The Joint Teachers Institute

County Supt. O. L. Howell says the people of Snyder have the opportunity to secure the holding of the Joint Teachers Institute here in December. The Institute will bring together the teachers of three counties besides visitors from other parts of the state including prominent educators and speakers of statewide note. Mr. Howell says there will be no expense attached to the entertainment, except such as we may want to incur in furnishing diversion. Teachers pay their own board and take care of themselves. Mr. Howell suggests that we take the matter up right away and we feel sure we can get it.

The Red Cross Field Accountant has recently visited Scurry County Chapter and praised the work it had accomplished and was glad to find the books in such perfect condition. The Red Cross has assisted various families adjust payments of insurance and has had opportunity to help boys, passing through. While disaster has never come to us, still if we refuse our membership in the third Roll Call drive it will deprive some of the many in Europe of something. The Red Cross is trying to supply. O. L. Howell,

Mr. Milton West of Dermott called in Friday and had his Signal date shoved up a notch. He stated that his aged mother is visiting him now. She is 83 years old and straight and active in body and mind. She went out to the cotton field the other day and picked a round of cotton right along with him.

Methodist Church Special.

The Missionary and Centenary Committee has set next Sunday, Oct. 12, as the day for the bringing in of all the collection boxes, in which you were asked to place your Missionary offerings.

Be sure to put as much money in the box as you subscribed on Conference collections and the Centenary both, write your name on the box and bring it to Church Sunday and O. P. Thrane will be in the vestibule to receive it.

You will save the Committee a great deal of work and yourself some worry if you put as much in the box as you have subscribed.

If you did not receive a box, bring all that you can pay to this collection and pay it to Mr. Thrane. We ought to pay up in full at once, and we will if you will do your part.

Committee.

Mr. D. N. Price has contributed ten ears of good white corn and a lot of big maize heads to the Signal's farm exhibit collection. Many people express hope that our business men may yet get unraveled long enough to get up a show day.

Authorities in a number of towns are taking measures to head off another epidemic of influenza. It seems that many people have made up their minds they are going to have it and usually the American people get what they go after.

The Dallas Fair opened last Monday with a big rush. Gov. Hobby delivered the opening address and then the people went around to see the sights.

R. M. Stokes spent most of the week at Cisco.

MUST TURN OUR CLOCKS BACK

It is now announced that we are to set our clocks back one hour on October 26. By this order we get back to the old standard and where your watch now says six o'clock it must then say five. Congress repealed the so called day light saving law and it is supposed that this will be the last time we will change the clocks. Those who have been going to work at 8 o'clock will now be supposed to spud in at 7 a. m. The changes probably have been of value to some people, but with most of us here it has been considered of no consequence one way or the other.

SENATOR REED WENT TO ARDMORE AND WENT AWAY AGAIN

Hoodlumism and mob activities are always to be deplored and especially so when mob by unlawful acts seek to prevent free speech and meetings to discuss public questions. Yet there are circumstances when a public speaker should exercise decent respect for popular local sentiment. Senator Reed of Missouri has long been one of the active opponents of President Wilson and his peace policies and announced a speaking tour in Oklahoma in opposition to the peace treaty. The people at Ardmore are loyal Americans and they adopted resolutions notifying Reed to not come to Ardmore to speak. He elected to ignore their wish and went there in the face of opposition. He was driven from the platform by an egg shower and was not permitted to speak. He thinks he was badly treated because he was not allowed to bore the people with doctrine they abhor.

News from Ardmore later says the local officers are doing nothing to punish the offenders and the governor and the attorney general have been asked to take action but the governor is credited with saying that Reed got what was coming to him.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Ezell of El Paso are here to be with Mrs. Nelson who has been quite sick, but is improving.

E. A. Birdwell made a business trip to Abilene Wednesday.

Senator Gore of Oklahoma voted for the republican amendments to the peace treaty. Now he sees how unpopular is the side he lined up with and is trying to explain out of it.

Martin-Solomon.

On October 6, 1919 at 5 o'clock p. m. a few select friends gathered to witness the celebration of the marriage of Mr. Tandy K. Martin and Miss Myrtle Solomon which was performed at the home of the bride's mother by Rev. L. S. Knight.

Mr. Martin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Martin of Dermott, a young man of sterling qualities and business habits.

Miss Myrtle is the eldest daughter of Mrs. Solomon of Dermott community. These two young people have plighted their lives each to the other to start out to build a Christian home and they, being capable we expect them to be a blessing to society and the church of which they are both members. May the sunshine of true happiness and prosperity ever radiate their home is the sincere desire of their host of friends.

AMONG THE MERCHANTS.

Take a look at the show windows at the stores and see what the merchants are featuring.

J. F. Merrell who was for awhile with the Templeton Store is now buying cotton. S. A. Taylor and W. A. Morton are dishing out things to eat at Templetons.

Misses Jennie Howell and Willie Mae Jenkins are with the Dry Goods department at the J. H. Sears & Co. store.

Jim Doak and Guy Casey have established a real estate office at the Palm Cafe.

Blackard Hardware Co. are still getting in float loads of new furniture.

Dr. Blythe of Chicago, a celebrated foot specialist spent two days last week at the Sears Store, showing people what kinds of shoes to buy for comfort. He gives out much valuable information about feet and foot wear.

Higinbotham Bros. & Co. are always adding something new to help them to move efficiently care for the needs of their customers. This week they have added a new vegetable and fruit case in their grocery department.

Coy Watkins left Thursday for Wortham to see his brother who is reported very low with typhoid fever.

It is understood that the roads and bridges in the southwest part of the county have been so badly torn up by heavy rains that it will take quite awhile to get them all repaired.

T. C. Stinson says its alright to have to pay high prices, though he thinks some prices are higher than they should be. He says when cows were worth $25 dollars it took a bale of cotton to buy two, with the price of a cow now $75 a bale of cotton will still pay for two cows.

The Signal is assured by men in position to know, that the drilling machinery, derrick, tools and everything about it, of the Snyder Oil Association is of first class quality and Guy Paxton says there is not a better outfit at Ranger. All the tools, cable and other equipment are new and of the best to be had. The fuel is ready to haul out, water facilities ready and Secretary Paxton says work would have started today if the rain had not come.

Will Teach at Sagerton.

Milton Merrill, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Merrill has gone to Sagerton where he will be principal of the school. Milton has been a student at the Canyon Normal and carries a certificate obtained there.

Miss Effie Riley is at home from Fort Worth.

E. E. Matthews has returned from Dallas. He assured his wife that he didn't go to the Fair.

FIRST MONTH OF OUR SCHOOLS

The first month of Snyder public schools closed Oct. 3.

The enrollment in High school department was unusually large for the first month. In other departments a little larger than that of last year.

Only 8 cases of tardiness and a percentage of attendance of 96 1-10 per cent. That does comparatively well but we are not satisfied with it. We desire a still better record.

We have been hampered somewhat in not being able to find some one to do repair work on school buildings. We have kept running however by employing school boys to help some.

Lack of school books has been a considerable drawback, and we are not yet fully supplied.

We invite the hearty co-operation and sympathy of our patrons in our work, and wish to thank you for past courtesies.

Respectfully,

S. L. RIVES.

How to Get Cotton Pickers and Renters.

Secretary J. M. Denson of the Commercial Club has a list of people who want to come here to pick cotton and rent farms. These people live away from here and want to know before they start that they can get work without any expense or delay. Farmers wanting hands can see Mr. Denson and arrange with him for all the help they need and the line of communication and contract can be linked up at once.

THE ALTRURIAN CLUB RETURNS TO HALCYON DAYS

Now that the war is over, the drouth is ended and the bountiful harvest has come, totally unexpected and spontaneous festivities are breaking out among Snyder's "Four Hundred," during these early autumn days.

On Wednesday of last week, at the pajatal home of Mrs. George Harris the ladies of the Altrurian Club opened the Club year with a reception to the ladies of Snyder.

The guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Harris and the Club president, Mrs. Hamilton.

Here they were ushered into the reception hall, which was most artistically decorated with the Club colors and cut flowers.

From the hall, Mesdames Towle and Curnutte, received them into the music room, which resounded continuously throughout the afternoon with beautiful strains of music furnished by Mesdames Barnes, Banks and Morrow.

After feasting their souls here for a time the guests were passed into an adjacent room where they were served delectable punch by Mesdames Anderson and Boren.

From thence they were received by Mesdames Bell and Johnson into an elegant boudoir beautifully decorated with the loveliest American Beauty Roses, sent for the occasion by Mrs. C. L. Ezell of El Paso, a former member of the Altrurian Club.

Following an interval here, they were ushered into the back hall where Mesdames Wilsford, Rosser and Stinson greeted and passed them into the dining room, which was indeed the focus of brilliancy.

A dazzling array of cut glass hand embroidery and Lafrance roses, together with brick cream in the club colors and delicious cake, served by Mesdames Buchanan and Graham, constituted a most enjoyable feature of the afternoon.

From the dining room Mesdames Taylor, Barnes and Whitmore received the guests into the billiard room which was skillfully ornamented with Sun flowers and golden rod.

As the guests were departing Miss Burkett honored them with her most fascinating Italian songs and thus closed the afternoon which was declared by all to be the most pleasant of the season.

Long Staple Cotton.

Mr. T. V. Cumbie of Kent County came in Monday with two well fruited stalks of long staple cotton. He has 100 acres of it on his place. Thirty acres of it, he thinks will make a bale to the acre, but taking his field over he is counting a half bale to the acre.

Mr. Cumbie promises to bring in some fine specimens of his crop for the proposed poultry and agricultural show when the time comes.

Andy Trevey was here Thursday from Knapp and says he understands the two leases that have been holding up the Knapp nine mile field have been signed up and he looks for a drilling contract there pretty soon.

Mr. N. B. Moore has returned from Merkel where he attended a family re-union. He was accompanied home by his sister, Mrs. S. C. Harness and her daughter, Mrs. C. N. Ezants of Carthage, Missouri, who will visit here for awhile.

BAPTISTS PLAN RECONSTRUCTION PROGRAM

BODY CHARGED WITH DUTY OF OUTLINING HOW 75 MILLION CAMPAIGN CAN PROMOTE THAT TASK REACHES FIELD—DR. LOVE OUTLINES THE NEED AND ISSUES CALL

SECRETARY
MISSION

DR. Z. T. CODY
EDITOR
BAPTIST
COURIER

MISSIONARY AT ROME

To make a general survey of the economic, social and religious conditions in Europe with a view to recommending to the Baptists of the South where and how they can aid most effectively in the reconstruction of that continent through the Baptist 75 Million Campaign, a commission, composed of Dr. J. F. Love, secretary of the Foreign Mission Board at Richmond, Va.; Dr. Z. T. Cody, editor Baptist Courier, Greenville, S. C., and Rev. Everett Gill, missionary at Rome, Italy, who is returning after a leave of absence in this country, and who will serve as guide and interpreter to the other members, is now in England for a conference with the Baptists of Great Britain and will go from there for an inspection of France and Belgium.

Another brief conference will be held with the Baptists of Switzerland, after which a trip will be made through Italy and a survey of the new republic of Czecho-Slovakia conducted. From Prague, capital of Bohemia, the commission will go into such parts of Russia as are open, and the foreign trip will be concluded with an inspection of Palestine, where the missionary work formerly done in Syria, Persia and Galilee by the Illinois Baptist Association has been turned over to the Foreign Mission Board.

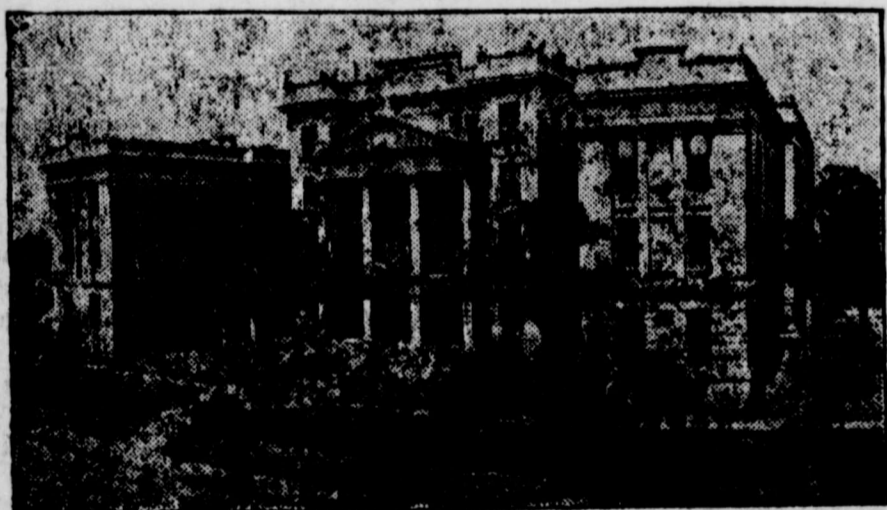

There are approximately 4,250 Baptist churches in Europe today, with 2,000 pastors and missionaries and 566,800 church members. It is announced by the headquarters of the Baptist 75 Million Campaign, and a considerable sum from this campaign will go toward succoring needy families of Baptists and others in the war-torn regions as was as in the propagation of the gospel and the establishment of Christian institutions there, it is announced. Before sailing on the Adriatic on his

European mission, Dr. Love made the following statement outlining the purpose of the commission:

"When the call came to help save, promote and secure democracy in Europe there came a louder call to help save, promote and secure evangelical Christianity in Europe. That which alone will now preserve and perfect the democracy for which brave men have died on the battlefield of Europe is the Christianity of the New Testament. Southern Baptists can no longer profess New Testament Christianity and decline a challenge like that which is now presented to them to bear witness to their faith among the peoples of Europe. Our people never before faced such a challenge and such a responsibility.

Of course we can not go to the men and women of Europe who have been stripped of earthly fortune and reduced to direst necessity with a message of Christian love and brotherhood if we decline in our abundance to carry some substantial pledge of our love and compassion. Mothers will not be able to stay the crying of their little ones to hear us preach if we decline to practice the gospel of compassion and feed these little ones and build fires at which they can during the coming winter warm their frosted toes. Southern Baptists are under the most solemn obligation to help relieve the want and suffering of Europe. But if there were no reconstruction work in Europe, Southern Baptists have motives numerous enough and strong enough to compel them to make a complete success of the Baptist 75 Million Campaign. I would therefore, as my parting word to my brothers and sisters of the South, implore them to give themselves to this campaign and carry it to a triumphant conclusion during Victory Week, November 30-December 7."

$4,800,000 TO BE RAISED FOR HOSPITALS

A modern hospital illustrative of the type of buildings Southern Baptists are employing in the relief of human suffering.

In their work of relieving human physical suffering Southern Baptists at present own and control fourteen hospitals and there are under course of construction and about ready to be opened at least two more, with considerable progress made toward the erection of others. All of these institutions are liberally patronized and are self-supporting but all of them need to be enlarged in order to meet the rapidly growing demands upon them. The demand for charity work is especially urgent and in order to enable them to thus render a needed service to those who are least able to help themselves as well as to provide larger facilities for the regular work the hospitals are doing the sum of $4,800,000 has been apportioned to them from the proceeds to be raised in the Baptist 75 Million Campaign.

This work of relieving the physical infirmities of men, women and children and thus putting them on the road to better health and larger efficiency and usefulness was begun within the bounds of the Southern Baptist convention in 1890 when the Missouri Baptist Sanitarium was opened in St. Louis. From a very small beginning in a residence with less than a dozen beds, this institution has grown into a modern institution with more than 800 beds.

Other Baptist hospitals in the South include Baptist Hospital, Muskogee, Okla.; Baptist Hospital, Miami, Okla.; Baptist Hospital, Cushing, Okla.; Baptist Memorial Hospital, Memphis, Tenn.; Georgia Baptist Hospital, Atlanta; Oklahoma Baptist State Hospital, Oklahoma City; Baptist Hospital, Columbia, S. C.; Texas Baptist Memorial Sanitarium, Dallas; Baptist Hospital, Houston, Tex.; Baptist Hospital, Alexandria, La.; Baptist Hospital, Jackson, Miss.; St. Louis Baptist Hospital, St. Louis, Mo., and the Kansas City Baptist Hospital at Kansas City, Mo.

NEGROES IN WAR PAINT.

According to confessions of negroes arrested in Arkansas in connection with the recent negro insurrection at Elaine, last Sunday was the day set for a general massacre of white people. This report from Helena of the findings of the investigating committee shows the gravity of the situation and calls to the people where the negro population is considerable, to keep ready for any possible emergency.

Planned Insurrection.

Helena, Ark., Oct. 6.—A statement was issued today on the recent riot by B. M. Allen, of the committee of seven, authorized by local officers and Gov. Brough to investigate the trouble charging that the affair was and organized negro uprising, fostered by a negro who preyed "on the ignorance and superstition of a race of children for monetary gains."

"Mr. Allen who was one of the leading men listed for death after hearing confessions, examining circulars, and other evidence procured by state and military officers in connection with the work of the committee issued a statement to explain what the committee had found to be the situation leading to the killing of five white men and upwards of a score of negroes.

"Summarized the statement said the trouble was not a race riot but a deliberately planned insurrection against the whites directed by an organization known as the 'Progressive Farmers and Household Union of America,' established for the purpose of killing whites. The Union was started by Robert L. Hill, a 26-year-old negro of Winchester, Ark., to make easy money. Hill told the negroes he was a government agent and that because congress was composed of white men who sympathized with the Southern whites the government opposed the Union and he would command the negroes against the whites. He told the negroes to arm themselves in preparation for the time when they would be called upon to attack their white oppressors.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Most Reliable.

After many years' experience in the use of it and other cough medicines, there are many who prefer Chamberlain's over any other Mrs. A. C. Krissin, Greenville, Ill., writes "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in my mother's home and mine for years, and we always found it to be a quick cure for colds and bronchial troubles. We find it to be the most reliable cough medicine we have used."

Making the Children's Clothes is easy NOW—

"A year ago I wouldn't have said that and I wouldn't have believed it had anyone else said it to me. That was in the days when I used a foot-power sewing machine, and sewing was back-breaking, hard work.

"Nowadays when the children need new dresses or there's some mending to be done, I do it electrically.

"I take my Western Electric Portable Sewing Machine off the shelf in the linen closet, put it on the table, connect it to the electric light socket and the little motor does the work."

And that is all there is to it. Just as this woman can now do all of her sewing electrically and without effort, so can you.

The portable feature, the compactness, the speed control, the ease of operation will appeal to you.

Drop in at our show-rooms and let us demonstrate these points.

A clash between 5000 steel strikers and a lot of negro strike breakers at Gary and Indiana Harbor has caused Gov. Goodrich to rush state troops to the scene.

J. H. Thomas, chief labor leader in England says a word from him would start a revolution, but he is a constitutionalist and loves his country and doesn't want a revolution, if it can be avoided.

Senator Reed of Missouri commenting on the egging given him at Ardmore said it would make no friends for the peace treaty and he hoped people would learn how to run their own affairs before trying to run the business of other people. It looks like the Ardmore folks had the matter down alright. They had told Reed to not come there to make a speech, but he bowed his neck and went there over their protest to run their business for them and they merely demonstrated that they knew their business and how to run it without his help. Heed is from Missouri and the Ardmore folks had to show him.

Partisanship and Patriotism.

Self interest and partisan prejudice is at the bottom of the fight against the peace treaty and the League covenant. The Lodge crowd dare not say they are opposed to peace or to the League of Nations. The germ of their opposition is to hamper President Wilson and his administration in order to find some sort of a presidential campaign issue. They even impugn Mr. Wilson's motives yet they have never found an act or an utterance that was untrue to Christ's virtue and the welfare of this nation.

They have tried a number of propositions that have failed to develop an issue and are no nearer to a real attractive issue than when the fight started. They would have had a better showing to win had they gone along side of the President and ratified the treaty without so much ado. Men like Mr. Taft and Mr. Wilson show themselves to be Americans first and then for party as a means to bring their conceptions of the greatest permanent good to the country.

Mexicans Seem Unconcerned About Intervention Talk.

A newspaper writer at the City of Mexico says there is some wonder being expressed because Mexican people are manifesting so little concern about the so-called prospect of American intervention. The Mexican newspapers say but little about it and the people generally seem unconcerned.

There may be two or three reasons for such apathy but the whole thing might be summed up about this way:

The average Mexican has a very crude notion of organized government. They care but little where their eats come from so long as they come regularly. They can see no charm in military activities except for loot.

The more thoughtful Mexicans have seen the futility of trying to get settled conditions under the leadership of any faction of their own people AROUND THE WORLD WITH THE AMERICAN RED CROSS. At Saloniki.

The veritable mountains of relief supplies turned out by the millions of chapter workers during the war made the American Red Cross one of the biggest "manufacturing concerns" in the world, with great warehouse space at scores of strategic points all around the globe.

One of the biggest distribution centers was at Saloniki, Greece, and in this picture Bulgarian prisoners of war are seen there unloading a Red Cross cargo of 2,300 boxes from a French transport. At the right is seen one of the American Red Cross caissons, fleets of which were used in rushing relief to points where the suffering was greatest.

AROUND THE WORLD WITH THE AMERICAN RED CROSS. On German Soil.

In the City Square of Treves, Germany, headquarters of the allied military forces, an ancient cross surmounted monument marks the city's center of traffic. For this reason American Red Cross officials converted it, as shown by this picture, into a directory of all Red Cross activities in the city.

AROUND THE WORLD WITH THE AMERICAN RED CROSS. In Roumania.

Soon after the entrance of the United States in the war the successes of the Central Powers in Roumania had reduced that country to a most tragic condition and in the summer of 1917, the American Red Cross despatched its first Roumanian relief contingent. Two hospitals were at once taken over and operated by the Red Cross, a canteen for the starving refugees established and food and clothing distributed over a large area.

Transportation was one of the toughest problems with which the Red Cross workers in Roumania had to deal. Here is seen an oxcart used by the Red Cross to carry its relief supplies up into the mountains.

AROUND THE WORLD WITH THE AMERICAN RED CROSS. Recreation in Hospitals.

The American Red Cross conducts its recreational work in hospitals through trained men and women, introducing a multitude of recreations suited to the handicaps of the men. The accompanying view of a hospital ward shows in operation a moving picture projecting machine, developed by a Red Cross recreational director, which throws the pictures on the wall so that the men do not have to stir from their cots.

AROUND THE WORLD WITH THE AMERICAN RED CROSS. In Italy.

Arriving at one of the most critical stages of the war, when the Teutons were forcing the Italian army back to the Piave, the American Red Cross rushed emergency relief from Paris and revived the drooping spirits of the whole country. In addition to furnishing rations and comforts and medical attention to the fighting men, the American Red Cross instituted 42 soup kitchens, 33 children's hospitals, 10 children's dispensaries, 14 artificial limb factories, five homes for refugee children, 10 rest stations for refugees.

This photograph shows a group of Italian refugee children being fed by the American Red Cross at one of the numerous relief stations.

AROUND THE WORLD WITH THE AMERICAN RED CROSS. In Siberia.

Possibly the most important Red Cross work in Siberia, and one which most demands the continuance of operations there, is the campaign against typhus. Over a stretch of 4,000 miles the American Red Cross has fought the scourge. Here is seen "The Great White Train," an anti-typhus institution which, with its crew of doctors and nurses and cargoes of drugs, food and cleansing apparatus, has saved the lives of thousands.

AROUND THE WORLD WITH THE AMERICAN RED CROSS. In Belgium.

Hunger, disease and exposure were not all that Belgian children were subjected to, for enemy shells constantly dropped into what little of their country the invader did not hold. In this picture Red Cross nurses are seen taking some of the fifty babies from the American Red Cross nursery at La Panne into a bomb-proof structure as the Germans opened fire from the sea.

Early in the participation of the United States in the world war, the American Red Cross perceived the value of mobilizing the school children of the country and the Junior Red Cross was organized. Before the war ended nine million children were enrolled and helped in the war fund and membership campaigns, in chapter production of relief supplies and manufacturing furniture for the refugees whose homes and household goods were destroyed.

Children everywhere in the United States responded to the call to service sounded by President Wilson as head of the American Red Cross. This photograph is that of an enthusiastic young Japanese member of the Junior Red Cross of Spokane, Wash., starting out on the ambitious undertaking of collecting "a mile of pennies" for war relief. A comprehensive peace program is now being worked out for the Junior Red Cross, which is being held intact.

AROUND THE WORLD WITH THE AMERICAN RED CROSS. In Serbia.

As far back as the first winter of the war, the Red Cross sent to Serbia a sanitary commission that effectively checked the scourge of typhus, but after the United States entered the conflict, the Red Cross was able, in August, 1917, to send a full commission that carried on extensive relief operations among the suffering refugees of the tortured nation. Hospitals were established, the refugees fed, clothed and given medical attention, the army supplied with much needed dental treatment, farm machinery, and seeds provided to help the Serbs redeem their land to productivity, and, not least, measures undertaken for the succor of the children. The terrible condition into which these helpless victims of the war had fallen is well portrayed by this photograph of a little Serbian girl wearing the rags and expression of hopeless dismay that were all she possessed when the Red Cross came.

Charlie, an outcast, is found sleeping near a fence in a vacant lot. The odor from the can of a passing hot dog vendor awakens him. He attempts to secure food but is interrupted by the police, and is ordered on his way.

Later we find him in search of work but his attempts are futile. Wandering along the street he is attracted by a dog fight, and saves a small mongrel from a terrible death. The dog becomes his everlasting friend and together they wander off.

When night overtakes them, the sound of music from a nearby dance-hall attracts Charlie's attention. He at once decides to enter, and thereupon comes face to face with a sweet innocent girl trying to succeed as a singer. She smiles upon the unfortunate Charlie, and a new life is awakened within him.

In the mean time, a drunk who has wandered into the same tough section of the city is robbed of his pocket book by two crooks. The police give chase, and to evade the law the crooks bury the pocket book in the vacant lot, intending to secure it later.

We then find the girl and Charlie fast making friends, when a waiter demands that Charlie spend or get out. Unable to buy, Charlie and his dog are ejected from the resort.

He returns to his abode in the vacant lot. The dog, eager for food, digs near his master's feet and unearths the pocketbook. Charlie is overjoyed to discover the money inside the wallet, and decides to return to the dance-hall and renew his acquaintance with the girl.

Upon his arrival he finds the girl on the point of being discharged for her inability as a singer. He at once plans to help her. Together they sit at a table near the two crooks. Charlie shows the girl the pocketbook, and the money. The crooks recognized their spoils, and by rough methods regain the money. Once more Charlie finds himself without funds and is thrown from the dance hall. The girl follows.

Charlie, believing the money rightfully his, again enters the dance-hall and by a clever ruse regains the pocket book while the girl and the dog wait outside until his return.

Out of the rough and heartless world of poverty they then take their way, and later we find them happily married, while the dog waxes fat on the hearthrug of plenty.

TRUE FRIENDSHIP RARE AS A SCARAB AND PRECIOUS AS A PEARL

"Jacques of the Silver North," a Story of Thrills, Love and Friendship.

Friendship, real, true friendship, the most wonderful thing in the world. Friendship is a rare thing—not a common occurrence as many people try to make it. "He is a friend of mine" is an ordinary expression, heard every ten minutes on the streets of a big metropolis. But he usually is not a friend—just a mere acquaintance. There's a heap of difference. Folks can easily understand how two men or two women can be friends but when it comes to the friendship between a man and a woman, they hesitate—wonder. Can such a thing really exist, they ask themselves. It can exist but it is very seldom. A man and a woman start out with the idea of becoming platonic friends. What the outcome depends entirely upon the man and woman concerned. If the sex attraction is too strong there can be no friendship.

Up in the Northland—God's own country—where in winter the wind howls and whistles across the wide open plains defying man to stop its course and the snow falls in a blinding sheet making progress almost impossible—where in Summer the limitless expanse of sky is a dazzling blue, reflecting its gorgeous hue in the placid lakes and bubbling streams—here is where true friendship has the opportunity to develop even between man and woman.

A friendship that was ideal existed between Jacques L Rouge, Canuck trapper, and Memory Baird, the untamed and lovable daughter of Don Baird, pioneer settler.

Jacques, great of soul with the gentleness of a baby and the ferocity of a wolf—such are the characteristics of this unforgettable breed of the North—would have given his life for Memory. His devotion to her was like that of a dog to its master. His code of life was: All that Memory wants, she must have. But underneath that big, beautiful friendship was a love so wonderful, so great—a love which only men of the north can feel. But because of his friendship he hid the love he felt for the girl who wanted him only as a friend. He was a Canuck—half In-sake of the friendship which had ab-broed—an American. There was a barrier.

And so with a pain in his heart and a laugh on his lips the lover played the part of a friend—for the his heart because if he were not very forded Memory many happy years: When his heart ached with love for her and his soul cried out for her—when his mighty, arms yearned to enfold this slip of a girl and hold her tight and when his red, hot lips burned with the thought of pressing her rose bud lips—then his heart would sing for having known such a which only mentetaointaonishdu wonderful love, although he must keep it secretly hidden in the chamber of his heart. And he would remember e was her friend, and must crush the exultation that leaped in his heart because if he was not very careful it might show in his eyes.

The story of this exalting, beautiful friendship, which will inspire any man or woman, can be seen in Mitchell Lewis' latest Select Picture "Jacques of the Silver North," which is offered on Thursday at the Cozy Theatre.

POPULAR NOVEL IS VEHICLE FOR GLADYS LESLIE

"Miss Dulcie From Dixie" Gives Most Appealing Role to Vitagraph Star At Cozy Monday Night

Vitagraph brings to the screen another popular novel of the day in "Miss Dule From Dixie" which is adopted from the charming romance of the same name written by Lula Ragsdale. Gladys Leslie has a role decidedly suited for her personality and dramatic versatility in that of Miss Dulce, in this Vitagraph Picture, which will be seen at the Cozy theatre on Monday. Miss Dulce, Southern bred, is left a legacy of $5,000 contingent on her ending an estrangement between her and her father and a Northern uncle dating back to the civil war. Dulce invades the hostile atmosphere of her uncle's home in New York City and in spite of all obstacles thrown in her path wins not only the legacy but a husband and a fortune. The picture is full of action with many flashes of humor and none of the heart interest has been lost in the screening.

The supporting cast is of exceptional strength, including the following popular Vitagraph plays, Charles Kent, Arthur Donaldson, James Morrison, and Julia Swayne Gordon. Joseph Gleason directed the play.

WILSON'S WORDS CLEAR UP DOUBT

CALIFORNIA THROWS OVER ITS LEADER, JOHNSON, AND RALLIES TO LEAGUE.

WEST GIVES HIM OVATION

All Doubtful Features of Pact Are Explained Away By President, and Former Doubters Hasten to Give Him Their Support.

(By Independent News Bureau, formerly Mt. Clemens News Bureau.)

Aboard President Wilson's Special Train—A continuous ovation along the Pacific coast and then on his eastward way back toward the capital was given to President Wilson as he came toward the end of his month daylong speaking tour in behalf of the League of Nations. California, particularly the delightful city of Los Angeles, went wild in its enthusiasm for him and his advocacy of the League, and it was in that state, perhaps, that he did his most successful missionary work. Hiram Johnson, California's former governor, now her United States senator, and considered by her as the most likely Republican candidate for the presidency in 1920, had before the arrival of President Wilson, convinced a great number of citizens that the League as at present formulated was not a good thing. He had told them that the United States, because of it, would be drawn into every petty European quarrel; he argued that we would lose our sovereignty by joining with the European nations. He had blamed the president for assenting to the possession by Japan of the Peninsula of Shan Tung in China.

BUREAU CHANGES NAME

The Mount Clemens News Bureau, which has been furnishing reports on President Wilson's tour in behalf of the League of Nations to 5,500 papers, has adopted a new name and will hereafter be known as The Independent News Bureau.

But Mr. Wilson, with clear logic and with compelling eloquence, answered to the entire satisfaction of California's people every objection which Senator Johnson had made to the League. And thousands of the state's citizens deserted the Johnson standard immediately and rallied to the support of the president. More than that, they came forward and said, "We were against you, Mr. President, but you have cleared everything up and now we are with you heart and soul." Still more than that, they let Senator Johnson know that they were no longer with him and that they disapproved of the speaking tour which he himself was making in opposition to the League and so powerful was the volume of public opinion which reached him, that the senator almost immediately abandoned his tour. The Shan Tung question, because of the anti-Japanese feeling which undoubtedly exists along the Pacific coast was the most serious which the president had to answer. He explained to the people that he had been powerless to prevent the rich peninsula from being given to Japan. England and France, through a secret treaty, had promised it to Japan for entering the war and remaining in it. That treaty had to be carried out. Anyway it was not China that was losing Shan Tung, but Germany, which had seized the territory from China in 1898 and held it ever since. Japan had promised, the president explained, to return Shan Tung as soon as the peace treaty was ratified and it was only through the ratification of the treaty with the League of Nations inclusion, that China could ever expect to get her former property back. And she surely would get it back, he declared, through the ratification of the League. Therefore, through the same instrumentality no other nation could again prey upon the "Great, patient, diligent, but helpless kingdom." As to our being drawn into any European conflict. The president pointed out that no direct action such as the sending of troops to any part of the world to maintain or restore order could be taken by the Council of the League without a unanimous vote of the council members, therefore our vote could at once negative any such proposition as sending our soldiers where we did not want them sent. Besides, Mr. Wilson argued, "if you have to quench a fire in California you don't send for the fire department of Utah." But, he argued, there probably never will be another war, if the League is established, for the members promise either to arbitrate their difference and accept the decision of the arbitrator, lay the differences for discussion and publication before the Council of the League for a period of six months, and then, if possible, accept the council's advice. That failing, they agree to refrain from war for a further period of three months and nine months of "cooling off." the president contended, would prevent any armed conflict. These clear explanations satisfied every reasonable hearer and destroyed the "Bugaboos" which Senator Johnson and others had raised against the League. Through rugged Nevada into Utah, the land of Mormons, the president swept to find that those fine people were heartily with him for the League and a permanency of peace.

Look! Here is the globe spread out flat before your eyes. See those stars? Every star shows where a U. S. Navy ship was on September 2nd, 1919. The Navy travels the Seven Seas.

Don't you want to see the World?

ROMANCE is calling to you! Strange and smiling foreign lands are beckoning to you. Shove off and see the world!

Learn to "parley-voov" in gay Pares. See the bull-fights in Panama. See surf-riding on the beach of Waikiki.

Learn the lure that comes with the swish and swirl of the good salt sea. Eat well—free; dress well—free; sleep clean—free; and look 'em all straight in the eye—British, French, Chinese, Japanese, Spaniards, Egyptians, Algerians and all manner of people.

Come! Be a real man of the world. See the world. See it with the red-blooded, hard-working, hard-playing men of the U. S. Navy.

Pay begins the day you join. On board ship a man is always learning. Trade schools develop skill, industry and business ability. Thirty days care-free holiday each year with full pay. The food is good. First uniform outfit is furnished free. Promotion is unlimited for men of brains. You can enlist for two years and come out broader, stronger and abler.

Shove off—Join the U. S. Navy. If you're between 17 and 35 go to the nearest recruiting station for all the details. If you don't know where it is ask your postmaster.

Sunday night as Sheriff Roach and Policeman Durke were nosing around the alley back of the Louie they found the alley light broken. Suspecting the work of a burglar they commenced an investigation and found a gentleman with three grips just preparing to come out of the rear of Louie Kirch's store. He was taken to the jail with the grips, and when the latter were opened more than a $1000 worth of silk shirts, silk underwear and other merchandise were found. The gentleman carried plenty of I. W. W. literature and is probably a member in good standing. He was a stranger in these parts but had been seen around town for several days.—Amarillo Plainsman.

LIFT OFF CORNS!

Apply few drops then lift sore, touchy corns off with fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little Freezone on an aching corn. Instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. Yes, magic!

A tiny bottle of Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

Negro Uprisings.

The recent uprising of negroes in Arkansas is just another sporadic outburst of the general spirit of unrest that is now shaking the political, social and industrial world and while for a time it would seem that the bottom is slipping from under civilization let us take conclusion from assurance that the courage, the manhood and the finer sense of truth, righteousness and American patriotism will prevail over the combined forces of greed, avarice, ignorance, and ruffianism. Southern negroes, influenced by enemies from abroad haters of American laws and institutions are not apt to plot war against the only country they have ever known and against the American institutions that have given them protection and enlightened progress.

The disturbing influences come from outside—from that lemet of population that has no regard for law and established order and we may rely on the manhood of true American citizenship to stop the current of anarchy before it shall have wrecked our country. American politicians strive against each other for leadership, but when a common danger menaces the peace of the nation we can quickly rally under a common flag and by united action restore the goddess of Liberty to her pedestal.

The negro insurgents are under the spell of vicious leaders who are actuated either by hatred of American laws or schemes to wring from their black dupes the money they may possibly acquire while laboring under the protection of those same American laws. Now, that the circumstances are being investigated we may expect to find numbers of negroes who are ready to contend for the great benefits of which they have been told, but we are not ready to believe that any great number of Southern negroes will be found so un-mindful of their own welfare as to join in a general war of races. The strong arm of the law will grapple with the out-break in such a way that in a short time we may expect that the duped negroes will be brought to justice and the white instigators will be properly disposed of. If it becomes necessary, this nation can readily be lined up for law and order and the dignity of the nation will be preserved in all its power and greatness.

Croup.

If your children are subject to croup get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and when the attack comes on be careful to follow the printed directions. You will be surprised at the quick relief which it affords.

IN CHRISTIAN STRAINS.

"As ye would that men should do unto you, do ye, even so unto them."

What shall it profit a man if he shall gain the whole world and have a hundred oil gushers, and sell meat at twice its worth and corner all the commodities of commerce and then lose his own soul?

But nobody who knows about Jesus Christ will deny a desire to live with him in the future. There may not be much care manifested about living with him now; but there is deep concern about living with him in the hereafter.

Christ came to this world to save men and to establish the kingdom of God, which is a kingdom of love, joy, and peace. It is our privilege to aid in the establishment of this kingdom.

In India, the caste system is so powerful that if a child happens to be born in the low caste he is doomed throughout life. He has no chance. The upper classes despise him, look down upon him; not only offer him no help, but do everything they can to keep him down. The high-class man would not touch the low, even though he were dying, lest he should become polluted. What is true in India is to some extent true everywhere in the world where the spirit of Christ has not gripped the hearts of the people and promoted the spirit of brotherhood. Even in a country like our own there is a constant clash of classes, and sometimes the spirit shown is extremely dangerous and wicked. Now, what does Christ propose to do? In the true Church of Jesus Christ and in the kingdom of God the rich and the poor meet together. The rich help the poor, the strong help the weak and lift up the fallen. The spirit of brotherhood is to prevail, and the spirit of service is the ideal. Christ himself taught the lesson of service. He took the towel and girded himself and washed the disciples' feet. Every man, whether rich or poor, is to serve in the kingdom of God, and all that he has is to be used to the great end of blessing mankind. Not only is the rich man to serve, but the poor man is to serve also, and each man and woman is to have the chance to live a useful life.

President Wilson's course in dealing with the nations of the World has been marked at every point by his high sense of right and justice as taught by Jesus Christ and Mr. Wilson is a thoughtful Christian philosopher. He is a man of exalted character and places his faith in God and recognizes the democracy of thought and conscience that grants to every man the privilege to worship Jehovah in his own conscientious way and to follow his own selected course in life, consistent with due regard for the rights of other people. There are men less imbued with the spirit of Christ who censure Mr. Wilson for extending Christian courtesies to those with whom he may differ in belief.

EXCHANGE CULLINGS

The Omaha lynching, while a deplorable affair, is but a natural consequence attending such a crime as promoted the mob to take the law in their own hands. As long as negro bucks defile the homes of the white race, just that long will mob violence prevail. It makes no difference whether that home be in the Sunny South or the north frigid zone of the North Pole.—Taylor County Times.

When the people know they have caught the guilty brute, why wait for the slow processes of the courts. Any how, they are not going to fool around about it.

The fact that our negro soldiers were lionized by the people of France and were given a taste of social equality over there, has done the negro no good. It will be surprising if it does not yet lead to many crimes in this country by negro bucks who think that they ought to be given the same royal treatment on this side of the big pond. We fear that the race problem has been aggravated by the war.—Roscoe Times.

And several other problems.

Calculated on the basis of freight service now and three years ago, Dallas is about 2500 miles from Rotan. There is only one department in any way connected with railroads that is normal, and that is the telegraph. It may be through the courtesy of our local agent that we are getting good service, but telegrams still seem to go right through on the same wire without sidetracking at every switch.—Rotan Advance.

Don't over look the mails. The telegrams go straight to the supply house and in about four days the mails bring the bill and then in ten days to a month the goods arrive.

Now it is said that the price of sugar is destined to go to 25 or 30 cents a pound during the next year. Cuba produced a tremendous crop this year. Sandwich island sugar kings predict a bumper crop. American beet sugar growers are joyful over the prospect but the fact remains that only a fourth of the sugar consumed in America is produced under the American flag. Texas should be a producer of beet sugar. Says Undertakers Profiters, in Texas suitable and adaptable for the cultivation of the beet.—Fort Worth Record.

From various sources we get information that the sugar crop in all sugar growing countries is the largest known in many years. Now, where is the seat of the trouble?

Picketing Restrained in Chicago

It has been the custom of Union Labor ever since the steel strike started to station pickets in the neighborhood of the plants to prevent men from going in to work but Judge Landis of Chicago has issued an injunction against that practice and now the Unions are again howling about government by injunction.

In our opinion the court is entirely within its rights. Strikers have no legal or moral right to interfere with people who want to work and when they choose to pursue an unlawful course, surely the courts must be looked to for protection against out-lawry.

Hamilton Lost His Case.

Tom M. Hamilton is a tentative candidate for the Legislature in Menard County. He is anti-woman suffrage and pronoun anti-everything else. He filed a suit in the district court at Waco to enjoin tax collectors from collecting poll tax from women so as to keep them from voting in the primaries.

His case was tried before Judge Tomroe last week and he lost. The judge ruled that plaintiff had no standing in the court and the injunction was denied. The case will now go to the court of civil appeals and from there to the supreme court. In the meantime suffrage leaders will urge Texas women to arm themselves with poll tax receipts. It is safe to guess that Tom Hamilton will not get many women votes in the primaries.
