Harry Hines, chairman of the Commission, advised Scott that Highway No. 83 from the Fisher County line, through Snyder, and on to the New Mexico line, will be rerouted and surfaced as soon as funds are available from the first federal highway appropriation. NO INTERRUPTION

of YOUR GAS SERVICE

as Texas Streams Burst Banks!

With torrential flood waters swirling at many points between you and the gas wells. Lone Star Gas System again has met the threat of the elements. Bridging the gap between the gas wells and your gas appliances, this dependable system has conquered the hazard and kept your service uninterrupted. *

The greatest and most widespread floods in the history of this company have threatened the gas pipe lines at many points. As the waters rushed on over the country-side, men stood by these lines day and night ready for any break. While bridges went down and roads were washed out and traffic was halted, the gas lines held intact.

This dependable service is not an accident. It is due to a quarter of a century of planning and huge expenditures of money. Seven pipe line bridges across swollen streams, heavy steel pipe laid deep in the ground, a well trained organization, are among the facilities which have made this gas system able to meet the unprecedented flood conditions.

The ability of your gas company to serve you during emergencies is, after all, the supreme test of service. The significant fact is that the facilities and organization necessary to keep your service constantly dependable in such an emergency must stand by throughout every day. of the year waiting your instant call.

Welcome to Our County!

Papers bring us the information that highway patrolmen are making it hot for those who have improper license, further east in Texas. Are the members of Congress who have been sponsoring the immediate payment of the bonus, abandoning the plan for this term as a play for votes? The charge is made that this is true. An Amicable Relationship.

The border relationship beween Canada and the United States has been the cause of much fulsome oratory. Yet the fact remains that it has long been an outsanding example of amity between nations. When we think of nearly 4,000 miles of border-line stretching between the two countries without a single fortification ever having been raised for over 100 years, we have matter enough for congratulation .-Brampton (Canada) Conservator.

Roosevelt and Religion.

The great trouble with Mr. Roosevelt has been that he has never called to his aid the church and asked that they take the difficulties that we faced in prayer. He has never recognized God in his dealings. The greatest men, and, in fact, all great men of our nation have realized their need for divine help, but Mr. Roosevelt has apparently seemed to have the idea that he could fly in the face of the wishes and teachings of the church.—Lamesa Reporter.

Enforce the Livestock Law!

Announcement by local officers that the state livestock law will be rigidly enforced should be greeted with joy by motorists and stock owners alike.

The truth is that most livestock owners, at one egg whites, beaten stiff. time or another, are motorists too. They know, deep down in their hearts, that letting their stock run loose is a tremendous liability, especially to those who travel state highways at night.

But there has been some excuse-not too muchfor the practice in recent years, when pasture has been so poor and feed has been so high. That excuse has been wiped out by heavy rains in practically all portions of West Texas. The only thing left for livestock owners to do is to put their animals in a good fence and keep them there.

One does not have to be of the hard-boiled nature to say that those who persist in letting their stock | chopped fine. Make into long round run loose should bear the full penalty of the law. Automobiles and the lives they bear are too precious to be exposed to the whims of a muley cow or a hard-headed mule.

It's up to the average citizen to assist our officers | Keep wrapped. in their determination to enforce this important law.

Thanks, Almost Everybody.

Now that the Times Free Cooking School is over, and we have time to reflect back on the three afternoons of profit and entertainment for women of this trade area, certain things stand out above all others. They stand out so pointedly that we must mention

In the second place, the large number of rural women who came in was highly pleasing to the cooking school conductor and to the publishers. For this latter desire we can thank, most of all, the foundation laid by home demonstration agents of the past. The old man might shave doubt that a bonus bill could be passed over the veto up, dress up, come home with a smile in place of a grouch, and the good wife would think him as good as new. We learn to appreciate by comparison. We need the midnight darkness to cause us to enjoy the rising sun of the morning. Say, a lot of folks are worrying about the Constitution. By Mrs. C. R. Roberson. County Council Chairman.

So many people have a wrong idea as to what home demonstraabout it. Though, let me say quickly, my own knowledge is limited. I only know what we learned during the few months we had an agent and the glimpses I got of its possibilities while attending the short course at A. & M. last year.

The work, I think, did begin with canning clubs and so many people think it ends here. But, in our work, we soon learned that canning is only one part of the study of in these two special subjects and we could make them ourselves. taking up others: housing, furni-

The best varieties for our region were decided upon. Even the amount of seed was estimated. Because of these discussions we have some very fine gardens in our county with our women already busy with the can-

But, besides this, the amount of meat needed was estimated, jelly, pickles, honey-all the things needed to help keep one's family adequately fed and healthy. Along with this, came cheese making, as a certain amount is included in the budget. Three kinds were demonstrated: American, processed and neufchatel. The study even went farther back than that, and preparation of soil and irrigation tile were taught. Several tile making and tile laying demonstrations were given. There is a lot I would like and we found that a lot of things to say concerning tiles, but that besides the dresses were considered. will have to come at some other The excellency of the accounts had

Study of Clothing, We started the study of clothing when we had our pattern school last fall. At this school, two representatives came from each club. The and recommended by leading denhome demonstration agent from Jones County came over and assisted Miss Ward. It lasted two days. Each of the representatives got a founadtion pattern cut and fitted, both skirt and waist. These, then, returned to their own clubs and helped the other women make a foundation pattern for each one. These patterns were checked by Miss Ward at her next meeting with each club. At least, that was the plan, but, really, Miss Ward spent a day with every club that asked her and assisted in making and fitting the patterns.

These patterns are made of cloth -brown domestic, old sheets or sugar sacks. Any kind of material which is firm enough to hold its shape well will do. They fit the person made for and no other. "Knee deep in June" is okeh for the poet but apparently not for the dairyman if he is knee deep in sudan grass gone to seed.

According to Extension Dairyman E R. Eudaly, the value of sudan grass is reduced about half if it is allowed to form seed.

He says it should be cut for hay just as it heads. If it is being grazed, but not kept down, mow half of it and two weeks later the other half. That way grazing will not be interfered with.

Mow the permanent pasture too. Twice a year mowing will kill the weeds Eudaly says. Cut high the first time-three or four inches off the ground-and low the next time to get the suckers and new branch-

Plant now for trench silo filling. Three tons per cow is what will be needed. Cane or grain sorghum can be planted on the oat stubble if there is enough moisture.

Cows need dry feed too, Eudaly says. And roughages are cheaper than grain. So plan for one ton of hay or bundled feed for each cow.

New Classification Of CCC Applicants Is Made in Texas

Selection of Texas boys for enrollment in CCC camps will be confined hereafter strictly to young men ald and Miss Burnadine McDonald whose families are on the relief of Shields, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Smith rolls, it has been announced by Neal | of Loraine and Misses Marie Casey E. Guy, enrollment supervisor for and Ethel Lynn Hays of Lubbock the state.

rescinded all instructions which Maye Jeffress and L. B. Worley last formerly provided for enrollment of | Wednesday. worthy unemployed boys and socalled "border line" cases.

"Henceforth we may admit to CCC camps only applicants who can make a proper allotment to dependents. It has been ordered that se lections for enrollment beginning June 15 must in every case represent families on the public relief rolls. This means that in the approaching enrollment period, the 12,000 young Texans taken into the camps should represent 12,000 families removed from the relief rolls.'

Counties unable to supply their quotas from relief roll families will not be permitted to select non-relief applicants but will notify the state enrollment officer, who will fill the quota from a county which has more eligible candidates than its quota will allow it to choose.

First phase of the enrollment beginning about June 17 will effect only a very few counties, since only 929 boys will be accepted at that time. The second period, July 1 to August 31, will be governed by completion of new camps now un der construction.
