Annual Junior-Senior Banquet Ends Activities for May Graduating Class

With the annual junior-senior banquet honoring the May graduating class of the local high school Friday evening, social activities for the senior class ceased. All senior activities of the year have been enjoyable, but the banquet was the climactic event, say the graduates.

The banquet was held in the main dining room of the Manhattan Hotel, Friday evening at 8:00 o'clock. Eighty-five people—including the junior and senior classes, the high school faculty and guests—were in attendance.

Juniors Make Arrangements. Junior A's and their sponsor, Miss Maurine Cunningham, made all arrangements for the affair, and acted as hosts during the evening. The setting for the affair was festive, with numerous crepe paper streamers of various colors, and the doors were hung with streamers.

Irene Wolcott, a junior, was toastmistress for the evening, and Victor Baze, also a junior, gave the invocation. The toastmistress issued a warm welcome to the honorees, members of the graduating class, and Aubrey Wiese, senior president, gave the response. A toast to the seniors was given by Juanita Sentell, and Leslie Kelly, a senior, responded with a toast to the juniors. Tessie Merritt and Lillian Logan, juniors, favored the banquet crowd with a vocal duet, "Every Day," accompanied by Irene Wolcott.

Superintendent Speaks. Superintendent C. Wedgeworth spoke briefly, giving words of appreciation and advice to the graduating class. Geraldine Shuler read for the group, and a quartet composed of Victor Baze, Emory Smith, Bobby Mitchell and Rosser Chapman, sang.

J. P. Nelson, senior sponsor, spoke words of farewell to her class; La Frances Hamilton gave a clever toast to the faculty. R. L. Williams, high school principal, who has been elected superintendent of the Lockhart public schools, in response to the welcome, gave his "last announcements" to the group present, and Miss Maurine Cunningham presented to him a farewell gift from the junior A class.

Rev. Gordon Heard. Rev. H. C. Gordon, pastor of the First Methodist Church, who has a daughter in both the junior and senior classes, gave the main address of the evening. With the entire group singing "Fare Thee Well," the annual junior-senior banquet for the Snyder High School closed. Forty members of the graduating class and 30 juniors were present for the happy evening.

Faculty members and guests who attended are the following: Miss Mattie Ross Cunningham, Miss Effie Elizabeth McLeod, Mrs. Sue M. Lee, Miss Maurine Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Williams, Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Gordon, Hadley Reeve, W. W. Hill, W. P. Cox and C. Wedgeworth.

Wisdom Is Foundation of Successful Life, Rev. Gordon Tells Graduates

"Wisdom is the foundation of a successful life," Rev. H. C. Gordon told the senior high school graduation class Sunday night. The local Methodist pastor was the principal speaker at the annual spring baccalaureate service in the high school auditorium.

"Get wisdom, but with all thy getting, get understanding." Proverbs 4:7, was the text of his remarks to the graduates, as well as a fairly well filled auditorium of other listeners. Rev. Gordon read the eighth chapter of Proverbs for his scripture of the evening.

Other high points given of the pastor's discourse were: "Seniors, view your life ahead from a high plane; learning, rightly used, will make your lives blessed of God; let high ideals and righteous thoughts and deeds have sway in your living; wisdom can be a tremendous power if properly used."

"Wisdom not rightly utilized is waste; be of service to your fellow man; a powerful mind is a blight; a powerful mind can be made the greatest influence for good of any asset you may possess; you seniors are in life's morning—take advantage of the great opportunities ahead, and don't leave God out of your plans."

Following the procession, played by Mrs. Melvin Blackard, and a number by the choir, Rev. G. E. McPherson, Christian Church pastor, offered the invocation. A boys' Glee Club, under direction of Mrs.

Announcements Made. Preceding the address, Superintendent C. Wedgeworth made announcements. He recalled the plan of using a local pastor to preach the baccalaureate sermons, such a plan having been started some six years ago.

Dorothy Winston will give the official welcome, and Roy Allen Baze will give the farewell. Frances Head will read the class poem, of which she is author.

Monday of this week was Class Day for the seventh grade graduates. A play, "Graduation at Snyder Grammar School," presented the class will, prophecy, song and poem in unique fashion.

Principal R. S. Sullivan state that the seventh grade graduates are taking more interest than ever before in their special exercises. Parents and other patrons are invited to the final exercises Friday morning.

The Psalmist exclaimed, "I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the House of the Lord." May we not gather in next Sunday's services, esteeming it a privilege rather than a duty?

A cordial welcome awaits all who can come. Our meeting begins the second Sunday in June.—H. C. Gordon, pastor.

Odessa Finds That Charley Kelly Will Make Good Citizen

Last week's Odessa Times-Record carried some facts about Charley Kelly, who recently moved from Snyder to Odessa, that were relayed by Jimmie Smith, former Times editor. Ralph Shuffler, publisher and columnist at Odessa, moistened a pencil point—or sumpl' else—and wrote:

Somebody is always moving to—and from—Odessa, and ordinarily I wouldn't devote a lot of space in this B. S. column to any particular instance or party, but Jimmy Smith, former editor of the Snyder paper, wrote me a letter concerning one of our new citizens, and when a country editor thinks enough of a guy to write a letter and tell his friends about it, at least part of it must be true, or else said country editor was in debt to the party of the first part and was trying to use bull in place of cash. I don't know which, in this instance, but anyway, below is a part of a letter which Jimmy wrote me about Charley Kelly, new manager of the Humble station across the tracks:

"I knew him intimately while editing the Snyder paper, and you will find him an outstanding business man, a civic booster de luxe who never knows when to quit boosting, and a chap who is sold on advertising one million per cent. You will find, Ralph, that Odessa is mighty lucky to get the type of citizenship represented by Mr. and Mrs. Charley Kelly and their family, and while I am damnsory to see them leave Snyder, it is our loss and Odessa's gain."

Well, Jimmie, that's a nice line of hokey, and it may mean something. We will welcome them to our fair city.

Out-of-State People Here. Guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Clark Sr. the past two weeks were Mr. and Mrs. John Vaughn and Mrs. Sam Tulloch of Maryville, Tennessee, and Ruel Murphey of Chickamauga, Georgia. Mmes. Vaughn and Tulloch are sisters of Mr. Clark. The out-of-state group, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred McLaughlin, went to Carlsbad, New Mexico, Saturday and Sunday for a trip through the Carlsbad Caverns, and will return to their respective homes this week.

Get Rid of Poisons Produced by Constipation

A cleansing laxative—purely vegetable Black-Draught—is the first thought of thousands of men and women who have found that by restoring the downward movement of the bowels many disagreeable symptoms of constipation promptly can be relieved. Mr. J. P. Mahaffey, of Clinton, S. C., writes: "I have found that Black-Draught is very effective in the cleansing of the system. When affected by the dull headache, the drowsiness and lassitude caused by constipation, I take Black-Draught. A natural, purely vegetable laxative."

Linoleum at No. 2. A. E. Wiese and J. D. Scott, over at Stinson No. 2, west side of the square, are bragging about the new linoleum that adorns the front part of the store. Addition of this improvement comes not long after the prescription compartment was moved and completely overhauled. Charley Kelly and Frankie Hall of Odessa visited relatives and friends here Sunday and Monday.

Suppose YOUR Business were to be Shackled..

An industry that you depend on is now facing ruinous governmental interference.....

YOU have the right as an American to engage in any decent lawful business. Let's assume you are a business man who has worked hard and invested money to provide a service which your fellow man desires and needs.

What would you say if a law were proposed in Congress that would shackle your business with so many regulations that you could not go on? You probably would say, "I never thought it could happen in America."

Yet one of the country's great industries which serves you every day with something you desire and need is threatened with destruction by law. It is the gas and electric utility industry. A bill known as the Wheeler-Rayburn bill now in Congress aims first to chain this entire industry to severe regulation, and then deliberately to cripple and dismember it.

Your local electric company would be seriously affected. The holding company which aids your company to give good service would be abolished. Not all holding companies are to be destroyed under the terms of this proposed law, but only public utility holding companies; not all public utility holding companies, but only those engaged in the electric or gas business or both. That is significant.

Men who are experts in legislation think this bill is only the first step in a program of certain legislators to put government into all business. Other lines of business will be attacked, perhaps even yours.

The Wheeler-Rayburn bill may be the first big step toward National Socialism!

Sure Enough, It's Sweet Water. Now we can understand, for the first time, how Sweetwater received its name.

Largest Room in the World. The largest room in the world is the room for improvement. Many clippings from papers could be put with sentiments like this from the Wichita Eagle.

Observe the 'Stop' Signs. When the city marshal calls your attention to the law to observe the "stops" it is no desire on his part to be hard-boiled.

Jack Dempsey's New "Sock." Back in the good old days, Jack Dempsey was famed for his right "sock."

Wind on the Troubled Waters. Collier's National Weekly—Huey Long is able to get a hearing for his utterly frivolous "Share the Wealth" program.

Stopping the Reckless Driver. We still believe that there is only one way to stop reckless driving and that is to have every accident investigated and the person to blame for the accident arrested.

Thumbers' Code of Ethics. How about a ride-thumbers' convention where their master minds could work out something like a thumbers' code of ethics?

Covering Denuded Acres. Atlanta (Ga.) Constitution—Although America has been the land of the great nations of the world to recognize the importance of reforestation.

A Soil Erosion Program. There is a big field of service open to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, the state government, and everybody else on a soil erosion program.

What is your idea of a gentleman, farmer? "He's a person," answered Farmer Cornslass, "who is so well fixed that he can waste profanity on a golf ball instead of on a mule."

Which have no minds of their own. I would burn up the light of each day in an effort to be useful and valuable to the world as well as to myself.

Were I just now receiving my high school diploma, I would strive to be the architect of my own fortune, I would strive to be independent and be my own master.

Uncle Bill, in Sterling City News. I would burn up the light of each day in an effort to be useful and valuable to the world as well as to myself.

"Leasing a Farm for 99 Years."

It's a long time—about eight months—until the annual movement of Scurry County renters begins. John Smith will be moving along about January 1, and most of the time neither he, his family, the landlord nor even an enlightened Providence can tell you exactly why he should be moving.

The Progressive Farmer recently published an editorial, including a Scotch tale, that is written in this same vein: "Why back in the Old Country," said our good Scotch friend Martin McCall the other day, "we'd think it a crime to rent land one year at a time with no assurance or regard for maintaining soil fertility."

All this is pertinent as we recall ways of changing the South's tenant system. In the Old World there are leases running 99 years. Over here they don't even run 99 weeks as a rule. Over there the tenant is rewarded for increases in soil fertility and penalized for its impoverishment.

The farmer trek to Washington was a very successful affair, so far as its object of making a demonstration in favor of the various AAA programs was concerned. Whether it has contributed anything toward a permanent solution of the farm problems or added to the confusion in the public mind with respect to those problems is quite another question.

The question which this sort of talk raises in our mind is whether it is not calculated to keep both the tariffs and the processing tax in effect, rather than remove them both. Over in Louisiana recently, Secretary Wallace repeated the statement he has made on other occasions that the processing tax is the "farmer's tariff," and, as he defended the processing tax as a good thing, it is doubtful that many of his hearers felt any great urge to get rid of the tariffs.

What we are wondering, in this connection, is whether such demonstrations as that of the trek to Washington and the utterances of Secretary Wallace and President Roosevelt to the pilgrims are calculated to promote such a better understanding of the realities of economics facing the cotton area in the future.

Which have no minds of their own. I would burn up the light of each day in an effort to be useful and valuable to the world as well as to myself.

To prevent motor damage when you

...you must have oil of high film strength!

...drive slowly ...pick up quickly ...drive over 50

D ID YOU know that idling along at 10 miles an hour or picking up suddenly can cause as much motor wear as high-speed driving?

All three put extreme pressure on your connecting rod and crankshaft bearings. If your oil does not have enough oiliness and film strength to withstand these high pressures, your motor parts suffer damaging wear. That's why you need oil with the greatest possible oiliness and film strength.

Straight mineral oils have no more oiliness and film strength than they had 10 years ago. Some, because of over-refining, have less!

Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil has more oiliness and 2 to 4 times more film strength than straight mineral oils! The Germ Process—adding concentrated oily essence to highly-refined, paraffin-base oil—puts into this oil more film strength.

That extra film strength and oiliness enable Germ Processed Oil to stay on the job and prevent wear under the most extreme pressure and heat. It helps Germ Processed Oil give long mileage with greater motor protection, as proved by the famous Indianapolis Destruction Test.

Germ Processed Oil protects your motor another way. Because it penetrates and combines with metal surfaces, it forms a "Hidden Quart" that stays up in your motor and cuts down wear during the starting period.

Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil is the oil you need in this day of slow city driving, speed on the highway and sudden acceleration everywhere. It protects your motor and saves you money!

FREE DELIVERY IN THE CITY LIMITS

Farm Families No Longer Permitted To Be Granted General Relief Funds

Effective immediately, county relief administrators no longer will be permitted to extend any form of relief from general relief funds to any employable farm family, it was announced late last week by Adam R. Johnson, state director of the Texas Relief Commission.

Joe Monroe, Scurry County administrator, has been advised of the new order, and is living up to it, he said yesterday. David C. Fawcett is the new rural rehabilitation supervisor for this county.

"A farm family," Mr. Johnson explained, "is one residing outside the limits of incorporated or unincorporated towns, villages and cities who depend upon farming operations for the major portion of their income. It is not intended to include in this group families who live on small plots of land which are sufficient only to produce a part of their sustenance requirements and upon which they can not produce a commercial crop."

Aid Through "Advances."

"Farm families," henceforth, may receive aid only in the form of advances through the rural rehabilitation corporation. County administrators are instructed to recall any work cards issued to rural families for work relief in May and to make advances, secured by notes and mortgages, instead.

All families affected by this change immediately will become rural rehabilitation families, Mr. Johnson said, and will receive aid in the future from rural subsistence funds in accordance with their needs as established by caseworkers.

At the same time, administrators will contact all landlords at the earliest possible date to obtain waivers on the landlord's interest in the tenant's share of the crop. This procedure was adopted in order to secure advances which the rural corporation will make to the tenant.

Creditors Protected.

"If a client transferred under these regulations receives subsistence advances, executing notes for them, and later it develops that a waiver form can not be obtained from the landlord or other creditors, then the case will be dropped completely from our records," Mr. Johnson declared. "In such instances, the notes taken will be written off as a loss, but the client will receive no further advances after the date on which creditors refuse to execute waivers. Creditors will be notified when these cases are dropped from the records."

Explaining the new regulation, Mr. Johnson said it is in line with the long established method of furnishing sharecroppers. "This is what bankers and other creditors always have done," he said. "Our former practice of furnishing the tenant with subsistence needs as an outright grant just encouraged creditors to allow the relief administration to finance the making of their crops. This new regulation will help to correct that situation and dignify the aid extended farmers by eliminating the outright relief grant."
