THIRTY-FOURTH YEAR.

SNYDER, SURREY COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, JULY 9, 1920.

NUMBER FOUR

JAMES M. COX OF OHIO NOMINATED FOR PRESIDENT

PAT NEFF SPOKE IN

SNYDER SATURDAY NIGHT

The National Democratic Convention was in session just a week in San Francisco. The main fight was in platform expressions. The party is now lined up with a definite schedule of purposes and the matter of working out the fundamental American doctrine of prohibition as embodied in the constitution will be up to congress and the judicial and constabulary forces of the country.

The principles of the League of Nations are a guarantee of virtue and justice to all nations of the world.

The convention reached a nomination at 1:40 o'clock Monday night. The fourteen names put before the convention soon whittled down to three. For several ballots Cox was in the lead with McAdoo close after him and Palmer a respectable third. Then on Monday McAdoo surged to the front and in turn was sent back to second. During the early hours Monday night Palmer withdrew and the 43rd ballot showed Cox 568 and McAdoo 412.

As the 44th ballot started the McAdoo manager threw up the sponge and moved the unanimous nomination of Cox, and it was done.

The nomination of vice-president was postponed to Tuesday afternoon and was postponed to Thursday afternoon.

Now, all eyes are on Ohio. Both Cominses, Harding and Cox, are in Ohio, both are newspaper men; Harding is a United States senator and Cox is governor of the Buckeye State.

COX AND ROOSEVELT A STRONG TICKET

The National Convention in San Francisco made quick work in nominating a candidate for vice-president. Several prominent democrats, representing the East, South and West, were placed before the convention. Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York, assistant secretary of the navy, was nominated for vice president.

The national ticket, Cox and Roosevelt, is fully endorsed by democratic leaders everywhere, including President Wilson, Attorney General Palmer, Carter Glass and in fact nearly all who have given expressions.

Harding Recalls to Cox

Prophecy of Cartoon.
Columbus, Ohio, July 6.—Senator Warren G. Harding, republican presidential nominee, today telegraphed from Marion the following message of congratulations to Governor James M. Cox, democratic nominee: "I recall a much remarked cartoon which portrayed you and me as newboys contending for the White House delivery. It seems to have been prophetic. As an Ohioan and a fellow publisher, I congratulate you on your notable victory."

Wilson, McAdoo, Baker, Davis, Palmer, Edwards and many others have wired congratulations to Gov. Cox but Bryan's message is not in the list.

Ladies' Aid Meeting.

The Ladies' Aid of the Christian church met Monday with Mrs. Johnson and a very profitable afternoon was spent in sewing for the orphans' home. Delicious refreshments were served.

Miss Florence Bright of Snyder is soliciting subscriptions for the Saturday Evening Post and is in the contest for the Post's car. Now, that is a pretty good family paper and you can help a worthy young lady to get an auto of her own.

This item got lost last week in the shuffle. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Dodson have returned from their visit to Tennessee and Arkansas.

WANTED—To buy a nice young Jersey cow with helper calf. Must be gentle, good condition and easy to milk. See Dr. L. E. Trigg. 4p

BABY DROWNED IN TANK NEAR SNYDER

Baby Drowned in Tank.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Walton, who reside east of Snyder on Route 5, will extend to them profound sympathy in the sad and tragic death of their baby boy, Woodrow Wilson, which occurred at their home last Sunday. The baby was just getting large enough to toddle about the place and had probably wandered away unnoticed and fell into a surface tank at the wind mill and was drowned. This is the third child to lose its life in that way in this county within the past few months.

Visited the Old Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Cotton returned Saturday morning from a visit to the old home country in Arkansas. They moved from there 24 years ago and had not been there for fifteen years. Mr. Cotton says they are needing rain there badly. There are a few apples this year but no peaches. He says our prospects here are better than he saw anywhere along the way. He has no desire to live in Arkansas again.

Box Supper and Ice Cream.

There was a well attended gathering Friday night at Plainview school house. The occasion was a box supper and ice cream feast, the financial proceeds of which are to purchase an organ for the Sunday school. Quite a number of candidates were there and made the fact known that they want to be elected, and they also showed they know a good thing when they see it. They entered heartily into the pleasures of the occasion and made full hands at the supper and the ice cream booth. It is understood that the organ fund was built up about seventy-five dollars, or more.

Mr. G. N. Richardson and family went to Mineral Wells last week. Mr. Richardson returned home Monday. The family will remain there about a month.

J. H. Finley and George Evans left Thursday for a jitney trip over the Plains and to points in New Mexico. They expect to be gone as long as that gasoline and tobacco lasts.

Mr. E. F. Walker sold his shoe shop last week to W. Aikin.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Fredeck and daughter came over Sunday from Abilene to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Massey. Cora Lee remains for a long visit with her grandparents.

W. S. Reed of Camp Springs has gone to Fairview, Missouri, to visit his father.

Born in Snyder July 7, to Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Clark, a girl.

Mr. V. Z. Periman and family of Baird are visiting his brother, L. M. Periman, and family.

The Miller injunction suit to restrain the building of the highway across plaintiff's land near Pylon was on trial here Thursday before Judge Leslie. LATER—We learn just before going to press that the injunction was dissolved.

Mrs. E. J. Anderson and daughter, Brentz, have left to spend several weeks with Mrs. Anderson's mother on the Mississippi gulf coast.

FOR SALE—New Ford, worth the money. Ask W. B. Dane, Phone 398.

N. M. Harpole is having a substantial new awning built on the front of his two store buildings on Bridge Street.

W. S. Beauchamp and wife were at San Angelo last week on a visit.

OIL ACTIVITIES AT CAMP SPRINGS

President Emil Hansen of the Camp Springs Oil & Refining company has returned from Ranger where he purchased a lot of casing, bits, lamps, etc., for use in the Camp Springs operations. They are already at work out there and are making improvements along all lines. Dr. Kerns is now away and will bring back additional facilities. Kerns is all the time on the job and with men like Hansen, Tack and Snuffer in the team they will be turning something up all the time.

Big Cattle Deal.

Mr. E. W. Clark has sold his ranch lease and 500 head of registered cattle ten miles north of Snyder to Thomas Hester of Desdemona for a consideration of $90,000. The ranch is the W. A. Johnson place and is held under a term lease.

Notice to the Public.

I have equipped my shop with a new Champion Sole Stitcher, and am now prepared to give you first class service in shoe repairing. I sew soles on all welt shoes now, instead of tacking. Can give you quick service.

I am also adding a good line of strictly hand made boots to my repair business and at prices that will interest you, too. If you want a pair of hand made boots call and let me take your measure. Will carry boots in stock also.

HUB TAYLOR,

7 At Courthouse Shoe Shop.

A. M. Curry has returned from Floydada.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Stinson left this week to visit for two months at Abilene, Coleman and other points. They will probably go over into East Texas and feast on muscadines and persimmons.

Mr. Jno. A. Russell of Eastland was in Snyder Wednesday meeting the people. He is a candidate for state senator for the 28th district and appears to be a man well equipped for the position. He states that he has traveled over most of the district and finds much encouragement.

Misses Josie Hay and Dean Whately left Sunday for Waco, accompanied by Mrs. G. J. Hay and Mrs. T. A. Mangrum, aunt and grandmother of Mrs. T. C. Hay, who has been visiting the latter.

T. C. Hay returned Sunday from Oklahoma City where he had been for the past week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Davis have returned from Seminole.

J. H. SEARS & CO. ENLARGING STORE

J. H. Sears & Co. are spreading out in their business. Some time ago they bought the Wilmeth building adjoining their dry goods store and have now started the work of putting it in order. When finished they will have a splendid double store location. The front of the recently purchased store is to be torn out and a brick front built in keeping with modern lines of architecture. Two large arch openings will connect the two stores, so they will appear as one large establishment. The company are to be congratulated on their march of progress.

Two Games at Post.

Roby's baseball folks came over last Friday to play the Snyder team. It was a good game and resulted in a score of 11 to 3 in favor of Snyder.

Capt. Murms of the Snyder team was at Lubbock Saturday to pitch for that town Monday and Tuesday brought a two game series at Post between that town and Snyder. A big crowd of Snyder folks were there. Monday was a holiday and those who didn't go fishing went to see the ball game. Results: Monday, Post 4, Snyder 2; Tuesday, Post 1, Snyder 7.

Father Seriously Sick.

Mrs. Dr. W. R. Johnson and Ellen Buice left Tuesday for Tyler to be with her father who was reported seriously sick. Later a second message came saying that the sick man was very low and not expected to live long. Dr. Johnson left on the next train out to go to the stricken home.

Mr. Clark, father of Mrs. J. H. Hicks, left Tuesday to visit his son at Idalu.

Mr. W. B. Hicks of Stephenville is the guest of his son, Rev. J. H. Hicks, and family.

W. E. Sorrels was in Snyder Tuesday from his river valley farm and said there was a nice little shower of rain Monday night at the Strayhorn farm and out a few miles south, but none at his place. He says the deep sand is better off without rain now.

News from Roy Lockhart is that he is getting on nicely at the Temple sanitarium where, he submitted, several days ago, to an operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. S. F. Marshall of Endee, N. M., accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. George Barry and little son, Richard, of Amarillo, Texas, are visiting her brother, G. C. Buchanan, and family. This is the first time Capt. Buchanan has seen his sister in fifteen years.

Geo. Campton of the Camp Springs Oil and Refining company arrived here Wednesday from a trip to the Mexican border. He is right in the push along with his associates in the oil game.

An audience of about 500 men and women gathered Saturday night at the City Auditorium to meet and hear the Hon. Pat M. Neff of Waco, candidate for governor. Mr. Neff had spoken in the afternoon at Lamesa and was an hour late in reaching Snyder. The people waited a while and Rev. W. H. Sims proposed to have the local candidates fill in the time in making their announcements. Mr. Wilmeth and Mr. Holley told about wanting to be county judge. The candidates for county clerk, county treasurer and county superintendent were called for and then Judge Rosser took the platform and spoke in behalf of the proposed constitutional amendment to give to school districts the power to vote upon themselves such special tax rate as they may desire.

Then Mr. Neff, and the reception committee arrived. Mr. Neff was introduced by Judge C. R. Buchanan, and proceeded to entertain the people for more than an hour. He was in bad voice from so much speaking and talked more in a conversational way. He is a pleasant talker and presented his candidacy very attractively.

He said he is his own campaign manager and is paying his own expenses. He is a native Texan and has had extensive experience in public affairs. He declined to discuss prohibition or equal suffrage because those are closed questions so far as Texas is concerned. He is a friend of education from the kindergarten to the university. He proposes to elect to use all the powers of the office to enforce all the laws of the state.

In the matter of taxes, he says we have not a tax system but a kind of patch work. He will endeavor to bring about a more perfect system and see that taxes are levied uniformly and that the revenues are properly and judiciously expended. He would cut out numbers of unnecessary salaried offices and have people who work for the state earn their hire. He would give attention to health laws and the conservation of child life. The cry of a baby will appeal to him more than the squeal of a sick hog or the bleating of a tick-ridden white faced calf.

Mr. Neff, in speaking of his land tax proposition said that he has no thought of pestering the land owner who is using his land in a way to develop the country and build up civilization. His purpose is to reach the nonresident land owners who are holding for speculation, leaving the neighbors to develop the country and enhance the value of the land. He wants some sort of a system that will induce those people to sell to home seekers who will build homes and be or worth in the community.

HARDY BOYD WATCHES SNYDER'S DEVELOPMENT

Memphis, Tenn., June 30.
Mr. J. S. Hardy,
Snyder, Texas.

Dear Sir and Friend:
I received your letter some time ago and fully intended to answer sooner and send a check for the Signal, but you see how I have done. Anyway, it is enclosed to you now.

The Signal is read by all of us regularly and seems like a letter from our old friends. I always like to read the lists you print of new subscribers to see where the folks have scattered to. That drought certainly scattered them, didn't it?

Well, well, well! How times have changed! The last time I saw a Signal there was nobody running over the county, carrying consternation for the other offices had fallen off about one-half from what the number used to be. When I think how I had to hustle in 1908 to get the county attorney's job, and what a gang there was of us going around to the housewives, woe and grief to the tribe of yellow-legged chickens and leaving devastation in our wake, I wonder if the drought affected the candidate crop also.

Please notify me just before you strike an oil gusher out there, and until then, keep the Signal coming.

Your friend,
H. M. BOYD.

Yes, Hardy, we scattered but are coming back. Guess we will have to import or create some lawyers to get us a county attorney. They don't seem to realize how you and Fritz and Olin and Dick got your starts.

Bereft Parents Grateful.

Mr. E. W. Roberts of Route A their home on June 27. The bereft parents wish, through the Signal, to express their thanks to their friends and neighbors for kindness and help on the sad occasion. The Signal extends sympathy to them.

Notice.

Doak Swimming Pool is open only to ladies and girls J. M. DOAK. 4

Miss Mina Winfrey of Fluvanna was here before the Board taking the teachers' examination.

Miss Maude Akers, who has been at Portsmouth, Virginia, for the past year, is expected to arrive in Snyder today or tomorrow.

The Bell County grand jury turned in 201 bills of indictment at one term of the court. Eighty-seven are for felonies. Seems that criminality is not confined to oil districts.

Homer Cummins said in his San Francisco speech that of all the vast number of soldiers transported to Europe during the war, there was not a ship or a man lost who was being conveyed by the American navy.

Joseph W. Bailey has succeeded in getting his name on the Democratic ticket. A lot of trouble for nothing, we think. In fact, we never have seen any use in refusing to put his name on the ticket. The good year 1920 is as good a time as we will ever have to give J. W. B. a seat so far back that he will never have the nerve to try to reach the front again. "So mote it be."—Colorado Record.

The Foard County News says Sam Russell of that county will thresh 21,000 bushels of wheat from his crop, and it expects that county to make 20,000 bales of cotton this year.

The legislature of Tennessee will be called in special session to ratify the suffrage amendment to the federal constitution. Friends of the measure are confident of success and that Tennessee will take pride in being the 36th state to ratify.

The Department of Agriculture in Washington guess the 1920 cotton at 11,450,000 bales. The D. of A. is not a cotton farmer else it would know that at this stage of the situation no man can tell how much the crop will pan out.

Already there is said to be an organized movement to start a revolution against the Huerta provisional government in Mexico. Hundreds of Carranza followers, many of them army officers, are in San Antonio and are holding meetings and planning a revolt.

Two ten-year old girls in Fort Worth were arrested for shoplifting. That school of thieves has become a menace to the safety of merchants—not only in Fort Worth but in other towns.

Big Springs reports the McDowell well is a 500-barrel find and when put on pump they look for more. Almost of a sudden Big Spring has come alive and the town is full of oil scouts. People are rushing in like they expect to get ground floor places. The big companies probably have all the best berths engaged.

The population of continental United States is estimated at 105,000,000 by J. A. Hill, chief statistician of the Census Bureau. His calculation is based on the combined populations of 1,406 cities and towns for which statistics have been announced. The increase over 1910 is placed at 13,000,000, showing the growth of the country has not kept pace with previous decades. Almost complete cessation of immigration during the war is the chief reason assigned for the falling off. Other suggestions were the two influenza epidemics, return of aliens to their native lands and death of soldiers during the war.

Reporters at the Democratic convention measure the popularity of the several men put in nomination by the cheers in the auditorium. The vociferations for Owen lasted one minute. Gerard didn't cause a grunt. The band blared and the people stood when Cummins' name was presented. Palmer and Cox were cheered 35 minutes, Smith 32 minutes and McAdoo 42 minutes. Hitchcock and Edwards fell flat.

Civil war pensioners will get a check for $24.00 for this quarter, an increase of one dollar.

Soil Blowing Suggestion.

While the winter wheat crop and much land of some of his neighbors was blown over into western Kansas during the recent big "blow," Paul Mead, one of the Farm Bureau members west of Berthoud, saved his wheat and soil too, by plowing furrows across his wheat fields, throwing the soil away from the direction of the prevailing winds. Mr. Mead is very enthusiastic over this method of handling light soils, and the results he has attained should be noted by farmers in this county. He has an excellent stand of wheat which has apparently been damaged very little by the severe winds, while in adjoining fields the wheat is a total loss. Mr. Mead plowed the furrows about every 75 to 100 feet. In case the furrows fill up as they sometimes do, he simply plows them out again.—Larimer County Farm Bureau News.

In Newspaper Circles.

There was something magnificent in the spectacle of the great Commoner pleading the cause of prohibition before the democratic national convention. One of the greatest orators of his time, and one of the finest characters that ever graced American politics, Bryan was leading a forlorn hope. Next to Woodrow Wilson, he has the greatest personal following of any man in the world.—Ablene Reporter.

If any American publicist should be willing to die for a principle, it would probably be W. J. Bryan, but after getting the constitution fixed like he wanted, why should he continue to chew the rag?

With the July primary only a few weeks off the News is still unable to get up much enthusiasm on behalf of any candidate, especially in the governor's race. The day of political shirt tearing is becoming as remote as the days of cheap shirting. Clarendon News.

The campaign hoorah of other days was coarse and largely without reasoning. Crowds were swayed by some sort of imbecile loyalty and centered on personality, but now, the voters are sober thinkers and want to know what a candidate stands for and if he can measure up to it.

Bryan went down in defeat but we cannot forget his patriotic services in the past. He may be extreme in some of his views but it cannot be denied that he is a great man and a clean, Christian gentleman.—Waxahachie Light.

All of which most of us steadfastly believe, but why should an effort be made to divide the democracy on the prohibition question and it already a part of the constitution? Then again lots of folks still remember that when the administration was straining every nerve to mobilize, equip and transport our army to France Mr. Bryan was going over the country speaking against the preparedness campaign.

What Advertisers Say About

Power of the Signal.

For several years the Signal has carried the advertisement of Calumet Baking powder. The Calumet people make a study of advertising and they keep constantly at it. They select the medium on business lines and pay their money as an investment. Advertising is a part of their business and it pays them, else they wouldn't do it. That they are pleased with results of advertising in the Signal is shown in the following:
Chicago, June 15,
Publishers Signal, Snyder, Texas.

Herewith find our check for space used during quarter ending May 22. We went to extend our most hearty thanks for the general good position and consideration given our schedule. In closing our advertising year for the season of 1919-20 it is gratifying to note that almost without exception our sales have increased in your territory and we attribute this to, a very great extent to the influence that your paper has with the consumers.

Respectfully,

Don't suffer! A tiny bottle of Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store. Apply a few drops on the corns, callouses and "hard skin" on bottom of feet, then lift them off.

When Freezone removes corns from the toes or callouses from the left pink and healthy and never sore, bottom of feet, the skin beneath is tender or irritated.

San Francisco, July 2.—The Democratic platform as framed in the resolutions committee, declaring for peace treaty; expressing sympathy for Ireland, and saying nothing about prohibition, came unscathed through a furious floor fight today and was adopted without amendment by a great avalanche of applause. V. J. Bryan led the fight for adoption of his bone dry plank, but it was defeated, after a dramatic day of debate, by a majority so overwhelming that he did not even ask for roll calls. The four other minor reports which he had prepared. A cider, wine and beer plank, mentioned in an emotional speech by W. Bourke Cochrane of New York, also was thrown out by the convention along with a plank with Irish republic, backed by several organizations of Irish sympathizers. The platform as framed, the administration forces were led by Secretary Colby and Senator Carter of Virginia during a debate in which both sides stirred delegates and spectators to repeated bursts of emotional enthusiasm. Mr. Bryan's howling demonstration in twenty minutes after he concluded his speech for the bone dry plank, but in the balloting began, it became apparent that much of the enthusiasm was a personal tribute to his service to the party and not an expression of sympathy with his pre-views. With the platform adopted, the convention was up with its subject the voting on presidential candidates began.

Untrue Courage.

There is a sort of courage, which, I can only confess it, I do not possess. It is the boldness to which I dare not resort, a valor which I cannot covet. I cannot lay myself down in the way of the welfare and happiness of my country. That, I cannot—I have not the courage to do. I cannot interfere with the power with which I may be vested—a power conferred, not for personal benefit, nor for my aggrandizement, but for my country's sake—to check her onward march to greatness and glory. I have not the courage enough, I am too cowardly. —Henry Clay.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whitmore have returned from visiting at Abilene.

PLATFORM SILENT ON PROHIBITION.

The draft of the National Democratic platform was finished by the committee Friday and read before the convention. Its outstanding features are:
1—Complete silence upon the wet and dry question.
2—Emphatic endorsement of the League of Nations covenant with a demand for prompt ratification without nullifying reservations, but with an expression of willingness to accept reservations clarifying the covenant or making it more specific with respect to American obligations.
3—A simple expression of sympathy for Irish aspirations, without reference to American recognition.
4—Rejection of the administration plank recommending acceptance by the United States of a mandate for Armenia.
5—Pledge of support for aiding American veterans of the world war to acquire farms and homes, but no promise of a money bonus.
6—Strong planks on labor, agriculture, the interests of women and woman suffrage.
The platform presented was in thorough accord with President Wilson's views except on the League of Nations and the Armenian mandate. When the fight started Mr. Bryan was recognized amid tremendous cheering and presented a minority report submitting a bone dry plank. The convention rejected it.

CHURCH BOARD BUILDING FUND.

A gift of $177,350 from the Home Mission Board of Atlanta, Ga., through its church extension department, to Texas Baptist churches for the completion of new buildings, is announced by Dr. F. S. Groner, general secretary of the Baptist Executive board of Texas.
"This gift," said Dr. Groner, "is but a fractional part of the total amount being invested by Baptist churches in new buildings during the year. In each case where the Home Mission board makes a gift, the local churches meet the gifts with a contribution many times the amount which they receive. It is our plan to spend hundreds of thousands of dollars in the next five years in new church buildings and equipment."

Texas as An Oil Field.

There are more than six thousand companies and individual operators actively engaged in the search for oil in Texas alone. The big boom has just started. Billions of dollars will be spent in purchasing leases, exploitation and development. The world's greatest financial interests are getting together the largest money fund ever assembled for purchase and development of oil lands and leases. The Standard Oil company just recently financed an issue of one hundred million dollars for new and extensive development. The Sinclair company seventy-five million dollars. The Texas company thirty-five million dollars. These vast sums together with the millions of dollars of smaller companies will go to drill every available acre for the liquid treasure. And just at this time it looks as if Mitchell county was going to be right in the middle of it.

James Billingsley of El Paso, together with his twin brother, Burr Billingsley of Scurry county, and Roy L. Farmer of Mitchell county are here on a vacation and a visit to W. C. Morris of Forrester. These young men live in West Texas and attracted considerable attention on the streets here this morning. — Waxahachie Light.

Planning for School Houses.
There was an important meeting of school officials and trustees held here last Saturday to discuss plans for building school houses. The County Superintendent and County Board were in consultation with rural school men. It is understood that six districts are planning to build this year, some having already voted bonds and the others expect to do so in ample time.

So many people have complained that on account of our having the ONE-CENT sale during the busy season in May that they were unable to attend and partake of the bargains therein offered in quality merchandise.

We have taken the matter up with the United Drug Company and are permitted to announce that on Friday July 16th we will hold for ONE DAY ONLY another One-Cent sale. We are unable to get some items that were sold in the other, and our entire stock for this sale is very low, hence the one day, and we really doubt its holding out for the one day and suggest to those who failed to get in on the other sale that they get here first this time.

Now we certainly wish it was so thht we could give another three days sale, but we are limrted in stock and expense allowance hence it will be impossible, so, bear in mind the date given and if you fail to get here this time, don't "kuss us."

CATON-DODSON DRY GOODS CO.

Presbyterian Women's Auxiliary. The Auxiliary met at the church Monday at 4 o'clock, p. m., for the monthly missionary program, Mrs. Ferguson presiding.

A very helpful devotional service was led by Mrs. Andrews. Mrs. Elza gave a very interesting paper on progress of the work in Cuba and Porto Rica. Mrs. Shell told of the advancement along all lines in the Philippines.

This being the month of roses and our study being on these tropical countries where roses are ever-blooming, a beautiful feature "bouquet of roses," in which all present took part, proved also very instructive.

One new member, Mrs. Burroughs, was enrolled at this time.

Next Monday will be social meeting day at the home of Mrs. Andrews.

Dr. J. Gilmore Smith preached to a good congregation Sunday morning and evening, and left Monday morning for his home at Albany, Texas. Dr. Smith is chairman of the Presbyterian Home Mission committee.

W. B. McCormick was over from Snyder Saturday and Sunday. Mr. McCormick is well pleased with his work and with the town. He says Snyder is a dandy good town and is growing rapidly. Mac has put on several additional pounds of flesh since he went over there.—Foard County News.

S. J. Littlepage bought a box of shells Saturday. He said it has again become necessary to make war on the jack rabbits. They are getting thick again. The campaign a few years ago and the long drought almost put them out of the way, but now they are becoming a nuisance and a menace to crops.

L. C. Darby was here Saturday from Foch.

W. P. Gillum Dead.

On last Thursday, June 24, the writer of this article, together with many other friends of the bereft family, were called upon to lay the mortal remains of a good man, Mr. Willie P. Gillum, age 34, in the quiet tomb.

Mr. Gillum had been sick with typhoid fever for about a month. Though he made a brave and courageous fight for life, his enemy, the disease, was too powerful for his strength. He bore his affliction with marked calmness and patience. He was not married, but members of his father's family, friends and doctors, did all they could to help the patient overcome his malady, but unfortunately to no avail.

Brother Gillum professed faith in Christ under the preaching of Rev. W. W. Werner some fifteen years ago. He has ever since lived a faithful and consistent Christian life. He was a member of the Christian church. How fortunate that he made proper preparation and cultivated and developed so worthy a character! Let us hope that many others will follow this good example—the only wise and safe course to pursue.

The high esteem in which the deceased was held, was made evident by the large attendance of friends, who left their urgent farm work to attend the funeral. This is also a credit to the community.

Brother Gillum being a member of the I. O. O. F. Lodge; several members came over from Hemleigh and performed the last rites at the grave, in the Snyder Cemetery.

When the righteous die there is a wealth of comfort, for all concerned, in the mortal words spoken by the Saviour, "In my Father's house there are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you." Think of it—a prepared place. When we contemplate the depth of meaning couched in this and couple same with that marvelous description of the location of that "house" in the New Jerusalem (Rev. 21: to 22:5), together with the positive assurance of the resurrection and glorification of the body (1 Cor. 15); we more readily comprehend and more fully appreciate this other gem in the Scriptures, "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

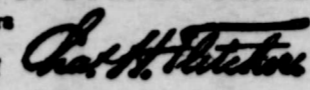

Humbly and reverently submitted. JAS. H. TATE.

F. T. Wilhelm has installed a new delivery car.

It seems as though marrying is in the air, having been several lately, and it is whispered there are others almost persuaded.—Roacoe Times.

The Times editor got married last week, and hears about these things. A long time ago in the hill country in Kentucky Joe Mason was an amen worker in all the revivals, but at one time, a meeting was in progress and Joe had failed to show up. An old brother met him one day and asked why he was staying out of the meeting. "Well, I hain't had time. There's so much marrying around." "Who has married?" he was asked. Joe meekly answered "Me."

News is at a discount. All we hear or see is people going to and fro.

We can't even get up a foot race or a ball game. Farmers are too busy.

We notice three young men, Messrs. Leslie, Gibson and Whitmore, mapping out the course for the public highway. When this work is completed, Foch will be strictly in touch with Snyder and Sweetwater.

The I. O. O. F. lodge here went up to Snyder last week attending the last rites of laying to rest young Mr. W. P. Gillum, who was a member in good standing with Snyder lodge, I. O. O. F. This lodge was well represented.

There will be quite a change here among our business men in locations. There is nothing definite in the sales of property but we learn there will be, and some more business houses erected. We certainly need more dwellings as well as business houses and see no reason why this should not be accomplished. If we are correctly informed, the hotel owned by Messrs. Mayo and Harden is sold to Mr. L. J. Rhea, who will remodel it and run a first class hotel, which is very much needed here. We are also informed that T. H. Bills sold his blacksmith shop to Mr. Boone who will consolidate the two. Mr. Bills will locate at Memphis, Texas, which is a rich country.

Cotton chopping season is on and few choppers. What's the trouble? Can they be had?
Dad Jenkins and wife left a few days ago for Amarillo visiting daughters. Hurry back, Dad, we can't hold your job much longer.

The 9:23 passenger train pulled in slow; was retained 20 minutes below town on account of the loss of a rim on one of the large wheels. A few of the passengers took advantage of the delay while waiting for an engine, to look over our little city. The train is delayed several hours awaiting an engine.

Mr. Tom Moore, a former resident of Foch, stopped over a few days to see his father and brothers. He is returning home, having spent a while in the oil fields at Necessity.

Mr. W. H. Anderson blew into Foch this morning with a red rose smile on his face that is doubtful if it ever comes off. We accused him of hunting a rooster for the coming winter as we might have a good cotton crop for him.

Our Mr. E. M. Rector paid a visit to Snyder Monday on business.

Mr. W. P. McLean and wife made a pleasant visit this week. Mr. McLean will be added as one more of our live business men in the near future.

Rev. W. B. Hicks, pastor of our Methodist church, is back at home. Bro. Hicks left May 28 to attend the Southern Methodist university, taking a lecture course.

W. H. Anderson and wife of Snyder and Mrs. W. W. Echols of Fort Worth are guests of Mr. J. R. Coker this week.

Mr. H. B. Cross and wife of Post City are guests of Mr. A. Parker this week. Mr. Cross owns a nice farm near here and is down viewing same.

Look out, ye Snyder dealers! we have a live wire implement dealer here.

Prof. A. C. Tate, former teacher in our high school, leaves this eve for Thurber, Texas, on a telegram stating that his infant baby died, and that another was very sick. Mrs. Tate went there for her health.
OTHELLO.

The Record is reliably informed that a contract to sink two wells has been duly signed and closed. The contract calls for 4000 feet, and work is now in progress on one of the wells.—Colorado Record.

Man's span of life is brief. Generally he is ready for the scrap heap at sixty or seventy, and the average life is less than thirty years. The sojourn on this planet, compared with the eternal life, is but an infinitesimal instant of time, not enough to make a ripple on the sea of eternity. Yet some men work themselves to death laying up money and think very little of the Great Beyond, as though shrouds had pockets. The ratio of the mustard seed to the earth's circumference is insufficient to gauge the brief but bitter battle on the earth with the never-ending life beyond.—Abilene Reporter.

That is some sermon. The Reporter might not pass before an ecclesiastical council for license to preach, but it would sway the crowds as an "exhauster" at a camp meeting.

Loss of Appetite.

As a general rule there is nothing serious about a loss of appetite, and if you skip a meal or only eat two meals a day for a few days you will soon have a relish for your meals when meal time comes. Bear in mind that at least five hours should always elapse between meals so as to give the food ample time to digest and the stomach a period of rest before a second meal is taken. Then if you eat no more than you crave and take a reasonable amount of outdoor exercise every day you need not worry about your appetite. When the loss of appetite is caused by constipation as is often the case, that should be corrected at once. A dose of Chamberlain's Tablets will do it.

Bomb Throwing Resumed.

Berlin, July 3.—One hundred and fifty persons were killed and hundreds injured when a bomb exploded during a theater performance in Sofia given for the benefit of Bulgarian victims of the "red terror." M. Stambulinsky, the aged premier, who was among the spectators, escaped injury.

A number of Snyder folks went over on Bull Creek Saturday evening for a few hours of picnic fun and fishing and as the night went by they were having such good luck they didn't go home till morning.

Washington, July 3.—Justice Gould of the District of Columbia Supreme Court overruled a motion attorneys for the New York Tribune to quash service on its Washington correspondent in a suit for $100,000 damages brought by former Senator Balley.

Balley took exceptions to a recent publication in the Tribune concerning himself and brought suit. Service to process was had on the Tribune's representative. Balley left Friday night for Texas to resume his campaign for governor at Ennis Monday.
