

FORTY-SEVENTH YEAR

LOCAL BOOTHS DISPLAY GOODS MADE IN TEXAS

Free Entertainment Numbers Will Feature Three-Day Exhibit Arranged by Women.

With all booths occupied by displays of Texas manufacturers and local merchants, the "Know Texas Week" program is ready for opening this afternoon under sponsorship of the Twentieth Century Club.

Booths at the Snyder Garage, a half block west of the square on 25th Street, are open from 1:00 to 9:00 p. m. Thursday and Friday; from 10:00 a. m. to 10:00 p. m. Saturday.

A style show tonight (Thursday), beginning at 8:00 o'clock, will be under direction of Mmes. R. C. L. Robertson and Marcel Josephson. Bathing suits and dresses from 1870 to the present day will be presented under Alpha Study Club sponsorship.

Public Is Invited. Members of the Altruistic Club point out that the display of booths and the entire program of entertainment are free to the public.

"We want everyone in this trade territory to come in and see what a variety of products are grown and manufactured in Texas," the women declare.

Carrying out their slogan of "Something to see and something to hear all the time," an entertainment program featuring the Tiger Band and other musicians will be presented Friday evening. An old fiddlers' contest will be held this night, rather than Thursday, as announced last week.

Numbers will be presented Saturday evening by the Choral Club of Snyder High School, under direction of Mrs. Novis Rodgers, and by pupils of Mrs. Hilton Lamber.

Luncheon Today Noon. The three days of Texas products displays and entertainment will be preceded today at noon by a Texas products luncheon at the Manhattan Hotel, with the Twentieth Century Club in charge. A number of tickets have been sold to club women and business men.

Mrs. P. C. Chenault, president of the club, and the various workers who have concentrated their time recently on making the show successful, point out again that the entire display, entertainment features and luncheon are designed for anyone who believes in the slogan of "What Texas makes, makes Texas."

O'Brien Will Speak To Seventh Graders

When seventh graders of the county gather in Snyder Thursday, May 16, at 8:00 o'clock, they will be addressed by Rev. P. D. O'Brien, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Colorado.

Superintendent Frank Farmer says no special dress will be used for the closing program. About 120 graduates of several county schools are expected to participate.

Hundred Men Work On No. 7 Rerouting

One hundred men are being employed just now on the Highway No. 7 rerouting job between Snyder and Hermling, says M. E. Savage, resident engineer.

Work is going along nicely despite some mechanical trouble, according to V. H. Montgomery, superintendent of the job. Final right-of-way, about a mile long, will be begun early next week, he said.

MORE TICKETS TO THE PALACE

Sixteen free tickets to the Palace Theatre have been issued by The Times since Wednesday of last week.

They went to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Lambert, Felix Jarratt, Mrs. J. S. Farr (2), Marion Addison (2), Hande-Dande (2), W. J. Strickland, Mrs. Edna B. Tinker, R. W. Webb, J. E. Sorrells (2).

Each cash insertion of a classified ad, and each new or renewal subscription to The Times, means a free ticket to the Palace. Next week's tickets good for "McPadden's Plat," Tuesday and Wednesday.

Four names of Scurry County people will be found in display ads in this issue. Each person who is named may secure a free ticket to see "West Point of the Air," next Thursday and Friday, May 16-17. If you find your name, get the free ticket from the merchant in whose ad your name appears.

Douglas Gives His Life to Aid Friend

Muriel Woodard Saves Lives of Plainview Teacher and Carol Bush, Seven-Year-Old.

Twelve-year-old Douglas Payne laid down his life for a little friend Wednesday afternoon.

When the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. (Bud) Payne of the Plainview community saw that seven-year-old Carol Bush had stepped into eight-foot water while several youngsters were wading near Green Springs, he went in to save the younger boy. Carol was saved, after a desperate struggle, but Douglas' body had to be dragged from the bottom of the pool.

The tragedy occurred during a picnic of Plainview school students under direction of their teacher, Mrs. Clarice Bush, step-mother of Carol. When Carol suddenly went into deep water, Mrs. Bush went after him despite the fact that she could not swim. Students who witnessed the tragic drama say the teacher would probably have gone to the bottom, too, had it not been for 15-year-old Muriel Woodard, who was able to swim well enough to save Carol and Mrs. Bush.

But Douglas sank the last time before schoolmates or teacher could help. Will Sturdivant, who was working 300 yards from the water, rushed to the scene, and found the boy's body with the aid of a pole. With the assistance of Tom Sturdivant, his son, who arrived just after the body was found, useless efforts were made to revive the lad.

PRINCIPAL FOR S. H. S. NAMED

Superintendent Paul Lawlis of the Brownfield schools was named last week by the local board to succeed R. L. Williams as principal of Snyder High School. His work is scheduled to begin after this school year closes late this month.

The new principal is a son of the late Rev. J. F. Lawlis, who was pastor of the Methodist church here several years ago.

Mr. Williams resigned recently, effective with the close of this school year, to become superintendent of schools at Lockhart, South Texas. He is closing his fourth year as local principal.

Superintendent C. Wedgworth of the Snyder school system was re-elected several weeks ago. He is rounding out his eighth year of service in that capacity.

President H. L. Davis of the school board states that next year's faculty for grade and high school has been practically completed.

Four Graduates To Get Diplomas From Dunn H. S.

Four graduates will receive diplomas from the Dunn High School Friday night, May 17, at 8:00 o'clock at closing exercises of the year, announces Guy Stark Jr., superintendent. They are Leona Ellerd, Elsie Holmes, Julia Casey and Wallace Hanson. These exercises will be held in the high school auditorium.

Grade school graduation exercises with 12 students to be promoted, will come Friday morning, the 17th, at 10:00 o'clock.

Baccalaureate sermon will be preached Sunday night, 8:00 o'clock, in the Methodist church, with Rev. Wallace Jones, pastor of the First Christian Church, Colorado, as speaker. Rev. Jones delivered the sermon last year.

The junior-senior banquet will be held Friday evening of this week in the basement of the Methodist church. Gilbert Mize is junior sponsor; Cleo Tarter, senior sponsor.

"George in a Jam," senior play, with the sponsor directing, played Friday night to a well-filled house, despite the threatening weather.

Julia Casey, Leona Ellerd, Elsie Holmes, Laura Murphy, Mae Nail, John Sherrard, Algie Martin and Clyde Melton were the players.

A weary search until daylight, part of the time with officers, finally brought results. A wheel and tire were gone, a glass was broken, and signs of a drinking party bedecked the interior. Otherwise, says Ben, everything was o. k. But the pair of occupants was gone—and is gone. The car was on the Ira road.

Niedeckens Hatch Four-Legged Chick

A blooded brown Leghorn chick with four legs almost perfectly developed scratched out of a shell at the Niedeckens & Son hatchery last week.

The youngster is still living, and hops about with the greatest ease on its two front legs, which are its very best. The rear legs are suspended from the body in ordinary manner, but one of them drags and the other is little more than a prop.

Ira School Will Award Diplomas To Nine Seniors

These nine seniors will receive diplomas after Rev. P. D. O'Brien, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Colorado, delivers the commencement address at Ira High School Friday evening of this week: Garth Berryhill, valedictorian; Ila Mae Huddleston, salutatorian; Ophelia Davenport, Elbie Miller, Manie Lee Clark, Vile Brown, Claude Sorrells, Volle Sorrells and Russell Nixon.

Dr. B. W. Dodson, teacher in McMurry College, Abilene, delivered the baccalaureate sermon at the school Sunday evening.

Thursday night of this week is class night for the graduates. The junior-senior banquet was staged in the Wilsford Tea Room, Snyder, Wednesday night.

Elmer Taylor, superintendent, who was recently re-elected to serve his seventh consecutive year, states that he is closing probably the most successful year in the school's history. The new roomy gymnasium, on which construction was begun recently, will be ready for the opening of school in the fall, he said.

Other teachers who have recently been re-elected at Ira are: Mrs. Taylor, seventh year; Miss Margaret Dell Prim, sixth year; Miss Ethel Verle Falls, third year; Earl Horton, third year; W. F. Talley, third year; Lloyd Devin, third year, boys' basket ball coach; Mrs. Ben Thorpe, second year; Ben Thorpe, former Scurry County resident, comes from Busby to become teacher and girls' basket ball coach.

Softball Game Will Be Played Soon For Blind Work Benefit

The Lions Club decided at its Tuesday luncheon that a softball game will be played during May for the benefit of its blind work fund. Teachers and other players from various parts of the county will compose the opposing team.

Lions and several guests heard John D. Jones, state director of the shelterbelt program, in an illuminating discussion of the federal soil and water conservation program. Chief points of this talk will be found elsewhere in this issue. He was introduced by W. R. Lacey, county agent.

An announcement concerning the three-day Texas Products Week program was given by Mrs. Nelson Dunn, member of the Twentieth Century Club, who was accompanied by Mrs. B. M. West. The club pledged its support of the displays, and members purchased several tickets for the luncheon to be staged today at noon.

A report from the Robinson children, who are undergoing eye operations in Marshalltown, Iowa, indicated slow but sure progress.

Guests included Dr. R. L. Howell, Henry Wilhelm, Harrie Winston and J. A. Woodfin.

Robinson Discovers Stolen Ford Twice

Ben Robinson, missing his car as he came out of the Palace Theatre Monday night, boarded his brother's car, and Ben and Joseph lit out on a searching expedition.

After finding the Ford in a lane southeast of town, and trailing it to an apparent stopping place, Ben and Joseph came to town for officers. But the car and its two occupants had changed locations.

JOHNSTON AND THRANE NAMED AS DELEGATES

County Farmers Send "Pat" and "Pete" to Join Nation-Wide Washington Brigade.

A. Johnston, president of Scurry County Farm Association, and O. P. Thrane, chairman of the county cotton committee, will represent county farmers in a nation-wide fight against selfish industrial interests in Washington, D. C., next week.

Selection of these two delegates was made at a gathering of officers from the county's 16 community farm organizations, held in the courthouse Saturday afternoon.

These two Scurry County delegates, popularly known as "Pat" and "Pete," along with Clemens von Roeder, delegate from Borden, will leave late Saturday or early Sunday. The Fort Worth train they will ride is to be connected at Longview with trains from South and North Texas some time Sunday.

The Texas delegates, along with an estimated 1,500 from other agricultural states, are scheduled to appear before Secretary of Agriculture Wallace and AAA officials. The delegation is expected to express to the officials the appreciation of the South for accomplishments under the AAA program, and urge its continuation on a larger scale.

Traveling expenses of the local pair is being financed by contributions from members of the association and by local merchants and others interested in continuing the cotton code.

It was pointed out at the Saturday meeting that aggressive opposition to the "New Deal" for the farmer is developing in Washington. The nation-wide movement of farmers to the capital will seek to convince officials that selfish industrial interests should not be allowed to break down the federal control measures.

Rites for Fluvanna Man Held Thursday

Fluvanna Baptist Church was the scene Thursday afternoon of last week of funeral rites for Houston K. Jones, 33, who died in the local hospital Wednesday. Rev. T. L. Nipp of Abilene officiated. Odom Funeral Home was in charge of burial in the Fluvanna cemetery.

Survivors are the widow; one son, Ross Lee; parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Jones; one brother and one sister, all of Fluvanna.

Elmer King, Claud Davis, Cullen Perry, John Henry Trussell, Lee and Arch Lavender were pallbearers. Mmes. Elmer King, Claud Davis, Doff Faver and Miss Jewell Lavender were in charge of flowers.

MOTHER TO BE REMEMBERED

Mother's Day will be observed in Snyder with special morning services in all the churches, pastors have announced.

Sermons on mother will be preached at the morning hour, and special music honoring mother has been arranged for Sunday school and preaching services.

Pre-Sunday programs of remembrance are also being widely presented in school and study club programs this week.

FAITH HOPE CHARITY

This Charm Was Started in the Hope of Bringing Prosperity to You (Why Not?)

Within three days (why do you wait?) make five copies of this letter, leaving off the top name and address, and adding your name and address to the bottom of the list. Mail or give these copies to five of your friends to whom you wish prosperity to come. Be careful that you pick friends who understand that in order to benefit, the charm must remain unbroken through six operative stages, whereby your name progresses from sixth to first (it's a long, long trail, brother).

In omitting the top name from the list, as stated above, send this person 10 cents (even if you have to rob a bank) wrapped in paper, in an envelope, enclosing nothing else (who wants on the sucker list?), as a charity donation.

In turn, as your name reaches the top, on the sixth operation (who wants six operations?), you should, by multiplication of dimes (figure it out for yourself), eventually receive donations of dimes amounting to $1,562.50 (but when?).

Shelterbelt Plans Outlined By Texas Director Here Tuesday

SHELTERBELT TREES GROW IN OTHER STATES

AFFILIATION IS GIVEN SCHOOLS AT PYRON, IRA

Deputy State Superintendent Also Grants Three More Credits For Fluvanna.

Eleven and one-half affiliated credits for Ira and 10 for Pyron were granted yesterday after Miss Sue B. Mann, Atlatlan, deputy state superintendent, had visited the Scurry County schools and checked their work. The two Class B schools have not heretofore been affiliated.

At the same time, Miss Mann announced that Fluvanna High School had been granted three additional credits—world history, general agriculture and public speaking—to bring its total to 19½.

Pyron school, of which T. B. Bownds is superintendent for the first year, had previously been granted two credits in home economics, bringing its total to 12 units.

Ira's affiliation comes at the close of Elmer Taylor's sixth year of superintendency.

Miss Mann was here Tuesday and Wednesday to visit the three schools seeking affiliation. None of the other county schools sought additional credits this year. The deputy state superintendent left late Wednesday for Colorado.

What a Centipede!

J. Q. Woodard early this week found a centipede in a container of water on his place near Snyder. And what a centipede! The dangerous looking varmint, on display at the Times office, measured at least eight inches, and had 22 legs on each side of his body. Old-timers say they seldom grow that large in this section of the country.

C. Spradley Moves With H. H. Eiland

C. Spradley, who has been operating his top, paint and body shop at Stimson's Camp Ground for several months, moved last week to the Scurry County Motor Company, H. H. Eiland's location.

"Sprad" says he will continue to give folks in this trade territory the most and best for their money in the way of car "fixing"—as he has been doing in Snyder for several years.

Final PTA Meeting Scheduled May 16

Final Parent-Teacher Association meeting of the year has been scheduled for Thursday afternoon of next week.

The program follows: "How Will Your Child Spend His Summer?" Mrs. Joe Cator; special music; installation of new officers; report of district P.-T. A. convention.

PRIZE WINNER

This is Suste Maye Reep, 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reed of Camp Springs. She won first place and $5 in cash when the article she wrote about Woodrow Wilson took first place in a Holland's Magazine contest. Her article, "A Modern Hero," appeared in the May issue.

IRWIN'S STORE OPEN TUESDAY

Snyder's newest business house, Erwin's Drug Store, opened its doors Tuesday of this week. John Irwin, proprietor, states that he is highly pleased with the reception given him during the first two days of serving the public, and he invites those who have not seen the new store to "drop in" this week-end.

Fountain service is in charge of Elmo Crowder, formerly of Snyder, who has been associated with Sweetwater drug stores for several years. He has seen considerable experience both at the fountain and in drug store merchandising.

The new store offers a full supply of drugs, toilet articles, rubber goods, fountain drinks, confections and other every-day needs. Shining mahogany-finish shelves, glistening new floor covering, and a brand new stock of merchandise are features suggested by the proprietor.

C. Spradley Moves With H. H. Eiland

$36,000 PAID DEPOSITORS IN DEFUNCT BANK

Banking Department Sends Checks Covering 18 Per Cent of First State Deposits.

Chain letters have interested many folks of this trade area in recent days, but the letters that most interested former depositors in the First State Bank & Trust Company began: "I enclose check."

About $36,000 in dividends are being paid beginning late last week. This amount represents 18 per cent on claims filed against the local banking house that closed its doors in 1931. The checks were mailed from the Department of Banking, Austin, of which E. C. Brand is commissioner.

The 18 per cent payment represents first dividends received by depositors in the bank.

The letter accompanying each check reads as follows: "To the Creditor Addressed: 'Re: Dividend, File No. 329. 'I enclose check in your favor representing a dividend of 18 per cent on your general creditor's claim filed against First State Bank & Trust Company, Snyder, Texas, in liquidation.

"It will be appreciated if you will cash this voucher immediately upon receipt thereof.

Yours very truly, "E. C. Brand, Commissioner."

Tech Teacher to Speak for Pyron Class This Week

C. D. Eaves of the history department, Texas Tech, Lubbock, will be principal speaker when commencement exercises are held at the Pyron school Friday evening of this week. The program will begin at 8:30 o'clock. Songs by a girls' sextet will be featured, in addition to customary graduation numbers.

Rev. G. W. Parks of Roscoe will preach the baccalaureate sermon Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Superintendent T. B. Bownds says the school year is closing with a highly successful record. Interest of patrons in programs of the school have been especially pleasing, he said.

Mildred Vernon has been named as class valedictorian and Merle Glass as salutatorian.

Other graduates in the class of seven members are as follows: Cora Beth Mahoney, Gladys Ruth Mahoney, Barbara Barnes, Lillie Mae Kinney and James Bownds.

Camp Springs Will End School May 15

Camp Springs school will present a special closing program at the Methodist Church Wednesday evening, May 15, at 8:00 o'clock. The school year officially ends next week.

The program will feature upper and lower grades under direction of Principal Erton Tate and Mrs. T. M. O. Cook. Patrons of the community are urged to attend in full force.

Service Club and Farmers Receive First Hand Facts

Details of the federal tree shelterbelt program were explained to more than 100 Scurry County citizens Tuesday by John D. Jones of Wichita Falls, state director of the gigantic program of water and soil conservation.

The veteran official of the U. S. Forest Service spoke to 40 members of the Lions Club and several guests at noon. At 2:30 o'clock he addressed a group of more than 50 farm leaders and a few business men, gathered in the district court room on the invitation of W. R. Lacey, county agent.

"We are not flaunting the handiwork of a Heavenly Father in our tree planting program," Mr. Jones said. "We are merely utilizing the brainpower He gave us to further the growing of more and better trees, just as we have improved the varieties of fruits and vegetables."

Program Certain Here. Scurry County was notified more than two weeks ago by Edgar H. Kemp, assistant to Mr. Jones, that she would be included in the south-western portion of the nation-slicing shelterbelt of trees about 100 miles wide. The state director said Tuesday that there was no danger of this county being excluded from the program.

Definite plans are on foot to begin heading of Class A farm lands, on which the belts will be planted, within a few weeks. The land will be leased for five years with option of purchase. Mr. Jones said. Prevalling productive value of the land, based largely on Federal Land Bank estimates, will be used.

Actual planting of trees will probably begin in this county during the next planting season. Progress of this planting will depend largely upon success of nurseries, now being located by Mr. Jones to produce sufficient seedlings to care for first-year needs.

Many Benefits Cited. Among benefits that will come from shelterbelt planting, the visitor pointed out, are: increased production of land within the protected area, 20 times the height of the trees; conservation of water and combating of erosion; adding to the beauty and sale value of farms;

Monday, May 20, Set as Bankhead Date for County

Monday, May 20, has been set as the Bankhead sign-up date for Scurry County. The county agent's office issued a statement yesterday to the effect that every cotton producer would be expected to sign up on that date, since only one day is being set aside for each community owing to slicing of sign-up funds.

All tenants are urged to bring their landlords with them to the various community centers in order that the sign-up may be entirely completed May 20.

Sign-ups will be conducted by communities and chairmen, as follows: Camp Springs, M. W. Bayousett; Fluvanna, Charlie Bley; East Snyder, Giles Bowers; Plainview, Ben Brooks; Ira, J. E. Falls; Union, Willie Gibson; Blyson, Joe Griffin; China Grove, Joe Hairston;

West Snyder, W. B. Lemons; Hermleigh, W. O. Moore; Canyon, R. G. Nabors; Dunn, W. E. Wade; Lloyd Mountain-Ennis, Frank Wilson; German, H. A. Wimmer; Pleasant Hill, R. B. Woody.

Cotton producers who secured ginning certificates last year totaled 1,454. Approximately that number is anticipated this year.

T.-P. Station No. 1 In Charge of Brock

The T.-P. service station No. 1, just a block east of the square on the south side of the highway, has been managed for several days by D. Brock, formerly of the Hermleigh community. The young man succeeds Frankie and Arval Hall, who moved last week to Odessa, where they are associated with Charley Kelly, until recently a joint owner of Piggly Wiggly, in operation of a large Humble service station.

Under the new operator, who has been employed in service stations for several years, motorists will be offered T.-P. gas, oil and greases, washing, greasing, G. & J. tires and tubes, and other every-day services.

D. Brock is a son of H. E. Brock, county commissioner from Precinct 4.

Concert Version of "Carmen" Featured at School This Week

Musical Coterie Leads Town in the Observance of National Music Week

The concert version of the opera, "Carmen," given by the Musical Coterie in the high school auditorium Tuesday morning, was the feature of the National Music Week observance in Snyder. The program was heard by more than 1,000 students and by a number of townspeople.

The entire town was led by the local music club in its observance of National Music Week. Other clubs of the city and the entire school system have joined in an effort to make local people "music conscious." "A concerted effort toward the preservation of music and other arts as a vital community force is the main objective of National Music Week," say national leaders in the work.

Mrs. Spears Reads. "Carmen" was written by the French composer, George Bizet, and it is his finest work. Although the opera was produced in the middle of the nineteenth century, it remains one of the best known and best loved of all operas.

The story of the love affairs of Carmen, a gay, beautiful and bold Gypsy girl, was effectively read Tuesday morning by Mrs. E. E. Spears, a member of the Musical Coterie, who paused at intervals for vocal and piano selections given by other members of the club to illustrate the story. Carmen was represented by Mrs. J. E. Senteil; Don Jose, a brigadier, Mrs. J. R. Sheehan; Micaela, Don Jose's fiancée, Mrs. W. W. Smith; and Escamillo, a brave and boastful torador, Mrs. Hugh Boren.

Miss Hattie Herm directed the chorus, composed of Mrs. J. E. Hardy, Homer Snyder, R. S. Sullivan, Willard Jones, W. W. Hamilton, Melvin Blackard, Novis Rodgers and members of the cast. The prelude was played by Mrs. Melvin Blackard and Novis Rodgers, Mrs. A. C. Preuit played accompaniments, and Mrs. W. W. Hamilton gave "March of the Toradors" as a piano solo.

Other Programs Heard. High school assembly programs this week have been strictly in keeping with the observance of National Music Week, as have those given by the primary grades and junior high school here. Mrs. J. P. Nelson

El Feliz Club in Friday Meeting.

Members of El Feliz Club were entertained in the home of Mrs. Lee T. Stinson Friday afternoon. Mrs. Lee T. Stinson, club president, conducted the business meeting, and forty-two games were played. A dainty salad course was passed to those present.

Guests for the party were Mrs. H. P. Brown, W. W. Hamilton, R. W. Cunningham, J. C. Stinson, Joe Monroe, Hugh Taylor, R. L. Gray, R. D. English, Henry Rosenberg and Walter Cork of San Angelo. Members present were Mrs. Earl H. Louder, A. E. Wiese, Noa B. Sisk, W. J. Ely, Fred A. Grayum, H. L. Vann, W. W. McCarty, H. J. Brice, Joe Strayhorn, A. J. Cody and R. H. Odom.

and Miss Mattie Ross Cunningham have been in charge of high school assembly this week.

On the Monday program for the high school, Virginia Toder gave an interesting history of National Music Week, and Frances Northcutt talked on "Music as a Hobby." The Tiger Band, under direction of Fred P. Rattan, furnished the remainder of the Monday program.

Tuesday was the day for the Musical Coterie's presentation of "Carmen," and Wednesday's program was also presented by townspeople. Mrs. R. L. Gray, violinist; Munger Y. Lewis, tenor; and Mrs. Novis Rodgers, A. C. Preuit and E. E. Spears, pianists, were present.

Choral, Glee Clubs Appear. The Choral Club and the Glee Club of the high school were presented this (Thursday) morning by their director, Mrs. Novis Rodgers, in a varied program.

A special Mother's Day observance will be given Friday morning. The E2-M Sisterhood, high school girls' club sponsored by Miss Effie McLeod, will be in charge.

Special invitations are being issued to mothers of high school students, but, according to the sponsoring group, all patrons of the school will be given a cordial welcome.

Recitals Are Enjoyed.

Leading up to National Music Week and during the observance, local music teachers have presented piano pupils in studio recitals, the first of which was the presentation of La Frances Hamilton by Mrs. E. E. Spears at the home of Mrs. A. C. Preuit last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Novis Rodgers invited nearly 50 music lovers to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Blackard to hear Patty Joyce Hicks, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Hicks, in piano recital. She was assisted with the program by Jeanne Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Taylor, who gave the story of Peter Pan and Wendy as Patty Joyce illustrated the moods by music.

Mrs. Spears presented Cyrella Fish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Fish, and Billie Lue Thompson, nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Whit Thompson, in the E2-M Sisterhood piano recital. Each of the two gave 10 contest numbers from memory.

Announcements Made. Announcement has been made for the piano recital of pupils of Mrs. Novis Rodgers in the high school auditorium Thursday evening at 8:00 o'clock. Mrs. Hilton Lambert with her classical dancing students will be presented at 8:00 o'clock Friday evening.

Horence Leath, Dorothy Pinkerton, Nell Verna LeMond, Louise LeMond, Billie Lue Thompson and Cyrella Fish, piano pupils of Mrs. E. E. Spears, have been entered in the National Piano Tournament at Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, this week. The girls will compete today (Thursday) with hun-

Business Women's Project Inspected.

Members of the Business Women's Club met at 6:30 Tuesday evening at the city park for a picnic and to inspect their club project, which is being completed this week.

A sanitary drinking fountain in the form of an old-fashioned well is being built near the northwest corner of the park. The fountain is being constructed from attractive red rock and drinking fountains will emerge from an old oak bucket at the top of the well. The roof will be reinforced with iron and will be supported by rock posts. The club name will be placed on one of the posts in marble letters.

The picnic menu consisted of sandwiches, potato salad, deviled eggs, potato chips, pickles, iced tea and cookies. Mrs. William A. DeBoid, E. M. Deakins and Vera Miles were hostesses for the evening.

Mrs. Marcel Josephson, a former member of the club, and LaNelle White and L. D. Wade Jr. were guests at the picnic, and the following club members were present: Mrs. J. W. White, R. E. Gray, Ethel Eiland, J. O. Dodson, Munger Y. Lewis, Nathan Rosenberg, Woodie Scarborough, Hattie Wade and J. R. Bailey and Misses Grace Holcomb, Mable Turner, Lera Mae Scott, Jan Thompson and Allene Curry.

Alathan S. S. Class Meets at J. Spears.

The Alathan Sunday School Class met at the home of Mrs. John Spears last Thursday afternoon, with Mrs. Arthur Forkner and J. E. Chapman as assistant hostesses.

After the regular business meeting during which Mrs. J. S. Bradbury, president, presided, an ice course with angel's food cake was passed to the following: Mrs. H. L. Wren, Norman Autry, A. C. Martin, C. T. Glen, Lora Miller, W. G. Williams, Otto S. Williamson, Abe Rogers, T. J. McDonald, R. D. English and R. W. West, guests; and Mrs. J. M. Selsler, J. S. Bradbury, W. W. Morton, C. E. Ross, Pierce, Will Murphy and W. W. Giers, members.

Yearbooks Planned At Guild Meeting.

Plans for yearbooks for the coming year featured a business meeting of the Art Guild held Tuesday evening at the Manhattan Hotel. Mrs. Sue M. Lee was hostess.

Following the business session, refreshments were served to fifteen members by the hostess. They were: Effie McLeod, Saxton Lee, Mary Ruth Spears, Mary Doak, Bonnie Gary, Ellen Joyce, Omaha Ryan, Marjorie Robertson, Raylene Smith, Edith Grantman, Velma Sharp, Grace Avery, Rowena Jones, Violet Bradbury and Overa Jones.

dreds of other amateur musicians. Each entrant will play 10 contest numbers from memory in addition to the scales, etc., that are required.

Music for Texas Exhibit. In observance of National Music Week, members of the Twentieth Century Club have arranged special musical programs for several evenings during their "Know Texas Week" exhibit in the Snyder Garage building Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

All Snyder is enthusiastic over Music Week.

"Roberta," one of the best musical motion pictures of the year, is being shown at the Palace Theatre Thursday and Friday nights of this week. Irene Dunn, Ginger Rogers and Fred Astaire are starred in this feature picture.

Mrs. Lollar Is Sine Cura Hostess.

Mrs. T. L. Lollar was hostess to the Sine Cura Club at her home Tuesday afternoon. She used lovely pink roses to decorate for the party. High score prize went to Mrs. O. P. Thrane, and Mrs. R. H. Curran took the second high prize.

A salad course was passed to Mrs. E. M. Deakins and Mrs. Robert Masters of Lincoln, Nebraska, two guests, and to the following club members: Mrs. R. H. Curran, W. R. Johnson, H. G. Towle, Hugh Boren, W. B. Lee, Forest Sears, A. D. Erwin, O. P. Thrane, J. C. Stinson and Pearl Shannon.

Mrs. O. P. Thrane will be next hostess to the club, Tuesday afternoon, May 21.

Miss Green Hostess To Club Thursday.

Miss Vesta Green was charming hostess to the Duce Bridge Club at her home on Avenue T, last Thursday evening. Cut flowers, attractively arranged, were used to decorate entertaining rooms.

Miss Jan Thompson played high in bridge games and received the high score prize. A lovely salad with wafers, olives, banana pudding and iced tea served on orchid table covers was enjoyed by each of the following: Misses Floye Brownfield and Hazel Bannister, guests, and Misses Lera Mae Scott, Jan Thompson, Mavis Webb, Mary Jane Beall, Bonnie Miller, Margaret Deakins, Mildred Stokes, Janice Erwin, Johnnie Mathison, Frances Chenault, Frances Boren, Gwen Gray and Allene Curry, and Mrs. Billie Lee Jr., Duce Club member.

"Man and Kingdom" Discussed Monday.

"Man and the Kingdom" was the subject for discussion at the meeting of the Ruth Anderson Auxiliary of the First Methodist Church at its regular Monday afternoon meeting. Mrs. R. H. Odom, president of the organization, directed the study.

Mmes. B. L. Kent and R. J. Randalls presented topics on the afternoon's program.

Thirteen members of the auxiliary were present for the meeting: Mmes. J. O. Littlepage, J. G. Hicks, Harry S. Lee, Lex Wilmeth, R. J. Randalls, A. E. Wiese, B. L. Kent, T. J. DeShazo, Fred Joyner, R. H. Odom, Ed Thompson and Homer Snyder, and Miss Ruby Curry and Miss Elda Jean Littlepage, a guest.

Women Who Have Pains Try CARDUI Next Time!

On account of poor nourishment, many women suffer functional pains in certain times, and it is for these that Cardui is offered on the record of the relief it has brought and the good it has done in helping to overcome the cause of womanly discomfort. Mrs. Cole Young, of Greenville, La., writes: "I was suffering with irregular and painful periods, which made me nervous. I took Cardui and it helped me in every way, making me regular and stopping the pain. This quieted my nerves, making my health much better." If Cardui does not benefit you, consult a physician.

Club President Is Hostess to Group.

Miss Ruth Yoder, president of the newly organized Cresset Junior Club, was hostess to the group Tuesday evening at 8:00 o'clock.

Special guests for the evening were Mrs. Joe Caton and J. D. Scott and Miss Mattie Ross Cunningham. Miss Cunningham and Mrs. Scott, along with Mrs. E. E. Spears, compose the extension committee of the Cresset Club's mother club, the Altrurian Daughters, and Mrs. Caton, as sponsor of the Altrurian Daughters, is "grandmother" to Cresset members.

Miss Adelle Baugh was director for the evening's program, and her cleverly prepared English drill brought laughs, sighs and groans of dismay to those answering questions. Almarene Heard gave a lovely Mothers Day poem.

Refreshments were passed to the three special club guests, to the club sponsor, Mrs. Max Brownfield, and Misses Lera Mae Scott, Jan Thompson, Adelle Baugh, Almarene Heard, Frances Chenault, Frances Boren and Allene Curry, club members.

J. Monroes Have Friendly Fellows.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Monroe were hosts to the Friendly Fellows Forty-Two Club at their home last Thursday evening. Following games of forty-two, a delectable salad course with iced punch was passed.

Guests for the evening were: Messrs. and Mmes. C. F. Senteil, Wade Winston, H. G. Towle, A. J. Cody, H. J. Brice and W. J. Ely. Mmes. Gerlie Smith, Pearl Shannon, Otto S. Williamson and Woodie Scarborough, and W. B. Stanfield and Dwight Monroe.

Members present for the enjoyable club meeting were Messrs. and Mmes. A. W. Arnold, W. R. Bell, J. S. Bradbury, R. D. English, C. E. Fish, A. W. Morton, R. H. Odom, Hugh Taylor and Fred W. Wolcott.

At Missionary Conference. Mmes. H. C. Gordon, J. C. Gay, R. H. Odom and A. M. Curry attended the district missionary conference for Methodist women in Stanton Wednesday. A covered dish luncheon was served at noon to several hundred women.

Cunningham Girls Breakfast Hostesses.

Misses Mattie Ross and Maurine Cunningham, assisted by their mother, Mrs. R. W. Cunningham, were hostesses to the Altrurian Daughters Club with its annual May breakfast, Saturday morning, 7:00 o'clock.

Pretty Maypoles placed in the grass on the tables made attractive table centerpieces, and they also made the occasion more significant of the springtime. Roses placed about the room added beauty to the setting. Streamers in pastel shades led from the Maypole on each table to each cover, where the streamers were held by dainty china dolls, dressed in pastel paper frocks, which were taken by the guests as party favors.

Place cards for the affair were two-line jingles written by the hostesses to rhyme with the last name of each member.

A three-course breakfast was served, the last course of "angel's delight" carrying out the club colors of white and gold.

Mrs. Woodie Scarborough was guest for the morning party, and the following members were present: Mmes. W. H. Bannister, Max Brownfield, Mia Joyce, Joe Caton, P. W. Cloud, Herman Darby, H. E. Doak, Andy Jones, Novis Rodgers, J. D. Scott, J. P. Strayhorn, Forest Wade and E. O. Wedgeworth, and Misses Kenneth Alexander, Grace Avery, Gwendolyn Gray and Dorothy Strayhorn.

Bonita McGahey Is H-SU Beauty.

Miss Bonita McGahey, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Cal McGahey of Harlingen, was selected as the most beautiful girl in Hardin-Simmons University by Colonel Roscoe Turner in the annual Brand beauty contest Saturday evening. Miss McGahey graduated from Snyder High School last year and is a freshman in the Abilene school.

Twenty girls appeared in a revue under the direction of Dan Tarpoley, editor of the Brand, college yearbook. Colonel Turner gave a lecture in the university auditorium following the revue, telling of his flight from London to Melbourne, Australia, last year. Motion pictures made during the flight were shown.

Miss McGahey appeared for the revue in a striking black net evening dress, fashioned with large puff sleeves and a stand-up collar.

How's Your Stomach?

Mr. J. L. Morris of 521 Rose St., Waco, Texas, said: "I couldn't do a tap of work for nearly two years. I had no strength and my stomach seemed to be completely upset, but after I had used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery I was able to resume my work. I have not had any stomach trouble since—that was some years ago." All druggists. Write Dr. Pierce's Clinic, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dance Recital to Be Given Friday.

Dancing students of Elaine Rosser Lambert will be presented in annual dance recital Friday evening at 8:00 o'clock in the local school auditorium. No admission will be charged.

From an unusual and new stage setting the students will appear in all types of classical dancing, ranging from toe dances to acrobatics. Several short plays and songs will furnish variation for the program. Each dancing group will appear in costumes equal to those of revues in large cities.

According to Mrs. Lambert, the recital offers a variety of numbers to furnish attendants a full evening of thorough enjoyment. The public is invited to attend.

Don't Prolong The Agony!

Alka-Seltzer

The New Pain-Relieving, Alkalizing, Effervescent Tablet

Watch it bubble up, then drink it. You will be amazed at the almost instant relief. It is called Alka-Seltzer because it makes a sparkling alkaline drink, and as it contains an analgesic (Acetyl-Salicylate) it first relieves the pain of everyday ailments and then by restoring the alkaline balance corrects the cause when due to excess acid.

After trying many brands of medicines—so-called relief for gas, and all of them a failure, I gave up hope. By chance I tried Alka-Seltzer—I am more than satisfied. Geo. Bennett, New York, N. Y.

Camp Springs Girl Wins First in Holland's Story Contest for May

A cash prize of $5 was the reward won last week by 12-year-old Susie May Reep of the Camp Springs school, who wrote a story that won first place in a contest sponsored by Holland's Magazine.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reep, who reside in the Scurry County town, recently won first place in a poetry contest in the school, according to Erton Tate, principal.

"A Modern Hero" is the subject of the story. The contest was open to children 10 to 16 years of age. First prize was $5, and prizes of $1 each went to five other children: Two from Texas, one from Oklahoma, one from South Carolina and one from Mississippi.

The winning story is published in the May issue of Holland's, at the top of "The Little Americans" page. It reads:

Story: "A Modern Hero."
A small boy hung over the fence before his father's home, in Augusta, Georgia, and heard two men talking very earnestly, paying no attention to the listening boy.

One of the men said, "Now that Lincoln is elected there will be war."
The boy was too young to understand just what "war" meant, but he could tell by the tone of the men's voices that it was something very serious.

He slipped down from the fence, hurried into the house, and went at once to his father's study. "Father, what does 'war' mean?"

The boy's father was always ready to talk with his son, so he put down his pen. "Why do you ask, Tommy?" he questioned.

"Then the boy told of the conversation he had heard.

His father nodded gravely. "Well," he explained, "Mr. Lincoln, who is to be the next president of the United States, wants the people of the South to free their slaves. The people do not want to do this. It will mean bitter feelings, and perhaps fighting, between the Northern and Southern states. There will be armies; soldiers will come, and that will mean what is called a 'civil war.' Now run along, Tommy. I must work."

That was the way Woodrow Wilson first heard of war—Woodrow Wilson, who was to be the great young president of the United States when our country entered the conflict that shook the entire civilized world.

The great war between the States, about which the boy heard that day, did come; but it did not affect young Tommy Wilson's life, for the town in which he lived was not harried. General Sherman in his famous march to the sea threatened to go into Augusta, but changed his plans.

Thomas Woodrow Wilson was born in Staunton, Virginia, on December 28, 1856. His father was a Presbyterian minister. When Thomas was a very small boy his father accepted a pastorate in Augusta, where the boy grew up and where he started his education.

During his early days, he was known as Tommy Wilson; but later he dropped the name Thomas and called himself Woodrow Wilson, Woodrow being his mother's maiden name.

Woodrow Wilson was an active boy both mentally and physically. His greatest chum was his father; and long before it was time for him to go to school, he and his father studied together.

People who knew him as a small boy say they remember him best for the fact that he was always running, always in a hurry to get somewhere.

Woodrow Wilson later was elected governor of the State of New Jersey, then to the President's office. He was our great World War president and hero.

To Have Banquet.
Announcement has been made this week that the National Junior Honor Society of the local high school, which is sponsored by Miss Mattie Ross Cunningham, will have its annual banquet at the Manhattan Hotel tonight (Thursday). Miss Virginia Egerton, president of the group, will be toastmistress for the evening.

Hospital Notes

A six-pound girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Buddie Martin at the Emergency Hospital Sunday night at 9:00 o'clock. Mrs. Martin and the child were moved to their home in East Snyder Monday.

Mrs. Mack Casey, who was in the Emergency Hospital for treatment last week, returned home Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Henley are the parents of a baby boy, born Monday night at 9:00 o'clock.

Crusaders Have Regular Meeting.

The Crusaders Class of the First Methodist Church enjoyed its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Lex Wilmeth Friday evening, with Mrs. Wilmeth and Miss Bonnie Gary as hostesses.

After a short business meeting, a social hour was enjoyed, and a dainty salad course was served to the following: Misses Ora Norred, Hattie Pate, Mozelle Roach, Neoma Strayhorn, Hattie and Gertrude Kern and Jo Halley, and Mmes. R. H. Odum (teacher), Harry Lee, A. E. Harvey, Hattie Wade, J. C. Gay, Howell McClinton, A. P. Biggs, Frank Farmer and Mungler Y. Lewis.

Elizabeth Hays to Marry in Arkansas.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Hays of the Union community announced this week the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Hays of Booneville, Arkansas, and Paul X. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. X. Williams, also of Booneville.

The wedding will take place on Thursday, May 16, in the First Baptist Church in the Arkansas city. The announcement was made in Booneville at a tea given at the home of Mrs. C. Ray Williams.

Mrs. J. C. Bullock, mother of A. A. (Pat) Bullock of Austin and Sam M. Bullock of the China Grove community, died Sunday morning at the home of a daughter, Mrs. J. R. Cornelius, in Sweetwater. She was visiting there from her home at 1838 North Tenth Street, Abilene.

Pneumonia brought death to the 75-year-old mother, a pioneer of Mitchell and Scurry counties. Most of the children, including Pat, former county superintendent, and Sam, were at the bedside when death came.

Mrs. Bullock had lived in Abilene since 1918. Her husband died two years ago.

Funeral rites were conducted at the home in Abilene Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with several Scurry county friends attending. Rev. E. D. Dunlap, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Sweetwater, assisted by Rev. Roy Kemp, Abilene, officiated.

The deceased is survived by one brother and one sister, who live in Kentucky, and nine children as follows: J. H. Bullock, Fort Worth; Mrs. R. M. Cash, Post; John H. Bullock, Abilene; Mrs. W. J. Clinton, Mt. Vernon; Mrs. H. L. May, Westbrook; Arthur V. Bullock, Quanah; and Pat, Sam and Mrs. Cornelius. Twenty-five grandchildren and one great grandchild also survive.

Wichita Announces.
Wichita Falls made it known over the radio Sunday afternoon between 3:30 and 4:00 o'clock that it wanted the 1936 West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention. Names of towns and directors in the regional organization, including W. J. Ely of Snyder, were called during the program, which featured the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce male quartet.

Tea to Honor Mothers.
Members of the Altrurian Daughters, the Etude et Plaisir and the Cresset Clubs are inviting their mothers and members of the Altrurian Club to be guests at a mothers tea at the First Methodist Church Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock. An international theme is being used in the program.

Commissioners to Meet.
The county Commissioners Court will meet in regular session Monday of next week, according to Judge H. J. Brice. Since there were five Mondays in April, the court skipped three weeks between meetings. Second and fourth Mondays are regular meeting times.

Leave for Washington.
Mr. and Mrs. Clark Miller are leaving today for Washington, D. C., where Mr. Miller will be stationed with the Navy Department. Mrs. Miller was formerly Miss Marion Rosser, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Rosser. The Millers will stop at his home, Galesburg, Illinois, en route to the capital.

MEAT MARKET IN NEW HANDS

W. R. Bell turned his apron over to Leonard West, formerly of Muleshoe, Saturday of last week, and announced that he was leaving the meat market business after following it for more than 10 years.

The City Meat Market is now being operated by the former resident of the Plains country, who has seen several years of experience in the meat business. Mr. West announced early this week that he will continue to offer quality meats and friendly service as the market has always done.

Buck Chandler remains in the employ of the market under the new management.

Mr. and Mrs. West moved to Snyder last week. They are making their home in the old Teter place, West Snyder. Mrs. West is a sister of Mrs. R. S. Snow.

New Classification Of Schools Will Be Observed in 1936

The county board meeting Tuesday afternoon, decided to accept the new classification of schools recommended by the State Department of Education. Miss Sue B. Mann, deputy state superintendent, met with the board.

Under the new plan, one teacher may have charge of seven grades in schools of less than 36 scholastics; two teachers, seven grades, in schools of less than 66 scholastics; three teachers, eight grades, in schools of less than 96 scholastics.

A. C. Preuit, member at large, was named again as chairman of the board. Frank Farmer, county superintendent, is secretary.

It was the board's first formal meeting since the election in early April.

Husband of Former Local Woman Killed

Mrs. H. V. Williams and Elmer O. Williams and family returned Sunday from Wichita Falls, where they attended funeral services and burial for Amos A. Morris, husband of the former Miss Thelma Williams, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Williams.

Death came to the Wichita Falls man 24 hours after he fell down an elevator shaft on which he was working.

H. V. Williams, city recorder, is remaining for several days longer with his widowed daughter.

Dealers in Abilene For Goodyear Meet

T. W. Pollard and Jesse Jones, local Goodyear dealers, were in Abilene Wednesday at noon for a district luncheon and merchandising discussion at the Hilton Hotel.

J. A. Bailey of Dallas, district manager, conducted the business session after the luncheon. A talking picture was included on the program. F. W. McConky Jr., of Akron, Ohio, southwest division sales manager, attended.

Hermleigh Closes June 7.
Hermleigh Public schools will close Friday, June 7, rather than May 17, as indicated in last week's Times. Superintendent E. E. Kerr states that practically all pre-closing exercises will be held the first week in June.

Big Spring Rally This Week Calls Many Boy Scouts

Reports yesterday from A. C. Williamson of Sweetwater, Buffalo Trail executive, of which Snyder is a part, were that indications pointed to an attendance of around 750 Boy Scouts upon the annual round-up to be held in Big Spring Friday afternoon and Saturday.

Snyder's two troops are expecting to send about 30 boys to the fun-fest. Commissioner W. R. Lacey will be in charge of the group.

Principal feature of the get-together will be a series of contests between the boys. Included in the events will be antelope races, bugling, chariot races, first aid contests, knot tying, obstacle races, scout pace, signaling, string burning, tug-of-war, water boiling and camp fire stunts. Practices for the contests are being held by the Snyder boys this week, and they expect to bring back some wins from the contests.

The Scouts will camp by patrols at a special camping site near Big Spring, and will prepare two meals during the stay there—supper Friday night and breakfast Saturday morning. A special barbecue dinner will be served the boys Saturday at noon by the business men of Big Spring.

Snyder boys will leave the local Boy Scout hall at 1:30 o'clock Friday, expecting to arrive at camp about 4:00 o'clock.

THE WEEKLY DOZEN

You Couldn't Give 'Em Away.
Pessimism Pete says if some of the nags that are sold here on first Mondays had been offered for their feed two years ago, somebody would have been insulted. Chalk up another victory for drouths and tractors.

No Monopoly for Congress.
"The person does not live who can predict accurately today what Congress will do," declares Babson. What of it? Men were saying the same thing about women and sandstorms long before Congress was invented.

Has the Salt Lost Its Savor?
They say the Murphy well spouted salt water the other day. Why not? Maybe God decided, in his wisdom, that some of us, through our constant complaints, had ceased to be the salt of the earth; so He sent a substitute from the bowels of the earth.

A Sight for Hungry Eyes.
The relief garden just northwest of the square is surely a sight for hungry eyes since the showers of recent days. Onions, greens, tomato plants—look at 'em all, and be convinced that concentrated relief work plus community pride plus this new tile idea, can work wonders.

Who Has Received His $1,500-plus?
Those who have become infatuated with the chain letter craze might pause to ask themselves: How could everyone who takes part in the chain receive more than $1,500, as the letters promise, when each person sends only one dime? After all, dimes can't multiply. Somebody will be left holding the bag. Who, oh, who will it be?

Thank You, Uncle Sam.
The government has sent Scurry County another efficient, home-folks worker in the person of David C. Fawcett, rural rehabilitation supervisor. While we pause to thank Uncle Sam and his state helpers for their good deed, let's give a round of applause for the all-round excellence of our entire government-help program in this county.

A Gesture of Progress.
The Texas Company banquet at the Manhattan Hotel was a gesture on the part of the local wholesaler that means more than the mere drumming up of selfish business interest on the part of retailers. Business friendships, built on fellowship and mutual discussion of problems, are precious. More power to men like Gay McClaugh, who appreciate such friendships!

The Washington Brigade.
Secretary Wallace and AAA officials will know that Texas produces something more than drouths and cotton when they are visited in a few days by the Lone Star farmer delegation. Other states will have delegates, too, but we prophesy that ours will top the list in interest and knowledge of what they want. Incidentally, Scurry County farmers are to be highly commended for their choice of delegates.

We Should Be Ashamed.
We West Texans should be ashamed of ourselves for failing to fall in line with the National Cotton Week idea. Not a section of the country would be more benefitted by wholesale wearing of cotton than West Texas. All of us—and that includes the newspapers—are falling down on the job of educating folks about wearing cotton instead of rayon and silk. How can we expect others to use our surplus cotton if we don't use it almost exclusively ourselves?

Tribute to a Utility Man.
The depression has brought one wholesome thing to pass: It has changed the general attitude of utilities men from "drain the public" to "serve the public." A few utility men, however, are "just naturally that way," depression or no depression. We cite as a case in point A. O. Thomas, who has been transferred to the Midland district as area manager. Give us more courteous, friendly, helpful utility men such as A. O. Thomas, and you won't be hearing so much of this "swat the utilities" talk.

Judge Ely Is Doubly Honored.
Judge W. R. Ely, recently retired member of the State Highway Commission, after more than eight years of service, will be doubly honored by West Texans as an appreciation dinner to be given at the Hotel Wooten, Abilene, Saturday evening, May 18. Snyder should—and will, of course—join her neighbors in honoring the man who may easily be ranked as West Texas Citizen No. 1. It is doubtful if any single man has been of more financial benefit to Scurry County during the last few years than Judge Ely. We may lay the growth of our three-road highway system at his feet, for he always had a keen interest in our major roadways.

Remarkable Folks, Aren't We All?
Remarkable folks, aren't we all? We spend hours of time mourning over the condition of our country, especially its crime wave. We weep over our erring youth. We kick up our heels at European countries that are ousting God and His commandments. Yet it is not true that we are becoming as careless about morals and religion and youth training as our friends across the water? Indeed, almost every other country under the sun spends more time on youth training than America does. These observations bring on the suggestion: Why don't parents and other forward-looking citizens get more whole-heartedly behind the Boy Scout movement in Scurry County?

MOTHERS—OLD AND YOUNG

To mothers all, especially if you have a doubt or two:

Sunday is Mother's Day. All of us, sons and daughters, remember the day. Some of us will write sentimental letters or send you gifts that play on the heartstrings. Few of us will speak the words of love and kindness that should have been spoken one or a dozen or twenty years ago.

But you will be patient and smiling with us, of course. Always. We cannot understand how your patience and your smiles hold out through tears and broken promises.

Only God and you can understand this everyday miracle.

Please, if you can, give us the grace of being ourselves on Mother's Day. Let the poets write their praise of you, if they will. Let the songsters make notes about you, if they like. Let the preachers frame beautiful sermons about your sacrifices, if they choose. But let us, your sons and daughters, show in our own unvarnished ways that love for mother transcends the ravelled sleeve of care.

Mothers all, young and old, make us thoughtful children on Mother's Day and throughout the year; thoughtful of the talents in our hands, of our neighbors, of you who gave us life, and of God who is life.

Use Texas Products!

Page the Twentieth Century Club of Snyder, Old Man Texas, for it is giving your products a gloriously strong push into the minds of buyers in this trade territory.

If the women's three-day program that is being staged at the Snyder Garage this week does no more than convince a few thousand folks that Texas is really becoming a manufacturing state, it will have served a fine purpose.

But it will do more, of course. It will provide entertainment, give the women a much-deserved revenue for worthy enterprises, and give cooperating merchants and manufacturers excellent advertising.

As the slogan goes: "What Texas makes, makes Texas!"

Dollars in Our Pockets.

Not many sane men will fight against or be neutral about an organization that has put dollars in their pockets, especially if that organization has also proven itself worthy to other folks.

So it is that The Times believes not a business or professional man in Snyder will fail to support the West Texas Chamber of Commerce when he discovers exactly what the WTCC has done for West Texas within the past few months.

Let us mention only a few of the vital West Texas problems that the WTCC was responsible for threshing out to a helpful conclusion—helpful to the tune of hundreds of thousands of dollars to the pocketbooks of the folks who ARE the WTCC.

1. Thirty-seven West Texas counties will continue to use the waters of the upper Colorado River because the WTCC fought from Texas to Washington for the rights of the farmers in those counties.

2. Flood waters of the Brazos River will be impounded for use of many a West Texas county. Besides, the Brazos River project will bring hundreds of thousands of dollars in wages and other returns into this area.

3. An amendment to the Bankhead Bill providing for the elimination of subnormal years from the five-year base period in calculating the cotton allotments of the respective counties of West Texas was due almost solely to the WTCC. Figured out in dollars and cents, that accomplishment alone was worth several hundred times to Scurry County what local business and professional men put into the WTCC in cold cash.

Most important of all, the WTCC has given a revolving point about which West Texas can fight for her rights. Never before has she had such a revolving point, for never before has the WTCC been so worthwhile and so far sighted.

Surely, since the WTCC puts dollars—many of them—into our pockets, we can afford to pay a small membership fee once a year.

The Times Creed:

For the cause that needs assistance;
For the wrongs that need resistance;
For the future in the distance,
And the good that we can do.

ROBBERS ROOST.

By Zane Grey

His thoughts locked around the astounding fact—this was the trail he had ridden down, after that encounter when he had kissed her. Sight and hearing, his sense of all around him, seemed strangely intensified. The pines whispered, the rocks had a secret voice, the sky turned blue, the white clouds sailed, the black Henrys loomed above and the purple-gray valley deepened its colors below.

Helen halted her horse under the very pine where they had stopped to listen to the hounds and cowboys racing up the ridge after the deer.

"My sense of direction seems to be all right," said Helen.

"Helen, I fear it's better than your sense-of-kindness, let me say. . . . Why did you bring me here?"

"Please look at my cinch," she replied, coolly.

Jim dismounted, more unsure of himself than ever in any of the many crucial moments of his career. He did not understand a woman. He could only take Helen literally.

Her saddle cinch was all right, and he rather curtly told her so.

"Then—maybe it's my stirrup," she went on, lightly, as she removed her boot and spurred foot.

"Well, I can't see anything wrong with that, either. . . . Helen."

Something thudded to the ground. Her gloves and her sash were there. They surely had not fallen. She had flung them! A wave as irresistible as the force of the sea burst over him. But he looked up, outwardly cool. And as he did her gloved hand went to his shoulder.

"Nothing—the matter with—your stirrup," he said huskily.

"No. After all, it's not my cinch—nor my stirrup. . . . Jim, could any of your western girls have done better than this?"

"Than what?"

"Than fetching you here—to this place—where it happened."

"Yes. They would have been more merciful."

"But since I love you—"

"You are mad," he cried.

"And since I want you—presently—to behave somewhat like you did that day."

He reeled under that. The strong, earnest light of her eyes told more than her words. Her pallor had vanished. She was no longer cool.

"Jim, you might have saved me this. But perhaps it is just as well. You are laboring under some delusion that I must dispel. . . . I want you—ask you to stay."

"If you are sure—I will stay. Only for 24—24 hours, don't let it be anything but—but—"

"Love," she added. "Jim, I am sure. If I were going back to England, I would want you to go, just the same. . . . It's what you are that has made me love you. There need be no leveling. I lived years down in Robbers Roost. That changed me—blew the cobwebs out of my brain. This wonderful West and you are alike. I want both."

"But I am nobody. . . . I have nothing," he cried haltingly.

"You have everything a woman needs to make her happy and keep her safe. The fact that I did not know what these things really were until lately should not be held against me."

"But it might be generosity—pity—the necessity of a woman of your kind—to pay."

"True. It might be. Only it isn't." Jim wrapped his arms around her. "I brought you here!"

And for the reason that he was ashamed to betray the tears which

Snyder Schools Get Ready for Last Programs; Commencement May 24

With high school commencement exercises just two weeks away—Friday evening, May 24—Snyder schools are bucking down to the final pull of the school year.

Friday, May 17, is official Senior Day. That will be a fitting climax, say the seniors, to their final exams, which will come Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Finals for all other high school students—no exceptions, says Superintendent C. Wedgworth—will be taken May 21, 22 and 23.

Seventh grade graduating exercises have not been definitely arranged, according to R. S. Sullivan, principal. Speakers for all closing exercises, junior high and high school, will be announced later.

Baccalaureate services will be held Sunday evening, May 19. Following are the 39 high school students who are candidates for high school graduation:

Evelyn Erwin, Hazel Gordon, Roland Bell, Sam Joyce, Bernard Longbotham, Mary Bess Abercrombie, Imogene Brooks, Grace Elizabeth Caskey, Pauline Carnes, Estine Dorward, Edna Mae Dunnam, Roberta Ely, Sibyl Gillmore, La Frances Hamilton, Eleanor Hays, Flora Vida Holley, Maxine Huckabee, William Boren, Eunice Duff, Bille Fulghum, Otho Gillmore, Delbert Johnston, William Miller, R. J. Rossen, Aubrey Wiese, Parene Isaacs, Martha Jo Jenkins, Louise Jones, Minnie Mae Kiker, Georgia Maule, Bonnie Neal, Frances Northcutt, Christine Robinson, Netha Lynn Rogers, Irene Spears, Frances Stinson, Mary Margaret Towle, Alene Wilson, Maureen Wolf.

Junior High Grads.
Junior high candidates for graduation to high school, 56 in number, are as follows:

SHOWERS FOR AREA HELPFUL BUT TOO LIGHT

Less Than Three-Quarters of Inch Average Falls Wednesday Through Saturday.

Although Scurry County shared in the general rains that blanketed Texas last week, the average of less than three-quarters of an inch of moisture was hardly enough to remark about "glowing prospects."

But the showers, which totaled 7.3 in Snyder from Wednesday to the last drizzles Saturday, were extremely beneficial for territory that was becoming anxious about its crop prospects.

Farmers who had planted cotton shortly before the rainy spell were almost universally helped. Dust storms were given a setback, which means better conservation of the light showers.

Sweetwater led West Texas in week-end falls, with a total of 4.28. Roscoe also received heavy rains, but the fall lightened as it came northward. Abilene's total was 1.10. Practically all West Texas received a half inch upward.

Temperatures showed a decided drop, remaining in the neighborhood of 40 to 50 degrees almost two days and nights. Amarillo had 32-degree weather, and much of the northern Plains country had snow-fall.

Snyder's official fall, according to the gauges kept by Mrs. Wesley Evans, were as follows: Wednesday night, 15; through Friday night, 35; Saturday morning to 11:00 o'clock, 18; remainder of Saturday, 65; total, 73.

Band Play Suits Large Crowd as Mystery Solved

A murder an act keeps the interest from lagging. Of course, this wasn't necessary to keep folks of this vicinity on their seat edges during the band-sponsored play last Friday evening in the Snyder High School auditorium—but it did keep the tempo at more than average play level.

Hilton Lambert, playing the part of Abel, keeper of the Eel Tavern on the Cornish Coast of England, probably was the leading character of the three-act drama, "At the Sign of the Eel." His fine acting was supported by almost flawless performances by Teddy Vinson, W. W. Smith, Evelyn Erwin, Roland Bell, Geraldine Shuler, Eunice Duff, Fred Jones and W. D. Sanders.

An interesting story of the efforts of several characters endeavoring to reap profits from the insurance on a purposely-destroyed manor house and proceeds of a will of a recently-deceased wealthy Englishman, was filled with humor, pathos and tragedy. The three murders of the play—one in each act—were so well executed that it was not until the closing scenes that the perpetrator was discovered.

Mrs. Hilton Lambert, local elocution instructor, directed the play. Social settings were constructed by Hilton Lambert and Eunice Duff.

Prior to the raising of the curtain, a series of band numbers were rendered by the Tiger Band, with Fred P. Rattan directing. Male members of the play cast rendered a special vocal number. Pete Benbenek and son, Orden, played violin duets between the first and second acts of the play.

Advance ticket sales, as well as sales at the door, netted proceeds of over $60. This fund will be used to purchase new music and equipment for the band.

Methodist Church

We extend a cordial invitation to any who may find it possible to be with us in our Mother's Day service next Sunday at 11:00 a. m., and the other services of the day also.

Our revival meeting begins June 10—H. C. Gordon, pastor.

First Baptist Church

The pastor will preach Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock on "Motherhood." An attendance of at least 500 is being sought for the Sunday school as a tribute to our mothers.

Baptist Training Union meetings are at 6:45 p. m.; church at 8:00 o'clock. "Medicine Christianity vs. Radical Materialism" will be the pastor's subject.

The pastor, H. L. Wren, will Williams and H. H. Eiland were in Big Spring Wednesday for a district laymen's gathering.

George Avary at Funeral.

George Avary was in Honey Grove Sunday to attend the funeral of his cousin, William Floyd, who died suddenly Friday morning. Mr. Floyd is survived by his wife and three small children. The family has visited here with the Avary family, and the deceased man is known to several local people.

Play by Woodard.

"The Alley Daffodil," a play with a cast from the Woodard community, will go to the Plainview school Tuesday evening, May 14. No admission charge, say Woodard folks. Everyone in the Plainview area is cordially invited to turn out for the performance.

Olle Stinson went to Dallas Wednesday to bring back a new Pontiac salesman.

Baptist Laymen Set Up Organization to Enlarge Their Work

Sixteen men of the First Baptist Church gathered in the church basement Monday evening to set up an organization that intends to enlarge the work of Christian laymen.

H. L. Wren, district organizer for the Baptist laymen's movement, told the churchmen that he was returning from several weeks' work in other churches to present the plan to his own church. He told of remarkable success already achieved in other churches. He cited good fellowship and spread of the Christian religion by men for men as chief aims of the organization.

Officers for the local group were elected as follows: President, Horace Eiland; vice president and chairman of the program committee, Charley Ross; secretary, Harvey Shuler; chairman of seeking committee, N. M. Harpole; chairman of membership committee, Jake Smyth.

Pastor Lawrence Hays engineered serving of coffee and cakes.

Mahon Asks Camps For Lamb, Dawson

An Associated Press dispatch in the Abilene Morning News Wednesday said: Washington, May 7.—Representative Mahon (Democrat of Texas) said today the soil erosion service had requested Robert Fechner, COC director, to establish two camps in Dawson and Lamb County, Texas. Mahon said the exact locations would be determined by H. H. Finnell, director of the Dalhart, Texas, soil erosion experiment station.

First Christian Church

Bible school—9:45 a. m. Morning worship—10:45 o'clock. Christian Endeavor—6:30 p. m. Evening worship—7:45 o'clock.

Sunday is Mother's Day. We all love our mothers. We are going to pay tribute to Mother during the Bible school hour with a special program, arranged by the various departments of the Bible school.

At the morning worship, Mother will again be recognized in a special Mother's Day sermon: "What Jesus Saw in His Mother." Special recognition will be made to the oldest and to the youngest mothers present at our morning services.

The subject of the evening sermon is: "The Four Certainties of Christianity." Honor your mother by attending church Sunday. This church welcomes you.—G. E. McPherson, minister.

Hermleigh Folks to Have Cemetery Day

Thursday, May 23, has been set as cemetery working day for the Hermleigh community.

Joe Leach, who will be in charge, urges that all interested persons be on hand early with tools for the all-day working. An old-fashioned dinner will be in order at noon.

Fluvanna School Closing Program Starting Sunday

First Fluvanna school closing program will be made Sunday, when Rev. Eugene Surface, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church at Lamesa, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon at 11:00 o'clock.

High school graduation exercises will come Thursday night, May 16, with Zolie Steakley of Sweetwater delivering the main address. Grade school exercises will be held Friday night, May 17, as the final program of the school year. All grades will contribute to the evening's free entertainment.

Annual junior-senior banquet will be staged Saturday night of this week, with Rev. P. D. O'Brien of Colorado as principal speaker. The feed will be spread in the home economics room. The senior play was staged last month.

Fifteen high school graduates will receive their diplomas next Thursday night, as follows: Mozelle Brown, Gertrude Brown, Pauline Deere, Margarette Tucker, Louissia Elkins, Katherine Scribner, Jessie McKnight, Bob Lemons, Merton Noel, David Shipman, E. L. Ball, John Buchanan, Retta Battles and Burt Belew.

The junior class played to a good-sized audience last Friday night when they presented "The Rose of El Monte." Little Miss Vera Nell Jones proved to be the hit of the evening with her song numbers.

Other vaudeville performers were Frances Elizabeth Jones, reader, and Isora Patterson and Louissia Elkins, singers. An orchestra furnished music for the evening. It was composed of Elmer Spears, Brud Boren, Bob Gray, Nig Stringer, E. O. Wedgeworth and Mercedes Robertson.

Disease Lecture Is Heard By Few Folks

Only a few persons were on hand Saturday evening for the lecture at the school auditorium on cancer and other important diseases.

Despite the small crowd, an outstanding lecture and demonstration was presented by Dr. J. H. Beahl of the Beahl Clinic, Fort Worth, according to Dr. H. E. Rosser, county health officer, who introduced the visitor.

The program was sponsored by the Twentieth Century Club.

New Rigby Awning.

Rigby's Cafe has been sporting a new spring-like awning for several days. It extends over the front sidewalk to provide shade and add considerably to the attractiveness of the eating place. A. H. Rigby, operator of the cafe, says he is expecting a good run of summer tourists this year, and he is getting ready for them.

Singing at Colorado.

Annual meeting of the Mitchell County Singing Convention at Colorado Saturday night will attract a number of singers from this county. Saturday night services will be held at the First Baptist Church; Sunday services at the union tabernacle. W. L. Doss Sr. of Colorado is convention president.

New C. of C. Committees Appointed; J. W. Scott Reelected as Secretary

At a meeting of new Chamber of Commerce directors last Wednesday night, J. W. Scott was reelected as secretary.

Reelection of "Watt" means that he is beginning his eighth year of continuous service as secretary and active manager of the civic organization.

The week of May 19-25 has been designated for the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet. The exact day has not been decided.

Harrie Winston, who was reelected early last week as president to serve his fourth year, announces appointment of these committees: Membership—H. L. Vann, chairman; Harold Brown, R. H. Odum, J. C. Smyth.

Road (no change)—A. D. Erwin, chairman; H. G. Towle, W. J. Ely, Joe Stinson.

Agriculture—A. W. Arnold, chairman; H. L. Wren, H. P. Brown.

Merchants—N. W. Autry, chairman; Lee T. Stinson, Maurice Brownfield.

Publicity—Willard Jones, chairman; Frank Farmer, J. W. Scott.

Legislative—Warren Dodson, chairman; H. G. Towle, A. C. Alexander.

Beautification (no change)—Mrs. Lee T. Stinson, chairman; Mrs. W. R. Bell, Mrs. O. P. Thrane.

Mr. Thomas, who has been a frequent visitor in Snyder since he became district manager about five years ago, has been transferred to Midland, where he is manager for a huge territory of the "wide open spaces."

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hagan left Wednesday for Dallas.

Charley Likes Odessa.

Charley Kelly, former co-operator of the local Piggly Wiggly store, was back last week-end to visit his family, who will join him at Odessa when school is out. "It's a fine place to live, and I like my new business fine," Charley said. He is operating the largest Humble service station in West Texas—and there are almost 300 of 'em.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hagan left Wednesday for Dallas.

Refueling Relief

When You Need a Laxative

Because of the refreshing relief it has brought them, thousands of men and women, who could afford much more expensive laxatives, use Black-Draught when needed. It is very economical, purely vegetable, highly effective. Mr. J. L. Egan, Brownsville, Tex., writes: "I certainly can recommend Black-Draught to my friends. I have used it for constipation and the dull feelings that follow, and have found it very satisfactory."

Mrs. J. R. Reeves' Father Drops Dead

Mrs. J. R. Reeves was called to Texico, New Mexico, early Sunday because of the sudden death late Saturday of her father, W. T. Perry, who dropped dead while he was walking near his home. Mr. Perry was 76 years of age.

Mr. Reeves joined his wife at Texico Monday at 1:30 p. m. for final rites and at Melrose, New Mexico, later in the afternoon for burial services.

One brother and three sisters in addition to Mrs. Reeves are survivors.

Since Perry Morris lost all his teeth to the dentist recently, his business associates are accusing him of losing his well-earned position as the newest man on the east side.

"But I'll show 'em," Mr. Morris declared yesterday, as he gritted his teeth over another chain letter.

Special Feeding
Ends May 10 at Big Spring Pens
 A steer feeding experiment running 180 days at the United States experiment station, Big Spring, will close on May 10 and the record made by the animals on feed will be announced, according to J. M. Jones, chief, Division Range Animal Husbandry, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, under whose direction the tests have been conducted cooperatively by the federal and state stations.

While this is the eighth test conducted at the Big Spring station, it is the first in Texas in which steers have been fed individually, which speeds up the results. Twenty steers were fed individually, the type and quality of each having been carefully recorded at the beginning of the experiment. They were fed identically the same rations, excepting that the amount fed varied according to the appetite of the animal. In comparison with these 20 steers another comparable 20 head were group-fed in the usual manner and on the same feeds as the individual steers received.

Mr. Jones thinks it will be possible to determine somewhat the influence that certain type and quality in the animal may have upon the economy of gains made, a thing entirely impossible in group feeding. The cattle were bred by E. B. Dickinson, of Stanton, and some outstanding individuals were included in the group.

It is expected that a representative of the packing houses will attend the closing tests to place valuations on the steers as they leave the feed lot and to advise stockmen attending the meeting as to market preferences for killer cattle.

Mr. Jones will, in addition to discussing the current experiment, give a brief history of the feeding experiments that have been under way at the Big Spring station for the past eight years. George Bond of the Big Spring station staff, who personally fed these animals, will make a report at the meeting.

The meeting will be in charge of F. E. Keating, superintendent of the Big Spring station, who has devoted much attention to these feeding experiments for the value that they have in providing the best utilization of the large feed crops produced in that section.

Several Scurry County men will probably witness closing of the tests next week.

Casualties at the Battle of San Jacinto were: Texans, 6 killed, 24 wounded; Mexicans, 630 killed, 720 wounded, 730 captured.

West Texas Chamber of Commerce Convention Holding Spotlight

DELEGATION FROM SNYDER TO PLAINVIEW WILL INCLUDE BAND

It was decided this morning by Chamber of Commerce directors that the Tiger Band will be carried to Plainview Tuesday.

With the seventeenth annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce less than a week off, Plainview, the hostess city, is ready for the entertainment of the thousands of visitors that are expected for the convention May 13-14-15. Walter Thatcher, president of the Plainview Chamber of Commerce, said Tuesday.

The convention program is practically complete, J. A. Rix, convention manager, stated today, with acceptances received from all group conference speakers.

Snyder, along with almost 200 other West Texas towns and cities, is preparing for the annual affair. W. J. Ely, local director, who led Snyder to recognition as the most active town in WTCC activities last year, states that although this town is not planning to enter all contests and other activities this year, a large delegation will attend from here.

Outstanding Speakers
Speakers on the three-day program include Governor James V. Allred, who will address the general assembly Tuesday morning. Judge James D. Hamlin, Farwell, president of the WTCC, will also speak Tuesday morning, giving a summary of the year's work.

Walter D. Cline, general chairman of the Texas Centennial committee, and a past president of the regional organization, will be in charge of the governors' party Tuesday night, at which time past presidents of the WTCC will be especially honored. Governor Allred, Governor E. W. Marland, Oklahoma, and Governor Clyde Tingey, New Mexico, are also to be honor guests.

Group Conferences.
Three group conferences, of interest to every delegate and visitor, will be held Monday and Tuesday afternoons.

The agricultural group conference Monday afternoon will feature Congressman Martin Dies, Orange, and J. E. McDonald, state commissioner of agriculture. The taxation group conference speakers Tuesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock will include Senators T. J. Holbrook and Roy Sanderford, and Mayor Ross Rogers of Amarillo. The territorial developments group conference is also scheduled for Tuesday afternoon. Speakers will include R. E. Dickson, Spur, and Harry Hines, chairman of the State Highway Commission.

Many Contests Entries.
Many entries have been reported in the "My Home Town," poster, quartet and beautification contests. Fifteen bands have already indicated that they will attend, and others are coming, say convention managers.

Local entertainment plans include six dances, a theatre play for visiting ladies, rabbit and greyhound races two afternoons, and governors' banquet. Admission to all entertainment features is included in the registration fee of $1.25.

Four cities are in the race for the 1936 convention: Wichita Falls, Brownwood, Amarillo and Fort Worth.

HERE IS MORE CONCERNING Douglas

Rushed to Hermeleigh, where the nearest doctor lives, the boy was pronounced dead, probably an hour after he disappeared from the sight of schoolmates. Efforts to revive life with the aid of a pulmonator in Snyder, more than an hour and a half after the drowning, proved useless. Elmer Howell furnished a car for the trip.

Green Springs is 15 miles southeast of Snyder. The Plainview school is between Snyder and the picnic site. Roy Irvin, brother of Mrs. Bush, who is principal of the Plainview school, planned to make the picnic trip, but car trouble changed his plans. Will Sturdivant said the deep hole in which Douglas was drowned filled up during last week's rains. A heavy shower in the Green Springs vicinity on the afternoon of the tragedy delayed getting the victim to town.

Douglas' father has been a part-time employee of Farmers Exchange for several years. Muriel Woodard, who is credited with saving the lives of Mrs. Bush and Carol, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Woodard.

Funeral rites for Douglas will be held at the First Baptist Church here this afternoon, 2:30 o'clock, with Rev. Walter Dever, assisted by Rev. Lawrence Hays, officiating. Odom Funeral Home will be in charge of burial in Snyder cemetery.

Another Rain Threat.
Gushing showers fell in the southeast and east portions of the county Wednesday afternoon, but thunder and threatening clouds failed to carry the fall over much of the area. Creeks reached high levels southeast of Snyder, it was reported.

HERE IS MORE CONCERNING Shelterbelt

providing a refuge for game and birds, which will prove of untold future benefit.

The fairly well-established theory that three-fifths of the rainfall that covers an area comes from vegetation was relayed by Mr. Jones. He cited Texas and Arizona examples to show that destruction of trees, grass and other cover from submarginal lands was causing building of sand dunes, about which deserts could be formed.

Some time was spent in discussing varieties of trees suitable for this area, the shelterbelt man declaring that only proven trees will be planted. Numerous questions were answered in the farm meeting concerning tree varieties and plantings.

Tree Planting Plans.

The trees will be planted on an average of a belt for each section in good farm land. Each belt, 105 feet wide, will be fenced, thoroughly cultivated by the farmer at government expense, and then planted with 12 rows of trees six feet apart. It was explained that the trees may later have to be thinned, but that one purpose of the thick planting is to have solid shade and windbreak.

Mr. Jones viewed a number of tree plantings in Snyder. He was apparently surprised at the size and variety of trees that have been proven adaptable to this area. With the county agent and other interested citizens as his guides, he also visited various portions of the county, explaining trees and soil types.

Belt Follows Rainfall.

The shelterbelt largely follows where nature put the rain, plantings being confined to the 20-30 inch rainfall belt. Scurry County has slightly better than a 21-inch average.

Mr. Jones made it plain that the entire program will be carried out on a basis of mutual agreement. It is not a program of regimentation. Farmers will be given the opportunity to receive the program, but they need not accept unless they wish.

The speaker prophesied at the farm meeting that mixed crops must be planned for the future of this area. "No country can prosper with a one-crop system," he said. "We want to build a civilization that will last for all time to come—it is up to us to make it a garden or a desert. I don't know of a better place in which to live if we'll just fix it up a little."

Nurseryman Exams Set for Shelterbelt

Open competitive examinations for the position of nurseryman, to serve the federal shelterbelt, have been announced by the Civil Service Commission in the tenth district, comprising Texas and Louisiana.

Applicants must file application forms and other data with the manager of the tenth civil service district at New Orleans, not later than May 16. Detailed information may be secured from the local post office.

Former County Man Passes at Abilene

Will M. Collier, 57, resident of the Knapp community for several years prior to 1903, died Tuesday of last week at his home in Abilene, following a heart attack. He is remembered by a number of old-timers in this area.

Funeral services were conducted at the First Christian Church in Abilene Thursday. Attendees included John S. Collier, a brother, who resides near Hermeleigh. Director of personnel—"Before we can engage you, you will have to take an intelligence test." Girl applicant—"Intelligence test! Why, the ad said you wanted a stenographer."

Show Window at Dyer's.
J. J. Dyer, jeweler, east side of the square, recently built an attractive show window display case for his merchandise. Many a passerby has been stopping to view the array of jewelry, watches and other goods handled at the shop, according to Mr. Dyer.

BEAVERS GETS THIRD IN SHOT

Forest Beavers, Snyder High's ace athlete during the season just closed, placed third in the shot put at Austin last Saturday, thereby giving the local school two points in the annual Interscholastic League meet.

Beavers shoved the iron ball several inches farther than he had been able to do in any previous meet. He closely pushed Price of Santa Anna, who beat him in the regional, for second state honors. Top honors went to Earwood of Rock Springs, whose mark of 51 feet, 2 1/2 inches neared the state record.

The local lad failed to qualify in the discus throw. Abilene's relay team, which gave the regional winner five points, featured the meet with its blinding finish on a wet track.

Texaco Agents Join Hands in "Feed" at Local Dining Room

With Gay McGlaun, wholesale agent, as host-in-chief, several Texaco Company dealers and their families, plus a few guests, gathered in the Manhattan Hotel dining room Friday evening for an hour and a half of food, fun and fellowship.

H. B. Wiley, Abilene, district Texaco agent, was the chief speaker of the evening. He congratulated Mr. McGlaun for his enterprise as exemplified in the social-business meeting, and cited him for more than 20 years of service to the company. Dealers were told of new plans for placing accessories and new services before the motoring public. Mr. Wiley conducted a brief round-table discussion with the dealers.

Clarice and Jo Ann McGlaun, granddaughters of the agent, perched atop a table and provided tap dance numbers. T. J. Teter, who accompanied them, provided piano music throughout most of the affair.

Guests outside the Texaco families included Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Montgomery, and J. C. Smyth.

Pyron Student Gets Placings at Corpus

Mary Etta Vernon, sophomore in Pyron High School, was awarded two places at the home making rally in Corpus Christi late last month. The Times learned too late for announcement in last week's paper.

Second place in "selection of materials and finishes for tailored dress," and honorable mention in "food selection" were won by the Scurry County girl. Mrs. J. M. Glass is teacher of home economics at Pyron.

Mrs. McKnight Re-elected.

Mrs. Violet McKnight has been re-elected to the Spur school as supervisor of public school music. A program given recently by her high school choral and glee clubs was unusually good, school authorities say. Mrs. McKnight is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Grayum here.

W. J. ELY CITES WTCC BENEFITS; DRIVE FOR MEMBERS OVER TOP

Snyder has gone well over the top with its quota of 35 West Texas Chamber of Commerce members, W. J. Ely, local director, said yesterday afternoon.

This hearty support is a reflection of the outstanding work done by the WTCC for West Texas folks during the past year, in the opinion of the director, who was re-elected last week for his third year of service. The membership list reads: Bryant-Link Company, Puller Cotton Oil Company, A. D. Erwin, J. C. Penney Company, Brown & Son, Economy Dry Goods Company, J. H. Sears & Company, Frank Farmer, Dr. R. D. English, Dr. H. G. Towle, Stinson Drug No. 1 and No. 2, Perry Brothers, Snyder Gin, Scurry County Motor Company, R. C. Miller, R. H. Odum, Gay McGlaun.

Pollard & Jones, Manhattan Hotel, Edd Dadds Grocery, Piggy Wiggly, Snyder Insurance Agency, Ely, Arnold & Ely Gin, Snyder Hardware Company, Times Publishing Company, G. H. Leath, Higginbotham - Bartlett Company, N. W. Avey, Dr. J. G. Hicks, Burton-Lingo Company, O. P. Thrane, A. C. Alexander, Pete Brady, Boren-Grayum.

WTCC Does Things.

Director Ely and Harrie Winston, president of the local Chamber of Commerce, point out that the West Texas Chamber of Commerce has accomplished hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of good for West Texas during the past 12 months. A recent issue of "West Texas Today" carried this information concerning major work of the organization:

"Perhaps the most outstanding battle won by West Texas this year has been the battle of the Colorado River. In winning the battle we overthrew an almost unconquerable array of opposition. Arranged against us originally were a unanimous senate, an overwhelming majority in the house, the chairman of the congressional appropriations committee, the Public Works Administration of Washington, and the President of the United States.

Brazos River Fights.

"Leadership of the West Texas cause was developed when President Hamlin of the WTCC appointed a past president, R. W. Haynie, as chairman of a water rights committee. . . . The result was . . . final enactment of the Colorado Authority law. . . . It appears now that the future welfare and growth of 37 West Texas counties will not be stagnated because of being deprived of water.

"The same kind of West Texas cooperation and unanimity was exerted in behalf of the Brazos River bill. As a result, although being defeated once by the Legislature, this bill was passed and became a law in the last session. . . . The flood waters of the Brazos in the future, instead of rushing down on the Gulf, will be preserved and impounded in West Texas for use by our citizens."

COUNTY BENEFITED.

Scurry County's 1934 cotton allotment under the Bankhead bill was increased more than 4,000 bales as a result of efforts due partially to the WTCC, the county agent's office reports. This work for West Texas as a

Sacred Harp Music Slated Here Sunday

That old-time sacred harp music, dear to the memories of so very many who have passed the prime of life, will be offered in a singing at the Primitive Baptist Church in Northeast Snyder Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, W. J. Higgins announces.

The singing will, of course, be open to the general public. Those who sing and enjoy Sacred Harp music are especially invited to be present, bringing their books.

Mrs. Robert Masters of Lincoln, Nebraska, a former resident of Snyder, is transacting business here this week.

PLANS ARRIVE FOR HOSPITAL

Complete plans for the proposed Snyder hospital arrived here several days ago from the Dallas architect, Alfred H. Boren. Sets of the plans have also been placed in the hands of contractors who wish to bid on the job, according to G. B. Clark Sr., chairman of Snyder Hospital Inc.

Mr. Clark states that bids must be submitted not later than Tuesday, and that first construction plans may be ready to announce Wednesday of next week.

WE RAN THIS AD IN THE TIMES ON THURSDAY, FEB. 28:

WE MADE SEVEN NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS

- 1.—To operate a better cleaning plant and to turn out strictly Grade A quality work.
- 2.—To cooperate with our fellow cleaners for the betterment of the business.
- 3.—To expand our services—and to sell them at a price that will yield a self-respecting profit.
- 4.—To establish, in every way, the responsibility of our plant.
- 5.—To base our appeal for patronage on high quality work, good service and responsibility.
- 6.—To operate our business on a cost-plus-profit basis.
- 7.—To plug up costly leaks by installing some long-needed equipment. We're through patching up old "has-beens." New equipment has recently been added to our plant.

And we're still keeping our promise! We have just installed a new Hoffman Press to further take care of the needs of a growing patronage!
