Snyder Wins Meet; Dunn Gets 'B' Title

Fluvanna Loses Title First Time In Recent Years

Piling up a total of 287 points in all events last week, Snyder captured the 1936 Interscholastic League meet from the largest field of contestants that has ever entered the annual school affair.

Dunn school, presenting a well-rounded team in literary and athletic events, captured Class B honors with a total of 194 1/2 points.

Hermleigh was second in the Class B division, with 167 points. Fluvanna, Class B winner for eight successive years, dropped to third place, with a total of 154 points.

Other Point Winners.

Other Class B points in the meet were won as follows: Pyron, 90; Ira, 45.

In the rural meet week before last, for which all totals were not completed last week, pointage was as follows: Turner, 114 1/2; Canyon, 72; Crowder, 60; Ennis Creek and Plainview, 45 each; Bethel, 37 1/2; Lloyd Mountain, 25; Independence, 20.

Many students were prevented from taking part in the meet because of a renewed surge of the mumps. In the face of this epidemic, however, Snyder was blessed with contestants, teachers and patrons from Thursday night, when choral singing was held, until the track meet ended Saturday afternoon.

How Dunn Took Points.

Dunn began her conquest of Class B opponents by taking boys' debate honors. She also took a number of points in declamation. One family provided most of the Dunn winners in declamation, Marvin Hanson Jr. winning first for senior boys, Evelyn Hanson first for junior high school girls, and Don Hanson first for ward school boys.

Snyder began piling up points Thursday night by winning first in choral singing. A great crowd from all parts of the county heard this contest, the first of its kind ever held in the county. Fluvanna was second and Hermleigh was third. Snyder barely led Dunn for literary honors in all divisions.

Four and one-tenth miles of the so-called Clairmont route will be given a modern widened road bed, improved drainage structures and a heavy caliche filler. The contractors already have most of their material and equipment here.

With the work order for the project already in the hands of H. M. Dyer, resident engineer of the State Highway Department, J. T. Jenkins of the local NRS office announces that relief clerks will be given preference on the job, which will be carried on principally with pick-and-shovel and wagons.

Crew of 25-40 Later.

Since there is such a short haul for the trucks, and since all the dirt for the south dump is being clawed from one area, the approach is being put up at record breaking speed.

CONSERVATION MEETINGS ARE SET FOR APRIL

Community Meetings This Week and Next Planned for Explanation Of Farm Program.

High points of the new 1936 government farm program, which centers around soil conservation, will be carried to nine Scurry County communities from Thursday night of this week through Saturday morning of next week, according to W. R. Luce, county agent.

Plans for the series of meetings were laid at a gathering of farm leaders at the courthouse Wednesday afternoon.

At the various meetings the county agent will explain the terms of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, and the proposed organization to be set up under it.

Schedule of Meetings.

Meetings scheduled for this week are as follows: Thursday, 7:30 p. m., Fluvanna; Friday, 2:00 p. m., Union; Friday, 7:30 p. m., German; Saturday, 2:00 p. m., Snyder.

Next week's meetings are as follows: Monday, 2:00 p. m., Inadale; Monday, 7:30 p. m., Hermleigh; Tuesday, 2:00 p. m., Dunn; Tuesday, 7:30 p. m., Plainview; Wednesday, 2:00 p. m., Bison; Wednesday, 7:30 p. m., Ennis Creek and Lloyds Mountain at Ennis Creek; Thursday, 2:00 p. m., Pleasant Hill; Thursday, 7:30 p. m., Ira and Canyon at Ira; Friday, 2:00 p. m., Camp Springs; Friday, 7:30 p. m., China Grove; Saturday, 10:00 a. m., Cottonwood.

1935 Figures Used.

Complete administrative details of the new program are not yet available, but are expected to be received within two or three weeks. County Agent Luce said when he returned from a district meeting at Colorado Saturday.

Base figures in the 1935 AAA program in Texas will be used in the 1936 farm program, according to a statement issued by Jack Shelton, vice director and state agent of the Extension Service.

"Every farmer in Texas will have an opportunity to hear the Act explained and to cooperate in making the new farm program a success," Shelton stated.

It's Farmer's Program.

"It is their program. It was passed by Congress at their urgent demand. We believe that they will want to understand it very fully and that they will want everybody else to understand it, too, because the old saying that 'what you are not up on, you are apt to be down on,' is still true."

Shelton further emphasized that the old program and the organization that went with it are completely out; that this is an entirely new set-up; that it is a soil conservation and soil building program.

"The blowing sand in the air right now and the floods which have made thousands of people homeless in cities and towns as well as on farms give a rather dreadful emphasis to the fact that America is 50 years late with a soil conservation program; but better late than never, I think we will agree."

Top Interest in Six Contests on Marshal's Race

With competition in six of the eight races, balloting is expected to run high in the city election Tuesday of next week.

Entrance of Henry Howard into the mayor's race last week against Dr. H. G. Towle, incumbent for eight years, brought increased interest in that direction.

The top race will probably be for city marshal and tax collector. Four candidates are seeking the post that J. A. Woodfin will leave in order to become a candidate for sheriff. They are: Sid Bruton, Arlie Biggs, John Lynch and Albert Smith.

Four Other Contests.

J. S. Bradburn, incumbent, is opposed for city secretary by Mrs. Kate Cotten.

E. D. Curry has announced as a candidate for city recorder against H. V. Williams, incumbent.

The north ward alderman's race has three contestants—James A. Clark, present holder of the place, O. D. McClain and Burrey L. Kent. The names of R. H. Odum, incumbent, and Forest G. Sears, appear on the west ward ballot.

W. W. Hamilton is unopposed in the city attorney's race, and J. E. Shipp is unopposed for re-election as east ward alderman.

Recent Record Set.

A record number of voters cast their ballots two years ago in the election that featured seven candidates for city marshal and tax collector. The total of 840 votes may be exceeded Tuesday, for more poll taxes have been paid this year.

City election boxes, with presiding officers and locations, are as follows: North ward, E. R. Butts, sheriff's office; east ward, M. Stacy, Commissioners Court room; west ward, J. C. Maxwell, justice of the peace office.

Only one change will affect Scurry County has been made in voting laws. "Unders" must have secured exemption receipts or they cannot vote. In prior years they could vote simply by making an affidavit as to their age.

Little Interest in The Selection of Snyder Trustees

Following the trend of recent years, little interest is being manifested in Saturday's election for trustees of the Snyder Independent School District.

Only two names have been submitted for the official ballot, according to A. C. Preuit, secretary. They are Dr. J. G. Hicks and R. J. Randsall, both for re-election.

S. T. Elza will be judge of the election. Voters will cast their ballots in the justice of the peace court room, basement of the courthouse.

She spoke in the evening on the subject "Texas of Yesterday Teaches Texas of Today." The charming woman said, "Texans of today can do no greater thing than live up to the ideals of their forefathers," during the course of her hour's talk.

The candidacy of Mrs. W. P. Arvlett of Lamesa, president Seventh District for the past three years, for first vice president of Texas Federation of Women's Clubs was endorsed by the convention immediately following her year's report Monday night.

Centennial Dinner Given.

Mrs. Preston Dial of San Antonio, Texas Centennial messenger to Europe last summer, was principal speaker at a Centennial dinner Tuesday night. She told dinner guests of her experiences in taking the invitation for 4,000,000 Texas school children to people in England, France and Germany to visit in Texas during the Centennial.

More than 400 people took part in "The Spirit of Texas," a colorful pageant tracing the history of West Texas from the middle of the 19th century up to the present time. Mrs. M. O. Hatt, Lubbock, directed the program, and it was so outstanding that Mrs. Volney W. Taylor, state president, invited Seventh District to present the pageant at the Centennial in Dallas.

A morning address by Mrs. W. S. Douglas of San Angelo, state chairman of gardens, was heard Wednesday, and a club memorial service followed. The convention closed with an Au Revoir Luncheon Wednesday, at which outgoing district officers were honored, and incoming officials were welcomed.

A stag party was given to honor Mr. Sisk Tuesday night by Warren Dodson, postmaster, and Hilton Lambert, and Jess Rogers, city letter carrier, at the Windsor Coffee Shop.

She Presents "Blue Bonnet Blue"

A new high note in fashions was struck last week when the "Texas Centennial Celebrations" presented beautiful "Blue Bonnet Blue" to the fashion world in a style show at the Waldorf Astoria hotel in New York City. Scores of leading stylists, designers, and fashion editors applauded when lovely Janice Jarratt, San Antonio girl known to the nation as America's most photographed girl, appeared in this striking Blue Bonnet gown designed especially for the occasion by Vogue.

Decorating the luxurious lounge were 250 flowering Blue Bonnet plants gathered near San Antonio and Corpus Christi and air-expressed to New York.

Official adoption of "Blue Bonnet Blue" by fashion authorities has caused the lustrous State flower of Texas to be introduced into spring and summer fashions throughout the nation. Thus enthusiasm for the Texas Centennial Celebrations, already evident in many fields, motivates progress in the fashion world.

NEWS of the WEEK

FLOOD WATERS SUBSIDE.
New York City—Flood-scarred throughout New England, New York and Pennsylvania report the gradual resumption of every-day life, but all face appalling losses to goods and property. Both the Pennsylvania and Baltimore & Ohio railroads announce the resumption of east-west schedules. The flood now moves into the Mississippi Valley, where further damage is anticipated.

GOODYEAR STRIKE ENDS.
Akron, Ohio—After five weeks of idleness, costing 14,000 workers $2,500,000 in wages, the employees of the big Goodyear tire works went back to work. Strikes started over the laying off of veteran workers; ended with the acceptance of President Paul Litchfield's seven-point peace program, including union recognition, 6-hour day and retraction of disputed lay-offs.

WHAT THEY WANTED.
St. Paul, Minn.—Into the city hall marched Robert Bergeron, relief applicant, wife and 10 children, and deposited at Mayor Mark Gehan's feet a bundle of soiled clothes. Either the mayor could do the laundry himself or give the Bergerons an electric washing machine, was the ultimatum. Offered a $60.30 WPA job, the visitor declined; $100 a month, plus washer, or nothing. Mayor Gehan was left with the wash.

SOCIETY WOMAN WINS.
New York City—Mrs. Marie B. S. Wright looked up at a hair-tonic advertisement in the subway, was "mortified, embarrassed and humiliated" to find her own picture with that of a bald-headed man, labeled "Don't let this happen to you." Taking the advice, the socialite hauled the manufacturer and his advertising agent into court, demanded $50,000 for her wounded feelings. She got a verdict of $3,000.

UNDER SCRUTINY.
Washington, D. C.—Armed with a Congressional grant of $750,000, the Federal Communications Commission swung into its investigation of the world's largest private enterprise, the American Telephone & Telegraph Company. Said President Walter S. Gifford, "We have no skeletons to be exposed." A staff of 15 investigators, 12 attorneys, 42 engineers, 151 accountants and a horde of clerks spent $425,000 in preliminary work. The FCC's chief inquisitor promises surprises as the inquiry progresses.

Local Merchants Give $76.20 for League Entrants

Fifty-eight Snyder merchants purchased 762 ten-cent entry tickets for Interscholastic League contestants from all parts of the county, reports the county superintendent. In other words, the group of business men donated $76.20 toward success of the meet.

Members of the Lions Club solicited the funds, and reported ready reception of the plan, almost without exception. All funds go toward financing the meet. Prevalence of fluunts throughout the county caused the entry list to be reduced, and several merchants therefore report that some of their tickets were not called for by students.

Following are names of ticket buyers and the amounts they invested in the meet:

Miss Williams Here.
Miss Maggie Williams, county and district clerk of Borden County, said last week-end when she made one of her frequent visits to Snyder: "The Times is getting better every week. We enjoy it a lot over at Gall."

But the relationship works the other way, too. When agriculture fails to return farmers a fair income, farmers may not be in a position to treat their land well.

TEXAS CIVIC DUEL.
Dallas, Texas—Ever since the coming of railroads in the '70's, this city and Fort Worth have been rivals. This summer the rivalry reaches national importance. Dallas, to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the Lone Star State, expects 12,000,000 visitors to its Texas Centennial Exposition, cushioned with a fund of $25,000,000 from federal, state, city and private sources. Not to be outdone, Fort Worth raised $5,000,000 for a show of its own, then hired Billy Rose, New York showman and producer of the Hippodrome's "Jumbo," at $1,000 a day, to stage huge extravaganzas, "The Last Frontier" and "Frontier Follies." Already Texas is plastered with the slogan: "Dallas for education; Fort Worth for entertainment."

LET'S TALK ABOUT CLOTHES BY A YOUNG MODERN

Boulevards everywhere are revealing unmistakable signs of Easter. Gay new frocks with all the freshness of the new season are in constant demand, and "tops" among them are the pastels.

Brilliant prints that have been worn since early January have a tinge of winter about them, and something altogether unsuggestive of the past season is in order. Pastels are the very breath of spring, and are adaptable to the summer season as well.

I saw one particularly smart suit that would fit in nicely with your spring and summer wardrobe. The dress was made of aquamarine crepe and fashioned so that it could be worn without the jacket. A wide sheered yoke was finished at the neck with a narrow band-collar that tied in a bow under the chin, and tiny covered buttons fastened the frock in the front. The jacket was made with a peplum, and featured wide lapels that were banded at the edge with several rows of cording. The three-quarter length sleeves were also banded in this manner.

Pastel sports frocks are ever-popular with girls at Texas State College for Women (CIA). These dresses, made shirtwaist style, show an abundance of pleats in front and back. They are fashioned in light and dark color combinations, and boast novelty buttons, running from the neckline down to the hem. If pastel crepes are not to your

Lady's Painful Trouble Helped By Cardui

Why do so many women take Cardui for the relief of functional pains as monthly times? The answer is that they want results such as Mrs. Herbert W. Hunt, of Hallsville, Texas, describes. She writes: "My health wasn't good. I suffered from cramping. My pain would be so intense it would nauseate me. I would just drag around, so sluggish and 'do-less'. My mother decided to give me Cardui. I began to mend. That tired, sluggish feeling was gone and the pains disappeared. I can't praise Cardui too highly because I know it helped me." . . . If Cardui does not help YOU, consult a physician.

ON TEXAS FARMS

By Minnie Fish, Cunningham, Extension Service Editor
Man is a land animal. The food he eats, the clothing he wears—the most basic necessities of life—come from the land. In a simple society, most families make direct use of the land in securing these necessities.

In a more complex society, which has developed specialized tools and specialized occupations, only part of the people are needed to draw from the land the products required by everyone. A large number of people no longer have direct relation to the land.

At the same time, the specialized machinery and intensive methods that have had to be developed to enable part of the people to produce food and fiber for all the people have greatly increased the possibility for good or ill in the use of the land.

Everyone, whether engaged directly in agriculture or not, is closely affected by what happens to the land under the conditions that must be met in a modern society.

When land is used in such a way that its productivity becomes greatly diminished in relation to population, people as a whole have lower supplies of food at higher prices.
When productivity suffers through misuse of land, the people engaged in agriculture are forced to a lower standard of living.
Unquestionably it would pay a farmer over the years to make investments in soil conservation. On many farms, certain measures can be taken with little or no added cost and with an immediate increase in net returns.—From "Soil Health and National Wealth," AAA.

THE WEEKLY DOZEN

Weekly Rooseveltism.

President Roosevelt: "It is my belief that the more popular interest is aroused in governmental matters, the more effective the people will be in achieving their aspirations."

Livestock in Texas.

Texas leads all other states in the production of cattle, horses, sheep, goats and mules, with a total of 6,840,000 head annually, well over 2,000,000 head more than Iowa, her nearest rival in this industry. If you add the two-legged varieties of mules and other popular animals, the figure would no doubt climb well above 10,000,000.

Pete Bids Farewell.

Pessimism Pete bids farewell to Nea B. Sisk, post office dispatcher and clerk de luxe, with deep regrets. Because he is one of those rare men who work for Uncle Sam and yet retain their innate courtesy and helpfulness, he will be missed. At the same time, his successor is welcomed with the handclasp that only West Texas can give.

A Reserve for Emergencies.

The American Petroleum Institute estimates that proven underground petroleum reserves in known fields of the United States amount to more than 12,770,000,000 barrels. Texas leads all states with nearly half of the nation's reserves. That's good news, for it's beginning to look like it will take more oil than Texas is now producing to pour on the troubled Dallas-Fort Worth waters.

A New Texas Color Scheme.

Talkative Tillie says the new "Blue Bonnet Blue" that has been created for women's dresses is good Centennial advertising and a good color . . . but why not create, while we are in the business, such sectional shades as West Texas brown (sand and Herdords), East Texas green (envy and pine trees), South Texas yellow (sulphur and yellow catfish), North Texas black (jumbo soil and colored boys).

A Rose by Any Other Name.

Billy Rose, who will direct Fort Worth's Frontier Centennial, sheds perfumed words like these: "Not a pale carbon copy of the Chicago World's Fair, but a living, breathing, highly exciting version of the last frontier." He has already learned, evidently, that the surest way to please Fort Worthians (who are paying him approximately $1,000 per day) is to give dear old Dallas a gentle kick in the slats.

Automobile Deaths.

In this good Centennial year, with its oncoming horde of motorists, Texas will become the world's most prolific breeder of automobile deaths unless existing laws are made definitely effective. Last year, with no special urge for speed and no extra cars on the highways, deaths from automobile accident in Texas increased 15 per cent, while the national rate showed a drop of one per cent. If statistics mean nothing to motorists, show 'em Old John Law's might!

Increasing Land Revenue.

"When productivity suffers through misuse of land, the people engaged in agriculture are forced to a lower standard of living," declares "Soil Health and National Wealth," an AAA publication. "Unquestionably, it would pay a farmer over the years to make investments in soil conservation. On many farms, certain measures can be taken with little or no added cost and with an immediate increase in net returns."

National Defense Strengthened.

Ardent advocates of both heavy defenses for the sake of peace and heavy defenses for the sake of heavy defenses should be thoroughly pleased over the 1936 turn of army, navy and air force affairs. Almost any magazine and newspaper tells of strengthened national defenses. And Scurry County Times mail is bulwarked in recent months with publicity from various recruiting offices. Join the navy (for the army or air force), young man, and see . . . well, you shall see what you shall see.

On Poisoning Dogs.

Sometimes dogs do get too numerous—the same is true of rats—but it seems reckless to scatter poison to kill, broadcast. He who does that might even get one of his own children. If you have once owned a dog with almost human ways, you will from henceforth be patient and kind to all dumb animals, especially that one who is the natural companion of man—the dog. What we think about one who would deliberately poison a harmless little dog can be expressed, but the language would not be permitted in the U. S. mails.—Hamilin Herald.

Best Argument for Democrats.

We have just received a large sheet of publicity from the Republican nomination committee—a sample of material which the party headquarters proposes to furnish to the newspapers free of charge. Aside from childish attempts at humor and some vulgarity, the outstanding feature of the six columns of publicity on the sheet is that it deals entirely with the Democratic administration. We are unable to find one word about the Republican party, its plans, policies or past accomplishments. Any Democrat who is becoming disgusted with his own party would do well to read this Republican news-sheet. It is the strongest argument we have seen against turning out the New Deal to put in the G. O. P.—Stamford American.

A Friend Goes to Dallas.

"Your churches have wonderful pulpits, but their occupants preach and preach and preach . . . poor people are not satisfied with preaching only."

So said Toychiko Kagawa to a large New York audience recently. The dynamic Japanese, said to be the outstanding evangel of Christianity from the Orient, might have spoken his gentle rebuke to a Snyder audience or to a West Texas or Texas audience, if we are to judge by a number of our church leaders.

Rev. Alfred M. Dorsett, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Snyder, who left this week to become assistant pastor of a large Dallas Church, is a notable exception to the rule laid down by Kagawa. Snyder and Scurry County have other exceptions to the rule but Rev. Dorsett's service to the people of his community is emphasized as he leaves for a larger field.

The youthful pastor has a rare Christian air of helpfulness; rare, because those of us who pretend to be Christians so seldom depart from our habits of nominal Sunday worship.

The Christian faith, Rev. Dorsett seems to say by his every-day practice of helping those who need help, involves more than preaching, more than teaching, more than argumentative religion. The Christian faith, his actions indicated while he was in Snyder, consists in large measure of remedying the situation that made possible Kagawa's rebuke to American pulpits.

The Times is glad that it was privileged to know this man who is a better servant of God because he is a better servant of man. Snyder will not soon forget his every-day interpretation of the Christian's faith and practice.

EDITORIAL OF THE WEEK

"TERMS CASH."

Ten and 12 years ago the usual ending of advertisements of sales of farm stock and implements was "Terms—$10 and under, cash; over that amount, ten months' credit." In recent years few farm stock sales have been held, for the reason that purchasers were not available.

A change is taking place. Sales are advertised in considerable numbers in weekly papers of the province. Seventy-five farm horses were sold at the last Orangeville monthly fair at good prices, all of which indicates improvement in agricultural conditions. We have before us 13 advertisements of sales in Peel and Haulton. With one exception the terms are "cash."

Had this condition been imposed years ago many a farmer who "went broke" the last 20 years, there is little doubt, would be still on his farm. Pay as you go policy has caused inconvenience in isolated cases out the number who have suffered in consequence is small compared with the number that have benefited.

Too much credit brought bankruptcy to more persons than too little credit ever forced out of business. "Terms cash" is a good motto for those in all lines of business.—Brampton (Ontario, Canada) Conservator.

CURRENT COMMENT

BY LEON GUNN.

In the cold gray dawn of a Tokyo morning, while snow fell on the city of cherry blossoms, hotbeds of the Third Regiment, 1st Division, moved Premier Keisuke Okada, Finance Minister Kerekiyo, Makoto Saifu, Gen. Jotaro Watanabe, and Kantaro Suzuki down in one of the most drastic acts Tokyo has witnessed in recent times. . . . The date: February 26. . . . Events have followed swiftly since the army fanatics deposed these revered Japanese statesmen of earthly titles, and from the ferment of Oriental reasoning a crazy quilt has been produced that will vitally affect the "Land of the Rising Sun." . . . Now with actual fighting on the Mongolian frontier a reality, most observers see a blood stained horizon for the Japs to be faced with: Russia resisting attempts to see the frontier near Norin Lake being invaded, since this Mongolia is factually a buffer state. . . . Since this is Russia's weakest point, Moscow warns of stormy weather ahead.

Behind the scenes in both nations is all the pent up vitriolic hate of years standing; beneath the blue steel of machine guns lies a story of overarmament, teeming millions of overcrowded people wanting room to expand. . . . The world is big enough for everyone to live peacefully in if population were equally distributed the earth over, but dictators and rulers, not common people, create war out of the havoc wrought by the queer working of distorted ambitions.

Which brings us to the question of the misnomer, war. . . . Not how far away, but how soon? . . . Perhaps not this month, this year, but eventually. . . . And why? . . . From the long range view of things, so the world may be deleted of its communism, its hate and bitterness, its streak of mounting atheism, its overburden of death tools, its unbelief of the Golden Rule and Christianity. . . . Society, in its acclivity toward civilization, will some day destroy itself by its own inventions, unless those inventions trend toward betterment of man. . . . In our pursuit of life, this nation need not stoop to the folly of war. . . . If America should ever decline it will be more likely by the undermining forces within, not without.

The Times Creed:

For the cause that needs assistance;
For the wrongs that need resistance;
For the future in the distance,
And the good that we can do.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

Austin—Jim Ferguson denied flatly rumors that he might switch his support from Sen. Roy Sanderford and enter "Me" Ferguson as a candidate for a third term as governor of Texas. Judge F. W. (Big Fish) Fischer of Tyler hired himself a press agent, and paid Austin a flying visit. Gov. Allred began preparation of the platform upon which he will seek his second term.

These marked the week's outstanding developments in the gubernatorial campaign.

Judge Fischer retained the services of A. W. von Struve, able and popular former Austin and Wichita Falls newsmen, who was publicist for Tom Hunter two years ago. He accompanied "Big Fish" to the capital for a series of conferences with friends here.

RECORD SPEAKS.

Attention of this correspondent has been belatedly called to a letter to The Cisco Press from Louise Marx, secretary to Rep. Tom Blanton. The lady thinks the recent report in this column, crediting the County Judges' Association with victory in its fight to obtain federal road funds for 1936-37, is "inaccurate, ridiculous, absurd," and possibly some other adjectives. Congress had not made the road appropriation before the county judges held their meeting in Dallas two months ago, launched their fight, wired President Roosevelt and the Texas delegation, and sent their committee to Washington. It did appropriate the money after the judges did these things. Whether the judges were helpful is a matter of opinion, and this correspondent's opinion is apparently shared by most of the Texas congressmen, who have written Secretary Nelson of the association, thanking the judges for their aid. The fact that Congressman Blanton and Association President Clyde Garrett, of Eastland, are rival candidates for Congress this year may have influenced the lady's opinion.

Meanwhile, the East Texas County Judges' Association, in session at Corsicana, adopted resolutions strongly endorsing the recommendation of Sen. Carl Hayden, Arizona, that a $770,000,000 public works program be carried out next year, with no labor restrictions except that workers must be paid the prevailing wage scale, and that preference be given jobless American citizens registered with the National Re-employment Service. They cited 1,000 permanent structures in Texas, including eight hospitals, 600 school houses and additions, the Red Bluff dam, the Galveston causeway, and numerous city halls, libraries, waterworks, sewer systems, all completed or under way under PWA supervision, as evidence that PWA has aided recovery in Texas.

MOVIE CREDITS.

In many of Texas 7,000 public schools this year, official credits are being given pupils for viewing certain classic motion pictures, notably the Dickens pictures, "A Tale of Two Cities," "David Copperfield," and others. Educational leaders are coming to value the opportunity for visual education offered by wholesome movies, bulwarking the place the movies have won as a potent force in organized community life. Dickens in pictures, say the educators, enables children to understand and appreciate the work of the English master years before they would be sufficiently developed mentally to absorb Dickens in the books, and lays a groundwork for cultural appreciation of great literature by children during the period when their minds are most plastic.

Austin—The most noteworthy contribution that has been made this year from any source to the study of financial condition of the state of Texas has been compiled by C. A. Jay, executive vice president of the Industrial, Commercial and Agricultural Conference of Dallas. Jay makes a continuous study of Texas' tax problem. His figures and estimates are entirely unbiased, because he never advocates any legislation or any tax plans, but confines himself simply to the task of digging out facts and publishing them. His analyses in the past have proved more accurate and more informative than those of any political source. Here are the facts as Jay reveals them in his latest analysis of Texas' finances.

When this fiscal year ends there will be a deficit of around $8,000,000 in the general fund, as compared with around $6,000,000 at the beginning of the year. There will be a cash balance in the available school fund of $4,000,000 after payment of the maximum per capita apportionment of $17.50, the highest ever paid in history. Besides, the school fund received $10,000,000 of rural aid this year—$1,000,000 more than it ever got before.

TWO PROBLEMS.

The Confederate pension fund will continue to have a considerable deficit, but under the present constitutional allotment of 7 cents this deficit is being reduced about $100,000 annually.

The state this year had a non-recurring expenditure of $3,000,000 for the Centennial and another $3,000,000 for the first instalment of interest and principal on the relief bonds which will decrease annually. The highway fund is adequate and in good condition.

This leaves only two problems demanding attention—schools and old age pensions. Jay estimates that if per capita appropriations of $17.50—the maximum—and the $10,000,000 rural aid appropriation of this year are continued the school fund will have from $10,000,000 to $12,000,000 cash balance at the end of the biennium, with present revenues.

He estimates the cost of old age pensions at $8,000,000 a year under the present law if it is efficiently administered. He estimates 240,000 Texans over 65, using adjusted U. S. census figures, and 30,000 of these as "indigents" within the meaning of the Texas law, using figures of the U. S. Senate committee on social security. Allowing a liberal sum for the cost of administering the law, he fixes the maximum cost at around $8,000,000 a year. Liquor taxes will furnish $4,000,000, or half the sum, he believes. He concludes: "Therefore, the only additional revenue actually necessary would be four or five million dollars to supplement the funds now allotted to old age pensions. Certainly these facts ought to convince the average taxpayer there is no reason for the state to become panicky in search of new revenue in the next regular session of the Legislature."

NO SESSION.

The rumor that Governor Allred will call a special session before the election, fostered by those who want a session, dies hard. Twice recently the governor has again denied that he plans to call a session before the July primary. If he does not, it is believed virtually certain he will not call the Legislature before the regular session in January, since a "lame duck" session would almost certainly pass a sales tax, which Allred would veto, and no other constructive legislation. The governor's attitude confirms the growing belief that liquor taxes will furnish sufficient funds to pay old age pensions for several months after July 1—probably enough to last until the January regular session.

LOUD SHIRTS.

Former Governor Dan Moody has a weakness for striking shirts, his fancy running to stripes of blue, lavender and pink. He has them made to order, with the highest, stiffest collars he can get, and frequently wears two or three different shirts in a day.

FREAK OIL POOL.

A freak of nature in the Yates oil pool in Pecos County promises to form the basis of a forthcoming bitter legal battle. When the field first came in, back in 1929, major oil companies which owned most of the leases entered an agreement with a few operators who owned leases on small "vacancy" tracts. All the lease owners agreed on a proportion factor of acreage plus well potential, taking a 100-acre tract as the unit. The oil sand there is very "streaky" and by chance some of the largest wells in the world, yielding up to 150,000 or more barrels daily, came in one the little two and four-acre leases. As a result, under the formula, the man with two acres is permitted by the railroad commission rules in some cases to take more oil out of his leases than the major company with 100 acres, where wells are much smaller producers. So the California Oil Company and the Marathon Oil Company have petitioned the railroad commission to cancel the agreement they entered into and establish a new system that would give them more oil. The state is opposed, because the school funds draw royalties from the "vacancy" leases. If the commission turns down the request, as it indicated after a two-day hearing, a long-drawn-out court fight probably will result.

REVENUE SOURCES.

Actually, revenues of last year are showing substantial increase due to better business conditions and to tightening of laws and administration of state tax laws. Notable increases have occurred in gasoline tax and cigarette tax collections already. Federal income taxes are up 45 per cent this year in Texas, indicating greatly improved business in all lines. More than $25,000,000 in delinquent ad valorem taxes are owing to the state now, and reviving business doubtless will bring in some of this revenue. This is not overdue taxes on the little homesteads of widows and small home owners, because an accurate study shows that 46 per cent of this $25,000,000 is owed by only 6 per cent of the delinquent property owners.

The pessimist fights optimism, but the optimist kills pessimism.

Polar News

Mrs. H. Randolph, Correspondent

This community was made sad Monday by the death of Mrs. G. M. Elkins of Dermott. Mrs. Elkins has made Polar her home for several years, until a year ago when she moved to Dermott. Our sympathy goes out to the bereaved ones. Clyde Clanton and family of Luther visited relatives here week before last. Mrs. Lizzie Ford and son, Burl, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Randolph and daughter spent the first of last week with M. C. Newsom and family near Lamesa. Several from this community attended the track meet at Jayton Friday and Saturday. Polar won first in choral singing, Ray White won second place in high hurdles, Mary Nell Randolph and Maude Ramage won second in senior spelling. Guy Peterson and family, Mrs. B. N. Marcum and son of Snyder were Polar visitors Sunday afternoon. I want to take this opportunity to thank those who are handling me the news.

HEALTH NEWS

From Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer

Deaths from automobile accidents in Texas increased 15 per cent last year, while the national rate showed a drop of one per cent, according to information in the State Bureau of Vital Statistics. In 1931 the deaths from automobiles totaled 1,148; while in 1935 they had jumped to 1,823—an increase of 58.7 per cent.

To date, statistics apparently have had little effect upon the motoring public. The evident desire to get there in a hurry, overcomes judgment and prompts the use of power under prohibited conditions, with the consequent and inevitable sacrifice of human life.

Somehow motorists must be made to realize that a high-powered machine rolling along even at legal speed upon the highways is far from a plaything. A clearer conception on the part of the driver that the other fellow is likely to disregard the rules of the road also must be generated. An egotism which prompts one to imagine that he owns the highway, that he is not held down to warning signs and highway regulations, that pedestrians are pests, and causes the operation of a car as though the driver is the only one on the road—such egotism is frequently fatal. But, unfortunately, in many instances, the innocent and law-abiding motorist pays the supreme penalty for this type of folly.

When to this appalling loss of life, we add the million others who in the same period have been hurt more or less seriously because of the motor car, the problem assumes vital importance not only to the safety-profession whose members are fundamentally interested in the conservation of human life. Let us all cooperate.

When to this appalling loss of life, we add the million others who in the same period have been hurt more or less seriously because of the motor car, the problem assumes vital importance not only to the safety-profession whose members are fundamentally interested in the conservation of human life. Let us all cooperate.
