Snyder Team Wins Sectional Championship

A member of the Snyder High School Vocational Agriculture class propounds the following for Times-Signal readers:

"How fast would a mosquito have to fly in flying from the back seat to the front of an automobile going 60 miles an hour?"

Col. Erasmus Tack of the Amarillo News-Globe answered the self-same question in this manner:

(Original question was: How fast must the mosquito fly in order to reach the front seat of a car going 60 miles an hour. My answer was that it could fly as fast as it cared to and that it would get to the front of a car traveling 60 miles an hour just as soon as it could get to the front of a car that was standing still. I think this is right, but I don't know for certain.—E. R. T.)

What would be your answer?

A Christmas Cocktail
Take a quart of affection,
A pint of good-will,
Some fond recollection;
(Be careful don't spill)
A spoonful of nonsense;
(Perhaps too or three)
Shake it—(Don't break it!)
Take it from me.

It's harmless—have another.

Cause of Hard Times

It is both amusing and pathetic to observe what reasons different groups of interests assign for the hard times. Many of them naively but seriously put the whole blame on those persons or those things to whom or to which they stand opposed.

Democrats have blamed the Republicans and have been blamed by them. The baker's convention decided the trouble came because people do not eat enough bread; anti-immigration men put the whole onus on the immigrants; President Green of the American Federation of Labor thinks low wages are to blame; President Whitney of the New York Stock Exchange sees the cause in the high prices of conditions, and Chairman Barnes of the United States Chamber of Commerce recently explained that the whole trouble was due to government intervention in business matters. It will be remembered that Barnes was a grain broker and he fought the Farm Board tooth and nail.

Thus it is easy for everybody to explain this economic slump.

Dry Quiz Dropped

That was some boner the Prohibition Bureau pulled in sending a questionnaire to 3,000 American newspapers asking whether they favored opposed or were neutral to the 18th amendment and the Volstead act. Though the survey was quickly abandoned it has heaped criticism on the officials responsible. The tone of protest heard at Washington is that if this is a sample of the boasted "educational" methods of the new enforcement regime Director Woodcock had better stick to his last. The Prohibition Bureau's quiz idea according to many minds, was as absurd as it would be for the Department of Justice to ask editors what they thought about the petty larceny statute. Consensus of opinion at least locally, seems to be that Mr. Woodcock's duty is

Amarillo Center Baptist General Convention

Between 5,000 and 10,000 Expected to Attend This Week

Amarillo has been the center of attention for Baptists of Texas this week when the General Baptist convention of Texas convenes in that city. The convention proper opened Wednesday morning but other sessions were scheduled as early as Monday night.

Rev. P. C. McGahy and C. C. Carr, led a Scurry county delegation who are in attendance.

Dr. L. R. Scarborough, Fort Worth, president of the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, is president of the convention.

The Amarillo meeting is expected to draw between 5,000 and 10,000 people.

Commenting on the work of the past year, Dr. Scarborough said:

"I am expecting our reports on benevolent gifts for the past year to show approximately $4,000 more raised than in the previous year. And this does not include the amounts raised for the erection of two new buildings at Baylor University and its endowment of $400,000. Nor does it include two new buildings erected at Baylor College at Belton, the $40,000 increase in the endowment of Howard Payne College at Brownwood and the new dormitory at Marshall College.

"Indebtedness to the amount of about $120,000 has been paid. I believe that our number of additions and baptisms also will exceed last year. There has been a great increase also in the young people's activities, women's work and Sunday school program.

"This past year, in spite of the hard times, apparently is going to be one of the best experienced by Baptists of Texas in a long time."

DEFEAT OF COLORADO WOLVES BEFORE BIG CROWD BRINGS JOY

Tigers 34; Wolves 6

Tigers Excel Wolves in Every Department of Fast "Scrappy" Game

Excelling the Colorado Wolves at every turn of the game, the Snyder Tigers romped to a 34 to 6 victory over their time-honored rivals from Mitchell county. Playing the game on a field that was soggy and wet, both teams but when it came to "throwing mud" with the cleated boot, the Tigers had it all over the Wolves, making fifteen first downs to the Wolves five.

The field and stands were very colorful and preceding the battle, the Tiger band and Pep Squad moved with precision and dispatched down the center of the field, taking their places in the central section of the west end stand. The Wolves band and squad, followed them.

The line-up to start showed:

Snyder	Pos.	Colorado
Harlow	RE	Jones
Joyce	BT	Drinkard
Ferguson	RG J. T. Trice (c)
Haines	C	Smith
R. Dunn	LG	Clements
S. Smith	LT	J. Browning
Stagner	LE	Greenfield
Mann (c)	QB	McClinton
Viles	BE	Erwin
Burrows	LH	Clark
E. Dunn	FB	Johnson

Officials: Referee, Pat Murphy; Umpire, Raymond Berry; Head Linesman, Hodges.

First Quarter
Erwin kicked to the Wolves with first play going out of bounds; then a forward was grounded, Drinkard three Burrows for 11 yard loss when the Wolves punt, Jones touching the ball and Colorado recovering on the Tiger 48 yard marker. On first play Mann hurls a pass which Andy Jones catches and returns to 40 yard line, after three plays by McClinton, and Johnson, McClinton punts out at 6 yard marker with the Wolves punting 60 yards by Stagner's toe. Then it started, Johnson took 7; Clark 7 and first down.

The Wolves recover on downs and when Stagner punts, action was slow and Drinkard broke through blocking the punt and a touchdown shortly after the game had opened.

Erwin kicked the extra point, score Snyder 7; Colorado 0.

After several exciting plays the quarter ended, as McClinton hurled a pass to Clark that was good for 18 yards.

Second Quarter
The Tigers were in fine scoring position and with a Wolves penalty for offense, Clark carried the ball over for a second touchdown with Erwin kicking point. Snyder 14; Colorado 0. After several exchanges of the ball, with recovery of a Wolf punt by Burrows on his 40 yard line, two successive forward passes threw the Colorado contingent into great glee when Harlow took the ball over on a long pass, Harlow missing another forward for the extra point and the score was Snyder 14; Colorado 0.

The Tigers were clicking off first downs regularly with their forward passes working with machine-like precision. McClinton hurled a 30 yard pass to Clark, Clark then went thru tackle for 11 more yards; Clark 3 more; Johnson 3 yards and another touchdown with Erwin missing kick. Score: Snyder 20; Colorado 0.

Penalties were many and varied, the Tigers securing fifteen yard penalties two to one over the Wolves. After Johnson had made 27 yards thru the slippery mud, the Tigers were penalized 15 yards for rough handling, McClinton punts out at Wolf 3 yard line and on first play, Jess Browning blocks another Stagner punt for a safety and two

CHARLES ROSENBERG PURCHASE HUTTON BLK.

Charles Rosenberg of Brownwood completed one of the largest real estate deals in Snyder, in months, last week when he purchased the A. A. Hutton block, which houses the Economy Dry Goods Company on the first floor and the annex of the Hotel Manhattan. Plans call for the building of a large warehouse in the rear. The deal was consummated through the Snyder Insurance Agency.

With the purchase of this block, Mr. Rosenberg is a substantial owner of real estate in Snyder, as he also owns the building in which the Keller furniture store is located.

The Times-Signal congratulates Mr. Rosenberg with the thought that when he tires of Brownwood, that a genuine welcome awaits him and his family in old Scurry county, and Snyder.

PARDON US, GIDDENS

The Times-Signal was happy to tell last week that Hal C. Yoder was a member of the stock judging team at Texas Tech, but we inadvertently overlooked another Snyder boy on the team, T. W. Giddens. Of seven members of the team, Snyder secures two places which is honor indeed and we congratulate these two boys for carrying the colors of old Snyder to such a high pinnacle.

It's a tough job to keep Snyder and Scurry county out of the news headlines of the day, and all honor is due these young men for the honors they are bringing to their home city and county.

Dr. J. W. Hunt Is Retained Head Of McMurry

Dr. J. W. Hunt not only was returned to the presidency but also was named dean of McMurry college at the regular session at Sweetwater yesterday afternoon. Resignation of Boyd M. McKeown as dean was accepted.

The change will become effective November 25, or as soon as the affairs of the office of dean can be transferred to Dr. Hunt, Dean McKeown said.

D. P. Yoder was in attendance at the session.

OLD PIONEER HERE

Uncle Pete Ingle of Fort Worth was a week-end visitor here, shaking hands with old friends and enjoying a fine week's visit. Mr. Ingle first landed in Scurry county, 41 years ago. While in town he added the name of his daughter, Mrs. Ed Lewis of Fort Worth, to our subscription list for which we thank this honored old pioneer.

YOUNGSTER BELIEVES IN ADVERTISING

R. J. Trevey, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Trevey, living in the Ira community is a believer in Times-Signal classified advertising. Recently he placed a "For Sale and Trade" ad in the paper. Results secured were astounding, in fact, Emmett dropped into the office, Monday, to tell us that one inquiry came to the boy, even before the ad appeared, while six others were made before the paper was two days old.

Folks, it pays to use Times-Signal classifieds. The price is low, the returns ordinarily are very high.

SCURRY COUNTY PIONEER PASSES

Funeral services for Mrs. Boley Brown, 77, were held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Howell, Saturday afternoon in charge of Rev. Thomas M. Broadfoot, assisted by Rev. P. C. McGahy.

Mrs. Brown was born in Little Rock, Ark., October 15, 1853, and moved to Texas in infancy. She was married in 1887 to Boley Brown and to this union, five children were born three of whom are living: Bert Brown, Stanton; Ivan B., Midland, and Willie B., at Odessa, where she died last Friday. One adopted daughter, Clara Bell Boley lives at Spur. All the children were here with the exception of Bert who is ill at Cisco.

At the age of 42, Mrs. Brown accepted her Christ, living a consecrated Christian life to the last. Both she and her husband, who preceded her in death eleven years were always faithful in looking after the interests of the poor. The deceased lived to see all her children profess their Christ largely as a result of her own personal efforts in living, teaching and praying. Among her last words was the statement that she was ready to go, and admonishing her children to continue to be right and good Christians, the attitude of a truly great and to be remembered Mother. May she rest in peace.

TRADES FARMS

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Littlepage and Lola Mae, Mrs. Vernon Littlepage and Miss Aileen Curry were week-end visitors in Hamlin where Mr. Littlepage traded a farm that he owns near Ira, for one several miles east of Hamlin. The family, however, will continue to make Snyder their home. Enroute here, they went to Mineral Wells where Mrs. Roy Floyd accompanied them here for a visit.

See Aunt Jemima at the Advertiser Convention, November 25th.

Are you going to see the Campbell Soup Twins, November 25?

Buster Brown will be at the Advertiser Convention, November 25.

Five Sons and Two Daughters Will Honor

Uncle and Mrs. Ben Davis are celebrating their sixty-fourth wedding anniversary today, with a family dinner at their home on Avenue N.

Five sons and two daughters are living, with H. L. T. Cornelius and Oscar, living here, Isaiah at Godley, and Jeff at Floydada; daughters are Mrs. T. H. Shull and Mrs. H. B. Hart who also reside near this city.

Preparations for the family feast will be one of joy and thanksgiving, with Uncle Ben and the Mrs. coming in for a round of hearty applause and congratulations, not only from their kin folks, but from the large circle of friends they have in this community.

The Times-Signal is happy to join with the pioneer citizens of Scurry county in wishing these fine folks many happy returns of the day. Folks who live in such Christian faith as Uncle Ben and his helpmate are the basic foundations upon which the great honor and glory of West Texas have been builded. More power and glory to them.

YOUNG MAN PASSES

Raymond Butts, 20, young son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Butts, died at the Emergency Hospital, Thursday morning, following an extended illness of eight weeks, following an operation.

SNYDER BOY STARS IN SIMMONS WIN

G. L. Huestis, member of last year's Snyder Tigers and playing end for Simmons University against Trinity, Armistice Day, was a helper in the victory for the Abilene school. With another player, Huestis assisted in pitching a Trinity man behind his own goal line for 2 points, thereby winning the game.

Attahoy, Huestis, and congratulations.

Sweetwater Host To Methodists Of District

21st Annual Northwest Texas Conference Opened Yesterday

The twenty-first annual Northwest Texas Methodist conference, representing 409 organized congregations and approximately 70,000 Methodists, opened a five day session at Sweetwater, yesterday with Bishop Hiram A. Boaz presiding, and Rev. Cal C. Wright as secretary. Many denominational matters affecting the ecclesiastical affairs of Northwest Texas will be discussed and acted upon. A high-light, usual feature of these conferences, will be the assignment of approximately 300 preachers for the next twelve months. Reports from the various charges rendered at the session will probably indicate an excellent spiritual growth, including a large number added to membership, but the financial report will reflect the general monetary depression prevalent over the area.

The conference was formally opened at 9 a. m. yesterday in the First Methodist church, the Rev. O. P. Clark, pastor, being host, assisted by the Rev. H. W. Hanks, pastor of Highland Heights church of Sweetwater, and the Rev. L. N. Lipscomb, presiding elder of the Sweetwater district. After organizing the conference will proceed to hear reports from the various charges, to admit on trial probationer preachers, to advance undergraduates and to ordain deacons and elders, and to transact routine business. Many connecional officers from Nashville, Tenn., are expected to attend and address the sessions daily. The appointment of preachers to stations and circuits for the ensuing year will be publicly read by Bishop Boaz at the close of the evening service, Sunday, November 17. Nine presiding elders and the bishop constitute the "cabinet" which fixes the appointments.

Sweetwater is Leader
The Northwest Texas Conference a year ago—when the last official statistics were compiled—enrolled 62,700 members, had baptized during the past twelve months 2,500 adults and 532 infants, numbered 409 congregations owned 298 church buildings valued at $4,145,650; owned 185 parsonages valued at $552,350. During the year the conference paid eight presiding elders or district superintendents $46,603 and its preachers $32,337. A total of $1,230,977 had been raised during the 12 months for all purposes.

Mandamus Suit Against School Books Sought

W. T. C. C. Publicity Committee Active Fighting

Stamford, Nov. 8.—A mandamus suit to prevent further distribution of geographies containing "scandalously and damagingly untrue" statements concerning West Texas, by the state board of education, among the school children of the state has been recommended to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce by the publicity committee of the organization. Determination as to whether or not the suit will be left to the executive body of the chamber.

Action instigating the suggested injunction was taken at a meeting of the publicity committee in Stamford last week. Ways of improving "West Texas Today," official publication of the organization; plans for stimulating interest in the West Texas poster stamp national advertising campaign, and other items connected with the program of the body were considered during the session.

While in Stamford, members of the committee were guests at the Clear Fork river ranch home of R. V. Colbert, Stamford banker and Hereford breeder, who is also treasurer of the WTCC.

Max Bentley of the Abilene Reporter-News, and chairman of the publicity committee group presided at the meeting. Other members of the committee and visitors in attendance included B. D. Donnell, Wichita Falls Times and Record-News; Chas. A. Guy-Lubbock Avalanche and Journal; Frank Reeves, Fort Worth Star-Telegram; W. S. Cooper, Colorado Record and president of the West Texas Press Association; Garnett O. Reeves, Lubbock Chamber of Commerce; J. D. Motley, Ballinger Chamber of Commerce; Wm. A. Wilson, Lamesa Chamber of Commerce.

Postoffice Desires Help and Co-operation of All Patrons

The establishment of free mail delivery in Snyder, the first of the year is going to call for a lot of co-operation and help from the customers who will be served.

Word comes from the postmaster that the time is short when the new delivery will get under way and the patrons located within the free mail delivery limits should start placing their correct street address on all mails, including papers, magazines, packages and all other mail addressed to the proper street address and house number. Postoffice employees hope that customers will not neglect this necessary obligation as they must depend on the street name and house number entirely and not on the patron's name.

Snyder citizens have gone out and secured this service so it is up to each individual citizen to start the new work with the least friction and which will insure greater efficiency. The postoffice are only asking for your wholesome co-operation and help and each citizen should work right with them in helping all that they can.

Postmaster Womack and his entire corps of assistants will thank the citizenship of Snyder for their help in this matter.

New Chevrolet Introduced For First Time Sat.

Cleveland Scene of First Showing of New Offering in Deluxe Cars

Cleveland, O., Nov. 8.—Definite assurance that Chevrolet will introduce a new car for 1931 on Saturday was revealed here today during the staging by Chevrolet factory officials of the first of fifty dealer meetings to be held in the next five weeks throughout the country.

Included in a car load of equipment brought in for the meeting was a new car substantially bigger than the current model, and extremely changed in appearance.

Although the meeting was closed to the public, it was learned that H. J. Klinger, vice-president and general sales manager of the Chevrolet Motor Co., who attended the meeting here, told the 500 dealers and associated bankers in attendance at the City Auditorium that the car would be publicly announced the coming Saturday, and that, despite its increased size and improved appearance, it would be priced considerably below current levels.

Prominent incidents attended the presentation of the car. It was trucked under canvas from the freight shed to the stage of the Auditorium, and there, boxed in by velvet drops and under a flood of spotlights, disclosed to the audience.

A burst of applause greeted the unveiling of the car, and when the announcement of new lower price was made, a wild cheering dealer group interrupted proceedings for several minutes.

The car is longer than the present Chevrolet, and changes and refinements are so extensive that it has a decided "big car" appearance, one dealer reported.

If the sentiment among the dealers here is any criterion, the new car ought to prove the most successful product in the history of the company.

(Watch the Times-Signal for the new car next Thursday.)

FLUVANNA LADY DIES IN SLATON HOSPITAL

Miss Grace Squires, 32, head waitress in the Harvey house at Slaton, where she has been employed the last 14 years, died in a Slaton hospital early Saturday morning following an operation for cancer.

FOOT BALL DATA

School authorities state that the Snyder Tigers will battle the Sweetwater Mustangs on their grounds, Thanksgiving Day, unless the state Interscholastic League officials should rule that the local team must play the winners of the Stamford-Hasell game.

Tiger boosters are hoping to schedule a game with their old-time rivals, the Golden Tornadoes from Lamesa High.

Snyder foot ball boosters are anxious for the coaches in the conference to pick the winners of the districts as regards their respective playing positions. To a Times-Signal man, we believe Snyder will get not less than three men on this mythical eleven, and perhaps five.

FINE CROWDS AT PALACE THEATRE

The Palace Theatre have been having a fine run of pictures and packing the house with a good attendance. Mrs. Lollar is spending plenty of money to bring the best here and our citizens should appreciate her civic service in providing such high class array of good, clean films.

Our Endeavor---

To offer our customers the best banking service possible . . . a service both helpful and progressive, looking forward to a better living condition of all the people of Snyder and Scurry county. We believe better times will come and that our county will prosper in the future.

Dr. E. P. Humbert, Department Head of Genetics at A. & M. College, and chairman of the State Plant Board, passed through Snyder Sunday enroute to Lubbock where he held a meeting of the State Plant Board on Monday.

One day's vacation in a weekly newspaper plant throws everything off its feet, but it meant hustle and plenty of it to get this issue into the mails on time.

Three fights on the square after the foot ball game, Tuesday, were quickly covered up and placed out of sight, as they should be. The boys will be boys.

Mrs. James Miller, accompanied by her granddaughter, Mrs. Robert Curmude, Jr., both of Brownwood, came last week for a visit with Snyder relatives. Mrs. Miller will make an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Hood, while Mrs. Curmude returned home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Holley of Stanton were week-end visitors of relatives here. While in town, Claude placed another year ahead for the Times-Signal. He has been serving with great credit as secretary of the Stanton Chamber of Commerce and along with our old friend, Editor Jim Kelley of the Reporter, is making "the fur fly" in his home town city."

Better Breakfasts

There are lots of advertisements and also philosophers which and who tell you just exactly how to start the day right, but the common experience of humanity has demonstrated that the best way to start it is with a good breakfast. This doesn't necessarily mean an expensive breakfast, but it does mean a breakfast to the planning of which some thought has been given instead of serving the same old breakfast day after day.

Plenty of Fruit
Here is a suggestion for a breakfast which is almost sure to make you start the day in a cheerful mood:

Morning Eye-Opener
Shredded Wheat With Canned Prunes and Cream
Raisin Toast
Raised Doughnuts
Hot Beverage

To make the Morning Eye-Opener combine the contents of a 10-oz. can of grapefruit juice with one cup of orange juice and two tablespoons of lemon juice, and pour into a glass jar. Let stand over night in the refrigerator. Shake well before serving. This will make four sherbet cupsful.

The canned prunes should be left in the refrigerator over night, then poured, in the morning, over the shredded wheat which has been crisped in the oven. Whole cream, half and half, or part evaporated milk can be used with this.

The hot beverage can be coffee, chocolate or tea, whichever you prefer. The point about this breakfast is that there is plenty of fruit in it, and sufficient nourishment to keep you feeling comfortable until time for lunch.*

hearts go out in thanks to each and every one of you. May good friends and life-long friends come to you when your loved ones pass on.

Whole Grain Corn

WHOLE grain corn is a canned foods product which has been gaining rapidly in popularity. This is an entirely different article from the cream style corn which is best known to consumers of canned foods. Instead of being split and soft, the kernels remain plump, firm and whole, just as they came from the cob.

The reason for its popularity is that this product practically duplicates fresh corn on the cob as to flavor and tenderness as well as appearance of the kernels. The best seed and rich soil are necessary for its production since there must be no odd-colored or shaped kernels, and it must mature perfectly. In order to produce it in its utmost perfection every ear must be individually selected for canning, and special care must be taken in its preparation in order to preserve the whole kernel intact. In its processing a small amount of salt is added in order to keep it in crisp condition, and also a small amount of sugar in order to bring out the sweet and natural flavor.

Corn Chauder: Dice and fry one-fourth pound bacon, add one small onion and one diced green pepper, and continue to saute until brown. Add four cups diced boiled potatoes, and allow them to fry until slightly browned. Add the contents of a No. 2 can of whole grain corn, five cups milk, and one-half teaspoon salt and one-fourth teaspoon pepper, and bring to scalding. This recipe serves ten.

EDITOR COOPER HERE
Editor "Bill" Cooper of the Colorado Record was on hand, Tuesday, with a happy smile and a happy greeting but his usual "cocky" attitude for the Wolves to wallop the Tigers was absent. Bill, along with the fine and large group of Colorado citizens were loud in their cheering and kept fighting but a super-foot ball team defeated them cleanly and well. Rough tactics were indulged by both teams but that is always the case when two hard-fighting teams go to it, when the rivalry for athletic supremacy is so active as these two neighboring cities. Secretary Jimmie Green was absent but he was attending the Fathers and Daughters affair at Simmons University, where he had served as President, the past year.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE LESS SEVERE IN RESPECT FATE OF THE WOLVES

Drastic Mandate of Board is Softened as Hamlin Session is Held

Status of the Colorado schools in interscholastic league circles is not near so deplorable in estimation of members of the district executive committee as they at first seemed to entertain, following meeting at Roby last week. At that time, quoting Leroy Johnson, of Stamford, chairman of the group, the Colorado schools, and should be expelled from all and code known in the league's catalogue, and should be expelled from participation in all events, not only for the present year, but next year as well.

But, it is apparent that such is not now the belief of that committee. Johnson, a few days after giving an interview over the telephone describing to The Record some of the charges filed against Colorado and outlining recommendations made by his committee to the state controlling board later claimed that he had been misquoted.

Then, at Hamlin, Wednesday, the board held another meeting to consider again the charges filed against Colorado. There seems to be nothing to report aside from the information that Colorado was not found to be so bad, after all, and it is quite certain that the executive committee will see fit to recall its original drastic demand that the schools be barred for two years.

Of course, Colorado is out for this season, insofar as winning the district or any other pennant is concerned. All scheduled games, however, are to be played and the Wolves will go to Snyder Tuesday for the regular Armistice Day game as originally planned. The Taylor-men will not play any of the men who are under fire by the district committee.

The citizenship of Colorado realized that not all the while that Colorado was not entitled to such drastic punishment as recommended by the committee, accepting that those men had been misinformed as to true conditions here. The change in the whole complex substantiates that belief.—Colorado Record.

AMARILLO MEETS UNEMPLOYMENT PROBLEMS IN BIG WAY

Unemployment relief has been a real condition and not a theory in Amarillo for more than a year. Result, no unemployment crisis, $2,000,000 in public improvements at reasonable cost, yearly cut of $750,000 for 50,000 people in taxes, gas, electricity, water, and city expense, and a "white spot" in the nation's industrial map through all the "hard times."

This is a challenge to the state and nation in a critical year. Probably it is without parallel. Certainly it arrests attention.

The cause, a mayor who meant what he said in election promises of public improvements, economy, lower taxes, cheaper utilities, unpenalized home ownership, attractive living conditions, progressive leadership, private business methods in public affairs.

And now Amarillo's mayor, Col. Ernest O. Thompson, is named with six other American Legionnaires as a committee in Texas to devise ways and means for relieving unemployment, a part of the national machinery set in motion for that purpose.

"We saw hard times ahead two years ago," says Mayor Thompson, "and began preparing for them. Public improvements planned to extend over a longer period were concentrated into one year. Contracts demanded home labor. Floater were not hired, and are not welcome in Amarillo."

"The year's work included paving, sewer and water extensions, two railroad underpasses and five parks, all costing $800,000, five new school buildings $550,000. This month we start a third underpass to cost $170,000, a new courthouse $420,000."

"These major projects total $1,940,000, minor items round out $2,000,000. They have kept many men busy, prevented distress. A good living wage was paid. Materials were bought cheap. Every item constructive. No waste."

"We have bargained with utilities. The city set the example by cutting tax rate from 50 to 27 cents, reducing tax rate from 13.35 to $1. Gas was cut from 45 to 38 cents, electricity from 9 to 7 cents. Railroads paid half the cost of underpasses. Competition on paving bids was stimulated by grouping contracts, reducing cost $125,000. Extended pavements cut maintenance $13,000. Garbage removal was cut $12,000. Gas and electricity for the city use and public schools are billed as if all passed through one meter, and schools are put in lowest bracket, at one and one-third cents per kilowatt hour, saving $10,000 a year. The year's total reductions and economies are $750,000 for 50,000 people.

"We have encouraged the railroads. Hundreds of miles of new lines are building in Amarillo's vicinity, with hundreds more planned, taking further slack out of employment."

CIRCULATION MEN HERE

Jack Estes, high-powered and good looking circulation manager for the Dallas News was a Times-Signal visitor Friday. On arriving at the door and noting Mr. Estes' arrival all places where money might be kept were immediately locked. That boy gets the money, whether tangible or just hanging in the air. Along with Jack, came George McDaniel of the Abilene Reporter-News. With those two, what could any felt-boot publisher offer for resistance. But we enjoyed the visit and mighty happy to see these big-town boys out looking after their preserves.

The Father of the Jews.

Just as George Washington is considered the father of our country, so the Biblical Abraham is looked upon as the father of the Jews. There are many stories told about Abraham's youth in the Talmud, but most interesting, perhaps, is the one about how he went in search of God.

Over four thousand years ago, during the time of Abraham, people worshipped idols that were carved out of wood. In fact, Terach, Abraham's father, was such an idol maker. Abraham was some times sent to market to sell these idols, but proved to be a very poor salesman. How could he hope to sell idols to people with such words as, "How can you, a man of sixty years, pray to an idol that is but one day old?" The truth is, that he did not wish to sell these idols, for he did not believe in them, of course, he brought them back home again.

Abraham was convinced that there was but one God. One day in a great rage, he smashed his father's idols. Then he told his father that the idols had fought among themselves and had killed each other. "How can I believe such a story?" asked Terach. "They are only images made of wood—unable to move."

"Why then do you worship pieces of wood?" replied Abraham. His belief in the single God grew stronger and stronger until, one day, tired of living among idol worshippers, he took his family to the land of Canaan. In this land Abraham could worship the God whom he had heard in his dream. And all the followers of Abraham believed as he did and called themselves Jews.—The American Hebrew.

GREAT POULTRY SHOW TO BE HELD AT SLATON IN DEC.

Slaton, Texas, Nov. 12.—The largest and best array of poultry ever assembled in the northwestern section of Texas is expected to be seen here when the first annual Texas Panhandle-Plains Poultry Show is held in Slaton on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, December 10, 11 and 12, says Taylor White, of Tahoka, president of the regional poultry association which will sponsor the show. Slaton has been selected as the show's permanent home.

Poultry leaders of 54 Northwest Texas counties joined hands last August in planning the regional show for the Panhandle-Plains area, believing that climatic conditions, economy of feed production and other natural advantages of the region are such as to justify the belief that the Panhandle-Plains section should become nationally known as "Uncle Sam's Egg Basket."

These poultrymen, also were convinced that a regional poultry show for Northwest Texas would prove to be a highly beneficial factor in hastening the development of the poultry industry in the Panhandle-Plains territory. Poultry-raising already has a strong foothold in the region, but its further advancement and improvement is much to be desired.

After the formation of the regional poultry association, detailed plans for the first show were made by officers and committees. A catalog and premium list was prepared, offering liberal cash awards to poultry exhibitors at the first annual show, and hundreds of these catalogs have been mailed during the past week to prospective exhibitors located throughout the area included.

Separate premium lists are provided for fowls to be shown in breed types and those to be shown in flocks, upon which the judging will be based exclusively upon external production characteristics. D. H. Reid, of the extension department, Texas A. & M. College, will judge the flocks, while I. L. Bandy, a licensed American Poultry association judge, of Godley, Texas, will make awards in breed types. These birds will be shown as pens or singles, and will be judged by the American standard of perfection. A flock will consist of eight females and one male bird, and flocks will not compete with pens and singles for premiums.

A large display of turkeys is expected for the show, also, and the egg show will be a feature, too. An attractive educational program during the exhibition has been arranged. This will be held on the second day of the show, Thursday, December 11. The detailed program for that day follows:

10:30 a. m. "Sanitation and Equipment," by R. B. Calloway, of Amarillo.

11 a. m. "Selection of Breeding Pairs; Mating; Standardization of Flocks," by D. H. Reid, extension department, Texas A. & M. College.

2 p. m. "Choosing and Fitting Birds for Show Purposes," by I. L. Bandy, Godley, Texas.

2:30 p. m. "Care and Feeding," by R. C. Mowery, of the animal husbandry department, Texas Tech College, Lubbock.

3 p. m. "Standardization of Poultry and Eggs," by D. H. Reid, of Texas A. & M. College, College Station.

On the first day of the show the annual meeting of the association, including all exhibitors, will be held at 7 p. m., December 10. This meeting will be in the form of a banquet, and officers for the succeeding year will be elected.

On the closing day of the show, the vocational agriculture teachers of the Panhandle-Plains region will have a luncheon session at noon, the meeting continuing into the afternoon.

Boys and girls who are members of the clubs in the area will have an entire division of the show all to themselves. No entry fees for their birds are required, and liberal cash awards are offered.

The total of all awards for the show exceeds $1,000, and it is possible for the total to reach as much as $1,500.

Temporary quarters for the poultry show have been arranged for a building 50x140 feet to be used. It is a brick structure and though weather conditions might be severe, all birds will be well protected.

D. P. Eaton, Lubbock County agricultural agent, and E. L. Hicks, Slaton poultryman, will be the show superintendents. They predict that the number of entries will exceed 1,000.

Special sweepstake premiums on singles and pens are offered, and a cash sweepstake award has been posted for the best flock.

This premium is $10.00. Also, two loving cups are offered for chickens and turkeys in the breed type division.

Cash awards of $20, $15, $10, and $5 are included for the four best county displays of flocks, each display to consist of five flocks or 45 birds. As many as three counties must compete if these prizes are to be awarded.

First, second, third, and fourth cash prizes for singles in breed types are: $2.50, $1.50, $1.00 and 50 cents; for pens, $5.00, $3.00, $2.00, and $1.00; for flocks (judged on production) $8.00, $6.00, $4.00, and $2; for turkeys, $2.50, $1.50 and ribbon; Boys and girls club division, $2.00, $1.00 and 50 cents. Entry fees are: singles, $.50; pens, $1.00; flocks, $2.00; egg display, $.50.

Many visitors are expected here from all parts of the Panhandle-Plains area to see the show during the three days it will be in progress. Counties included in the show's territory are: Dallam, Sherman, Hansford, Ochiltree, Lipscomb, Hartley, Moore, Hutchinson, Roberts, Hemphill, Oldham, Potter, Carson, Gray, Wheeler, Deaf Smith, Randall, Armstrong, Donley, Collinsworth, Parmer, Castro, Swisher, Briscoe, Hall, Childress, Bailey, Lamb, Hale, Floyd, Motley, Cottle, Cochran, Hockley, Lubbock, Crosby, Dickens, King, Yoakum, Terry, Lynn Garza, Kent, Stonewall, Gaines, Dawson, Borden, Scurry, Fisher, Andrews, Martin, Howard, Mitchell, Nolan.

Competitive exhibits will not be accepted from outside these counties, it has been announced.

DAME RUMOR GOES ABROAD

By Thomas M. Broadfoot

Dame Rumor is a very attractive Miss who, though often courted, has never yielded to the enticing pleas of matrimony; for she cannot content herself with the routine of a domestic life and the quiet interests of a local domicile. Rather she chooses to be her own mistress answering always to the call of her own heart and living on the love of her wares. In this sort of life she delights; for her interest lies in the welfare of others, while her heart is set on other gods.

Asked whence and why she comes, her response is always the same: From walking up and down the earth seeking whom I may devour. Her route is always by way of the dark alley; for she would not be seen of other men, though she loves to visit all. Where she starts in the morning no one can tell, and where she sleeps after sun-set no living mortal knows.

As regards her breadth of interests, she has no respect of persons, and the effectiveness of her work is beyond compare; for once her soiled sponge is cast upon the waters, forever they reflect her gleam of filthy hues. Once she has gone out through the door of one's heart she never can be overtaken; for she flies with the swiftness of a sun-beam in the direction nobody knows. Her hellish work is done. And, though the beauties of a landscape be marred by her passage, what care has she? or what care we who assist her? Her one and only end is accomplishment. The innocence or guilt of the victim has no value in the scale of judgment; the axe or the guillotine once lifted, what care she where it falls? And, though she can never do her work alone, she is never without an accomplice. In this lies the marvel of it all. But "offences must come, and woe to that man by whom the offence cometh."

VOCATIONAL TRAINING HELPS YOUTH OF TEXAS

Many Texas farm boys are getting a better "break" today than did the average boy of a few years ago. The addition of vocational agriculture to high school work has helped many future Texans into a better opportunity to succeed. Take the case of Henry Claunch, a student of Silverton high school in the Panhandle. His record according to C. L. Davis, director of vocational agriculture in Texas, enabled him to win a handsome prize in addition to earning a nice profit from some farm activities while in school.

Vocational Agriculture is going even further than just to the high school boys for it has opened classes to their fathers. Night instruction in communities is gaining favor in many counties of Texas. Teachers, with backgrounds of technical training, are offering study courses where there is a demand emphasized by interest and attendance. Mr. Davis also outlines the workings of his department in the article as well as its aims, purposes and results.

FLY-BY-NIGHT OUTFITS

Snyder along with many other West Texas towns will be bothered right along with "Fly-by-night" outfits who come into town, get a room and make a special rate on whatever occupation they might be in. They make special cut throat prices that mean nothing but price alone, do their work half-shod and then move on to another town. The thing for folks to do is to bank on the folks who are already in business, and who back up their work with service and guarantee of their work.

THE PENITENTIARY PRINTING PLANT

No one questions the significant improvements worked in the prison system of the state under the progressive management of Lee Simmons.

He has put idle men to work, thereby increasing the self-respect and morale of men the system reclaim for society. He has literally cleaned house, making the system a decent place in which to live. He lacks very little of having placed the prison system upon a self-sustaining basis.

For all of this, the people of Texas are, or should be, duly appreciative. Manager Simmons has been liberally commended by newspapers of the state, and by thinking people who read the newspapers.

Nevertheless, the ambitious program outlined for the establishment of a prison state-printing plant is likely to prove a boomerang.

The typographical and allied printing trade unions have recently registered a summary protest against the plan. Newspaper publishers, who operate job printing plants in connection, undoubtedly will join in the objection. Moreover their protests are soundly based.

County governments are considerable factors in local printing markets, as is the State in certain other localities. It will prove quite a task for Manager Simmons to convert the people of Texas to the principle that a great industry should be deprived of a substantial market by the competition of a state-owned and operated industry.

It is to be hoped that Manager Simmons will continue the constructive work he has so auspiciously begun, without needlessly trampling upon the toes of a large and influential Texas industry.

Crying when laughter is in order. Listening to the sobstiff of n'er-do-wells who sing the blues as an alibi to get out of work. Hobnobbing with pessimists. Pinching a nickle till the buffalo dies. Pulling back when a little pushing ahead is all that is necessary to start the ball rolling. Forgetting and otherwise overlooking the fact that what was isn't, and what is will cease to be. Holding a nickle so close to the eye that you can't see the big round dollars that are within reach. Which is just another way of saying, "being so close to the picture that you can't see the frame." Waiting to buy till the price goes up. Preferring to be hypnotized into seeing a mirage rather than look at the plain facts. Letting propaganda of the sore-heads rule your actions. Allowing others with an axe to grind to do your thinking. Saying "it can't be done" when a little investigation will prove that it has been and is being done. Sitting around "belly aching" instead of getting out and trying. Evading responsibility of doing something instead of taking the bull by the horns. Strange Case Lubbock Man Speaks For Crazy Water

Thought To Be Hopeless Yet He Lived To Tell His Story

Three weeks ago today, I came to the Crazy Water Hotel on a stretch from the city of Lubbock, Texas, with what the doctors called Typhoid Spine, and they told me that there was no medicine that would cure me. I started drinking Crazy Water and taking the baths, and on the 12th day after arriving, I took to the wheel chair and on the 17th day I started walking on crutches and can now walk without them, so I feel if Crazy Water will do that for me I cannot say enough for it. TEXAS COTTON PROBLEM IS AIRED IN MAGAZINE ARTICLE

Victor Schoffelmeyer, agricultural editor of The Dallas News and a recognized authority on cotton, has just written an article setting out forcibly the disastrous trend of cotton farming in Texas. The article is styled "An Unrestricted Picture of the Cotton Situation" and is produced in the November issue of Texas Opportunities. This magazine is published by the Texas Power & Light Company and declares in its foreword, "So many encouraging words have come to us concerning past numbers of Texas Opportunities that we are prompted to continue our efforts to draw business men and farmers closer together in the bonds of mutual interest, understanding and sympathy."

Soil depletion is the chief source of our depressing condition, according to Mr. Schoffelmeyer, although he pictures the disastrous results that have accrued from the attendant declining per-acre yield and inferior sample due to loss in staple qualities through efforts to increase ginn turn-outs. In comparing Texas conditions with those of other countries where labor is much cheaper, Mr. Schoffelmeyer draws an impressive conclusion by declaring "The outlook is not hopeless, but may become so if the years are allowed to slip by without doing the wise thing."

A Terrible Ending.
 There had been a train wreck and one of the traveling teachers felt himself slipping from this life. "Good-bye, Tom," he groaned to his friend. "I'm done for."
 "Don't say that, old man!" sputtered the English professor. "For heaven's sake, don't end your last sentence with a preposition!"

FLUVANNA RAIL AGENT SAYS "FARMER CAN'T STAND ALONE"

Agent H. H. Haynes of the R. S. & P. railroad with offices at Fluvanna had the following interesting letter in the last issue of Farm & Ranch:
 Scurry County, Texas.

I have been a reader of your valuable paper for many years. After reading most of the October 11 issue, especially the different letters on the cotton question, I will say that some of them are to the point, while others are rather radical as to the cause and means of this depression.

I have been a member of one of the railroad brotherhoods for more than twenty-five years and am a strong believer in union, or co-operation. I am proud of this for several reasons. The main reason is that of the effective way of carrying on business. The day has passed when one man can stand alone and fight an organized business. Mr. Barrier of Mitchell county is in error, stating that the Federal Government guaranteed any railroad company any earnings; also blaming the present administration for being the cause of the present low prices of all products. These conditions would have occurred, no matter who was president. Every cotton grower has his part of the blame to carry. If he produces good cotton he may expect good prices. He has got in the way of harvesting his cotton like his feed crop—no care is taken in picking. In this way the staple is badly damaged on account of requiring more gin machinery. The world's demand is for a longer staple than that which is being produced. India and other Eastern countries are now producing the long staple in large quantities and the staple that is wanted. This causes weak demand for our cotton. Not until we can compete with them in grade and staple can we expect prices to be better.

Here I wish to make a reply to the committee of Lancaster, Texas, who drafted a petition to Governor Moody to call an extra session of the Legislature last winter to pass a law in which the increase of cotton may be reduced. This law, if passed, would deprive a farmer of his rights to plant his crop as he desired—an unjust law, according to the Federal Constitution. Why not call upon Governor Moody to put before this special session a bill requiring all bollie machines removed from all farms, compelling farmers to pick their cotton. All bollies left in the field can be pastured if desired; if not it will be a fine fertilizer for the land. This will reduce acreage without a man being dictated to by the authorities of the State. Some may claim by removing the bollie machines that it would be boycotting the manufacturers of the machines, but I say not. Practically the same material can be used in manufacturing gin stands or other machinery. Take the fruit growers of California and see the progress they have made in practically the same method.

Good material for the market demands good prices. For the past twenty years I have been planting cotton on a small scale and I have been studying the farmer's position in marketing his product. Not until he has a say in what he will take for his cotton will he be any better off.

H. H. HAYNES.

the brass-tacks of day-to-day existence.

Nobody doubted it, but everybody is relieved to know that a good man, who is also a Democrat, is safely established in the governor's chair. Which casts no reflection upon the ability and rectitude of a certain Colonel Talbot, whose only offense was that he was a Republican.

Probably Colonel Talbot is the most popular Republican ever to make so futile a gesture for a high state office. The overwhelming majority by which he lost his cause only proves that Texans are always Democrats, even if they vote Republican under duress and extreme provocation.

The facts are, of course, that Colonel Talbot took his candidacy lightly. He seized an opportunity to write some healthy prescriptions for the well-being of a state which he loves with all the fervor a Republican heart may contain. Good Democrats well may borrow a leaf or two from the Colonel's note-book, especially the portions which prescribe the general purchase of Texas-made products.

With November 4th behind us, we can turn more resolutely to the tasks of farm and drouth relief, of efficiency and economy in government, of increased employment and prosperity.

It was a good November 4th, particularly good to Democrats. But now let's definitely adjourn politics and face the future.

COTTON

The future of the cotton grower will be determined in the laboratory of the industrial chemist.

There are thousands of potential uses for the great Southern staple which, once discovered, can re-establish the health and vigor of the cotton-growing industry.

When you get down to bed-rock, there is only one sane and solid reason for the predicament in which the cotton-grower finds itself. That reason is called, "The Law of Supply and Demand." Trans-oceanic countries year by year have increased their production and markets have become glutted with more of the staple than the world can consume. Therefore the price goes down.

Wider and more general use of cotton awnings for decorative and shading purposes will help. Greater preference for cotton clothing will help. The use of cotton fabric for road-topping will help. Substitution of cotton for jute bagging on cotton bales will help. Together, they help a great deal. Add to these the new and unsuspected uses which the industrial chemist may discover, and we have a rejuvenated industry once more contributing to the prosperity and industrial development of the whole South.

Texas should watch with absorbing interest the experiments of the industrial chemist. Upon them depends much of the prosperity and happiness of the state.

GREET THE NEW YEAR WITH A SUPPER PARTY

A crackling fire, the radio, something good to eat, and a few friends to say "Happy New Year" when the bells begin "to ring out the old"—what better way to start the new year!

Inez S. Willson, home economist, says, "For the hostess who must prepare the repast for her guests, a creamed dish for the main dish is just the thing as it may be made ready hours before the guests arrive."

The extra fine creamed meat dishes will delight the guests at your Watch Party.

Sweetbread and Chicken Patties

Dice 1 cup white meat of cooked chicken or turkey or veal. Add to diced sweetbread which have been prepared as follows: Soak sweetbreads for an hour, then simmer for twenty-five minutes in salted water to which 1 tablespoon has been added for each quart. Plunge into cold water. Remove membrane and tubes. Make 2 cups of rich white sauce using 1 cup chicken or veal stock and 1 cup milk. Add diced chicken and sweetbreads to sauce. Heat thoroughly and serve in heated patty shells. Garnish with pimento cut in fancy shapes.

For those who want a creamed dish quite different from chicken or turkey, Creamed Chipped Beef will prove a happy choice. Perhaps this does not seem very "partified," but it really is not just ordinary creamed chipped beef.

Creamed Chipped Beef
 Shred 1-2 pound chipped beef. Cover with boiling water and let stand for five minutes. Drain. Melt 4 tablespoons butter. Add 1-2 pound mushrooms which have been washed, skinned, and sliced. Simmer in the butter five minutes. Then add the chipped beef. When heated thoroughly, sprinkle with 4 tablespoons flour. Mix and add three cups milk. Heat well, simmering about ten minutes. Add a little pepper and 2 tablespoons of kitchen bouquet. Serve as you would serve shortcake over hot cheese biscuits. This amount will serve six generously.

Artist and Model for 1930 Red Cross Poster

Mr. Lawrence Wilbur, shown in his New York studio, painting the poster which is used in the 1930 Roll Call of the American Red Cross, to urge every one to join as a member this year.

A SYMBOLICAL figure is selected each year to represent the American Red Cross and to serve to the nation, for wide distribution in poster form during the organization's annual appeal for members, at the period of its Roll Call, Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day.

A poster competition is held, in which prominent artists of the United States participate, and a committee selects the painting which shall carry the Red Cross message for that year.

Lawrence Wilbur, a distinguished artist, with studio in New York, is the creator this year of the magnificent figure representing the spirit of motherhood and of the Red Cross, hovering over the world. The phrase "The Greatest Mother" was first applied to the Red Cross during the World War, by the soldiers on the battlefield and in hospital.

All of the great poster artists of America have at one period or another since 1917 presented their conception of the spirit of the Red Cross. An early poster by Howard Chandler Christy, entitled "The Spirit of America," and one by Harrison Fisher, depicting a Red Cross nurse, are on exhibition in the original in the Red Cross museum in Washington, together with other originals.

The first creation of "The Greatest Mother" was by A. E. Forrester and was considered the most appealing poster ever used by the Red Cross. It showed a spiritual mother figure, holding in her arms a wounded soldier, on a stretcher.

Many artists have used the figure of a Red Cross nurse, until those two ideas—the spiritua, "greatest mother," and the symbolical angel of mercy, the Red Cross nurse—have visualized to the American public, all of the service that the Red Cross is organized to extend.

Three hundred thousand of Mr. Wilbur's posters will be distributed in November to remind the public of the annual roll call for members of the Red Cross.

Work on the new $430,000 post office at Brownsville is expected to be under way early in the spring. The $85,000 appropriation for a new post office at San Benito would be increased to $125,000 under plans to be presented to the next Congress.

which crushes barium sulphate into a powder as impalpable as flour and the color of a very light pink talcum. An unexpected advantage to Texas from building of the Santa Fe's line from Amarillo to Las Animas, Col., is disclosed in a San Angelo dispatch, announcing that the extension will bring Texas sheep nearer the great feeding basin of the Arkansas Valley than Utah, the source heretofore of the bulk of the sheep fed in that area. Colorado feeders are expected to come to the sheep-growing sections of West Texas as their feeder sheep when the extension is completed.

TEXAS "CO-OP" PAYS DRAFTS ON HALF MILLION BALES

The Texas Cotton Co-operative Association has paid drafts for over one-half million bales of cotton so far this season. Receipts throughout the belt are already above the million and half mark. Texas produces about one-third of the American crop. She has shipped more than one-third of the deliveries to the American Cotton Cooperative Association.

The eyes of the nation are on TEXAS. What this state does in politics, in river improvement, and navigation, in water power development, in education, in industrial development, in finance, in road improvement, in AGRICULTURAL COOPERATION, in land utilization and diversification of crops interests the Nation. Why? Because they see in Texas with its seaports, its inland cities, its vast agricultural area—a growing sense of STATE CONSCIOUSNESS—a desire on the part of a great majority of the people to work out the improvement of the State through coordinated group action.

The business map shows Texas as in much better shape than a considerable portion of the balance of the Nation. To keep it that way we can not slow down the progress we are making. Communities which have felt the influence of an active receiving station or a branch office of the Texas Cotton Cooperative Association, know that it has increased the return from cotton marketed at that point. The competition of the association in the community has increased the price on every bale sold. It is to the benefit of each community to get behind the association's program which is to get every producer to support the association so as to maintain a competitive marketing system that; first, tells him what quality he has; second, tells him what its value is on the world market; and third, stands ready to take it at the value quoted. This puts the grower in a better marketing position. Gets for him full premium on quality produced and thereby encourages the production of more—better cotton.

Texas is awakening to the fact that the Texas Cotton Cooperative Association's program is destined to be a great factor in building Texas, by putting her cotton producers in a position to more effectively plan their production and regulate the merchandising of that which is produced. It is plain that production must in some way be regulated to fit demand. We must produce more of what is wanted and will bring a good premium and less of cotton for which there is but limited demand.

The American manufacturer of raw cotton—the cotton farmer—is simply faced with the same problem all manufacturers in our nation have been faced with for the last few years. They have been giving more attention to distribution, obtaining markets, creating new uses, and have constantly worked to improve the quality and maintain high standard of quality, while at the same time lowering costs of production. Only in that way could they hope to create and hold consumer demand.

The needs and desires of those who use cotton must be studied and carefully analyzed by an organization, capable of interpreting the information into result getting action on the part of the individual producers. What more promising organization have we than the American Cotton Cooperative Association with all its regional members and their contracts in the local community, with which to accomplish this adjustment?

"You're a liar; if it is old Jimmie he would say 'It is I.' Go about your business," which Dr. McCosh he did, on tip-toe, and refrained from telling the story for at least four years.

Deer and Turkey Season Nearing; Game Not So Plentiful This Year Hunters Are Warned to Be Careful

It's time to sight the old 30-30, or break in the new rifle. Deer season opens all over Texas next Sunday, November 16. Also the turkey season. Federal and State seasons are the same.

Both deer and turkey promise to be fairly plentiful this year, according to reports reaching here, though not as abundant as last year. An oversupply of does exists in Mason, Kerr, Kendall and other hill country counties, it is said, but it will mean nothing this year. Sportsmen expect to demand a limited open season next year to thin them out.

Bag Limit Two Bucks This year, bucks only are legal. The bag limit is two bucks, as in the past. Turkey hens are protected. Bag limit is three gobblers.

Hunters in the hill country and in much of Southwest Texas will be able in many instances to combine the hunt for both prizes of Texas game. Rifle or shotgun is legal on deer, so as to permit hunting both deer and turkeys with the same gun.

Be Careful The trite cautions that would save hunters' lives, conserve non-game animals and avoid a lot of fines, if followed, have been repeated:

- Don't carry loaded guns in your car. Don't stumble around camp with a loaded gun. Don't run around with a loaded gun and the safety off. Don't hunt or shoot from a car.

Don't blaze away just because you see something moving. See your deer clearly, see his horns, then aim at it; don't broadcast a fusillade of shots.

If hunting near others, wear a red coat, red hat or red handkerchief. If you kill a deer, DON'T hold it head-up on your shoulders—somebody will be sure to blaze away at it. If you don't know a cow from a deer, hunt rabbits—Ex.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bullock Observe Golden Wedding Anniversary Here

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bullock, 1858 North Tenth Street, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary here Sunday with festivities in which seven of their eight children joined. They were married November 8, 1880, near Bryan.

The couple, residents of Abilene since 1918, moved to West Texas 30 years ago, making their home near Snyder and Colorado.

Mr. Bullock, who was born in Mississippi, lived there until he was ten, and then moved to Bryan, Texas, in 1869. Mrs. Bullock, who was born in Kentucky in 1861, moved to Bryan when he was 15.

Children presented their parents with a handsome radio, one of a number of gifts.

Family reminiscences and an elaborate dinner at noon were included in the day's celebration of the anniversary. Children here for the event were: J. H. Bullock of Ft. Worth; E. M. Bullock of Colorado; Mrs. E. M. Cash of Post; Mrs. W. P. Clinton, of Mt. Vernon; John Bullock of Abilene; Mrs. J. R. Cornelius of Sweetwater; A. V. Bullock Ralls, and A. A. Bullock of Snyder. Mrs. H. L. May of Westbrook was the only absent member of the family.

Others attending were: Mrs. J. H. Bullock and children, Melba, Maurice and Marion of Fort Worth; Earl Bullock of Colorado; Roy Clinton of Mt. Vernon; Mrs. John Bullock and children, Johnnie Louise and Conrad, of Abilene; J. R. Cornelius and children, Mildred Pearl and Billy Joe, of Sweetwater; Grace Elizabeth Caskey of Snyder.—Abilene Reporter News.

To make the main dish and sauce, proceed as follows:

Ham Patties: Mash the contents of two 7-ounce cans of ham loaf, with a fork, shape into two small balls and roll in one slightly beaten egg and then fine crumbs. Fry in deep fat at 390° until golden brown, and drain on brown paper.

The Scurry County Club of Texas Tech met November 3 and after a short business meeting adjourned. In this meeting Herschel Bell was elected as the faculty sponsor of the club and it was also decided would also have a page in the school annual, "La Ventana," as has been the custom for the past two years.

At this meeting also, the chairman of the social committee, Polly Porter, announced a "hobo hike" to be held November 5th.

The Hike came off November 5th with a bang and proved to be quite points. Snyder 22; Colorado 6.

The demonstration of the pep squads and bands were greatly enjoyed.

Third Quarter
Dan Trice, Isaacs and Howell went in for Smith, Clements and McClinton. Clark secured a touchdown in this quarter, making the total score, Snyder 28; Colorado 6.

Fourth Quarter
A Colorado forward pass caught in the final quarter by Clark enabled him to race 32 yards to another touchdown. Score: Snyder 34; Colorado 6. Tigers kick to the Wolves and a forward pass was good for a gain, the gun ended the game, giving Snyder the championship for the west end of the district.

Notes of the Game

The Tiger band and Pep Squad led by Drum Major John Billy Beggs and Flag Bearer, Miss Nana Bess Egerton was fine.

The Tigers were all "starring" at their several positions, the backfield never working better than they did in this game. The bright and shining stars were the eleven men on the squad at any period of the game.

The Wolves could do nothing against the Tiger line. Captain Mann, Harlow, Viles and Burrows were outstanding in their work against the Tigers.

The Tigers are ready for either Stamford or Haskell who must decide leaders of the east end of the district before conference winners are known. Stamford and Haskell play November 21st.

ATTEND MEETING

R. P. Tull, Vocational Agriculture teacher in Snyder High and Jimmie Smith attended the Abilene-Breckenridge game at Abilene, Saturday, and attended a V. A. district meeting the same night, that was held at the Abilene High School.

EARLY PECANS

Jim Baze planted a pecan tree five years ago that bore fruit for the first time this year. Jim secured seven large sized papershell pecans and hopes to have a real crop next year. He said if he had it to do all over, instead of so many fruit trees in the yard, the majority would be pecan trees.

The 19th annual meeting of the Texas Editorial Association is being held at Weslaco, November 27, 28 and 29th.

Winter Cruise Passengers to Visit Turkish Harem, Jealously Guarded From Public for Over 400 Years

THE ROSAPHORUS

SHAZADI MOSQUE

MOSQUE OF ST. SOPHIA

Constantinople, now known as Istanbul, has for centuries jealously guarded the secrets connected with the Sultan's harem, that inner sanctum in the Old Palace, or Seraglio, where the bearded, gorgeously dressed Turkish rulers lived with their numerous wives. The attitude of secrecy which has been maintained for so long in this connection has now been lifted, however, and these mysteries will soon be revealed, for the Turkish government has ordered the partial opening of the harem to the general public, and it is reported that the entire palace will soon be on view. Built during the 16th century for Suleiman the Magnificent, it is now a historic museum known as Top Kapou. The interior comprises a series of beautiful reception rooms, dining rooms, bedrooms and bathrooms, all lavishly decorated, and includes the celebrated library of Sultan Achmed I. The finest apartment is the great reception chamber which was used for marriages and other colorful ceremonies. Here is a dais with a throne resembling a modern chaise longue on which the Sultans sat. The walls of the various bedrooms are lined with exquisite porcelain and contain many large beds surmounted by gilded canopies in Venetian style.

Stamboul, or Constantinople, is one of the highlights of the itineraries of two cruises which will visit the Mediterranean during the forthcoming season. The Canadian Pacific liner Empress of France, which leaves New York February 3 on her annual Mediterranean cruise, will touch at Constantinople so that her passengers can visit her mosques and the newly-opened harem, and those aboard the world-cruising Empress of Australia which leaves New York December 2 will also be able to see these wonders when the liner touches at Constantinople on her 127-day voyage around the globe.

CORN FOR FALL FEASTS

CRISP days! Clamorous appetites! Corn! It's a great combination! If you're in a hurry, there's no better way than just to open a can of corn, heat it and eat it. If you are cooking over a fire in the open on a fall camping, picnicking or motoring trip, here's a fine recipe which it takes only a few minutes to prepare:

Fricheed Chipped Beef and Corn: Heat two tablespoons butter or bacon fat in a skillet, add the shredded contents of a 2 1/2-ounce glass of chipped beef, and let frizzle several minutes. Add the contents of a No. 2 can of corn, and heat well. Serves six.

Main Dishes

Corn can be used in the main dish of the meal just as successfully as in soup. What could be more delicious, for instance, than:

Southern Creamed Chicken and Corn: Slice the mushrooms from a 4-ounce can and cook these and one-half cup chopped, blanched almonds in three tablespoons butter for five minutes, being careful not to brown. Add three tablespoons flour, and stir smooth. Add slowly the liquor from the can of mushrooms and two cups milk, stirring constantly until smooth and creamy. Add salt and paprika, one cup of canned corn, the cut-up chicken from a 6-ounce can and one slightly beaten egg yolk. Have the mixture very hot. Serves eight.

And here's a main dish with corn in it that will cost you only about eighty-five cents:

Corn and Beef Loaf: Mix together one pound of ground rump beef, one-half pound ground fresh pork, one beaten egg, one tablespoon chopped onion, one-half teaspoon salt, one-fourth teaspoon pepper, one-half cup bread crumbs and the contents of an 11-ounce can of corn. Form this mixture into a roll, place in a well-greased loaf pan, and bake in a hot oven (400°) for about forty-five minutes. Serves eight.

Savory Soups

At home you can have corn all the way through the meal from soups to sweets. Starting with the former, here are two good recipes:

Cream of Corn and Mushroom Soup: Cook the contents of an 11-ounce can of corn, three cups milk, one large sliced onion, one small stalk celery and one bay leaf in a double boiler for fifteen minutes, then strain. Cut the contents of a 4-ounce can of mushrooms fine, and sauté in two tablespoons butter for three minutes. Add two tablespoons flour, and stir smooth. Add the mushroom liquor slowly, stirring till thick and creamy. Add to the hot milk mixture, and cook again till smooth and creamy. Season to taste with salt and pepper, and add one-half-cup cream. Serves six.

Cream of Corn and Tomato Soup: Make a white sauce of three tablespoons butter, three tablespoons flour and three cups milk. Stew one cup canned corn with one and one-half cups canned tomatoes for about ten minutes, then press through a sieve and add to the white sauce. Season with salt and pepper and serve with toasted crackers. Serves six.

Or try corn with fish in this excellent recipe for:

Corn and Salmon Pudding: Mix together, in the following order, the contents of one No. 2 can corn, one tablespoon melted butter, one-half teaspoon salt, one-eighth teaspoon pepper, the contents of one small can salmon and one tablespoon heavy cream or evaporated milk, being careful not to break up the salmon too finely. Bake in a buttered baking dish in a moderate oven (350°) thirty minutes. Serves eight.

As a Sweet

Corn can also be combined with many other vegetables, but have you ever tried it this way as a sweet?

Corn Fritters on Pineapple Slices: Add two well-beaten egg yolks to two cups canned corn. Sift one cup flour and one-half teaspoon baking powder, and add. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Fold in two stiffly beaten egg whites. Drop by spoonfuls in hot fat in a skillet, frying on both sides until a rich brown. Or fry in deep fat in a kettle.

Pineapple Slices: Drain a No. 2 1/2 can of sliced Hawaiian pineapple, and dip slices in flour. Then sauté in a skillet in butter until a nice brown. Serve the fritters on top of the pineapple slices with the following:

Sauce: Mix four tablespoons sugar with two teaspoons corn starch and add to the syrup from can of pineapple with two table-spoons lemon juice, four cloves, an inch stick of cinnamon. Boil till it thickens. Remove clove and cinnamon. Serves eight.

The Challenge

A priest offered twenty-five cents to the boy who could tell him who was the greatest man in history.

"Christopher Columbus," answered the Italian boy.

"George Washington," answered the American lad.

"St. Patrick," shouted the Jewish boy.

"The quarter is yours," said the priest, "but why did you say St. Patrick?"

"Right down in my heart I know it was Moses," said the Jewish boy, "but business is business."

First Come Best Served

An old dandy was tending the coats upstairs in the Governor's mansion. He noticed a prominent politician tumbling them over, looking under the bed and so on.

"Kin I help yuh, sir?"

"I can't find my new hat; paid ten dollars for it yesterday."

"Bless you sah. All de new hats bin gone over an hour or mo."

Down at Camp Taylor in 1917, a negro outfit was lined up before the clerk for preliminary paper work.

"Name and address," demanded the clerk of the dusky recruit.

"Huh?"

"What is your name and address?"

"Yo' ought to know," said Rastus. "Yo' sent fo me."

Mrs. Tellit: Cousin Dorothy, you know, always wanted to have a little baby daughter so she could name her "June."

Mrs. Askit: "Yes. Did she do it?"

Mrs. Tellit: "No. The man she married was named 'Bugg.'"

First Fisherman: "Why are you changing your position, Jack?"

Second Fisherman (on the move): "I couldn't stand the uncertainty up there by Jackson; he's got hiccupps, and it makes his float look as though he had a bite all the time."

District Court has kept the public square packed with cars and folks.

"LIVE WIRES" ENTERTAIN

The Live Wire Sunday School class of Union Baptist church assisted by their teacher, Mr. Charley Eastman, gave a farewell party last Monday night honoring Mr. and Mrs. Bill Price, and Mrs. R. M. Johnson, and son, Joe Gamble; the former moving to Mineral Wells and the latter moving to Phoenix, Ariz. The community regrets very much to lose these good people and hope this farewell will not be forever.

In spite of disagreeable weather, thirty guests gathered at the home of Mr. Eastman, this gentleman having submitted as his part of the refreshments a lamb deliciously roasted by Mrs. Alfred Weathers and some girls of the Live Wire class. Other members of the class brought cake, and other goodies. Such a feast as they had!

Other attractions for the evening were the many games, stunts, and tricks successfully led by Mr. Eastman, assisted by his sister, Mrs. W. N. Davis. The guests, leaving at a late hour, declared themselves a most enjoyable time.

Warburton Advises Farmers To Save Home-Grown Seed For 1931

Farmers in the drought area should save seed for next year's cotton crops. Dr. C. W. Warburton, chairman of the Federal drought-relief committee, emphasized in commenting on last week's developments in drought sections. He advised farmers to save their seed, even if they have to buy feed to replace it.

In many states, he explained, the crop standardization work of the Department of Agriculture and the State experiment stations has produced varieties and strains that can not be replaced if they are lost. Even a small nibble of corn that grew under adverse conditions this year will transmit the characteristics of the strain, he said, and will produce a better crop next year than fancy ears of an unadapted variety from some outside source.

Employment for farmers who must have an additional cash income and who are unable to get credit is occupying the attention of State drought committees. Doctor Warburton said. In Ohio the State highway director, working in cooperation with county and State committees, is giving employment on the highways to those who need it most. The county committees assume the responsibility for selecting those to be employed.

A similar plan has been worked out in West Virginia, he continued.

Contracts for new roads are let with the understanding that farmers are to be employed where possible. In counties where the need for employment is especially great the men are worked in shifts, so as to provide work for the largest possible number.
