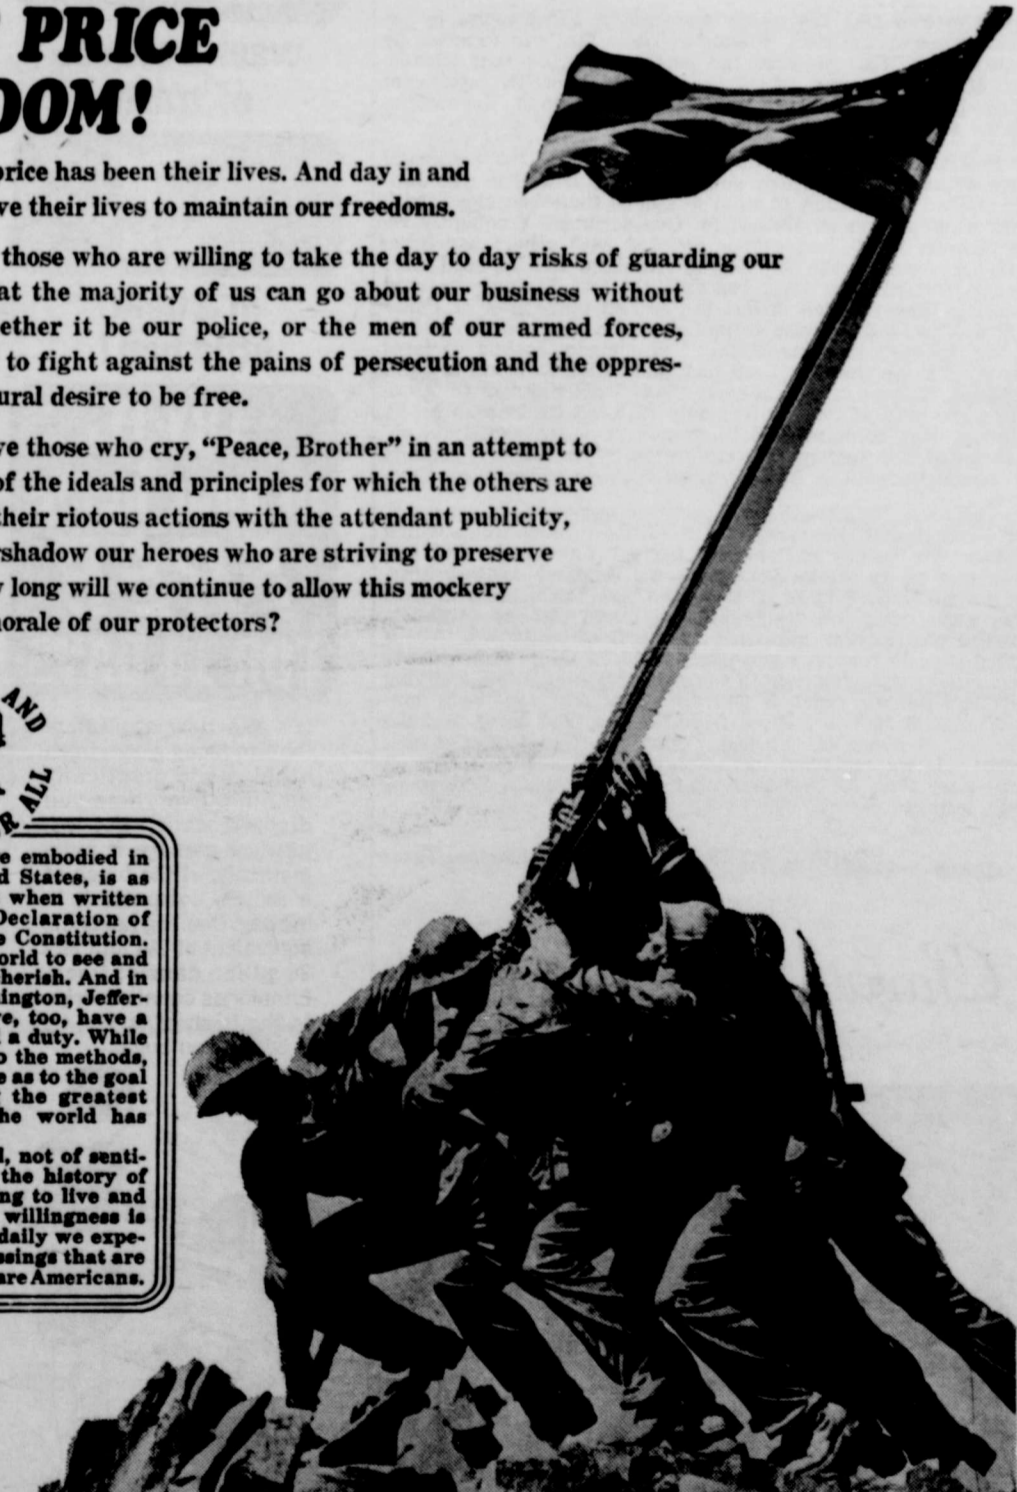

Luckily, we have those who are willing to take the day to day risks of guarding our way of life so that the majority of us can go about our business without interruption. Whether it be our police, or the men of our armed forces, they stand ready to fight against the pains of persecution and the oppression of man's natural desire to be free.

But we also have those who cry, "Peace, Brother" in an attempt to make a mockery of the ideals and principles for which the others are willing to die. In their riotous actions with the attendant publicity, they seem to overshadow our heroes who are striving to preserve our freedom. How long will we continue to allow this mockery that erodes the morale of our protectors?

Our priceless heritage embodied in the flag of the United States, is as alive today as it was when written for the ages in the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution. It stands for all the world to see and for all Americans to cherish. And in the tradition of Washington, Jefferson, and Hamilton, we, too, have a privilege, a right, and a duty. While we may disagree as to the methods, we should not disagree as to the goal—that of preserving the greatest democratic society the world has ever known.

Our flag is a symbol, not of sentiment, but of history, the history of men and women willing to live and die for it. Surely this willingness is with us still, because daily we experience more of the blessings that are ours—ours because we are Americans.

SILVERTON RESIDENTS STUDY JUDO WITH OLYMPIANS—Members of the Silvertown judo club underwent an intensive, full-week judo training program at Camp Olympus in Capon Bridge, West Virginia, recently. The camp, sponsored by the United States Judo Association, was directed by the only American ever to win an Olympic medal in the sport, James Bregman, who headed a staff of nationally and internationally-known judo teachers. of the evening. It was almost enough to make the coffee and hot dogs go down wrong!

The Owls opened the third period by kicking off to the Cowboys, who punted four down later. Silvertown made five first downs, via runs by Holt, who gained about 30 yards, Thomas Self who added 10, Strange who got 40 and Martin, who made up the balance on the 67-yard touchdown crusade. Penalties extended the distance by 20 yards. Strange carried the last 15 yards for the score. Marvin's kick was blocked, and Silvertown held a 27-12 lead.

Happy took the kickoff to their own 43, and passed on first down. For the second time during the game, Owl May picked it off and this time carried to the Happy-25. One fan later said: "Alvin might have made another score if he hadn't gotten tickled." Silvertown got a holding penalty and had to give up the ball, but by this time the Owls had built up so much momentum they weren't giving the Cowboys room even to breathe, and Happy was never again able to control the ball for more than eight downs at a time.

Strange, Holt and Thomas Self carried the mail for the Owls on the final scoring drive early in the fourth quarter. Thomas carried the last 10 yards and Marvin added the PAT for a final 34-12 score.

ABUSES OF OLD TESTAMENT SCRIPTURES

A common abuse of Old Testament scripture is the attempt by religious speculators and theorists to support their fantastic vagaries by quotations therefrom. This requires the performance, by said speculators, of rape of the scriptures, which they should know (if capable of understanding plain language) brings destruction upon themselves. "Wresting" the scriptures is no light matter (2 Peter 3:16).

A widely proclaimed theory in support of which the Old Testament scriptures are abused, is that which would have the Israelites (the Jewish people) restored as a nation to what was once their homeland, with governmental headquarters in Jerusalem. One scripture frequently referred to is Genesis 12:1-7, and this is coupled with others which relate to the "land promise" made by God to Abraham and his seed after him. These are wrested from their context—the Old Testament—and are forced into a theory which makes the Jewish possession of Palestine yet future. The land promise cannot apply to a possession yet in the future, for, roughly 450 years after it was made, Joshua declares that not one good thing that the Lord had said failed to come to pass! (Joshua 21:43-45). Nehemiah also records that God's promise to Abraham regarding the land of Canaan was duly fulfilled (Nehemiah 9:7-8). Since fulfillment was accomplished thousands of years ago, it is obviously an abuse of Old Testament scripture to try to make it support a theory of things yet-to-come. But out of such abuse of scripture theories are born.

Some, not content with the kingdom of Christ (the church), which had its beginning on the day of Pentecost (Acts 2) turn to the Old Testament for an attempt to prove that Christ will establish another kingdom on the earth. Amos 9:11-12 is also used. But inspiration applies this prophecy concerning the "tabernacle of David" to the establishment of the church, and the admission of the Gentiles into it. All of which occurred over 19 centuries ago (Acts 15:13-18). Since it is already fulfilled, one wrests the scripture to his own destruction in applying it to a theoretical scheme which is yet-to-be. Similarly, the "sure mercies of David" (Isaiah 55:3) are lifted from the past and flung into the future. This, too, is abuse of the Old Testament, for Paul says this prophetic word was accomplished in the resurrection and exaltation of Jesus Christ—more than 19 centuries ago! (Acts 13:32-37). Beware of abusing God's inspired record!

The Owls made 23 first downs (as compared with 13 for Happy), running a few more plays and making more yardage than usual. This is largely due to the blocking that the Owl backs have been doing for one another. Silvertown ran 71 plays during the game—quite a few more than usual, and surprisingly enough, Happy ran 72 plays.

The boys and coaches have a red towel "player of the week" award each week, and for the Happy game Strange and May got the towels. Many times in past years it would have been a "crying towel," but not for the Owls now as they have outscored their opponents 93-12 so far this season.

Even though the coaches had good reasons for selecting May and Strange, there were numerous examples of outstanding performance during the game. Terry Bomar and David Holt and perhaps several others would have had to be close runners-up for the "towel." Bomar has been playing on a sprained ankle that got hurt on the third or fourth play of the Turkey game, and this cuts down his ability to make quick changes of direction, but he did a pretty good job of putting pressure on Happy's quarterback. In his nightmares Cole probably sees that 61 bearing down on him yet!

GROOM'S NEXT

The Owls travel to Groom Friday night, where open season on Tigers opens at 8:00 p.m. The Tigers are winless so far this season, having gone down to Vega 49 to 15 and having been humiliated by Claude 33 to 0; however, the Tigers are considered a potentially-dangerous team in spite of their small size.

"Passage of the Soybean Producers Referendum in Texas is a must," according to State Representative Delwin Jones of Lubbock. Mr. Jones, chairman of the agriculture committee of the Texas House of Representatives, stated: "Those of us in state and national legislative bodies are watching to see if farmers are really concerned about their problems. When insects, disease and other problems need immediate attention the legislature is usually willing to help solve them when farmers themselves show enough concern to help with the costs, such as could be done with the passage of the soybean referendum."

Since passage of the 1969 Commodity Referendum Act, successfully led through the legislature by Representative Jones, producers of peanuts, grain sorghum and turkeys have held referendums and voted self assessments for research and promotion of their commodities.

Mr. Scott Sawyer, Far East Director, American Soybean Association, who administers market expansion programs abroad for all U. S. producers, recently reported that "We could hasten the change to more soy oil in the Japanese diet if we had a larger budget to work with . . . market development is a lot tougher than it was five years ago, so the American farmer will have to work harder through commodity groups like Texas Soybean Association to get and keep his share of the big oil and protein markets."

The percentage of the funds generated by the program, if passed, that will be directed toward insect and disease control, foreign and domestic market development and production and marketing research will be determined by a 9-man board elected by producers on the same ballot as the assessment. Voting places in each of the 23 counties have been announced by the county extension agent.

Mrs. Dwain Henderson underwent minor surgery in Swisher Memorial Hospital Wednesday morning.

The 17th Annual Floyd County Fair was held September 17-19, at the fairgrounds in Lockney. The fair was open to residents of Floyd and surrounding counties.

Briscoe County 4-H members placed very high in the livestock show and junior showmanship contest. Debbie Boling showed the first place heavyweight Hereford, Champion Hereford, and Grand Champion of the steer show.

Her sister, Beverly Boling, placed fifth in the heavyweight Hereford division.

Debbie and Beverly are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Boling. Brent Brannon placed third in the lightweight crossbred class with his Hereford - Angus cross. Paul Brannon won first place and a blue ribbon in the Junior Showmanship Contest for boys and girls eight years of age and under. Brent and Paul are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brannon.

The Floyd County Fair also included activities such as a Rabbit Show, agricultural and crop exhibits, homemaking exhibits and commercial exhibits.

The Tri-State Fair is being held September 21-26, in Amarillo. The show included many exhibits as well as judging of high quality livestock and a Horse Show.

Saturday, September 26, is Rural Youth Day at the fair and all FHA and 4-H members will be admitted to the grounds free. There will also be a special program for them at 10:00 a.m. in the coliseum. The 53rd Annual Panhandle South Plains Fair will be held September 28-October 3, in Lubbock. This fair will include many agricultural exhibits. There will be many contests and variety shows. The 1969 attendance was 285,924 and a larger crowd is expected in 1970.

I have recently received a new FACT SHEET produced by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, entitled "Keys to Profitable Swine Production." The pamphlet contains material on economic potential, size and method of operation, breeding and selection, nutrition, housing and equipment, herd health, and marketing. Anyone who would like to have a copy may pick one up at my office in the courthouse.

Mrs. M. G. Moreland underwent surgery at Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo Monday morning. Her address is: Margie Moreland, Room 335, Northwest Texas Hospital, Amarillo, Texas 79106.

Club Has Arts And Crafts Program In Eddleman Home

L. O. A. Junior Study Club met September 21 at 8:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Randall Eddleman for an arts and crafts program by Mrs. J. E. Patton, Jr., a charter member.

Mrs. Eddleman gave the devotional, "Time For Joy In Seeking." Roll call was answered with each member telling about or showing a hobby or pastime.

Mrs. Charles Sarchet gave the federation news on what a junior club in Silverton, Oregon, has done for a project to help eliminate the litter problem.

Members voted to be hostesses for a special occasion party for the children at High Plains Training Center in Plainview.

Mrs. Patton's program was a demonstration of "Creations From the Wastebasket," an example of what one might do with her old tin cans.

She showed the tools needed in this craft and described how each is used. She displayed a variety of items she has made.

Mrs. Ronald Young, Mrs. Louis Grabbe and Mrs. Wayne LaGrone have accepted the club's invitation to membership.

Mrs. Eddleman served ribbon sandwiches, spiced cider and cookies from a Fall-decorated table to Mrs. Jerry Miller, Mrs. Sarchet, Mrs. Wayne Nance, Mrs. Young, Mrs. Robert H. Hill, Mrs. Richard Souter, Mrs. Bill Stovall, Mrs. Grabbe, Mrs. Dean Rowell, Mrs. Fred Edwards, Mrs. Champ McGavock, Mrs. Bud Couch, Mrs. Stanley Fogerson and Mrs. Patton.

Mrs. Wayne Stephens will be the hostess for the club's meeting on October 5, at 8:30 p.m. in the P. C. A. community room. Roll call will be "What I Can Do For a Better Environment."

The devotional will be "Time For Conservation" and the federation news is entitled, "A Better Environment With Womanpower."

Mrs. Randall Eddleman will present "The Air We Breathe" and Mrs. Bud Couch will give the program, "Water Crisis."

TREMENDOUS TRIFLES

THE RAIN THAT ESTABLISHED HOLLYWOOD

If it hadn't been for a particular rainfall, the motion picture industry might have been centered in Flagstaff or distributed over the United States. At any rate, it would not have settled in Hollywood.

It started when three refugees from bankruptcy, Jesse Lasky, Samuel Goldwyn and Cecil B. De Mille, met at New York's Claridge Hotel to start a highly hazardous venture: a motion picture company. It was to be known as the Jesse Lasky Feature Play Company. Each took a share and, at $5,000, there were no takers for the last remaining share. After a year of privation and rebuffs, the trio succeeded in getting the rights to film Milton Royle's successful play, "The Squaw Man" on a "so much down and the rest later" plan. They gathered a crew together and chose as their leading man Dustin Farnum. (No, thank you, said Farnum, he would accept $250,000 weekly in cash rather than a quarter interest at $5,000 that still remained!) For the sake of authenticity, they selected Arizona for the filming and proceeded by train to Flagstaff for the "shooting."

When they reached Flagstaff, it was raining—raining dimly, the country was disappointing, the crew depressed. They remained on the train straight through to Los Angeles.

A young cowboy named Hal Roach stopped at De Mille's hotel room and applied for a job. He wanted five dollars a day; the pay was three. He turned it down. But, before he left, Roach told De Mille about a Los Angeles suburb, a pleasant place called Hollywood, where another picture company, Universal, was operating. De Mille investigated, hired a barn at $25.00 a month and commenced work on "The Squaw Man."

There were privations on every hand: sharing the barn with the owner's horse and buggy, clashes with rival combines, many acts of sabotage. But in four weeks the picture was finally completed and netted a profit of a quarter-million dollars.

There was no artificial lighting in the early days. The company found Hollywood ideally suited to the filming of outdoor pictures because of its proximity to every type of outdoor setting. They continued with such gaudy films as "The Virginian" and "The Plainsman" and established the motion picture as a coming entertainment force and Hollywood as the world film capital.

It might not have happened if it hadn't been raining in Flagstaff one certain day many years ago.

It's The Mini-Midi-Maxi Way

The mini is alive and well—but, then so are the midi and the maxi. It's a hair-length wardrobe to match today's way of life—swingin' and carefree. And, hair can do anything a wig can do!

The three different hair styles made to order for the mini-midi-maxi looks are the result of the third annual Breck Hair Styling Contest. The panel decided that the Seventies reflect a variety of looks, and to select one winner was prehistorically rigid—so, three grand prize winners were selected to emulate the looks of today.

The mini-do style comes from California. Dawna Singleton's "California Whisp" is perfect for the carefree and active girl. Short and shaggy it demands very little care.

Midi-minded Linda McQueen knows the simple things in life are often the best. Her "Southern Simplicity" is a bouncy flip that rides mid-length just above her shoulders. To help keep her hair in shape, Linda uses Breck Satin—it provides a foundation for the hair and acts as a conditioner for dry or damaged hair.

Typically feminine is the maxi-do of Deborah Legg. Her "West Virginia Swing" is all-girl softness. Deborah uses electric rollers for quick, daily sets. But, for her, the maxi is for hair only—believing that long hair makes a girl look young, but that long skirts turn her into a grandmother before her time.

The three winners each have a different approach to the Seventies—but they know there's no one style or way to do anything. And, their hair styles prove that hair can do anything a wig can do—and better.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. McKenney, Mrs. Jerry Miller and Avonna visited Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Woody and children at Stratford.

Mrs. Minnie Haynes continues to receive treatment at Swisher Memorial Hospital in Tulia.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Miller visited with Mr. and Mrs. Lark Miller over the weekend while moving to Lubbock.

We'll send you 6,180 miles of Texas for 6 cents.

The 6 cents is for a postage stamp. The postage stamp is for the coupon below. If you send us the coupon, we'll send you practically all of Texas wrapped in 10 Travel Trail folders. These folders include detailed maps prepared by the Texas Highway Department and descriptive notes on things and places you never knew existed in Texas! land of contrast.

Take the Plains Trail and you'll see a canyon over 100 miles long. Take the Hill Country Trail and find out whose hair is mohair. On the Mountain Trail you can see a county bigger than Connecticut. On the Forest Trail you can take the shortest railroad ride in the country.

Follow the Forts Trail and you can dine at a restaurant that serves buffalo steaks. Take the Tropical Trail and maybe you'll catch a glimpse of the near-extinct whooping crane. On the Independence Trail you'll see the only oceanarium between the Pacific and the Atlantic. Follow the Lakes Trail and discover what "First Mondays" are and what you can swap there.

The Brazos Trail tells you where to take Sunday afternoon rides in a surrey. Send for the Pecos Trail folder and you'll know where to sand-surf.
