THE BRADY SENTENCE
(Lubbock Avalanche)

Another sensational murder trial has ended and once again has been paraded, in all its fullness, our once-respected system of trial by jury—as a ghastly, lecherous corpse of jurisprudence.

After hearing sordid evidence and listening to the impassioned pleas of a brilliant counsel, a Dallas jury returned a verdict of guilty. Twelve men, citizens of a modern Texas metropolis, have ruled that all books will be squared if John Brady spends three years in prison for the fatal stabbing of his youthful paramour. Get that—and get it straight! Three years in prison, the jury has ruled, will be a fair exchange for one beneath the sod—and, in the opinion of the jurors, will make even-Stephen, the account of Society versus John Brady, convicted girl-slayer! The decision, ladies and gentlemen, represents an idea of justice in the State of Texas, edition of 1930.

Justice! Justice! Justice!

Don't make us laugh! It's no laughing matter. It is one of the most serious matters facing Texas today—an ominous warning to beware, for even as the Brady verdict was announced the threatening rumble of mob violence had not died in the land. Almost within a stone's throw of the Dallas bar were jumbled the blackened ruins of another Texas courthouse, burned when a mob refused to entrust the court and jury the administration of a criminal case. Failure to exact retribution for crime, through the proper channels, presents a dire problem which threatens the very civilization of a great state!

Today, from the far-flung borders of Texas, people are ridiculing the sentence in the Brady case. From Texarkana to El Paso, dazed Texans are rubbing their eyes, their brains numbed by the stunning conception of justice and of the crime of murder. Four millions of people are thunder-struck. And four millions of people are asking themselves: "Is murder a felony in Texas—or is it a minor charge, to be taken lightly and dealt with as a mere misdemeanor?"

When a crimson knife loosed the life blood of a defenseless girl to splash beneath her feet, there was committed a murder. When that cruel weapon severed the life cord forever, there was taken a life—something which cannot be given back, which nothing can restore anywhere this side of Heaven. As that life fled—even if it were, as the testimony showed, a dwarfed, blackened life of a loose woman—the battered body of Lelia Highsmith was consigned to the sod as long as this world stands in its present state.

Hopes were blasted. Plans to "go straight" were rent asunder. "Fines" was written to a human life forever. Yet, a jury has ruled John Brady may atone, may square things with society, by spending three years in prison!

If that Dallas jury was not convinced that John Brady committed the murder of Lelia Highsmith, then John Brady should have been freed, to walk again among his fellows. But if that jury was convinced that Brady did the slaying—and by its verdict it must have been so convinced—then the punishment should have been drafted to fit the crime and should not have been the putrid, weakly, compromise that it was.

Texans had best awake from the lethargy which now threatens to exact a dastardly retribution. Juries had best remember that their first responsibility is to society and to civilization, not to the sniveling, fawning cry of "Mercy"—when mercy won't fill the bill. Those charged with the administration of our courts should bend to hoist them back to a place of public esteem and members of the bar should move to aid that end by placing a stamp of disapproval upon drama and trickery which so often plays a leading role in the trial court.

Respect for law, for court and for justice must be maintained through strict adherence to demands of the statutes. To further tempt fate in Texas is to court disaster and to invite shame.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER—
FORMAL ANNOUNCEMENT
Mrs. Thomas S. Jones, Jr., and Mrs. Robert Fry were hostesses at an informal gathering Wednesday afternoon, in the Jones home from 4 to 5 o'clock. The occasion was a courtesy for Mrs. Roy L. Patrick, a bride of recent date. Guests showed the honoree with many attractive gifts. At this time, the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Alene Powell to Mr. George F. Smith of Snyder, Texas, was revealed. Mr.

SCURRY COUNTY WELCOMES MOSER

Government Soil Survey Party Arrives In Scurry Co.

Men Will Start Work at Once for Inventory of County Soils

The Soil Survey Party arrived in Snyder, Saturday, and will start their work at once. While making this noteworthy announcement, Snyder and Scurry county folks should not lose track of the fact that honors are due Vice President O. P. Thrane of the Snyder National Bank in keeping after this survey proposition personally, for more than five years, and through County Agents John Carmichael, Claude Willis and W. O. Logan. The Times-Signal believes firmly in placing flowers where they belong and while friends and boosters are living, and Mr. Thrane is entitled to the lion's share of the credit for never quitting and for his untiring efforts that this remarkable and wonderful agricultural angle has come to Snyder. Many men, carefully trained in the work will be engaged for months and an expenditure of thousands of dollars will be necessary. Our hats are off completely to Booster Peter Thrane, and the county agents who backed up his every effort in Messrs. Carmichael, Willis and Logan.

The importance of this soil survey is shown in a letter from Director A. B. Connor of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, A. & M. College, when he writes the following, under date of May 28th: Times-Signal:

"I have your letter of May 26 referring to the Soil Survey work to be undertaken in Scurry county.

"Mr. E. H. Templin, assisted by Mr. T. C. Reich, will take up the work of making a soil survey of Scurry county about June 1. The soil survey consists of making a complete classification and inventory of every soil within Scurry county. As the soils are studied and classified, they are shown on a map of a scale of one inch equals one mile. The soil map is shown with a color representing each soil type and its extent, and when the

Home Talent Is Big Event At School Tonight

American Legion Benefit Will Open Two Nights Engagement

Tonight is the opening premiere of the greatest home talent production ever to show in Snyder, with "Corporal Eagen" getting started at the High School Auditorium. The same show is to be presented Friday night.

With a cast of more than 150 local people, the show has been going good under the expert direction of Dorothy Thames, who is as full of pep as any flea-bitten cotton bollie ever came across. She's 100% all there and the entire cast has been working faithfully under her direction. That young lady will not direct home talent productions all her life, either. What it takes to mean "IT"—she's got it, but we're away from our story.

The show, which is a benefit for the American Legion should draw a packed house, and the Times-Signal is warning you right now, it's the best and greatest home talent show that has ever come to Snyder. It's a knockout. Reserved seats went on sale yesterday at Stinson Drug Store, No. 1.

Building permits that total $7,600 were granted in Snyder during May.

FREE CHEVROLETS

Consternation was written on the faces of Yoder-Anderson Motor Co. employees Monday morning when D. P. Yoder was passing out free gifts around the plant, and what appeared to be even Chevrolet cars but later on a telegram showed that a "fine seven pound boy had been born to Mr. and Mrs. Hal P. Yoder at Lubbock, Sunday night at 10:30 p. m."

Mother and son are doing fine, while it appears that Grandpa and Grandma Yoder in Snyder are having the hardest time to subdue their enjoyment at the first grandchild to come to them. Here's the best wishes to all concerned.

LUBBOCK SECURES 1931 W. T. C. C. CONVENTION

Election of Judge Charles E. Coombes, Elected Pres. and D. A. Bandoen, Manager

Election of Judge Charles E. Coombes of Stamford, as President of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and selection of Lubbock as 1931 convention city with the Scurry County Chamber of Commerce Band winning second place in the one-year class for bands are three high lights of the final day session at Abilene, Saturday. The Band were entitled to first place, but that's a long story, and everybody is happy for the beautiful loving cup that was brought back to Snyder and officially presented at the Sunday Band Concert.

The Fort Worth Ladies band were elected as the official band of the organization, "coming into a he-man's country" as the Abilene Reporter-News stated, "and copping the highest honors."

Other officers elected at the final session were Houston Harte, San Angelo, first vice-president; C. M. Caldwell, Abilene, second vice president; R. V. Colbert, Stamford, treasurer, and retention of D. A. Bandoen as secretary-manager.

On this latter's re-election he drew a rousing demonstration of confidence from the board. When C. M. Caldwell, Abilene, was placed in nomination for second vice President, he likewise placed the name of O. P. Thrane up, but the latter withdrew himself. Mr. Thrane, however, was re-elected Director for Snyder.

That the West Texas Chamber of Commerce has pulled itself out by its own boot-straps was shown when the report was read that the organization which was "in the red" last October to the tune of $28,000, not only has paid all its indebtedness but now has $18,000 in the treasury to start the new fiscal year. Of that sum, $2,000 had been received since the treasurer's report had been read to the convention.

The luncheon given West Texas newspaper men by the Reporter-News with Max Bentley as chairman of the meeting was one of the finest bits of entertainment given during the three days' session. The paper and Max were given a standing vote of thanks.

Electric Clock Installed at Snyder National

Telechron Clock Provides Correct Time at Bank Location

The first institution in Snyder to provide an outside clock for the convenience of residents and visitors is now located at the Snyder National Bank, and was placed in position last Saturday. Placed in a beautiful bronze frame, the clock is a fine addition to the many new things that our Public Square includes.

The new and modern addition is what is termed a Telechron Electric clock, needs no winding but over the wires comes a correction in its time from the Naval Observatory in Washington, D. C. each day.

Co-operating with The Snyder National Bank in providing this improvement are the following: Caton-Dodson Dry Goods Co., Stinson Drug Co., "M" System, Winston & Clements, N. W. Autry, Snyder Laundry, Yoder-Anderson Motor Co., Burton-Lingo Co., Snyder Insurance Agency and Snyder Hardware & Implement Co.

SNYDER BOASTS OF BROADCASTING PLANT

Carl Yoder of the Yoder Electric Co. has completed a broadcasting set with a sufficient wave length under 300 meters that can be heard several miles outside of Snyder. He is planning to put out a regular program over the set which is more good news to boost Snyder's efforts to stay right out in the sun of West Texas activity.

Hoover purposes fishing trip only on Western vacation.

ATTEND FRATERNAL MEETING

Mmes. Fannie B. Warren, Mary S. Brown, Viola Warren, Orma Wren, Vera Temple, and Chancy Moore attended the O. E. S. School of Instruction at Big Spring Monday.

They report a fine school and a good time.

SNYDER BOOSTER WILL BE HOME THIS WEEK

Cyrus Nussbaum, "than whom there is no whomer" when it comes to boosting for Snyder and Scurry county expects to land in Snyder, today, and will be the guest of Secy and Mrs. Walt Scott and family. Capt. Nussbaum has been completing some community work in Oklahoma but likes it too well in Texas to stay away long at a time.

Cap. by Golly! we're happy to welcome you back to the old home town where everybody greets you with a happy smile and a hearty, friendly shake of the hand. If you want our shirt, say so.

MRS. YODER AND FRED LEAVE MONDAY FOR THREE MONTHS TRIP

Mrs. D. P. Yoder and son Fred will leave Snyder Monday for Newton, Kansas, where Mrs. Yoder was born, and where the two will spend a week. From there they will go to New York City and embark on a trans-Atlantic liner, June 19th, going to Athens, Greece, where they will meet Theodore Yoder, who is Director of Extension in The American University at Cairo, Egypt. They will be traveling with the Dr. Wicker Tourist party and will visit the Holy Land, and the Pyramids in Egypt and will see the Passion Play at Oberammergau and many other points of great interest. They expect to be away from Snyder three months.

Mrs. Yoder has promised to write a number of letters from various points in her travels which will be most happy to publish for our readers. We likewise say "Bon Voyage" to these Snyder folks who will be seeing the world with their own eyes, and not via books.

Memorial Day Observed By Snyder Legion

Large Attendance Join in Memorial Services at Snyder Cemetery

Will Layne Post No. 181, American Legion observed Memorial Day services with a special program at the Snyder Cemetery, Sunday afternoon, with a large crowd in attendance. Commander Harrie Winston was in charge of the program.

Rev. Cal C. Wright gave the principal address, and a decoration of the graves following the service was made by an escort from Company G, 142 nd Infantry with Lt. Wren Moore in charge.

Graves that were marked included the following:

Seventeen Scurry County Farmers Unite WOLF POISON CONTROVERSY

To Uphold Action, County Agent Logan

We, the undersigned Citizens and Freeholders of Scurry County have had it brought to our attention that County Agent W. O. Logan has been unjustly criticized for coyote poisoning. So we wish to clarify some statements regarding same.

We were not SOLICITED or INFLUENCED in any way by the County Agent to PUT OUT ANY POISON. We did it strictly on our own initiative, and paid for it with our own funds. We did it, with only the thought of protecting our livestock and poultry.

The U. S. Biological Survey had been appealed to by four Scurry County citizens for assistance along this line before W. O. Logan ever came to the County. When several of us went to the county agent's office and told him we were going to poison, and asked what assistance he could render, he advised wiring the Biological Survey. Their answer being delayed, we got our ingredients locally, had it mixed and put in capsules at a local drug store, ordered our fat pork baits from Morris & Company, Packers, ready cut, and put it out, and paid the entire bills and telegrams, also notice in paper, as suggested by the county agent. A few days later the Biological Survey man (E. T. Personet) came, the county agent introduced him to several of us, and he told us the Government was behind the livestock and poultry interests. Mr. Personet offered to help us in any way, and furnish the specially prepared poison cubes put out by his department to be used in fat pork baits.

So, if there is any blame for anyone, we are ready to accept it and feel justified in protecting our premises, livestock and poultry.

Snyder's "My Home Town" Essay As Delivered at Abilene Last Week

Miss Brentz Anderson was Snyder's entry in the "My Home Town" Contest of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention at Abilene. Miss Anderson rendered the following oration in a most able and versatile manner:

"My home town is small in number but here is a pride in the quality of its citizenship.

No great floods of gold have flown through its doors, nor is it a commercial center where high ways of trade happen to cross, nor do you hear the din of the factory, but there is something about my home town that tells you, here is a place I would like to live. There is an undercurrent of solidity with a definite purpose.

We are not striving for greatness as to size or the amount of wealth that we may accumulate, but a place where our boys and girls may receive inspiration to make useful men and women of tomorrow.

I love my home town. I know its good and bad and know the effort that is being made to make its good, perfect. I like to meet the smile and friendly handclasp of its men and women; I send an interest in me and in every other boy and girl that makes us want to do our best.

More than fifty years have passed since the rude huts of the buffalo hunters laid the foundation of my home town.

To those first hardy settlers, existence was a struggle, and ever since nothing has come to us on silver platters. With us it has always been, "We did it."

We like to feel that all people are our friends. Our Chamber of Commerce has always been our County Chamber of Commerce. It was in My Home Town that the slogan of the Cow, Sow and Hen originated which has brought happiness and prosperity to the Nation over. We are of the earth, earthy, and know that happiness and prosperity springs from our soil. A poultry show, cattle show and county fair are yearly events in my home town. They are links that bind my Home Town and County together and make us feel one big family.

With an unlimited supply of pure water, wonderful air and sunshine and the good old stuff behind us we are always trying for something better.

My home town has the best of schools, splendid churches and beautiful homes. Our business men take pride in the fact that business failures are an unknown occurrence.

Long avenues of trees, green lawns and beautiful flowers greet you and as the stranger enters the business section of my home town there comes to him the feeling here would I linger and stay; here are a people unselfish and happy and vision in the far off.

The first hard surfaced highway to be constructed in West Texas was built through my home town through the efforts of its citizenship and a little plot of ground now within its city limits marks the first experiment in cotton growing in all this great western section. There are countless other first things we have done.

Our boys and girls are spread the nation over and across the seas making good in their chosen tasks. Breathes there a man with soul so dead, who never to himself hath said: "This is my own, my own home town?"

I am proud of my home town and all there are in it, and for fear there may be someone of you who has not already guessed its name, I'll tell you—Snyder."

Scurry County Band Wins 2nd Honors at Meet

Director Crowley and Secy Scott Were "Papas" to 39 Folks

Band Director J. W. Crowley and Secy Walt Scott were "Papas" to a live group of 39 musicians that took the Abilene trip and participated in the WTCC contest and convention. This happened, too, in West Texas and not in Utah where the Mormons believe in that sort of thing, but to say that these gentlemen acted their parts would be placing it only too mildly and the folks living in the south part of Abilene will attest to the fact that the Scurry county aggregation were the only ones at the convention to give them a concert. Winning second honors for their first year was a fine accomplishment.

Drum Major John Billy Beggs was on "Dress Parade" when the band group were in marching order, and with the entire aggregation arrayed in their new uniforms they made a most imposing spectacle. The group stayed at Camp Selma during their Abilene visit and the party included:

Band Director J. W. Crowley, Secy Walt Scott, John Billy Beggs, Luke Weems, J. W. Hendryx, Leighton Griffin, Melvin Wiley, Horace Holley, Bob Hamilton, Leo Francis York, E. V. Boynton, Fred Wolcott, Corwin Patterson, Studie Smith, Borden Gray, E. J. Bradbury, Hugh Taylor, Kenneth Pitter, Miss Vera Stavelly, Emmett Askins, W. F. Cox, Boss Stavelly, Mrs. J. W. Crowley, Verba Adams, T. J. Teters, Harold Davidson, Miss Maurine Cunningham, Wiley Crowley, Travis LaRue, Misses Inez Gleghorn, Eva Patterson, Mattie Lynn Beavers, Miss Rose Clawson, Morris Sturdivant, Willard Lewis, W. H. Shuler, Mrs. Boss Stavelly, Murray Gray, Norman York, William Miller and Banie Smith.

The above mentioned "Papas" hope to have even better arrangements completed for the Band at the Lubbock convention in 1931. They had a hard job, went through it 100 per cent, and here's congratulations to them and the fine group who represented Scurry county officially and well.

FLUVANNA MAN AT PRESBYTERY

Elder John Stavelly of Fluvanna is representing the Abilene Presbytery at the 142nd Presbyterian General Assembly of the United States of America at Cincinnati.

Rev. Fred S. Rogers of Stamford is also attending the session. Ole and Rosa Nell Stavelly accompanied Mr. Stavelly to the meeting and they plan on visiting various Canadian points before returning home.

Dal-Paso Cavern Road Boosters Meet June 12

Will Hold Sessions in Carlsbad Caverns With Snyder Man Presiding

Seeking Federalization of the Dal-Paso Caverns highway, which runs on a straight line between Dallas and El Paso by way of the famous caverns at Carlsbad, New Mexico, officers, directors and delegates of the association fostering the highway will convene at Carlsbad Thursday, June 12 for their fourth annual meeting. It is the first convention of the association on the West end of the highway.

Date for the meeting was settled two weeks ago when O. P. Thrane of Snyder, president of the Dal-Paso Caverns highway association, and Wm. A. Wilson, of Lamesa, secretary, met at Gall. At that time it was decided that the meeting would take place at Carlsbad and it was also discussed to hold the convention in the Caverns themselves. The novelty of this great natural curiosity serving as a convention hall will in all probability draw the largest attendance of any previous meet.

Delegates from cities on the highway will meet with county judges of counties through which the route passes at the Carlsbad, meet. Election of officers of the association will also be made during the meeting. Present officers are: O. P. Thrane, Snyder, president; W. H. Cook, Breckenridge, first vice-president; R. W. Pittman, Seminole, second vice-president; J. D. Langford, Albany, treasurer; Wm. A. Wilson, Lamesa, secretary. All county judges on the route and officially elected directors numbering six compose the directorate.

LADIES AGAIN

The Times-Signal carried a story about free mail delivery for Snyder last week. Mrs. Joe Caton of the Altrurian Club states that organization has been "on the job" and waiting for a post-office inspector for the last two months, and that on his arrival, the ladies will present him with sufficient statistics about our home town that will bring this early improvement here.

Fine work for the Altrurian Club, and thanks, ladies, for your assistance.

NEW REPORTER AT TIMES-SIGNAL

Miss Meva Doak, who was Literary Editor for Tigers Tale and a member of the 1930 graduating class of Snyder High School has accepted a reporter position with the Times-Signal. Friends of Miss Doak having news for the paper may call her at the office or at her residence and she would appreciate your co-operation.

Long Skirts to Get Seats in Subway for Women - Perhaps

Feminine Writer Believes the Draped Silhouette Will Bring the Return of Chivalry

"Perhaps with the advent of soft curves and clinging draperies, when a woman's body is cleverly veiled as well as her speech and actions, the old woman allure will again thrill men, chivalry will blossom forth anew and women will once more get seats in the subway," says Madeleine Moscherosch in the Western Electric News when discussing long and short skirts. "Kiss, we grant you, are a pretty sight—if not knocked, knobby, fat, fleshy or prominent. A pretty sight, indeed, if viewed from the front. But have you ever walked behind a girl or woman in the short skirt of yesterday and found something to admire in the vision, even though her underpinnings were most symmetrical?" "We defy anyone to prove that the back of a woman's knee is an aesthetic sight. "Short skirts," declared Mary Gardner, "may be the smartest thing modernists have discovered but they have robbed woman of her most fascinating attribute—MYSTERY. The modern woman has ceased to be what every woman craves to be—mysterious. "Not so very long ago to cut or not to cut the hair short was the burning question. Today to wear or not to wear her dresses long is agitating not only the Great American Feminine Public, but the masculine element as well. "Let us look at the thing impartially. The dresses you see today are not particularly alluring. When Paris, some eighteen months ago, decreed longer skirts, her dressmakers had in mind skirts of fairly even hemline, five to seven inches below the knee—not such a radical change at all. Many fastidious and discriminating American women welcomed this change joyfully. "It was a refreshing relief from the sameness of the modes which women had been subjected to year after year. After all, monotonous palls, and women were beginning to become fed up with the sameness, the lack of individuality which the scant two piece affair of the past several years had brought upon them. "But immediately there was evidence of The Great American Exaggeration. Jagged, uneven points, reaching almost to the ankle, appeared. Skirts became lopsided; there was much gathering and tucking and fussing about the waist and hips. "Alarms—of both sexes—seem to feel that the departure from the old short straight lines portends the return of dust-ruffles, hobble skirts, bustles, mutton sleeves, ten-inch waistlines, trains and ankle length street-sweepers. The pendulum, however, has swung too far towards beauty and comfort for it ever to swing back again to the old ugliness and torture of the modes of the Gay Nineties. "It has been remarked that the new style reveals in glaring fashion all of woman's defects. Now, if ever a mode was designed to reveal defects, it was the get-up of the past half dozen years or so. "How many women have perfect physiques? How many have graceful carriage? A famous producer once said that but one in ten thousand women is a perfect physical specimen. "Why should modern woman fear the new figure? Is she not athletic? Does she not watch her calories? The new silhouette does not demand the $36,000 DAMAGES ASKED IN WRECK CASE IN NOLAN CO.

Two suits, growing out of the fatal motor car crash near Roscoe a few weeks ago in which Miss Thelma Hash of Nolan county and Virge White of Snyder were killed, and Miss Mary Hash, sister of the dead girl, was injured, were filed at Abilene this week, seeking to recover a total of $36,000, says the Nolan Co. News. Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hash, parents of the girl who lost her life in the crash, seek damages totaling $26,000. The sister, Miss Mary, through her next best friend, F. E. Hash, seeks to recover $10,000. The West Texas Transportation Company is made defendant in both cases. The plaintiffs' petition sets out that Thelma Hash was killed when a car in which she was riding eastward with others collided at 10 p. m. with a truck of the defendant company, which was "stopped on the highway about four miles west of Roscoe." According to the petition, the truck, headed east, was sitting on the highway at an angle, and the rear end protruded out over and onto the highway and obstructed all of the right hand side of the highway as the traffic moved eastward. The truck was left "without lights and without warning," the petition further states. DRIVE TO AUSTIN F. W. Piper of the Postoffice was called to Austin as witness in the investigation of the postmaster at that place. He and Mrs. Piper drove down Friday and returned Monday. Mrs. John P. Gillespie, daughter and her son, and Mrs. Sam Piper, daughter-in-law, returned with them. These guests will stay about a month.

AGENTS ARE WORKING ALL KINDS OF GRAFTS

All kinds of schemes are being worked to relieve farmers and residents of small towns in Oklahoma Texas and Arkansas of their money. The Oklahoma Farmer-Stockman of June 1 tells of some of these schemes. For example: Agents are going through the country with a wonderful spray which when applied to hens is supposed to rid them of lice and other vermin. At once the hens have taken sick and stopped laying. Some of them died. Get damages? Not a cent. The agent is gone. There is a standard remedy for lice on poultry that is tried and proved. Farmers should beware of the agent who has some mysterious remedy.

Another person answered an advertisement of a novelty company which wanted strings of beads strung in the home. The answer was "Send $2 for sample beads." The $2 was sent. The beads came and with them a request for a $15 deposit in a bank for their security for the beads. The company made a big profit on the beads at $2.

The big oil field near Oklahoma City has stimulated the organization of a multitude of "oil" "royalty" and "lease" companies. Some of them are good; others are the wildest of wildest schemes. In every case the insider has played safe. He offers to play "Heads I win, tails you lose."

Agents also roam the highways taking orders for groceries for companies in distant states. Often these agents use order blanks on companies for which they once, but no longer, worked. The orders, of course, are not sent in. Later the person who gave the grocery order writes the company. The company states that the agent is no longer working for the company. Nothing can be done. The agent has already left the state.

That the tallest hotel building in the entire west is the new William Taylor in San Francisco, which rises twenty-eight stories above the corner of Leavenworth and McAlister streets. Commenting upon the growing popularity of San Francisco as a convention and tourist city, Ernest Drury, vice president and general manager of the Woods-Drury Company, in an interview with the writer said: "Every year more convention crowds assembled in San Francisco and each season sees the hospitable city better prepared to welcome the crowds as they arrive. "1930 finds the new William Taylor Hotel in readiness to take care of conventions and admirably suited to that purpose from its nearness to San Francisco's famous Civic center and great Municipal auditorium where such gatherings are held. "The unusual feature about the new William Taylor is that under one roof with this great hotel is the headquarters of the Temple Methodist Episcopal Church. The same modern and spacious building serves both establishments—yet they are entirely separate. "The church section is contained in the four story Cathedral Unit, over which one wing of the magnificent hotel is carried on great steel girders. "The same idea has been worked out successfully in New York where the church shares the building with apartments, and in Chicago where the church and office buildings are housed under one roof. "James Woods, president of the company which operates the William Taylor and the Whitcomb as the first units of a group for future expansion, ranks among the best loved hotel men of the country. For seventeen years he was manager of San Francisco's St. Francis and recently has been executive vice president of the Bowman Biltmore group and managing director of the Los Angeles Biltmore."

RESIGNATION OF COLORADO SCHOOL HEAD IS ACCEPTED

Resignation of Ben S. Peck as superintendent of the Colorado schools has been accepted, members of the school board announced Saturday. The close of the 1929-30 term, last week, marked the third year of Peck's service in the office. He had only recently closed a contract for two more years. Board members did not make public any reason for the action. Peck was not in town today. A successor will not be named for some time, it was reported. No applications are being considered yet.

Many dairymen believe that cows should always be milked regularly, but tests at the U. S. Bureau of Dairy Industry Experiment Farm at Beltsville, Md., show that averages to good cows can be milked at irregular hours without any material effect on milk production. Apparently cows are more sensitive to changes in feeding routine than to variation in the hours of milking.

The population of 14 counties immediately surrounding Lubbock shows a total of 144,759. Dr. I. E. Barr, supervisor of the 1930 census for these counties, has just announced. The 14 counties compose the southern part of the South Plains of Texas, but do not include Bailey, Lamb, Hale, Floyd and other South Plains counties north of Lubbock, which are under the supervision of O. M. Unger, district supervisor at Plainview. The 14 counties under Dr. Barr's supervision have increased in population from 69,173 to 144,759 in the last 10 years. This increase totals 75,586, which is 109 percent gain. Hockley county shows the greatest percent of increase over the entire group of counties with an increase of over 67 times the population in 1920. The county had but 137 people in 1920 and now has 9,297. Cochran county, just west of Hockley county, increased from 67 people in 1920 to 1,996 in 1930. The number of farms in the counties shows a substantial gain also. This increase has been made possible by the settling of farm lands that were used for ranching purposes until the last several years. Only about one-third of the tillable land of this section is now in cultivation and the next 10 years is expected to witness an even greater increase in population and production than the last 10 years. The counties under Dr. Barr's supervision, together with the totals of 1930 and 1920, follow:

County	1930	1920
Borden	1,265	965
Cochran	1,929	67
Crosby	10,435	4,300
DeWitt	15,333	4,309
Dickens	8,069	5,276
Galena	2,990	1,018
Gardner	5,538	4,253
Haskell	18,619	14,193
Hockley	9,297	137
Kent	3,251	2,325
Lubbock	39,091	11,096
Lyon	12,296	4,751
Scurry	12,187	9,003
Stonewall	6,627	4,086

NORTHWEST EPWORTH LEAGUE AT CANYON

Clarence Walton is representing the Snyder Methodist Epworth League at Canyon this week where one of the largest meetings of the Methodist Young People, which has ever been held in Northwest Texas, The Northwest Texas Conference Epworth League with 500 representatives are holding a five day session.

James H. Agee, field secretary of the organization has been in Canyon and Amarillo for two weeks making arrangements for the meeting. Miss Mattie Mae Swisher and Rev. C. E. Jameson of the Canyon Methodist Church have been devoting their time to the project. The five days will be crowded from sunrise until night with study and recreation features.

Recreation to be Stressed

Not all of the five days will be spent in study. A delightful recreation program has been planned beginning with the annual banquet to be held in the gymnasium of the West Texas State Teachers College on Monday with John W. Price of Petersburg, Texas, will be toast master. There will be a picnic Thursday afternoon at the Canyons. This comes through the courtesy of the West Texas State Teachers College and the Chamber of Commerce. Recreation hours will be in charge of Mrs. James A. Agee.

OLD PIONEER RESIDENT IS BURIED SATURDAY

Friends of a life time gathered at the home of Mrs. Wade Winston, Saturday afternoon, and at the Snyder cemetery to pay final tribute to the memory of R. M. Stokes, 87, whose body was brought here from Fort Worth for burial. "Dick" as he was more familiarly known to Scurry county folks, had been a Snyder resident for many years and had gone to Fort Worth in 1917 and started the Texas Marble & Granite Works which he managed up to about a year ago when ill health caused him to place the management in charge of his son, Roy Stokes.

LEGION TO MEET AT SLATON JUNE 14-15

The 18th Texas District of the American Legion will hold a two-day convention in Slaton on June 14 and 15, at which a probable attendance of 800 or more Legionnaires and Auxiliary members has been predicted by local Legion officials.

LORENZO VISITORS HERE WITH 'DAD' BAZE

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Baze, of Snyder were the guests of their daughter, Mrs. J. L. Suits, Monday and Tuesday, coming up to attend the graduating exercises of our school. They returned to Snyder Wednesday accompanied by their grandchildren, Tom and Earl Jean Suits, who will spend a few days visiting in that city.—Lorenzo Tribune.

LOYALTY IS A WONDERFUL THING

Local loyalty is a wonderful thing. It can be intensified not through envy or jealousy, but meeting proper progressive demands, and supplying public needs at fair prices, and stamping every action with the brand of courtesy. People naturally prefer trading at home, but they want to have their demands met, and wish to be informed, and invited.

MERCHANTS AND MAIL ORDER HOUSES

Following the campaign inaugurated by W. K. Henderson of Shreveport broadcasting fame, several towns throughout the South appear to find complaint because so many of their people do not trade at home which sends considerable money into outside channels.

Unquestionably, much money from every community goes to the mail order houses, and there is a cause for every effect. The mail order houses are persistent advertisers. Nonadvertising mail order houses do not get the trade where they are not known. Trade inducements that effect various communities, for the mail order houses, are the direct results of advertising.

In cities and towns where merchants do judicious advertising, the outside mail order houses scarcely have a "look-in."

If the local merchants will imitate the mail order houses and the big-town merchants by telling the people what they have and how cheap they can sell it, they will keep a good deal of this trade at home, that is possibly slipping away from them. And what better medium for advertising than the home-town paper that goes into practically every home in the community.

The Times-Signal circulates in every community of the Snyder trade territory and its circulation will prove to be the largest of any county newspaper as postage receipts will show. Its circulation is among the buyers. It can carry a message—the right kind of message—to the people who buy.

There is some propaganda directed against the so-called chain stores. The chain stores cannot run off the business of any independent store that applies the same modern methods and prices that are adopted by the chain stores. Henderson's bombardment seems to have helped the chain stores.

Persecution prompted by jealousy, or revenge is no way to fight the chain stores. There is only one way to combat chain stores, and that is to adopt their policies as to proper goods, proper sanitation and attractiveness, proper prices, and proper advertising. Fight them with their own progressive methods, and such honorable competition will find business increasing both for the independents and the chain stores.

Competition is now, and has ever been, the life of trade. The way to match the progress of competition is to match its methods.

Every great wholesale house, or manufacturing concern that has succeeded gives emphatic warning to its salesmen and all other attaches—"Don't knock our competitor."

These big concerns long since realized that the people do not like to patronize a knocker.

Local loyalty is a wonderful thing. It can be intensified not through envy or jealousy, but meeting proper progressive demands, and supplying public needs at fair prices, and stamping every action with the brand of courtesy.

Winston is commander.

An interesting program is being arranged for the meeting here, including business and entertainment features on both days for the ex-service men and their ladies. State Commander "Oro" Cox and State Adjutant Bob Whiteaker are both expected to be in attendance. A luncheon for the delegates at noon Sunday is one feature of the meeting. This will be on the nineteenth birthday anniversary of Slaton, the city having been founded on June 15, 1911.

JUDGE CECIL STOREY FOR ATTY. GENERAL

Judge Cecil Storey of Vernon was in Snyder, Monday, in the interests of his candidacy for Attorney General. Judge Storey was being introduced around the Square by his old friend, Joe Merritt, who served in the legislature for six years. Mr. Merritt was loud in his praise for this worthwhile candidate and Judge Storey received a most welcome response wherever he was introduced by Joe.

Mr. Merritt must not be far away in his good words for Judge Storey when the Wichita Falls Times had the following to say in their widely known newspaper.

"Looking at it from a strictly selfish standpoint, Wichita and Wilbarger counties might wish that Judge Cecil Storey of Vernon had not announced as a candidate for attorney general. It will deprive these two counties of a legislator whose service has been conspicuous for its ability and for its loyalty to the interests of his constituency. It has been worth much to this immediate section, to West Texas, and to the State as a whole, to have men of his calibre in the house. We hope that Willbarger county, upon which rests the responsibility of bringing forward a suitable candidate for his place, will conscript someone who can serve the district as competently.

"No one familiar with his record as a legislator could fail to look with favor upon his ambition to hold state office."

LORENZO BOOSTERS VISIT GILES GARNER POULTRY RANCH

Editor J. L. Suits of Lorenzo, widely known publisher and formerly a Snyder resident said in his paper last week:

"Monday Messrs. E. Smith, J. L. Suits, Matt Kirksy and H. J. Hilliard, of the Farmer community drove down to Snyder to inspect the poultry farm of Giles Garner, who has two thousand laying hens and five or six thousand baby chicks about six weeks old. Garner's venture into the poultry game has proven very successful. He has modern hen houses and everything is there that goes with a modern henry. His hens started into production last October and have continued right along with good production and he is making money out of the project. He is well pleased with his first year's business and will increase his flock to ten thousand laying hens by October 1st. He will also build several more houses to care for these hens."

Heywood Brown, columnist:

"I would advise no girl to embark upon a major crime until she has first passed a successful screen test."

THAT newspapers are the backbone of a city.

THAT they use straightforward, practical methods in boosting the home city.

THAT they are the great market place where business houses offer their services and merchandise.

THAT they are always leaders in worthwhile projects for the development of the city.

THAT they serve their city in a way that brings progress.

THAT they always teach thrift and help to promote prosperity and growth.

THAT they arouse the citizens to take active interest and pride.

THAT a city cannot progress unless it has a program and carries out that program to a successful conclusion.

THAT programs of importance will never be a success without the active support of the newspapers, and with them they must have the moral as well as the financial support of every citizen.

BOOSTERS SHOULD DO AS THE NEWSPAPERS DO — NEVER STOP BOOSTING — NEVER HALT FOR A MINUTE, FOR IF THEY SLOW UP OR LET THEIR ENTHUSIASM WANE, IF THEY OVERLOOK ANY OPPORTUNITY TO BETTER THEIR CITY, IT WILL GIVE A SETBACK TO THOSE THINGS SO ESSENTIAL THAT THEY HAVE ON THE WAY.

Office of Tax Collector of Parker County.

DAN W. CARROLL, Collector
VANCIL R. WREN, Deputy

Weatherford, Texas
May 15, 1930.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I have been Chief Deputy Tax Collector under Dan W. Carroll, a blind man, for three years, and as such, I have had occasion to know Mr. Carroll, both as to his character and his ability to act in the capacity to which he has been elected.

Mr. Carroll is serving his second term, and is making an active campaign for third term. His mode of running the office, as far as can be ascertained, has been well pleasing to the patrons of the county. As a matter of fact, he does no book work at all, and yet the plans for every detail are worked out at his suggestion. Therefore, the credit for whatever success has been attained, while he has been in this office, must be given to him.

The Tax Collector, as well as all of his deputies, are placed under bond, thereby safeguarding the rights of the people.

I, therefore, heartily recommend the services of anyone who is afflicted with the loss of eyesight, if he is otherwise qualified to fill such office.

Yours very truly,
VANCIL R. WREN
Deputy.

NUMBERS ARE NOT ALL
 As census figures are announced all over the country the denizens of towns and cities begin again to overemphasize mere size. The argument is, apparently, that a city of 25,000 is bound to be better than one of 24,000 and the additional 1,000 population is offered, under the doctrine of the majority rule, as the proof.

Personally, it has always seemed to us that the quality of the people in Snyder has been a bigger civic asset than the number. We would prefer to see 100 cultured, respectable, hard-working men and women move into our community than 1,000 people of doubtful purpose, morals and intentions.

Naturally the population determines, in a marked degree, the business of the town, but very often the back-county that trades within a city or town is as important in the commercial life as are those who live within the municipal limits. The character of these citizens is an important factor in the desirability of the place.

Snyder and Scurry county have been blessed, we should say, with people of fine characteristics. These traits should be appreciated and our young people should emulate them. They should not be led astray by the typically American inexperience upon size.

••••• DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK
 Edson R. Waite
 Shawnee, Okla.

Gordon K. Bush, publisher of the Athens (Ohio) Messenger, says: "The problem of encouraging the people of any community to buy at home is really a problem of discouraging the members of that community from making excessive purchases away from home. People automatically and naturally buy where they are. When a too great section of home purchasing power is being expended in nearby cities, it is the result of two things:

"First, that the local retailers do not, or cannot, furnish a sufficient variety for selection to please certain classes of the public, and that they make no unusual attempts to correct that weakness on their own part.

"Second, that the man objects but he makes no acceptable plea to the woman of the homes to exhaust every local possibility for satisfaction of her wants before seeking elsewhere.

"This resolves the need to one of individual family discussion, decision and action, and an obligation for betterment on the part of the local retailer.

"There is, of course, a limit to the extent to which either side of this problem may be influenced. Family propaganda depends entirely upon the extent to which each man in the community takes it upon himself to discourage buying away from home. It is unchangeable by public propaganda, because such deals with the result instead of the cause. On the other hand, a better collection of stock and better merchandising with better advertising would go a long way toward normal, quiet manipulation of the public mind in the direction desired.

"When a sufficient number of business organizations and individuals recognize that the best way to handle all problems of competition is to first set one's own house in order and then to make sure that the public knows it is in order and always finds it so, the sooner we will cease to hear the ineffective clamor against the many new forms of competition."

LARGEST RATTLER
 What was said to be one of the largest rattlers ever killed in the Sweetwater neighborhood was disposed of Tuesday, when John Gant and Will Hall were passing through the J. P. Bishop place, north of Sweetwater, they dispatched a rattler that was over six feet in length and had 28 rattles while evidence showed that several others had been broken off. The snake was larger around than a man's leg, according to the Sweetwater Reporter, yesterday.

ABOUT "CASH DRAWER CASUALTIES"

In the conduct of a retail store there is a term, "Cash Drawer Casualty." It means something that is done on the part of a salesperson, or allowed done by the merchant, or left undone by either, that causes a loss of a sale; or something that drives business away from the store.

If you go into a store and the clerk stands back of the place with a smile a mile long and finally, after you have walked half the length of the store says, "did you want something?" and after you had bought and paid for what you came for (if you bought) the clerk says, "you didn't want anything else, did ya?" that's a cash drawer casualty.

In Community Business—and your community is a business you know—there are cash drawer casualties also, the cause for which can be eliminated; and this is a good time of year to do it.

Some day when you are walking down a business street, look across the street to the second and third story windows of the buildings. If you see any number of these windows that are dirty and cobwebbed; any with lettering peeled off; any others with panes broken and stuffed with paper or old clothes—if you find this condition, such is a cash drawer casualty for Snyder.

If woods and grass are growing at the edge of the sidewalk or around electric light posts, or in old gratings in the sidewalks of the business district—that is a cash drawer casualty.

If at any time in the past someone said to you, "this looks like a pretty good town you have here," and you said, "well, it used to be a pretty good burg;" or "yes, I guess it's all right if a fellow likes it," or something like that—YOU made a cash drawer casualty for Snyder!

If one of your policemen, being a little grouchy for some reason or other, bawls out a stranger for a minor traffic violation, with which said stranger is not familiar—that is a cash drawer casualty.

If merchants and professional people park their automobiles in a space where customers' cars could be parked; if there is a parking ordinance not enforced; or certain people are given "privileges"—that is a cash drawer casualty that affects all business of the community.

If the business district is scarred and blemished by wall signs, bill boards and unrestricted store signs, people will be repelled by such oppressive ugliness and automatically will buy elsewhere.

If the people of a community are not "sold" on their town; if they stand back with a satisfied-with-things-as-they-are attitude and fail to get together, pull together and work together—that is the worst sort of all cash drawer casualties.

If a community does not grow and make progress it is very likely due in no little degree to failure to recognize cashdrawer casualties, and to do something to eliminate them.

SOIL SURVEY—

map is completed, the varieties of all the soil types in the county will be shown by a corresponding number of colored areas on the map. This map is shown on a base map which shows all of the roads, streams, railroads, towns, houses, school houses, churches, and other features of importance.

"The map, when published, will be accompanied by a complete report which describes in detail each different soil, giving its characteristics as to depth, color, texture, structure, mode of formation, and adaptations and productiveness.

It will take several months to make this soil map, as these men have to go over the land closely, dig holes, and also make borings to considerable depths in order to ascertain the character of the sub-soils. This report and map is published under cooperative agreement by the United States Department of Agriculture, and will be issued free to the public.

"Scurry county lies within a very important agricultural section of West Texas, and a detailed knowledge of the soils will aid in learning the capacities of the various soils for crop production. This county is within an area covered by a Reconnaissance Soil Survey several years ago. This first survey was of a very general character and the great interest and the successful development of agriculture in this county has made it necessary to have more detailed information about the soil. The soil survey party will keep in touch with the county agricultural agent and through him be aided in studying some of the soil problems of the county in so far as these are related to soil survey work.

The active interest of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce has encouraged extension of soil survey work throughout the western part of the State, and practically all of western and part of southern Texas is now covered with reconnaissance soil surveys. The special detailed surveys will follow as rapidly as possible in those counties wherein agricultural development has shown a need for more detailed soil information, and where the people have shown a desire to have these surveys made. The present reconnaissance expended in soil surveys permit only about three counties to be surveyed each year throughout all of the State of Texas, and therefore it is only in counties where very great interest is displayed that the work can be done.

"In West Texas, as well as other parts of the State, there is a great diversity in the character of soils. In this great region, not so many years ago considered only suitable for stock grazing, there have been found many soils which are especially suited to conserve soil moisture and carry crops through very dry periods to successful production. Other soils are less suitable and have not such great drought-resistant qualities. With the recent interest in the proper utilization of land and the conservation of soil moisture and prevention of runoff water in West Texas, it is hoped that many of the less-suited soils may be placed in a condition to collect and conserve rain water and thus place them in a class of more nearly certain crop-producing soils. Results of experiments in terracing and building of water-holding barriers has shown that much of the water formerly lost on sloping lands in West Texas may be held for the use of growing crops. Certain other soils of West Texas are so thin or broken or lie in such a position that stock-grazing will probably always be the best use to which they can be placed. Such differences in soils are brought out in the soil survey. This feature constitutes only one phase of soil survey work.

"It might say that Mr. Tempin will probably be able to give you information concerning the progress of his work from time to time and I am sure that your cooperation will be appreciated and utilized by him to the fullest extent.

"Yours very truly,
 (Signed) "A. B. Conner, Director."

San Angelo Contractor Is Glad It Came

Argotane Beats Any Medicine He Ever Saw For Trouble Like His, Says Dickson

"I'm certainly glad Argotane came my way," said W. D. Dickson, a well-known building contractor residing at 709 Spaulding St., San Angelo, Texas, in an interview.

"My health has been broken for the past several months," continued Mr. Dickson. "My stomach was all upset, my food would sour and I would bloat up after eating and have awful pains in my stomach. I would get so nervous it was almost impossible for me to get a full night's rest. I was in a miserable shape and got to where I had to quit work for aday or two at a time.

"I began to pick up in just a day or so after I began taking Argotane and I have been gradually improving ever since. My stomach feels stronger and I can eat and digest many things now that I couldn't eat before without suffering afterwards. I'm not constipated like I was, my headaches are broken up and my appetite is snoring. My nervousness has disappeared. My general health has greatly improved and I'm getting better right along. I have suffered a long time and have tried many different kinds of medicine but Argotane beats them all. I could never get the right relief until I began taking it, therefore I have the best there is."

Genuine Argotane may be bought in Snyder at the Stinson Drug Co. adv.

THANKS, MR. FAVER

My! My! but it's nice to have fine packages handed one. The very first thing Monday morning here came T. B. Faver with more than a pound of the finest butter that we have ever tasted in Scurry county. Mr. Faver is looking for butter customers and what Mr. Faver gave us should bring him enough orders to start a first class creamery. We thank you, Mr. Faver, for your kindly interest and present.

"Konjola Put Me Back on Road To Good Health"

Dallas Lady Eagerly Endorses New Medicine—Found Relief After Other Medicines Failed

MRS. F. L. BETHEL
 "For four years my system was in a rundown condition and for the past eight months, stomach and kidney disorders have caused me much suffering," said Mrs. F. L. Bethel, 406 Avondale street, Liberty Heights, Dallas. "Gas formed after each meal and I had a burning sensation from my throat to the pit of my stomach. My kidneys were sore and did not function properly. I had pains across my back, and I was steadily losing in weight and strength.

"I finally decided to try Konjola and this medicine has put me back on the road to health. My vitality and general health have improved immensely, and I am free from those terrible pains in my back. I sleep soundly at night and my whole system has taken on new life."

When taken for six to eight weeks, Konjola, the new and different medicine, will work wonders that will astonish those who suffer from ill of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, and of rheumatism, neuritis and nervousness.

Konjola is sold in Snyder, Texas, at Stinson Drug Co., and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section, adv.

Those interested—for their own reasons—in getting the government out of business will probably see a master stroke in selling $80,000,000 Hog Island to Philadelphia for only a tenth of that sum. The only fly in the ointment of the big business barons is that some of them mislead it.

SEEK HIGHER DAIRY AND POULTRY PRICE

Complaining that the market price for poultry and dairy products in Lubbock is not up to standard of other cities, farmers of this section appeared yesterday morning before a meeting of the Board of City Development in an effort to enlist the board's aid in remedying the situation.

While no definite action regarding the matter was taken yesterday, members of the board in their discussion were favorable to aiding the farmers in every way possible and a study will be made of existing conditions in this city.

All of Friday's meeting was occupied with the market question and few other matters were given consideration.—Lubbock Avalanche.

50 Years' Use of Black-Draught

"About fifty years ago," says Mr. Lewis G. O'Shields, of Portersville, Ala., "my mother gave me the first dose of Black-Draught, and I have taken it ever since, when I needed a medicine for constipation. I have used this remedy all my married life, in raising my children.

"I have used Black-Draught for hemorrhoids, as I have had spells of this kind, off and on, for years. This follows indigestion, and indigestion comes close on constipation.

"I have found that the best way to head off trouble is to begin taking Black-Draught in time. It relieves me of dizziness, tightness in the chest and backache.

"By getting rid of impurities, Black-Draught helps to keep the system in good order. I always keep it in the home, and have recommended it to many people, in my time."

Beaten Pathway Brings Large Road Traffic

Dal-Paso Highway Most Direct Route to New Hobbs Fields

The Dal-Paso Cavern Highway is getting more than its share of road traffic in the rush and scramble to the new oil fields at Hobbs, New Mexico. Cars by the hundreds are passing through Snyder every day on their way to the new towns that have sprung up over night. Trucks carrying every type of building materials and other necessities are going through Snyder at all hours of the day, and all through the night. Millionaires have landed in Hobbs to give them everything that an oil boom brings to a locality.

A dispatch from Hobbs, this week, said that the three towns there are being so rapidly connected by new business houses that it is almost impossible to tell where one municipality stops and another begins.

The first place to start was Hobbs, now called "Old Hobbs," to distinguish it from the others. It had a store and school, with a ranch house or two and a couple of other buildings. That was less than three years ago.

Soon New Hobbs started, with a post office. Later, this was transferred to Hobbs and a new one begun. Rivalry between the two towns resulted in a third town which called itself "All Hobbs." It was midway between the two, at the junction of Carlsbad street, Hobbs, and the Jal-Wink highway.

New Hobbs has a Main street and this street is extended into a road that connects New Hobbs with Old Hobbs at the other end. Meantime this street and road has been built up until now it is almost solid with locations.

Old Hobbs has been incorporated. New Hobbs is planning to and has taken preliminary steps.

Now there is a move on to incorporate the places as one big center, Greater Hobbs.

DIES AT DICKENS

One of the most colorful and beloved of West Texans died at his home in Dickens, May 26. He was Ben G. Worswick, county attorney of Dickens and a resident and public servant of Dickens county for forty years. Judge Worswick was one of the most forceful characters of the old West, a famous wit, and an able lawyer. Born in California in 1855, he was a charter member of the Native Sons of the Golden West. Both newspapers at Spur paid glowing tribute to the memory of this beloved West Texan.

ABSTRACTORS TO MEET AT LUBBOCK

Abstractors of West Texas have been invited to Lubbock, next Saturday, for an all day conference on matters of mutual interest. Snyder will be represented.

Women Plan National Shrine at Cape Henry, Va., Where Virginia Cavaliers First Raised Cross, April 26, 1607

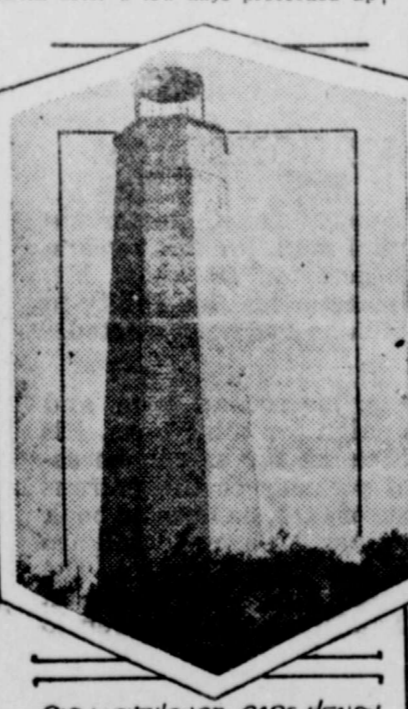

NORFOLK, VA.—It was at Cape Henry, Virginia, on April 26, 1607, that the cavaliers who had elected to make their homes in the New World held their first religious service in America. The landing was made for the purpose of opening a sealed box containing the "orders for government" which Captain Christopher Newport in command of the ships "Sarah Constant" the "Godspeed" and the "Discovery" had borne from England. The women of Tidewater Virginia desire to awaken a national consciousness of Cape Henry where religious worship was first held by the English colonists. The movement they have launched is fast spreading. Each year on April 26, ceremonies are held at the site where the Cavaliers first raised the Cross.

"We hope by arranging these annual pilgrimages to keep before the people of Virginia and America the memory of the sacrifices on which this nation's best institutions were founded," said Mrs. Frantz Naylor, speaker of the Assembly of Tidewater Virginia Women and president of the Women's Club of Norfolk. "And now it is proposed to erect a permanent shrine, an outward and visible sign of inward and spiritual grace, to commemorate the first religious services held by the cavaliers upon American soil."

The shrine will be established at Cape Henry, under authorization of the General assembly of Virginia. The Governor of Virginia is honorary chairman of the Cape Henry Memorial Commission. Mrs. C. W. Grandy is Chairman, and Mrs. Frantz Naylor is Secretary.

MOTHER AND INFANT BOTH DIE AT DUNN

One of the most sad deaths lately to happen in Scurry county occurred at Dunn last Friday when the Death Angel visited the J. W. Reynolds home, taking Mrs. Reynolds, 27, and an infant baby. Mrs. Reynolds and a three-year-old daughter survive the deceased.

Funeral services were held Saturday at the First Baptist Church at Dunn, in charge of Rev. T. L. Nipp and interment was made in the Snyder cemetery.

The husband and daughter have the sympathy of the entire community in the loss of this mother and babe.

WEATHER WISDOM

Before wet weather cats are usually restless and rub themselves a great deal behind the ears.

One crow flying alone is a sign of foul weather.

If crows fly in pairs, expect fine weather.

Rain may be expected when fish bite readily and swim near the surface.

Cloud streamers pointing upward indicate rain; when they point downward, look for dry weather.

FLOWERS VS. CHICKENS

With every springtime comes the ever recurring debate of "Chickens vs. Flowers." Summertime and fried chicken just naturally go together, but when the friers get fattened on our neighbors flowers and vegetables, something needs to be done. A few days ago a woman came into our office and said: "My neighbors chickens are ruining my flowers—can't you say something to the chicken raisers to be more careful about their fences?" Fried chicken is one of our weaknesses, so we can't be accused of any lack of sympathy with the chicken raisers. But we also love flowers and admire beautiful, well kept lawns. An enthusiastic campaign has been made this spring to encourage the planting of flowers and shrubs and the general beautification of home surroundings. We all want Snyder to be a city of beautiful yards and attractive streets—and to do that we will have to keep our chickens in their places and not allow them the freedom of the neighborhood.

PAWLE PLAYING IN BIG FLYING DRAMA

Lennox Pawle, eminent British actor who plays the role of Lord Bardell in "The Sky Hawk" the all talking Fox Movietone film coming to the Palace Theatre Friday, needed but little instruction as to how to enact the part from director John G. Blystone.

Pawle is a member of a noted English family which includes many titled personages on its roster. His father was one of London's most celebrated attorneys and a member of Parliament; a cousin, Sir Francis Buzard, is an attending physician to the king, and many other relatives are in the British "Who's Who."

"The Sky Hawk" bears the reputation of being the most realistic and the most thrilling of all flying pictures, as well as being the first aerial all talkie.

John Garrick, Helen Chandler, Gilbert Emery, Joyce Compton, Billy Bevan, Lumsden Hare and other celebrities are in the cast, and huge replicas of prominent spots in London and of a vast English flying field form the background for much of the unusual action.

KNOW TEXAS

Texas automobile registration fees in 1929 totaled $20,418,696—exceeded only by three other states.

Texas with 174 leads all the states in cotton seed oil mills. Georgia with 54 is second. Texas has almost one-third of the 538 such plants in the United States.

Texas maintains five fish hatcheries with two more now provided for. In Texas the United States maintains one hatchery and one private hatchery is located at Medina Lake.

GROWING WITH TEXAS

The crop map of Texas for the month of March, as reported by the Public Relations department of the Southland Life Insurance Company, is curiously spotted.

Northwest: Conditions very good with spotted dry places in Southern portion, and slightly cool. Good from "fair" to favorable, with good season in most places although cool in spots for corn growth and cotton planting.

favorable except that some northern counties report rains and cool weather have retarded work; warm weather needed. One of the most encouraging aspects of the entire situation is that there are certain indications that diversification finally has taken a real hold with the farmers of Texas.

The head of one of the state's largest financial institutions sums up the situation as follows: "Prosperity in Texas, greater than the state has ever known before, is in the offing. With even fair crop conditions, Texas should be jubilant by the time these crops are harvested, and, if this is true, the State will find itself on the soundest economic basis it has ever known."

relations in the years they have spent building their organization. This experience and knowledge is the backbone on which many future leaders and captains of industry are planning and shaping their careers. This sentiment for a business is also the wellspring of enthusiasm which reaches out and spurs on the field organization, the department heads, the men in the shop, and the countless homes and lives affected by the welfare of that business.

Snyder Voters Hear Senator Small Thursday Only West Texas Man Seeking Governor's Chair at Austin

A "sane, sensible, business-like management of state affairs" was pledged here Thursday afternoon by Senator Clint C. Small, of Wellington, only candidate from West Texas in the crowded governor's race. Declaring himself against the relocation of the prison system and opposed to a $300,000,000 road bond issue, Small took issue with Gov. Dan Moody on almost every important question of the day.

Needs Management "What our prison system needs is not relocation, but management," he asserted. "It needs to be industrialized to an extent where convicts can pay their own way."

"We have a good man at the head of the system now and with vigorous assistance from the governor's chair something can be made out of it."

Huntsville prison is out of date and needs immediate reconstruction to put it in a modern and sanitary condition, he declared.

Small declared himself to be in favor of the state building all highways without the voting of bonds by counties. "Our highway commission will have $37,000,000 a year to spend from present revenues, and that should be enough," he said.

A four-cent tax on gasoline and revenues from automobile registrations provide the $37,000,000, he indicated.

Small also took occasion to take a rap at Earle B. Mayfield's plan to tax "ginger ale and malt extract," as advocated here recently. "This is nothing but a catchall to bring in the votes," he asserted.

"Instead of taxing ginger ale and malt extract, we ought to be driving it out of the country. Maybe the candidate doesn't know it, but those things play a prominent part in the liquor business."

"We don't need more laws but better enforcement of what we have," the speaker declared after flaying the present governor's lack of vigor in his dealings with the legislature.

A commission to supervise public service utilities, relief for the unemployed, development of natural resources, and other minor issues were also given a brief discussion.

"I invite every voter to investigate my record," Small declared. "I am the only candidate west of Dallas and if my record is all right I believe I should receive the solid support of this area."

MODEL GAS KITCHEN ON WHEELS

The Lone Star Gas Company has recently introduced a novel method of demonstrating compressed natural gas delivered in portable steel cylinders to homes not having pipe line gas service.

A model kitchen has been especially designed and constructed on a truck chassis. This traveling kitchen tours the suburban communities of Texas giving special demonstrations with compressed gas.

The interior of the truck is equipped with standard gas appliances including a cook stove, water heater, refrigerator, lights and small wall heater. These appliances receive a supply of gas from a standard installation mounted on the rear in a steel cabinet exactly the same as the installation for service in the home.

Two cylinders are included in the installation. As one cylinder becomes empty it can be cut off and the other turned on; the empty cylinder can be replaced without interrupting service.

The Community Natural Gas Co. of Snyder, the distributor of STAR-GAS in this territory, will bring this kitchen to this district for public inspection. The route of the truck is as follows:

PENTACOSTAL REVIVAL

Practically all farm animals show a preference for alfalfa hay cut in the early stages of growth, but this does not mean that such hay is the best for feeding. Some animals, especially horses and mules, do much better on hay cut when the alfalfa is in full bloom, as hay cut in the early stages is somewhat too laxative. Hogs and poultry, however, cannot handle such coarse material, and unless the alfalfa is cut while still young there is considerable wastage in feeding. It should also be borne in mind that cutting alfalfa while the plants are young reduces both the yield and the length of life of the stand, and the grower must take this into consideration in comparing the money value of hay cut young and at a more mature stage of growth.

Chas. M. Schwab, chairman, Bethlehem Steel Company: "I believe the record of 1930 will compare most favorably from a business standpoint, with recent normal good business conditions."

The two local Churches of Christ are holding a revival that is unique in that two local pastors alternate in occupying the pulpit. The meeting is attracting county-wide attention and is drawing great crowds while the ministers in charge are placing stress upon the characteristic simplicity, directness and power of the gospel message as given many years ago. The meeting is the culmination of two forces: first, the general celebration of the brotherhoods over the entire earth, in honor of the work of Jesus and the Holy Spirit in the divine revelation; second, the interest and desire of many to see the two churches more closely united in the fellowship and work of the kingdom as set forth in that revelation. The messages and the cooperative methods are being felt in an especially fine fellowship between the two congregations. A third influence which has had no small influence is that the double service is being rendered as a spiritual revival for the entire public. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

UNIQUE "PAY" IDEA BRINGS RESULTS AT LAMESA

A novel way of paying debt was started recently by a Lamesa newspaper when an "endless chain" of bill paying was put into circulation.

Another reason for the slight interest in Father's Day is that the majority of fathers have to pay the bills. How can one get keyed up over the off shade necktie or the sixteen-billfold when one has to dig down and pay for it?

SELECTING THE BREED FOR YOUR DAIRY HERD

Any One of Five Well Known Breeds Will Be Satisfactory, But Certain Conditions May Influence Your Choice

Editor's Note—This is another story in a series of articles written by the well-known national dairy and poultry authority, Dr. L. D. LeGear, V. S., of St. Louis, Mo.

The cow is not a native American born animal. Before the white man came to this continent cattle were unknown here.

Europe is the home of the dairy cow. Several thousand years ago, so it is supposed, the process of taming the wild cattle of Asia began.

The selection of a breed, either by the farmer who is just entering the dairy business, or the farmer who desires to improve his herd by introducing a breed, is one that deserves careful consideration.

The Jerseys—These cattle take their name from Jersey Island where they originated. It is in the English Channel between France and England. They are the smallest in size of any of the popular dairy breeds.

Jerseys varies greatly. The most common color is fawn with black shadings below and on the head, the bulls being darker than the cows.

The Holstein-Friesians — This breed originated in Holland. The compound name Holstein -Friesian is the official name for the breed in America.

The Guernseys—The Guernsey breed originated on the Island of Guernsey, which is one of the Channel Islands not far from Jersey Island.

The Ayrshires—The native home of this breed is the Shire of Ayr in southwest Scotland, hence the name. It is comparatively a new breed, but has made wonderful advancement in a short time.

The Brown Swiss—This breed had its origin in Switzerland. Large numbers of these cattle are kept there for cheese and butter making.

There is not a great deal of difference in the dairy breeds so far as production is concerned. It is more a matter of choice. For instance, there is no best breed. It is the breeding up of a family or strain to high milk and butterfat production that really counts.

Other conditions which may influence your selection are the breeds most common in your neighborhood, the cost of pure bred foundation stock, and your judgment of the demand for surplus animals from your herd.

It is estimated that only 3 percent of the dairy cattle in the United States are pure-bred, which means that the major production of milk comes from grade herds.

PARTY AT THE J. WRIGHT MOOAR RANCH

Mesdames Tom McDonald and Homer Snyder delightedly entertained the members of the beginner department of the Methodist Sunday School and their mothers, on Wednesday afternoon, May 28, at the J. Wright Mooar ranch. The mothers enjoyed a friendly and beneficial social hour while the children played games outdoors and on the lawn. The main attraction for the children was the pretty little pony, all saddled and bridled, and ready to take them for a ride, which belongs to their little hostess, Julia Mae McDonald. J. Wright Mooar had charge of this feature of the entertainment and had the children take turns riding the pony. The officers of the Beginner Department directed the children's play. Mrs. Homer Snyder is the Superintendent, Miss Rubye Curry the secretary and Miss Lillian Walton is musician.

The hostesses were assisted in serving by Mesdames Weathers and Ussery and Misses Lillian Walton, Nellie Floyd and Rubye Curry. The mothers present were: Mesdames Lee Stinson, W. W. Hamilton, E. C. Neely, Ivan Dodson, Ed Turner, R. H. Odom. Guests were: Mesdames J. Yoder, A. M. Curry, A. W. Weathers and Cora Ussery and Misses Nellie Floyd, La Frances Hamilton and Virginia Yoder.

The children present were: Billy Joe Stinson, William Hamilton, Melba Ann and Holman Odom, Carlos Hugh Yoder, Francis and Wendell Neely, Patricia, Sally and Ivan, Jr., Dodson, E. G., Kenneth and Sybil Turner, Helen and Joyce Singletary, Eldon Thompson, Conway Taylor, Mary Frances, and Genevieve Yoder, Francis and Elva Head, Julia Mae McDonald, Glynn Curry and Kenneth Snyder.

MISS PAULINE JONES GIVES SLUMBER PARTY

Miss Pauline Jones entertained eight of her girl friends with a slumber party Monday night. All the girls played on the miniature golf course preceding the party. Some of them stayed up all night.

Refreshments were served to the Misses Katherine Northcutt, Mary Bob Huckabee, Myrtle Woodfin, Violet Bradbury, Lila Mae Williamson, Mable Isaacs, Johnylee Shaw, Polly Harpole, and the hostess, Miss Pauline Jones.

SPIZZ B. Y. F. U. HAVE SUNRISE BREAKFAST

The members of the Spizz B. Y. F. U. arose bright and early Tuesday morning for a sunrise breakfast. They left the church just at 4:30, and were enjoying their breakfast just as the sun was rising.

Those who enjoyed the various games that were played were: Misses Katherine Northcutt, Lila Mae Williamson, Mable Isaacs, Myrtle Woodfin, Mary Bob Huckabee, Violet Bradbury, Pauline Jones, Polly Harpole, Johnylee Shaw, and Messrs. Jake Smyth and Barney Duncan, and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Newton and son, Junior.

GRAND OFFICERS HERE

The Order of Eastern Star met May 31st in a call meeting to entertain the Grand Officers and install new officers.

There were five Grand Officers present: Worthy Grand Matron Mrs. Beulah Rawlings, Asso. Grand Matron Mrs. Bessie Garth, Grand Examiner-at-Large Mrs. Esther Picard, Dist. Deputy Grand Matron Mrs. Enlar Brown, Dist. Grand Matron Mrs. Florence Read. Bouquets of flowers were on all the tables in the hall. After welcoming the Grand Officers, each was presented a pink carnation, with a beautiful speech by Mrs. Viola Warren, in behalf of the chapter.

A response from the W. G. M., who then acted as installing officer, and the Grand Examiner acted as Grand Marshal.

After the new officers were installed the chapter and visitors were invited to the dining room, where the refreshment committee had been at work. A vase of flowers stood in the center of each table and delicious ice cream and angel food cake were served to the Grand officers, five visitors and twenty-four members of the local chapter.

SIGNAL HONOR COMES TO SNYDER STUDENT

Signal honors were brought to a Snyder young lady last week when the Alpha Pi Omega Society of Baylor College awarded a scholarship prize to Miss Marion Rosser, Freshman, who had made the highest grade during the nine months term.

Miss Rosser, who is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Rosser is a graduate of last year's Snyder High School, and winning first honors at Baylor among a class of 180 students, and being on the honor roll each of the three terms is worthy of the widest recognition. The Times-Signal joins with the many friends of the Rosser family here in extending to Miss Marion a real handshake of congratulations and that further heights may be her award for work, well and faithfully completed.

PARTY IN YODER HOME

Misses Ruth Yoder and Margaret Deakins entertained a few of their friends Thursday at the Yoder home, with a party. Games were played on the lawn, then they gathered in the house for refreshments.

Sandwiches, cakes, and cocoa were served to: Misses Lonetta Byrd, Leona Sample, Lillian Crawford of Big Spring, Doris Black of Midland; and Messrs. Victor Drinkard, Albert Arleton, Buck Howell, Cloyce Drinkard and LeRoy Fesmire.

GUEST HONORED

Clock May Solve Perpetual Motion

CHICAGO.—What is believed to be the nearest approach to perpetual motion yet discovered is a radium clock constructed by Dr. Frank E. Simpson, a leading authority on the removal of birthmarks with radium. This clock is said to be the only one of its kind in America.

Radium is contained in a glass tube, from the end of which are suspended two gold leaves. An aluminum sheath is mounted on opposite sides of the leaves, and the whole apparatus is enclosed in a glass case pumped out to as low a vacuum as could be obtained and sealed.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED

William Letwick celebrated his fifth birthday anniversary last Saturday when a group of his young friends were invited to help him play some games, eat plenty of ice cream and top it all off with home made cake. My! how that bunch of kids did enjoy themselves and Master Billy was right in his glory.

GANNAWAY CLUB MEET

The Gannaway Women's 4-H Club met Wednesday, May 28, in the home of Mrs. H. C. Campbell. After the usual order of roll call and business session, there was a round table discussion of sewing problems.

Mrs. Jim Wright was honoree of the social occasion which followed; and at the same time and place, little Bobby Watson was host to an outdoor party of children celebrating his sixth birthday.

Adult guests from other communities were: Mesdames J. E. Parker, C. H. Culp, Wayne Borland, Jesse Allen, Ernest Henley and Miss Fay Allen.

ALTRURIAN CLUB

The Altrurian Club met May 30 for their last meeting of the year. Mrs. Joe Caton was hostess, assisted by Mrs. C. J. Yoder. The year books for next year's study course on Art, Literature and Music were handed out. It was decided to lend the American Legion the flags for the decoration services Sunday.

The following program was rendered: Roll Call; Response, Recent Note on Literature in or out of the West—The Club.

MISS GEORGIA BOLIN FOR CO. TREASURER

Miss Georgia Bolin has announced for County Treasurer this week, owing to the insistent demands of a large circle of friends. Miss Bolin has been a Scurry county resident for the past 23 years, a school teacher for more than ten years; she was employed for a time with the First State Bank and has lately been identified with the census enumeration in the county. Miss Bolin is well and favorably known in the county and will make a consistent campaign for votes and it will develop into quite a race between the present incumbent, Edna Tinker, and Miss Bolin.

BAPTIST PASTOR IN FIRST SERMON AFTER MOVING HERE

Rev. Philip C. McGahey, newly elected pastor of the First Baptist Church, preached his first official sermon since taking over the local charge, Sunday night, to a large and appreciative audience.

Rev. and Mrs. McGahey have made many friends since their short stay in Snyder and they have received with open arms by not only the members of their own church but the community as a whole. The Times-Signal joins in a wholesome welcome again to these new residents with the hope their stay may be long, profitable, and most pleasant.

Max Schmeling, German heavyweight boxer: "He travels furthest in athletics who travels alone. I have no idea of marrying."

Although some "broilers" may be fat enough to market direct from the range, it is often profitable to fatten chickens for a week or two before marketing. Be careful not to overfed the broilers when they are first put on the fattening ration. Gradually increase the quantity at each feeding until the birds are getting all they will eat. The U. S. Department of Agriculture recommends the following fattening rations: 6 parts corn meal, 3 parts rolled oats, and 2 part middlings; or parts corn meal, 2 parts ground oats without hulls, and 2 parts middlings. Feed these rations with milk, using 2 pounds of milk to 1 pound of mash.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Mr. Al Capone spent a night, last week, in Miami jail. Really, is there no respect for a big man?

The ethics of some professions make a nice working scheme to mulet the public.

Well, as far as we can make out, they are still trying to decide the prohibition wrangle with a lot of hot air.

The extent of the intelligence of some men can be gauged by their thought that a historian may be human.

Sonnenberg, the wrestler, ought to be dubbed the billy-goat; he certainly butts his way to victory.

It might be a good idea for Henry Ford to organize a campaign to get the tariff out of Congress by Christmas.

If a five dollar bill got into the church collection you would have to call the doctors to treat the astonished observers.

If anybody in Snyder knows a better place in which to live the only question that arises is why not move?

Admiral Byrd will soon land in New York, and the public will have another opportunity to show what it thinks of this great explorer.

The Times-Signal sets its advertising space. It cannot afford to give it away. Those who wish free advertising might as well pass on.

Some curiously affected individuals express their regard and affection by criticizing and scolding. Strange as you may think it is, it's true.

Snyder will be beautiful when it's citizens accept the responsibility of making it beautiful. You can do your part by attending to your own yard.

Correct this sentence: "Snyder has the best sunshine and the finest average climate of any American city, and no other town claims as much."

After observations for many years we have come to the conclusion that, in fighting, there is nothing to compare with a real family row, unless it is a church wrangle.

There are party men in the United States who will "cuss out" their party until they drop, and then, at the next election, lose their breath bellowing for the same party.

Many a newspaper editor, throwing a few thousand verbal stones at Texas, on account of the recent riotous doings at Sherman, will overlook the rottenness in his own front yard.

As an editor, speaking frankly, we don't care a hoot whether you agree with what we say or not, but if we are wrong, don't wait for somebody to tell you. Think it out yourself.

When the poor man goes to renew his note at the bank and hear the institution murmur, "we have reduced the rate of interest", he will probably suspect that, maybe, there is prosperity somewhere.

If all the candidates for Congress this fall were lined up and allowed to speak on what will rescue the farmer from depression, and all the farmers were compelled to listen the problem would be no nearer solution than ever.

There's practically nothing left for Admiral Byrd to hunt for now unless he drops a collar button.—Tampa Tribune

HOME LABOR SAVED

WITH the advent and national distribution of canned foods much time and labor was saved for the housewife. The peeling or seeding of vegetables and fruits, and the skinning and cleaning of fish and chicken became a thing of the past, so far as canned foods were concerned, and the housewife was also spared the necessity of standing over a hot stove for long periods.

But all of her problems were not solved. For generations well-informed mothers have prepared, with great labor, vegetable purées to supplement the milk diet of their babies after six months of age; hospital staffs have spent weary hours preparing the smooth diets of puréed vegetables which modern medicine recommends in the treatment of gastro-intestinal diseases; and hostesses have exhausted themselves and their servants in preparing the delicious soups and souffles made of puréed vegetables and fruits which they wanted to serve for the delectation of their guests.

A Splendid Product
No mother should adopt a diet for a baby, or sufferer from gastrointestinal disorders select a diet, without consulting a physician. The fresh vegetables used for these purées provide the required range of vitamin values, and include some with beef broth and cereal flour, providing a desirable variety for infant feeding, and insuring an adequate diet, but the baby's doctor should be consulted for quantities in feedings, and for rotation of the various purées, and his advice should be especially sought as to the relative amount of the purées containing beef broth.

The vitamin values and food contents so important in fresh vegetables are conserved in these puréed in home kitchens where the cooking is done in open vessels exposed to oxygen.

Some Succulent Soups
The tale of this new product would not be complete without some of the following tested recipes which have been evolved for its use. Pea Soup: Combine one 6-ounce can puréed peas, one-fourth cup evaporated milk, three-fourths cup water, two teaspoons butter and one-half teaspoon salt. Heat to boiling, beat well and serve hot. Serves two to three. French Spinach Soup: Mix together the contents of one 10½-ounce can puréed spinach and one 6-ounce can of evaporated milk, two and one-fourth cups water, and one tablespoon butter. Heat to boiling. Stir a little of the mixture into one egg yolk. Combine mixtures, beat well, heat to boiling and add three-fourths teaspoon salt. Serves five to six.

Cream of Carrot Soup: Heat to boiling in separate pans the contents of a 10½-ounce can puréed carrots, and one 6-ounce can evaporated milk diluted with two and one-fourth cups of water. Beat the carrots into the milk, and add one tablespoon butter and three-fourths teaspoon salt. Serves five to six.

"A Whole Meal" Supper Soup: Put the contents of a 10½-ounce can puréed mixed vegetables, six tablespoons evaporated milk, one cup and two tablespoons water, two teaspoons butter and three-fourths teaspoon salt into a saucepan. Mix well and heat to boiling. Serves two to three.

To Make Timbales
To make Timbales from any of these puréed vegetables, add one beaten egg, a pinch of salt and one teaspoon of melted butter to one can, 6 ounces, of any one of them, and mix thoroughly. Bake in buttered timbale molds in a slow oven (325° F.) for twenty minutes or until a knife blade comes out clean when inserted. Serve with any of the following sauces: mushroom, cream, cheese or egg. Serves three.

TELEPHONE EMPLOYEES CITED FOR BRAVERY
 Nine telephone employees, among them an agency chief operator of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company at Elmdale, Kas., have been cited for noteworthy public service performed last year and will receive the national Theodore N. Vall medals of gold or silver, accompanied by cash awards, it was learned today by T. A. White, District Manager of the Southwestern Company.
 Five of the citations were made for heroic service at the Cleveland Clinic disaster, May 15, 1929, when more than 100 persons perished in a fire and explosion. One of these is a posthumous gold medal award made to Miss Gladys I. Gibson, clinic operator, who died in the line of duty. The only other gold medal awarded will go to Gerald T. Mahaffey of Cleveland, traffic superintendent of the Ohio Bell Telephone Company, who performed heroic rescue work and took Miss Gibson's post at the switchboard after she had lost consciousness. Mahaffey will also receive $500 in cash.
 The three other telephone people who were cited for duty at the Cleveland catastrophe are: James J. Roman, Benjamin G. Spneth and Walton A. Turner, Jr., all employees of the Ohio Bell Telephone Company, living in Cleveland. Turner recently died from natural causes, his award having been made posthumously. These citations, with four others made in various sections of the United States, bring silver medals and cash awards of $250 each.
 Mrs. Myrtle Dull, Elmdale, Kansas, was the lone Southwestern Company employee cited. She was recommended for noteworthy public service rendered last July, when the Cottonwood River went out of its banks.
 With water running two feet deep in her home, which housed the Elmdale telephone office, Mrs. Dull set atop an improvised seat consisting of a chair and a nail keg, and gave service to telephone subscribers in that vicinity in spite of surrounding dangers and repeated warnings of fellow townspeople who had deserted this section of the city for higher ground.
 Mrs. Dull received a bronze medal from the Southwestern company when the regional awards were announced April 15. The Southwestern Company will receive a bronze plaque in commemoration of her act.
 The Vall medal awards are made annually for noteworthy public service and are provided for by the Vall Memorial fund, established as a memorial to the late Theodore N. Vall, former president of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company.

ROTAN FOLKS WILL DRILL WELL HERE
 According to the Rotan Advance, J. R. Cleveland and others are rigging up to drill a test on the Roy Strayhorn land, one mile south of Snyder, to be Strayhorn No. 1.
 The well is expected to be spudded this week. This is within eight miles of other Scurry county wells, the present activity being that distance southwest and northwest of the Strayhorn No. 1.
 Here's success, gentlemen.

A Saucy Story
 THIS story isn't apple sauce, but it's about it. There is nothing that children from two to six years old like as much as apple sauce. Just spread on bread they love it, but there are so many other things that can be done with it, that parents are able to vary the children's menu by using this popular preservative as "bait."
 Try This Cake
 This doesn't refer to the apple sauce which compels one to peel and core innumerable apples and then stand over the stove stirring them to the right consistency, but to the fine, smooth product of the canner made by selecting definite varieties of apples and blending them to obtain exactly the right combination.
 Apple Sauce Loaf Cake: Cream one-third cup of butter with one cup of sugar. Add one teaspoon of soda to one and one-fourth cups of apple sauce (the contents of one 11-ounce can) and add this to the creamed butter and sugar. Sift together two cups of flour (reserving just a little), one teaspoon of baking powder, a few grains salt, one-half teaspoon of clove, one-half teaspoon of allspice and one-fourth teaspoon of nutmeg, and add these dry ingredients and the grated rind of one lemon to the above mixture. Add one-half cup of raisins and one-half cup of nuts and stir them a little of the flour reserved for that purpose. Bake in a loaf in a 350° oven for from 45 to 60 minutes.

Former Snyder Pastor Resigns Canadian Church Pastorate

Last week's Canadian Record told of the stirring service that had been given Rev. H. J. Manley, former Snyder pastor, leaving the church at Canadian, when they said:
 "A sinner, saved by the Grace of God, and a man who admitted his imperfections but was glorious in the knowledge that what he had done he had tried to do right, emphasized the material and spiritual being in the person of Rev. H. J. Manley, Presbyterian preacher, who delivered his final sermon before a packed church house last Sunday night.
 The Rev. Manley preached as he probably had never preached in Canadian before. He held his audience spellbound. Baptists, Christians, Methodists, all alike, lent attentive ears to the stirring words of the Presbyterian minister. It was a united gathering. All had come to hear the last sermon of Mr. Manley in Canadian. All were happy in wishing him much success wherever he may go and all will remember the good that he has done in this little city.
 In the words of Rev. J. I. Brimberry, who presided at the meeting, it was not a farewell sermon, but a farewell because the good that the Presbyterian leader has done will live on and on, and in years to come his name will be connected with that which was good. Rev. Brimberry said "he may remove from Canadian, but his spiritual self will ever remain among us as a striking example of that which was accomplished well."
 Rev. A. B. Davidson, pastor of the Methodist church, likened the associations with Rev. Manley as a true brotherhood. He declared that brotherhood among the Christian peoples of the world was one of the greatest things in the world, and expressed his regrets at the breaking up of the ministerial associations of the preachers had enjoyed with Mr. Manley. He commended him on his splendid work here, his everlasting efforts to build up his church and its properties and wished him much success wherever he may go.
 Rev. W. C. Harrison, pastor of the Baptist church, was generous in his praise of the Rev. Manley and his work here. He declared that the community would miss the smile that pervaded wherever Mr. Manley had hastened to express his gratitude for the privilege of having been associated with him here.
 Rev. Fred Dawson, returned missionary from the Philippine Islands, complimented Rev. Manley on his splendid work and assured the huge crowd that Mr. Manley's name will live everlastingly in the hearts of those with whom he had been connected in Canadian.
 Taking as his sermon subject, "The Ideal Christian Path," Mr. Manley urged his listeners to seek the ideal and strive for the great love that comes hand in hand with a Christian life. He admitted his imperfections and said that when he came here he told Canadian Presbyterians that if they were looking for a perfect man he was not the man they wanted. However, Rev. Manley has given of his best and his work will continue on as a living tribute to the doings of a man who tried his best.
 Mr. Manley said that, worst of all, he hated to part from the Sunday School classes, his little boys who came to him each Sunday for their lesson in Christianity. Likewise, Mrs. Manley expressed her regrets at having to leave her class and a tiny tear was seen to fall as one of her little girls bade her goodbye.
 It was a stirring service. Every one lent a hand to make it a success and the mixed choir sang beautiful gospel hymns, and E. M. Gray played on the saxophone.
 But the "Sinner saved, by the Grace of God," smiled as he has went to do in Canadian, happy in the thought that he had rendered

HONORED AT SIMMONS

Coach "Red" Moore of Snyder High School was honored at the annual Simmons University Alumni reception to the 1930 Senior Class by being elected First Vice-President. While "Red" may be a bit bashful on his feet explaining what he has to talk about, give him some boys and a football field, and "howdy"—let's go.

Kidding is One Thing
 "Well, yer worship, it was like this," said the man charged with disturbing the peace. "Me and the wife gets in an argument over the washin'-money. She calls me a lassy loafer and hits me over the head with a kettle. Then I knocks her down and she comes up agin and knocks me down and kicks me in the neck."
 "I see, said the magistrate, "and what next?"
 "Well, er course, then we gets mad and starts to fight."—Foc'ls Banter.

My First Act of Office
 A lawyer made his way to some scaffolding, where a gang was working and called for Michael O'Neill.
 "Who's wanting me?" inquired a voice from above.
 "Mr. O'Neill," the lawyer shouted, "did you come from Drogheda?"
 "I did."
 "And was your mother named Kathleen and your father Michael?"
 "Yes."
 "It is my duty, then, to inform you that the millionaire, Richley, has died in New York, leaving you a fortune."
 There was a short silence, and then a commotion up above.
 "Are you coming, Mr. O'Neill?" the lawyer called.
 "In wan minute," was the answer.
 "I'm just stopping to wallop the foreman."—Pearson's Weekly.

Ford Offers New De Luxe Sedan
 THE De Luxe Sedan, recently added to the Ford line, is designed for those who desire distinctiveness and unusual comfort in an automobile. The interior is inviting and roomy with wide doors to both compartments. Absence of rear quarter windows gives the car a striking individuality and affords privacy to the occupants.
 Interior trimmings and appointments are luxurious. Upholstery is either in brown mohair or a deep tan Bedford cord patterned after that used in high-priced cars. Other refinements include arm rests for the rear seat, mahogany finished garnish mouldings on the windows and beneath the windshield, flexible robe rail and hardware in an attractive pattern.
 The front seat is adjustable within a range of four inches to suit the convenience and comfort of the driver. It is moved quickly and easily by a small, inconspicuous handle in the front center of the seat just above the floor.
 The De Luxe Sedan, like other Ford body types, can be obtained in any one of several color combinations.

FOR AN EASY SUMMER

THESE are the days when you are not only busy planning spring menus, but in the back of your mind also lurks the problem of stocking that summer hangover up in the mountains or providing proper provender for your family at that shack down by the shore. Wherever you are going, if you're going to keep house, the food supply is subconsciously on your mind, and a few good new recipes will not come amiss.
 We're not going to suggest to you what to take along, or have sent, because you probably have a pretty good idea of that already. It's a useful hint, however, to remember to leave your correct address with your grocer so that you can be sure of a dependable supply of canned and dried foods if the local dealers don't happen to carry your brands. For, if there are certain brands of foods which you have tested, tried and found true, it's a mighty good thing to stick to them. Not all hands are alike, and the aphorism "old friends, old wine, old books are best" applies equally well to processed foods which have proved themselves. As canned foods are hermetically sealed, they are as good the day they come out of the can as they were the day they were sealed in.
Simple Summer Beverages
 Summer is the great season for refreshing drinks, and new suggestions as to these are always welcome. Here are two which are simple to make, and good for both grown-ups and children.
Tomato and Cucumber Cordial: Slice one medium cucumber thin with the peeling left on. Simmer together for thirty minutes three cups strained tomato juice, two cups water, one clove, garlic, the cucumber, one teaspoon salt, one teaspoon sugar and a few grains pepper. Strain, and cool the juice. Serve ice cold in glass cocktail cups. Serves eight.
Prunade: Boil one-third cup sugar and two cups water together five minutes. Cool. Add the juice of eight limes, one cup pineapple syrup, one cup prune juice and three cups cold water. Serve very cold in punch glasses. This will make 12 to 15 glasses.
Chicken, Cold or Hot
 Your family should not eat much heavy meat in summer, so chicken is a good dish to serve. Here are a couple of chicken dishes with all the fuss and feathers left out.
Jellied Chicken: Dissolve one package of lemon Jello in two cups boiling water, and set aside to cool. Drain a can of asparagus tips and arrange several in each of six individual molds, with the tips down, forming a lining. On the bottom of the mold and between the tips of asparagus place sliced stuffed olives as artistically as possible. Pour about a tablespoon of the jello mixture in each mold, and let harden to hold the asparagus and olives in place. Then fill the centers of the molds with the cut up contents of one source can of chicken and one-half cup dried mushrooms. Pour over the rest of the jello, filling the molds completely. Set in ice box to chill and harden. Unmold and serve with a lettuce and mayonnaise garnish. This dish may also be made in one large fancy mold. It serves six.
Southern Creamed Chicken and Corn: Slice the mushrooms from a 4-ounce can, and cook them and one-half cup chopped, blanched almonds in three tablespoons butter for five minutes, being careful not to brown. Add three tablespoons flour and stir smooth. Add the liquor from the can of mushrooms and two cups milk, stirring constantly until smooth and creamy. Add one chicken bouillon cube, salt and paprika to taste, one cup canned corn, the cut-up contents of a 6-ounce can chicken and the slightly beaten egg yolk, and serve this mixture very hot. Serves eight.
Fresh and Canned
 A good way to vary your salads of fresh fruits and vegetables and also to make them go further is to combine them with canned foods. Here's a salad, for instance, of ripe tomatoes and canned peas which will serve eight people.
Pear and Tomato Salad: Slice chilled ripe tomatoes, and lay one slice in each of eight individual nests of lettuce. Place half a pear from a No. 3 can on top of each, cut side up. Mix one cream cheese with three tablespoons chili sauce, and pile in the pear cavities. Garnish with strips of canned pimiento, and serve with either mayonnaise or French dressing.
