

MURPHY WELL PUMPS IN PAY SAND AT 2330

E. L. Goss J. E. Murphy No. 1 May Be Good Pumper When Gas Is Controlled.

The E. L. Goss J. E. Murphy No. 1, oil test just southwest of Ira, began slow pumping in pay sand at 2330 feet Tuesday. It hit the sand several days earlier, went on down to 2343 feet, then tried to start the pump a few feet higher.

Gas continues to blow through to some extent, but G. M. Heinzelmann, independent operator, believes the gas will be controlled in a day or two. Drillers will venture no guess as to the well's potential pumping capacity, but it is generally agreed that it will equal other 12 or 15 barrel pumps in that vicinity.

The well is located just a quarter mile west of the Owen Sloan J. E. Murphy No. 1, which has been on the pump for more than five years at an average output of 12 barrels daily.

Play in the sandy land belt was given another boost Monday, when the Coffield & Guthrie W. A. Wade No. 1 was spudded in 690 feet east of the Sloan-Murphy well. The new test has 330 feet from the north line and 330 feet from the west line of Section 115.

The Magnolia W. M. Scott No. 1, a prospected deep test seven miles south of Snyder, passed the 500-foot mark at 4:00 o'clock this (Thursday) morning. Drilling was begun less than two weeks ago.

New Buses to Be Used by Quartet of Area Schools

Seven shining new school buses are being brought into the county this month for use during the 1935-36 season. Three are at Pivanna, two at Dunn, one at Hermleigh, and one at Snyder.

Henry Ellerd and Diddy Smith returned early last week from Peayune, Mississippi, with a truck apiece for the Dunn district, where the new term will begin September 3. Ellerd is a Dunn trustee. A third bus was bought new last year.

Superintendent E. O. Wedgworth and three trustees—C. T. Perry, W. H. Jones and C. V. Lemons—brought back three buses from the Mississippi town, where bus bodies are made, several days ago.

The buses can be transported cheaper overland than they can be shipped; thus the long journey of Scurry County men to get them.

All the new buses are Internationals. Snyder's newcomer has arrived, and awaits school opening September 9. Hermleigh's bus is expected within the next few days.

Westfall Has Part In Austin Inquiries

Representative Leonard Westfall from this district has been taking a prominent part in the legislative committee investigating J. E. McDonald, state commissioner of agriculture, charged with official misconduct.

Westfall was one of three members of the five-man committee who sought to dismiss the inquiry several days ago. The dismissal was finally brought about, not long after a fist fight between C. L. West, assistant state auditor, and C. E. McCormick, chief of the markets and warehouse division of the department of agriculture, last witness to be heard by the committee.

Wiley Rogers Is a Jones Heavyweight

Wiley Rogers Jones, born Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Jones at their home here, has all the earmarks of a remarkable young man.

In the first place, he is a heavyweight with almost 13 pounds of avoidpups at birth, and with strength enough to raise his wise head from the pillow.

Secondly, he has illustrious namesakes. He was named from Wiley Post and Will Rogers, who met their deaths in an airplane accident two days before his birth—and from his papa, who has become widely known in these parts as a boxer, baseballer, and service station man of the first water.

Wiley Rogers Jones will be known to the homefolks simply as Rogers.

FIVE MEMBER RELIEF BOARD HAS RESIGNED

Scurry County Group Follows the Example of Other Boards in District Set-Up.

Following an example set by several other West Texas relief boards, the five-member Scurry County board Tuesday night voted unanimously to forward its resignation to the Texas Relief Commission at Austin.

All members of the county board have served for more than two years. They served in an advisory capacity in dealing with county relief clients.

The board is composed of Chairman W. J. Ely, Secretary H. J. Brice, Lee T. Stinson, F. I. Townsend and Harrie Winston.

The official statement prepared and signed by the board is as follows:

"Whereas, the undersigned have heretofore been duly appointed as members of the county relief board of Scurry County, Texas, by virtue of S. B. 46 Chapter 37, acts of first called session of the 43rd Legislature of the state of Texas, Section 4 of said act, it is deemed to be the best interest of the county and state that such members as sign hereto resign from further duties as members of such county relief board for Scurry County, Texas;

"Accordingly, we, the undersigned, hereby submit to the Texas Relief Commission this our resignation from the duties and responsibilities of the above mentioned office and request that such resignation be accepted promptly and proper notice thereof be given of record."

The local relief office went out of existence last week with establishment of district offices for seven counties at Sweetwater.

Hoppe Here for PWA Conference Early This Week

R. C. Hoppe of Abilene, engineer for this WPA district, was in Snyder Tuesday and early Wednesday to confer with officials in regard to preparation of projects under the new federal works proposal.

He met Tuesday evening with the county planning board and Wednesday morning with the Commissioners Court. The court is making plans to secure an engineer to complete draft of the county-wide farm-to-market road project.

The planning board, at conference with the visitor, emphasizes the fact that communities or governing groups should work out plans immediately for future WPA projects. It is probable that only a few jobs will be rushed through before the cotton harvest season here, but project plans should be completed so that they will be ready for unemployment may be severe early next year.

The local gymnasium project, a similar project at Dunn, and several other proposals are being prepared or have been sent to the district office for approval.

Government Cotton Man Here This Week

Scurry County was visited Tuesday and Wednesday by F. E. Lichte, field representative of the cotton commodity section of AAA. He works out of College Station.

The visitor went over cotton contracts and other matters pertaining to the federal cotton program, with County Agent W. R. Lacey and members of the county cotton committee.

ADJUSTMENT ADDS 25 PER CENT TO SCURRY'S COTTON INCOMES

While the cotton income of Scurry County farmers was much less in 1934 than in 1933, and even less in the disastrous year of 1932, it was almost 25 per cent more than it would have been had there been no adjustment program. It was announced by W. R. Lacey, county agent. The statement is based on official three-year county cotton figures just released from the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

Scurry County farmers last year received a total of $854,441.25 for their cotton, of which only $691,358.17 came from the market value. Benefit payments, which are designed to help bridge the gap between market price and parity price in normal years, served as crop insurance to Scurry County farmers in 1934. They received in this way a total of $163,083.08 through April 30 last.

These cotton figures do not include the value of unsold Bankhead certificates of which about nine

INTEREST HIGH IN TRENCH SILO CONFAB TODAY

Hundreds of Farmers Expected to Hear and See E. R. Eudaly On Brooks Place.

Advance interest indicates that hundreds of farmers will go out to Ben Brooks' farm this (Thursday) afternoon at 2:30 o'clock for a trench silo demonstration and explanation.

The place, six miles northeast of Snyder, will have a trench silo ready for demonstration at the hands of E. R. Eudaly, specialist of the A. & M. College Extension Service.

All farmers in this area, along with a number of business men and others interested in the most successful method of storing surplus feed, have been invited to the affair without charge.

Scurry County is especially interested in trench silos this year, for even if dry weather continues, many farmers will have a hefty feed surplus. Economy and practicality of the trench silos will be Eudaly's major points of emphasis.

CHILDRESS MAN IN TOWLE JOB

Gov. Allred last week appointed Dr. P. A. Presler of Childress to the state board of optometry to succeed Dr. H. G. Towle of Snyder.

The local optometrist did not ask for reappointment, although he was urged to do so by friends here and throughout the state. He was appointed to the board by Governor Dan Moody, and has since taken an active part in optometric affairs of the state. He was vice president of the board.

Governor Allred reappointed Dr. R. B. Hodges of Fort Worth to fill the other 1935 vacancy on the board.

Dr. Towle received a letter from Governor Allred several days ago in which deep regret was expressed that the local optometrist had not seen fit to accept the place again. Lack of time to care for duties of the office was given by Dr. Towle as the reason for his turn-down of the reappointment.

Little Interest in County and School Hearings on Budget

Budget hearing for the county of Scurry was a complete flop Wednesday. Reason: Nobody came to visit with the Commissioners Court about why and whereof of county finances during the new fiscal year.

Today (Thursday) afternoon at 4:00 o'clock has been set for the annual public hearing on the Snyder Independent School District budget. Anyone interested is invited to look into the matter at the office of A. C. Preuit, secretary.

This public hearing idea was put into effect throughout the state two years ago. Neither school, city nor county hearings have attracted more than a mere handful of citizens at any time.

Harley Sadler Circus

Harley Sadler, veteran Texas tent showman, announced Monday that he has purchased the Bailey Brothers circus of Tulsa, Oklahoma. After his first stand at Tulsa, Sadler will swing the three-ring circus into Texas about September 1. He will be manager of the circus as well as his regular show. Headquarters for both will be at Sweetwater.

World's Fair Calls Many From County; Special Texas Day

Scurry County has seen many of her citizens go to the California Pacific International Exposition at San Diego within the past few weeks. This week marked the climax of the Texas trek to the world's fair, with Texas Day being observed Wednesday. Thousands of Texans were in the California city that day.

Among visitors from the county to visit the exposition during mid-August are the three Boy Scouts—J. R. Luckabee, Eugene Pinkerton and Leon Aubry—who are making the bus trip with other scouts of the Buffalo Trail Council.

Chief features of Wednesday's program was Fat Neff, orator and famous governor of the Lone Star state and present president of Baylor University—and a record sized watermelon, weighing 100 pounds, the biggest of the 1935 Texas crop. Neff told Texans and the world just where Texas stands in universal affairs, and the watermelon was awarded to the holder of a lucky number ticket.

Stinsons in Angelo For Drug Sessions

Mr. and Mrs. Lee T. Stinson are in San Angelo for annual convention of the West Texas Pharmaceutical Association, which continues in session Tuesday through Thursday.

Principal speaker of the three-day convention is Congressman Wright Patman, who spoke yesterday.

Other speakers include Senator Westerfield of Dallas and V. C. Mielche of the drug institute of New York City.

WON BY TIMES

This is the cup that The Times won. It was presented to "Your Home County Paper" last week at Big Spring because judges decided that The Times won the title of "The Best Weekly Newspaper" in the territory of the West Texas Press Association. The cup stands 15 1/2 inches high, and is finished in gold with black base. Such an award was made this year at the annual association convention for the first time. It was donated by the Abilene Reporter-News and the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal. It becomes permanent possession of any paper winning it twice in succession.

Only Two Snyder Gridiron Scraps Slated For Home

Out of seven games lined up for the Tiger football squad this fall, only two are to be played on the home field. Three open dates are on the calendar, however, and Coach Red Hill plans to have at least two of them filled with local games.

The season opens with Slaton's Tigers entertaining the local Bengals on the night of Friday, September 13. Lamesa Tornadoes, regular champions of their region, will come here for the first home mix-up September 20.

Rolan Yellowhammers will be hosts to the locals in the first conference game October 4. October 11 will find Hill's proteges traveling to Lubbock to meet the strong Class A squad under lights. Three conference games follow: Roby here November 1, Roscoe at Roscoe November 11 and Colorado at Colorado November 22.

After two years of round robin play, this Class B area, known as District 6, has been divided for the 1935 season. Colorado, which has deserted Class A company after a fatal trial, has joined the western half. In the eastern half are Anson, Hamlin, Merkel, Munday, Rulo, Rochester and Stamford.

SCURRY COUNTY EXPECTED TO VOTE DRY AT SATURDAY POLLS

Two Wards, Four Rooms, Nursery To Be Furnished

That Snyder's new hospital, which will open its doors some time next month, is getting close to the hearts of folks in this trade territory is manifest by the fact that arrangements have been made for furnishing four rooms, two wards and the nursery.

The picture was given a Borden County slant recently, when von Roeder Seed Farms announced through their owners, Clemens and Nolan von Roeder, that a ward would be furnished. The Methodist Church had already agreed to furnish another ward.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Preuit have announced their intention of furnishing the nursery at the new structure.

Single rooms will be furnished by Joe and Lee Stinson, Mrs. J. W. Warren, Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Johnson, and Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Clark. The hospital contractors, Dunlap & Coughran, stated yesterday that the building will be ready, as far as they are concerned, shortly after September 1.

Prizes Awarded to Winners of Service Club Music Contest

Tall Twister W. E. Holcomb rose to the heights of his glory Tuesday at the Lions Club luncheon when he awarded prizes to winners in a music contest conducted at the club last week.

To Roland Bell, who identified more of the 12 tunes than any other Lion, went first prize—a shoe shining outfit. Less pretentious but more laughable prizes were awarded Dr. H. G. Towle, "R. S. & Preuit," and Warren Dodson. Several members were fined for being too ignorant of the finer points of music.

The fun of the hour continued to the end, with Earl Louder and Hal Lattimore of the program committee presenting a play called "Gathering of the Nuts."

Secretary Herman Darby read a report of local Lions Club activities during the past fiscal year as recorded in the annual report of International Secretary Melvin Jones to the convention at Mexico City last month.

Frank Farmer, first vice president, was in the chair. Miss Florentz Winslow was accompanist.

Softball All-Stars Prepare for Abilene

A local all-star softball team, under the captaincy of Red Hill, worked out Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons at the school grounds. The softballers are getting primed for the Abilene tournament, which begins Thursday evening.

The locals will form one of 16 teams that will work during the elimination tournament for four prizes totaling $190. Marcel Josephson, local manager, has been notified that the Snyder team will play the Breck-mridge Hamlin Gasline Company squad at 9:00 p. m. Monday.

Snyder Shocked to Learn of Accident

News of the Will Rogers-Wiley Post fatal airplane accident in Alaska last week spread like wildfire through Snyder streets Friday morning.

"I was shocked as she has not been absent in many months, for the two pioneers were almost like homebodies to Snyder and to the world.

"He was the greatest man in America," many a man and woman said of Rogers, as rumors became realities. "We could find another president if Roosevelt died, but there will never be another Will Rogers," someone remarked.

"So the shadows of Rogers and Post continue to walk the streets of Snyder; and may their shadows never grow less as time is admitted."

Interest in Election Probably Will Center on Prohibition Fate; Drys Close Campaign.

Scurry County is ready for the amendment election to be held Saturday, but interest is far from lively.

When the polls close at 7:00 o'clock in the evening, and ballots are counted, it is probable that less than two-thirds of the citizens who have paid their poll taxes will have cast their ballots. Since this is an "off" election year, less than 1,300 poll taxes were paid.

An indication of the lack of interest is found in the fact that only five absentee ballots have been received at the office of Mrs. Mattie B. Trimble, county clerk. Twenty-five to 50 absentee votes are cast ordinarily, and the number is above 50 prior to many elections.

Pro Question Leads

The prohibition amendment holds most of the local interest. Most observers, wet and dry, concede that this county will remain in the dry column, but there is a wide difference of opinion as to the state outcome. Generally speaking, it is believed that the city vote will be wet, the rural vote dry.

Scurry County Allied Forces for Prohibition are having 14 school and church house speaking over the county Tuesday and Thursday evenings of this week, climaxing several Saturday afternoon speaking on the Snyder square. The wets have not organized in the county.

Following is the condensed text of each amendment as it will appear on the official ballot.

Condensed Ballot.

For (Against) the Amendment giving the Legislature the power to provide a System of Old-Age assistance not to exceed Fifteen Dollars ($15) per month per person and to accept from the Government of the United States financial aid for old-age assistance.

For (Against) the Amendment of Article 1, Section 15, of the State Constitution by adding to said section a provision to the effect that the Legislature may provide for the temporary commitment of mentally ill persons not charged with a criminal offense by the County Court without the necessity of a jury trial.

For (Against) the Amendment to the State Constitution repealing State-wide Prohibition, prohibiting the open saloon and providing for Local Option.

Making Amendments.

For (Against) the Amendment to Section 1, Article XVII, of the Constitution of Texas, providing that Amendments to the Constitution may be proposed at Special Sessions of the Legislature under certain conditions.

For (Against) the Amendment to the State Constitution authorizing the Courts to place defendants on probation.

For (Against) the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas abolishing the Fee System of compensating all District Officers; and all County Officers in Counties having a population of 20,000 or more; and authorizing the Commissioners' Court to determine whether County Officers and Precinct Officers in Counties containing less than 20,000 population may be compensated on a Fee basis or on a Salary basis.

For (Against) the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas permitting the furnishing of Free Text Books to every child of Scholastic Age attending any school within this State.

Mrs. Joe Strayhorn gave the devotional for the afternoon; Mrs. Yoder talked on "Dry Kansas" and gave a reading, "Blossom"; Mrs. E. F. Wicker gave a history of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and a discussion of the life of Frances E. Willard; Mrs. J. E. Hardy told the scientific effect of alcohol on the brain and heart.

After the various talks, the group had a round table discussion on temperance. Mmes. W. W. Smith and H. C. Gordon favored the group with a vocal duet, "Yield Not to Temptation," with Mrs. W. W. Hamilton as accompanist.

Refreshments were passed by the hostesses to the following: Mmes. E. F. Wick, W. R. Shultz, W. E. Doak, J. W. Boren, J. E. Hardy, W. P. Smith, Joe Strayhorn, A. M. Curry, J. W. Browning, W. W. Hamilton, W. W. Smith and H. C. Gordon.

Lady Took Cardui When Weak, Nervous

"I can't say enough for Cardui! I talked all day," enthusiastically writes Mrs. L. H. Caldwell, of Statesville, N. C. "I have used Cardui at intervals for twenty-five years," she adds. "My trouble in the beginning was weakness and nervousness. I read of Cardui in a newspaper and decided right then to try it. It seemed before I had taken half a bottle of Cardui I was stronger and was soon up and around."

Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

Nibs Warren Marries In Denver, Colorado.

Marriage of Miss Mary Bess Ransberger of Amarillo and William Clinton Warren of Sudan was solemnized at Denver, Colorado, on July 28. The two were guests here last week of Warren's grandmother, Mrs. J. W. Warren.

Following the wedding the couple left for a honeymoon trip to the mountains of Colorado. They are at home in Sudan, where Warren, who is better known to his old friends here as "Nibs," is connected with the Magnolia Oil Company.

Mrs. Warren has attended the University of Colorado at Denver, where she was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. She has been teaching in Sudan for three years.

Nibs was born and reared here. He attended the Snyder public schools, and later was a student in Baylor University at Waco and at Texas Technological College, Lubbock.

First Baptist Church

The pastor will preach Sunday morning on "The High Priesthood of Jesus." There will be special music. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Every member of the church family ought to be in some class studying the Bible.

The subject of the evening hour is "Christ's Message to the Seven Churches." This is the second of a series of sermons on the book of Revelation. A great junior choir will lead the congregation in singing our great old gospel songs. B. T. U. meets at 7:30 p. m. Our goal is every Baptist trained and utilized in efficient service for Christ and world conquest.

To all who mourn and need comfort; to all who are weary and need rest; to all who are friendless and need friendship; to all who are homeless and need sheltering love; to all who sin and need a Savior and to "Whosoever will"—this church opens wide its doors and welcomes you. "Come this way and we shall do thee good"—Lawrence Hays, pastor.

Presbyterian Church

There is a danger that we shall lose the vertebrae in our religious thinking and service, and decline to a vague compromise. It is evident that we must get past the histories, the organizations and the theologians, and press on until we find an adequate dynamic by which the power of God becomes the power of every human soul and every institution bearing the name of Christ. The theme for the morning worship service next Sunday at 11:00 o'clock will be "The Dynamic We Need."

Should Be.

The theme for the evening worship service at 8:30 o'clock will be "Steadfastly Toward Jerusalem." Sunday school will meet in all departments at 9:45 a. m. The increase in the Sunday school attendance last Sunday indicates greater things in Sunday school activity in the weeks that lie ahead.

The young people's society of Christian Endeavor will meet at 7:30 p. m. Sunday to study the lesson topic, "Youth's Attitude Toward Prohibition; What Jesus Said It Should Be." The Tuxis and Pioneer Christian Endeavor societies will meet at the same time Sunday evening.—Alfred M. Dorsett, pastor.

THE WEEKLY DOZEN

A Suggested Slogan.

Pessimism Pete says Snyder will soon have so many cafes that the old town might adopt "He who eats here takes more chances" as a permanent slogan.

Through none of the eulogies of Wiley Post has run a sentiment that has always made the filer liked among newspapermen: He never bragged of his exploits, and he did not try to make after-dinner speeches.

Will Rogers Was Will Rogers.

Will Rogers left plenty of lessons with misinformed folks who frankly believe that the way to go up in the world is to assume high-and-mighty ways and go after friends and fortune in hammer and tongs style. With Robert Burns, the famous humorist's life said, "A man's a man for a' that."

Pick Your Picture Show.

Pick your favorite picture show from the shoot-'em-up series, if you will. Or pick it from the slimy love-everybody-you-can type, if that is your picture alley. But give us the old-fashioned human interest story, with a bit of pathos and a bit of humor, like "The Keeper of the Bees."

The Bus and Education.

Education has discovered in recent years that one of its staunchest friends is the school bus, which lifts thousands of youngsters from darkness into light, Scurry County, which pioneered in school bus use several years ago under Pat Bullock's foresight, continues to lead the parade. She has seven new buses this year.

The Miracle of Football.

The most breath-taking miracle of football is being unfolded out at Tiger Field each morning. No man can explain how Coach Red Hill can take a passel of green boys and make a football team out of them in less than a month. Fortunately, most of us do not try to explain the miracle. We just go to the games when game time comes, and enjoy every minute of the time this miracle is in action.

Recreation of Mind and Body.

If vacations prove anything, Snyder must be well on the road to recovery. Even a hasty observer can tell you that more folks are going to Arkansas, the Davis Mountains, Carlsbad Caverns, California—or down east to see the kinsfolk—than any other summer in recent years. The chances are that these vacations, if wisely taken, will actually mean more dollars to the vacationist in the long run; for a rested and recreated mind and body are precious jewels.

What Crop Insurance Means.

Less through floods and drought in Texas have made farmers come to the realization that the AAA program's greatest value to the farm lies in its "crop insurance." Compensation to some extent for hail, for wind damage, for drought or other natural causes is involved in the plan. Thus "insurance" is provided, and the farm operation stabilized thereby.—The Floyd County Hesperian.

Against Free Text Books.

We will vote against the amendment which proposes to provide free text books for all schools in Texas. Free text books are now furnished our free public schools—and that is as far as the taxpayers should be asked to shoulder the burden. Those who patronize private schools instead of public schools should ask no favors from the state.—Farmersville Times.

Let "Hooy" Tell Washington.

As we understand it, the big bosses at Washington have refused to send any more money to Huey Long's kingdom until some of his laws are repealed which the powers that be at the nation's capital don't particularly fancy. Now "Hooy" will have a perfect right to take a few days of the precious time of Congress to air his views, and cuss out the works as only the Kingfish can do. Mighty hot weather to listen to the seed in that gourd rattle.—Terry County Herald.

Against the Amendments.

Commenting last week on the amendments on which Texans will vote this week, Dale Miller in The Texas Weekly sums up the opinion of the state press by saying: "In this era of unrest and change the spirit is growing among the people to protect the Constitution of the state and nation against the hazards of experiment and undefined objectives. And it is not surprising that even proposals which may be desirable in principle are being strenuously resisted because some loose construction threatens to release constitutional principles to the manipulations of practical politics."

It Pays to Follow the Law.

Hundreds of forced land sales have been made in this county in the past few years. Notice of these sales have been posted instead of being published as the law requires. It is all right as long as the man that owns the land makes no kick, but just suppose oil should be found in this county and this land becomes worth tens of thousands of dollars per acre. You will see sharp lawyers coming into the county looking up these flaws in the land titles—taking these cases on a per cent basis and just what will happen you may surmise. It pays to follow the law.—Jayton Chronicle.

"Make Texas Dry for Texas Youth."

The slogan of ardent opponents of repeal of the state prohibition amendment is "Make Texas Dry for Texas Youth." It is a fiery, challenging appeal, and should be viewed without prejudice by those who are eligible to vote in Saturday's election.

This newspaper believes now and has always believed that Texas youth will be much better protected against liquor under the present system, poor though it may be, than it will be under a system that provides for a legal sale of intoxicants at every crossroads store. A hearty "NO!" should be and probably will be given efforts of liquor forces to repeal one of the last of our liquor-control statutes.

While the liquor amendments is the most vital that will face voters Saturday, others of importance are on the ticket too.

After careful consideration, the average voter will probably decide to scratch "the whole works." One or two of the amendments would undoubtedly be beneficial but they have "jokers" that would make them impractical in actual application. Vote "No" all the way down the line and you certainly will make no serious mistake.

Bill and Jake Say "Thank You."

The Times was signally honored last week, when it received a gold loving cup that designated it as "The Best Weekly Newspaper" in the territory of the West Texas Press Association.

Our first impulse must have been to kick up our heels and say, "Look what we did!" Our last and most thoughtful impulse was to write a word of thanks to the folks who really made the honor possible.

We are writing thanks, first of all, to the advertisers whose messages have furnished the "where-withal" for gathering news more efficiently, arranging the paper more effectively, and printing the paper more attractively. In short, we thank the purchasers of white space, whose confidence in The Times as an advertising medium has remained unshaken through depression, drought and prosperity.

Next, we must thank the readers who have expressed their approval of the paper by subscribing year after year. For five years now, without contests or premiums of any kind, The Times has maintained a list of paid-in-advance subscribers that covers practically the entire buying and reading public in the Snyder trade territory. Such loyalty—bought oftentimes at the price of sacrifice—is enough to spur any publisher to do his best!

The community correspondents who send their weekly letterful of news to The Times are likewise deserving of tribute from the publishers. They are faithful because they love their work. They are good will builders. They prepare a Times feature that is equalled in few weeklies anywhere.

And what would the paper be without a staff that works just as hard as the publishers do at the job of making The Times a more readable newspaper? The answer, obviously, is "Nothing."

So we pause this week to recognize a signal honor that has been thrust upon Snyder. Pausing, we thank our lucky stars that we live among folks who will inspire a fellow and help a fellow to do his dead-level best.

—Bill (Willard) Jones and Jake (J. C.) Smyth.

CURRENT COMMENT.

By Leon Gunn.

In a further perusal of the subject, appendicitis is the order of the day without doubt, 20 county cases within the last two weeks noted. . . . The feminine appendix is a lot the cutest, in a normal shape about the size of a lead pencil and three to four inches in length. . . . There really isn't any use of appendicitis being so widespread, once the laity understands how the appendix veriform becomes infected; the function of this sometimes dynamic little organ. . . . Factually speaking, a few surgeons are inclined to make overlong incisions in appendix reactors, thus resulting in a suture of undue length. . . . Since a gristle will form where the abdomen is sliced, it is good technique to leave as short a suture as possible. . . . Undue hardship is forced on the medical profession by patients bothered with appendicitis waiting until the last minute before the necessary operation. . . . In such instances the appendix, if not ruptured, is in a near gangrenous state; thus the odds are against both the surgeon and patient.

The appendix veriform (when normal) is the human body's oil filter. . . . It catches the residue of the digestive tract such as wee bits of stems, seeds (vegetative), and bodily toxics. . . . The appendix is an oil filter in the sense it is the intestinal lubricator, filtering out digestive residue. . . . Thus it is when the appendix is removed, mineral oil must replace this oil can of the intestines. . . . Not long since ye commentator became involved in a bitter controversy with the editorial staff of Time magazine, when Time said the appendix appeared to be the remnant of an organ might have needed thousands of years ago, was not essential today. . . . Editorial Secretary I. van Meter finally saying: "Since anatomists and doctors have for years accepted that theory of the appendix, we felt justified in so doing, still feel that the weight of evidence points in that direction."

The Times Creed:

For the cause that needs assistance;
For the wrongs that need resistance;
For the future in the distance,
And the good that we can do.

CENTENNIAL IS NOT PLEASING TO PRESSMEN

Snubbing West Texas in Allocations Arouses Ire of Newspapermen in Annual Session.

From Abilene Reporter-News.

Winding up the 1935 convention of their regional press association at Big Spring Saturday, West Texas newspapermen put reverse english on the ball in considering the Texas centennial. With loud noises they killed a resolution that would have put them on record as pledging cooperation in putting over the centennial celebrations set for next year.

The resolution was offered after short talks by Bill Kittrell, publicity director of the Dallas central exposition committee, and J. Ben Critz, manager of the Dallas chamber of commerce. For several minutes there was silence, with no second, then one member of the group said he would give a "courtesy second." After defeat of the resolution, several members arose to express resentment over what they termed the snubbing of West Texas in the allocations made to date from the state fund for secondary celebrations.

Times Wins Loving Cup.

To The Scurry County Times, published by Double Cousins Willard Jones and J. C. Smyth, went a beautiful gold loving cup offered by the Abilene Reporter-News and Lubbock Avalanche-Journal as token of being the "best weekly newspaper" in the membership territory. Second place went to the Nolan County News, edited by Luther M. Watson; and honorable mention to the Dickens County Times and Odessa News-Times. The contest was inaugurated this year, and under the rules the holder must win two years in succession to get permanent possession of the cup.

E. B. Harris, Rule Review, was elected president, and Midland was selected as the 1936 host city.

Harris has been president a few months, moving up from the vice presidency upon resignation of J. W. Roberts of Snyder, and the association tendered him a full year's term. Other officers elected were: Vice president, R. Henderson Shuffler, Odessa News-Times; secretary, J. C. Smyth, The Scurry County Times of Snyder; directors, T. Paul Barron, Midland Reporter-Telegram; Douglas Meador, Matador Tribune. Holdover directors are W. D. Starcher, Dickens County Times of Spur; Mrs. Mary Dunbar, Palo Pinto Star; and Max Bentley, Abilene Reporter-News.

Jackson and Bandeen.

Coldness in West Texas newspaper shops to the state's 100-year show was revealed several times during the two-day convention, Friday noon, talking from the subject, "West Texas and the Centennial," Dr. W. A. Jackson of Texas Technological College faculty drew continued applause when he went into details about the "short-changing" of West Texas, not only in allocation of centennial funds but in legislative representation. In the morning session, D. A. Bandeen, West Texas Chamber of Commerce manager, got a rousing hand when he said, "West Texas objects to all the money being spent in history, with nothing left for proper presentation of the state's natural resources which ought to be our drawing card for attracting people from other states to come and make their homes with us."

The association took note of two recent big stories in the news with adoption of resolutions in the death of Will Rogers and action of Houston newspapers in printing stories of the recent Angleton trial news.

Convention Speakers.

Convention speakers over the two days were Ray H. Nichols, president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce; Dr. W. A. Jackson, Texas Tech professor of government; Harry Hines, chairman of the Texas highway commission; and D. A. Bandeen, WTCC manager. Nichols, Jackson and Hines spoke Friday, the last-named at the association's annual dinner-dance; and Bandeen spoke Saturday morning at a breakfast given by his organization to all registered delegates, contributors to and members of the editorial board of the WTCC's magazine, "West Texas Today."

The magazine is unique in the respect that its editorial content is supplied by active newspapermen of West Texas, Bandeen telling the breakfast group that within the past three years 162 articles have been contributed by 86 newspaper men and women. At its wind-up session Saturday the convention adopted a resolution thanking the WTCC "for giving us, in the magazine, a meeting ground for exchange of opinions and information on our West Texas territory."

Mrs. Peck: "Henry, did you ever have more money than you knew what to do with?" Henry: "I must have had or I never would have got married."

Purina Dealers in Abilene for Study Of New Ingredient

Purina feed dealers of the Abilene area gathered in Abilene last week to hear announcement of a new ingredient—Pur-a-tene—which has been introduced in Purina feeds. The Abilene visitors included Clyde Boren and N. R. Clements of Winston & Clements, Snyder.

The meeting was conducted by G. L. James of Fort Worth, Purina assistant sales manager, who explained the new product. He was assisted by A. G. Gent, Abilene district agent.

"Through the facilities of the Purina experimental farm and research laboratories, a new process has been developed of extracting carotene (Vitamin A in its primary form) from plants and converting it into Pur-a-tene," said Mr. James.

"Pur-a-tene is concentrated green feed. It is rich in Vitamin A because it is made from nature's richest storehouse of this vitamin—the yellow coloring matter in plants and vegetables. It will mean a great deal to poultry raisers in extra eggs, improved health of hens and greater poultry profits."

Bryant-Link Stages Three Dollar Days

Bryant-Link Company has set aside Friday and Saturday of this week and Monday of next week as special dollar days—an event staged about twice yearly by the general merchandise store.

Extreme reductions have been made throughout the piece goods and clothing departments, according to E. E. Weathersbee, general manager, and A. C. Kincaid, manager of the clothing department. Especially is this true of goods that must be moved in order to make way for new fall merchandise.

COUNTIES ASK FOR NEW ROAD THROUGH AREA

Straightening of Route South of Sweetwater Would Bring on More No. 7 Traffic.

Delegates from Nolan, Runnels and Coleman Counties were in Austin Tuesday afternoon to appear before the State Highway Commission asking that the proposed Sweetwater-Winters-Coleman highway be built, with asphalt topping, as a lateral road project, said the Sweetwater Daily Reporter.

Preliminary estimates show cost of such construction would be in the neighborhood of $200,000, which would be derived from federal funds earmarked for building "farm-to-market" lateral roads.

The three counties hope that the lateral road might later be designated as a state highway.

Would Help Scurry.

If the proposed strip is built, new traffic would be pulled onto Highway No. 7 and thus through Scurry County and on toward Lubbock. The improvement would save about 18 miles between Sweetwater and Coleman, in addition to providing a hard-surfaced route.

S. S. Europa Makes Century Voyage

No Trace of Robbers.

Officers have unearthed no definite clues as to identity of thugs who carried the Winston & Clements safe out of the local feed store 10 days ago. The safe was found several hours after the hold stroke, completely ruined, and with more than $60 in cash and an equal amount in checks missing.

the three counties—Nolan, Runnels and Coleman—have set the project as No. 1 in the WPA program. They are hopeful of having the commission take the burden from the local sources and construct the road.

Starting from Sweetwater, the route would go over State Highway No. 70 south for about 14 miles, thence south and east across the Divide and to Hylton and the Runnels County line, a distance of 17 miles.

AUTO UPSETS, INJURES FOUR

Four Lubbock citizens whose auto overturned a mile north of Dermott on Highway No. 7 Friday morning sustained painful bruises, cuts and scratches. They were rushed to the Emergency Hospital, where they received first aid treatment.

G. W. Mallard, almost 90 years of age, was the most seriously injured. He sustained severe body bruises and head wounds. He was taken to his Lubbock home in an Odom ambulance after emergency treatment was given. His daughters, Miss Maggie Mallard and Mrs. W. J. Baze, and another Lubbock woman, were other members of the party.

A blowout and consequent loss of control of the car was blamed for the turnover. The four were going to Dallas.

Three Meetings of Women Clients Are Held by Supervisor

Mrs. Ruth E. Baker, rural home supervisor of Scurry County, has held three group meetings of her clients within the past week.

Mrs. A. F. Chitsey was hostess to a Pyron community gathering Wednesday of last week. Plainview clients gathered Thursday at the home of Mrs. Silas Jones, and Camp Springs clients met Friday.

Methods of canning, renovation of clothing, aims of the program, rules of contests, and other matters were discussed by the supervisor.

Mrs. Baker is striving to aid each client of the Texas Rural Communities to can and store at least 100 cans of vegetables and meats for each member of the family. She is making it possible for these people to have cans and canning equipment.

At Bryant-Link Company.

Clyde Young, son of Rev. and Mrs. S. H. Young of Stamford, began work in the local Bryant-Link Company store Friday. The Young family formerly made their home here, where Rev. Young was pastor of the First Methodist Church. Clyde was employed by J. C. Penney Company here before becoming connected with Bryant-Link.

He got at least eight hours sleep every night.

He never smoked, drank or lost his temper.

He did his daily dozen—daily. He was all set to live to be 100. The funeral will be held Wednesday.

He is survived by 18 specialists, four health institutes, six gymnasiums and numerous manufacturers of health foods and antiseptics.

He had forgotten about trains at grade crossings.—The New Era.

Thunder and lightning rolled from horizon to horizon, but no community, as far as The Times learned, received enough moisture to last long.

Tuesday was the hottest day since last Wednesday, with the mercury jumping as high as 101. Yesterday started hot and calm, but it ended windy and cooler.

Featuring the first arrivals are school hats and dresses for young misses. Dresses for the older school girl are also ready for early buyers, and fall things for the grown-ups are beginning to arrive.

Your ENTIRE House
If you are susceptible to colds, and most people have from two to three each winter, you owe it to your health to heat your home adequately as a protection against sudden changes in temperature which are a contributory cause of colds.
With the entire house properly heated and ventilated, you have greater comfort and the satisfaction of knowing that you are taking the precaution of guarding your family's health.
One single illness to a member of your family will cost you far more in money and suffering than the few dollars you will spend for adequate heat to combat winter colds. So look over your heating equipment now. Some might need repairing. Some might need replacing altogether with modern equipment. Whatever it takes, do it now, for August is the opportune time to buy advantageously modern gas heating equipment. For your health's sake, heat your entire home.

25 TIGERS OUT FOR PLACES ON PIGSKIN TEAM

Courthouse Will No Longer Have Federal Offices

With discontinuance of the county relief office, locations of three federal agencies are being moved to the G. B. Clark building, just east of the square on 28th Street. The move will be completed this week-end.

Change in location was decided jointly by the city and the county. The city agreed to pay water, gas and lights; the county, rent. The county Commissioners Court took official action in their session last Wednesday.

PERA, WPA and NRS offices are effected by the change. In its session Monday of this week, the Commissioners Court approved annual report of Tax Assessor-Collector Bernard Longbotham.

A number of accounts were allowed at Wednesday and Monday meetings of the court.

Brownfields Leave For Convention of Piggly Wiggly-ites

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Brownfield are leaving today for San Diego, California, where they will attend annual sessions of the national Piggly Wiggly convention Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

The trip for the local Piggly Wiggly operator and his wife will also include the international exposition at San Diego, as well as other western attractions.

Brownfield a former partner. Charles Kelly, attended the annual convention in Asheville, North Carolina, last year, and declared it to be one of the most unusual gatherings on record. Brownfield says he gets enough pep and spizzinkum and merchandising ideas to last until the next convention comes around.

A program received by the grocery-market man this week indicates that not only San Diego Piggly Wiggly operators but the entire city will have on the glad rags to give merchants from every state in the Union the kind of entertainment and information that makes a nation-splitting trip worth while.

last year in high school. T. J. Kite is out for end again.

Others Are Expected. Tommy Winters, who was ineligible last year, is to start training in a few days. Jay Rogers, Marshall Gibson and Ardath Head are other latecomers to the line-up.

Other lads who have been rubbing down sore muscles after the daily workouts include: Fickas Bell, Balumn Grant, Clyde Boren, D. J. Hall, Renal Rossion, Froggie Patterson, J. R. Watkins and J. A. Hood.

Johnny Boren and Arlin Rossion, both ineligible, are working out with the boys just for the experience.

Coach Hill thinks a few more youngsters may be in late this week or early next week to strengthen the Tigers.

Autry's Softball Crew Loses, But Remains in Lead

Although Norman Autry's No. 3 softball crew tossed yesterday evening a game to Red Hill's team yesterday evening, 7 to 5, they retain a one-game lead in the second half race.

Shorly Sims' No. 2 bunch, tail-enders the first half, broke through No. 1's winning streak Monday for Hill's third loss of the season. The score was 9 to 4, five No. 1 errors contributing largely to that squad's downfall.

No. 2 team has won two and lost two, while the No. 4 tribe has failed to win in four starts.

Week's Schedule. The schedule for the week reads: Thursday, August 22, No. 2 vs. No. 4; Friday, No. 1 vs. No. 4; Monday, No. 2 vs. No. 3; Tuesday, No. 1 vs. No. 2; Wednesday, No. 3 vs. No. 4.

Some of next week's games may be cancelled due to interference with the softball tournament at Abilene.

When the sun is blazing hot, your motor heat goes up, too!

To protect your motor, use Germ Processed Oil, which has 2 to 4 times greater film strength and is less affected by extreme motor heat!

YOUR MOTOR runs lots hotter in Summer. That's why you must have oil that maintains high film strength under extreme temperatures to get safe lubrication. Otherwise, the lubricating film ruptures and the bearings and cylinders suffer damaging wear.

Plain mineral oils have little film strength and oils over-refined by new cleansing methods have even less. As motor heat goes up, these oils rapidly lose film strength.

You'll get better motor protection with Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil. Timken machine tests prove that it has 2 to 4 times greater film strength than any plain mineral oil and that heat above 225° does not lessen this advantage.

More proof—supervised road tests were made in identical cars fitted with the new alloy metal bearings used in many 1935 cars. The bearings lubricated with a high-quality plain mineral oil showed 45% more wear than those lubricated with Conoco Germ Processed, the first alloyed oil.

You'll be certain your motor is safely lubricated even at high temperatures if you say "O. K.—Drain" and fill with Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil—the oil with the "Hidden Quart" that stays up in your motor and never drains away.
