At a special meeting of the advisory committee of the Chamber of Commerce plans for the coming year were outlined with a view of pushing the extension work throughout the county. The members of this committee are Judge M. E. Rosser, W. M. Morrow, Liv Davis, J. K. Blackard, E. J. Anderson, J.H. G. Towle, Joe Caton, George Northcutt and T. L. Higgidootham. The 100 hens, 3 cows and 4 sows program which originated with this organization and which has now spread over the entire state will be pushed vigorously.

In order that the Chamber wil be in a position to work intelligently the county will be districted and each district placed in the hands of a competent producer of that district. A careful and accurate census is to be taken of every farm in the county to determine the basis on which each individual producer is operating and to enable the committe to conduct the work from the most intelligent standpoint posible. A little preliminary investigation on the part of the committee siready discloses the fact that practically every farmer in the county is getting ready to do something along this line. Bankers and merchants alike are indicating that credits in the future will be largely based on the effort being made in this line of development. There is no doubt but the welfare of the community will depend on the cooperation obtained and when once. started Scurry county and her peoplo will be assured of the future. DATE CHANGED FOR THE POULTRY SHOW

A change has; been made in the dates for the Scurry county Poultry show from December 22nd, and 23rd to December 30th, and 31st., in view of the fact that so many exhibitors business men and others advise the two days before Christmas already scheduled will be such a busy time that it might detract from the general interest of the show. It is the desire that every body be able to take a hand in this exhibition and the belief of the management that the idents of Snyder, were here this week last two days of December will proved from their home at El Paso, visiting the best for the occasion. Quite a number of poultry enthusiasts have indicated they are going to attend the Plainview show and there will be several exhibitors from Scurry county. It is desired that all, who are

Cards showing mem bership in the organization were ordered printed and to be distributed to all subscribing members.. The com mittee argent'y requests that all subscribers make their payments prompt ly so that the work of assisting those who are in need will not be deterred.

A headline says: "City man and farmer must get together" in an article by Bascom N. Timmons, in Fort Worth Record. The special joint committee on agriculture inquiry are now formating their report. The high freight rates and effect on producer and consumer is given. What is the sense, representative Beck says, of a farmer in Texas selling cabbage at $20.00 per ton that costs the consummer in New York $240.00 A cargo of peaches shipped to a Chicago commission man from a farmer in Georgia didn't bring enough to pay the freight, but a second cargo sent by the same farmer to Chicago and sold direct to the consumer on a falling market brought $500.00 per car net. What is the sense, he says of paying $8.00 to $12.00 for a pair of Shoes, when the farmer of my state are throwing away their hides for lack of a market.
