How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

1 Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.

2 Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.

Try Cardui. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.

Eggs and Cattle Command Higher Prices Last Week as Cotton Goes Down

Eggs sold around 37 to 39 cents a dozen and cotton declined $3.25 to $4.50 per bale last week, reports the Production and Marketing Administration in the latest Swing of Southwest Farm Markets.

The latest market trends follow: Southwest farm markets paid firm to higher prices for livestock, eggs and poultry last week. Cotton and grains dropped; while other products showed mixed trends.

Easter demand for eggs and poultry kept prices firm. Eggs sold around 37 to 39 cents per dozen at most points; heavy hens 26 to 28 cents per pound; fryers 30 to 32.

Cotton declined around $3.25 to $4.50 per bale last week. Spot markets remained rather quiet but more active than in recent weeks. All sources brought mainly to take care of immediate needs only.

Grain markets described a steady trend last week, as demand slowed, and offerings became more plentiful. Wheat closed Thursday at around $2.73 per bushel for No. 1 hard at Fort Worth and Galveston; white corn $1.98; yellow corn $1.94; barley $1.54 and oats $1.01 to $1.03. Yellow milo closed $3.06 to $3.09 per hundred.

Cattle commanded generally steady to higher prices last week. Medium and good cows brought $12.50 to $16.25 at San Antonio; and $13 to $15 at Fort Worth. Good cows moved at $14.50 to $15.50 at Houston; $15 to $16 at Wichita; and $16 to $17 at Oklahoma City. Medium to good yearlings cashed at $18 to $19 at Houston; and $17.50 to $21.65 at San Antonio. Medium to good steers and yearlings cleared at $18 to $23 at Fort Worth; $19 to $23 at Oklahoma City and Wichita; and $19.75 to $24.50 at Denver.

Hogs ruled steady to 50 cents higher at Texas points, and 50 cents to $1.25 up at other southwest terminals. Closing bulk of good and choice hogs cleared at $25 to $25.50 at Fort Worth; and $26.50 to $27 at Denver. Closing top was $26.75 at Oklahoma City; and $27.10 at Wichita. San Antonio's top price for the week was $24.

Sheep and lambs sold steady to mostly 50 cents higher at southwest markets last week. Choice spring lambs brought $22.50 at San Antonio; and $24 at Oklahoma City and Denver. Good and choice kinds moved at $22 to $23.50 at Fort Worth.

Moisture in Santa Fe Area Boosts Wheat Prospects for Year

"Weather in the Snyder area and over the state during the past 30 days generally has been dry and cold," April 1 agricultural condition report of the Santa Fe Railway Company reveals.

"The soil, however, is in good condition and farmers in this area have purchased good quality seed and made other preparations in hope of starting a busy season soon.

"Moisture from late snow has boosted wheat prospects. Oats were practically all killed by cold weather in January and many fields have been replanted. Grain sorghums are being planted in many sections.

"Unofficial reports," the bulletin continues, "indicate cotton acreage will be increased by from 10 to 15 per cent. Probably 50 per cent of the land is ready and in the Snyder zone farmers will have exceptionally clean seed beds for the 1947 cotton crop.

Easier On The Files.

Lady in Restaurant—"Why don't you 'shoo' your files?"

de Valley last week, and prices had dropped Thursday to mostly $2.25 per 50-pound sack of U. S. commercial yellow Bermudas. New potato shipments picked up, too, at steady prices of $2 to $2.25 for 50 pound sacks of U. S. No. 1 Bliss Triumphs. Continued heavy movement of carrots lowered prices to $1.75 to $2 per Los Angeles crate; but lighter loadings of Winter Garden spinach sold much higher at $1.15 to $1.25 per bushel.

Rice held firm last week, with supplies still tight. Price ceilings and export controls and allocations were extended, but set-aside requirements were suspended for the time being. Bran, shorts and cottonseed meal fell about $4 per ton, but meat scraps and gluten feed and meal advanced an equal amount. Hay quotations moved up $2 per ton. Seed peanut demand picked up in all major peanut areas. Secured Texas and pulled fine wools found some demand, but price uncertainty retarded buying.

BAPTIST HOUR SPEAKER
April 20 and April 27 will be Dr. C. E. Walker, reports the radio committee of the Southern Baptist Convention. Dr. Walker will speak April 20 on "God's Universal Indictment," and he can be heard over many radio stations including KCRS of Midland.

Extension Man Sees Improved Pastures

Here's an item from the Extension that will interest Scurry and Borden County ranchers:

"One thing," states Editor Louis J. Franke, "that impressed me very much on a trip from College Station to San Angelo was the tremendous amount of range that has been cleared of cedar and mesquite.

"It was good to see this development because it means the long-time demonstrations in this line are taking hold and the lessons learned of the AAA range conservation program have been well learned.

"It was good to see the grass growing in the livestock grazing on spots that were bare only a few years ago."

Farm Tenancy Now At Low Point in Years

Farm tenancy in Scurry County is now at the lowest point in more than 50 years, according to a Times release from the Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

In 1945, the farms of tenants and croppers here and over the nation made up 32 per cent of all U. S. farms. This compares with a high of 42 per cent in the 1930's and nearly 39 per cent in 1939.

While the trend, it is stated, is toward fewer tenants and more owners looks good, the department cautions that the test lies ahead when prices and income go down. The number of foreclosures on farms at that time will tell the tale.

Snyder Wins District Volleyball Tourney

Boys' volleyball team won the district volleyball tournament held at Benedict Gym, Abilene Christian College Saturday, March 29.

Snyder boys drew Roscoe for the first game but most of Roscoe's boys were in the track finals so they forfeited the game.

Roby played Loraine next and won two out of three games. This left them to play Snyder in the finals and Snyder won both games with scores of 15-1 and 15-5.

Snyder girls played Stamford first and won both games. They played Rotan next and won one out of three. This put Rotan in the finals and they played Albany. Albany won both games with scores of 15-3 and 15-5 and won the district girls' volleyball tournament.—S. H. S. Tiger's Tale.

Explanation A-Plenty.

"Can you tell me what they mean by 'selling short, in Wall Street?'" "It means buying something you can't get, with money you haven't got, and then later selling what you never had and did not pay for at more than it costs."

30 Tigers Show Up for Workouts in Softball

About 30 boys reported to the gym last Tuesday afternoon April 1, to form a Tiger softball team.

These boys will carry on daily workouts during the sixth period and after school on a baseball diamond, just west of the gym. Coach Beene states that he expects to make a good softball team out of these.

At a future date the Tigers expect to invite the other teams in our district to a volleyball and softball tournament here at Snyder High School. The event will last a complete day.—S. H. S. Tiger's Tale.

Middleton to Speak on Baptist Hour Twice

Scurry County radio owners are advised "Christ the Answer" will form the subject Dr. J. W. Middleton of Atlanta, Georgia, will use on the Baptist Hour Sunday, April 13.

In conjunction with the campaign to win souls the Baptist Hour is promoting a program to form a prayed league of 1,000,000 Christians who will pray daily for the spiritual awakening of America.

What Price ONE PAIR OF EYES?

EYESIGHT IS PRICELESS LIGHT IS CHEAP!

Those bright, sparkling eyes of childhood! Help them keep their sparkle—their clear, perfect vision. One school child in five has lost part of that sparkle because of defective vision. More than half the people over 35 have eyesight troubles.

Why not conserve precious eyesight by following the three commonsense rules illustrated at the right:

- 1 Do all reading, studying, sewing or other visual tasks close to a good light source, preferably a modern reading lamp.
- 2 Avoid shadows. Make sure you have good light directly on your book or work. Use at least a 150-watt bulb.
- 3 Avoid glare from bare bulbs. Don't sit facing the light. Glare strains eyes.

FROM THE TEXAS BUTANE DEALERS ASSOCIATION:—

An Important Message TO THOSE WHO USE OR PLAN TO USE BUTANE or PROPANE

The Texas Butane Dealers Association urges you to check up on your present system. If your tank is not capable of serving you through the four winter months, you may find yourself without heat in the coldest season of the year.

New Industries developed during the War—plastics, synthetics and chemicals—now demand tremendous amounts of butane and propane. These industries use gas in equal amounts all year 'round. Meanwhile, domestic gas users burn four to seven times more in winter than in summer; but your dealer will be able to furnish you very little more in winter than in summer. To ease this high winter demand, users must spread that demand over the warmer months as well. The solution is a tank which will hold a four-months supply.

For "Winter-Insurance" the farmer stores his grain early, just as housewives do their canning early. For your "Winter-Insurance" you'll have your four-months supply in your tank when you need it most. And by taking less time for your dealer's services, he can supply you and your neighbors more efficiently and economically at the very time when road conditions are worst for gas delivery.

The Texas Butane Dealers Association urges you to drop in to see your local gas dealer as soon as possible. Consult him before you buy any system. He knows butane and propane, and he will do everything he can to cooperate with you for next winter—Now!

See Your Local Butane Gas Dealer Today!

Snyder Tigers Upset Dope Bucket to Beat Exes 7-6 in Annual Grid Classic

Snyder Tigers took an unscheduled win from the Exes by defeating them 7-6 in the annual Tiger-Exes game Friday night, March 28, at Tiger Field.

Snyder's Exes didn't run away with the game as predictions stated, as the game was close all the way, the Tigers were ahead in all departments as well as the score.

Coach Beene's charges played without the services of Louie Vaughan who was high point man last year. With Louie, the score would have been a lot more, the coach stated.

The Tigers' lone tally came early in the second quarter when Donnie Everett, passed 22 yards to rafter scrapper George Richardson, who carried the rest of the ground, 57 yards for the score. Richardson converted making the score 7-0.

Snyder Exes came right back and late in the same stanza scored from the 24-yard stripe on a pass from Howard Crenshaw to Billy Bob McMullan. Jesse Everett failed to make the extra point, and the score remained 7-6.

Both teams fought for their respective scores but neither could get away with any long gains although both made beautiful short runs.

Coach Beene's Tigers led in all departments as they rolled up 142 yards to the Exes' 81 from scrimmage; completed four of seven passes to the Exes' three of nine.

First downs favored the Tigers eight to five. The Tigers punted three times for a 43-yard average, while the Exes kicked twice for a 31-yard average.

Plenty of substitutes saw action and proved themselves capable of handling the job well. They were: Hays Prince, tackle; Donald Smith, guard; Billy Middleton, end; and Robert Preuitt, Willy Martin, Dick Land and Pinky Smith, backs.

Starting line-up was as follows:

Tigers		Exes
Pop Blakely	Left End	Billy Longbotham	Left End

VA Boys Purchasing Calves for Projects

V. A. boys are now purchasing calves for next year's show. The show will be at the fair grounds and will take place sometime in September.

These boys are very interested in the work they are doing. The buying of the calves takes quite a bit of judging ability.

Classes have been studying the judging of livestock. They will use this in buying their calves. Also, the class will enter a judging contest at Lubbock April 25. More information will be given later concerning the contest.—S. H. S. Tiger's Tale.

Land Bank Head Says Acreage to Cotton to Be Cut

Snyder Area farmers greeted with enthusiasm this week announcement from Sterling Evans, president of the Federal Land Bank, Houston, that Texas farmers will likely decrease cotton acreage plantings by 15 per cent.

Evans declares flatly farmers of the state will never again plant the 17,000,000 acres once devoted to the fleecy staple.

Diminishing fertility of the soil, influx of synthetic materials and a smaller foreign market was given as some of the reasons for the cotton acreage decline.

Evans told the Texas Cooperative Ginners Association in meeting at Dallas that increased cotton production in foreign countries will glut the foreign market.

A nation-wide cotton program should begin with the farmers, Evans continues.

Needles formerly operated a tire store here. Probably a victim of amnesia, Needles is 57, five feet seven inches in height and weighs 175 pounds. He has blue eyes and thinning gray hair.

A reward of $5,000 is being offered for return of Mr. Needles dead or alive.

Head of Paper Mill Says Gas Tax Would Stop News Making

A warning that passage of the McLellan gas-tax bill would cause a shutdown of the Lufkin Paper Mills was given Thursday by Ernest Kurth, president of Southland Paper Mills. He predicted that Texas newspapers, already in bad shape because of the newspaper shortage from Canadian sources, would be further hurt by loss of paper manufactured in East Texas. He opposed the bill that would tax gas-gathering lines instead of those outside the state as a measure that would hurt Texas consumers.

"We are in the middle of an expansion program so that we could more nearly meet the requirements of Texas newspapers," he said, "and at present we are serving 25. We will have our additional plant ready before long but should the gas-tax

Santa Fe Carloadings Show Gain for Week

Santa Fe Railway Company carloadings for the week ending March 29 were 29,119 compared for the same week in 1946, report local Santa Fe officials.

Cars received from connections totaled 9,920 compared with 10,942 for the same week in 1946. Santa Fe handled a total of 37,333 cars in the preceding week this year.

increase be enacted by the Legislature our entire mill will have to drop newspaper altogether and, instead make high-grade products—stationery, for instance. While sponsors of the tax measure think they are driving after exported gas they are in fact hitting at Texas consumers. We established the mill at Lufkin because we could get cheap fuel, but it will be out of the question should the tax be increased as in the bill."

Health Official Urges Childhood Disease Caution

With incidence of chickenpox more than 50 per cent higher than records indicate for a seven year period, Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer, issued a statement Wednesday to The Times declaring, "It is a great mistake to treat even light cases of childhood diseases such as chickenpox, measles, mumps, scarlet fever or whooping cough as though they did not amount to much.
 That sort of treatment makes it possible for these diseases to spread and cause serious outbreaks among children and their resulting impaired resistance makes them easy victims to other forms of infection."
 "Some of the most serious outbreaks of chickenpox which we have had have been traced to mild cases—that is, to cases too light for the doctor to be called.
 In some instances the children have continued to go to school and to associate and play with other children. In other, after they have been kept at home for a few days, they have returned to school and have scattered germs among their schoolmates. Eventually a group of cases—sometimes very serious ones—have developed from the carelessly handled mild case. The result was another epidemic that could have been prevented."
 The state health officer says the family doctor is the best judge of the seriousness of such childhood diseases, and suffering and anxiety will be avoided if the child is put to bed, and doctor's advice sought and followed.

Soil and Water Conservation Plans In County Paying Off in Better Land

Waterholes, as many Scurry County ranchers and farmers recall, have been the center of many a fight—both in fiction and in real life.
 Many ranchers of this area can remember some of the stories. Many remember, too, when water didn't cause gun fights but was nevertheless precious beyond price when drought struck.
 These conditions are passing fast, reports Joe B. Adams, chairman of the Scurry County ACA committee, because more farmers and ranchers are building stock water ponds and dams so as to save water on the farms and ranches.
 On many ranches of the county rains are being made to grow grass instead of washing away the range as they once did.
 Water-saving dams, Mr. Adams declares, are being built under the ACP program to store water in many of the natural draws and help to prevent making of great gullies.
 The ACA chairman points out that 39 such dams were built in Scurry County during 1946 alone.
 When the construction of these dams is a part of the conservation plan for a farm or ranch, the government helps pay part of the construction cost, Adams adds.
 Ranchers or farmers who are interested in building dams this year are urged to contact the county committee at an early date and to secure prior approval of this conservation measure before construction work is started.
Something New Now.
 A teacher took her class to visit the museum of natural history. When one of her small boy pupils got home that day, his mother asked him what had happened at school.
 "Oh," he said joyfully, "our teacher took us to a dead circus."

IH Announces Details of $20,000,000 Price Reductions

Details of the recently announced International Harvester policy of making price reductions to save users of our products approximately $20,000,000 a year have now been worked out.
 We have reduced prices on 163 models. These cover 12 basic models of farm tractors, 123 basic models of farm machines, 16 basic models of industrial tractors and engines, and 12 models of motor trucks, as well as certain motor truck attachments. The new lower prices are effective as of March 10, 1947.
 These reductions were made not because of any decline in demand, but because we believe nothing is more important to this country than to lower the prices of the goods people buy.
 While prices have not been changed on all products, we have made reductions wherever possible, in the amounts possible. Prices of many of our most popular products have been substantially lowered.
 Altogether, more than half of the company's customers will be benefited by the reductions, which range from 1% to 23.8% and from $2.50 to $300 per item, based on list prices, F.O.B. Chicago.
 Since the people have demanded that the government withdraw from price control in peacetime, the responsibility to keep prices in check is back where it should be—in the hands of business and industry. The business outlook makes it possible for us to move toward the goal of lower prices, and we have felt a duty to act as promptly as possible.
 Our ability to maintain these lower prices will depend on the supply and price of materials we buy from others and on uninterrupted production at reasonable wage levels.
 The prices listed here carry out our announced policy that "Any price is too high if it can be reduced."

Snyder High School Newspaper, Wins Distinguished Merit Award in Contest

Admittedly one of the best high school papers in West Texas, the Snyder High School Tiger's Tale topped the Award of Distinguished Merit recently in Interscholastic League Press Conference.

So states Dr. Dewitt Reddick, director of the ILPC, who says the award was made for the Northwest Class B. This award is given to the two best high school papers in each district. Snyder's co-winner is the Sweetwater "Pony Express."

This is the highest award a Times reporter learns, given by ILPC. In some districts one or more papers rank almost as high as winners and are given certificates of Award of Honor.

Under the ILPC organizational state are divided into 12 groups, plan, the school newspapers of the with four geographical divisions and three classes (by size of school) within each division.

This division that included Tiger's Tale also included such points as Canyon, Kermit and Quanah. From such divisions the 30 best high school papers in Texas are chosen.

As the result of winning, two contestants will be sent to Austin for the state journalism contests—contests that will be held May 2 and 3.

These contestants will be Helen Jo Graham, editor, and Mariwyn Wren, co-editor. They will compete in five contests covering news writing, editorial writing, feature writing, headline writing and copy reading.

These two official delegates and their sponsor, Mrs. Forrest W. Beavers, will be entitled to lodging and the usual Interscholastic League rebates for transportation to the convention.

Associate staff of the Tiger's Tale includes: Jack Longbotham, sports editor; E. J. Moore, sports editor; Dorothy Moore, photographer; Donald Fish, artist; Billy Poppe, news editor; Mary Edith Scarborough, feature editor, and Billie Claire Mason, copyreader.

On the business staff are George Richardson, business manager; Tommy Browning, assistant business manager; and Ida Joe Hart, circulation manager.

Dale Walton, Dorothy Moore and Effie Lou Meadows are typists, Dorothy Flaye Duck, Billy Greer, Patsy Tamplin, Virginia Taylor, Imogene Wade, Jonnie Dell Brock, J. W. Burleson, Durrelle Stokes, Nelda Burrell.

York, Jeanie Nichols and Bruce DeLoach are reporters.

Tiger's Tale is printed by The Times and enjoys a good circulation not only in Snyder Schools but in Snyder.

"You and your staff," writes Dewitt Reddick, director ILPC, to the Tiger's Tale, "may now take a deep bow, for the judges of the 1946-1947 ILPC contest have selected your paper to receive the Award of Distinguished Merit in your class and district."

"This means your paper is entitled to be represented by two contestants in the state journalism contest in Austin May 2 and 3.

"Other representatives of your paper may attend the convention program of ILPC held during these days.

"In accordance," Reddick continues, "with ILPC rules only 30 school papers in Texas can be given the Award of Distinguished Merit. You should be extremely proud of your achievement."

Falling below Award of Distinguished Merit for Tiger's Tale and the Sweetwater Pony Express (Northwest Class B), Award of Honor went to Canyon Eagle's Tale and the Kermit Yellow Jacket.

Not only officials of Scurry County but many county citizens expressed considerable interest Wednesday in passage by the House at Austin and submission to the Senate of Representative Nevelle Colson's bill reallocating surplus road bond funds in favor of rural areas.

Counties now get about $1,900,000 a year from the road bond fund surplus and the State Highway Department an equal sum, a Times reporter learns.

The Colson bill changes the present basis of distributing the counties' share, and gives greater weight to the factors of rural population and rural road mileage.

The House also passed Representative James Sparks' proposal for insurance companies to establish retirement systems for their employees.

A dispatch from Austin reveals the House also passed Representative Sheffy Mahan's measure for tax-free government automobiles to have permanent registration plates—rather than changing them annually.

"I fainted. They brought me to. So I fainted again."

"Why?"

"Well, they brought me two more."

FINAL PROOF is shown by Pat Arrington, left, and Curtis Comer, center, and Johnnie Arrington who are holding a 75-pound catfish. The "catch" was four feet long, measured two feet from whisker tip to whisker tip and two and a half feet around the middle. Pat and Johnnie caught the "cat" in shallow water after finding it at Cooper's Crossing on Elm Creek, three miles south of Gainesville.

Foreign Markets Will Take All U. S. Cotton Made Available for Exporting

With Scurry County farmers advised cotton acreage will likely be 15 per cent lower than last year news on the cotton front this year is announcement that foreign markets will purchase every bale of American cotton which can be made available for export.

So stated Read Dunn Jr., Washington, foreign trade director of the National Cotton Council, while in Dallas Wednesday.

Cotton production in the United States will probably reach 11,750,000 bales next year, Dunn said in a speech prepared for delivery at the 34th annual convention of the Texas Cotton Ginners Association. He estimated that only 2,500,000 to 3,500,000 bales would be available for export because of two successive short cotton crops and heavy domestic consumption.

Dunn, who recently returned from Europe where he made a study of the cotton situation, declared that in all probability world consumption again would exceed world cotton production, possibly by as much as 4,000,000 bales. He pointed out that at the beginning of the new crop season the world carryover will likely be normal, about 18,000,000 bales, and predicted that the world supply situation would be tight for another 12 months.

He forecast that consumption in the major cotton buying nations would increase by about 10 per cent, bringing the total quantity of American-type cotton, used abroad to about 6.6 million bales during the company year.

"If we get the proposed programs operating in Germany and Japan for supplying U. S. cotton through the private trade, we will have the inside track on a million bale market," Dunn said.

"Also, the Export-Import Bank is preparing to continue its operations in extending cotton loans," he continued. "New loans are now under consideration for Austria, Hungary, and Czechoslovakia, England, France and Italy have sufficient credits for the time being. We may have to help these Big Three again later until they can get on their feet. Such countries as Sweden, Switzerland, and Canada have sufficient dollars without credit. The others like Poland and the Balkans are so involved politically that we are not in much of a position to help."

The department estimates during the first quarter it averaged 28 per cent above last year.

Exports and farm markets depend to a great extent on American's lending policies will determine much of their future.

The nation's steel mills at the end of March were running at 97 per cent of capacity, a post-war record. The high in 1946 was 88.9 per cent, also in late March. Demand is still strong.

Automobile production is continuing to climb, reaching 415,681 cars in March, compared to 399,082 in February and 372,249 in January. There still is a big backlog of orders.

U. S. Department of Agriculture estimates that since organized farm safety work began in 1913, 310,000 lives have been saved through farm accident prevention.

Eggs A Dollar A Dozen

LAGGING CHICK SALES POINT TO SHORTAGE OF EGGS AND POULTRY BY FALL AS EXPECTED SURPLUSES FAIL TO DEVELOP

How much money could you make next fall if eggs were selling for a dollar a dozen? It could happen. In fact, in New York last week, the president of the Butter and Egg Merchants Association said it may happen!

It May Happen! Why?

Because every sign today points to a shortage of eggs and poultry next fall. Two months ago—even 30 days ago—nobody would have believed such a prediction. Folks were talking of an egg surplus. The government said it would support the price of eggs. But what has happened? There is no shortage. Eggs are disappearing as fast as they are being laid.

And far too few Baby Chicks are being started to meet the demand for poultry and eggs next fall.

Poultry experts don't need a crystal ball to predict this coming shortage and high egg and poultry prices. They just look at these cold facts of the U. S. Department of Agriculture which tell the story:

THESE FACTS POINT TO NEW HIGH EGG AND POULTRY PRICES

- 1.—At the season when eggs would be normally moving into storage in great volume, stocks of shell eggs are dwindling. In February this reduction amounted to 70,000 cases. On March 1 there was only about half an egg in storage for every American. A year ago there were 1,500,000 cases—about seven times as many.
2.—Frozen eggs in storage decreased by 7,000,000 pounds in February as compared to an increase of 6,000,000 pounds in February a year ago.
3.—Egg production in February was four per cent below a year ago due to six per cent fewer layers.
4.—Americans are eating eggs at a record rate because of high purchasing power and high meat prices.
5.—There were 55,000,000 fewer chickens on farms January 1 than there were a year ago.
6.—Virtually all signs point to an excellent grain producing season in 1947 which normally means lower feed prices. A record wheat crop and another 3,000,000,000-bushel corn crop are forecast.

IT'S A GOOD YEAR TO START BABY CHICKS!

Yes, eggs may sell for a dollar a dozen next fall, but you'll have to start chicks this spring—to cash in on this golden opportunity. Our advice is to buy good chicks and start them right. Feed them Purina Chick Startena to get them off to a flying start. It's America's Favorite Chick Starter for Life and Growth and this year it's the best Purina ever made. We have a good supply in stock. Come in and see us for chicks and all your chick raising needs.

ROBISON MURDER TRIAL

Texas Ranger Ed Saunders and Highway Patrolman T. T. Brady told of taking viscera and the wine to Austin, and described the manner of packing them. Judge Mauzey threatened to clear the court when laughter followed a question to Brady if the wine reached Austin in the same content as when he left with it.

Part of the transcript of testimony given by Mrs. Robison before the grand jury was introduced in evidence during the afternoon. In the evidence Mrs. Robison told of her husband's investing $1,800 of her personal money in cattle, of collecting two insurance policies, one for $2,500 and another for $1,000 after his death. In the testimony she said they had had only one quarrel—over the house—while it was under construction.

Mrs. Robison testified Homer wanted to sell the house against her will. She said she prepared his meal at 7:00 p. m. on the day of his death. At 10:00 p. m. he was sick but didn't complain much.

“Then he gasped, I became alarmed and sent for the doctor. About 35 minutes after the doctor came he died. He was particularly fond of wine, which he supposedly got at Big Spring a week before,” she said.

She said she had never heard him threaten suicide. She said she had never purchased any strychnine. She said she had a custom of drinking but at this particular time she drank from the bottle with her husband and it made her vomit the wine up.

Faver said he lived across the street from the Robisons and was present when Robison died. He said when he saw Robison his arms were jerking with spasms. He quoted Mrs. Robison as having said she gave her husband some wine and it had made her vomit. He also told of trouble that had occurred between the Robisons.

Dee Robison, brother of Homer Robison, testified Homer asked him a week before his death if he wanted to buy his (Homer's) barn. I said, “I don't want it—I've had too much trouble and I want to keep out of debt.” Homer replied, “I don't need any money anyway.”

Two neighbors, Mrs. K. J. Knollenberg and Mrs. Jack Fulghum, testified they were at Mrs. Robison's house and that she was ill on August 8. She was in bed, they said.

In further testimony, Mrs. Robison said her husband did not like his brothers.

Neil Kelley, 11, sixth-grade pupil and younger daughter of Mrs. Robison, said her step-father was good to her and her sister, and gave testimony corroborating her mother's testimony. Her sister, Jenna V. Kelley, 13, also took the stand and testified her mother was home on August 8, when the poison was sold at Colorado City, and described events the day Robison died.

Dr. J. W. Young, Roscoe physician and owner of the Young Hospital at Roscoe, explained the effects of prolonged use of “intoxicants in causing melancholy (Mrs. Robison had testified Homer was melancholy before his death). Dr. Young said he operated on Homer for appendicitis soon after his marriage to Maxine, that his heart was good and that he was dismissed three days after the operation.

Earl Strawn, Scurry County sheriff last year, swore he saw Maxine Robison during the week of August 5-10 in Colorado City. He could not remember the exact date. It was August 8 the state contended she purchased the poison. “She was in the pick-up and did not speak to me,” Strawn said. Strawn was there to collect a fine, he said.

A. C. Alexander, vice president of Snyder National Bank, said he was familiar with Mrs. Robison's handwriting as he had her signature

$173,000 to Be Spent On Modernization of Non-Farm Homes

Scurry County's non-farm homes owners will spend an estimated $173,000 on repair and modernization work during 1947.

At least a third and probably more than half of the dwellings in the county will be improved or repaired this year, according to estimates released by a national builder's council. “Increased supplies of building materials and easing of restrictions should make possible a record volume of home modernization throughout the country,” chairman of the council's residential construction committee said.

The county's 2,745 single-family homes will account for most expenditures, the study revealed. Painting is the most, often wanted improvement, with about a third of all owners planning to redecorate home exteriors or some room of the interior. At least one out of every 16 dwellings needs carpentry repairs, and large numbers will have water pipes repaired, bathrooms tiled or showers installed during the year, according to the report.

As evidence of the increase of the building supplies, the spokesman pointed out that building material volume is expected to hit an all-time high this year. “Stepped-up production of materials means that the construction industry can both build record numbers of houses and do the repair work neglected during the war,” he said.

Home repair expenditures in the county are part of a $141,560,000 modernization program being undertaken in Texas this year, according to the study.

Santa Fe Carloadings Up

Santa Fe System carloadings for week ending April 5, 1947, were 25,125 compared with 22,278 for same week in 1946. Cars received from connections totaled 10,469 compared with 10,042 for same week in 1946. Total cars moved were 35,594 compared with 32,320 for same week in 1946. Santa Fe handled a total of 36,639 cars in preceeding week of this year.

was sober and in good spirits on the afternoon of his death.

Motion for a new trial for Mrs. Maxine Robison, who was convicted Saturday of murdering her husband, Homer Robison, has been introduced by defense attorneys in 32nd District Court, Presiding Judge A. S. Mauzey of Sweetwater said Tuesday.

The judge said he would act on the motion today (Thursday). If the motion is overruled, the judge will pronounce a two-year suspended sentence on Mrs. Robison, complying with the recommendation of the jury. The sentence recommended by the jury is mandatory, provided there is no new trial.

Price of Cotton Drops Half Cent From March High

"Cotton prices declined a half a cent per pound this week," reports the U. S. Department of Agriculture in its latest Weekly Cotton Market Review.

"Discounts," the report continues, "for the lower qualities widened considerably. Mill buyers were less active."

"Parity price of cotton, Scurry County farmers are informed, as of mid-March was 28.40 cents per pound. This is a record high and an advantage of one cent above the parity price of 27.40 cents per pound in February.

"Prices received by farmers for cotton as of March 15 averaged 31.89 cents per pound for all qualities at all locations. This compares with 30.57 cents per pound in February and with 22.70 in March, 1946.

"Reported sales in the 10 designated markets totaled 86,150 bales for the week as compared with 104,800 bales a week earlier and 154,000 a year ago. Offerings by farmers were less than a week earlier.

"Price, for instance, for middling 15-16 inch staple in Dallas on last Thursday was 35.25 cents compared with 35.65 cents a week ago and 27.80 cents a year ago.

"A small volume of loan equities was reported to be selling at about the following prices: North Texas $35 per bale; western Oklahoma $38 to $50 per bale, and Oklahoma City $37.50 to $40 per bale.

"Land," the Department of Agriculture review points out, "was in good condition for planting except in parts of Oklahoma where moisture is badly needed. In the Rio Grande Valley most cotton is up to a good stand but the crop is said to be two to three weeks later than in 1946.

"Trading in spot cotton was principally among shippers to take care of immediate needs. Demand continues to be firm for higher grades but is still slack for low grade cotton."

Top of Texas Rodeo Slated August 6 to 9

Scurry and Borden County people are advised of the annual Top of Texas Rodeo and Horse Show will be held at Pampa August 6-9.

The Pampa rodeo this year will feature four night performances with the horse show taking up after-noon sessions.

Announcement is made that the cowgirl sponsor contest will again be one of the special added attractions and will carry attractive day money in addition to the grand prizes offered.

Goat Mayo of Petrolia, a veteran in the rodeo business, will again furnish stock for the show. Mayo will also handle registration and will act as arena director.

Anyone Could See That.
"Well, I certainly made a good impression on her," said the caber-bottomed chair as the artist's model stood up.

Universal Training Cheaper Than War, Says Army Leader

All Scurry and Borden County men within the bracket of draft age expressed keen interest this week in announcement of General Jacob L. Devers, Army ground commander, that with universal military training the United States could have had 16,000,000 fighting men in 1939 at a cost equivalent to that of waging World War II for only 80 days.

Devers declares the cost of universal military training for America today would be less than $1,000,000,000 a year.

"In 80 days of World War II," the general states, "we spent what military training would have cost us in 20 years."

"With the trained men the program would have provided by 1939, we could have stopped Hitler long before Poland—in the Ruhr, in Austria and Czechoslovakia."

Band Students Play In Assembly Program

Students of Roy Palmer, band director, played in the junior high assembly Thursday, April 3. These students played marches and other music they have learned this year.

"America" and other songs from the first semester band book were played.

The band students have been working under Mr. Palmer for several months, two days each week. His students are: Jimmy Boyd, Tracy Early, Robbie Floyd, Jack Gorman, Ray Gordon, Shirley Goss, Nancy Hill, Norman Inman, Jeanne Jones, Lynn L. Logan, Eloise McDow, Royce Moore, Barbara Nicoles, Joe Sentell, Janene Smith, Arthur Thurston, Tommy Smith, Dixie Thurston, Gerald Heinzelmann, Jimmy Polson, and Jesse Wells.

Two high school students, Dan and Kenneth Gibson, are taking lessons on the bugle from Mr. Palmer.—S. H. S. Tiger's Tale.

State Treasury Balance at High Mark This Week

State of Texas, Scurry County people are informed, had a net total cash balance of $128,310,621 in its 171 different accounts as of March 31.

So reports State Treasurer Jesse James. The state had gross cash of $134,470,274 but there were outstanding warrants of $6,159,653.

While the state's financial conditions look good and healthy, an Austin dispatch says cash reserves are yet to be put to the test.

The 50th Legislature is facing the greatest demands in history. Demands for public money far exceed the most extravagant estimate of income. Therefore, the legislature will be compelled to trim the requests or vote more taxes on the people.

March balances, for instance, credited $25,629,592. Scurry Counties are advised, to the state highway fund.

County and road district balance was $7,878,136, motor fuel tax $5,623,120 and road bond and coupon-paying account $6,227,480, to make road bond assumption obligation in splendid condition.

Permanent school fund carries cash of $7,229,273. It has invested a large part of its balance in short-term federal securities and is holding a sizable amount for the day it shall be called on to aid impoverished and small school districts.

Accumulated Confederate pension money has climbed to $2,993,702 with most of it unneeded and can not be transferred or spent without constitutional change.

Hogs, Steers and Milk Cows Bring Good Quotations

Livestock prices reached new altitudes here in first Monday trading that attracted traders from a considerable portion of the Snyder trade zone.

Extreme scarcity of hogs in the Snyder area was reflected in strong movement of pigs. Six and eight-week-old pigs sold readily at prices quoted from $10 to $12.50 per head.

Those fortunate enough to buy "bacon sprouts" at all expressed the opinion that weaning pigs would likely go higher than at present.

Hogs, in fact, have been sold so close prospective buyers were anxious to "track down" rumors of where weaning pigs could be purchased.

Yearlings moved out Monday at virtually prices asked by sellers.

Demand, in fact, for yearlings was much stronger Monday than could be supplied.

Milk cows with calves at side, moved strong at prices ranging from $110 to $125. Buyers did not even stutter when a milk cow with calf at side was quoted at $125.

Due to close selling of good milk cows several months ago very few head are being offered for sale in this trade zone. Buyers were anxious Monday to "spot" available cows even for sale in the future.

Good bundle feed, buyers found, is scarce and high.

Informal discussions reminded first Monday attendants planting seed are also becoming scarce.

Cottonseed, for instance, are going from $2.50 to $3 per bushel—where available—and will doubtless be higher 30 days from now.

Considerable interest was evidenced in reviewing first Monday trading in Snyder. Strong prices commanded by stock offered is causing traders to formulate plans for a "bigger and bigger" day here the first Monday in May.

County Veterans Converting G. I. Insurance Policy

Dick L. Trego, contact representative for the Veterans Administration, said here Tuesday that veterans in the Snyder area are responding to the advice of "holding on to GI insurance," as shown by the great number flocking to the VA Contact Station in the courthouse.

To veterans in this area who missed payments on their GI Insurance, Trego declares it is not too late to reinstate.

Under conditions made possible by a recent Act of Congress, a veteran who has allowed his insurance to lapse may reinstate it by paying only two monthly premiums; and signing a statement that his health is as good as it was at the time of lapse.

It is pointed out that some veterans have been confused over the matter of converting GI Insurance. Due to misinformation, a few veterans have been led to believe that "converting" means dropping government life insurance and buying a policy in a private company. This, of course, is not only a mistake but an injustice to the veteran.

By converting, the veteran retains his National Service Life Insurance and simply changes it from term insurance, the kind issued in the military service, to a permanent plan of National Life Insurance, Trego says.

The Veterans Administration has six types of permanent plan NSLI. They are: Ordinary life, 20-payment life, 30-payment life, 20-year endowment, endowment at age 60, and endowment at age 65.

GI Insurance is a special privilege available only to veterans of World War II. Some of the important provisions are: Low premium rates; lump sum settlement, no restriction on beneficiaries, income while totally disabled, premium waiver during total disability, dividends, guaranteed values and loan provisions.

Terminal leave bonds may be used to pay advance premiums. In this case the veteran can take advantage of the saving at the rate of three per cent per year which is allowed on premiums paid on other than a monthly basis.

Kathleen Norris Says:

It's the Children Who Suffer in Divorces

Bell Syndicate.—WNU Features.

Denise had hysterics, left the table, and refused to return even at Betty's coaxing.

By KATHLEEN NORRIS

UNHAPPY DAUGHTER

“THERE was always a deep devotion between my first husband and our daughter,” writes Marian Lent from Chicago. “When Armand and I were divorced, Denise felt it bitterly, although she was only 8. I immediately married again, and she disliked her stepfather, although he was always kind to her. Bruce had two daughters at that time, 13 and 17. The elder has since married, but the younger, Betsy, and my own daughter, are continually quarreling. The family has increased since by the arrival of another girl and now a baby boy, and we could be ideally happy but for Denise, whose wretched disposition, jealousy and resentment spoil everything. Betsy, now 18, is a charming girl, pretty, musical and full of fun. Denise is too tall, too heavy and at the clumsy, shy, difficult stage of adolescence. Betsy is like another mother to the younger children; Denise resents being asked to do the slightest thing for them.

“Armand, my first husband, has married again and has two boys. Denise wants very much to live with her father, but for several reasons that would not be practicable. His second wife is a flighty and hysterical woman who had had two previous unsuccessful marriage experiences before she married Armand, and if Denise cannot be happy here with me, the chances of her being happy there are certainly slim. If we could afford it we would send her to a boarding school, but beside the expense there is the consideration that we need her here to help out with the housework and baby care.

Denise Moody, Difficult.
“My husband has been all patience and kindness up to now, but now he is beginning to suffer from Denise's moods, as we all do. Last night he spoke to her sharply at the dinner table; it had been a cold, long dragging winter day for everyone, the house for some reason was chilly, dinner wasn't quite a success and all these things contributed to shorten tempers and cloud the atmosphere. Anyway, Denise had hysterics, left the table and refused to return even at Betsy's coaxing.

“I myself am a writer,” the letter concludes, “and I realize you know some of my books. But my imagination refuses to cope with a situation in which a mother and daughter are completely out of sympathy. This child is only 13; she cannot leave home, and apparently she cannot be happy in her home. I reason with her, I ask her to make it a matter of prayer, and she looks at me with a long, bored yawn and says patiently, ‘Oh, please, Mother.’ Will you pretend that this is one of your stories, and bring it to your usual happy ending?”

My dear Marian, I don't think this is a matter for imagination to solve; it is a question of supreme diplomacy on your part and character on that of Denise. Denise is suffering from jealousy; first of the man who took her loved father's place, second of the charming step-sisters and third of the babies who replaced her in your affections. All these feelings, infinitely ramified, are making life intolerable to her, and being 13, she can't see any way out for what seem to her ages and ages. Quite naturally you admire the pretty musical Betsy, quite naturally you and their

When parents are divorced, the children are divided in loyalty, bewildered, embarrassed. A sensitive girl, like Denise in today's story, suffers a great deal, particularly during the trying years of adolescence.

Denise is 13 and lives with her mother, who has remarried. The girl quarrels with her stepfather, Betty, who is 18. The younger children, a brother and sister, complicate things further. Denise does not want to help with the work or the baby-tending and is moody, resentful, jealous and unhappy.

Because her father is married again, this time to a “flighty, hysterical woman,” there is little likelihood that Denise would be any better off with him and her stepmother.

Denise is getting to be a serious problem. Her stepfather is beginning to lose patience with her. Miss Norris suggests a way out, however, that should be satisfactory to everybody.

Miss Norris advises that Denise be allowed to board at the home of some schoolmate. Here she would have companionship and would be free from the constant frictions that are now besetting her. She would have a chance to develop her own personality unfeathered.

father raved over the baby daughter and son; meanwhile poor Denise forgets things, breaks things, falls over things, blots things, burns things and of course feeds hate and resentment all the time.

Let Her Visit Father.

Possibly a visit to her father's home might help her see this situation in a saner light, but that is unlikely. She and her stepmother would not be friends, and domestic slavery for the two half-brothers there would repeat the miserable situation of your own nursery. If she became desperately unhappy under her father's roof, and felt that she could not return to yours, it is not improbable that she would take her own life, causing you a lifelong remorse, no matter how justified you feel now in the course you have followed.

So I suggest that you look over the list of her school associates and find one whose mother could take her in as a boarder for a while. This means that you would pick a humble home, with housework to do. But Denise would be on her own, and if I know anything of these shy awkward, ill-adjusted youngsters she would blossom forth in colors that would amaze you. With a constant companion of her own age, with no painful contrasts between her and an older girl, with no burning jealousies to poison everything she says and does, Denise will develop far more normally and happily than she can in your care.

The charge for this sort of young boarder is light; perhaps as low as $7 or $8 a week. It will be worth it to you to make this experiment; she and her housemate will do their homework together, chatter of school affairs, bake cookies, go to Saturday movies and live their own satisfied lives. I have known several cases where this plan worked a real miracle, and I heartily recommend it to you.

Teen-Age Marriage

More American girls are married between the ages of 15 and 19 than is the case in Canada, western Europe or Australia.

Twelve per cent of the young women in the United States are wed some time between their 15th and 19th birthdays, it was noted, while the figure is only 6 per cent for France and Canada; 4 per cent for Italy, Belgium, Portugal and Australia; and 2 per cent for England, Wales, Scotland, Sweden and the Netherlands.

Crime Continues to Increase, J. Edgar Hoover Reports

A major crime was committed in the United States on the average of once every 18.7 seconds in 1946, reports J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Principal crimes reached a total of 1,685,203 last year. Every 5.7 minutes during 1946, there was a murder, manslaughter, rape, or assault to kill. The 1,685,203 major crimes were not only the greatest number in 10 years but were also 119,662 more than in 1945, according to the survey just released. During the average day, 36 persons were slain, 33 raped and 185 others feloniously assaulted. Every day also brought 172 robberies, 981 burglaries, 630 automobile thefts and 2,580 miscellaneous larcenies. The only decline in major offenses between 1945 and 1946 was a 4.8 per cent decrease in automobile thefts; nevertheless, 26 cars were stolen every hour last year, the majority by youths of 20 and under.

TERMINAL GRAIN CO. FORT WORTH 40 Years in Texas

Her husband among more than 100 miners lost in an underground explosion at Wamac, Ill., Mrs. Stanley Tekus is consoled by solicitors friends after long vigil at mine shaft.

DISASTER: Pass Buck: Charges and counter-charges flew thick and fast in the wake of the disastrous mine explosion at Wamac, Ill., which claimed the lives of over 100 coal miners.

U. N.: Celebrate With Veto: Andrei A. Gromyko, Russian delegate to the United Nations security council, celebrated the first anniversary of the U. N. with a veto—the 10th the Reds have employed since the international organization came into being to block action against themselves or Soviet-sponsored puppets.

THREAT to America: More so perhaps than before, eternal vigilance is the price of freedom, FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover warned the nation in describing the Communist threat to the American form of government.

J. EDGAR HOOVER: Americans on their guard, he said the Reds were unceasing in their efforts to subvert labor unions; spread Communist doctrines in the schools, and prey upon foreign language groups.

BUILDING: Builders completed 59,300 new permanent dwellings in January, 1947—more than three times as many as were completed in January of last year...

MINERALS: The enormous drain on United States ore sources during the war period has left the country short of 22 of the 33 essential materials for waging war, experts warn.

According to U. S. air force records and other sources, Russia may well have more military planes than the United States. Air force officers estimate that Russia has about 16,000 army and navy planes.

TEXANS in WASHINGTON

This is one of a series of articles prepared for The Times on a cattle and sheep ranch. He owns a ranch there now. On the walls of his office here are pictures of sheep and cattle, in the drawers of his office desks are samples of raw shorn wool and glossy, scoured fibers, and in the House restaurant in the capitol he always looks first to see if lamb chops are on the menu.

He came from a pioneering West Texas family that originally went in for cattle raising exclusively, but soon overcame the cowman's prejudice and took also to producing sheep and goats.

"Our hill country is suited for it," Fisher observes. "You know we say the cattle eat the grass, the sheep eat the weeds, and the goats eat the brush."

With this background, it is little wonder that the San Angelo legislator is considered an authority on wool legislation. Colleges in the same class with him, hailing also from wool producing districts, include Representatives Barrett, and Wyoming Senators O'Mahoney and Robertson.

Called "D. C." by many friends in Texas and "Clark" by his colleagues here, Fisher got into the sheep and cattle business early. In high school he had had enough schooling and wanted to make it on his own. His father helped him set up with a few head of sheep and cattle.

He did all right, but in a couple of years or so concluded that he would face a great handicap in life if he didn't go back to school. So he did, graduating from Junction High in 1923.

During the two years he was out of school, he took advantage of every trip into Junction, the seat of Kimble County, to watch court proceedings. He got the idea then of being a lawyer, and after finishing high school he attended the University of Texas and Baylor University.

Equipped with a law degree and admitted to the Texas bar, he went to San Angelo in the summer of 1929 and started practice. The next year he ran for county attorney of Tom Green County and was elected. After four years in that post, he ran for the state legislature and served one term in the Texas house. Then, in 1936, he was elected district attorney for the five-county San Angelo district. He stayed on that job until he took his seat in Congress, January 3, 1943.

Here he has established himself as one of the so-called conservative members of the house. A member of the House Education and Labor Committee, he is an outspoken foe of the FEPC and believes the Wagner Labor Act should be amended to strip some of the power from union leaders.

"Of course I'm interested in labor legislation as well as agricultural problems," he says.

"We've found that when John L. Lewis pulls a coal strike it affects us right out in the sheep and goat raising country."

He has aired his views several times in debates with other congressmen on radio forums broadcast from coast to coast.

Cemetery Working at Lone Wolf April 24

Standing five feet 11 and weighing 168 pounds, the brown-eyed good-natured congressman refuses to get agitated, even in such troublesome situations as this one he precipitated for himself:

He failed to put anti-freeze in the radiator of his car when he returned here for the opening of Congress in January. A few days later a hard freeze came. Waco's Congressman Bob Poage, who lives a few units away in the same apartment development, came to his rescue. They thawed the car out. Filling stations were out of anti-freeze—but Poage saved the day with a reserve supply he had on hand.

A latent talent of the San Angelo legislator is in the field of writing. Inspired by the frontier tales he heard as a youth, including an incident in which his great-grandfather was scalped by Comanche Indians in Kimble County in 1871, he wrote a book, published in 1937, entitled "It Occurred in Kimble." When he gets some spare time, he plans to act on the publisher's suggestion that he bring it up to date for another printing.

In 1927 Fisher married the former Marian DeWash of San Benito, whom he had met at the University of Texas. They have an 18-year-old daughter, Rhoda, who is now attending Stephens College in Columbia, Missouri.

Jake W. Greene of Snyder, who is vocational agriculture instructor at Hermeleigh School, has been elected to membership in the American Aberdeen-Angus Breeders Association at Chicago, Illinois.

So reports Frank Richards, secretary of the association. Mr. Greene was one of the 11 pure-bred Aberdeen-Angus breeders from Texas recently elected to membership in the stockmen's organization.

Caps and Gowns for Seniors Are Ordered

How tall are you? How much do you weigh? How big is your head? These are the questions which were asked at activity period Monday, March 31, at the senior class meeting.

So as not to keep you in suspicion any longer, they were measuring for caps and gowns.

We also found that we have some of the strangest names in school. We checked on this while taking names for diplomas. Most of the students have decided to have covers on their diplomas.—S. H. S. Tiger's Tale.

We should not deny an eager little blossom its share of sunlight or permit careless words to put upon young impressionable minds dark blots that years may never efface. Let us think of children as flowers, that we may nurture them more carefully.

Just a Drop IN THE BUCKET

That's the way Jim always referred to the cost of his Southwestern Life Insurance. "From my pay check," says Jim, "I set aside ten per cent every month. It was just a drop in the bucket. I never missed it—less than a dollar a day—less than I'd spend on something I didn't need. But it created something real for me!"

Jim is retired now. He quit work at 65. And now he's "living the life of Riley," playing a bit of golf now and then, hunting, fishing—doing the things he always wanted to do, and never found enough time to do before. His Southwestern Life policy made that possible.

You can get the same kind of insurance through Southwestern Life, and you can start your program today. It will take care of your family, should you suddenly be taken out of life's picture—and it will take care of you when you are ready to quit work. You can retire at 55, 60, 65, or at any age of your choice. Now, while you are earning, is the time to start your program. You'll never miss the funds you set aside out of the surplus income for this protection. Some day, they'll seem like "a drop in the bucket." Without obligation, ask for a descriptive outline covering your needs.

Easy is the Meal

when prepared and cooked in a kitchen like this!

It's a Gas Kitchen with Wonderful Automatic Range

This "Mixing Corner Kitchen"—with all the "tools" for baking in one central spot is designed to save reaching and walking. But even more important, this latest "New Freedom Gas Kitchen" makes short work of cooking the most elaborate meal. It is designed around an automatic gas range built to "CP" Standards. And "CP" means the range embodies every cooking advancement and meets the high specifications created by home economists, cooking experts and 1,200 gas utilities working with leading manufacturers. So before you buy any "make" range be sure it carries the "CP" Seal.

NOTHING SERIOUS MAKES A DIFFERENCE

The news reel in a neighborhood theater showed the havoc wrought by a tornado in the southern states. A young woman said sympathetically, "Oh, isn't that dreadful!" "Don't be silly," replied her companion, "this is only a movie."

Unconvicted
A man from the city in trouble with the local authorities in a small country town asked one of the residents if the town had a criminal lawyer.
"We think we have," was the reply, "but we haven't been able to prove it on him yet."

Man's Best Friend
Question—What is a hot dog?
Answer—A hot dog is the noblest of all dogs, because it feeds the hand that bites it.

Unmounted
Critic—That's an impressive statue, but isn't that an odd posture for a colonel to assume?
Sculptor—That isn't my fault. I had the sculpture half way completed when the committee decided it couldn't afford a horse for him.

Testimonial
Auto salesman (after making sale)—What was the one dominant thing that made you buy this car?
Purchaser—My wife.

Just Words
"Yassuh, Judge, I wanna divorce—Lucy she never stop talkin', she keep it up stiddy, mo'nin', noon and night—day in, day out, till it git so—I jess can't stan' it no mo', Judge."
His earnestness impressed the court. "She does? What does she talk about?"
"Judge, suh, she don't say."

One Consolation
Teacher—If I took away nine of your fingers, what would you have?
Johnny—No more music lessons.

Silperry
Teacher—Why are you using those crutches?
Boy—I had skin trouble and got a broken leg.
Teacher—How can skin trouble give you a broken leg?
Boy—It was a banana skin.

AROUND THE HOUSE

If your aluminum pans are discolored, try this easy method to bring the luster back to them. Boil a cream of tartar solution in the discolored pan. Use one teaspoon of cream of tartar to each quart of water for best results. This simple method keeps your pans gleaming.

Plastic covered coat hooks in color fixed on that empty wall space make a fine support for showing off your pretty trays.

You know what a soiled clothesline will do to hours of careful laundry work. The best way to prevent this is to see the line is strictly clean. Before hanging up the wash to dry, take the line down, wrap it firmly around the wash board, and scrub it thoroughly with hot water and soap.

Knives and other kitchen gadgets with painted handles should not be allowed to stand in water. The wood under the enamel will absorb water and cause the paint to chip off.

To get ready for spring house-cleaning and to obtain more storage space, it is a good idea to start now to weed out kitchen utensils and other odds and ends which are no longer useful.

To prevent rust marks on bathroom or kitchen fixtures where scouring powder can rest, dip the bottom of the can in hot paraffin.

Monks Make Up Fifth Of Population of Tibet

There are so many monks in Tibet principally because it is so hard to make a living and raise a family there. Monks make up one-fifth of the population of Tibet. Every year thousands of young men enter monasteries instead of marrying, for it often takes as many as six husbands to make enough money to support one wife, and most women have at least three husbands at one time.

A wife may dismiss a husband whenever she feels like it, and this brands him as a social outcast.

Watch Your Kidneys!
Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste
Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—and not act as Nature intended—to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.
Symptoms may be nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, loss of appetite, nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are excessive burning, scanty or too frequent urination.
There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have been winning top prizes for more than 45 years. They have a nation-wide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people in the country over. Ask your neighbor!

LAST LOVER
BY Helen Topping Miller

Jill McFarlane, whose father, Richard, disappeared in World War I, is in love with Lieut. Spang Gordon. Her brother, Richard, is involved with Sandra Calvert, a divorcee. Jill is thrown from a horse and during her absence...

CHAPTER XVII
'I haven't even dared let myself think since Ric's letter came. And there's another danger, Dave. This woman knows Richard. She knew him in Hawaii. He telephoned last night. He told me that he had tried to prevent this marriage by having Ric sent away, but that they were too quick for him...'
'No, Ric doesn't know, Richard didn't tell him. And Jill doesn't know.'
'They'll have to know, Dooley. Surely you can see now that your only protection is the truth?'
'Dave, I can't tell them! I can't make myself do it.'
'Don't Richard is alive! I have a living personality to deal with, not a shadow, not a memory. I think you're taking an awful chance, Dooley, risking a shock to Jill much worse than the truth would be. I think you're dead wrong.'

'Maybe I am,' she sighed. 'Maybe I'm a quixotic and sentimental fool. It's like some great, dark, sinister structure, Dave. It's a secret tower, full of hidden passages and gullies and trees and towers and chambers and moaning dungeons. I've built it, all these years, and somehow I knew all the time I was building it that all the foundation I was putting under it was false, and that some day it would crumble. I don't know how I knew—it was just a feeling in my heart. Something that never let me rest, never let me be content. And I know now that the whole false mass of it ought to come down, and yet I dread the crashing and the dust and the confusion, I dread pulling out the first stone!'

'Somebody else may pull out that first stone, Dooley, and bring the whole thing down on your head.'
'I know that, too. It doesn't matter what happens to me, Dave. That doesn't matter at all. But I do want to protect Jill.'
'Dave started carefully through the thin traffic on the edge of the town.
'To my mind, the best protection Jill can have is the truth. But I'm not going to argue with you. It's your own problem, you've had the misery of it all these years, you've got the anxiety by it, even though you may be able to count on Richard to keep his identity concealed. It's to his own interest, of course. It would be definitely awkward for him if the War Department got wind of it. There are always a few blackbirds in every army, but if they're found out it doesn't go well with them.'

'What is a blackbird?'
'A man who gets discharged from a military unit for some reason, or who deserts or leaves his command without complying with regulations and then enlists somewhere else under an assumed name. That's the spot Richard is in, right now, and he's probably more acutely aware of it, than even you are. I doubt if he'll start anything. He was taking a risk, even to let you know that he was alive. But if this woman knows anything about it, that's another angle and a bad one.'

'She saw Richard's picture in Jill's room and identified it instantly as a picture of Roger Mackey. I could see her mind working. She'd say to herself, "I've never met before, Dave. I don't know exactly how to deal with her."
'Why on earth did Ric send her to you, anyway?'
'Because he didn't know what else to do with her. He was shipped out suddenly—Richard did that—and I suppose she had no money. There's nothing at all to do, Dave, but wait. And now Jill is threatening to go to Washington and get a job there if Sandra stays at Buzzard's Hill.'

Failed in Her Duty to Ric
'Jill won't do that. She won't desert you, she's loyal to you.'
'Here's the issue. I suppose we should go in.' Julia's voice was weary. 'Go in and look at imitation tragedy and forget our own. The sickening thing for me, Dave, is the realization that I must be a very weak person. No strong woman could have muddled up one lie as I have muddled mine.'

'What did you have to do with it?' Dave demanded, a little angrily. 'Did you create any of these circumstances, by any act of your own? You've taken what came with courage and made the best of it. I won't have you blaming yourself.'
'But I must be to blame for Ric. At mother has to be to blame, Dave. Your child is given to you—clean, plastic clay, nothing carved upon the surface at all, all new and untried, to make of it what you will. I haven't even a father's influence for an alibi with Ric. I failed somehow to put strength into his spirit, to make him wise enough to judge values, to give him the courage to reject everything that wasn't good and fine. It isn't pleasant to know that you've failed with your only son.'

Richard returns, telling her mother, Julia, that he is now Captain Mackey. He sees Ric at camp and later threatens Sandra, but the two marry anyway. Richard has Ric transferred and Sandra arrives at the farm to live. Jill had abruptly stiffened to this horrible, watchful formality.
'Why had Sandra come to Buzzard's Hill? She must have hated coming, being pushed off in a state of dependence, among strangers, yet she had come. And undoubtedly, Jill decided, Sandra was a resourceful creature. As Spang had said, she knew all the answers. She could have got along, somehow.'
'Did she believe that when the war was over, Buzzard's Hill would belong to Ric, and that the others would be brushed off casually, that she would step into the comfort and security that Dooley had worked so hard for years to win for them all?
'I'd kill her first!' Jill thought angrily. 'I'd strangle her with my bare hands!'
She kicked off the beige pajamas, and got into the tub and lay there, soaking in the comforting hot water, letting her mind drift off blankly. The radio was playing in Ric's room, some jive thing. Sandra had come up as soon as Dave went away, bored with Jill and drowsy old John I., giving them only the curt of good nights.

How It Started—
THE GHOST WALKS, a theatrical expression for pay day which has been widely adopted, is said to have originated during Shakespeare's early career as a dramatist. He worked in stock company productions of his own plays, directing, acting in small parts, and serving as financial manager. Among these small parts was the ghost in "Hamlet." On Saturday night, while still in the costume of the ghost, he would pay his fellow actors.

Snyder Unbeatable Host

Snyder and the local fire department, backed by citizens and business men of the town, turned in a grand job last Thursday afternoon as host to the semi-annual Midwest Firemen's Association.

Last Thursday's gathering attracted representatives from 20 towns and cities. Attendance was the greatest recorded at the 12-county convention, and Snyder was given full credit for proving an ideal convention city.

Chief N. W. Autry and every member of Snyder Volunteer Fire Department deserve a special vote of thanks for proving such congenial hosts for such an outstanding convalesce.

Acreege Struggle to End

From the more reliable sources of mystic Washington, indications are becoming clearer each day that 1947 will doubtless be the last year without acreage controls. Production must be doubly stressed on the farm this year, for straws in the wind pretend some radical changes in 1948 crop policies.

Before the years of open experimentation we lived remarkably well without, for example, crop insurance which will cause Uncle Sam to lose $42,000,000 this year. We have edged nearer than many think to Socialism with this idea of first plowing under; then paying people for what they don't raise. We are getting nearer and nearer the turn of the corner with limitations on crop acreages so farmers in this area had better make the best of their "sky is the limit" opportunity this year.

Industry to Save Fats

Such progress is being made in perfecting new baking equipment that manufacturers of shortening and cooking compounds may be confronted with a headache brought about in the onward march of chemical ingenuity.

Time-honored method of greasing the baking pan before dough is put in will doubtless go out the window soon. Several leading bakeries of the country are experimenting with a new glass-like material called Pan Glaze that will serve for as many as 100 bakings. Pan Glaze replaces grease on sides of the baking pan and can save commercial bakers from $250 to $500 per year in expense for shortening. Next thing we know someone may pop up with a bright idea of cooking wheat on the stalk and eliminating the need for flour mills!

There's a Leaky Bung

There's a leaky bung somewhere, for it remained last week—during Snyder's most exciting week since 1937—for several to evidence the fact alcoholic beverages are still obtainable at a price.

No town or city in Texas, it is being proven, can be absolutely dry—local option or no—but people who would participate in guzzling should head out for the open range or at least 20 or 30 miles from civilization.

Those among the desperate and those who missed a leaky bung seemed so intent on recent nights in getting something "in their craw" some resorted to mixtures of hair tonic, bay rum, vanilla flavoring and a little liquor to set the supposed delights of "forgetfulness" in fantastic motion. Evidently somebody has perfected a way of "iron plating" or "spray gunning" the human stomach with a protective coating science has failed to learn of—yet.

Editorial of the Week

HIGH PRICES AND LOW PRICES
"High prices" and "low prices" are loosely used terms. To compare, for instance, the price structure of 1935, then the national debt was small and then wages and the national income were relatively low, with the price structure of 1947, a $280,000,000,000 debt, record wages, and an enormous national income, just doesn't make sense. Prices are sensitive to all the economic influences of the time.

The sensible thing to talk about is "fair price." That, to define it briefly, is the lowest price at which any given commodity may be sold in the light of today's wages, debt, taxes, rents, material costs and everything else. And that kind of price is rapidly being established in all fields.—The Rotan Advance.

Great minds had rather deserve contemporaneous applause without obtaining it than obtain without deserving it.—Colton.

He who shall introduce into public affairs the principles of primitive Christianity will change the face of the world.—Benjamin Franklin.

ful allies is the cause of Christian civilization.—King
All that is best in the civilization to today is the fruit of Christ's appearance among men.—Daniel Webster.

By LEON GUINN

Add-to of the week for Republican nightmares: Key members of the GOP who are on committees are finding it much harder to abolish aid grants to states for school lunches than at first seemed probable. . . . So much static is being caused over his one item alone that many Republicans wish the matter had not ever been brought up. . . . Not only is the government taking thousands of tons of food, under the school lunch room program, that would otherwise waste but the program is bringing body-building, nourishing and wholesome meals to hundreds of thousands of school children over the nation.

If you think American engineers are sitting down on the job while state government wrestles over what will eventually be done on our top-heavy farm-to-market road program consider the fact that even though heavy-duty highways aren't ready engineers already have designs for 300 horsepower trucks to make 850-mile runs at speeds of 70 miles per hour. . . . When we start talking about super highways, we mean roads capable of accommodating traffic loads from 40 to 50 tons and when we get a super-roadway project underway it will call for vastly stronger building materials than we now have on hand.

According to a careful check made this week, it is now certain that business and industry must now depend upon retail sales volume to supply replacement orders for the weeks and months ahead. . . . This will be especially true if the present high level of production is to be maintained; and consumers will have to spend a larger proportion of current income and save less. . . . It has already become a proven fact inventory buying can no longer sustain the post-war boom—as it has done up to mid-February. . . . Rate or inventory accumulation, for many good reasons, is falling off sharply.

Terrific power of the atomic bomb can be realized in a measure, when one considers that many of the Bikini target ships—nine months after the famed test show definite radioactive signs. . . . The matter has been hush-hushed as much as possible, but two battleships, two cruisers and an aircraft carrier soon will be towed, it was learned this week, from Kwajalein to Pearl Harbor, San Francisco and Seattle to join the other "hot" ships. . . . These ships, it is significant to note, are being towed because to much radioactivity is present to permit crews aboard.

There is little doubt but that Harry S. Truman will be "away in front" as the nation's presidential candidate in 1948, and for this reason the Republicans are girding their loins for a bitter, expensive campaign ahead. . . . Now, both parties are getting around to vice presidential possibilities. . . . It's a little early in the realm of politics to make rash predictions but indications among Congressional Democrats are that Senator Tydings of Maryland, Navy Secretary Forrestal and Senator Lusas of Illinois are being considered as vice presidential timber.

At long last, and after many civilians had despaired of anything concrete being done, the long, weary task of coordinating the U. S. and British zones in Germany is beginning to show good effects. . . . Coordination of the two areas inside Germany is also resulting in more efficient utilization of railway cars, thereby easing a lot of pressure in both areas. . . . A sharp increase, for instance, is being noted in postal and telegraphic services between the two zones. . . . We have a long way to travel, yet, in making Germany even a safe risk for Democracy; but now that we've dug in we seem to have a wild animal by the tail we cannot turn loose from.

Unfortunately national income is still running high and so many millions above expectations, it is upsetting President Truman's fiscal calculations and affecting even Republican plans in Congress. . . . Unless something drastically wrong happens, it looks like our national income this year will be a record-breaking $175,000,000,000—if business and industry can maintain their present tempos. . . . Federal tax collections, in a case like this, will jump at least $5,000,000,000 and it would make possible a nice little surplus in the U. S. Treasury. . . . However, a great uncertainty about price behavior is hanging over a bright picture like this.

One can rest assured a proposed stop-gap loan of $100,000,000 to Greece by the RFC will be opposed by congressional leaders. . . . The whip horses of Congress feel such a loan would postpone action on the president's $400,000,000 loan program and play smack into the hands of opposition. . . . Economy, for instance, is the most telling argument against the legislation. . . . If we could alleviate suffering in Greece by a mere handout there would be no need for four or five times the amount being planned to keep Greece out of the Communist camp.
