"YOUR HOME COUNTY PAPER"

FORTY-FIFTH YEAR.

SNYDER, TEXAS, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1933.

NUMBER 87

STATE TO PAY LARGE PORTION ON ROAD WORK

More Than $168,000 of Old Road Bonds Subject to Assumption Says Chief Auditor.

Assumption of more than $168,000 of Scurry County's road bond indebtedness by the state was announced late last week by James C. Tucker, chief auditor for Texas. Judge Robert H. Curran points out that this assumption is dependent to some extent on the whims of the Legislature, since terms of the law passed during 1932 merely call for payment of the state's portion as indebtedness becomes due.

The large amount of the state assumption was surprising to county officials, since incomplete records covering expenditure of some of the old bond issues made compilation of figures a tedious task.

Under terms of the law, the state is to take care of the portion of each original issue that was used on state highway building or maintenance.

Out of one original issue of $50,000 known as Scurry County Road and Bridge Refunding Bonds, dating back several years, the state has taken over 44 per cent, or $22,000. Only about $2,900 has been paid on this issue.

A full refund of the remainder due on the Scurry County Special Road and Bridge Bonds, issue of 1918, in the amount of $112,000, is expected. The original issue of $200,000 has been cut down to the above amount by subsequent payment. Since the figures for the state auditor were last fall, an installment of $7,000 came due in December, or the county would have been refunded $116,384.08 on this particular issue.

The Scurry County Road and Bridge Refunding Bonds, based on several original warrant issues totaling $168,000, will be taken over in the amount of $34,581.94, or 20.94 per cent.

Terms of the state assumption law make it effective January 1, this year.

Debate Schedule Starts March 10 In Four Schools

Four schools have entered teams in the round-robin debate tournament that is to begin March 10, according to E. O. Wedgeworth of Ft. Huanna, county director of this event. Other debates will be held March 15 and 17.

All debates will be held in the Snyder High School building, beginning at 8:00 o'clock in the evening.

Following are the schedules for girls' and boys' divisions:

Boys—Friday, March 10: Ft. Huanna vs. Hermleigh, Dunn vs. Snyder; Wednesday, March 15: Ft. Huanna vs. Dunn, Hermleigh vs. Snyder; Friday, March 17: Ft. Huanna vs. Snyder, Dunn vs. Hermleigh.

Girls—Friday, March 10: Ft. Huanna vs. Snyder, Hermleigh vs. Snyder; Wednesday, March 15: Ft. Huanna vs. Ft. Huanna vs. Snyder, Ft. Huanna vs. Hermleigh, Snyder vs. Ft. Huanna vs. Hermleigh.

Judges will be selected from Scurry County people interested in this phase of Interscholastic League work.

Bryant Is Optimistic Concerning Outlook

When R. B. Bryant, general manager of Bryant-Link Company, met with the local force Monday evening in a general sales discussion, he expressed the opinion that the great section of West Texas is "on the up and up" in every respect.

Admitting that financial conditions have shown little actual improvement, Mr. Bryant yet believes that a new spirit of optimism, of taking things as they come with a smile, will win for West Texas.

Business has shown a decided upturn in all Bryant-Link stores, the Stamford man says.

Pleasant Hill Preaching.

Rev. Kyle of Snyder will preach at the Pleasant Hill Baptist Church Sunday and Sunday night. He is a young licensed preacher, a new member of the Snyder Baptist Church. These will be his first sermons before Scurry County congregations.

Final Report Shows 635 R. C. Members

Final report of the 1932 Red Cross Roll Call as conducted in Scurry County reveals that a membership total of 635 was reached, and that total collections were $945.62. Of the total amount collected, $318.31 has been sent by Treasurer A. C. Alexander to national Red Cross headquarters, and $327.31 remained here for local charity purposes.

The county's membership goal was 400, which was exceeded by 235 members.

Referees Plains Tourney.

R. L. Williams of Snyder officiated last week-end during the basketball tournament held in District 2 of the Interscholastic League organization. Lamessa won high honors in the finals against Ropes, in a game described by Williams as the best he has ever officiated. Lubbock, Ralls and other Plains towns entered teams.

"First Lady" Secretary

Miss Malvina Thompson of New York, will be the official secretary to Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt when the latter takes up her duties as "first lady of the land" on March 4.

COUNTY AUDIT IS COMPLETED

A. C. Pruitt, county auditor, presented a detailed summary of his findings to the Commissioners' Court several days ago, and the interesting figures will be ready for publication next week.

The county judge, Robert H. Curran, states that the report will serve to give Scurry County citizens a clear insight into the grave problems of finance facing the new officials.

The commissioners, in session this week, have spent the major portion of their time in considering the report.

New Ford V-8 Being Displayed By Local Agency This Month

First of the new Ford V-8 cars, with a wheelbase of 112 inches, were on display at the Scurry County Motor Company a few days ago. The model shown is a two-door sedan.

H. H. Elland, local Ford manager, states that a number of people have seen and ridden in the new automobile, and that all have been well pleased with its quality and up-to-date features.

In addition to the wheelbase being six inches longer, the bodies are 11 inches longer. It has new and distinctive body lines, an attractive front, larger and roomier bodies, faster acceleration, increased power and speed, and is said to be economical in operation. The engine rates 75 horsepower, with sustained speed of 60 miles an hour.

Four Houdaille shock absorbers, synchronized transmission, helical spring mechanism, and fuel tank of 14 gallons capacity are listed as improvements of the new Fords.

J. C. Fish Gets Perfect Scoring On Snyder Range

Twenty consecutive hits on the Snyder rifle range, at 200 yards, were registered Saturday by J. Collie Fish. This perfect scoring, witnessed by Jack Isaacs, is a new high score as far as the Times has been able to learn, and the first "possible" ever made on the local range.

The rifle enthusiast, who has been one of the leaders in keeping up interest in the sport here, used the standard army "A" target, a Winchester "54" N. R. A. type, 30-06 caliber, fitted with Lyman micrometer peep sight, and Winchester ammunition.

Many high scores have been made on the range here, which is used by the National Guard unit as well as by other rifleists. Scores of 97, 96 and up to 99 have been made, but Fish is the only shooter to overcome the mental hazard that applies in the shooting as well as the golfing realm.

Collie has framed his perfect target. It may be seen at the Times office. The target was shot with a group near the center of the bull's eye, and none of them came nearer than an inch to the rim.

The new record holder, as well as other Snyder marksmen, are anxious to revive interest in the sport that has been popular in America since the days of our forefathers.

High School Honor Roll Given for Last Six Weeks of Term

The high school honor roll, just issued for the third six-week period of the first semester, again contains a big majority of girls' names.

Principal R. L. Williams submits the following honor students: Cum Laude Magna ("A" average)—Eva Nell Arnold, Josta Beauchamp, Dossie Mae Gatton, Dixie Lee Davis, Estine Dornard, Evelyn Erwin, La Frances Hamilton, Lola Mae Littlepage, Bonita McGahey, Frances Northcutt, Marie Oliver, Alberta Sturgeon, Virginia Willis.

Cum Laude ("B" plus average)—Geneva Glascock, Nerene Henderson, Hazel Holcomb, Zada Latham, Geraldine Longbottom, Mary McCarty, Margaret Miller, Mary Nell Morton, Doris Narell, Rosanna Reynolds, Wanda Newsum, Saxton West, Netha Lynn Rogers and Norman York.

Dunn to Have Pair Of New Gas Houses

The town of Dunn is trimming her sails for a big filling station trade during 1933.

A Conoco gas pump is to be installed in front of the Dunn Cash Store, while Magnolia is building a station just south of E. C. Vaughn store. Jimmie Billingsley will operate the latter.

Dunn activity has also been considerably increased because of the new work on the school grounds, made possible by RFC funds.

RURAL SCHOOL INSPECTOR ON JOB THIS WEEK

A. A. Bullock, Former Leader of County Education, Returns in a New Capacity.

The rural school inspector who is making annual rounds in Scurry County this week is none other than A. A. (Pat) Bullock, who guided the destinies of the same schools for eight years previous to January 1.

Mr. Bullock detailed knowledge of the school situation in this county enables him to make accurate inspections in a short time. He states that other counties in which he has worked keep him going at a high speed. He goes early next week to Borden County, and then to Mitchell County. After that his duties will keep him in his Austin office.

Frank Farmer, county superintendent succeeding the new inspector, has been accompanying the inspector on his rounds from school to school. He states that favorable reports are being made, despite the fact that financial stress has cut down efficiency to some extent.

"It's good to be back home," says Pat, "and I hope my duties will lead me back here very often."

Methodist Young People In Union Meeting Tuesday

Ft. Huanna, Post, Dunn and Snyder were the four chapters represented Tuesday night at the First Baptist Church when the local leaguers entertained the Willing Workers Union.

LoRoy Fesmire was leader of the evening's program on "Citizenship." Rev. W. G. Anderson of Dunn, presided. "The Characteristics of Good Citizenship," Rev. J. E. Stephens of Post "pinch hit" for Miss Grace Avery, who was unable to attend, and presented "What Can We Do to Promote Good Citizenship," and Rev. S. H. Young of the local church talked on "The Cost of Good Citizenship." All three speakers made good points, and the talks were well worth hearing.

Felix and Curtis Jarratt, and Mrs. Homer Snyder and Allene Curry offered special numbers between "acts."

During the business session, Happy Tracy, union president, was in the chair, and in the absence of Miss Faye Smith, secretary, Allene Curry recorded. Mr. Talley stated that the union had fallen short in paying pledges the past six months, and he indicated that the chapters send in part of their pledge each month.

The next union meeting will be at Ft. Huanna April 21, and Jack Moore, president of the Ft. Huanna league, urged that every chapter be present to take part. The district meeting to be held at Post, where Two-Draw Lake probably will be the scene of merriment, was announced for the fifth Saturday and Sunday in April. The Post young people are already planning for the visitors. They are expecting about 150 to be at that meeting.

Those partaking of the apples and starchy candy which were served at the close of the evening were: Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Stephens, Misses Katherine Callis, Della Smith and Lodessa Harper, Mrs. O. G. Lewis and Messrs. Weaver Morgan, Ivy Dean, D. Trammell and H. C. Lewis of Post; Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Anderson and daughter, Miss Lizzie, and Misses Mary Lee Scott and Myrl Gary from Dunn; Rev. and Mrs. Frank Story and children and Jack Moore from Ft. Huanna; and Rev. S. H. Young, Mmes. Homer Snyder and V. L. Littlepage, Misses Ruth and Virginia Yoder, Rayolene Smith, Genevieve Jarratt and Allene Curry and Messrs. Glyn Curry and Kenneth Snyder, Felix and Curtis Jarratt, Clyde Young and LoRoy Fesmire of Snyder.—Union Publicity Superintendent.

NEW RULING ON SCHOOL TAXES

School taxes for rural and independent districts may be paid separately from other taxes.

A law embodying that proposition was passed several days ago by the Legislature, and collections are now being made here on that basis.

The usual penalty and interest continues to apply on delinquent school taxes as well as state and county taxes.

Some New York humanitarians petitioned to have the local flea circus closed, because of the cruelty involved in teaching fleas funny tricks. Any dog knows that sympathy lavished on a flea is just so much wasted time.

ONE ACCEPTS—ONE REFUSES

One of these two men accepted a place in President Roosevelt's new cabinet, and the other refused because of his advanced age. To the left is Senator Carter Glass of Virginia, veteran financial strategist, whose refusal of the Secretary of the Treasury post gave place to William H. Woodin of Pennsylvania and New York. Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana, right, whose legal mind has been a bright spot in Democratic councils, has accepted the post of Attorney General. Other practically assured cabinet posts, announced yesterday, are as follows: Cordell Hull of Tennessee, Secretary of State; George H. Dern of Utah, Secretary of War; James A. Farley of New York, Postmaster General; Claude A. Swanson of Virginia, Secretary of the Navy; Harold Ickes of Illinois, Secretary of the Interior; Henry A. Wallace of Iowa, Secretary of Agriculture; Daniel C. Roper of South Carolina, Secretary of Commerce; Miss Frances Perkins of New York, Secretary of Labor.

30 PER CENT ACREAGE CUT IS REQUIRED BY U. S. CROP LOAN

Reduction of 30 per cent in the acreage planted to cash crops will be required this year of farmers who procure crop production loans, Secretary of Agriculture Arthur M. Hyde announced today in making public the regulations governing the 1933 loans.

In making available for crop production loans this year $60,000,000 of Reconstruction Finance Corporation funds, Congress specified that the secretary of agriculture might require, as a condition of any loan, "that the borrower agree to reduce to acreage or production on such basis, not to exceed 30 per cent, as may be determined by the secretary." The secretary's regulations, however, stipulate that acreage reduction will not be required of farmers who in 1933, plant no more than eight acres of cotton, 2 1/2 acres of wheat, 40 acres of wheat, 20 acres of corn, 2 1/2 acres of truck crops, 12 acres of sugar beets, eight acres of potatoes, 90 acres of rice, eight acres of peanuts.

Get Application Blanks. Farmers seeking crop production loans this year are advised to obtain application blanks and copies of the regulations in their home counties, rather than from Washington. Field agents of the crop production loan office are now designating representatives in each farming county to inform prospective borrowers of the requirements governing loans and to distribute application blanks and other necessary forms. These agents will assist farmers in filling out applications without charge.

Charles J. Lewis, local agent, is located in the old county agent's office, basement of the court house. Accompanying the required 30 per cent reduction acreage planted to cash crops, above the established minimum, the 1933 regulations limit the amount available to any farmer to $300. In 1932, crop production loans were made to 507,682 farmers, averaging $129 each. No loan in excess of $100 will be made to any applicant who is in arrears on as many as two previous loans made by the secretary of agriculture. As last year, interest is fixed at 3 1/2 per cent, to be deducted when the advance is made. All notes are due October 31, 1933. Advances to borrowers may be made in installments, the regulations state, inasmuch as expenditures for crop production are usually made over a considerable period.

Fund for Livestock Also. One million dollars of the $60,000,000 fund is available for livestock feed in drought or storm-stricken areas.

The remaining regulations announced by Secretary Hyde are similar to those in force last year. An absolute first lien on all of the crops grown by the borrower in 1933 is required by the act. In counties where fertilizer is not commonly used, the rate of loans must not exceed $3 an acre for general field crops, and $12 an acre for truck crops, including potatoes. In counties where fertilizer is commonly used, according to the testimony of representatives of the department of agriculture, the rate must not exceed $5 an acre for general field crops, $10 an acre for tobacco, and $20 an acre for truck crops, including potatoes. Not to exceed $1 an acre of loans made at any of these rates may be used for repairs and miscellaneous expenses of crop production other than seed, fertilizer, feed for work stock, and fuel and oil for tractors.

Special Uses Allowed. Special provision is made for additional loans—within the maximum allowed per farmer—for the purchase of materials for spraying and dusting to protect crops from insects and diseases; for payment of water charges, electric power, etc., necessary to crop production on irrigated land; for production expenses including employment of hand labor, on sugar beets, sugar cane, hops and rice. Loans may also be made this year for summer following, not to exceed $2.50 an acre for acreage used in excess of that planted in 1932, provided a first lien is given on all crops growing, or to be planted, grown and harvested in 1933 sufficient to cover the advance.

In addition to the reduction required this year in acreage of cash crops, borrowers must agree to plant a garden for home use and a sufficient acreage of feed crops to supply feed for their livestock. Acreage taken out of cash crop production may be planted to any soil-building crop.

Loans to Fit Land. Loans will be made, the regulations further declare, "to farmers who are unable to obtain loans for crop production during the year 1933 from other sources." These loans may be made to such individuals as are found by the secretary of agriculture to have acreage fit for seeding and who are without means to purchase the supplies necessary for crop production during the year 1933.

No loans will be made to any applicant who has a means of livelihood other than farming.

Loans will not be made for the purchase of machinery or livestock, or for the payment of taxes, debt or interest on debts. Loans will not be made for the feeding of livestock other than work stock used in crop production.

An application for a loan, accompanied by the necessary crop lien, will be passed on first by county advisory committees. If the county committee and the field inspector certify the application, it will be forwarded to one of the several regional field offices for final approval and disbursement.

Dallas is headquarters for the regional office serving Texas, New Mexico and Arizona.

GIRLS TO PLAY BASKET FINALS THIS WEEK END

Eight Schools to Send Teams for Competition in Friday and Saturday Tourney.

Girls from eight Scurry County schools will be in Snyder Friday and Saturday to compete for the basketball crown bestowed yearly by the Interscholastic League.

Heading the delegation, and probably heading the list of favorites, is Ira, whose team has the habit of winning the majority of the time. Only one other independent school, Dunn, will have a team, Pyron having withdrawn at the last minute, and none of the other schools being with girl basketballers of competition longings.

In the rural division, Independence, Canyon, Ennis Creek, Bethel, Turner and Bison are entered. They are expected to make it extremely rocky for the Ira-Dunn winner.

The first game will come Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. Semifinals will be staged at 9:00 o'clock Saturday morning, and finals will start at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

All games will be played on the court inside Tiger Stadium.

Following is the game schedule: Canyon vs. Independence—Friday, 2:00 p. m.

Ennis Creek vs. Bethel—Friday, 3:00 p. m.

Turner vs. Bison—Friday at 4:00 p. m.

Ennis Creek-Bethel winner vs. Turner-Bison winner—Saturday at 9:00 a. m.

Dunn vs. Ira—Saturday at 10:00 a. m.

Canyon-Independence winner vs. winner of first Saturday morning game—Saturday, 11:00 a. m.

Finals—Saturday, 2:30 p. m.

There will be no charge for any of the games.

Von Roeder Seed Not Equalled In West Says Buyer

Texas Mammoth cotton seed, produced southwest of Snyder by the von Roeder Seed Farm, is the best cotton ever grown in West Texas, in the opinion of L. J. DeLatté of San Antonio, cotton buyer.

The cotton man formerly resided in Snyder, where he bought a large quantity of the staple and became widely acquainted.

A letter from Mr. DeLatté to Nolan von Roeder a few days ago follows: "Following the general order of reading our Snyder paper, each week I note with keen interest your announcement regarding the Texas Mammoth seed. In fairness to yourself and brothers, I could not refrain from congratulating you. Frankly, of my many years' experience in handling West Texas cotton, including the Plains, I found no cotton as desirable. As to staple, I may have seen some as long; however, none could equal the hard body and desirable character of the Texas Mammoth."

"You remember I offered and sold a state certified seed through your section during my last season in Snyder. My efforts were honest, and I felt in selling such good favor was being done the good farmers there, who surely needed help in improved staple. But the big trouble (like many), this seed being produced in Southwest Texas, a warmer climate, like all such seeds, made a poor showing. Yours being produced there is one of the big advantages, aside from superior staple. A good volume of your cotton, they need have no fear of any surrounding markets. Of course, I may say the majority should produce it in order to have volume 1934 to offer.

"Wishing you success in your venture, because your success will be farmers' success, I am, Yours very truly, L. J. DELATTE, 149 Blanco Street, San Antonio."

First Monday Trade Day Should Mean A Number of New Ads

Another banner First Monday Trades Day will probably be on tap here on March 6, following the best similar day seen here in years—February's First Monday.

The Times plans to run an unusually large number of Free Swap Ads next week, since practically all advertisers will plan to be on the trading grounds with their advertised wares.

The same rules effective since the paper started the free ads several weeks ago will apply again next week.

Excellent results continue to be reaped from the ads. The Times will continue the free ads as long as the demand justifies them.

More Improvements On Courthouse Lawn

The courthouse lawn has taken on some more blank aires this week. After the last of the big locust trees had been torn out by the roots, workmen began trimming the hedges almost to the ground, filling in holes and swells with new dirt, and removing concrete curbs from tree bases.

Funds for the work are provided from the county RPO appropriation.

Cleaning-Out Hollywood

Murray W. Garson, investigator from the Department of Labor, is in Hollywood to "clean out" racketeers, aliens, white-slavers, illegal naturalization and smuggling of Oritania.

GOLFERS NAME CLUB LEADERS

At the annual meeting of the members of the Snyder County Club, held at the Chamber of Commerce hall Tuesday evening, directors for the ensuing years were elected as follows:

A. D. Erwin, R. J. Randall, J. W. Roberts, Joe Stinson, G. B. Clark Jr., G. A. Hagan, Charles Kelly, P. W. Cloud and Maurice Brownfield.

A meeting of these directors will be held Monday night, at which time officers will be elected for the year 1933.

First-division students: Eva Nell Arnold, Hazel Bannister, Jettie Beauchamp, Jack Bean, Eldon Birdwell, John Blakey, Dossie Mae Gatton, Dixie Lee Davis, Estine Dornard, La Frances Hamilton, Evelyn Erwin, Geneva Glascock, Hazel Holcomb, Rubye Lee, Lola Mae Littlepage, Geraldine Longbottom, Bonita McGahey, Wanda Newsum, Frances Northcutt, Marie Oliver, Rosanna Reynolds, Netha Lynn Rogers, Alberta Sturgeon, Mary Margaret Towle, Saxton West, Virginia York, Florenz Winston and Norman York.

Special Relays to Be Run in Connection With League Meet

Special relays for junior and senior boys will be a feature of the Interscholastic League meet to be held here late in March, says the athletic director, R. L. Williams.

While these events are not a part of the regular League program, and will not give points toward winning the county championship, they are expected to arouse considerable interest in view of the fact that special honors await winning teams.

The junior events are two in number, as follows: 800 yards, 16 on each team, run 50 yards each; 1200 yards, 12 on each team, run 100 yards each.

Seniors' medley mile: 10 on each team, running as follows—40 yard high hurdles, 50 yard low hurdles, 50 yard dash, 100 yard dash, 100 yard dash, 100 yard dash, 220 yard dash, 220 yard dash, 440 yard dash, 440 yard dash.

Moore Making Two New Heating Units

Two new heating units are being produced in the Bushchick tin shop here, under direction of R. L. Moore, inventor.

The Moore oil-burning heater has proven so successful that a similar stove with an oven and frying surface has been perfected. A hot-water heating system, with quick-action coils, is also being introduced by the local inventor.

Sweetwater Funeral Attended By Locals

Several local people were in Sweetwater early last week to attend funeral rites for Walter W. Davis, merchant, who formerly farmed in Scurry County and conducted a grocery business in Snyder.

They included his brother, T. C. Davis; Lila Davis, daughter of T. C. Davis; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith and daughter, Bertie Mary, and Mrs. Thompson. Mr. and Mrs. George Oldham and son, George Jr. of Big Spring, formerly of Snyder, also were at the services.

Mrs. Scarborough To Attend Beauty School

Mrs. Woodie Scarborough, owner of Everywoman's Beauty Shop, will leave this week-end for Dallas to attend the annual Spring Beauty Show and School, which will be conducted at the Baker Hotel next week.

Mrs. Scarborough will secure new ideas and study the latest methods under nationally known leaders and instructors in the beauty industry. During her absence, Miss Julia von Roeder will be in charge of the shop.

Boxing Bouts To Be Cancelled This Week

No more boxing bouts will be held in Snyder this season.

This decision, announced early this week by the promoters, includes the bouts scheduled for Friday night of this week.

Plans for more bouts will probably be worked out this fall, according to Ernest Townsend and members of the American League.

Big Opening at Brown's. Saturday, official opening day for the newly located Brown & Son grocery, was a gala occasion for the north side merchants. New paint, a new arrangement, and most important of all, new tan-and-green uniforms for all employees, enhanced the attractiveness of the special service—and free coffee and cakes—served that day.

MERIT SYSTEM WINNERS GIVEN FOR H. S. HERE

Scholarship and Citizenship Are Stressed in Rating Students For First Semester.

First ratings in the merit-point-system, inaugurated in Snyder High School this year for the first time, were released this week by Principal R. L. Williams, who has made a careful and lengthy study of the plan.

The merit-point-system is a method by which students are rated according to a combination of scholarship and service. The system is so arranged that every student is automatically placed into one of four divisions, after the points on scholarship and service have been summed up at the close of the semester. Although a high minimum for scholarship is required, no student is placed in the first division without a representative number of service points. Thus the major purpose is to stimulate citizenship as well as scholarship.

Two groups of students will be mentioned according to the rating given by this system as regards the first semester. The first will be the student from each class who earned the greatest number of points. The second is the group of students who were rated in the first division of the merit-point-system.

First-division students: Eva Nell Arnold, Hazel Bannister, Jettie Beauchamp, Jack Bean, Eldon Birdwell, John Blakey, Dossie Mae Gatton, Dixie Lee Davis, Estine Dornard, La Frances Hamilton, Evelyn Erwin, Geneva Glascock, Hazel Holcomb, Rubye Lee, Lola Mae Littlepage, Geraldine Longbottom, Bonita McGahey, Wanda Newsum, Frances Northcutt, Marie Oliver, Rosanna Reynolds, Netha Lynn Rogers, Alberta Sturgeon, Mary Margaret Towle, Saxton West, Virginia York, Florenz Winston and Norman York.

Installation Held For New Officers Of Commandery

Officers for the new fiscal year were installed at an impressive service held Monday night by the local Masonic Commandery. The officials were chosen January 16.

Following the installation, a supper was served to the sir knights. Credit for this phase of the program belongs to I. W. Boren and Mrs. A. C. Pruitt.

The new officials are as follows: I. W. Boren Jr., commander; W. R. Bell, generalissimo; W. P. King, captain general; W. E. Doak, senior warden; J. G. Hicks, junior warden; R. J. Randall, treasurer; A. C. Pruitt, recorder; J. C. Stinson, standard bearer; W. J. Ely, sword bearer; H. F. Rogers, warder; E. B. Baugh, sentinel.

The WOMAN'S Page

Business Woman Is Study Club's Subject.

"The Business and Professional Woman" was the subject for discussion Friday afternoon when the Altrurian Club met with Mrs. G. A. Hagan, Miss Mary Margaret Towle, Director was Mrs. R. L. Miller.

Mrs. J. W. Leftwich gave an account of "The Woman Teacher, Her Income, Her Problems, Social and Economic." Interesting careers of women were related by Mrs. C. C. Higgins, and Mrs. O. P. Thrane told of women in politics, national and international. After a parliamentary drill, conducted by Mrs. G. A. Hagan, Miss Mary Margaret Towle complimented the club with piano selections.

Following the program a most delicious salad plate was served to Mrs. Pearl Shannon of Colorado, a guest, and to Mrs. E. J. Anderson, W. R. Bell, H. P. Brown, R. L. Gray, R. D. English, G. A. Hagan, C. C. Higgins, J. W. Leftwich, J. C. Stinson, O. P. Thrane, L. T. Stinson, C. J. Yoder and Fred Grayson.

Speaker, N. D. House

Mrs. M. D. Craig, prominent in North Dakota Republican circles for 10 years, is the first woman Speaker of the N. D. House of Representatives. She is also believed to be the first woman ever to hold such office in the U. S.

Mrs. Spider Finds A New Home

A STORY FOR CHILDREN

By Miss Lucilester Roberson

"Good morning, Mrs. Spider," said Grain of Sand, pleasantly. "Aren't you having lovely weather?"

"Yes, the weather is all right, but I can't afford to work much, for just as I get a web made the March winds will come along and blow the whole thing away."

"That's too bad, but isn't there some way to prevent it?"

"Well, I have been here all my life, and I never yet have been able to stop the wind from blowing!" replied Mrs. Spider with a smile.

"O, I didn't mean that," laughed Grain. "I meant, couldn't you put your web somewhere that the wind couldn't strike it?"

"No, no. Our family has always stretched its webs between two blades of grass. I couldn't think of doing anything else."

"Then, why not move the grass into shelter, say into a hole somewhere?" Grain suggested.

Mrs. Spider shuddered. "Never," she said. "My great aunt tried that one time. She put her web in the hole of a prairie dog hole, which looked like a very safe place, but it certainly was not. Just when she had her eggs all fastened in and was putting some extra threads around them, along came one of those huge horned toads. He made quick work of the eggs, then swal-lowed her. My great uncle happened to be gone, but Better Earth-worm told him all about it when he got back. No, there's not going to be any hole in the ground for me!"

"I should think not," said Grain sympathetically. "Aunt Nancy has had dandy ideas, though. Let's go ask her."

"Thank you, but I don't believe I care to. She doesn't want to be bothered by my troubles. I'll just wait about my webs."

At that, Grain walked on down the street. He was thinking of a way to help Mrs. Spider, for she should be taking advantage of this pretty weather to make those webs, then she wouldn't have to work so hard in the ground for me!"

"I have it!" he exclaimed, snapping his fingers. "Grandfather orchard!"

His legs fairly flew back down the path.

"Mrs. Spider—O, Mrs. Spider! Wait a minute. I have thought of the very place."

"Where, Child?" the good lady asked.

"In Grandfather's prickly pear orchard. He won't mind a mite, I know. We'll go ask him right now."

Mrs. Spider shook her head doubtfully. "That wouldn't be between grass blades, and I've always said that I never would fasten a web of mine to anything except a grass blade. It's bad luck to change."

Grain, however, was not to be outdone. Just think of all the fun he could have playing with all those dozens of baby spiders when they hatched!

"I'll tell you," he said, "we can stick some grass blades onto the prickly pear thorns. The wind couldn't get to your web when it was against those big leaves."

"Perhaps we might arrange it, after all," decided Mrs. Spider. "We'll go see your grandfather, anyway."

That morning Grandfather Sandstone's rheumatism was bothering so much that he hadn't gone for his usual walk. He was surprised to see Mrs. Spider in his doorway. "Why, how do you do? Come right in," he said.

Grain knew that the old gentleman was in a good humor. Things were working out just right.

Mrs. Spider began at once. "Your little grandson thinks you might let me build my house in your prickly pear orchard. It is so delicate that the March winds always blow it away, but there they couldn't get at it."

Club Studies Folk Lore and Legends.

Mrs. J. P. Avary directed an interesting program on "Folk Lore and Legends" Tuesday afternoon when the Woman's Culture Club met in the home of Mrs. E. E. Weathersbee.

Fifteen members answered to roll call with a short legend or story. Mrs. R. E. Gray gave "The Life of Frank Dobie." A paper on "The First Corn Crop in Texas—The Legend of Lover's Retreat at Palo Pinto" was given by Mrs. W. G. Williams, and Mrs. F. M. Brownfield spoke on "The Legend of Palo Duro," the story of Jean LaFite, pirate of the gulf, was told by Mrs. J. A. Woodfin.

Cherry pie, topped with whipped cream, and coffee were served to Mrs. J. W. Templeton, a guest, and to Mrs. A. C. Alexander, J. P. Avary, P. M. Brownfield, J. L. Caskey, P. C. Chenuit, R. E. Gray, J. R. Huckabee, W. A. Morton, E. C. Neely, E. J. Richardson, W. G. Williams, E. F. Sears, J. A. Woodfin and Willis Rodgers.

Musical Playlet To Be Given by Pupils.

A musical playlet, "A Visit to Music Land," will be presented by pupils of Mrs. Elmer Spears Tuesday, February 28, at 7:45 p. m. The playlet will be appropriately costumed for the interpretation of each piece.

The following musical numbers will be used:

"Prelude, Op. 28, No. 7" by Chopin and "The Rosary" by Neil-Irene Spears.

"O Love" by Liszt-Schellh—Frances Boren.

"Curious Story" by Heller—Olga Broadfoot.

"Dutch Dance" by Burgmuller—Doris Wilson.

"The Little Dutch Clock" by Stillwell—Bettie Lu Thompson.

"Country Gardens" by Grainger—T. J. Teter.

"Song of India" by Rimsky-Korsakov—Faynell Spears.

"Dance of the Paper Dolls" and "Rose Waltz" by Hatch—Olga Icard.

"The Happy Peasant" and "Morzarka" by Hatch—Dorothy Pinkerton.

The pianists will be assisted in the interpretation of their numbers by expression pupils of Mrs. Hilton Lambert and violin pupils of Miss Peden.

Alpha Study Meets With Mrs. Stokes.

Alpha Study Club members met with Mrs. Roy Stokes on Tuesday afternoon for the study of American art. Members responded to roll call with famous sayings and art.

Miss Hattie Herm was program leader. After "American Pictures Children Like" was discussed by Mrs. Ivan Dodson, Mrs. Stokes spoke on "Colonial Portrait Painters." "Our American Picture Painters" was Mrs. Joe Graham's subject. Mrs. Alfred McGlaun gave the music review, and the art review was given by Mrs. Ixon Joyce. An English lesson was conducted by Mrs. Wayne Boren.

During the tea hour the hostess served refreshments to Mrs. C. W. Hurst of San Augustine, Mrs. Melvin Newton, J. W. Roberts and Maurice Brownfield, guests; and to Mrs. Esther Boren, Lila Dodson, Janie Graham, Ellen Joyce, Rosalie McGlaun, Eva Nelson, Annie Mae Sears, Faye Norred, Nora Sentell, Leola Williams, Elizabeth Wedger, Leola Winston, Halcyon Sheehan, Aileen Smyth and Helen Williams, Misses Hattie and Gertrude Herm, Neoma Strayhorn and Bonnie Gary.

Little red hatchets, plate favors, stressed the George Washington idea.

Mrs. Bannister Is Bridge Club Hostess.

Mrs. Herbert Bannister entertained the Wednesday Afternoon Bridge Club at her home on Avenue S this week.

Miss Alma Hood was winner of high score at the conclusion of games of contract bridge.

The hostess was assisted in serving by Miss Rowena Grantham, a guest. Other guests were Mrs. George Oldham of Big Spring and Miss Doris Pope Elza. Members present were Mrs. G. B. Clark, Gauthier Bell, Amos Joyce, Robert Curnutte, P. W. Cloud, W. W. Hill, J. D. Scott and Max Brownfield, Misses Helen Boren and Alma Hood.

"Hum-m-m," he said thoughtfully. "You certainly wouldn't do much harm to one plant, and Nancy might enjoy having someone around to chat with once in awhile."

"Thank you," Mr. Sandstone, "I shall move over at once."

Grain was out of the house with a whoop, to tell Bit and Dust and Sharp the good news. Now they would have some near neighbors to play with.

Mr. Jones Agreed

Said Mrs. Jones to Mr. Jones with a holler, "For the love of Mike, look at your coat collar." Now hubby Jones inclined to please. Removed the coat and saw the grease. Said he to her, "My coat, what a mess." This suit is due for a clean and press.

"BIGGEST LAUNDRY IN TOWN"

PHONE 211

VERY LATEST

By Patricia Dow

This spring coat with its becoming girlish lines is a model that should be quite popular this season. The caracol collar and the cuff-tipped sleeves give that poster contrast when the coat is of carrot-red and a gora finished woolen with metal button trim. The hips are emphasized by the wrapped treatment and it is a coat that gives the youthful figure height. For quieter tone, a grey rough crepe silk affords another basic color scheme for now and spring.

The sleeves tell their own story. The slightly dropped shoulder, the nutoned fullness tapering off to a medium-fitted forearm is quite chic. The pleated fullness at the shoulder is very precise and smart.

Senior A Class Enjoys Wiener Roast.

The Senior A Class of Snyder High School, with their sponsor, W. W. Hill, and wife, enjoyed a wiener roast Wednesday afternoon at a Thompson's Dan.

Boat riding afforded lots of fun after which delicious cats galore disappeared.

The party included Misses Alberta Mullins, Willie Pearl Glen, Mary Nelle Morton, Hazel Bannister, Frances Clements, Mable Reichardt, Alberta Sturgeon, Wanda Newsom, Wynona Cope, Mildred Stokes, Ruby Lee, Frances Lewis, Mable Turner, Margaret Deakins, Vernelle Bradbury, Mary Alice Simpson and Opal Crowder. Messrs. Elmer Watkins, Jesse Browning, Morris Casey, Damon Worley, Theo Riesley, Raymond Berry, Eldon Birdwell, Stanley Merket, Willard Lewis and Gath Austin, and Mr. and Mrs. Hill.

WOMAN LOST 20 POUNDS IN JUST 4 WEEKS

Mrs. Mae West of St. Louis, Mo., writes, "I'm only 23 years old and weighed 170 pounds until taking one box of your Kruschen Salts just four weeks ago. I now weigh 150 pounds. I also have more energy and fur-turemore I've never had a furture moment."

Fat folks should take one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—it's the SAFE, harmless way to reduce as tens of thousands of men and women know. For your health's sake ask for and get Kruschen at any drug store—the cost for a bottle that lasts four weeks is but a trifle and if after the first bottle you are not joyfully satisfied with results—money back. ### Altrurian Daughters Entertain Friday Eve.

The Altrurian Daughters Club, with Mrs. J. D. Scott and Miss Dorothy Strayhorn as hostesses, entertained with a bridge party Friday evening at the home of Miss Strayhorn, complementing their husbands and friends.

The George Washington motif, including the patriotic colors of red, white and blue, was featured in the game appointments and refreshments. A cherry tree stump, with the hatchet, centering the dining table, and red carnations also added to the attractiveness of the entertaining suite.

High score prizes, miniature pictures of Martha and George Washington, went to Miss Opal Wedgeworth and Otis Moore.

Following the bridge games, in which Mrs. Robert Curnutte, Jr. won high score, refreshments were served to Misses Gwendolyn Gray, Dixie Lee Davis, Ruby Lee, Mildred Stokes, Eva Nelle Arnold, Bonnie Gary, Jan Thompson and Wanda Newsom and Mrs. Herman Doak. Guests were Miss Floye Brownfield and Mrs. Robert Curnutte.

Do you need something to work with this spring? You can run a swap ad in The Times without cost.

Bridge Club Meets In W. J. Ely Home.

Mrs. W. J. Ely, 2703 Avenue U, was hostess to the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge Club this week.

Following the games, delicious cherry pie and coffee were served to Mrs. C. E. Fish and Miss Mae Rogers, guests; and to Mrs. H. J. Brice, W. H. Cauble, E. M. Deakins, J. C. Dorward, T. L. Lollar, R. L. Miller, W. M. Scott, Gertrude Smith and Joe Strayhorn.

Senior B Class To Give Picnic Monday.

The Senior B Class of Snyder High School met February 22 in their home room. Norman York called the house to order, and the secretary, Melvena Cary, read the minutes.

The class voted to have a picnic next Monday afternoon.

After the business period, Miss Effie McLeod, sponsor, read and discussed the George Washington rules of conduct.—Reporter.

Crusaders Class Meets Monday Eve.

The Crusaders Class of the Methodist Sunday School met in the C. W. Harless home Monday evening, with Mrs. Loyce Clark and Mrs. J. P. Nelson as hostesses.

During the business session the class voted to be responsible for the clothing of a small girl in the Methodist Orphans Home, Waco, for an indefinite period of time.

Several games were played, and dainty refreshments were served to Mrs. J. H. Dougherty of Corpus Christi, and the following class members: Misses Mattie and Gertrude Herm, Bonnie Gary, Neoma Strayhorn, Maggie Norred and Elva Lemons, Mrs. Melvin Blackard, Ed Wade and R. H. Odom.

Writer Studied By Ingleside Club.

Whittier, the writer, was discussed by Ingleside Club members Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. W. Roberts. Mrs. Roy Strayhorn was director of the program.

Members gave maxims of Washington in answer to roll call. The list of Whittier was discussed by Mrs. Neil Gross, and Mrs. Joe Tant Johnston spoke on "Whittier's Writings." A parliamentary drill was conducted by Mrs. R. S. Sullivan.

During the social hour the hostess served delicious rolled sandwiches, cake topped with whipped cream and punch. Marshmallows, in which were stuck small American flags, were plate favors, representing miniature forts.

Guests were Mrs. Willard Jones, Roy Stokes and J. G. Hicks. Members present were Mrs. W. W. McCarty, C. W. Harless, Joe Tant Johnston, Faye Lockhart, Charles Noble, R. H. Odom, W. W. Smith, R. S. Snow, Roy Strayhorn, R. S. Sullivan, H. L. Vann and Neil Gross.

Mrs. W. W. Smith will entertain the club Friday afternoon, March 3.

Mrs. Morton Fetes Intermediate G. A.'s.

Mrs. Morton entertained the intermediate G. A. Auxiliaries of the First Baptist Church in her home Wednesday afternoon. Old and new business was discussed, and afterward an interesting program was given.

Refreshments were passed to Misses Oetka Ware, Opal Adams, Juanita Burt, Juanita Sentell, Gertrude Shuler, Geraldine Longbotham, Allene Wilson, Parene Isaacs, Frances Bekk, and Mrs. Morton.

DIET IN HOME IS IMPORTANT

"Each family must make every penny count in times such as these," said Dr. John W. Brown, state health officer, in discussing the subject of food values. "Each family needs at least milk, bread, cereals, vegetables and fruit."

"It is not only essential to live on a well balanced food plan each day, but in times of stress when we need be extra cautious, it is well to increase certain foods which have been termed the 'protective foods.' These are milk, green vegetables and fruits."

"The amount of milk needed each day is one to two pints for each child and at least one-half pint for each adult. For bread and cereals choose whole wheat, rye and white bread; oatmeal and other dark colored cereals, flour and spaghetti. Vegetables should include potatoes and one other vegetable if possible. Some fruit or tomato three or four times a week. Use fats and sweets in moderate amounts and as your money permits add cheese, eggs, fish or meat."

The State Department of Health has a supply of pamphlets dealing with diets, food orders and menus that will be sent on request. This department wishes it is well to everyone in matters pertaining to health, and welcomes inquiries as to the method in which they can serve you.

The FAMILY DOCTOR
JOHN JOSEPH GAINES, M.D.
How "Bill" Gets By.
Bill lives in my town in yours, too. If the Bills in this land were organized they would make a formidable political party. There are some 15 doctors in my town. When Bill moved here he inquired around for the most popular doctor and retained him as his family physician—as long as the doctor would do his work without pay, which was over two years. The doctor became too insistent about his pay to suit Bill. Then our hero sought the formidable competitor of the leading doctor—and recited the two years of "robbery" that he had endured. The ambitious competitor swallowed the hook, line and sinker. He treated Bill's infirmities as long as he could afford to without remuneration; some competitors are that way. Then Bill sought the doctor that lived farthest away from his neighborhood, who had never heard of the experience of his contemporaries with the new patron. He grabbed Bill with open arms. Out of this doctor Bill got a couple of tonsillectomies, two obstetrical services and several bedside influenza cases before the doctor awakened to the real situation. Every physician who ever touched Bill came away with a water-hat. At last Bill moves to another town, full of invective for his last place of abode. It was a hick town, with the meanest people in it in the world! Those of my readers who are acquainted with Bill know that he can tell you just how the United States Senate ought to perform. It will take a long time to educate some folks to the point of getting above the tactics of Bill—the fellow that public opinion alone can remove from our midst.

The Times Creed.

For the cause that needs assistance;
For the wrongs that need resistance;
For the future in the distance,
And the good that we can do.

THE WEEKLY DOZEN.

The Days of Boots.

Pessimism Pete suggests that if legislation prohibiting the wearing of boots by girls is not soon passed, the fad will likely not continue.

Have You Swapped?

Swapping, as practiced through Times free swap ads, has become a fad with some, a business with others, a bread and meat affair with a few. If you have not tried your hand, don't be a piker another week!

A Motto for Humanity.

This is a glowing motto for humanity from the Scottish Rite brethren: "The cause of human progress is our cause, the enfranchisement of human thought our supreme wish, the freedom of human conscience our mission, and the guarantee of equal rights to all peoples everywhere the end of our contention."

Statistics of Living.

Before the depression hit in full force, it was said that the average American spent 20 per cent more than he made. Thirty per cent of his income went for shelter, 20 per cent for amusement, 30 per cent for clothing, and 40 per cent for food. A revision of these figures as applied to Scurry County in 1933 would likely read like this: Shelter, 20 per cent; amusement, 10 per cent; clothing, 20 per cent; food, 50 per cent.

What Depression Has Done.

"The depression has cost us some of the things we created but it has robbed us of none of our power to create," said a well known preacher more than a year ago. "We may lose some beautiful things but we have lost no love of the beautiful." We believed the gentleman more than a year ago, but now we are a little dubious as to the depression's effect on our love of the beautiful. Witness, if you please, the new dippy hats for women—and the revival of bell-bottoms for young men.

A Mark Twain Yarn.

This is old, but it is a yarn that lives: "Mark Twain once edited a paper in Missouri. One of his subscribers wrote him he had found a spider in his paper and wanted to know whether it meant good luck or bad. This is what Mark Twain answered: 'Old Subscriber—Finding a spider in your paper was neither good nor bad luck for you. The spider was merely looking over the ads to see which merchant is not advertising, so that he can go to that store, spin his web across the door and lead a life of undisturbed peace ever afterward.'"

The Water Pitcher Crusade.

While we do not have a yen for politicians who throw water pitchers with abandon, we believe that the water-pitcher episode at Austin a few days ago merely typifies the legislative battle through which Texas must quiver during the next two years. Even if Ferguson were a potential savior of the people, he and his governor-wife would probably accomplish little results, for too many of the legislators are "agin' em." If these two years turn out to be a water-pitcher crusade down at Austin, as we tremblingly suspect, heaven help the taxpayer-citizen.

Too Many Foreigners.

People of foreign countries have made the United States. And people of foreign countries are breaking the United States. Our great melting pot, thrown open for so many years to practically every type of person on the globe, brought us forth a sort of stew or hash that has proven disastrous. Limitation of immigrants, practiced today, is a boon to our own people, for we have too many mouths to feed already. Bring on the type of outsiders who have given vigor and health to our American blood, but let's keep out hundreds of thousands of the Zangara type who would like to enter.

They Grow 'Em Big.

Basket ball is America's leading sport. Because it reaches into practically every school in the United States, and also touches the majority of youngsters out of school, it has more participants and more spectators than any other sport that has ever been devised in this country. Football, baseball, golf and tennis run poor seconds to the court game. Anyone can play basket ball, but it takes a tall fellow to become a success, if we judge from 1933 teams. One team from Pasadena has a fellow 6.5', another 6.5, a third 6.2 and still another 6. Canyon teachers average well above the six-foot mark.

The Art of Rifleship.

The days of J. Wright Moore and other West Texas pioneers were crammed with action that made life and death a matter of accuracy in rifle-shooting. Many impromptu graves were filled by men who failed to be quick enough at the draw. This glory of the American rifleman had partially departed since Browsing Around Town.

Since it's almost spring, and since a new buzz is typifying private and business activity, perhaps it is time to make a few seasonal observations. Several local business houses (including the Times office, by cracks) could improve their appearances by trimming weeds and other rotten stuff out of their alleys and back passageways. An hour a week could change a few display windows from darkness to light, as far as attractiveness and eye-catchiveness are concerned. Vacant lots are in many cases so overgrown with weeds and junk that they present a real eyesore in all parts of town. If nothing else, let's donate RPC funds to have them cleaned and broken for feed or wheat planting. Clerks who loiter over counters and desks when a customer enters are just one of the reasons for new business cobwebs. Snyder club women, on the whole, are unusually constructive in their ideals and projects. Every peddler of any variety should be compelled to secure a permit from a civic committee before he can show his wares to a housewife or to a merchant. That seems to us a combined Chamber of Commerce and City Council function. If parents were half as interested in the whereabouts of their children as the average stockman is in the whereabouts of his young calves, kids and lambs, school problems would be largely solved. It seems to us that a new civic spirit is being born in Snyder. If we have a small group of pushers who are willing to sacrifice personal gain, this is the time for them to begin pushing.

EDITORIAL OF THE WEEK.

HENRY GRADY'S ADVICE.

Henry W. Grady, the great southern editor and orator, died 43 years ago, but the advice he gave to the farmers of his native Georgia and the South many years ago is as sound today as it was when it was uttered. One particular gem of his which has been often published is of particular significance just now. It applies equally to North and South, provided the principal money crop of any particular section be substituted for "cotton," where it occurs in the original. Grady said: "When every farmer in the South shall eat bread from his own fields and meat from his own pastures, and disturbed by no creditor and enslaved by no debt, shall sit among his teeming gardens and orchards and vineyards and dairies and barnyards, pitching his crops in his own wisdom and growing them in independence, making cotton his clean surplus and selling it in his own time and in his chosen market and not at a master's bidding—getting his pay in cash and not in a receipted mortgage that discharges his debt but does not restore his freedom—then shall be breaking the fullness of our day."—Minden, Louisiana, Herald.

SAYING IT IN RHYME.

FARMER'S HOLIDAY.

Did you read the morning papers
Where the news is cutting capers,
And the headlines tell the troubles of the day;
And a group of public leaders
Hands out bank to all the readers
With a promise of relief that's far away?
Did you read of farmer pickets
Tearing up the traffic tickets
As the state police escort some trucks to town;
And of leaders of the nation
Giving farmers consolation
While the prices of their crops are going down?
They agree to find the reason
For the losses of each season,
While the loan shark puts a plaster on his crop.
But the farmer goes on farming,
With a faith that's quite alarming,
And the orators orate on without a stop.
And the farmer knows at daybreak
When he climbs upon the rake,
That the mortgage and the taxes can't be paid.
But he doesn't seem to falter
Though his head is in a halter,
And the bank will own the crop when it is made.

ENVOI.

If the farmer did some thinking,
While his income keeps on shrinking,
And the wolf is howling loudly near his door,
He might start an agitation
That would shake the very nation,
From the white house to the distant western shore.

the need for life defense has largely gone in history's wake. But the art of rifleship still embodies the principles of accuracy, sportsmanship and precision that make it the delight of many an American. Witness, for example, the Snyder man who made a perfect score on the local range—at 200 yards!

Lucky Snyder, Texas.

A trip into North Central and East Texas last week convinced a Snyder citizen that he lives in a town that is unduly blessed this year. Soup lines are not uncommon in the play woods belt. The unemployed number in the thousands, where they number in the hundreds here. Vacant business houses and residences are plentiful. The drought and then the depression dealt us some solar plexus blows, but Dame Nature came along last fall and heaped our laps with plenty. What care we for money (don't ask us that again!) as long as we have eats and debts and prospects?

The Townsend Letter.

The Townsend letter in this issue of The Times will not be answered editorially, for we have stated previously that such discussions often lead to endless disputes and useless results. We do wish to state, however, that our interest in Mr. Townsend's prohibition position is as friendly as if we were all on the same side of the fence. If we were to take personal issue with all who are politically or by principle opposed to our own views, ours would be a hapless life. We leave American citizens, the years and our readers' judgment to determine whether Mr. Townsend's or this paper's prohibition stand is most logical.

CURRENT COMMENT BY LEON QUINN

Just when the linotype operators over America were starting the routine of the day's work recently telegraph keys clicked the daily items a bit dull it seemed, but when the item was flashed that an Italian at Miami, Florida, had attempted to kill President-elect Franklin D. Roosevelt instantly the lead letters became alive, and soon the world knew of Mr. Roosevelt's fortunate escape. . . . Although the fanatic Italian shot six prominent people, including Anton J. Cermak, citizens quickly quelled the radical son of Italy, let him cool off in jail.

Since Washington officials have appropriated $90,000,000 for farm loans in 1933 it is interesting reading for many to note that borrowers can only plant 30 per cent of their land in cotton. . . . The 30 per cent provision might be of value if all farmers cut their acreage that much, but the futility of this clause is readily ascertained when it leaves the other farmers free to plant all the cotton they want to. . . . Of a certainty cotton acreage in Texas will this annum be increased 5 to 15 per cent, therefore, the acreage reducing provision in the loan clause will not offset the cotton acreage increase of the farmer, generally speaking.

The feudalism that used to flourish in the South has crumbled away with its fine old plantation traditions and the price-making empire in the fleecy cotton realm shifts westward. . . . Scurry County, with its pioneer families and mellow old court house, has moved up the ladder a few steps in cotton production; now is included in the 28-county area in Texas producing about 25,000 bales. . . . It will be the quality cotton raised in this county this year that will tend to keep West Texas, with its disease-free soil in the pace-making lime-light.

AMERICA, THE BEAUTIFUL.

America! America!
God shed His grace on thee;
And crown thy good
with Brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!
"The author, Katharine Lee Bates, a professor of English in Wellesley College, wrote the verses in 1893 while on a western tour that brought her first to the Columbian Exposition in Chicago. . . . The patriotic impression made upon her mind by the wonderful White City, she carried westward with her as she journeyed to Colorado; and when at last she stood on the summit of Pike's Peak and beheld the far-spreading panorama below, and the spacious skies above, her soul was stirred by the thought of the greatness and the God-given destiny of America. . . . These lines were set ringing in her heart, and into a beautiful poem she wove the beauties of that mountain top vision."
O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties

The country never lacks for sports. In one section of the country there is an archery tournament. The baseball spring training camps will open in another month or so. Basketball is in full swing all over the country. Billiards tournaments are being held nightly. Bowling is becoming more and more popular. Court tennis is at its height. In some sections dog racing is a great sport. Fencing classes are to be found in hundreds of gymnasiums. Handball is as popular as ever. Ice hockey matches are attracting thousands each week. And so the list could be continued.

An automobile manufacturer very properly asserts that some of his cars have traveled 80,000 miles in one year. We know some that have traveled even farther than that and still haven't found a place to park.

Be of Joy and Good Cheer.

Something more than a hundred years ago a sermon was preached in St. John's Church, New York, which dealt very severely with the frailties of poor human nature, and put forth, with unctuous assurance, the promise of eternal punishment for a large proportion of the race. Among the worshippers was a gentleman of unfortunate reputation but keen mind, whose name lingers unforgettably in our history. As he left the church a lady spoke to him:

Bruce Barton

"What did you think of the sermon, Mr. Burr?" she asked. "I think," responded Aaron Burr, "that God is better than most people suppose him to be."

That was the message of Jesus—that God is supremely better than anybody had ever dared to believe. Not a petulant Creator, who had lost control of his creation and, in wrath, was determined to destroy it all. Not a stern Judge dispensing impersonal justice. Not a vain King who must be flattered and bribed into concessions of mercy. Not a rigid Accountant, checking up the sins against the penances and striking a cold hard balance. Not any of these . . . nothing like these . . . but a great Companion, a wonderful Friend, a kindly indulgent, joy-loving Father. . . .

HEAVY SCURRY LIQUOR TRAFFIC STATES DEMOCRATIC CHAIRMAN

Editors, The Times: I have read your editorial replying to my letter on prohibition in Scurry County, and as you have challenged me to in any way answer "his own assertion that the liquor traffic is increasing both in the volume of liquor manufactured and sold and in the number of those engaged in the traffic," I request you to publish this letter in reply to your challenge.

It is not my purpose to engage in a "lengthy and useless discussion" but to bring the facts out in the open so that the people can intelligently and effectively meet the situation. I want it distinctly understood that it is not my purpose in writing these letters to create the impression that the officers of our county are in any way responsible or to be blamed for the conditions that exist insofar as the liquor traffic is concerned.

Our former sheriffs and our present sheriff and their deputies, and the former and present county attorney, none of the former and present city marshals have done, and are doing, the best that they can, handicapped as they are by a condition which they are powerless to change.

One of the strongest proofs substantiating my charge that the manufacture and sale of intoxicants are increasing in Scurry County is the enormous quantity of whiskey bottles being shipped here and sold.

The sale of immense quantities of corn meal and sugar for making whiskey, and malt for making beer affords another means of checking up on the liquor traffic.

Court records of Scurry County, including the city court, show that there have been more than twice the number of convictions and pleas of guilty to being drunk, and driving cars while drunk, since the passage of the eighteenth amendment.

I am informed by a person who is a dealer in liquor—and, therefore, in the confidence of those who manufacture whiskey—that there are now in Scurry County 35 distilleries, and he further states that all of the persons who own and operate these distilleries had learned to make whiskey since the enactment of the eighteenth amendment.

There is no doubt that many people have engaged in the liquor traffic because they had no other means of procuring the money necessary to enable them to live.

The eighteenth amendment has been a part of the constitution. How then has it had the effect of regulating or decreasing drinking? It has not had any such effect.

You are in error when you state that the repeal of the eighteenth amendment would repeal practically all laws prohibiting the liquor traffic.

there will be no incentive for people to engage in the liquor business. This will be far better than the present legalized traffic in whiskey being carried on by the doctors and drug stores under authority of the eighteenth amendment and the Volstead act, and it would put the bootlegger out of business.

You state in your editorial that: "Statistics reveal that speakings and 'blind tigers' were as flourishing in pre-Volstead days as they are today." This might have been the case in some localities, and no doubt was the case, but so far as Scurry County is concerned I know personally that there was not a "blind tiger" speaker or bootlegger in Scurry County at the time of the enactment of the eighteenth amendment and Volstead act had not been such a thing here for a number of years previous to the passage of these acts.

Now that we have an electrical bridge table that shuffles and deals the cards, we may confidently look forward to an auxiliary gadget that will handle all post-mortem arguments.

Diet Didn't Do This! HAPPY little girl, just bursting with pep, and she has never tasted a "tonic". Every child's stomach, liver, and bowels need stimulating at times, but give children something you know all about.

Follow the advice of that famous family physician who gave the world Syrup Pepsin. Stimulate the body's vital organs. Dr. Caldwell's prescription of pure pepsin, active senna, and fresh herbs is a mild stimulant that keeps the system from getting sluggish.

CAPITOL NEWS

By Legislative News Bureau, Texas Press Association

Austin.—The Legislative Bureau of the Texas Press Association has been established for the purpose of providing an unbiased reporting service on pending tax measures and matters pertaining to governmental costs.

Total receipts of the state government for the fiscal year ending September 1, 1932, were $96,894,751.25. Of this amount $24,175,000.74 came from ad valorem taxes, $29,213,020.59 from the gasoline tax while the gross receipts tax yielded $7,001,299.89.

Other receipts include: Insurance companies operating, $2,239,950.37; franchise, $1,490,349.73; gross receipts, $1,553,706.88; licenses, $3,636,619.11; fees and permits, $1,130,384.55; land sales, rentals and royalties, $2,355,893.84; interest and penalties, $2,623,204.22; federal, county and other aid, $15,803,886.68.

Above are major sources of income. Principal expenditures follow: Judiciary, $2,371,099.90; military and law enforcement, $1,298,466.22; regulation of business and industry, $1,137,021.79; development and conservation of natural resources, $1,978,907.21; highways, $39,330,050.55; eleemosynary and correctional, $5,744,739.00; public schools, $28,991,277.33; pensions, $3,562,641.57. Expenses are from the comptroller's office. Items of income and expenditure of less than one million dollars are not included in the above.

Forty-one per cent of all state expenditures are for highways, 30 per cent for public free schools and slightly less than 10 per cent for colleges and universities. These three items, plus confederate pensions, care and education of blind, deaf and other wards of the state, account for 91 per cent of all state expenditures. Hence, if all other costs were eliminated, including judiciary, law enforcement, legislative and executive, saving to taxpayers would be less than 10 per cent.

The first bill relating to costs of government to be passed by both House and Senate provides for 25 per cent reduction in the pay of rangers. It takes effect immediately and continues until August 31, 1933. Captains are reduced from $225 per month to $170; sergeants from $175 to $130; privates from $150 to $112.

The House passed the judiciary bill last week providing for 25 per cent reductions in pay of judges, district attorneys, and elimination of assistant district attorneys. The bill applies to district and higher courts.

After watching a motion picture performance for the first time, an Eskimo had to be taken home and strapped to a chair. We think that we recall the alleged comedy he saw, for it had nearly the same effect upon us.

anxious that everyone who can at all bring some gift for the worthy causes to his or her Sunday School class. Your gift may not be much, but all of it added together will amount to a considerable amount. We have goals set in each of the Sunday School departments, which are as follows: Cradle roll, $5; beginners, $5; primaries, $5; juniors, $15; intermediates, $15; young people, $30; adults, $40; general officers, $10. Please do not disappoint us. We want you with us next Sunday. If you can bring an offering of any amount we will be happy to have it; if you cannot bring an offering, we want you and welcome you to come and be with us anyway.

The pastor is continuing his series of messages at the morning and evening hours. He is speaking at the morning service on the doctrines of the Bible as a general subject and at the evening hour on the general subject of hell. Next Sunday's morning sermon is "Pentecost," and the evening subject "Why I Do Not Want to Go to Hell." The public is most cordially invited.

Don't forget our Spring revival begins March 19. Dr. W. Y. Pond will be with us again.

Next Sunday is also set for our debt-paying and mission offering through our Sunday School. We are

IN LITTLE OLD NEW YORK

by CARL H. GETZ

New York shops are selling jig saw puzzles large enough so that four persons can work on them at once.

Some young women in New York are wearing bracelets with their telephone numbers engraved upon them.

The Manhattan-Bronx volume of the city's new five-borough directory contains 4,000 pages and weighs 29 pounds.

More and more New Yorkers are collecting stamps. The shops which sell and exchange stamps report that business is good.

The electric light companies here say the jig saw puzzle craze is great. Keeps people up late at night, is the explanation for their enthusiasm.

One large New York motion picture theatre has as many as 29 counterfeiter bills offered to its cashiers every day. Not one has ever been accepted.

There is a man in New York who maintains a private zoo. He makes a living renting animals to theatrical productions. Asked how's business, he replied, "littible."

Although women are supposed to be natural kitchen experts, only one large hotel in New York has a woman chef and women cooks. They are proving highly successful.

A New York firm pays the state motor vehicle bureau $100,000 a year for copies of its car registration records and sells this information to automobile dealers, shops, etc.

The Sixth Avenue elevated structure has been given a coat of aluminum radiator paint where its passes Radio City. As soon as one gets past those three blocks it's the same black and shiny elevated. And although the silver paint is getting soiled and looking gray it brightens up Sixth Avenue.

Assembly of God in Local Revival Meet

Evangelist Gordon Lindsay, Portland, Oregon, is holding revival meetings at the Assembly of God Church, situated at 1923 Twenty-fifth Street. He is assisted by two others, Evangelists Irvie Parker of Taft, California, and William A. Case Jr., Hereford.

Rev. Clarence Marshall, Assembly of God pastor here, says: "Evangelist Lindsay has the rood of the community at heart, and is preaching old-time salvation for body, soul and spirit. Messages which will touch the hearts of the hearers, and music that will draw one to God will be the order of the services. Everyone is cordially invited, regardless of denominational ties, to attend these services. God has something for everyone. So come one, come all."

In the interest of economy, the municipal zoo of a western city rents monkeys from May to September, returning them when attendance begins to fall off, and thus saving expense incidental to winter care. The news item does not state whether inquiring winter visitors at the zoo were referred to the city officials.
