Snyder High School Band will present a concert at 12:30 p. m., preceding business sessions at 1:00 o'clock.

Fred Jones will direct group singing of "America," and Rev. Hubert C. Travis, Midwest chaplain, will give the invocation.

C. P. Sentell, Snyder attorney representing Mayor H. G. Towle of Snyder, will give the welcome address, and James C. Asbury of Baird, past Midwest president, will bring the response. In this (Thursday) afternoon's business session, speakers will include Chester Cherry, state president of the Texas Firemen's Association, Ballinger; Hugh Nations of Crosbyton, first vice president; Chief Twitty of the Lubbock Fire Department; Curley Hayes of Abilene; and main speech by Olin Culbertson, Texas Railroad Commissioner and long-time secretary of the state association.

Election of officers and naming of a fall convention site will feature concluding part of the business session.

Semi-annual races will begin this (Thursday) afternoon at 5:00 o'clock on 26th Street in front of city hall. A ladies' team from Colorado City will add considerable variety to the races.

Scurry County's War Price and Ration Board assures N. W. Autry, Snyder's fire chief and Midwest president, that plenty of food points will be given to stage a well-balanced dinner at 6:30 o'clock for firemen of this area and their ladies.

Concluding event of the Midwest convalescence will be a dance, to be staged at the Snyder skating rink, beginning at 9:00 o'clock. Music for the Merry Makers Orchestra.

Telephone calls received late Wednesday by President Autry revealed delegations from Colorado City, Albany, Cisco, Baird, Roton and other towns in this area would arrive ahead of schedule for the semi-annual convalescence.

Little Chance Seen For Rubber Plant in West Texas Region

West Texas representatives said in Washington Tuesday after a visit with Rubber Administrator William Jeffers that there is little likelihood of establishment of a grain alcohol plant in this area in the near future.

Accompanied by two members of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, five congressmen discussed with Jeffers the possibility of any immediate change in the grain alcohol synthetic rubber program that might result in use of West Texas grain in a West Texas plant.

Representative Ewing Thompson said Jeffers was sympathetic but gave no encouragement. Instead, he said, the administrator expressed hope the present synthetic rubber program could be carried through to completion.

Other Texans in the group were Representatives George Mahon, Sam Russell, Eugene Worley and Ed Gossett, and Ed Pender and Milo Roth of Sweetwater, members of the Texas chamber.

Big Egg Sale Brings
Check for $2,009.75

Sale of produce by Scurry County people is really paying excellent wartime dividends, as figures furnished by Andy Cochran, Snyder produce house operator, prove.

Cochran had a check Monday for $2,009.75, paid him for eggs alone last week by Henningson, Inc., Lamasa. The eggs were bought from Snyder and Scurry County poultry owners.

GRASS GREENS AFTER RECENT COUNTY RAINS

Farmers Busy Preparing for Crop
Year—Ranchers Benefitted as Relief from Feed Shortage

Life-giving rains which fell last Tuesday night and Wednesday—first of 1943—have put Scurry County farmers "up and at 'em" this week, crop observers reported Wednesday.

Farmers in virtually all sections of the county who had been waiting for season are this week planting sudan for pasturage, early feed such as milo maize and corn, and in general are formulating plans for a major crop year.

Both farmers and ranchers of the county report grass, winter weeds and wild rye will greatly alleviate the acute feed shortage prevailing in the county within a few weeks.

Small grain crops which withstood the dry freezes of early March are said to be freshening up rapidly, and rooting well underground to take advantage of the underground moisture. Several large fields of grain around Dermott, Inadale and elsewhere in the county died before rain fell, however.

Orchardists are cultivating around trees, and report prospects are bright for a good berry crop this year.

Gardening is getting underway in Snyder and Scurry County on a major scale, with onions being set out; radishes, beans, peas, carrots, squash, cucumbers and other vegetables are being planted.

All in all, Scurry County's agricultural picture has improved by leaps and bounds since last week, and both farmers and ranchers point with pride to the "spring rush" now underway.

Three Carloads of County Peanuts Sold To Stephenville Firm

Carload of Scurry County grown peanuts was shipped Wednesday by Winston Feed Store to Consumers Peanut Company at Stephenville, C. M. Boren, operator of the feed concern, reports.

Boren reports that another carload of peanuts will go out Friday and a third carload Monday to the Stephenville firm. Consideration which will be received per ton was not revealed.

Indication that the county's 1942 peanut crop is now moving rapidly to market is reflected in the fact a carload was consigned to a Coleman purchaser last week.

Boren reported Wednesday that Winston Feed Store still has on hand over 100,000 pounds of No. 2 peanuts and 100,000 pounds of No. 1 peanuts. Ample supplies of peanuts for planting purposes are being retained for the benefit of county farmers.

Table of Ginnings in Area Shows Decline

Some Shootin'

Here's the prize chicken story that has come to the attention of The Times in recent weeks.

A county farmer, who asks for anonymity, said his wife awakened him one night last week at 12:30 o'clock, and urged him to take a shotgun and get rid of whatever might be causing chickens, guineas and turkeys to raise so much Cain.

The farmer, about half asleep, crawled to a point near the henhouse, bare-footed, and when a pet cat rubbed against one of his bare feet, he pulled both triggers on his double-barrel and killed 14 of the wife's heaviest hens.

P. S.—They have had no more chicken cackling during the night.

Farm Labor May Be Brought from East Texas Here

Scurry County stands a good chance of having skilled farm hands brought into the county, on a year-around basis—if the need arises—Gerald G. Gordon, Scurry County Farm Security Administration supervisor, announced Tuesday.

Before any farm workers are brought into the county, Gordon states, it will be necessary to have the names of the farmers needing help before workers can be assigned to this trade zone.

Such workers, it is reported, would be brought here from East Texas farms, and are farm workers who desire to make a success of farming in this section of Texas—not "green hands" in any sense of the word.

Gordon declares approximately 1,200 workers could be made available for farm work in Scurry and nearby counties, on a year-around basis. Seasonal workers would be handled in a different manner—when services for such workers might be required.

Scurry County farmers who need year-around workers are asked to contact Gordon at the PSA office, basement of The Fair Store, not later than Saturday, April 3.

Scholastic Census in County Completed

County Levels Kept Busy with Terracing

Running of terrace lines is really swinging into "high" in Scurry County this week.

So reports Edward S. Hyman, county agricultural agent, who says the three levels owned by the County of Scurry are in constant use by farmers and ranchers running terrace lines and making preparations to stress soil conservation as never before.

Three levels in constant use are kept in proper repair and functioning order by the county agent. Those interested in securing a level for running terrace lines in pasture or field are urged to book their requests with the county agent, basement of the courthouse.

Draftees Not in Vital Places Will Be Called for Service Despite Marriage

Scurry County's Selective Service Draft Board, in line with policies of other draft boards throughout the nation, will begin classification after April 1 of registrants still in non-deferable jobs.

Reclassification of registrants will get underway, despite eight weeks' notice to get into essential jobs, or risk induction into military service regardless of whether those in Selective Service files have wives and children.

No-deferables with proper dependency claims who have switched to activities on the essential list will be entitled to 3-B classification, while those who land in work listed neither as essential nor non-deferable will remain in 3-A, officials said.

Those still in non-deferable work will be classified 1-A, available for immediate military service, but will get an automatic 30-day stay of induction if they give their boards proof that they have registered with the U. S. Employment Service for transfer to other employment.

In addition, draft boards have discretionary authority to postpone induction of non-deferable or idle men on such grounds:

"Sickness of registrant or immediate family of registrant; physical disqualification; reasonable vacation; compelling circumstances that would not permit the change of un-

AAA OFFICES ARE MOVED TO MARTIN SPACE

Increased Volume of Business Makes
Move to Larger Quarters from Courthouse Necessary

Scurry County's Agricultural Adjustment Administration this week moved into a new home, two doors east of the Snyder post office, A. C. Martin building, on the square's southeast corner.

Vastly increased volume of business for the county USDA war board, Scurry County Farm Transportation Committee, Scurry County Farm Machinery Committee, county RAAC loan agency, the local Office of Defense Transportation made the move from the courthouse basement to larger quarters on the square's southeast corner mandatory, county AAA officials state.

Previous to this week's move to larger quarters, Scurry County's Triple A office had been located in the courthouse since beginning of the AAA program in 1933.

When the AAA program was inaugurated in 1933, the offices were located on the second floor, where the Justice of the Peace office is now located. The county AAA offices were moved to the basement of the courthouse, southwest corner, in February of 1938.

Martin building on the square's southeast corner not only furnishes twice as much room for administrative and office work, but furnishes a balcony in the back of the structure where war board meetings, AAA gatherings and other essential meetings may be held in privacy, and separate from the Triple A office.

Increasing volume of business for the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, as the government's biggest spending agency in Scurry County, may be reflected in the fact community AAA committeemen have been increased in number from nine to 27.

Prior to this week's move, offices of the county agricultural agent, Texas Extension Service were located in the same space as AAA offices. Both agencies have been through the years, and still are, in the closest of cooperation, but increasing work forced the AAA to seek larger building space.

Johnnie M. Ammons, county administrative officer for the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, lists AAA personnel as follows:

Rube L. Lee, Ruth W. Davis, Cornelia W. Wilson, Murrell Bullard, Louella Eades, V. D. Sumruld, M. L. Andrus, county RAAC loan representative.

S. L. Terry, chairman, J. J. Henry and J. B. Adams members of the county AAA committee.

Ammons and the Triple A staff extend the general public a cordial invitation to visit new AAA offices on the square's southeast corner.

Silver Star Given To Clinkenbeard For Battle Action

Sergeant J. W. Clinkenbeard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Clinkenbeard of Union, 47th Bomber Group, U. S. Air Corps, recently was awarded the Silver Star for special bravery while "in line of duty," his parents are informed.

Sergeant Clinkenbeard was in a group of 14 men who landed at Casa Blanca last November. He writes his parents as follows:

"Well, folks, I can again write you to let you know I am okay. I received several of your letters a few days ago.

"When the war is over, you need not worry about me coming home and staying. I am through rambling.

"Yes, mother, am getting The Times, and have received four issues in the past week.

"I might as well tell you the news and get it over with. I am the proud possessor of a Silver Star and all the ribbons—if you know what that is. It was given for action in landing in the vicinity of Post Tyantery.

"You once said 'give them hell,' so maybe that is why I got the Silver Star. The award was made for action in November along the coast of Africa. Well, I better close for now so be good, and so long.

Black Meat Markets Discussed at Meeting

Effect of the "black meat market" on legitimate business, and necessity of all dealers, butchers and slaughterers obtaining proper permits featured Monday afternoon's county USDA war board meeting, held in the new AAA offices, southeast corner of the square.

Officials of the county war board point out that plenty of forms are on hand for livestock dealers, butchers and slaughterers to fill out for obtaining permits. Butchers and other meat handlers should apply at once for serial numbers. It is stressed by board officials.

Letters From Our Readers

Mr. Editor: I am retiring as manager of the Snyder Cooperative-Gin Company. Will you allow me a little space in your valuable paper in order that I may express my thanks and appreciation to my customers and friends who have so faithfully stood by me in the three seasons that I have in my humble way tried to manage the gin? Especially do I appreciate my board of directors who have so faithfully worked with me. I would say that I have attended all of their meetings during the time I have been here, and I can truthfully say that I have never worked with or under a board of directors that were more harmonious and agreeable in all their deliberations.

Also I am not forgetting the men who I worked under me and carried on in the process of ginning. They are great fellows; reliable and dependable. If there is no objection, I would like to mention some of their names, especially those who have been with me all the time that I have had the management of the gin, as follows: W. M. Nichols, W. M. Davidson, L. A. Crenshaw and A. P. Brooks. This is a real gin crew on whom one can depend; they know their work, and have proven their willingness and ability to carry on. Many thanks to you fellows.

Again, Mr. Editor, would you allow me a little more space in which to say to my gin competitors of Snyder that I appreciate them for their fairness and courtesies shown me while I have been here?

Good-bye, good luck and good hunting.

T. W. ANGEL.

Ralph Bates Suffers Injury.

Sergeant Ralph A. Bates, Company G, 142nd Infantry, 36th Division, who obtained a furlough March 1, and who has been suffering from a knee injury, will be here until Friday visiting relatives and friends. Son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Bates, Ralph underwent an operation on his knee in Massachusetts, and had to use a crutch for some time to walk. He is now able to walk without using a crutch.

Slaughtering of Meat Animals to Be Licensed Soon

Effective April 1, butchers, local slaughtering plants and farm slaughtering will be licensed, the Snyder County USDA War Board reports. Large scale "black market" operations make it necessary to control the slaughter of livestock.

With increased livestock numbers and resulting high prices for meat products of all types, "black market" operations are said to now be operating in this and other sections of the state.

Effective April 1, permits will be required for slaughter of livestock for sale and by dealers and agents engaged in the purchase and sale of livestock. Both orders will become effective at midnight on March 31.

Slaughtering for home use, exclusively, will not require permits. The county war board announces. Numerous inquiries have been received recently regarding home slaughtering.

Under terms of the slaughter order, the person who owns livestock at the time of slaughter is considered the slaughterer—regardless of whether he does the slaughtering. Thus, a person who slaughters for hire, or on a custom basis, is not affected by the order—except as the order affects the person for whom he slaughters.

Here's the definition of slaughterers and butchers, as it will apply in the licensing after April 1. "Local slaughterers" will include all persons who in 1941 slaughtered livestock with a total live weight in excess of 300.000 pounds, or more, and who are not registered as "quota slaughterers" under meat restriction order No. 1.

"Butchers" include all persons other than farm slaughterers who in 1942 slaughtered livestock with a total live weight of not more than 300.000 pounds.

"Farm slaughterers" include all resident farm operators who in 1941 delivered meat from the slaughter of livestock having a total live weight of not more than 10.000 pounds.

Deadline for Permits To Slaughter Passed

Wednesday became a mighty important date with Scurry County farmers who slaughter meat for sale. Wednesday marked the deadline for obtaining slaughter permits from the Scurry County USDA War Board.

S. L. Terry, chairman of the county war board, points out that all persons who slaughter animals for delivery of meat had to obtain permits. This regulation is due, Terry says, to keep the "black market meat racket" out of this trade zone.

Ed Stahl Purchases Stewart Appliance

Ed Stahl announces this week purchase of the L. I. Stewart Appliance Company, operating in the Snyder and Colorado area. Stahl will carry the firm as Snyder Butane Appliance Company.

Snyder Butane Appliance Company will continue to offer people of this and Colorado City trade area the best service possible in butane gas and appliances, service to Maytag and Bendix washers and Electrolux refrigerators, Stahl says. The appliance headquarters is at the square's southeast corner, where Stewart Appliance has been located.

Snyder Girl Tells Of Deep Snow in Wyoming Country

Alberta Sturgeon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Sturgeon, who live between Snyder and Hermleigh, declares, in a letter to her parents, that Scurry County has been having "mild" winter weather recently.

Alberta, a graduate of Snyder Schools and Texas University, is teaching high school English at Rock Springs, Wyoming, and writes as follows:

"A group of us went on a week-end trip about 75 miles from Rock Springs, and struck veritable mountains of snow. There are mountains of pines, and many houses are completely covered over with snow.

"We stood, for instance, on the roof of a house on the way up a mountain. Snow blows keep the roads open, and at Teton Pass snow is from 15 to 20 feet deep.

"The road is much like Pike's Peak, except not so frightening. Here one sees walls of snow on each side which has the appearance of marble. Those who operate snow plows cannot see the roads—they just have to feel for them.

"We find that the government is feeding elk through the winter, since there is so much snow the animals cannot obtain food otherwise. We saw 4,500 elk in one herd the government is feeding with hay and cottonseed cake.

"On our week-end trip we went over Teton Pass and on to Victor, Idaho. This country is simply lovely, with nothing for miles but snow without a blot on it. Temperatures stay down around zero for days at a time," Alberta concludes.

Two County Boys at Walla Walla Station

Roosevelt O. Hoepfl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hoepfl of the Hermleigh community, and Robert L. Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Hall, are now stationed at Walla Walla, Washington, with the U. S. Air Corps air base headquarters reports.

Both Hoepfl and Hall have received promotion to the rank of private first class, commanding officials report.

Private First Class Hoepfl was located at Camp Wolfers and Camp Kerns, Utah, before transfer to Walla Walla. Private Hall was previously located at Salt Lake City, Utah.

Eicke Sets Tractor School for Tuesday

Hobbs FFA Boy Shows Nice Profit From Brood Sow

When Bob Etheredge, Hobbs Future Farmers of America Lone Star farmer, bought a registered gilt five years ago from J. D. Patterson of the Fluvanna community, he decided to keep books day by day to ascertain just how much income could be realized from one brood animal.

This week, so young Etheredge figured up, the one gilt bought from Patterson has weaned, during the five-year period, a total of 104 pigs. Tabulation on number of pigs weaned during the period was verified by Cleveland Littlepage, Hobbs vocational agriculture instructor.

Etheredge started out five years ago as one of the Hobbs FFA "Food-for-Victory" demonstrators. Since then, he has sold well over $1,000 worth of pigs and shoats—in addition to meat consumed for home use.

Bob is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Etheredge of the Hobbs community. The Lone Star farmer degree is awarded to the highest ranking two per cent of chapter members.

Bob, a 1941 graduate of Hobbs School, attended John Tarleton Agricultural College, Stephenville, a year. Due to a broken leg, received in high school basketball days, Bob is now back on the farm. He also owns a herd of registered Jerseys as a cooperator in the Hobbs Jersey Cattle Club.

Shotguns Brought in By Legion's Appeal

Call for 12-gauge shotguns, issued last week by the Will Layne American Legion Post No. 181, and other posts of the country, brought forth a flood of arms for use by the armed forces in training for wing shooting.

Call for guns, in fact, brought such quick results the drive has been stopped, J. J. Dyer, commander of the Snyder post, reports. Eighth Service Command officials, Dallas, announced Saturday that the drive already had brought in all the shotguns which can possibly be used for training purposes.

Clinton O. Vincent Says Planes of Jap Give No Protection

Colonel Clinton O. Vincent, brother of Mrs. J. R. (Dick) Brown of Snyder and chief of staff for Brigadier General Chas. L. Gault's air force in China, is glad he is not flying the Jap Zero fighter plane in combat.

Colonel Vincent, a native of Borden County, where he was born November 29, 1914, received his high school education in Natchez, Mississippi, and graduated from Kelly Field in 1937.

"I wouldn't like to fly a Zero, because it is not armored and has no protection for the pilot," Vincent writes his wife in San Antonio and Mrs. Brown of Snyder. Vincent was awarded the Silver Star for valor in training and taking part in seven raids in five days.

Walter Schattel, Who Built Own Plane in County, Gets Captaincy

Promotion of Walter P. Schattel of Snyder from first lieutenant to rank of captain was announced this week at Lubbock Army Flying School. Schattel has served as consolidated maintenance engineering officer since he received his commission April 18 of last year.

Captain Schattel, well known in Scurry County, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Schattel, well known Hermleigh community residents. The Scurry County couple has four sons in military service and one son on the farm.

Captain Schattel displayed an early interest in aviation, and claims the distinction of building and flying the first airplane in Scurry County. Working after hours when their farm duties were completed, he and his four brothers rebuilt a wrecked plane in the family garage between 1926 and 1928.

After long hours of "linking," the brothers finished the renovation of the plane. Walter, a "veteran" of 45 minutes' flying experience, was nominated to take the plane up for soloing. Using raw material and scrap parts, he built other planes the same year.

Captain Schattel, who enlisted at Fort Bliss in 1928, met his wife in Hawaii, where he served from 1932 to 1935. Returning to the States in December, 1935, he was stationed at Kelly Field and Brooks Field before being transferred to Lubbock a year ago.

With his wife and two sons, Captain Schattel resides at 2291 Twentieth Street in Lubbock.

Three Camps for Boy Scouts Will Be Held in 1943

Three Boy Scout camps for Scouts and Scouters of the Snyder District and Buffalo Trail Council have now been definitely scheduled, Jim Polk, Buffalo Trail Council field executive stationed here, reported Monday.

First Boy Scout camporee will be held in Big Spring the first week in May. A number of Scouts in the Snyder District have indicated they will attend the Big Spring camporee.

The Big Spring camp will be featured by a commando raid—an event boys of the Buffalo Trail Council are intensely interested in, Polk reports.

From June 7 through June 12, a camp will be held at Lake Sweet-water that is expected to attract several from the Snyder District. Polk announces the third Scout camp for the Buffalo Trail Council will be held in July or August at Camp Palmetto, near Cimarron, New Mexico.

In most instances fire could have been prevented, or at least the destruction reduced, if adequate precautions had been taken in time.

Here's Amazing Way To Gain New Strength

ARE you one of those people who are not sick, yet seldom feel your best? Are you frequently tired and so drained out life hardly seems worth while? Are you inclined to feel nervous and irritable; appetite poor? If the reason is that you're not getting enough iron and Vitamins B₁ and G, here's thrilling news.

One of the foremost laboratories of the country has developed a tonic called Purina for people in such condition. A remarkable preparation which works two basic ways to help nature build up strength and energy.

First, Purina is rich in iron. And you know how important it is for your system to get sufficient iron. Second, Purina contains previous Vitamins B₁ and G. These vitamins help stimulate appetite—aid digestion—promote better assimilation. That's why you eat more and get more good from the foods you eat.

If you are feeling below par because your system may lack sufficient iron or Vitamins B₁ and G, do this. Go to your drug store today and ask for Purina. Take it regularly and see if it doesn't help you feel joyfully alert again. A McKesson Product.

Sale of Car Tags Booms on Eve of Close Thursday

Sales of 1943 automobile license plates at the county tax assessor-collector's office, which have increased sharply all week, reached the 1,868 level Wednesday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock. Edgar Taylor, county assessor-collector, reports.

Sales of license plates for other vehicles picked up considerably, too, through 4:00 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

Total of 10 trailer plate sets, 238 farm vehicles and 127 commercial vehicle sets were reported by Taylor.

The assessor-collector says several who have bought the one-by-four-inch metal tags have already reported loss of the driving necessities. "It is urgent that motorists tolls the plates on securely, for they must be used throughout the next 12 months," the collector declares.

Sale of the 1943 license plates, without penalty, will continue through today (Thursday).

Sunday Program By County Boosts War Bond Sales

Numerous Snyder and Scurry County people tuned in radio Sunday afternoon, 1:30 to 2:00 o'clock, to hear the war bond and stamp "booster" program presented over Station KXOX, Sweetwater, by a group of Snyder and Scurry County entertainers.

Henry Rosenberg, member of the county war bond and stamp sales committee, acted as master of ceremonies.

A 25-voice chorus furnished special numbers, and Mrs. Jim Polk gave a solo, "Indian Love Call." Ira High School's sextet, directed by Margaret Dell Prim, gave some numbers and Jettie D. Elkins offered a solo. A Snyder High School trio also rendered program numbers.

Special talks were made by A. C. Alexander, vice president of Snyder National Bank and a county war bond and stamp committee member; C. F. Sentell, Snyder attorney; Mrs. Gaston Brock, county superintendent; and W. K. Roberts, Your Exchange manager.

E. O. Wedgeworth acted as general program director for the broadcast, given in response to invitation by the Sweetwater Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Simon, director of the Sweetwater USO Club, tendered the Scurry County group invitation to present Sunday afternoon's USO entertainment.

Small Grains Crop In Santa Fe Region Damaged by Freeze

"Small grain, particularly wheat, has been damaged in Snyder's immediate trade zone, and oats and barley in Northern Texas by dry freezes," the March 1 crop report issued by the Santa Fe Railway Company, stated this week.

"The past two weeks have been favorable to breaking and listing land, and even though moisture is urgently needed throughout West Texas, land in sandier sections is still plowing easily."

"Regardless of the desire of the U. S. Department of Agriculture and the Food Administration that more acres be planted to potatoes, sweet potatoes, tomatoes, peanuts and other vegetables, such expansion is questionable on account of the acute labor shortage," the report stresses.

"In spite of the dry weather, pasture and ranges have held up remarkably well until now. How much longer pasture and range land will be able to support livestock is a question hard to answer," the Santa Fe report concludes.

REA Eligibility Rule Lowered to Obtain Service

"Under a new regulation now in effect, Midwest Electric Cooperative customers in Scurry, Fisher, Borden and other counties served can be hooked onto the REA line with five animal units—rather than a required number of 10, as heretofore," Lon Adams of Roby, Midwest superintendent, announced here Tuesday.

Adams, who visited in Scurry County Tuesday on Midwest business, states an animal unit gives a customer up to 100 feet of wire. The five-animal units would mean 500 feet of wire. Previously it was necessary to have 10 units, requiring 1,000 feet of wire.

M. L. Andres, and W. O. Moore of Hermleigh, county Midwest directors, were informed over the week-end of the death in St. Louis, Missouri, of Charles Faulkenwahi, REA chief of operations, who has visited in Scurry and Fisher Counties a number of times.

Faulkenwahi did much to activate Midwest Electric Cooperative, and was regarded as the outstanding man in the Rural Electrification Administration.

Certificates for New Rationed Foods To Be Reported Soon

Certificates for their allotments of newly rationed foods must be obtained by all Snyder and Scurry County cafes, and other institutions, all users of meat, fats, oils and cheese. Scurry County's War Price and Ration Board reported Wednesday.

In order to obtain the certificates, institutional users must present the board with an inventory of meats, butter, lard, margarine, salad oil and cooking oil they had on hand as of Sunday.

Industrial users of the county, such as bakeries, for instance, are being registered by the county board between Friday and April 10, and must also furnish inventories.

Retail merchants, it is announced, are not required to surrender ration currency in their purchases until April 10, being allowed time to build up point inventories.

Freeze Causes Short Rations of Fats, Oils

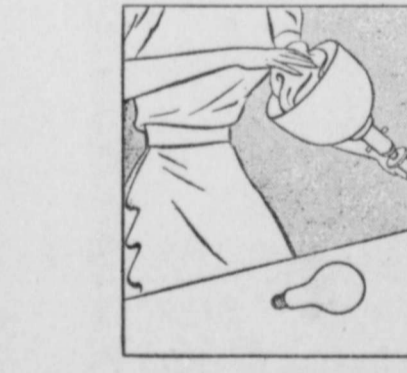

Meats, butter, fats, cheese and canned fish became additional war casualties in Snyder and Scurry County Monday, 12:01 a. m., as OPA rationing of these products became a reality.

Snyder and Scurry County people went on scant rations of the meats and fats. In many instances, last week, since a one-week "freeze" preceded institution of point rationing.

Effective Monday morning, the red A stamps, which amount to 16 points, in War Ration Book No. 2 became usable, and are good during the first week of meat point rationing. Institutional and industrial users surrendered red stamps for meat and fats purchases.

Bullock Sponsors Bill to Make More Textbooks Available for Texas Study

Snyder and Scurry County school faculty members expressed keen interest this week in a proposed change from basal textbook adoption to adoption of multiple lists, granting latitude to schools to select textbooks of their choice from an approved list. Senator Pat Bullock of the 24th District is principal author of the measure.

Senator Bullock said that two years ago a similar bill passed unnoticed; but since then, teachers and school authorities have taken widespread interest in the measure, and many are asking for support of the bill when it comes up for action.

Signers of the bill, Senate Bill No. 172, are Senators Bullock, Morris, Lovelady, Vick, Aikin and Metcalfe.

A Senate resolution by Metcalfe calls for investigation of present textbook adoption methods.

At present, the Board of Education adopts a book and all schools are required to use the specific text so chosen. Under the multiple list system, a number of different texts on each subject would be adopted, and then each school could choose that book from the list considered most suitable to its requirements.

A corollary benefit, Senator Bullock believes, is that this measure would afford a great incentive to Texas educators to write textbooks specifically designed for Texas use, with the greatly increased opportunity of having them used in Texas schools when the school authorities would have the latitude of several selections.

The bill provides a nine-member state textbook committee, which shall recommend a list of books to the Board of Education for adoption; and the board shall adopt not less than five nor more than 10 in each subject. No basal text shall be adopted.

In each independent school district the superintendent, with the approval of the district board, shall appoint a five-member textbook committee, including the superintendent, and for the common school districts the county superintendent, with approval of the county board, shall appoint a similar committee. These committees shall select one textbook for use from each multiple list. More than one text may be selected, but the total number of books shall not exceed the number that would have been allowed under a single adoption.

The State Board of Education shall have authority to adopt in whole or reject in whole the list submitted by the state textbook committee. When rejected, the committee shall submit subsequent lists until one is adopted in whole.

Members of the state committee shall serve for one year and not be eligible for reappointment. All are required to be actively engaged in state supported education, while serving on the committee. At least one member shall be a county superintendent, and at least one a county supervisor. A majority shall be employed as classroom teachers, and not less than three as teachers in elementary grades. No two members may reside in the same county during the period of their service.

Reappointment time is here again for notary public whose terms expire June 1.

So advises J. P. Billingsley, county clerk, who urges all notaries who desire reappointment to give prompt attention to the matter.

Under a new regulation the attorney general of Texas has ruled that a county clerk heretofore is not authorized to notify an applicant of his appointment until the clerk has received the commission for such notary from the secretary of state.

Foundations for Bridge Being Dug On Highway Site

Digging of squares for foundation work on the west abutment of Snyder's Highway 15 bridge over Deep Creek progressed Wednesday to the point where first concrete will probably be run in 10 days.

So reported State Highway Department engineers, who declare that work is proceeding according to schedule.

J. S. Gorman, resident engineer for the State Highway Department, reports the squares, 18 by 12 feet, will be dug 25 feet deep, by shovel and pick, for concrete abutment foundation blocks of approximately seven by 12 feet—which will firmly anchor the new $38,000 concrete bridge.

Two highway department employees were busy Wednesday shaping steel reinforcement materials for the bridge's concrete foundation.

Pedestrians coming to and from Snyder's business district are reminded that a temporary bridge and steps have been placed across the creek for convenience.

Once foundation squares are dug, pouring of the first concrete will be rapidly completed, engineers state.

Institutional Users of Meats Must Register

All Scurry County industrial and institutional meat users, the Scurry County War Price and Ration Board reminds, will register from Friday through Saturday, April 10, to receive meat products rationed under the meat-fats program.

Snyder and Scurry County grocery establishments will also be asked to register from Friday through Saturday, April 10, for point rationing sales.

"We are urging 100 per cent cooperation in the registration from April 1 through April 10," Giles Bowers, chairman of the Scurry County War Price and Ration Board, states, "and believe we can get registration over with the first few days of the period named. Each firm or individual registering early helps lighten the office work we have to keep daily."

Snyder's Church of the Nazarene, which is located at present in North Snyder, 1611 Avenue S, will be torn down in the near future and a better place to worship erected, church leaders reported Tuesday.

Lunch Is Cheaper Than in 1929

At the rate he was spending the first six months of 1942, the average workman will spend $387 in 1943 for food that would have cost $415 in 1929. Thus, the county agricultural agent, points out the worker's family is saved $14 during the first half of the year because food costs are seven per cent less than in 1929.

Let's OUTSMART the Farm Machinery GREMLINS

Be Our Guest at the FARM COMMANDO TRACTOR SCHOOL

In Charge of Factory-Trained Men
Time: April 6—8:00 p. m.—Place: A. B. Eicke Place, 6 Blocks West of Square

You are cordially invited to be our guest at the Farm Commando tractor school, dedicated to the boys in the service from this community.
Let's get our farm equipment Ready to Roll and keep it that way. That's the theme of the Farm Commando School. Food is a vital weapon; our boys and their allies on the fighting fronts need every pound we can send them. To do it, we've got to lick the "gremlins," those little snipers that threaten to sabotage overworked farm equipment. Factory-trained men at the Farm Commando School can show you how to head them off, how to get more work out of your A-C tractor and keep it rolling on to Victory.

Everyone interested is welcome. We suggest that you bring several from your neighborhood in your car—save gas and tires. It will be a golden opportunity to get together ... perhaps locate the help or machine you have been looking for.

We hope you will accept our special invitation to attend. It will be interesting, entertaining and you will enjoy every minute of it!

Our Pressing Need

Now that we have become accustomed to food point rationing, gasoline rationing and shortages of various kinds in civilian life, our pressing need now is for less Office of War Information "canned" releases, less mimeographed releases from all government agencies in general; more authentic facts in daily releases from the world fighting fronts and more "push" in the activities people already are engaged in, so community and county leaders contend.

In other words, we need to revitalize the home front, along all lines, and refrain from any kind of loose talk or careless actions that might hinder the war effort in any respect. We need to really go all-out for victory this year!

Road Maintaining

With advent of the "victory" rain that gave Scurry County urgently needed moisture last week, car, truck and pick-up owners are anxious that county roads in this immediate trade area be maintained at the highest level of efficiency possible—in face of gasoline rationing and need of conserving tires.

Road maintenance, at the best level permissible with present shortage of parts and repairs, through the months ahead may be seen, for instance, on the dirt strip of Highway 15 from the Scurry-Fisher County line to a point west of Roby where pavement begins. Contractor on the dirt stretch intended to begin paving operations in a few weeks, but is tied up with vital war construction work, and may not get to the Fisher County job for months. This being the case, the State Highway Department is keeping the road maintained in excellent shape, because tires on either car or truck are becoming precious possessions now.

Farming Through War

Scurry County's agricultural picture has brightened considerably during the past 10 days, agricultural officials stated Monday, and farmers over the entire county are looking forward to a great year for home and country. Many of the younger men who deserted the farm last year for defense jobs are returning because farming is more essential to the war effort than many other professions.

Even though the agricultural and ranching picture is brighter, farmers realize they will have shortages of labor, farm machinery and good planting seed to cope with, but they have the courage to face—and carry through—the important job ahead. Incentive payments, plus the will to work, will make farming through war an enjoyable job this year to county farmers.

"All farmers I've talked to" a prominent landowner said Monday, "are aware, for the first time in years, they've got a big job to do, and can be depended upon to carry through. All farmers want is freedom, now, to carry on operations in the best way possible for home, lend-lease requirements and the boys already in service."

Editorial of the Week

THE PRESS—VITAL IN WAR

If one wishes to test the truth of what Congressman Hallett said about newspapers being "essential and vital factors in the winning of the war," one has only to think back over the last few months and ask what the country would have done without newspapers. How much scrap metal, rubber, fats and other waste materials would have been collected? How well would the government bond selling campaign have gone over? Just where would the country have been in its slow awakening to its precarious position in a world torn by the efforts of international gangsters to establish global domination? Estimates might vary, but certainly none of them could fall below the appraisal of "essential."

The first essential of a democracy, especially one going through a war or any other great crisis, is a wide-open medium of information. If the newspaper press of this country does not serve that purpose, what does? Of course, the press may not always serve as efficiently, as faithfully or even as patriotically as it should. The press is about the most human institution in our national make-up.

Government is human, too—and makes errors. Because public office is a public trust, government officials are inclined to be very resentful of criticism. It is the history of government that, the more power it acquires (which means greater public trust), the more resentful it grows toward criticism. And, being human, it suppresses criticism if it has the opportunity. When this happens, the drift toward autocracy really gains momentum.

The press itself needs criticism to hold it in restraint, to keep it from abusing privileges, which it sometimes does. The newspaper press does not complain of that. But cutting down the paper supply of the newspaper press far below any conceivable war need is not criticism. It is control of a sort, and it could come to be control of the worst sort.—The Dallas Morning News.

Pre-Measuring Services Offered Farmers by AAA

Scurry County farmers who will come in and show where they will plant their 1943 crops take advantage of pre-measuring services now offered by the county AAA office, Johnnie M. Ammons, county administrative officer, announces.

Those who avail themselves of the Triple A pre-measuring services will need permanent boundaries to go to, in order to insure accurate measurements on farm maps.

Those who accept pre-measuring services will greatly reduce measurement work this summer. All that will be needed, in such cases, will be to check the farm for adherence to crop intentions. This will eliminate possibility of farmers over-planting.

Advantages of pre-measuring services may be reflected in the fact farmers will know beforehand they will not be penalized for over-planting.

Interested farmers of the county are urged to contact the county Triple A office for additional details on crop pre-measuring services.

Truckers Urged to Use Recaps Instead Of Asking New Tires

Pleading with Scurry County truck operators to maintain a careful check on tires and have them re-capped before worn beyond the re-capping stage, Giles Bowers, chairman of the Scurry County War Price and Ration Board, reminds vehicle owners that present quotas will not meet the demand for truck tire replacements.

Bowers deplored the increasing number of applications for replacements rather than recaps, and said he had received figures from the Lubbock district OPA office showing that more new tires than recaps were issued in each of the last six months of 1942 in Texas.

"In view of the rubber shortage, it stands to reason that this situation must be corrected and the Scurry County board appeals to truckers to cooperate by regulating both loads and speed to the point where their trucks may successfully operate on recaps," said the board chairman.

The local board has been informed by the district OPA office that "we must bring about a vastly increased use of truck recaps in order to insure the continued operation of our essential trucks."

Man Charged in Cow Theft Finally Caught

Sheriff R. L. Wilkins of Fisher County, returned Friday from Harris County with a suspect he has been trailing in Fisher, Scurry and other counties of the state the past five years.

The prisoner is Roy Price, indicted by a Fisher County grand jury in 1938 on a charge of cow theft. He was arrested and turned over to Sheriff Wilkins in Houston.

Price is accused of stealing from Bob Williams of the Hobbs community and E. K. Sorrell, Kent County rancher.

District Attorney Esco Walter states the case probably will be set for trial when the next term of 104th district court opens in Roby May 31.

Revival at Nazarene Church Ends Sunday

"A number of souls prayed through and we had commendable additions to the church," Rev. Doyle Wilson, pastor, said of the revival meeting which closed Sunday night at the Snyder Church of the Nazarene.

Evangelist B. W. Taylor of Odonnell conducted preaching services for the Nazarene revival. He declared the spiritual outlook for the Snyder community was bright, and that much "home mission work" can be done within the town's city limits.

A Step Ahead in Food and Service

Soil District News Notes

It is believed O. C. Hess of the Pyrochem company has set a precedent in the construction of terraces with farm equipment, according to H. M. Murphy, supervisor of the Upper Colorado Soil Conservation District.

Hess, desiring to hold all the water that falls on his apparently level farm with broad base level terraces which he could cultivate with his four-row tractor set about figuring out how he could do this job with the equipment he had.

By using a six-foot one-way 12 1/2-inch disc and a heavy duty four-row tractor here is how he did it:

The first round was made keeping the first disc on the one-way 12 to 18 inches from the terrace line which is to be the ridge of the terrace when complete. Placing the right rear wheel of the tractor in dead furrow each time, he continued plowing out five rounds. Coming back to the center, he placed the right rear wheel just inside the loose dirt moved on first round, then plowed out five more rounds. Coming back again to the center and again placing the right rear wheel of this tractor just inside the loose dirt already moved toward the center, he plowed another series of six rounds. This time dirt was lapped in the center, giving about six inches height to the terrace. The sixth round in this series was plowed to avoid creating too deep a channel on either side of the terrace.

He came back again to the center, placed the right rear wheel squarely on top of terrace ridge and plowed out six more rounds. This series of six rounds added about three more inches height to the terrace, bringing the total height to nine inches, but left it peaked. Another series of six rounds was plowed, beginning with right rear wheel just below the peaked ridge and adjusting the plow so as to make the terrace uniform and smooth. By coming again to the center and again placing the right rear wheel squarely on top of terrace ridge, he plowed another series of five rounds. Then another series of six rounds, beginning with the right rear wheel just below (six or eight inches) the peaked ridge.

Hess states he has completed approximately three miles of terraces by this method. The terraces are 30 feet wide and 12 inches high above a normal ground level and he can easily cultivate them with his four-row equipment.

Hess adds these suggestions:

Do not get in too big a hurry to complete your terraces. Small equipment requires more time.

Maintain the desired width of your terrace at all times by plowing out wide.

Maintain speed of third gear even if it means plowing more shallow.

Each succeeding terrace becomes less difficult to build.

In conclusion, Hess estimates that he can build one-half mile of this type of terrace in a 10-hour day with the above mentioned equipment.

Red Cross Home Service Helping Soldier Families

With an increasing volume of cases to handle for Scurry County men in military service, E. O. Wedgeworth, county chairman of the Red Cross home service department, lists below some home service features that will help Scurry County people understand more accurately scope of work covered by the Red Cross:

"It is interesting to note," Wedgeworth states, "that V-mail service may now be used by persons living in the United States who correspond with members of the British armed forces or of the American field forces with the British in the Middle East.

"V-mail cannot be utilized for prisoners of war mail. This point is important in face of current developments.

"Red Cross field directors," continues Wedgeworth, "have the responsibility for the personal needs of service men, whereas chapters have responsibility for those cases which involve assistance to the family.

"We would like to stress the fact in cases of service men at home, and in instances where they need transportation to return to camp, it is the responsibility of the field director and not the Red Cross chapter to make a loan—if one is to be made—since military approval must be secured."

Wedgeworth asks that parents and relatives of men in service contact him when in need of advice on how the Red Cross can help boys in the armed forces of the nation.

John Dewey on Job Now in South Pacific

John Dewey, who had charge of Midwest Electric Cooperative line construction work in Scurry, Fisher, Borden, Nolan and other counties served by Midwest, is now in the South Pacific with the U. S. Navy as a construction engineer. Midwest officials here were informed this week.

Training for Boys Offered in School After Graduation

Beginning at 9:00 o'clock Friday morning, E. L. Parr, Snyder Schools superintendent and chief supervisor, will give tests to prospective students for the Army Specialized Training Program and the Navy College Training Program, it was announced Wednesday by U. S. Navy officials.

The examinations termed the V-12 type will be concluded Friday morning by 11:00 o'clock. Total of 15 sets of examination papers were received this week by Parr, who will have two assistants in conducting the examinations.

"Most boys accepted for either the Army Specialized Training Program or the Navy College Training Program will become commissioned officers in the army, navy, marine corps or coast guard," Parr declares.

"The army and navy will pay all expenses at the colleges of students selected on the basis of tests given Friday. All high school students or recent graduates will have to take the tests to qualify for the training," the school chief points out.

Students selected for training by the army and navy will attend colleges and have all expenses paid by the respective services. While in college, those who successfully pass the tests will be in uniform with pay on active duty under military discipline, Parr concludes.

Poor gal—not a friend in the world. Head-aches gave her an awful disposition.

And she's not the only one who suffers from those splitting headaches that give short tempers and bad dispositions! Three out of every five of those headaches are caused by your eyes! Most of them can be remedied easily and inexpensively with a pair of correctly fitted glasses. Why not come to Dr. Towle today for a test?
