

Bond Election Set In County Dec. 18

Date for the county-wide election to determine if road bonds in the amount of $165,000 shall be issued by Scurry County, has been set by the Commissioners Court for Saturday, December 18. The formal election order was submitted by the court first of the week.

Order for the election came as a unanimous action by the Commissioners Court following the submission by M. H. Roe and 64 other signers asking that such election be called. The petition was prepared following a discussion of the county's road problems in the district court room on the evening of November 5, at which time it was pointed out the county has no funds with which to purchase right-of-way for projected farm-to-market and other highway projects.

The designated Highway 350 route from Snyder to Ira is now awaiting the securing of deeds and easements for right of way, for which no money is available. The order calls for the issuance of bonds in amount of $125,000, to bear interest at a rate of not exceeding four per cent per year and maturing serially over a period of years not exceeding 30 years from the date issued. Stipulations in that the bonds may be paid off at any time after 10 years on interest payment dates.

No tax rate to retire the bonds is set in the election order, since it is planned that only bonds sufficient enough to meet demands at the time road projects come up will be issued by the Commissioners Court.

Balotting will be conducted at the usual 23 county voting boxes, it is stipulated in the election order. Some change in voting places has been made by the order since the removal of several school houses formerly used for voting purposes. It is pointed out by county officials that the election must carry by a two-thirds majority of property taxpaying voters of the county.

After passing through several oil strata that can be developed for good production, Standard Oil Company of Texas No. 1 Jesse Brown, nine miles north of Snyder, first of the week was running casing in preparation of completing the discovery at 6,414 feet.

Production tests are scheduled in the Brown well today (Thursday). Plugs have been drilled from seven-inch casing cemented at 6,333 feet with 600 sacks. A Gammaray survey was made Wednesday. Tests will be in open hole to 6,414 feet.

Surface working pressure was 270 pounds. Gas-ol ratio ranged between 544 and 644 to one.

Presbyterian Church

The Church with a Message for Today

Rev. Wm. A. Caseddy, Minister

Bro. Caseddy says: People are wondering if the indifference to spiritual things of our times is causing so much chaos in the world. Yes, is the answer. Everyone needs the Church. The Church is God's Highway to Heaven, the stepping stone to the higher realm. Are you on the high level? If not, which step are you on?

There are seven steps to spiritual declension. Neglect of private prayer, disregard of the Bible, forsaking the means of grace, worldly-indulgence in secret sin, falling into open sin. The Presbyterian Church wishes to be of service to you, the public. Come, let us worship together. "And a highway shall be there, and it shall be called the highway of holiness" (Isaiah 35:8).

County's Cottonseed Grades 102.5 without Penalties in Price

Movement of cottonseed to crushing mills increased in Oklahoma but decreased in Texas, according to the certificates received by the cotton branch of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, it is reported this week in a weekly release to The Times. Light rains and cold weather in West Texas and Oklahoma retarded harvesting to some extent during the week.

Cottonseed prices in Texas for wagon lot seed f. o. b. gins increased during the week. Average price for the state was $74.90 per ton compared with $73.50 per ton last week. Reported prices ranged from $65 in District 5 (Northeast Texas) to $85 in Districts 1 and 2 (South Plains area). Most of the seed was purchased on base grade 100 with some on "as is" basis. Oil mill prices from $70 to $83 per ton.

Cottonseed grades in Texas averaged 102.5, which is unchanged from last week. In Oklahoma the state average was 101.5, which is slightly less than the 102 average last week. Some quality discounts were noted for excess foreign matter

BIG POSSIBILITIES SEEN IN CROP WASTES AND NEW USES, YIELDS

Great commercial possibilities are possible for Texas as a whole and West Texas in particular, using bi-products from crops and their wastes and new developments from weeds and other available raw materials, it was pointed out to nearly 100 members of the Snyder Rotary and Lions Clubs when they met in joint session Tuesday noon at the Manhattan dining room. Robert L. Stone of the industrial development division of Texas Electric Service Company, was the speaker.

Stone showed with charts and appropriate statements that Texas is far behind the rest of the nation in production possibilities even with farm products already being produced, and in industrial development. He emphasized that in many instances raw products are sent from this section to northern and eastern centers for processing into manufactured goods that are sold back to us, whereas they could be produced in the section where they are produced much cheaper.

Texas ranks fourth in the total amount of agricultural products by states, yet stands thirtieth in the per farm average production, and thirty-second in the average value of crops sold, Stone declared. Going into figures on various products of the farm, he said:

Texas ranks first in the number of milk cows, yet is thirty-eighth in per cow production; stands second in the number of chickens, yet is twenty-third in egg production per hen; first in cotton production by states, yet is seventeenth in the per acre yield among states; first in grain sorghum production, but only eighteenth in per acre production; third in the production of corn, yet forty-fourth in per acre yields; fourth in wheat production, but twenty-sixth in per acre yields.

Texas needs to increase its yields for increased profits, the TESCO man declared, urging that more emphasis and interest be shown in the work of county agents, soil conservation districts and other organizations that are working to increase production and returns from acreage and livestock units.

Turning to new crop possibilities, Stone showed bi-products of safflower, sesame and castor beans as offering opportunities for this section of Texas.

Among commercial possibilities he showed bi-products of milkweeds and other apparent pests that have proven commercially profitable. The pod filler of milkweeds, he declared, is proving exceptionally good, since it is lighter than down, warmer than wool and water-repellent. It was used during the war as substitute for kapok. Other products made from the milkweed include pressed-wood and useful oils.

Other bi-products being developed today, Stone said, include a variety of chemical and fibrous products from grain sorghums; acetates and cellulose from cotton, including plastic ingredients; spun materials from peanuts; chemicals and fibrous products from corn cobs; and spun synthetics from chicken feathers.

Foundation necessary for most of the products and by-products, Stone emphasized, is good soil. By charts he showed that from 300 to 1,000 years is required to build an inch of soil by nature, yet one rain can destroy valuable soils on many of Texas' farms.

Stone also appeared at Scurry County schools in demonstrations to students and teachers.

FARM FACTS WORTH KNOWING

Q—Do sows need exercise during the gestation period?
A—Yes. Lack of exercise frequently leads to disappointing results at farrowing time. The general belief is that exercise has marked effect on the general thrift and health of pregnant sows, the ease of pigging, and promptness of recovery after farrowing. See that breeding stock gets regular exercise.

Q—How many lambs may be expected in a flock of 100 ewes?
A—The 10-year average lamb crop for the United States is 85 per cent. The 1946 lamb crop has equalled the record of 89.5 lambs for each 100 ewes one year old and over, established in 1941. Many flocks will have more than 100 per cent lamb crop, because twinning is common in sheep.

How can I get rid of roundworms in my laying hens?
A—There are a number of good preparations on the market for worming hens. Most of them call for the individual capsuling of the birds. Many poultrymen prefer the simpler method of mixing a worm powder with the mash for a week. This method is practiced at the research farm of a famous feed concern where it has been 93 per cent effective.

Send your questions about livestock or poultry problems to Farm Facts, 835 South Eighth Street, St. Louis 2, Missouri. Questions will be answered without charge, either by mail or in this column, as a service of The Scurry County Times.

Appearances Against Her.
A slightly inebriated passenger wandered down the train aisle and lurched into a seat beside a quiet, elderly lady who was poring over a map of China. His glance rested casually on the map—then his face moved closer and closer until his reddened nose all but rested on the Shantung Peninsula. Suddenly he glanced up again.
"Lady, are you sure you've got the right train?"

FREE MOVIES AND LUNCH TO BE FEATURES OF JOHN DEERE DAY

Billie Burke and Don Wilson, popular movie and radio stars, head the all-Hollywood cast in "The Sugar Plum Tree," feature picture to be shown at the new Bryant-Link Company farm equipment store next Tuesday afternoon, November 23, at 1:00 o'clock. The movie headlines the free John Deere Day entertainment and educational program for farmers and their families which is being sponsored by the new store, according to Billy Bryant, manager.

An all-day open house will highlight the day's celebration when new farm equipment will be demonstrated on the floor of the store. An all-electric kitchen will appeal to the housewives, says Bryant. Free lunch will be served to attendants.

"The Sugar Plum Tree" is a rollicking comedy about two young people who have never been on a farm, and what they do when they receive one as a gift. You'll get a kick out of sober, bookish C. St. John Smith, on the farm, as played by Kirby Grant. Pretty Linda Johnson plays Matilda Thorne, the other "greenhorn" on the farm. Lee "Lasses" White will give you many a chuckle as the eccentric hired man.

In addition to "The Sugar Plum Tree" several other new, all-talking pictures will be shown. They include "A New Day Dawns for Cotton Growers," an educational picture on mechanical harvesting of cotton; "Guardians of the Harvest," a full-color film of combines in action in various crops throughout the country; "Greener Pastures," an educational picture on pasture care and renovation; "Early Does It," a snappy picture with tips on timely care of farm machinery; "Big Operations in the Wheat Country," a round-the-season picture in modern equipment and practices in the big grain growing sections; and "Gateway to Bigger Feeding Profits," a movie every feeder and dairyman will want to see. Admission to the picture, starting at 1:00 p. m. Tuesday, will be free to farmers and their families, says Bryant.

Pointers on Ironing Offered by Agent

Ironing day comes around once or twice a week in most homes, and there are a few suggestions that might make the job a little easier for the housewife.

Mary Louise Piehl, Scurry County home demonstration agent, says the job of ironing can start when the clothes are hung out on the line. If the clothes are shaken well and hung neatly on the line, there will be fewer wrinkles in them to iron out later.

Some of the clothes, of course, do not have to be ironed at all, so they can be folded out in the clothes yard. In this "no iron" list are the sheets, bath towels, diapers, knitted underwear, cup towels and so on. Seersucker and some of the materials that do not need ironing are good for work dresses and play clothes.

You cannot expect to do your best ironing with an iron that is too hot, a rickety board and an ironing board cover and pad that do not fit right, reminds Miss Piehl. The best board to use is one adjustable to the height most comfortable for you. It is the standing up to iron that makes it such a tough job. It is possible to sit down and iron, and much easier on you, too. Sleeve boards, pressing cloths and a gadget for holding the cord back out of the way are handy things that will save time and help turn out a better job. Also a drying rack near the ironing board will be convenient for the things you have finished.

TED SCOWN (above) leads a merry touchdown parade as Sul Ross State College of Alpine heads into the stretch of an undefeated, untied season. Scown, a speedy back, has piled up 96 points in eight games. He made one touchdown run of 97 yards. The team has piled up 285 points in its eight straight victories.

Making It Interesting.

Two tramps were stretched out on the green grass. Above them was the warm sun, beside them was a babbling brook, and all around them was quiet, restfulness and peace.

"Boy," mused the first tramp contentedly, "right now I wouldn't change places with a guy who had a million bucks!"

"How about five million?" asked his companion.

"Not even for five million." "Well," persisted his pal, "how about ten million bucks?"

The first tramp sat up. "That's different," he admitted. "Now you are talking real dough!"

Cotton on the Way Up.

To those who erroneously suggest that cotton is on the way out, we have only to go to the record that says cotton is on the way up.—Dr. Henry G. Bennett, president of the Oklahoma Cotton Co-operative Association.

A little organization in the process will help, too. Keep together all the pieces that are alike, and stack them in the order you will be ironing them. Put the linens at the bottom, cottons next and the rayons on top.

And here is something the housewives might have been wondering about: Is it the weight of the iron or heat of the iron, says Miss Piehl, so do not wear yourself out by pressing down as you iron the clothes.

DOCTORS DISAGREE ABOUT ARTHRITIS!

Some claim it is incurable—yet sufferers who have tried REUMA-RUB tell us that this new liquid analgesic gives them wonderful relief from pain and discomfort. REUMA-RUB is a pleasant-to-use Alcoholic Rub that penetrates and stimulates sore aching muscles and swollen joint areas and gives welcome relief. And Remember: You must find that REUMA-RUB gives more relief from pain of Arthritis, Lumbago and Rheumatism than any external remedy ever used—or your money refunded. Athletes Know the Benefits of Heat Lamps. Take a tip from athletes and their coaches and trainers—they all know that one of the best ways to get quick relief from muscular aches and pains is by applying the relaxing, soothing heat of an electric heat lamp. Some and stiff muscles, strained ligaments or more severe sprains all react to the penetrating heat of heat lamps. Electric heat lamps have many other uses around the home, too. For example, they dry fingernail polish, paint and lacquers rapidly. And best of all, they fit in any standard lamp socket. No special stands or holders are needed, unless you prefer them. Appliance stores, department stores and furniture stores have electric heat lamps available now. TEXAS ELECTRIC SERVICE COMPANY J. B. BLAKEY, Manager

VETERAN'S QUESTIONS

The questions and answers below about veteran problems are carried as a service to former service connected personnel by The Times. Material for the column is supplied by the area office of the Veterans Administration at Lubbock.

Q—I am a World War II veteran and would like to know how to get a concession to operate a stand at one of the VA hospitals.

A—Under Public Law 636, Veterans Administration operates canteens with fountain service and a stock of cigarettes, shaving cream, razors and similar items. Therefore, VA no longer lets out concessions.

Q—Can my national service life insurance include coverage for total disability?

A—Yes. For a small additional premium there may be added to any NSLI policy a total disability rider which provides monthly payments to the insured while he is totally disabled longer than six consecutive months. Such payment begins with the seventh month of such total disability.

Q—May I assign my national service life insurance to a lender who will lend me money to go into business?

A—No. National service life insurance may not be assigned as payment of an obligation.

Q—I converted my NSLI about a year ago but have since let it lapse. Can my permanent plan insurance be reinstated by the payment of two monthly premiums?

A—No. Only term insurance may be reinstated by the payment of two monthly premiums. In reinstating converted insurance on a permanent plan all premiums in arrears must be paid with interest.

Home Is Theme for Fluvanna P-TA Meet

Cerebral Palsied Of Area May Get Tests at Lubbock

Snyder area children are welcome to participate in Lubbock's Cerebral Palsy Treatment Center clinic that will be held Monday, November 22, for the examination of cerebral palsied children, a release to The Times this week states. The center is sponsored by the Lubbock Crippled Children's Society and the Rotary Club. Services of the center are available to any children of this section in need of such care.

Cerebral palsy is also referred to as spastic paralysis and occasionally as birth injury, and research has shown that treatment is most effective when started within the first few months of the child's life although children respond to treatment begun at a much later age, the release declares.

Physicians from Fort Worth and Amarillo specializing in the treatment of cerebral palsy will be present at the center Monday, November 22, to examine children and order treatment. Physical therapy care is available daily under the direction of Miss Esther Snell, a registered physical therapy technician.

The treatment center is located at 1317 Tenth Street, Lubbock. Parents who wish to take their children to the clinic are requested to go to the treatment center at some time before the clinic date so that a case history may be obtained and an appointment made for clinic examination. Further information may be obtained by contacting Miss Snell at the center or calling Lubbock 6541.

Snyder Cubs Defeat Hobbs Juniors 27 to 0

Snyder Junior High School's Cubs Monday night trounced the juniors from Hobbs High School at Tiser stadium by a 27 to 0 count, when practically every Snyder player of the junior squad had opportunity to see service.

Coach Tommy Beene's junior grid crew looked the best they have this year as they ridged the Hobbs line and went around end almost at will.

The Cubs scored four touchdowns and three extra points. In fact, the fourth extra point was made twice, but called back twice because of offside, and the third attempt after penalty failed.

There are five athletic events in a pentathlon.

Doesn't Take Prophet.
No one can predict what will happen in the next 12 months, but it does not take a prophet to predict what those who grow cotton in a balanced farming program with livestock will be far better off than those who do not.—Walter B. Moore in Southern Agriculturist.

Alertness and Imagination.
Cotton can continue to make its fullest contribution only through alert and imaginative action on the part of those who grow it, spin it, weave it, finish it and sell it.—From advertisement of Turner, Halsey & Company, New York.

Lower Costs Help Textiles.
One of the greatest things which could help cotton textiles is for cotton producers to produce cotton cheaper through mechanization, and having relatively the same profit.—F. M. Lyon, Micoles Mills of Opp, Alabama.

Cotton Price for Week Stronger as Forecast Raised

Spot cotton prices were a little stronger this week, according to the Department of Agriculture's weekly release to The Times. Trading was rather slow and the volume of reported sales was only half as large as in the corresponding week a year earlier.

The November crop forecast of 15,166,000 bales was slightly higher than the October forecast. Cotton ginned through October 31, 1948, totaled 10,433,000 bales against the 8,369,000 bales to the same date last year. Cotton is averaging lower in grade and considerably longer in staple length compared with a year earlier. Picking and ginning made fair to good progress this week in most sections of the belt.

Cotton prices were steady or a little higher this week. Prices for middling 15-16 inch cotton in the 10 spot markets averaged 31.27 cents per pound on Wednesday, November 1. On Thursday of last week the 10-market average was 31.19 and a year ago 32.98 cents. Spot market prices which turned upward early this month continued to gain a little during this week. However, reports indicate that country buyers' prices are low in relation to central and futures market prices.

Prices for near month futures tended to edge upward this week whereas the more distant months registered rather sharp advances.

Spot cotton markets remained moderately active this week. Offerings by farmers decreased somewhat and reports indicate that cotton continues to move into the loam in substantial volume. Mill buying decreased in the central and southwestern sections of the belt but increased a little in the Southeast. Export sales were in relatively small volume. Reported sales in the 10 spot markets totaled 169,000 bales for the week. This was the smallest weekly volume since the third week of September, and compares with 242,500 bales last week and 342,100 in the corresponding week a year ago. Trading was fairly active in the cotton gray cloth market. Sales for first quarter delivery were reported in the print cloth and sheeting sections of the market. Prices for drills and twills were weak.

A 1948 cotton crop of 15,166,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight is forecast by the Crop Reporting Board based on information as of November 1. This indicated production is 28 per cent or nearly 3,300,000 bales larger than the 1947 crop of 11,867,000 bales and about 3,200,000 larger than the 10-year (1937-46) average production. The 1948 indicated average yield per acre of 312.1 pounds, a record high, compares with 267.3 pounds for 1947 and the 10-year (1937-46) average of 254.2 pounds. The board reported that this season's yields were at record high levels in Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas and Louisiana, California and Oklahoma are the only states in which the indicated yield per acre is less than average.

Cotton, ginned through October 31, 1948, totaled 10,433,934 bales compared with 8,368,643 bales to the same date last year, according to the Bureau of the Census. This volume is equivalent to 73 per cent of the indicated production.

Anti-Freeze for Cars Scarce After First Cold Period

Service station operators in the Snyder area were advising late customers this week to settle for alcohol and other semi-permanent types of anti-freeze for their automobiles in the face of scarcity of permanent anti-freeze and the setting in of cold weather.

Two freezes of last week reminded car owners that Old Man Winter is coming for a permanent stay soon.

Many stations had been out of the permanent anti-freeze for the last 60 days, and the availability of standard grades of alcohol was the only bright spot on the horizon. A few stations had limited quantities of semi-permanent anti-freeze.

Snyder area motorists are being urged to be cautious about purchasing unfamiliar brands of anti-freeze because of the substitute mixtures on the market which contain a corroding salt base. The mixtures, sold in defiance of a U. S. government ban, will erode the cooling systems of automobiles, eating out the copper gaskets and head gaskets. The first sign that such anti-freeze has been put in a car is the turning black of the water in the radiator, garagemen advised.

Onice Holdren of Ira Serves with U. S. Air Force Unit in Japan

Corporal Onice Holdren, son of Mrs. Eula Holdren of Ira, recently arrived in Japan and has been assigned to Tachikawa Air Force Base, according to a release to The Times from the base. Situated 13 miles west of Tokyo, on the main Japanese home island of Honshu, Tachikawa is one of the many bases of the Fifth Air Force, the occupational air force for Japan and Korea.

First entering the service in November, 1940, at the Texas National Guard, Corporal Holdren served overseas in the European Theater of Operations from May, 1943, to September, 1945, and in Alaska from October, 1947, to March, 1948.

A graduate of Ira High School, Corporal Holdren received his diploma from that institution in May, 1935, and later was employed by the Jordan Drilling Company of Snyder.

Turn About's Fair Play. "Daughter," said the mother "didn't I tell you not to let strange men come to your apartment? You know things like that worry me." "Don't be ridiculous, mother!" laughed the girl. "I went to his apartment this time. Now, let his mother worry!"

Basketball Prospects At Hermleigh Good

Prospects for a good basketball season at Hermleigh High School are bright, Coach Howard Swann reported this week, although practice will not be started in earnest at the southeast Scurry County school until about December 15. The District 9-B team will be busy with post-season football matches for several more days.

Included in the basketball league for the Hermleigh area will be teams from Hobbs, Ira, Westbrook, Hermleigh, Highland, McCaulley and Sylvester. The schedule of games has not been worked out.

Class B teams from Loraine and Roby, ordinarily falling into the league, have been invited to participate in Class A basketball with Snyder and other teams of the section.

Sterling Taylor received an award for having written the highest number of Blue Cross insurance policies in the state for a county representative.

C. N. von Roeder received honorable mention as the one having written the largest number of memberships during the state membership drive last month. He secured 114 memberships.

C. H. DeVaney of Coahoma was elected as a member of the state board of directors from District 6, of which Scurry County is a part. Von Roeder was elected as an alternate member of the board.

Dallas was selected as next meeting place for the 1949 convention, dates for which will be November 21, 22 and 23.

A major problem facing Texas

Paying for the Proof. One over-enthusiastic fisherman was hauled into court, charged with catching 18 more black bass than the law allows.

"Guilty or not guilty?" asked the judge.

"Guilty," the young man admitted.

"Ten dollars and costs," announced the judge.

The defendant paid the fine, then asked cheerfully:

"And now, Your Honor, may I have several typewritten copies of the court record made to take back and show my friends?"

Tigers Drop Last Game of Season To Roscoe 14 to 0

After holding the lead for the first half of the annual homecoming football game with the Roscoe High School Plowboys, the Snyder Tigers last Thursday afternoon lost the classic to a superior squad to the tune of 14 to 0.

Coach Tommy Beene's crew was playing inspired football during the entire first half. After marching the ball to the Roscoe 46-yard spot, Willie Martin passed to Glenn (Shack) Holmes, who galloped to the Roscoe six. Billy Sims took over after the long pass and barreled through the Roscoe line to score from the six-yard marker. The extra point was no good.

Snyder's kick-off to Roscoe after the initial score was taken and there was a downfield drive that was climaxed by J. B. Culp's plumbe over the double stripe inside the Snyder 10. Culp added the extra point to make all seven of the points for his team, and Roscoe led 7 to 6 in the third period.

Roscoe's final tally was in the last two minutes of play when the Plowboys' devastating back, J. B. Culp, slashed through tackle for the second score. J. C. Chapman added the extra point.

Culp, Chapman and Jimmy Morris looked good for the Plowboys in the backfield. Chapman was good on defense against the Tigers' attacks.

Thursday's game was the last on the football slate for the two teams for the season.

Employees Urged to Give Social Security Number to Employer

E. Glen McNatt, field representative of the Abilene office of the Social Security Administration, will be at the Snyder post office at 3:30 p. m. on Tuesday, November 23. The Times has been asked to announce. Persons wishing to file retirement or death claims, or having social security problems to discuss, should call as soon after 3:30 as possible.

"Going to work on a new job without showing your social security card to the employer is as big a gamble as putting money in a bank without giving your name," says Mr. McNatt. "Your wages cannot be posted to your old age and survivors insurance account, just like your money cannot be credited to your bank account. And chances are that your federal insurance account is more valuable than your bank account."

"Every three months," Mr. McNatt says, "your employer must report your wages to the Social Security Administration to be posted to your old age and survivors insurance account. He must show the number of your account on the same line with your name and the amount of wages he paid to you. The number of your social security card is the number of your insurance account. If you do not show your card to your employer, he cannot have your account number on his report. And you cannot get credit for your wages."

"You want to be certain that all of your wages are posted to your account," Mr. McNatt says, "because the retirement or survivors benefits that you and your family will collect are a percentage of the wages that have been entered into your account. The way to assure that all of your wages will be posted is to show your social security card to each employer at the time that he puts your name on his payroll."

POLITICS, WIND AND TIDE . . .

We Americans take our politics seriously. But we need to remind ourselves meantime of certain irresistible forces operating regardless of politics.

The stir from ripple to wave, occasioned by a national election, is like the wind on the surface of the sea. Beneath the surface the tide moves back and forth unmindful of surface winds.

There are certain inflexible forces at work in our national economy that no political party can for long control. One is the law of supply and demand. In short, we'd better watch prices artificially sustained. Bring your financial problems to us for our mutual consideration.

How's our railroad doing, young man?

"Is it making any money?"
 "What are they paying for fuel these days?"
 "Are you hauling much freight?"
 "Do you like your job?"

The little old lady is not a busybody—she is merely looking after one of her investments.

She has some money in the Santa Fe. Maybe it's ten, maybe it's twenty, maybe it's fifty shares of Santa Fe stock.

She is entitled to attend a stockholders' meeting. She can get on her feet and ask our board of directors questions just like the above. She can compliment those gentlemen for their management, or she can bang her umbrella on the table and tell them off.

Alone, her few shares of stock can't do a lot. Alone, she couldn't elect a president of the United States. But stockholders just like her—housewives, teachers, merchants, salesmen, laborers—can tell us how to run the Santa Fe, and they do. (Actually 29,178 Santa Fe stockholders are women, most of them holding only a small number of shares each.)

And that's the beauty of America—the voice of the people is the voice that runs things, whether it's operating a transcontinental railroad or putting a man in the White House.

Isn't it a wonderful country where so many can own so much? That's "Free Enterprise."

Santa Fe stockholders, just as those of any railroad, know that American railroads must be permitted to earn at least 6% (many other industries earn more) on their investment in order to maintain sound and progressive operations and to continue to provide shippers and passengers with the finest in rail transportation.

Little Interest in New Cotton Loan Indicated in Area

Snyder area cotton producers are showing passive interest in an emergency loan program for cotton stored on farms, which was announced last week-end by the Department of Agriculture from Washington. Most of the area's cotton is being sold at the gins.

The emergency loan provides that the Commodity Credit Corporation will make an advance of $50 a bale pending official grading of cotton offered for OCC loans.

A similar program for cotton covered by insured warehouse receipts already is in effect. The new program will be operated through the county agriculture, conservation committee offices. It is designed to protect farmers against the necessity of selling cotton below loan levels due to inability to obtain immediate classification.

The advance of $50 a bale on farm-stored cotton will be secured by chattel mortgage on the cotton. The difference between $50 a bale and the full amount of the loans at 8 1/2 per cent of parity will be paid the producer when the cotton has been classified.

They helped everyone, his neighbors, and everyone said to his brother, Be of good courage.—Isaiah 41:6.

A RUFFLE reminiscent of Gay Ninety days adds a gay air to a brand new 1948 cotton fashion. The modern young miss goes every bit as feminine this season as her grandmother was a half century ago in ruffe, frilly cottons. Though this skirt and blouse designed by Justin McCarty of Dallas in striped plaid cotton and matching broadcloth is old-fashioned, it's up to the minute, too!

State Health Officer Says Communicable Disease Need Care

In a statement on controlling communicable diseases issued by the Texas State Department of Health to people of the Snyder area, Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer, states that if every case of suspected communicable disease were seen promptly by the family physician and definitely diagnosed, thousands of susceptible persons would be protected from these disabling diseases.

"The theory that it is a good thing for children to have these catching childhood diseases and get them over with has long since been proven an error which may actually endanger a child's life," says Dr. Cox. "The longer he can avoid having these diseases, the better it is for him. Every child should be protected by immunization against all diseases where an immunity can be established."

Prompt diagnosis, isolation and good medical care give the patient the best chance for a satisfactory recovery without the serious complications that sometimes accompany even the milder forms of communicable diseases. Dr. Cox emphasized that obeying the public health laws regarding isolation and quarantine protects not only the patient, but helps to prevent the spread of the disease to other persons.

"State Department of Health," Dr. Cox said, "does everything within its power to protect the health of the people of Texas, but the cooperation of every individual in protecting his own health and that of his community will do more than anything else to successfully check the spread of communicable diseases among our people."

Couldn't Be Stumped.

The foreman had the reputation of never being at a loss for an answer, and an inspector made a bet that within 24 hours he would ask the foreman a question that would baffle him.

The foreman accompanied the inspector on his rounds, in the course of which the canteen was inspected. Pointing to a large copper of water just beginning to boil, the inspector said:

"Why does that water only boil around the edge of the copper and not in the center?" "The water runs round the edge, sir," replied the foreman. "As for the men on the first shift, they have their breakfast half an hour before the rest."

BABSON SAYS NEW YORK BLUE AFTER TRUMAN'S ELECTION WIN

New York City.—I am back again in New York City to get the pulse. New York City is no longer the business center of the United States. This has long ago moved to the "Magic Circle" including states of Illinois, Nebraska, Iowa, Texas, Oklahoma, Missouri, and Kansas. On the other hand, all the manufacturers, merchants, and bankers, no matter where located, still go to New York City to buy their goods and sell their wares.

Whatever the stock market may be doing when you read this column, let me tell you that New York feels bluer today than it has for many years. The people here believe that the Dow-Jones Industrial Averages will gradually now decline to 165 or under. This pessimism not only applies to the stock market, but to general business, agriculture, and foreign affairs. The big interests here not only expect no special favors from the second Truman administration, but they are convinced that they will actually be persecuted. They claim that the Raw Deal will take the place of the New Deal, and a business man will again be abused just because he has been industrious, thrifty and successful. So far as I have been able to hear from friends throughout the country, this change in feeling for the worse is found everywhere.

Most readers of this column little realize the powerful government "corporations," commissions, boards and other organizations which were instituted under the Roosevelt regime. In fact, these semi-official bodies combined actually have more power than Congress itself. As Mr. Roosevelt arranged that the president should have the appointing power to the membership of all these bodies, Mr. Truman now goes into office in his own right with the greatest power, opportunities and responsibilities that any administration has ever possessed.

The budget will need to be greater during the next few years, but it is entirely possible that adjustments can be made so that this could be accompanied by tax readjustments. For instance, it is possible that with some relief from the double taxation of dividends, more money would come into the treasury. If such relief comes about, it could help hold up good dividend paying stocks. There will be no reduction in the capital gains provisions; but not further excess profits taxes need be necessary unless we get into war.

Frankly, the election of last week here in the United States was much like the surprise election in England two years ago when the labor party there came into power. I doubt how long Mr. Marshall will continue as secretary of state. General Marshall is a fine man, but he has never had previous experience negotiating. He has always been in a position where he could give orders and expect to have them obeyed. There will be other important cabinet changes.

The group that I worry about under the new administration is the small business groups organized. They will have hard sledding. His hope lies both in better organization, greater efficiency and harder work. He can hold his own with big business, dictatorial labor and selfish politics only by being willing to employ expert advice and cooperative buying. This especially applies to small independent merchants.

Hermleigh Grid Team to Play in Bi-District Game

Coach Howard Swann's Hermleigh High School Cardinals will meet the winner of the Woodson-Rochester football tilt to be played Friday night at Rockester, in a bi-district game the first part of December. It was announced this week.

Hermleigh won the District 9-B championship without a single loss this season. Rochester goes into the Friday game one-half game ahead of Woodson. A tie would give the District 10-B title to Rockester. A win for Woodson would make the Woodson crew winners.

Hermleigh will go into the bi-district tilt favorites, and should they win, the Cardinals would meet the winner of the 11-B and 12-B bi-District games, which now looks like Rising Star. The regional tilt will probably be played the second week of December.

Coach Swann's team will witness the Woodson-Rochester game tomorrow night, having moved up their scheduled game with Trent to Thursday night of this week.

If Caught Us at First, Too. A little boy was laughing himself on his head. An old lady who knew him passed by. "Aren't you too young to do that? You are only six," she said. "It's all right missus," replied the boy. "I'm nine while I'm upside down!"

Hermleigh Adds Loraine Victory As Season Climax

An outstanding record for football games was climaxed Friday night by the Hermleigh High School Cardinals when they won their last District 9-B schedule with a 50 to 0 win over the Loraine Bulldogs on their home grid before a large turnout of fans.

Hermleigh won the District 9-B crown with not a single loss. Only in two games have the southeast Scurry County boys been scored on—once by Aspermont and another time by Roby.

In Friday night's tilt the Cardinals gained 416 yards from scrimmage to 23 yards for the Bulldogs. Hermleigh led in first downs 16 to 2.

Frank Roemisch scored four of the Cardinal touchdowns for the night with a 35-yard traipse as his star performance.

Quarterback Dale Stuard scored two touchdowns and tackle Roy Lewis and end Rex Robinson turned in the other markers on end-around plays.

Dub Wright in nine games has gained 1,080 yards rushing with an average of 130 yards per game.

Coach Howard Swann's boys will meet the winner of the Woodson-Rochester game for bi-district Class B honors early next month.

Hermleigh crowned its football sweetheart during the half-time of Friday night's tilt, with the Cardinal team doing double duty in helping the girls' Pep Squad form a double heart as the two captains, Dale Stuard and Billy Frank Roemisch, presented the sweetheart with a football helmet crown and traditional rose bouquet.

No Change Made In Standings As Season Is Closed

Football play was over in District 6-A (west) last week-end after nine games by all of the teams and 10 games for two members of the district. Of course, Rotan has maintained its command of both the all-season and district standings.

Last week-end's games changed the standings none from the previous week, except that Merkel gained a tie for second place with Colorado City in the league standings.

Rotan further improved its percentages by drubbing the Hamlin Pied Pipers in the Hamlin stadium by the count of 26 to 0 before an Armistice Day crowd of 1,200 fans.

The Merkel Badgers stormed to a 33 to 21 victory over the Colorado City Wolves to gain a tie with the Mitchell County lads for second place in the district standings.

Snyder's 14 to 6 loss to the Roscoe Plowboys Thursday afternoon at Snyder was no upset of the dope. The light weight Tigers put up a good battle, and led the visitors at the half 6 to 0.

Full season standings of the two teams wound up the year as follows:

Team	P	W	L	T	Pct.
Rotan	9	8	1	0	.550
Colorado City	10	5	4	1	.550
Roscoe	9	3	4	2	.445
Merkel	10	4	6	0	.400
Hamlin	9	2	6	1	.278
Snyder	9	1	8	0	.111

Standings in the District 6-A (west) conference at the close of the season stood like this:

Team	P	W	L	T	Pct.
Rotan	5	5	0	0	1.000
Colorado City	5	3	2	0	.600
Merkel	5	3	2	0	.600
Roscoe	5	2	2	1	.500
Hamlin	5	1	4	1	.300
Snyder	5	0	5	0	.000

White Magic Appalls

The university professor in the South who was much interested in a scheduled eclipse of the sun, thought to have some fun with the colored janitor, so he told him the day before the eclipse that if he would watch his hen coop the next morning about 11:00 o'clock he would see all his chickens go to roost. And, of course, it happened just that way. The darky came wondering to the professor, and asked him:

"Professor, Suh, low long ago did you-all know dem chickens wuz gwine to roost dis mawnin' at 11:00 o'clock?"

"Oh, many years ago," said the professor.

Mose scratched his head most thoughtfully.

"Man alive, dese white folks sho is smart. He knowed hit years an' years befo' dem chickens wuz even dawned."

RURAL TELEPHONES GOING UP ON REA LINES IN ROBY SECTION

Rural telephone installation is moving along at a rapid clip in the Roby area, officials of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company announced first of the week in a release to The Times.

The system is known as a "carrier" telephone system because it uses the hot wire of the REA power line for the transmission of messages. Building of a large number of telephone lines radiating from the central location at Roby is one of the first such projects in Texas, phone company officials say.

These lines are built out to the general area where they are to be used and are then tied on to the REA system. The building of these lines has caused the REA lines to be de-energized while then necessary changes were being made, according to Johnny Ammons, manager of the Midwest Electric Cooperative.

Some of the skips in service have been inconvenient but very necessary for the installation of the phones.

Southwestern Bell Telephone company crews are to move to the Rotan area as soon as the phones are installed around Roby. Improvements of the telephone service to residents of Roby are to be completed along with the installation of the rural lines. Snyder and Hamlin sections will receive their rural telephones at a later date.

The farmer owner is becoming very proud of his farm conveniences. The day is almost past when a person can object to farm life because of "lack of conveniences."

REA, telephones and butane gas have worked great changes in farm comfort, declares Ammons.

Midwest Electric Cooperative of Roby covers an area of approximately 2,500 square miles in Scurry, Kent, Borden, Stonewall, Fisher, Nolan, Jones and Garza Counties. REA lines carry the blessings of electricity to 1,835 families. The cooperative has applications for service from 950 more farm families, and it is hoped by REA officials that the power lines can be built to all of the farms wanting electricity in the near future.

Hobbs Downs Divide In Friday Tilt 33 to 7

It was a little lop-sided score by which the Hobbs High School Panthers defeated the Divide football crew Thursday night at the Hobbs field in a District 40-B tussle. The count was 33 to 7.

Boyce Lay and Curley Neves scored twice each for the Panthers and Pehrln Tutt added the last score of the game. Three of the extra point tries were good.

Divide made a touchdown in the second quarter and kicked the extra point. Hobbs scored twice in the first period, twice in the second and once in the fourth.

Two Oil Wildcats Get Permits Last Week in County

Two more Scurry County oil tests were permitted to drill last week by the oil and gas division of the Texas Railroad Commission, according to a release to The Times. Both the permits are for wildcats.

Locations for 58 tests, including 10 wildcats, were listed in 19 West Texas counties last week. There were three more wildcats and three more field starters than during the preceding week in the same number of counties, but the total still was well below the weekly average for the year.

Totals for the first 44 weeks in 1948 became 331 locations for wildcats and 2,621 in fields, a grand total of 2,952. This is a weekly average of 67.98, down from 67.3 through the preceding week.

Two wildcats were staked in Scurry County and one each in Crane, Crockett, Dawson, Ector, Glasscock, Pecos, Sutton and Terry Counties.

Hockley County led in field locations with 11, Ector gained nine, Andrews, Coke and Winkler, four each; Crockett, three; Crane, Glasscock, Howard and Pecos Counties, two each; and Cochran, Mitchell, Reeves, Runnels and Yoakum Counties, one each.

The two Scurry County permits were issued to:

Magnolia No. 1 H. G. Moore, 660 feet from the south and west lines of Section 207, Block 97, Houston & Texas Central Railway Survey. The location is two and a half miles southwest of Snyder. It is permitted for 8,000 feet with rotary equipment.

Robert W. McKissick No. 1 W. R. Ashmore, 330 feet from the south and east lines of Section 120, Block 97, H. & T.C. Survey. The 4,000-foot test will be drilled with cable tools in the Sharon Ridge field one-half mile southwest of Ira.

District Play-Off at Stamford Set Friday

Stamford will be the scene tomorrow (Friday) night of the District 6-A championship football classic between the Anson High School Tigers and the Rotan High School Yellowhammers. It was announced this week by district officials.

Anson last week-end won the eastern division of the district by trouncing the Stamford Bulldogs in a hard fought battle at Stamford. The score was 20 to 12.

Rotan had clinched its victory in the western division of the district two weeks ago, having won all five of its conference games this year.

A number of Snyder and Scurry County fans are scheduled to see the grid classic Friday night.

Love for mankind is the elevator of the human race; it demonstrates truth and reflects divine love.

More Milk Being Produced

Several more Scurry County farmers have been added to the list of milk producers that are supplying daily production to the Borden Company's plant at Lubbock. The total number of suppliers now runs to more than a score.

Use of the cow to augment the cash income of the farm is one of the primary sources as advocated for years through the cow-sow-hen plan. Old Bossy and Jerse help to fill in a gap of slack production during the winter and early spring when income from farm crops is practically nil.

Farmers of the Snyder area who who milking numbers of cows to provide the raw product for the Borden plant at Lubbock have their product picked up at their farms, trucked to the plant, and the empty milk cans returned to their places daily. Much of the processed milk is being returned right back to the county for distribution through regular retail channels.

Initial costs for producing the milk are nominal when compared to the return on the investment. The Times has been informed by several producers who have been in the business for several months. Modern electrical milkers, refrigerated cooling boxes and other facilities make the milking and care tasks a lot lighter than they used to be.

Value for Our Tax Dollar

One of the sidelights of the recent county-wide mass meeting held in the district court room to discuss road bonds as a means out of the county's middled highway predicament, it was brought out by Charles W. Smith, member of an investment firm at Plainview, that the county's financial condition is good in comparison with other counties of West Texas. Coming from a man who has been directly connected with the financial structure of the county for a number of years, through budget planning and investigation of bonded indebtedness, Smith's statement was well received.

Better organization of bond payments during recent years has put the county in better standing, and with good tax payments for a few years, the bonded debt should be cut regularly and consistently.

Some of the county's courthouse and jail bonds were permitted to go by the board for one reason or another for several years, but definite payments are now mapped for the future.

The county's tax rate is nominal when laid alongside the rates of other area counties. The taxpayers are getting their money's worth with the exercise of good business principles by the Commissioners Court.

Simple Language Needed

The social workers of the nation held a conference in New Jersey recently, at which over 8,000 persons heard speakers stress the need to secure "much greater understanding" on the part of the average citizen for the needs that exist in health and welfare circles.

Ralph H. Blanchard, executive director of the Community Chests and Councils of America, gave the workers some good advice, urging that they express themselves simply and avoid the use of professional "jargon."

Purpose of this article is to call attention to the idea, repeatedly stressed during the conference, that speakers avoid the use of lengthy, involved sentences and the tossing around of technical words. It is applicable to any person who attempts to explain anything to anybody. Certainly, those who expect to influence public opinion must speak the language of those to whom they address their remarks.

We call attention to these opinions because occasionally one runs across an individual who seeks to impress an audience by the use of peculiar phrases, technical terms and mysterious references to something or other in terms which nobody understands. While the speaker or writer may fool a few people, he or she does not accomplish much in persuading other people to accept the conclusions or support the cause espoused.

Alliance Will Come Soon

Within the very near future, this country will start serious work on preparing the draft of a military alliance with a group of foreign nations. That would have happened before had this not been an election year. As it was, the State Department and the other agencies involved thought it best to postpone it until after the election, in order to keep it above and beyond partisan political considerations.

It is a remarkable thing that such a proposal should be seriously made in a country which, until recently, had religiously followed Washington's admonition against entangling alliances. It is a still more remarkable thing that some kind of a military alliance has every chance of being improved—that, indeed, the odds are overwhelmingly in its favor. There is no better illustration of the fact that the world has shrunk tremendously, looking at it from the military and foreign relations points of view, and that America's ocean-made geographical remoteness from Europe is no longer considered to be a guarantee of territorial security.

If and when the alliance comes into being, it will be the result of the Soviet Union's post-war attitude—and, more particularly, the obvious intent of that power to dominate all of Europe and destroy every possible vestige of Western democratic influences. Had Russia even gone through the motions of cooperating with the Western nations in implementing the peace, and had she shown even a modicum of restraint in her dealings with the little nations that border on her boundaries, it is doubtful if the American Congress and the American people would have approved anything resembling an effective foreign alliance. However, that is water under the bridge and the world being what it is, we are taking more and more of the spotlight on the international stage.

According to John M. Hightower, an Associated Press foreign editor, "State Department officials . . . plan to consult leaders of Congress and the major political parties to find what they will support in the final drafting of a proposed treaty to create a North Atlantic mutual defense system." The countries involved, besides the United States, are Canada, Britain, France, Belgium, Luxembourg and the Netherlands. Primarily talks have already been held between the ambassadors of these nations and Under-Secretary of State Lovett, who has been doing a great deal of quiet but important spade work for the future while his chief, General Marshall, has been occupied with critical current problems.

This is indicative of the progress the West is making in cementing its strength against possible aggression. It is reasonable to assume that such an alliance would be followed by outright military aid on a large scale to the countries of Europe which join. All of them are militarily weak, to varying degrees, and they want planes, tanks, ammunition and so on. And, in the view of many, an alliance on paper would not mean much unless it were solidly backed up by material power.

There is still another point that deserves wide mention—the courage that small European countries have shown in resisting Russia. That resistance is fairly easy for us, with our enormous military potential, and our possession of a huge country which has been free of foreign invasion. It is a very different thing for poor and devastated countries which have been fought over at almost regular intervals for centuries, and which are within easy reach of the powerful Russian bear with his innumerable divisions, his planes, his submarines and his guns. The anti-communist leaders in those countries certainly hold no illusions about what will happen to them if the communists do gain control—the example of Czechoslovakia alone is sufficient. And even the rank and file of Western sympathizers know that there would probably be an unpleasant fate in store for them, too—the communists obtain their forced labor gangs from those who oppose them. All in all, the peoples and governments of Western Europe have shown a fine degree of resolution in standing up for what they believe to be right.
