Win Many Points
At Lubbock Meet

Scurry County field and track men carried off several points at Lubbock's invitation meet last Saturday.

Morris Ashley of Dunn took the high hurdles in 15.6, and then vaulted 10 feet 6 inches tie with Smith of Rotan in that event.

Fesmir of Snyder won his half-mile favorite in 2:57, while McClinton easily took his low hurdles run in 27.1.

Raymond May of Hobbs, also almost capped the Fisher County track meet the other day with five first places, captured first place in the broad jump at Lubbock with a leap of 20 feet 9 inches.

Rotan High School took three firsts and sufficient other places to total 27 points and win the Lubbock meet. It will be remembered that the same squad ran away with honors in the recent invitation meet at Snyder.

Sixteen West Texas school's sent teams to the meet. Matador was second with 23 points and Lubbock nosed out Abilene by half a point to win third place. Amarillo was fifth. The Eagles, whose national championship relay team successfully defended its title, amassed 19 points.

Earlier in the week, the Tigers sent team to a Colorado invitation meet, cabbaging fourth place.

Methodist Church

S. H. Young, Pastor.

We are looking for a great service Easter Sunday. It marks the close of the Self-Denial Period being observed throughout Methodism. On that Sunday an offering will be made for our missionary work. It is the plan that every Methodist leave off something each day and place the cash equivalent into the self-denial envelope, then bring the envelope to church, Easter Sunday. The contents of these envelopes will be our offering. An average of $5.50 per envelope will pay our kingdom extension offering and all of our benevolences. There are some who have already said they would put in more than the average amount. What we hope for is an offering from everyone of some size, from a five-cent piece up—men, women and children.

The Sunday School classes of O. P. Thrane and A. Rhodes have exchanged places of meeting beginning next Sunday. We had a fine attendance at services last Sunday and hope for a better one next Sunday. You will enjoy the 11:00 o'clock services in which our children have part.

The new improvements in the church basement contribute very much to the work of the Sunday School.

The choir, under direction of Bro. Ed Curry, and the music committee on special are rendering a great service to our worship. Misses Gary and Lemons sang a duet last Sunday which was very much appreciated. Then there is the male quartet of which we are proud for their many contributions to our services. There will be other special from time to time.

Don't forget the Self-Denial Period, from now to Easter Sunday. The Lord will surely bless us if we respond to this emergency call.

Mrs. O. P. Thrane had as her guest last week her sister, Mrs. J. F. Vaughan of Colorado.

Hobbs Athlete Is Star.

The outstanding athlete of Hobbs High School is Raymond May, known as "Cotton" to classmates. For two years Raymond has been improving in fast foot-work. At the county meet held at Roby recently he hung up first place in five events—broad jump (20 feet, 5 1/2 inches), pole vault (10 feet), shot put (38 1/2 feet), 220-yard dash (24 seconds), and 100-yard dash (10 seconds flat). At the Texas Tech invitational track meet Saturday Raymond added another first place scalp to his belt in the broad jump, with a 20 feet, 9 inches record. In the pole vault he got second place with the figures resting at 10 feet, 6 inches. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John May, are well known in the Guinn community.—L. G.

Cafe Improvements.

The Montgomery cafe has installed four shining new glass-fronted cases for display and protection of pies, cakes and other things good to eat. G. H. Leath, owner, is justifiably proud of his new equipment, which gives a hint of spring-time to his establishment.

Light Fixtures Installed.

Bon-Ton Cafe, operated by Vick Montgomery, added several new light fixtures early this week, and otherwise prepared for the hurried coming of spring. Another feature of the Bon-Ton Cafe is the recent issuing of meal tickets, printed in the Times plant.

WANTED—Good second-hand refrigerator, 50 or 75 pounds capacity.—Abe Rogers. 1tc

They Want to Work.

If you think the vast majority of our unemployed men and women do not want to work, you are badly fooled. Those who have charge of R. P. Go to Church Sunday

"THE CHURCH"

By Bro. O. D. Dial, Minister of the Snyder Church of Christ.

THERE are many good people, who are good citizens, good parents, good neighbors and in many respects the most desirable people of our town and communities about, who are lacking one very essential quality—the church-going and supporting disposition. There is a reason for this, and I am not ready to say that the fault is altogether resting on those who do not attend church. But it is time that we stop and investigate this all-important question and examine carefully and prayerfully why many good people do not go to the house of the Lord and worship the Loving Savior who died for us, and our Heavenly Father before whom we shall stand some day and be judged for eternity.

I am sure that one great reason why many do not attend church services is because they have ceased to regard the worth, the cost, the value and the sacredness of the church. Many religious errorists have for many years done the cause of our Master a great injustice, not only in conversations on the streets and in the homes of our citizens, but even from the pulpits, by teaching that the church of our Lord Jesus Christ is a non-essential thing; that people do not have to become members of the Lord's body, the church (Eph. 1:22-23) in order to be saved and reach heaven in the sweet after-awhile. To say that the Lord's church is a non-essential is to disregard its value today, its cost and its lofty position.

What is the church to you? Just what is your conception of the institution Jesus said He would build (Matt. 16:18)? Do you attend its services and worship God and its founder, Jesus Christ? Do you help support it, not only by your means but by your presence and with your encouragement? The church of the New Testament was built by Jesus, cost the greatest price of anything in the world—the blood of the innocent Son of God (Acts 20:28). Isaiah saw it in prophecy and pictured it above every other organization, government and institution in the world (Isa. 2:2-3). The real worth of a thing is measured by its cost, and if for value received, is worth just as much as the price paid. Then to the whole world today the church of Jesus Christ is worth just as much, and is just as important, and just as essential as the blood of Jesus Christ, for He bought it with His blood (Acts 20:28) unless He was cheated in the deal; no one will dare say He was. Then if we appreciate the fact that Jesus loved us, even died for us, let us love, respect and attend the services of the church He built, bought and is the Head of.

No one wants to live where the influences of the people of God are not predominating. Who wants to go to a heathen land today, where God's people have not gone and taught the Word of God, enlightening the inhabitants and making of them desirable subjects of society? Where is the man today who would want to take his wife and his daughter to Africa, away from schools, colleges, churches, refined people of the world, decent society, and there settle down and spend the remainder of their lives? Only the crazed, mad man would even dare to do this, and he without the capabilities of loving and caring for his family. These things are the blessings given to the civilized world by Christianity and church-going people. Kind reader, since you are enjoying these gifts and advantages as a result of the work of the church, under the influence of the teachings of Christ, are you helping to build up the church? Since you do not wish to live away from the influences of the church, do you not feel that it is not only fair, but that you owe it to yourself, your family and to your country to help do your bit toward supporting the thing you are enjoying? Ponder these questions seriously, then meet this issue with that same credibility that the honest man always meets his material obligations. If you will do this, you will be at the house of the Lord next Sunday and do your part to encourage the Lord's work.

Children are not responsible for their existence in this world. Only their parents are. Yet, when these same children reach the age of accountability, they are responsible for their souls and must stand before God either accepted or rejected. They came here not by choice of their own, nor do they appear before God by choice; but that does not alter their responsibility. Parents must not forget that they are the ones who are responsible for their existence in this world, and they are the ones who do the most toward molding the character of their children, both before and after birth.

That this character determines the happiness of their children both here and hereafter will not be called in question. I do not believe that anyone will challenge the statement when I say that the church and its influences do aid much in forming this character for good and happiness, here and over yonder in that world that has no end. If this be true—and it is—do you not feel that you should help promote that which does so much to determine the happiness of your own flesh and blood or your neighbors?

Think what it would mean if at the judgment your child would be lost and he would say to you: "Papa, you didn't set the proper example before me. You didn't go to church and take me when I was small, or you didn't encourage me to go. You didn't tell me about Jesus nor talk and read to me from the Bible. Now I am lost and must spend eternity in that lake of fire yonder, and you are the cause of it. Oh, Daddy, why didn't you take me to church back yonder in the world?"

This may be the result of your neglecting the church if you do not begin now to "train up the child in the way it should go." Don't let it be your fate to be the humble prayer of your servant. Take the family to church and sacrifice to keep them there!

Join The Happy Throng...

Have you ever noticed the faces of people as they emerge from church out into the sunlight? They are bright faces, faces with faith shining in them, their burdens are lightened, their joys are increased, because they have stopped for a moment in the House of God. Your church holds the same happiness for you, a happiness in being one with your Creator, a happiness derived from good fellowship and love of mankind, a happiness found in doing good—this is only a part of what your church will instill into your heart. If you want a balanced, happy life, join the happy throng on their way to church next Sunday.
