VOLUME 66 NUMBER 4

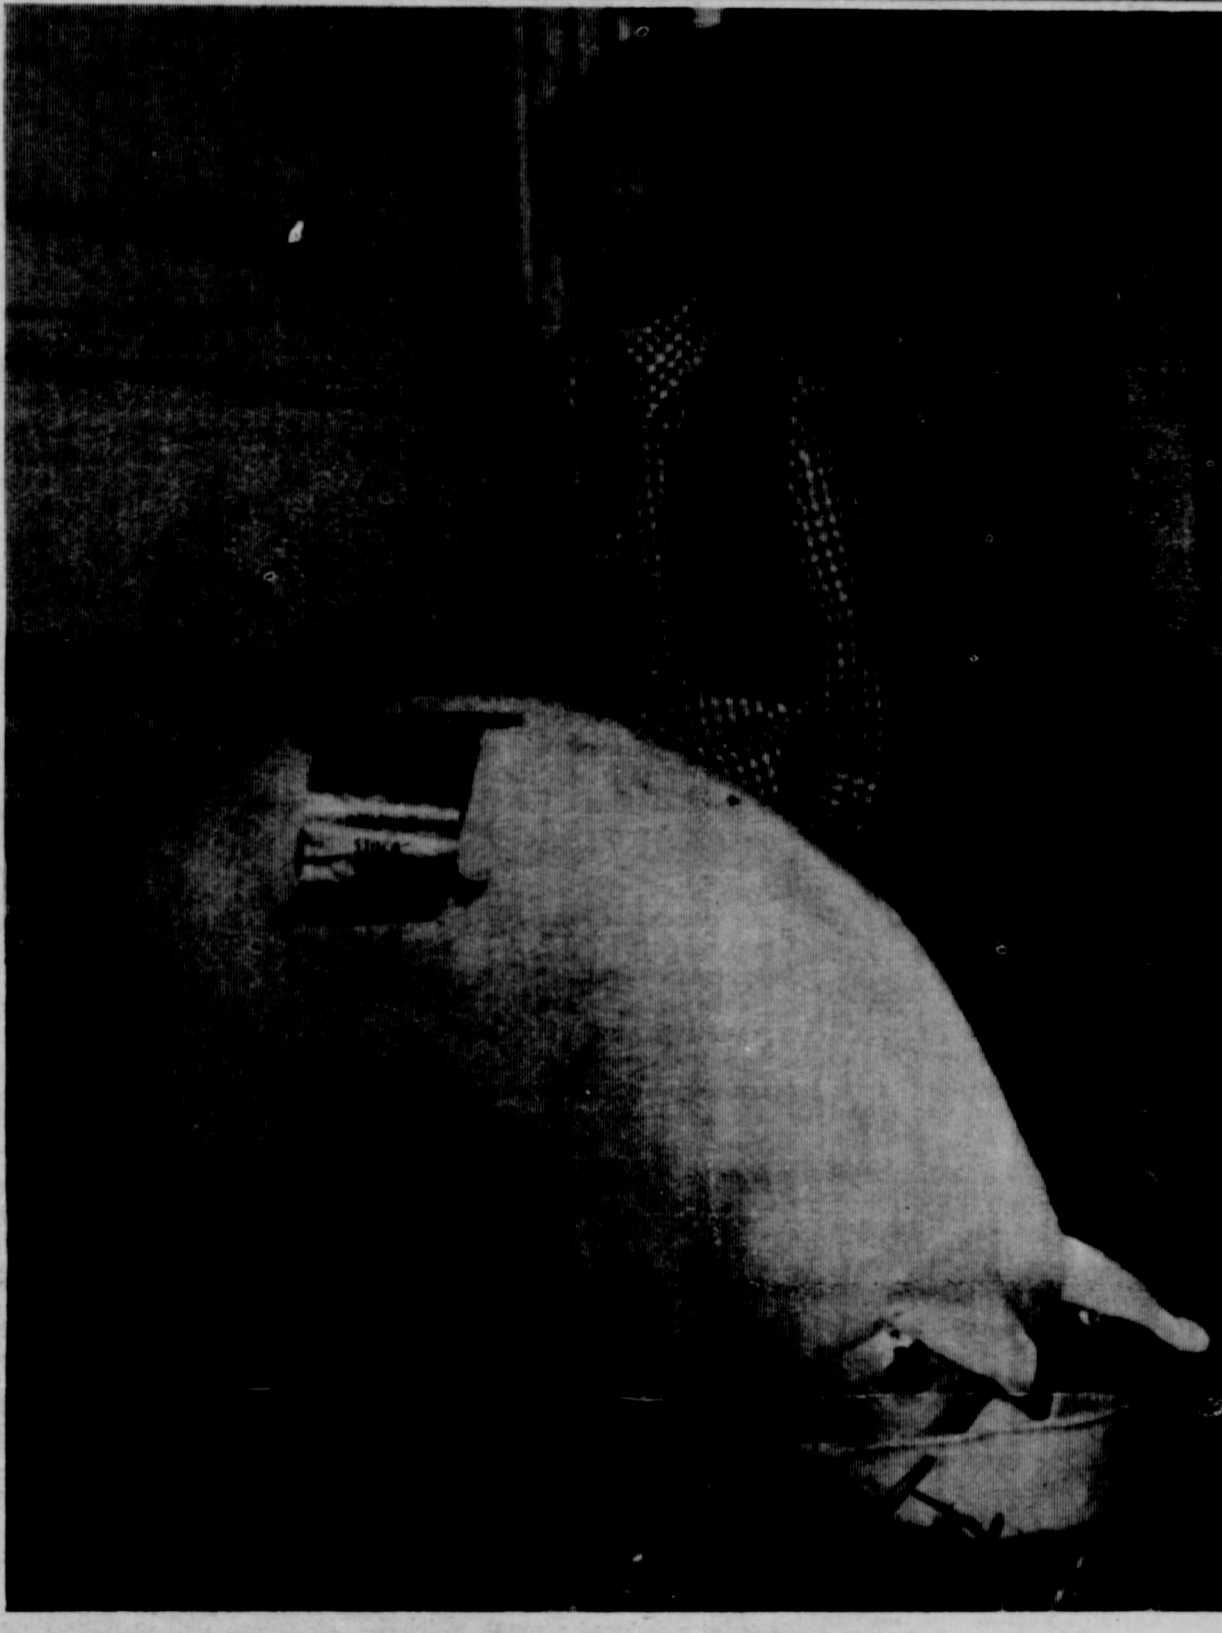

Agribusiness Fills County's Banks

An outstanding year in farming and ranching boosted business for many area banks to new records for 1973. At the close of 1973, Briscoe County's banks were bulging with more than three million dollars more on deposit than at the same time a year ago.

At the end of 1973, First State Bank in Silverton had on deposit $7,767,636.30, which was $2,453,824.01 less than the $10,221,460.31 that was on deposit with the Silverton bank at the end of 1973.

In Quitaque, the First National Bank recorded deposits of $8,065,616.20 at the end of 1973, up $553,233.55 over the 1972 figure of $7,532,382.65.

The county had a good agricultural year. Prices were good and many farmers had the best crops they have had in years.

Eric Patton, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Patton, which was selected as Breed Champion of the sale. These were a sixth-place Cross shown by Danny Perkins; a twelfth-place Cross and a 23rd-place Hamp shown by Kim Cornett, and a 30th-place Hamp shown by Kirk Durham. Placings of the heavy finewool lambs were 19. Tommy Perkins; 41. Mike Cornett; 47. Danny Perkins; 48. Kimberly Fitzgerald. Shelly Harris showed a lightweight Cross that placed 23rd. In the heavy Cross class, placings were 6. Danny Perkins; 12. Kim Cornett; 14. Rose Lee Perkins; 25. Traci Mayfield; 30. Greg Whelchel; 33. Karen Martin.

Eric Patton Wins Breed Champion At Amarillo Stock Show

Eric Patton was the star of the Amarillo Junior Fat Stock Show, as far as the Silverton people were concerned, when his Chester White barrow placed first in its class and went on to be chosen as Breed Champion last Friday. The animal was sold at auction Monday for 95c a pound. He also showed a Hamp barrow which placed twelfth in its class.

Other Silverton exhibitors were not as fortunate as Eric, and the good placings were hard to come by for the local boys and girls. Of the 32 barrows exhibited, 11 made the sale. These were a third-place Hamp shown by Mark Patton; a third-place Cross shown by Bryan Burson; a seventh-place Duroc shown by DeAnn Strange; a fifth-place Cross and a seventh-place Hamp shown by Debra Strange; a seventh - place Hamp shown by Douglas McJimsey; an eleventh-place Cross shown by Vicki McJimsey; an eleventh-place Duroc and an eleventh-place Cross shown by Shelly Harris; an eleventh-place Hamp shown by David Strange, and Eric Patton's Breed Champion.

Others from here who exhibited swine in the Amarillo Show were Mark Patton, who had a fourth-place Chester White; Mike Cornett, who had a 15th place Hamp; James Alan Patton, who had a ninth-place Chester White; Dave Francis, who showed a fourth-place Hamp; Kyle Bean, Kim Cornett, Walter Perkins, Kelly Comer, Tommy Perkins, Roger Cantwell, Danny Perkins and Brent Bean.

In the lamb show, of the 24 Silverton 4-H animals, only four made

New Federal Business Loans Attract Attention

A new federal program to finance local businesses or industrial development will help improve the economic climate in rural areas of Texas, according to J. Lynn Futch, State Director of Farmers Home Administration, Temple.

Already letters of pre-application are being received. Mr. Futch said, requesting financial assistance to develop businesses under provisions of the 1972 Rural Development Act. The Farmers Home Administration, a rural credit service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, oversees the program.

"Submitting a letter of pre-application is the first step in this program," Mr. Futch explained. "Any individual or group that needs financing for industry or business in Texas should summarize his ideas in a proposal and submit it to the FHA county office in the area, or to a private lender. Priority will be given to projects that strengthen rural communities by improving economic and employment conditions as outlined in the Rural Development Act."

If the prospective business meets eligibility requirements, Mr. Futch said, the applicant will be requested to submit a formal application. Major projects will be cleared with appropriate local and state officials to assure compliance with development plans for the area.

In addition to individuals, eligible applicants may include partnerships, cooperatives, and corporations.

Most borrowers will receive loans advanced by private lenders guaranteed up to 90 percent by FHA in rural areas and cities not over 50,000 population. Loan funds

County ASCS Office To Administer RECP

Briscoe County ASCS Office will be responsible for administering the new 1974 Rural Environmental Conservation Program. The new program, which replaces and modifies the old REAP, has several new aspects of interest to Briscoe County residents.

According to your ASCS County Office, the new cost-sharing phase of the program could be extremely beneficial to County farmers. It provides for a minimum of 50% and maximum of 75% return to the user for all expenses he incurs while establishing conservation or forestry practices on his land, including labor costs. Also, under the 1974 program, an applicant can either elect to apply for a single one-year program of conservation improvement, or select a three to ten year continuing program. The extended period of time now allowed will be most beneficial to those wishing rather extensive conservation improvements on their land, but preferring to spread them out over a period of years.

All applications must be made directly to the ASCS County Office. Complete information and details on the specific programs will be available in the very near future.

County Offices have the basic information on the program that has been authorized by the Secretary of Agriculture for cost sharing. Fourteen separate practices have been announced, plus two which deal with county projects affecting conservation peculiar to a particular county.

Fire Department Receives $75.00

The Silverton Volunteer Fire Department received a check for $75 recently from Texas Farm Bureau Insurance Companies as an expression of thanks for the department's work at fires on the property of Briscoe Cooperatives.

The money will be used for their loss prevention program.

The Texas Farm Bureau Insurance Companies pay volunteer fire departments this amount when the department works at a fire in rural areas, involving property insured by them.

The insurance company believes volunteer fire departments have contributed to reduce the amount of loss involved by fire and more important, to prevent fires. It is their hope this money will help the Silverton Volunteer Fire Department in their program.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR
 I'm sorry I failed to send you our new address: Rm. Weldon Tip-ton, Route 9, Box 4846, Waco, Tex-as 76706. Keep the paper coming! It's good to hear news from home.

formance: Short of having rela-tives and friends in certain fami-lies in the community, the surest route to employment security in our schools seems to be assuming the posture of a non-entity.

Those of us interested in public institutions frequently find them burdened with leaders of small vi-sion who cannot see that such in-stitutions must accept and be re-sponsive to criticism. Such persons confuse the identity of the institu-tion with their own and are sorely threatened by any criticism, how-ever sincere and constructive. They are constantly frightened and de-fensive in the presence of anyone knowledgeable concerning their sphere of activity.

I congratulate you on your in-terest, your sincerity, and your courage. Please stay with it.

DEAR EDITOR:
 Just a note to have our paper sent to the correct address. As is our paper is sometimes two or three weeks old when we get it and we get behind on what's hap-pening in Silverton. That I don't like. Hope everyone is well and happy there; we're fine. Bus breathes much better here — I guess because the trees produce so much extra oxygen. We've got a little spot beside the highway with trees on three sides, just five miles from Lake Tawakoni. Come to see us and we'll take you fishing.

The address is J. A. Wellman, Star Route, Kingston, Oklahoma, 73439.

DEAR EDITOR:
 In going through some of my papers I found this copy of a pa-per my son wrote as a tribute to his home town. Rex grew up in Silverton and graduated from Sil-verton High School as an honor student. He is now a Doctor of Ed-ucation and teaches in The Uni-versity at Wichita, Kansas. His wife also teaches in The Uni-versity. Should you have space in your paper, I'm sure some old friends there would enjoy reading it. We reared our children in Sil-verton and we, too, believe there's no finer country or people any-where.

Sincerely,
 Mrs. R. E. Douglas

My Home Town—Silverton
 by Rex Douglas

In the heart of the Great Plains of Texas is situated my home town—Silverton—which claims as her heritage one of the most roman-tic histories of any town in West Texas.

It was near Silverton that Gen-eral Mackenzie fought the famous Mackenzie Battles with the Com-manche Indians that forever end-ed the power of the redman.

It was near here that Charles Goodnight started his career as one of the most noted Texas' Fron-tiermen.

There are many legends regard-ing lost mines and buried gold near Silverton. The buried gold—supposedly—was the loot of Mex-ican bandits.

Several miles west of town are to be found scores of well pres-erved fossils. Several heretofore un-known species have been unearth-ed and are now on display at the Panhandle Plains Museum at Can-yon, Texas.

Recently Fuller's Earth has been discovered in abundance near my home town. Fuller's Earth is a rare specie of clay necessary in the refining of oil.

Nature has endowed the coun-try surrounding my home town

MRS. RON VAUGHAN

Hutsell - Vaughan Vows Exchanged

Mr. and Mrs. Riddell C. Hutsell announce the marriage of their daughter, Pamela Kay, to Mr. John Havel Vaughan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Vaughan, also of Sil-verton.

The marriage took place January 10, 1974, at Highland Baptist Church in Clovis, New Mexico. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Jack Moore, pastor.

The bride wore an ecru double-breasted coat dress designed along empire lines and added tan acces-sories and gold jewelry.

The couple are making their home at 235 Indiana Avenue, Apartment F-204 in Lubbock, where the bridegroom is a sopho-more pre-med student and the bride is a freshman planning to major in elementary education. Both are graduates of Silverton High School.

With these assets and an eleva-tion of something near three-fourths of a mile, my locality is adapted to the growing of wheat, cotton, grain sorghums and live-stock.

Towns are like people, the same individuality which marks success in people also distinguishes towns.

Too often men mistake success to be their possession of wisdom, ambition and wealth. But, indeed, were this the standard of success those of us who have not the wis-dom of Solomon, nor the ambition of Napoleon, nor the wealth to rival the staggering heights of Croesus's fortune, must wall along de-feat. But neither wisdom, ambi-tion, nor wealth are the attributes which make men happy. So with towns, 'tis not their vastness; their towering buildings, their rush of suffocating crowds that monument their worth, but, rather, the kind of people who live within her limits.

The cornerstone of my home town was not built through the idealistic dreams of capital, but rests on a firmer foundation of faith, friendship, and fidelity in her fellowman. Here people were not lured there by booms and ad-venture, but, just as every soul yearns for a home where he can live and serve humanity, and be at peace with God and man, so our people came to Silverton to make that kind of a home. With that sim-ple mind throughout its history, the old time spirit of neighborliness and hospitality has been character-istic of its people. They have fol-lowed the policy of Live and Let Live. No stranger goes friendless or begging within her limits.

To make Silverton a more pleas-ant place in which to live, her citizens have provided modern con-veniences—electricity, gas, paved streets, water and a fine school with 28 1/2 credits of affiliation and fifteen teachers of the very finest type. There are also five churches that exercise a wholesome effect upon the lives of the people in my community.

Now, friends, in the true spirit of one West Texan to another, I entreat you to come to my home town, where the cool night breeze after a hot summer day makes you forget all your troubles, where there is nothing to mar your vision of Texas' most beautiful land-scapes, where the sunshine kills all gloom, and where there awaits you a welcome as broad as her boundless ranges.

YOUR SOCIAL SECURITY

by Manece King

Social Security Representative.
 Q. I am almost age 62 and am undecided about retirement. If I get tired of retirement and return to work, may I stop my social security payments?

A. Yes, you may stop and start your payments as often as neces-sary. You may report by telephone when you start or stop working, and payments will be adjusted ac-cordingly.

The problem with starting your checks at a reduced amount, which would be necessary before age 65, would be that the checks would re-main reduced until you attain age 65. An adjustment could be made after age 65 to reinstatae the re-duction of 5/9ths of 1% for each month you did not receive a full check before your 65th birthday month. Such an increase would be effective with the month you reached 65.

Q. I am 63 and married. I have worked intermittently the past 20 years. My husband is 62 and plans to continue working until he is 65. Do I have to wait until he re-

GUEST FOR IDENTITY

A young adult's opinion of him-self is influenced by hereditary and environmental factors.

These influences either help—or prevent—development of self-concept.

Self-concept involves the traits and habits an individual accepts as himself.

In other words, one's concept of who and what he is—and his thoughts and feelings about him-self as an individual.

The growth of self-concept is a continuous process. All through the developmental stages—infancy, childhood, adolescence and adult-hood—a person searches for iden-tity while maturing in his person-ality traits.

As a result, self-concept devel-ops in several ways.

For one, spirit of honesty and acceptance plays an important part.

When an individual "removes his mask" and is himself, he can accept himself more realistically and relate to others around him.

Strong motivation for achieve-ment is another factor. With sense of our culture competitive, one sense of self-worth largely depen-dent on his ability to meet the dem-ands placed upon him.

Independence means a person can seek guidance from others who he considers role models—people that succeeded in their own searches.

As such, he associates with na-ture adults who combine inner abil-ity with freedom to change—while continuing to grow.

Straight as an Arrow

In Archery you score only when you hit the target. To score well, you must have straight arrows.

When you attend church, it makes it easier to stay on the straight path. The church wants to help you in all ways of life, but can only do so, if you stay within its circle. Attend church and know the joy of a good life.

"For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints."

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

A SYMBOL OF SAFETY

When the ship is in danger, we can depend on the life-boats to take us over the seas to safety. It is comforting to glance at the life-boat when the seas are rough.

Our Armed Services are a symbol of safety when our country is in trouble, when war threatens to raise its ugly head. In the past, when war has come, our servicemen have not hesitated to give their lives to protect and defend us.

There is a special Day each year when we remember and honor our servicemen who have died in the defense of our blessed country. Let us not forget, as individuals, to honor these dead and give thanks to God for those who protect us even now. Remember them as you attend church this week.

EVERY MAN IN THE SERVICE IS A SOLDIER IN WAITING

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love, for men and of life beyond for men to respond to His love by living by His laws. Without His grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long survive and the freedoms which we treasure will inevitably perish. Therefore, we have a right and a duty to support the Church for the sake of the welfare of the world and the Church. Beyond that, however, every person should support and participate in the Church because it is the truth about man, life, death and destiny. The truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
