deeply praised by the Randolphs by getting there so soon and being able to save part of their house, even though they had to use one truck at a time and come to town to fill the others with water since the house is too far out of city limits to have a fire plug. ### As It Looks From Here

Omar Burleson, M. C. 17th District, Texas

For more than 20 years there has been before the United States Senate for ratification an instrument known as the Genocide Treaty.

The proposed treaty defines Genocide as "acts committed with intent to destroy, in whole or in part, a national ethnic, racial or religious group, as such".

The specified acts are already prohibited by law against an individual. It is superfluous to contend that the nature of the crime changes when committed against a group of individuals. The language of the Treaty seems to suggest that it is more evil to murder a group of people falling in this definition than it would be to murder one person of such a group.

The wording, therefore, is of dubious definition with no commonly accepted interpretation. It is no wonder that the term genocide is loosely thrown at the United States, connected with every controversy from attacks by the Black Panthers to our air raids on North Vietnam.

For more than two decades the United States Senate has refused to consider the proposed Treaty, the full name of which is "The Convention of the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide". Actually, 74 Nations have signed the Treaty since 1951 but it has never been applied to or by any of them.

The fact remains that if the United States were to ratify, those nations which dislike us, of which there are many, would be able to exploit our peculiar position as a powerful Nation in the world, subjecting us to propaganda and international pressures. As a Nation we could be charged before international tribunals and as citizens could be dragged before foreign courts without any of the guarantees in our own system of justice. The American Bar Association has been against the proposal because it realizes that the provisions of such an agreement would work contrary to the American system of law and the rights which Americans enjoy under its Constitution.

Some organizations in this Country are advising people in their publications that a ratification of the Treaty by the Senate is imminent and call for donations to fight it. It is perfectly well to fight it but there is no indication that any action is about to take place in the Senate and nothing is scheduled on it at all. Certainly, it is wise for

Former Resident Dies In Rotan

Douglas R. Brown, 50, died at 9:30 p. m. Friday, July 3, in Callan Hospital from apparent heart attack shortly after his arrival to visit relatives.

Funeral service was held from Weathersbee Funeral Home Chapel by Rev. Albert Cooper, pastor of First United Methodist Church.

Burial was in Cottonwood Cemetery. Mr. Brown was born Feb. 27, 1920 in Coleman County, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Claude Brown. He had lived in Andrews and Midland County affiliated with ranching business for the past 25 years.

Survivors include three brothers, Charles and Arthur both of Rotan and Othell of Clairmont; one sister, Mrs. J. W. Helms of Rotan.

Pallbearers were Roy Robertson, Glenn Murphy, Dale Ray Helms, Earl Kiker, J. D. Hudnall and Jesse Harden.

Here For Brown Service Sunday

Out of town friends and relatives attending funeral service of Douglas (Doc) Brown were: Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bardwell, Sweetwater; Mr. and Mrs. Buck Kelton, Brownwood; Mr. and Mrs. Elmin Howell, Mesquite; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Kelton, Andrews; Gene Irvin, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Covington, Mr. and Mrs. Vance Benton, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Cotten and Leonard, Howard McDaniel, L. P. Sledge, Buck McDaniel, Mr. and Mrs. Foy Proctor, L. T. Sledge Jr., Midland; Sandy Spitz, Andrews; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Frost Sr.; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kelton, Dallas; Earl Houston; E. E. Wallace, Aspermont; Mr. and Mrs. Billy Wallace and family, Clairmont; Paul Cumbie, Snyder; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bullion and Murry; J. A. Bud Gregory, Andrews; Gordon Cox, Bill Price, Shorty King, Duane Ratliff.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill G. Smith and Mike visited Mr. and Mrs. Worth Smith and Brad in Rotan over the July 4th holiday.

all of us as citizens to be aware that a resolution is pending for the ratification of the Treaty and oppose any consideration of it. The United States has no business, and it would in fact be dangerous to our freedom, to enter agreement whereby any United States citizen could be tried in the Country where alleged acts under the Treaty were committed and punished under the laws of that Country. In theory, a United States citizen could be convicted of a crime without definition, under rules and procedures of foreign courts and liable to punishments not yet named.

Already some of our men in Vietnam are being charged with atrocities against civilians conceivably, since no statute of limitations is involved in the Treaty, our men in Vietnam might be charged and tried at some future date for acts taken in the lawful prosecution of the war against the communists.

One of the obligations which parties to the Treaty assume is to pass legislation outlawing and punishing the crime of genocide. Should the Congress decline, it is supposed that any one of the 74 Nations could charge us as a Nation before the International Court of Justice. In such instance, our whole legislative process could come under the definition of international affairs. It is unthinkable for the United States to submit its sovereignty, or any part of its legal system, to the judgment of any other nation or group of nations.

Those who agree with this position may wish to write our Senators. A direct contact is more effective than having some self-appointed agent doing it for us. Vigilance continues to be the price of liberty.

Miller Reunion At B'wood

Edwin Dyer, president elect; W. D. Townsley, president, Miller Family Association, 1968-1970.

Senior Members: Mrs. Ella Vaughn of Lubbock, Mrs. Cora Bostick of Rotan, Mrs. Myrtle Miller of San Saba.

Four Generations Represented: Mrs. Vestel Day, Mrs. Martin Geyer, Mrs. Travis Day, and Stephanie Day.

election of officers. Music, a family tradition with the Millers was provided by talented young pianists Mike O'Neal, Mindy Hicks, and Julie Slate. As a means of becoming better acquainted members are requested each year to bring exhibits showing hobbies and activities. These include pictures, paintings, posters or clippings, family scribbles, leather-tooled articles, copper tooling, flower arrangements, jams and jellies, and other hand made items. A drawing was held for exchange of gifts.

Officers elected for the next year were Edwin Dyer, president; Homer Miller - vice-president; Mrs. Edwin Dyer, secretary-treasurer. The outgoing president, W. D. Townsley, was presented a gift in appreciation for his efforts on behalf of the family organization for the past two years. The gift was a Wall Clock with hand tooled "face" which was made by Miss Delila Baird. The group voted to meet in Brownwood again in 1971.

On Sunday morning at 9:00 o'clock the group reassembled in the meeting room. Following a welcome by W. D. Townsley, H. L. Miller gave the invocation. The Devotional was presented by Josie Baird. Recognition was made of the oldest and youngest member present. The honors went to Mrs. Cora Bostick as senior member and to Stephanie Day as youngest. Stephanie, age one month, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Travis Day of Dublin. Mike, Mindy, and Julie again entertained the group with piano selection. The entire assembly joined in singing hymns until time for lunch at Chisholm's Restaurant.

Of special interest was a scrapbook compiled and exhibited by Josie Baird. It contains many documents such as wills, property settlements, service records and marriage bonds for several generations. It also contains a copy of "A Miller Family Tree Grows into a Forest" which was compiled and published by Miss Baird. The family history is documented for each generation back to Charles Miller and his wife, Priscilla Lucas, who came from Massachusetts to South Carolina in the early 1700s. Their son William Miller, born about 1740, served in the Revolution from South Carolina. He received land in Georgia for his service. The line of descent continues through his son Aaron Miller who moved with his family to Carroll County Georgia. William (Billy) Miller, son of Aaron Miller and his wife Penelope, married Cozanna Selman in Carroll County, in 1869 William and Cozanna (Selman) Miller came to Collin County Texas. The following year they settled in Comanche County and lived the remainder of their lives there. Cozanna Selman was the daughter of William P. Selman and his wife Drady Ann Dennis. She also was descended from a revolutionary Soldier, Jeremiah Selman of South Carolina.

Seven descendants of William Miller and Cozanna Selman are members of Nancy Harper Chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution of Sweetwater, Texas. These are Misses Josie and Delila Baird, Mrs. A. A. Bostick of Rotan; Mrs. J. D. Ivey, Hale Center; Mrs. E. C. Jones, Alamogordo, N. M.; Mrs. J. E. Lincoln, Lamkin; and Mrs. T. R. Locke, Fort Worth.

The family with most members in attendance was that of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Geyer of Lamkin. To this family also went recognition as the only group with four generations present.

Attending the reunion were Mrs. Ruth Daugherty, Austin; Mr. and Mrs. Terry Geyer and Debbie, Belton; Mrs. Ida Mae Bailey, Mrs. Coyce Reed, and W. D. Townsley, Brownwood; Mindy Hicks, Canyon; Mr. and Mrs. Vestel Day and Carolyn, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Geyer, Randy and Tami Lou, Comanche; W. M. Miller, Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Miller, Driscoll; Mr. and Mrs. Travis Day and Stephanie, Dublin; Mrs. Lola Kinsey, Fisk; W. M. Day, Army Engineer stationed at Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Tas Renfro, Goldthwaite; Evan Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Geyer, Grand Prairie; Mr. and Mrs. Gene O'Neal, Mike and Mellissa, Grandbury; Mrs. Elmo Caudle, Mrs. J. When Should We Decide About Religion?

Some things are absolutely essential to manhood. One of them is knowing how to tie a necktie.

Obviously any ability must be acquired before there are regular demands for its use. That's why someone else decided that we must learn to tie our own tie.

All religious education is built on the same principle. Faith and moral understanding must be gained before doubt and temptation are encountered. Our parents, our Church train us for constructive living.

Of course, there is nothing illogical in the oft-heard contention that, when a person is old enough, he can make up his own mind about religion.

That's exactly what millions of us have done!

But in almost every case our parents gave us adequate and continuing preparation for that decision. With the guidance of the Church we learned the value of faith and spiritual perception. Then we were able to make our vital decision from knowledge and experience!
