Heavy Rainfall, Low Temperatures Plague Area Farmers

Farmers who are needing sunshine and warm, dry weather have instead received heavy rains and near freezing temperatures this week. The rain moved into the Silverton vicinity with a cold front Saturday afternoon, and before it ended the official measurement in the city amounted to 2.38 inches, as recorded by Fred A. Brange. The lowest temperature recorded in Silverton was 33°, with a lot of ice on cars and windshields Tuesday morning. It is not thought that a damaging frost was received, because area gardeners report their tomato vines are still green. Heavier rainfall amounts were reported from some of the rural areas, but it is still hoped that weather conditions will return to dry and warm for awhile.

RICK HUTSELL

RICK HUTSELL UNDERGOES FUSION, LIGAMENT REPAIR

Rick Hutsell went into surgery at Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo at 9:30 a.m. Saturday for a fusion to repair a compression fracture of his neck and to repair a torn ligament in his neck. He was taken directly to the Amarillo hospital following the Silverton vs. Claude football game Friday night, and x-rays revealed that his neck was broken even though he had made satisfactory physical responses when checked by a Claude doctor on the sideline. He was placed in intensive care until he went into surgery even though his condition was not listed as critical.

Word from Rick Hutsell at press-time Wednesday was that he was feeling better, was experiencing less pain, and had rested better Tuesday night. He was able to do more than he had been able to do the day before. He was receiving a blood transfusion and was still in intensive care. While in intensive care, he cannot receive flowers, but he can receive cards and will be happy to hear from his friends. His address is listed at the bottom of this article.

The surgery lasted an hour and a half, and he was kept in intensive care until Sunday, when he was transferred to a room in pediatrics, where two other high school football players are receiving treatment for broken necks. Due to an elevation in his temperature, Rick was placed back in intensive care later Sunday. One reason for this was that it is in pediatrics, and another was that the doctor wanted the nurses to keep a close watch over him. The doctor assured the Hutsell family that Rick was expected to recover, but he continued to be listed in serious condition. It is expected that Rick will be kept in the hospital at least two weeks. He had been in a special

A blow was struck against the Owls on the opening kickoff last Friday night when Rick Hutsell was in on the tackle and had to be carried from the field in a semi-conscious state. Brett Gill did a good job of filling in for Hutsell at center, but the senior letterman was not able to see action except on one field goal play in the rest of the game. This was the last real set-back the Owls had in the game. Mikel Griffin had quite a night for himself, scoring the first points of the game with 7:44 still on the first quarter clock by bringing the Mustang ball carrier down in the end zone for a two-point safety. With 54 seconds still to be played in the first period, Griffin blocked a Claude punt, picked it up and ran about 25 yards for the first touchdown of the game. Zane Mayfield's PAT kick failed, and the Owls led 8-0 going into the second quarter.

With 11:36 still to go in the first half and a first-and-10, Scott Hutsell went 57 yards around right end for another touchdown. Zane Mayfield's run for PAT failed. Minutes later, with 9:19 still showing, Ken Wood got into the first-and-ten action by going 52 yards for another touchdown. Brett Gill added the PAT point. The first half scoring ended with just seven seconds on the clock when Zane Mayfield kicked a 24-yard field goal, giving the Owls a 24-0 lead to take to the dressing room at the midway stop.

Ken Wood finished the scoring with 27 seconds left in the third period, going 11 yards for the final counter, to give the Owls their 30-zip victory. Mikel Griffin received three passes for 50 yards in the game, the last one carrying to near the Mustang goal line as time ran out in the game. The senior letterman also recovered a fumble during the game. Zane Mayfield, Ken Wood and Scott Hutsell rushed for near 80 yards each in the game, Scott Hutsell also recovered a fumble. Carl Gallington rushed for 58 yards and Dean Ziegler picked up 35 yards net. It is interesting to note that the Owls scored in almost every way possible Friday night: on a safety and a blocked punt on defense; on a touchdown run, kicked field goal and kicked PAT. Claude picked up only one first down in the first half, but came back and made seven more in the second half. The Owls got eight first downs in the first half and six more in the second half of play. The Mustangs threatened to score only once in the game, and were completely stymied by the Owl defense. The Owl scoring so far this season has been divided among six players. Mikel Griffin leads the other scorers with 20 points to his credit. Dean Ziegler and Ken Wood each have scored 18 points, Zane Mayfield has 15 to his credit, and Scott Hutsell and Brett Gill have each scored six points.

The Owls travel to Clarendon Friday night to meet the Bronchos at 7:30 p.m. for another District 2-A clash. The Bronchos own a 1-1 district record after having to forfeit a game they had won to the Shamrock Irish and defeating McLean. The Owls own a 2-0 district record for the first time in four years. The Owls will be trying hard to maintain their record of wins in District 2-A. They need your attendance and support at the game, which will be Clarendon's homecoming. The Owls will be doing their best to win for their fallen teammate, Rick Hutsell. You will see a good game if you follow the Owls to Clarendon!

Commodity, Storage Facility Loan Interest Rates Increased

The U. S. Department of Agriculture today announced an increase in the interest rate on price support commodity loans and on storage facility and drying equipment loans made by the Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC). The increases, from 7.25 to 9.375 percent per annum on commodity loans and from 8.75 to 9.375 percent per annum on storage facility and drying equipment loans will more nearly reflect the cost of borrowing money to CCC. In making the announcement the department said that the new interest rates will be acceptable to all such loans for which applications are received by CCC on or after October 1, 1974. Also announced is a change in the policy regarding interest on storage facility and drying equipment loans made by CCC. The interest rate on loans for which applications are received on and after October 1 will be subject to changes, twice a year, during the time the loan is outstanding. Loans for which applications were received prior to October 1 will continue to bear interest at the rate stated in this loan agreement until maturity. In addition, loans on storage facilities and drying equipment, for which applications are received after October 1, will initially bear interest at the rate in effect on the date the loan is disbursed instead of the rate in effect at the time of application.

Owl JV Plays To Tie With Claude JV

The Junior Varsity Owls missed a touchdown early in the first quarter of their game with the Claude Mustang JV Thursday night, and finished in a 0-0 tie. The Mustangs made ten first downs, as compared with six for the Owls in the defensive struggle.

Brad Ziegler led the Owl rushing and defense, getting a pass interception, five unassisted and five assisted tackles. Jim Wilson also got five unassisted and five assisted tackles. Gary Turner got three unassisted and seven assisted tackles. Tommy Lacy, playing while running a 102 temperature, got three unassisted and six assisted tackles. Brent Brannon got three unassisted tackles. Gary Younger intercepted a pass, recovered a fumble, got two unassisted and one assisted tackle. Jace Francis got two unassisted and two assisted tackles. Jeff Jones got one unassisted and five assisted tackles.

CLARENDON BRONCHOS FORFEIT TWO GAMES

The School Superintendents of District 2-A met in executive session at Clarendon last Thursday morning, and it was found that an ineligible player participated in three Clarendon Broncho varsity football games this season. Because of this, Clarendon had to forfeit the two games they had won—to White Deer and Shamrock—and this gave the Bronchos a season record of 0-4.

Interscholastic League rules provide that a player must register during the first two weeks of school or be ineligible for thirty days. The player in question is not a transfer student but did not register until September 4. He had played in three games, one of which Clarendon lost. Coach Clyde Noonkester discovered the infraction of rules and reported it to the District 2-A executive committee for disciplinary action.

The player in question became eligible to participate on the day after the Shamrock game.

Mrs. Oda Maples is receiving treatment at Central Plains Hospital after suffering a stroke on Wednesday night of last week at the home of a son, James Maples, in Plainview. She is also the mother of O. C. Maples of Silverton.

Railroad Tunnel To Be Reopened

John Spitz, Fort Worth & Denver trainmaster in Wichita Falls, said Burlington Northern will rework a fallen tunnel near Quitaque, and rebuild tracks which have not been used since the cave-in.
 "I assume the work will begin immediately," Spitz said. He estimated it would take until next June or July to complete the renovation.
 Until then, Spitz said, the railroad will continue to use the QA&P tracks which were leased shortly after the cave-in.
 Spitz said the western line "means a great deal to us as far as business in that area is concerned." He said the railroad generated a lot of business in the area and additionally takes a lot of business into the area.

 Presently one train a day runs each way over the QA&P track. Tracks from Quitaque to Estelline are used once a week. Tracks from Quitaque to Plainview have not been used since the accident.
 Fort Worth & Denver Railway President George Defiel said Tuesday plans have been abandoned for the purchase of the 104-mile Quanah, Acme & Pacific Railway. Defiel said further study of the proposed purchase had proved it not feasible and negotiations have been terminated.
 Tentative agreement to purchase the section between Acme, Texas and Floydada, Texas had been announced by the board of Burlington Northern, parent company of Fort Worth & Denver and QA&P on December 4, 1973. The QA&P is a wholly-owned subsidiary of St. Louis-San Francisco Railway Company.
 Burlington Northern had sought the railroad for replacement of company tracks between Quanah and Floydada, rendered unusable by a tunnel cave-in in August of 1973.
 At the time of the 1973 accident, railroad officials estimated the cost of cleaning up the debris and scraping off the top of the more than 100-foot tunnel would run from $1 to $2 million.

Hightower Comments On Pardon

Senator Jack Hightower, Democratic nominee for Congress, said today that President Ford's full pardon for former President Nixon "has wiped the slate clean before we had a chance to find out what was going to be written on the slate."

Hightower said he personally feels compassion for Mr. Nixon and has no interest in looking for ways to punish him.
 "But for nearly 200 years this has been a nation of laws and not men," Hightower added. "Americans have a right to expect fair and equal treatment under the law for all citizens. I think the President's action poses real problems for Watergate defendants who have been convicted or who still face trial."

"When President Ford took office he said the long national nightmare of Watergate was over, and we all breathed a sigh of relief and rallied behind the new President. Now the nightmare has been revived, and I am afraid national unity will be severely affected."

"Perhaps President Ford had a reason for acting so prematurely to pardon a man who has not even been charged with a criminal offense, but it seems to me this action raises new questions and may prevent the people from ever knowing the full story of what happened in the Watergate affair."
 "It seems to me the administration should be devoting its full attention at this time to the nation's economic ills rather than looking backward at Watergate."

"The President has said, and rightfully so, that inflation is public enemy Number 1, but apparently there are some members of the administration who are more interested in dragging out the Watergate tragedy rather than attacking the problems of high interest rates, soaring food costs, and tight money," Hightower concluded.

Mrs. Jewell Sowell of Brownwood and Mrs. Winnie Hinson of Farmers Branch visited their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hyatt, Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

1974 ANNUAL REPORT

Murry Wayne Morrison was elected to the Board of Directors last October. Murry Wayne represents the Quitaque area. District Directors reviewed and approved the local 1974 Great Plains Conservation Program. Pascal Garrison, Don Burson and C. L. Sutton helped formulate the 1974 Rural Environmental Conservation Program for Briscoe County.

The Cap Rock District helped the proposed feedlot near Silvertown by providing topographical and water storage information for use in planning a pollution control program required for obtaining state permits.

The Directors maintained membership in the National Association of Conservation Districts, the Texas Association of Soil & Water Conservation Districts, and the Panhandle Association of Conservation Districts. These organizations worked to keep local S. C. S. and A. S. C. S. offices in Briscoe County. Local Directors sponsored a resolution opposing land use legislation that was unanimously approved by the Panhandle Association of S. W. C. D.

The Valley High F. F. A. Chapter planted trees given by the Cap Rock S. W. C. D. for a windbreak and nature study area for the new Valley School plant. The District also raised the prize money for the Briscoe County Livestock Show.

The Soil Conservation Service office at Silvertown provides technical assistance on conservation problems and programs in Briscoe County. Last year S. C. S. provided 1317 services on 462 farms or ranches and 59 services for 23 units of government or their agencies. Eighty-nine conservation plans were prepared or revised.

KENT CREEK WATERSHED PROJECT

The Cap Rock S. W. C. D. was represented by Murry Wayne Morrison on the annual operations and maintenance inspection made on July 23, 1974. The six completed floodwater retarding structures are generally in a good state of repair. A plan for repairs needed on the 8 1/2 miles of channel improvement is being prepared. Construction could begin in 1975. The Cap Rock S. W. C. D. wishes to thank County Commissioner Orville Cobb for his help on repairs needed on the project.

NORTH ROLLING PLAINS

CONSERVATION AND DEVELOPMENT PROJECT

R. C. & D. projects are one of the newer programs of U. S. D. A. under which seven Eastern Panhandle counties have joined together to solve problems and develop resources. The Cap Rock S. W. C. D. became a co-sponsor of this project at the request of the City of Quitaque. The executive committee of the project are now preparing a project work plan. O. R. Stark, Jr. is the representative from Briscoe County. It is possible that the project can be approved and funded by Congress this year.

Wind erosion was unusually severe last winter, especially on cotton fields in the sandy portion of the county. A number of farmers overseeded their cotton with rye as is shown here on O. E. Chandler's place. Rye covercrops with normal growth can practically stop wind erosion and furnish some grazing.

HELP PRESERVE OUR HERITAGE FROM THE PAST

Archaeologists made or began studies of four sites in Briscoe County this year. These areas included sites in the reservoir area of Lake Mackenzie, the Tule Creek area, the Lake Theo area, and in Los Lingos canyon.

Briscoe County is obviously very rich in archaeological sites. Help preserve these areas by contacting local authorities when artifacts and other evidence of a possible site are discovered. These discoveries can be called to the attention of the State Archaeologist and other qualified persons who can evaluate the find.

Minimum Tillage is a relatively new conservation practice that reduces erosion, conserves water and lowers expenses. This field of irrigated cotton has been overseeded with rye. A warm season crop will be planted in the residue from the rye.

This waterway on the Pascal Garrison place was seeded to a native grass mixture last spring. Summer drought kept the grass seedlings from making normal growth even though weeds were controlled. This waterway will be used as an outlet for parallel terraces that will be installed after the grass has enough growth to keep the waterway from eroding. Cost-share assistance on parallel terraces is available through R. E. C. P. and G. P. C. P. Cost-share on waterways is available through G. P. C. P. Many local farmers have fields that are being damaged by erosion. A system of parallel terraces with the necessary waterways would solve their problem.

The rising costs of labor and equipment have caused many farmers to use six and eight row equipment. This multi-row equipment is apparently difficult to use in fields with level standard terraces as many farmers planted across or destroyed their terraces. Most of this land will not be adequately protected from erosion. Gullies and washes will form and become serious erosion problems.

Parallel Terraces can be designed to be farmed with all types of equipment. Not all point rows can be eliminated, but farming will be much easier and quicker than with standard terraces.

Tall water recovery systems like this system on the J. D. Nance place help farmers get the most use out of their dwindling supply of irrigation water. Many farmers have found that they get more water out of a recovery system than they can get from a new well.

Cost-share on both the storage pit and pipe line are available through the Great Plains Conservation Program. More information can be obtained at the Soil Conservation Service in Silvertown.

Beans, Potatoes, Corn More American Than Apple Pie

by Curtis Tunnell

State Archeologist

A great number of folks are going back to the soil. Gardens are appearing in back yards, front yards, flower beds and vacant lots. People have decided to fight inflation by growing their own.

If you are one of these new small farmers, you may occasionally till up a bone, burned rock, potsherd, or flint tool which will temporarily remind you that this land was utilized by other hungry families long before Columbus came to this New World.

You should take a few minutes to contemplate the living heritage left by our American Indian ancestors and reflected so beautifully in your garden.

Those rows of sweet corn growing along the fence are directly descended from one of the many varieties of domesticated corn developed by Indian agriculturists several thousand years ago. Other varieties include dent corn, flint corn and popcorn. Corn is a basic crop in North America today and fattens much of our beef and pork.

Kidney beans, lima beans, navy beans, wax beans and other varieties were all developed by the Indians during centuries of careful cultivation. Beans have long been a mainstay of the masses but are now almost competing with beef-steak at $1 per pound.

Irish potatoes are misnamed, for they too were developed by the Indians. Generations of Irishmen starved without the benefit of these delightful tubers before they were introduced to the Emerald Isle during the 17th century. Sweet potatoes and yams are also products of the New World natives.

Are tomatoes one of your prize products? This member of the nightshade family (which includes the deadly nightshade) was discovered through trial and error by the Indians who eventually convinced their European neighbors that these red fruits were not only nontoxic but nutritious and delicious as well. Potatoes, incidentally, are also nightshades.

One other distinctly Indian product deserves specific mention—tobacco, in all its forms. Perhaps no other product is so universally used by all peoples of the world. Many Indian tribes were decimated by hard liquor and smallpox brought by the Europeans, but the Indians got a certain amount of revenge by giving the newcomers tobacco and a virulent type of syphilis.

We are all aware of our heritage as represented by monuments of stone, bronze, and wood, but next time you work in your garden, spend a few minutes appreciating the living heritage left by the American Indians.

He began his professional career as a junior assistant in training under County Extension Agent Ollie Liner in Hale County and became assistant county agent in Lubbock County in 1965 under County Extension Agent Lee McElroy.

He was named Briscoe county agent in 1967, where he served until he moved to Swisher County in August, 1970.

Cook and his family are active members of the Baptist Church in Tullia. He is a member of the Lions Club and Chamber of Commerce, serving as chairman of the agricultural committee. He is a member of the Texas County Agricultural Agents Association and is alternate director of the District 2 County Agricultural Agents Association.

Cook has been superintendent of the horse show of Panhandle South Plains Fair in Lubbock since its inception in 1966.

now Reverse... your new Valley Water Drive

It takes 30 minutes, and it's easy

Now, have all the advantages of the low cost Valley water drive plus reversing. It's a simple mechanical operation. You walk the length of the system, stopping at each tower to make a quick adjustment in the operating arms by pulling the pin and repositioning. It takes no more than 30 minutes. Because it's a simple mechanical adjustment, it is immune from expensive replacement or repair.

Farmers who hate big bills buy Valley

Simplicity plus economy equals low cost now and later. Add up these facts: a Valley water drive means a system you can understand and fix yourself. It also means dirt cheap parts. Basic steel arms and drive, ceramic-lined hydraulic cylinders and valves rarely wear out. Replacement of small parts costs pennies. Galvanized protection is unequalled. That's why farmers report total maintenance of less than $150 per season! Simplicity and volume selling mean substantial savings on initial costs, too. Be sure you get a quote on a Valley before you buy.

Did you know about these Valley features?

- Extreme rough ground capability
- New low initial cost
- No greasing
- Away from the wheels, high exhaust
- High speed operation
- 6-8-10 year leasing

NATURAL ENERGY

Gas Heating

Fresh, warm air gently circulating from floor to ceiling...so nice to take for granted. Comfort is clean gas heat.

And that dependable comfort is such a bargain here in West Texas. Though gas energy costs a little more than it use to, gas furnaces still cost less than one-third as much to operate as similar electric furnaces.

And at the same time you're saving money with gas heating, you can also have a warm feeling knowing that you're helping conserve energy. Gas heating uses only half as much energy as an electric system doing the same job.

Comfort, efficiency, and economy... you get it all with natural energy gas heating.

The Red Owls threatened on a 30-yard quarterback keeper by Kelly McMurtry, which would have gone for points if David Vaughn had not overtaken and hauled him down from behind.

Her veil of white silk illusion extended to a wide cathedral-length from a calot of the Alencon lace enhanced by a gently gathered tier falling to below her shoulders.

To carry out bridal tradition, she added something old, her grandmother's pearl drop necklace; a garter for something new; a lace handkerchief for something borrowed...

The bride's attendants wore identical gowns of whisper pink crepe. Their empire bodices were enhanced by an over-jacket of ivory cluny lace...

Best man was Kenneth Burger of Pampa, the bridegroom's cousin. Groomsmen were Harvey Case of Turkey, Christopher Hicks of Dallas, Mike Montague of Silvertown, the bridegroom's brother, and Greg Towe of McKinney.

The bride's mother wore a long creme-colored jersey dress with an empire waist. It had a cardigan style jacket trimmed with matching maribo feathers.

Dear Charlotte,

Forgive me for being late with my letter—the flu bug found me on Monday, and my correspondence suffered.

Like most families, mine believes that Mama should be in an upright position at all times. It is simply unbelievable that Mother should assume a reclining position for any amount of time beyond five minutes. I must be horizontal to the floor. My usual attentive, kind, understanding husband turns into a demanding, unsympathetic, irritable little boy when my temperature goes beyond 98.6. He can't find his socks that have been in the same drawer for 20 years; he is starving to death for a real meal after one night of hot dogs with the children; he is sure that chills and fever are the result of a broken thermostat.

Bill, Jr., finds an English theme that no one can help him with except Mother; at nine p.m. he discovers an orange shirt that must be laundered before morning; he politely keeps saying, "I know you are sick Mama, but .....

Only my 6 year old came through—She immediately took charge of night meals—peanut butter—sometimes with mustard, sometime with jelly. She insisted that her father help, even to feeding Missy Dog, which I might add was a first. She entered my room, God bless her, every five minutes with gifts of roses, Freeze-Pops, bubble gum, glasses of Cool Aid, and wistful smiles. Though her help—Mama is upright, and "all's right with the world."

OPENING DRUG REHABILITATION— Although the name has not appeared on the large sign, The Third Nail has opened its doors to minor drug offenders in Lubbock who want counseling or therapy. It was decided that an office building in downtown Lubbock smacks of establishment. A residential house near the Texas Tech University campus aglow with psychedelic designs, may provide the setting for the first step in drug abuse rehabilitation.

address. More has been changed than the name. According to Miss Jan Johnson, director of the Lubbock Minor Drug Abuse Program at the Human Development Center, "We are now able to help those we haven't been able to help before. We have had this gap because persons with non-opiate drug problems have not known where to go for help."

Non-opiate drugs include, for example, marijuana, amphetamines. The structure has served as a common meeting place for young people caught in the entanglement of "minor drugs". As the Human Development Center takes over the operation of the house, professional therapists will be available on a free basis to help sort out more than just a bad trip on LSD. It could be termed straightening out a bad trip in family life.

"We appear as shrinks here (at the Human Development Center)," said Jan Johnson, director of the new program, "But over there (at The Third Nail) we are people."

The Third Nail will differ from the Drug Crisis Center through more extensive training of volunteers, financial stability and professional supervision, Miss Johnson said. The name, The Third Nail, was selected by workers at the center and is the name of the

PROUD POSSESSION

The craftsmanship and artistry that has gone into the production of many bibles does humbly honor God's word. This work is a reflection of men's appreciation and love for God. Many commit God's word to memory and their heart.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Coleman Adv. Serv.,

"I wait for the Lord, my soul doth wait and in his word do I hope."

Attend Church and study God's word.
