INSIDE THE LEGISLATURE

(DELAYED FROM LAST WEEK)

with Rep. Tom Christian
SESSION MOVES INTO FINAL ROUND

As we rapidly approach the last month of this legislative session, the House has moved into a five-day week and on occasion, 12 1/2-hour days . . . in addition to regularly scheduled meetings of committees, sub-committees and public hearings on bills.

The 12-hour plus consideration of the Appropriations Bill on Thursday was the longest single session of the House in the past 14 years.

H.S.R. BY CHRISTIAN AND DAVIS OF TRAVIS

This resolution which provides for the establishment of an Interim Study Committee on the problem of pornography in Texas is the first attempt to provide protective legislation based on adequate research. Previous bills to curtail the activities of the pornography pushers have been introduced on the basis of emotional reaction to this menace.

Rep. Harold Davis and I have been working on this legislation since the 61st Session of the Legislature. The rulings of the Supreme Court in the past few years make it almost impossible to draw a bill that will comply with Federal law. This Resolution provides for consultation by the Committee with federal officials, congressmen, senators and the federal judiciary before recommendations are drawn up. Perhaps through this cooperative effort, we can come up with legislation which will protect the environment in which we raise our children.

H.B. 446 PASSES HOUSE

My bill to abolish the office of County School Superintendent in Randall County (HB 446) passed the House on voice vote. This bill now goes to the Senate for approval.

Purpose of the bill is to do away with a job which is now obsolete. The schools in Randall County are either part of the Canyon or Amarillo Independent School Districts. Any remaining duties connected with the office will be handled by Randall County Judge Woody Pond.

LIQUOR BY THE DRINK

The liquor bill passed the House virtually unamended and with few of the so-called enforcement safeguards that had been proposed. As of now, it is not going to raise funds anticipated by its proponents.

An interesting thing about this legislation is that two years ago we received an enormous amount of mail both for and against. As this issue came before the House this Session, we have had one letter and one wire . . . one for and one against.

The passage of the liquor referendum seemed to give the question an air of inevitability. The shouting came last Session, the voting on local option will come on May 18.

REQUIRED GOVERNMENT COURSES

A couple of weeks back Tommy Thompson in his Turnstile column in the Amarillo Globe-Times bemoaned the fact that what this country needs is people who knew more about government, not less. This was in reference to Rep. Richard Slack's proposed H. B. 829 which would do away with the six-hour government requirement for college degrees.

I couldn't agree more. Perhaps we are just two old school teachers beating a dead horse, but the fact remains, we are going to be passing legislation for an 18-year-old vote and this new voter needs the insight that is provided in those two semesters of government.

I would like to keep the requirement that teachers who move to this state and become a part of our educational system take those six hours plus six hours of Texas History if they are in the field

County 4-H'ers To Sell Chocolate

Briscoe County 4-H members will be calling on local citizens to purchase a bar of World's Finest Chocolate the last of April and the first of May as part of a state-wide effort to raise funds for a Texas 4-H educational center.

Mrs. Joe Brannon and Mrs. J. C. Fowler, local 4-H leaders who are heading the county sales campaign, say the county sales goal is 15 bars per 4-H member. The bars will sell for a dollar each.

A State 4-H Center is badly needed, says County Agent Jackie Johnson, since the Texas 4-H program does not own any type of training or camping facility. The proposed center is being developed by the Texas 4-H Foundation, says Johnson, and will cost approximately $1 million. It will accommodate about 175 people. The center will be a focal point for camping-type programs, 4-H leadership training, citizenship seminars, leadership training labs, international 4-H activities, project training and other Extension Service activities. When not in use by 4-H, the center will be available to other groups with educational proof social studies.

COMPARATIVE NEGLIGENCE

H. B. 556 by Hale, et al, passed the House last week after much debate.

After weighing the merits of the comparative negligence bill, I voted against it. I feel that it will only lead to an increase in plaintiffs attorneys and an increase in auto insurance rates.

NOTICE

The City of Silvertown this week is making a request of residents concerning the local dog pound. When dogs are picked up by the City, they are placed in the pound for several days to determine for sure they are strays before being destroyed. Sometimes dogs that are being observed for rabies are placed in the pound.

For some time, someone has been going to the pound, and letting the dogs out. This could be very dangerous, especially if there did happen to be a dog under observation for rabies.

Please cooperate with the City and do not let dogs out of the pound.

Fire Extinguishers Being Sold Here

The Silvertown Fire Department is selling portable fire extinguishers for home, office or automobile. These extinguishers have proven their worth time and time again, being used to extinguish small fires before they have time to become major ones.

Just recently this was proven at the Don Burson home here, where a five-pound extinguisher prevented a kitchen fire from becoming a major one.

The 2 3/4-pound extinguishers grams. While the 4-H'ers themselves make their contribution, a state-wide development council composed of business leaders will help raise the balance of the funds, Johnson concluded.

DORCAS CLASS MEETS IN CHURCH PARLOR

The Dorcas Sunday School Class met April 23 in the parlor of the First Baptist Church. The group sang several songs. Mrs. Ruby Garvin and Mrs. Leavie Cherry played and sang "The Old Country Church."

Chain prayers were heard. The devotional was given by Mrs.

Maud McJimsey on the "Lullaby of Understanding." Menu was filled for family and revival singer for 2 at 6:00 p.m.

The Bible Quiz was directed by the vice president, Mrs. C. German chocolate cake and punch were served by the hostess, Mrs. Stella McJimsey.

Good Samaritan Class Meets With Mrs. McMurtry

Mrs. Dorn McMurtry recently was hostess to the Good Samaritan Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church.

The class members and guests arrived at the McMurtry home at 11:30 a.m. and received a big welcome from the hostess. The group found a delicious luncheon which had been arranged by Mrs. McMurtry awaiting them.

At 1:00 p.m. the group gathered in the living room to enjoy a program and fellowship with one another. The occasion was planned especially for all the class members who had had birthdays, and since there were no birthdays in April, this month was set aside for the party. Each member had brought a gift, which was numbered by Mrs. Ray C. Bomar, and the member received the gift which matched her number. A happy birthday echoed throughout the house.

The devotional was read by Mrs. C. O. Allard from the 23rd Psalm. Prayer was offered by Mrs. Ima Harrison.

Guests present to enjoy the occasion were Mmes. Ollie McMur-

How fortunate we are that our children may receive the gift of freedom. As Americans it is our duty to protect this freedom so that it remains a gift for future generations.

We must be sound in our appraisal of the men we choose to follow. Our children in turn must have the judgment they need to choose their leaders.

It is our task to teach them that freedom must be earned if it is to be preserved. We must teach them self-control rather than rebellion. If they cannot learn to live within the laws of our society, have they earned the right to freedom that has been placed in their care?

We can give our children the education, the mental and moral discipline, and most important, the example they need to protect their heritage. Let's show them how to be law-abiding AMERICANS, proud of our country and the system around which it is built.

Remember—as we SUPPORT AMERICA we are insuring that our children will continue to be born free.

BORN FREE

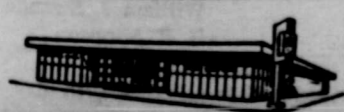

Our priceless heritage embodied in the flag of the United States, is as alive today as it was when written for the ages in the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution. It stands for all the world to see and for all Americans to cherish. And in the tradition of Washington, Jefferson, and Hamilton, we, too, have a privilege, a right, and a duty. While we may disagree as to the methods, we should not disagree as to the goal—that of preserving the greatest democratic society the world has ever known.

Our flag is a symbol, not of sentiment, but of history, the history of men and women willing to live and die for it. Surely this willingness is with us still, because daily we experience more of the blessings that are ours—ours because we are Americans.

4-H Field Crops Science Program Challenges Urban and Rural Kids

Can a youngster living in an inner-city high-rise find true happiness growing crops in a windowbox?

The Cooperative Extension Service thinks so—especially if he has the opportunity to carry out some interesting, fun-to-do experiments with seeds, plants and soils.

The program also continues to be popular with farm youths who grow profitable acreages of crops. They too can appreciate the science approach as they experiment with insect, disease and weed control, fertilizers and new management concepts.

There are over 105,000 4-H'ers enrolled in the field crops science program, many from metropolitan areas. Now they have available to them a new series of educational materials providing a wide variety of exciting projects dealing with growing plants and soils.

The 4-H field crops science program is sponsored by Amchem Products, Inc. for the fifth consecutive year. The company provides incentives and recognition as well as financial support for the new materials developed by representatives of the Cooperative Extension Service and the National 4-H Service Committee.

Currently in use are educational materials on plant reproduction, soils and plant characteristics. An introductory unit briefly covers the broad areas of plant and soil science.

Still to be released are educational materials on growing and using plants, field crops production and research.

Incentives and recognition offered through Amchem Products sponsorship include four gold-plated medals of honor for outstanding members in each county. The state award is an expense-paid trip to the 50th National 4-H Congress in Chicago, Nov. 23-Dec. 2. From these winners the Cooperative Extension Service will select recipients of six national educational scholarships of $700 each.

For more information about the 4-H field crops science program and how to participate as a member or local 4-H leader, contact the county extension office.

team, composed of Ty McMurry, Ken Wood and Derrel Martin, placed seventh out of 14 teams.

from Austin. The Texas State Network System is an enormous, speedy and far-reaching service available to the users and readers of the Silverton Library. Any book or publication in the libraries of the state may be received here on loan for a special postage fee.

The other factor is a result of chain reaction. After complying with schedule requirements and receiving book loans, Silverton Library has a small acquisition of fine reference books on a permanent basis.

Mrs. Edwin (Claudene) May is librarian, and is qualified to give assistance in selecting available books on the shelves and also through the library service network.

The library hours are from 10:00 a.m. until 12:00 noon and 2:00 until 5:00 p.m. on Tuesdays, and from 2:00 until 5:00 p.m. on Fridays.

MRS. D. H. DAVIS HONORED ON BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Rampley were hosts for a birthday dinner for her mother, Mrs. D. H. Davis, Sunday.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stanford and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Davis of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Rampley and Ty of the cutting surface. Cut out pattern pieces carefully, and let pieces relax 24 hours before assembling.

Since knits "give" in varying degrees, use thread with more give, such as core spun thread. Loosen upper and lower thread tension, and set the machine at 12-15 stitches per inch. Use shorter stitches on knits with less give.

To stabilize a seam in the knit garment, use straight or bias tape to prevent stretching at the shoulder, waistline, armseye and crotch seams. Use straight woven tape on loosely knitted fabrics. Provide additional seam support by stitching one-fourth inch from the cut edge to prevent the seam allowance from curling.

Allow the knit garment to hang 24 hours before hemming. Pink and make a row of stitching around the hem edge. Use a French or tailor's hem to finish to minimize bulk. For very stretchy knits or for those that fray slightly, use stretch lace; for heavy knits, use a double stitch. Baste the hem in place at the fold and along the center line of the hem. Then fold the hem back along the basting line and catch-stitch it loosely to the garment. Turn up the top edge of the hem and again stitch to the garment with a loose catch-stitch.

Knits oil-stain easily. Use chalky rather than waxy chalk for marking. Also, keep the sewing machine free of oil.

Home Notes

Home Demonstration Agent

Knits have hit the apparel market, adding spice and variety to home sewing.

The home sewer has a wide choice of knits—from patterned to plain and from stretchy to rigid fabrics. Whatever type you use depends on the pattern selected. For tailored straight-lined patterns, select firm knits; for draped lines, select soft knits. Also, some knit fabrics have curled edges and require a pattern that has no seam edges on the straight grain.

A word of caution: patterns especially designed for knits may have less ease than those designed for woven fabrics.

Knit fabrics used for tailored designs need shape-retaining support. Interfacing, in faced edges, collars, under buttonholes, pockets, waistbands and some hemmed areas, will provide this shaping. Use tricot knit for interfacing which will meet care requirements of the fabrics.

Since knit fabrics can snag easily, several new sewing notions have been developed to eliminate the problem. Use ball point needles and pins that have rounded points to push yarns aside and slip between them. A regular needle has a sharp point that pierces yarns, often breaking them. The ball point needle, then, helps prevent snagging and skipped stitches.

Handle and cut out knit fabrics on smooth surfaces, and use sharp scissors.

A special roller presser foot, with a small roller that helps feed fabric smoothly through the sewing machine, will also aid in preventing snags and skipped stitches. On zigzag machines, use a throat plate with a small round needle hole and a narrow straight stitching presser foot for straight stitches.

Knit fabrics can stretch in handling, so don't let edges hang over

A GAS outdoor grill gives food a tangy outdoor flavor without the time and bother of charcoal fire. Char-broiled flavor comes from the smoke of meat juices dripping on hot briquets. Charcoal itself provides no flavor.

Permanent ceramic briquets in the gas grill reach cooking heat in a few minutes, and there is no long wait to start cooking. The heat is regulated manually so there is no need to move a grill up or down.

“Those who expect to reap the blessings of freedom must undergo the fatigue of supporting it.”

Thomas Paine Sept. 12, 1777

“I AM AN AMERICAN”

I have the right to choose my field of employment, my religion and my friends. I have the responsibility to remain aware of local and national issues which affect me as an American, and to select with care the leaders I believe will preserve our society. I share an obligation with all other Americans to live within the laws of our land and maintain the moral standards which strengthen it.

I take pride in my work, my family and my country. I am only one of a multitude of Americans who believe this is still the land of opportunity for those who are willing to work for what they hope to gain.

I do not expect to get “something-for-nothing.” Neither do I expect rights and privileges to be mine free of responsibility.

These convictions are shared by an overwhelming majority of Americans. The voice of the minority who would undermine these standards has been heard too loudly and too long. It is time for each of us to stand up and say with pride, “I AM AN AMERICAN.”

© Coleman Advertising Serv., 2653 Tama Drive, Dallas, Texas 75229

Our priceless heritage embodied in the flag of the United States, is as alive today as it was when written for the ages in the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution. It stands for all the world to see and for all Americans to cherish. And in the tradition of Washington, Jefferson, and Hamilton, we, too, have a privilege, a right, and a duty. While we may disagree as to the methods, we should not disagree as to the goal—that of preserving the greatest democratic society the world has ever known.

Our flag is a symbol, not of sentiment, but of history, the history of men and women willing to live and die for it. Surely this willingness is with us still, because daily we experience more of the blessings that are ours — ours because we are Americans.

CARD OF THANKS

Many thanks for the food, flowers and visits from my friends and neighbors while I was in the hospital and since I came home. May God bless each of you in my prayer, also the hospital staff and the pastor for his visit and prayers. Mrs. Charlie Rowell

We would like to thank you for the flowers, cards, letters, gifts and visits to the hospital. We have especially appreciated the students who have flooded their teacher with letters and cards since her accident. All are appreciated very much.

Winnie and Alvin Redin

We don't have the words to express our thanks to all the wonderful people that showed us their love in so many ways while our baby was in the hospital and since we've been home. May the Lord bless you all.

Declamos dar las gracias a todos aquellos que fueron tan amables, para con nosotros. Cuando nuestro nino se encontraba en el hospital. Y desde que estamos en nuestro hogar.

Thanks again,
