TIGERS AND WOLVES GIVE FANS THRILLS APLENTY TURKEY DAY

Locals Wind Up Season With a Heart-Breaking 13 to 12 Loss To Colorado Rivals.

The Snyder Tigers and Colorado Wolves gave a Thanksgiving crowd of several hundred fans plenty of thrills from the opening to the closing whistle here last week. It was by far the largest crowd of the season, and gave the high school athletic fund a healthy boost out of the early-season red.

Colorado won the game, 13 to 12, the point after touchdown number one, plunged over by Rankin, being the margin of victory. The visitors came from behind twice to gain a one-point lead over Red Hill's fighting Tigers.

It was the final conference game for the west end of District 6. It showed Snyder to third place and brought Colorado up to fourth place in the six-team district. Colorado won from the locals, 6 to 0, in a non-conference encounter early in the season.

First Quarter Seesaws.

The first quarter was a seesaw affair, with neither squad threatening. The Colorado safety fumbled a Snyder punt early in the second period, and Charley Morrow recovered to give Snyder yardage that led to the first touchdown. A pass was intercepted by each team on the Snyder end of the field. Snyder recovered a second fumbled punt to get the ball on the 15-yard line, and Bo Moffett plunged the final 5 yards for the touch.

Early in the third quarter Colorado blocked an attempted kick by J. R. Watkins, lightweight quarterback who alternated with Wallace Smith to substitute for Weldon Strayhorn, regular signal barker. Miller, star, fullback, plunged over from the 2-yard line for his squad's first carrier, after a 6-yard pass and a 5-yard Snyder penalty paved the way.

Another Punt Blocked.

Before the quarter was over, the Wolves blocked another punt to get the pigskin on the 13-yard line. They lost it on downs on the 10-yard line after the Tigers held stubbornly. Standing on his own goal line, little Watkins staged the most daring play of the day. He passed directly over center to Mitchell, linkey end, who trotted 90

Last Cotton Has Setback as Damp Weather Returns

The tail-end of Scurry County's cotton crop was set back several notches when another damp, wintry blast came early Wednesday.

With this slightly bitter dose for farmers came the sweet promise of a fine season for next year's crops—a season that has been heightened almost every week this fall and early winter by precipitation ranging from mists to driving rains.

This last wet spell, which ranged from a heavy mist early Wednesday to showers Wednesday night, came on the heels of several good cotton days. Picking was resumed in most communities Thursday or Friday of last week, after rains early in the week.

Ginnings had reached about 14,000 last Wednesday. Expert guessers say the total had probably reached 18,000 before the wet weather began yesterday.

The optimists are saying the county will produce between 20,000 and 21,000 bales; the pessimists, between 18,000 and 19,000. The weather man will probably decide.

Fuller Stable Now Located at Epsom

The racing stable of P. L. Fuller, prominent Scurry County rancher, is now located at Epsom Downs, Houston. The Times has learned. It is in charge of W. G. Merritt, formerly of Snyder.

Among horses in the stable are Sol Hawk, who won third in a Thanksgiving race, paying $22 for every $2 show ticket. Quick Flight, who recently won in a race at Arlington Downs that paid off better than $20 for every $2 win ticket.

Other horses in the stable are Skeeter Hawk, Riccardio, Pompano, Koterito and Parawick.

Methodists Give Big Pounding to Returned Pastor

What the paragon family describes as "one of the most welcome surprises ever experienced by us" was given Rev. H. C. Gordon and family by the First Methodist Church congregation in the church basement on the evening of Tuesday, November 26.

Rev. Gordon, at The Times' request, describes the pounding in his own words:

"One of the finest of Thanksgiving programs was rendered. It made strong appeal to us, for in it a warm welcome was extended us for the new church year now beginning. At the close of the program curtains were drawn exposing to our view the biggest, most up-to-date poundings we have ever seen."

"In addition to all that was assembled, a fine turkey was sent from Bob Terry's Produce and a choice quarter of beef from Sidney Johnson's ranch. This was merely a floodline in the constant stream of good things flowing into our home."

"From the depths of our hearts we thank everyone who has so generously remembered us. We value the gifts very highly, but we value much more the friendship prompting them."

District Docket Continues Light In Second Week

District court dismissed last Wednesday the Thanksgiving holidays, and attaches did not return until Wednesday of this week.

There's nothing anyone can do about it—unless more business is presented to Judge A. S. Mauzey, District Attorney George W. Outlaw and other members of the court.

The grand jury went into action again Wednesday of this week. Two non-jury civil cases were scheduled for today (Thursday): J. E. Leonard vs. Snyder Local Mutual Life Association; National School Equipment Company vs. Fluvanna Baptist Church, et al.

Several criminal cases are scheduled for next week, the third week of the winter session. Anderson Davis, colored, who was alleged by officers to have shot a number of his own race in a dance fracas in the colored quarters several weeks ago, was indicted on a charge of carrying a pistol. He was released under an appearance bond. The case was transferred to the county court, where it is set for the January 6 term.

Street Light Will Be Erected in East Snyder by Hospital

A street light for the new hospital in East Snyder will be furnished with electricity on the city meter, it was decided at the regular City Council session Monday night. The light is being erected by the hospital.

The council also took another action relating to Snyder General Hospital—closing of the alley that runs south to north at the rear of the building, and deeding of the 20-foot passageway back to the former owners.

W. H. Grant was selected to handle any extra grader work that may be necessary in connection with WPA projects.

Building permits for November totaled $1,700; for the year, $23,150. Fines were $38.60; water and sewer collections, $1,342.49; tax collections, $776.78.

The meeting was attended by Mayor H. G. Towle and Councilmen James A. Clark, G. H. Leath, Dwight Monroe, J. E. Shipp and by City Secretary J. S. Bradbury.

Box and Pie Supper To Be at Plainview

There will be a box and pie supper Friday night at the Plainview school house. Boxes and pies will be auctioned by an experienced auctioneer to attendants.

Proceeds will be used for a piano, playground equipment and other school needs, according to Roy Irvin, Plainview superintendent. Patrons of the school are given a cordial invitation to attend.

Tigers Planning to Open Court Season

The Tiger basketball team, under direction of W. H. Calloway, the new coach for this sport, will make its public debut Friday night at Fluvanna.

Several prospects are coming out for the local squad, and Calloway expects to have a hard-shooting team in shape by the first of the year. The coach has seen extensive experience as a basketball player under some of the state's outstanding coaches.

YULE LIGHTING SYSTEM AGAIN FLASHES HERE

And each stage of the banquet proved more interesting than the one before, the fire boys will tell you. Therefore, at the end, the social gathering was declared one of the most successful in the department's history.

Talks on Thanksgiving. Rev. H. C. Gordon, pastor of the First Methodist Church, brought a special Thanksgiving message as a climax of the program. He read the first Thanksgiving proclamation issued by President George Washington, and told his hearers that America yet has many things for which to be thankful that the country had just after it won its independence from England.

Rev. Alfred M. Dorsett, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, formally accepted the chaplainship of the department, and said he

Late yesterday, as the mists of a December twilight spun queer webs of light across the Snyder business district, several hundred colored bulbs flashed the first public "Merry Christmas" to the four corners of the local trade territory.

The electric bulbs circle the courthouse dome. They trail from the high pendants of the temple of justice, dancing merrily as they sweep groundward.

These lights not only invite the Christmas shoppers to Snyder and tell the traveler that here is a town that is catching the Christmas spirit early . . . they also seem to point fingers of cheer to the stores around and adjoining the public square.

Most of these stores, especially the ones featuring holiday goods, have been working overtime to decorate with wreaths, bells, tinsel, streamers, and silvers of imitation snow. Too, they have been replenishing their stocks with one of the most imposing arrays of Christmas merchandise that Snyder has seen in many a year.

In a few more days—Wednesday, December 18, to be exact—old Santa Claus will be coming to town. That afternoon he will be expected to greet all the little boys and girls of this trade territory. He will mount to the top of the courthouse, whence he will throw hundreds and hundreds of candy kisses to the kiddies below.

Snyder invites you. Her myriad lights forewarn a cheery Christmas. Her citizens have the Christmas spirit, and they want to share it with those who come.

TURKEY SALES STARTING SOON

Turkey growers of this trade territory are ready for opening of the Christmas turkey market. First buying for the Yuletide season is expected to begin late this week or early next week.

Prices ranged from 18 to 21 cents for No. 1 birds during the Thanksgiving season, and some growers believe the same scale will prevail before Christmas. Most producers and growers who have been watching eastern markets, however, are dubious about getting as much as 18 or 20 cents this month.

Generally favorable weather will mean a continuation of the fine quality of birds, buyers believe.

Annual Thanksgiving Banquet Is Enjoyed by Snyder Firemen, Guests

Thanksgiving evening found the school cafeteria filled with lengthy tables that were loaded with dinner-filled plates.

In front of each plate was a fireman, a fireman's wife or a special lady friend, or a fireman's guest. Each person before each plate proved himself a capable Thanksgiving eater, as the annual banquet of the Snyder Volunteer Fire Department progressed from one stage to another.

Each stage of the banquet proved more interesting than the one before, the fire boys will tell you. Therefore, at the end, the social gathering was declared one of the most successful in the department's history.

POUNDING FOR PASTOR, WIFE

Members of the First Christian Church congregation surprised their pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. G. E. McPherson, with an old-fashioned pounding after the community-wide Thanksgiving services last Wednesday night.

The Thanksgiving gifts consisted of many varieties of food, as well as other things that reflected the esteem in which the pastor and his wife are held.

Improvements Made By Texaco Station

Improvements at the Texaco station a block east of the square on 26th Street have converted the car servicing place into one of the most complete institutions of its kind in this part of West Texas, says Gay McClain, local Texaco Company agent.

A hydraulic grease rack is now located underneath the building, and washing is also done indoors. Three gasoline pumps have been centered and one is left at the curb.

Foy Wade, former operator of Wade's Service Station, just north of the square, is now in charge of the rebuilt station. E. J. Bradbury is now operating a Texaco Company truck, and Cecil Wade is in charge of Wade's former location.

Albert Norred Has Moved to Colorado

Albert Norred, long-time superintendent of the Yoder Chevrolet Company shop and repair department, left early this week for Colorado, where he has accepted a position with the Mills Chevrolet Company.

Highly trained and generally regarded as one of the most capable mechanics in Snyder, Norred was a member of the Lions Club and was also active in other civic affairs.

Mrs. Norred will remain here for several days, since the family has not yet located a home in Colorado.

Scout Campaign to Be Concluded Soon

This year's Boy Scout campaign has progressed in good shape, and lacks only contacting of several more friends of the program, reports J. E. Shipp, finance chairman.

The campaign will be continued a few more days in order that some of the workers, including District Chairman W. J. Ely, may have time to call on others who wish to contribute a small amount toward the boy-training program.

DEALERS WILL DISPLAY CARS IN 1936 SHOW

Remembering that far more than 1,000 persons examined their 1935 models early last spring, Snyder automobile dealers ask The Times to stage another show for display of the stunning creations for 1936.

So it is that car lovers of this trade territory will be given an opportunity Friday and Saturday, December 13 and 14, to view the latest vehicles in which the children of this generation are riding . . . automobiles whose beauty, economy of operation, safety features and sleek power have never before been equalled.

The showing of 1936 automobiles will be at the Snyder Garage, where the 1935 Auto Show was staged. But there will be more cars, even more attractive decorations, souvenirs for the ladies, music and plenty of attendants to show you the whys and wherefores.

Assessors, bill and gas wholesalers and retailers will display their products at attractive booths.

The Winter Auto Show will be widely advertised by a special edition of The Scurry County Times, which will be mailed to subscribers next Thursday afternoon. Copies will be free for the asking at the Times office or at any advertiser's place of business.

Davis Home From Wyoming.

Dee Davis, U. S. V., returned home last Wednesday from Sheridan, Wyoming, where he was in the hospital four years. Incidentally, Thursday was his 28th birthday, and he had a pleasant day chatting with friends and home-folks.

Legionnaires to Be In Meeting Tonight

Members of the Will Layne Post of the American Legion were reminded by postal cards mailed early this week that the regular monthly session is to be held Thursday night, December 5, 7:30 o'clock, in the Autry Building, just south of the Woodrow Hotel.

Several matters of interest and importance will be discussed, according to J. E. Shipp, commander, and Hal A. Lattimore, adjutant, who say they expect a hefty crowd of buddies.

Agent to Lubbock.

County Agent W. R. Luce will be in Lubbock December 16, 17 and 18 for an area meeting of Extension Service workers. County agents, home demonstration agents and district agents will gather with A. & M. specialists in an annual check-up meeting. San Angelo, Lubbock and Amarillo district will be represented. Scurry County is in the San Angelo district.

CREEK BRIDGE IS COMPLETED

Glistening attractively with its coat of aluminum paint, the new bridge over Deep Creek, between Ira and Dunn, was opened for traffic Tuesday.

The overhauled bridge was declared unsafe for further traffic last month, several weeks after it had been resurfaced on a new foundation. Flood waters carried it away in the spring.

The Commissioners Court contracted with Austin Bridge Company to place a new bridge on the foundation. It's a good job, say members of the court and citizens of the adjoining communities.

Veteran Farmer And Rancher Is Interred Friday

Walter Wasson, 83-year-old farmer-rancher who came to the Pleasant Hill community from Johnson County in 1890, died last Thursday at his home seven miles north of Snyder, where he had lived for 11 years.

Final rites for the pioneer citizen were held at the family residence Friday afternoon, 2:00 o'clock, with Rev. G. E. McPherson, pastor of the First Christian Church, in charge. Mr. Wasson had been a member of the church for a number of years. Burial was in Snyder cemetery, with Odum Funeral Home in charge.

Mrs. Wasson, the former Mrs. Bettie Webb, to whom Mr. Wasson was married in 1890, preceded her husband in death 14 years ago. Survivors are two sons, W. M. and Fred Wasson, and one daughter, Mrs. Ivan Gatlin, all of Scurry County; three stepsons, John L. Webb and Dick Webb of Snyder, and Jeff Webb of Long Beach, California; one granddaughter, Betty Lynn Gatlin, and 10 step-grandchildren. Jeff was unable to attend the services.

Palbearers were Ira Riley, S. L. Terry, Lee Byrd, Carl Slaughter, Herman and Wray Huckabee, Mrs. Jack DeWald of Sweetwater and Misses Margaret Dell Prim, Mavis Webb and Thaba Benbenek were in charge of flowers.

Fourteen-Year-Old Camp Springs Boy Is Interred Monday

Vernon Gennell Reep, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Reep, Camp Springs community, died Saturday after a lingering illness. Final rites were held Monday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock, at the Grady cemetery, where interment was in charge of Odum Funeral Home.

Rev. D. G. Reed, pastor of the Roby Baptist Church, officiated. Joe Reep, Alvin Koonsman, Carlos Berry, B. O. Berry and Jesse Koonsman were pallbearers. Flower girls were Misses Madie Davidson, Mary Alice Simpson, Bobby Lou and Galaska Harless.

Surviving are the parents; five brothers, Marcus, Newton, I. M. and Jesse Darwin Reep, all of Camp Springs and Ennis Creek communities, and Marion Reep, California; three sisters, Mrs. Sam Etheredge, Hobbs; Mrs. Oscar Tankersley, Camp Springs, and Lula May Reep, who resides with her parents.

A number of relatives and friends attended funeral rites from outside Scurry County.

Roll Call Continues To Attract Members

Although officially scheduled to end Thanksgiving, the Red Cross Roll Call drive in Scurry County will continue for several days, according to Herman Darby, chairman.

A few members who were not contacted early in the drive, and others who were not able to pay for their membership at that time, are enlisting this month, Darby said yesterday.

He urges that all workers who have any amount of territory yet to be worked should make their final returns at once.

Everything's Quiet Here Thanksgiving

With the exception of a few citizens who were inclined to celebrate with bottled spirits, Snyder folks celebrated Thanksgiving with quietness and real Thanksgiving happiness.

A few stores opened in the morning, but only the customary Sunday-opening stores were open all day. Footballing, hunting, visiting and "just sittin'" were the day's chief recreations, as the weather turned brisk and sunny.

D. E. Banks Takes Paper Since 1893

Among Times subscribers who have sent in their renewals during the past week is D. E. Banks of Shamrock, who is remembered by many Scurry County pioneers.

He has been reading the various Snyder papers since 1893—a period of 42 years. The Times enables him to keep up with the old-timers, he writes.

Small Amount to Bolster $50,000 WPA Grant Will Greatly Add To Property Value.

The first load of gravel was hauled Tuesday for Snyder's giant WPA project—building of at least one major bridge, paving of about 100 blocks in the residential area and laying of curbs and gutters for several blocks.

City officials made it plain to citizens as the work began, just as they had done previously, that the $50,000 program depends for its success on the support it receives from property owners.

WPA funds must be matched with a small amount for each running foot of property in front of which the paving will pass, according to Mayor H. G. Towle and other city officials.

Canvass of Owners.

A canvass of property owners is being started immediately, with the Lions Club, the Chamber of Commerce, women's clubs and other organizations joining with the City Council in acquainting citizens with details of the proposed project.

Officials point out that the amount to be paid by the property owners in front of whose lots only paving will be done is to be only 25 cents for each running foot. The property owner's portion where paving is completed and curb and gutter are laid will be 55 cents per running foot.

The cost for paving alone, if the work were let on contract, would be about $4 per running foot. Thus, property owners have an opportunity for making 25 cents, matched with WPA funds, take the place of $4 if the city sponsored the paving without outside assistance.

Benefits Outlined.

Not only will property values be enhanced many times more than the cost to the owners, but civic pride, pride in one's home and the need of a cleaner and more attractive city are all factors to be considered, it is pointed out.

Housewives add that paving will practically eliminate the clouds of dust that make housecleaning a nightmare many weeks out of the year.

Unless Snyder takes advantage of the tremendous benefits offered

Plenty of Results Say Bob, Maurice

"Results!" That's the only word that will fully describe the reaction of Maurice Brownfield and Bob Gray to their hefty advertisements in last week's Times.

"Results!" said the Piggly Wiggly owner of his full-page eighth anniversary ad. "Results!" said Bob Gray of his own and congratulatory ads from merchant friends.

So "Results!" it must be.

ANNUAL LOVE FEAST OF CLUB AT GRAYUM'S

The home of Mrs. Fred A. Grayum was beautifully decorated with autumn flowers Friday for the annual love feast of the Altruistic Club. For the buffet luncheon, table centerpieces carried out the Thanksgiving idea with fruits and lighted yellow candles.

The affair was dedicated to the club's past presidents, of which eight were present: Mmes. E. J. Anderson, W. R. Bell, Joe Caton, R. H. Curutte, R. D. English, W. W. Hamilton, Joe Stinson and H. G. Towle, all of whom are still members of the club.

Mrs. O. P. Thrane, president, presided during the program, which followed the luncheon. In her introductory talk she cleverly brought in the "recipe for a good president." As she introduced each one, she responded with a discussion of one ingredient—ability, efficiency, etc.—and gave a resume of her administration. Interesting club activities were recalled to the minds of those present as the program progressed. As each past president made her response, she presented a lovely corsage by the club.

Special musical numbers composed the remainder of the program. Mmes. R. L. Gray and A. C. Preuit gave a piano duet, "Military Polonaise" by Chopin, and Mrs. Hugh Boren, soprano, sang "Love's Old Sweet Song," with Mrs. Preuit accompanying. Mrs. Violet McKnight, daughter of the hostess, gave several vocal numbers.

As a concluding number on the afternoon's program, Mrs. E. J. Anderson, a past president, paid tribute to Mrs. Thrane, who has worked faithfully with the club this year.

The following members attended the love feast: Mmes. Anderson, Bell, Boren, H. P. Brown, Caton, Curutte, J. C. Dorward, English, Gray, Grayum, Hamilton, J. W. Leftwich, Preuit, Stinson, Lee T. Stinson, Thrane and Towle.

Texas History Pageant.

The high school Texas history class will present a pageant at the regular assembly program Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock under direction of Miss Mattie Ross Cunningham, teacher. Highlights of Texas history will be depicted. The public is cordially invited.

TAX PAYMENTS CLIMB RAPIDLY

A rapid rise in tax payments during the first days of December is reported from all local tax gathering agents, especially Bernard Longbotham, county assessor-collector.

The county official is especially pleased over payment of delinquent taxes, which reached $1,320 in November and has already passed the $300 mark in December. He collected about $14,000 in current taxes last month and has already recorded more than $9,000 this month.

For the convenience of taxpayers and in order to carry out requirements of the state law, Mr. Longbotham has sent statements of current taxes to all owners of real and personal property.

Up to late Wednesday afternoon, 200 poll taxes had been paid and 233 exemptions had been issued to those who may vote next year without payment of poll tax.

Children and Adults Down With Mumps

Dozens of Snyder children and adults were down with the mumps when schools were closed last week for the Thanksgiving holidays. The list of "swell-heads" had decreased considerably early this week, but a number of cases are yet on record. Two local teachers, as well as about 30 students, were out of school last Wednesday on account of the disease, according to Superintendent C. Wedgworth. The most unhappy of all men is he who believes himself to be so.

THE WEEKLY DOZEN

Axiom for Axiom.
Talkative Tillie has read a new axiom: Take care of your pennies and the tax collector will take care of your dollars. Tillie suggests: Take care of your dollars and pennies, too, if you don't want to be too broke after Christmas to pay your taxes.

Weekly Rooseveltism.
President Roosevelt: "My task and the task of all these others who are associated with me in the official life of the country can be made easier if the citizenship of the nation and particularly the women citizens of the nation seek the truth and a wise application of the truth."

What About a Postoffice?
Brady is to have a new postoffice. Colorado already has a new one. Other West Texas towns are getting theirs. Snyder needs and deserves a new one, but she will probably never get it until all of us, as citizens who want something better for our town, go out after it.

Then and Now Tells the Story.
James A. Farley, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, may not be too popular with a few anti-pork barrel Democrats and with all Republicans, but he has a knack for saying things that stick. Such as: "Where we were in March, 1933, and where we are now tells the real story."

The Farmer Lives Longer.
The average age of the farmer is four or five years more than that of the city inhabitant, according to figures compiled by a national insurance company. South Dakota, with a small minority of town dwellers, ranks first in life expectancy, with an average of 64.38 for men and 66.81 for women. Back to the farm!

Where's That Christmas Spirit?
If you don't have the Christmas spirit yet, you're getting farther behind schedule than the fellow who thinks the Rose Bowl is just another flower show. Decorate now. Buy now. Remember all your friends. In other words, get the Christmas spirit. If you wait until the last minute, you'll miss most of the joy of the season of giving.

Helping Crippled Children.
Nothing appeals to the average adult more than the need of an unfortunate child. So it is that most of us are rejoicing that the Will Rogers Memorial Fund will be directed toward the help of crippled children. If you have not yet contributed your bit, make a donation today at Stinson No. 1, at the Times office or at a county school . . . for Will Rogers' and crippled children's sake.

The Blessings of Nothingness.
The latest recipe for real happiness that has been going the rounds recently is this: "Eat a big bowl of post toasties and read The Scurry County Times . . . then you'll have nothing on your stomach and nothing on your mind." Pessimism Pete and leading grocerymen report that the demand for nothingness is increasing by leaps and bounds . . . and folks are paying hard-earned money for it!

Water, Water Everywhere.
Here's another one for Ripley: Next to soil, artesian water is the greatest natural resource in Texas. Eighty per cent of the residents of Texas get their drinking water from underground sources. Nineteenth of the cities and towns draw either all or a part of their municipal supply from underground sources. And dear old Snyder is fortunate enough to have one of the closest and best sources of water supply.

Harnessed Again for War.
Dr. Samuel T. Bledsoe, president of Santa Fe Railway: "The nations of Europe are harnessed again for war. Our protection by the seas has so largely disappeared that we pour out treasure for the creation of great navies to prevent the use of the seas as a convenient avenue for attack. Our participation in world affairs is renewed and promises to continue for generations. The world is seized by an unrest in which we participate whether we desire or not."

Texas Citrus Fruit Week.
Governor James V. Allred is calling on all Texans to eat more Texas Valley grapefruit in a proclamation declaring December 7 to 14 as Texas Citrus Fruit Week. If you have been eating flavorful, juicy, meaty grapefruit that has been largely sold in Snyder this season, you will join Valley folks in saying that Texas grapefruit is the best in the world. Valley folks are eating West Texas wheat, beef and other products, and are wearing clothes made from West Texas cotton. Let's eat and demand Texas grapefruit.

Profit From Blow Sand.
The Times has already told of Nolan von Roeder's fruit crop. Here comes "The Earth," Santa Fe Railway publication, to tell the story again in its November issue: "Ten acres of blow-sand on the farm of Nolan von Roeder of the Knapp community paid $738.50 in 1934, according to Cline E. Morris, county agricultural agent. While numbers of farmers in this territory were worrying about what to do with their blow-sand acreage, von Roeder was setting out peach and plum trees, and as a result this 10 acres has paid higher dividends than 100 acres adjoining it. Approximately 1,000 bushels of fruit have been marketed from the 10-acre tract this year."

Snyder—City of Paved Streets!

Can you picture Snyder with about 100 more blocks of paved streets? Not unless you are one of those hardy pioneers of progress who catches visions and then makes visible monuments of growth from them.

A Snyder with practically all main residential streets paved is no idle dream. Uncle Sam is saying to Snyder this very day: "I'll furnish most of the material and most of the labor. WPA is coming to town to give you a helping hand and to give your unemployables plenty of work. All we ask you to do is to get your citizens in a receptive mood, pay a small amount for paving materials . . . and leave the rest up to federal money."

When an outlay of tens of thousands of dollars on the part of the town government and the individual citizens was necessary for the securing of pavement . . . or when the city's credit was at stake . . . most of us were against a large paving program. Now that practically all the money is to be supplied by Uncle Sam . . . money that has already been allocated to Snyder . . . it will be worse than folly for us to stop a single penny short of what Uncle Sam is seeking.

A city of paved streets is a city of beauty. Pavement enhances property value much more than the pavement's cost. When the improvement is practically handed out on a silver platter, what property owner would hesitate to sacrifice in order to see his property climb in value?

It's time to start the paving project in a big way, says Uncle Sam. In other words, if we don't act now, the money will be withdrawn and given to some community that is ready to act.

We really want a city of paved streets. Let's go after it!

CURRENT COMMENT

By Leon Guhn.

One of the most avidly interesting legumes just now is the soybean, enriching agent for nitrogen minus soils. . . This year 5,500,000 acres of soybeans are being harvested in the United States, 32 per cent more than last year, and due to lack of cottonseed tonnage, cotton seed oil men are crushing 75,000 tons of soybeans for the meal cake and oils. . . On the increase in the use of the bean oil, used in soap, paint, vegetable shortening, linoleum, oilcloth, glue and fine printing inks for the fourth estate. . . Of the 300 users of soybeans, the automobile industry finds new car parts from the bean meal a forward step in manufacture. . . Originally the livelihood for impoverished Chinese and Japanese, predictions are the soybean industry will open vast new fields of income in the United States. . . Add to this the fact soybeans are rotatable soil builders, and you have a new hope for the agrarian South and Southwest that may prove a new frontier to cross, a new source of immediate income for farmers; new fertility for thousands of resource bleed acres.

In technical bulletin 493, which will be published by the Department of Agriculture in 1936, one finds choice food for thought concerning cotton classification. . . Too long has the almost sinful practice of resampling each bale of cotton many times been tolerated; a new bill in Congress now proposing each and every bale be classed and tagged once by a skillful classifier, thus resulting in an added value of $6,000,000 each year to the cotton crop. . . Far reaching in effect, this bill if passed (which is very likely) will introduce to agriculture the high pressure effect of new blood in the arteries of trade, a blood transfusion for a sick patient, if you please. . . Memo: Why not let Congress go a step further; provide provisions for better bagging. . . In other words, when American cotton is packaged so attractively foreign spinners will not have to spend $15 per bale for extra washing and bleaching, then will the fulness of a new day be breaking for agriculture, as Henry Woodfin Grady aptly put it.

EDITORIAL OF THE WEEK

ATTRACTIONS OF COUNTRY LIFE.

Sometimes a great deal may be suggested by a few words. A case in point is the following brief letter from Mrs. R. L. Baugh of Texas, reprinted from The Progressive Farmer, which paints a picture of country life, calculated to cause homesickness in anyone who has lived in a similar community and no longer does so:

"I love the community in which we live, the community singings we have once a month, the community Thanksgiving dinner we have once a year. "I love our all-day quiltings, when each one takes a dish of food to add to the bountiful repast, and I love the banter and the fun while gathered around the quilt.

"I love to go 'possum hunting across the wooded hills with my two youngsters on starry fall nights, and to go with the menfolks to cut a bee tree and bring home pans of golden honey.

"I love to swap seeds and plants with my neighbors.

"I love to have a crowd of young people come home with us from church to eat dinner and spend the rest of the day in merry laughter and conversation and singing."

"What model is your car?"

"It's not a model, it's a horrible example."

The Times Creed:

For the cause that needs assistance;
For the wrongs that need resistance;
For the future in the distance,
And the good that we can do.

Mitchell Starts Construction of Highway No. 101

Actual construction of Highway No. 101 extending from Colorado to the Mitchell-Scurry line was begun early this week. The Colorado Record said last week that the road will be paved as a WPA project at a total cost of $77,390.

Continuing, The Record said: "Forty-two men are to go out to work on the project Monday morning, Charles A. Kyle, manager of the local National Re-employment Bureau, said. Under terms of federal working orders received by Kyle, an additional 37 men will be given employment on the following Friday. Still others are to be added December 15."

"Sam A. McCombs of the State Highway Department is to be engineer in charge of the construction."

"The roadbed is to be of the bache type construction. Chamber of commerce and county officials were expressing elation in an announcement that the road would be completed. That the route may be extended to Snyder and possibly south to connect with Sterling City or Robert Lee is given renewed hope, they pointed out."

"As indicated in The Times two weeks ago, W. A. French, district highway engineer, told the Scurry County Commissioners' Court that the road will be improved in this county at an early date."

Snyder Will Get Exhibit Space at Texas Centennial

Snyder will have an exhibit space at the central Texas Centennial exposition in Dallas, Director W. J. Ely of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce has just been advised.

The exhibit will depict the resources and possibilities of Snyder. "This gift to your town is equivalent to approximately $100 and gives Snyder an opportunity to have a permanent display to be witnessed by the estimated ten million visitors to the Texas Centennial," writes Ray H. Nichols, president of the regional organization.

Mr. Ely announces appointment of Frank Farmer, Forest Sears and Maurice Brownfield as the Snyder Centennial Exhibit committee to serve with him.

District Exhibits. Snyder's exhibit will be a part of the District 5 exhibit of which Sweetwater is headquarters town. The district booth will be 36 by 8 feet, the Snyder exhibit space will be about 2 feet by 6 feet. General subjects for the district exhibits will be as follows:

Cotton, wheat and grain, wool and mohair, cattle, diversification, fruit and vegetables, grain sorghums, agricultural development, irrigation, West Texas urban and rural living.

The district arrangements will have ample aisle space and also space in which to show adequately with a sunken garden and lighted effect a large West Texas relief map.

All Towns Invited. Enough lineal space is being provided so that each of the 195 affiliated towns with the West Texas Chamber of Commerce can have one of the panels. The only cost to each town will be the cost of preparing the panel.

"The subject matter depicted in these panels is not necessarily limited to agriculture, and towns may choose to depict in their panels any and everything having to do with agricultural, industrial and commercial development an growth," Mr. Ely has been advised.

"I believe that with my capable committee members, Snyder will be able to present a panel as complete and attractive as any in the West Texas exhibit," the WTCC director said yesterday.

Official Figures On Cotton Output Pass Last Year

The government report of cotton ginnings prior to November 14 reveals that the Scurry County total for 1935 has officially passed the total for the same date last year. This year's figures show 8,755 bales; last year's, 7,657 bales.

Last year, however, gins were operating only two days per week all the latter part of November, for the bulk of the crop had moved. The county produced less than 10,000 bales last season.

The state total November 14 was slightly lower than last year—2,092,207 against 2,140,177 bales.

Comparative figures for counties in this part of West Texas are as follows:

New Teachers on Hand as School At Hobbs Opens

After having been turned out seven weeks for cotton picking, the Hobbs school of Fisher County starts classes Monday, and, according to Superintendent R. K. Williams, a remarkable degree of cooperation is being shown by patrons.

The faculty line-up has been changed some recently, and teachers are: Kirby Dawkins, Mrs. Pascal Nail, Miss Mabel Day, Miss Nona Wells, Mrs. Mary Bob Hale, Mrs. Rowena Jones. In the high school department: Miss Deleene Reid, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Conrad, O. W. Norton and R. K. Williams.

Work on the $11,000 primary grade building is progressing nicely, with foundations laid and material arriving daily. Being built of rock and reinforced concrete, the 78x55-foot structure will have three class rooms, lockers for each student and a work room.

Local workers are not signing up for the school building work, and the school board wants local labor if possible. Men who live in the territory served by the school district are requested to apply at once, 20 more employees being needed. W. H. Talley is foreman. Workers may ride the buses if room can be found.

Superintendent Williams requests that former students wanting to get their work affiliated and intending to go to college get in touch with him.

by WPA at this time, we will probably lose the biggest chance for civic and personal improvement since I have been mayor," Dr. Towle said yesterday.

Sweetwater recently completed a canvass of property owners in regard to WPA paving, and officials there report practically 100 per cent results, with citizens of each block canvassing their neighbors and enlisting their support.

Bridge Comes First. Building of a concrete bridge to replace the shaky structure that now crosses Dry Creek just west of the school buildings will probably be the first part of the project to get under way. Stripping of gravel pits and hauling of gravel and sand began Tuesday.

A concrete dip is being planned for the street intersection on the northeast corner of the school campus.

Subject to acceptance of the plan by property owners, work will begin within a short time on the street paving program.

WPA officials are demanding that all phases of the program be rushed to completion. City officials therefore urge that citizens consider the paving matter immediately.

Curb-Gutter on Highway. Standard highway paving, with caliche base and asphalt top, is planned for all streets with the exception of the east highway—25th Street—from the R. S. & P. tracks to a point due north of Snyder General Hospital.

Work on the highway will include completion of the pavement to the gutter, and building of uniform curbs and gutters along the entire route.

The city-wide paving project includes practically all residential blocks that are subject to moderate traffic.

Mr. Hennings of Abilene, an engineer working under W. A. Hoppe, district WPA engineer, was in Snyder Wednesday to give the huge project a sendoff. He joined with city officials in urging that property owners hasten to sign up for their share of the paving costs.

Ben Robinson, county surveyor, has been named as local engineer in charge of the entire project. J. P. Strayhorn, city water and street superintendent, will be general superintendent of the new job.

The number of men to be worked will depend on the speed with which materials arrive and property owners work with city officials on the project.

NO REPORT ON COTTON PLANS

The county agent's office reports that no official information has been received concerning the four-year voluntary cotton adjustment program that was announced in daily newspapers Tuesday.

"The AAA today apparently had provided itself with a method of controlling cotton production in 1936 if the supreme court invalidates the Bankhead Cotton Control Act," said the Tuesday papers.

Under the voluntary adjustment program, cotton acreage would be reduced at least 30 per cent from the base acreage of 44,500,000. AAA officials said regardless of outcome of the Bankhead Act court test, they expected a large majority of cotton producers to join in the voluntary program because it is linked with another measure of relief for cotton farmers, the loan and subsidy payment.

FARMERS GET LAST PAYMENT ON 1934 POOL

Regular 1935 Pool Now Open for Producers Who Have Extra Cotton Certificates.

Third and final payment on the 1934 certificates pooled by cotton producers in November and December of last year has been received at the county agent's office within the past few days. Payments were received by 1,480 producers.

This final payment represented approximately 31.6 per cent of all certificates pooled. First payment checks were received in March and second payment checks in July. The last payment represents the unsold portion of the national pool.

The regular 1935 pool is now open, says the county agent. Any farmer who has extra certificates and does not find a local sale for them may put them in this pool and receive his proportionate share of money from what is sold, and the remaining tags will be returned to the producer. The 1935 pool operates practically the same as the 1934 pool.

The local office understands that out of the special pool this summer, approximately 40 per cent of the offered certificates have been sold at 5 cents a pound, which represents $10 a bale. The remaining 60 per cent will either be repooled

The wedding bells rang Sunday morning, November 24, when Miss Elene Dixon and Raymond Tucker were united in marriage at the First Baptist Church at Snyder, with Rev. Hays reading the ceremony. The young couple will make their home in this community. Wedding bells rang again Wednesday night, when Miss Rose Caffey, Bell correspondent, and Freddie Minor were married. They also will be at home in this community. Grady Tucker left last week for East Texas.

Those visiting in the J. R. Kincaid home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Dixon and daughters, Pearl, Juanita and Doris, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Tucker, Hoyt Tucker and Misses Callie and Mildred DeShazo. Vernon Irvine was a guest of Thomas Lee Butler of Camp Springs Sunday.

yards for the second local touchdown. Morrow blocked out the only would-be tackler, and Mitchell was never touched.

Rankin started the last touchdown parade just before the third quarter ended, when he returned the Snyder kick 30 yards to his own 45-yard line. He tossed a pass 21 yards just before the quarter ended. Most of the remaining distance was made on a 13-yard and a 6-yard pass when the last quarter opened. Prioster, hefty Wolf pack, plunged the last yard.

Long Mitchell Gain.

Mitchell took another pass midway in the last quarter for a total gain of 60 yards. He was pulled down from behind on the Wolf 8-yard line. Moffett plunged 2 1/2 yards, but attempted passes by the locals went haywire, and Colorado gained possession of the ball on a juggled lateral. This loss took some of the ginger out of the home boys, and Colorado had made three consecutive first downs to the Tiger 15-yard line when the game ended.

Moffett again starred in the Tiger backfield, while Captain Clark, playing his last game, and Mitchell, end, looked good especially on the offense. Tate was a steady line-maneer, too.

Due principally to their last long drive, the Wolves outpointed the locals on first downs, 11 to 7.

Officials, all of Sweetwater: Gillmore, referee; Cowan, umpire; Aycock, head linesman.

"I see you've bought another FORD"

"Well, once you know the feel of a V-8 engine you're spoiled for anything else!"

BEFORE you've driven a Ford a hundred yards, you notice the difference this V-8 engine makes. Its responsiveness and power have given over two million owners the type of performance which was previously only for the wealthy.

Also, this 1936 Ford V-8 gives you 25% easier steering and easier, quieter gear-shifting—Ford super-safety brakes—new beauty inside and out—a noise-proof body of steel, reinforced with steel, welded into a single unit.

Drive this new Ford V-8. In value, safety, comfort, or driving pleasure—you will find it in a class by itself.
