

BLUE EAGLE OF RECOVERY ACT FLOWING 32 EMPLOYERS

NATIONAL GUARDSMEN TO LEAVE TOMORROW FOR PALACIOS CAMP

Captain John E. Sentell Heads Full Quota of Men in Company G From Scurry County.

Population of Snyder and community is scheduled for a camp of about 65 souls by Friday mid-afternoon. And the exodus will be made up of some of the county's best young blood—members of the local National Guard Company G, 142nd Infantry.

The boys are leaving for the annual encampment at Palacios, on the Gulf of Mexico. Several of the company members left by auto and otherwise during the week, and the remaining contingent will take the afternoon south-bound Santa Fe train. They are scheduled to return on the morning of August 20.

Captain John E. Sentell reports that he is taking his full company quota of 65 men, leaving a number of would-be soldiers at home who were anxious to make the trip.

Outstanding Company. The local company is regarded as one of the finest in the state. For the past two years it has been designated as the governor's official bodyguard, and it is expected the appointment again this year. Several outstanding awards have come to the group for their accomplishments in camp and in the local maneuvers.

Clerks of the guard unit report that many applications for membership have recently been received, and prospects for maintaining a full quota for months to come are assured by the waiting list.

Recently examinations were given candidates for promotion, and those who successfully passed the tests will be elevated to their new places at the camp next week. M. M. Clark will be promoted to a sergeant's place, and Herman Gallean and Clifford Ferguson will be new corporals.

R. N. Kayal Leaves For Marketing Trip

R. N. Kayal of the Kansas City Salvage Company, who is in charge of the Davis-Harpole bankrupt sale, will leave Sunday for St. Louis and Kansas City, where he will purchase fall and winter goods for his Lamesa store and the local store. New shelving is being built in the store, and other remodeling steps are being taken preparatory to receiving the new merchandise.

Prohibition Article Omitted This Week

Blame the N. R. A. for 'The Times' failure to have that second article on Scurry County prohibition history in this week's issue.

Increased work due to abrupt changes brought about by the new code, plus changes in the plant's working schedule, force postponement of the article until next week.

Mrs. Scarborough Back. Mrs. Woodie Scarborough of Every woman's Beauty Shop returned yesterday from Lubbock, where she attended unit No. 3 of the Texas Accredited Beauty Culturists. Representatives present from 16 West Texas counties voted unanimously to cooperate with the N. R. A.

Senator Sheppard To Stop In Snyder

Word has been received by local dry forces that the Hon. Morris Sheppard, veteran senator from Texas, and author of the eighteenth amendment to federal constitution, will speak in Snyder on Monday, August 21. The veteran dry leader will also be a luncheon guest of prohibition proponents of this area.

The senator will speak at the hands of the Big Spring team Sunday afternoon to the tune of 24 to 16. This was by the same score Snyder golfers have lost their last three matches.

Following is the result of four-some and individual matches: Roberts lost to Robbins and Wilhelm lost to Morgan. Big Spring taking foursome honors; in the second foursome Fish defeated Hicks while Williams was losing to Porter. Big Spring taking foursome honors on the twentieth green; in the third foursome Boren won from Mason while his teammate, L. Cotton, was losing to Coffee on the eighteenth, with low ball going to Snyder; the last foursome resulted in a victory for "Red" Moore over Stephens while "Red" Hill was losing to True, with foursome honors going to Big Spring on the nineteenth green.

Snyder has only one remaining match before the schedule closes and that will be played at Lamesa, August 13, and in order to keep out of the cellar the locals will have to capture the tilt at Lamesa, or Stanton will have to drop practically everything in her two remaining matches.

Big Fish Story. Mrs. J. G. Lockhart, who has been ill for two weeks, tells The Times a refreshing fish story. Her brother, R. M. Johnson of Houston, with nine friends, caught almost 200 king mackerel from the Gulf off the coast of Freeport, early in July. Many of the fish were above 15 pounds. The Lockharts received a shipment of the delicious catch.

COUNTY WHEAT PRODUCTION IS SET AT 13,046

Percentage of Acreage Reduction To Be Announced Soon By Secretary of Agriculture.

Wheat production for Scurry County has been set by Secretary of Agriculture Wallace at 13,046 bushels for the coming season. It was announced late last week. The country's entire allotment of 456,198,588 bushels has been divided between 42 states and the counties within the states.

Wallace said that within a few days he would announce the percentage reduction required of farmers up to $13,000,000 under the voluntary domestic allotment plan. The latest definite figures obtainable for Scurry County show that 670 bushels of wheat was raised on 695 acres during the year 1929. Since that time the production has been beyond that figure, and in 1931 a record yield far above that figure was made.

Cowboy Reunion In Gail Country To Be Staged August 20

A cowboy reunion that will include rodeo events, free barbecue dinner, polo, games, baseball game, platform dances and old-time fiddling is planned to be held seven miles east of Gail, on Highway No. 83, Saturday, August 19.

C. C. and W. C. Miller, promoters of the reunion, are inviting cowmen, business men and others interested in the old hospitality of the west to make plans for attending the gathering, which will be an annual affair if it lives up to expectations this year.

Purses ranging from $5 to $40 are being offered in calf roping, cow milking and goat roping contests. A single admission price will admit to the free barbecue and all events on the day's program.

Defends Amendment. Judge Sartin compared the eighteenth amendment to the dam that holds Lake Kemp, near his home city, in check. "If a man were to suggest, after finding a few leaks in the great dam, that it be blown to bits and let the body of water it holds in leash flow over homes and lands and towns, he would be declared insane. Yet many good people are listening to the plea of the wets just because our prohibition enforcement has not been 100 per cent."

216 Relatives Attend Woolever Annual Reunion Over Week-end

Again the Woolever family met together for their family reunion. They gathered Friday, July 28, at the Earl Woolever home, five miles west of Snyder, to celebrate the sixty-sixth birthday of their mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. Three days of merry-making were spent in ball games, swimming, music, singing and kangaroo court. Friday night a program was rendered by the smaller grandchildren. Short one-act plays, monologues, dialogues, singing, music and a "Fishing pond," directed by Mrs. Ed Murphy, were enjoyed by everyone, especially by the ladies and girls. The program closed with a journal, read by Mrs. Ed Murphy, which caused much laughter.

Saturday afternoon a baseball game was played between the Woolevers and the Murphy team. Much excitement prevailed, but the family team was badly defeated. For Saturday night's entertainment eight of the grandchildren and one nephew decided they would show their love for grandmother by rendering a three-act play, entitled "Beads on a String," sponsored by a very good friend of the family, Miss Ethel Lynn Hays. Characters were Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Bills, Jack Davis, Lusine, Arville and Buck Woolever, Elbie Miller and nephew, John Wilson. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Woolever helped, especially with the play, as they had four daughters and one son and two son-in-laws in it. Mrs. John Wilson also assisted.

Actors Entertain. Characters of the play furnished entertainment between acts, and special songs were rendered by Elsie Bishop and Oleta and Albert Miller. Music was furnished by Claude Woolever and Owen and Albert Miller.

C. OF C. WILL PUSH SNYDER'S BUYERS DRIVE

Roosevelt Drafts Business Leaders To Push N. R. A. Drive Into Camp of Mr. John Citizen.

The Chamber of Commerce has been named as the local organization to fall in step with President Roosevelt's drive to get "every patriotic American citizen, employer and consumer, to cooperate in the N. R. A. program."

Pending arrival of definite instruction and literature, the civic group is marking time, but expects to spring into action within a few days. A call meeting of directors Monday evening resulted in unanimous acceptance of the presidential appointment.

Dunn Revival Opens Under Home Pastor

The Methodist revival at Dunn, scheduled to continue about two weeks, will open Friday evening at 8:15 o'clock, with that pastor, Rev. W. B. Anderson, doing the preaching. Morning services will be held after Sunday.

Among subjects to be discussed will be "An Ideal Home," "Road to Sodom, Its Tragic End," "No Infidels in Hell," "Life's Fiery Furnaces," "The Wages of Sin Is Death."

LOAN COTTON SALE IS URGED

Farmers whose cotton is being held as collateral for federal crop production loans of 1931 and 1932 may order sale of such cotton during the present uprush prices, according to word received here from the Farm Credit Administration.

Two-Headed Ant Is Discovered By Boy

Two heads are better than one, in the opinion of a lively and overgrown member of the red-ant family, discovered early this week when Jos. Weldon Hart turned over a log.

The freak insect boasts two full-fledged heads. No one has volunteered to test each of the heads for bitability, but since head No. 2, which protrudes from the front part of the body, moves about almost as freely as head No. 1, it is presumed that the bite is there.

Joe lives north of town. His discovery may be seen at the "Times office." "Believe It or Not" Ripley is being advised of the find.

MOST HELPFUL RAIN OF YEAR EARLY IN WEEK

High Winds, Twisters and Hail Cause Damage Estimated At Several Thousand Dollars.

A blustering wind brought Scurry County her most beneficial rain of the year early Sunday night. As the winds flailed rain from black clouds, and saw to it that only a few strips in the county, from southwest to southeast, were left dry, damage was being wrought.

The twister's destructive path included the large Yoder building just north of the station, originally erected as an airplane hangar, but recently used for hay storage. Although constructed of heavy timbers, structural steel and sheet iron, the building was demolished, and some of its parts were found a mile from the site.

Jack Bowling's filling station, just east of the station, was twisted and part of it torn away. The tower was torn from the little plant over the city water well, two blocks south.

Narrow hail streaks north and south of town destroyed crops on several farms, while a twister south of Snyder tore Henry Eller's heavy barn apart and wrought other damage in a narrow area.

The Snyder business area was not seriously damaged with the exception of a wrecked awning on the corner of the square. Extensive water damage was reported from all parts of town, while a number of trees were broken and a few window panes were smashed.

Two inches of rain fell in Snyder early Sunday night, and a shower came Monday, while several communities in the southern part of the county were getting good rains. Total rainfall in most parts of the county was one to two inches, while a small area northwest received more than that.

The rains have already brought refreshing greenery to all parts of the county. It is in the suffering cotton and feed fields, however, that the precipitations have brought the most welcome changes. Although some cotton and feed were past redemption, and although heavy water, wind and hail brought some damage, the lively weather as a whole will mean thousands of dollars in increased income for Scurry farmers, many of whom were beginning to feel the bite of a severe drought.

Errors Says Wellborn. The Star-Telegram article concerning H. P. Wellborn of Snyder, reproduced recently in The Times, contained two errors that belie Mr. Wellborn's age and experience. He was born in 1852 rather than in 1872, and he did not serve as sheriff of Callahan County, as the article stated. He has lived continuously in this county since 1890.

ALMOST AS A MAN, EMPLOYERS KEEP STEP WITH NRA PROGRAM

Federal Aid For Texas Depends on Amendment O. K.

Federal funds to feed the destitute of Texas are flowing into the state at an average rate of about $1,500,000 a month, according to a report issued by Colonel Lawrence Westbrook, state relief administrator. The total since March, when the funds became available, to the first of August was $7,380,170. The same report shows that 1,270,000 persons are now being fed wholly by this federal money, and no other funds for their subsistence are available from any source.

The report shows that in March the state received $1,382,955; April, $1,475,405; May, $1,626,663; June, $885,234; July, $2,042,920.

In May the Legislature was hesitant about submitting the proposed amendment authorizing the issue of state bonds for relief and the federal relief administrator immediately suspended payments to Texas. This brought the June disbursements down to about half the normal amount. After the proposed amendment was submitted by the Legislature the payments were resumed on the assumption that the amendment will be adopted. Notice has been served on Texas that if the vote is against the amendment the flow of federal funds will again and permanently be stopped.

At the election on August 26 the people do not actually vote on the bonds. They merely vote to amend the constitution to give the Legislature power during the next two years only to issue bonds to match federal aid. Under the present constitution the Legislature is powerless to appropriate any public funds for relief purposes, regardless of how many people might be starving.

REVIVAL OPENS AT TABERNACLE SUNDAY NIGHT

Rev. E. C. Lambert Will Preach In Non-Denominational Drive; Invites Folks To Cooperate.

Initial services in a non-denominational revival meeting will be held Sunday evening at the city tabernacle, corner of Avenue S and Twenty-seventh Street. The meeting will continue for two weeks.

Rev. E. C. Lambert, Presbyterian minister, is to be in charge of the series of meetings, and will do the preaching throughout the campaign. Services will be held each day at 10:00 o'clock a. m. and 8:15 p. m.

In asking the cooperation of the people of the community, Rev. Lambert issues the following statement for the press:

"These services will be conducted of my own volition, but have the sanction of the First Presbyterian Church. They are for the entire community, and we welcome everyone who desires to come and take part in this campaign. "I invite all who can and will see REVIVAL OPENS, Page 8"

Adoption of Shorter Open Hours Features First Week of New Code Business Operations.

The blue eagle flies high. Almost as one man, Snyder employers numbering 132 have signed President Roosevelt's temporary anti-depression code, and are displaying their cooperation in the nation-wide NRA program.

Adoption of short opening hours for practically all branches of retail business has featured the first week of NRA operation here.

Practically no retail stores are opening before 7:30 o'clock, and most of them are closing not later than 6:00 o'clock in the evening.

Price schedules have also been fixed in some instances. All tailor shops set the following basic scale: Suits cleaned and pressed, 75 cents; trousers cleaned and pressed, 35 cents; dresses cleaned and pressed, 75 cents and up.

Barbers are uniformly receiving 35 cents for haircuts and 25 cents for shaves.

Grocerymen voted against below-cost specials. Their employees, and employees of other handlers of foodstuffs are allowed to work on a 48-hour schedule instead of the 40-hour schedule applying in most other cases.

It is understood that all cafes have adopted a uniform price list, which is practically the same as the old menu.

Beauty shop operators are planning a meeting tonight for discussion of opening hours and a price schedule.

The bank, gas office, oil mill and railroads are adjusting themselves to the new code. Southwestern Bell Telephone Company has been on a 40-hour schedule for many months, and wages are in line with the code plan.

Small Stores Cooperate. Business houses outside the classification found in this article are almost unanimously following the generally adopted schedule of hours, with the exception of filling stations, cafes and confectioneries. Lumber yards have observed short hours for some time.

J. E. Blaker, manager of the local Texas Electric Light Company office, has received the following telegram: "Officials of this company announce that they are in hearty accord with the president's recovery plans and that pending final approval by the NRA of the code for electric light and power industry that the company is putting into effect the provisions for minimum wages and maximum hours of work of the NRA blanket code for all the company's accounting, clerical, inside salesmen and office building employees."

Hermleigh grocery stores have agreed on the schedule of hours selected at Snyder, and most of the remainder of the town is said to be cooperating. The Times has not heard definitely whether hours have been changed at other smaller towns in the county where the code of wages does not apply.

Mr. Dugan is particularly interested in better values and appraisals for West Texas lands.

Dugan Here Today. Senator Dugan was a visitor in the Times office this morning, and is becoming acquainted with many local folks around the square. O. P. Thrane, with whom the Littlefield man has been associated in civic affairs for a number of years, was introducing the Plainsman.

Following is the poem read by Mrs. Yoder:

A Friendly Helper.
In the midst of the sunshine
A cloud must appear
To steal away gladness
And leave a tiny tear.
One we have loved
For many a year
Must now from us
Go without lonely fear.
As the flowers bloom
From day to day,
And their fragrance sweet
Is blown away
To lessen the bitterness
Of some one's day,
So has been your smile
And your cheerful way.
A friendly helper
You have been,
With joy and gladness
And love serene;
So this token of friendship
And goodly cheer
We give to remind you,
Throughout the year,
Of early friendships
That were easily wood,
And for the spirit
A lasting food.
Of our love for you
In your life renewed,
As you leave us now
For neighbors new and good.

Relieves Women's Pains

Here is an example of how Cardul has helped thousands of women:

"I was very thin and pale," writes Mrs. F. H. Scott, of Roanoke, Va. "I suffered from weakness and a severe pain in my back. This pain unnered me, and I did not feel like doing my work. I did not care to go places, and felt worn, tired, day after day."

"My mother had taken Cardul, and on seeing my condition she advised me to try it. I have never regretted doing so. I took three bottles and it built me up. I gained ten weight, my color was better and the pain left my back. I am stronger than I had been in some time."

Relieves Women's Pains

Here is an example of how Cardul has helped thousands of women:

"I was very thin and pale," writes Mrs. F. H. Scott, of Roanoke, Va. "I suffered from weakness and a severe pain in my back. This pain unnered me, and I did not feel like doing my work. I did not care to go places, and felt worn, tired, day after day."

"My mother had taken Cardul, and on seeing my condition she advised me to try it. I have never regretted doing so. I took three bottles and it built me up. I gained ten weight, my color was better and the pain left my back. I am stronger than I had been in some time."

RIGHT OF WAY ON 83 ASSURED AT GAIL MEET

Local Delegation Joins Three Other Counties in Discussing Long East-West Route.

An order guaranteeing to the State Highway Department a 100-foot right-of-way east to west in Borden County was voted unanimously by the Borden commissioners, in session at Gail Wednesday.

The action made possible a hard-surfaced highway on No. 83 west from the Borden County line to Carlsbad, New Mexico. Gaines, Dawson and Scurry Counties previously passed similar orders. The New Mexico route from Carlsbad to Hobbs has already been paved, and hard surfacing has been ordered to the Texas line.

Delegations from Scurry, Dawson and Gaines Counties attended the Borden County court session. The local group included Robert H. Curtnutte, county judge, W. J. Ely, director of the WTCC, Forrest Jones, commissioner, and Joe Monroe.

A brief of conditions in the four counties concerned—resulting from drought and unemployment—is being prepared by William A. Wilson of the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce, for presentation to the highway department, in an appeal for work relief.

Scurry County is scheduled to receive about $50,000 of the $24,000,000 federal apportionment for Texas.

Marvin Leach Again Named As President Of Baptist Service

Rev. Marvin Leach of Roscoe was re-elected as president of the Mitchell-Scurry B. T. S. Association. The election was held following the program rendered at the quarterly meeting with the Lorraine Baptist Church as host.

Other officers were J. C. Smyth of Snyder, vice president, and Mrs. J. A. Martin of Lorraine, secretary. It was decided that each host town would choose the chorister and pianist. Colorado was selected as the next meeting place.

After Mrs. Martin gave a word of welcome in the form of a devotion, a Lorraine quartet performed. Miss Corine Thraillkill then spoke on "The Young People Serving the Church Through the Sunday School."

The sizeable audience then heard at Lorraine that J. C. Smyth spoke on "The Young People Serving the Church Through the B. T. S."

The host church, with a quarterly average of 83 per cent, won the efficiency banner, while Looney church, with a representation of 43 per cent of its membership, won the attendance banner from the Snyder church. Snyder sent 23 delegates to the meeting.

4.—The maximum hours fixed in the foregoing paragraphs (2) and (3) shall not apply to employees in establishments employing not more than two persons in towns of less than 2,500 population which towns are not part of a larger trade area; nor to registered pharmacists or other professional persons employed in their profession; nor to employees in a managerial or executive capacity, who now receive more than $35 per week; nor to employees on emergency maintenance and repair work; nor to very special cases where restrictions of hours of highly skilled workers on continuous processes would unavoidably reduce production but, in any such special case, at least time and one-third shall be paid for hours worked in excess of the maximum. Population for the purposes of this agreement shall be determined by reference to the 1930 federal census.

9.—Not to increase the price of any merchandise sold after the date hereof over the price on July 1, 1933, by more than is made necessary by actual increases in production, replacement or invoice costs of merchandise, or by taxes or other costs resulting from action taken pursuant to the Agricultural Adjustment Act, since July 1, 1933, and, in setting such price increases, to give full weight to probable increases in sales volume and to refrain from taking profiteering advantage of the consuming public.

District School Leaders To Hear New Supervisor; "New Deal" For Schools

Scurry County is now in District No. 9 of the "New Deal" organization of the public school system of Texas, along with nine other West Texas counties. Texas has 22 districts.

Frank Farmer, county superintendent, announces that a district meeting of board members and school heads has been called to convene in Colorado Thursday morning, August 10, at 9:00 o'clock. The session will be presided over by G. D. Holbrook, district supervisor, whose headquarters will be at Abilene.

Board Members Urged.

"Every board member and every school leader is urged to attend this meeting," Mr. Farmer said. "Radical changes in recent school legislation affects every school in Texas, and it behooves us to learn more about them. Others interested in our schools are also cordially invited to the Colorado meeting."

Dr. L. A. Woods, state superintendent, placed the new plan of school control before the tenth annual meeting of county superintendents at College Station last week.

The two divisions of school supervision heretofore maintained in the state department have been merged and the one division, including the former high school division activities and those of the rural aid division, will operate as a single unit.

Bullock Heads Rural.

J. W. O'Banion, assistant state superintendent, specialist in junior schools, M. B. Brown, specialist in high schools, A. A. Bullock, director of rural aid and specialist in rural schools, and Miss Myrtle Tanner, secretary of rural aid, complete the organization at Austin. Mr. Bullock retired last year as superintendent of Scurry County schools to accept the state appointment.

Administration of the rural aid law, and provisions for accrediting high schools, as well as other phases of the school law, will be conducted by 22 resident deputy state superintendents, located in as many districts, and charged with these duties so far as the counties in their respective areas are concerned. The districts range from seven to 22 counties. District No. 11, including Dallas County and six others, has the fewest counties of the districts. "Our program is planned to secure more efficient and economical schools," Dr. Woods explained in announcing the plan and naming the deputy state superintendents. "These representatives are to be helpful to all school officials, and to cooperate in every way with sympathy and earnest endeavor to aid in putting into execution the program. It will take some time, and there are likely to be occasional minor misunderstandings, but I bespeak the sympathy and good will of the people of Texas for these representatives of the department. In addition, much elimination of duplication occurs.

"The merging of the two sections of the state department engaged in supervision into one was made more reasonable and feasible by the recent rural aid law, according to plans and these workers."

"I decided to take Theford's Black-Draught, as I had been having bilious spells," writes Mr. Chas. E. Stevens, of Columbus, Ind. "When I get bilious, I feel sleepy and tired and do not feel like doing my work. I get awfully dizzy. I know then that I had better take something. After I found how good Black-Draught is, that is what I have used. I guess it rids me of the bile, for I feel better—don't feel like I am dropping off to sleep every time I sit down. That, to me, is a very bad feeling. Now you can get Black-Draught in the form of a Syrup, for Children."

COMPLETE NRA BLANKET CODE

During the period of the president's emergency re-employment drive, that is to say, from August 1 to December 31, 1933, or to any earlier date of approval of a code of fair competition to which he is subject, the undersigned hereby agrees with the president as follows:

1.—After August 31, 1933, not to employ any person under 14 years of age, except that persons between 14 and 16 may be employed (but not in manufacturing or mechanical industries) for not to exceed three hours per day and those hours between 7:00 a. m. and 7:00 p. m. in such work as will not interfere with hours of day school.

2.—Not to work any accounting, clerical, banking, office, service or sales employees (except outside salesmen) in any store, office, department, establishment or public utility, or on any automotive or horse-drawn passenger, express, delivery or freight service, or in any other place or manner, for more than 40 hours in any one week and not to reduce the hours of any store or service operation to below 52 hours in any one week, unless such hours were less than 52 hours per week before July 1, 1933, and in the latter case not to reduce such hours at all.

3.—Not to employ any factory or mechanical worker or artisan more than a maximum week of 35 hours until December 31, 1933, but with the right to work a maximum week of 40 hours for any six weeks within this period; and not to employ any worker more than eight hours in any one day.

4.—The maximum hours fixed in the foregoing paragraphs (2) and (3) shall not apply to employees in establishments employing not more than two persons in towns of less than 2,500 population which towns are not part of a larger trade area; nor to registered pharmacists or other professional persons employed in their profession; nor to employees in a managerial or executive capacity, who now receive more than $35 per week; nor to employees on emergency maintenance and repair work; nor to very special cases where restrictions of hours of highly skilled workers on continuous processes would unavoidably reduce production but, in any such special case, at least time and one-third shall be paid for hours worked in excess of the maximum. Population for the purposes of this agreement shall be determined by reference to the 1930 federal census.

5.—Not to pay any of the classes of employees mentioned in paragraph (2) less than $15 per week in any city of over 500,000 population, or in the immediate trade area of such city; nor less than $14 per week in any city of between 2,500 and 250,000 population, or in the immediate trade area of such city; and in towns of less than 2,500 population to increase all wages by not less than 20 per cent, provided that this shall not require wages in excess of $12 per week.

6.—Not to employ any employee of the classes mentioned in paragraph (3) less than 40 cents per hour unless the hourly rate for the same class of work on July 15, 1929, was less than 40 cents per hour, in which latter case not to pay less than the hourly rate on July 15, 1929, and in no event less than 30 cents per hour. It is agreed that this paragraph establishes a guaranteed minimum rate of pay regardless of whether the employee is compensated on the basis of a time rate or on a piecework performance.

7.—Not to reduce the compensation for employment now in excess of the minimum wages hereby agreed to (notwithstanding that the hours worked in such employment may be hereby reduced) and to increase the pay for such employment by an equitable readjustment of all pay schedules.

8.—Not to use any subterfuge to frustrate the spirit and intent of this agreement which is, among other things, to increase employment by a universal covenant, to remove obstacles to commerce, and to shorten hours and to raise wages for the shorter week to a living basis.

9.—Not to increase the price of any merchandise sold after the date hereof over the price on July 1, 1933, by more than is made necessary by actual increases in production, replacement or invoice costs of merchandise, or by taxes or other costs resulting from action taken pursuant to the Agricultural Adjustment Act, since July 1, 1933, and, in setting such price increases, to give full weight to probable increases in sales volume and to refrain from taking profiteering advantage of the consuming public.

10.—To support and patronize establishments which also have signed this agreement and are listed as members of N. R. A. (National Recovery Administration).

11.—To cooperate to the fullest extent in having a code of fair competition submitted by his industry at the earliest possible date, and in any event before September 1, 1933.

12.—Where, before June 16, 1933, the undersigned had contracted to purchase goods at a fixed price for delivery during the period of this

Higher prices are a definite part of the Government's NATIONAL RECOVERY PROGRAM calling for higher wages and shorter working hours—and providing definitely for increased prices for farm products under the Agricultural Allotment Plan.

Prices must go up for the general good and we should all be encouraged that they are doing so, for higher prices mean, inevitably, a return of better times for all of us!

The Times Creed.
For the cause that needs assistance;
For the wrongs that need resistance;
For the future in the distance,
And the good that we can do.

THE WEEKLY DOZEN.

Truth in the Saddle.
Talkative Tillie says if an N. R. A. code applies to gossipers and curbstone brokers, truth and reputations will get a break at last.

They Are Well Named.
Since so many of the big oil boys have shown a disposition not to cooperate with Roosevelt in perfecting a code for their industry, we can well understand why they were dubbed oil maggots.

Fete Observes the Wind.
Pessimism Pete suggests that if the various whiffs of Sunday night wind had been one whiff, the destruction might have approached that caused by more smelly whiffs that invade the county every night.

The Rain Has Come.
Now that most of the county has been saturated with rain, and one of our holdest citizens has decided to erect a hotcha beer joint with all trimmings, it might be well to arrange for a celebration. The big to-do would be dedicated, we presume, to better crops and broken homes.

Wet Prosperity.
Shortly after the coming of 3.2 beer to Oklahoma, the Altus city court reported that it set an all-time record for drunkenness arrests. Fines are increasing in practically all police courts since 3.2 was installed in many states. Maybe that's what the wets mean by their statement that prosperity will return on a beer wave—prosperity for court business.

Plow Them Stalks!
Already there have come a few complaints to the effect that a farmer here and there hopes to evade Uncle Sam by plowing up only the major part of the measured fieldage under the reduction agreement. Stalks are left standing in some cases, and stubs are left standing in others. Uncle Sam says you'd better do the job right or you won't get your money.

Advertising Impetus.
Advertising will probably be the commodity most uplifted by the N. R. A. codes. Legitimate practices of presenting merchandise and services will be brought into being instead of the lurid testimonial-smoking girl-hold leg type of propaganda. The very success of the N. R. A. is due to advertising; it is only natural that advertising should profit first and foremost.

Too-Deserving Democrats.
It seems that a few Democrats did so much for the donkey party that they obtained two appointment plums. Just to be sure that they had a place at the gravy trough, they made application in two or three divisions of government service. In some cases it happened that they were deemed qualified, oked, et cetera, for more than one responsible patronage place.

The Spirit's the Thing.
No matter how deftly we carry out the letter of the N. R. A. code, if we lack the spirit of cooperation, the whole thing will be a flop. There is little doubt but that some businesses are following the code for the simple reason that they are afraid of public opinion, and not because they have an over-supply of patriotism or cooperative zeal. Thank goodness this crowd is in the vast minority.

West Texas Improves.
June department store sales were greater this year than last year in only five cities, the Texas Business Review will tell you. It will tell you, also, that three of these five cities are in West Texas. Abilene showed a gain of 12.1 per cent, El Paso, 14.3 per cent, and Lubbock 0.5 per cent. Specialty shop increases were reported in only three cities, and two of these—Abilene and Wichita Falls—are in West Texas.

Scurry County's Share.
Scurry County took her medicine (made of dollars and cents) when Uncle Sam reduced her cotton acreage. Now she must take her medicine under the wheat allotment code. This fall she must raise no more than 13,046 bushels of the edible grain. With the exception of Mitchell County, that is the lowest acreage of any county in this immediate area that pretends to raise any quantity of wheat. We have a hunch that Scurry wasn't cut out for a wheat raising country, anyway.

Cotton Balance Sheet.
"Cotton takes the spotlight on the stage of rapidly moving world affairs. A year ago cotton consumption in the United States at this time was establishing a record low for a generation—whereas the rate of mill consumption now in the United States is establishing an all time high record. A year ago cotton prices were making new record lows and supplies of American cotton were higher than ever before in history. Cotton prices in dollars have a little more than doubled since this time last year, but supplies have decreased only about 10 per cent."

Comparative Costs.

Little news items indicate that Postmaster General Farley is pleased with the showing of the local two-cent rate. People are funny animals. They fuss and fume for the sake of a few cents a year in their postage bill, but they stretch tooth and toenail in order to buy and keep up a car better than their neighbors.—The Scurry County Times.

The difference is that the fusser who fumes over the high cost of postage and takes no exceptions to the cost of his car realizes that he is paying stamp money to Uncle Sam and is getting his car pride for himself. Much as we all love Uncle Sam, we hate for him to cost us anything. Much as we enjoy walking, and good as walking is for exercise, we prize a nifty automobile and rejoice in riding around. Pride goes before a fall, says the Scripture, and we sometimes look proud just before tumbling out of our automobile. That is a fulfillment of Holy Writ. But what does the Bible say about buying postage stamps? Nothing at all. There is no thrill in buying stamps, no originality, no self-expression. Even the stamp clerk grudges you more than a glance, and the postmaster doesn't see you at all. On the other hand, when you start shopping around for a new car you create quite a following. People you never saw before pay you polite attention and say they have long known you by reputation, even when they know and you know you haven't any reputation. There's just a difference in the psychology that circulates between automobiles and postage stamps. By the way, Dallas letters to State Press have fallen off since the two-cent stamps became good. What's the matter, neighbors? Isn't S. P. worth a two-cent stamp, or is it that you haven't got two cents?—State Press in The Dallas News.

State Press has lived in the city of the near so long that he just can't understand how different things are out here in the West. There are gobs of thrills associated with buying two-cent postage stamps in a country town. In the first place, the man who writes letters that take the two-cent rate is either exceedingly friendly with his neighbors or he is sending in a check for payments due. Secondly, stamp clerks in our post office feel hurt if you don't talk with them about Roosevelt and liquor and the constant drouth. True, we don't see our postmaster, but we see our postmistress, by cracky, and she usually smiles as if her mouth would break. Out here, the man who buys a new automobile is immediately under suspicion. If he made his money in business, he is either a bootlegger, or he has gipped his neighbors. If he has made his money on the stock market, he is a gambler and consequently beyond the ken of the church. He creates a following all right, but most of the followers are creditors. State Press should study the psychology of smalltownia creditoria.

SAYING IT IN RHYME.

FOR SUCCESS.
It's doing your job the best you can,
And being just to your fellow man
It's making money, but helping friends,
And staying true to your aims and ends.
It's figuring how and learning why,
And looking toward and thinking high,
And dreaming a little and doing much—
It's keeping always in closest touch
With what is finest in word and deed,
It's being thorough, yet making speed,
It's daring blithely the field of chance
While making labor brace romance.
It's going onward despite defeat,
And fighting staunchly, but keeping sweet,
It's being clean and playing fair,
And laughing lightly at Dame Despair,
And looking up at the stars above,
And drinking deeply of life and love,
And struggling on with the will to win,
But taking loss with a cheerful grin.
And serving and striving through strain and stress,
It's doing your noblest—that is success!
—Ira Burroughs, Snyder.

CURRENT COMMENT

BY LEON GUINN

To all classes of employers the mail trains have been conveying literature labeled with N. R. A. insignia, as a toady to stimulate employment. . . . In windows and on factory walls rest the government posters certifying N. R. A. membership. . . . Prime goal of this propaganda is to employ 6,000,000 men by Labor Day (if possible). . . . A blue eagle on the posters holds industry's cog and lightning flashes to attract attention. . . . General Johnson and assistants are advocating shorter work hours for one thing, more jobs for another. . . . Among other weak points, this gigantic NIRA work suggests curtailing some items of cost that is of little value to merchants. . . . It would seem that the wise merchant and manufacturer has already cut operating costs to the lowest possible margin of safety, and what is needed now is further operating costs sheared down, but upping of consumer purchasing power.

Many, of course, will cut advertising lineage to some extent, since N. R. A. instructions suggest operating economies. . . . If it isn't economy to advertise regularly the week's specials, it is difficult to imagine the public hot-footing it to some place of business to find out itemized prices. . . . Business now has an ingredient of competition not heretofore visioned, and the conservative consumers have the God-given privilege to demand newspaper advertising to insure sensible grocery and dry goods purchasing. . . . For instance, 85 per cent of the consumers in this trade district rely on advertisements to assist the mind preparing the week-end budget, for it is very trying to have no plan outlined when shopping as to what one will pay for any given necessity. . . . If agricultural communities it is a well known fact that eight people out of 10 go to market the last of the week days to purchase groceries, gas and new work clothes. . . . For that reason the advertisements fill the canyon between hectic shopping and taste in selection. . . . The every-day things of life particularly demand not privately advised, but advertised commodities to keep faith with those that toil.

As of August 1 the condition of crops in this section would rate about 57.2 per cent of normal after deducting acreage plowed up. . . . Rain within the next 20 days can change this by 10 per cent either up or down. . . . The volume of retail sales is holding up remarkably well, having failed to touch the low some feared. . . . Business is not what it could be, yet it could be worse. . . . After viewing crop conditions in adjoining districts all around Scurry County one will class local prospects as optimistic. . . . Recent stock exchange slumps have altered our paper values of cotton and grain by $7,500,000, but what does paper value indicate? Only cock-eyed speculation.

WASHINGTON CIRCUS

BY DAVID WRIGHT

Washington.—The job-spreading program goes on apace under Industrial Administrator Hugh Johnson, whose plan is to have a blanket code for all groups unable or unwilling to devise one for themselves. Industries which have shown indifference or reluctance to come forward with a scheme for minimum wages and maximum hours will be told what is expected of them. The plight of the "white collar man" worries the administration. Generally unorganized in the past, he seems to have no spokesman now, and is making no effort to find one. To him this talk of codes is all Greek, and the president is said to be concerned in the shuffle for wage and work limits. The blanket code, applicable to unorganized groups, is on the way. Without it the recovery act would be unworkable.

Political appointees who were "covered" into civil service by executive order of Republican presidents, and who have been dropped from the public payroll under the economy act, will not be re-employed in any of the federal government's emergency agencies.

This is made plain by Postmaster General Farley, patronage dispenser, who makes no bones about saying that persons dropped from positions held by virtue of competitive examination will be given first consideration for the new jobs. After that, jobs will be open only to blown-in-the-bottle Democrats. The giver of jobs says he and the president see eye to eye on this question.

In fact, Mr. Farley goes a step farther. He states frankly his belief that there are Democrats and Democrats—many kinds of Democrats, and they are being sorted, graded, stamped and labeled, much as eggs are tested. It is certain that under the Farley testing system some Democrats will turn out to be bad eggs.

The highest rating to be held is "F. D. R. B. C." A man bearing that stamp shows that he was for Roosevelt before Chicago. Any delegate who didn't hop aboard the Roosevelt band-wagon before the final roll call is out of luck. And Farley makes it plain that when Republicans are to be appointed they will be of the progressive variety. Allegiance to Roosevelt and acceptance without reservations of his program will be demanded of everyone on the federal payroll. If you doubt it, watch and see how many Tammany benchmen get aboard. They will be scarcer than hen's teeth.

Elimination of advertising spiels by annoyed and disgusted listeners is now possible. A device recently invented by an ingenious and bored man may soon be patented and placed on the market, it is reported. The device is said to be so arranged that it can be operated from any part of the house whenever the advertising ballyhoo gentlemen begin to do their stuff. Broadcasters and advertisers who have overworked the "tie-up" racket may decide to limit their advertising to the name and the business of the sponsor before the weary public makes the inventor of the "switch-off" device a wealthy man. Listener interest is now rapidly declining, as is seen by the huge advertising losses which broadcasting stations have sustained, and a corresponding increase in newspaper advertising. No less an authority than the Standard Statistics Company reports that summer and autumn advertising increases will be confined to the newspapers. That can mean only one thing—that radio advertising is on its last legs. It is apparent that rigor mortis has already set in.

The new Dodge-Lackey Geography ranks the Magic Valley of Texas with California and Florida in the production of citrus fruits, commenting also on Texas peaches, which have, it says, gained an international reputation. It also mentions the fact that Texas produces about half the pecans grown in the United States.

BRUCE BARTON

Writer of "THE MASTER EXECUTIVE"

Supplying a week-to-week inspiration for the busy-business man who will find every business trial paralleled in the experiences of "The Man Nobody Knows."

The Great Idea. When Gideon called for volunteers to fight the Midianites, 32,000 people responded. Gideon looked them over critically. He knew the conflicting motives that had brought them there—some from mere love of adventure; some because they were afraid to be taunted with cowardice; some for plunder; some to get away from their wives. So he determined to at once weed them out.

Who soever is fearful and afraid let him go home tonight," he proclaimed. The next morning 22,000 of them had vanished. Only 10,000 remained with the leader. Still Gideon was unsatisfied. He bit upon a stratagem. Down the hillside and across a little brook he led the whole band. It was a hot morning; the men were thirsty and tired; and Gideon, standing on the bank and watching, had a shrewd idea that character would show itself under the strain. Sure enough, of the 10,000, a vast majority knelt down and pushed their faces into the cool, clear water, taking long refreshing draughts. But a few were too eager. They caught up the water in their hands, dashed it into their faces, and hurried across to the other bank, restless to be on! Only a handful—only three hundred. But Gideon kept them and sent the rest home. Better three hundred who would not be held back from the battle than 10,000 who were merely half-heartedly ready to go.

With the three hundred he won. That higher type of leadership which calls forth men's greatest energies by the promise of obstacles rather than the picture of rewards—that was the leadership of Jesus. By it he tempered the soft metal of his disciples' nature into keen hard steel. The final conference with which he prepared them for their work is thrilling in its majestic calm to courage. Listen to the calm recital of the deprivations and dangers:

Get you no gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purses. No wallet for your journey; neither two coats, nor shoes, nor staff. Beware of men—for they will deliver you up to councils and in their synagogues they will scourge you; yea and before governors and kings shall ye be brought for my sake. He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. And he that doth not take his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me. He that findeth his life shall lose it; and he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it. Watch the faces and the figures. See the shoulders straighten, the muscles of the lips grow hard. There is power in those faces that will not be withstood. The great idea prevailed. J'EVER STOP TO THINK?

BY EDSON R. WAITE

Edwin S. Friendly, business manager of the New York Sun and chairman of the Bureau of Advertising of the American Newspaper Publishers Association, says:

"Newspaper advertising is a speedometer as well as a barometer of business. It tells how far and how fast trade is moving.

"Many business men will not spend money for advertising until they see some definite signs of life in business—until the ultimate consumer discloses an interest in buying. They then employ newspaper advertising to awaken and to develop that interest and to turn it into actual sales across the counter.

"Just now, authentic buying signs appear on the business horizon, and as a result some classifications of newspaper advertising show a greater volume than in the corresponding period of 1932. This, like many other favorable signs of the times, demonstrates the widely acknowledged belief in the selling power of newspaper advertising and the desire of business organizations, both great and small, to use it as the important instrument it is in the stimulation of business.

"Newspaper advertising is a fundamental sales instrument, because everybody who reads at all reads a newspaper. One can not advertise anywhere without reaching newspaper readers, because no matter what other kinds of advertising some of the people see, all literate people see newspaper advertising. "Therefore, it follows that the most complete job of advertising—one that will reach the greatest number of prospective customers of any merchant or any manufacturer—can be accomplished only through the columns of the newspapers."

CLIFFORD B. JONES CALLS MEETING OF W T C C OFFICIALS TO DISCUSS PLANS

First official act of Clifford B. Jones, newly appointed federal public works administrator for Texas, Louisiana and New Mexico, was to summon to conference at Spur last Thursday W. D. Cline, president, D. A. Bandeen, general manager, and Charles E. Coombes, general attorney of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Purpose in calling them to Spur, Jones explained to the regional group, was to procure from them information on the work the West Texas Chamber of Commerce has done, and is doing, in assembling applications from political subdivisions in its territory for their participation in the loans for public works projects under pertinent provisions of the act of 1932 and the National Industrial Recovery Act of 1933, under which Jones was appointed.

Full West Texas Daa. W. D. Cline being unable to go, Bandeen and Coombes took with them to Spur full data, including comprehensive information assembled by the West Texas chamber, and its experience of expediting the servicing of applications that have been found to be eligible. At conclusion of the conference Jones handed newspaper men the following typed statement:

"In view of the familiarity of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce with the NRA, and the possibilities it offers to the territory served and to West Texas projects eligible to federal loans under a state committee free from Texas politics carries out in full the recommendation of the W T C C Approval.

"The appointment of a regional director in charge of a state committee free from Texas politics carries out in full the recommendation of the W T C C Approval.

"We are delighted with the appointment of a West Texas, Clifford B. Jones, as public works administrator for the seventh zone. Mr. Jones' proven integrity and ability is surety that so far as the seventh zone is concerned, every community soliciting participation in the public works program will be treated strictly according to the merits of its projects, and that every community, large and small, will have equal opportunity to share in this fund.

PER CAPITA IS SET AT $16 FOR ENSUING TERM

Long Argument at Austin Precedes Vote Late Monday on State Scholastic Apportionment.

The Texas State Board of Education late Monday set the scholastic apportionment for 1933-34 at $16 per capita, the amount to be paid on the basis of 1,570,365 scholastics.

The amount allotted was the same as that appropriated for the current term. Of the current appropriation, however, $9 remains unpaid, although it was estimated that $3 of this amount would be liquidated before September 1.

Action of the board followed several hours of argument.

Morrison's Proposal.

W. A. Morrison, of Cameron urged that the board set aside all money accruing to the available school fund during the fiscal year to the payment of the 1933-34 apportionment in defiance of a ruling of the attorney general's department holding that before any of the amount allotted for next year could be paid the unpaid balance on this year's apportionment must be liquidated.

Morrison's recommendation included a proposal that taxes now due to the available school fund be set aside in a separate balance on the 1933-34 apportionment. This recommendation was disregarded and a substitute motion to set the apportionment at $16 carried six to three.

Comptroller's Figures.

Figures prepared by the state comptroller showed the board would have available during the next fiscal year for the scholastic apportionment approximately $30,486,571. The tabulation showed an estimated deficit in the fund on August 31, 1933, of $7,704,565. The comptroller estimated that on the basis of the revenues in sight, the apportionment would be $13.04 if the delinquencies did not amount to more than 20 per cent. If the delinquencies amounted to 25 per cent, the amount that would be available would be $12.33 per scholastic, the comptroller estimated.

Morrison contended that the attorney general's construction of the statutes and constitution was in violation of the constitution and that all revenues accruing to the fund during the fiscal year should be "available" for that year and that none of the revenue could be used to pay off past obligations.

Under the ruling of the attorney general all of the unpaid portion of the 1932-33 apportionment must be paid before any of the 1933-34 apportionment can be made available.

City Mail Delivery Again Is Curtailed

In conformity with further governmental economy measures, Postmistress Gladys M. Anderson advises that until further notice, city delivery in Snyder residential districts will be curtailed as follows: Afternoon deliveries will be made only on Tuesday and Thursday mornings. No change in morning deliveries in the residential sections.

Business deliveries will remain as heretofore, including regular afternoon deliveries except Saturday.

New Code Discussed By Area Publishers

Publishers-printers of the West Texas Press Association area gathered in Colorado Friday morning and early afternoon to discuss terms of the permanent code to be presented to President Roosevelt by graphic art industries of the country.

Ralph Shuffler of Odessa, president of the group, who was a delegate to the national graphic arts conference at Chicago recently, presented the proposed code, and suggested slight changes, which were unanimously approved. Assessments were made against West Texas publishers-printers to care for delegates' expenses to the final national code meeting.

J. W. Roberts and J. C. Smyth were Snyder attendants.

"SELLS FOR LESS"

Frigidaire Uses Newspapers For Increasing Sales

Continuing its announced plans for using a liberal amount of print-ink to spur on the wave of increased business that has been manifest for the past two months, Frigidaire will enlarge its selling plans still more during August, it was revealed today by King & Brown, local representatives for Frigidaire, subsidiary of General Motors.

With an unprecedented demand for electric refrigeration sweeping the entire country, Earl Brown said, additional newspaper space reaching 100,000,000 readers will be used. Altogether 500 newspapers with a total circulation exceeding 30,000,000 will be used, it was stated on authority of the company's main office in Dayton, Ohio.

"The attitude of the country in general," said Mr. Brown, "toward business has changed so decidedly for the better that it has been found necessary to revise plans and additional advertising space has been decided upon. And following its policy adopted this year, Frigidaire will center its efforts on newspapers in getting its message to the people."

Analysis of the buying trend in refrigeration, Mr. Brown pointed out, shows a definite trend toward a quality product at a low price. For this reason, he said, Frigidaire is using a new principle of refrigeration permitting use of a compressor powered by an electric motor of only one-twentieth horsepower, a motor approximately half the size of the smallest heretofore used. Yet this motor supplies extraordinary refrigeration at a cost of operation of one ordinary electric light bulb.

missals have probably over-balanced recommissions. Filling station operators especially, declare that they can not work under the code without losing money at every turn. Several dismissals have been made in that field.

Not Avoiding Code.

It is not a question of avoiding the spirit of the code, but a question of life or death, some of the hardest hit employers declare. If Uncle Sam will show them how they can hire new workers and yet keep their heads above water, they are willing and anxious to try, they will tell you.

The general sentiment here is that many features of the code were not designed to fit small towns in agricultural areas, and that Gen. Hugh Johnson will make changes in the near future that will not be detrimental to non-industrial towns.

Clerks are finding it difficult to use their spare time. Many of them have been on the job 10 to 15 hours daily. The sudden shift to six, seven and eight hours is almost bewildering.

Town Almost Deserted.

Snyder was almost deserted Tuesday, the first day of the new code's kingdom, when darkness fell. The Palace Theatre was the brightest spot in town.

Members of various business units continue local and district meetings. Some of them expect their permanent codes within a few days, while others admit that the temporary code will probably serve their particular business for several weeks to come.

Dr. and Mrs. R. D. English have had as their guest their nephew, J. K. Hilliard, of Portales, New Mexico.

CHANGES IN STATE AID LAWS TO TOUCH EVERY SCHOOL IN COUNTY

Provisions of New Legislation Are Called To Attention of Trustees By County Superintendent.

Changes in state aid laws during the last legislative session will have a direct bearing on every school in Scurry County, declares Superintendent Frank Farmer.

In order to better acquaint school trustees and other patrons with the changes that will affect the schools, Mr. Farmer presents the following sections from the new state aid law:

Sec. 2.—All schools of from 20 to 400 scholastics located in districts of not more than 500 scholastics and consolidated districts having an average of not more than 200 scholastics per original district are eligible for state aid.

Sec. 3.—No aid shall be granted to any school located within two and one-half miles of another school of the same race, except where road conditions or other physical features make it impracticable for pupils to attend another school.

Sec. 4.—State aid under this act shall be allotted upon the basis of one teacher for any number of scholastics from 20 to 25, and one additional teacher for each additional 30 scholastics or fractional part thereof.

Sec. 5.—No school shall be granted state aid whose average daily attendance is less than 70 per cent of the scholastic census enrollment, except there be an epidemic of sickness thereof.

"We are prone to believe that the supreme need of this hour is a complete consecration of the Christian people unto God and for His glory and the salvation of souls. Great problems confront the people of this age, and they can not be solved without the help of God. In my discussions I am going to give my version of the solution of some of these problems.

Cardinal Doctrines.

"What do men think today about such cardinal doctrines of the Christian religion as these: One God, the Father of all; Christ the Son of God and the Savior of the world; the Holy Spirit as the comforter and revealer of truth and light and the impartor of divine life; Sin, hell and heaven? In my sermons I am going to use texts that I think will be of interest to all people.

"I will endeavor to present my messages in an intelligent and inspiring way, by the aid of God and the Holy Spirit. It is not for personal glory or honor that I am conducting these services, but that I may exalt my Lord and your Lord."

Locals Plan Fourth Roque Tournament

Roque ball knockers of Snyder will be host to sand court players of West Texas for two days beginning Sunday. It will be the fourth annual tournament sponsored by members of the Snyder Roque Club.

Invitations have been mailed to roque players in some 30-odd towns of the area, officials of the club state. Special invitation has been mailed to the state champions, King and Russell, of Fort Worth to attend and take part in the tourney.

Tri-Courts, home grounds of the club in East Snyder, are being re-worked this week in preparation for the play, and some fast games are anticipated.

Visitors are invited to watch the progress of the tournament, beginning a 8:00 o'clock Sunday morning. Teed lemonade will be served by the local players.

FALL GARDENS BEING PLANTED

With a good season in practically all parts of the county, fall gardens are being planted by the hundreds. The county agent urges that every farmer make haste to plant black-eyed peas, turnips and other seasonal garden truck, since early gardens have proven disappointing and little canning has been done so far.

The agent states that he will be glad to confer with farmers concerning gardens, and to give them literature regarding proper culture.

The qualified voters of the district, and subject to the approval of the county superintendent and state superintendent, the entire scholastic enrollment may be transferred to a convenient school of higher rank, and all funds of the district may be used to carry out the said agreement.

TOWNSEND TO BE WET CHIEF

F. I. Townsend, county Democratic chairman, has been named as Scurry County repeal drive chairman. He announced Saturday that he accepted the place.

Letcher D. King, Abilene attorney, will lead the campaign in 12 West Texas counties for 3.2 beer and prohibition repeal. The wet organization is known as the Texas Liberal Legion.

The Abilene man announced that the county chairmen will appoint precinct leaders, "and we will go going."

"There is plenty of work to be done in lining up speakers, getting out literature and arranging rallies. The 24th was the last district in the state to be organized by the Texas Liberal Legion, and the hardest. We all figure the vote will be closest in this district."

4-County Dry Rally Stated At Colorado

A prohibition rally for residents of four counties is to be held at Colorado Sunday night at 8:30 o'clock. It was announced at the pro speaking here Wednesday evening.

B. D. Sartin, who was principal speaker here yesterday, will head the list of speakers.

Residents of Mitchell, Scurry, Nolan and Fisher Counties have been invited to attend the gathering. Ministers of churches in the four counties will be asked to dismiss their Sunday night services and send large delegations to the rally.

"Dad," said little Cuthbert the other day, "does the devil have any children?"

"Yes, my son," the father responded; "where else would those bank looters come from?"
