BUYING BONDS IS GOOD SENSE STATES MAJOR

Officer from Big Spring Bombardier School Speaks at Giant Rally Monday to Large Crowd

"Buying U. S. war bonds during the Third War Loan drive is not such a patriotic move as it is a measure of common sense," Major Harry P. Wheeler, special service officer at Big Spring's Bombardier School, told people of this trade area gathered here Monday evening for a county-wide patriotic rally.

Major Wheeler, principal speaker at the rally which preceded formal opening of the Third War Loan campaign Tuesday, said:

"Tremendous cost of the war effort may be readily ascertained from the fact it costs $150,000,000 to run the war each 12 hours. Our total of $15,000,000,000 in the Third War Loan drive is such a gigantic sum that it would require, on a per capita basis, $126 from each of our 120,000,000 civilians to meet the national goal.

"You would doubtless be surprised to learn that American forces consumed, during the campaign in Tunisia, 2,000 tires per day. It requires five tons of equipment per man per month for our boys overseas, and one and one-half tons of food and clothing."

In stressing the urgent need of civilians investing all the money they can spare in war bonds, Major Wheeler pointed out that 100 per cent attendance at Big Spring Bombardier School—enlisted men, nurses and WACS—are buying war bonds.

Major Wheeler invited a boy, recently returned from overseas, to attend Monday evening's war campaign rally and speak briefly, but the soldier, cited for bravery, declared he did not want to even think of "things over there."

The Big Spring Bombardier School officer struck a chord close to the heart-strings of Scurry County people when he read a nationally circulated article, "A Boy Died Last Night."

Pav. Bullock, senator of the 24th District, acted as master of ceremonies Monday evening, and introduced speakers and guests.

Bro. Raymond C. Kelly, Snyder Church of Christ minister, offered invocation for the program.

War Bonds Will Help These Fellows in New Guinea

Somewhere in New Guinea, where we have several Scurry County boys stationed, these wounded soldiers await evacuation. Flat on their backs, in the torturing heat of the jungle, where mosquitoes plague the air and ants torment weary bodies, these boys dream of home—of clean, fresh sheets, and the touch of cool, comforting hands. Every Snyder and Scurry County resident can help provide modern hospitals and the medicines our boys need for recuperation by putting every dollar into U. S.

war bonds and war savings stamps during the Third War Loan campaign. Let's not only "Back the Attack" for the sake of our boys, but "Back Our Boys" by giving them, via war bonds, the essentials of fighting back at the enemy.

NEW LINES ON REA NEARING COMPLETION

Oklahoma Contracting Firm Setting Poles in Area for Extensions To Producing Farms

Virtually all poles for rural REA extension lines in Scurry County will be "in the ground" by this week-end, Rinehart & Donovan of Oklahoma City, contractors on the REA work here, reported Wednesday.

Rinehart & Donovan are making short rural REA extensions under the supervision of Lon R. Adams of Roby, superintendent of Midwest Electric Cooperative.

Adams is joined by M. L. Andrews, W. O. Moore and John Staveley, Scurry County Midwest directors, in pointing out that REA work here is being done only on short rural extensions—extensions which run only a few hundred yards to about one-half mile.

Rinehart & Donovan are expected to move their crew of 12 workmen to Fisher County over the week-end, where the same type of short extension work to rural homes will be done.

Midwest Electric Cooperative officials report the critical shortage of aluminum and copper will make it impossible to place copper or aluminum wire high-lines in either Scurry or Fisher County. All high-line wire installed on the short extensions will be of steel and alloyed metals—a type of high-line that is proving satisfactory substitute for copper.

Superintendent Adams reports that applications to Midwest consumers for additional REA extension lines—short lines that will make the farm more productive for the war effort—are still being accepted at the Roby headquarters office. Applications now being acted on were filed several weeks ago by county consumers.

THREE COUNTY RALLIES BOOST SALE OF BONDS

Ennis Creek, Fluvanna and Snyder Program Slated to Promote Interest in Big Drive

Three patriotic rallies, scheduled for Snyder, Fluvanna and Ennis Creek, respectively, this week are slated to focus attention of Scurry County people to the urgency of contributing generously in the county's Third War Loan campaign.

Kick-off gathering for the Fluvanna community in the Third War Loan drive will be staged this (Thursday) evening, 8:30 o'clock, at Fluvanna High School auditorium, Wallace Jones, Fluvanna community war finance chairman, reports.

Principal speakers at the Fluvanna gathering will be A. C. Alexander, county war finance committee vice chairman, and E. L. Parr, Snyder School chief.

Jones reports an appropriate program is being arranged in conjunction with Fluvanna's mass meeting, and entertainment royal will be provided for rally attendees.

War loan drive for the Ennis Creek community will open officially Friday evening at a mass meeting in Ennis Creek School.

Principal speaker at the Ennis Creek gathering will be F. G. Sears, Snyder business man and City Council member, who will bring the Ennis Creek community residents a straight-forward message on war bond buying.

Mrs. B. M. West, Ennis Creek community war finance chairman, says motion pictures, depicting war scenes of wide personal interest, will be shown in connection with the community-wide rally.

Hon. George Dupree of Lubbock, special assistant U. S. district attorney, will be principal speaker in Snyder Saturday afternoon, 3:00 o'clock, at a patriotic rally on the courthouse lawn. A separate story on Snyder's rally Saturday afternoon will be found elsewhere in this issue of The Times.

Hon. George Dupree, outstanding Lubbock attorney, will be principal speaker here Saturday afternoon, 3:00 o'clock, on the courthouse lawn, at a county-wide rally to be staged in conjunction with Scurry County's Third War Loan drive. Scurry County's War Finance Committee announced Wednesday.

Dupree, recognized as an outstanding attorney for this section of Texas, spoke here last summer at Scurry County's scrap metals drive, and will be remembered as a speaker who knows his subject.

Mr. and Mrs. Dupree have three sons in military service, and the message he brings Snyder and Scurry County people will be from the heart.

People of this trade zone are extended a cordial invitation by the county war finance committee to hear Dupree's address.

Attention of stockholders in Scurry County's Rodeo Association is called to the meeting that will be held this (Thursday) evening, 8:30 o'clock, in the Chamber of Commerce offices, at which time rodeo association officers for the ensuing year will be named.

J. C. Dorward, rodeo association president, reports considerable interest is being shown in naming of association officials for the ensuing period. Seven directors, four for one-year tenures of office, and three for two-year tenures of office, were named last Tuesday evening at the association's annual stockholders' gathering in the courthouse.

Snyder High School students will be given a better understanding of flying and the opportunities to learn about aviation, when Big Spring's Bombardier School brings a group of five of interest to all young boys in the county, public relations committee of the school announced.

Future Flyer

Junior Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Miller, will be transferred from Amarillo Army Air Base in the near future, his parents learned this week. An employee of Bryant Link Company here in civilian life, Junior is a graduate of Snyder High School.

36TH DIVISION REPORTED IN THICK OF FIRE

More Than 1,000 Boys from West Central Texas Believed Taking Part in Salerno Battles

It appeared Wednesday that Scurry County's Company G boys—or at least a portion of them—were under trial by fire in the violent battle raging for the Salerno, Italy, bridgehead against three crack German divisions directed by Field Marshal Albert Kesselring.

Unconfirmed by any Allied report, the German radio reported the American 36th—of which Company G is a part—and 45th Infantry divisions were among Allied units fighting at Salerno.

The broadcast declared that Lieutenant General Mark W. Clark's Fifth Army was made up of the 36th and 45th Infantry Divisions and the 1st U. S. Tank Division, the 46th and 56th British Infantry Divisions and a British tank division.

Regardless, however, of where the 36th Division is, dozens of Scurry County men are with the unit, as are hundreds of West Texans.

Made up of Company G and other Texas National Guard units, the 36th Division, according to The Abilene Reporter-News, was mobilized as of November 25, 1940. The 36th included 1,000 or more men from Central West Texas.

Narrative history of Company G probably does not need to be enlarged upon at this time, but has been carried previously in The Times.

Commanders of units in the 36th Division, at mobilization time, included: Captain Tim O. Cook, Company G; Captain A. R. Murchison, Company E of Scurry; Captain Frank M. Loeck, Company K of Stamford.

Captain Tom Cook, since mobilization, has been transferred to another company that is still in the United States, local friends say.

During the night Tuesday, Kesselring's divisions made every possible attempt to drive the 5th Army—of which the 36th and 45th Divisions are reported parts—into the sea.

Tuesday night Allied warships poured out everything from machine gun bullets to shell fire to help protect the narrow bridgehead extending 24 miles south of Salerno. A corner of hell was brought to life as the Mediterranean sea, settled with ships and planes—as the Allies poured reserves into the Italian fighting under direct supervision of General Dwight D. Eisenhower.

The 36th Division was trained at Camp Bowie, Brownwood, and in 1942 as transferred to Camp Blanding, Florida.

Major Roy O. Irvin, formerly with the 7th Army, is now attached to a battalion of the 5th Army. A number of the boys formerly in Company G, 142nd Infantry, have been transferred to other units of the 36th, it was understood Wednesday.

Inadale Cop Gin Burns Tuesday in Incendiary Fire

Major fire disaster for the Inadale community was marked up Tuesday night, when fire of undetermined origin burned the Inadale Cooperative Gin to the ground.

The gin proper and all equipment, except the gin office, burned, The Times learned.

Joe Roemisch Jr., gin manager, reports the cooperative plant had turned out 260 bales of cotton for the 1943 season to date.

The Inadale gin, valued at approximately $30,000, was said to be one of the modern plants in rural districts of this section of the state. A total of $9,000 worth of new machinery had been installed for the 1943 ginning season.

Ernest Parrott, president of the board for Inadale Cooperative Gin, and Hubert L. Turner is secretary.

All products for Inadale Cooperative Gin were fully covered it was understood Wednesday and insurance was carried on the plant.

Side Parking on Snyder Streets to Be Abandoned

Side parking in Snyder's business district must be eliminated at once, city officers announced Wednesday. "We have realized for some time," Simon Best, city marshal, states, "that side parking in Snyder must go, and ask that everyone observe the following rules at all times:

"In instances where people have already purchased merchandise, they may side park their cars long enough to load, but must not side park to enter stores and do their shopping."

"Often times, Snyder and Scurry County people unintentionally park up by a line of cars parked at the curb, side park, and carry on conversations with friends. In many instances such parking cuts off available spaces at the curb.

"We plead with the public," Best concludes, "for the utmost cooperation in abolishing side parking throughout Snyder's business district. If warnings do not accomplish this, side parkers will, of course, be subject to the consequences."

Former Hobbs Man In Coast Guard Camp

Cleveland Littlepage, Hobbs School vocational agriculture instructor for past several years, is now stationed at the U. S. Coast Guard Training Station, St. Augustine, Florida, where he is attending boot camp. A Times reporter learned Tuesday.

Littlepage, who made a record at Hobbs School as one of the outstanding vocational agriculture students, says "The chief of staff at the present boot camp is a former student of the body of the Hobbs School. When we were in school, we were very close friends. When we were in school, we were very close friends. When we were in school, we were very close friends."

Fire Truck Followers To Be Curbed in City

A considerable number of Snyder people, through force of habit, insist on getting in cars and following Snyder's Volunteer Fire Department to fire calls.

This practice, City Officers Simon Best and Leeman Land state, must stop immediately. When civilians hear the fire alarm sound, they are asked, when in cars, pick-ups or trucks, to pull to the right and stop until they know the fire boys have had ample time to get to a fire.

"We feel sure," Best and Land state, "that Snyder people will cooperate with us 100 per cent, because no person wants to impede work of Snyder's Volunteer Fire Department."

Bomber School Will Give School Program

Snyder High School students will be given a better understanding of flying and the opportunities to learn about aviation, when Big Spring's Bombardier School brings a group of five of interest to all young boys in the county, public relations committee of the school announced.

Rodeo Officers Will Be Named Tonight

Attention of stockholders in Scurry County's Rodeo Association is called to the meeting that will be held this (Thursday) evening, 8:30 o'clock, in the Chamber of Commerce offices, at which time rodeo association officers for the ensuing year will be named.

J. C. Dorward, rodeo association president, reports considerable interest is being shown in naming of association officials for the ensuing period. Seven directors, four for one-year tenures of office, and three for two-year tenures of office, were named last Tuesday evening at the association's annual stockholders' gathering in the courthouse.

Don Sealy Promoted To Rank of Sergeant

Don L. Sealy, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Sealy, who is stationed at Camp Haan, California, received promotion this week from grade of corporal to that of staff sergeant, his parents have been informed. Staff sergeant Sealy was here recently on a furlough visit with his parents and family.

He Likes Texas

"I like Scurry County and Texas and especially your way of doing things in the Lone Star State," Major Harry P. Wheeler of Big Spring's Bombardier School told people of this trade zone Monday night.

Major Wheeler, who has been in the service since he was 17, says "I have been in the service since I was 17, and I have been in the service since I was 17, and I have been in the service since I was 17."

Labor Problem Eases as Cotton Season Advances

Scurry County, witnessing one of its earliest cotton crop harvest since 1933, will have an almost normal movement of migrant laborers before the 1943 season draws to a close, Edward S. Hyman, county agricultural agent, reported Tuesday.

County farmers, as a whole, can still use from 250 to 300 cotton pickers immediately, but reports received by the county agent indicate the county may get substantial relief in the near future.

Encouragement on the county labor front was received over the week-end, when five groups of hands arrived to help with cotton picking.

Although Scurry County's labor situation still remains "tight," County Agent Hyman has received requests from such points as Clyde, Eastland, Bartlett and San Saba inquiring as to number of hands this county might spare.

In a Tuesday dispatch to Hyman, Texas Extension Service officials declare Scurry County will not benefit any this fall from Mexican nationals entering this area of Texas. Mexican nationals, in fact, will not be available anywhere in the state. Mexican nationals, residents of Old Mexico, in past years helped considerably with cotton and feed gathering in this section and on the South Plains.

Fisher County, which only last week called for 600 hands, is finding some relief this week in the harvest situation, and indications were Wednesday that Scurry County may get some migrant labor out of Sweetwater in a few days.

Let's Boil Tojo!

No small item in conjunction with Scurry County's Third War Loan drive is the large billboard, placed on display this week on the courthouse lawn, showing a bond sales thermometer and Tojo, the Jap general, ready to go into a boiling pot.

Arranged through E. O. Wedgeworth, county war finance chairman, sales, as recorded, will push the thermometer reading up and Tojo nearer a boiling hot pot.

War Bond Sales So Far Estimated At About $100,000

Scurry County progressed a long way in its Third War Loan drive, since the campaign began Tuesday morning, and sales, as The Times went to press, stood at approximately $100,000.

E. O. Wedgeworth, Scurry County War Finance chairman, and other officials of the county war finance committee, express satisfaction at bond sales to date, but point out the county has a long, long way to go before the quota of $494,600 is attained.

"With plenty of push for the remainder of the week, we can put Tojo awfully near the pot," Wedgeworth states. "Let's look at the rallies made by our prisoners of war, information on whom is found in this week's Times, and make that grand total melt away before Saturday night."

The $494,600 war loan quota assessed Scurry County represents the purchase price of U. S. war bonds and war savings stamps.

All Non-Fathers Will Be Drafted Before Parents

Every available non-father will be called into service before the general induction of fathers begins, national Selective Service System officials informed The Times this week. The national headquarters has ordered a new scrapping of the manpower barrel.

All local Selective Service boards are to begin today (Thursday) an inventory of men without dependents to determine that they are correctly classified.

During the 15-day inventory, boards will suspend new classifications. Non-fathers who have erroneously been placed in occupational deferred classifications, or those in 4-F who are now physically qualified for army life, will be shifted to Class 1-A, it was revealed.

The October call for about 312,000 men will be divided into two sections for each state. First, all available non-fathers will be called—regardless of board quotas—then the fathers will be inducted if a deficiency results for the state's call.

Selective Service System officials remind Scurry County people that Wednesday constituted the deadline for registration with the U. S. Employment Service for jobs in essential industries.

McLaughlin-Cosden Prep for New Well

C. T. McLaughlin, Diamond M Ranch owner and oil operator, and Cosden Petroleum Corporation were reported this week to be moving rig from their No. 1 State wildcat discovery in Lea County, New Mexico, to a location due west for No. 2 State.

McLaughlin and Cosden's No. 1 State, wildcat discovery northeast of the Maljamar field in Western Lea County, flowed approximately 15 barrels of oil per hour when first brought in. The producer was estimated good for 10 barrels per hour through 1-4 inch choke. It was drilled to 4,228 feet in sandy lime, and operators ran tubing at 4,200 feet before wash was pulled.

First Coupons to Be Valid in New No. 3 Ration Book Sunday

Scurry County's 9,000 citizens can start looking about now for War Ration Book No. 3—a book the majority of countians received from six to eight weeks ago.

First of the coupons in War Ration Book No. 3, the brown A stamp, becomes valid Sunday. The brown stamps will be exchangeable for meat, cheese, butter, shortening and other items for which the red stamps in War Ration Book No. 2 were used.

The brown B's, the Office of Price Administration reports, may be used beginning September 19, and both A and B stamps in the new book, along with red stamps X, Y and Z in the old book, will expire October 2.

Brown C, D and E and so-on will become valid on successive Sundays after September 19, and will expire on dates which you may ascertain by asking your local grocer.

Don Sealy Promoted To Rank of Sergeant

Don L. Sealy, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Sealy, who is stationed at Camp Haan, California, received promotion this week from grade of corporal to that of staff sergeant, his parents have been informed. Staff sergeant Sealy was here recently on a furlough visit with his parents and family.

Blue Food Stamps to Begin Next Monday

Blue food stamps, which will be used for the purchase of certain food items, will begin next Monday, it was reported by the county war finance chairman.

Arah Is First County Unit to Reach Quota

Arah became Wednesday the first Scurry County community to go "over the top" in the county's Third War Loan drive, E. O. Wedgeworth, county war finance chairman, reports.

F. J. (Jones) Chapman is Arah community war finance chairman, and states unusually high interest was maintained during the whirlwind war bond selling campaign. Community residents cooperated 100 per cent to see that the community's quota was reached by Tuesday night.

George Depree Will Speak Saturday at Program on Square

Hon. George Dupree, outstanding Lubbock attorney, will be principal speaker here Saturday afternoon, 3:00 o'clock, on the courthouse lawn, at a county-wide rally to be staged in conjunction with Scurry County's Third War Loan drive. Scurry County's War Finance Committee announced Wednesday.

Dupree, recognized as an outstanding attorney for this section of Texas, spoke here last summer at Scurry County's scrap metals drive, and will be remembered as a speaker who knows his subject.

Mr. and Mrs. Dupree have three sons in military service, and the message he brings Snyder and Scurry County people will be from the heart.

People of this trade zone are extended a cordial invitation by the county war finance committee to hear Dupree's address.

All Concrete on Highway Bridge To Be Run Soon

All concrete for Snyder's Highway 180 bridge across Deep Creek will be poured by this week-end, Texas Highway Department engineers reported Wednesday.

J. S. Gorman, resident engineer for the highway department, reported Wednesday progress on side railings and other concrete work was proceeding at an exceptionally pleasing tempo.

Workmen, of course, will have quite a bit of finishing work to do after all concrete is poured for the bridge floor, but completion of concrete on the 176-foot long structure is itself a good sized job.

Overall width of the Deep Creek bridge is 56 feet and three inches. Roadway width will be 44 feet on the $38,000 structure.

Paving work for the approaches to the bridge will have to await arrival of equipment, engineers declare. A heavy roller is already on the ground for paving operations, and other material is expected here in the near future.

E. O. Wedgeworth, Scurry County War Finance chairman, and other officials of the county war finance committee, express satisfaction at bond sales to date, but point out the county has a long, long way to go before the quota of $494,600 is attained.

"With plenty of push for the remainder of the week, we can put Tojo awfully near the pot," Wedgeworth states. "Let's look at the rallies made by our prisoners of war, information on whom is found in this week's Times, and make that grand total melt away before Saturday night."

The $494,600 war loan quota assessed Scurry County represents the purchase price of U. S. war bonds and war savings stamps.

"Sorry— I'VE DONE ALL I CAN"

Recent dispatches from the Italian front inform us that the Fifth Army has suffered some serious set-backs. We have also learned that our own Company G is a part of the Fifth Army.

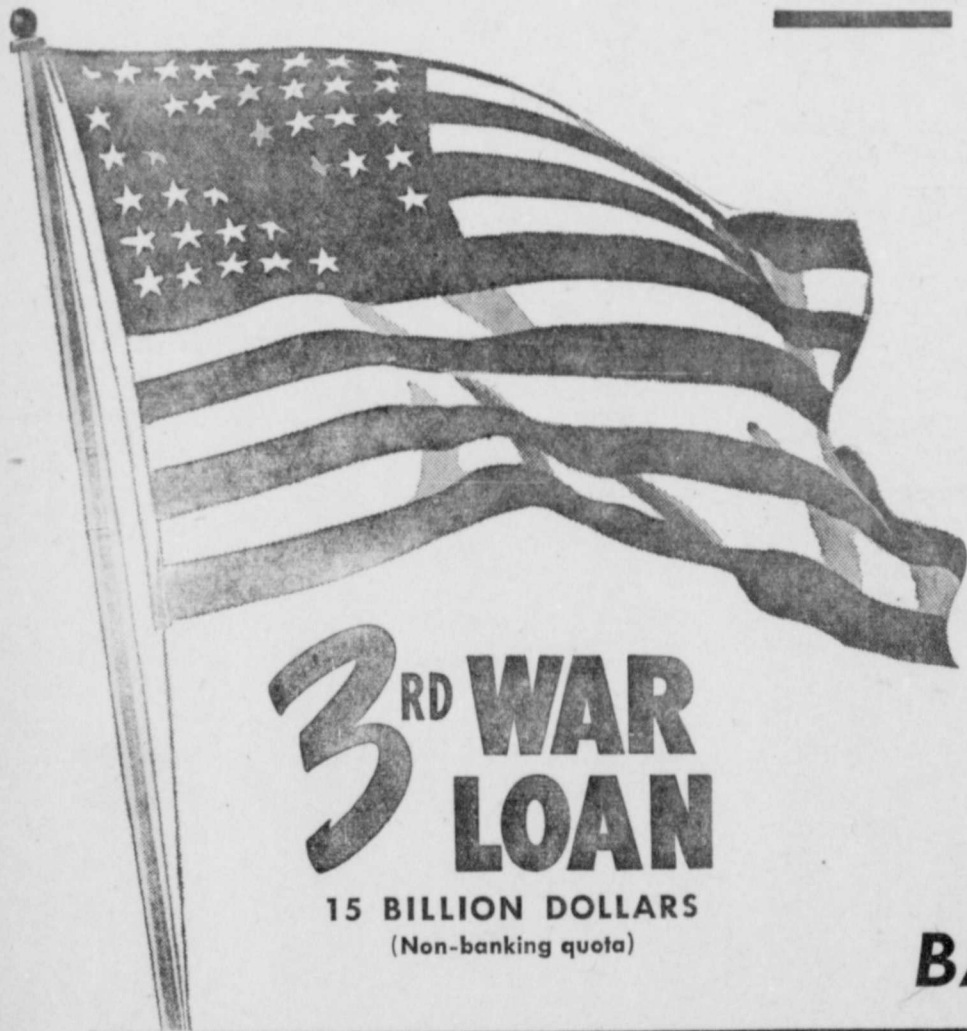

Our Scurry County boys are expecting us to do our part on the home front. Are we going to fail them?

AMERICA is proud of the way you answered her call for help. In the First and Second War Loan Drives you opened your hearts—and your purses—and invested generously.

But this is no time to say, "Sorry, I've done all I can."

Not when our troops are smashing ahead. Not when the cry from every front is for more tanks . . . more guns . . . more planes to strike the knockout blow.

Today, everyone who possibly can, must invest in at least one extra $100 War Bond. More if you possibly can. That's in addition to your regular War Bond subscriptions.

A big job? Yes! But INVASION is a big job, too! And that's what the 3rd War Loan is for—INVASION!

And it's for your loved ones, too . . . for the sons and brothers, sweethearts and husbands who are doing the fighting.

Can you look into your heart and say to them, "I've done all I can"?

Can you tell that to the Invasion Troops?

Of course you can't! No true American could! So NOW . . . when America needs your help as it never has in all history . . . make up your mind to do MORE in September. Invest in the safest way in the world! Invest out of current income, out of idle or accumulated funds. Back the invasion with at least one extra $100 War Bond this month.

Stores Display Pictures of Boys In U. S. Service

Dozens of Scurry County families are this week inspecting display windows of Snyder stores, and their inspection tours are for more important reasons than merchandise. They are visiting display windows to see the splendid array of pictures of Scurry County boys now in the armed forces.

Chief display of service men's pictures is to be found in the windows of Bryant-Lilik Company, west side of the square. J. H. Sears & Company, Stinson Drug No. 1, Frank's Department Store, The Fair Store, Williams Jewelry Store are joining the parade with pictures of service men—all declared by the Scurry County War Finance Committee to be highly appropriate for the Third War Loan drive.

Bill Ames Goes to New California Post

Lieutenant Ames, formerly stationed at Williams Field, Chandler, Arizona, where he received basic training, will be located near Sacramento, California, where he will be attached to a crew for B-25's.

Display windows of J. C. Penney Company and Economy Dry Goods Company carry some attractive folders and placards on buying war bonds and stamps, and other stores are expected to fall in line with fitting displays before the Third War Loan campaign closes.

Drivers' Licenses To Be Renewed in Snyder Area Soon

Renewal applications for drivers' licenses will be placed at the Scurry County Sheriff's office within the next few days, Tommy McClung, examiner-patrolman for the Texas Department of Public Safety, announced Tuesday.

All operators' licenses expire two years from the date stamped on the face of the license, McClung explains. No license will be renewed unless the renewal stub for the old license is attached to the renewal application.

Numbers from the old license should be placed in the spaces provided in all three stubs of the license form. Also, in the space provided just below the change of name and address—if there is no change, the word "none" should be written in such space.

All applications for renewal of operators' licenses must be filled out and mailed to Austin by the individual.

McClung will be at the courthouse, county judge's office, each Tuesday—except the first Tuesday in each month—from 9:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m. to assist with commercial and chauffeur's licenses.

Importance of operators filling in renewal forms for licenses cannot be overstressed, McClung says, since many will expire October 1.

Message from Snyder Posted at Roundup

Tuesday evening provided a gala event for Scurry County boys in the Panama Canal Zone, for it marked staging of the "Texas Roundup" at the Balboa-Amador Road USO Club for all Lone Star State civilians and service personnel now in the Canal Zone.

A personal letter to the Scurry County men in service in the Canal Zone, signed by Mayor H. G. Towle of Snyder and Willard Jones, Scurry County Chamber of Commerce president, was posted on the bulletin board of the USO Club on the Balboa-Amador Road, as was a brief historical sketch of Snyder.

Governor Coke R. Stevenson of Texas is honorary president of the "Texas Roundup" organization.

Herman L. Moffett Finishes Boot Camp

"The navy is a wonderful branch of Uncle Sam's armed forces and I hope we can repay the enemy, blow for blow," Herman Leo Moffett, sea-man second class, writes his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Moffett of Camp Springs, this week. Leo, who attended Hobbs School, has completed boot training and is with the Naval Personnel Department at Pleasonton, California. Leo's brother, Lieutenant Roy Moffett, U. S. Marines, is with an amphibious corps "somewhere overseas."

Christmas Mail to Overseas Soldiers Must Be Sent Soon

Remember that boy of yours in service you want to have an appropriate Christmas package?

Warren Dodson, Snyder postmaster, reminds Scurry County people this week that all Yuletide packages, destined for boys overseas, must be mailed by October 15—in order to insure delivery by Christmas.

Yuletide parcels for men overseas, as Dodson points out, must weigh less than five pounds. Such packages, not to exceed the size of a medium size shoe box, cannot exceed 36 inches in girth and length.

"Cookies, candies and other 'eats' must be well packed in tin containers to insure delivery to overseas soldiers." Rat destruction on ships carrying mail make tin packaging of food imperative.

Too, no perishable goods can be sent overseas. No insured packages will be accepted, because Post Office Department authorities cannot take the time to trace thousands of Yuletide shipments.

Delbert Jones Sends Word He's Now O. K.

Anxiety over the safety of their son, Private Delbert Jones, overseas the past five months, faded away Tuesday when Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Jones received a letter from their son, pointing out he was "well and happy, and enjoying good, solid American food."

Private Jones has been overseas the past five months with a coast artillery unit of the U. S. Army. He has been moved, the letter indicated, from North Africa, but present location is unknown.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones have another son, Corporal Johnny Jones, an aerial gunner in the U. S. Air Corps, now located at an Arizona Army Air Force base.

Graduation Slated at Big Spring Air Field

Snyder and Scurry County people were this week extended an invitation to attend graduation exercises this (Thursday) morning, 9:30 o'clock, at Big Spring Bombardier School, when cadets from 37 states will receive their silver wings.

Lieutenant Orval L. Schultz of Lorraine, a frequent Snyder visitor, will be one of the class graduates. Principal speaker will be Shine Phillips, Big Spring author and dramatist.

400 Pickers Still Needed to Gather Cotton in County

Based on a survey conducted Tuesday, Scurry County still needs a minimum of 400 cotton pickers.

So reveals Edward S. Hyman, county agricultural agent, who has contacted farmers in various sections of the county to ascertain just how many hands are yet needed to complete cotton harvesting operations.

Cotton pickers are getting, the Tuesday survey reveals, $1.25 per 100 pounds for pulling bolls. Dryness of the past two months, plus early opening of cotton, is resulting in virtually all cotton being balled. No picked cotton, in fact, has been reported to date.

Several large groups of Mexicans and white people were placed in the county over the week-end, and cotton harvesting is said to be proceeding at an increased tempo.

Several hundred Mexicans, en route to the South Plains, passed through Snyder during the past seven days—harvest hands hunting the best locations gasoline and tires would permit.

Corporal Max West of Camp Roberts, California, arrived in Snyder last week to spend a few days with his wife, formerly Margaret Gray. Corporal West is stationed with the 87th Infantry Training Battalion. He has been in California for the past several months.

Schools to Aid REA In War on Sabotage

Total of 31 schools in the five-county area served by Midwest Electric Cooperative, Roby, will join in a drive against sabotage of electric lines, Lon R. Adams of Roby, Midwest superintendent, reports this week.

School officials will bring messages to students emphasizing the seriousness of hunters, careless with firearms, who oftentimes impair electrical service to a whole community and unintentionally—in their desire to "bring in the birds"—break high line insulators. Outrages caused by throwing pieces of wire over high lines will be appropriately brought to community attention, schools in the five-county area state.

Stamford Schedules Army Bond Program

Stamford War Bond Committee announced Wednesday that the Texas Cowboy Reunion grounds, alert and deserted this year in keeping with the war effort, will be alive Friday evening with the noise of heavy U. S. Army equipment and marching of cadets at a gigantic, free war bond rally show.

Scurry County members of the Texas Cowboy Reunion are advised Friday evening's free show, expected to attract over 8,000 people, will include a 30-piece band from Camp Barkley, flying exhibitions by the Stamford Flying School and numbers by Hollywood stars like Dave O'Brien, Jim Newell and Guy Wilkerson.

Speakers Offered to Community Rallies

Scurry County communities in need of speakers for gatherings in conjunction with the Third War Loan campaign are requested to contact C. F. Sentell, chairman of the speakers' committee, immediately.

Should community representatives be unable to contact Judge Sentell immediately, they are asked to call the Chamber of Commerce office direct.

"We are making some of our best talent available to communities for war loan rallies," Sentell says, "and want community war finance officials to call on us when we may be of service."

Lockharts to Attend Stephenville Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lockhart and Charlie Lockhart will leave Friday morning for Stephenville where the Lockharts will attend Sunday a family reunion for their brother, John, who will be 95 years of age.

John, who has visited in Snyder and Scurry County, attributes his good health on reaching his ninety-fifth anniversary to wholesome foods and "plenty of Texas fortitude."

Following the family reunion this week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lockhart will return here. Charlie will go on to San Antonio for a visit with friends.

Victim of Plane Crash Buried in Pylon Cemetery

Funeral services for First Sergeant Howard Logan Eberhardt, 24, who was killed a week ago last Sunday in an airplane crash near Memphis, Tennessee, were held Sunday afternoon, 9:30 o'clock, at Herndon's First Baptist Church.

Sergeant Eberhardt was in the Engineering Corps and members of his family did not know he was in the Memphis area. While no details of the accident were available locally, it was learned the airplane crash occurred at Lake Cormacant, De Soto County, Mississippi.

Born at Herndon, October 30, 1918, Sergeant Eberhardt was a graduate of Snyder High School. His father is a carpenter at Midland Army Air Field, and the family moved to Midland seven years ago.

Body of Sergeant Eberhardt was accompanied here by a military escort, headed by Sergeant Otto L. Hawkins of Memphis, Tennessee.

Funeral services were held at the home of Mrs. T. S. Stinson, Elm St. Taylor, A. B. (Boss) Base, W. D. Fish, Harry Lee and Simon Best.

Flower bearers were Jessie McCravy, Myrtle Eberhardt, Annie Rue Sturdivant, Vera Lee Sturdivant, Thelma Brown and Mrs. Fay Moore.

Survivors include the father; the step-mother, Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Eberhardt of Midland; five brothers, R. B. Eberhardt, somewhere in England, Glenn Eberhardt of the U. S. Navy, Troy D. and Wesley Eberhardt, both of Midland, Bobby Eberhardt of Herndon; and three sisters, Mrs. Fern Fortis of Snyder, Elsie Eberhardt of Elythe, California, and Mrs. Annie Laura Foster of Midland.

Funeral arrangements were directed by Odum Funeral Home, with burial in Pylon Cemetery.

Our own prediction: The next 30 days will bring some good war news and it won't be good for the Axis.

Davidson Writes of Visit to Old Roman Ruins in War Zones

"Recent. I visited the Roman ruins, Timgad and Djemila, that proved very interesting in the face of modern civilization." Captain George A. Davidson Jr. with the U. S. Air Corps in North Africa, wrote this week to his friend, Senator Pat Bullock. Davidson, Scurry County voter, will recall, was a candidate for state senator in 1940.

"It is quite surprising," Davidson writes, "to learn the ancient Romans had paved streets, water systems, sewage, bathroom conveniences, keys, locks, hair pins, women's tweezers, lamps, etc."

"In the ruins of ancient amphitheatres, one can stand on what was the stage and utter a whisper that will be heard on the back row of seats. The temple of Jupiter interested me very much. There was a tremendous statue of him—a sacrificial altar engraved with the bull and sheep, ring in the floor to hold the bull, axe, knife and bowl to catch the blood. These temples were built in the first century and were destroyed in the fifth century."

Captain Davidson's letter, deeply colored with recent experiences, gives a vivid account of his visit to ancient Carthage and to the "Circus," the spot Daniel was in the lion's den.

Davidson congratulates Bullock on the work he did during the last session of the Texas Legislature, and urges him to keep the good work progressing.

Corporal Curtis Henley, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Henley arrived Tuesday morning on furlough from Bradley Field, Connecticut, where he is stationed with the U. S. Air Corps. Corporal Henley, employed here in civilian life by the Palace Theatre, is a radio mechanic with the air corps.

FSA to Help Feed Crops in Region Avoid Shortage

With a minimum of 800 farmers in this trade zone facing a critical food shortage, and a large number of them to face winter months with inadequate supplies of home grown livestock feed, the Farm Security Administration has taken steps to assist with a fall and winter pasture program.

So attentive Gerald C. Gordon, Scurry County FSA supervisor, who delays use of fall and winter pastures will help offset the general feed shortage in this area. Wheat, barley and rye are considered the best cereal crops to plant in this region for fall and winter pastures, and these are recommended as a source of cheap feed as well as a means for conserving the reduced supplies of other feed. Moreover, he said these crops will furnish a large portion of protein. They also save labor because livestock can harvest their own feed.

In areas where other cereals freeze down, winter rye makes one of the best cold weather pasture crops because it is hardy and more freeze-resistant, the FSA supervisor explained.

Gordon urges farmers who face a feed shortage at this time to consider at least one acre of pasture per animal unit as this operation may help them maintain peak production and avoid losses during the winter. Even those farmers with adequate feed reserves are encouraged to use winter pasture for the sake of economy.

The planting season for these cereals is at hand and Gordon, although feed shortage have been obtained from planting as late as November 1, depending upon moisture conditions.

Farmers in Scurry County who wish to produce fall and winter pastures and who cannot obtain operating funds from usual sources, are invited by Gordon to contact him on Monday or Tuesday.

"Farm Security loan funds for the purpose of helping farmers seed winter pasture are necessarily limited, hence, I would suggest that farmers who will need the lending facilities of this agency make their application at the earliest possible date," he concluded.

Unity Colorado Soil Conservation District News

Many livestock men and ranchmen have been following the procedure of providing both summer and winter grazing for livestock in the form of sudan or corn and small grain. Such a practice enables permanent pastures to grow irrigated and creates a reserve feed supply for use when temporary pastures are not available. H. O. Beard, soil conservation work unit leader, assigned to the Upper Colorado Soil Conservation District, stated recently.

"Frequently, however, drought periods force close grazing of all pastures, both temporary and permanent. Such close grazing may subject the soil to severe punishment by wind, and hard rains and reduce plant vigor to the point that re-growth is retarded.

Many of these same stockmen and ranchmen have some another step and provided ample feed reserves, preserved in a trench silo-to bridge over short grazing periods without curtailment of pastures.

Some local stockmen, cooperating with the Upper Colorado Soil Conservation District program who have recently filled trench silos include: W. S. Hendrix, M. S. Jones and Leo Beaver of Fluvanna.

In spite of the extremely dry season this Beaver and E. O. Rosenthal of the Fluvanna community have recently constructed some new concrete batters constructed about three-quarters of a mile on some sudan grass stubble by using a one-way plow and Chasidina tractor.

Beaver constructed approximately three miles on small grain stubble with a one-way plow.

A. W. Steverson of the Denison community has been constructing approximately eight miles of terrace with a three-disk one-way.

Tuesday, October 5, has been set by state law as election day to elect district supervisors. Pat Johnston, chairman of the board, announced this week. On that day an entirely new board will be elected or old board members re-elected. In succeeding years, one new board member will be elected each year. Additional information relative to voting boxes will be carried in this column, and we urge every land owner to vote in this election and plan to take part in this election since aggressive supervisors mean more and better work in the district toward saving our soil.

Wet Weather Is A Plus For County Land Owners

Continued wet weather during the early days of September has proved a boon to livestock men and ranchmen's food supply to their herds and flocks. S. L. Perry, chairman of the county AAA committee, explains county crop conditions.

Officials of the county Trade A office estimate Scurry County property owners would probably show a reduction of 100,000 bushels of feed grain to get down waste of soil pasture grass.

County farmers and ranchers, in consequence, are reminded that such work will be paid for at the rate of five cents per 100 bushels—when built to AAA specifications.

Property owners interested in obtaining payment for building feed grain are asked to contact the county County AAA office, southeast corner of the square.
