"YOUR HOME COUNTY PAPER"

FORTY-EIGHTH YEAR.

SNYDER, TEXAS, THURSDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 8, 1935

NUMBER 9

EAST TO WEST ROAD CHANGED TO NUMBER 15

Chairman Hines of State Highway Commission Says Former 83 To Be Completed.

State Highway No. 83 has been abolished, and No. 15 has been extended west from Fort Worth to the New Mexico border, along the old No. 83 location.

This action of the Texas Highway Commission, taken last Thursday at Mineral Wells, means that Snyder will henceforth be on State Highway No. 15, which had been designated previously from the Louisiana line west through Marshall, Longview, Gladewater, Terrell, Dallas and Fort Worth.

Running west out of Fort Worth, No. 15 goes through Mineral Wells, Metcalf Gap, Caddo, Breckenridge, Albany, Anson, Roby, Snyder, Gall, Lamesa, Seminole and to the New Mexico line.

No. 1-A was abolished from Metcalf Gap, where it intersects with No. 1, to Albany, thus eliminating much confusion that has arisen concerning the east-west routes.

Chairman Hines estimated that the West Texas area would be allocated $6,000,000 in road projects from the $15,500,000 state and federal funds, not including WPA projects.

He made the estimate after the commission had announced several highway designations and important projects for a wide area.

Pioneer Mother Dies Here After Sudden Sickness

An illness of only a few hours brought death early Sunday morning to Mrs. J. C. Martin, South Snyder, who had lived more than 80 of her 89 years in Texas. Mrs. Martin was confined to her bed last spring after a sudden illness, but she had been in good health this summer until shortly before her passing.

Funeral services were held at the home Sunday afternoon, with Rev. H. C. Gordon and Rev. Alfred M. Dorsett officiating. Odum Funeral Home was in charge of burial rites at Snyder cemetery.

Mrs. Martin came to Texas from Georgia when she was a child. She was married in Palo Pinto County in 1864, and resided there until she and her family moved to Snyder 17 years ago. Mr. Martin, who was once a Texas Ranger, died here in 1922. Mrs. Martin was a devout member of the Methodist Church, and her husband had been an official in the church for many years.

The pioneer mother lived in Palo Pinto County when settlers were many miles apart, and she told many vivid tales of Indian raids and other adventures.

Six daughters and two sons survive, as follows: Mrs. C. T. Clayton, Trinidad, Colorado; Mrs. J. C. Moore, Snyder; Mrs. R. H. Butts, Chillicothe; Mrs. G. L. Barnett, Hamlin; Mrs. James E. Morris, San Marcos; Mrs. R. A. Baily, Snyder; A. C. Martin, San Marcos; W. A. Martin, Denver, Colorado. Only Mrs. Clayton and W. A. Martin were unable to attend final rites.

Several grandchildren and great-grandchildren, including Bythel Martin of Snyder, also survive.

L. G. Ely, Joe Caton, H. L. Davis, S. J. Casstevens, Emmett Butts and Alvin Elkins were pallbearers. Mmes. Joe Caton, Edna B. Tanker, L. G. Ely and Carroll Moore were in charge of flowers.

Green, Snyder business man, is under grand jury indictment charging murder in connection with the death of Erwin Woelert, who was slain last March 30 at a dance hall said to have been operated by Green.

Motion for a change of venue was filed in Judge A. S. Maury's court by defense attorneys on plea that a free trial was improbable in Scurry County.

Loans Offered for Purchasing Poison

Those who need poison for their cotton, and cannot get funds elsewhere, may make application through the local crop loan office, of which Charles J. Lewis is in charge.

Since purchase of poison is usually a hurry-up matter, farmers who need loans are urged to make application at once.

Snyder Ginners Say They Are Not In Sympathy With Suits to Hold Up Enforcement of Bankhead Act

In a statement prepared for The Times last night, Snyder ginners said:

"The Sherman and Houston injunction suits restraining the enforcement of the Bankhead Act were brought without the consent of the Snyder ginners, and we expect to take the necessary steps immediately to be relieved of any connection with these suits."

The statement was signed by Snyder Gin, J. R. Joyce & Sons, A. H. Trice, and Ely, Arnold & Ely.

Director Opposes Suit.

W. J. Ely of Snyder, director in the Abilene district for the Texas Cotton Ginners Association, said Monday that he is not in sympathy with a suit of the association in filing an act to restrain the two internal revenue collectors of Texas and their employers from requiring or compelling ginners to administer the Bankhead Law.

Federal Judge Randolph Bryant issued the temporary injunction restraining the government from compelling the ginners to collect the Bankhead tax. In retaliation the agriculture administration cut off Texas' supply of bale tags, without which cotton cannot be moved. The action threatens to tie up the Texas cotton crop.

"I believe that the 160 ginners in this district are with me on this point, and I have therefore held out from the beginning against taking any court action. I take this position notwithstanding the fact that I believe, along with Mr. Bankhead himself, that the ginners should have their out-of-pocket expense incident to collection of the Bankhead tax," the Snyder ginner said.

Gives His Position. Ely's complete statement follows: "Inasmuch as I am a member of the Texas Cotton Ginners Association in good standing, that is, I paid my membership dues for 1935, and inasmuch as I am a director of the association from the Abilene district, I feel that in justice to myself and to the ginners of the district, I should give my position with reference to the suit.

"I think now, as I have thought all along, that the ginners should have their out-of-pocket expense incident to the collection of the Bankhead tax. Even Mr. Bankhead himself and Mr. Cobb, chief of the cotton section, testified before the hearing of the committee on agriculture, House of Representatives, that the ginners should receive extra compensation."

What Mr. Cobb Said. "Mr. Anderson, member of the committee from Minnesota, asked: 'Mr. Cobb, why should the ginners receive extra compensation?' Mr. Cobb: 'On the basis of their extra out-of-pocket cost in administering the measure, for which they are not responsible.' Mr. Anderson: 'What do you do to administer it?' Mr. Cobb: 'They keep records, collect the tax. They collect the tax for the government and keep the records necessary to the collection and retaining of those taxes to the federal government. All I know is that they have been out of pocket in the administering of the Bankhead Act, a very considerable amount of money that they would not have had to spend except for the fact that they had to administer the Bankhead Act, and in some cases they have taken a whale of a lot of punishment.'"

Notwithstanding my belief on this question, I have been consistently against the suit, more especially the part that had to do with testing the constitutionality of the Act, and not until after the hearing at Sherman did I hear one word about the constitutionality of the Act. Immediately following the order of the court restraining the internal revenue collectors of Texas from requiring or compelling the ginners to administer the Bankhead Law, President H. G. Yakey issued a call for a special session of the association board of directors. The directors met Tuesday, July 23, in the Baker Hotel, Dallas.

Votes Against Suit.

Mr. Malone of the law firm of Seay, Malone & Lipscomb, Dallas, met with them and explained the court order. After much discussion the question of raising the necessary collateral to enable the association to post the $100,000 penal bond as required in the court order was finally put. Out of the 36

Ira School Will Have Affiliation For Initial Time

When Ira schools open Monday morning under the superintendency of Elmer Taylor, 11½ affiliated credits will be offered high school students for the first time. Affiliation was secured last year, and this year's efforts will be directed toward obtaining still more recognized credits.

Ira folks, parents and students alike, are proud of their new gymnasium, which is nearing completion. It is 66x110 feet, and is an attractive building with its native rock and concrete walls and its metal roof.

Superintendent Taylor, who is beginning his seventh year as head of Ira schools, announces that a Parent-Teacher Association meeting will be held Monday morning in connection with the school opening.

Two new teachers have been added this year—Ben Tharp, who is well known to folks of this area, and Miss Jo Halkley, formerly of Snyder schools.

With the subjects they teach and the years they have been at Ira, follow: Mrs. Taylor, two years, high school; Lloyd Devin, three years, boys' basketball coach, manual training, history; Miss Margaret Dell Prim, five years, English, Spanish; Earl Horton, three years, sixth and seventh English and history; Happy Talley, three years, fourth and fifth grades; Miss Ethel Verle Palls, two years, second grade; Mrs. Ben Tharp, one year, first grade.

The superintendent teaches high school mathematics, and Ben Tharp will teach sixth and seventh grade mathematics and science.

EQUIPMENT TO NEW OIL TEST

Moving of the heavy drilling equipment from the Moar Ranch to the new Magnolia location seven miles south of Snyder is continuing this week. The work was begun last Wednesday. Drilling is expected to begin the third week in August.

Scurry County's latest test is located in the extreme southwest corner of the Donaldson Ranch, section 186, and is known as W. M. Scott No. 1. It is in a Magnolia block of more than 10,000 acres. An 18-inch hole will be drilled, indicating that a deep test will be sunk if early indications point to oil.

Sitting and wishing is a poor way to get what you want.

TRENCH SILOS TO BE TALKED BY SPECIALIST

Scurry and Fisher Farmers to Meet August 22 to See Eudaly Demonstration.

Farmers of Fisher and Scurry Counties will have the opportunity August 22 of seeing trench silo demonstrations by E. Eudaly, specialist of the A. & M. College Extension Service, according to County Agent W. R. Lacey.

It has not been definitely decided whether a joint demonstration will be held, or whether Mr. Eudaly will visit in Fisher County a half day and in Scurry County a half day. Time and place of the demonstration or demonstrations will be announced in next week's Times.

The Scurry County agent is already making plans for placing emphasis on trench silo work this year. He says benefits to be derived from trench silos in such a year as this, when grain sorghums promise high yields, are manifold.

Substitute for Pasture.

Silage should be considered, he points out, as a substitute for green pastures. It has about the same value in the ration of a dairy cow or beef animal as does green pasture, but no greater value unless there is some grain on the feed stuff made into silage. A trench silo makes it possible to have green feed when it is too dry or too cold to have a green pasture, or too wet to use the pasture. A silo, said the agent, should also be considered a container in which to store a surplus of feed to use when the drouthy year comes.

"A trench silo," declared Mr. R. Bentley, extension agricultural engineer in his remarks at the A. & M. College short course last week, "furnishes the cheapest form of a silo from the standpoint of cash expenditure. Other advantages of a trench silo are: It may be convenient to place and pack the silage, it is less expensive to fill than an above-ground silo, it is wind-proof, fire proof and frost proof and it is easy to remove silage from it and to apply water to it."

Eudaly Touring West.

The Extension Service, quick to recognize value of trench silos this year in West Texas, due to prospect of a surplus of grain sorghum in most areas, is sending Mr. Eudaly through the western part of the state to aid county agents and instruct farmers in the construction and use of this simple device for preserving feedstuffs.

Beginning August 15, Mr. Eudaly will cover district No. 2 of the Extension Service, spending two weeks in the area. He will begin August 15 in Clay County, meet farmers of Young and Archer Counties August 16, and continue his schedule in several other West Texas counties.

Revival at Pleasant Hill Draws Crowds

An invitation is extended to everyone by Rev. J. O. Hux to attend the old-time gospel revival now in progress at Pleasant Hill tabernacle. "This campaign," says the preacher, "is being launched in behalf of the lost. It is already drawing good crowds, and people are being blessed under the singing and preaching of our two workers."

The meeting began last Saturday night and will continue two weeks. The evangelists are Rev. George Gardner of Dallas and Rev. Robert Morris of Bethany, Oklahoma. Mrs. Morris is assisting at the piano and also plays the piano accordion.

Girls of Methodist Church Select Ward At Snyder Hospital

Mrs. Joe Caton's Sunday school class of young ladies at the First Methodist Church had the privilege this week of selecting the Snyder General Hospital ward that will be furnished by their church.

They were given first choice of the wards because the Methodist congregation was the first to pledge itself to furnish a ward after the workmen leave the job in East Snyder. Chairman G. B. Clark Sr. expects that other groups will decide within a short time to furnish wards.

Scurry County citizens are invited to visit the hospital at any time. Most of the work is being done now at the front and on the inside. Workmen leave the building at 5:00 p. m., but visitors are welcome to inspect the hospital at any time.

W. J. Ely and N. M. Harpole, members of the hospital finance committee, report continued progress in their drive to sell $5,000 stock for equipping the building. It was announced last week that stock may be subscribed for payment this fall. The committee members said several farmers and ranchers of this trade area have purchased stock.

Home Seekers Are Making Inquiry About Texas

From "The Earth," Published by the Santa Fe Lines.

Despite depression and drouth which disturbed most of the states in 1933-34, Texas continues to loom high as a mecca for home-seekers and other desirable investors. Chambers of commerce report that inquiries regarding farming opportunities, received in the first six months of 1935, make a higher total than the total for the entire year of 1934.

Texas with its tremendous area always has good crops somewhere. Texas as a state, therefore, perhaps, does not feel a drouth as do many of its sister states. Be that as it may, Texas is in the mind of many families on the search for home-making land.

Chambers of commerce in Texas are organized to take care of the needs of investors. Every chamber of consequence has an agricultural committee whose job it is to provide prospective settlers with the information they want. Practically every county has a county farm agent who works in cooperation with the chambers of commerce in helping prospective settlers to find their way about.

The agricultural development department of the Santa Fe Railway, headquarters Topeka, Kansas, also is ready and pleased to answer questions submitted by home-seekers. A postal card will bring a reply. The Earth, a monthly magazine, devoted to agricultural and industrial development, is free for six months for the asking.

Farm and ranch lands in Texas sell at the price prevailing during the period of the drouth. It is not probable that these prices ever will be lower than they are now. Usually satisfactory terms can be made for Texas land buying. The usual down payment is from a fourth to a third, land values being determined largely by market conveniences.

County Gets Local Approval For PWA Roadway Project

Team No. 1 Easily Leads First Half Of Softball Season; No. 3 Is Second

Two 10-inning games featured the play during the past week. The leaders took a 5-4 decision from the tail-enders last Thursday in one of the snappiest games of the season. No. 2 took a 10-inning affair from No. 4 team Tuesday afternoon, 9-8. Fred Jones pitched a 4-hit game Friday afternoon to shut out the No. 4 squad, 6-0. No. 1 took No. 3's measure Monday afternoon, 11-5.

Here are final team standings as the first half lacks only a game of closing:

Approval of a county-wide project for construction and reconstruction of farm-to-market roads was given Tuesday night by the new county planning board for WPA, the government's newest plan for relief of unemployment.

Details of the project were forwarded to Abilene, district WPA office, Wednesday morning, according to County Judge H. J. Brice.

No other projects have been definitely approved by the five-man board, but consideration is being given a new gymnasium for Snyder independent school district, and also a project calling for completion of the Ira gymnasium, on which work has already begun.

District Approval. Projects must be approved by the district office before they can be begun, of course. The Commissioners' Court is hopeful that work on the roads may be started within a short time.

O. P. Thrane was named late last week as chairman of the county planning board. Other members are Hugh Taylor, Joe Caton, A. Johnston and C. W. Harless, secretary.

The board invites community committees interested in preparing projects to submit their proposals.

Want Better Roads. Members of the Commissioners' Court—Judge Brice and Commissioners Forest Jones, Holly Shuler, H. M. Blackard and H. E. Brock—prepared their project, by precincts, in order that school bus routes, regular mail routes and star routes might be given emphasis in the construction and reconstruction program.

If the WPA realizes its ambition of providing jobs for all the 472 employables reported in Scurry County, $233,000 will be spent in a report from Abilene, district headquarters, last week.

Scurry is in District 13, in which an aggregate maximum of $5,385,600 may be spent on WPA projects.

$21,682,101 Income From Cotton in 1934 To Nearby Counties

Income from the cotton crop of 1934 in this section of Texas, including 24 counties, amounted to $21,682,101.78, of which $17,689,203.22 represent farm value of lint and seed and $3,882,898.56 rental and other payments to April 30, 1935, by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

Total value of the crop, including farm value of lint and seed and government benefits for the past three crop years amounted to $94,120,534.80.

Figures issued by the Extension Service, state agency for AAA, disclose that farm value of lint and seed plus government rental and other payments brought the total value of the crop in 1933 to $40,674,559.24, compared to $31,763,024.02 which was the farm value of lint and seed of the 1932 crop.

Counties included are Baylor, Brown, Callahan, Coleman, Dawson, Dickens, Fisher, Haskell, Howard, Jones, Knox, Midland, Mitchell, McCullough, Nolan, Runnels, Scurry, Shackelford, Stonewall, Taylor, Tom Green, Throckmorton and Young.

Mortgage Loans to Be Made With Cash

Farm mortgage loans by the Federal Land Bank of Houston and the land bank commissioner will now be made in cash instead of bonds of the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation and part cash, as has been the practice for nearly a year and a half. A. C. Williams, president of the land bank, announced Saturday.

With a ready market for bonds, Mr. Williams explained, there will be no difficulty in selling these bonds and putting the land bank and commissioner's loans on a cash basis.

Attends Coaching School. Mr. and Mrs. Lacy Turner of Wink, who have been guests of Mrs. Turner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Sears, here for several weeks, left this week for Lubbock, where Turner will attend the two weeks' coaching school. Turner will return at the opening of the fall school term to Wink for his second year as assistant coach and teacher in the school.

HOMECOMING HAD BY CLASS AT McCARTY'S

One of the loveliest affairs ever had by a Snyder Sunday school class was the recent homecoming had by members of the Euellian Class of the First Baptist Church. The occasion was the eighth birthday of the class.

The setting for the party was the home of Mrs. E. F. McCarty, class teacher, and the time was last Thursday afternoon. Hostesses were Mmes. McCarty, Clyde Boren and J. E. LeMond.

Beautiful summer flowers, including sweet peas, roses, crepe myrtle and honey suckle, graced the rooms of the McCarty home as homecoming class members greeted each other and active members. Party favors carried out the pioneer homecoming theme.

Words of welcome were extended to guests as well as members by Mrs. Boren, and the remainder of the program was informal. A salad plate was served at the close of the party.

Those present were: Irene Ware, Eunice Weathersee, Garland Teter, Cora Lear, Ola Leath, Willie Jo Henry, Lucy Mae Inman, Irene Newton, Ruth Lankford, Evelyn Hays, Lela Todd, Ina Hollingsworth, Velma Bruton, Woodie Scarborough, Nora Sentell, Bess McCarty, Alice Northcutt, Lois Sentell, Clemmie Andrews, Thelma Sims, Vera Miles, and Virgie Dever of Forsan.

Summer Classes in Banks Studio Close.

Summer music classes closed in the piano studio of Mrs. Mary E. Banks last week with a recital given at the first Methodist Church last Wednesday morning.

Parents of the pupils and other music lovers of the town were present for the summer recital. Pupils presented were: Lennie Bell Tate, June Jones, Joanna and Juanita Strayhorn, Ola Margaret Leath, Mary Helen Bolin and Margery Brown.

Mrs. Banks will open her studio for the fall term September 2. It was announced this week.

Surprise Party for Mrs. M. E. Rushing.

Mrs. M. E. Rushing, pioneer resident of Kent and Scurry Counties, was surprised with a birthday party Monday at her home in Northeast Snyder. Two daughters, Mrs. Minnie Howe of Snyder and Mrs. Minnie Wisner of Hot Springs, New Mexico, were hostesses.

After a dinner that included chicken and all the "trimmings," including a birthday cake, numerous gifts were presented the long-time West Texas mother. Dinner guests included Mrs. Jim Bowles of Los Angeles, California; Mrs. Pearl Underwood and daughter, Goldie Bell, Claremont, and Mrs. Bob Roe, Snyder. Several other friends called during the day to wish Mrs. Rushing many more happy birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jacobs of Plainview visited in the J. E. Jacobs home during the week-end.

Sims Palmer of Colorado, a salesman for the Federal Land Bank, who formerly lived here, was in and about town Monday and Tuesday making inspections.

Mrs. Media Thompson was honored Friday afternoon with a surprise birthday party given by Mmes. Lydia Petersos and John Miller in the home of the former. The honoree was the recipient of numerous birthday gifts, presented to her late in the afternoon.

The guest list for the party included the following: Mmes. I. T. Ivison, J. C. Wilsford, H. C. Gore, W. S. Bruton, N. B. Moore, Mary Pasmire, A. M. Curry, Foy Wade, Lando Hall, Nute Hargrove, Louise Tatam, Will Crowder, Paul Claybrook, Clifton Walker, H. Roper, Jewel Moffett and the honoree.

Sandwiches, cookies and lemonade were served to those present by the hostesses.

Recent Bride Named Honoree at Bridge.

Mrs. Harold J. Jewell who was Miss Lera Mae Scott before her recent marriage, was made honoree at a gift party last Thursday evening in the E. F. Sears home, 3107 Avenue U. Hostesses were Mrs. Lacy Turner of Wink, who was formerly Miss Enid Sears, and Misses Mary Jane Beall, Jan Thompson and Allene Curry.

An orchid and yellow color scheme was employed in party details, and lovely rose buds, crepe myrtle and perennial phlox decorated the entertaining rooms.

Bridge games furnished diversion for the evening. The high score prize went to Miss Johnnie Mathison. Mrs. Jewell received a shower of lovely personal gifts.

A salad course was served on yellow covers, with orchid crepe myrtle centering each table, at the close of bridge games. Plate favors were small printed scrolls with the honoree's name and that of her husband and the wedding date. The rolled scrolls were tied with orchid satin ribbon.

The guest list included members of the Duce Bridge Club, of which the honoree is a member, her study club members and other special friends, as follows: Miss Ellen Jones of Salina, Kansas, Margaret Deakins, Mildred Stokes, Rube Lee, Bonnie Miller, Johnnie Mathison, Charline Ely, Adelle Baugh, Marvis Webb, Dorothy Egerton, Almarene Heard, Dorothy Darby, Ruth Yoder, Frances Boren, Frances Chenault, Elvergn McFarland, Janice Erwin and Mattie Vina Harrell.

Dr. and Mrs. Jewell will leave for Jourdontown this week-end.

Tuesday Bridge Meets at Hotel.

Mrs. E. M. Deakins entertained members of the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge Club at the Manhattan Hotel this week. In the business meeting, which preceded contract bridge games, it was decided that the group would cease meeting until September.

Lead punch was served during the games, and cantaloupe a la mode with cake was passed at tea time to Mmes. H. J. Brice, W. J. Ely, W. D. Beggs, Joe Strayhorn, Sidney Johnson, W. R. Johnson, G. A. Hagan and J. C. Dorward.

Hospital Notes

Lucille Brinkley of Dunn and Mildred DeShazo of Camp Springs were taken to their respective homes today. Both girls had appendix operation in the Emergency Hospital recently.

H. I. Williams, who resides five miles northwest of town, underwent a ruptured appendix operation in the local hospital Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Burney of Knapp have a baby boy, born Friday.

Buster Curtis, who was operated for appendix last Wednesday afternoon, is doing nicely.

BANQUET FOR UNION YOUNG PEOPLE HERE

The young people's department of the Snyder Methodist Church was host to the Willing Workers Union of young people Tuesday evening, entertaining with a banquet given in the church basement.

Representatives from five chapters were present. Ira, Dunn, Post, Union Chapel and Snyder young people were present. Entertainment committee from the local church was composed of Rubye Curry, Ruth Yoder, Genevieve Jarratt, Hazel Gordon, Allene Curry, and Virginia Yoder. Mrs. A. M. Curry assisted the group with plans.

Mary Belle Carrell of Union Chapel responded to the welcome given by Allene Curry, toastmistress for the evening, and LaFrances Hamilton favored the group with a vocal solo, with her mother, Mrs. W. W. Hamilton, playing the accompaniment. Clarence Walton's talk on "Just Anything" was greatly enjoyed by the group, as were informal talks by Rev. J. L. Stephens of Post and Rev. H. C. Gordon, local pastor.

W. F. Talley of Ira was elected president of the union in the business meeting which followed the banquet. Other officers elected included: Eleanor Hays of Union, vice president; Genevieve Jarratt, Snyder, secretary; Evelyn Grimes of Dunn, treasurer; and Allene Curry, Snyder, chairman of union publicity.

Rubye Curry, past president, expressed her appreciation to the group of 60 young people for the cooperation given her during the past year, and the newly elected president talked briefly about plans for the year's work.

Post will entertain the group at the next meeting, which will be Tuesday evening, September 10.

Women Who Have Pains Try CARDUI Next Time!

On account of poor nourishment, many women suffer functional pains at certain times, and it is for these that Cardui is offered on the ground of safe relief it has brought and the good it has done in helping to overcome the cause of women's discomfort. Mrs. Cole Young, of Jewville, La., writes: "I was suffering with regular... I had quite a lot of pain which made me nervous. I took Cardui and found it helped me in every way, making me regular and stopping the pain. This quieted my nerves, making my health much better. If Cardui does not benefit you, consult a physician."

Fred Yoder Will Marry Ohio Girl.

HILL RETURNS FROM SCHOOL

Coach Red Hill of the Snyder Tigers will return this week from Dallas, where he attended the annual coaching school of the Texas High School Coaches Association, and from a visit with relatives at other points.

This year's school saw not only the teaching of fundamentals, rules and methods, but a demonstration game between two picked high school teams. A 23-yard field goal in the second quarter by Bill Audish of Brenham gave the south a 3 to 0 victory over the north Saturday night in the all-star m.x.-up.

The coach plans to start fall training for the local Tigers about Monday, August 19.

Wife Takes Over Insurance Agency While Bill's Ailed

W. A. (Bill) DeBald, agent for Southwestern Life Insurance Company, has been half-sick and half-well for many a month. But Bill is a hard-headed cuss, so he just couldn't persuade himself for a long time that the best thing for him to do was to hoist his form into a bed and stay there for quite a spell.

Now Bill has become thoroughly convinced that unless he kicks off his old shoes and stays abed, he may be kicking the bucket. So to bed he went. Maude—she's Bill's wife—has seen quite a bit of business experience. And she's helped Bill a lot with this insurance business. The natural thing for Maude to do, therefore, was to take over Bill's insurance affairs while Bill is flat on his back.

Now Mrs. DeBald is the insurance salesman of the family. Last Wednesday and Thursday, in her new capacity, she attended a district meeting of Southwestern agents at the Wooten Hotel, Abilene.

O'Brien Closes Revival.

Rev. P. D. O'Brien of Colorado closed a successful revival at the Union Baptist Church Sunday afternoon. Community leaders say it was one of the most successful revivals held at Union in recent years, and the preacher expressed himself as well pleased with response to his messages.

Scurry County Farm Acreage Goes Up, But Valuations Drop Heavily

Although the number of farms in Scurry County increased from 1,564 to 1,603 from 1930 to 1935, value of farms dropped 54.3 per cent, according to a census by the department of commerce released last week. In the face of this decided drop, Scurry is several per cent better off in valuation than the average county in this section of the state, which shows a drop of 61.6 per cent.

Number of farms in 22 counties of this area increased from 29,466 to 31,195 during the five-year period. Total acreage in 1930 was 11,477,586; in 1935, 12,345,076.

Drop From $27 to $16. Value of farms (land and buildings) in 1930 was $321,171,362, representing an average of $27 per acre, including improvements. At the beginning of this year the value was $197,819,583, or an average of $16 per acre.

Largest number of farms, in any of the 22 counties was in Jones at last January 1—2,810. That county's 1935 census was nearer the 1930 number of farms than any of the other counties, having shown an increase of six. Gaines County showed the highest per cent increase in farm acreage, jumping from 524,733 in 1930 to 813,140 for 1935. Number of farms in that county was 407 in 1930 and 459 for this year.

In 1930 Jones County's farm value was highest of any in this group—$29,385,846. For 1935 the figure dropped to $15,537,543. Runnels County, with $20,980,105 this year, ranks highest of the 22 counties. Farm value in that county in 1930 was $28,668,744.

Increases in State. The survey showed Texas had approximately 501,000 farms January 1, 1935, compared to 495,489 five years earlier and their value was estimated at $2,582,664,909, compared to the 1930 estimate of $3,597,406,986. Almost 138,000,000 acres were in farms this year compared to 124,707,130 in 1930.

Number of farms in each county

In the two years, listing the 1935 figure list, follows:

Andrews, 85—75, Borden, 301—292, Callahan, 1,623—1,451, Coke, 876—823, Coleman, 2,373—2,583, Dawson, 1,946—2,218, Dickens, 1,062—1,228, Eastland, 2,420—1,990, Ector, 102—69, Fisher, 1,828—2,088, Gaines, 459—407, Haskell, 1,421—2,380, Howard, 1,034—1,194, Jones, 2,810—2,804, Knox, 1,268—1,460, Martin, 805—776, Midland, 520—361, Mitchell, 1,348—1,481, Nolan, 1,133—1,154, Runnels, 2,337—2,544, Scurry, 1,603—1,564, Taylor, 2,112—2,233.

Comparative Values.

The 12 highest ranking farm counties of the state were: Hidalgo, 6,965; Smith, 6,795; Cameron, 5,969; Hunt, 5,891; Rusk, 5,838; Fannin, 5,815; Collin, 5,785; Lamar, 5,582; Navarro, 5,607; McLennan, 5,570; Cass, 5,504.

The most valuable property, including land and buildings, was found in these counties: Hidalgo, $71,181,714; Dallas, $44,856,190; Cameron, $40,302,383; Wilbarger, $34,950,563; Williamson, $34,558,587; Nueces, $32,489,510; Ellis, 28,963,310.

"Pardon me," said the stranger, "are you a resident here?" "Yes," was the answer, "I've been here goin' on fifty years. What kin I do for you?" "I am looking for a criminal lawyer," said the stranger. "Have you any here?" "Well," said the other, "we're pretty darn sure we have, but we can't prove it."

FEDERAL MAN HERE FOR AREA CONFERENCES

T. C. Dodge Interviews Resettlement Administration Employees of Seven Counties.

Resettlement Administration employees from seven counties of the Lubbock district were here yesterday to confer with T. C. Dodge of Washington, personnel director for the federal government. The work was formerly known as rural rehabilitation.

The survey was made in preparation for complete federalization of the rural-aid set-up. David C. Fawcett, Scurry County supervisor, states that the work will be federalized about August 15. After that date all employees will work under civil service regulations.

This county has 118 clients who are benefiting from Resettlement Administration funds and assistance.

W. H. Gore, rural supervisor of the Lubbock district, and J. A. Fisher, rural supervisor of the Eastland district, were included in the list of about 15 visitors.

Material Here for Making of Clothing

Material arrived several days ago for making of clothing for Scurry county relief clients, according to Administrator Joe Monroe. Mrs. Abe Rogers began work Monday as chief seamstress over a group of women who are making shirts, dresses and many other garments.

The work is being done in the domestic science rooms of Snyder High School. More than $700 worth of material is being used in making the garments. It was purchased in open market by the Texas Relief Commission, according to Mr. Monroe.

Times Finds Extra Gas for Motorists Of This Trade Area

It has been a regular service of The Times to restore lost dogs, watches, pocketbooks and whatnots to anxious owners. But now our attention is called to the fact that we have helped find something which the owners did not know they had lost.

"Thanks to The Times," says E. F. Sears, local representative of the Gulf Refining Company, "a multitude of motorists have found that they have been losing gallons of good gasoline without realizing it—just as surely as if there were a leak in the gasoline tank!"

Mr. Sears refers to the result of a series of advertisements recently placed in The Times by his company, offering all motorists the new free booklet, "Fifteen Ways to Save Gasoline Money."

"Soon after the offer appeared in your paper, motorists began to flock to our filling stations to claim their copies of the booklet, and the original supply had to be renewed. An enthusiastic demand for them continues," Mr. Sears states.

Among the 15 simple, money-saving hints illustrated in the attractive little Gulf booklet, is a pertinent pointer on parking. It explains, to the surprise of most motorists, that a car figuratively "burns up gas" even when it is parked, depending on where and how you park it. Other hints in the booklet that materially increase mileage-per-gallon deal with proper use of the self-starter, accelerator, gear shifting and other ordinary operations in driving, any one of which wastes quantities of gasoline, if carelessly done.

Titled "Fifteen Ways to Save Gasoline Money," the booklet is free for the asking at all Gulf service stations and dealers.

G. L. Autry and his grandson, G. L. Autry Jr., returned Wednesday from Mountainair, New Mexico, where they visited for several days. They were accompanied by Mrs. L. Y. Dike of Amarillo.

Fairbanks-Morse Is Handled by Wilson

Ben Wilson, Manhattan Garage, announces this week that he has taken over the agency for the remarkable new Fairbanks-Morse electric refrigerator. He has one of the most popular models on display.

The new Fairbanks-Morse features a unique inner door known as the "Conservador." The manufacturers claim that it is the biggest forward step taken recently by electric refrigerator makers, since it not only saves time but money as well.

Wilson is also making a specialty of auto accessories, and can give 24-hour service on parts he does not have in stock.

Say Uncle! Harold And Parents Happy

Now it's Grandmother, Grandpa and Uncle Harold around the Pat Brown home.

To Mr. and Mrs. Ed Grissom was born Saturday morning in the West Texas Baptist Sanitarium a little lady who was promptly named Gail. Mrs. Grissom is the former Miss Lucille Brown, daughter of the local grocery owners.

Gail is a strapping youngster of 6 pounds, 13 ounces, and her health and features are above par, the Browns proclaim.

Grandmother and Grandpa, along with Uncle Harold, have been down to Abilene to see the first grandchild, of course.

Fight COLDS

with proper house heating

gas CIRCULATED HEAT IS HEALTHFUL HEAT

No mother wants to see her children sniff, sneeze and suffer with a dangerous cold. Yet, few consider the importance of proper house heating as a preventive.

Doctors tell us there is less chance of contracting colds in a home where a uniform temperature between 65 and 72 degrees is maintained in all rooms; that for healthful winter living avoid overheated, stuffy rooms with a chilling draft at floor level.

Gas floor furnaces and circulating heaters are the advanced types of heating equipment that maintain this comfort zone at low cost. They provide healthful heat because they circulate warm air to knock cold spots and chilling drafts. With a floor furnace no oxygen is taken from the air it circulates. Both are vented to eliminate wall sweating. Investigate this healthful gas heat and use it for fighting colds this winter!

NEW CIRCULATING HEATER—just as attractive in appearance as it is efficient in performance.

THE WEEKLY DOZEN

Weekly Rooseveltiana. 'It is our duty to see to it that the future population comes out of homes where they have been able to live under proper conditions, according to adequate American standards.'—President Roosevelt.

The Difference in Hospitals. Sweetwater voted onto herself $100,000 in bonds for the building of a hospital. It will take years and years to pay off the bonds, even if good times return 100 per cent.

Short Skirts and Long. Talkative Tillie says the short skirt era has been replaced by the short-neckline era, and that everybody seems to be satisfied.

Let's Get Our Share. WPA, the government's newest plan for relieving the unemployment situation, is waiting and anxious to receive definite plans for projects in this district, which headquarters at Abilene.

The Source of the Trouble. Pessimism Pete says it's easy enough for would-be employers to gripe about relief hands turning down jobs such as cotton chopping.

Where's Our Mr. Terry? Coleman County has a ginner, Terry by name, who guesses each year at the probable ginnings of his home county. He seldom misses the mark more than a few bales, probably because he bases his computations on many figures and constant study of conditions and past records.

Homemakers Seek Texas. The Santa Fe reports that homemakers from many states are casting eyes toward Texas as a prospective farm location.

True Sportsmen Rejoice. True American sportsmen are rejoicing over the ironclad duck-hunting regulations made effective recently by Uncle Sam.

An Ideal Year for a Fair. Although this may not be the biggest crop year in Scurry County annals, it is an outstanding year as far as raising really big things is concerned.

Jim Ferguson Observes. The Dallas News credits Jim Ferguson with his usual keen political foresight when the veteran campaigner declares he will not make any prophecies concerning the liquor amendment vote this month.

What About the AAA? If you know anything about what will happen to the AAA and the Bankhead, you probably know more than Secretary Wallace or any of his colleagues.

The Times Creed: For the cause that needs assistance; For the wrongs that need resistance; For the future in the distance, And the good that we can do.

Governor Alred Votes Dry.

Governor Alred, according to a recent propaganda sheet issued from state wet headquarters, has been silent on the liquor amendment to be voted on this month.

Such propaganda is typical of the wets' present effort—and past efforts—to keep Texas as wet as possible. The governor refuted their implications in no uncertain manner in Dallas last week.

No ifs and ands about Governor Alred on this liquor question. Further, he expressed the opinion and hope that Texas will vote dry in the election August 24.

Texas is becoming more and more convinced that there will be practically no control of the liquor situation in the state unless we retain the legal barriers we now have. Granting that our present anti-liquor laws are not nearly as effective as they should be and could be, one needs only to venture into states where the bars have already been let down to become thoroughly convinced that Texas is really dry compared to many of her neighboring states.

'Keep Texas dry for Texas youth!' is more than a slogan. It is a battle cry and a courageous, far-sighted statement of fact. The dries should be thankful that we have a governor who is not afraid to express a clear, forceful stand against the return of more grievous liquor conditions.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Monday afternoon, August 5, West Texas farmers had a rare treat when they sojourned that day to Amarillo, there to hear Henry Agate Wallace defend the AAA against the unwarranted attacks now being made by certain biased interests seeking to undo the work accomplished by the AAA program.

The recent bovine tuberculosis tests made in Scurry County by the Bureau of Animal Industry (U. S. Dept. of Agri.) were surprising in results. The most impressive fact established is that Scurry County cattle have one of the lowest per-head-infected rates in this section of the state.

EDITORIAL OF THE WEEK

THE "COUNTRY" LAWYER.

H. R. Pipkin of Amarillo, president of the Texas Bar Association, on the eve of the annual convention of lawyers, paid a tribute last week to the so-called "country" lawyer.

By training and experience the country lawyer wields more influence in his community and in the state and nation than any other class of citizen. The country lawyer is responsible for most of the legislation, for the creation of sentiment on public issues. He is by nature and training a logician and a leader.

As one of the sincerest tributes paid the legal fraternity it is notable that although as a class they are much maligned, there is always one lawyer in whom each layman places full confidence and expects, mentally or vocally, from his list when voicing condemnation.—Floyd County Hesperian.

Sympathy for Ethiopia.

Ethiopia, which was known only a few months ago simply as another "nigger" country, has leaped into the sympathy of the world almost overnight. Mussolini and his Italians hint that other major powers might have conducted wars of conquest, under some other guise, in the past.

We must get the idea that the Heavenly Father gave this earth to everyone and did not intend for any of us to be a pig with any part of it.—Newton D. Baker, attacking "national isolation."

We Harp on Hard Times, But This Old Timer Says We're Living Amid Plenty

"We harp on the subject of hard times," writes Mrs. Joseph W. Lynch of Fluvanna to The Times, "but after reading this article sent to a West Virginia newspaper by an old-timer, I think we are living in a land of plenty and have much to be thankful for."

This is what the old-timer had to say, as relayed to The Times by Mrs. Lynch:

"Don't talk to me about hard times. I was born ten miles from a railroad, eight miles from a school, nine miles from a church, 885 miles from New York, 200 yards from a wash hole, 15 feet from a corn field, and 8,863 miles from Hong Kong."

"Our nearest neighbor lived two miles away, and they couldn't read nor write. I never saw a suit of underwear until I was 17 years old, and that revelation didn't belong to anybody in our family. The only book in the house during my early childhood was a Bible and a catalogue someone had sent us."

Had Plenty of Room.

"There were 12 members in our family, but you see we had three rooms to live in, including a dining room which was also the kitchen. Everybody worked at our house. We thought everybody else in the world had gravy and bread for breakfast, liver and cracklin hoe cake for dinner, butter milk and corn pone for supper, because that's what we had and liked it."

"Some of us wore trogan shoes occasionally in the winter time. We had nice white shirts for summertime use. We slept on straw ticks, and pillows were not thought of nor required. I didn't know that money would rattle until I was nearly grown. Father got hold of two half dollars at the same time and let us hear them rattle. Taxes were not higher but harder to pay than now."

"We owned two kerosene lamps (neither of which had a chimney). Our house wasn't ceiled, two of our rooms had lofts in them. We had a glass window in our company room. Our nicest piece of furniture was a homemade rocking chair. Our beds were of the salt or tight rope variety. The trundle bed took care of all the young ones under five years of age and it stayed full all the time."

How "We" Did It.

"We went to school two or three months in the year (but not in a bus). We attended church once a month (but not in a car); we used a two-wheeled wagon. We dressed up on Sundays (but not in silks and satins). We neither wrote letters nor received any. We made our own lye hominy, distilled our own lye from ashopper. We drank sassafras tea and never had a yearning for coffee."

"We sopped our own molasses, we ate our own meat, we considered rice a delicacy only for the preachers to eat, we had heard of cheese but never saw any, we got a stick of candy and three raisins for Christmas and were happy. We loved Pa and Ma and were never hungry, enjoyed going naked, didn't want much, expected nothing. And that's why our so-called hard times are not hard on me."

Mrs. Banks Shows Peaches from Yard

Peaches that make your mouth water are being shown by Mrs. C. L. Banks at her home in East Snyder. Two Elberta trees are not only yielding plenty of fruit this year—but such huge, luscious fruit that you'd be tempted to deny that it came from Scurry County.

June Shows Highest Farm Business for Housing Credit Plan

More business was transacted with the farmers under the modernization credit plan of the Federal Housing Administration during the month of June than any other month of its existence, says a report from Washington.

More than 1000 farm modernization credit loans were extended through financial institutions approved by the Administration during the month. This was a gain of approximately 300 over the number of loans extended during May.

The June credits totaled $863,503.50. Since the inception of the modernization credit plan, 7,589 farm loans have been made, totaling $3,114,419.09.

California led the United States during the month of June with 307 credits extended in the amount of $145,272.80. New York was second with 157 credits totaling $66,961.93 and Michigan was fourth with 96 credits totaling $31,237.

SOLDIER BOYS OFF TO COAST

Company G, 142nd Infantry, Texas National Guard, left Snyder Friday afternoon, by way of the Santa Fe, in full regalia and happy spirits. Captain John E. Sentell commanded practically a full company of 65 enlisted men and three officers.

The boys have fallen down on the job of sending The Times its customary weekly quota of camp news, but readers may look for direct word from the Palacios camp next week.

Three Wives at Camp.

Three wives of National Guard officers are in camp with their husbands at Palacios. One of them informed The Times before the Company G leavestaking Friday that the wives' division at camp is known as "squares' quarters."

Rev. Hays Goes to Lead Ira in Revival

Ira Baptists will be led in a revival beginning Friday night by Rev. Lawrence Hays, pastor of the local Baptist church. The meeting will continue for 10 days. Initial sermons will be preached by the Ira pastor, Rev. R. R. Cumble, since Rev. Hays is closing out a successful two-weeks revival at Hermleigh this week.

The local pastor will be in his pulpit both services Sunday. In the evening he will preach his second sermon on Revelations, "Christ's Message to the Seven Churches of Asia." A women's quartet will sing in the morning, the junior choir in the evening.

Mrs. Wyatt Has Operation.

Mrs. H. E. Wyatt underwent an appendix operation in the West Texas Baptist Sanitarium, Abilene, Sunday. Friends say that she is improving nicely. She was accompanied there by her husband and Misses Louise and May Butler of Camp Springs.

Cotton Aided by Hot Weather and Ranges Are O. K.

Says the Santa Fe Railway agricultural report for July:

The fair and hot weather prevailing generally in South, East and Central Texas during the first two weeks in July enabled farmers to accomplish a great deal in cultivating their crops which had been interfered with by the unusually wet weather encountered during the month of June.

Cotton was greatly benefited by the hot, dry weather and generally the plant is thrifty and making good progress.

During the latter part of July light rains were general; more threatened. Although due to government regulations there has been less than normal cotton acreage planted, prospects seem to promise a fairly good yield. It is doing well in the northwest.

Business Tone Optimistic.

An almost universally optimistic tone pervaded American business last week with current indications of the upswing anchored on a firm foundation, writes Rader Winget, Associated Press financial writer.

Due to wet weather at harvest time in a large part of the wheat and oats area, yields of these crops were not so satisfactory as anticipated. In other parts, dry weather reduced the wheat yield. Harvest will be finished early in August.

The corn crop rapidly is maturing with a near record high yield practically assured—106,000,000 bushels, compared with an average yield of 84,000,000 bushels. While as a rule corn produced in Texas is used by the producer for feeding, it is apparent that this season there will be a surplus for the open market. Other row and feed crops promise favorable yield. Cattle ranges are in splendid condition.

FARMER MADE PRESIDENT OF SCHOOL HEADS

County Superintendent Has Same Place Pat Bullock Occupied Several Years Ago.

Frank Farmer, county superintendent, returned last Friday from A. & M. College, where he completed a three-weeks administration course, and where he was elected as president of the state supervisors and county superintendents organization.

Farmer's selection for the position marked the first time in the 14-year history of the organization that one county furnished two presidents. The present superintendent is following in the shoes of A. A. (Pat) Bullock, who was president of the group several years ago. Bullock is now chief of the rural aid division of the state department of education.

Plans for the coming year call for closer organization of county superintendents and supervisors than ever before, Farmer said on his return. In conjunction with Miss Jimmie Oge, county superintendent of Waller County, who is secretary of the state-wide organization, Farmer hopes to map a full program of activity and to name committees that will carry out the program.

More than 50 school leaders attended the first part of the three-weeks course at A. & M. At the annual meeting of the county superintendents and supervisors organization, held at the close of the school in connection with the annual farmers' short course, attendance passed the 200 mark.

Lace Says Interest And Attendance Hit New High at Course

Back in Snyder Tuesday after attending the 26th annual farmers' short course at A. & M. College, County Agent W. R. Lace said interest and attendance hit an all-time high peak.

The agent interviewed several agents and stock owners who have used General Lindan, state-owned jack who will come to Snyder August 25, and learned that all were highly pleased with the famous animal.

H. H. Williamson, founder of the A. & M. Extension Service which sponsors the five-day school, speaking to the general assembly, pointed out many phases of the "changing country life." Increased farm prices and the distribution of money in every county under the government's agricultural program have brightened the outlook of farm people of Texas, he said.

Green Made Leader Of Area Route Men

J. L. Green, carrier of rural mail route No. 3 out of Snyder, was named at a recent meeting in Colorado of district rural carriers as president of the area group.

Associated with Green in district leadership are J. S. Williams of Colorado, vice president, and E. E. Smith of Colorado, secretary-treasurer.

Dr. C. Q. Smith, president of McMurry College, Abilene will preach for us next Sunday, 11:00 a. m. In the evening service, 8:30 p. m., we invite the men who are building the highway through our county to be our guests of honor. The undersigned will be in the pulpit in the evening service.—H. C. Gordon, pastor.

Depression in the Church.

A minister in a certain town in Alabama took permanent leave of his congregation in the following manner:

"Brothers and sisters, I come to say goodbye. I don't think God loves this church, because none of you ever die. I don't think you love each other, because I never marry any of you. I don't think you love me because you have not paid my salary. Your donations are moldy fruit and wormy vegetables, and 'By their fruits ye shall know them.'"

"Brethren, I am going away to a better place. I have been called to be chaplain of a penitentiary. 'Where I go ye cannot come, but I go to prepare a place for you' and may the Lord have mercy on your souls."

12,307 HEAD OF STOCK TESTED

When representatives of the federal bureau of animal husbandry completed testing of Scurry County cattle Wednesday, they reported that 12,307 head of livestock had undergone tuberculosis tests. Since only 10 per cent of range herds were tested, it is estimated that the county has a cattle population upwards of 20,000 head.

Dr. E. L. Jones, who is in charge of the testing crew of eight veterinarians and eight county assistants, states that only two reactors—cows showing tuberculosis symptoms—were found in the county. Reactors will be checked again after 60 days.

The testing crew leaves this week for Jourdantown. They have been in Scurry County about three weeks.

Jack Emmons to Move.

Jack Emmons, formerly of Kansas City, who has been associated for several weeks with Graham & Martin, will leave next week for Hurley, New Mexico, where he has a position as manager of a tailor shop. Emmons is employed this week at the Jack Colwell shop while Jack is taking a vacation trip.

New Flour From Cotton Seed Means More Money for Farmers of Texas

More money for Texas farmers and a valuable addition to the human diet is promised by the development at Fort Worth of a palatable flour from the kernel of the cotton seed, goal of research men for three decades.

Credit for the discovery and perfection of the flour, which has won the approval of the American Medical Association's committee on foods, goes to C. W. McMath, young chemist, and T. J. Harrell, past president of the Texas Cotton Seed Crushers' Association.

Practical feeding tests have proven that the new basic food is rich in proteins, contains vitamins "B" and "G" and furnishes the body with much needed phosphorus.

New Cotton Revenue.

Harrell sees in the new product a great potential source of revenue to cotton growers throughout the South.

"It is entirely possible that a great amount of cotton will be raised mainly for the seed within a few years," he says. "Even larger and better seed may be developed."

Harrell had the cotton seed flour question in his mind as long ago as 1926. He wasn't the first. Hundreds of others had thought of the idea, even worked at it, for more than 30 years. However, no urgent need for experimentation struck Harrell until he, like others, was faced with dwindling markets of the depression. He sought a way out.

McMath Is the Man.

Determined to go after the problem scientifically, he went to Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College and there singled out McMath as the man he needed. The young scientist specialized in cotton seed research and, after completing two advance scholarships, came to Harrell's mill, Fort Worth, in 1932 to begin his work.

For six months McMath applied himself to learning operations of the mill from the time the seed entered the warehouse until it was turned out in one of its many finished forms. Harrell then provided him with a fully-equipped laboratory and experiments were begun in earnest.

McMath lived with his problems in the laboratory for eight months. At the end of that time, he was confident he had attained his goal, palatable human food from the kernel of the cotton seed.

Flour Finally Produced.

But test tube and commercial production are two different things. He reversed the procedure and started again. Days and nights of work finally resulted in success. A flour, light tan in color and rich and smooth in texture came from the laboratory.

The next and largest problem, according to Harrell, was development of machinery capable of turning out the flour in large quantities.

To this end, then, McMath bent his efforts. As a machinist, he evolved designs he believed would accomplish his aims. Experts frankly were skeptical, but Harrell put $150,000 into the revolutionary machinery.

While Harrell and his associates looked on, the switch was turned. Gears and wheels roared into action, and a few minutes later cotton seed flour, a new source of revenue for the Southern farmer, was a reality.

He Was Right—His Father Was A Big Man . . .

A thin little man brought his small boy into a bank one day, and helped him start a bank account. "Now," he said, "you're doing something for our town."

The boy couldn't see it, until his father explained that he was helping to maintain a safe storage place for the people's money.

"Imagine," his father said, "a town without schools, post office, churches, courts or banks."

The boy couldn't imagine it, but he seemed sure his father was a big man. He was right.

Sponsor Invited To Attend Rodeo Near Sweetwater

Snyder has been invited by the Sweetwater Board of City Development to send a sponsor to the fifth annual Nolan County rodeo, which is to be staged at the Double Heart Ranch August 16, 17 and 18.

Sponsors to the rodeo will be guests at a Sweetwater hotel, and there will be no entrance fee or any other item of expense to them. Winning sponsors will receive prizes as follows: First, $100 hand-made cowgirl boots; second, $75 hand-made cowboy hats; third, $15 Stetson hat; fourth, $10 hand-made purse.

"It will be the finest and most complete rodeo in the Southwest," declares Ollie Cox, manager. "A rousing downtown parade will be followed by 14 events at the rodeo grounds. There will be a fiddling contest carrying cash prizes, dancing every night, a complete change of program daily, and a free barbecue for all.

"We are receiving letters from world-famous cowboys and cowgirls from practically every state who are planning to be here and help in making this show successful. We are using the well-known Red Lyons string of bucking horses and steers."

More Than Half of Deposits in Closed Banks Not Yet Paid

More than half the deposits in 6,000 banks in receivership in the United States remained unpaid on December 31, 1934, it is disclosed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation as a result of a recently completed survey of bank liquidations.

Total deposits tied up with the failure of 6,352 banks for which figures which were available were more than 4.7 billion dollars, of which 51 per cent was still not realized to depositors at the year-end. Almost all the banks had been closed for at least one year, many of them for much longer periods, the report revealed.

Included in the figures are nine closed insured banks, all of which suspended during the last six months of 1934. Records of the FDIC show that practically every depositor of these banks had received full payment of his claim by December 1.

Snyder National Bank depositors are insured under Uncle Sam's new plan.

Max McClain and wife of Dallas visited with Gay McClain last week. The Dallas man is route agent for the Railway Express Company there.

Young Woman Tells Lions About "Men"

"Men" was the subject of a combined prose and poetry talk made to the Lions Club Tuesday at noon by Miss La Vada Baze of Colorado, student in Texas Tech, Lubbock. The male of the species was given a personal and scientific diagnosis from the standpoint of "an unfound jewel" of the female species.

Mrs. Inez Brown, aunt of Miss Baze, was also a guest of the club. Miss Baze is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Baze, formerly of Snyder.

A. C. Prentiss, second vice president of the club, was in the chair in the absence of President John E. Sentell and First Vice President Frank Farmer.

directors present, 25 voted to make the bond—and the writer was not one of the 25.

"Soon after coming home from the convention in April, realizing full well what our president, Mr. Yakey, had recommended in his address there—that the valley ginners' district take up the fight alone if the state ginners saw fit not to take part—I contacted many of the ginners of the Abilene district, and not one did I find that wanted to fight the case. Since that, also, was my personal position, I tried every way that was honorable to get the state association to stay out of the fight.

Realized His Position. "I realized it would be hard to keep the state association out of the fight when the president was so inclined, I told him after the meeting, that ordinarily he was on the right side, but that he certainly had gone haywire this time. However, I want to say in this connection in justice to Mr. Yakey that he lives in South Texas, and last year it cost ginners down there something over $1 per bale, whereas here it was somewhere between 25 cents and 50 cents per bale.

Position of Members. "I also told Mr. Thompson that as I understand the matter, ginners who have paid their 1935 dues are considered members of the state association in good standing, and that in all probability bale tags would be withheld from them, as long as they are parties to the suit. "Consequently I am recommending that the ginners of my district do whatever is necessary to get out from under this ruling, even if we have to withdraw from the state association. I would be glad to get the directors together again and see if they will not be willing to withdraw the suit and anything else that it is necessary to do to keep from tying up any part of this crop."

Refreshing Relief When You Need a Laxative

Because of the refreshing relief it has brought them, thousands of men and women, who could afford much more expensive laxatives, use Black-Draught when needed. It is very economical, purely vegetable, highly effective. Mr. J. I have taken it for constipation and the dull feelings that follow, and have found it very satisfactory."

WTCC Meeting at Abilene Will Be Attended by Ely

Sixth of a series of seven district conferences in the territory of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce will be held in Abilene Wednesday, August 14, said an announcement from the WTCC's headquarters office at Stamford.

W. J. Ely, local director, and several other local leaders, are planning to attend the gathering.

Seven conferences are being arranged for the period of August 7-15 inclusive, for discussion of regional matters including the Works Progress Administration program, highway development and proposed constitutional amendments before the electorate of Texas August 24—with emphasis on the old age pension and school apportionment amendments. The WTCC opposes the former, favors the latter.

Conferences will start with a Dutch lunch at noon, business meeting extending through mid-afternoon. Ray H. Nichols, WTCC president, and D. A. Bandeen, manager, will make the circuit. Invitations are going to town directors, presidents and secretaries of local chambers of commerce, mayors and city commissioners, judges and county commissioners, and school superintendents of cities and counties.

The schedule of meetings: Wednesday, August 7, at Lubbock, August 8, Amarillo. August 9, Vernon. Monday, August 12, Mineral Wells. August 13, Brownwood. August 14, Abilene. August 15, Ozona. Abilene is in the WTCC's district 5, counties being: Scurry, Fisher, Jones, Shackelford, Stephens, Taylor, Mitchell, Nolan, Callahan and Eastland.

Walker Not Worried About Making Living With Fruit, Truck

Out in Northeast Snyder is a fellow who dares to raise plenty of stuff to eat on a small plot of ground. "I'm not worried about making a living, although it may not be such a high living," says Dr. C. E. Walker, "as long as I can water my patch from my little windmill."

Just to show that he really is in earnest about this business of making a living, Dr. Walker brought several samples for display at the Times office.

The fairest sample of all is a big bunch of Tokay grapes, which the local man is raising this year for the first time. Although not ripe yet, the cluster weighs about three pounds, and some of the fruit is turning dull red. From the same place came a large apple of an early variety, which is not overly successful because of insects and worms. But Doc Walker has plenty of faith in his delicious apples, a fair-sized sample of which was brought to the newspaper office. These will not ripen until fall.

And Doc has peaches—large, fat juicy ones, almost ripe. Two of the largest ones are included in the batch of samples. To top off the line-up, the garden and fruit man presents samples of the Japanese date, which resembles a large peanut in size and shape.

"I water my stuff the year round, instead of neglecting it during the 'off' seasons," says the successful grower. "And I believe that is one of the biggest reasons why I have plenty to eat every year."

Softball League Ends First Half Of Games Today

The first half of the local softball season is closing today (Thursday), and initial game of the second half will be played Friday evening at 6:45 o'clock. At a meeting of the four team captains Tuesday night, and with the agreement of the league manager, Marcel Josephson, it was decided that second-half games will be played seven innings instead of nine. No player can be dropped from a team's line-up without a four-day notice, and no new player can be placed on a team until he has been registered with Josephson for at least four days. Each team has a 15-team limit, and no player may henceforth be chosen from outside of Snyder.

Following is the complete schedule for the second half: Friday, August 10, No. 1 vs. No. 2 Monday, August 13, No. 3 vs. No. 4 Tuesday, August 14, No. 1 vs. No. 3 Wednesday, August 15, No. 2 vs. No. 5 Thursday, August 16, No. 1 vs. No. 4 Friday, August 17, No. 2 vs. No. 2 Monday, August 20, No. 1 vs. No. 2 Tuesday, August 21, No. 3 vs. No. 4 Wednesday, August 22, No. 1 vs. No. 2 Thursday, August 23, No. 2 vs. No. 4 Friday, August 24, No. 1 vs. No. 4 Monday, August 27, No. 2 vs. No. 3 Tuesday, August 28, No. 1 vs. No. 2 Wednesday, August 29, No. 3 vs. No. 4 Thursday, August 30, No. 1 vs. No. 3 Friday, August 31, No. 2 vs. No. 4 Monday, Sept. 3, No. 1 vs. No. 4 Tuesday, Sept. 4, No. 2 vs. No. 3 Wednesday, Sept. 5, No. 1 vs. No. 2 Thursday, Sept. 6, No. 3 vs. No. 2 Friday, Sept. 7, No. 1 vs. No. 3 Monday, Sept. 10, No. 2 vs. No. 4 Tuesday, Sept. 11, No. 1 vs. No. 4 Wednesday, Sept. 12, No. 2 vs. No. 3

Presbyterian Church

The regular laymen's worship service will be conducted next Sunday by the men's Bible class, under direction of J. A. Farmer, who is the teacher. The men are planning a very interesting program for the regular morning worship hour at 11:00 o'clock.

The young people's society of the Christian Endeavor will meet at 7:30 p. m. for their study of "The Teachings of Jesus." Sunday school will meet in all departments at 9:45 a. m. On last Sunday there was a favorable increase in the Sunday school attendance and it is hoped that it will continue to grow.

At the mid-week prayer service Wednesday evening the study of "Our Presbyterian Church" will be continued. On next Wednesday the history of the local church and its activities will be studied.

You are cordially invited to worship with us at all of our services.—Alfred M. Dorsett, pastor.

Absentee Voters Subject to New Rules This Year

Nature of business or illness are the only reasons that will enable you to cast an absentee ballot in the special state election of August 24, when several proposed constitutional amendments will be voted upon.

Absentee voting by mail will begin Monday and casting of absentee ballots in person at the county clerk's office will start five days later. Both forms of absentee voting may be done until three days before the election.

New regulations governing absentee ballots provide that nature of one's business, sickness or physical disability will be the only legal reasons permitting casting of such ballots. The citizen must first file an application with the county clerk. If illness is given as reason for voting absentee a physician's certificate must be filed with the written application.

Persons now away from their home voting places may write to the county clerk in their home counties for applications to vote. They must then have the applications filled out before a notary public and returned to their home counties with receipt or exemption certificate and 24 cents to cover postage must accompany the applications mailed to the notaries. The voters will then mark the ballots in the presence of notaries, and have them mailed back to the county clerks.

Poverty can not be long concealed by expensive clothes.

Dr. Robertson Will Be Gone Two Weeks

Dr. R. C. L. Robertson, local physician-surgeon, will be in active U. S. Army service from August 11 to August 25, he announced yesterday.
