AMONG THE FARMERS.

The farmers are rejoicing because of the good price of cotton and well they should. Most farmers in raising this crop labored with the thought of a 10 cent market and when it suddenly and sensationally jumped to 20 cents and better it put new spirit into the farmer for at that price he feels that he has been paid for his work.

In Memoriam.

To the officers and members of Snyder Lodge No. 485, I. O. O. F.: Whereas, God in His infinite wisdom oftentimes moves in ways that are difficult for man to understand, and in the recent death of our brother, Dr. J. W. Warren, we, together with his family, suffer a loss, the extent of which we feel more and more as time goes on; therefore be it Resolved, that we pray God may comfort the members of this family as He alone can.

The Snyder Cotton market has been unquestionably good this season. Evidence of its splendid market is the fact that quite a bit of cotton is being marketed here from adjoining counties.

This year has proven more conclusively than ever that a short cotton crop pays the farmer more than a big one. The reduction in acreage has had a deal to do with the present price of cotton. Of course the deterioration of the crop has reduced the yield per acre, but the acreage reduction has been as great a factor in the realization of present prices as the yield has been, if not more. In the planting of another crop this should be foremost in the minds of the farmer, that a short cotton crop will be more valuable than a big one.

The Snyder cotton buyers have certainly been on the job this season and they are being rewarded by a handsome increase in business. All other business interests of the city have seen material growth and the farmers have received the top market for their cotton.

Eggs, hogs, chickens and butter, has been a life saver to a good many farmers this year.

The Pershing estate in Tangipahoa Parish, La., owned jointly by heirs of John J. Pershing, father of the general of the armies, has been advertised for sale for taxes, according to a letter sent the general by the editor of an American Legion magazine published in Amite, La. The editor posted sufficient funds with the parish sheriff to prevent the sale and requested General Pershing to make the estate available for colonization by his comrades who are being rehabilitated, after war wounds, for agricultural pursuits. The Pershing tract contains 100 acres of the parish's best land.

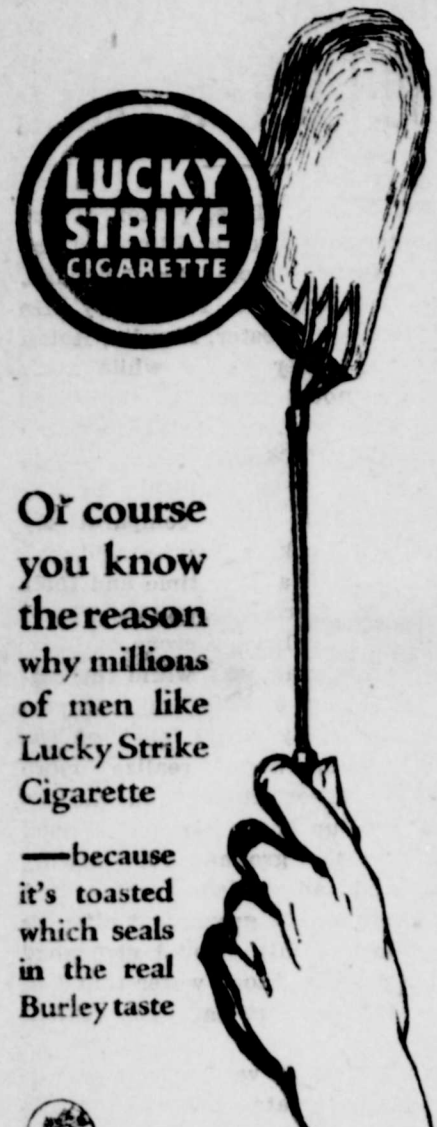

Hogs are mortgage lifters. It has been said that if you are in debt just get a hog by the tail and he will lift you out.

Mr. and Mrs. Dixie Smith, George Northeutt and Jim Bridgeman of Snyder were visitors at the Fair.—Post City Post.

PUT THIS IN YOUR PIPE AND SMOKE OPTIMISM!

Yes, the country is still marking time, but all the same, the straws that show the wind are piling up a pretty good sized stack, indicating that better times are on the way. These straws are facts. Consider a few of them:

The railroad earnings are improving. Car loadings are on the increase. The steel industry has seen the worst of dullness. Copper likewise. Woolen mills are more active. Silk trad eis reviving. Leather and hides are getting busy. Cotton prices are moving surplus cotton stocks. The sugar industry is picking up on higher prices. More building and construction every day. Merchandising and retail trade responding to increasing groups of buyers. Lumber dealers are moving their stocks. Banks are loosening up and beginning to support business in business like way. And a flood-tide of gold from foreign countries has placid, so far, well over $500,000,000 real go'd coin in American vaults!

But most important of all the signs—of which the above is only a meager sample—is the gradual turning of pessimists into optimists. A country must believe in itself, and look cheerfully toward the future, before there can be any future worth believing in, be any future worth believing in, says Sugarman's Indicator.

William J. Bryan charges that Dr. E. A. Birge, President of the University of Wisconsin, is teaching atheism in his school. Mr. Birge denies, with the statement that Bryan is crazy and that nobody pays any attention to him. Bryan is only voicing the popular opinion of the religious inclined of the nation. There is too much evidence that the high science taught in our schools is rank atheism, and is undermining our Christian religion. There are examples where religious workers and preachers have attended our Universities and come away rank infidels and atheists. It is passing strange to us that the religious element of this nation will permit infidelity and atheism to be taught in our universities under the guise of higher education. We are informed that in many of our universities the Darwin theory is being taught under the guise of psychology, etc. If infidelity and atheism is not taught and practiced in these schools how comes it that so many of the most learned of these professors are scoffers at religion, and are infidels themselves. Germany spread her doctrine of German Kultur through her schools, are we to have a worse state of educational and religious affairs in this country? Every teacher that teaches this atheism in form of higher education should be booted out of our universities.—Lockney Beacon.

The old debating subject: "Pursuit or possession" was at one time a favorite among young Ciceroes and Demosthenes. This subject, though old, has never lost interest and of course has never been decided satisfactorily to both affirmative and negative. There is danger in possession if we are not capable of keeping our heads level. Possession however, could be made equally as pleasant as pursuit and should by right, be the highest degree of happiness and the final culmination of pursuit. For instance, one in the pursuit of an education may have many difficulties in its pursuit and probably many hardships before attaining the goal. But when he shall have attained the desire of his heart he rejoices and begins to reap the benefit of his long pursuit. On the other hand lots of people never reach their desire in the pursuit of wealth, and should they do so, the possession of it would in all probability be a disappointment as far as happiness is concerned. If you would be happy pursue the things that tend toward the building of character and not after the frivolous things of life. "So long as we love we serve, and so long as we are loved by others, we might say we are indispensable." Are you big enough to meet the obligation, to others, in services of life, which is the highest attainment of pursuit.

Mrs. G. W. Brown of Snyder was in Post Tuesday night and assisted in some special work with the Eastern Star lodge, while here she was a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wilks.—Post City Post.

It takes a nery man these days to follow his own impulses, especially if it goes contrary to the styles and fashions of the day. However, freedom from the forms and fashions of the world is worth being censured for. To be one's self, however primitive, is the most natural. We do not mean to say that culture cannot overcome the primitive in a man, but one may be cultured and yet retain his original ideas.

D. P. Lane was around to see us the other day. He has not decided whether he will go to the Old Confederate Soldiers Reunion at Chattanooga or not. Mr. Lane went through the war from beginning to end and did not get wounded. At the battle of Murfreesboro, they got 1750 of their men out of 3500 in 20 minutes, which showed how extremely warm it was. Five men he said tried to carry the flag out and were shot down, while he was fortunate enough to get away with it. He was in 52 fights.

Pains Were Terrific
Read how Mrs. Albert Gregory, of R. F. D. No. 1, Bluford, Ill., got rid of her ills. "During . . . I was awfully weak . . . My pains were terrific. I thought I would die. The bearing-down pains were actually so severe I could not stand the pressure of my hands on the lower part of my stomach . . . I simply felt as if life was for but a short time. My husband was worried . . . One evening, while reading the Birthday Almanac, he came across a case similar to mine, and went straight for some Cardui for me to try."

"I took it faithfully and the results were immediate," adds Mrs. Gregory. "I continued to get better, all my ills left me, and I went through . . . with no further trouble. My baby was fat and strong, and myself—thank God—am once more hale and hearty, can walk miles, do my work, though 44 years old, feel like a new person. All I owe to Cardui." Who Said Seals Were Not Intelligent?

This old fellow may have whiskers but that indicates wisdom rather than age. He certainly knows enough to become affectionate with his fair mistress. One of the big amusements novelties at the State Fair of Texas of 1921—Dallas, October 8 to 23—will be this show of trained seals, conveyed by a quaint lot of real bathing beauties.

TEXANS WILL SEE NUMBER OF GREAT SHOWS THIS YEAR

Amusement Program of State Fair of Texas High in Standard and Variety.

Texans are known the world over as firm friends to wholesome amusement. The population of the State, living as it does in an environment that encourages broad-mindedness and develops mass intelligence, gives favor to good productions in a way that leaves no doubt as to their feelings.

This year Texans will have full opportunity to display their love for the tinsel, for the amusement program of the State Fair of Texas and International Exposition—Oct. 8 to 23—has just been announced and brings to light that some of the leading shows of the country will make America's greatest Fair.

"Smiles of 1921" will lead off the program as headliner, and it is a show well worthy of this important rank. It is a musical revue produced under the direction of Emile de Recat, the noted French maître de ballet, who will bring the most beautiful chorus to the State Fair that has ever been seen outside New York or Chicago. The show itself will be a sparkling medley, filled to a delightful measure with snappy songs, clever dancing, and bright hued costumes. "Smiles of 1921" will be staged in the Coliseum Building every day during the Fair, with one show in the afternoon and another at night.

Down on Amusement Row that well known showman, Clarence Wortham, will provide outdoor amusement with his series of shows and rides. This feature of the State Fair will advance many novelties, chief among them being a three-ring circus, which will play every day during the season.

Before the grandstand in the afternoon there will be auto races, motor-cyclé races, and a hippodrome show which will include some of the best vaudeville actors in America.

At night before the grandstand a scenic of deep historic interest will be shown. It is called, "Montezuma, or the Last Days of the Aztecs." This show is staged on a tremendous scale, and depicts in startling fashion the vain struggle of the proud Aztecs to withstand the conquering arm of Cortez. There will be a vivid pyrotechnic display, featuring the roaring volcanoes of Old Mexico.

There are other attractions galore that the State Fair is announcing from time to time, and the visitor to the 1921 Exposition is sure to find something of particular interest.

BIG LIVESTOCK YEAR INDICATION AT STATE FAIR

Texas Farmers and Stock Raisers Deeply Interested in Pure-bred Show.

One of the basic industries of Texas is looking forward to a great era of development if the indications furnished by the preparatory work of the State Fair of Texas are taken as evidence. The livestock department is seeing its most promising advance season, with the interest very general all over the State.

Texas has a big forage crop and livestock interests are booming.

The cause of this is found in the splendid forage crop of 1921 in all parts of the State, in the opinion of Col. Frank P. Holland, State Fair director in charge of cattle, and one of the most experienced men in the State in the livestock line. "Texas has turned to forage crops generally," he says. "And the farmers are being more richly rewarded than they ever dreamed they would be. Now the problem is to get the most profitable consumption of these crops, and the development of small, but well-bred, herds of livestock on every farm is the proper answer."

The State Fair season of 1921, October 8 to 23, will be a liberal education for the farmer and prospective stock raiser. Premiums in livestock and agriculture total more than $50,000 and this will bring the finest bred animals in America into the show competitions. The opportunity to buy improved strains will be unexcelled.

Early entries in the agricultural department of the State Fair are bearing out the fact that good crops are being made over the State. Over a dozen counties have reserved spaces for competitive exhibits. This is an unusually large number for this season of the year.

MISS BEULAH OVERSHINER DIED SEPTEMBER 12TH

Miss Beulah Overshiner died Monday night at 10:45 at the Baptist sanitarium in Dallas as a result of inflammation setting up from an operation which she underwent some time ago. She had been in the sanitarium there since Aug. 16th. The remains were brought to Valley View on the one o'clock train Tuesday afternoon and funeral services were held at the family home after which interment was made at the Valley View cemetery north of town. Rev. A. R. Nash preached the funeral services. Pall bearers were Levy Leach, Dave Lowe, John Connell, Frank Brownlee, Forrest Mangum and Dee Walker.

Miss Beulah Overshiner was born in Valley View and received her high school training here, graduating in 1909. She received her degree from the Denton Normal in 1914, and had been teaching school since that time. The last five years she had spent in San Antonio as an instructor in the schools there.

Her death came as a distinct shock to everyone in Valley View. While reports of her illness had been made known, no one was prepared for the news of her death. A great mass of followers at the funeral from sorrowing friends in Valley View and over the state were mute evidence of the love and esteem in which she was held by everyone. Old schoolmates at San Antonio sent a beautiful bank of flowers. Miss Bill Carr of Bonham, a close friend of the deceased for many years was present at the funeral. Besides other relatives at home a brother, E. M. Overshiner, of Abilene and two sisters, Mrs. Oliver McElyea of Snyder and Mrs. J. I. Hornsby of Krum, were present at the funeral.

Miss Overshiner is survived by her mother, Mrs. J. W. Overshiner, and three sisters and four brothers. Her father, J. W. Overshiner, died on December 2, 1919.—Valley View Sun.

Miss Overshiner was a sister of Mrs. Oliver McElyea of Snyder, who was present at the funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McCormick of Snyder visited old friends in Crowell from Sunday until Tuesday. They visited Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gibson in Vernon Tuesday, returning home Wednesday.—Ford County News.

We said in last week's Signal that Mrs. McCormick was visiting at Crowell and failed to say that Mr. McCormick went. It should have been Mr. and Mrs. McCormick.

W. B. McCormick and J. A. Hill attended the west Texas fair at Abilene Wednesday.

HUMAN ENERGY SAYS SEITZ

Preaches That Theory Because Practice Has Found It Sound

The patience of George B. Seitz was demonstrated to a visitor at the Seitz studio during the filming of "Desert Law," the fourth episode of the new Pathe Serial, "The Sky Ranger," in which June Caprice co-stars with its producer-director George B. Seitz, and showing Wednesday at the Cozy Theatre.

The scene was one in which a howling, menacing mob of Tibetans surrounded the mazed and bewildered June and George and took them to the temple of justice. The scene was inside the temple. Several of the Tibetans were carrying lighted torches. For the rehearsal these extras carried their torches unlighted, but were given explicit instructions, when the scene was photographed to douse the torches in huge vases of water provided for the purpose of extinguishing their flame.

After several rehearsals, the torches were lighted and the camera "shot" the scene. One extra forgot all about the torch, and sparks from them fell about June Caprice's pretty blonde head.

Did George B. Seitz "hit the ceiling?" Did he tear his hair? Did he make the atmosphere blue? He did not. Mr. Seitz is far too busy a man to waste energy in outbursts of temper. As calm as though he intended inviting the man to have luncheon with him, he asked:

"Didn't you hear me tell you to put out your torch?"

The man nodded an affirmative. "Well, couldn't you remember that much? Forgot it, didn't you?"

It is safe to say that that particular extra will remember the quiet sarcasm of that last remark longer than if he had gotten a bombastic calling down.

Joan Arliss, leading support for Romaine Fielding in "The Man Worth While," is one of the very few artists who can act without acting. Her work in Mr. Fielding's last production is a revelation of sincerity. She plays the part of a timber girl, born and bred deep in the forests of the great northland. Miss Arliss, in real life is the daughter of a well-known clergyman. She is a grand opera singer of note, with a magnificent dramatic mezzo-soprano voice plus youth and beauty.

Romaine Fielding, who plays the part of "The Man Worth While," at the Cozy Theatre tomorrow has won two popularity contests, conducted by leading motion picture magazines. Before the war, he was considered the most popular motion picture actor in America.

Chas. B. Palmer at one time a resident of Dunn, but now of Bangs, was here this week visiting home folks and looking after business matters.

PROMINENT MAN OF AFFAIRS DIES IN SHERMAN HOME

Sherman, Texas, Sept. 27.—Col. R. E. Smith, for fifty years a resident of Sherman, during all of which time he has been identified with many of the large interests of the forward progress of the city and county, died at the home of his son-in-law, City Manager O. J. S. Ellington, 815 North Crocket street, Monday evening at 10 o'clock, after a period of six months' ill health.

Arrangements have been made for the funeral Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ellington on North Crocket St. Dr. T. A. Wharton, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will conduct the religious service. The pall bearers named are as follows: George Hardwicke, F. C. Dillard, H. O. Head, G. O. Hunter, S. W. Porter, Charles L. Etowe, J. B. Wilson, T. D. Joiner, C. B. Dorchester, John S. Kerr, W. R. Brents, Dick Chapman, Jr., W. H. Lankford, Paul Bean, Dr. I. P. Gunby, honorary; N. B. Birge, Lee Simmons, J. F. Etter, H. W. Head, C. B. Randal, J. F. Madden, L. M. Tuck, C. S. Roberts, active.

Mr. Smith was born in Artesia, Miss., sixty-nine years ago. He was one of a large family of children. He was educated in the University of Virginia. Immediately after his graduation he came to Texas and settled in Sherman. This was fifty years ago.

Mr. Smith was interested in large affairs, especially as related to agriculture. One of the pioneers in the cultivation of alfalfa, he gained the reputation throughout the Southwest in the introduction of this crop in North Texas. At one time he had 1,800 acres of alfalfa on his large farm, east of Sherman. This attracted people from all parts of the Southwest to see this large field, and one time a special car brought a large number of prominent St. Louis people to his farm. The St. Louis Republic sent a special representative along, and that paper named him "The Alfalfa King of the Southwest," which title stuck to him for the remainder of his life.

Mr. Smith was a member of the Southern Presbyterian Church and took a prominent and active part in church work. He is survived by the following children: Mrs. J. M. Weems, Mrs. I. R. Bobbitt, Robert Smith, Mrs. J. S. Ellington, Sherman; Mrs. Noah Jones of Snyder, Herbert E. Smith of Miles, and Mrs. J. M. Kirkland of Dallas.

There are also three small children by his last marriage, Harold, Dorothy and Virginia.

"Alfalfa" Smith was one of the first promoters of better agriculture in the State and assisted in many ways in the development of better farming conditions, according to Col. Frank P. Holland, a personal friend of Mr. Smith. "He was the first farmer in North Texas to develop alfalfa growing on a large scale in the non-irrigated districts," Col. Holland said. "At one time he had 1,400 or 1,500 acres of land in alfalfa and his farm was the largest in the State devoted solely to the growing of this product. He owned from twenty to thirty farms at one time.

"A community house was maintained on his farm for the use of his employees and they held many entertainments and regular meetings there. His farm, a short distance from Sherman, was one of the show places of the city until he sold out a number of years ago, and went to West Texas, where he purchased a ranch. I had not seen him for several years and it has been some time since he visited Dallas, although he was formerly a frequent visitor here."

NEW YORKER PLEASED WITH SCURRY COUNTY

Hon. I. R. Oleand one of New York City's most prominent attorneys of 115 Broadway and a native Texan passed through Snyder this week touring across country from New York to Los Angeles with his family in an automobile.

A gentleman of wealth and culture, Judge Oleand has figured in many of the great legal decisions in the East and was in charge of the Government prosecution of the famous coal cases a few years ago.

Thirty years ago, Judge Oleand stated, he had hunted over this section and could not believe this section of the world could ever amount to anything. He was delighted with the wonderful progress and spoke especially of the splendid appearance Scurry county made as compared to the other sections of the country passed thru, and of Scurry county's good road, as being the greatest advertisement this county could have.

The visitor is an old friend of Judge R. L. Johnson and visited with him while here.

LETTER FROM C. R. BUCHANAN RELATIVE TO SCHOOL BONDS

Mr. A. Johnston, Snyder, Texas.

Dear Sir and Friend:

I have your letter of the 20th relative to the outlook for the sale of the Snyder bonds to the State School Board, and replying will say that I have had a talk with the bond clerk in this department who is really the fellow that knows more about the outlook than any member of the board because he is the fellow who keeps the bond records. This man tells me that the outlook for the board to make any more purchases in the next several months is very unpromising.

The record for a number of years past has been that the receipts to the credit of the permanent school fund have run from one hundred fifty thousand to two hundred thousand dollars per month; hence the Board figured that eight or ten months after it purchased that two million dollars worth of bonds on the installment plan last March or April, the receipts to the credit of that fund would be sufficient to liquidate all of the indebtedness for such purchases, but the record is, since said purchases were made, that not more than thirty to forty thousand dollars per month has been coming in. It seems that very little land is being patented and very little principal is being paid on the bonds that the school fund holds. Of course it is hard to tell how long this record on receipts is going to hold out. It may be that receipts will begin to increase pretty soon and that next Spring at or before the time school closes, the board will be in position to take the Snyder bonds. However my advice would be that if you can find a sale for the bonds in the open market at par and accrued interest to be sure to let them go, and I think it would be well to make efforts to find a purchaser, for the reason that the State Board might take the installment route on the next purchases they make, and might not be able to pay the money as fast as you would need it when you began the construction of a new building.

Be sure to write me when I can be of any service to you.

Very cordially yours,
C. R. BUCHANAN.

Mrs. B. C. Taylor Dead.

Mrs. B. C. Taylor, who lived out about Arab, died last Thursday evening and was buried Friday evening in the Snyder Cemetery.

Funeral services were conducted Friday evening at the First Baptist Church.

Mrs. Taylor leaves a husband, six children and a host of friends to mourn her departure.

She was a member of the Baptist church, a splendid Christian character. She was devoted to her family, and was loved by all those who associated with her.

She has gone to her reward. Her presence will be missed by her loved ones and her friends, but her influence will live on.

The Presbyterian Women's Auxiliary

Met at the church Monday Sept. 26, for the monthly Missionary program.

The subject being a general survey of Home Missions, and India. A good program, with Mrs. Elza, leader, was rendered in an unusually interesting way.

The secretary for literature, Mrs. Wright, presented the matter of enrolling for the fall study class in Home Missions using the book "From Survey to Service." Each one present who had not already enrolled, did so at this time and prospects are for a splendid class.

The meeting next Monday at 3 p. m. will be with Mrs. Wright at the manse and work will be done on articles for the Bazaar.

All are urged to be present.

War Saving Stamps and Certificates.

While times are hard, I have local evidence and general statistics before me showing that these hard times are showing people generally, as nothing else has done, the important place that thrift and saving occupy in any man's or any woman's life. Paradoxical as it may seem, people save more during hard times than during plentiful periods. In good times, so many people take "eat drink and be merry" too literally.

In this community, Government War Savings Stamps and the $25 and $100 Registered Treasury Savings Certificates have proved a veritable God send to a surprising number of hard-pressed people; and to these people who have needed money and who had the foresight to lay-by a $5 War Savings Stamp or two every month or every pay day, the importance and necessity of regular saving and the safe salting away of a little money every week or every month have been demonstrated and proven.

To those who want to begin playing in the savings game that provides when crops fail and extends a helping hand when money is tight, I'd like to say that Uncle Sam extends that privilege and opportunity at the Post Office where $5 War Savings Stamps and $25 and $100 Registered Treasury Savings Certificates can always be had.

Let's make our community a saving community; where there's thrift want is not found.

With The Altruists.

The Altruist Club met in business meeting, Sept. 21, with Mrs. E. J. Anderson, this being the first meeting after the summer's vacation, quite a bit of business was transacted.

The Library Committee reported the Public Library again open to the public, with quite a few new books on hand. The Library is located in South east room, third floor of the court house, and is a source of much benefit and pleasure to those who avail themselves of the privilege of using the books. It is open every Thursday from 4 to 6.

We are glad to have added to our roll Mesdames Smith and English. Our study on "English and American Short Story" is expected to prove quite interesting.

Plans for the Annual Reception at the home of Mrs. H. G. Towle was discussed and committees appointed to make all arrangements, our new President, Mrs. T. L. Winston, very ably addressed the Club members making each one feel that the time spent in club work was not time wasted but very profitably spent.

We were very glad to have as visitors Mrs. Hutchins of Oregon and Mrs. McCormick of Mississippi. The hostess served a delicious salad course.

I want to extend to you and the others of the family my sincerest sympathies in this, the saddest and most trying time of your lives.

Zoe and I learned to love your father and mother while we were there and it is a distinct loss to us to hear of the death of your father.

All his friends have lost a counselor, advisor, a friend in need, and a friend in deed; the town and community have lost a man, whose sterling worth and integrity cannot be easily found elsewhere and the Masonic Fraternity has been deprived of a guiding hand, whose touch has been felt and followed by so many in the years gone by.

Our hearts go out to you all and especially to the delicate, gentle and pure hearted little woman, who, for so long, leaned upon his strong arms and broad shoulders and has listened so many times for the coming of his steps from errands of mercy and relief, during all the hours of the day and night, in sunshine and storm, in the heat of the summer and the chilling blasts of winter, from the bringing in of a new life and the closing of tired eyes in the long last sleep of death.

His was a long life, well spent in the duties he owed to his God, his family and his country and his memory shall ever be the sprig of ever green which typifies a life beyond the grave where life, death and the vast forever shall be one glad sweet song.

His trials of life are over, his burdens and cares are laid down, and in the rest he so richly deserved, he has at last come into his own.

God bless you all and soothe the sorrow which has enveloped you is the sincerest wish of Camp C. Cowling.

J. E. LONG DEAD.

J. E. Long 78 years of age, died Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock p. m. at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. A. Woodfin, in east Snyder.

Mr. Long had been in declining health for some time, when the end came. He was a faithful member of the Baptist church and was a member of the Baptist church at Coperas Cove for 35 years. His wife had preceded on to the better world some three years ago.

Four children survive him, Mrs. J. A. Woodfin, of Snyder; Mrs. J. W. Burrows of Sagerton; Mrs. A. J. Akers, Brownfield; and Miss Annie Long of Waco, Baylor University. The two later were unable to reach here for the funeral.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday evening at the First Baptist church by Rev. I. D. Hull and interment made in the Snyder Cemetery.

Bro. Long has been waited on to his eternal home. His sorrows and heartaches have been ended, and he will be beckoning to his friends and loved ones to enter in to the joys that await them over there.

'MAKING THE GRADE' OUTSHINES PREVIOUS PRODUCTION

If you don't want to miss a snappy well directed and excellently acted feature picture, be sure, and visit the Cozy next Saturday where David Butler holds full sway in his latest and what will be termed the greatest screen presentation, "Making the Grade."

Young Butler has rapidly risen to the ranks of stardom and has long been a shining light in the film firmament. His pictures have caused keen enjoyment to film lovers but "Making the Grade" outshines all of his previous screen endeavors by far and brings to the silver sheet a five reel comedy drama so chock full of snap and ginger that it will be very hard to duplicate.

In some fortunate manner, David Butler seems to sense the pulse of the picture public. He has a happy faculty of giving the fans the sort of pictures they have been looking forward to, and "Making the Grade" is certainly no exception to the case.

CAMERAMAN LUCKY TO GET TOE-AND-TOOTH HOLD.

Usually the cameraman stands by and watches the actors risk life and limb for the sake of thrilling an excitement-loving public, but in "The Sky Ranger," the Pathe serial, episode five, of which is at the Cozy Theatre Wednesday, Edward Snyder found his "crang-gringing" task a particularly hazardous one.

Frank Leon Smith, author of "The Sky Ranger," in which June Caprice is co-starred with its producer-author, George B. Seitz, was not content with a twentieth-story roof ledge, an elevator shaft, a steaming vat, and other locations as backgrounds for thrills, and villainy, so he put in a swift airplane, and conceived action that made it necessary for the cameraman to virtually hang on by his teeth and turn the camera with his feet to get the necessary scenes.

What worries Mr. Seitz is the fear that cameraman Edward Snyder will be wanting to turn into a stunt actor.

WONDERFUL GAIN IN WEIGHT REPORTED

Young Woman Only Weighed 76 Pounds. Now Weighs over 100 and Is Gaining Every Day.

"Before I began taking Tanlac I only weighed 76 pounds, I now weigh over one hundred and am gaining every day," said Miss LaRue Davis, of Chattanooga, Tenn.

"I bought my first bottle of Tanlac at Gas City, Ind., and it helped me so much that I concluded using it. I have always been very delicate and suffered a great deal from stomach trouble and rheumatism. I rarely ever had any appetite and simply could not relish anything. I fell off until I only weighed 76 pounds and was so thin I looked perfectly awful. This is the condition I was in when I began taking Tanlac.

"Oh, I feel so different now. Even my complexion is improved. My appetite is good and I can hardly get enough to eat. Tanlac is simply grand and I can truthfully say it is the only medicine that ever did me any good." Tanlac is sold in Snyder by Grayum Drug Company.
